NOTICE BOARD

MEET SOME OF CKC'S AMAZING MEMBERS FROM MANITOBA

Every year, CKC holds its Annual General Meeting (AGM) in a different city, making it easier for local members, in addition to Staff and Board Members, to attend this annual event. It also provides CKC with the wonderful opportunity to recognize some of the local members that have contributed to CKC and the purebred dog community.

As CKC owes its existence and continued success to the vision, hard work and dedication of its members, the tradition of celebrating local members began at the 2016 AGM in Quebec City. It has continued through to this year's AGM on June 1 in Winnipeg, where CKC recognized some remarkable Manitoba members.

Gail Carroll - Lifetime Contribution Award

Gail Carroll was presented with the Lifetime Contribution Award in recognition of her steadfast commitment and extraordinary contributions to the Canadian Dog Community and Canadian Kennel Club through roles as a CKC member, Judge and as Manitoba's representative on the CKC Obedience Council.

Gail Carroll has been a CKC member for 45 consecutive years, playing with dogs for much of her adult life. Gail has trained and handled a succession of Siberian Huskies, a Tibetan Terrier, and a Golden Retriever to a variety of Canadian and American titles in Conformation, Obedience and Rally.

Gail has owned two history-making Siberian Huskies, one was the first Canadian-bred Siberian champions to earn a utility title in Obedience. The other, more recently, was a multi-Best in Show winner with several performance titles who became the first Siberian to earn Canada's Grand Champion Excellent title.

Gail has been judging obedience trials for over 30 years and now also judges Rally in both Canada and the US. She was the first elected President of the Canadian Association of Obedience Trial Judges. For many years, Gail has been Manitoba's representative on the CKC Obedience Council.

Valerie Reith - Performance Award

Valerie Reith was presented with the Performance Award in recognition to her enduring dedication and exemplary contributions to the Canadian Kennel Club and the purebred dog fancy.

Valerie has been a member of the Canadian

Kennel Club for 46 consecutive years and an Obedience trainer for over 30 years. She has trained Miniature Schnauzers, Dobermans, Labradors, Shelties and Golden Retrievers to several Obedience, Rally and Tracking titles including four Obedience champions.

Valerie was a Rally Judge, the Rally Obedience Representative for Manitoba and the Executive Treasurer for the Canadian Association of Obedience Trial Judges. She currently owns four Golden Retrievers, who have appeared in movies and commercials and are certified pet therapy dogs - making peoples' days just a little better.

Jody Ripstein - Mentorship Award

Jody Ripstein was presented with the Mentorship Award for her impact and influence as a leader in many areas of purebred dogs, and dedication to the Junior Handling Program in Manitoba.

For the past four decades, Jody Ripstein has been a mentor in the Canadian Dog Fancy. She is a founding Member and Treasurer of the Manitoba Sporting Dog Association, the Vice President of the Assiniboine Kennel Club and President of the Heart of the Continent Kennel Club, in addition to being a lifetime member of the Canadian Kennel Club and American Spaniel Club.

Jody is passionate about all aspects of the sport of purebred dogs, and has dedicated her time to help many newcomers, sharing her knowledge with those willing to learn. Jody has volunteered with the Junior Program in Manitoba, including hosting the CKC Junior Handling National Championships in Winnipeg in 2005.

Lloyd Simmons - Breeder of Record Award

Lloyd Simmons was presented with the Breeder of Record Award for his exceptional contribution to the purebred dog fancy through his exemplary breeding program, producing Irish Wolfhounds and Scottish Deerhounds that embody breed type, sound temperament and outstanding health.

Lloyd's first litter whelped in 1984, and one of the puppies from this litter went on to win Best of Opposite Sex at the 1988 Irish Wolfhound Club of America's National Specialty. Since then, Lloyd has dedicated his time breeding both Scottish Deerhounds and Irish Wolfhounds, many of which have competed in specialty shows Canada, the US, and the UK.

In 2019, Lloyd was awarded the coveted Best of Breed title at the Irish Wolfhound Club of America National Specialty with his Bred-By Special. In addition to this huge accomplishment, he was also awarded Winner's Dog from the bred by class.

Lloyd's skills and expertise are made infinitely more valuable by his commitment to sharing his advice, knowledge and encouragement to the next generation of dog fanciers.

Fifty-year members, Mimi E. Chrystal, Roberta Tougas and Grace McDonald were also presented with plaques in honour of their long-time service and contributions to CKC.

We look forward to meeting more amazing members at CKC's AGM in 2020!.

