WHAT OUR BUSINESS PAGES SAY.

Messrs. Fraser and Lindsay, owing to Mr. W. P. Fraser's removal to the city, are compelled to disperse the kennel of smooth and wire Fox Terriers got together by them with so much care. They are all good individuals of the very choicest blood lines, and amongst others is the young wire dog Fusilier (late Oxspring Billy), reserve at New York this spring. Then amongst the smooths is a beautifully bred Oxonian bitch, which Mr. Desmond O'Connell sent out last summer. There are also two topping wire bitches quite good enough to show and win. Full details will be sent on application to Mr. Fraser.

Mr. R. S. Richardson offers his new Boston purchase, Vet. IV., at stud at a ten-dollar fee. He is a proved sire of winners and a winner himself.

Mr. A. A. Macdonald's famous quartette of smooth Fox Terriers take their place at stud again. Champion Aldon Tipster is by St. Leger, out of the Champion True bitch Aldon Rumour, and has an enviable record, both on the bench and as a sire. The others are quite equal, and there should be no difficulty in finding amongst them a mate for almost any type of bitch. The dogs are in Mr. J. S. Clark's careful charge and bitches should be sent to him.

That good Irish Terrier Drumclaph Fairplay is now entitled to the use of the word Champion, the last necessary win having been made at the O. K. C. Show. It so appears in his stud ad.

Another good one, this time Mr. Cromwell Cox's Boston, is now a champion, the final win having been made at same show. Champion Lord Anthony has an unbeaten record here, and has attained his championship at four consecutive shows.

Mrs. F. L. Cartwright is now offering the services of her home-bred Bulldog, Lennox Bendigo, a dog that is improving daily. For a short time only the fee has been fixed at the moderate sum of ten dollars. Ben Jordan retains his place in the kennel and has proved himself an excellent sire. Young stock of both sexes usually for sale.

Dr. C. Y. Ford is offering for sale a number of excellent Collies that should find quick sale. Such dogs as Otterburn Baroness, Otterburn Orion, etc., do not go a-begging.

Tito Melena, now in new hands, is a claimant for Boston stud favors. He is a beautifully bred, trappy little dog, and a sure sire. His owner, Dr. D. C. King, has puppies and a brood bitch for sale too.

There are several good things in sale ads. Homewood Kennels offer the Airedale Terrier Cinders Sis, in whelp to Colne Craighellackie. Emil Kiewert has Dachshund puppies two months and eight months old to sell. C. A. R. Warren wants a buyer for the winning Collie Enfield Hope, price $30. M. Alford makes an unusual offering in a flat-coated Retriever, Prince Zulu Nero. Chesters Cinch has for sale four Cocker puppies and Bentham Kennels have for exchange three Italian Greyhounds and a brace of Collies. Look them up.

THE AMERICAN COLLIE CLUB:

The American Collie Club are out with a special list of judges, and are open for suggestions. In glancing at those chosen, we only see one Canadian. In the interests of this club are to be extended in the Dominion of Canada we would suggest to the Collie Club Committee that they inquire who are considered capable judges in Canada. The Canadian Kennel Club can furnish information of this sort, if asked for.

Ontario Kennel Club's Show, Toronto. 324 Dogs Present. No. of points, two.

The band of fanciers who comprise this organization are composed of what might be called "one dog men," i.e., exhibitors who keep a few dogs for the pure love of the fancy. These little gatherings bring together a type of exhibitor from whom we may look for dogs carefully bred and reared. Small shows give these men—and women, too, of course—a chance to show what they can do with home products—breeding, not buying, being their ambition, and that must be the backbone of the fancy at large.

The locale chosen was Grand's Horse Repository, a good building for the purpose, but so secluded on an out-of-the-way side street that any hope of a satisfactory "gate" was out of the question. Even with this handicap, 1,400 people were present on one day.

The entry must have been most gratifying, numbering 336 actual dogs—surely a high compliment to the management, when little else but ribbons were to be won. Eleven judges officiated in rings that were altogether inadequate and cramped—a failing common at many more pretentious shows. A spirit of harmony prevailed, and the show may be voted a success. Mr. Slattery, the president; Mr. Metcalfe, the secretary, and others, were omnipresent, and most courteous to all they came in contact with. A hard-working committee kept things moving, and deserve a vote of thanks from the exhibitors.

C. Y. Ford.

Mr. Campbell's entries being absent, owing to his illness, left Tido, a moderate one, the only Newfoundland. There were but two Danes, no winners being given in dogs. King Richard II. was adjudged the best of the Russian Wolfhounds, beating amongst others the well known Kolima. It was Mr. Coulter's day in Greyhounds, taking both winners and reserve with Jessie and Queenie. Mr. Habart's Miss Tess was first in open. The Sporting classes were light, well known names winning out. There was some good stuff in Irish Setters. We

BLOODHOUNDS.

The sole representatives of the English Bloodhound at the recent Ontario Kennel Club's Show were three puppies, the property of W. W. Wells, Jr., Black Prince being the best developed of the trio, and exhibiting most wrinkle and good earage, was awarded first prize in each class, and two specials. Kakabeka, liked the dapple Dachshund. Mr. Kenyon's Haslingden True Game took winners in quite a respectable lot of Bedlington. Bulldogs showed up well, the judging calling for some comment. Vine-mountain Black Mask, Mr. Goodwin's new dog, went to the front in dogs. In bitches, Peggy Stone and Dorrit Stone were placed over Champion Vinemount Folly, a very doubtful decision.

