Men Prominent in Canadian Dogdom

MR. W. J. JACKSON, HAMILTON, ONT.

Mr. Jackson is one of those quiet, persistent fellows, whose influence for good is apt to be overlooked. Mr. Jackson is a consistent advocate of the Cocker Spaniel. Many years ago he ran across his first dog in a litter of several blacks and one red Cocker, that attracted him while driving. The red one caught his eye although up to that time he had no desire to own a dog. He hunted up the owner and purchased this son of King Raven and Busy. It turned out to be a bang up Cocker and more by good luck than good judgment, Mr. Jackson was thus embarked on the troubled waters of Cockerdom. Mr. Frank Close, of Hamilton, at that time interested in Fox Terriers named him Golden Rod. The same gentleman induced Mr. Jackson to bring him out at a local show, where to his owner's surprise he was placed first. The dog himself must have been overcome for he broke loose from his bench, got out of the building, and was lost for several days. Mr. Jackson has had several since that he thought highly of, but none has ever been able to quite fill "Rod's" place.

Mr. Jackson was first President of the Gore Kennel Club, an organization that succeeded the Hamilton Kennel Club, which unfortunately went to the bad and out of commission. Some of the Hamilton fanciers thought that there should be a kennel club of some kind, so called a meeting to which Mr. Jackson was invited, the first dog meeting that he ever attended, and to his surprise he was elected President, a perfect greenhorn who hardly knew one breed from another. He was the man they wanted and they would not release him. In fact he is still holding down the same position. The Club has had several shows which have always come through on the right side and while as President of the Club he has had troubles with dissatisfied exhibitors, they have invariably come around to his way of thinking. Mr. Jackson has bred Cockers quite extensively and the results of his breeding operations may be found in all parts of America. He tells us himself, that all the fanciers, with one exception, that he has done business with, have proved themselves honorable, upright and honest. He has never lost a cent of money in a sale and has never had to press payment except in the one case noted. Mr. Jackson has attended Canadian shows pretty regularly and has been fairly successful, never yet exhibiting where he has been out of the money. Following are some of the dogs that have won for him and his customers: Golden Rod, Blush, Holly, Darby, Union Jack, Little Gem, Johnny Canuck, Queenie R., Lady Hamilton, Peace, Queen of the Snows, Duchess Nebo, Waverley Billy, Bobby Kerr, Black Bess, Silver Lake Blue Bells, Regina, Prairie Queen.

His one regret is that on account of limited accommodation he has to dispose of his litters before they develop far enough to show how they turn out. We don't know how many years Mr. Jackson acknowledges to, but we do know that he doesn't look a day older than when we knew him first and that is now a good many years ago. He freely acknowledges that any success that followed the shows in Hamilton has been due largely to his co-workers.

We hope to see him active both as a breeder and exhibitor for many years to come, for surely Cockers in Canada need him and others of his kind.

COCKER NOTES.

Mr. Corestine is still without any word of his Cocker bitch, Breaclough Creole, so efficiently "lifted" from his home in Westmount. Evidently some Montrealer has a keen eye for a good Cocker.

Mr. W. T. Payne of Kingston, Pa., has purchased from Mrs. T. Worthy, Toronto, the young Cocker Spaniel dog, Crescent Duke, by Crescent Glow, ex. Crescent Tip-po. Mr. Payne nibbled at the dog at the Canadian National, where he was shown, but did not nibble hard enough. However, a good sized cheque has now taken him across the line.

THE COCKER SPANIEL STANDARD

Following is the Standard as adopted by the American Spaniel Club of which Mr. Rowland P. Keasley, 175 Fifth Ave., New York City, is Secretary.

SKULL.—Not so heavy as in other Sporting Spaniels, with smooth forehead and clearly defined eyebrows and stop, the median line distinctly marked and gradually disappearing until lost rather more than half way up a well developed, rounded and comparatively wide skull, showing no prominence in the cheeks, which, like the sides of the muzzle, should present a smooth, clean-cut appearance.

MUZZLE.—Proportionately shorter and lighter than in the Field Spaniel, showing no fullness under the eyes, the jaws even and approaching squareness. Teeth sound and regular, the front ones meeting. Lips cut off square preventing any appearance of snippiness. Nose well developed in all directions and black in color excepting in the Reds, Livers, Parti-colors of these shades, and in the Roans of the lighter lines, when it may be brown or black.

EYE.—Comparatively larger, round, rather full yet never goggled nor weak as in the Toy Spaniel kinds. They should be dark in the Blacks, Black and Tans, the darker shades of Parti-colors and Roans. In the Reds and Livers, and in the Parti-colors and Roans of these colors, they should be brown, but of a shade not lighter than hazel.

EAR.—Lobular, set low, leather fine and not extending beyond the nose, well clothed with long, silky hair which should be straight or wavy.

NECK AND SHOULDERS.—Neck sufficiently long to allow the nose to reach the ground easily, muscular, free from throatiness, and running into clean cut, sloping shoulders, which should not be wide at the points.

BODY.—Comparatively short, compact and firmly knit together, giving the impression of a concentration of power and untiring activity. Chest deep rather than wide, not narrow fronted nor yet so wide as to interfere with free action of the forelegs. Ribs well sprung, deep and carried far back, short in the coupling and flank, free from any tucked appearance. Back and loin immensely strong and compact in proportion to the size of the dog, the former level and the latter slightly arched. Hips wide with quarters considerably rounded and very muscular.

LEGS AND FEET.—Forelegs short and straight, though proportionately longer than in any of the other breeds of short-legged Spaniels, strongly boned and muscled, with elbows well let down and straight, short, strong pasterns. Hind legs proportionately short. Stifles well bent, strong thighs clearly defined. Hocks clean, strong, well let down, bent and turning neither in nor out, the hind quarters from a back view presenting an impressive combination of propelling power. Feet neither small nor large, round, firm, not spreading and with deep, strong, horny pads and plenty of hair between the toes. They should turn neither in nor out.

STERN.—Should be set on and carried level with the back, and when at work its action should be incessant in this, the brightest and merriest of the whole Spaniel family.

COAT.—Flat or slightly waved, silky and very dense with ample Setter-like feather.

COLOR AND MARKINGS.—Blacks should be jet black and Reds, Livers, etc., should never be faded or "washy" shades, but of good sound colors, white on the chest of self-colors, while objectionable, should not disqualify.

WEIGHT.—Not under 18 nor exceeding 24 pounds.

GENERAL DESCRIPTION.—Embodying the foregoing, i.e., a neat head, wide awake serviceable looking little dog with an expression of great intelligence, short in body when viewed from above, yet standing over considerable ground for one of his inches upon strong, straight front legs, with wide, muscular quarters suggestive of immense power, especially when viewed from behind. A downward tendency in front he ought not to possess, but should stand well up at the shoulders like the clever little sporting dog that he is. Massive in appearance by reason of his sturdy body, powerful quarters and strong, well-boned limbs he should nevertheless impress one as being a dog capable of considerable speed combined with great powers of endurance and in all his movements he should be quick and merry, with an air of alertness and a carriage of head and stern suggestive of an inclination to work.

DEER PARK COCKERS.

Mr. Lance Farewell, who has the strongest kennel of Black Cockers in America, is now offering the services of no less than six of his stud dogs. These are all pure black dogs and black bred. We undoubtedly have lost ground during the last twenty years in the all-round average quality of our Black Cockers, on the male side especially, and there is an opportunity here for a revival.

If we were going into the breeding of Black Cockers the first thing we would do would be to buy a roomy bitch of undoubted blood lines, even though she were not up to show form. We would breed to the dog of Mr. Farewell's that suited her best and then breed her progeny back to the same blood, possibly even to the same dog. Mr. Farewell is the breeder of the best bitch of the day, Mr. Payne's Now-Or-Never. In reporting the Sporting Spaniels at Mineola Field and Fancy says of her:

"The open class (any color), produced the best bitch of the day, Mr. Payne's Now-or-Never. This name, while possibly indicative of her owner's thoughts shows an element of doubt which seems odd—possibly only a doubt in securing just recognition. Here is a bitch which the American Spaniel Club might well use for a bronze model to perpetuate the memory of another "second-class dog." Such a head and such perfect eyes are rarely seen. Everywhere in this bitch the quality is striking. Seldom in a black Cocker is to be seen such a perfect neck running into clean-cut shoulders, a deep chest, well sprung ribs and firmly knit body; and such legs and feet that one feels that here at last is the ideal Cocker."

The Deer Park Cockers excel in quality and if there is one feature more than another that they are able to produce it is the combination of beautiful, classical, finely chiselled head, eyes, expression, neck, shoulders and front. Inbreeding fixes these points.

FOX TERRIERS NEXT.

