MR. H. R. T. COFFIN, Glens Falls, N.Y., writes 7th July, 1887:

"The continued use of your dog cakes has proved very satisfactory to me in feeding all of my kennel dogs, both large and small, old and young, and they are thriving on the use of it to the exclusion of all other food. I shall and do take pleasure in recommending 'Spratts' Patent Dog Cakes."

SPRATTS PATENT (AMERICA) LIMITED.

Westminster Kennel Club, Babylon, L.I., October 6th, 1887.

GENTLEMEN,—I think it proper to state that I attribute the excellent condition of our pointers, and particularly of Bang-Bang (always a most difficult dog to get right), to the fact that six weeks prior to the Waverly, N.J. show I fed them almost entirely on your Cod Liver Oil cakes. I have also found the cakes invaluable for puppies recovering from distemper and other complaints of a debilitating nature. Send 500 pounds some time next week.

JAMES MORTIMER, Superintendent.

In cases of DISTEMPER, ECZEMA and other diseases, they are especially valuable, and are a most successful food for DELICATE and DAINTY FEEDING DOGS. The abundance of natural phosphates they contain insures their being a perfect food for young, growing puppies, particularly of a large breed, such as St. Bernards.

The Dog in Health and in Disease.

INCLUDING HIS ORIGIN, HISTORY, VARIETIES, BREEDING, EDUCATION, AND GENERAL MANAGEMENT IN HEALTH, AND HIS TREATMENT IN DISEASE.

By WESLEY MILLS, M.A., M.D., D.V.S., ETC.

Professor of Physiology in the Faculty of Human Medicine and in the Faculty of Comparative Medicine and Veterinary Science of McGill University, Montreal; Lecturer on Cynology in the latter Faculty; author of Animal Physiology, Comparative Physiology, How to Keep a Dog in the City, etc. With Thirty-eight full-page Cuts, One Colored Plate, and numerous other Illustrations. 8vo, cloth. Price, $2.25.

Published by D. APPLETON & CO. 1, 3 and 5 Bond Street, New York.

The author of this work has undertaken, in a clear, concise, untechnical way, to supply the large class of intelligent dog owners and breeders, and veterinarians, with the information necessary for the proper care, management, and treatment of the dog in health and disease. His well-known reputation as a writer and lecturer on human and veterinary physiology, his special study of canine diseases, and his long experience as a breeder of dogs, insure a thorough and correct handling of the subject.

UNSOLICITED OPINIONS OF THE PRESS AND INDIVIDUALS.

"Altogether the work is one of great use to the breeder and the veterinary student, and one that should find a place in every dog-man's kennel-shelf and library."—Forest and Stream.

"Very interesting and valuable."—New York Times.
"A practical protest against the treatment of dogs according to the light of the horse-doctor. The book is intended for all persons who breed, keep, or in any way take a special interest in the dog. . . . One half the book is devoted to the diseases of the dog. The symptoms and treatment are carefully given, and there is added a table of doses of the drugs found most efficacious. The volume is one to be cordially recommended."—Philadelphia Inquirer.

"It was the writer's aim to bring the book thoroughly up to date in all respects, and we think he has succeeded admirably. The illustrations are of famous dogs. The book contains over 400 pages, and the letter-press and mechanical work upon it are done in the very best style."—The Fancier's Journal, Philadelphia.

"Four hundred and seven pages are devoted exclusively to dogs. Thirty-eight full page cuts, one colored plate and numerous other illustrations, add much to its value. It is nicely printed on heavy paper, bound in cloth, and will prove of great value to the owner of one dog or a kennel, the student or the canine practitioner. The library of every one interested in the dog should contain a copy of this work."—The American Stock-Keeper, Boston.

"The numerous illustrations in the book have been drawn from various sources, especial pains having been taken to furnish models for judging the various breeds of dogs in the full-page plates. The book is intended not only for students and specialists, but for all intelligent persons who breed, keep, or in any way take a special interest in the dog."—Witness, Montreal, Can.

"The e is no predecessor to this book, not in the scope and purpose, or in the authoritative nature of its contents."—Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

"The best treatise on the subject that has appeared in this country."—Washington, D.C., Republican.

"The author is very conservative in recommending medicine or courses of treatment, and for this reason his book will commend itself to the owners of valuable dogs."—San Francisco Chronicle.

"A book to be welcomed, not only by veterinary surgeons, but by every lover and student of the dog. The typographical work and illustrations are of a very high grade. Of course those who are called upon to treat sick canines will be most interested in that part which deals with the dog in disease, but we venture to predict that the classification of the several breeds, and the chapters on the psychic characteristics and the care of the dog, will gain for the book its greatest popularity."—Chicago Interior.

"The more a certain brilliant French woman saw of men the better she liked dogs—at least that is what she said. . . . But if she could have read Dr. Mills' book on the dog she would have found that dogs are not really much different from men after all—perhaps that is why she liked them. . . . Dr. Mills has certainly produced a delightful book and one which should have a hearty welcome in these dog-show days."—N.Y. Tribune.

"You have not only taught us how to treat dogs in health and disease, but you have given those who may ever aspire to writing a book on such a subject an excellent example of how to do it."—Williamson Bryden, D.V.S., Boston, Examiner in Comparative Medicine and Veterinary Science, McGill University.

"Your book proves a real treat on perusal and it must find a place in the library of every man who loves the dog. It has only to be known to be appreciated. I have shown it to several friends, who agree with me that it is the only work of the kind up to the times."—P. G. Keyes, Esq., Judge of Spaniels at the Montreal Bench Show of 1897.

"I consider your book on the dog the best that has ever been gotten up."—B. F. Lewis, Esq., Handler of Bench Show Dogs.

"The book is cheap at the price, and I believe will have a large sale, as it covers the entire ground in a very able manner."—Victor Haldeman, Editor Fancier's Journal, Philadelphia.

"The work is quite unusually complete. Dr. Mills is evidently an authority on this subject, and his work will be of value to those who deal with dogs whether they are sick or not. The work abounds in fine cuts of the different species of dogs, and contains a great deal of anatomical and detailed information concerning each species. No one who has a valuable dog can afford to be without this work."—The Boston Herald.

Extracts from Letters to the Author.

"The copy of your valuable new book I am enjoying extremely."—Miss Anna H. Whitney, Bench Show Judge.

