TIME TO PAY UP.

Editor Gazette:

I WON two second prizes of $2 each at the Toronto Show in April last. I have written the Secretary twice and never got any answer yet. Can you tell me anything about the affair? I was also a prize winner at the Hamilton Show the same week. I have written Mr. Tulk twice and no answer. Can you tell me if they have paid anyone yet? I think it is about time both those shows were settling up. What do you think?

Yours, etc.,

NOTES AND COMMENTS

C.K.C.—A K.C. WHAT THE AGREEMENT ENTAILS.

WE reprint in this issue the agreement entered into by the Canadian Kennel Club and the American Kennel Club dated July 17th last. It seems plain enough but a glance through its details with a few running remarks may simplify a few of the business items. Art. I. is quite clear, it simply means that the C.K.C. executive becomes the Advisory Board of the A.K.C. The A.K.C. retains supreme power. The C.K.C. Stud Book or register whichever you please to call it, is discontinued and all monies must be sent for registrations direct to the A.K.C. The two free registrations allowed and the registrations at a reduced fee for dogs already entered in the C.K.C.S.B. should be sent to the Secretary of the C.K.C. for certification. The free registration will then be forwarded by him to New York, but the registrations of dogs at the fifty cent fee are returned to the owners to be sent by them to the A.K.C., together with the necessary dues.

WINS SINCE 1892 DO NOT COUNT.

No wins of shows held under C.K.C. rules since 1892 will be recognized by the A.K.C. So that all dogs, even if in challenge class, which make their debut in the interval are yet eligible for entry in novice classes. Again, any dogs which have reached the challenge class by wins at these shows must now go back to the open class and win again the coveted honor. All in all it is a most beautiful mix up.

ALL DOGS MUST BE REGISTERED

or listed with the A.K.C. before being eligible for exhibition. This rule will be most strictly enforced.

IF ANY POINTS

are not clear we shall be glad to explain the terms as far as we can.

A NEW BULL TERRIER KENNEL.

The Mount Royal Kennels have disposed of all their Bull Terriers to Mr. Sidney Britcher, of Montreal. The well known bitch Newmarket Syren has just whelped a nice litter to Little Flyer, in Mr. Britcher's kennel. It is likely that a fine young dog, one of the good little ones, will be placed at stud by the new proprietor. We wish Mr. Brit-cher all success, as we understand he is the sort of man that deserves it.

CHAMPION TOMMY TICKLE

is a fifty-pound dog, two years old, and was bred in England by Mr. Thomas Craig. He is by Rosebery Boy ex Amaze-ment. Mr. John Lorillard Arden, his owner, writes us that it is likely Tommy Tickle will put in an appearance at Toronto next month.

CHAMPION CARDONA

has been a frequent winner, both here and in England. He was whelped in 1891, and is by Gully The Great ex Fenton Queen. Mr. Wainscott was his breeder.

AMERICAN SPANIEL CLUB.

The recent election of club judges resulted in the following gentlemen being elected: James Mortimer, E. M. Oldham, A. C. Wilmerding, Charles H. Mason, S. J. Bradbury, M.D., George Douglas, James Watson, J. F. Kirk, Andrew Laidlaw and J. P. Willey.

THE NORFOLK KENNELS, TORONTO, have imported a good brood bitch in Valse, by Vis a Vis, out of Hunten Bell. Valse came out in whelp to Valuator and has won in England.

ANOTHER NEW COLLIE.

Mr. C. Y. Ford has imported from Mr. T. H. Stetch's kennel a young dog said to be an exceptionally good one, out of the great pair Champion Ormskirk Emerald and Ormskirk Memoir. He will be shown at Toronto as part of a strong team from Mr. Ford's kennel.

"ARTFUL 'ARRY."

In the American Stock-Keeper of July 24th, Mr. H. W. Lacy writes: "Our friendly contemporary, CANADIAN KENNEL GAZETTE, says in its June issue, headed 'May,' that we were probably not aware, when alluding to the non-appearance of the C. K. C. A. K. C. proposed agreement in their (regular) May GAZETTE, that it was withheld from publication by request of the committee in courtesy to the A. K. C., in whose hands the document was. 'Moreover, if he (Mr. Lacy) can point out it to us in the report printed some weeks later in American Kennel Gazette, 'equally liable or more so' with us we will provide him with his new fall head gear, when he visits the Toronto show." Now, that is very nice of Mr. Donovan. Mr. Donovan gets out such an interesting number that we keep track of each one, therefore he cannot muddle the issue by getting out two "May" numbers a month apart. Now for that hat! In the May issue A. K. C. Gazette, Mr. Donovan will find in the secretary's report of the A. K. C. meeting, held May 20, the proposed agreement, as decided upon in executive meeting, at which Mr. Vredenburg assisted. This came out ten days after the C. K. C. GAZETTE for the same month. In the May 29 issue of American Stock-Keeper he will also find the same thing, published nine days after our Canadian contemporary. Our size is 6¾ (although some of our friends say it is much larger, but we know what fits us best this weather) and we'll take a straw.

(Postscript.)—We don't want want to be too hard on our Canadian cousin, but really he would not get off any too cheaply by paying for a hat-box as well, for we find Mr. Vredenburg's telegram, dated May 20, 1897, saying the A. K. C. meeting was unwilling to ratify the agreement, is published in a supplement to the C. K. C. May GAZETTE, under date of May, 1896.)

Now, isn't this all very nice, but then again, isn't it so incorrect! We again repeat that the "document" (mark, Mr. L.) was not printed in the minutes of the A. K. C. meeting of May 20 reported in the American Kennel Gazette for May, and is simply alluded to in the words "The memorandum of agreement drawn by the representatives of the Canadian Kennel Club, after the conference with Mr. Vredenburg on behalf of the special committee appointed by the American Kennel Club was read." This may be found on page 80. If Mr. Lacy will point out to us in the May A. K. Gazette the articles of proposed agreement printed on page 73 of the CANADIAN KENNEL GAZETTE we are still open with the offer of the new headgear.