Bull Terrier, STOCKWOOD BELLE, winner Corby Challenge Trophy at the O. K. C. Show. Bred by J. Allaster, Toronto.

showing much more promise than Fayette Queen, received the second prize in each class. I fear that in Canada there has been too much crossing of the Bloodhound with the Foxhound, with the result that the head is not long, narrow and uniform in width, with prominent peak, the nostrils are not large, and the flews are not sufficiently pendulous to exhibit the haw. We need the Cromwel-

REVIEW OF MR. LYNDON'S CLASSES.

As I did not make any notes at the show, I must trust to memory.

I am sorry to say, with the exception of Airedale and Welsh Terriers, the Terrier division made a poor lot, taken all around. Airedales mustered quite strong for a local show. The winning puppy was anything but fit. Bar being light in eye, he is a big, sound Terrier, with a grand front, immense bone, and I liked his size. Second was very close up, better in coat and color, but beaten in head and front by the winner. There was a nice young dog in this class, who moved very badly behind. He was supposed to have hurt himself, but his hind action, to me, was all wrong, so could do nothing for him. The gem of the lot appeared in the open class, Columbus in name; while he did not show very well to begin with, he kept on improving in that respect. He is a beautiful puppy, grand color, sound coat, of the right texture, and his body, bone, legs and feet leave nothing to desire. To be critical he might have a little more length of face, but he has a nice dark eye and lovely expression so hard to get in this breed. I am sure he will do a lot of good if properly used in Canada.

Irish Terriers a terrible disappointment to me. With the exception of the winning dog and bitch and a young bitch of Mr. Britton's, they were a bad lot. What the breed wants is some hard-coated bitches with sound legs and feet. I well remember when they were equal to Fox Terriers in front and bone. My old dog, The Canadian Ambassador, now fifteen years old, who is blind and deaf, could still beat the winners at this show in front. The winning dog, Fair Play, is real Irish, always with a chip on his shoulder, still not quarrelsome. He was just between his coats here, and is wide in front. He has a nailing good head and ears, with a nice, racy outlook, and is sound behind. He is a dog always wants showing on the light side. The winning bitch should have been shown at the fat hog show in Guelph, as she was easily four or five pounds too heavy. She has a grand coat, lovely bone, legs and feet, and showed for all she was worth. There was nothing here to make her gallop, fat and all. Her faults are a very slight plainness in skull and she could do with a bit more foreface. Bred to the right dog, she should get a clinker. Quite a few of the Irish did not attempt to show themselves, which seems out of place in this breed.

Scottish Terriers, just one, a big but hardy looking customer.

Skye Terriers just fair, the winning dog quite a good one. There was also a very nice puppy bitch.

Welsh Terriers, thanks to Miss Beardmore, made quite a showing, the winning dog puppy, I think, won winners also. He is a good, sound Terrier, with nice legs and feet, and lots of real Welsh Terrier character; he and the second showed to perfection. The balance of them just utterly refused to show. The best one of the lot is quite bully in front, and absolutely refused to show himself, and had to be contented with v.h.c. Now, there is no reason why those Terriers should not have good fronts, at all events straight.

Fox Terriers were simply awful, but as I know, there is some grand blood in Canada they must certainly improve in the next year or two. The winning dog puppy of Mr. Sands, I hope, goes on the right way. He won everything in Fox Terriers with ease, and was easily the best Fox Terrier in the show. He is a very taking little Terrier of the small brigade, might have more foreface, as he looks just a little bitchy; such beautiful neck and shoulders, with the best of legs and feet, short back and a grand shower. Mr. A. A. MacDonald, I think, won second in this class, shown very fat and cannot tell what he would be like in condition. In the absence of Mr. Sands' puppy in the limit and open class, the fight lay between Binks, Aldon Cadet and Oxford Blue, placed in order written. Binks won comfortably enough from Aldon Cadet in head, neck and shoulders, he is also much better in expression. I found it hard to separate Cadet and Blue, but the little dog from Ottawa is quite done in front.

The bitches need no comment, the winner only deserving of any mention, being a nice, showy little Terrier, and should breed something good. Mr. Macdonald won in the puppy class with, I should think, a fair bitch, were she shown in half decent condition, but was pounds too fat, and soft as a sponge. Wires can all be passed over, with the exception of a nice, sound puppy from Montreal, Millbrook by name, a rather nice one, who went through to winners. Smallwood Duty won winners, bitches, a slovenly shower.

Pomeranians, just four. Berwyn Mite first, is a real mite, but was shown in wretched condition; he, however, won easily over the second, a chocolate, a very nice dog, but too big. Duda won in open bitches, a good, sound black, over-sized. French Poodles, the least said the better, and were all shown in straight coats. King Charles Spaniels, two very young puppies looked like being the best; still too young for show, and had to give it to the older ones. A very fair Prince Charlie won the next class from a Blenheim. Yorkshire Terriers had two very nice ones very close together, but the first showed so well and kept asking for it all the time, so he got it.

General specials, the first special for best in show. After weeding out, I had the Collie, Sheepdog, Irish Setter and Bulldog. The Collie and Old English Sheepdog were in beautiful condition, and besides showed for all they were worth. The

As I will be in Canada for a few months, breeders will have an opportunity of using these famous sires. It is well known that they are Terriers with a world-wide reputation and not at all local. As their produce is at the very top of the tree both in England and America, you are not guessing when using this blood.

