(3) Recount of Election Ballots [Board Motion #33-12-12]

When there are five (5) votes or less between candidates in the same electoral zone, the Election Commission will automatically perform a recount of election ballots. A statement to this effect will appear on the election ballot making it clear to the membership that procedure is in place.

The opting-out process should be completed by September 1st of an election year.
- (ii) The Campaign List must at all times be held in strict confidence by the candidates and any candidates requesting the Campaign List must sign a Campaign List Confidentiality form taking full responsibility for the confidentiality of the data. The Campaign List Confidentiality Agreement form is available on The Canadian Kennel Club website or may be obtained by contacting Head Office.

- (v) Candidates may only use information from the Campaign List to send voters campaign material. A candidate may provide the Campaign List to a mail house for the purpose of direct mailing voters with campaign material; however, the candidate remains responsible for ensuring that the mail house does not disclose the information for any other purpose.

- (vi) Should a voter contact a candidate and request that they no longer receive communications from candidates in respect of the election, the candidate shall honour that request and inform The Canadian Kennel Club immediately of the voter's request.
 - (vii) Should The Canadian Kennel Club inform a candidate that a voter has requested they not be contacted by candidates, notwithstanding the fact that the voters name may appear on the Campaign List, the candidate shall not contact that voter for any purpose related to their campaign and shall remove that voter from the Campaign List.
 - (viii) After the election closes on November 30th, a person who was a candidate in an election must within ten (10) business days destroy or return to The Canadian Kennel Club the Campaign List and may not use the Campaign List for any other purpose, nor supply it to any other party.  - (a) Each member of the Board is encouraged to present the concerns and opinions of the constituents in their respective zones while debating any subject at the table. However, when exercising his or her vote in the decision-making process, no Board member shall allow the interests of one group, zone or region to sway them from their fiduciary responsibilities to act, at all times, in the best interests of The Canadian Kennel Club as a whole.
 - (b) It is the legal responsibility of the Board, collectively and individually, to exercise due care and diligence in the performance of their duties as the corporate managers of The Canadian Kennel Club. To accomplish this, each Board member shall, with complete certainty, be aware of and fully understand all matters relating to the management of the corporation and shall, at all times, be comfortable that they are fully aware of all the facts prior to making any decision on any matter before the Board.
 - (c) The Board must be seen as a corporate body, managing as a whole and collectively acting in the best interests of The Canadian Kennel Club. It is therefore imperative that all Board members continually maintain a level of mutual respect in the performance of their duties, whether those duties being performed are at the table, in their respective zones or in communication with the membership of The Canadian Kennel Club or the general public.

- (e) No Board members shall have the authority to take any action, make any decision or express any opinion on behalf of the Board without first having gained the approval of the Board as a whole, or, at the very least, without first having comfort in the knowledge that the opinion being expressed is that of a majority of the Board.

(2) Conflict of Interest

- (c) It should be understood that matters such as those relating to human resources, the content of employment agreements, the negotiation of contractual agreements and the discussion of current litigations before the courts, are all considered to be matters which are confidential.
- (d) From time to time, certain members of the Board may be designated by the Board, to act on the Board's behalf and to discuss certain confidential matters with legal counsel, the Executive Director or outside consultants. - (h) In the event that an alleged problem, infraction or violation is brought to the attention of a Board member while that Board member is attending a show, trial or event, in an official capacity or otherwise, the Board member should advise the complainant that it would be inappropriate for him or her to address the matter and that the individual should address their complaint directly to the appropriate show official.
- (i) In the event that an alleged problem, infraction or violation is witnessed by a Board member while attending a show, trial or event, in an official capacity or otherwise, the Board member may, at his option, file a written report with the Regulatory Division within ten (10) days giving a full account of what the Board member witnessed, the names of the individual(s) involved, to whom it was reported and any action that was subsequently taken by the show officials. The report should not contain any personal editorials, comments or opinions. It should be understood that in such cases the report may become part of the official record of any resulting disciplinary action and the Board member's attendance may be required at a hearing to provide evidence.

- (j) Notwithstanding the conditions noted above, any Board member, having attended a show, trial or event, whether it be in the official capacity as a Board member or otherwise, has the right after the fact, to file a report with respect to any matter which they may have witnessed at any show, trial or event, which they may deem to have been inappropriate or in contravention of The By-laws, rules, regulations policies and procedures of The Canadian Kennel Club.