(Postscript.)—We freely acknowledge the printer's errors, but then a paper that resides in a glass house should not be too free in throwing stones. As we figure it out now "H. W. L." owes us a new hat, and we may give him the timely hint that our size is seven and a quarter. We were rather surprised to learn that we wore a bigger "tile" than the editor of the "great and only." We will have the hat-box ready.

CANADIAN COLLIE CLUB.

A meeting of the Canadian Collie Club was held on Tuesday evening, 13th July, in Dr. Charles McEachran's lecture room, 6 Union Avenue, Montreal. Amongst other business the meeting decided to offer a handsome silver medal to the Toronto Show in September next for the best Collie (dog or bitch) owned and exhibited by a member of the Canadian Collie Club. Parties desiring to become members of the Club can obtain all information by applying to the Secretary, Mr. Alex. Robertson, 2450 St. Catherine street, Montreal.

RETIRED FROM THE BENCH.

The Collie bitch, Highland Victoria, winner of the Birks Cup, the A. F. Gault special prize, and in the puppy class at Montreal in September last, and 1st open and special at Toronto in April, got her leg broken three weeks ago. Her owner, Mr. Alex. Robertson, of Montreal, has decided to retire her from the bench, as the break is such a bad one that "Vic." will always be a cripple. Mr. Robertson, however, has a bitch puppy that may be able to take her place, which is some consolation.

THE VICTORIA, B. C., SHOW.

The dates for this show have been definitely decided on as October 14th, 15 and 16th, and it will be held under A. K. C. rules.

THE AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE A. K. C. AND C. K. C

Editor Gazette:

AS the members of the C. K. C. were in no way consulted before adopting the agreement that has been reached between the two clubs, and as all the correspondence published in the press was against any such total abnegation of the C. K. C. as this arrangement involves, I think that the Executive, or that small part of it which has ratified this degrading agreement, has assumed a very grave responsibility. I have sent my resignation to the Secretary, as by maintaining a connection with the club I would seem to sanction an agreement which I consider every Canadian worthy of the name must reprobate.

The C. K. C. has become merely the servant of the A. K. C. to carry out its rules.

If matters take a different shape after the annual meeting, or if any really Canadian organization is formed, I will do what I can to help to make it a success.

Truly yours,

WESLEY MILLS.

Montreal, August 1st, 1897.

Editor Gazette:

AFTER all that has been said and done in regard to the amalgamation of the C. K. C. and A. K. C. I cannot refrain from expressing my disgust at the settlement arrived at. I consider it one of the most serious mistakes and blunders that could possibly have been made. We Canadians are quite capable and competent of managing our own affairs, and this foolish move will be the ruination of the Canadian Kennel Club. It is obvious that there is money in this deal for some interested promoters, who will not hesitate to barter away our rights and interests. Shame.

S. BLACK.

Toronto, August 9th, 1897.

[The insinuation about money is incorrect. The A. K. C. gets anything going.—ED.]

I am extremely sorry to see a show in Canada under A. K. C. rules, and, no doubt, there are many in the C. K. C. who are, like myself, sorry at ceasing to be members of it.

Yours truly,

H. N. SANDERS.

Muskoka, July 22, 1897.

Editor Gazette:

This new arrangement appears to me somewhat like a man's transferring two dollars from one pocket to another, with a chance of losing one or both dollars in the transfer. The A. K. C. registration fee is one dollar for every dog, and Canadians are allowed two free (?) registrations for two dollars. Where does the free come in? I might as well pay one dollar each time I send in an application. This is the way it appears to me.

ONE OF THE OLD BRIGADE.

[Our correspondent overlooks the privilege of membership.]

TORONTO'S BIG SHOW.

THE premium list of this big event is, doubtless, ere now in the hands of all intending exhibitors, who are conning its pages to find out the good things for which they propose contesting. As entries close positively on August 21st, those who have not done so should at once send in the properly filled-out forms to the office of the show.

Since the issue of the premium list the following alterations have been made: In Cocker Spaniels the new classification No. 1 of the American Spaniel Club demands that class 69 for open dogs and bitches (any other color) be divided. This has been done, and the premium list will now read: Class 69, open dogs (parti-colored) $10, $5, $3, diploma; Class 69A., open bitches (parti-colored) $10, $5, $3, diploma. This makes a truly splendid classification for Spaniels, and Ontario and Canadian breeders generally will not, we think, be slow to appreciate the fact. In Bull Terriers in the challenge class the sexes are divided. This is a wise move on the part of the executive, for we know of a number of dogs of both sexes eligible for these classes. Whippets will also be divided, and the challenge class in smooth Fox Terriers will share a similar fate. The Bloodhound Club is also supporting the show with specials.

Much could be said on behalf of this show, but we will restrict ourselves to a few vital points. It is the only show of the year in Ontario or Quebec, and Canadians should, in this jubilee year, do their level best and help the committee to make it a big success. Always a popular point of reunion, we look forward to see many old faces which only the Fair, and, we may say, the Dog Show, brings to Toronto.

We draw our readers attention to the following: All dogs must be registered or listed in the American Kennel Club. The novice class shall be for a breed, for which a regular class has been provided for competition, in which a dog shall not have won a first prize in an open or novice class at any show held under A. K. C. rules, or at any show held in Canada up till 1892.

The "Jubilee" silver medal given almost throughout for best brace, owned and exhibited by a Canadian, will be much prized by the lucky winners.

Mr. George H. Gooderham, the chairman of the committee, has generously offered a very handsome silver cup for the best Bull dog or bitch in the show. This should help the "Bulls" and provoke much competition. There are some good ones now in Canada we are told.

Mr. Fraser tells us he is overwhelmed with correspondence, and looks forward to a regular "Jubilee" entry. There will be greater facilities afforded exhibitors this year in exercising their dogs. A new judging ring will be built, and as the judging is "called" at 10 o'clock on Monday morning, exhibitors must be careful to have their dogs on their benches at that hour.

