WHAT OUR BUSINESS PAGES SAY.

Mr. Eric Dart, Oshawa, Ont., is offering an excellent smooth Fox Terrier bitch in Belle St. Leger, that he personally brought over from England; also her bitch puppy by Coon Lad. Both are offered at very reasonable figures.

Mr. R. N. Clark, Berwick, N.S., has added the word "Acadian" to his Broker bred Boston, Pluto, who is now Acadian Pluto, and is offering exceptional privileges to breeders who use either of his three good Boston stud dogs.

Spratt's Patent (America), Limited, Newark, N.J., absolutely guarantee the purity of their prepared foods, including the famous Dog Cakes that they have been manufacturing for so many years. Spratts have a branch located at 988 Notre Dame street west, Montreal, P.Q., from which a fine catalogue and dog booklet called "Dog Culture," containing many practical hints on feeding, kenneling and general management, etc., may be had for the asking.

Devonia Kennels, Vancouver, B.C., have a very striking announcement of their stud Fox Terriers Cadger of Oaks and Dartmouth, which is sure to catch the eye of Fox Terrier breeders, not alone in British Columbia, but in the Prairie Province, and in the East also. Puppies may be had at very moderate prices, as well as the services of these dogs.

R. Colvin, Hamilton, Ont., is offering some choice young Bulldogs and Cocker Spaniels of both sexes. Both breeds are the very best blood, and make ideal Christmas presents. Full description and further particulars will be sent by Mr. Colvin on application.

H. J. O'Neil, Hamilton, Ont., is offering the services of the Boston, Sully Punch. Sully's sire is Tom Thumb, grandsire of Sullivan Punch. In addition he is a winner himself and a sire of winners. Puppies also for sale.

Dr. C. Y. Ford, Kingston, Ont., advises Collie breeders to use the sire of winners in imported Otterburn Ornament, by Ch. Squire of Tytton. Ornament was a winner of the stud dog prize at the Canadian National Exhibition of 1907, and is in the care of Mr. John Webster, Hamilton, to whom bitches should be shipped. Several high-class Collies and youngsters for disposal at moderate prices.

Geo. M. Shepardson, Sombra, Ont., is offering at stud the Collie, St. Clair Cardinal, whose grandsire is Ch. Wishaw Clinker, and on the dam's side Ch. Wellesbourne Hope. The fee is but the very moderate one of $10. He has also for sale two bitches, sired by Ch. Ellwyn Perfection, out of a champion Rightaway bitch. These bitches, bred to St. Clair Cardinal, will be sold at $25 each, and should prove a profitable investment.

Mr. L. F. Morris, Montreal, P.Q., now offers at stud the rich dark brindle, with even markings, Boston Anthony's Double. This dog is son of Sir Anthony, without doubt one of the best sires living. Anthony's Double is of the Bully type, has the broad flat skull, short, wide, deep muzzle, nice screw tail, and is bound to improve the snipyness so common to many Boston matrons. The stud fee of this twenty-pound dog is but $10.

Oxford Kennels, Ottawa, Ont., offer a number of excellent Fox Terriers for sale. They are offered for sale simply because there are too many dogs in the kennel, and not for any fault, all being guaranteed as described.

Mr. E. Wrightson Thorp, Toronto, is offering at stud a number of dogs of different breeds, including his famous Airedales, Commodore of Clipstone, Clipstone Commander, and Clipstone Imperial. The Toy Pomeranian, Polar Star, a white imported dog; the prize Yorkshire Terriers, Little Dandie and Little Boy Blue. Then there are a number of Commodore of Clipstone's puppies for sale, certain winners, and Mr. Thorp finally adds that as he purposes attending a New York Show in February next, he will be pleased to handle a few dogs that can put up a good run for the money. Don't put this off until the last moment, but give him time to have your dog fit.

Mr. A. A. Macdonald, Toronto, offers at stud the smooth Fox Terrier, Aldon Captain, at the fee of $10. Aldon Captain has been shown successfully at Atlantic City, under Mr. August Belmont, and at Buffalo under Mr. Caldwell. He is a hard-bitten one, of great Terrier quality, and is beautifully bred. In his first two litters were Ch. Aldon Cadet, Aldon Colonel and Oxford Betty. Bitches should be sent in care of Mr. Clark, Toronto.

Broadway Kennels, Toronto, having sold Broadway Diver and Broadway Duke, have added the wire-haired Fox Terrier Broadway Clip, a grandson of the famous Matchmaker, to their list of stud dogs, and have placed the fee at $10. It is unnecessary to state that Matchmaker blood is probably more desired than that of any other wire existing.