"I consider your new book quite equal to anything of the kind I have ever seen, and a most valuable addition to any sportsman's library; indeed it is a library in itself by covering the ground so thoroughly."—John Davidson, Esq., Bench Show and Field Trial Judge.

"It is a good book, and I must congratulate you on it, carefully compiled and up to date; it should find a ready sale on sight. The illustration are the best I ever saw in any dog book, bar none, and enhance the appearance very much."—H. W. Lacy, Esq., Bench Show Judge, etc.

"I have just finished your very admirable new work and hasten to congratulate you on giving to the public a book of such general excellence. I fully anticipated something very much beyond the ordinary before opening the cover, but was hardly prepared to find so much real, practical and useful, as well as scientific information contained in one volume."—C. H. Corbett, Esq., Supt. Kingston Bench Show.

"The work appears to be most interesting."—A. D. Stewart, Esq., Hon. Sec'y, Hamilton Kennel Club.

"The cuts are remarkably good and true. I am glad to see that you so decidedly insist that dog practice is not horse practice, or anything like it; young veterinarians cannot get to understand this fact too early. The classification is good, the remarks concerning prophylactic treatment excellent, and the drug table will be especially useful."—Dr. Charles Lyman Harvard Veterinary School, Boston.

"I have never read a work on the same subject (and I have read nearly all the published works on dogs) that has given me so much pleasure as well as information, a thing not often combined in such works."—J. S. Niven, M.D., the well-known Cynologist of London, Ont.

OTTAWA CLAIMS DATES.

OTTAWA, Dec. 17th, 1892.

H. B. DONOVAN, ESQ.,

Sec. C. K. C.

DEAR SIR,—I beg to claim Sept. 26th to 29th as dates for our Bench Show instead of the dates mentioned in my last application as the Fair Association have fixed their dates a week later than first decided on.

Yours truly,

ALFRED GEDDES,
Secretary.

CANADIAN KENNEL CLUB.

MEETING OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE, DECEMBER
20TH, 1892.

(Official Minutes.)

CANADIAN Kennel Club's Executive Committee held a meeting at the Queen's Hotel, Toronto, on December 20th, 1892, beginning at 3 o'clock.

Present—Dr. Wesley Mills, (in chair), P. G. Keyes, A. D. Stewart, H. Bedlington, H. Gorman, J. G. Mitchener, S. F. Glass, and H. B. Donovan, (Secretary).

Minutes of annual and executive meetings (as printed in GAZETTE) taken as read.

"Troublesome" Protest.—Moved by Mr. Bedlington, seconded by Mr. Stewart, that decision of judge be sustained. Carried.

The following letter was read from the judge, Mr. F. E. Curtis.

G. Bell, Esq., Toronto,

DEAR SIR,—In reply to your letter, I would say that I awarded your bitch, "Troublesome," 1st prize in the open bitch class, black, at the Ottawa Bench Show, held in September last, and had she been brought in the judge's ring should have awarded her the special for the best Cocker in said class in the show.

Yours, etc.,

FRANK E. CURTIS."

Resolved, That this Executive is of opinion that the bitch, "Troublesome," owing to protest entered against her was not allowed to compete for the special prize in the Cocker Spaniel class at Ottawa, and that had she been shown are of opinion from the communication since received from the judge, that she would have been awarded the special prize for the best Cocker in the show. Mr. Bell waives all claim to the special prize thus awarded.

"Sir John" Protest.—The Secretary was instructed to write to the A. K. C. enclosing copy of amended pedigree handed in by Mr. Bell, which, if approved of by that body, will be received as authentic and make the dog eligible for registration. Also to write Mr. F. Stettenbenz, in reply to his letters of various dates, and to Mr. C. A. Stone, Supt. of Toronto Bench Show, stating that Sir John having been disqualified at the Toronto Bench Show of 1891, the dogs placed below him are to move up in same order as placed (see Rule 20). Prize money to be disbursed according to new order. The following letters were read in connection with this case:

"Toronto, Nov. 12th, 1892."

Mr. James Watson,
Care American Kennel Club,
New York.

DEAR SIR,—At a committee meeting of the C.K.C. held last night, I was instructed to again write you asking if you would certify to the correctness of the pedigree of the St. Bernard Sir John, handed Mr. Bell by you. You may recollect I wrote you twice before with this request, but was not favored with a reply.

Yours truly,

H. B. DONOVAN,
Secretary."

"P.O. Box 146, Philadelphia, Nov. 23rd, 1892.

H. B. Donovan, Esq.,
Sec'y Canadian Kennel Club,

DEAR SIR,—Your favor of Nov. 12th, has been forwarded to me from New York. I am very sure I answered a query to the same effect a long while ago. My reply was to the effect that it was not for me to certify to the correctness of any pedigree, and that the way was open for you to procure, as I did, the information from the man who bred the dog. That the pedigree is correct as I gave it there is not the slightest question, and were it my place I should so certify, but I cannot understand why I should be asked to do so when I am not a Kennel Club official. If Mr. Bell desires to have the dog registered in the A.K.C.S.B. he can have it done with the pedigree I gave, and then the Secretary will give him a certified pedigree.

I should like to ask you for some information regarding the Great Dane judging at Ottawa, about which there has been so much written. Is it true that Dr. Mills entered a Great Dane in the class he was appointed to judge? Did he officiate when his dog was in the ring, and in conjunction with another judge selected by himself award it a prize? As we take cognizance of awards in the Stud Book, I conceive it to be my duty to bring this case before my committee, if the facts are in accordance with published statements.

Yours respectfully,

JAS. WATSON,
Sec'y Stud Book Committee."

"Pious Pembroke" Protest.—Moved by Mr. Stewart, seconded by Mr. Mitchener, that protest lodged by Mr. Wurtele be sustained, and that Mr. Purbeck refund the prize money. The dogs placed below Pious Pembroke to move up.—Carried.

Further resolved that this committee are of opinion that Mr. Purbeck's error was unintentional and that he be exonerated from acting under any dishonorable motive.

"Champion Starlight" Protest.—The following explanatory letters were read:

"Ottawa, Dec. 17th, 1892.

H. B. Donovan, Esq.

Sec. C.K.C.

DEAR SIR.—The enclosed will settle the matter of date in the Champion Starlight protest.

Yours truly,

ALFRED GEDDES."

"Ottawa, Ont. Dec. 17th, 1892.

DEAR SIR.—The telegram addressed to you from H. M. Howes, Boston, Mass., in reference to protest of Champion Starlight, was received here at 11.35 p.m., on the 7th October 1892. It was a night message and was delivered to you on the morning of the 8th October. The date (17th) on the message is a mistake. It should be seventh October.

Yours truly,

WM. NICHOLS,
Chief Clerk, G.N.W. Tel. Co.

Alfred Geddes, Esq.

P. O. Dept., Ottawa."

Moved by Mr. Mitchener, seconded by Mr. Gorman, that protest of Mr. Howes be sustained. Carried.

Committee on Show Dates.—Moved by Mr. Stewart, seconded by Mr. Glass, that Messrs. Donovan, Stone and Mitchener be a committee re show dates. Carried.

Incorporation.—Moved by Mr. Glass, seconded by Mr.

Stewart, that Secretary be instructed to ascertain cost of incorporation under Dominion statutes. Carried.

At this point Dr. Mills left the chair, which, on motion was assumed by Mr. Glass.

Mr. George Bell's Charges against Dr. Wesley Mills.

—The following communications were read:

"Toronto, November 11th, 1892.

H. B. Donovan, Esq.

Secretary, C.K.C.

SIR.—I beg to hand you some charges, against Dr. Wesley Mills of Montreal, as under, and I hope that you will bring them up for investigation before the Executive Committee at its meeting to be held this evening.

Charges.

1. That at the late Ottawa Bench Show Dr. Wesley Mills did alter an award as written by another judge in his judging book.

2. That at the late Ottawa Bench Show Dr. Wesley Mills did judge his Great Dane bitch "Minerva's Fawn" in conjunction with another judge.

3. That at the late Ottawa Bench Show Dr. Wesley Mills did judge and award his own Setter dog a diploma for best in open class, at the same time awarding one to winning bitch.

4. That at the late Ottawa Bench Show Dr. Wesley Mills did on his own responsibility, after a meeting of the Show Committee had decided that Mr. Corbett should not judge the Great Danes with him, secure the assistance of Mr. Corbett.

I am sir, yours truly,

G. BELL."

"Toronto, Dec. 20th, 1892.

H. B. Donovan, Esq.,

Sec'y Canadian Kennel Club,

SIR.—I understand that the President of the Canadian Kennel Club has declared the meeting of the Executive Committee at which I preferred certain charges against him to be illegal and unconstitutional.

I write now to say that I withdraw charge Number 4, but desire to add another charge in place thereof, so that my charges against Dr. Mills are now as follows:—

1. That at the late Ottawa Bench Show Dr. Wesley Mills did alter an award as written by another judge in his judging book.

2. That at the show Dr. Wesley Mills did judge his Great Dane bitch, "Minerva's Fawn," in conjunction with another judge.

3. That at the same show Dr. Wesley Mills did judge and award his own Setter dog a diploma for best in open class, at the same time awarding one to winning bitch.

4. That Dr. Wesley Mills has been guilty of unbecoming conduct as President of the Canadian Club in that he has permitted highly damaging charges against his good faith and honor by Mr. H. Goodman, to pass undenied, thereby allowing Canadian dogdom to be disgraced in his person.

I am, Sir, yours truly,

G. BELL."

"At a meeting of the Ottawa Bench Show Committee held on Tuesday afternoon, Dec. 8th, 1892, the following resolution was passed:—

Whereas so called 'charges' have been laid before the Canadian Kennel Club by Mr. Geo. Bell, against one of the judges at the late Ottawa Show, and have been published in some of the widely read sporting papers, which 'charges' without explanation are calculated to impart an impression injurious to the Ottawa Bench Show Committee, as well as the judge concerned, the following answers be forwarded to the Secretary of the C.K.C., to be read at the Executive Committee meeting to be held on the 20th inst., in the event of the matter being discussed at that meeting.

Answers to charges.

No. 1. That Dr. Mills after Mr. Corbett had left, discovered that one of the awards in the English Setter Dog class read H. C. Res., and as this was an anomalous award, suggested that there must have been an unintentional omission of the letter V, and further suggested that it should be inserted, in which the members of the Committee present acquiesced, and by such alteration no change in the relative positions of the dogs was made.

No. 2. He did, and by so doing no rule of the C.K.C., was violated. There was no competition in this class.

No. 3. Mr. Corbett having left for home, it was suggested that a Diploma be awarded to each of the 1st prize winners, "Mount Royal Rush" and "Lady Gordon," but the agent of the latter objected and no Diplomas were given.

No. 4. He did not; the Committee having assented to the joint judging of Great Danes.

ALFRED GEDDES,

Sec. Bench Show."

Moved by Mr. Gorman, seconded by Mr. Mitchener, that charges be considered in numerical order. Carried.

No. 1. The evidence not being clear in this case, the Chairman, on motion of Mr. Stewart, was asked to telegraph Mr. Geddes, asking if proof were forthcoming that book had been altered, and if it was, if it were done by Dr. Mills. The following reply was received:

"Ottawa, Ont., Dec. 20th, 1892.

To S. F. Glass,
Toronto, Ont.

Dr. Mills said he would take responsibility of altering. Did not see him make alteration.

ALFRED GEDDES,"

Moved by Mr. Bedlington, seconded by Mr. Gorman, that in the opinion of this Executive Committee that charge No. 1 is not sustained, no evidence or motive being shown for the change that occurred. Carried.

No. 2. Moved by Mr. Stewart, seconded by Mr. Bedlington, that the Committee finds that this charge is sustained, Dr. Mills admitting that he judged the Great Dane classes with Mr. Corbett, but in the absence of any rule forbidding such action, and there being no competition, the Committee exonerate Dr. Mills from blame in the matter. Carried.

No. 3. Moved by Mr. Bedlington, seconded by Mr. Gorman, that we find the charge is not sustained.

Moved in amendment by Mr. Stewart, seconded by Mr. Mitchener, that the words be added, "as no diplomas were received by the owners of the dogs." Amendment lost. Motion carried.

No. 4. Moved by Mr. Bedlington, seconded by Mr. Gorman, that this Executive Committee declines to take any action in regard to charge 4, as it lies beyond their jurisdiction. Carried.

Mr. Bell was present in support of his charges and to offer evidence. The motions were carried after much discussion and cross-questioning.

Meeting adjourned for thirty minutes and resumed business with the same members present.

Reports to Press.—Moved by Mr. Stewart, seconded by Mr. Mitchener, that Secretary send reports of all meetings to the kennel press, cost to be borne by the Club. Carried.

World's Fair Bench Show.—Moved by Mr. Glass, seconded by Mr. Bedlington, that competition for selection of Canadian dogs be held in Toronto on the third Tuesday and Wednesday in April. Carried.

Moved by Mr. Glass, seconded by Mr. Bedlington, that Messrs. Stone, Brodie, Donovan and Mitchener, be a Committee to generally arrange the details in connection with the holding of the Bench Show competition for the World's Fair selection in April. Carried.

Stud Book Committee.—The President appointed the Committee of 1892, Messrs. Gorman, Stone, Mitchener and Williams to act for 1893.

C. K. C. Diplomas ordered to be engrossed.

New Members.—The Secretary was instructed to cast one ballot for the reception of the following names, Messrs. R. Barnes, G. Bowman, H. Stableford, J. H. McNally, A. McKinnon, W. Barber, T. Swan Smith, H. M. Williams, R. H. Faithorne, G. H. Maxham, —Williams, (Ottawa).

NOTES AND COMMENTS

THE FOX TERRIER ZIG-ZAG,

FAS found a new owner in Mr. J. J. Biggs, of London, who this month places him in the stud. He has won several times and is grandly bred being by Champion Bacchanal out of Venatrix.

LORD DALHOUSIE.

Another dog to resume his place in our stud columns is the rough-coated St. Bernard Lord Dalhousie. He is now in prime condition tipping the scale at 180 lbs. and has quite recently been getting some large and strong litters one of fourteen and one, whelped January 9th, of thirteen, nine dogs.

BELLE ISLE ST. BERNARD KENNELS.

It is reported that Miss Anna M. Griffin, Detroit, has bought out the Royal St. Bernard Kennels, Windsor, and has established a kennel under above name.

MR. W. HAMMALL,

Toronto, has bought the imported wire-hair Fox Terrier bitch, Luna. She is by Halifax Bugler out of Nettle and has been bred to Mr. Heward's imported Ben.

MR. J. O. BENNETT,

advises us that his Fox Terrier, Colonel, was 1st in the puppy class at the Toronto local show and not as we gave it.

GORDON SETTERS.

The Mount Royal Kennels are giving up the breeding of Gordon Setters and are offering all their bitches for sale, including Challenge Hilda. This kennel won the dog, bitch, brace and kennel prize for this breed at the last Toronto Show, so that some bargains may be had.

MESSRS. GEDDES & CUNNINGHAM. OTTAWA,

are disposing of all their Cocker Spaniels and are going into Irish Terriers. They have purchased that noted bitch Ballymoney, the dam of Salem Witch. She is by Benedict ex-Argus the bitch known as the dam of more winners than any other Irish Terrier. Ballymoney has now a litter of six, five dogs, by Jack Briggs. Another purchase is a bitch by Valley Boxer ex-Sissy, which will remain at the Salem Kennels until bred to Jack Briggs. With this stock the new kennels should give this game Terrier a lift in Canada.

MR. A. D. STEWART, HAMILTON,

is selling off his entire kennel of Fox Terriers, in fact most of the dogs have already been disposed of including Raby Domino to Mr. E. K. Hart, of New York, Hillside Baroness to Mr. A. M. Young, New York, Silver Lover, Silver Domino, &c., &c. None are now left except My Fellow and two bitch puppies by Raby Domino. We should not be at all surprised to learn of a team of Bull-dogs travelling Hamilton-wards.

MR. GEO. BELL, TORONTO,

took a small team of Spaniels to Gloversville N.Y., winning firsts on King of Obos, I Say and Chestnut, also the special for best kennel.

MR. W. B. PALMER,

was surprised to see his new purchase Obo III. in Mr. Spracklin's list of stud dogs and writes that he wishes it to be distinctly understood that he is his property alone and will be found at his kennels in Hamilton.

MR. PALMER

has bought that good brood bitch Topsy dam of Oban, Molly Bawn, King Raven and others. Topsy is three years old and is by Black Grat (Ch. Obo II—Critic) out of a grand-daughter of Champion Obo II.

BARKLETS.

COMPLAINTS have been made in regard to the unfairness displayed in some of the show reports which appeared in the kennel papers, and to remedy this it has been suggested that hereafter all reports should be signed by the writers. In this view our editor coincides, and promises that in future "only such reports as are signed by the author will appear in the GAZETTE." To the reporter of the future I extend my heartfelt commiserations. We have recently had evidence in the columns of the GAZETTE of the effect produced on the mind of one exhibitor, by an unsigned criticism of his dogs, what may we not expect when the signature of the critic leaves no doubt as to the identity of the offender?

If the recent decision of the C. K. C. in the "Troublesome" case means anything, it means that we have no recognized standard in Canada for our national dog. This will prove an eye-opener to our Spaniel breeders, who have heretofore relied for protection from pigmies and overgrown specimens on the rule adopted by the C. K. C. which reads as follows: "In any class where there is a limit of weight the person in charge of the dog entered in such a class may claim of the show committee the right at any time before the judging to have his dog weighed, and the weight of his dog shall be registered, and hold good at the time of judging." I understand Mr. Bell's "miniature specimen" was weighed and found wanting, having tipped the beam at 16¾ lbs. Of course if we have no recognized standard, it is easy to account for the club's ruling, but one would hardly expect an American Spaniel Club judge to be the first to deny the existence of a standard which it is presumed he was elected to support.

If the C.K.C. is unwilling to accept the American Spaniel Club's definition of a "Cocker," it is high time that the Canadian Spaniel breeders were informed what the Club has to offer as a substitute. At present they are groping in the dark.

BARKUS.

[We must ask "Barkus" to read Mr. Curtis' letter in official minutes of last C.K.C. executive meeting, (see another page of this number), and to ponder on the following facts:

1. However clearly it might have been supposed that Spaniel Club rules would govern, no mention of such is made in the schedule. Hence the judge is given the option of saying whether the bitch shall win or not.

