Walkin' with RDOG's!

Grab your leash...get your friends...and bring the dogs... and join us for the second annual CKC National RDOG Day! RDOG Events will begin Saturday, September 19, 2009 and culminate in a national walk of support on RDOG DAY, Saturday, September 26, 2009.

Post Your Club's RDOG Event on the CKC Website Today!

Simply enter the details of your RDOG event via the CKC RDOG Day "RDOG Events" web page at www.ckc.ca. Let's show people from coast to coast what's happening and most importantly, support the local activities of clubs hosting events.

CKC encourages all "Responsible Dog Ownership Groups" (RDOG'S) to rally across Canada and collectively demonstrate the benefits that responsible dog ownership brings to our local communities.

Bring your pooch and join RDOG's!

RDOG DAY is a national initiative of the Canadian Kennel Club and supported by DOGS<sup>IN</sup>CANADA magazine and like-minded organizations across Canada, including IAMS<sup>Life's Better</sup>

The Canadian Kennel Club is committed to the furthering of responsibility for the ownership of dogs in Canada. As experienced and knowledgeable dog enthusiasts, we come together as members to support the dog-owning public by educating those owners in the responsibilities associated with bringing a dog into the home. This commitment brings with it significant responsibility - to the dog, the family and to the greater community in which you live. From evaluating your readiness for a new dog through determining the breed that is right for you, from integrating the dog into the home through advice on health, training and canine good citizenship, CKC members in large cities and small villages, in every part of Canada, provide the support, advice and guidance to families interested in canine companionship, to better enable Canadians to be responsible dog owners.

MESSAGE from the Board

SCHOOL IS OUT!

Remember those days when school was part of our identity and a big part of defining who we were? Even today, with school days long past, we meet people from “back home” and the discussions begin again with the question, “Where did you go to school again?” It’s a common experience and we talk about the values, lessons learned, contributions or shared experiences. We were part of the school and more so, it was a part of us, and with every conversation held, we contributed to an unseen public relations network supporting the alma mater.

It’s not much different than sharing our canine expertise with an old pro or engaging a potential new member eager to know more about who we are and what we do as a member of the CKC. When we exchange ideas and provide even the simplest piece of information about the Club, we become one agent in the huge public relations team of our 25,000 members. We are in the public relations business when it comes to all things dog and promoting the benefits of the Club. Just thinking about the scope and possibilities is incredible and unlimited.

According to the Chartered Institute of Public Relations (CIPR), public relations is about reputation - the result of what you do, what you say and what others say about you. Public relations is the discipline which looks after reputation, with the aim of earning understanding and support, plus influencing opinion and behavior. From a corporate perspective, it is the planned and sustained effort to establish and maintain goodwill and mutual understanding between an organization and its publics.

As we begin to head out and ramble the countryside to find a dog show, remember those student days and talk about the CKC. Who we are, what we do, what we say and what we offer the local community becomes our reputation. Public relations not only tells an organization's story, it also helps shape the organization and the way it works for both people inside and people outside.

Fly the CKC flag throughout the summer; encourage a potential new and enthusiastic member to join and get involved, plan a CGN test, hold summer camp afternoons with local kids using the materials designed specifically for CKC members to teach responsible ownership and safety to the young. As members of the country’s most influential canine organization, what you do and say as individuals ripples through all of our activities as a Club, from fighting anti-dog legislation to breeding happy, healthy well-socialized purebred dogs, or promoting responsible dog ownership. What we do is good for the Club, but bringing great comfort and happiness to thousands and thousands of loving, dedicated pet homes every year with our dogs has to be the most rewarding end result of any public relations campaign imaginable.

Our basic message has not changed in 121 years of existence as a Club, but the need is greater today more than ever to promote that message through positive “public relations” efforts. Talk about your personal enthusiasm, offer your expertise, and show your love of dogs, because that is by far the best public relations possible.

Each time, in any way you represent the CKC, you become our Clubs’ true life “testimonial”. On the street, in the park and at every show...what you say will define who we are.

Have a great summer.

Your Board of Directors.

PROFILING YOUR DIRECTORS: BRIAN TAYLOR

BRIAN TAYLOR CKC DIRECTOR, CENTRAL ONTARIO

Brian Taylor, Director Zone 7 - Ontario Central, moved to Canada in 1956 and currently resides in Burlington Ontario. Since coming from England, Brian has spent most of his time living in various Southern Ontario communities as well as Halifax. In 1963, he imported a German Shepherd from England and has owned and or professionally shown many breeds including Golden Retrievers, Irish Setters, Beagles and Rottweilers. His career as a professional handler began in the late '60's and continued until he retired from handling in 1984. Along with his handling Brian managed a career of some 45 years in the elevator business and worked in all facets from mechanic to President and although now retired from that business, still provides services as a consultant from time to time. When breeding dogs with Judith Taylor, their combined efforts produced some top winning Golden Retrievers, but Brian candidly notes and credits Judith as the mastermind and commented that it happened, "with just a little input from me."

In recalling his handling days and showing so many top dogs, it was hard for Brian to identify a "best moment" but he fondly recalls taking BIS at Credit Valley with 1,000 plus entries. Sometimes, he still gets the urge to be back in the ring and will go to an Irish specialty with his daughter Jill and help her out. Brian decided to start judging in 1983 due to business commitments which were becoming more demanding and therefore not leaving enough time to properly devote to the dogs in his care.

Over the years, Brian notes that many individuals contributed to his knowledge and skills including Joan Gill, Daphne Philpott, Betty Crawford, Eve Whitmore, Shirley deBoer, and was quick to add that there were many more along the way.

As advice for the novice in the dog world, Brian was of the strong opinion that everyone's first task would be to get a good mentor or two and "listen, listen, listen and then ask, ask, ask..." After a few years, you can then speak and offer a much better and more informed opinion.

Brian is keen on education, both in formal ways and informally and sees a number of opportunities to increase the value of CKC Shows and Sanction Matches for the benefit of our membership. With his experience as a handler, breeder, judge and businessman Brian will undoubtedly be bringing these and other discussions to the Board over his term as a new Director.

CKC MEMBER PROCESSING DISCOUNT

If all dogs from a Canadian-born litter are registered at one time, they may receive discounts of 5% to 10%, depending upon when and how they submit the applications to Head Office. (Please see Registration fees at left). In order to qualify for the discounts, all unused computerized Individual Registration forms associated with the litter, including those for dogs that are deceased, must be returned to Head Office along with corresponding completed applications. Late submission or failure to include unused forms will result in no discount being applied. This discount is only made available to Canadian Resident Regular Members for registration of Canadian-born litters of two puppies or more. It does not apply to any associated transfer fees.