There are a number of bargain ads this month, including the following: Mr. Richardson, two year-old Boston bitches and two Boston bitch puppies. Mr. Cardwell, four four-months-old Collie puppies and a fine sable and white bitch. King Edward Collie Kennels' stock. L. F. Morris, Boston brood bitches, some in whelp to Anthony Double, also two fine French Bulldogs that can win. Mr. Johnston, two pit Bull Terriers, poultry guard and good watch dogs. Montreal Bird Co. have good puppies for sale in most varieties, particularly House and Toy breeds. Mrs. Pitt offers at stud the very excellent Pag, Osborne Punch, and that good little Japanese Spaniel, Osborne Muji. Mrs. Pitt also has for sale Pomeranian puppies, both black and chocolate. Mr. Hewson wants a 15-inch Beagle dog pup.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

St. Clair Collies: Hollyrood Polly, now owned by Mr. Shepardson, Sombra, Ont., has returned from a visit to the great winning Collie, Ch. Harwood Piccolo. Harwood Piccolo is a winner of 200 first and specials, under 41 different judges. St. Clair Beauty, by Ch. Wellesbourne Hope, is on a visit to Col. McEwen's Hollyrood Professor. These meetings will surely produce winners.

Inferno: The striking picture that adorns the front page of Canadian Kennel Gazette is engraved direct from a photo of Mr. John Miles' famous Bull Terrier Inferno, now a better dog than ever he was.

It will be remembered that at the recent Canadian National Show Inferno did all that was asked of him, winning right through his classes from puppy to winners. He topped this by taking the special award of best Bull Terrier in the show.

In his report, Mr. Claire Foster, the judge at Toronto, highly eulogized Inferno and says he "is the best Bull Terrier out for a long, long time," a decision that was generally agreed to.

Collie items: Dr. Ford has bred his Ch. Wishaw Leader bitch, Otterburn Constance, a winner at the late Toronto show, to that great sire, Parbold Pierrot, and he is hoping that results may do some good to Collies in Canada.

Otterburn Ornament is proving such a successful sire that it really was unnecessary to go outside the kennel, except for change of blood, and the subsequent extended operations that follow such a change.

Bull Terrier bits: Mr. E. C. Powell, Vancouver, in proposing Mr. G. C. Israel, of Olympia, Wash., for C.K.C. membership, tells us that Mr. Israel is the Vancouver Kennel Club's hon. representative for his district. Mr. Israel is a Bull Terrier breeder and has been Mr. Watkins' chief opponent in the show ring for the past three or four years. He has lately purchased Edgewood Biddy, who cleaned up things at Philadelphia last year. He also owns Williamette Peer, and expects to purchase Bloomsbury Bo'swain.

Business this time: Mr. Chas. Lyndon is giving up his extensive kennels at Scarborough and is going into business in Toronto. This does not mean that he is giving up dogs entirely, but that his operations in this line will be greatly lessened.

A New Pom: Mrs. Macdonald has just imported the brown Pom bitch Prinzesschen, winner of reserve championship at Crystal Palace. She is by Ch. Haughty Prince, is very tiny, and has a coat of the rich, dark shade, now becoming so rare.

Why not others: A pleasant feature of the late Fox Terrier Show in B. C. was the part taken by the ladies, who provided light refreshments in the shape of tea, coffee, cake, etc., during the show. Indeed the help of the lady members of the club was greatly appreciated. Next year the show will be repeated, but with it is confidently hoped an entry of not less than one hundred dogs. The Club has now the substantial membership of thirty-eight and this is being augmented monthly.

Bull bits: Mrs. Cartwright has been so unfortunate as to lose her good old Bull bitch, Miss Chirgwin. Soon after moving to Kingston she was, one morning, found dead in her kennel. She had a "little trouble" with Lennox Benita, another lady of the same abode, and it is probable that over-exertion was the cause of death, as her wounds were quite trifling. She was nearly ten years old and had done good service both on the bench and in the kennel. Being a great pet of Mrs. Cartwright's, she is much missed.

Royal May, a daughter of the bitch whose death we record above, is showing in whelp to Ben Jordan, so that the blood lines of the old favorite will not be lost to the kennel.

Mrs. Cartwright states that her Lennox Bendigo beat Duke of Buckingham in winners class at Ottawa, a matter that is being investigated by the Canadian Kennel Club. The reverse is given in the secretary's official catalogue filed with the C.K.C.

Daddy's Double: Mr. R. G. Stanley Anthony, of Vancouver, has three very promising puppies in his Dartmouth-Rats litter. One is all white, and so resembles Champion Daddy, who figures so prominently in his pedigree, that he is to be registered under the suggestive name prefixing this paragraph.

Pitt-falls: Mrs. Pitt has been unfortunate in losing, by premature birth, her Japanese Spaniel's litter of three, though she is in part recompensed by the arrival of the sturdy family of Poms that are now offered for sale.

We should greatly have liked to have seen a few Canadian bred "Oriental troubles" on our benches. Better luck again, we hope.

Tipster Dead: Mr. A. A. Macdonald is lamenting the death of his sterling Fox Terrier Aldon Tipster, who was killed in a fight. While able to hold his own at fair odds, he could not stand the drubbing that three other dogs gave him, and succumbed to his injuries.

Aldon Tipster was the best Fox Terrier Mr. Macdonald ever owned, and being a Canadian bred one, added to his value in his owner's eyes, as it did to all who desire the progress of dogs in Canada.

From his stud card we extract the following information:

"Aldon Tipster has been so much before the public that he requires no description. He has been constantly exhibited at the leading shows in America. He has defeated such Terriers as Warren Drastie, Norfolk All Blue, Sabine Ruler, Sabine Recruit, and Sabine Reynard. He has won his prizes under the most prominent judges of America, and Messrs. Glynn, Powell, Desmond O'Connell, and Maxwell, of England. Sired by St. Leger, from a bitch by True, his pedigree is a study in quality."

All of which we can most honestly endorse. The loss is indeed a severe one for the owner of the "Aldon" Kennels. Tipster has a place amongst the celebrities in the new subscription book, Dogs, and Mrs. Macdonald's Ch. Redcroft Darkie appears in picture on a pull-page insert, heading the article on Pomeranians.

Bostons: Mr. Goebel was the only Canadian exhibitor of Bostons at the Boston Specialty Show, his Miss Fritz representing Canada there. She was shown in both limit and open, and was successful in taking third in both classes in an entry of twenty.

Mr. Goebel has a good little dog coming on in Albert Othello, a son of Othello, and has bought Tommy Ringmaster, a son of Ringmaster, the winning sire.

* * *

Orion to Ohio: Mr. A. A. Macdonald has sold that sterling Fox Terrier Aldon Orion to Mr. R. W. Harker, East Liverpool, Ohio. Mr. Harker must like the "Aldon" blood, as he already owns Champion Aldon Cadet and Aldon Gossip, a litter sister to Champion Aldon Tipster.

* * *

Ouida Dead: Redcroft Ouida, Mrs. Macdonald's little black Pom., that won nineteen first and special prizes at Toronto and London, departed this life a short time ago. At eleven months her weight (actual) was only 2 lbs. 11 oz. Mrs. Macdonald had just accepted an offer of $700 for her. She was by Ch. Redcroft Darkie, ex Redcroft Mollie.

A NEW BULL BITCH FOR TORONTO

It falls on me to introduce to the Canadian kennel circles, and the Bulldog fancy in particular, a new recruit, whose membership will, I am sure, be highly appreciated. I refer to Mrs. J. Wood Booth, of Macdonell Avenue, Toronto, to whose order Mr. George Kyle, of Castle Donington, England, shipped that sterling brood Bull bitch Ivanhoe Kitty on Nov. 22, 1907. If Sam Wilson's maxim, "Blood will tell," bears the same success in this particular case as we know it has beforetime, this lady can look forward to a fair share of success. Kitty, who is just two years old, has the distinction of being sired by that pillar of the English Stud Book, Swashbuckler, whose sons and daughters are at the very top at the present time. Amongst them may be mentioned Ch. Morton Meehail, Ch. Woodcote Sally Lun, Rory O'More, Sir Fergo, etc. Her dam, Ivanhoe Duchess, by Carthusian Cerberus, is litter sister to Ivanhoe Cerberus, therefore half-sister to the immortal Ch. Heywood Duchess. Ivanhoe Kitty's three litter brothers—Ivanhoe Sambo, Studholme Crib, and Buccaneer—are all well known on the English show bench. The value of Mrs. Booth's new purchase is further enhanced by having been bred to the well known Alfred Shrubbs by Centemenon. Therefore, through the latter mentioned dog and Swashbuckler the expected litter will have the distinction of two distinct crosses of that perfect type Sam Woodiewise's Ch. Boaz. Mrs. Booth has appointed me as agent in this and any future purchases. Sincerely yours,

Toronto.

BRITISH COLUMBIA FOX TERRIER CLUB—FIRST ANNUAL SHOW.

NUMBER OF DOGS, SIXTY-TWO—WINNERS' VALUE, TWO POINTS.

The British Columbia Fox Terrier Club held on the 14th of November its first annual bench show of smooth and wire-hair Fox Terriers at the Athletic Club, in Vancouver, B.C. This competition was not, however, confined to members of the club, but was open to the world, and the club is to be congratulated on the success of its first venture.

The catalogue enumerates 65 Terriers, and it is safe to say that admirers of smooths and wires were well rewarded for attending the little one-day show, and must have been surprised at the quality of many of the exhibits.

The smooth division numbered 40 out of the 65 on the benches, and included well-known winners, and very keen interest attached to the meeting at this special show of several canine celebrities who had met before on more than one occasion.

The classes were ably handled by Mr. Frank Turner, of Victoria, as judge, well known for many years in canine circles on the Pacific Coast, and who got through his arduous and responsible duties with carefulness and conscientiousness, and although, as everyone knows, it is impossible to please all exhibitors, his awards were approved of in most cases. A pleasing feature was the large number of ladies present, following the awards with interest and criticism. At the close of the day the specials were presented by the president of the club, who prefaced this ceremony with a short speech, given under difficulties, as the impatient barking of the dogs rendered almost inaudible many of the words of encouragement and congratulation in which Mr. Bruce expressed himself. Mr. Bruce is a sportsman in the true sense, and it was stated that his exhibit in open smooth dogs, Leander Club, was imported from England expressly to make a sensation at this show. This dog, however, did not attain a higher position than V.H.C., having had to meet Champion Covesea Speedy, once known as Puget Speedy, as well as Ch. Revelry and that excellent dog Dartmouth, whose home is in the kennels of Mr. Anthony, in Vancouver, and who had a host of admirers. Ch. Covesea Speedy is owned by Mr. George Florence, of Victoria, and has won championships in the United States and in British Columbia. He was born in Seattle, his sire being the celebrated English champion Daddy, who won the championship of England three years in succession. Daddy was imported to Seattle by the owner of the Windy Kennels, of that city, his breeder, Mr. Redmond, considering him the best Terrier ever produced in England. Since his arrival on the coast he has been entered in competitions against Speedy, and has suffered defeat at his hands on three occasions, under three different judges. Speedy took the highest honors of the show here recorded. His kennel companion, Champion Revelry, now 7 years old, and as fit as ever, got third, whilst the Vancouver dog, Dartmouth, owned by Mr. Anthony, a big winner already, was placed between them as second.