For April issue we purpose featuring the Fox Terrier. The standards of the club will be printed in full and much other valuable information on the Fox Terrier. Our front cover page has been already engaged, but if any breeder has a good photo of a good Fox Terrier and will ask us for prices for insertion in April Gazette he will get them by return.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

We did not think that Frank Stuart could keep out of it. Mr. Frank A. Stuart of Montreal, takes the place of Mr. Clapman, retired, on the Executive Committee of the Mount Royal Kennel Club.

In some way the rumor got abroad that Mr. Thos. Moore's, Montreal, great home-bred Wire Fox Terrier, Donington Surprise, had passed in his checks. The dog is as well as ever he was but has his winter clothes on. The dog that Mr. Moore lost was Donington Mabel, in the money at Toronto and other shows. Mr. Moore spent an evening with us recently in Montreal and tells us that he is importing two Wire bitches. In fact one of them is probably in Canada before this. She is eighteen months old and was bred to the the island of Montreal as well as some of the adjoining territory. At a meeting held January 13 at the M.A.A.A. rooms with Mr. J. C. Hanna in the chair, and Mr. "Bob" Ross, acting as Secretary, it was unanimously decided to change the name of the Club to the Mount Royal Kennel Club. Any one who knows anything of Montreal will realize the dignity and far reaching importance of this name. Constitution and by-laws of the Club were read and adopted after presentation to the meeting by the special committee appointed for that purpose. This constitution and by-laws will be found on another page of this issue of Canadian Kennel Gazette. They have been carefully prepared and will serve as a guide to other clubs who may be in the making.

famous Round Up, being due to whelp this month. The other bitch is probably on the way after being bred to one of the best dogs in England.

Mr. Moore is greatly taken just now with a full sister to Donington Mabel that shows great promise. He has a lot of young stuff that is developing nicely. Mr. Moore is seventy-four years old but the years have not dimmed his enthusiasm. He is a regular encyclopedia of Fox Terrier lore.

Mr. Moore informed us that Mr. Thomas of Bulldog fame was off for England.

The kennel club organized at Rockfield, P. Que., has developed into something more extensive, taking in the whole of

The matter of a general show in Montreal was discussed and on motion of Mr. Campbell, seconded by Mr. Dolan, Messrs. Hanna and Stuart were appointed a committee to interview the Montreal Kennel Club in connection with the renting of their benching and to ascertain whether the M. K. C. purpose holding a show or not during the present year. The same committee will also endeavor to locate a suitable place in which to hold a show. They are to report at the next meeting of the club.

Now watch Montreal kennel interests grow!

In this issue will be found two portraits of the sable and white Collies, Imera Peacock and Imera Whyzetta. These

Mr. R. Scott Wilson, of Oakville, Ont., has recently purchased Mr. A. A. Lees' last remaining brace of Bulldogs. The dog, Woodcote Merry Boy, is an imported golden brindle, weighing 44 lbs. He carries a big, deep, square muzzle, very wide underjaw, enormous skull, neat, properly placed ears, with properly shaped body, well sprung ribs and good tail. This dog is in his prime, very active and absolutely sound. He was a frequent winner in England and his breeding goes back to such famous Bulldogs as Ch. Woodcote Chinosol, Ch. Ivel Doctor and other of like kind. He has won frequently in Canada also, being three times placed reserve winners. He is a sure stock getter and is being offered at stud by his new owner.

We might say in passing that he is the grand sire of the famous Ch. Cheetham Squire whose portrait adorned the front page of January Gazette.

The bitch is a heavyweight, Our Mary, imported by Mr. Lees. We hope, the new owner of these dogs may have abundant success with them which is no more than he deserves.

Mr. Wilson is endeavoring to revive the very pleasant outdoor dog shows which were a feature of the Oakville Fair for some years. We hope any of our breeders who can do so will lend him a hand.

Irish Setter breeders in Canada and the United States, who are looking for new blood, or a rejuvenation of blood already in their kennels, should not overlook the Irish Setters, both for field and bench, offered in this issue by Mr. Wall of Milton Mowbray, England. Safe delivery is guaranteed at New York City.

The Canadian National Dog Show, judging by the annual report of the association, turns in quite a tidy sum to the general fund. Admission fees to the dog show amounted to $2,660.95 while entry fees brought in $2,176.25. The admission fees are those to the dog building only, no account being taken of the general admission fee to the grounds of those interested in dogs and who visited the exhibition for the sole purpose of seeing them. On the whole exhibition, the management had a balance of about $40,000 to turn into the city treasury.

At the meeting of the Executive of the C. K. C. held on January 23rd, there was little of importance on the agenda. Mr. Kent was in the chair, other members present being Messrs. Sands, E. T. Campbell, Jacobi, Bain, Farewell, Atkinson, Miles and Swann.

The Secretary reported the receipt of an affidavit from Mr. Tholby and was directed to adjust the wins at Edmonton of the Setters, Tom and Jerry. A lengthy correspondence from Mr. Van Camp re errors in his entries of Griffons at the Canadian National, was referred to Mr. Jacobi who had not seen it before.

Village and St. John, Winnipeg, wrote re specials won by their Fox Terrier, Madison Monarch, at London. A medal claimed to have been won by Monarch had been awarded to Mr. Mewburn's Aldon Mystery. A letter from the judge, Mr. C. H. Mason, was read. In this it stated that Monarch won everything for which he was eligible. Mr. Mason's report of the show to Canadian Kennel Gazette was also put in as evidence. Mr. Hunt, Secretary of the Western Fair, wrote that in the judge's book the medal in question was marked for Aldon Mystery's number. It was decided to write Mr. Mewburn that the medal was plainly won by Monarch and requesting him to forward it to Messrs. Village and St. John, or to the Secretary of the C. K. C.

Mrs. Mathias, Montreal, wrote protesting against undue delay in forwarding of a C. K. C. medal won by her at the Canadian National Show. The Secretary said in explanation, that he had been unable to get the list of winners from the show managers, but that a week ago all the medals offered had been forwarded to Dr. Orr.

On nomination of Mr. Coats, Mr. R. G. Gamwell, Bellingham, Wash., was elected to the Western States Vice-Presidency, made vacant by the death of Mr. Albee.

Correspondence referring to the unfortunate clashing of dates claimed in Toronto by the Toronto Kennel Club and the Ontario Kennel Club was read and very fully discussed. The O. K. C. request for dates was made on November 13, 1912, that of the T. K. C. on December 11, 1912. Mr. Miles on behalf of the O. K. C. stated this date, Good Friday, had always been their show date and they claimed priority.

Mr. Atkinson for the T. K. C. disputed this and was sorry to see the clash. In his opinion Toronto was over clubbed and had too many small shows. He would like to see one big, successful spring show.

Mr. W. M. Coats, Vancouver, B.C., the well known Judge.

Mr. Coats is Secretary of the C.K.C. Pacific Advisory Board.

The committee appointed a sub-committee consisting of Messrs. Kent, Bain and Jacobi to meet committees of two from each club, in the endeavor to arrive at some amicable arrangement.

We hope common sense may prevail and the dog alone be considered. Perhaps a suggestion that we made to Mr. Atkinson and Mr. Miles after the meeting, that a show be held under the joint auspices of both clubs is the best solution. Each club could appoint an equal number on the show committee and each put in an equal fund. We agree with Mr. Atkinson that Toronto has too many clubs and here can be made a beginning to a better end.

"When the old dog barks he gives counsel."

In the meantime the committee decided to lay over both claims.

A large number of new members were received, principally from the Prairie Provinces and British Columbia.

Now that a re-arrangement of the rules governing C. K. C. championships is likely to occur a little discussion on the subject as a whole will not be amiss.

The suggestion that one regulation be that dogs must win their their championships under at least three judges, unless qualified in some way, may be dismissed with little thought. Any show giving club might readily evade this provision by simply reverting to the dual system of judging in vogue some years ago and still in use in show exhibitions of horses and other live animals.

What should championships imply? First, merit (quality). Second, competition. It is acknowledged that no dog should be given a winners prize if he has not merit sufficient to warrant the award. This fact while it cannot be controverted is, we fear, too frequently overlooked by those who officiate as judges.

Education, or instruction, or both should help to cure this but will never do so entirely.

Then we come to competition. Can a dog become "a champion," really and in truth without meeting and beating opponents? Off-hand one might answer "No," but then if the dog has "merit" our first qualification, why should he not get the award due that merit, competition or not.

That points should be governed by the number of dogs in a class, or of a breed, instead of on the total number, all breeds in a show, is no new argument. That those advocating this system have good cause to do so cannot be denied. The C. K. C. had the matter under consideration on more than one occasion, but it was thought that the great mass of detailed work that such a system would entail, was outside the resources of a club limited in income.

