CHAIR'S LETTER

As I reflect on the past year, I am amazed at the resilience and determination of our organization. Our members are the most passionate and devoted people that I have ever had the pleasure of working with. From the small club operating from a kitchen table to the largest canine events organization in Canada, CKC members are there planning, working, and celebrating their successes. This shared dedication to purebred dogs and promoting responsible dog ownership continues to move our club forward.

I want to thank the members for their trust in me as your Chair of the Board. It has been an ultimate pleasure to represent you. In 2025, we began a search for a new Executive Director for our organization as we said farewell and happy retirement to Jeff Cornett. I am so very pleased with the result of our search resulting in the hiring of Natalie Tarini. Natalie's leadership and vision are already shaping the future of our club. Her energy, experience, and member-focused approach will continue to have a positive impact. The combination of dedicated staff, and many volunteers sitting on committees and councils is what enables the CKC to offer quality events over many different disciplines.

Behind the scenes exciting things are coming because of the committed efforts of staff and committee members. We were pleased to launch the first in a series of educational initiatives with the Ring Steward Education program. This initiative is the beginning of a broader commitment to expand quality learning opportunities for our members. As a judge and a show organizer I cannot overemphasize the importance of volunteer participation such as ring stewards. A good ring steward can make a judging assignment pleasant and rewarding. This and other initiatives will help elevate the member experience. For example, we are moving to improve your access to digital services and elevate the exhibitor experience with online recording of results and data transfers that will result in faster results and access to more events. Throughout this process, we have listened closely to your feedback and are designing programs that reflect your needs.

It was an absolute pleasure to see the return of the CKC National Championship Dog show hosted by the Aurora & District Kennel Club in partnership with Royal Canin and Canadian Pet Expo. It was a spectacular event with entries coming from across Canada. I was thrilled to play a small part of this successful event which brought the public the best that Canada has to offer. Being a Cruft's Qualifying event added to the prestige of this event.

In 2025 we were busy on the advocacy front. CKC was involved in speaking directly to various levels of government across our great country. From actively engaging with the Ministry of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food (MAPAQ) in Quebec to support in the development of its Animal & Welfare Strategy to participating in consultations on the Provincial Animal Welfare Services Act, 2019 (PAWS) Act in Ontario. We were always representing our membership and promoting the importance of regulations that support responsible breeding. In Manitoba, we met with the Minister of Agriculture to discuss approaches for responsible pet ownership and identification. CKC continued to strengthen stakeholder relationships throughout the year. We participated in the Humane Canada conference, the International Partnership for Dogs' Global Health Forum and made presentations at two of Canada's veterinary colleges. All these efforts are essential to ensure that we are the go-to, trusted voice when questions regarding animal health and welfare issues are being discussed.

We are a diverse group, but in that diversity, we have strength. I am confident that we will face the challenges of the future with open eyes, honest dialogue, and collaboration and education. We, as a collective organization, can stand together in our shared passion and support CKC's position as the leading authority for all things canine.

Thank you all for the commitment, dedication, and trust that you have given us. I look forward to our paths crossing in the future at a show, in the field, or wherever our canine passions take us. And remember, at the end of the day, we all take the best dog home.

Chair, Board of Directors

MESSAGE FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

As I reflect on 2025, I do so with both the fresh perspective of someone who joined the Canadian Kennel Club in August and the deep appreciation that comes from stepping into an organization with such a proud legacy. Arriving partway through the year offered a unique vantage point: I was able to witness the momentum already underway, while also engaging directly with members, volunteers, staff, and partners to understand where we are headed and what our community expects from us.

What stood out most in my first months was the strength of CKC's foundation. Across the country, I met members who are deeply committed to the preservation, advancement, and responsible stewardship of purebred dogs.

I saw committees, volunteers and the Board working tirelessly to uphold standards, improve processes, and support the next generation of breeders, exhibitors, and dog enthusiasts. And I saw a staff team dedicated to modernizing our systems, strengthening governance, and delivering services that reflect the needs of today's membership.

