Celebrating CKC's 125th Anniversary

CKC marks its 125th anniversary in 2013 and we've planned a celebration of the lifeblood and backbone of the Club, members like you, and our collective contribution to the history and heritage of the purebred dog in Canada.

We have already received congratulations from many Mayors and dignitaries from across the country, including warm and eloquent letters from our Prime Minister, the Right Honourable Stephen Harper, the Governor General, His Excellency, the Right Honourable David Johnston and the Honourable Joe Fontana, the Mayor of London, where the very first meeting of The Canadian Kennel Club was held in 1888. We will display these proudly, on behalf of members, at Head Office and post them to the website for review.

In addition to a refreshed look reflecting the 125th Anniversary on certificates, forms and correspondence you receive from the Club in 2013, you'll also notice a revitalized website featuring a dedicated section focusing on CKC's 125th Anniversary celebration.

The 125th Anniversary celebrations on the CKC website will include stories from our history, rich archival material, fun trivia questions and a series of short video features called Hearing from Our Past: The Living Legends, highlighting the personalities and events from our first 125 years.

We would also like to include contributions from you. We invite you to submit photos from your great-est times with the Club; your favourite shows, you and your best-loved dogs or a fondly-remembered group shot at a canine event. Send us any photos you'd like to share, with a brief description, and we'll post them to the CKC website for your fellow members' enjoyment (let us know if you need photos back). You can either send your photos electronically to 125photos@ckc.ca or by mail to:
