Walkin' with RDOG's!

Grab your leash...get your friends...and bring the dogs... and join us for the fourth annual CKC National RDOG Day! RDOG Events will begin Saturday, September 15, 2012 and culminate in a national walk of support on RDOG DAY, Saturday, September 22, 2012.

Post Your Club's RDOG Event on the CKC Website Today!

Simply visit www.ckc.ca and click on the RDOG logo to enter your RDOG Event details. Let's show people from coast to coast what's happening and most importantly, support the local activities of clubs hosting events.

Be sure to compliment your RDOG Event with our CKC Dog-Friendly Educational Guides – available to CKC members to download from the CKC website at www.ckc.ca. With topics such as 'Bite Prevention' and 'Children and Safety Around Dogs', these Guides are an invaluable resource to share with your community.

CKC encourages all "Responsible Dog Ownership Groups" (RDOG'S) to rally across Canada and collectively demonstrate the benefits that responsible dog ownership brings to our local communities.

Bring your pooch and join RDOG's!

RDOG DAY is a national initiative of the Canadian Kennel Club and supported by DOGS^{IN}CANADA magazine and like-minded organizations across Canada, including

The Canadian Kennel Club is committed to the furthering of responsibility for the ownership of dogs in Canada. As experienced and knowledgeable dog enthusiasts, we come together as members to support the dog-owning public by educating those owners in the responsibilities associated with bringing a dog into the home. This commitment brings with it significant responsibility - to the dog, the family and to the greater community in which you live. From evaluating your readiness for a new dog through determining the breed that is right for you, from integrating the dog into the home through advice on health, training and canine good citizenship, CKC members in large cities and small villages, in every part of Canada, provide the support, advice and guidance to families interested in canine companionship, to better enable Canadians to be responsible dog owners.

NEW DOGS IN CANADA BLOG SHOWCASES TOP DOGS, BREEDER LISTINGS AND MORE!

Dogs in Canada, a property of the Canadian Kennel Club, invites you to visit the new Dogs in Canada blog—the most recent addition to the popular Dogs in Canada brand. The Dog Blog is informal, informative and easy to use and can be accessed via www.dogsincanada.com.

The creation of the Dogs in Canada blog is part of a revitalization strategy committed to by the CKC Board of Directors at the 2012 AGM—to build upon the strength and integrity of the Dogs in Canada brand in an online capacity and best meet the needs of our members.

The CKC Board clearly recognizes the importance and value of the Dogs in Canada printed publications and blogsite for our member breeders. The Board feels that The Dogs in Canada blogsite is a very valuable and potent tool and an online presence is regarded as highly important for connecting with our membership.

As such, we are pleased to present the new Dogs in Canada blog! From The Dog Blog to Top Dogs, there is something for everyone:

The Dog Blog

The Dogs in Canada Dog Blog features a variety of topical, dog-centric postings and the opportunity for you to provide feedback and maintain an open dialogue. So, be sure to check out The Dog Blog for regular posts on what's happening in the dog world.

Top Dog Awards

Following in a 49-year-old Dogs in Canada tradition of providing annual top canine competition results, the Dog Blog features the greatly anticipated Top Dog Awards. Currently available are the “unofficial” Conformation results, followed by Obedience mid-July; then Agility—with Field results, including Top Retrievers, Top Pointing and Top Lure Coursers available before the end of summer.

This year, the early posting of “unofficial” results allows for a final check by the contenders and is available publicly for a 30-day period before the “official results” are confirmed and awards sent out. If there are any discrepancies in our “unofficial results”, please email the updated number of points, along with supporting documentation to topdogs@ckc.ca.

Breeder Listings

Breeders who are currently listed in the 2012 Dogs Annual will be pleased to know that the Dogs in Canada blog includes all 2012 Dogs Annual Breeder Listings—which will be accessible for the remainder of the year. So, be sure to pass along the Dog Blog link to all of your prospective puppy buyers.

Dogs in Canada Articles

In addition, the Dogs in Canada blog also features favourite Dogs in Canada articles—from grooming and behavior to nutrition and health concerns, and more!

Sign Up and Spread the Word

Viewers have the opportunity to subscribe to a live feed of the Dog Blog by clicking on the orange RSS feed icon on the Dogs in Canada blog homepage. A link to the Dog Blog will also be included in your monthly Member Bulletin and “Good to Know” email blasts. Be sure to forward the Dog Blog link to like-minded friends and colleagues and don't forget to share links to your favourite dog blogs on Facebook!

On behalf of Dogs in Canada and the CKC, we hope you enjoy all that The Dog Blog has to offer and look forward to connecting with you in the dog blogosphere!

MARCH 2012 MINUTES NOW AVAILABLE ONLINE

Please note that the March 2012 Minutes, as approved at the June 2012 Board Meeting, are now available online. To view, simply enter your membership number and go to Membership Services/Board Meetings/Minutes.

