WHAT OUR BUSINESS PAGES SAY.

Mr. Geo. H. Carley's enforced retirement from the French Bulldog fancy, gives an opportunity for some enthusiast to take up this little known breed and push it into favor. In the two bitches and stud dog that Mr. Carley offers is the nucleus of a successful kennel.

Drumclaph Kennels announce the advance in the Irish Terrier Red Cusendall's fee to $35. It is desired to use the dog but on the choicest dams, hence the advance. Puppies and grown stock for sale.

Messrs. Trimble & Stephens continue the offer of the services of the Bulldog Tremail Temagami, and tell us his first four matings resulted in twenty-eight vigorous puppies.

Somerset Kennels can offer red and black Cockers of the choicest breeding at all times.

There are some good things in bargain ads. this month. Mr. George Livingston has Scottish Terriers for sale or exchange. Dr. Boulton offers a splendid young dark brindle Bulldog. Mr. L. E. Thomas has for sale the Airedale bitch, Cinder Sis. Mr. J. B. Dale has a litter of Shields Rodney Stone puppies, of which he will send particulars. Mr. Jno. Carr offers to a good home a fine black Cocker dog also a red bitch and those who want cheap portraits of their dogs should write Mr A. Ellison.

Bloomington dates: The dates decided on are February 21st, 22nd and 23rd and entries will close February 12th.

Old English Sheep Dog Club: The Old English Sheep Dog Club has issued a very neat little brochure containing several good pictures of dogs of this old and quaint breed. In addition to the club rules etc., there is a description of the breed and scale of points. Mr. J. W. Morgan is secretary and his address is 44 to 60 East 23rd St., New York.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

New Year's Greetings: We hope it may not be considered too late to acknowledge the many tokens of good will received by the editor during the past three weeks. We appreciate these remembrances; they seem to say we are not overlooked, and to Mr. Geo. H. Carley, Mr. W. M. Stephens, Mr. Fred T. Miller, Mr. Frank C. Watkins, and many others, we extend our thanks.

New Years Cockers: Mr. H. C. Davis, Dundas, got six dark red Cocker babies as his New Years gift. There are three of either sex, and as they are from the good red bitch Dolly Varden, that he showed at Toronto last year, and his Chauncey D., he will be disappointed if more than one good red one does not grow into a winner. Two bitches from Mr. Jackson's kennel at Hamilton have visited Chauncey, and Mr. Davis' sales have been quite active, including a black dog eighteen months old, to a Chicago breeder; a red bitch puppy to Mr. Walker, Dundas, and others.

New York Show: An advance copy of the premium list shows a wealth of specials that must make Mr. Oliver Twist Kent's eyes open. There are cups for best team and for best brace, we suppose an unavoidable complication. They certainly do bring the entries, but are the mischief to judge. There are cups for best specimen in most breeds. Something worth trying for is the $150 prize, cash or plate, for best pack English Foxhounds, five couples, the property of a Hunt Club, to be shown under special conditions. The same amount is offered for American Foxhounds, and $75 for Beagle pack of five couples. In addition, the Beagle Clubs have the opportunity of winning a second prize of $50. The entrance fee for these pack specials is $25.

We notice these specials appear again under the breed headings, but there doubtless is but the one competition. The specialty clubs have all dealt liberally with the show, and there are a host of individual specials of varying value. American or Canadian bred is quite conspicuous, and gives the Dominion an amount of publicity that has a real tangible value.

Mr. Oldham judged at Portland, Me., a show that more of our eastern breeders might patronize if given some publicity here.

Seems to be very lively in Boston circles in U. S. Breeders evidently think that publicity helps a breed, although that same publicity may not, as in this case, always be of the choicest sort.

The A. K. C. has decided to refer the express rate question to the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Donald Monroe, the sturdy Scotsman who has frequently piloted the Warren Fox Terriers to Canada, is reported very ill from heart trouble. He put on no frills, hence we like him here, and would be sorry to lose him.

Mr. Bjorkland big and rosy, was a welcome visitor to this office last month. He was West, buying heavy horses for a large farm that he is now managing, not very far from Montreal. He is almost dogless, but will take up Collies again.

Boston Briefs: Mr. A. Goebel's winning Boston, Othello, is evidently in repute, as during December no less than five matrons were mated to him. They are one from Vancouver, B.C., Mr. Torco's Dolly; Mr. Thompson's, of Seaforth, Chloe; Mr. Bulloch's, Gananoque, Baby of Gananoque; Mr. Smith's, Stratford, Beauty, and an excellent bitch of high quality of Mr. Hall's, Peterboro.

Bloomington, Ills., Show: During the latter part of February, or early March, a dog show will be held in Bloomington, Ill., under A. K. C. rules, the promoters being the Bloomington Kennel Club. This is the club's first attempt, and the list will be made attractive by the addition of handsome silver cups and other specials. Mr. M. P. Carlock is the secretary, and Mr. Walter Armbruster, superintendent, of the show.

New York Show: The great annual dog show held in Madison Square Gardens, New York, is slated this year for February 12th, 13th, 14th and 15th, 1907, entries closing on January 24th. This will be the thirty-first show given by the Westminster Kennel Club, and will no doubt be equal in extent and influence to the large shows of past year if it does not, indeed, excel in these points. Premium lists and other information may be had from Superintendent Jas. Mortimer, 312 Townsend Building, 1123 Broadway, New York.

There is one Canadian on the list of judges, Mr. W. Ormiston Roy, the well known Collie breeder, and he, of course, will take the breed with which he has been so long and so actively associated. The judges number twenty-two in all, the complete list being as follows:

Col. Roger D. Williams, Lexington, Ky.—Bloodhounds, Deerhounds, Greyhounds, Foxhounds, Samoyedes and Whippets.

Jas. J. Lynn, Esq., Port Huron, Mich.—Mastiffs and Fox Terriers.

Dudley E. Waters, Esq., Grand Rapids, Mich.—St. Bernards.

Bulldog Briefs: Owing to the fact that Tremail Temagami has proven extremely productive of high-class puppies, Mr. Stephens has decided to withdraw his offer of sale of his half interest in this sterling little dog. Four matrons which have visited Temagami have produced twenty-eight live, vigorous puppies, with more to hear from. Messrs. Trimble have kept three of the litter, ex Tremail Truestone, one of which, a bitch, is a pup of unusual promise, and bears a strong resemblance to the "Stone" side of the house. One dog promises to be a miniature of "Dick Stone." Temagami will remain at stud in Collingwood, where there is good accommodation for visitors, and at the fee of $15 is an extremely cheap proposition.

From Vinemount: Just too late for last issue, we heard from Mr. Goodwin of the unfortunate loss, owing to neglect en route, of one of the two good Bull bitches he imported in December last. This bitch, which was by Lord Burley, was in whelp to a very good dog in England, so the loss is a double one. The other bitch of the two is doing well and is quite a good one, one of the lowest to the ground that Mr. Goodwin has owned.