Then too it has its drawbacks. One class may have one outstanding dog and a dozen poor ones, another class may have but two, but both of superlative merit. It would be manifestly unfair to penalize the better of the two good ones, and too, as against the one good one in the first lot. If it were wise to do if we might name breeds, even specific cases, but we do not desire to narrow the discussion down to this, unless as a last resource. Possibly a combination of the two systems is feasible if the necessary office work can be overcome. After all is it not true that we get lack to the judge in most cases. Mechanical methods fail in some detail, as they do in other contests.

The English plan of specifying certain shows as "championship shows" has much good in it, but it suits better a compact county, with many shows within a small radius, than it would the widely

BRITISH BREVITIES

A renowned Fox Terrier in Ch. The Sylph, owned by Mr. J. C. Tinney, has passed away at the age of nine and a half years. The Sylph had won no less than 49 firsts, 21 challenge prizes and nearly 100 specials, including the Fox Terrier Club's 50 guinea championship cup, on three occasions, and special for best in show, six times, including Crystal Palace and Birmingham.

Mr. Edgar Allen, in Our Dogs, under the heading of Old English Mastiff Type, gives us a few pointers which will be of value now that there appears to be hope of a possible revival of the breed both in Canada and the United States. Mr. Allen writes, in reply to a previous letter signed "Interested."

"I consider 27 to 29 in. at shoulder blade and standing normal, and 140 to 170 lb. for a bitch, 29 to 32 in. at shoulder for a dog, and 170 to 190 lb. in weight, the best weight and size, the latter applying to a 32 in. dog. Size is nothing unless the "Mastiff's frame" all through is massive.

If "Interested's" dog is only a youngster, 12 to 14 months old, his measurements are not bad, but if fully matured, say three years old, he ought to be 14 stone, and not 11 stone in weight, and at least 30 in. round skull, and as big in proportion all through. For the sake of "Interested" and novices I am giving a brief description of what the breed should be: Head, massive and square; eyes, small, dark, and rather deep set (showing no haw); ears, small and put on high up head; muzzle, thick, short, and square; muzzle, ears, around eyes, and trace black (built practically on the lines of a highland bull); colors, light, apricot, and dark fawn, and brindle.

The chief bad points to steer clear of are: Long narrow heads, pointed muzzles, light eyes, big, bulgy, protruding eyes, badly carried ears, rose ears, or large ears, shelly or long narrow bodies, cracked elbows and pasterns, and cow-hocks, screw, twisted, or coarse tails, splay or hare-footed (they should be cat-like feet). To get the aforementioned sizes at maturity depends on selection of breeding stock, and, above all, proper feeding and exercise to keep them straight on their limbs. I may add, deep red fawns should be looked upon with suspicion."

We are sorry to learn of the death of a member of a great fancier family, the Stretch Bros., a member of whom, Alfred, has just died in his 50th year. Mr. Alfred Stretch was particularly famous in the breeding of pigeons, a very widespread hobby in England.

A couple of beautiful Pomeranian Miniatures have been sold to a wealthy American gentleman by Mr. C. Mitchell, of Bolton, and go with him across the seas. One is by the world-famous Ch. Haughty Prince, and the other is the lovely Westbrook Poppy, the Darwin winner, and a daughter of that grand dog The Orange King of Westbrook.

Mrs. Houlker has purchased from Mrs. Morton her 7½ months chocolate puppy, Daybrook Chocolate Shamrock, that won four 1sts and seven specials in extra large classes at the Manchester Toy Dog Show on Boxing Day. Mrs. Morton considers this puppy easily the best she has ever bred. Mrs. Houlker is sure that her latest purchase, who will be renamed with the Haughty prefix, will go further than any of the four champion chocolates she has had in her kennel. What is an added pleasure, too, is the fact that D. C. Shamrock is descended on his dam's side from her own strain.—Illustrated Kennel News.

The Irish Fox Terrier Club, having its headquarters in Dublin, is getting on by leaps and bounds. The latest members elected are Messrs. G. R. Heaslip and P. J. Brennan (Dublin). This Club dates back to well over twenty-five years ago, and without doubt it has done a lot to promote the welfare of the Fox Terrier in the Emerald Isle. Its hon. secretary, Mr. W. J. McConnell, is most energetic, besides being a most competent official. A member has quite recently presented the Club with a solid silver cup, augmenting the number of cups to six, which are offered at most of the Irish fixtures. The Club being financially strong and the list of members increasing, together with two more cups promised, there is no reason on earth why this Irish body of fanciers should not improve the Fox Terrier in Ireland considerably.—Our Dogs.

Mr. McGugan (Lisburn), of Bulldog renown, informs me that the Great Northern Railway Company, against whom he got the verdict of £125 for the suffocation of Sinclair's Choice, have intimated that they will consent to judgment for that amount with costs, and will not further contest the interesting point of law reserved by the judge at the trial. It is understood that some changes will now be made as to the carriage of valuable dogs by the Irish railway companies. Mr. McGugan has left the Ulster Bank (Lisburn) to take up a valuable post in Dublin under the Scottish Provident Institution.—Our Dogs.

The English Kennel Club authorities evidently believe in being on time for the following is a list of the names of the ladies and gentlemen who have, up to the present, consented to act as judges at the Kennel Club's 58th Show, to be held at the Crystal Palace, Sydenham, on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, October 21, 22, and 23, 1913. They have undertaken not to officiate as judges of the breeds they are taking at the Kennel Club Show at any exhibition prior to October 21, 1913:—

Mr. W. R. Temple—Basset Hounds, Dalmatians, and Italian Greyhounds.

Mr. J. Sidney Turner—Mastiffs, Irish Wolfhounds, Retrievers (Golden), Poodles, and Poodles Miniature.

Major J. H. Bailey—Newfoundlands.

The Hon. W. B. Wrottesley—Great Danes.

Major S. P. Borman—Borzoi.

Mr. F. C. Lowe—Pointers, Setters (English and Black and Tan).

Mr. A. E. Daintree—Setters (Irish).

Dr. George MacGill—Old English Sheepdogs.

Mr. H. Reginald Cooke—Retrievers, (Flat-coated).

Mr. E. C. Spencer—Spaniels (Cocker).

Mr. Robert Tait—Collies.

Mr. Desmond O'Connell—Fox Terriers (Smooth).

Mr. G. O. Spence—Fox Terriers (Wire).

Mr. W. Ely—Bull Terriers.

Mr. T. H. Harris—Sealyham Terriers and Welsh Terriers.

Lord Wrottesley—Dachshunde.

Lady Alexander—Skye Terriers and Clydesdale Terriers.

Mr. H. R. B. Tweed, Scottish Terriers.

Miss C. Rosa Little—Pugs.

Mrs. Horowitz—Maltese.

Mrs. Randall—Yorkshire Terriers.

Hon. Mrs. McLaren Morrison—Toy Spaniels.

Mrs. Frank Pearce—Griffons, Bruxellois.

ACROSS THE LINE

There were about 450 dogs at the Cleveland show, the best in show being the imported Bulldog, Deodora Monarch.

The recent Albany show took in at the gate about $3,000. This should look good for future shows.

Baltimore, Md., dates are April 3-5th. Mr. James Mortimer is the all-rounder, Mr. J. Buchanan taking Bulldogs, Miss Lyda R. Patton, Pomeranians, Mrs. A. L. Holland, Pekingese.

Pittsburg show follows Boston. The show is to be held in the City Hall.

Probably the greatest Scottish Terrier living, Ch. Keppoch Dugald, is being imported from across the water and will be shown at New York and Boston. He is six times an English champion having won eighteen certificates, the last being at the Kennel Club show in October. At the same show 1911, he was reserve for best in show, all varieties. Keppoch Dugald is a five year old black brindle weighing about 22 lbs.

Another famous importation is the Irish Terrier Musbury Demon. He is a winner of eight championships out of nine times tried. He is said to be an absolutely sound coated Irishman, that has never been trimmed to be shown. Our Montreal friend, Mr. Joe Meehan will be interested in knowing that he is a grandson of Ch. Tipperary Tyke, his sire, Botanic Demon, being by this famous dog. With this dog came the winning bitch, Musbury Belle, by Ch. Barlow Brick Bat. Both dogs are three years old and go to the Vic'ery Kennels.

We learn that Mr. Dan Lynn, of Port Huron, is showing heavily at the Westminster Show, New York, seven Wire Fox Terriers of his own breeding. He is so near being a good Canadian that we cannot, even if we willed to, do worse than wish him lots of good luck. We admire a man who stays with the game in season and out of season.

