A. CANDIDATE ENTITLEMENTS

Each candidate is entitled to:

1. Once the Election Commission has confirmed a nomination and after the certified voters list is delivered to the Election Commission, a contact list of voters excluding those who have opted out of receiving campaign communications (the "Campaign List") is available to candidates for the zone in which the candidate has been nominated. This list is free of charge.
2. Candidates requesting the Campaign List must sign a Campaign List Confidentiality form taking full responsibility for the confidentiality of the data. The Campaign List Confidentiality Agreement form is available on The Canadian Kennel Club website or may be obtained by contacting Head Office.
3. The Campaign List will include the names of voters entitled to vote in the upcoming election (other than those who have opted not to receive campaign communications) along with postal addresses and email addresses where available; telephone numbers are excluded.

B. PRINCIPAL RESPONSIBILITIES OF A BOARD MEMBER

1. Each member of the Board is encouraged to present the concerns and opinions of the constituents in their respective zones while debating any subject at the table. However, when exercising his or her vote in the decision making process, no Board member shall allow the interests of one group, zone or region to sway them from their fiduciary responsibilities to act, at all times, in the best interests of The Canadian Kennel Club as a whole.
2. It is the legal responsibility of the Board, collectively and individually, to exercise due care and diligence in the performance of their duties as the corporate managers of The Canadian Kennel Club. To accomplish this, each Board member shall, with complete certainty, be aware of and fully understand all matters relating to the management of the corporation and shall, at all times, be comfortable that they are fully aware of all the facts prior to making any decision on any matter before the Board.
3. The Board must be seen as a corporate body, managing as a whole and collectively acting in the best interests of The Canadian Kennel Club. It is therefore imperative that all Board members continually maintain a level of mutual respect in the performance of their duties, whether those duties being performed are at the table, in their respective zones or in communication with the membership of The Canadian Kennel Club or the general public.

4. Upon any vote having been taken at the table, all Board members shall respect and accept the decision of the majority and thereafter shall support any decision which is made by the Board as a whole, regardless of their personal opinions and regardless of the manner in which they may have voted at the time.
5. No Board members shall have the authority to take any action, make any decision or express any opinion on behalf of the Board without first having gained the approval of the Board as a whole, or, at the very least, without first having comfort in the knowledge that the opinion being expressed is that of a majority of the Board.
6. For further information on Board Authority, please refer to Section 9.12 of the By-laws and the Role and Responsibilities of Board Members in Chapter IX of the Policy and Procedures Manual.

C. ASSUMPTION OF DUTIES BY NEWLY ELECTED BOARD MEMBERS

1. Board Members elected to office in this election shall assume their duties following the confirmation of the results of the election by the Election Commission.
2. The Board generally meets four (4) times a year. The dates of these meetings for the entire three (3) year term will be determined at the first meeting of the Board.
3. Board Members will be granted a Board Member allowance, which shall be used for the purpose of carrying out their assigned duties and responsibilities as a member of the Board. Board Members will also be paid a per diem when attending their respective meetings. The per diem shall encompass all costs of meals and accommodations.