• • •

Made in Canada: It may not be generally known that the "Scottie" puppy that won at the late Philadelphia Show, Leeds Heather, was bred by Mr. Goodwin, and indeed is the puppy that won for him at the Toronto Show.

Poms, too: An addition to the Vine-mount Pom. Kennels is a full sister, bought from Mr. Wylie, of that gentleman's winner of two firsts, a second, and reserve championship at the last Edinburgh show. Mr. Goodwin's puppy is of a later litter, and looks like turning into as good a specimen as her winning sister.

Boston Show: The following notes have been supplied us by the show secretary. When we read them first we opened our eyes and questioned, is this Boston the staid and steady beantown, don't-kiss-your-wife-on-Sunday, or the other fellow's either, Boston? A second glance at the letter heading showed the notice to have "really and truly" emanated from the big Massachusetts city. Here they are and being "official," no doubt all promises will be lived up to:

More than $1,000 in money specials to be given by the club itself, cups and plate donated by members, an opening of the classification which adds $1,500 to the regular money prizes, the grandest cup ever set up for Boston Terrier competition, hunting classes and field trial classes for gun dogs, and the new 12 o'clock law for the hotels are blandishments which will beckon the exhibitors of dogs to come on and help make the forthcoming show of the New England Kennel Club one of the largest ever held in this country.

In all the popular classes there will be special prizes of $20 and $10 for the best and second best dog or bitch and a liberal distribution of $5 specials through the novice classes. Hustling for specials without string attachment has been the aim of the Dog Show Committee, and the result has been most surprising.

Friends of W. J. Green, of Philadelphia, who will judge Bostons, have launched a movement to make the entry in that breed such as will wrinkle "Billy's" visage with smiles. Several of them forwarded a few days ago an assurance for one special of $50, two of $25 each, one of $10, and several cups. The $50 will be for the best exhibit of Boston Terriers $25 for best in the puppy class, $25 for the best in the novice, and $10 for the best dog or bitch from Philadelphia.

The Boston Terrier trophy, which will be placed in competition by a leading Boston banker, will cost $350 instead of $250, as first reported. It is an elegant sample of the silversmith's handiwork, and looks every ounce its worth. That the entry of Boston Terriers will be a remarkable one there seems to be no doubt. Mr. Green has the confidence of the fancy, and knows the dog from pad to ear and back again, and his entire attention, while judging, can be depended upon to be on the log end of the lead.

Another Philadelphian, Mr. William H. Whittem, will also be seen in the judging ring. He will scan the Airedales for their prize winning qualities, and there will be in that class specials good enough to make the entry worth the while for as good an Airedale man as Mr. Whittem.

The Spaniel classes all of which will be made especially enticing to exhibitors by a liberal distribution of plate and money specials, minus strings, will be judged by Mr. William T. Payne, the Pennsylvania expert, who drew such a large entry at Toronto. Fanciers who have recently turned attention to Irish Water Spaniels may be pleased to know that a full classification has been made for that very interesting and long-neglected sporting dog.

Among the all-rounders who will contribute to the gaiety of the show are: James Mortimer, James Watson, Harry Macy, and Maj. J. M. Taylor. It is understood that William B. Earle, of New York, will take the Bulldogs in hand; that L. W. Campbell, of Woonsocket, R.I., will judge American Foxhounds; that F. G. Davis, of Boston, will be given French Bulls; that H. T. Peters, of New York, will preside over Dalmatians and Old English Sheepdogs; that a San Francisco gentleman, Irving Ackerman, will hand out the wins in the Fox Terrier classes, and that James J. Lynn, of Port Huron, Michigan, will take the Irish Terriers in hand.

The secretary for the show is J. N. Taylor, 244 Washington St., Boston, who announces that the premium list will be ready for the mail the first week in January. Entries will close January 30.

Wires in B.C.: The wire hair Fox Terriers that Mr. W. D. Bruce, Vancouver, brought from England last spring, are, he tells us, doing well, and he has a puppy or two that he wishes he had the opportunity of showing against the Eastern cracks of the breed. Can't some one with a chip on his shoulder oblige him?

Spratts' Calendar: We always look forward with interest to the receipt of the unique and original annual calendar sent out by Messrs. Spratts' Patent. That issued for 1907 is fully up to the effort of previous years. The dog subjects depicted are a Chow Chow on the front page and a Bobtail on one of the inner sheets. Feathers are also well looked after and the descriptive matter on the back of each picture is interesting.

From Nova Scotia: Mr. R. N. Clark's New Year's greeting takes the shape of a large calendar with a taking picture of a champion dog of his favorite breed, the Boston. It makes a very handsome hanging calendar for den or office.

Back to his "ain fireside:" Mr. Chas. Lyndon is safely back in Canada with his different canine charges and is located in East Toronto, where he will remain for some months at least. He brought with him the famous Wandee Fox Terriers, both wire and smooth, so that breeders may have the services of these dogs so widely known, many of them of world wide reputation. The smooths are Norfolk Blue (late Eton Blue), still in full vigor, and Norfolk Splinter by the great Dark Blue ex the Don Cesario bitch Norfolk Nugget. Amongst the wires are Wandee Coast Guard, a champion both in England and America, and Norfolk Rebel, a 161-2 pound dog, a grand little Terrier, especially suited for over sized bitches.

Then there is that good imported Bulldog Champion Ivel Damon, by Champion Ivel Doctor, a proved stock getter and the sire of over a dozen big winners. And last the Pomeranian, a solid black dog without a white hair. He is by Blue Fly ex Maypole Queen. This dog is a true black with tremendous coat and was especially imported for stud purposes.

Wandee Kennels: Mr. Chas. Lyndon, East Toronto, is applying to the C.K. C.

COLLIES.

I have reluctantly decided to confine my breeding operations to one, or at most two bitches, and therefore offer for sale practically the whole of my Kennel of Collies which has been before the public continuously for the past 30 years. This is an opportunity not often afforded breeders of obtaining show and breeding stock of the highest merit and most approved breeding. Amongst the brood bitches are:—

Holyrood Idyll, by Champion Woodmanstern Conrad.

Holyrood Prim, by Imported Cheviot Production.

Holyrood Princess, by Imported Holyrood Leek.

Holyrood Polly, by Ch. Wellesbourne Conqueror.

Holyrood Maid, by Imported Wishaw Hero.

Holyrood Pretty One, by Imported Wishaw Hero.

Holyrood Pick-me-up, by Imported Annandale Piccolo.

In addition there are Puppies by Wishaw Hero, Ch Greystone Bredalbane and my recently imported Holyrood Clinker.