In the Dachshund classification a printer's error occurs in classes 117, 122, and 123. The show being held under A. K. C. rules no wins since 1892 can count, hence the words "under C. K. C. rules" are incorrect.

POINTS OF THE BULL TERRIER.

AS ADOPTED BY THE BULL TERRIER CLUB OF AMERICA.

General Appearance—The general appearance of the Bull Terrier is that of a symmetrical animal—an embodiment of agility, grace, elegance, determination, strength and courage.

Head—The head should be long, flat, and wide between the ears, tapering to the nose. There should be a slight indentation down the face, without a "stop" between the eyes. The jaws should be long and very powerful, with a large black nose and open nostrils; eyes small and very black—almond shape preferred. The lips should meet as tightly as possible, without a fold, and not too deep at the corner. The teeth should be regular in shape and should meet exactly. Any deviation, such as "pig jaw" or being "under-hung," is a great fault.

Ears—The ears are always cropped for the show bench, and should be done scientifically and accordingly to fashion.

Neck—The neck should be long and slightly arched, nicely set into the shoulders; tapering to the head without any loose skin, as found in the bull dog.

Shoulders—The shoulders should be strong, muscular and slanting; the chest wide and deep, with ribs well rounded.

Back—The back short and muscular and slightly arched over the loins, but not out of proportion to the general contour of the animal.

Legs—The forelegs should be perfectly straight, with well developed muscles; not "out at shoulder," but set on the resting lines and very strong at the pastern joints. The hind legs are long and (in proportion to the fore legs) muscular, with good, strong, straight hocks well let down near the ground.

Feet—The feet more resemble those of a cat than a hare.

Color—White. Other points being equal, an entirely white dog shall win over one with markings.

Coat—Short, close and stiff to the touch, with a fine gloss.

Tail—The tail should be short in proportion to the size of the dog, set on very low down, thick where it joins the body and tapering to a fine point. It should be carried at an angle of about forty-five degrees, without curl and never over the back.

THE C. K. C. AND A. K. C.

The Text of Agreement entered into by the Canadian Kennel Club and the American Kennel Club.

TORONTO, July 21st, 1897.

MY DEAR SIR,

The accompanying agreement is so explicit, that any explanation from me seems superfluous.

Your attention, however, is invited to Article VI., from which you will observe that certain registrations made with C. K. C. will be recognized by A. K. C. upon payment of the following special rates:—

Prefix, affix, or kennel name, $2; dog, 50c.

Let it also be understood that the same privileges will be accorded the Canadian Clubs, as are granted to Pacific Clubs in the matter of Challenge classes, and qualifications for Champion honors.

It is hoped that the new arrangement may not affect existing local licenses in Canada.

The agreement itself, and the expediency of its adoption will be fully discussed at the approaching annual meeting of C. K. C.

Yours very truly,

GEO. B. SWEETNAM,

Acting Pres. C. K. C.

Articles of agreement entered into this 17th day of July, 1897, between the American Kennel Club and the Canadian Kennel Club:

ARTICLE I.

The Executive Committee of the Canadian Kennel Club shall be the Canadian Advisory Board of the American Kennel Club, and will conduct all business in the territory under its jurisdiction, as hereinafter provided for in Article VII.

II.

The Canadian Advisory Board, which will represent the Dominion of Canada, to be entitled to three duly accredited delegates as its representatives in the American Kennel Club, the Chairman of such board to be one of such delegates, and by virtue of his office as said Chairman to be a member of the American Kennel Club Executive Board.

III.

All cases of discipline and other matters relating to the Dominion of Canada shall be dealt with by the said Canadian Advisory Board, subject to confirmation or otherwise by the American Kennel Club. In all cases acted upon by said board an appeal may be taken to said American Kennel Club.

IV.

Dog shows held in the Dominion of Canada can only be held under American Kennel Club Rules upon the recommendation of the said Canadian Advisory Board, and for every show recommended the Canadian Advisory Board shall, on behalf of said show, pay to the American Kennel Club the sum of ten dollars. The Secretary of the Canadian Advisory Board shall file with the American Kennel Club a certified marked catalogue of each show so held, and awards made at such shows shall become recognized awards of record. The Canadian Kennel Club to be held responsible for the fulfilment of all requirements of the American Kennel Club by clubs holding shows under its recommendations.

V.

A complete roll of membership of the Canadian Kennel Club must be kept on file with the American Kennel Club.

VI.

The Canadian Kennel Club agrees to transfer all its right, title and interest in what is now known as the Canadian Kennel Club Stud Book to the American Kennel Club during the continuance of this agreement, and in return for said transfer the American Kennel Club agrees to register in its Stud Book each year, without cost, two dogs, the bona fide property of any member of the said Canadian Kennel Club, in good standing, at its annual meeting, or who may have been subsequently elected and duly qualified as such member, upon the filing of an application for same, with his standing as a member duly certified thereon by the Secretary of said Canadian Kennel Club. Also to register all dogs, now registered with the Canadian Kennel Club, at one-half the regular fee charged by said American Kennel Club, upon application for such registration. To register all kennel names, prefixes and affixes now registered with the Canadian Kennel Club, provided same do not conflict with names already registered with the American Kennel Club, upon receipt of application, and two-thirds of the regular fee charged by said American Kennel Club. To supply the Canadian Advisory Board with a copy each year of its Annual Stud Book, and a copy each month of its Kennel Gazette. Also, to allow it a special discount of 33 1/3 per cent. on the regular price for all stud books it may purchase. As a further consideration the American Kennel Club agrees not to accept any kennel club in Canada as an active member unless recommended by the Canadian Advisory Board.

VII.

The following shall be the By-laws of the Canadian Advisory Board, until the same shall have been amended by the American Kennel Club.

Section 1. This organization shall be known as the Canadian Advisory Board of the American Kennel Club, from which it derives its powers.

Sec. 2. It shall consist of the Executive Committee of the Canadian Kennel Club.