2. The C.K.C. could act only on the documentary evidence before them, and we don't think no matter how judgment inclined, could take cognizance of any pleas as to usage, &c., where such is not stated in the schedule.

3. Rule XII reads "the judge's decision will be final in all cases effecting the merits of the dogs." In the absence of any printed rule could the C.K.C. come to any other decision than they did?

Mr. Curtis' letter to Mr. Bell, considerably altered our opinion as to the merits of the case, it practically left nothing for the committee to decide.—ED.]

THE AIREDALE TERRIER.

THE following paper on the "Airedale Terrier," was read by Mr. H. P. Mullens of Cobourg, at the last meeting of the Toronto Kennel Club.

We hope to present a portrait of a famous member of this breed, Champion Wharfedale Rush, in next issue of GAZETTE.

MR. PRESIDENT, CHAIRMAN, AND GENTLEMEN:

I take it as a great honor to read you a paper on the Airedale Terrier, and I have no doubt that there are many among you who know quite as much about the subject as I do. What I am about to read is taken from several different authors, and partially from my own experience of the breed for a period of ten years. I will now attempt to give you a brief sketch of the history of this breed from its first acceptance as a recognised breed up to the present day. The breed was first introduced by the colliers and working class in Yorkshire, and the question then arose, what should these rough and ready Yorkshire tykes be called? He has been known by several different names; in the first place, the "Waterside Terrier," this name suited him very well as being descriptive of one of the chief characteristics of the breed, for be the weather hot or cold, and it is of no consequence how cold, he is always ready for a swim, and no day is too long for him beating through the rushes, and swimming backwards and forwards across the river after his game, and this he can keep up all day; a few shakes and a roll or two and his hard wiry coat is dry; but this name of "Waterside Terrier" was objected to as it would also apply nearly as well to other varieties, and was consequently discarded as not being sufficiently descriptive. Secondly he was styled the "Bingley Terrier;" this name suited him well as it was at Bingley show where he was originally seen in greatest perfection both as regards quantity and quality, but then Bingley had no greater claim to this breed than many other places in the district, and so finally he was called the "Airedale Terrier," being named after that district in which he was best known and where he is said to have originated, namely, that part of Yorkshire known as Airedale. This then is the name under which he is at present known and exhibited. Here I may mention that I have always considered it a mistake to call him a Terrier, though of course he is built on Terrier lines, yet I think the word Terrier gives one the idea of a small dog and this the Airedale Terrier certainly is not, as a dog weighs from 40lbs to 45lbs and a bitch from 35lbs to 40lbs. I have known more than one winner weigh as much as 55lbs and yet they were built on Terrier lines, personally I think it would have been far better to have called him the Airedale. But yet what's in a name? This breed is the result some say, of a cross between the Otter-hound and Bull-Terrier, I have also heard that the Irish Terrier and Bedlington were used, but whatever the cross may have been, there is no doubt that the rough Otter-hound had a lot to answer for in the manufacture as any one who has breed them can answer for, for in nearly every litter there appear puppies showing far more Hound character than Terrier, and this brings me to the general character and disposition of the breed. With his master and those he knows well, no dog could be more affectionate and faithful, a perfect watch and terror to tramps, but to strangers my advice is to leave him alone as he is inclined to resent any undue familiarity. As a sporting dog he is hard to beat as you cannot put him out of his place, a splendid vermin killer, be it rat, cat, badger or fox, he is at the same time a perfect retriever. I myself without for a moment wishing to be egotistical, had in an Airedale what I consider perfection of dog flesh, for many a time I shot over him all day, and spent the evening rat killing with an occasional cat; he was a splendid companion, and whenever I showed him he was always in the money; and this can also be said of many other specimens of the breed. As regards the chief breeders and exhibitors of this day and in the past; I may mention first and foremost, Mr. Bryans of Cholmondeley, this gentleman has done more for the breed than any other man. Among his dogs are Champion Newbold Test, Cholmeley Briar, Bondsman and many others. I had expected to be able to read you some of Mr. Bryan's opinions of the breed but, unluckily, I have not yet heard from him. Among other well known men I may mention Mr. S. Walker who owns Colne Crack, Mr. Jackson who owned Champion Rustic Lad, in my opinion one of the best Airedales that ever breathed, Mr. Bairstow, the breeder of Rustic Rose, Rustic Triumph and many others. Most of the Airedale breeders are north-country men. I had hoped to have a specimen of the breed to show you, but I could not obtain the only specimen we have in this city.

I will now describe to you the chief points of the breed: The head, skull should be flat and moderately narrow, no perceptible stop except in profile, jaw long and powerful, rather deep and moderately square at the end. Mouth, level and teeth large. Eye, small, bright and dark in color with Terrier expression. Ears, V shaped, moderate in size and thickness, carried like a Fox-Terriers and free from long silky hair. Neck, fairly long, well carried and free from throatiness. Shoulders, fine, long and well loped. Chest, deep and muscular but not wide. Back, short, straight and strong, the ribs well sprung. Loin, broad and powerful and well ribbed up. Hind-quarters, should be strong and show plenty of muscle. Tail, stout and docked, and set on rather high. Legs, straight with plenty of bone, feet round and thick in sole. Coat, rough, wiry, dense and free from curl or silkiness. Color, dark grey back from occiput to end of tail and down the sides, with dark markings on the cheeks, the rest of the body a good tan, darker on the ears. Weight, dogs 40 to 45 lbs., bitches 35 to 40 lbs.

MR. P. HART'S KENNEL.

THE writer who is a friend of the dog—no matter whether large or small—chanced to be in Belleville a short time ago and there saw a very fine rough-coated St. Bernard, and in answer to the inquiry as to whether it was bred in Belleville was told it was and that Phillip Hart was the breeder. I immediately made up my mind that the first spare time I had should be devoted to a trip to Mr. Hart's kennels. The following day the opportunity presented itself and I paid my visit. I must say the half-hour that I spent there was very interesting.

Mr. Hart has about forty dogs representing three breeds—these are Scotch Terriers, Collies and St. Bernards, but I should judge the St. Bernard has the first place in his affections. The morning I was there one of his Collie bitches presented him with six dog puppies, and considering their breeding they must turn out good ones. Of St. Bernards he has one litter out of Queen Vic by Nosco, and I must say it has never been my privilege to see a finer lot of puppies. Beautifully marked, splendid bone, good color and immense size, and Mr. Editor, if you should be in Belleville, pay a visit to this kennel and I can promise you a royal welcome and a very interesting time.