Those who are unable to make a personal selection, I shall endeavor to give them the benefit of my best judgment in selecting for them.

Sheep killers: During the big Winter Fair, last month at Guelph, the evergreen subject of sheep killing dogs was again uppermost. It was stated by some of the farmers present that sheep breeding had almost died out in some parts of the province owing to the repeated depredations of roving, sheep destroying dogs. Mr. John Campbell introduced the question of legislation for protection of sheep from dogs, and took quite a fair view of the case.

On another page we give in full the law relating to the subject as it as present exists. The cancellation of clause 2 would make the taxation of all dogs compulsory, and not leave the decision as it now is, largely in the hands of a few voters in each municipality.

He stated that dogs, more than any other thing, prevented many farmers from keeping sheep. It was not the good dog that did the harm, but the "mongrel," that was no good to anybody. The chief fault with the present law was that it had too many loop holes wherein it could be evaded. A petition of 25 ratepayers in any township will make the law inoperative. The following are the opinions of many farmers as to how a sheep law should be operated:

1. It should be made compulsory for every municipality to put a tax on dogs.
2. The annual tax for one male should be $1.00, and for a second male or bitch from $5 to $10.
3. Money collected from dog taxes should be available to pay damages by dogs.
4. Every council should appoint competent persons to adjudicate on losses.
5. Dog taxes should be a general fund for the county or province to pay for sheep killed or injured by dogs.

Lt.-Col. McEwen, in leading the discussion, stated that clause 2 of the present act should be struck out. Section 18, re paying claims, should be altered where a dog cannot be located. Every dog should be taxed and the money used to pay claims, the whole loss being paid and not two-thirds, as at present. He closed by a special plea for the good, useful dog on the farm.

In the general discussion it came out that many township councils are not living up to the law, by putting a maximum valuation on sheep killed by dogs. In one township, where a maximum valuation of $9 per head is in force, over $300 in dog taxes was collected during 1906, while only $28 was paid out for damages. One breeder of pure bred Shropshires in this township had several sheep killed by dogs and only received $9 each for them, which was a hardship.

A resolution was moved by Mr. Campbell and seconded by Lt. Col. McEwen, asking the legislature to strike out clause 2 and so amend the present act as to give the necessary protection to sheep owners.

Canadian Kennel Club Executive Meeting, Jan. 11, 1907. Official Minutes.

In accordance with the following notice sent each member of the executive committee, the meeting called was held in the Queen's Hotel here on January 11th, with the president, Mr. Jao. G. Kent in the chair. With the immense amount of business to be gone through it was thought best to adjourn the discussion on items 3 and 4 to a special meeting to be held in the same place on Friday, January 18th, at 7 p.m. It is possible that the committee on Constitution and By-laws, Show Rules and Regulations may also be able to report at this meeting. The committee appointed by the chairman consists of Mr. A. A. Macdonald, convener, Mr. R. H. Trimble and Mr. W. P. Fraser.

Following is the notice calling meeting:

Toronto, Dec. 29th, 1906.

I beg to advise you that, by order of the president, a meeting of the Executive Committee will be held at the Queen's Hotel, beginning at 7 p.m. sharp, on Friday, January 11th, 1907. It is suggested that the members of the committee that are able to be present, and I trust you will be one of them, meet for dinner at the Queen's at six o'clock, as this would enable the committee to begin business, which is voluminous, sharp at seven o'clock.

The following is the business to come before the meeting. 1. The election of a vice-president. 2. The election of a member of the Executive Committee. 3. To arrange for secretary and clerical assistance. 4. To arrange for publication of Stud Book. 5. To instruct committee on revision of constitution and by-laws, show rules, etc., or if their work is ready, to receive their report. 6. To elect new members. 7. To arrange new championship rules. 8. Reception of report from Mr. Kerr, re winnings of Bull Terrier Butterfly at Brantford. 9. To decide Mr. Gus A. Langelier's application for prefix Stadacna. 10. To decide whether competition for C. K. C. cups and medals be confined to members only. 11. Other business.

This will be a most important meeting. Business of the greatest interest to the club's future will have to be discussed and decided upon, and it is hoped that every member possible will be present.

Yours truly,

H. B. Donovan,
Secretary-Treasurer.

Secretary's Report.

The secretary's report as follows was distributed:

Toronto, Jan. 9, 1907.

Mr. Chairman and gentlemen:

I beg to submit the following:

1. The first business before you is the election of a First Vice-President to take the place vacated by the lamented death of the late Rev. Thos. Geoghegan. In this connection I beg to lay before you the following correspondence:

Office of the Secretary, corner Bloor St. and Indian Road.

Toronto, Oct. 1, 1906.

H. B. Donovan, Esq., Sec. Canadian Kennel Club, City:

Dear Sir,—At a meeting on the 11th ult. mention was made of a vacancy on the Executive of your club owing to the death of the Rev. T. Geoghegan, and I was instructed to write you that the club begged to nominate Mr. Tibbs to fill the vacancy, if such action on our part were in order under your rules.

Yours truly,

F. A. Metcalfe, Secretary.

Toronto, Oct. 25, 1906.

Mr. H. B. Donovan, Sec. C. K. C.:

Dear Sir,—I beg to nominate for First Vice-President Mr. R. H. Trimble of this city one of your Executive.

Yours very truly,

L. E. Thomas.

130 Carlton St., Toronto.

I would point out that nominations may only be received by courtesy, as it is the province of this board to fill vacancies occurring between annual meetings.

2. Again a vacancy occurring through death has to be filled—the position on the Executive occupied by the late Rev. J. D. O'Gorman.

3. This, I think, needs no further explanation from me.

4. If the club thinks it desirable to continue the publication of the Stud Book, some workable arrangement should be made. The members of the committee are no doubt aware that we are accepting membership fees on the understanding that the annual Stud Book will be supplied.

5. The appointment of a Committee on Constitution and By-laws, Rules and Regulations, is in the President's hands. This item is placed on the agenda, so that the board, if they see fit, may instruct the members of that committee on certain points.

6. The following are applying for membership. It has been usual, if no objection arises, to elect by the casting of one ballot by the Secretary:

T. W. Mailer, Box 370, Vancouver, B. C., proposed by F. W. Welsh; B. Webb, Ottawa, Ont., by Wm. F. Turner; David S. Mowat, Victoria, B.C., by Geo. Florence; J. C. Anderson, Montreal, P.Q., by Mrs. J. M. LeMoyn; J. J. Keliher, Toronto, by R. H. Trimble; Frank Slatery, Toronto, by John G. Kent; Rev. F. G. Gray, Elgin, Ont.; G. F. McFarland, Toronto; Malcolm F. Mead, Ottawa, Ont.; James Shine, Gananoque, Ont.; B. M. Armstrong, Jr., Toronto; A. McNeil, Warton, Ont.; Mrs. W. G. A. Lamb, Toronto, by H. B. Donovan; John P. Bond, V.S., Toronto, by Mr. Fraser.

7. The following correspondence has passed through my hands on this subject:

Sept. 28, 1906.

Mr. T. P. McConnell, Sec. Pacific Coast Adv. Board, Victoria, B.C.:

Dear Sir,—As you will have noticed by report in Canadian Kennel Gazette for this month, the Canadian Kennel Club, at its annual meeting, decided to in future require a certain number of points for championship instead of a number of wins, as heretofore. It was thought that exception should be made in the case of British Columbia, and I should be glad to hear from you what you think would be an equitable arrangement. The number of points to be attained is ten (10), and of this number Toronto would probably be allotted five, the smaller shows given varying numbers, according to the number of entries. I should be glad to hear from you at your convenience.

Yours truly,

H. B. Donovan, Sec.-Treas.

Note.—Similar letters were sent to other Provincial Vice-Presidents.

H. B. Donovan, Esq., Sec.-Treas. Canadian Kennel Club, 124 Victoria St., Toronto:

Dear Sir,—I have to acknowledge receipt of your letter of the 29th ult., which has not been answered before owing to my absence from town. Before replying to same I would like to ask you if it is the wish of the Canadian Kennel Club to make it easier for a dog to become a champion or harder? To my mind, I think it should be made as hard as possible. I note that the number of points to be attained is 10, and of this number Toronto will probably be allotted five, and therefore a dog who won twice at Toronto would hold championship papers. Before giving my opinion as to what would be best in the case of Alberta, I should like to know what scale the Canadian Kennel Club is adopting, and should also be glad to receive a copy of the new rules. As I have had very little experience in the matter of Bench Shows I shall be glad if you will give me all the information you can in order that I can come to a fair decision in reference to championships in Alberta.

Yours truly,

E. D. Adams.

Mr. E. D. Adams, Calgary, Alta.:

Dear Sir,—Replying to yours of Oct. 31st the points we want to arrive at are exactly those mentioned by you. Nothing whatever has been done yet regarding the new rules nor has any number of points been fixed. These were held back awaiting advisement from the Vice-Presidents and Executive.

While ten points might be too low for us in Ontario, it might be and probably would be, amply sufficient for Manitoba, Alberta, and the other western and coast provinces.

Dear Sir,—Your communication of

SOMERSET KENNELS

H. S. TIBBS, - 184 JOHN ST., TORONTO

RED AND BLACK COCKERS

O - WINN NG STRAINS 4.07

28th September came duly to hand. I have delayed answering it till I heard from Mr. H. S. Rolston, Vancouver, whose letter I enclose you. I wrote Mr. Rolston of the changes in the C. K. C. rules, and asked him for his ideas on the subject, and also stating my own views on the matter.

I suggested that ten points for championship was satisfactory, but that the scale of points for western shows be as follows: 400 dogs or over, 5 points; 300 dogs and under 400, 4 points; 200 dogs and under 300, 3 points; 100 dogs and under 200, 2 points; under 100 dogs, 1 point; and that no winners prize be awarded unless there were three dogs of a breed in competition (this latter point Mr. Rolston does not agree with).

Mr. Rolston also wants some arrangement made for past wins at shows held under Pacific Kennel League rules. This has been a sore subject with a good many of our exhibitors since we have joined the C. K. C., and if some equitable arrangement could be arrived at it would be appreciated by past exhibitors. Then there is the question of wins made during C. K. C. rules the past two years. I presume the C. K. C. will allow points for these shows, on the basis agreed on for future shows, and also wins made at A. K. C. shows in America—what about them?

There is another matter that I think might be profitably taken up by the C. K. C., and that is printing the C. K. C. rules in some standard size and selling them to the various C. K. C. clubs at cost price. These could then be inserted in prize lists and catalogues at a fraction of the present cost, and would be absolutely correct. As it is now, each club has to have these rules printed for Vancouver, B.C., Oct. 11, 1906.

Mr. T. P. McConnell, Victoria, B.C.:

Dear Sir,—I am in receipt of your favor of the 5th inst. In reference to the letter from Mr. Donovan, and I certainly think we are entitled to a greater number of points in the West here than in the Toronto Show.

In reference to three dogs being up for competition, I do not agree with you in this matter, as in some varieties we have very good specimens, for instance, in Daschunds and Yorkshire Terriers; last year we had good enough dogs in these classes to win the championship in any competition, and it would not be fair to them to be debarred because there does not happen to be a couple of scrub dogs entered to make the class.

In reference to the wins, I think we ought to have a revision or make a new list of the shows which shall be recognized. We have had a number of shows in this country of P. K. L., which are not recognized, and which we consider ought to be.

I fully agree with you that the number of points ought to be something as you state. I am sorry that the C. K. C. saw fit to advance the fees as it is a very difficult matter to get enough people interested to pay the fees as they were.

Yours truly,

H. S. Rolston.

Mr. H. B. Donovan, Sec. C. K. C., Toronto:

Dear Sir,—Since writing you some days ago I have spoken to a good many of our dog fanciers re the new winners' points, and explained to them the proposal made by me to you in my former letter. The scale of points was satisfactory, only that most of our fanciers thought that they should be allotted for entries, instead of dogs, as proposed by me, remarking that at our last show, also Vancouver, we would have only been entitled to two points on our entries. This was true, and in making the proposal I did to you, I made it on the supposition that Vancouver and Victoria would get at least three points each towards championship honors. This is about as small a number of points as our shows out here would be satisfied with and I think that should the C. K. C. Committee decide to count dogs rather than entries, that for B. C. it would be more satisfactory to make the points as follows: 250 dogs and over, 5 points; 200 and up to 250, 4 points; 150 and up to 200, 3 points; 100 and up to 150, 2 points; less than 100, 1 point. This will, I think, be satisfactory to western shows.

Respectfully yours,

T. P. McConnell.

Dr. C. Y. Ford, on whose motion the decision to amend the championship rule was made, writes:

"In changing the championship rule to 'points,' I trust the number will correspond with the number required by the A. K. C. This is what I intended in my motion."

Following is the rule No. VII., given in the American Kennel Club rules, governing dog shows, and dated January 1, 1907:

Rule VII.—The winners' class shall be open only to winners of first prizes in any regular class at the show, giving at least three of the before-mentioned classes, one of which must be the open class. The winners' class can be divided by sex, provided the required three classes are also divided by sex.

Winners' classes cannot be allowed where two or more breeds are combined. The judge shall withhold the award of "first" in this class should he be of the opinion that there is no dog of sufficient merit to justify such award. Before awarding "reserve" in this class, the dog or dogs having been placed second to the winner in any of the classes must be brought before the judge for competition with the remaining dogs in said winners' class. No class winner can be withdrawn or withheld from competition in the winners' class. No entry fee shall be charged for said competition in winners' class.

The winners of ten points in this class, under three different judges (at least three points of which shall have been won at one show), excepting, however, at five-point shows, when two wins under different judges will be sufficient, will thereby become a Champion of Record, be so registered by the American Kennel Club, and if registered in the Stud Book will be entitled to an American Kennel Club championship medal. Duplicate medals for champions cannot be issued.

Both Mr. Wilson and Mr. Thody are good sportsmen, and I am sorry the little trouble arose.

Cap Rouge, August 20, 1906.

H. B. Donovan, Esq., Sec.-Treas. C. K. Club, Toronto:

Dear Sir,—Your favor of the 15th inst. is at hand and contents noted. I have already written to Mr. Crawford about the matter, and got no reply, so that it is no use to try and make arrangements with him.

I believe your Executive should take into consideration the fact that I have used the name or prefix Stadacona for over seven years now.

You probably remember my ads in Canadian Poultry Review, where I always used the prefix Stadacona. Besides, I register about 200 Yorkshire hogs a year with prefix Stadacona, about 40 Ayrshire cattle with prefix Stadacona, and a half-dozen Clydesdale horses with prefix Stadacona.

The Stadacona Farm eggs, the Stadacona chickens, the Stadacona cream, the Stadacona bacon, the Stadacona hams, the Stadacona vegetables, are better known in Quebec City than any other brand. I refer your Executive to Hon. S. N. Parent, Hon. A. Robitaille, Hon. A. Turgeon, Hon. H. Archambault, Hon. Aug. Tessier, Hon. Jules Tessier, Judges Larue, Casault, Langelier, Carroll, Vesey Boswell, John Hamilton, W. Davis (of Ottawa), and could name 50 others of the best known citizens of Quebec, who will all tell you that they know the products of my farm under the name of Stadacona.

Stadacona Farm represents an outlay of over $50,000, with pedigreed hogs, cattle and horses, and pure-bred poultry, better known by the majority of farmers of the Province of Quebec than those of any other farm. The owner of the farm wishes to breed Collies on an extensive scale to distribute the breed amongst farmers and fanciers, and when he asks for a prefix for his dogs, the same as used for a number of years for his other pure-bred stock, he is stopped because a friend of his, knowing well the popularity of the word Stadacona, when attached to the name of any pure bred animal, chooses to elect this same prefix for a dog or two—pets, rather than animals to be used for breeding.

verily your Executive has not given this matter a second thought, and I trust that pressure of business has probably been the cause of the decision.

Threats from me would be absurd, but if your Executive still holds to its decision, I have nothing else to do but to register my dogs with the American Kennel Club.

Hoping to hear from you soon, I am,
Yours truly,

Gus. A. Langelier.

August 22, 1906.

Mr. Gus. A. Langelier, Cap Rouge, P.Q.:

Dear Sir,—Replying to yours of Aug. 20th, I have very carefully noted your letter, and although I was not present in person at the meeting of the Executive at which your application was decided, I know that they considered the matter very carefully. However, I am taking it on myself to write Mr. Crawford personally, asking him that if he does not purpose making use of the word Stadacona that he transfer it to you, you, of course, reimbursing him for the original expense. I will let you know his decision immediately I hear from him. I think possibly you overlooked the fact that Mr. Crawford has a vested right in this kennel name, and the Executive have no legal power or authority to cancel that right, except for improper conduct.

Dear Sir,—I have your favor in which you state that Mr. Crawford "absolutely declines to relinquish his right to the name Stadacona, as he says he is still breeding Cockers and Fox Terriers."

I do not think there could be any complications if I used the prefix Stadacona for my Collies, and Mr. Crawford the kennel name Stadacona for his Cockers and Fox Terriers.

Please send me two last volumes of the Canadian Kennel Stud Books. I have been a member for two or three years and never received one. When I get these volumes I can see how many dogs Mr. Crawford breeds every year and find out if the complications would be as serious as your Executive believes.

I sent, about a month ago, a bitch to be bred to one of Mr. O. W. Roy's (Montreal) best dogs, paying a good sum for stud fee. Does not this show that I mean business?

However, I have to comply with what your Executive decides, and I will do this without grumbling. The only thing to do will be either to quit breeding Collies or to register them in the United States.

letter of 3rd inst., informing me of my election to C. K. C. Committee. Anything I can do while I am in office for the interest of the club, I shall be only too happy to do it.

Sincerely yours,
Sidney Hillsdon.

Montreal, Oct. 5, 1906.

Mr. H. B. Donovan, Sec.-Treas. Canadian Kennel Club, Toronto, Ont.:

Dear Sir,—Yours of the 2nd inst., announcing my election as Vice-President of the Canadian Kennel Club, to hand. It is very kind of the club doing me that honor, which I have had much pleasure in accepting, but I only regret that I seem to be of so little service to the dog world.

I am still keeping a few dogs, but since the Westminster Committee saw fit to cut down the Skye Terrier classes to the extent that two years ago they withdrew the Skye Terrier class altogether, it is as you can readily see, hardly worth my keeping a full kennel for the one or two shows in Canada. Still, if I can be of any service to you, do not hesitate to call upon me for the same.

I remain,

Yours sincerely,

George Caverhill.

Dictated, G. C.

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 11, 1906.

Mr. H. B. Donovan, Toronto, Ont.:

Dear Friend Donovan,—I am in receipt of yours of the 3rd inst., officially notifying me of election as a member of Executive Committee of the Canadian Kennel Club, and may say I appreciate the honor, but do not see as I can be of very much assistance to the club. As you know, we had a very nice little show here during the exhibition, but we did not have nearly the number of dogs we should have had; this, I think, was due to the fact that several of the recent shows that have been held in this city have not proved a howling success. I think, however, we will be able to get a much better entry another year, and it is possible we might be able to work in connection with the Calgary, and possibly another show or two.

There are a great many dog fanciers in the city, but they go for shooting dogs, and do not care very much for bench qualities. However, I think if we give them a few good shows there will be considerable interest taken in the different breeds.

Hoping the boys are all well, I remain,
Yours faithfully,

Fred T. Miller.

Vancouver, B.C., Nov. 23, 1906.

H. B. Donovan, Esq., 124 Victoria Street, Toronto, Ont.:

Dear Sir,—I beg to acknowledge receipt of yours of the 2nd October, notifying me of my election as Vice-President of the Canadian Kennel Club. I take great pleasure in thanking you, as well as the club, for this honor which you have seen fit to favor me with, and trust that I may be of service to the club in our western country.

Thanking you again for this favor, I remain,

Yours very truly,

C. M. Rolston.

Toronto, 6th Oct., 1906.

My Dear Sir,—I have your favor of 2nd inst., notifying me of my election as Auditor of the Canadian Kennel Club, and beg to say that I shall be most pleased to act in that capacity whenever called upon to do so.

Yours very truly,

Geo. B. Sweetnam.

Lawrence, Cal., Oct. 14, 1906.

H. B. Donovan, Esq., Sec.-Treas. Canadian Kennel Club, Toronto, Can.:

Dear Sir,—Yours of Oct. 2nd received, notifying me of my re-election to office as Vice-President. Kindly convey to the president, officers and members of the club my sincere, hearty thanks for this great honor and esteem that they have conferred upon me again, and to one unknown to the majority of the club. Words could not describe my appreciation of this great honor, for which I send each and all my hearty thanks.

The only regret I have in being an officer and member is the great distance which divides us, and which prevents me being more useful to the club. But though I am not there in the body, I am in the spirit, and my sincere wish is that the club may increase in every direction until it becomes more powerful than any other club on earth.

Wishing the club and members a prosperous year, you can always count on what little assistance I am able to give.

Yours truly,

O. J. Albee.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

H. B. Donovan, Sec.-Treas.

1. Election of a vice-president. The following letter received the day of meeting was read by the secretary.

Ottawa, Ont., Jan. 10, '07.

H. B. Donovan, Esq.:

Dear Sir,—I am sorry to say I will be unable to be in Toronto for the C. K. C. meeting to-morrow. I had fully intended going but unforeseen circumstances will prevent me from doing so. At a meeting of the O. K. C. recently I was induced to bring Dr. Webster's name before the meeting for vice-president. I think he would make a good man, apart from the fact that we think we are entitled to the office down here. We are doing the best we can for the interest of the dog in our little way, and by electing him to the office I think it would act as a good stimulant. He is president of the O. K. C., and Master of Hounds. If you will bring this before the committee you will do me a great favor. With best wishes for the New Year to the executive and yourself, believe me yours very truly,

J. Hillsdon.

On a vote being taken Mr. R. H. Trimble was declared elected.

2. This left an additional vacancy on the executive board when after a ballot of the following nominations Messrs. H. S. Tibbs, Toronto, A. A. Lees, Hmailton, and Dr. Webster, Ottawa, Messrs. Tibbs and Lees were declared elected.

3 and 4. Moved by Mr. Slattery, seconded by Mr. Jacobi, and carried, that these items be discussed at an adjourned meeting, one week from to-night at same place and time.

10. C. K. C cups and medals. It was unanimously decided on motion of Messrs. Jacobi and Fraser that none but members of the C. K. C may compete for the Club's valuable championship cups and medals. In this connection it was also definitely decided that in the case of cups the necessary wins must be made while dog's owner is a member of C. K. C.

6 The secretary was instructed to cast one ballot for the names applying for membership, which he did.

8. Moved by Mr. Trimble seconded by Mr. Macdonald, that previous decision in the case stand. Carried.

9. Moved by Mr. Macdonald, seconded by Mr. Trimble, that Mr. G. A. Langlier be permitted to register and use the prefix Stadacona, no rule of the C.K.C. prohibiting him from doing so. Carried.

The prefixes and kennel names asked for, as printed in Gazette, were granted.

It was decided that as lists of members are not in available form requests for copies cannot be granted.

Meeting adjourned to Friday, January 18th, at 7 p.m., Queen's Hotel., Toronto.

H. B. Donovan,

Secretary-Treasurer.

After thorough discussion, the following proposed amendments to the constitution of the American Kennel Club, Inc., as already presented to and filed with the American Kennel Club, Inc., were unanimously approved:

Article IV.

"Applications of clubs for membership shall be made in writing to the secretary of the club, accompanied by a copy of the applicant's constitution and by-laws, a list of officers, and a full year's dues, and an election by ballot shall be held at the next meeting of the club, provided the said application shall have been filed with the secretary at least ten (10) days previous to said election. The American Kennel Club, up to recent date, has not been an incorporated institution. It now is. Some of its membership clubs protest that sufficient notice was not given their delegates, and that the transfer of property, etc., was recipitate. At any rate an informal meeting was held in New York on January 3rd, at which twenty-three clubs and societies were represented. We have been asked to publish the signed minutes of this meeting, which we do.

We are open for enlightenment, but fail so far to see why the American Kennel Club Incorporated and so subject to the laws governing incorporated bodies, is or should be any more dangerous than the American Kennel Club unincorporated, and so in a way having no legal existence as a club.

The Canadian Kennel Club is an incorporated body; it can sue and be sued for debt or other cause; it is amenable to our laws which its officers may not break without penalty. On the other hand, its members, individuals in this case, are protected in their individual rights.

The report referred to is as follows:

This meeting was held at the Ashland

House, Fourth Avenue and 24th street, New York, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, January 3, 1907.

The meeting was called to order by Dr. DeMund.

On motion, seconded and carried, Dr. F. H. Osgood was elected chairman of the meeting, and J. W. Britton, II., secretary.

The roll call developed that the following named clubs of the American Kennel Club, Inc., were represented at the meeting: Boston Terrier Club, Bull Dog Club of America, Bull Terrier Club of Excerpts from Chapter 271, R.S.O.

1. Subject to the provision in the next section, there shall be levied annually upon the owner, possessor, or harbinger of each dog, an animal tax of $1 for a dog and $2 for a bitch, provided, nevertheless, that the owner or possessor of a kennel of pure-bred dogs which are registered in the "Canadian Kennel Register" may pay to the treasurer of the municipality the sum of $10 as a tax upon such kennel for the year.

2. Upon the petition of twenty-five ratepayers, the Council of any city, town, township, or incorporated village, may provide by by-law that the said tax or any part of it shall not be levied in said municipality.

3. The owner, possessor, or keeper of any dog shall, when required by the assessors, deliver to them in writing a statement of the number of dogs kept by him; and for every refusal or neglect to do so, and for every false statement made in respect thereof he shall incur a penalty of $5.

4. In cases where persons have been assessed for dogs and the collector has failed to collect the taxes authorized by this Act, he shall report the same under oath to any justice of the Peace, and such Justice shall require such dogs to be destroyed by the possessors thereof, or by a constable, and for the purpose of so doing any constable may enter on the premises and destroy such dogs.

5. The money collected by the municipality under the preceding sections shall constitute a fund for satisfying such damages as arise in any year from dogs killing or injuring sheep.

6. In case the Council of any city, town, or township, or incorporated village, deems it advisable that the tax by this Act established should be maintained, but that the application of the proceeds should be dispensed with, it shall be lawful for such Council by by-law to declare that such application shall be dispensed with; and thereafter during the continuance of such by-law the clauses of this extract numbered 4, 5 and 12 to 16 inclusive, shall have no force in the municipality.

