Only those hounds that have actually competed in the Regular Stakes and obtained a qualifying score without being excused, dismissed or declared ineligible in the preceding lure coursing field trial may compete in the conformation show.

1.2.3 A sanctioned lure coursing field trial is an informal event given by a CKC accredited club, at which dogs compete but do not earn qualifying scores towards a title.

2 GENERAL RULES & REGULATIONS

2.1 Eligibility to Hold a Lure Coursing Field Trial

2.1.1 Only a club accredited by the CKC, and formed for the purpose of holding lure coursing field trials for the following breeds: Afghan Hounds, Azawakhs, Basenjis, Borzois, Deerhounds (Scottish), Greyhounds, Ibizan Hounds, Italian Greyhounds, Pharaoh Hounds, Rhodesian Ridgebacks, Salukis, (04-10-18)

Whippets and (Irish) Wolfhounds may apply to hold an approved lure coursing field trial. A specialty breed club may apply to hold a specialty lure coursing field trial.

- 2.1.2 A club that has not held a lure coursing field trial under CKC rules will be required to hold at least 2 sanctioned lure coursing field trial matches with all aspects of same under the observation of the local CKC Board member or Lure Coursing Council Representative before consideration will be given for the club to hold an approved lure coursing field trial. Sanctioned lure coursing field trials may be run on consecutive dates if a club so wishes. Sanctioned lure coursing field trials should be held in accordance with these Lure Coursing Field Trial Rules & Regulations.
- 2.1.3 A CKC accredited lure coursing field trial club may hold a limited breed(s) specialty lure coursing field trial under the sponsorship of a specialty Sighthound club to a limit of one per breed, per zone, per year.

2.2 Making Application

- 2.2.1 A club wishing to hold a lure coursing trial must make application on a form provided by the CKC. The Event Date Application must be submitted so as to be received not less than 180 days prior to the date of the proposed trial. The application must clearly state the number of trials being applied for, the dates of the proposed trials, and the location where the trials are to be held. The CKC will notify the club whether or not the application has been approved.

(31-06-15)
- 2.2.5 The CKC shall have the authority to grant approval of an application for dates. If a date is granted and the club fails to hold its trial on that date, the club in default will be required to pay an administrative fee as set by the Board. This penalty may be waived on the grounds that the club had no alternative but to postpone or cancel its trial.
(31-06-15)

2.2.6 (31-06-15) When, due to circumstances beyond its control, a club finds it necessary or advisable to change the date of its trial, the date may be changed subject to the approval of the CKC.

2.4.2 A club that has been granted priority dates for its event may advertise those dates prior to submitting the Event Date Application. This does not exempt the club from submitting the required application to the CKC within the prescribed time frame.

2.4.3 A club must not advertise the names of the judges until the club has received official notification from the CKC that the judges have been approved.

2.5 Handlers with Disability

2.5.1 (21-09-09) At the judge's discretion a modification to the exercise/routine may be made to accommodate a handler with disabilities providing that such modification does not aid the dog's performance or inhibit other dogs and the dog is required to perform all exercises/routines.

6.1 Judging

6.1.1 Clubs may, at their discretion, use either one or two judges for any given breed or breeds. If only one judge is used, he or she must be regularly licensed for each breed so judged. In the case of a tie for any of the first 5 placements, hounds shall be re-run to break the tie under same judge(s) unless one hound withdraws or concedes. (33-06-18)

6.1.2 An apprentice report may be completed if apprentice requirements are met

6.1.3 The judge(s) shall score a course if, in the opinion of the judge(s) sufficient work to evaluate the merits of the hounds has been observed, even though 1 or more of the hounds may not have completed all of the approved course plan. Loss of the lure by one or more of the hounds shall not be grounds for a re-run, except in the case of lure malfunction. (14-12-09)

6.1.4 Any time a hound touches or catches the lure, or reacts to any portion of the lure that may have fallen off, the course should be stopped and the course may be declared a “no course” if, in the opinion of the judge(s), that action interferes with the course. Any time a hound becomes entangled in the line the lure shall be stopped and a “no course” may be called at the discretion of the judge(s).

6.1.5 If the Lure Operator does not maintain the 10 to 30 yard limit so that the lure is no longer visible to the hounds, either judge or the judge shall have the prerogative to call a “no course”.

6.1.6 Placing of winners shall be decided on the basis of the following qualities: enthusiasm, follow, agility, speed, and endurance in scoring the hounds.

6.1.7 Judges shall be governed by the following system:

Enthusiasm	15 points
Follow	15 points
Speed	25 points
Agility	25 points

Endurance	20 points
Total	100 points

Less: Pre-slip penalty from each judge,
1 to 10 points.

Less: Course delay penalty from each judge,
1 to 10 points.

- 6.1.8 When a pre-slip or a course delay occurs, it shall be at the discretion of judge(s) to levy a pre-slip or a course delay penalty. If a penalty is levied it shall be from 1 to 10 points. The pre-slip or course delay penalty shall not be carried over in the case where a “no course” is called on the course in progress.
- 6.1.9 Hounds may be excused from the field by either judge for the following reasons:
- (a) Hounds which fail to run after the “Tally-Ho” in either the preliminary or final course.
 - (b) Hounds which may be considered unfit to compete.
 - (c) Hounds which course other hounds rather than the lure.
 - (d) Hounds whose handlers or owners willfully interfere with the judge(s), officials, other competitors or their own hound.
- 6.1.10 The judge(s) shall note on the judges’ sheet the reason that the hound has been excused. If a hound is excused in the preliminary course, that hound will not count as having been in competition when computing championship points.
- 6.1.11 Hounds may be dismissed from the field for the day, by a judge or the Huntmaster and a judge, for any of the following reasons:
- (a) If their handlers interfere with the judge(s) or officials or another competitor or his hound on the field.
 - (b) Hounds interfering playfully or aggressively with another hound.
- 6.1.12 Hounds shall be declared ineligible, only on the agreement of both judges or the judge, if one judge is officiating for the following reasons:
- (23-12-17) (a) Fighting or malicious interference while being judged on the field.
 - (23-12-17) (b) The aggressor in fighting while being judged on the field.

- 6.1.13 If a hound is declared ineligible or dismissed, the course may be called a “no course” by a judge. The remaining hounds may be run in a remaining course if one exists or given the opportunity to be re-run and scored.
(14-09-15)
- 6.1.14 The decisions of the judge(s) upon all matters relating to the course are final and binding, and a change may be made only with the consent of the judge or both judges.

If the protest is not sustained, the deposit will be forwarded to the CKC with the Event Committee’s report.
- (21-03-16) (b) If the protest cannot be filed at the event because of circumstances requiring medical and/or veterinary attention, or if the dog has been removed from the grounds, or if the owner and the dog leave the grounds immediately following the incident, the protest may be submitted directly to the CKC within 10 days of the event. All such protests shall constitute complaints under the CKC’s By-laws and the provisions of same shall apply.