We are sorry to hear of the death of that famous Collie, Ch. Wishaw Clinker, imported by Mr. J. Pierpont Morgan some years ago. He was a tremendous winner in England, Scotland, and America, and was adjudged by some to be the best Collie ever bred. Acute indigestion was the cause of his death which occurred at the Pine Grove Kennels, Little Silver, N.J. Clinker was 14 years old.

Another splendid Collie that has gone is Ch. Squire of Tytton, a portrait of whom appeared on the front page of Canadian Kennel Gazette for November.

Mr. F. H. Farwell, of the Sabine Kennels, will have universal sympathy in the great loss he sustained in the burning of his office building which contained all his kennel records, pedigrees, scrap books, etc., many of which can never be replaced.

Field and Fancy says:

DREAMWOLD AGAIN IN THE FIELD.

A cable has just been received that Mr. Arnold Lawson, who made a flying trip to England a few days ago, has purchased the Bulldogs, Ch. Centaur, Ch. Beaming Blunderbuss, Irish Boy, Newington Supreme, La Juanita and Yelvington Madera. These dogs make up the very cream of the English show bench, and it is without doubt the largest purchase ever made in this breed by a fancier. The acquisition of these dogs will give the American fancy a set of fliers that it is doubtful if England can put out an equal number to beat them, but to England goes the credit of producing them. These dogs, together with the ones already in Dreamwold, will perhaps give Mr. Lawson a stronger kennel of the breed than can be found on either side of the Atlantic.

Ch. Centaur is both a most successful sire and show dog. He is a white and brindle, scaling just under the fifty-pound mark, and during his career has defeated practically every Bulldog in England. Ch. Beaming Blunderbuss is the most sensational winning heavyweight in the past year and has also defeated every dog he has met. He is a massive fawn and acknowledged to possess one of the grandest heads ever seen. Irish Boy is another heavyweight, white and brindle in color, and has had a wonderfully successful show career. La Juanita is a heavyweight brindle bitch, and has proven herself a real flier and a proven breeder. Newington Supreme is a fawn lightweight, and was formerly known as Markham Sandy. He is a very low-swung, massive dog, and a heavy winner. Yelvington Madera is another excellent specimen, with a good show record. These dogs will probably all be entered in the Westminster show, and will add much interest to Bulldog alley.

REPORT OF A. K. C. RULES COMMITTEE.

At a meeting of the Rules Committee held January 3, 1913, present Messrs. George Greer, H. H. Hunnewell, B. S. Smith, and J. E. De Mund, the following, amongst other, amendments to By-Laws and Rules were adopted, and are now referred for action:

Add to Article XI.: "It shall have power to arbitrarily designate such breeds as may have winners classes divided by sex, such breeds as may have mixed winners classes, and such breeds that shall not be entitled to any winners class, until such time as the number of dogs exhibited shall demonstrate that they shall be logically entitled to such classes.

Amendments to the Rules.

Rule XII., Governing Clubs.

Add: "In the case of special prizes offered by others through the Show-giving Club, the Club shall not be responsible unless a claim is filed with said Club within sixty days."

Rule IV., Governing Dog Clubs.

Add: "The License Committee shall have power to arbitrarily designate such breeds as may have winners classes divided by sex, such breeds as may have mixed winners classes, and such breeds that shall not be entitled to any winners class, until such time as the number of dogs exhibited shall demonstrate that they shall be logically entitled to such classes."

Rule XIV. Governing Dog Shows.

Insert after the words, "appointed for that breed," "Unclassified specials shall not be offered at any show (this shall not apply to specials now existing that require more than one win, which may be continued until won)."

Rule XVIII. Insert after the words, "In good standing with the American Kennel Club," "A professional handler shall not be eligible to act as judge." (A professional handler is a person who Handles, Boards, Conditions, or Shows Dogs for money as a means of livelihood.)

Rule XIII. Governing Clubs.

Add: "All specials offered must be described or value stated."

A PAGE FOR LADIES

Edited by a Lady

In looking over the list of New York judges printed in last Gazette, some misconception may arise as to the name of the lady selected to judge French Bulldogs. Though we followed the copy sent us, it should have appeared in somewhat different form. Mrs. Mary Winthrop Turner, the well known owner of the Never-Never Land Kennels, judges the Frenchies at New York, as she did at the K. C. Show, England, a little time ago. We make this correction so that there may be no misconception.

Mrs. Turner is kind enough to send us a number of items referring to French Bulldogs. We had no idea there were so many owned in Canada. The Never-Never Land Kennels recently sold to Mr. Stephen C. Baldwin, Brooklyn, N.Y., one of the best known criminal lawyers in America, and Mayor Gaynor's personal attorney, the year old French Bulldog, Ermine, that has been mated to Ch. Hunks Bequest, whose photograph appears on this page. Ermine has been shown but twice, and in keen competition has annexed five blue ribbons.

Ch. Hunks Bequest, owned by the Never-Never Land Kennels, Shelter Island Heights, New York, N.Y., is a wonderful little, rich, bronze, brindle weighing about twenty pounds. He has a perfect body and tight screw tail. His head, as depicted in his photograph, speaks for itself. He is a litter brother to Ch. Gamin's Riquet, and has sired some phenomenal puppies, including one from the famous Ch. The Dollar Princess, called The Yankee Prince. Others of his progeny are: Hunks Bouffon, Hunks Legacy, Hunks Lady Gay, who is herself the dam of a promising puppy, The Count of Luxembourg, Hunks Tornette and The Yankee Consul. Bequest is quite a young dog right in his prime, having been born Jan. 21st, 1910.

The puppy that Mrs. Turner sold to Mrs. A. G. Halstead of Vancouver, won 1st puppy and went right through to winners at the North Vancouver show. This puppy, Charlemagne of Never-Never Land, was sired by an imported English dog.

Amongst the Frenchies owned in Canada we might mention a seven or eight year old chum of Mr. E. R. Rickett, Vancouver. Miss R. Leigh-Spencer, Vancouver, possesses two and about one dozen other kinds of dogs and several ponies. Mr. H. P. Gorst, Vancouver, owns two fine French Bulls that so far he has not shown. Dr. C. M. Henderson, Vancouver, has owned several Frenchies and is now negotiating for others. Mr. LeFaber, of Vancouver, is a lover of the Frenchies, but has just been unfortunate in losing his Kitsilane. Mr. A. Watson, Vancouver, who used to have a kennel of Bostons, in fact still owns some of this breed, is thinking of taking up French Bulldogs also. Then we know there are several owned in Montreal and other places and there must be some in Hamilton, the result of Mr. Carley's breeding operations.

In writing us, expressing satisfaction with the French Bulldog puppy she received from Mrs. Turner, and with Mrs. Turner's method of shipping, Mrs. W. D. Chisholm of Wellington, Ont., asks if there is a French Bulldog Club in Canada. There is not, nor do we think the fancy is yet strong enough for such an institution. We would suggest to Mrs. Chisholm that she become a member of the French Bulldog Club of America or the Toy Dog Club of Canada, or indeed why not both?

The path of specialty journals on this side of the water has never been one of roses still this is no reason why the "French Bulldog," an illustrated, monthly periodical, devoted to promote the welfare of French Bulldogs, and under the auspices of the French Bulldog Club of America, should not be a success. The French Bulldog is growing amazingly in popularity, and it is generally found in the hands of those who do not suffer from a lack of the where-with-all that makes one's hobby easily attainable. The first copy of the new journal is to be issued this month, and its production is placed in experienced hands. Mr. O. F. Vedder is the editor, and his address is 1 Liberty St., Room 1706, New York City.

We are sorry to learn of the serious loss sustained by Mrs. Matthias of Montreal. This lady has been unfortunate enough to lose by death, an excellent bitch from her famous litter of Russian Wolfhounds. Another of the litter, we understand, has strained badly one leg, if indeed it is not broken.

We must admire the pluck of Miss Rosalie Stewart, who sued the American Kennel Club for $30,000 and received a verdict of $10,000 damages. We understand the case is to be appealed. In 1908 Miss Stewart was exhibiting at dog shows for various patrons and writing for Field and Fancy. She became engaged in a dispute with the Toy Spaniel Club and was expelled. It is alleged that without giving Miss Stewart an opportunity of defending herself or even affording her a hearing the A.K.C. suspended her and about the same time, it is also alleged, the American Kennel Gazette, the official organ of the Club, circulated charges reflecting upon Miss Stewart's handling of money for the Toy Spaniel Club. Hence the suit and verdict as noted.

Tuxedo Kennels of New York have purchased the Pomeranian, Little Grist, which Mrs. Carlin brought over with her. Little Grist is a deep chocolate weighing three pounds and was a big winner in England. We understand he is to be shown at the Westminster.