2025 was a year of transition, but also one of meaningful progress. The organization continued to advance digital improvements, refine practices, and look at ways of strengthening our processes. We expanded our outreach, enhanced member support, and continued to build relationships with partners who share our commitment to canine health and responsible dog ownership and breeding. These achievements belong to the entire CKC community, and I am grateful to have joined at such a pivotal moment.

Looking ahead, my focus is on stability, transparency, and service excellence. Members deserve an organization that listens, responds, and evolves. They deserve clarity in process, fairness in decision making, and confidence that CKC is acting in the best interests of dogs and the people who care for them.

In 2026, we will continue strengthening our operational infrastructure, improving communication, and investing in initiatives that support breeders, clubs, and the broader canine community.

Thank you to the Board of Directors for their commitment to the CKC, to our volunteers for their dedication, and to our members for their trust. I am honoured to serve as Executive Director and look forward to building on the progress reflected in this report.

Together, we will continue to advance the mission of the Canadian Kennel Club and ensure a strong future for purebred dogs in Canada.

CKC EVENTS AND ENTRIES

The Canadian Kennel Club celebrates the vitality of the competitive dog show and event world. We administer, support and promote the work of CKC Clubs to organize and host sporting events across Canada. In 2025, CKC saw a record 4,359 events occur. From Tracking and Herding to Rally Obedience, Conformation, and many more events, thousands of passionate CKC members and their dogs showcased their skills, training and abilities.

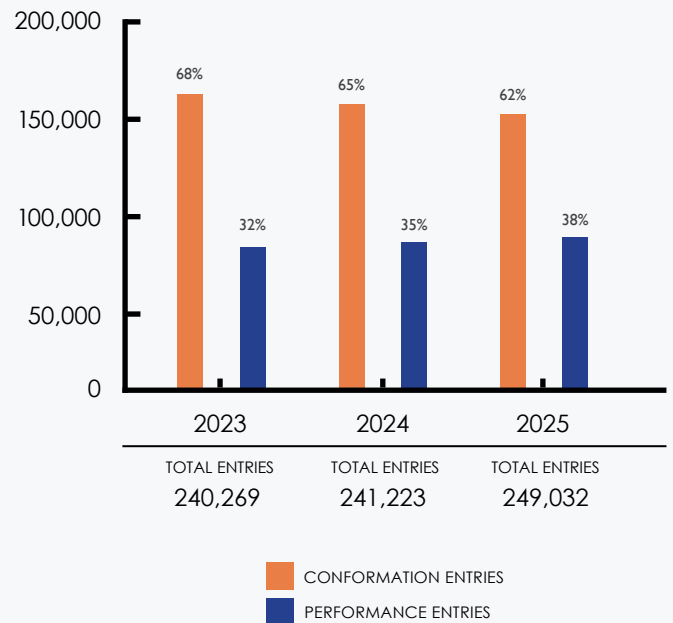

With the lows of the pandemic in the rearview mirror, CKC saw historically high event participation in 2025. There were an amazing 249,032 total entries seen across all events. Conformation shows participation remained very high, making up 62% of all event entries. With 154,740 entries, Conformation events continue to be popular among CKC members, dog lovers, exhibitors, and spectators alike.

Performance events participation saw a 10% increase with 94,292 entries in 2025. Performance entries made up 38% of total CKC event entries. It's exciting to see an increasing number of people getting involved in Performance events.

CKC DOG REGISTRATIONS

In 2025, the Canadian Kennel Club continued to see a decline in dog registration numbers that are closer to levels seen in the years before the pandemic. These trends are very similar to those seen with other Kennel Clubs such as the American Kennel Club and The Royal Kennel Club (United Kingdom).

Puppy litter registrations continued to come down from pandemic level highs of 2020. There were a total of 7,873 puppy litters registered with CKC in 2025.

Similar to puppy litters, 2025 Canadian-born dog registrations declined to 36,812 from 44,988 registrations in 2023.

