CKC EDITORIAL REVIEW PANEL SET TO TACKLE SUMMER 2013 ISSUE OF DOGS IN CANADA

In mid-March we initiated a search for two volunteers with editorial experience to participate on a Dogs In Canada and Dogs Annual editorial review panel. We're happy to announce that the two seats have been filled with highly qualified individuals.

We would like to thank all those who took the time and mustered the effort to volunteer their services. From the numerous applications received, Trina Gallop, a 4-year CKC member from Winnipeg, Manitoba and Laurie Savoie, a 30-year member from Qualicum Beach, British Columbia were chosen.

Trina is currently the Director of Communications and Stewardship at the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Canada, has functioned as the Editorial Director of their national magazine and has extensive experience in developing and implementing communications strategies. Laurie has been a journalist and photographer for approximately 25 years, is a member of the Dog Writer's Association of America and her byline has appeared in Dogs In Canada, Canine Review, Canadian Dog Digest, and Canadian Dog Fancier.

Also on the panel are Apex and CKC board members Michael Shoreman and Bob Rowbotham.

Now the work begins. Before the Summer 2013 issue is shipped off to the printer, the review panel will be up to their elbows in layouts, photos, feature stories and editorial copy. We wish them well, while we anxiously await their first issue.

NEW APPLICANT CONFORMATION JUDGE

The following member has applied to become a Conformation Judge and has complied with the requirements of CKC policy, Chapter VII, Sections A and B.

In accordance with Chapter VI, Shows and Trials, Section G, Priority Rights, Subsection 4 of the Policy and Procedures Manual, this is to notify all Conformation clubs in British Columbia that the priority dates listed below, which were previously held by the Auld Lang Syne Dog Association have been released:
