Our business methods, like our stock, are of the highest standard. The golden rule is our guide in everything. "Do to others as you would have them do to you." We have the largest kennels of the most expensive and famous Bull Terrier sires and dams on earth, being solely breeders, and not exhibitors or peddlers of stock. We have only the product of our own kennels to sell, all being sold without reserve, except some occasionally kept to replenish the kennel supply. All our business transactions are promptly covered by guaranteed, responsible documents. To be the owner of a pup with a "Bonnybred Kennel" guaranteed pedigree is equivalent to being the owner of a royally bred valuable animal of reliable parentage. A "Bonnybred Service Certificate" is always a reliable guide to purchasers of pups from other kennels than ours, that the pups are, as far as the sires are concerned, blue-blooded and valuable; but such purchasers should always demand to see the Service Certificate. We forward young stock to all parts of the world. Catalogues upon request.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

Mr. McGaughey has bought a couple of young Black and Tan dogs from Mr. Redcliffe, of Toronto, lately.

Mr. R. J. McGaughey has at last been successful in raising a litter of puppies out of his Black and Tan bitch Duchess of Cornwall, and they are by Champ. Selwork Imperial. He also has leased from Mr. McLean that good brood bitch Roche Squaw, the dam of Ch. Wellesbourne, Ch. Daisy and others, and has her in whelp to Ch. Selwork Imperial. These, besides his other brood bitches, should give him something in the course of a short time to make future champions with.

Bayview Bo'swain, which won special for best Bull Terrier in show at Montreal, is owned by Mr. Fred T. Miller, Pieton, Ont. Bo'swain, since his appearance on the bench at Toronto last fall, where he got three firsts and winners under Mr. Mortimer, has beaten every Bull Terrier dog that has been shown during the winter circuit with the exception of one, a very good record for the dog, and as good a one for Mr. McGaughey, who conditioned him and han-died him during his whole show career, and no Bull Terrier during the past year has been put down in better shape.

By taking winners' class at the late Montreal show, the Black and Tan Terrier Wellesbourne attained the prefix Champion, a well-earned title indeed, won in the hottest competition at such shows as Toronto, New York, Ottawa and Montreal.

Terrier puppies; Mr. Edmonds, Norwich, has a field Spaniel, Cockers and Dalmatians; Mr. Daly, Thorold, a Bull Terrier, and Mr. Bannister, Ottawa, Foxhound puppies that will be released for the needful.

At the regular quarterly meeting of the A. K. C., the Montreal Canine Association was brought to task for holding the recent show in Montreal under Winner of three firsts and special on Bench, and first in Derby, Pacific Northwest Field Trials, 1901; first, all age, B. C. Field Trials, 1903.

Owned by C. Cocking, Vancouver, B.C.

Amongst the bargains offered this month are a brace of Irish Setters by Mr. Anderson, Port Perry; several good Collies by Mr. Panter, Belleville; Irish Terriers by Celtic Badger and Irish Guard by Mr. Morlock, Guelph, and two litters of exceptionally bred Collies by Dr. Ford, Kingston. Mr. Charlesworth, Toronto, has several good Cockers that simply must go, and Mr. McGaughey has dogs of several breeds bred in the purple for sale at reasonable prices. Lambton Kennels, Petrolea, have three beautiful Fox

C. K. C. rules. The A. K. C. evidently has adopted the British motto, "What we have we'll hold." However we think the officers of the M. C. A. need lose no rest over the enquiry. We give in detail the discussion that took place following the secretary's preamble.

The Secretary—The Montreal Canine Association has just completed a show under the rules of the Canadian Kennel Club. This Montreal Club is a member in good standing of the American Kennel Club, and I report the matter so that this meeting can take such action as it deems proper. I first saw the statement made in the Canadian Kennel Gazette, and I wrote to the secretary of the Montreal Club asking if that article was based on fact, and I received a communication replying in the affirmative.

Mr. Muss-Arnolt—Is there not a certain modus operandi in cases of that kind?

The Chair—I cannot recall any specific rule. I should think it ought to come up under the general heading of conduct prejudicial to this Association.

Mr. Muss-Arnolt—I can see only one thing to do, and that is, they must be thrown out.