CHAS. LYNDON, Box 31, East Toronto, Ont.

Irish Setter is not quite ready, was very light in flesh; I would also like him a size or two smaller, still with time he should make up into a grand dog. The Bulldog was pounds too fat, and always shows a mouthful of ivory, and lacks real Bulldog character. I placed the Collie first and the Sheepdog reserve. Would like the Collie a size larger, but he has beautiful head and ears, and a sound one all over. The Sheepdog is also a big, sound dog in beautiful bloom. The rest of the specials follow those, with the exception of the Irish Setter winning the Sporting special. I have to thank my stewards for the way the dogs were brought to the ring, which enabled me to get through the first day.

Chas. Lyndon.

The St. Bernards made a brave show, there being a marked improvement on previous years. Junior, dog or bitch (rough), Lucerne of Parkdale, from the Parkdale Kennels, was the winner in this and two subsequent classes, also taking winners bitches. This is a good-headed, weighty bitch, with correct eye and type, enormous bone and sound. Too light in color and a shade low on leg are her failings. Second, Edward's Prince, a big young dog, with good bone, who wants to fill out in body and is too staring in eye. Third, Mrs. Softly's Duke; too small and light all through. Novice dogs or bitches: First, Sir Noble Bolt, massive in head and big in bone; he is a sound, useful dog, just wanting a little in finish and character. Second, Prince Charles, another good-headed dog, excelling in color; too low on the leg and full in eye. Third, Jumbo, the tallest dog in the class, with fair bone and color; too straight in face and shallow in muzzle. Limit and open, repeats. Smooth dog or bitch, novice—First, the grand-headed, good-colored King Lear of Parkdale. He appeared a bit light to-day and did not show as he can do. He also won limit, open and winners' prizes, and with Lucerne of Parkdale took the brace special. The latter also won two specials for best St. Bernard in show, Sir Noble Bolt being reserve.

O. E. Sheep Dogs—The Harkaway Kennels were here well represented by that grand brace Edward Rex and Ch. Sir Wallie Harkaway, the former just winning on the day. These were followed by Sharp Bros.' Leo Harkaway, a big, typical dog, with lots of coat, but fails in color.

CHAMPION DRUMCLAPH FAIRPLAY, Fee $25.

8854 Gulsley Mixer ex Gulsley Nora

Winner for best Irish Terrier in show at Toronto and Ottawa 1906. At New York, second limit and third open. At Boston, first limit, first open and winners dogs, defeating the winners dogs at New York. Is siring grand stock. We also won in bitches with Red Cross, third limit and open, and at Boston third open; Peggy O'Neil, a daughter of Ch. Celtic Badger, won at New York third open bitches, American or Canadian bred; and Drumclaph Flatiron, one of our own breeding by Red Cushendall was H. C. at Boston.

Collies held premier position in point of numbers and some recent importations added to the class and quality of the exhibit. There is abundance of room for the good ones from across the ocean, and ample scope for many more breeders who will take up the fancy and follow it with the assistance of judgment founded on experience. The few high-class specimens we see produced here show how difficult it is to breed one. The show records across the border also support this fact.

In the puppy dog class Triumph Perfection, a handsome tri-color, with good, clean head, bright carriage of ears, good expression and coat, had no difficulty in getting the coveted first, Endfield Hope, good style of sable and white, in nice coat, winning second. Might be darker in eye and carries his ears carelessly. King Edward Baron, third, a six months old tri-color, shows the right character and type, but is out of coat and could be improved in expression. Reserve went to Walden Black Watch, also too young to show to advantage; a good clean headed one, with good ears. Prince D. and an unnamed sable and white accounted for the H.C.'s, a nice entry of 10.

Novice dogs introduced King Edward Leader, a well-grown Canadian-bred son of the great champion Southport Sculptor. This is a very nice young dog, in good coat, with a good long, level head, good legs and feet, that just misses being the best Collie in the show, a good wearing sort, that got the decision over the winning puppy. Otterburn Orion 3rd is weak in muzzle, but a good bright Collie, with good ears and built on galloping lines. Max McC., reserve, is a dog put down in good shape, a bit over-shot, and loses some in quality. Sefton Ralph, H.C., lacks in cleanness of head to those placed over him.

Edgbaston Dandy. He is a nice level-headed dog, well-carried, small ears, stands on good legs and feet, but shown out of coat, and consequently had his work cut out for him to win. Dandy, shown in good bloom and carrying his three years well, with sweet head and expression, loses to the winner in style, carriage of ears and liberty of action.

Open dogs and Canadian breds brought no new faces.

On the whole, the bitches did not show up as strong as the male division. Walden Violet, the winning puppy, too young to bench to advantage, possesses a good, long, level head, nice ears and expression, but has not yet come into coat. King Edward Beauty, in better coat, came second, Walden Primrose, not just straight in front, following, with reserve going to Hazelbrae Lady Jane off in ears and front legs. Dundas Lassie, H.C., fails in head and ears. Walden Silverbell, lacking in head and body, lost to same owner's Violet in novice bitches, James' Lassie winning third.