The decision in this keenly contested class of eight entries was the big event of the day, and had been looked forward to by Fox Terrier men in adjacent towns for a long time.

Taking smooth puppy dogs, Mr. Welsh's Beau Brummell, placed first, is a promising youngster, with good head and eye; and Mrs. Forrests' Terry Boy second, perhaps a bit large for his age, is an attractive sort. The third prize went to Miss Macpherson's stylish Sunshine Baron.

In novice, first and second were repetitions of the previous class. Mrs. T. B. Chappel obtained third with Gentleman Joe.

In limit, the Bellew Kennels, Seattle, secured first with Sabine Renown, not, however, in the best condition. Second went to Sunshine Beau Brummell, and third to Essex Snowball, rather full in eye.

In open smooth bitches Mrs. J. J. Bostock's Reminiscence (champion) maintained her hold on first position, although not looking at her best. She has often shown herself better, and in the winners class had to give way to an equally high quality tan-marked young bitch, who has at this show made her debut. This new comet is named Spider, and is owned by Mrs. Chappel. She won in a class of eleven in puppies and fifteen in novice, and would have won right through limit and open if she had been entered for these, as she got the winners. It is prophesied that this little bitch will be heard of again, all she wants now being a rough country and lots of Terrier work.

The Terriers shown by Mr. J. W. Welsh, the courteous and popular secretary of the show, were all of correct type, and showed their breeding in the ring, and they fully deserved the honors they brought to their owner. Mr. Welsh has been one of the chief pillars in the Fox Terrier world in Vancouver for a long time, and there is no doubt but that to him is due the gratitude of every Fox Terrier fancier in this part of Canada for his having always bred the proper stamp of Terriers and shown them, for other men of smaller experience to keep in their mind's eye and beat them if they could.

In wire hairs 25 dogs put in an appearance, but were of such different types that the judge must have felt his task a puzzling one. It may be taken for an axiom that a present-day wire hair has rarely a wiry, harsh, straight coat, such as were to be found in the rough, broken counties of England 40, or even 20, years ago. The reason for the falling off in the special, the chief characteristic of the breed from which, in fact, it got its name, is well understood by wire men, but is a subject requiring rather delicate handling in the conditions attending this breed at present dog shows.

In puppies, dogs, the entries numbered five. First went to Rogue, a good, symmetrical, well set up youngster, good head and well carried, small ears, strong in foreface and jaws, but soft in coat, well prepared by clipping; on the big side, but a taking sort. This was the winner at New Westminster last month.

In novice dogs, the puppy winner, Rogue, had to give way to a new one for the first place, viz., Punch, whose great fault is his size. He is all white, with lots of Terrier about him; beats Rogue in coat, weighs 23 pounds, and should have paid the penalty for his weight and size. In this class came out two young dogs, Tinker and Tear'im, shown by Mr. H. C. Chiene, with natural coats. They are real typical Terriers, proper size, with the keen, workman-like look that wire hairs should have. They won third and reserve.

In the next class, limit, Punch and Rogue again came first and second, with Mr. McAuliffe's Essex Pedro (late Jack) third. The latter is a keen, nice-headed little dog, with a good deal of black on body and good, hard coat. He deserved his ribbon. Reserve went to Tori, a real Terrier, of correct size, and the "varminty" look that suggests badger's earth or foxes' holes. He is broad in front, and coat is too open and not of very hard texture, still a taking and good Terrier, who shows you what he is "au naturel," and not what he has been altered to.

Eight came together in the open class, Punch winning first, after a struggle with

Ch. Sunshine Bristles, second, and Rogue, now coming in third. These three are all on the big side, and had better look after themselves when they meet something smaller than themselves but of better quality than any of the remainder of the class. Cannington Bristles, who won so much in Vancouver in May last, here only got V.H.C. He does not show well, and does not fulfil his younger promise.

In puppy bitches only two came out—Daisy and Blossom—and in novice bitches Judy and Blossom, who won in the order of their names. Limit bitches brought out seven. They were of various types, Judy, a small, tan-marked, compact, good boned, but soft-coated one, winning from Weaselle, who was placed second, and who is a smart, keen Terrier-like Terrier, looks a workman, and was not gotten up. K. P. Forshaw's Mistress of the Robes was awarded third. This order was repeated in the open class, the winners going to Judy.

Hearty goodfellowship prevailed, and many were the pleased greetings of old friends as they again met unexpectedly at this enjoyable little one-day show. Prominent among those attending were most of the well-known Terrier men and many fanciers of other breeds, who could not be kept away, and fanciers came from Seattle and other distant parts. The officers of the British Columbia Fox Terrier Club are to be commended for their efforts, and especial thanks should be given to Mr. Welsh as secretary.

