WHAT OUR BUSINESS PAGES SAY.

Champion Sunshine Bristles, the only wire champion in the West, is offered breeders by his owner, Mr. T. W. Mailer, Vancouver, B.C. He is a grandson of Ch. King Elf, possesses a fine, long head, a good eye, excellent expression, with front feet and coat that are all that could be desired. Stud card will be sent on application.

The Sabine Kennels, Orange, Tex., are offering a number of Fox Terriers of the very best breeding, all splendid individual specimens, at almost give-away prices. This is done with the object of introducing the dogs of this kennel into Canada. Both dogs and bitches are offered, and they should be picked up rapidly.

R. N. Clark, Berwick, N.S., has added Acadian Terry to his list of Boston stud dogs, at a fee of $10.00, with express charges paid one way. Acadian Terry contains the blood of Ch. Viking, Ch. Rocks Norseman, and Cracksman, and is an excellent specimen of the breed.

H. J. O'Neil, Hamilton, is offering at stud the rich, dark brindle, with white markings, Botson Sally Punch, a 17½ pound dog, by Tom Thumb, ex. Gypsy Temple. He was awarded first the only time shown, and special arrangements as to fee have been made for the first ten bitches.

The rough Collie MacPherson, winner of five prizes at Toronto Exhibition, is again offered at stud at a fee of $8.00. His owner, Mr. Fairbairn S. Falconer, Shelburne, Ont., will be glad to send full particulars. He also has dogs for sale.

Badger Kennels, Gananoque, Ont., in addition to offering Badger Boy at stud, have a few very nice Irish Terrier dog puppies for sale.

H. Weston Parry, Princeton, Ont., has a litter of Otterburn Ornament Collie puppies for sale at $10.00 each. They will be ready to ship Nov. 26, when they will be eight months old.

Amongst bargain ads. this month are: H. S. Young, Sudbury, Ont., who offers two bull puppies at almost give-away figures; W. R. Brown, Kleinberg, Ont., has registered Beagles and Dachshunds at stud, also a litter of pedigreed Beagle pups for sale; F. S. Haines, Meadowvale, Ont., is offering for sale that typical Scottish Terrier Yarrow Dominique, a big winner at the recent Toronto show; J. McRae, Orono, Ont., has a white Bull Terrier dog of excellent breeding for sale, and wants a white Bull Terrier bitch.

This sensational prize winner has proved himself to be not only the only dog in years who has won in all classes from puppy to open, but a producer of great merit. In his first litter he produced Brookmere High Hope, who won three firsts at Detroit and two firsts at St. Louis, defeating a field of the very highest class of competitors. Why not breed to a winner and producer of winners. FEE $15. Free return privileges to all.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

Peterboro Bostons: Dr. King has sold Little Anthony and is looking for a good dog to replace him. His bitch Etanda has whelped a nice litter of six, three of either sex, to Othello. Mr. R. M. Richardson, of Stayner, reports a litter of five to Tito Melema, four of which are correctly and nicely marked and have screw tails.

King Edward Collies: Mrs. Gordon has sold her good old standby Nith Marvel in whelp to King Edward Pilgrim, to Mr. W. J. Johnston, of Meaford, a successful exhibitor of the breed. A good Canadian bred one has gone to Mr. Eugene Sites, the well-known "feather" judge of Ohio, and a nice sable and white to Mr. W. J. Liddell, of Brantford.

Southport Sarah, the well-known winner, is on a visit to Col. McEwen's new star, Holyrood Professor, and King Edward Prunella is in whelp to Southport Star. There will surely be some "fit to win" from these matings.

Boston Sales: Since Toronto show Mr. Meadows has done a rousing business in Bostons, his sales including the following: Combustion, to Mr. Richardson, Toronto; Dukesman, a 20-lb. dog, by Ch. Revelo Peach, to Mr. Harry Durrant, London; dog pup to Mr. Britnell, Toronto; dog pup to Capt. Young, Stanley barracks, Toronto; dog pup to Mr. Guy, Kingston; bitch pup to Mr. Whaley, Toronto; bitch pup to Mr. Howard, Rochester, N.Y.; bitch pup to Mr. Little, Toronto. In Combustion, Mr. Richardson has a good little dog, both for show and stud purposes.

Mr. Meadows is going to Buffalo shortly, but his kennel will always be in Toronto, and he is by no means out of Bostons, although he has had such a good year's sales.

Leander Club: This is the name of Mr. W. D. Bruce's, Vancouver, new Fox Terrier that has done a good deal of winning in England. We may state the dog passed through such experienced hands as those of Mr. J. C. Tinnie, who gave ninety-five pounds for him as a puppy. His wins include second puppy at the Palace, 1905; under Mr. Castle; first puppy, Birmingham, under Mr. Redmond; first novice, Crystal Palace, 1906, under Mr. Hasker, and many other wins. We hope to publish a picture of him soon.

Montreal Toys: Mrs. Pitt had "great expectations" of her Pom, about November 5th. We hope they were realized. Her good Japanese Spaniel should whelp on the 29th of this month, and Punch, the cracking little Pug has proved himself a worthy sire. We are glad to again see Mrs. Pitt so prominently identified with the midget tribe.

A New Irishman: The well-known Drumclagh Kennels have received a new Irish Terrier from across the water, particulars of which have not yet reached us, but to Kennel Manager Ross, he "looks a good one."

A hardship to exhibitors: In the minutes of the C.K.C. Executive meeting reported in this issue appears one case that is certainly hard on innocent exhibitors. We refer to application for winners put in for Mrs. Pitts' very excellent Pug, and Mr. Kenyon's good Bedlington Terrier. These claims were not allowed by the Executive, that body taking the safe ground that only those wins made and recorded at the time of judging could be recognized. From the rules we cannot see what other decision could be arrived at. Dogs can hardly be judged months after the show, even if the officiating judge acquiesces in the award.

Some one is at fault here, either the judge or the secretary, or both. Every winners class should be given a number and entered in the judge's book in the regular way. Oversight can then hardly occur. Then again the judge should see that all winners awards are made where, in his opinion, the specimens are worthy. By this oversight at Montreal at least one of the dogs is for the present debarred from championship when there can be no doubt whatever of his quality.

A glance at the list of winners omitted from the London awards and printed in this issue will show that here, too, trouble is in store for some one.

Attention drawn to this will, no doubt, prevent future omissions.

B. C. Fox Terrier Show: We hope the specialty show of the British Columbia Fox Terrier Club, scheduled for November 14th, proved a winner. Fox Terriers are going very strong on the coast now, and this is the first specialty club to take advantage of the new C. K. C. rules. Mr. Frank Turner, of Victoria, was down to take all classes.

Badger Boy: A good portrait of that sturdy Irishman, Badger Boy, adorns our front page in this issue. Badger Boy is by that champion of champions Celtic Badger, out of Champion Princess Vigilantress. A strong, sturdy dog with an excellent coat and legs, he has proved a sure stock getter. His wins include second junior, third novice, V.H.C., open at the last Canadian National show.

THE CANADIAN KENNEL CLUB

Executive Meeting Held in Toronto November 8th, 1907

(Official Minutes.)

The President of the Club was in the chair at above meeting, where an extended order paper was gone through.

Secretary-Treasurer's report as follows, was distributed to the members present:

1 and 2. Revision of show rules is made necessary by the action taken at the annual meeting. As these rules are to be printed in quantities, I would suggest that frequent changes are very undesirable.

3. I am glad to be able to at last report a satisfactory settlement of this case. Dr. O'Gorman has secured the missing pedigree, which has been forwarded to Mr. Bulloch through this office.

4. This item was discussed at the annual meeting, where it was thought that some control should be exercised over all specials offered at C.K.C. shows.

5. Motion of Dr. Ford's applies here.

6. Following is the correspondence. These and other winners were not awarded by the judge at the time of show.

Montreal, Oct. 16, 1907.

H. B. Donovan, Esq., Secretary of the Canadian Kennel Club, Toronto, Ont.:

Dear Sir,—Enclosed please find certificate from Mr. Lacy, judge for our last show. Will you kindly bring this before your executive, so that Mr. Pitt may be granted the winners for his dog, and oblige.

Yours very truly,
James R. Innes,
Secretary.

Toronto, Oct. 18, 1907.

Mr. James R. Innes, Montreal, P. Que.:

Dear Sir,—Yours of Oct. 16, with certificate from Mr. Lacy received. I will lay this matter before the executive at its first meeting, with a recommendation that award be allowed. Has anything been done in other and similar cases?

Yours truly,
H. B. Donovan,
Secretary-Treasurer.

Diet. H.B.D.

Boston, Mass., Oct. 15, 1907.

To Whom It May Concern:

This is to certify that as judge of Pugs at Montreal show last May, I have no hesitation in saying that Mrs. J. A. Pitt's Osborne Punch would have been awarded winners had such class been provided in my judging book, the dog being fully entitled to the honor.