The Pomeranian Show exceeded all expectations. It looks as though we were better guessers than Mr. Stock-Keeper. No less than one hundred and fifty-four dogs were entered of which a very small percentage were absent. Mr. Reuben Clarke was judge. The recent importation, Banner Admiral, took the cup for Best in show, the reserve winner in dogs being Wee Oliver. In the opposite sex, Ch. Little Sally Lynd, an American bred, defeated all comers, while Horwych Beauty was the runner up.

By the way Mrs. Matthias will be sorry to hear of the death in England of Ch. Ramsden Rajah, the grand sire of her Borzoi puppies. He was six years old and had a very brilliant show record. Amongst other prizes he won was the National prize for best in show any breed, at Birmingham, 1910.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

scattered shows of the Dominion. Perhaps it is un-Canadian too, in that every show is as good as every other show, in a way, as every man in Canada is as good as his neighbor. After all some geographical adjustment may prove fairest in the end. The idea of having to purchase a trophy once won, is, we must admit, obnoxious to us. It doesn't seem to spell s-p-o-r-t. If necessary to finance we prefer getting down to a championship medal.

Finally the Canadian Kennel Gazette opens its pages to discussion of the subject, pro and con. "Come on in, the water is fine."

There are no less than twenty valuable cups, as well as numerous specials, offered at the second annual show of the Saskatchewan Kennel Club, to be held at Moose Jaw, February 25-28. Moose Jaw has one of the best show buildings in Canada, it is steam heated and has ample room for every dog that may be sent. The judges are Mr. F. W. Welsh of Vancouver, who will take all Terriers, and Mrs. Chas. Wright, formerly of Rochdale, England, who will take all other breeds. Mr. Chas. W. Twaites, Moose Jaw, is Secretary, and Mr. W. Parkinson, Superintendent. Both these gentlemen are looking forward to a record entry for Saskatchewan and we have no doubt that Western dog men will see that they get it.

Mr. R. A. Richardson, Chatham, Ont., has imported the Beagle, King Opal, a field trial winner of excellent type, and field trial bred for four generations. Mr. Richardson is offering the dog at stud and will be glad to send stud card with photo and pedigree.

Just as we go to press we are sorry to hear of the death of Forbes R., Mr. Lance Farewell's famous Black Cocker sire. The good ones grow fewer.

We are sorry to hear that Mr. Harry P. D. Walker, Calgary, is compelled to go to the Coast for a few weeks on account of his health. Some of Mr. Walker's dogs have been boarded out, the others being left in Mrs. Walker's very capable hands. Amongst the lot there is one sensational Smooth haired puppy, by the late Madison Monarch, that it is hoped will make history. He has been called Whinstone Monarch.

Mr. E. Wrightson Thorp has left Okotoks, Alta., for Medicine Hat, where he goes into stock raising on a considerable scale.

Mr. E. N. Barker, Cardston, Alta., is well known to the most of us. Personally we have known him for twenty or twenty-five years. He is advertising for money to be loaned on good first mortgages in the West. Mr. Barker is conservative and careful and investors will be safe in his hands.

The fifth annual volume of the breeders and exhibitors of Dogs Guide Book and Directory for 1913 is now ready and a copy has reached us. This is an invaluable compendium of what has taken place during the past year in the United States and has countless other features. There are nearly three hundred pages in the 1913 directory, the price being but one dollar. The compiler is Mr. F. J. Skinner of Field and Fancy, New York.

To save disappointment correspondents writing Mr. Bob Ross should send letters to Ville Ste. Pierre, near Montreal, P. Que., while telegraph and express matters should go to Rockfield Station, P. Que.

We are glad to hear from Mr. Geo. J. Dyke of Vancouver, that he is still interested in Cockers. The Cocker fancy in Canada is on the wane and "Canada's national dog" will need all the uplift it can get to bring it back to its old place.

It is with a good deal of pleasure that we learn from "C. W. D.'s" notes that the two big clubs in Toronto have come together and will probably arrange to hold a big joint show in Toronto at Easter. Now for a hummer!

Mr. Walter Sands does not take long in making up his mind in letting the public in on a good thing. His recent wire importation, Broadway Cackler, (late Duskey Jacko), is offered at stud in this issue and at the very small fee of ten dollars too. Mr. Francis Redmond's description of the dog is given in the ad. and Mr. Redmond should know. We saw him at the Terrier Show, and took him to be a stud dog that would imprint his good head qualities, harsh coat and beautiful front on his sons and daughters.

He is beautifully bred and should do his owner and others who use him much good. The neat photo adorning his stud announcement is quite typical of Cackler.

Then Mr. Sands is offering another good wire and also a smooth at fees that should be attractive.

March Canadian Kennel Gazette will be largely devoted to New York show reports. Every exhibitor at New York will get a copy.

In Our Dogs the Bulldog expert of that paper, Mr. C. Jemmett-Brown, gives as his opinion that Ch. Centaur is the nearest to perfection of any Bulldog living. The same gentleman writes enthusiastically about the other members of the new Dreamwold team. How much good will they do us on this side of the water?

THE AIREDALE IN THE WEST

I notice in Gazette an article called, The Airedale in Canada. In reply to this I may say that the Airedale is one of the dogs that is making fast and big strides in our Western country. To my knowledge there are breeders in the following towns: Yorkton, Canora, Saskatoon, Edmonton, Prince Albert, Regina, Albernethy. So you will see that the Airedale is well represented in our Western territory. The reason why is that he is one of the best of dogs that any person, or persons, can own. Gentle, kind, and when wanted, is always ready to do his duty, as a dog, to his master or home. Also a dog that takes the least of training for he is the most, or one of the most, intelligent dogs that are in use to-day for all purposes, hunting, a good watch dog, kind and gentle to all his friends, but very suspicious towards strangers, takes little notice of them, or as one may say treats them all with contempt, till he is fully acquainted. He will not allow too many privileges around his home.

As a hunting dog, he is the best. I will just give you a brief outline of some of our days duck and partridge shooting with an Airedale, Yorkton Major.

The photos will show you Yorkton Major and Yorkton Molly waiting in the rig to go for a hunt. We left town about 10 a.m. to start south for a day's duck and partridge shoot, and had to drive some eight or ten miles. However, we landed at our place to shoot and then awaited a flight of ducks. The dogs sat by our sides to await the victims of our guns, and by the early part of the afternoon some thirty had fallen in response to our guns. These ducks were all retrieved by our Airedales. Some the dogs had to swim a considerable distance to get. On one occasion three fell wounded, Major swam out taking the first and killed it, then No. two got the same treatment, then went after No. three and retrieved them all. So you will clearly see that the intelligence of an Airedale is by no means short of their ability.

It would be useless for me to relate to you all our shooting trips with him. Partridge shooting is his delight, he hunts for days and never gets tired, or indifferent. In partridge shoots we found out that without an Airedale, it was no sport, for Major works in perfect silence, never gives tongue, trees a partridge, or locates one. He stands at what one may call attention and just whines till your attention is called. Then stands till you shoot and tell him to go. Like a flash he is off and your bird is at your feet in a moment, not torn, or chewed up, but just as the bird fell from the damage done by your shot.

We once had Molly out on a rabbit hunt and she showed wonderful skill and ability in both scenting and tracking, also in killing. She worked neat and clean, kills without spoiling the rabbit and is not a bit gun shy. If an Airedale is gun shy, he is no use and never will be.

As a watch dog the Airedale cannot be beaten. To see them around one not acquainted with the breed would say, "The homely thing," but let the same man try to take a liberty, or pick something up, and see how the "homely thing" knows his business and also does his duty.

I may say train an Airedale to do your wants, guard your home, protect your property, take care of your children, and he will be far better than a man, for no stranger will pass him by and no money will bribe him. The only thing a man with bad intentions will have to do, will be do for your Airedale first, and then do his other work after.

I have supplied Airedales to farmers and got the best of results from them, for cattle and sheep dogs, so they are useful on the farm also.

It is not a good policy to let a good Airedale run the streets. Keep them at home. Let the poor class of dog run the street, and in this way it keeps the respect of the breed in a better class. Take him with you and show him to advantage. If it comes down to a fight he will show himself to advantage, for if any dog can take care of himself, an Airedale can, and all that is trusted to his care, always ready to do his duty, when called upon.