In limit bitches King Edward Kennels' Prunella could not be denied. Her clean-cut appearance, quality and condition, notwithstanding her down face and need of just a little more command over her ears, put her over Janet of Rosemount, that did some winning at the National last September. Janet has developed into a great big, strong bitch, and now lacks refinement in head. In open bitches Nith Marvel, owing to her recent maternal duties, was not in condition to seriously endanger the position of the winners of the previous class. Canadian-bred bitches and the green class had no new ones.

Robt. McEwen, judge.

Bull Terriers at Ontario Kennel Club Show, Toronto, made a very good class, with dogs in good condition. This breed was greatly admired, and why not? Are they not the breed that has made Canadians famous as breeders at New York?

In puppy dogs I found a good lightweight in Stockwood Battle, that went through to winners' dogs. In puppy bitches, Mr. B. M. Armstrong, Jr., showed a very nice bitch in Lysonby Elizabeth, with a nice eye, good head a good strong, punishing jaw, and if she straightens up in front and pasterns will be a good one. In lightweight bitches that good little bitch Berwick

The black and tans made a very small entry. The winning dog was far too big, otherwise a fair dog. The winning bitch was a good one if she had any markings or color of tan. The toy black and tans had a very good one in Bussy Hussy, a rare good-headed one for a Toy.

James G. Walters, judge.

The Bostons.

The following is my report of the Bostons at the O.K.C. Show:

Bostons made a great showing, 33 in all, or 13 more than ever came together in Canada before.

Puppy dogs, 6 entries. First, Tony Boy, a dark brindle with white markings, could be improved in head, but grand body, legs and feet; 2nd, Merry Boy, a finely-marked dog, with a good tail, too much terrier in head and long in body; 3rd, Delmas, a small solid brindle, with grand head and muzzle.

Novice dogs, 8 entries. First, Doc. H., a half-white-headed dog, with a good skull and body, poor in muzzle and a half wall-eye; 2nd, the puppy winner; 3rd, Merry Boy.

Limit dogs, 12 to 17 lbs, 3 entries, with Lord Bourbon absent. First, Vet. IV., shown in poor condition. He is a good little dog; could be a little cleaner in muzzle; 2nd, Merry Boy.

Limit dogs, 17 to 22 lbs, 3 entries. First, Schuyler Bob, looking better than I have ever seen him and shown well by his owner; 2nd, Doc. H., the novice winner; 3rd, Tony Boy V.

Limit dogs, 22 to 28 lbs., 5 entries. First, Lord Anthony, who also won the open, winner and special for the best in the show. He is a grand dog and stood out well from all the others; 2nd, Banquo, a fine big heavyweight seal brindle, with white markings. He loses to winner in cleanness of head and length of body; 3rd, Don Carlo, too long in body and carries a gay tail.

Open dogs, 7 entries. First, Lord Anthony, 2nd Banquo, 3rd Vet IV.

Best type of stud dog. This is a class that should be struck out, unless a dog has two of his get to show. First, Panquo; 2nd, Vet IV., loses to winner in substance and condition; 3rd, Schuyler Bob.

Winners, dogs, Lord Anthony; reserve, Vet IV. Had Banquo been shown in the winners class, where he was eligible, he would have won reserve winners.

Females were poorer in quality than the dogs. Puppy bitches, 9 entries. First, Miss Leek, a white-headed pup that looks like making a good one; 2nd, Lady Betty, loses to winner in head and could do with a little less tail; 3rd, Katy Did, bad in muzzle and feet.

Novice bitches, 9 entries. First, Acme Beauty, a good type of bitch, could be better in muzzle and tail; 2nd, Miss Teek; 3rd, Daisy G., a nicely marked seal brindle, in poor condition.

Limit bitches, 12 to 17 lbs, 4 entries. First, Lady Lou, a bitch that will take some beating behind the eyes, she was put down in good form; 2nd, Lady Betty, described before; 3rd, Miss Parker, in poor condition, and very bad shower.

Limit bitches, 17 to 22 lbs. only 2 entries. First, Manley's Molly, whom I will describe later; 2nd, Lady Beautiful, showing heavy in whelp, would have been better at home. She is a good one when in condition.

Limit bitches, 22 to 28 lbs., 5 entries, with 2 absent. Daisy G., 1st, Katy Did 2nd, Bedelia, a nice buckskin, spoiled by a docked tail, made up the three.

Open bitches, 8 entries. First, Manley's Molly, a nice seal brindle, with white markings, grand head, body and feet. She is a grand shower, always on the go; 2nd, Lady Lou; 3rd, Lady Beautiful.

Best type of brood bitch, 6 entries. First, Manley's Molly; 2nd, Daisy G.; 3rd, Lady Beautiful. In this class the owner of Lady Lou made quite a show in himself, because he considers his little lightweight bitch, with her short back and tucked-up loin, a typical type of a brood bitch. Had he put her in the novice class, where she would have won, and was eligible, he would have done much better.

J. A. Meadows, judge.

Mr. Clark, who took the late Mr. Boyle's place in the Cocker ring did not have, to say the least, a very high class lot to judge. They call for little comment. The best were both winners in black classes, the winning old dog and a light red or buff bitch, against which we believe a protest was entered.

SCOTTIES TO-DAY.