Royal Canin

CKC also continued our partnership with Royal Canin, bringing even more evidence-based education and resources to our members, supporting their breeding programs, as well as the health and well-being of all CKC registered dogs.

As Royal Canin works to continue to improve and grow their online learning resource centre we collaborated with Royal Canin in 2025 on two more Ask A Vet webinars, hosted live in French and English. These webinars were added to CKC's Educational Resources on the Member Portal - hours of on-demand, recorded webinars and seminars. Thanks to partners like Royal Canin, these resources are free for CKC member breeders.

THE POWER OF JUNIOR HANDLING AND STELLA'S JOURNEY TO SHINE

When Stella turned eight, she didn't ask for a big birthday party with her classmates. She asked to go to a dog show.

There were balloons and streamers decorating the setup, and cupcakes shared ringside. Fellow Juniors sang “Happy Birthday” during competition

In between celebrating, Stella did what she loved most. “Going in the ring,” Stella says simply, when asked what she enjoys most about Junior Handling.

Stella began competing in PeeWee at six years old and finished the 2025 season in Junior Open. In just two seasons, her confidence grew dramatically, something her mother, Rianna, noticed right away. “Junior Handling has been night and day for my daughter’s confidence,” Rianna says. “First season to second season she’s a whole new kid. Her personality has bloomed and her confidence has grown so much.”

The ring didn’t always feel easy. Stella remembers her first time clearly. “The first time was really scary and I cried,” says Stella. Now, the nerves remain, but they feel different. “Now it’s still scary to go in the ring, but it’s like an exciting scary. I’m excited all day for my turn, but I still get nervous.”

According to Rianna, the support of the dog show community played a major role in Stella’s growth. “The conformation community as a whole wants to see the kids succeed. In every situation, adults are ready to step up on behalf of the kids. Offering dogs, making them aware of ring times, offering encouragement. I’m not sure if other exhibitors know how much those tiny interactions mean to the kids.”

She recalls a show in the Maritimes that became a turning point. “At that show, adults sought her out to tell her how gorgeous her dress was. Another Junior brought her a glittery bag with grooming tools, a little apron, bubbles and candy. When we went ringside someone started playing Dolly Parton’s 9 to 5, Stella’s favourite song, so by the time she went into the ring she was grinning ear to ear and strutting like a queen.”

Since then, Stella has handled Miniature Poodles, German Wirehaired Pointers, and Golden Retrievers, and is now aiming for her next goal. “I got a Reserve, but I don’t have that giant one yet,” she says. “So, I’m going to try to get one of those this year.” Stella’s experience reflected what the Canadian Kennel Club’s Junior Handling program offered junior handlers across Canada: mentorship, friendship, and the opportunity to build confidence in and out of the ring.

2025 NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP DOG SHOW

The 2025 CKC National Championship Dog Show marked the return of this event for the first time in over a decade, bringing together exhibitors, breeders, and dog lovers from across the country for an exciting weekend of competition at the International Centre in Mississauga, Ontario.

The event celebrated the dedication and passion that define Canada's purebred dog community, with memorable moments unfolding across every ring.

The final lineup showcased exceptional dogs representing the highest level of quality and preparation. Prince the Pekingese earned the coveted Best in Show honour, while Rambo the Miniature American Shepherd was awarded Reserve Best in Show. Prince, bred and owned by Cynthia Dyson in partnership with Denise Cortelli and handled by Dyson, impressed the judge with his breed type, sound movement, and distinctive Pekingese characteristics. Rambo, bred by Ginger M. Fleguel, owned by Kelli Rettie, and handled by Cody Longworth, was praised for his condition, movement, and showmanship.

Best in Show judge Mike Macbeth noted the exceptional calibre of the finalists, explaining that both dogs stood out in an already remarkable group. She highlighted Rambo's correct coat, elegant movement, and confident presentation, while describing Prince as a spectacular representative of the Pekingese breed, combining correct structure with the breed's signature movement and expression.