7. Any person may kill:

(a) Any dog which he sees pursuing, worrying, or wounding any sheep; or

(b) Any dog without lawful permission in any enclosed field on any farm which the owner or occupant thereof or his servant finds giving tongue and terrifying any sheep; or

(c) Any dog which any person finds straying between sunset and sunrise on any farm whereon any sheep are kept;

But no dog so straying which is kept by the occupant of any premises next adjoining the said farm or next adjoining that part of any highway or lane which abuts on said farm, nor any dog either when securely muzzled, or when accompanied by or being within reasonable call of any person having the charge of said dog, shall be so killed unless there is reasonable apprehension that such dog, if not killed, is likely to pursue, worry, wound, or terrify sheep then on the said farm.

8. On a complaint made before a Justice of the Peace that any person owns, or has in his possession, a dog which has within six months previous worried or injured, or destroyed any sheep, the Justice may require such person to appear before him to answer to such a complaint.

9. In case any person is convicted of having in his possession a dog which has worried or injured or destroyed any sheep, the Justice may make an order for the killing of such dog within three days, and in default thereof may impose a fine upon such person not exceeding $20 with costs.

10. The owner of any sheep killed or injured by any dog shall be entitled to recover the damage from the owner or keeper of such dog by an action before a Justice of the Peace, and such aggrieved party shall be entitled so to recover in such action, whether the owner or keeper of such dog knew or did not know that it was vicious or accustomed to worry sheep.

11. The keeper of any dog to whom notice is given of any injury done by his dog, shall within forty-eight hours after such notice cause such dog to be killed, and for every neglect so to do he shall forfeit a sum of $2.50 and a further sum of $1.25 for every forty-eight hours thereafter until the same is killed, if it is proved that such dog has worried or otherwise injured such sheep; but no such penalties shall be enforced in case it appears that it was not in the power of the owner or keeper to kill such dog.

12. In case the owner of any sheep so killed or injured proceeds against the owner or keeper of the dog that committed the injury, and is unable on the conviction of the offender to levy the amount ordered to be paid, then the Council of the municipality shall order their treasurer to pay to the aggrieved party two-thirds of the amount ordered to be paid by the Justice under the conviction in addition to the costs of the proceedings.

13. The owner of any sheep killed or injured by any dog, the owner or keeper of which is not known, may within three months apply to the Council for compensation for the injury; and if the Council is satisfied that the aggrieved party has made diligent search and enquiry to ascertain the owner or keeper of such dog, and that such owner or keeper cannot be found, they shall award to the aggrieved party a sum not exceeding two-thirds of the amount of the damage sustained by him.

14. After the owner of such sheep has received from the municipality any money under either of the preceding sections, his claim shall thenceforth belong to the municipality, but in case the municipality recovers from the offender more than they had paid, besides their costs, they shall pay over the excess to the aggrieved party.

15. The owner of any sheep killed or injured while running at large upon any highway or enclosed land shall have no claim under this Act to obtain compensation from any municipality.

16. If the Council of any city, town, township, or incorporated village, by by-law decided to dispense with the levy of the aforesaid tax, the owner of any sheep may, notwithstanding, sue the owner or keeper of any dog for the damage done.

GERMAN WAR DOGS; HOW THEY ARE TRAINED.

Since 1888 the German army has been experimenting with dogs trained to do military duty; and now it is announced officially that the results are excellent.

Perhaps one reason for the good behaviour of the animals is to be found in the rule for the guidance of their human trainers, which reads:

"Always, before you punish a dog, make sure that you yourself are perfectly calm and without anger. Never fail to praise a dog for good work. Use every opportunity to speak to the dogs, either praising or censuring them, as the case may demand."

It is no life of fun and play that awaits a puppy who is distinguished by being selected for the honor of becoming the member of a regiment. He must learn almost as much as a private soldier, and drill fully as hard.

The first taught the young dog is to walk exactly at the proper distance from the soldiers whom he accompanies, neither too far before nor too far behind them, and when thus on the march to be absolutely as grave and attentive as a man.

This training lasts till he is seven months old. Then the puppy must turn out every day and run races with the older dogs, to strengthen his muscles and chest. After he has done this for about five months, and when he is a year old, the real military work begins.

By this time the dog knows his own troop of men pretty well. But he must now learn to distinguish every man in it, even in the darkest night, so that he shall know by scent if a soldier who does not belong to his regiment tries to approach the camp.

This of course is one of the vital necessities for the war dog, because he is to be used both as a sentry and a messenger in war, and in each case he must recognize an enemy or a friend at once.

Then he must learn to obey instantly, so that at the word he stops as if frozen stiff. Then he learns to drop to the ground and crouch low with his head between his forelegs the moment he hears the command "Down." And there he must remain, for hours if necessary, till he hears the regimental whistle that tells him that he is to come on.

Then comes another hard and long branch of learning. He must become so that he will carry articles in his mouth and hold on to them no matter what happens. The trainer gives him a cap or a glove at first, and sends him to carry it to some officer. The men turn out when they see the dog, go at him with shouts and make believe to attack him. At first, the new dog either drops what he is carrying to bark and snap at the pursuers, or he will stand over it and prepare to fight.

Now, of course, what is wanted in war is not that the dog should protect whatever he is carrying by fighting for it. In that case, his fight would be short, for the enemy would simply shoot him and then get the message or the ammunition with which he had been entrusted.

So the trainer bends all his efforts to teach the dog, first, that he must under no circumstances drop the parcel from his mouth, and, second, that he must dodge an enemy, keep out of sight, if possible, and under any circumstances run away from him without delay.

Now, as any dog, no matter how careful, may lose his parcel at times, the dog must be taught to search for lost articles. He is drilled into this until he gets so expert that most of the German army dogs can find a cap or a glove that has been lost anywhere along a line of march a mile long.

Now comes an important lesson. The dog must be taught to lie down alongside of any object that may be pointed out by the soldier, whether it be a button from a coat or a cannon, and stay there without uttering a whimper while his regiment moves on. Even if it be away for a day and a night, the dog must stay where he is.

This has two important reasons. One is that the men may wish to creep on an enemy without being encumbered by the dog; the other is that they may wish him to remain behind to guard a wounded man or some valuable part of the outfit.

Having learned this, he learns not to bark under any circumstances. Until this branch of his education has been finished he is unfit to accompany soldiers, for his bark would betray them to the foe.

The war dog that has been graduated never barks. When an enemy or a stranger approaches he crawls close to his masters and utters a low growl. By this time he has learned, also, that the only time to fight is when his life is in danger. At no other time will he attack any one who approaches. Thus, of course, his masters are safe against betrayal through any act of his. He will lie as close and quiet as the human soldiers.

Besides acting as sentry, the chief use for the war dog is to carry ammunition or messages at a time when the fighting is such that no human being could be expected to pass through the line of fire.

