DON'T MISS CONFORMATION JUDGING SEMINARS IN ONTARIO AND B.C. THIS AUTUMN

The Canadian Kennel Club is delighted to add three more seminars to its schedule in beautiful Barrie Ontario and spectacular Sidney B.C. this autumn.

Introduction to Conformation Judging: this one-day comprehensive seminar, which is your first step to becoming a conformation judge, is also open to new judges who are licenced for one group or less. The seminar covers topics that include a review of judges' rules, ringcraft practical, exhibitors' expectations, the observation program and much more.

Barrie Ontario - Sunday, October 23rd 2016: for more information and an application, click here.

Sidney B.C. - Friday, October 28th, 2016: for more information and an application, click here.

2016 CKC/CDLA Conference for Licenced Conformation Judges: this conference promises to be rich with information for judges, including seminars topics as diverse as weighing and measuring and the use of Social Media as a judge. The conference will also feature the CDJA AGM and a Keynote Address by Sue Vroom, esteemed AKC Field Representative and AKC Education Liaison. Registration is limited to just 60 participants so send your application to CKC soon.

Sidney B.C. - Saturday October 29th and Sunday October 30th 2016: for more conference information and an application, click here.

CKC AND SUBARU CANADA, INC. CONGRATULATE SUBARU AGILITY TEAM CANADA ON A SUPERB PERFORMANCE AT AGILITY EUROPEAN OPEN 2016

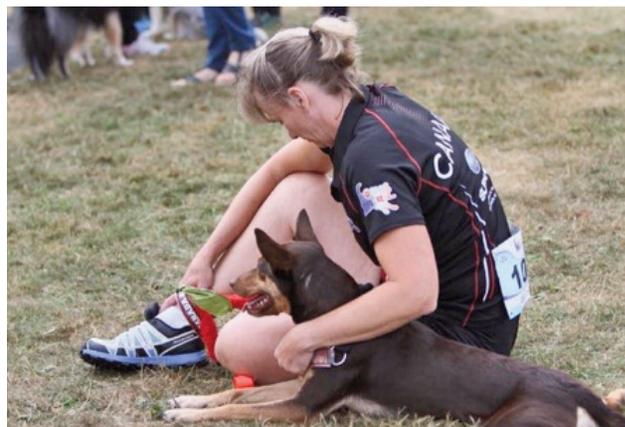

Subaru Agility Team Canada (SATC) represented Canada at the Agility European Open (EO) 2016, showcasing their great skill and speed. SATC competed in both the team and individual events and performed well despite fierce competition and extremely fast and technically difficult courses. The EO is one of the most significant agility competitions in the world, attracting 800 human/dog teams from 35 countries all striving for excellence in their events.

For the first time since Canada has been represented at EO, SATC qualified for the finals in the team competition. Wifi/Theresa Rector, Summit/Justine Davenport, Pixie/Julie Lizotte and Swagger/Susan Garrett ranked sixth overall heading into the finals and after finals were ninth out of 104 teams.

"Everyone at CKC was thrilled by the tremendous showing from the team at EO this year," said Lance Novak, CKC Executive Director. "We are so pleased to work with Subaru in support of this level of excellence!"

In the individual events, SATC's Wifi/Theresa Rector and Summit/Justine Davenport did so well in the large dog category, they qualified straight to the finals. They were both in the top 30 out of 400 human/dog teams heading into the finals. Alex Beitel from Germany judged the finals in this event and challenged competitors with a very difficult course. Although Canada's teams didn't place in the finals, they gained valuable experience and look forward to applying it to their next competition.

In the small dog category, Jazz/Ann Carrington finished fourteenth and in the medium dog category Jazz/Meghan Turton competed for their very first time at the EO, showing calm confidence and focus throughout the event.

"Congratulations to all who competed and achieved such impressive results at EO this year," said Joe Felstein, Subaru's Director of Marketing. "Subaru Canada is proud to support the team and be part of their success."

The atmosphere at this year's EO was warm and supportive. Thank you to Team Leader, Linda Barton and Coach, Dante Camacho, for preparing and helping Subaru Agility Team Canada realize their achievements at EO this year.

The Team owes a very special thank you to Subaru Canada, Inc. for their incredibly generous support. Together, Subaru Canada and Subaru Agility Team Canada are transcending the limits of what this team can achieve.