(Signed) Harry W. Lacy.

Montreal, Oct. 19, 1907.

H. B. Donovan, Esq., 184 Adelaide Street, Toronto, Ont.:

Dear Sir,—I am in receipt of your letter of the 18th instant, and now enclose you a letter that I received from Mr.

Lacy re Mr. Kenyon's Beddingtons. Will you kindly also have this brought up before the Canadian Kennel Association Committee.

Yours very truly,
James R. Innes,
Secretary.

Toronto, Oct. 22, 1907.

Mr. James R. Innes, Montreal, P. Que.:

Dear Sir,—Yours of Oct. 19, enclosing letter from Mr. Lacy received, and will be laid before the committee at its first meeting.

Yours truly,
H. B. Donovan,
Secretary-Treasurer.

Diet. H.B.D.

30 Broad St., Boston, Mass, Oct. 17, '07.

Dear Mr. Innes,—Yours about the winners duly received. If Mr. Kenyon's dog is the one I gave prize to as the best of the two, I should say it is in every way worthy of winners at your show last May, and am pleased to be able to certify to this. With regards.

Yours truly,
Harry W. Lacy.

7. Following is the correspondence:

H. B. Donovan, Esq.:

Dear Sir,—Will you kindly have the titles of the "Celtic Kennels" and the "Blarney Kennels" transferred to Dr. D. D. O'Gorman, 2839 Park Avenue, St. Louis, Mo., and oblige.

Yours truly,
Mary O'Gorman.

Toronto, Oct. 22, 1907.

Miss Mary O'Gorman, South Boston, Mass.:

Dear Madam,—Yours of Oct. 20 received. I presume you are acting as executor for the late Father O'Gorman. Would you kindly let me know definitely on this point, when I will bring the matter before the executive, at its first meeting.

Yours truly,
H. B. Donovan,
Secretary-Treasurer.

Diet. H.B.D.

8. Correspondence in this case is as follows: In asking for donor's decision as to disposal of the cups, I carried out the instructions given at the annual meeting.

Toronto Oct. 1 1907.

Mr. J. H. Farley Cleveland, O.:

Dear Sir,—At the annual meeting of the Canadian Kennel Club I was instructed to ask you what disposition you desired made of the cup you donated to the Canadian Black and Tan Terrier Club. The club unfortunately, from what I can learn, is practically defunct, and some question has arisen as to the final disposition of the cup. An early answer will greatly oblige.

Yours truly,
H. B. Donovan,
Secretary-Treasurer.

Diet. H.B.D.

A similar letter was forwarded to Mrs. F. C. McLean, Hull, Que.

Wahsanne Island, Oct. 18, 1907.

H. B. Donovan, Esq., Secretary C.K.C., Toronto, Ont.:

Dear Sir,—Owing to rough weather yours of 1st inst. re cup donated by me to B. and T. Club only came to hand a few days ago.

My desire in the matter is that it become the personal property of its last winner, if that person be Mr. F. C. McLean, of Hull, and I think he was.

Mr. McLean has done more to propagate the Manchester than any man in America, and deserves the recognition for successfully sticking to the beautiful Manchester Terrier, the best house dog and companion in the dog family.

Yours truly,
J. H. Farley.

The Famous Wandee Fox Terriers AT STUD

As I will be in Canada for a few months, breeders will have an opportunity of using these famous sires. It is well known that they are Terriers with a world-wide reputation and not at all local. As their produce is at the very top of the tree both in England and America, you are not guessing when using this blood.

Hull, Oct. 8, 1907.

Mr. H. B. Donovan, Toronto:

Dear Sir,—Your letter to hand. Pardon me for not answering you before. Now, in regard to the cup I donated to the Canadian Black and Tan Terrier Club, I am sorry to say I wish to withdraw it. Naturally my first thought would be to give it over to our Ottawa Kennel Club, but under the present circumstances I cannot do that. I regret very much to have to withdraw the cup, but hope at some future time to hand it over to the Ottawa Kennel Club. I would like to fully explain my reasons for this, but that would take up too much of your time. However, unless they hand over some of the cups won under the conditions printed in their catalogue, I do not feel like putting any more in their keeping.

Yours truly,
(Mrs.) F. C. McLean.

9. Following is the letter giving rise to question:

Montreal, Oct. 14, 1907.