Sec. 3. The Officers of the Board shall consist of a Chairman, a Vice-Chairman and a Secretary. They shall be elected at the annual meeting of each year, and hold office until their successors are duly elected.

Sec. 4. It shall be the duty of the chairman to preside at all the meetings, enforce a compliance with the rules and perform such other duties as usually devolve upon a presiding officer.

Sec. 5. It shall be the duty of the vice-chairman to preside in the absence of the chairman and to perform in such case all the duties of the chairman.

Sec. 6. It shall be the duty of the secretary to keep a true and correct record of all proceedings of the meetings of the board; to transmit by registered letter within three days a full and complete copy of the same to the American Kennel Club; to conduct all its correspondence; to take charge of all books, papers, moneys or other property of the board; to pay out such money only by the order of the board, and to turn over all books, papers, moneys or other property belonging to the Canadian Advisory Board, and in his custody as secretary to his successor in office.

Sec. 7. Five members of the board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The yeas and nays of all votes shall be recorded on the minutes.

Sec. 8. This board shall be advisory to the American Kennel Club, and shall have jurisdiction in all questions arising in the Dominion of Canada between clubs and between show committees and exhibitors, and in all such matters as would otherwise be proper subjects of consideration by the American Kennel Club, and its decisions shall be binding upon all parties concerned until reversed by the said American Kennel Club or its Executive Board.

Sec. 9. It shall hear all appeals from the decisions of the clubs or their committees in the Dominion of Canada, under the same rules as govern in an appeal to the American Kennel Club, and report its decisions to the said club, and its decisions shall be binding on all parties concerned until reversed by the said American Kennel Club or its Executive Board.

Sec. 10. It shall receive and consider all suggestions from the several clubs under its jurisdiction regarding American Kennel Club legislation affecting the Dominion of Canada, and recommend such action as it may deem proper and for the best interests of breeders, owners and exhibitors of said Dominion to the American Kennel Club for its final action in the premises.

Sec. 11. It shall exert a general advisory supervision over the kennel interests of the Dominion; encourage the organization of new clubs, and the holding of bench shows wherever expedient; counsel harmony of action, good will and promote a friendly feeling and unity of action between all sections.

Sec. 12. It shall adopt from time to time such rules and regulations not in conflict with the laws of the American Kennel Club, and which shall be approved by said club, as may appear from the condition of the section under its jurisdiction to be necessary to promote and develop the best interests of the owners, breeders and exhibitors of the Dominion, and perform such other acts as it may be directed to perform by the American Kennel Club.

Sec. 13. The regular meetings of the Board shall be held in the city of Toronto, Canada, and special meetings may be called at any time by the chairman, provided ten full days' notice thereof shall have been given to each delegate, either in person or by notice mailed to his last known address.

VIII.

This agreement, if ratified by both clubs, to be duly attested by the secretary of each club, and true-copies thereof must be filed with each club, and at any time upon six months' notice in writing given by either club to the other, this agreement may be canceled and become null and void.

A.K.C. PROPOSED NEW RULES.

FOLLOWING are the proposed new rules of the American Kennel Club to which the Canadian Advisory Board have been asked to submit any desired amendments:—

The Committee on Constitution and Rules respectfully recommend the adoption of the Rules as set forth below, the publication of which is due notice under the Constitution, and action can be taken at the next following meeting.

AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB RULES GOVERNING LOG SHOWS.

(Copyrighted.)

Adopted.

To take effect January 1, 1898.

I. The word dog, where used in these, includes both sexes.

II. Every dog shown under these rules must either be registered in the Stud Book or listed in The Gazette. The fee for registration is $1, and for listing 25 cents.

The penalty for non-compliance with this rule is the disqualification of the entry and the forfeiture of the entry fee and any prizes won at the show.

III. Exhibitors must abide by their own errors in making out their entry forms. Show officials cannot transfer a dog that has been wrongly entered.

IV. Every dog must be the bona fide property of the person making such entry on the day of closing the entries. If an entry is made in the name of an agent, and the name of owner not given, the dog shall be disqualified. The entry must clearly identify the dog to be exhibited by name, and, if known, its date of birth, name of sire and dam, and the name of its breeder. Should any of these particulars be unknown to the exhibitor it must be so stated on the entry blank. If the dog is already registered in the American Kennel Club Stud Book, the Stud Book number of the dog must be given with the entry.

V. If the name of a dog which has won a prize has been changed, the old name must be given on the entry blank and published in the catalogue, together with a list of all prizes won by the dog, until such time as it wins a prize under its new name.

VI. If a dog has been entered without being identified, as directed in Rules IV. and V., it shall be disqualified and forfeit any prize which may be awarded to it.

MR. J. L. ARDEN'S CHAMPION TOMMY TICKLE, A.K.C.B. 43,553.

A frequent winner.

VII. The breeder of a dog is the person owning or leasing the bitch at the time of her being bred.

VIII. The authorities of any show may decline any entries they see fit, or may remove any dog on account of disease, vice or other cause.

IX. Blindness, deafness, lameness, castration or spaying shall absolutely disqualify, except that if the judge or veterinary surgeon is satisfied that the deafness or lameness be temporary the dog shall be allowed to compete.

A deaf dog is defined as one that cannot hear the ordinary methods of command.

A dog suffering from any hereditary, contagious or objectionable disease shall be disqualified and forfeit the prize which may be awarded to it, and shall be at once removed from the show building. A regularly appointed veterinary surgeon shall alone decide as to the condition of the dog, and his decision must be given in writing.

X. Should an appointed judge be unable to fill his engagement the committee shall have the right to fill the vacancy. All the separate classes of any breed of dogs must, however, be adjudicated upon by the same judge, or judges acting in conjunction.

Full discretionary power is given to the judge of each class to withhold any or all prizes for want of merit. The judge's decision will be final in all cases affecting the merits of the dogs, and appeals can only be entertained where misrepresentation or breach of the rules is alleged.

A judge shall disqualify a dog which in his opinion has been improperly tampered with, subject to the decision of the veterinary surgeon. Should the judge's disqualification not be sustained, the class must be rejudged.