COMPLIMENTS, HISTORY AND AIREDALES

That the work which this paper is doing in advancing the interests of the various breeds of show dogs is not unappreciated is indicated by the following letter from a leading Western breeder of Airedales in the States, Mr. Geo. F. Downer, of Butte, Mont., who writes:—

"I certainly must congratulate you on the great work you are doing with the Canadian Kennel Gazette, or rather, as an Airedale breeder, I must congratulate the members of that fancy on having so valuable an ally as the December issue of the Gazette shows you to be. It was certainly a most creditable number. My own relations with members of the Canadian fancy have been most pleasant, and I might almost say that they started me off in the game, for my first good stud, Kootenai Admiral, was a Canadian-bred, which I bought from Mr. S. Black, of Toronto, who called him Lakeview Admiral, and did quite a bit of winning with him as a puppy at your shows there. Admiral, who was by Commodore of Clipstone, had the grandest coat and color, and the blackest eyes I ever saw, and was a perfect "pal." I raised a number of good winners by him and eventually sold him to a gentleman by whom his many noble traits were appreciated, and who felt the loss very deeply when this grand dog was caught on a trestle near his home by a passing train and suffered a tragic death, jumping to the rocks below. Later I got his half brother, Lakeview Clipstone Pride, also by Commodore, from Mr. Alley of this city, who bought him, also, from Mr. Black. Clip, as we call him, is the sire of my young winner, Ch. Kootenai Chinook, that has recently been doing a good bit of winning over in British Columbia, where I have had him since September. Chinook was the winner of all his classes, including winners dogs, at these recent shows—Victoria, Vancouver and North Vancouver K.C., and at the last named show was made the best dog or bitch of any breed in the show. The first litter that he sired over there numbered 12, 8 dogs, which certainly is not bad. From a youngster, which I have here by Chinook, sired when he was only about 9 months old, I am convinced that he has a great future before him as a sire.

Endcliffe Performer is another dog that will soon "come into his own" as a sire, I am sure. The first of his get to be exhibited in this country was a bitch owned by Mr. McConnell, of North Vancouver, that at their show in the Vancouver Horse Show Building Dec. 7, went straight through from puppy to winners, when exactly 6 months, 7 days old. I have a litter sister to this bitch which I secured from Mr. McConnell while in Vancouver last summer, that is going to do some winning, also, while I have a brace by Performer, out of a local bitch here, a dog and a bitch that will make the boys put their pets down right to beat them this spring. Both are jet black and tan, with perfect little ears, jet black eyes and faultless fronts, together with ample bone and style.

A good many Canadian breeders in the Northwest are writing me regarding service to my various dogs and I am sure that, but for the distance and certain minor annoyances regarding the customs, I should get many more. As it is, we have recently bred, among others, the great bitch, Ch. Killarney Queen, from Vancouver, to Elrue Monarch, and from this mater there should result some winners to make the going good in the Northwestern provinces, in a year or so. I consider Queen the best bitch I have ever seen and this takes account of some good ones, among others my own Ch. Endcliffe Radiance and Ch. Clipstone Sunbeam, mentioned by Mr. Thorpe in your last issue. By the way, it was not Endcliffe Radiance but her daughter, Ch. Kootenai Radiance, that Sunbeam beat at Spokane in October. I have a daughter of Sunbeam and Admiral of which I expected great things as a show bitch, but a kennel fight last week, which resulted in the loss of about half her ear, has probably ended that hope, though it is a little early yet to say just how she may come out. She is a game one and held her own well against half a dozen older dogs, even after she lost her ear, or a big piece of it. I was away at the time and it fell upon my wife to stop it but she did not discover the fight until the damage was done.

Another Butte fancier who got his start from Mr. Black's stock is my friend, Mr. James G. Keefe, of the Mountain View Kennels. He bought from Mr. Black the dam of Admiral and mated her to another which Mr. Black had sold him, Lakeview Ballochmyle, getting a dog, Mountain View Bally Tip, that he did a good deal of winning with and a great worker. Tip had the best pair of ears I have ever seen, a point which he transmitted to his stock, to a great degree. He was recently killed by a grizzly somewhere in the Canadian Northwest, where he was being used by a professional hunter from Butte. Recently Mr. Keefe has imported a number of good ones from England, including Tintern Daisy, Deswood Diamond and Deswood Despot. He was so unfortunate as to lose Diamond's litter by Ch. Midland Royal, which were whelped during an unusually cold spell here, Christmas Day. I have so far, had better luck with my own latest importation, the bitch, Northern Duchess, which I got from Mr. Herbert Croft, of Bradford. Duchess whelped 6 lusty youngsters on New Year's Day, that are by Ch. Watlands Marvel, and of course, we think them all marvels, as a matter of course. Too young to tell anything about, but a nicer looking lot of baby pups I never saw. Four are males. Duchess, barring accidents, will be shown through the Northwestern circuit this spring.

If all goes well, I hope to show a string at the spring shows in British Columbia, as well as the States, something I have not yet done, though I have exhibited about everywhere else in the West and I tried it back East this last summer with Chinook, who finished his championship there."

DELAYED WHELPING.

I received your sample copy for October. I like it very much. Enclosed find my subscription for $1.00. Could you please send me the two back numbers for November and December. I read in your October number that the November would be on Collies so I would like it very much, as I am greatly interested in Collies.

On December 23 I had a Collie bitch whelp five puppies. Unfortunately they were all frozen. On Dec. 25 the same bitch whelped seven more puppies. I kept all the dogs out of the second lot. I intend to put an ad. in your paper in the spring.

Chas. Muller.

Brandon, Man.

At a recent meeting of the Western Canada Kennel Club, Winnipeg, the following resolution was passed:

"That in the opinion of this Club, the suggested changes in the championship rules of the C.K.C., requiring a championship to be won under three different judges is a hardship so far as the West is concerned, but in view of the large shows held in this city, that the Club would rather submit to an increase, of say one hundred, in the number of dogs required at a Winnipeg show. That the suggested payment for championship cups be not pressed by the C.K.C. Executive, and that the Secretary of this Club, forward a copy of this resolution to the Secretary of the Canadian Kennel Club, as soon as this Club is asking for its opinion regarding the proposed changes."

there was competition. This idea seemed to appeal to the meeting as being a step in the right direction and the member who made the suggestion was asked to further outline the suggestion. He pointed out, that to carry out such a scheme, the points for a championship would need to be raised or the required number of dogs at a show would need to be increased, before bonus points could be given. In either case the effect would be the same, but supposing it had been decided to raise the number of points required, then each winner would be credited with the number of points that the number of dogs benched earned, and in breeds where at least ten were benched the winner to be credited with an extra point or where at least twenty were benched to be credit-

The unfairness of comparing Western conditions with Eastern, was referred to by another member. He pointed out the short distances between shows in the East, and the number that one could take in with little discomfort to the dog, in the way of length of time in a travelling crate, and the small expense and loss of time to the owner in attending personally. In the West it was not so. Shows are far apart and do not follow each other closely enough to make a circuit. Local exhibitors start the season with Lethbridge and back home, next to Calgary and back, then comes the home show of the Canadian Industrial, and after this to Edmonton. They have been to four shows, ran up against four different judges, travelled about six thousand miles, and the added express charges are $27.50 per hundred pounds. The

The discussion which followed, failed to bring out any instances of so called "cheap championships" at Western shows, in breeds that usually have any competition, and it was felt that to act along the lines that have been talked of by the C.K.C., would mostly reflect upon the breeds that are now making our shows and competition. The feeling of the meeting inclined towards, rather assisting the well represented breeds and not encouraging the one dog in a class, by giving him the same number of points that the dog with much competition had. It was suggested that winners be withheld from any breed in which there were not at least three entries. The unfairness of this is quite apparent, as the breed might contain the champion of the show, and in any case the withholding of any award, always has the appearance of lack of merit. The exhibitor sends his dog in good faith and prepared to meet all comers, so should receive the full award. As an alternative, it was suggested to bonus the dog that had fought its way to winners by competition, by giving extra points to those breeds in which ed with an extra two points. The question of the number of points required, the bonusing points and the number in competition, would have to be carefully considered to get it on a fair basis. By the raising of the number of points it would make it impossible to win a championship at two shows and this would in the majority of cases mean three different judges. It would not have the effect of keeping at home a possible entry because the judge on a former occasion had given it points, and thus allow, perhaps an inferior dog to get the points. This would be arriving at the same results without making it compulsory. The member referred to that seemed to him to be something that the kennel club should not encourage and by way of explaining himself pointed out, that the continuous jumping from one judge to another, was not helpful to the beginner. At one show we find a judge taking one type, the next week at another show, we find a second judge taking an entirely opposite type, and the week after we find a third judge mixing the two together and getting both types. The novice or beginner asks, Who is reference to "cheap championships" could only mean that dogs were winning that were not worthy and these are the dogs that action should be taken against. If the dog was worthy of the honor, the sooner he was helped to it the better. The best of them are not lasters or everlasting, so let him get it during his early career, so that he may enjoy the full benefit. The honor of the win is the dog's and only the owner's through being the owner. It seems foolish to try and settle this point on a basis of the quality of Western dogs being on a par with the East. We have, possibly, (in some breeds) as good dogs in the West as in the East, the only difference being that they have ten to one that we have.

