NEW BREED ENTERS CANADIAN KENNEL CLUB TOP 10 MOST POPULAR DOGS FOR 2017

The Canadian Kennel Club (CKC), Canada's primary registry for purebred dogs, is proud to present the top 10 CKC-registered dogs for 2017. This year, we are excited to share that a new breed has made its way into the CKC top 10. After a steady climb, the Australian Shepherd makes its exciting debut at the number nine spot, bumping the plucky Yorkshire Terrier from the CKC top 10. This is the first time the Australian Shepherd has made the CKC top 10 most popular dogs since it was first registered with CKC in 1991. This high-spirited herding breed is a new favourite across the country, with dog owners in Toronto and Calgary owning the most Aussies.

"The Aussie can do it all!" says Shawna Wiebe, President of the Canadian National Australian Shepherd Association (CNASA). "They are a very intelligent, athletic dog in a moderate package. They can move from the herding arena, to the agility ring, to the rally ring, to the Frisbee field, with great ease." Wiebe adds that Aussies are also ideal for active families who are looking for a dog to keep up with them and do best in a home that is committed to socializing and training them.

To ensure vital health screening has been done, the CNASA reminds puppy buyers to carefully research breeders and ask if their dogs have hip, elbow, and eye clearances from the Orthopaedic Foundation for Animals. After all, a healthy puppy is a happy puppy.

Once again, the family-friendly Labrador Retriever shines as Canada's most popular dog—holding top rank since 1995! For the fifth year in a row, the dependable, utilitarian German Shepherd Dog ranks second place and the trusted Golden Retriever holds strong in third. Not surprisingly, the talented and versatile Poodle has held the fourth spot since 2005 and the Bernese Mountain Dog, with its striking appearance and charming personality, has been a CKC top 10 favourite for the past decade.

Larger breeds may lead the pack in this year's CKC top 10, but the medium and smaller breeds continue to make their mark. The mighty Bulldog makes a grand reappearance to the CKC top 10 after a nine-year hiatus, unseating the intelligent and affectionate Miniature Schnauzer. Popular with urbanites, the fun-loving French Bulldog holds steady in the sixth spot, with the lively and smart Havanese following closely in seventh spot. Like smaller lapdogs, many larger breeds can also make great urban pets, provided they receive appropriate exercise based on their energy level.

"Large or small breeds, it's clear that Canadians love their dogs no matter the size. Whether you live in the city or the suburbs, it's important that you're able to choose a dog that really suits your home, family and lifestyle," said Lance Novak, CKC Executive Director. "We're here to help."

Here are the CKC top 10 most popular dogs for 2017:

- Labrador Retriever
- German Shepherd Dog
- Golden Retriever
- Poodle
- Shetland Sheepdog
- French Bulldog
- Havanese
- Bernese Mountain Dog
- Australian Shepherd
- Bulldog

PORTUGUESE WATER DOG SAILS TO THE TOP SPOT

Congratulations to Canada's Top Show Dog for 2017 – Portuguese Water Dog GCh. Claircreek Faro Do Atlantico, bred by Donna Gottdenker & Joan Gatfield, owned by Donna Gottdenker and handled by Edgar Rojas.

This is the first time a Portuguese Water Dog has been crowned Canada's Top Show Dog. Donna Gottdenker has set records on both sides of the border with her Porties, not only claiming Canada's #1, all breeds, but also grabbing the top spot in the U.S. with the incomparable Matisse! A professional handler for 28 years, Edgar Rojas has been handling Portuguese Water Dogs for Donna for the past 18 years and finally joins the elite group of people who have handled a Top Dog, all breeds. To learn more about Faro and Edgar's journey, the other Top 10 dogs and to review the stats, please visit CKC's Top Dogs page.

Congratulations to Canada's Top Obedience Dog for 2017 – Miniature Poodle, GMOTCh. Belcourt Cool Dude; owned and handled by Lee Kozicki.

Scooter and Lee's seven-year partnership has resulted in several appearances in the Top 10, but 2017 will be a year to remember as they reached the coveted top-dog spot, a first for both dog and handler. Lee has enjoyed a long passion for obedience, placing in the Top 10 multiple times with Scooter's buddy EZ, earning Grand Master Obedience Trial Champion titles on four Miniature Poodles and spending the last 40 years passing her knowledge on to her students. To learn more about all of our Top 10 Dogs and to review the stats, please visit the CKC's Top Dogs page.

Their new partnership and a new sport would become a perfect fit! Kathryn can't say enough about the most recent addition to the family, "Chevy is an amazing dog and made my introduction to rally a great experience." This is the second year that 'McClean' and Diane have reached the #1 spot in agility. As a spry and seasoned 11-year-old, McClean has thoroughly enjoyed channelling his inner puppy racing around the new Jump and Tunnel courses, recently introduced by the CKC in 2017. Owner Diane says that he is "proof that older dogs can still have fun!" To learn more about our Top 10 dogs and to review the stats, please visit the CKC's Top Dogs page.

A CANADIAN WIN FIT FOR THE WESTMINSTER RECORD BOOKS

It was another exciting Westminster Dog Show for Canada. Of the 120 Canadian dogs entered, 65 would receive a coveted WKC rosette, including multiple wins for breeders/owners Elaine and Louise Paquette (Bouviers), Richard Paquette and Wendy Anderson (Shih Tzu), Tracey, Peter and Sarah Muth (Dogue de Bordeaux) and Connie Krohn (Miniature Schnauzers).

The eyes of the nation were on American Eskimo Dog, Can. GChX & Am. GChP Nuukto's Atka Inukshuk CGN, bred and owned by Sharon Robertson of Ontario. 'Inuk' has been blazing a trail of firsts for his breed for the past 10 years. On Monday, he set the standard for all breeds by winning his ninth Best of Breed, perfectly presented by long-time handler Graeme Burdon. With 10 consecutive appearances (also a record), nine breed wins and the first group placement earned by an Eskie, Inuk has firmly earned his place in Westminster history.

A Group 4th in the Herding Group was won by Shetland Sheepdog Can. GCh. & Am. GChB Laureate Invincible CGN. 'Vinnie' is bred and owned by Kim Aston and Peter Culumovic of Ottawa. Vinnie, always handled by Kim, has been one of Canada's top Shelties and Herding Dogs for years and has been leaving his mark in the U.S. as well, winning the American Sheltie National in 2017 over 640 dogs.

As part of Tuesday evening's festivities, there was a special presentation made to the owners of Am. GChP Claircreek Impression De Matisse, including breeder/co-owner Donna Gottdenker. The Louis F. Bishop III Memorial Trophy is awarded to the Working Group winner and is retired when the trophy is won three times by the same owner. Matisse won the group for an impressive three consecutive years. He is among a handful of dogs to achieve this feat, the only one from the Working Group and the only Canadian to walk away with the perpetual trophy for this achievement. Chalk up another history-making moment for Canada.

In case you missed any of the excitement 'live' on the CKC's social-media platforms, here are the Canadian wins at the breed level (to AOM):