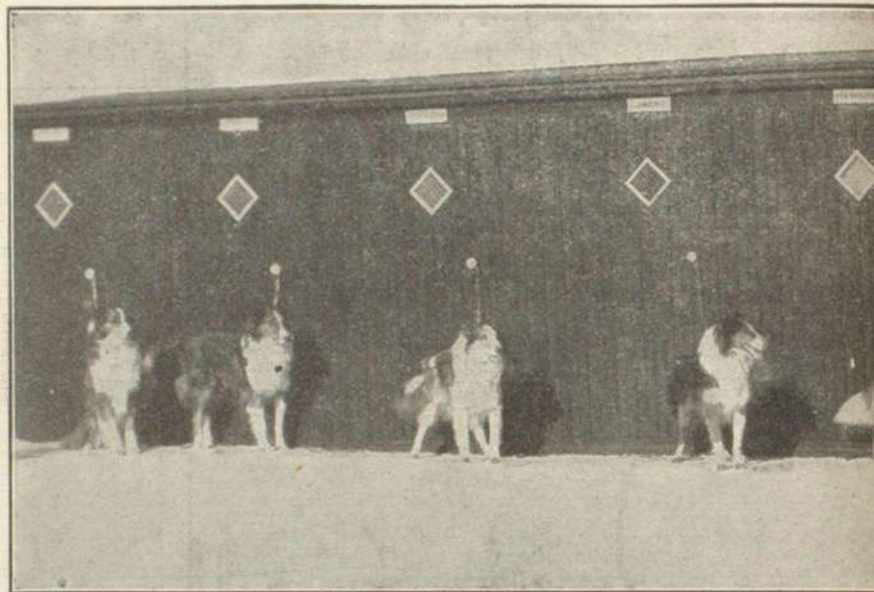

I attended the New York Show, and I presume that great exhibition may be taken as an example of all that is representative in the various breeds. My interest is centered chiefly in the Terrier division, and particularly with the Scottish Terrier.

You seem to have an idea that the Scot needs no coat, except on his muzzle, and a body of the shape of a thick music role is the correct medium between head and tail. Depth of chest, comparative shortness of body and lowness on leg seem attributes lost sight of in the American breeds, and the foreign dogs are trimmed down so in body coats they are almost smooth. I see you are also getting the whisker craze—taking all the hair off the rest of the dog so that the bunch of stuff on his lips may make him appear to have the massive, powerful jaw the Standard calls for. This square finish of muzzle made by a bunch of whiskers has given several novices an erroneous idea as to the shape of a Scot's head. The Scot's muzzle is perhaps more pointed than any other Terrier's, and if some of the critics will read their Standards they will find that the proper shape of the head, which includes muzzle, is the sort where the nose projects over the mouth giving an impression of the upper jaw being longer than the under one. This feature and the tapering of the muzzle down to the nose are lost sight of under the fluffy whiskers which, if removed, would probably reveal the shape I allude to; the sharp, keen look is lost.

You don't want an Irish Terrier front on a Scot, but the appearance should be broad in chest, with depth in keeping, in fact, the brisket should be noticeable. The Scot wants lots of lung capacity in his work, and whatever we may say about the show dog, we should ever keep in mind the original properties the dog is bred for, else we should soon lose the breed's characteristics. The greatest harm a breed can experience is to become a handler's fad. By that I mean that judges become influenced by the catchy way the so-called clever handler trims his Terrier, and which has done so much to spoil the individuality of the Airedale, the wire haired Fox Terrier, the Irish Terrier, and the Welsh, and now the Scot, by trying to make them all look alike in head and style.

Another point that is apt to be misconstrued by the amateur is the term well ribbed up. This does not mean spring of ribs. The Scot does not require spring of rib if he has the breadth and depth of chest that he ought to possess, for no dog that has to go to ground and in clefts of rocks, as was the original avocation of the Scot, is now in his own country, wants spring of rib, but he does want to be well ribbed up, so that he may possess a strength of loin for the work before him. This means the depth of the back ribs and the close junction with the loin.

Several of the winners I saw had no coat scarcely, and what was on was plastered down to the outlines of the dog's anatomy. This is not right. The Scot should have a very hairy appearance, and should show at least two inches length of coat. This gives him a very strong and sturdy appearance, and the denseness of coat desired by the Standard should not be obtained by continual stripping and showing in a half-grown condition, at the same time Mr. Scot should be put down in well-groomed form, not with here and there a hair on rick and chest an inch longer than another. I notice that one very smart typical sort was criticized as being too small.

Perhaps he is when such giants as Callam Dhu may win, but outside of his size the latter dog is a pattern of Scot character. This dog, Abertay Revival, is said to weigh about sixteen pounds. That's about the weight we want (a pound or two more won't harm), and a sixteen-pound dog will do all that is wanted of him in a hole better than a twenty-pounder. The trouble is we get our eye accustomed to a size, then something else comes along a bit bigger which is accepted, and so it goes on until we get out of our depth, and when we see the real thing once more exclaim: "Why, how small!" One thing more—don't for the sake of the land of good porridge get a racy Scot, like some of the young winners I saw your critics hovering delightedly over. And always remember the Scot is the hardest, most entertaining, companionable little beggar in creation. An Old Scot.

EDMONTON SHOW.

Edmonton had quite a nice little show of dogs in connection with the poultry show held March 6th, 7th and 8th. Collies made the premier classes, a breed that does well in the Northwest, and is very popular there.

Mr. H. P. D. Walker, of Calgary, judged all classes.