The question of the giving of a winter show was discussed, but as the Club could not secure a suitable building a motion was passed authorizing the Executive to give a show as soon as suitable quarters could be obtained. The Executive have since met, and the President reported having secured the premises known as the Terminal Curling Rink, corner of Main and Water Streets. This building was formerly the landing station of the Canadian Northern Railway. The last full week in April has been selected as dates and within the next few days, work will begin on prize lists, and other details.

Mr. J. C. Fletcher, Winnipeg's well known handler, has recently completed the purchase from E. Wrightson Thorp of Okotoks, Alta., the Airedales, Poms., Scotties and Yorkshires, that have been so successful in the hands of the owner of the Clipstone Kennels. We are informed that the Airedales go to Mr. A. P. Mutchmor, who will henceforth have a try out with the Airedale men as well as with Smooth Fox Terriers. There are five Airedales, including that sterling young dog, that we have heard so much of, Clipstone First Shot, his dam, Clipstone Betty ex. Clipstone Sunshine, and three bitch puppies (April 1912), ex. Clipstone Betty by Ch. King Oorang. Two of the latter are very promising and will no doubt be heard from. First Shot has only been shown twice and on both occasions went to winners, got Grand Championships of one show, Reserve Championship at the other, best Airedale and best Terrier (all breeds) at both shows. The Poms include White Hope, the winner at the New York Pom show and his dam, Lily White, and in the Scotties we find the bitch that looked so good at Calgary last summer. The Yorkshires include Mr. Thorp's good brood bitch and two of her puppies. Mr. Thorp did not usually keep any poor ones around him and the purchasers are to be congratulated on being able to induce him to dispose of the lot. This will strengthen Winnipeg's string for the show fixtures, this coming season.

Mr. Fletcher advises us that he has clients for good braces of Wire Hairs and Irishmen and hopes to find what he wants before the show season starts.

Winnipeg has recently imported from England, two Clumber Spaniels. The owner intends booming the breed in the West as he thinks them most suitable for a hunting dog for Western hunters.

Brandon is organizing a kennel club and will give a show in connection with the Dominion Fair to be held there this summer. This will be a big drawing card as it is within easy shipping distance of Winnipeg, and the Western dogs on their way back home can stop off for another show.

Fargo, N.D., Show, Jan. 17th

The annual winter show of the North Dakota Kennel Club, Fargo, closed this evening and was a great success both socially and financially. The Club must be a most popular one, judging from the daily attendance and the number of special prizes donated by the citizens.

Dr. Geo. W. Clayton, of Chicago, judged all breeds and that in a most painstaking manner. Every dog was carefully gone over and being a veterinarian, the unsound dog had a poor chance with him. I did not hear one word of complaint nor was his judgment questioned in any award, and from the number of shows I have attended in the last few years, this seemed a change in the right direction.

The Executive Officers of the Club are all workers and this in a great measure accounts for the success of the show.

Winnipeg sent 26 dogs with "yours truly" in charge. Thanks to the Executive of the Club, the trip seemed more like a holiday outing than the usual grind of handling a lot of dogs at a show, and with the exception of the loss of sleep (I don't think they ever do sleep in Fargo), it was with a feeling of much regret, that I packed up my exhibits, and came away home to thirty below.

The conduct of the show could not be improved upon and everything moved along, just as ordered.

I did not have as much time as I would have liked to take notes on all of the two hundred and odd dogs benched, and the best in the classes was about all I had time to go over. Dr. H. D. Smith and Mr. V. C. Kobold came from Winnipeg and stayed through the show.

St. Bernards, the first breed to parade, brought out an exceptionally good one in Bruce the Second. A fine upstanding dog excelling in head properties and bone and a good mover. He stood out from the others shown and went to winners easily.

Only two Great Danes entered but both of these quite above the average. In Russian Wolfhounds the winner, Ch. Odin of Roseau, is too well known to need mention, but he had to show for all that was in him to keep the blue from Duke of Zarani, which will be heard from as he matures. Greyhounds found nothing startling, the two shown being too coarse all over. In Foxhounds, the class called for American and caught the Winnipeg entry with too much English. Molly, a nice sort went to winners. Pointers were a very strong class and a good lot shown, winners dogs, Ch. Prince Cash, looking as good as ever, and with the exception of being a shade short in muzzle, a hard one to fault. In bitches, Lue Pearlstone, won out handily with Noodles and Ch. Rodon Dos Prairie Queen fighting it out for second place, the former catching the judge's eye and decision. English Setters were much above the average usually seen. The winner, Count Kem, a very stylish dog afterwards took the Championship of the Show. Winners bitches went to Belle, a splendid bitch. We shall hear from her again. In Gordon Setters, Buster, looked the best of a fair lot. Sport had an easy time in annexing winners for Irish Setters and the best that could be said of him was his color. Julius was quite the best of a small class of Chesapeake Bay Dogs but not enough finish for the show ring. In Cocker Spaniels we found the winning dog in Rellimderf Rube, a cobby little parti-color, little heavy in head but quite the best. Rellimderf Ruth, the winners bitch is an attractive one, typical, but not quite so straight in front as we like to see them. Devonshire Harker was the only Beagle to put in an appearance of the three entered, and would hold his own with the best of them. Collies were a large class there being 24 benched. The winning dog, Ellwyn Bummer, with the exception of being a little out of coat, could be found little fault with, and is a big winner on this side of the line. The Winnipeg entry, Weston Master Sample, was reserve winners, and being only a nine months' puppy he did all that could be expected of him. In bitches it was quite evident that the winner, Ellwyn Fair Ellen, was not born on a Friday, catching the Winnipeg entry, Weston All Quality, on an off day. The train journey and strange place seemed to count against the nine months' puppy, Quality, and she did not do herself justice. Ch. Brockley Jumbo looked after the Poodle classes. In Bulldogs the quality was hardly on a par with the quantity. Tommy Burns, a nice cobby bodied little dog, good front and head and as sound as a bell, was the best there and winners bitches went to Herlett Foam, a good headed one, with a good front but too long in body. Airedale Terriers, found the new addition to Winnipeg's ranks going to winners. Clipstone First Shot, the best that has been seen up this way for many moons, won from the celebrated Tintern Flint, the Chicago entry. The latter's kennel mate, Ayreloom, won in bitches. These three were all "hot stuff" and made a good showing. Clipstone First Shot won special for best Airedale, and reserve championship of show. Bull Terriers were not quite up to the Fargo standard so far as numbers went. Ch. Gordon of Belmont, the best dog there, went to winners easily, with the good little bitch, Rellimderf Willowdale Bloom, from the same kennel, doing the trick in the bitch classes. Special for best Bull Terrier went to Gordon of Belmont. Boston Terriers were a strong class, Bingo being found the best dog, with Tess the winning bitch. The latter was put down in the best of shape and her ring manners were without fault. Smooth Fox Terriers found Ch. Warren Vehement going to winners dogs with his kennel mate, Garry Masterpiece, reserve. In bitches, Garry Maybloom got winners followed by Garry Merry Girl as reserve. Winnipeg contributed the only entry in Wires in Donington Princess, a nice bitch and well put down. Only one entry in Irish Terriers but Auchearnie Baillie, looked quite capable of taking care of highest honors in the best of good company. A nice dog and quite up to the standard usually seen carrying the prefix of our old friend, the late Alex. Smith. Skye Terriers found Sandy Macpherson alone but from the looks of him competition would not trouble him much. In Pomeranians, Johnny Boy, a nice chocolate dog got winners and Bonnally Tina also a chocolate, winners bitches. Mink disposed of the White English Toy Terrier classes. In my mind he could trouble the best of them but would have to be entered in a class for Toy Bull Terriers.

ANOTHER DOG LOST, WITH A ? ON THE LOST.

Enclosed you will find $1.00 bill for one year's subscription to the Canadian Kennel Gazette starting from December. I had the December issue loaned me by a friend and as the Airedale is my favorite dog I would like to have that particular copy.

I notice in that same issue Capt. Stirling, of Kentville, N.S., lost two Field Spaniels between Red Deer, Alta., and Montreal. Strange to say he shipped me a promising young bitch out of Clonmell Vesta, C.K.C. 13159, by one of England's prominent young dogs, namely, Clonmell Chorister, and she has never reached me. She arrived in Winnipeg o.k., but got out of the crate in the C.P.R. sheds. My opinion is she was taken out of the crate, as in the past month quite a considerable number of Airedales have been lost and never heard of. I have at present a promising young dog by Vickery Storm King.