The show also featured standout moments in Junior Handling, where Amelia Clark was named Best Junior Handler in Show with her Scottish Deerhound. Across the weekend, seasoned champions, rising newcomers, and dedicated breeders demonstrated the skill and commitment behind every dog presented.

The 2025 National Show carried additional significance as it marked Mike Macbeth's final judging assignment. A respected international judge who officiated in more than 30 countries, Macbeth concluded her distinguished career by awarding Best in Show at Canada's premier dog show. The Canadian Kennel Club extends sincere thanks to the Aurora and District Kennel Club, Canadian Pet Expo, and Royal Canin for their support in making the 2025 National Show a memorable success.

CKC ADVOCACY

CKC remains committed to advocating for our members and promoting canine health and well-being. Throughout 2025, with the support of our Board of Directors, Advocacy Committee and members, we represented and advocated for our members' interests in consultations with government and other stakeholders on issues impacting purebred dogs.

In January, we participated in a public consultation regarding Ontario's Provincial Animal Welfare Services Act, 2019 (PAWS Act). We expressed that while CKC supports measures that address unethical producers of dogs, "onesize-fits-all" regulations will negatively impact accountable CKC member breeders. Later in the year, we provided input to the Auditor of the Solicitor General's Office regarding potential risks and opportunities for improvement within the Animal Welfare Services Program.

In Manitoba, we consulted with Manitoba Veterinary Medical Association (MVMA) ahead of their vote on tail docking, providing input and research in support of veterinarians' continued ability to perform this procedure. Throughout the year, we remained engaged with Manitoba's Minister of Agriculture and Winnipeg Humane Society to explore opportunities to support the government with canine-related initiatives and consult on future changes to legislation.

In Québec, we met with Ministry of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food (MAPAQ) to share our members' feedback on the regulations regarding the welfare and safety of domestic companion animals and equines, implemented in February 2024. We also met with the Fédération Québécoise des Municipalités (FQM) and Union des Municipalités du Québec (UMQ) to discuss the benefits of permanent identification and traceability for companion animals. To further strengthen relations with government and veterinary stakeholders, we participated in MAPAQ's Annual Partners' Meeting in May and joined the ministry's working group and sub-group supporting Quebec's Animal Health and Welfare Strategy.

CKC continued to monitor developments related to the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) dog importation rule and remained engaged with the American Kennel Club (AKC), the Canadian Food Inspection Agency (CFIA), and other partners to ensure that our members' concerns are represented. We remain committed to advocating on behalf of our responsible members who travel with/transport their Canadian-born, CKC registered dogs, and who work across borders to improve canine health, diversify breeding programs, utilize veterinary services, and participate in sporting and goodwill events. In addition, we attended an AKC webinar on Government Relations and Breeder Awareness and, through our strong relationship with AKC Government Relations, continue to share information and collaborate on issues affecting purebred dogs on both sides of the border.

We further strengthened our relations with various stakeholders. We attended the Humane Canada conference in Montréal, which helped to foster positive ties with animal welfare groups within the country. In June, we participated in the International Partnership for Dogs' Virtual Dog Health Forum, reinforcing connections with the global dog community and supporting collaborative efforts in canine health and well-being. We also participated in meetings hosted by the International Collaborative on Extreme Conformations in Dogs (ICECDogs) that focused on legislation from various countries related to extreme conformation in dogs. We look forward to building these connections and forging new relationships in 2026.

CKC'S COMMITMENT TO CANINE HEALTH & VETERINARY EDUCATION

In 2025, CKC continued its long standing commitment to supporting the health and well being of purebred dogs through strategic investments in veterinary education and research. From empowering students to advancing scientific discovery, CKC strengthened its partnerships with Canada's veterinary colleges and concluded a meaningful chapter of research funding through the CKC Foundation.

Every year, CKC provides bursaries of $2,000 to each of Canada's veterinary colleges, offering meaningful support to deserving students as they continue their education in veterinary medicine.