To enable the dog to do it, he is taught to seek covered places whenever he goes anywhere. He learns to run along in trenches and sunken ways, to creep behind hedges and fences, and to slip past bodies of men, making himself as inconspicuous as possible.

The good army dogs have proved that they can go five miles with a message, passing all sorts of enemies and hindrances on the way. In these trials the dogs showed that however hard pressed they might be, they could evade capture with wonderful skill, and even in the tightest places they rarely turned tail to return, but always tried their best to take their messages through.

So, perhaps, in some war to come, a dog may even earn the iron cross. Surely, if being faithful, true, and brave will earn it, men may be sure that the dogs will not be behind them in deserving it.—Our Dogs.

THE DOGS ACT, ENGLAND, 1906.

As the Dogs Act comes into operation on the 1st of January next, we think an epitome of its main features and provisions will be of benefit to the kennel community, and we therefore have pleasure in publishing them in this our Yuletide issue, which will act as a landmark whenever reference to the act is required. They are as follow:

I.—Liabilities of owners of dogs for injury to cattle.—34 and 35 Vict., Cap. 56.

1. The owner of a dog shall be liable in damages for injury done to any cattle by that dog; and it shall not be necessary for the person seeking such damages to show a previous mischievous propensity in the dog, or the owner's knowledge of such previous propensity, or to show that the injury was attributable to neglect on the part of the owner.

2. Where any such injury has been done by a dog, the occupier of any house or premises where the dog was kept or permitted to live or remain at the time of the injury shall be presumed to be the owner of the dog, and shall be liable for the injury unless he proves that he was not the owner of the dog at that time.

Providing that where there are more occupiers than one in any house or premises let in separate apartments, or lodgings, or otherwise, the occupier of that particular part of the house or premises in which the dog has been kept or permitted to live or remain at the time of the injury shall be presumed to be the owner of the dog.

3. If the damages claimed under this section do not exceed £5 they may be recovered under the Summary Jurisdiction Acts as a civil debt.

4. Where a dog is proved to have injured cattle or chased sheep, it may be dealt with under section two of the Dogs Act, 1871, as a dangerous dog.

II.—Power of Board of Agriculture to make orders about dogs.—57 and 58 Vic., Cap. 57.

1. The Diseases of Animals Act, 1894, shall have effect as if, amongst the purposes for which the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries may make orders under section 22 of that act, there were included the following purposes: (a) For prescribing and regulating the wearing by dogs, while in a highway or in a place of public resort, of a collar with the name and address of the owner inscribed on the collar or on a plate or badge attached thereto; (b) with a view to the prevention of worrying of cattle, for preventing dogs or any class of dogs from straying during all or any of the hours between sunset and sunrise.

2. Orders under this section may provide that any dog in respect of which an offence is being committed against the orders, may be seized and treated as a stray dog.

III.—Seizure of stray dog.—53 and 54 Vic., Cap. 45.

1. Where a police officer has reason to believe that any dog found in a highway or place of public resort is a stray dog, he may seize the dog and may detain it until the owner has claimed it and paid all expenses incurred by reason of its detention.

2. Where any dog so seized wears a collar having inscribed thereon or attached thereto the address of any person, or the owner of the dog is known, the chief officer of police, or any person authorized by him in that behalf, shall serve on the person whose address is given on the collar, or on the owner, a notice in writing stating that the dog has been so seized, and will be liable to be sold or destroyed if no claim is made within seven clear days after the service of the notice.

4. Where any dog so seized has been detained for seven clear days after the seizure, or, in the case of such a notice as aforesaid having been served with respect to the dog, then for seven clear days after the service of the notice, and the owner has not claimed the dog and paid all expenses, incurred by reason of its detention, the chief officer of police, or any person authorized by him in that behalf, may cause the dog to be sold or destroyed in a manner to cause as little pain as possible.

5. No dog so seized shall be given or sold for the purpose of vivisection.

6. The chief officer of police of a police area shall keep, or cause to be kept, one or more registers of all dogs seized under this section in that area which are not transferred to an establishment for the reception of stray dogs. The register shall contain a brief description of the dog, the date of seizure, and particulars as to the manner in which the dog has been disposed of, and every such register shall be open to inspection at all reasonable time by any member of the public on payment of a fee of 1s.

7. The police shall not dispose of any dog seized under this section by transferring it to an establishment for the reception of stray dogs unless a register is kept for that establishment containing such particulars as to the dogs received in that establishment as are above mentioned, and such register is open to inspection by the public on payment of a fee not exceeding 1s.

8. The police officer or other person having charge of any dog detained under this section shall cause the dog to be properly fed and maintained.

9. All expenses incurred by the police under this section shall be defrayed out of the police fund, and any money received by the police under this section shall be paid to the account of the police fund.

10. In this section the expressions "police area," "chief officer of police," and "police fund," with respect to the city of London mean respectively the said city, Commissioner of City Police, and the fund applicable to the maintainance of police in the said city, and with respect to any other place have the meanings respectively assigned to them by the Police Act, 1890.

IV.—Notice to police of finding of stray dogs.

Any person who takes possession of a stray dog shall forthwith either return the dog to its owner or give notice in writing to the chief officer of police of the district where the dog was found containing a description of the dog and stating the place where the dog was found and the place where the dog is being detained, and any person failing to comply with the provisions of this section shall be liable, on conviction under the Summary Jurisdiction Acts, to a fine not exceeding 40s.

V.—Exemption of Sheepdogs, etc., from excise license.—41 and 42 Vic., Cap. 15.

1. The grant of a certificate under section 21 of the Customs and Inland Revenue Act, 1878, of exemption from duty in respect of a dog shall require the previous consent in England of a petty sessional court, and in Scotland of the sheriff or sheriff substitute having jurisdiction in the place where the dog is kept, but such consent shall not be withheld if the court is of opinion that the conditions for exemption mentioned in the said section apply in the case of the applicant, and the procedure for obtaining that consent shall be regulated in England by rules made by the Lord Chancellor, and in Scotland by acts of sederunt.

2. The rules and acts of sederunt shall provide for dispensing with the appearance of the applicant for a consent under this section except in cases where the application is opposed and the court sheriff or sheriff substitute considers the appearance of the applicant to be necessary for the proper consideration of the application. No fee shall be payable in respect of any application or consent under the section.

VI.—Burying of Carcases.

Any person who shall knowingly and without reasonable excuse permit the carcase of any head of cattle belonging to him to remain unburied in a field or other place to which dogs can gain access shall be liable on conviction under the Summary Jurisdiction Acts to a fine not exceeding 40s.

VII.—Definition of cattle.

In this act the expression "cattle" includes horses, mules, asses, sheep, goats, and swine.—Our Dogs