Napanee, Dec. 22nd, 1892.

NOVICE.

"DANIEL IS HERE."

CERTAINLY the letter of Mr. J. Otis Fellows of Hornellsville, N.Y., in your Dec. issue must be a surprise to many. Such gentlemen as Messrs. Richardson, Wilmerding and Moerlein and I will be pleased to learn that we have been wasting our time on worthless dogs. And such judges as awarded firsts, specials and champions to some of the Clumbers in my kennels may like to know that they are misplaced and wrongly bestowed and that because of their ignorance regarding this breed, and that records are of no value. Think of some of our best judges awarding champion prizes to dogs that were not worth "a pair of cocker pups"! These prizes have been awarded to dogs that were "only good to stow away unlimited quantities of grub." Is this not the very man the kennel world has been looking for! "A Daniel come to judgement!" The man who knows it all! There is an old Arabian proverb that runs thus: "Never tell all you know, for in telling all you know, you may tell more than you know!" I commend this to the man who has told us so much.

Brookline, Dec. 20th, 1892.

JAMES L. LITTLE.

FOX TERRIERS.

FOLLOWING will be found the rules and standard adopted by the newly formed Canadian Fox-Terrier Club, and we think this a fitting opportunity to reproduce from the Stock Keeper portraits of the famed D'Orsay and his kennel mate Dominie. The following extracts are from a description which appeared in our contemporary of February 20th, 1891, when the writer of the sketch accompanied the artist when the drawing for the engraving was being made:

"You are looking at £700" said Mr. Redmond, as the four noses sniffed acquaintance with us through the bars. The noses belonged to D'Orsay and Dominie, Dominie and his daughter Dona. Their owner told us he dare never kennel the sexes together. I was pleased to hear it, for nowadays the remark is too often heard that Fox-terriers are soft. Mr. Pencil is getting impatient; however, we soon find him a comfortable low seat in the coach-house, and D'Orsay is held in the opposite corner with a good light streaming through the door on him. Mr. Redmond is a marvel at showing a dog: a little too restless, perhaps, as, when an artist gets his model in the right position, he likes him to stop there; but our host is so impressed with that indefinable quality, terrier character, that he feels he must make Mr. Pencil feel it, so, before D'Orsay is settled into a position, he is marched round the yard in order that the artist may get his eye in. D'Orsay is not an easy dog to draw. He has the black head of his grandfather Result. While the pencil dodged about the paper, a capital dodge was practiced to arrest the dog's attention. The kennelman was instructed to put Dominie on the chain and lead him backwards and forwards past the door. The effect on D'Orsay as his arch foe passed and repassed was to electrify him: his limbs seemed to stiffen with passion, and the whole body became rigid, and a living illustration of 'varminty.' His head strikes me as being of extraordinary length for a dog of his size (he weighs 16½ lbs.) and for his compactness. His ears are perfect, he has a beautiful neck, strong and muscular, well let into capital shoulders, his legs and feet are of the best in make and shape, and well set on to an almost faultless body. When he first entered public life it was as Russley Toff, the show being that held by the Midland Fox-terrier Club last year. He next appeared at Gloucester, where his puppyship got beaten by Dominie. At Leicester he met Digby Grand, Mr. Doyle was officiating, and the competition between the one-year-old D'Orsay and Digby Grand was so close that the judge went down on his hands and knees to more closely scrutinise the pair, eventually giving it to the pup. It was here that his present owner bought him for £200. Since then he has continued his successes, which include 1st Crystal Palace and cup for best Terrier in the show, and 1st and special cup, Birmingham, 1890. That he is bred all right may be taken for granted, his pedigree showing sixteen crosses of Old Belgrave Joe, fourteen crosses of Old Foiler. Mr. Pencil now intimates that he has got all he requires for his sketch, so Mr. Redmond asks me to hold D'Orsay while he fetches Dominie, who, to my astonishment, suddenly appears on the scene alone, without chain and collar, and thirsting for D'Orsay's gore. I whip D'Orsay off his legs up in the air and hold him as high as I can out of the reach of Dominie, who makes frantic springs to get a bit of my charge, who is just as mad to get down and have it out. Help is quick at hand, Dominie is caught and handed to me, while D'Orsay is paraded off, turning round as he is pulled away in the opposite direction to tell Dominie what he would have done to him if he had only got the chance. I was holding Dominie on the ground by the scruff of his neck waiting for a chain and collar, when back comes D'Orsay, whom the kennelman thought he had pushed into his quarters, but it proved a slip, my masters, and quicker than it takes to write it, close on £400 worth of dog was being spoiled. I caught Dominie by the stern, and running my hand up his back and thence to his muzzle, induced him to relax his grip. He was reluctant to change his hold, for he had got D'Orsay in a soft place by the eye. At last we got D'Orsay safely kennelled up, and Dominie was put through his paces to show his action. He is just two years the older dog of the two. He is a great favorite with his master, and often accompanies him on long drives and rides. He is a sweet little chum, and a model dog in the house. In many respects, as Mr. Pencil observed, he differs vastly from D'Orsay, and I should say it takes a better Terrier judge to find Dominie's points than it does to see D'Orsay's. Dominie had won his spurs before he moved into this kennel; when he was called Biddulph Tutor he won at Bangor, Manchester and Sheffield. It was at the last named exhibition that Mr. Redmond saw him, and after he had been awarded first prize claimed him, and a few hours subsequent to his doing so Mr. Vicary gave the dog the cup over Result. It will be interesting to quote here Mr. Vicary's report of this contest, particularly as Mr. Vicary happens to be one of those rare birds who can make a correct award and afterwards give a reason for doing so without weakening his position. In the KENNEL GAZETTE, September, 1888, writing of this special, Mr. Vicary says:—