This year, four exceptional students were recognized, including Alissa Flight from the Atlantic Veterinary College (AVC) at the University of Prince Edward Island, Yovela Wang from the Western College of Veterinary Medicine at the University of Saskatchewan, Nicolas Farentino from the Ontario Veterinary College at the University Of Guelph and a student from the Faculté de Médecine Vétérinaire (FMV) at the Université de Montréal.

During the University of Calgary's Giving Day, CKC's contribution to the Faculty of Veterinary Medicine (UCVM) was doubled, allowing for an even greater investment in the Companion Animal Health Fund and the future training of veterinarians. In addition to bursary support, CKC advanced educational initiatives on the health of all breeds, including brachycephalic breeds, and the importance of Respiratory Function Grading Scheme (RFGS) through presentations at AVC and FMV.

This year also marked the conclusion of the CKC Foundation (CKCF), an organization established in 2008 with a vision to advance canine well-being through research, education, and community programs. As it completed its mandate, the Foundation made a lasting contribution to the future of veterinary science by awarding three final research grants to FMV and UCVM. Through these collaborations, both universities have committed to sharing updates on their research progress with CKC, ensuring that members remain connected to emerging developments in canine health.

Together, these efforts reflect CKC's unwavering commitment to supporting veterinary education and advancing the health and well-being of all dogs.

2026 CHAIRS' AWARDS

The CKC, along with its Chair of the Board of Directors, Past-Chair, and Honorary Chair, is very pleased to recognize four exceptional CKC members for their invaluable contributions to our dogs, community, and sports. The CKC is deeply grateful and celebrates the many exceptional CKC members who were nominated for an award in 2026.

Gary Overs – CKC National Heritage Canine Performance Award 2026

Gary Overs has been involved in canine performance sports for more than 43 years, beginning in Obedience when he was just 18 years old. After taking a pet class at the Band City Kennelling and Obedience Club in Moose Jaw with a dog he adopted from the local Humane Society, his instructor encouraged him to begin competing. Shortly after, Gary purchased his first registered Golden Retriever and entered his first Obedience trial in Brandon, Manitoba, where he earned High in Trial both days.

Years later, Gary expanded into retriever field work and Hunt Tests after a fellow competitor suggested trying the sport with one of his field-bred Golden Retrievers. After passing a Working Certificate test and several Junior Hunt Tests, Gary says, “the hook was set.”

Among Gary’s most memorable accomplishments was qualifying at the 2023 National Master Hunt Test, where he and his dog earned both the National Master Hunt title and their Grand Master Hunt title. The following year, the same dog earned a GMOTCh title in Obedience while achieving top rankings nationally and within Saskatchewan.

Gary says what he enjoys most about canine performance sports is “the ability to take myself and my dog to a high level of performance, and competing as a team.” He also values “being involved with likeminded people” and believes that “every dog teaches you something new.”

Reflecting on the honour, Gary says receiving the National Heritage Canine Performance Award means a great deal because it comes from “my peers and fellow competitors.” He remains passionate about encouraging others in the sport and promoting the dog sports he loves “to ensure they continue for future participants.”

Gary credits much of his success to the support of his wife Shelley, his mentors Daryl Herchuk and James McGarry, and the Saskatoon Retriever Club community.

Congratulations, Gary, and thank you for your longstanding dedication to canine performance sports in Canada. The Canadian Kennel Club is proud to recognize your contributions to the sport and the positive impact you have had on fellow competitors, exhibitors, and future generations of participants.

James Deptuch – CKC National Obedience Award

James Deptuch's journey in purebred dogs began more than 50 years ago when he and his late wife, Doris, purchased a boarding kennel in British Columbia's Cowichan Valley. What started with a rescued Afghan Hound quickly grew into a lifelong passion for purebred dogs, breeding, and competition.

While Doris became heavily involved in conformation, James discovered his passion in obedience competition with the family's Poodles. Through the Canadian Kennel Club and the Tyee Kennel Club, he spent more than 30 years helping teach obedience classes and building lifelong friendships within the sport.

