JUDGES

KATHY MINER, Calgary, AB

Kathy Miner is originally from Western Montana and moved to Canada in 1981 and became a dual citizen. Passionate about Golden Retrievers she is an accomplished amateur trainer, handler and breeder. Since 1983 she has trained Golden Retrievers in many performance venues; hunt tests, field trials, agility, obedience, and tracking. Kathy has placed Master, Senior and Junior Hunt Titles on many of her dogs. In addition to hunt tests, Kathy has experience in the pet therapy program and conformation ring. Kathy currently owns three Master Hunter dogs, Edge, Siren and Krash, all with multiple performance titles, and Iszie, a two-year-old that is beginning her journey. Kathy spends time between Comox, BC, Swamp Dog Farm, a retriever training property which she co-owns, and Calgary. In her spare time (ha) she enjoys cycling, gardening, upland hunting, travelling and good wine.

SHELLY CAMPBELL, Saskatoon, SK

Sixteen years ago, Mark and I welcomed a NSDT Retriever into our family. We had researched breeds to find the right fit for an outdoorsy lifestyle at our cabin and decided a Toller would be a great addition. Well, the Toller puppy excelled in his puppy class and we were encouraged to try Competitive Obedience and shortly after added another Toller to the family. Mark and I competed in competitive obedience together for five years and were then convinced to enter our dogs in the conformation ring. After obtaining Championships, the versatility bug bit us and we decided to dip our toes into retriever work. We got more than our toes wet! We now hunt over our Tollers, mostly ducks and grouse while continuing to compete in WC and Hunt Tests, as well as training our dogs to upper levels of Obedience (a recent MOTCh with Ribbon), Rally, Conformation and even a wee bit of Barn Hunt. Four of our Tollers have received the Dobirstein Award for their Versatility.

Sadly, Sully's Hunt Test and hunting career was cut short this spring due to cancer, but I was thrilled to have Qualified with him at the Master Hunt level, last summer. Plans for this summer were drastically changed for me, but I will be happy to learn as much as possible with commitments previously made to judge Master Hunt Tests. I am honoured to have been considered as a replacement judge for our NSDTR National Specialty Working Certificate Tests. I believe I needed a push towards making the trek to our fifth consecutive NSDTRCC National Specialty sponsored in the west. Special thank you to Angela Borthwick for the push. I am looking forward to a great day judging with Kathy Miner, who I have met on many occasions over the past few years!