XI. In any class where there is a limit of weight the person in charge of a dog entered in such class may claim of the show committee the right, at any time after the opening of the show and before the judging, to have the dog weighed, and the weight of the dog shall be registered and hold good at the time of judging. Any competing exhibitor or handler shall have the right to demand the weighing of any dog during the judging of the class, other than those whose weight had been officially registered. Any subsequent protest must be made in the formal manner provided for in these rules.

XII. Dog show committees may provide such classes for dogs of recognized breeds as they choose, provided they do not conflict with the conditions of the undermentioned classes.

CLASSES.

1. The puppy class shall be for all dogs over six months and under twelve months of age, and no entry can be made of one under six months, or whose date of birth is unknown.

2. The novice class shall be for all dogs never having won a first prize at any recognized show, wins in the puppy classes excepted.

3. The junior class shall be for all dogs never having won four first prizes at any recognized show, wins in the puppy classes excepted.

4. The senior class shall be for all dogs having won four or more first prizes at any recognized show, wins in the puppy classes excepted. In entering a dog in the senior class, it is necessary to specify on the entry blank a sufficient number of first prize winnings, giving name and year of show, to entitle it to compete in such class, until such time as it has won in a senior class, after which, one senior win shall be sufficient. These wins must be published in the catalogue.

5. The free-for-all class shall be for all dogs of any age over six months. No prize winner shall be debarred from competing.

6. All shows offering cash prizes for three of the above classes, for any one breed, one of which must be the free-for-all class, shall be empowered to provide for that breed a winners' class for the dogs which have won the first prizes in said classes, and the winner of four first prizes in such winners' classes will thereby become a champion of record, and be so registered by the American Kennel Club. No class winner can be withdrawn from competition in the winners' class.

"A dog that has already won one or more firsts in the challenge class shall retain these wins to his credit toward becoming champion of record, the remaining qualifying wins to be gained in the winners' class."

7. The miscellaneous class shall be open to all dogs of established breeds for which no regular class has been provided in the premium list. Entries in this class must specify the breed of the exhibit. Failure to comply with this condition shall disqualify the dog, and cancel the award.

XIII. In estimating the number of prizes a dog has won, no award received by it, on or after the date of closing of the entries shall be counted.

XIV. If a prize winner is disqualified the next dog in or der of merit as placed by the judge shall be given the prize thus forfeited, and the win shall count in every respect the same as if it had been the original award. An equal first prize shall be counted as a win for each dog, dividing first and second money; the next dog in order of merit shall receive third prize.

All prize money must be returned to the show officials in case the dog shall be disqualified by the American Kennel Club subsequent to the closing of the show.

XV. No dog eligible for special prizes can be withdrawn from competition unless it has been stated on the entry blank, "Will not compete for special prizes."

No special prizes can be accepted or offered by a show committee after the show has opened.

XVI. The age of a dog shall be calculated up to and inclusive of the day preceeding the show; for instance, a dog whelped April 30 shall not be eligible on May 1 of the following year to compete for dogs under 12 months of age.

XVII. An objection to a dog may be made by any exhibitor, or any member of a club a member of this association, but must be in writing, and be lodged with the secretary within seven days of the last day of the show. No objection shall be entertained unless accompanied by a deposit of $5 (to be returned in case the protest is sustained), except the same is lodged by the secretary of the American Kennel Club, which may be made at any time. (For subsequent proceedings in protest see Rule XIV. of club regulations.)

XVIII. A person or club guilty of misconduct of any kind in connection with dogs, dog shows or field trials may be suspended by the President of the American Kennel Club, or in his absence by the Vice-President, or by the committee of the show or trial where the offence was committed. The disqualification of an owner shall apply to all dogs owned by him, or connected with the perpetration of a fraudulent act.

XIX. No person under suspension or sentence of disqualification can make an entry, exhibit or take a prize, act as agent for an exhibitor, or take a dog in the judging ring at any show held by a member of the American Kennel Club. The privileges of the Stud Book are withheld from all persons under suspension or disqualification, for registration of dogs owned or bred by them.

XX. Entries made in the name of a kennel must be accompanied by the name of the actual proprietor or proprietors, but not necessarily for publication. The partners in a kennel will be deemed equally culpable in the case of fraud perpetrated in their name.

XXI. The person presenting the identification ticket shall be recognized as the agent of the owner in the latter's absence, and his receipt for prize money shall be binding on the owner, unless notice to the contrary is indorsed on the identification ticket.

XXII. The secretary of the American Kennel Club must cancel all wins, when he has satisfied himself that these rules have been violated by the exhibitor, in the following instances :

When an entry has been made after the advertised date of closing of entries.

When a dog has not been registered or listed.

When a dog has been entered in the name of an agent only.

When a dog has been pronounced deaf by competent authority.

When a dog has been pronounced by the veterinary surgeon as suffering from any contagious or objectionable disease.

When a puppy is entered, being under six months of age, or as date of birth unknown.

When a dog is entered in the novice class, having previously won a first prize.

When a dog is entered in the junior class, having previously won four or more first prizes.

When a dog is entered in the senior class, having won less than four first prizes.

When a dog is entered in the senior class, and the necessary first wins are not specified as to place and year of such wins.

When a dog is entered in the miscellaneous class and the breed is not specified or recognized.

When a dog is led into the judging ring by, or in charge of, a person not in good standing.

When a dog is entered by an owner or his agent, if either is not in good standing.

XXIII. The above rules must be published in all premium lists of shows held by members of the American Kennel Club.

AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB RULES GOVERNING CLUBS
HOLDING SHOWS.

Copyrighted.

Adopted.

To take effect January 1st, 1898.

Any Club or Association, a member of the American Kennel Club, or that may be recommended by the Canadian Advisory Board, may hold a dog show under American Club Rules, provided it abides by the following regulations.

I. Applications for dates must be filed with the secretary of the American Kennel Club for approval by the Executive Board or such sub-committee as may be empowered to grant dates.