James's achievements in dogs span generations. One of his proudest memories was piloting a Poodle named Briquette to become the #1 Non-Sporting Dog and one of the Top Ten Obedience Dogs in Canada during the 1980s. More recently, at the age of 87, he guided his Poodle Am Can Ch Diplomat Swiftwind Ebony to two All-Breed Best in Show wins, while also earning a Grand Champion Excellent title and winning her class at the Poodle Club of America.

Today, at 91 years old, James continues to compete with the same enthusiasm that first drew him into obedience decades ago. Alongside his Standard Poodle, "Ruckus," GChS GChEx Diplomat Lakeridge It's Only Money RN RA RE RM CD SDN CA VA VE VB, he earned both Rally Master and Companion Dog titles in 2025, accomplishments he describes as especially meaningful at this stage in his life.

"Continuing to train, compete, and achieve new goals together at this stage of my life has been both exciting and deeply meaningful," said James.

For James, the greatest reward of obedience competition has always been the camaraderie among competitors and the shared encouragement that exists within the sport. "There is a wonderful sense of community in obedience, where everyone wants to see both dogs and handlers succeed," he shared.

Even after decades of involvement, James continues to travel to shows with family and work toward new titles with Ruckus by his side.

The Canadian Kennel Club proudly congratulates James Deptuch on being named the 2026 National Obedience Competitor of the Year and thanks him for his decades of dedication, sportsmanship, and passion for purebred dogs and the sport of obedience.

Lynne Bruce – CKC National Breeder of the Year

For more than 50 years, Lynne Bruce has dedicated her life to preserving, promoting, and responsibly breeding the Scottish Deerhound. Now recognized as the Canadian Kennel Club's Breeder of the Year, Lynne's lifelong commitment to the breed has left a lasting impact on the purebred dog community.

Born in Glasgow, Scotland, Lynne grew up surrounded by dogs and came from generations of passionate dog people. Her grandfather kept working dogs and hunting lurchers, while her uncle was one of the top Greyhound trainers in the United Kingdom. Lynne also spent time helping her father train working dogs, experiences that shaped her future in purebred dogs. Although she admired many breeds, it was the Scottish Deerhound that truly captured her heart.

"The deerhound had the ideal temperament for me, and I have owned and loved every one of them for over 50 years," Lynne shared.

After emigrating to Canada, Lynne established her Hollyrood kennel and has since bred 20 generations of Deerhounds while remaining deeply committed to preserving the breed's structure, temperament, and working ability.

"Breeding these dogs has been my life's achievement," she said. "The deerhound is on the endangered list, and my main hope is that this award will shine a light on what a truly magnificent and ancient breed this is."

Throughout her journey, Lynne has celebrated numerous accomplishments in conformation and lure coursing, including multiple Best in Show wins and memorable moments with her celebrated Deerhound "Polly," who earned Group Second at the Westminster Kennel Club Dog Show.

Lynne credits much of her success to the support of respected mentors, fellow breeders, and longtime partner Heidi Gervais, who became an important part of the Hollyrood kennel program.

Passionate about mentorship and ethical breeding, Lynne believes responsible breeders must prioritize health testing, lifelong support for their dogs, and preserving breed standards for future generations.

The Canadian Kennel Club proudly congratulates Lynne Bruce on being named the 2026 Breeder of the Year.

Christina Koffman-Heard – CKC Thomas Curley Memorial Sportsmanship Award

Christina Koffman-Heard's lifelong passion for purebred dogs began with a simple goal: giving back through St. John Ambulance Pet Therapy visits. What started as a family activity soon grew into a decades-long journey in the sport of dogs, leading to breeding, exhibiting, and campaigning dogs at CKC events across Canada.

Now, Christina is being recognized as the recipient of the first-ever Thomas Curley Memorial Sportsmanship Award, an honour that carries special meaning for her. “We were very close friends with Tom from our first show dog,” she shared. “He was a friend, mentor, confidant and someone we looked forward to seeing every weekend. I am truly humbled and honored to be receiving this award in his name.”