"The cups were for the most part settled by previous awards, Biddulph Tutor and First Flight scoring, until the cup given for the best in the show brought Result and Biddulph Tutor on the boards. It is patent to any one who looks him critically over that Result is not the dog he was; every dog has his day, and it will not do to be beguiled by the glamour of a brilliant reputation; every judge feels a natural hesitation about upsetting previous records and a popular favourite, but I had no doubts about my duty in this case, and the young dog won. That he only won in shoulders, as is stated by some of your contemporaries, is quite an error from my point of view—probably a more careful one than that of the reporters. In head Result scores; as regards leanness Tutor has the flatter skull, the best expression; character, and decidedly the better ears in shape and carriage; in eye both are good, the young dog for choice; neck equal; in shoulders and chest Tutor walks in; back and loin Result scores a little, more from make-up in condition than from actual formation; hind-quarters equal, stern equal; in legs and feet Tutor again wins hands down; his legs had more bone, and better bone than ever Result could show, whilst now Result's heavy top has quite done for his legs at the knees; at his ease he stands badly; in coat Result has an advantage from better condition. Tutor's is very good in texture and quantity, but has a seedy look about it; size equal. Result was the more active on chain, but I judge the youngster to be a grand-actioned Terrier, as quick as they make them, and I am open to correction if he be not found top of the tree in this respect in every kennel he may visit. In general appearance Result gives a very attractive show, but it will not stand analysing; his forehead is too loaded, his legs are not well placed, nor boned enough for their present load; the young dog is beautifully balanced, has no weak point anywhere from a working point of view, and the more you steady him the better he comes out; a dog who can win approval from men who are sportsmen first, and who are somewhat disposed to look down on the production of fanciers. This may not be the type approved of by those who hate game dogs, but it is a type that men who have a practical experience of terriers in work as well as on the bench will, I believe, approve of."

"Dominie is shown everywhere, and always successfully, unless he happens to meet the redoubtable bitch Vesuvienne or her kennel companion Venio. Dominie did not pose for the artist like D'Orsay. A four-footed lady fair was paraded forth to excite his attention, but the result was not satisfactory, as it induced him to assume a courting air, a languishing, amorous expression, which would not have suited our picture, so a new means was contrived by which we were able to let D'Orsay just peep out of a little trap door, then Dominie stood on the tips of his toes and looked wicked. 'There,' cries his owner, 'that's Dominie in the ring.' A fine handler is Mr. Redmond. Dominie's characteristics are his rare 'terrier' character, and his wonderful fire and go, which he transmits to his progeny in a marked degree."

"Dominie was claimed at his catalogue price, £100, at the Sheffield Show, when he was but twelve months old. As before-mentioned Mr. Redmond claimed Dominie after he had been awarded first prize in the open class, and the high opinion he had formed of the dog was fully confirmed when a little later in the day he was placed above Result for the cup. Since then, by many meritorious wins, he has worked his way into the challenge class. Mr. Redmond has been importuned times out of number to put a price on this dog, and has always declined to list to the voice of the tempter."

"D'Orsay is a patrician of the bluest blue blood. Besides his sixteen crosses of old Belgrave Joe and fourteen of old Foiler, he can boast an extraordinary combination of winning blood in his relationship to Result, Regent, Rachel, Brockenhurst Joe, Brockenhurst Sting, and other well-known names. D'Orsay has won every time exhibited; he has answered every question that has been put to him. In his puppyhood already he took up a leading position among the foremost benchers of the day, and his unbroken list of wins includes the highest honours open to a show Terrier, among them first and cup for best of all classes at the Crystal Palace, and first and special Birmingham."

D'Orsay had quite recently to lower his colors to a new claimant for show honors.

RULES AND STANDARD OF THE CANADIAN FOX-TERRIER CLUB, 1892.

1. The name of the club shall be "The Canadian Fox-Terrier Club."

2. The Canadian Fox-Terrier Club is established with a view to promote the breeding of pure fox-terriers; to define precisely and publish a definition of the true type; and to urge the adoption of such type on breeders, judges, dog show committees, etc., as the only recognized and unvarying standard by which fox-terriers ought to be judged, which may in future be uniformly accepted as the sole standard of excellence, in breeding and awarding prizes of merit to fox-terriers; and (by giving prizes, supporting shows and taking other steps) to do all in its power to protect and advance the interests of the breed.

3. The government and management of the club shall be vested in a committee of twelve, which shall be elected annually at a general meeting of the club.

4. All vacancies occurring on the committee shall be filled by a majority of the members thereof.

5. The committee shall annually elect from its members a President, Vice-president, and Secretary-Treasurer.

6. Such officers, or any of them, may, at any time, for violation of duty, be removed by the committee, and the vacancies filled.

7. The committee shall from time to time make regulations in accordance with the powers herein given, or on matters not herein provided for.

8. The committee shall cause to be prepared annually a detailed statement of the financial condition of the club, showing its receipts and expenditures for the current year, the number of the members, and other matters of interest to the club; and a copy shall be forwarded to each member. The fiscal year shall terminate on the 30th of September of each year.

9. The interpretation of these rules shall be given by the committee.

10. The President of the club, or, in his absence, the Vice-President, shall preside at all meetings of the club or of the committee, and shall have power to call special meetings.

11. The Secretary shall keep a complete record of all meetings of the club or committee, and of all matters of which a record shall be ordered by the club. He shall have charge of the correspondence of the club. On the election of a member he shall send him a written notice of his election, and furnish him with a printed copy of the Rule and Standard of the club, and request him to pay his annual dues. He shall notify officers and members of their election or appointment, and shall issue notices to members of all meetings. He shall keep a roll of the members of the club, with their addresses.

12. The Treasurer shall collect and receive all moneys due or belonging to the club, and receipt therefor. He shall deposit the same in such bank as shall be designated by the committee in the name of the club. His books shall at all times be open to the inspection of the committee, and he shall report to it, at every meeting, the condition of the finances of the club, and every item of receipt and payment not before reported; and at the annual meeting of the club he shall render an account of all moneys received and expended during the year previous, which account must be audited by two auditors to be nominated annually by the President.

13. Every candidate for membership shall be proposed and seconded by two members of the club.

14. The name, profession and residence of the candidate shall be inserted, at least ten days before the balloting, in a book designated for that purpose, and to be kept by the Secretary.

15. To elect any candidate four votes must be cast, and one black ball in four will exclude.

16. Every person shall, within thirty days after notification by the Secretary, pay to the Treasurer his annual dues, and shall then, and not before, be a member of the club. In case of failure to do this his election shall be void.