Mr. Buckley—Does not the disqualification of a club involve the personal disqualification of its officers?

The Chair—Yes.

Mr. Buckle—I happen to know something about it because at that time I was up in the Adirondacks for my health, and I was right near the secretary of the Montreal Club, and he said to me then—although the matter had not then progressed so far as it has up to this time—that he realized that there was going to be a fight over the matter. I heard a conversation between him and two others, all the details of which of course I do not recollect, but they did say they were very much against anything but an A. K. C. show, and Mr. Laurin is one of the most ardent champions I know of. Among other things he will not sell a dog except with the proviso it is registered with the American Kennel Club, and in every way I know he is an earnest supporter of the American Kennel Club, and while without doubt it would be advisable to take the usual steps, I think in this case some thought should be given to the personal disqualification of those who are our very warm friends.

The Chair—Is he an officer of the Canadian Club?

Mr. Buckley—Yes.

Mr. Muss-Arnolt—If they are in good standing they ought to take a different course. They had the absolute right simply to resign. Nobody would have stopped them, and there would have been nothing in it.

The Chair—There are three things you can do. You can either drop them or suspend them or disqualify them, according to the way in which you view the matter.

Mr. Muss-Arnolt—It should be disqualification because they had every opportunity to resign. We had no right to refuse their resignation. They refused to do that.

The Chair—May be the idea was never suggested.

Mr. Mortimer—I cannot see what right we have to disqualify them.

The Chair—I think you are right in this respect, that they are entitled to notice under our rules. I do not think we can take summary action against them.

Major Taylor—Would not a suspension cover the case?

Mr. Carnochan—I move that the secretary be instructed to prefer charges against the Montreal Canine Association for holding shows under other than American Kennel Club Rules. Motion seconded and carried.

statement is that barren bitches have been pawned off on him as "sure breeders," that bitches said to be in whelp and sold on this guarantee have not so proved, and that both dogs and bitches have been shipped him, as he strongly puts it, "rotten" with mange and distemper. This is certainly a tale of woe. Legal process is slow and expensive in such cases, but it is apparently the only efficient remedy, and then the onus of proof is on the buyer and this is not always easy to get. It is generally one man's word against another's

The Cocker fancy will regret to hear of the loss sustained by Mr. James Clark, of Toronto, in the death of what was probably the best Cocker bitch of her class in America, the cream-colored Quentein, a sound little Cocker both in type, and breeding, one that could hold her own on the bench in any company, that has had the distinction of winning special for best Cocker in show and one that would do an honest day's work with the gun. It would be unfair to say anything of the coming Toronto show without identifying with this festival the name of the chairman of committee, Mr. Jno. G. Kent. As a member of the bench show committee, the editor of the Gazette can say without unfairness to the other members that Mr. Kent is the head, tail and centerpiece of the progressive movement that is so rapidly putting Toronto in front. He is ever ready for suggestions as to the management of the show and has the ability and standing to see that his committee's wishes are carried out in detail. This as preamble. The list of judges will be enriched this year by the addition of two names prominent in English canine centres—Mr. Desmond O'Connell, who will take Fox Terriers and Welsh Terriers, and Mr. M. Maxwell, who will be assigned several breeds. These are names to conjure with, and will be referred to again.

• • •

Then Mr. L. Farewell has at last been induced to judge Sporting Spaniels, a breed that he is eminently qualified to take, and as this will be Mr. Farewell's first appearance in a judiciary capacity, we may expect a record entry. By the way, apple-headed cripples and other

"dear little things" might as well stay away.

• • •

Mr. "Matchmaker" Fraser will judge his old love, Scottish Terriers, and to this breed will be added the Hibernian national Terrier, the Irish Terrier, that is growing so rapidly in favor here.

• • •

Dr. C. Y. Ford, of Kingston, will take on Collies and Old English Sheep dogs, with possibly the addition of some of the Toy breeds. Dr. Ford's life study has been the Collie and he has judged with acceptance more than once.

• • •

Several other names are under consideration for special breeds, including sporting dogs, and when completed the list will be found all that could be wished for. Collie trials on sheep will be a feature of the exhibition for the first time. Liberal cash prizes will be offered and the rules governing the trials will be carefully thought out, so that every competitor may be given honor for all the work he does. The trials will be held in one of the large rings, and fresh sheep will be supplied each day. Details have not yet been concluded.