Over the years, Christina and her family bred and showed Newfoundlands under the SUMMERFORD prefix for 30 years before transitioning to Clumber Spaniels under the CLUSSEXX prefix. While she describes herself as “extremely competitive by nature,” Christina believes that sportsmanship is one of the most important qualities within the dog community. For her, good sportsmanship means “supporting others and helping newcomers to our wonderful sport.”

Among her favourite memories is whelping her first Newfoundland litter and later having the opportunity to show the puppies she helped bring into the world.

Reflecting on her journey in dogs, Christina says it best: “We have loved every single moment. Positive and negative, it has brought us to where we are now.”

The Canadian Kennel Club proudly congratulates Christina Koffman-Heard on receiving the Thomas Curley Memorial Sportsmanship Award and thanks her for her dedication, mentorship, and contributions to the purebred dog community.

Report:

In 2025, the Strategic Planning Committee held two virtual meetings and supported proposal presentations to secure a consultant to support governance work for strategy planning beginning in 2026 for the 2027-2029 Strategic Plan.

Although the existing 2023-2025 Strategic Plan was set to reach the end of its formal term, the Executive Director put forward a proposal to extend the Plan by one year, encompassing 2026, with the addition of two new strategic objectives. As part of this extension, a review was conducted of the core objectives in the 2023-2025 Strategic Plan (Integrated Breed Health, Modernization of Events, Internal Communications & Advocacy, and Internal IT Infrastructure), and it was noted that these objectives are largely operational, rather than representing high-level strategic priorities. Accordingly, it was recommended to continue developing these objectives, refining certain existing work items and adding new objectives. The Board emphasized the importance of ongoing updates, clear deliverables, and detailed reporting on progress and costs associated with each strategic objective.

In December 2025, the Board formally endorsed the objectives outlined below as key priorities within the 2026 CKC Strategic Plan.

1. Integrated Breed Health

- Breeder education
- Breeder community support
- Breed health strategies
- DNA program
- CKC Breeder Program

2. Modernization of Events

Advance modernization efforts across key components of the event ecosystem:

- Event planning
- Event results and reporting
- Judge development and support
- Infrastructure improvements
- Canuck Dogs platform

3. Advocacy

Key focus areas for 2026:

- Develop an action plan for the Advocacy Committee with clearly identified objectives, roles & responsibilities, and support (such as key messaging and template letters to politicians).
- Work with the Advocacy Committee to develop a clear vision, and identify the purpose, of a CKC Ambassador Program. Work closely with the Advocacy Committee on the execution of the plan and identifying Ambassadors as part of the program.

4. New – Diversify Revenue Streams

- Develop and implement a comprehensive sponsorship package to support long-term financial sustainability of the CKC.

5. New – Improve Member Engagement

- Increase transparency in the Discipline and Appeals process.
- Communicate CKC's commitment to safety in sport and outline specific actions being taken.

The Strategic Planning Committee remains committed to work in 2026 that will clarify long-term priorities and measurable outcomes that will ultimately position the CKC for success in future years.

OBEDIENCE COUNCIL

The Obedience Council is responsible for considering and subsequently making recommendations to the Board regarding all matters relating to obedience trials. The purpose of obedience trials is to demonstrate the usefulness of the dog as a companion of man, not merely the dog's ability to follow specified routines in the obedience ring. The objective of obedience trials is to produce dogs that have been trained to behave in the home, in public places and in the presence of other dogs, in a manner that reflects credit on the sport of obedience. Obedience is a sport and all participants should be guided by the principles of good sportsmanship both inside and outside the ring. All contestants in a class are required to perform the same exercises in substantially the same way so that the relative quality of the various performances may be compared and scored.