Mr. A. D. Wilson, of Namao, who tells us he proposes moving nearer to the city and giving his whole time to Collies, showed no less than eleven full-grown Collies, and was a most successful winner.

The show partook largely of a free and easy character, the names even of many dogs not being given. Why not next year hold under C.K.C. rules and have the wins count?

NOTES AND COMMENTS

Ottawa Show: The dates for the Ottawa Show, which will of course be held under C.K.C. rules, are Sept. 17th, 18th and 19th, 1907. Mr. George Tyrell is the Secretary-Treasurer of the Ottawa Kennel Club, under whose auspices the show is annually held.

Scotties To-day: The article under this caption is reprinted from The American Stock-Keeper, and was sent us by Mr. W. P. Fraser. A coincidence is that we had laid the paper containing it aside for further perusal and possible publication. The rage for fronts and heads is spoiling more Terriers than the gentleman fra' the Heilans, and he is a gentleman, as we know from experience. As a sensible pal the Scottish Terrier cannot be excelled. No dog living is more suitable to our rigorous Canadian climate, but he wants his overcoat on. Mr. Fraser says, in sending us the clipping: "I cut the enclosed from The American Stock-Keeper, just received. I thought it so good that I would ask you to reprint it. I know you don't mind doing that when the matter is sound. Scotties are beginning to be popular hereabouts, and fanciers may just as well start well and much can be learned from this clipping." With all of which we are quite in agreement.

Canadian National, Toronto: Toronto's big autumn show will be held this year from Sept. 2nd to 6th. That our largest show of international repute will surpass all previous records is confidently expected.

Ch. Warren Remedy: We have to thank sturdy Donald Munro for a photo of the great Fox Terrier, Champion Warren Remedy. She is certainly all Terrier. We are glad to know that reports of Mr. Munro's illness were greatly exaggerated.

Calgary Show: Calgary, by special arrangement, will have Mr. Chas. Lyndon to judge its next show, to be held some time in July, the exact date not yet having been set. The management will put up at least $500, and C.K.A. rules will govern.

Montreal Show in May: Mr. J. R. Innes writes us: "I am instructed to claim from you May 15th, 16th, 17th as dates for our annual show; enclosed find $25. Please acknowledge receipt. The officers for the present year are:—A. H. Hersey, President; H. L. Thomas, 1st Vice-President; D. Robertson, 2nd Vice-President; J. R. Innes, Secretary-Treasurer. Committee—R. A. Binning, R. A. The judges appointed are: Mr. James Lindsay, for Fox, Irish, Scottish, Skye and Welsh Terriers, and Mr. James Mortimer, for all other breeds." The show will be held under C.K.C. rules, and comes at a most opportune time for most breeders.

Vancouver also in May: Mr. E. C. Powell writes us that the Vancouver Kennel Club, of which he is Secretary, will hold its next show on May 8th, 9th, 10th and 11th. This date does not conflict with any others and comes after the circuit. The show will be governed by C. K.C. rules.

Death of R. W. Boyle: Everyone who knew R. W. Boyle must regret his demise at an early age, an age at which most successful business men—and he was one—begin to take things easy and enjoy more fully the remaining years. He was a son of the late Rev. Robert Boyle, formerly of Brampton, and was born in 1855. He was educated in the old Grammar School and Toronto University. He leaves a widow and one child, who have our sincere sympathy.

The late Mr. Boyle was a well-known devotee of the Cocker Spaniel, wanted the sensible type, without exaggerations, and to this type he added greatly by his influence as a judge and breeder. Mr. Boyle was one of the quiet kind, thoughtful, a student, whose many good qualities we fear were sometimes overlooked. He was a member for many years of the Canadian Kennel Club, sat on its Executive Board, and was a past president of the old Toronto Kennel Club. While the Cocker was his particular love, he had successfully bred English Setters and had a good all-round knowledge of all breeds. Indeed, his knowledge extended further, to horses and feathered folk, in which he took a very keen interest. The Ontario Kennel Club had induced him to accept the position of judge of Cockers at their recent show, but his death a few days before the show prevented us from enjoying this last privilege.

Celtic Kennels: Dr. Jno. D. O'Gorman, brother of the late Father O'Gorman, and a resident of St. Louis, Mo., has established the Celtic Kennels in that city, and will formally apply to the C. K.C. for a transfer of the name. Dr. O'Gorman has little time to show, but in Celtic Bard has a dog that the late Father O'Gorman looked upon as Ch. Celtic Badger's best son. The doctor also has at St. Louis Celtic Rebel, Ch. Celtic Badger, ex Patrie's, and Celtic Dream.

Ontario K. C. Show: The Ontario Kennel Club, Toronto, has already claimed dates for its show of 1908, and has chosen the same holiday dates as this year, April 16th, 17th and 18th, Good Friday falling on the 17th. This surely is taking time by the forelock.

Boston Bits: The interest in Bostons continues to extend in Canada, as numerous transfers and the recent record entry of the breed in the Dominion, at the O. K. C. Show, testify.

Mr. R. S. Richardson, Toronto, has bought the golden brindle Vet. IV. from Mr. Austin. He began his career at Montreal in 1906, taking first puppy and first novice, and won several prizes, including two specials, at the recent show in Toronto.

To take his place Mr. Austin has bought Bad Boy from Mr. Meadows, at what is said to be a record price for Canada. Congratulations all round.