Mr. H. B. Donovan, Toronto, Ont.:

Dear Mr. Donovan,—I have had the pleasure of meeting you once, when you were in Montreal at our last dog show, and I now write to ask for a ruling on a question that has bothered both Mrs. Brown and myself. I am, as you know, a member of your Canadian Kennel Club, and Mrs. Brown is anxious to become a member of the same. The point in question is this: Both Mrs. Brown and myself being equal partners of our kennel, and both want to be members of the Canadian Kennel Club, would not Mrs. Brown be quite eligible in showing our dogs at the different shows throughout the country, and qualify for the different prizes for "owned and shown by lady"?

You will understand that both Mrs. Brown and myself are exceedingly enthusiastic over the fancy, and as my business will not permit of my taking the time to go around to the different shows, I would like Mrs. Brown to take them in. At the same time, I do not wish to drop out of the game myself.

What made me write you as above is when we showed our dogs two years ago here in Montreal, under a joint partnership of "Mr. and Mrs. Brown," when it came down to the specials for dogs owned and shown by lady, Mrs. Brown was debarred, under the plea that she was only part owner. Would we be able to get over the trouble in question if our dogs were shown under the kennel name?

Kindly let me hear from you at your earliest convenience, and let me know if my fee for the Canadian Kennel Club for the next year is still unpaid, also if you have made ruling in favor that Mrs. Brown and I can be owners of the kennel and still allow her to be eligible for specials "owned and shown by lady."

I herewith propose Mrs. Brown as member of the Canadian Kennel Club, and upon advise from you will immediately send forward fee. I might say that both Mrs. Brown and I are members of the Bulldog Club of Canada, and we are also members of the Montreal Canine Association. Believe me,

Yours very truly,
J. W. Brown.
Oct. 15, 1907.

Mr. J. W. Brown, Montreal, Que.:

Dear Mr. Brown,—Replying to yours of Oct. 14, the question you ask me is one that has not been up before, and one that is rather puzzling—so much so that I dare not give you an offhand answer. I will gladly bring it up at the first executive meeting, and get a decision there.

Yours truly,
H. B. Donovan,
Secretary-Treasurer.

Dr. F. L. Wood, Secretary London Canine Association, London, Ont.:

Dear Sir,—Mr. H. H. Curtis, agent for E. C. Phillips, Montreal, has filed a formal protest with me against the win of George Bowman, London, for London Free Press Cup, advertised in your premium list for best Setter in the show, and which was awarded to Queen of Kent, No. 36. Mr. Curtis also refers me to catalogue, under which heading the same special is scheduled as for best Setter, as well as to the cup itself, which he states is engraved "For the best Setter in the show." In addition to this, he encloses a clipping from the London Free Press, the donors of the cup, announcing the win for best Setter. Mr. Curtis states that Royal Duke in entry afterward defeated Queen of Kent for special for best Setter dog or bitch, and so is naturally entitled to cup in question.

Prior to laying the matter before the Canadian Kennel Club Executive I should be glad to hear from you in the matter.

Yours truly,

London, Ont., Sept. 24, 1907.

Re Curtis.

H. B. Donovan, Esq.:

Dear Sir,—I enclose you marked copy of prize list, which speaks for itself. Besides, Mr. Blackburn, donor of the cup, distinctly states the cup was for English Setters.

The judge's book is distinctly marked as follows:

Free Press Cup	36
Best dog or bitch	36
Under Irish Setters, class 74, the judge marked as follows:
Best Setter in show	37½
(Suit case.)

Mr. Curtis is endeavoring to take advantage of the inscription on the cup, which says, "Best Setter in the show," and apply it away from the prize list as published, as well the judge's decision. He has no claim of any kind whatever; besides, I understand is showing his own dog under another party's name, owing to his disqualification.

While the catalogue does state as you do, he well knows it was from the fact that all specials were bunched in the front, and only appeared Tuesday, the first day, so that the statements he makes in reference to coming here for that cup are untrue, the prize list being the only intimation of such cup, and under English Setters.

Yours respectfully,
Fred L. Wood,
Secretary.

P.S.—The English Setter did not compete against the Irish Setter, as stated by Mr. Curtis, in any class, according to entries or judge's book, which you will see by referring to the marked catalogue. As a matter of fact, there was no spe-

12. Following is correspondence:

Vancouver, B.C., Aug. 23, 1907.

Dear Sir,—At a meeting of the Vancouver Kennel Club I was instructed to apply to the C.K.C., asking them to recognize all past wins made under P.K.L. and W.K.L. rules held in Canada and the United States.