Such approval, however, shall be subject to the subsequent endorsement of the premium list as being in accordance with the requirements of the American Kennel Club.

II. Applications for dates must be accompanied by a fee of $25, which will be forfeited in the event of the show not being held.

III. Section 1. The show shall not extend beyond four days.

Section 2. Entries shall close not less than seven days prior to the first day of the show. No alteration of the advertised date of closing shall be allowed.

Section 3. The classification shall be confined to established breeds which may be divided or limited by variety, weight, color, height or sex, and otherwise, as provided for in the dog show rules. No change in classification will be allowed unless announced in the kennel press, before the date of closing entries, unless such change is covered by the published regulations of the show in the premium list.

IV. Section 1. Every dog show must employ a qualified veterinary surgeon.

Section 2. A qualified veterinary surgeon is a graduate of a recognized college entitled to confer the degree of V.S., or one, who, without having a diploma, has had at least five years' practical experience to fit him for the practice of his profession.

V. The premium list must contain the dog show rules of the American Kennel Club and a list of recognized shows corrected up to the date of closing entries, as published in the American Kennel Gazette; also a list of the officials under whose management the show is to be held, who, with the exception of the paid employees, shall be held responsible for the payment of all prizes within sixty days of the last day of the show, in default of which the said officials shall be suspended or disqualified for such time as the American Kennel Club shall determine.

VI. No special prize shall be offered except for the dogs of established breeds, and none can be accepted or offered by a show committee after the show has been opened. No special or regular prize can be accepted from any person or club under suspension or disqualification.

VII. All prizes must be in accordance with their description in the premium list. Prizes of gold or silver must be of the purity of United States coin. All prizes in a given class shall be awarded regardless of the number of entries and reserve given in all classes.

VIII. No person under sentence of suspension, disqualification or expulsion, can be employed in any official capacity, or exhibit, or take a prize, or act as agent for any exhibitor, or show a dog in any judging ring. No entries can be accepted from any person who is not in good standing, a list of which must be obtained from the secretary of the American Kennel Club before the closing of the entries.

IX. No entry shall be accepted of any puppy under six months of age or marked date of "birth unknown" either for competition or exhibition.

X. No entry can be accepted of any dog not marked "listed" or having its stud book number on the entry form as per dog show Rule II.

A club may act as agent for exhibitors by accepting the fee for registration or listing, but must make returns thereof to the American Kennel Club within ten days from the date of closing of the show. The amount deposited with application for dates cannot be applied as payment of said fees.

XI. The catalogue of the show must give all the particulars required of exhibitors in entering dogs as provided in Rules II, III, IV., XII. (sections 5 and 6) of the dog show rules. It must also contain a list of the officers under whose management the show is held, together with a copy of the dog show rules and such other regulations as were announced in the premium list. A marked catalogue, duly certified by the secretary or superintendent, must be filed with the American Kennel Club within seven days after the closing of the show.

XII. No record of wins at any but recognized shows shall be permitted in the catalogue, and it is optional with the club to give any, except in the case of any senior class entries, which must be catalogued in accordance with Rule XII., Sec. 4, of the dog show rules.

XIII. In the event of a protest being filed in accordance with Rule XVII. of the dog show rules, the mode of procedure shall be as follows:

The show committee shall at once meet and decide upon any objections lodged during the show.

Immediately upon the lodging of a protest with the secretary during the show it shall be his duty to request the judge to select reserve numbers, if he has not already done so, in order that any prize which would be affected by the disqualification of the protested dog may not fail of being awarded.

If the objection is lodged subsequent to the show, it must be decided by the committee within twenty days from its receipt. Five days' notice of the date and place of the meeting for that purpose must be given to all parties in interest.

From any such decision or decisions appeal may be taken to the Executive Board of the American Kennel Club, but such appeal must be forwarded to the secretary within seven days of the decision being rendered, together with a deposit of $10. If the decision appealed from is sustained the deposit shall be forfeited to the American Kennel Club, but if the decision is reversed then all deposits must be returned to the applicant.

XIV. In the event of the suspension by a show committee of any person for misconduct as provided for in rule XVIII. of the dog show rules, notice of such suspension shall be forwarded within twenty-four hours to the secretary of the American Kennel Club, who shall at once notify the President, or in his absence the Vice-President, who shall investigate the case, and, if he see fit, suspend the penalty until the next meeting of the Executive Board. The Executive Board must, at their first meeting thereafter, either remove the suspension or impose a penalty of disqualification for such a period as they may decide upon.

The disqualification of an owner shall apply to dogs owned by him, or connected with the perpetration of a fraudulent act. The Executive Board is, however, empowered to use such discretion in the enforcement of this penalty as shall protect innocent parties.

No person shall, however, be disqualified without due notice, and formal charges and specifications, and an opportunity given of being heard in his own defence.

XV. Such regulations or additional rules may be adopted for the government of any show as shall be considered necessary, provided they do not conflict with any of the foregoing or of the dog show rules.

XVI. The secretary of the American Kennel Club must enforce the following penalties for violations of the foregoing rules, the same to be reserved from the deposit made with application for dates, after having satisfied himself that said violations were due to the carelessness or negligence of the managers of the show:

For accepting entries after the advertised date of the closing of entries—five dollars for each entry.

For accepting special or regular prizes from persons or clubs under suspension or disqualification—five dollars.

For accepting entries for puppy classes under six months of age, or marked "date of birth unknown"—five dollars.

For accepting entries not marked listed, or not having stud book numbers—Two dollars.

For failure to publish in catalogues the necessary winnings to entitle an entry in the senior class, provided same is specified by the exhibitor on his entry blank—five dollars.

For accepting entries signed with the agent's name only—Two dollars.

For delay beyond ten days in forwarding to the office of the American Kennel Club all listings or registrations, with fees for same—one dollar for each day.

For failure to file a copy of the premium list with the American Kennel Club as soon as published—one dollar for each day.