Doctors' Orders: We are sorry to learn that Mr. Jas. S. Clark's physician has ordered him to give up the position he occupies in a commercial house in Toronto and spend the whole spring and summer out of doors. This upsets the plans of this well known Cocker breeder, but doctors must be obeyed, and we trust that the balmy atmosphere and high elevation of East Toronto will avert the threatened affection of the lungs.

London to Have a Show: We are pleased to be able to say that a dog show will be held in London in September in connection with the Western Fair. The management will be in the hands of a committee of prominent dog men, of whom our good Collie friend, Col. Robt. McEwen, will be one. He is a host in himself.

In past years London held many successful shows, of which we have pleasant recollections, and we don't doubt but that the Forest City, so pleasantly situated, so prosperous and so progressive, can repeat and outdistance the happy events of the past.

The show will be held in the week following Toronto.

Deserts Cockers for Bulldogs: Mr. H. M. Dymont is gradually disposing of his red Cockers, and has lately sold several, including puppies, to breeders in Toronto, Gravenhurst, Parry Sound, Fort William, Collingwood, Barrie, and other places.

Bloodhound Puppies: The Dartmoor Kennels report another litter of puppies, their Dartmoor Venus having whelped eight black and tans on March 14th.

From Byron to Amherst: Mr. McEwen has just sold to Mr. Wm. Robertson, Amherst, N.S., a very high class and beautifully bred sable and white dog puppy that on maturity is to be used for stud purposes. He is attractively marked, has a good head and expression, small, correctly carried ears, grand coat, plenty of size and character throughout. He is by imported Holyrood Clinker, and is out of the Buffalo winner Holyrood Dolly, a daughter of Champion Wellesbourne Conqueror.

Clumbers to Come: Mr. Harry R. Seely, Iroquois, Ont., is corresponding with an English breeder with a view of importing a Clumber dog and two bitches, and hopes to land them in Canada. He asks if a class for Clumbers would be given at Toronto this fall, and doubtless the committee would be glad to encourage a revival of this exceedingly handsome Spaniel, once so popular in the Dominion.

Still They Go: On Mrs. Cartwright's return from England, where she spent a very pleasant time, she was grieved to learn of the death during her absence of that good Bull bitch, Wakefield Rose, the cause being blood poisoning. The death is a great loss to Mrs. Cartwright, as she was not successful in rearing any of Rose's litter by Lennox Bendigo. The latter, by the way, is developing into a grand young dog.

A very promising eight months' old dog puppy has gone from the Napanee Kennel to Col. H. F. Mackie, of Pembroke, Ont. The puppy is a brindle, and is by Vinemount Lord Angus, ex Lennox Benita. There are still remaining some very promising ones of the same litter that Mrs. Cartwright hopes to bench this season.

The "Taffie" of the Kennel, Lennox Helen, is nursing four March 10 puppies that own as sire Miss Helen Beardmore's Risby Brynhir.

King Edward Collies: Mrs. Gordon's King Edward Albina is mothering a fine litter of three dogs and three bitches, sired by a son of the undefeated Champion Squire of Tytton.

King Edward Beauty, second in puppy class at the recent O. K. C. show, Toronto, has been sold to Mr. Cardwell, of Toronto.

Agrees with the New Ruling: The registration of dogs in Canada now depends entirely upon pedigree, a complete list of ancestors for three generations being the requisite. This is, to our mind, a good move, for no matter how much quality an individual dog may possess, he must have the stock behind him to be a thoroughbred.—Field and Fancy.

Bostons: Mr. A. Goebel, Mitchell, is trying his luck with a good brace at Buffalo this week.

Death of Dr. W. H. Drummond

The grim reaper is taking heavy toll. Elsewhere is recorded the passing of R. W. Boyle. Now it is one of Canada's most famous sons, the poet of the Habitant, Dr. William Henry Drummond. In his full manhood, with the zest of life strong in his veins, having reached the apex of fame as a writer, he is taken suddenly away.

Dr. Drummond was largely interested in Cobalt mines, and it was there suddenly, without warning, came the stroke of paralysis that carried him off in his fifty-third year. At his bedside were his devoted wife, his brother, Mr. T. J. Drummond of Montreal, with the physicians who had been in attendance on him.

He was greatly beloved in Montreal, his home, as indeed he was all over Canada. His last appearance in Montreal was at the St. Patrick's Society banquet on March 17th at the Windsor Hotel, where he recited a poem he had composed for the occasion, entitled "We're Irish Yet." Born in Ireland, the son of an officer in the Royal Irish Constabulary, he was brought to Canada at an early age, his education being completed at Bishop's College, Lennox, P.Q.

His visits to Toronto and the West were frequent, and were invariably looked forward to with pleasurable anticipation. Just a week before his illness Mr. W. P. Fraser received a photo from him, depicting an open fireplace at Carrigmore, Kerr Lake, Cobalt. It bore the following inscription: "Not a bad corner when the mercury is 42 degrees below zero." He was a great admirer of Henry Newbolt, and in conversation with Mr. Fraser, pulled out a copy of the following verses and read them to him:

VITAI LAMPADA.

There's a breathless hush in the Close to-night—

Ten to make and the match to win,
A bumping pitch and a blinding light,
An hour to play and the last man in,
And it's not for the sake of a ribboned coat,

Or the selfish hope of a season's fame,
But his Captain's hand on his shoulder smote,
"Play up! play up! and play the game!"

