TERRIFIC TURNOUT AT MANITOBA MEET THE BREEDS EVENT

Manitobans were in for a real treat when they stopped by the fourth annual Meet the Breeds Event at the Red River Exhibition, June 12 to June 22, 2015.

From Affenpinschers, Chihuahuas and Dobermans to Newfoundlands, Havanese and Whippets and more, a great variety of breeds were on site to greet and wow the enthusiastic crowds. It was a canine extravaganza, with friendly, knowledgeable breeders and purebred dog owners on hand to share their expertise regarding responsible dog ownership and the benefits of owning a purebred dog.

Overall, it was a superb event which, thanks to event organizers and CKC members, Giselle Carlow and Joanne Gervais, went off without a hitch. Many thanks to all Meet the Breeds volunteers who gave their time to teach the next generation about the value of the purebred dog.

A SHOW TO REMEMBER: THE 2015 WORLD DOG SHOW

Food and Fashion Expo 2015 may have earned the world's attention, but for canine enthusiasts looking for a new way to spend summer vacation time, there was a more important reason to visit Milan, Italy - the annual FCI World Winner Dog Show, held over June 10-14, at the Rho Exhibition Fairgrounds. Six sprawling pavilions covering over 103,000 sq/m hosted 340 breeds, 184 judges and exhibitors representing 68 nations. Ten FCI groups would be judged over four days, with added independent breed club shows providing offshore visitors the opportunity to rack up additional national titles.

Tragically, the show threatened to be cursed from the start. On June 8th, a minivan carrying five Russian handlers and nineteen dogs was involved in a head-on crash with an oncoming lorry. Details at the time were sketchy, but it was soon to be determined that all parties in the van as well as the lorry driver were killed outright. Rescuers at the scene reported eleven of the dogs also died, though the remaining eight were initially unaccounted for. The international dog fancy came together in an impressive display of unity, honouring their friends by observing periods of silence throughout the week and wearing black chest ribbons for the duration of the show. Yet while the atmosphere was sombre, the competition was anything but. Entry totals nudged 30,000, with pre-World club events registering 9,516 participants, and WDS notching 19,927. Italy topped the numbers with 8,143, with France a distant second (1,647) and Russia third (1,465); the United States boasted 116 entrants, with Canada sending 21. And though Canuck breeders, owners and handlers were in short supply, their presence was quietly, yet definitely felt.

- The father/daughter team of Graeme and Emily Burdon (Quebec) had multiple successes; at WDS the miniature Xolo, Besitos Tepal, took 4th Open Dog (owned by Pat Pentland / Raul Olivera); Ch. Zoldmali Cetli, a Wirehaired Vizsla owned by Anton Josef Sagh, picked up 1st Champion Class on his way to ResCACIB; ResCAC went to Glenda Newton's Portuguese Water Dog, Ch. Hi Seas Dr. Romeo McDuff; Ch. Hearthside Riveredge Sure Is Summum, an Australian Shepherd dog owned by Catherine Poitras, succeeded in bringing home the title of World Winner 2015/CACIB from one of the largest breed entries of the event.
- The Karelian Bear Dog, TsarShadow's Barbarossa, came from the Junior class to win BOB/World Jr. Winner for breeder/owner/handler Dawne Deeley (B.C.), and was eventually shortlisted in the Junior Group finals. His littermate, Ch. TsarShadow's Night Witch, also claimed the Junior World Winner title in bitches. A final TsarShadow entry, MCh. TsarShadow's State of Siege, took the title of World Winner/CACIB for owner Maureen Griffin.
- Ontario's Judi Elford scored a 'double' with her homebred/owned Junior class Samoyeds; Vanderbilt's Yabba Dabba Do (co-owned by Mengru Wu) and Ch. Vanderbilt's Kiss The Moon. With Samoyeds being another of the show's most popular breeds, it shows the depth of quality in these youngsters, who picked up reserve positions and 'Excellent' grades in large classes.
- Florence Erwin (Ontario) was on hand to see Canadian handler Edgar Rojas pilot her homebred/owned Barbet (co-owned with Dianne Marston) Ch. Flacon d'Paris Of Neigenuveaux to a club show BOB/CAC and WDS Champion Class 2nd.
- No stranger to world travel, B.C.'s Larisa Hotchin was rewarded with club show BOB/CAC and WDS Open Class 2nd on Welsh Terrier Ch. Darwyn's Here For A Good Time, whom she bred and co-owns with Sonya Cornick.
- Breeder/owner/handler Dr. Gail Forsythe (Alberta) made a superb showing, taking a strong WDS Intermediate Class 1st with her young Japanese Chin, Ch. Lionheart Kumakichi, after winning CAC at the breed club show on the previous day.

- Sonja van Maanans' Bouvier des Flandres, Ch. Indelible's Kandis Trust In Me faced considerable competition in the Champion Dog class before being awarded an evaluation of 'Excellent'.