Under date of May 4 Mr. Donovan asked me to apply to the Pacific Coast board.

Under date of Aug. 19 Mr. Donovan informs me that the C.K.C. does not recognize wins made under any rules in Canada except those of the C.K.C.; also, that they recognize A.K.C. wins made in the United States, and used to recognize the Coast League, and then adds: "I think they would do so again if the League were active."

In a letter written Nov. 10, 1903, to Mr. J. J. Bostock, Mr. Donovan states: "P.K.L. wins made in the United States are recognized by the C.K.C., and always have been." That settles the matter as far as the States are concerned, but what we want, and what we are justly entitled to is to have the wins made at shows held at Victoria and Vancouver under P.K.L. and W. K.L. rules recognized, and these wins count toward a championship.

The A.K.C. recognize all wins made under P.K.L. and W.K.L. rules, so why shouldn't the C.K.C.? It seems strange that the C.K.C. should only recognize part of P.K.L. or W.K.L. territory, and stranger still that that territory should be British soil. It seems to me that in fairness to all that the whole of the shows held under these rules should be recognized; but if they insist on only part, then that part should be held in Canadian territory.

Mr. H. S. Rolston, a member of your board, informs me that the formation of an advisory board and recognizing all past P.K.L. and W.K.L. wins in both Canada and the United States were the two conditions upon which we agreed to join the C.K.C.

I might point out to you that most of the P.K.L. and W.K.L. records are lost; also that any dogs with wins are getting very old, so that there are very few which would benefit from the granting of this condition. Still, there are some, and if it was understood, as Mr. Rolston states, we should get everything that we are entitled to.

I regret not giving you more time to take this matter up before the annual meeting, which takes place Sept. 4, but it was due to awaiting a reply from Mr. Donovan. However, I trust you have still time, and will take this matter up on behalf of the British Columbia clubs and dog fanciers in general on the Pacific Coast.

Yours very truly,

E. C. Powell,

Sec.-Treas. Vancouver Kennel Club.

Victoria, B.C., Aug. 23, 1907.

Mr. E. C. Powell, Secretary V.K.C., Vancouver, B.C.:

Dear Powell,—Yours of 26th to hand. You are in error when you say that the A.K.C. recognizes wins made under W.K.L. or P.K.L. rules. They do not, and never have, recognized any shows excepting the A.K.C. shows. The C.K.C. made it quite clear when the W.K.L. was active that they would not recognize any shows under these or A.K.C. rules held in Canada. I consider that only a reasonable rule, for it is the only protection the C.K.C. has against a foreign corporation like the A.K.C. holding shows in Canada, and by so doing putting our own club probably out of existence. It is true the C.K.C. recognized, and still recognizes, wins made under W.K.L. and A.K.C. outside of Canada, and I really think that is about all Canadian exhibitors are entitled to. It is not at all reasonable to expect the C.K.C. to give a championship to a dog that has never won under C.K.C. rules, and of which the C.K.C. have no official record. However, the above is only my private opinion, and I shall be pleased to lay the contents of your letter before the C.K.C. for their verdict; but I think that if your club will look at the matter in its proper light that they really will see that they have no just cause for complaint, and that the C.K.C. executive have treated them and us very fairly.

Cordially yours,

plaint, but they are a very energetic body, with a very energetic secretary, so I presume they must let off the surplus steam in this way. However, you'll understand the situation pretty clearly, and if the C.K.C. in its wisdom feels like granting the favor asked it will not hurt anyone very much, and may be the means of smoothing over any little difference of opinion that may exist at the present time. The C.K.C. might grant the favor asked, but with the proviso that no championship cups be given to such a champion unless he had made at least two of the wins under C.K.C. rules.

Respectfully yours,

T. P. McConnell.

Sept. 9, 1907.

Mr. T. P. McConnell, Victoria, B.C.:

Dear Sir,—Yours of Aug. 28, I am sorry to say, reached me too late for action at our annual meeting. I will, however, bring it up at the first meeting of the executive.

Mr. Powell, of course, is wrong in his assertion that the A.K.C. recognize any other wins but their own. They have not done so, and do not recognize them now. This argument, I fear, will not help his case; and, of course, you are aware it was understood, on the formation of the Pacific Advisory Board, that these wins would not be recognized.

Yours truly,

H. B. Donovan,
Secretary-Treasurer.

Diet. H.B.D.

13. Am exceedingly sorry that I find it impossible for me to go up for the annual meeting of the C.K.C. I had expected to be able to be there only for a day, but find that I cannot.