CKC PRESENTS 2019 AWARD TO WCVm STUDENT

The Canadian Kennel Club (CKC) is pleased to congratulate Emily Horan-the recipient of this year's CKC Veterinarian Student award in support of the University of Saskatchewan, Western College of Veterinary Medicine (WCVm).

Since 2016, CKC has presented this award annually to a student from one of the five veterinary colleges in Canada (Guelph, Montreal, Saskatoon, Charlottetown and Calgary), in order to support the continuation of his or her education in the field of veterinary medicine.

On the behalf of CKC, David Gilmour, Board Member for Saskatchewan, presented the award to Emily Horan at the 2019 WCVm Convocation Banquet on June 5, 2019.

Congratulations Emily! CKC wishes you continued success in all your future endeavors.

COMRADERY IN THE DOG SHOW WORLD: DOES IT EXIST? YOU BET IT DOES!

Perhaps a set of dog shows might be the last place where you would expect to witness it; however, a dog show is where you can see comradery of mankind at its finest. Comradery is that sense of warm feelings of friendship, closeness and loyalty shared among a group of people.

It was a typical Sunday evening and I was scrolling through social media one week after our first set of dog shows here on the glorious rock of Newfoundland. I didn't walk away with the coveted title of Best in Show, but what I did take home at the end of the weekend was something that can't be measured with a title or ribbon. Let's be honest- some days we may question if humanity and kindness is lost. However, here on the rock, I can promise if you attend just one of our dog shows, your faith in mankind will quickly be restored.

Our dog shows may be small compared to some, but the quality of dogs being shown here is competitive. And equally as important is the presence of good sportsmanship and friendship. To place it in perspective for you all, I want to share a couple of my personal favorite stories from our Newfoundland (All-Breed) Kennel Club April Shows.

My first story is one that begins with sadness, but demonstrates the true kindness of the human spirit. A dear friend's parent passed suddenly. She had already entered her dogs in the shows. Of course, as luck should have it, she owned Standard Poodles, and as you all know, it's not as if their coats require a little fluffing-the grooming and prepping for a show is a labor of love.

Given her circumstances, she just couldn't do the shows. Thankfully, her friend who is a professional groomer and long-time dog handler said "don't worry about the coats I'll clean them up for you." Little did she know that her friend had a much larger, master plan! She called me a couple of days before and said "rally the troops - we have Standard Poodles to show!" Of course, I was on board. I called in my recruits - juniors to help with holding the dogs on the tables while she worked her magic of making them show ready. The owner did not know until the day before. Her friend had pulled out her show outfits, had the dogs ready to go and was ready to rock the ring along with another friend to assist with the handling. Well lo and behold, not only did they pull it off, but one of her dogs, Diva, won BPIS, RBPIS, 2 BPIS; Group 1 stand Group 2nd over specials and BOB twice! On the second day of showing Diva's owner was able to find the strength to attend the show and witness her beloved dogs being shown to their full potential. Her heart was full of gratitude to everyone who had helped.

My next story is about a friend I made when I first started attending handling classes. We had taken endless classes together and over the months, I watched my friend work extremely hard. Despite his commitment, the show circuit was competitive. One weekend, it all came together and him and his beloved English setter, Mr. Darcy, earned a group placement. When he earned the group placement with his four-legged companion, the smile on his and his wife's face could not be measured. There were high fives, fist pumps and hugs all around. Witnessing the wins of people you have come to know and enjoy the company of is truly a gift. I was literally bursting outside the ring to congratulate them.

My final story is one where a friend found her second home. A friend posted on her Facebook profile, how she had finally found the place where she belonged. To quote her (with her permission): "I'm officially at the beginning of something that I've been missing my whole life. I've never been into 'sports'." I always felt like an outcast and didn't really fit in. Then I got Flame. Flame may just be a dog to some, but to me he is much more. Every day he helps me be better. He helps me overcome my anxiety each time I go to a show and he always sparks conversation between new people. I found such a lovely group of friends in the dog show world, some whom I've known for a short time, but it seems like forever. I've met people who I'd never met in person offer me their homes to stay for show weekends in the province. I have had people offer to drive me across provinces just so we could show together: loyal real friends. Today I'm super proud to be someone who feels like they have a place where they fit in and where I belong! I've shown from British Columbia to Newfoundland, but Newfoundland will always hold a soft spot for me."

If your hearts feel full now, it's because they should. Winning first place or Best in Show is without a doubt an incredible feeling; however, there is no measure on witnessing firsthand when your comrades win their first group placement, or when you see friends come through for one another in their most difficult times. In the dog show world, we all belong. Enjoy your wins, but don't forget to celebrate all the incredible acts happening around you – that is where the true sense of comradery can be felt.