For failure to file a marked catalogue, certified to by the secretary or superintendent, within seven days after the closing of the show—one dollar for each day.

For transferring a dog as published in the catalogue, that has been wrongly entered by the exhibitor—five dollars.

For any violations of the rules not specified in this article, or for conduct prejudicial to the best interests of the American Kennel Club, such action may be taken, and penalty imposed by the American Kennel Club, or its Executive board, as may be deemed proper.

XVII. The above rules are published for the guidance of bench show committees only, publication in premium lists and catalogues not required.

THE DEATH OF THE CANADIAN KENNEL CLUB.

A TRAGEDY IN FIVE ACTS.

By FIDELIS.

ACT I.—SCENE I.

Place—New York. Time 1893. Meeting of A.K.C.

1st Member (delegate).—Mr. Chairman, this A.K.C. exists to make money, not to lose it. We are making nothing out of that C.K.C. and they have no claims on us. I move that the agreement now existing be terminated.

2nd Member.—I second the motion.

Motion carried.

ACT II.—SCENE I.

Place—New York. Time 1894. Meeting of the A.K.C.

Synopsis.—Delegates make known their views and wishes. The subject is referred to a special committee to confer with them.

ACT II.—SCENE II.

Synopsis.—Delegates meet special committee and after much discussion agree to adopt a report in which they feel they have the worst of the bargain but it is the best they can secure.

ACT II.—SCENE III.

Place—Toronto. Annual meeting of the C.K.C. Delegates make their report.

A Member.—Having heard this report Mr. Chairman, it occurs to me that the A.K.C. wishes so much for what it offers that we would have nothing left as a club to live on.

2nd Member.—This is a hard bargain, we cannot afford to adopt this scheme.

3rd Member.—Apart from that it deprives us of some of our privileges. We lose some of our autonomy.

4th Member.—We would like to meet the A.K.C., but really this proposed agreement is too one-sided. We pay more for what we get than we can afford.

5th Member.—This must be plain to everyone. Such a scheme would mean slow death to the C.K.C. I move that it be referred back to the A.K.C. for amendment. (Motion carried.)

ACT III.—SCENE I.

Place—New York. Annual Meeting of the A. K. C., Jan., 1896.

Enter Delegate of the C. K. C.

Delegate.—Mr. Chairman and gentlemen, I am sent to represent to your club that it is desirable in the interests of breeders, exhibitors, and all concerned. that some such agreement as formerly existed between the A. K. C. and C. K. C. be renewed. This agreement was a reciprocal recognition of equal rights and privileges between two national clubs. At present, exhibitors' wins count only with one club according as they are made in Canada or the United States; but worst of all, an offender on one side of the line, who has been disqualified by one club, may be in good standing with the other. This cannot be right. A man cannot be a saint in New York and a sinner in Toronto. If there were no other reason than this, it is a strong one why the two clubs should reciprocate. What is there to be said against the old agreement? It was fair and it worked perfectly well.

1st Member to second Member [aside].—He's right. We must not discuss that here. Shunt it off to a special committee.

2nd Member.—Yes, whom will we put on the committee?

1st Member.—Some that are strongly against the C.K.C.

2nd Member.—I'll move for a committee and you suggest the members for it.

1st Member.—Yes, that's it.

This is done, but nothing of a practical kind results.

ACT IV.—SCENE I.

Place—New York. Time 1897 Meeting of the A.K.C.

Enter Delegates of the C. K. C.

1st Delegate.—Mr. Chairman and gentlemen, I have not much to say. Perhaps I might venture to suggest to your august body, for which Canadian dogmen have the most profound respect, that a committee be appointed to confer with the delegates.

2nd Delegate.—I have nothing to add to what I laid before your club very fully last year. My views remain unchanged.

A committee is appointed and the delegates withdraw. The committee is composed mostly of the same members as last year's.

ACT IV.—SCENE II.

Place—New York. The Special Committee meets the Delegates.

1st Member.—Now, let us know what you are prepared to propose.

1st Delegate.—Well, we would like some sort of agreement to remedy a state of things that is not good for either your club or ours.

1st Member.—Well, our club is very prosperous. Look at our account. Consider that we have sway now from the Atlantic to the Pacific. That Pacific Coast arrangement is, I may tell you, a fine thing. [Aside to himself—That was a perfect stroke of genius on the part of—] 2nd Member.—How would some such arrangement as that suit you?

2nd Delegate.—Oh! We must preserve our national existence at any cost.

2nd Member.—Your national existence! (derisively.) What does that signify in such matters? See how well the Pacific Coast is doing now. Besides, what does your little club amount to, anyway. How many members have you? How much money do you get in? How much do you make or lose on what you call your Stud Book? You are going down all the time! You might as well come under our Pacific Coast arrangement sooner as later.

1st Member.—I want to tell you, too, what may surprise you—that we have been approached by people in Canada wishing to join our club. They represent organizations there that wish to give shows. Look at this letter (showing letter.) A nice-looking young man from———called on me yesterday on the same business.

2nd Delegate [aside]—Treachery by this hand!

1st Delegate.—If we cannot get to where we were before, we perhaps can come to some arrangement. We should not remain as we are.

2nd Delegate.—Now, after all, gentlemen, that old arrangement was about the proper thing, was it not?

2nd Member [Angrily and beating the table with his fist.]—You may as well give up the idea once for all that that old agreement will ever be gone back to by the A. K. C. At that time we would have agreed to anything to save our own existence. You need not thank us for the liberality of the terms of that agreement. I am speaking my mind candidly.

2nd Delegate [Aside.]—Say rather, brutally.

2nd Member.—Now you go home and confer together, and write us what you want.

2nd Delegate to 1st Delegate [After retiring].—I see that what we want this committee will never recommend. We want fair play and the preservation of our national existence as a club. They want to swallow us up. It all depends now on how much stamina our fellow Canadian dogmen have got. By the revelations made to us to-day by one of the committee it is plain some of them have not got much. Where are the successors of the men that founded the club and piloted it safely along even when members were few and finances feeble?

