ANNOUNCING CANADA'S TOP 10 MOST POPULAR DOG BREEDS OF 2018

New breed makes its way onto the list while top 4 stay strong

- Portuguese Water Dog makes Top 10 list for the first time ever recorded
- French Bulldog reaches Top 5
- Labrador Retriever, German Shepherd, Golden Retriever, and Poodle maintain their Top 4 spots

Toronto, January 18, 2019 - It's that time of year again; The Canadian Kennel Club (CKC), Canada's primary registry for purebred dogs, is excited to announce the Top 10 Most Popular CKC dog breeds of 2018.

It is of no surprise to dog lovers everywhere that yet again this year's list of Most Popular CKC Dog Breeds is topped by the Labrador Retriever. This immensely popular indigenous Canadian breed has been leading the pack for over two decades. Close on its tail for the past six years running are the German Shepherd Dog in the #2 spot, the Golden Retriever in 3rd, and the Poodle in 4th.

The underdog in years past, the French Bulldog has muscled its way up into 5th. These dogs have become increasingly popular due to their small stature and minimal grooming needs, making them the perfect sidekick for urban lifestyles, though they still love a great romp in the outdoors. "The French Bulldog is comical, entertaining and dependably amiable," states David Berrey, French Bulldog Fanciers of Canada President. "The first French Bulldog is the dog who gives you so much that the first is often the reason for the second French Bulldog. French Bulldogs are the smallest things to take up the most space in your heart and fills an emptiness you didn't even know you had."

New this year is the addition of the Portuguese Water Dog to the list. Just barely squeaking by the Miniature Schnauzer to nab the number ten spot, this is the first time this breed has been featured on the top ten list as far back as our records go. With their addition to the list, Portuguese Water Dogs have shown they are not shy of the spotlight, or a little hard work. Portuguese Water

Dogs are known for their stamina and intelligence, as well as being affectionate, loyal family members.

As CKC member and established Portuguese Water Dog Breeder Donna Gottdenker states, "Portuguese Water Dogs are a breed full of character, humour, and have a very playful spirit. It should be remembered they are a working dog that needs mental stimulation, socialization, and training. With this done you will have a wonderful companion!". Our own Prime Minister can attest to this fact, with the addition of Kenzie the Portuguese Water Dog to their family in 2016, following the example set by the former-US president Obama's family who have two famous PWDs as well, Bo and Sunny.

Without fail, every year the release of the Top 10 Most Popular Dog Breeds roster brings joy and excitement to dog lovers across the country. This list shows how dogs continue to be a big part of the Canadian life style.

"Dog's are an integral part of our families and our lives," says Lance Novak, Executive Director, Canadian Kennel Club. "It is our pleasure to continue to help Canadian dog owners on their journey to find a dog that fits their family and lifestyles. From choosing a breed to raising your dog, the Canadian Kennel Club is here to help every step of the way."

CKC PAYS TRIBUTE TO PAST CKC BOARD MEMBER JAMES (JIM) MALCOLM CAMPBELL

The Canadian Kennel Club regrets to announce that James (Jim) Malcolm Campbell of Kamloops, BC, passed away on the night of January 4th. A well-loved figure in the Canadian dog fancy, Jim had been a CKC member for 57 years, serving as Director of Zone 12 (British Columbia, Interior, and Yukon) for three terms from 2003 to 2011. During this time, Jim was also Chair of the Breed Standards Committee and Chair of the Retriever Field Trial Committee.

Jim had a varied career—as a jockey, to being in the Navy, and at Canada Customs—and on weekends he worked alongside professional handlers. Licensed as a professional all-breed handler by the AKC in 1971, Jim showed many top winning dogs across Canada, the United States, South America, and Europe. After retiring from handling, Jim began the successful Western Dog Shows show secretary business in partnership with his late daughter, Kim Campbell, in 1989; each year, they represented the majority of clubs in British Columbia.

In honour of his years of dedication and contribution to the CKC, and the dog fancy in general, Jim was recognized with a Judge Emeritus license at the December 2011 Board of Directors' meeting. CKC Board Chair Joan Bennett fondly recalls: "I have many memories of Jim, from lively discussions on rule interpretations to an unconventional drive to the Calgary February shows, sitting on an orange crate as the "loaner" van only had one seat, and that was for the driver—and no winter tires. Some years later I was returning from an eastern Washington circuit. When I reached the border in the middle of the night, I was told to report to the office—only to find Jim, who had had to leave the last show early in order to report to work, wanting to know the final results! There was never a dull moment, and there will never be another Jim Campbell."

Jim's infectious smile will be missed; the kind words he often had for fellow exhibitors, and his heart of gold will be long remembered. Our thoughts are with his family and many friends at this difficult time.

CKC REMEMBERS PHYLLIS WOLFISH

It is with great sadness that The Canadian Kennel Club (CKC) announces the passing of Phyllis Wolfish.

Phyllis was a bright light in the purebred dog world, known for her far-reaching and tremendous contributions as a respected judge, breeder, handler, teacher and devoted friend. The memory of Phyllis will live on in the hearts and minds of all who knew her.

Her generous and kind spirit will be remembered by many, including CKC Executive Director, Lance Novak: "I will fondly remember Phyllis as the Past Honourary CKC Chair at the last AGM where she addressed the audience with her customary thoughtfulness and grace. She will be greatly missed."

A more comprehensive tribute of Phyllis' legacy will be available in the coming days.

Our thoughts are with Phyllis' family and many friends during this difficult time.

CANADIAN DOGS AT THE AKC NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP 2018

Canadians impressed at Orlando!

The AKC National Championship returned to The Orange County Convention Centre in sunny Orlando, Florida on December 15th and 16th, 2018. The event showcased the top American and international canine athletes. The show also included popular attractions such as the Best Bred-by-Exhibitor competition, the AKC National Owner-Handled Series Finals, AKC Meet the Breeds and the NADD/AKC Dock Diving National Championship. Returning this year was the AKC Royal Canin National All-Breed Puppy and Junior Stakes, which had a very successful inaugural competition last year. The show also took place alongside the AKC Agility Invitational and AKC Obedience Classic, both which had Junior events in each sport.

The AKC National Championship Presented by Royal Canin is the largest dog show in North America and, in its 18th year drew a record number of entries. An entry of 5,003 dogs competed for the title of National Champion. Combined with the other weekend events, the overall show totals topped 9,023 entries, which made the AKC National Championship the largest dog show held in the United States since the AKC 1984 Centennial.

Although this is an American event, the show attracts such high quality dogs that it is not surprising that many Canadians and their dogs head south to compete in this great show. We had Canadian Kennel Club members competing in conformation, agility and dock diving both at the AKC National Championship and in the Orlando cluster of shows that were held the week leading up to the National Championship.

Here are some of the Canadian Dogs that did incredibly well in Orlando at the AKC National Championship.

"My Shetland Sheepdog, Fable, and I had the honour of being selected as the small dog to represent the CKC for the AKC Agility Invitational. We loved escaping the frozen tundra of Alberta to play our favourite game together in Orlando. - Overall top International dog in 24"

"I was very pleased how Tuula handled the environment and she ran her heart out for me! She earned top 10 placements in 3 of the 4 rounds. A mistake in our standard run on the first day meant that we were not in the running to make the Finals on Sunday, but she had shown me that she had the heart and the ability to work in such a high pressure environment. I am so proud of her." Wendy Beard

Congratulations to all Canadian dogs and their people who did so well at the AKC National Championship. I would like to thank my friend Mike Macbeth for sending me so many of the Canadian brags at the event. If I have missed a brag, please let me know in the comments section below.