There were a few items I would have brought before the club, and would have consulted you about this:

1. In the publication of prefix and kennel names registered, we all know that many of those kennels do not exist. This was brought up two years ago, and I think the stand taken by some members was that as those names were once registered they must always remain so; but I do not see that it would be necessary to publish those names in every number of the Gazette. Would it not be advisable to charge a small fee, say, 25 or 50 cents a year, for publication of such names registered?

2. Registration of dogs might be more restricted. In horses, cattle, swine, etc., no animal can be registered unless it has a registered sire, and in most associations both sire and dam must be registered. Would it not be advisable to have it so that sire and dam's sire should be registered in any recognized kennel club to qualify a dog to be registered? This would greatly check the faking of pedigrees, and would also tend to increase the revenue of the C.K.C.

3. I would strongly urge the members of the C.K.C. to do their best for the increase of membership. Surely each member could on the average get one new member this coming year. Two hundred and fifty members in the club, where we ought to have ten times that number! The revenue of the club must be increased, but this ought to be by increased membership and by getting in touch with the small breeders that are the backbone of the fancy.

I am sorry, indeed, that I cannot be with you this time, but beg to assure you that I am with you in spirit.

Very truly yours,

E. Bjorkeland.

St. Anne de Bellevue, Que.

14. Application for use of the word "Selkirk" brings out the following correspondence:

Chatham, Oct. 2, 1907.

Dear Sir,—It has just been called to my attention that a Mr. A. P. Mutchmor, of Winnipeg, has applied to the C.K.C. for a registration of the word "Selkirk" as a prefix for his kennel. I beg to call your attention that Selkirk has been the prefix of my kennel for thirteen years.

Yours truly,

W. B. Wells.

Oct. 3, 1907.

Mr. W. B. Wells, Chatham, Ont.:

Dear Sir,—Yours of Oct. 2 received and carefully noted. Mr. Mutchmor's application came in in the usual way, and, of course, will have to take the usual course of three months' publication and the approval of the executive before being finally registered. I will gladly bring your communication to the notice of the executive, but I cannot find where the word "Selkirk" has ever been registered by you with the Canadian Kennel Club, either as a prefix or a kennel name.

Yours truly,

H. B. Donovan,
Secretary-Treasurer.

Yours truly,

All of which is respectfully submitted.

H. B. Donovan,
Secretary-Treasurer.

Items 1 and 2 were put through in quick order, the following changes being made in rules. Following Regulation XVI., the following paragraph:

PRINTED RULES.

All premium lists shall be uniform in size, 6x9 inches, and copies of C.K.C. Rules and Regulations may be had from the Canadian Kennel Club at cost price.

Following this will come the note regarding prize ribbons, i.e.,

PRIZE RIBBONS OR CARDS.

Color for First prize shall be blue.
Color for Second prize shall be red.
Color for Third prize shall be yellow.
Color for Winners shall be white.
Color for Special shall be green.

The final "note to show secretaries" was made to read "show rules and regulations are to be printed in premium lists and catalogues."

4. After full discussion, the chair appointed a special committee consisting of Messrs. Macdonald, McFarland and Fraser to draft suitable rules and to report at next meeting of the Executive.

5. Dr. Ford's motion, suggesting the limitation of winners in Cockers to two. Moved by Mr. Tibbs, seconded by Mr. Britton, that we follow the schedule of the W.K.C. show, New York. Carried.

6. Ruled in these two, and for future cases if they should occur, that none but awards entered in judges' book at time of judging can be allowed.

7. Transfer to be allowed if permit is obtained from executor of the late Rev. Father O'Gorman's estate.

8. Decided that in the opinion of this Board the wishes of the donors of the cups should be carried out.

9. Decided that "ladies' specials" are open to dogs owned solely by ladies.

10. Messrs. John G. Kent and W. P.

Fraser were appointed delegates to the Canadian National Exhibition.

11. Decided, as there appears in the premium list a contradiction of terms, that the win be declared void.

12. Decided that while the Executive Committee would like to agree to the request it regrets it has no power to depart from the terms of the agreement entered into by the Canadian Kennel Club and the Pacific Coast Committee.

14. Decided to give Mr. Wells the opportunity to register the word "Selkirk" as prefix and kennel name within thirty days.

New members: The Secretary cast one ballot for the following list of new members:

Mrs. C. C. Sherriff, Port Hope. Proposed by H. Reynolds.