1st Delegate.—All Canadian dogmen now seem to be looking for some way to make wins count on both sides of the line.

2nd Delegate.—Well, I never will consent to the humiliation of the club and to sacrificing the results gained during all these years by the labors of a faithful few. The policy of the A. K. C. in this matter is utterly indefensible.

Interlude.

Member of A. K. C. to Delegate whom he meets in the Dog Show.—Well, how are you getting along with the A. K. C.?

Delegate.—Rather slowly.

Member of A.K.C.—I tell you, friend Cannuck, the policy of the A. K. C. (though I am a member of it), is in this case towards your club the policy of the hog. They will make an agreement with you if they get everything and you nothing.

2nd Member of the A. K. C. to Delegate whom he meets. Now, in regard to that matter of nationality, I know precisely how you feel. I would feel just the same if I were in your case, but the fact is we want complete control on the American continent, and you must see yourself that we will get it just because you Canadians are not a unit yourselves. You could fight us till Doomsday if you liked and were un-animous. We can't absorb you unless you allow it. You understand I am not speaking officially now.

ACT V.—SCENE I.

Place—Toronto. Meeting of the C. K. C. and Outsiders.

Chairman.—Gentlemen, we are met to discuss the relations of the A. K. C. and C. K. C. The meeting is open to all, and the Secretary of the A. K. C. is here to give explanations, so proceed to express your views.

Synopsis.—Floor is occupied most of the time by one speaker, and the discussion consists largely of attacks on the C. K. C. by the gentlemen who had the floor. Result, nil, unless it be greater weakening of Canadian spirit.

FINAL SCENE.

Enter the A. K. C. Representatives in the guise of respectably attired highwaymen.

Highwaymen [Holding two pistols each to the heads of the C. K. C. Executive members].—Now, we have had talk enough over this. Throw up your hands and give us what you have.

O! great and mighty; yes, we will now, if you but say what in particular you want.

Highwaymen.—Well, we want all the wins of your members since the agreement between the A. K. C. and C. K. C. was broken off, and we want them right off before that Toronto show.

Executive.—Yes, certainly. Any thing else?

Highwaymen.—We want that Stud Book of yours.

Executive.—Of course. What more?

Highwaymen.—We want that legal right, given your countrymen, to get dogs taxed lightly in cities if registered with you, and every other valuable you have.

Executive.—Undoubtedly you must have all. The boys can count their wins with you all the same, I suppose?

Highwaymen.—Of course they can do anything the A. K. C. rules allow them. Don't you see that you are now, in reality, by giving up what we have asked, a part of us. You exist merely in name, my dear sirs. We frightened you into it pretty quick at last, though it took some time to get things ready for this.

Executive [who don't see it.—Congratulate each other.] Well, we had to give up something, but now those wins will count, and you know that is all the boys are after. We have got it right at last.

Secretary of the C.K.C. [after the Executive retires, standing alone, supporting himself against a pillar.] Alas! is it for this that I and others have toiled and hoped for years! All gone now, our independence, and manliness included! What a price to pay! Canadian Kennel Club! There is none.

The following well known Dogs at Stud.—

COCKER SPANIELS.

RED COCKER SPANIEL RED COAT

At Stud—Fee $15.

Sire Red Leo (C998) dam Red Vixen (C3287). Red Coat's first appearance on the show bench was at Hamilton Kennel Club Show held in Spring 1896, where he won 1st open, 1st novice and two specials. His next appearance was in England at Wellington, July 31st 1896, where he won 1st in a class of seven. The following is a criticism from Our Dogs: "In Cocker, Canadian Red Jacket (now Red Coat) by no means in good form, was still good enough to win. He is a nice headed dog, but shines most in his beautiful symmetry and proportion, and is of a rich red color, with low tail carriage and good movement." Criticism from the British Fancier: "Cockers saw our Canadian visitor exhibiting his charming red Cocker. He is a rich Irish Setter red, with an exceedingly flat coat, characteristic head, grand legs, feet, and body, and the correct tail carriage."

At Stud—Fee $15—Black Cocker SAY—By Champion Fascination out of Ch I Say.

At Stud—$15—Black Cocker Dog—BLACK DUKE II., A. K. C., No. 39227. Vol. XIII. SIRE—Ch Black Duke. DAM—Woodland Juddie.

Smooth Fox Terrier Dog—ECLIPSE DUDLEY—Even marked, black and tan head, breast white, grand head and ears and expression, best of legs and feet, good bone, weight 18 lbs. SIRE—Cambridge Joker. DAM—Dudley Slave. At Stud, $10.

Wire Haired Fox Terrier Dog, imported—ECLIPSE PLUNGER—This is a good smart Terrier, weighing about 17½ lbs. Winning every time he was shown in England. Good head and ears, good bone and coat, and a nice level Terrier all through. SIRE—Springlock Solicitor. DAM—Lincoln Bush. At Stud $10. For further particulars apply to—

Winnings—First prizes at Exeter and Oxford; winner of Birthday Stakes and Cup for best dog born in 1895; and Championship for best dog in show, beating Visto, Valuator and Claude Duval under specialist judge.

Markings—Black and tan head; black ears and black markings on body.

"Vicary," says: "Grand typical head; perfect eyes and expression; capital ears and coat; first-rate in bone; well sprung ribs; rare symmetry of body on the best of legs and feet; a perfect size and a most typical terrier; not yet exhibited at his best."

Retrospect—1896, by Viator, Stock-Keeper issue 12th March, 1897, says: "The best dog that made a new appearance last year was undoubtedly VERACITY by Visto ex Violet de Vere. He is a grand all round dog, with all the requisite points and expressing in a great degree quality, with bone and substance, a useful size and all the adjuncts of legs, feet, length of head, small ears and varmint expression that fashion requires. As far as all round quality and excellence are concerned nothing has appeared approaching him in smooth bitches or wire hairs of either sex as far as the 1896 crop of youngsters is concerned."

Puppies by this dog, out of prize bitches, for sale.