At the next annual show care should be taken to get a better hall and larger ring for judging, a part of room in the ring crowded the dogs together and did not give the judge a chance to see the dogs from a sufficient distance nor the handlers a chance to show them off.

Reginald Hanson.

ANTHONY'S DOUBLE is a son of Sir Anthony, without a doubt one of the best sires living.

Double is a rich dark brindle, even markings, short screw tail. He has a broad flat skull, extra short, wide, deep muzzle. He is of the bully type and just the dog to nick with that weak headed bitch. He is bound to improve that snipey muzzle so common in Boston matrons. Weight 20 pounds.

ing more than one dog. They therefore suggest that the tax be placed at $1 for one dog and $2 for each dog more than one. In raising the tax on bitches to $5 and allowing the tax on kennels of pure-bred dogs to remain at $10, the desire was to confine, as much as possible, the breeding of dogs to these kennels.

2. Upon the petition of twenty-five ratepayers the Council of any city, town, township or incorporated village may provide by by-law that the said tax or any part of it shall not be levied in said municipality. 53 Vic., c. 62, s. 2; 55 Vic., c. 55, s. 2.

Remarks: Correspondents were of the opinion that the tax on dogs should be compulsory, and that section 2 of the Act should be struck out. The meeting of the Winter Fair also passed a motion asking for compulsory taxation.

3. The assessors of every municipality within which a by-law has not been passed as provided in the preceding section, shall at the time of making their annual assessment, enter on the assessment roll, in a column prepared for the purpose, opposite the name of every person assessed, and also opposite the name of every resident inhabitant not otherwise assessed, being the owner or keeper of any dog, the number and sex of dogs by him owned or kept. R. S. O., 1877, c. 214, s. 3.

4. The owner, possessor or keeper of any dog shall, when (be) required by the assessors to deliver to them, in writing, a statement of the number of dogs owned or kept by him, whether one or more; and for every refusal or neglect to do so, and for every false statement made in respect thereof, he shall incur a penalty of $5, to be recovered with costs, before any Justice of the Peace having jurisdiction in the municipality. R. S. O., 1887, c. 214, s. 4; 53 Vic., c. 62, s. 3.

Remarks: The changes in sections 3 and 4 are particularly for the purpose of securing a better enforcement of the Act.

5. The collector's roll of the municipality shall contain the name of every person entered on the assessment roll as the owner, possessor or keeper of any dog with the tax hereby imposed in a separate column, and the collector shall proceed to collect the same, at the same time and with the like authority, and make returns to the treasurer of the municipality, in the same manner and subject to the same liabilities in all respects for paying over the same to the treasurer as in the case of other taxes levied in the municipality. R. S. O., 1887, c. 214, s. 5; 53 Vic., c. 62, s. 4.

6. In cases where persons have been assessed for dogs, and the collector has failed to collect the taxes, authorized by this Act, he shall report the same under oath to any Justice of the Peace, and such Justice shall, by an order under his hand and seal, to be served by any duly qualified constable, require such dogs to be destroyed by the owners, possessors or harborers thereof, or by a constable, and for the purpose of carrying out the said order any constable may enter on the premises of the owner, possessor or harborer of the dog ordered to be destroyed, and destroy such dog; and in case any collector neglects to make the aforesaid report within the time required for paying over the taxes levied in the municipality, he shall be liable to a penalty of $10 and costs, to be recovered in the same manner as provided in section 15 of this Act. R. S. O., 1887, c. 214, s. 65; 53 Vic., c. 62, s. 5; 56 Vic., c. 46, s. 1.

7. The money collected and paid to the clerk or treasurer of any municipality under the preceding sections, shall constitute a fund for satisfying such damages as arise in any year from dogs killing or injuring sheep or lambs in such municipality; and the residue, if any, shall form part of the assets of the municipality for the general purposes thereof; but when it becomes necessary in any year for the purpose of paying charges on the same, the fund shall be supplemented to the extent of the amount which has been applied to the general purposes in the municipality. R. S. O., 1887, c. 214, s. 7.

8. In case the Council of any city, town, township or incorporated village deems it advisable that the tax by this Act established should be maintained, but that the application of the proceeds thereof by this Act provided should be dispensed with, it shall be lawful for such Council by by-law to declare that such application shall be dispensed with;

and thereafter during the continuance of such by-law, the sections of this Act numbered 6, 7 and 17 to 21 inclusive, shall have no force or effect in the municipality within the jurisdiction of such Council; and the moneys collected and paid to the clerk or treasurer of the municipality under the remaining sections of this Act, shall be the property of the municipality, and shall be subject to its disposition in like manner as other local taxes. R. S. O., 1887, c. 214, s. 8 (1); 53 Vic., c. 62, s. 8; 55 Vic., c. 55 s. 1.

Remarks: As will be noticed by Table VIII., a number of municipalities which collect taxes on dogs take advantage of the above section to dispense with the payment for damages done by dogs to sheep, and use the moneys so collected entirely for other purposes. The correspondents claim that this is a great injustice to the sheep owners, and express the desire to have this clause repealed.