A "green class" has been added in most breeds. This class is for dogs which have never won a first, second or third prize, nor whose owner has ever won a first, second or third prize with any dog owned by him or her at any show held under C. K. C., A. K. C., or any other recognized club rules. The show will open at 1 p.m., Monday and will close at noon on Friday. Several changes in the list have been made, but these may stand over for a month.

* * *

We might state, however, as a matter of importance, that field trial classes will be opened for Setters and Pointers, and we hope they will be well looked after by the owners of field trial dogs.

* * *

Mr. Fred. Habart, Toronto, has not dropped out by any means and reports having bred his Foxhound Fan to his Sport on May 6th, and the Greyhound Kitty to Jno. Ruskin on May 10th.

* * *

Mr. C. D. Carriere, Ottawa, is applying for the registration of his kennel as "Lady Faultless Manchester Black and Tan Terrier Kennels."

With 1,014 entries and about four hundred dogs what can be said of Montreal other than it was the success it deserved to be. The work fell largely on the shoulders of the superintendent, Mr. H. Parker Thomas, who filled the role with great credit, and Mr. J. R. Innes who looked after the books efficiently. The attendance was not up to that of last year, and we rather think the 50c admission fee a mistake. Better "a full house" at half the money. Rain on one or two evenings was also a drawback, but it is satisfactory to learn that the show will break even if indeed a small surplus does not result. This is satisfactory in view of the dismal financial failures so many shows have proved this season. The Arena is an ideal place for a dog show and the big ring just what is needed to show dogs to advantage. Mr. Ormiston Roy was unable, owing to his duties elsewhere, to spend as much time as he would have desired at the show, but he had willing and able lieutenants in Mr. Laurin, Mr. Thomas, Dr. Nichol, Dr. Scott Ives, Mr. Stuart and other members of the committee.

* * *

Dr. Wesley Mills got through his classes quickly, and with ease. Mr. Mortimer's ring was hardly served as quickly as desirable and for this reason judging was rather prolonged. However this has its pleasant side, for it is the judging that attracts the people.

* * *

Dr. Mills looked for quality more than quantity in the breeds assigned to him, and gives his reasons in his criticism of the breeds he judged. The good Irish Water Spaniel commented on last year came to his own here.

* * *

But the Cockers! Shades of Black Duke, where are we drifting to? They get worse and worse, with the few exceptions noted in our report. The sooner the Canadian Sporting Spaniel Club is revived and set to "talking dog" the better for the breed.

* * *

Dunbarton Kennels were unfortunate in not having their entries catalogued; they evidently went astray in the mails, but having P. O. receipt were able to prove despatch, as was the case with one or two other entries.

Montreal's One Thousand Entry Dog Show.

The general impression I got as regards the St. Bernards was that for once type and quality were in advance of size.

In judging them and the other classes that fell to me I endeavored to give type and soundness marked prominence, and when to these I could add size, I did so. Size can be more readily obtained in a St. Bernard than either type or soundness, though the latter as well as size depends largely on rearing. These principles determined me in placing the smaller dog over the larger in the open class, and in giving the bitch the preference to the dog for the special for best St. Bernard.

The first dog, Ivanhoe, is not as large as could be desired, has rather too much white on face, is too relaxed in lower eyelids, i.e., shows too much red, and has the ears set on rather low; but in spite of this I consider his head a better balanced and more finished one than Uncle Homer's, which, apart from insufficient finish generally, has too much black in the face, a fault common to many of the exhibits, and which generally takes from the true benignant, reposeful expression characteristic of the breed.

While Homer is good in shoulder, neck, etc., he is not straight in forelegs and is wanting behind the ribs, being rather slack in loin, where his rival is strong; in fact, in type, general balance, etc., it seems to me a clear case for the smaller dog, which animal has plenty of bone and is an eminently sound St. Bernard.

In the dog classes there were one or two other fairly good animals, but not at all to be compared with the first two winners. To Sultan, the dog puppy, I could not give better than a second, in spite of the fact that he was exhibited by a lady. I am afraid he will never make a show dog, though possibly a very good companion, and that is something those who exhibit much are very apt to forget when dealing with the poorer specimens, i.e., as judged by a standard. This sentiment should not affect the judging, but it may modify one's general attitude towards the dog as a dog.

The two bitch puppies shown were of good type, though one of them has too much black on the face. Lady Ormonde is good in head, color, etc., but is weak back of the ribs, hence I had to place a better balanced though smaller rival over her. Between the best dog and the best bitch there was some judging to be done. The dog is eminently sound, so also is the bitch; the dog is the best in color, coat and general condition; however, the bitch is very young, is already taller than the dog, is active, and has to my thinking the best type of head of any St. Bernard in the show; so that all things considered, and well considered, I felt that I should decide for the bitch. It is now for the plucky owners of this bitch, who have had severe losses and disappointments, to breed wisely and rear well. They are now on the right track, but the highest point has not yet been reached.

Newfoundlands—I was surprised to find three real Newfoundlands brought before me; of the fourth I can speak less confidently. These three specimens were all straight in coat, with the right type of head within limits, correct in character, etc. They were all, however, even the largest and best of the three, too small, judged by the English standard, and were not massive enough in head; but they were at all events more by far than simply big black dogs.

The Great Danes—I have never had any real pleasure in writing of the Dane: I have seen in Canada. They are usually wanting in type, in character or in soundness to a degree that puzzles the judge to know how best to deal with them in the interest of the breed and their owners, not to say the public—that party very often so little considered in connection with shows. I could not, among the dogs, find a single one that looked enough like a Dane and was at the same time sound and large enough. I doubt much as to any one of them being recognized at all at a German show.

One of the dogs, apart from horribly badly cropped ears, had a good type of head, but he was utterly gone behind the ribs, so that I had no other recourse than to withhold all prizes in the class except to the one small dog that was sound, if not as much of a Dane as I would like. A black animal shown was simply what the Germans term "a butcher's dog."

If the bitches were not so throaty and the older ones so fat, they would pass in a fashion.

There were no Mastiffs or Bloodhounds, and but three Dobermanns, of which two were really good. It was so close between the dog and the bitch that I gave them equal firsts. These were good black and tans; the third lacked substance and was too tall, but she had some type and character.

I must not conclude this brief report without thanking the management, the superintendent included, for their courtesy and kind consideration. To Mr. Laurin, my chief ring steward, I am especially indebted. He is one of the sort of officials whose chief commendation lies in that they really do something to help on the work of the show. May their numbers increase.

Montreal, May 24, 1904. Wesley Mills.

Greyhounds, a moderate lot with the exception of the well known white dog Defender and Dear Kitty, a neat brindle. English Foxhounds, were headed by Plaintiff that we have seen out before. He beats those below him in rib, chest head and neck. Belvoir Vulcan next, a good type of hound. The Americans, with the exception of Gimerack, best in head and type, and Don placed second to him, were very moderate, indeed.

In Pointers we reach something better. Devonshire Maxim, an importation, headed the list, good type, nice front, plenty of bone, clean in neck, with a good muzzle and skull. Lord Bang that we have often noticed followed, with his kennelmate Nellie Jingo, who here gains her championship. Jap is fair in bone with nice body, but weak in muzzle.

English Setters just a fair lot, but the Irish had more quality, where Royal Grand won again. Mr. Wyndham is a well set up dog on good legs, good body, head and foreface. He is lightish in color and in eye. St. Lambert's Mollie won well despite her age, a good one. Radiant Dainty is a rather nice type.

The Cocker entry was a good one, but too many are either giants or toys. Too bad things should drift this way. Lance Farewell, Wilton Crescent, Ottawa Jessie, Lady Marie, Sir Walter Scott, Marguerite, Flossie, Ottawa Prudence, Lady Aileen and one or two others were the only Cockers worth mention.

The best of the Bull Dogs was Mr. Thomas' Duke of Wellington, that has matured into a very taking dog, despite his low placing at Toronto. Mr. Gamey won in novice class for Mr. Gooderham, where Trafalgar Tim, light in body and plain in head, was third; Remus with his moderate head, plain front and light body dividing these two. Tippoo Sahib is well known and Rose of Glenworth and Belle of New York won with ease in the other sex.