MAKING CHANGE TO BETTER SUPPORT OUR MEMBERS

As the Canadian Kennel Club begins to move towards a more focused approach to supporting and providing the best possible service to our Members, we would like to announce the creation of a new centralized Membership Services Department.

This streamlined service will combine the knowledge and expertise of the Registration and Client Services staff into one team dedicated to providing members with a single, centralized point of contact for your service needs.

This consolidation of service will equate to more efficient business dealings for you as a member of the CKC. We have been listening and recognize that improved customer service should be easily obtainable, conveniently available, more accessible, and an overall enjoyable experience.

To build this new department, Leila Bahorie, has been promoted to Senior Manager, Membership Services and will manage the development of this new and exciting opportunity for the CKC. Leila's hard work, dedication and leadership have been instrumental to her success. For the last 15 years, as a member of the management team and recently as Acting CEO, Leila has been driving results in the Registration area of our business and making an impact to the bottom line. Leila has a wealth of experience with our members and she has a valuable understanding of your needs and how to help resolve concerns in the most efficient and amenable way possible.

We will continue to update you over the next few months as the Member Services Department takes shape, to serve you better.

STILL TIME TO PLAN YOUR CLUB'S RDOG EVENT

If you haven't already, now is a great time to start planning your RDOG (Responsible Dog Ownership) Event. As RDOG Day is a national initiative, we encourage all clubs to act as responsible dog ownership ambassadors in their communities. It's informative, friendly and fun!

When to Hold an RDOG Event:

RDOG events begin Saturday, September 15, 2011 and lead up to a National dog walk of support on CKC RDOG Day, Saturday, September 22, 2011 at 11:00 a.m.

Promote Your RDOG Event Today!

- enter all details of your event on our website
- print off the RDOG poster, flyer and post card
- print off an RDOG arm band for dog walk participants
- take photos of your RDOG Event and email them, along with a few highlights, to rdogs@ckc.ca for posting on the CKC website.

Some ideas to help make your RDOG event even more exciting:

- hold a dog walk
- host a Canine Good Neighbour (CGN) event, with CGN demonstrations
- hold demonstrations on Obedience, Agility and Rally Obedience
- give an in-school canine safety presentation
- host a microchip clinic
- feature an expert

For the fifth year in a row, Calgary residents will be treated to a special RDOG Event, in North Glenmore Park, AB, featuring plenty of dog activities, Rally and CGN demonstrations, and more—backed by the City of Calgary. For more details about this event, visit www.ckc.ca.

So let's hear from all other CKC RDOG Event organizers and show our RDOG spirit across the country.

More further RDOG information, please visit www.ckc.ca and go to CKC Services/CKC RDOG Day.

THE CKC REMEMBERS HEATHER Y.LOGAN

Sadly, we report that well-known and respected CKC Life Member of 56 consecutive years and All-Breed Judge, Heather Logan, passed away Monday June 18, 2012. Heather was a long-time, dedicated CKC volunteer on many levels. A friend and mentor to many in the dog fancy, Heather will be missed deeply. Active as a CKC member until recently, Heather was Honourary Chair of the Board of Directors in 2008 and will be remembered for serving the Club as Secretary-Treasurer for a brief period in the early 1990's when she successfully managed the Club through some times of transition.

Her acumen as an internationally-respected breeder of German Shepherds, Old English Sheepdogs and Basenjis is well known and she was active for 25 years both showing and breeding. Heather's career as a Judge began in 1962 and she was an All-Breed Judge for 19 years. Her assignments covered Canada from coast to coast and as an internationally-respected judge, Heather accepted assignments throughout the world and was proud to have judged in Mexico, the USA and numerous countries in South America, Scandinavia and Europe.

Heather's spirited determination, dedication and expertise will be missed and her passing has left a gap that will be hard to fill.

CANADIAN KENNEL CLUB MISSION STATEMENT

Who We Are

The Canadian Kennel Club is a national, member-based, non-profit organization, incorporated under the Animal Pedigree Act of Canada. It provides registry services for all officially recognized breeds of purebred dogs and provides governance for all CKC approved shows, trials and events. Finally, the CKC is a communication organization informing all people interested in dogs.

Mission

The Canadian Kennel Club will service its membership and the community at large by giving support, understanding, help and guidance in all their canine-related endeavors. CKC will work so that members will be proud of their affiliation. The Club will recognize, promote, and publicize the actions of responsible breeders and owners.

Vision

The Canadian Kennel Club with its members will be a dynamic service organization, focused on being the authority for purebred dogs in Canada.

Values

The Canadian Kennel Club will embrace integrity, openness, honesty and compassion in its dealings with all of its members and customers.