(c) Any dog which any person finds straying between sunset and sunrise on any farm whereon any sheep or lambs are kept;

But no dog so straying which belongs to or is kept or harbored by the occupant of any premises next adjoining the said farm, or next adjoining that part of any highway or lane which abuts on said farm, nor any dog so straying, either when securely muzzled or when accompanied by or being within reasonable call or control of any person owning or possessing or having the charge or care of said dog, shall be so killed unless there is reasonable apprehension that such dog, if not killed, is likely to pursue, worry, wound or terrify sheep or lambs then on the said farm. 56 Vic., c. 46, s. 2.

New Brunswick Kennel Club Show, Held at St. John, Nov. 12, 13 and 14.

NUMBER OF DOGS PRESENT, ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY-ONE—WINNERS VALUE, ONE POINT.

Mr. H. W. Lacy judged all classes at this, the first show held in New Brunswick, under C.K.C. rules, and reports as follows in his paper, the American Stock-keeper:

With the Salvation Army citadel on one side of the street and a dog show on the other, the good people of St. John had a choice of going straight to the demnition bow-wows, or somewhere in the future less tangible. St. John evidently preferred the former alternative, judging by the attendance at the first show given by the New Brunswick Kennel Club. Favored by charming, bracing weather (a visit to this pine laden air is an unexcelled tonic), the latest show was superior to all others we have had the honor to pass the awards upon.

The coming of exhibitors from other parts was an innovation that pleased the good sportsmen of St. John immensely, and there are no better sports than the local owners of dogs at the Queen's Rink show, for, though time and again they were beaten by dogs from the outside kennels, they took it all good naturedly. At the first show held in St. John the exhibitors were inclined to question the judge's opinion, but happily for the latter's peace of mind, they have come to see things in another light, and realize that perhaps, after all, the judge did know one breed from another.

With the exception of some of the entrants brought from Montreal and Toronto and Nova Scotia, the general class of the exhibits showed little improvement; in fact, in some breeds, like Collies and St. Bernards, and Newfoundlands, Wolf Hounds, Greyhounds, Setters, Pointers, Bull Terriers, and so on, there is a falling off in numbers and quality, and there will continue to be until the owners seek outside blood and grade their stock. They recognize this necessity in horses and cattle, and they might as well do so in dogs. There is plenty of enthusiasm, and this backed by a little enterprise will soon put the Brunswickers in the right way.

Practically, the most of the show was composed of just the ordinary dogs seen along the highways; that is, that may be identified by breeds. Consequently the judging of such classes is not altogether a sinecure, and one turns with joyful relief to a sort that looks like something good.

From Montreal came Mr. Brown, president, we believe, of the Canadian Bulldog Club, who again, has "business" in St. John just about show time, and brought down four very nice Bulldogs, the entry in this breed being the best quality one of the show so far as all round merit goes. Then there was Alec Ross, with a combination team from Montreal, whose merits will be spoken of further on. Mr. W. N. Clark came all the way from Nova Scotia, and, we believe, was the first exhibitor from the island country. The visit of these gentlemen and Mr. Finley will do a lot of good to the dog interest of St. John.

As the awards are published in the local papers and those from outside St. John will be mentioned as we go along, it is but necessary to give a resume of the breeds where quality deserves. St. Bernards were very moderate, the best being a smooth, Mr. McGivern's Lolo, with well shaped, but small head. There was a well formed Newfoundland in Captain, of the Blackwall entries. The Greyhound was faulty. Foxhounds were just as good as the American classes here, with the Philadelphia cracks out of the way. Pointers were a fair lot, nothing bad, nothing top-top; the best was the puppy, W. A. Harrison's Boy, who scored in head and front over the second, Kaye's Chum. English Setters contained nothing but what would here be termed ordinary. A nice, level orange and white, none too good in front, MacGoughey's Stoughton Ben, that from the name presumes that the Old Bay State had something to do with his nativity, was easily the best of her sex. A fair Gordon was shown.

The Cockers were chiefly good, sound sporting examples of the breed, and the judge went for this type, combined with necessary quality. The best of the lot was a very nice parti-color bitch, St. C. McKell's Toots, a smart mover, and with a better muzzle and a little less fat around neck and shoulders, would do most anywhere. Another nice one is Mrs. McClellan's Nellie, a pretty red, that might be cleaner in head and straighter

Last year there were 1093 patients admitted. Of these 378 came from 254 places outside of Toronto—all were children of poor people who could not afford to pay for treatment of their little ones.

Each child was in the Hospital 47½ days at a cost of $1.31 each per day, or $62.22 for the 47½ days stay.

If you know of any child in your county who is sick or has club feet, and whose parents can not afford to pay, send the name to the Hospital Secretary.

The stock books are open. Won't you let the Hospital write your name down for a few shares in Heaven's own work of healing little children?

A great mine of Mercy—the mining stock that always pays dividends—is bought with the money that helps The Hospital for Sick Children to extract the Gold of Life from the Quariz of Death.

in front, but has a dandy body and action. Another sporting Cocker, but a bit big, was Jock II., a little off in one foreleg, when it came to the warm class in which the parti and Nellie scored over him. The others were mostly well on the leg, excepting Mrs. Ross' entry, that was a bit too long and low, but with the best head in the bunch. The fields were simply great big Cockers.