Please join the Canadian Kennel Club and Subaru Canada in congratulating Subaru Agility Team Canada on their tremendous accomplishments at EO 2016!

THE CKC CONGRATULATES OUR TALENTED JUNIOR HANDLING NATIONAL FINALISTS

Canada's largest dog show, the Alberta Kennel Club's Summer Classic, welcomed Canada's top young handlers to compete in the Canadian Kennel Club's Junior Handling Nationals, held at the beautiful, world-renowned Spruce Meadows facilities on Friday, July 29, 2016.

There was stiff competition in the conformation finals with participants travelling from each CKC zone to participate. The Best Overall Junior was Katie McGinn of Elmsdale, NS. This was Katie's third time representing her zone. A juniors competitor since the age of seven, Katie has honed her skills under the tutelage of Allison Foley for the last six years. Katie will be attending university in the fall, but will take a break to represent Canada at Crufts 2017. We wish Katie the best of luck.

NOTICE BOARD

While fewer in numbers, the quality and dedication of the obedience juniors was equally inspiring. The Best Overall Junior was Rachel Driedger of Powell River, BC. Rachel began obedience training with a Sheltie, but competed with her newest charge, a Belgian Shepherd Tucker. When not in the ring, Tucker and Rachel hike, go to the beach and do “calculus homework together.” Now that’s training!

The CKC’s Chairman of the Board, Bob Rowbotham, was in Calgary for the event and was impressed with the overall quality of our young dog fanciers. He congratulated one and all, and expressed that “all the junior representatives did their zones proud and we wish them well in the future.”

It takes a nation to host a National, and this year’s event was no exception. Under the guidance of Richard Paquette, Chair of the CKC Junior Kennel Club, and Jan Williamson Osterbauer, Junior National Chair, sincere thanks goes out to the Junior Handling zone reps who work tirelessly all year, encouraging the next generation – the future of our sport.

Judges and sponsors are also a crucial part of any successful event. Thank you to our conformation judges Helen Davio, Doug McIntyre, Chrissy Riehl and Shannon Scheer, and obedience judges Tubby Miller, and Garry and Pauline Baldwin.

Many thanks to our sponsors: the Global Pet Foods stores in Calgary for teaming up to help fund the conformation winner’s trip to Crufts; the TD Bank Group for providing money towards the obedience winner’s bursary; Canadian Dog Show Fancier (Shawn and Nadine) for designing, printing and shipping the program; Dogshow.ca for the jackets each Junior received; Ditto Communications and Cathy French Photography for providing pro-bono professional services to help make the event special for each participant; and Purina, Wahl and Hanlder’s Choice for supplying prizes for the participants.

In her welcome message, AKC President, Wendy Hamilton-Petkau, stated that “Our theme this year is all about sportmanship.” For the first time ever, there was a three-way tie for the Wenrick Sportsmanship Award – including an obedience competitor! Congratulations to Thomas Adams, Caroline Holicka and Jessie Powell for sharing this honour.

Lastly, and certainly not least, thank you to the Alberta Kennel Club for hosting this year’s Junior Nationals and for its continued dedication to hosting one of Canada’s premiere conformation and performance events.

Congratulations to the 2016 National Junior Handling Final winners. The CKC and its members are proud of your accomplishments.

CANADIAN KENNEL CLUB MISSION STATEMENT

Who We Are

The Canadian Kennel Club is a national, member-based, non-profit organization, incorporated under the Animal Pedigree Act of Canada. It provides registry services for all officially recognized breeds of purebred dogs and provides governance for all CKC approved shows, trials and events. Finally, the CKC is a communication organization informing all people interested in dogs.

Mission

The Canadian Kennel Club will service its membership and the community at large by giving support, understanding, help and guidance in all their canine-related endeavors. CKC will work so that members will be proud of their affiliation. The Club will recognize, promote, and publicize the actions of responsible breeders and owners.

Vision

The Canadian Kennel Club, with its members, will be a dynamic service organization, a recognized authority for purebred dogs, and an advocate for all dogs.

Values

The Canadian Kennel Club will embrace integrity, openness, honesty and compassion in its dealings with all of its members and customers.