Though many events of this magnitude come equipped with great displays of 'window dressing' and various extra-curricular ring activities, the Italian Kennel Club (ENCI) chose to keep Group presentations running to strict time schedules. Baby Puppy, Puppy, Junior, Veteran, Brace and Breeder's Groups were ferried in and out of the main rings briskly and with little time in between. If this seemed rather sterile, it did offer the benefit of finishing at a civilised hour. This is not to mean the programmes were 'all work and no play'. Of special interest was the introduction of the Fomni Shepherd Dog, a breed long known in its homeland but only recently stepping forward into the recognition spotlight. Originating from the Sardinian city of the same name, the sturdy Fomni is valued for its ability to watch flocks and guard the shepherds who accompany them. Its rough coat is found in shades of grey, rusty black and earthen browns; centuries of use have left it little changed, and the breed's popularity was evident in the number of enthusiastic handlers dressed in regional costume who brought their dogs into the main ring for the crowd's appreciation.

Cheers were equally loud for the Best Italian Breed in Show competition, won by the Italian Greyhound, Lady Godiva Dei Raggi di Luna. This bitch had an exceptional WDS, given she also topped the Sighthound group. Second was granted to the Maltese, Missis White Ettore Bassi; third, the Bergamasco, Rukmini Dei Lupercali, with fourth taken by the Cane Corso, 'Brutus', who earlier in the week had taken top spot on the Group 2 podium. Now with tensions rising, the only ribbons left to award are those for Best In Show...and the winner is the Bearded Collie, MCh. Ops I Did It Again Del Cuore Impavido, owned by Olga Klimova (Russian Federation). BIS2 went to Mikael Nilsson and his black Miniature Poodle, Ch. Kudos Firework (Sweden), with BIS3 awarded to the aforementioned Italian Greyhound. Taking the last podium position was Michele Ivaldi's Gordon Setter, Ch. Ludstar Frederick Frankenstein (Italy).

When all was said and done, could Italy brag one of the most successful World Dog shows ever? Consider the following: at the show's zenith, www.wds2015.com was visited by over 40,000 viewers a day, with 5 million reaching the various associated pages. Ten thousand paying spectators passed through the turnstiles in the first two days; Group finals saw bleacher seats filled hours in advance. It was emotional; it was sensational...it was 'amore' in the broadest, finest sense, and definitely a show never to be forgotten.

Group totals:

- Group 1 / Sheep and Cattle Dogs - 2,079
- Group 2 / Pinschers and Molossers -4,627
- Group 3 / Terriers -2,594
- Group 4 / Dachshunds -728

- Group 5 / Spitz and Primitives -2,147
- Group 6 / Scenthounds -954
- Group 7 / Pointing Dogs -1,054
- Group 8 / Retrievers, Flushing and Water Dogs -1,748
- Group 9 / Companion Dogs -3,045
- Group 10 / Sighthounds -951

MILESTONES

In Memory of Kim Campbell

It is with deep sadness that the Canadian Kennel Club announces the passing of CKC member, Kim Campbell. Kim was involved in the fancy from a young age when she attended dog shows with her family and their Rough Collies in the Lower Mainland of B.C.

Kim later became her father's assistant until he retired after an impressive career as a professional handler. Kim and her father, Jim, went on to buy Western Dog Shows and once Jim became a CKC director, Kim took over the company. As a show secretary, Kim set the bar very high, and the dog people in the west were very spoiled by her professionalism and attention to detail. Kim was very involved with Junior Handling and very devoted to, and supportive of, the up-and-coming young handlers. Those who knew Kim are sure that she is watching over us with a glass of wine in hand and a Japanese Chin on her lap, surrounded by love. She will be terribly missed. Our sincere condolences go out to the family and friends of Kim.

Looking Back...

In Memory of Gertrude Wiggeshoff

The Canadian Kennel Club remembers CKC Member, Gertrude Wiggeshoff of Lively, Ontario for her invaluable contributions to the purebred dog world – where she was known and loved by so many. Gertrude, who left us in December 2014, was a passionate CKC member and an active member of the obedience, agility and tracking community and willingly donated her time and energy as secretary for the Sudbury & District Kennel Club club's tracking tests.

Gertrude had worked as the Treasurer for the Sudbury & District Kennel Club for almost eight years before retiring in 2013 at the age of 87.

Her daughter, Mary-Anne Boulet—CKC Zone 4 Tracking Representative and a CKC Tracking Judge—was proud to work alongside her mother and recalls their times together with great fondness, “she was my partner in my dog breeding venture and my inspiration and is missed by many.”

CANADIAN KENNEL CLUB MISSION STATEMENT

Who We Are

The Canadian Kennel Club is a national, member-based, non-profit organization, incorporated under the Animal Pedigree Act of Canada. It provides registry services for all officially recognized breeds of purebred dogs and provides governance for all CKC approved shows, trials and events. Finally, the CKC is a communication organization informing all people interested in dogs.

Mission

The Canadian Kennel Club will service its membership and the community at large by giving support, understanding, help and guidance in all their canine-related endeavors. CKC will work so that members will be proud of their affiliation. The Club will recognize, promote, and publicize the actions of responsible breeders and owners.

Vision

The Canadian Kennel Club with its members will be a dynamic service organization, focused on being the authority for purebred dogs in Canada.

Values

The Canadian Kennel Club will embrace integrity, openness, honesty and compassion in its dealings with all of its members and customers.