Arthur Ellison, Mount Hamilton, Ont. Proposed by W. Sands.

Mrs. Jackson, Toronto. Proposed by W. Sands.

John McIntosh, Victoria, B.C. Proposed by C. W. Minor.

Thos. C. Smith, Victoria, B.C. Proposed by C. W. Minor.

D. W. Campbell, Calgary, Alta. Proposed by Chas. Rodden.

E. N. Barker, Cardston, Alta. Proposed by Chas. Rodden.

And the following by H. B. Donovan: J. Stewart Neill, Fredericton, N.B. F. Erickson Brown, Toronto.

Dr. J. P. Russell, Parry Sound, Ont. Thos. Milner, Winnipeg, Man.

Prefix, etc.: The word Stonyeroft as applied for by the Stonyeroft Stock Farm, was finally passed as prefix and kennel name.

Puppy specials: The following correspondence was read and discussed:

Toronto, Nov. 7th, 1907.

H. B. Donovan, Esq., Secretary, Canadian Kennel Club, 184 Adelaide St. W., Toronto:

Dear Sir,—At the recent bench show in connection with the National Exhibition, Toronto, a cup was donated by Dr. Ford for the best Collie puppy owned in Canada.

This cup was awarded to Col. R. McEwen's imported Holyrood Professor, No. 254 in catalogue.

I think a ruling by your Club, on the eligibility of a dog to compete for a special prize offered for a puppy, while he is debarred from the puppy class, and consequently not entered as a puppy at that show, or recognized as such under your rules, might be interesting to many.

Yours very truly,

Frank A. Metcalfe,

Toronto, Nov. 8th, 1907.

H. B. Donovan, Esq., Secretary, C.K.C., City:

Dear Sir,—I think the cup donated by Dr. C. Y. Ford for the best puppy was not properly awarded, as the dog now holding it is an imported dog and was not eligible for the puppy class, and as my puppy, Lord Bremar, No. 9476, scored more points than any other puppy at show, I think I am entitled to it.

Yours truly, H. Willis.

Decided that nothing appears in the rules debarring such a puppy as the winner of this special from competing for such a special.

Canadian National Exhibition: The Secretary reported that the listing and registration fees collected by the C. N. Exhibition had not yet been turned in, and asked for instructions. He also reported that, as instructed at the annual meeting, he had written to the Exhibition Association drawing attention to the inadequacy of the present dog show building, but had received no reply. The chairman volunteered his good offices in both cases.

Meeting adjourned to regular quarterly meeting in January, 1908.

New Westminster Show

OCTOBER 2nd, 3rd, 4th AND 5th, 1907, UNDER C.K.C. RULES.

As no certificate of the number of dogs present has yet reached us from the Secretary, we are unable to give the number of points attained towards winners.

In many ways the show was a success, but the burden was left largely to one man, as it so often is. Nothing but united, enthusiastic effort will ever make dog shows in Canada successful. The quality of the dogs was remarkably high, especially in the Terrier classes. Pointers, Setters and Spaniels were good, too.

Dr. Geo. W. Clayton, Chicago, judged all classes.

B. C.

I won a C.K.C. medal at New Westminster Kennel Show for my Scotties, and a cup for the Irish Terrier bitch, Saanich Sweetheart. It was a good little show, but rather given the cold shoulder by those who originated and got it up, and one man, the Superintendent, left to manage the whole thing, without help, and there were two doors. How can one man watch two doors at opposite ends of the building?

punch bowl for Setters, to be won three times by the same exhibitor. The club has now seventeen challenge cups, valued at over nine hundred dollars. New Westminster had organized a Kennel Club and had held the most successful show ever held in that city.

The British Columbia Fox Terrier Club, with headquarters in Vancouver, had been organized and would hold a show on November 14th. Cups had been presented to each of these clubs for their first annual show, and also to the Sixth D.C.R. Rifles for shooting purposes. This cup is for highest aggregate of "Tyros" during the year. A "Tyro" is a green man or novice dog, and the shooting takes place every Saturday between May 1st and October 1st. Much interest is being taken in the regiment in this contest. During the year five dogs had been reported lost or stolen, all of which had been recovered. Recommendations were made that the Club should have colors, the constitution be revised, and that committees be reduced in numbers, and the Secretary thanked the President and members for the many kindnesses and courtesies extended to him, but more particularly Mr. W. H. Archer for the use of his office and the unfailing aid which he extended on many occasions. The roll showed a membership of 158. The financial state-

Annual Meeting Vancouver Kennel Club

SECRETARY'S REPORT SHOWING AN EXCEEDINGLY SATISFACTORY STATE OF AFFAIRS.

