CKC ANNOUNCES NEW EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

The Canadian Kennel Club is pleased to announce that Nancy Carey has been named the new Executive Director.

Nancy Carey has been a leader and a force of change in both the corporate and non-profit sectors. Working at the executive level in the airline, tourism and economic development and trade association sectors, she has proven herself as a powerful influencer who develops and executes strategies and initiatives most critical to the organization.

Having spent the last 10 years in a member-driven, not-for-profit, standards association, GSI Canada, Nancy has achieved great success in strategically growing and sustaining a member-based organization. Nancy has managed many strategic alliances and partnerships in over 20 sectors, including the consumer packaged goods sector, involving the pet industry. As well, she has served as board secretary and is skilled in board governance management.

Nancy is also well versed in government relations and has worked with all levels of government including Agriculture Canada, as well as working for the City of London for five years. Nancy is a graduate of Ryerson in Economics and Marketing and has also run her own Event Marketing Company.