The best Collie dog was Good's Lorne, a good coated, very fairheaded dog, that scored a lot over his kennel mate, Mac, excepting in volume of coat. A very nice bitch in her way was well the best of the lot, Barry's Nellie A., a clean, well formed bitch all through. Bailey's Ivel Duchess is a nice headed local Bulldog, if a bit shorter in face. Mrs. Brown had Lady Duchess, Lady Tinker, and Lady Pat, all Driazels, good short coupled, good fronted ones, differing only in degree of shortness of face and turnup, the winner having the best of it in the last respect. The only Bull Terrier that amounted to anything (a fierce collection) was Gleason's Clarence Blazer, that looked like an angel among this crowd. Olive's Topsy is another that stood out well and was the best of the locals.

Alec Ross had the Finley Irish Terriers, and scored with a new one in D. Fairchance, not quite in shape, but a very level, good headed, right sized one. Their bitches, Red Cress scoring over Red Caprice in body and muzzle, were the best. Others too coarse. A capital and well known wire in Stanford's Carleon, shown by Ross, was easily the best of his section, and a very smart puppy. Stanford's Ball Player stood way out of the smooths, and Ross showed the best bitch, Maid of Honor. A capital Skye was shown and a smart Italian Greyhound were the best of the miscellaneous.

There were 160 dogs and 560 entries. Mr. Lacy started last Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 12, after the show had been opened by the Mayor and Governor Tweedie, and a lot of other silk hatted notables, and finished at 3 p.m. the next day.

The officers, headed by Secretary McClellan, Tom McCullough, and others, worked hard during the show, and did their best for all.

DACHSHUNDS AT TORONTO.

I would like to answer Dr. Ford through your paper in what he has to say of his classes of Dachshunds in the recent Exhibition show. Dr. Ford states that the other Dachshunds, excepting those to whom he gave prizes, were mostly too big or too coarse, and far removed from the German standard. On page 20 of the Official Standard of the Dachshund Club of America, which is translated from the German Standard, he will find the fol-

"Belle St. Leger"

To Breeders and Exhibitors of Smooth Fox Terriers.

An exceptional opportunity of procuring the smart brood bitch "Belle St. Leger". Her breeding is perfection, you do not have to look back three or four generations to discover a winning ancestor, as she is by "Champion South Cave Leger" ex Mrs. Cock's sensational bitch "Peg the Rake" winner of 120 prizes for whom Mr. Geo. Raper offered 750 dollars. I brought her over in whelp from England this spring, and have a first rate litter out of her, hence reason for parting, and offer her for sale at 75 dollars. Also bitch puppy "Coloured Coon", born May 29th out of the above by "Coon Lad". She is registered in C.K.C.S.B. A real neat stamp of Terrier, typical head and expression, has rare neck and shoulders, the best of legs and feet, and a good sound firm coat, price 50 dollars. lowing:

"Dogs of light weight, 16 pounds and under; medium weight dogs, 16 to 22 pounds; heavy weight dogs, 22 pounds and over."

Now, to my certain knowledge there were no heavy weight dogs in the ring. No dog weighed over 22 pounds. The dog I showed weighed 20½ pounds, and was neither too coarse nor far removed from the German Standard. He is a middle weight. One of the dogs—Crooks—a tan bitch, took third in limit, although she had a broken tail.

Now, as a judge and a doctor, I think Dr Ford should have seen this. And in the open class he gave third to Miss Rhodi, which was so old she had no teeth. He examined all other dogs' teeth but this one.

Other good dogs which belonged to Mr. Baker and Mr. Sinclair, and my own dog, King Reginald, which deserved to be recognized, were not even looked at by the judge.

When I asked him what fault he had with my dog, he said: "His hair is too coarse," which was certainly not true. He had as fine a coat as any dog in the show. This dog won afterwards, under an experienced judge, first and winners at Ottawa.

I don't want anyone to think I am jealous of Mr. Saunders or anyone else. All we breeders want is fair play, and he has a very good bitch in Rote Hexe Forst.

PUPPIES AND BROOD BITCHES FOR SALE

The Dachshund.

The Dachshund is one of the most ancient breeds of dog in existence. He belongs to the canis pugnaces venantes class. The first traces of the Dachshund are to be found in Austria and Germany, where the aristocracy used them for hunting fox, badger, and other animals.

The Dachshund is very courageous. He will tackle anything, and will fight to the death. Tradition tells us that the King's royal foresters crossed a breed of dog with the wild ferret, a certain kind of wild ferret in Germany, which is five times as large as the ferrets here. Certainly they do resemble a ferret in general appearance and in many other ways. The male Dachshund, like the male ferret, has often been known to kill their young when they reach the age of four months. For this reason I always separate the young from the old ones when six weeks old.

The Dachshund needs scarcely any training. They take to hunting as naturally as they do to eating. He follows the scent the same as a Beagle or Bloodhound, and gives out plenty of tongue. He can pick up a trail where a Beagle would pass right over so cold a scent.