The annual meeting of the Vancouver Kennel Club was held October 21st in the Tourist Association rooms, and was by far the largest and most enthusiastic ever held. President Colin F. Jackson occupied the chair.

The report of the Secretary-Treasurer showed that the bench show held last spring was, with the exception of the National Exhibition, the only four-point show in Canada this year, beating such cities as Montreal, Toronto, Ottawa and Winnipeg. It showed that the increase in entries was nearly seventy-eight per cent. over last year. It also regretted, considering the advantages to be derived and the low cost of same, that so few dogs were registered, and severely scored all true Canadians for registering with a foreign nation. It gave a short resume of the C.K.C. and explained the principal changes in the rules, also of the Pacific Advisory Board; congratulated Mr. C. M. Rolston, a Past President of the club, upon being elected Vice-President for British Columbia and Chairman of the Pacific Advisory Board; drew attention that upon representation made the C.K.C. would in future print the rules and sell to local clubs at cost price, which would mean a great saving to the local clubs, and that they had adopted regular colors for prizes. His Excellency the Governor-General had presented to the club a handsome silver

THE LATE TORONTO SHOW.

I was glad to see, in Gazette of October, someone complaining of the shameful state of affairs in connection with last Exhibition show.

Last year I privately drew the atten-

At Stud The Famous Clipstone Airedales, the strain that is now winning in most parts of the world and commanding the highest prices.

I shall be in Canada for a little time longer only. There are lots who saw the beautiful COMMODORE OF CLIPSTONE at the shows who want to use him. You must hurry, he is the dog of the day, and only requires two more points for full championship honors. COMMODORE sires what is wanted as easily as he wins championships. No guess-work about that, no hot air or swollen headed business in that statement; just a simple fact, that's all. FEE, $20.00.

CLIPSTONE COMMANDER

tion of Mr. Kent to the many cases of error or dishonesty in the entries. Some days later he informed me that the Secretary of the C.K.C. said that errors were in classes over which the C.K.C. had no jurisdiction, such as, green, breeders', selling and other classes.

Even so, should not the C.K.C. do something, knowing the state of affairs, to protect the rights of exhibitors, if they wish to retain the confidence of dog men in Canadian dog shows?

Are not many of the dog show committee members of C.K.C., and cannot something be done through them? This year was worse than ever, not only in special classes, but in regular C.K.C. classes, and I was surprised no cancellations of wins published in Gazette of either September or October.

May I instance a few errors (?) in both special and regular classes?

In class 50, W. R. Lyon enters two Pointers, bred by different men. Why were they accepted in "breeders'" class?

In class 68, J. F. Scholes entered two Setters, which I believe won prizes. They were not eligible for "junior" class, being over 18 months.

In class 86, Mary Falconer and Chas. Lyndon both entered Cocker. Neither dog was eligible for "breeders'" class, as neither dog was bred by exhibitor.

In class 112 (again breeders' class), two Collies, "Sandy" and "McPherson," were ineligible, being bred not by exhibitor.

But what need to extend the list? You may say C.K.C. does not control these classes. But what about the following regular classes? Why were their wins not cancelled?

The C.K.C. seems to have been as slow as the Exhibition committee, as following show:

In class 206, we find two pups (Airedales), "Dutch" and "Rock Prince." Why were these entries accepted? Both are under six months old.

In class 164 (novice Fox Terriers), how could "Fusilier" (late Oxspring Billy) win second? He won more than one prize the previous year.

In class 255, two Beagles, entered by F. E. & L. Smith, were ineligible for puppy class, being over a year old.

In class 272 (Pomeranians), Flossie Flounce is given a prize. She is under six months old (see registration No. 9418), and should not have been allowed to compete.

The list might be extended ad nauseam.

I have heard more than one dog man express his disgust at this loose state of affairs. The only remedy seems to be—keep away from the game, Exhibition particularly, until matters are improved.

I wonder can you find room to publish this long letter?

Yours for clean shows,

W. E. M. Cobban.

HIS USUAL LUCK.

Trust the following news will not sound too monotonous to you.

I had to order the veterinary surgeon to chloroform my champion Dachshund imported Rote Hexe Forst to-day, owing to complications of internal troubles, and as there was no hope of a permanent cure, we decided to use a more humane method as per above. Hexe was a great favorite and a great little dog.