The sand of the desert is sodden red—
Red with the wreck of a square that broke,
The Gatling's jammed and the colonel dead,

And the regiment blind with dust and smoke.

The river of death has brimmed his banks,

And England's far, and Honor a name,
But the voice of a schoolboy rallies the ranks,

"Play up! play up! and play the game!"

This is the word that year by year,

While in her place the School is set,
Every one of her sons must hear,

And none that hears it dare forget.
This they all with a joyful mind

Bear through life like a torch in flame,
And falling fling to the host behind—

"Play up! play up! and play the game!"

—Henry Newbolt, in Admiral's All.

The last two lines of the third verse were inscribed on his coffin.

Dr. Drummond was a staunch friend of the Canadian Kennel Club, and an enthusiastic admirer of the Irish Terrier, his prefix, "Kinkora," appearing in the pedigrees of some of our best dogs of the breed.

In conversation a few days ago with Frank Lawson, London, who entertained Dr. Drummond on his visits to that city, the writer made the remark that his works would be appreciated far more fifty years from now than they are at present. In knitting the two peoples together he was making Canadian history in a manner no other man of the age was capable of doing. Mr. Lawson values his friendship with Dr. Drummond as his choicest memory of the past.

A big-hearted, clean man, we shall miss him.

KING EDWARD KENNELS COLLIES

That is a famous group of Collies that adorns the King Edward Kennels' attractive announcement in this issue. No one can miss it. At the head of the kennel is the imported sable and white Southport Star, that won everything he asked for at the recent O. K. C. Show, even including the hard-fought special for best in show, any breed.

King Edward Tytton is by the sensational Champion Squire of Tytton, and is just 13 months old. Then there are King Edward Pilgrim and King Edward Leader, both most classically bred, and all young, vigorous dogs, not worn out, over-shown specimens. There is breeding Canadian Kennel Club.

Regular Quarterly Meeting of the Executive Committee, April 12, 1907. Official Minutes.

But little business was before the meeting, the president, Mr. Jno. G. Kent, in the chair.

Letters of regret were read from Messrs. Fraser and Slattery for unavoidable absence from the city.

Kennel Name: The following correspondence was read:

Guelph, April 10, 1907.

Dear Sir,—In the Gazette, under Kennel Names Registered, you have "Guelph Kennels, John Campbell, Guelph, Ont." Could you not put it in thus: "Newfoundland Kennels, John Campbell, Guelph, Ont.," as some others are? In this way it would advertise my dogs. Kindly let me hear from you.

Yours truly,

John Campbell.

April 11, 1907.

Mr. Jno. Campbell, Guelph, Ont.:

Dear Sir,—Replying to yours of April 10th, I will bring the matter of changing your kennel name up before the Executive at their meeting to-morrow, Friday, night, and will let you know as to their decision.

Yours truly,

H. B. Donovan, Sec.-Treas.

It was decided, on previous decisions, that no change in existing registrations could be made, but that it be suggested to Mr. Campbell that he could, under proper routine, register the words "Campbell's Newfoundland Kennels, Guelph, Ont."

New Members: The secretary, on motion, cast one ballot for the following list of new members:

Geo. F. Smith, Toronto, proposed by Jas. Coulter.

Ernest C. Powell, Vancouver, proposed by H. S. Rolston.

Rossitter Scott Peacock, Crossfield, Alta., proposed by E. Adams.

Mrs. F. Hopkins, Montreal, proposed by Miss M. Shurtleff.

Frank Smith, Toronto, proposed by J. A. Campbell.

C. J. Eisile, Guelph, proposed by Jno. G. Morlock.

Robt. McEwen, Byron, proposed by A. A. Macdonald.

J. A. Campbell, Toronto; R. J. Seore, Toronto, proposed by Jno. G. Kent.

Mrs. W. P. Fraser, Toronto, proposed by W. P. Fraser.

C. B. Holmes, Crofton, B.C., proposed by C. M. Rolston.

H. Thomson, Newdale, Man., proposed by E. V. Williams.

J. A. Bulloch, Gananoque, proposed by W. J. Bulloch.

Geo. A. Crowther, Toronto; J. J. Rose, Toronto; C. E. Bunting, Toronto; E. Callaghan, Toronto, proposed by H. S. Tibbs.

And the following by H. B. Donovan: J. N. C. Metcalfe, Toronto; F. Kieckford, Victoria, B.C.; H. Filkins, Aurora; H. Sissman, Aurora; Chas. F. Currie, Brandon; Messrs. Elmesley Bros., Oakville; Jno. P. Bond, Toronto; C. H. Taylor, Newmarket; Mrs. Chas. Waters, St.

Thomas; W. W. Wells, Jr., Toronto; E. R. Ricketts, Vancouver; P. M. Bredt, Regina, Sask.; W. C. Crummer, Wallaceburg A. H. Haggard, Victoria.

Kent Cup at Brantford: Voluminous correspondence was read referring to the winning of this cup at Brantford, 1906. Mrs. Waters claimed the award was made to her by Dr. C. Y. Ford, but his entry in the judges' book did not endorse this. It was finally decided to ask Dr. Ford what his recollection of the matter was.

The secretary reported a large increase in membership, and said the Club was never in so good a condition, both financially and in popularity.

H. B. Donovan,

Secretary-Treasurer.