Bull Terriers made excellent classes and a good deal of quality was present. A casual run through the dogs at rest would show too many with an inclination to cheekiness that to us always spoils the expression of a Bull Terrier. Epsom Downs, the puppy winner, is none too long in head, nice bone, body and stern. Dick is not right in nose and Colonel is weak in muzzle. The novice winner, Rockcliffe Faultless, has the fault noticed above, but taken all round is a nice type, good eye and front. Monarch is skully, a big dog with a nice eye. Bayview Bo'swain won with a little to spare in bone and front from the good old dog Edgwood Candidate, whose nine years' of battles on the bench deserve an honored retirement. He has held well. Ajax, the light weight, won with ease, and in bitches Epsom June II. and Ottawa Biddy were the best. The Boston classes were better than we have seen before in Canada, and we were glad to see the neat-headed Lady Eleanor owned in Canada; her plain tail is her worst fault, but she is quite good enough to do considerable winning here.

Colne Lucky Baldwin stood well out in the Airedale classes, and his condition was a credit to his handler. Mr.

Laurin's kennels also captured premier place in the bitch classes with Colne Nut Brown Maiden (more ink), a splendid youngster that afterwards went through to winners, followed by the rather gross Antipathy. Several other very fair ones here.

A new one came out in Seottie. Mrs. Le Moynes' Brynhir Barber, that had not yet got quite over his sea voyage. He showed rather listlessly and this handicapped him in his tussle with Reel O'Tulloch, a grand little Terrier that beats the new arrival in foreface and under present conditions Terrier character, though Barber's color and head are attractive.

Red Croft Iris wants more "Pom" coat and the Yorkshires were all turned blue ribbonless away with the exception of Dandy. Nel Gwynne is a very fair Dandy, but the Bobtail that isn't a bobtail and the Eskimo will hardly do. The Jap was the best of the Toy Spazels.

H. D.

As to be expected, Collies were the largest entry and the quality was uniform. The Montreal public have become educated with regard to the Collies, thanks to the Collie Clubs, with the result that only specimens above the average find their way to the bench.

The Balmoral Kennels held their place at the top with Balmoral Baron and B. Primrose, the pair accounting for most of the regular and special prizes. The Ottawa dogs were closely followed by Coila Chieftain, Mr. Roy's new importation, by Champ. Wishaw Clinker, a big upstanding tricolor with great length of head, good bone and front, not in full bloom, nor would he make the most of himself in the ring. We look for him to do better later on.

In bitches Balmoral Primrose and Duchess were followed by Mr. McGee's well known St. Louis Violet. Mr. Jas. Ainslee's Rannoch Heather was the best of the new ones and did all that was asked of her in the junior classes.

Bull Terriers were well represented, though there was a falling off in the local quality, the cream of the prizes going to Mr. and Mrs. Walters and Mr. Armstrong, of Ottawa, and Mr. Fred. Miller, of Picton, the latter's Bayview Bo'swain winning out.

Fox Terriers made a big entry, the Norfolk Kennels team winning all through with Ranger and All Blue in dogs, and Charming and Truest in bitches.

In the wire division the influence of Champion Matchmaker as a sire was seen when Haymaker, Free Tip and Watchmaker, three of his puppies were 1st, 2nd and 3rd in puppy dogs, Debutante and Dressmaker 1st and 3rd in novice bitches, Make-Up 1st in limit dogs being beaten in open only by his sire, and these all in good classes. Norfolk Toss Up, well known and well shown, winning in open bitches.

Kerr Bros.' Rampant Roif was easily the best of the Irish Terriers, followed by Mile End O'Malley, lately imported by Mr. Joseph Meehan, excellent in body, bone, legs and feet, but only a fair headed one. It must have been a close decision between him and Patrick 3rd, who is better in head and loses but little elsewhere.

Ch. Parliament Dime scored over Faultless in Manchesters, while there was nothing in Skyes to lower the colors of the Moorlanders.

The Dunbarton Kennels, of Ottawa, showed a quartet of Italian Greyhounds that proved an attraction.