Rally is a companion sport to CKC obedience. Both events require teamwork between dog and handler, along with similar performance skills. Rally provides an excellent introduction to all CKC companion performance events for dogs and handlers. The chief objective of rally is to provide a fast-moving and motivational activity that demonstrates the competency of handler and dog in performing basic obedience exercises without requiring exact precision for success. Rally can also provide the opportunity to refine training skills for competitors in other events. The performance of dog and handler in the ring must meet the requirements of the rally regulations. Dogs in rally obedience events should demonstrate willingness, enjoyment and teamwork between the dog and handler. To that end, handlers are encouraged to use praise, encouragement and petting within the boundaries of these rules.

POINTING BREEDS FIELD TRIAL COUNCIL

The Pointing Breeds Field Trial Council is responsible for considering and subsequently making recommendations to the Board regarding all matters relating to field trials for pointing breeds, or any other event related to pointing breeds in the field.

The purpose of field trials for all CKC recognized pointing breeds is to promote and recognize those dogs that demonstrate the highest pointing dog qualities. They are assessed on a competitive basis in a natural setting using a standard of performance. Pointing dogs were selectively bred from dogs who exhibited pointing and retrieving from land and water instincts. These trials assist breeders who strive to enhance breed improvement by selecting breeding stock that have strongly demonstrated these fundamental breed traits. The purpose of field dog tests for pointing breeds is to encourage the development and use of those natural abilities for which pointing dogs were originally bred. Pointing dogs were selectively bred from dogs who exhibited pointing and retrieving from land and water instincts. These tests assist breeders who strive to enhance breed improvement by selecting breeding stock that have strongly demonstrated these fundamental breed traits.

RETRIEVER FIELD TRIAL COUNCIL

The Retriever Field Trial Council is responsible for considering and subsequently making recommendations to the Board regarding all matters relating to retriever field trials. The purpose of a retriever field trial is to determine the relative merits of retrievers in the field and to test both the natural and trained abilities desired in a hunting retriever. Field Trials showcase and improve the retriever breeds by identifying the dogs which best demonstrate the desired abilities of a hunting retriever. Tests should be held in a natural hunting terrain and should be designed to test and separate the competing dogs with the dogs giving the best performances on that particular day being awarded placement. All dogs running in the trial should be given the opportunity to run as many of the tests as time and circumstances allow and if completing the tests in a satisfactory manner, shall be awarded certificates of merit.

The purpose of a hunt test for Retrievers, Barbet, Irish Water Spaniels and Poodles is to test the merits of, and evaluate the abilities of these dogs in the field in order to determine their suitability and ability as hunting companions. Hunt test should simulate as nearly as possible the conditions met in a true hunting situation. The test allows a dog to demonstrate these characteristics and continue breed improvement of these qualities.

SCENT DETECTION COUNCIL

The Scent Detection Council is responsible for considering and subsequently making recommendations to the Board regarding all matters relating to Scent Detection events. Scent Detection is a sport that is inspired by working detection dogs that locate a scent and communicate to the handler that the specific scent has been found. Detection is done in a variety of environments and often during changing conditions that task the skill and concentration of the detection dog. Scent detection is a positive, challenging activity that allows dogs to use their strongest natural sense in a way that builds and strengthens a foundation of trust between the handler and dog. A scent detection event is a performance event, which provides a safe and fun activity that is open to all eligible dogs and their owners. In order for a team to qualify, both the dog and handler must be working together as a team and must be able to read each other's reactions. Communication and praise of the dog during the search are encouraged in a CKC scent detection event.

The purpose of a Spaniel field trial is to demonstrate the performance of a properly trained Spaniel in the field. The performance should not differ from that in any ordinary day's shooting, except that in the trial a dog should do its work closer to perfection. The purpose of a hunt test is to assess and identify those dogs which possess the basic requirements of "flushing" Spaniels. It will test the merits and evaluate the abilities of Spaniels in the field in order to determine their suitability and ability as hunting companions. Dogs are placed in four categories based on their ability, not age. Dogs do not compete against one another, but rather their performances are individually judged against the standard.