17. The interest of any member in the property of the club ceases with termination of his membership.

18. The committee shall have power, by a two-thirds vote of the whole board, to forfeit the membership of any member of the club for conduct, on his part, likely in the board, to endanger the welfare or character of the club.

19. Notice shall be mailed to each member when his annual dues are payable, and should his dues remain unpaid for thirty days after the regular notice has been given, he shall cease to be a member of the club, except in case of absence from the country, which shall be left to the discretion of the committee.

20. As soon as may be convenient after the 1st August in each year, the Secretary shall cause a list of the members to be printed, and shall send a copy to each member of the club, with a request that he shall vote for twelve gentlemen to form a committee for the ensuing year. The member must place his mark or initials against the names of those gentlemen he desires to vote for. Each member shall have twelve votes which must be placed in single votes against the names of twelve gentlemen on the list. No plumping or partial plumping will be allowed, and voting papers that may have plumpers on will be declared void.

The voting papers shall not be opened except at the annual meeting of the club, and the twelve gentlemen receiving the highest number of votes shall form the committee for the coming year.

21. The club may be dissolved at any time, with written consent of not less than two-thirds of the members for the time being. After payment of all the debts and liabilities of the club, the property and assets of the club shall be divided equally among the members.

22. The members of the club shall hold an annual general meeting during the Fall Bench Show of the Toronto Exhibition, and seven shall form a quorum.

23. A special meeting of the club shall be called by the President, upon a written request of five members of the club.

24. These rules can be amended only by a two-thirds vote of the members present at a regular or special meeting.

25. At the meeting of the club, the order of business, so far as the character and nature of the meeting may admit, shall be as follows:

1. Calling of roll and reading of minutes; 2. Report of committee; 3. Election; 4. Treasurer's statement; 5. General business; 6. Adjournment;

26. All special committees shall be appointed by the chair, unless otherwise ordered in the motion.

27. Every member shall pay the sum of two dollars as annual dues, payable on the first day of October of each year.

28. All complaints or suggestions as to the management must be made in writing to the committee.

29. All resignations must be written, addressed to the Secretary. No member can resign while he is in debt to the club.

30. Four members of the committee shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

31. A Canadian-bred fox-terrier shall be understood to be a dog or bitch born in Canada.

32. All special prizes which may from time to time be offered by the club for competition by its members shall be open to fox-terriers owned in Canada only, and no departure shall be allowed from this rule.

33. None of the club cups, prizes, or specials shall be offered at any Bench Show at which separate classes are not provided for dogs and bitches, or at which smooth and wire-haired fox-terriers are classed together.

POINTS OF THE FOX-TERRIER.

The Standard recommended by the Canadian Fox-Terrier Club.

I.—HEAD.

The Skull should be flat and moderately narrow, and gradually decreasing in width to the eyes. Not much "stop" should be apparent, but there should be more dip in the profile between the forehead and top jaw than is seen in the case of the greyhound.

The Cheeks must not be full.

The Ears should be V shaped and small, of moderate thickness, and drooping forward close to the cheek, not hanging by the side of the head like a foxhound's.

The Jaw, upper and under, should be strong and muscular. Should be of fair punishing strength, but not so in any way to resemble the Greyhound or modern English Terrier. There should not be much falling away below the eyes. This part of the head should, however, be moderately chiselled out, so as not to go down in a straight slope like a wedge.

The Nose, towards which the muzzle must gradually taper, should be black.

The Eyes should be dark in color, small and rather deep set, full of fire, life and intelligence; and as nearly as possible circular in shape.

The Teeth should be as nearly as possible level, i.e., the upper teeth on the outside of the lower teeth.

2.—NECK.

Should be clean and muscular, without throatiness, of fair length, and gradually widening to the shoulders.

3.—SHOULDERS.

Should be long and sloping, well laid back, fine at the points, and clearly cut at the withers.

CHEST.

Deep and not broad.

4.—BACK.

Should be short, straight and strong, with no appearance of slackness.

LOIN.

Should be powerful and very slightly arched. The foreribs should be moderately arched, the back ribs deep; and the dog should be well ribbed up.

5.—HIND QUARTERS.

Should be strong and muscular, quite free from droop or crouch; the thighs long and powerful; hocks near the ground, the dog standing well up on them like a Foxhound, and not straight in the stifle.

6.—STERN.

Should be set on rather high, and carried gaily, but not over the back or curled. It should be of good strength anything approaching a "pipe-stopper" tail being especially objectionable.

7.—LEGS.

Viewed in any direction must be straight, showing little or no appearance of ankle in front. They should be strong in bone throughout, short and straight in pastern. Both fore and hind legs should be carried straight forward in travelling, the stifles not turning outwards. The elbows should hang perpendicularly to the body, working free of the sides.

FEET.

Should be round, compact, and not large. The soles hard and tough. The toes moderately arched, and turned neither in nor out.

8.—COAT.

Should be straight, flat, smooth, hard, dense and abundant. The belly and under side of the thighs should not be bare.

9.—COLOR.

White should predominate; brindle, red, or liver markings are objectionable. Otherwise this point is of little or no importance.

10.—SYMMETRY, SIZE AND CHARACTER.

The dog must present a generally gay, lively and active appearance: bone and strength in a small compass are essentials; but this must not be taken to mean that a fox-terrier should be cloggy, or in any way coarse; speed and endurance must be looked to as well as power, and the symmetry of the Foxhound taken as a model. The terrier, like the hound, must on no account be leggy, nor must he be too short in the leg. He should stand like a cleverly made hunter, covering a lot of ground, yet with a short back as before stated. He will then attain the highest degree of propelling power, together with the greatest length of stride that is compatible with the length of his body. Weight is not a certain criterion of a terrier's fitness for his work—general shape, size and contour are the main points: and if a dog can gallop and stay, and follow his fox up a drain, it matters little what his weight is to a pound or so, though, roughly speaking, it may be said that he should not scale over 20 lbs. in show condition.

WIRE-HAIRED FOX TERRIER.

This variety of the breed should resemble the smooth sort in every respect except the coat, which should be broken. The harder and more wiry the texture of the coat is, the better. On no account should the dog look or feel woolly; and there should be no silky hair about the poll or elsewhere. The coat should not be too long, so as to give the dog a shaggy appearance; but at the same time it should show a marked and distinct difference all over from the smooth species.