He is also an ideal house and watch dog, and becomes very attached, although he will readily make friends with his new master. Not long ago my wife lost one of the breed in a department store. He stayed at the counter where he missed her all day and night, and would not let anyone pick him up. When I went there the next day he was still waiting there.

In Germany they are having great sport with them. An artificial burrow is made, then a fox put in, and the Dachshund is then sent in, and has to drive the fox out of the burrow. They will do more good on a farm than any other breed, killing vermin. They are so keen to hunt that they are always working. They are just slow enough not to overrun the trail, as so many of our speedy hounds do, and in this way they actually gain time.

The general appearance is dwarfy, short legged, long bodied, with sturdy figure, and well developed muscles. Colors—Red, reddish yellow, tan, black and tan, chocolate and tan, chestnut, liver; also dappled, or tiger colored. In this latter class we have the gray tiger and red tiger. The tigers are very popular in the United States at present. The writer has just imported a handsome gray tiger stud dog by Spitzbub, A.K.C. 39902, ex Hepe II. It is said to be the only one in Canada of its kind.

It seems a shame that the Dachshund breed is so neglected. He can compare favorably with any popular breed, besides being a useful little fellow.

1907—A Retrospect.

With the eminently successful first attempt of the British Columbia Fox Terrier Club, the shows of the year have come to an end. Would there were more of them, such as we have had in the West this year, at any rate.

Certainly it is not for want of a suitable climate, for we might as well hold them in what is here termed winter as at any other time.

The condition of the dogs at the Fox

Terrier specialty show last week showed conclusively that now is the time for condition in coats. They were grand, with hardly one exception. The Fox Terrier has made great progress on the coast during the last two years, and especially during 1907. When about forty of the breed turned up at the annual show in May, a record was made which surprised everyone, but within six months of that time a Fox Terrier specialty show has been held with about 70 dogs entered and full 62 benched. It is certain that a small extra effort would have benched 75, making a three point show, without gathering in any culls, too.

There has been a great advance in quality this year, due chiefly to the importation of bitches in whelp from England, although the local production of earlier imported stock, notably King Elfs and Daddys, have been the heaviest winners.

There is such a variety of blood here now for the size of the place, and such good young stock about, that it is a question whether anything under four figures will secure anything in the East or in England that is better. Certainly a man would be foolish to risk a high-priced importation before he has seen what the Western dogs can do in the East, and, it is sincerely to be hoped, the next twelve months will show that.

Judging from the remarks made on the decisions at the spring show, we seem to have learned a lot about Fox Terriers this year. The favorite was beaten in the spring, and has been hopelessly out of it ever since; and, strange to say, he was the favorite of those who "have bred Terriers all their lives, don't ever know."

We learned, too, that because a dog came from So-and-So's kennels, and cost such and such a figure, "cut no ice" in the ring. The best dog has gone on top, no matter who judged, even in spite of the judge's own prejudice.

I wonder does dog fancying alter a man's nature entirely so that he becomes quite irrational when on that subject? I know of two or three fine fellows, one the best loser I ever knew, who always said about a certain dog that they could not see anything in him, and then, when he goes on top again, they say, "Well, he's a hard dog to find any fault in." This dog is no good between shows.

A lady friend of mine, who is very fond of dogs, says she hates shows and doggy people because they are so jealous of one another. "Do you know," she said at the recent Fox Terrier Show, "the first thing I heard when I came in was your friend, T. M., saying to Mrs. So-and-So how glad he was Dartmouth was beaten in the open."

Well, really, I wasn't a bit surprised. This dog Dartmouth, by Cadger of Oaks, a typical son of Daddy, who has also done some good winning, was the surprise of the Spring Show. He is out of Fieley Nelly, a beautiful bitch, now dead, unfortunately, as she could produce lasters.

He has gone on winning, in spite of much adverse criticism. He took second to Ch. Speedy last week, having twice beaten this dog this year, but he topped such dogs as Ch. Revelry, Sabine Renown, and several other well known winners, and took first for best Fox Terrier bred in British Columbia.

He will go east as soon as the shows start, as there are still some who say he could not win in first-class company, and his owner is anxious to find out what they know.

I should think the sensation of the recent show was a little bitch named Spider. She is a most perfect specimen of her kind, but almost a "pocket edition." She is just a year old, and weighs 13 pounds, but her symmetry is splendid. She has a wonderful head, and looks like a laster. She cleaned up the bitches section, beating even Ch. Reminiscence, a most classical Terrier of correct size.

The best young dog in the smooths was undoubtedly Sunshine Beau Brummel, out of a bitch from Mrs. Bennett-Edward's kennels. If he wears well for another twelve months he'll do lots of winning.

Sabine Renown was a disappointment. We expected so much. He has many good qualities, but also some glaring faults, and he showed badly.

One hears a good deal about type. This expression, like "class" in a field trial dog, is evidently hard to explain; but it seems to me that the correct type is generally the winner—if you own him.

There was some grumbling, of course, at the recent show about decisions. The dogs that won were the ones that went in to win, and looked like it. For those who are not satisfied, there are other shows coming on and other judges. Opinions may vary but cut and come again, friends. We'll be there to greet you.