Permit me to congratulate you on your December issue, as it is the first number I have seen of your paper, and hope that it will always forge ahead and be the foremost "doggy" paper of Canada.

Yours truly,

A. Smith.

Winnipeg, Man., Jan. 6, 1913.

(The C.P.R. apparently has a lot of keen fanciers on its staff.—Ed.)

SOMETHING DOING IN ST. JOHN.

I have been talking to some of our boys. They were much pleased to see the Standard of the Airedale in the last issue, and I have stated that it would be followed from time to time, no doubt, with other Standards. (One each issue.—Ed.) You might send a copy of the January number to each of the following, from whom I will be sure to get a subscription on my return. I have no time to see them for collection to-day. Dr. Wh. Simon, Conway & Monohan, Geo. P. Allan, Chas. Conway, Jas. H. Pullen, and Mrs. R. L. Johnson.

On my return I will send you a money order for the amount of above.

Wishing you success, I remain,

Yours as ever,

Tom McCullough.

St. John, N.B., Jan. 13, 1913.

Delighted to see "the Maritimes" taking their proper place.—Ed.

COCKERS SELLING.

I shipped a young red bitch to San Francisco last week and a parti-color bitch goes to Winnipeg this week. I have had good results from the Canadian Kennel Gazette, have had a great many enquiries and in the majority of cases have closed sales. I had no idea the Gazette covered so much territory.

Yours truly,

W. J. Jackson.

Hamilton, Ont., Jan. 13, 1913.

NOTES FROM NEW BRUNSWICK.

A valuable English Bulldog bitch, Silver Rosa, owned by W. W. Laskey, of Fredericton, died during the last week in January, after presenting her owner with seven puppies by Silver Reflex, none of which lived. Silver Rosa was imported from England by Mr. Laskey three years ago, and succeeded in winning the silver cup for the best Bulldog in the Ottawa Show of 1911. Mr. Laskey is thinking seriously of importing another still better and the fanciers are hoping that he will have the good fortune which he deserves, in having her with him for many years.

The Misses Sturdee, of St. John, are elated over a Christmas box they received recently, an Airedale Terrier, Loyalist Tim, which was purchased from the Colne Kennels, Montreal. The little fellow is six months old and is by Ch. Colne Rockley Oorang, ex. Colne Mistress Freeman Terror and looks good to the fancy of "the Winter port."

Mr. Thomas McCullough, St. John, informs us that his Irish Setter bitch, Molly Grand, by Ch. Royal Grand has had a visit from the American imported Barney, owned by Chas. Conway, which was the winner of the sweepstakes at the last local show. There will be some class in Irish Setters at the next St. John show.

COCKER CLUBS.

The Cocker Spaniel Club, whose Secretary is Mr. Wilson Bailey, Factoryville, Pa., is an active exponent of the "merry Cocker." This club offers many valuable trophies for competition by its members.

The Cocker Club of Canada, does not, as far as we can learn, seem just now to be actively engaged in pushing the merits of the dog that gives it its name. This is written before the proposed annual meeting, perhaps the Club may take on new life then.

Toronto Kennel Club Monthly Show

The Toronto Kennel Club held their third monthly show of the Winter series on January 28th, in the Occident Hall, before a capital attendance, amongst which there was a good sprinkling of the fair sex, who seem to be taking a bigger interest than ever in the dog shows.

There were some capital dogs shown especially in Bulldogs. H. A. Wilson showed an ideal pair of Bull puppies, one nine months old, who is making up fine, and a three months old bitch pup which is just chock full of promise. She stood in the ring like an old veteran. You might think Mr. and Mrs. Wilson were not proud of them, well, you should have seen them, that's all. The Committee had everything in fine order, and the way the shows are growing leaves no doubt that the T. K. C. will have to get larger rooms in

NEW SABINE STUD DOGS

Reference to our usual advertisement reveals five new Terriers that we shall attempt to describe.

SABINE RED GEM

Whelped in November, 1910, by Briar St. Frusquin—by Briar St. Simon—by Ch. Leander; dam, Bingham Floss, by Philip Christian.

RED GEM—Tan head, and white body; weighing twenty-two pounds. He owns a head nine inches long, absolutely devoid of weakness or cheekiness. A muzzle well rounded, with powerful jaws, dark eyes, little ears and beautiful expression. His neck is long, and let into perfect shoulders, well placed. In bone, legs and feet he cannot be improved upon. While he is large and owns a very long head, he has a short back, well sprung ribs, and those beautiful hindquarters so hard to get on Fox Terriers. Our description may be enthusiastic, but from his first litter we have a bitch to be shown later, that proves no mistake was made in buying him. While he is tan-marked, the tracing of his pedigree for five generations reveals but one similarly marked, and that is Baby Donzel, three generations removed on his dam's side. A sound Terrier, and one that should be used, as freely as we are ourselves.

SABINE RIGOUR

Whelped in May, 1909, by Bramcote Courtier—by Ch. Dukedom; dam, Ivyford—by Oxonian.

RIGOUR is a black-marked dog, heavily ticked. He comes of vigorous stock, his sire being a very successful show and stud dog in England and acknowledged to be about the best headed dog seen in years. RIGOUR is a bit large, but for top, shoulders, bone, legs and feet, he is the equal of Red Gem, while little could be desired in body and quarters. His coat is perfect, and he is transmitting his good qualities to his puppies.

SABINE RINGMASTER

Whelped December 25th, 1911, by Sabine Reckoner, ex. Ch. Sabine Fernie.

It is only necessary to say that he is the same breeding as the International Champion, SABINE FOREVER, later litter. Barring accident, RINGMASTER will be shown later, so all we care to say at present is, he is a black-headed chap, marked on body like his dam. Is worthy of the name, and we are proud of him. His first litter arrived a few days ago, and his latest mating was to a Michigan bitch. We expect great things of this dog.

SABINE REGATTA

Whelped in February, 1912, by Ch. Sabine Reckoner, ex. Sabine Foister—by Result.

His markings and general make-up stamp him a facsimile of his illustrious sire. As he will also be shown later, we can only say he is worthy of our prefix, and is expected to equal his sire at stud. Held back from the Northern Winter, we are using him, and from indications won't be disappointed.

SABINE REGULATOR

Whelped in August, 1911, by Sabine Rajah ex. Sabine Floville.

Black head and body markings. REGULATOR is Rajah's best son, and, barring he is a trifle over size, there is little fault to find. His head is over eight inches long, without any weakness in muzzle or jaw. Very dark eyes, long neck; with the shoulders, legs and feet and bone of a Foxhound. Wonderful ribs and very compact body. Hindquarters and set-on of stern to suit the most critical. In short, he is an improvement on his sire, and suits weak-faced, thin-boned bitches.

The rest of our stud dogs are well known. Extended pedigrees furnished on application.

Final silver medal for best in show, 1 Ch. Cheetham Squire.

T. K. C. NOTES.

Mr. T. Harlow, Toronto, has got a litter of Wire Haired Fox Terriers, three dogs and one bitch by his Rol-leston Jack out of his imported bitch, Rolleston Honeysuckle, which are, to use his own words, the best litter of puppies he has seen for a long time.

Mr. Walter Sands, the Fox Terrier expert of Toronto, has had the mis-fortune to lose his well known Broad-way Double, of jaundice, at the age of six years. He was a big winner when at his prime under all the leading judges. He was sired by Broadway Briar who was imported from Mr. Redmond's kennels.

Mr. Sand's recent importation from Mr. Redmond, Broadway Cackler, is a younger brother of the late King Ed-ward's dog, Caesar. He took winners at the recent Joint Terrier Association Show, when only two days out from England, which speaks well for his quality. While in England he was a winner at Glossop and at Cheltenham, the latter by the way is the largest Terrier show in the world.

Sharpe Bros., Toronto, are at the present time the owners of a very fine litter of Smooth Fox Terriers number-ing five. These are vouched for by such an expert as Mr. A. Atkinson. They are sired by Mr. Ford's dog, Mal-vern Orion, who is by Champion Oxonian out of a late bitch of Mr. At-kinson's Gipsy, so if breeding is any-thing to go by they should be top notchers.

We are pleased to say that the T. K. C. and O. K. C. are going to hold a joint spring show on March 20, 21 and 22 under the name of the Toronto and Ontario Kennel Club Show, and we say that if every member of both clubs will get out and persuade their one dog friends (who in many cases have never shown before), to show their dogs, and also that every mem-ber should show their own dogs then it is bound to be a success, and there is not much doubt that it will be the biggest spring show ever held in To-ronto. On that we go pat and we hope every member of both clubs will do his utmost to reach this end for the common good of our friend, the dog.

We have through the efforts of the officers of the T. K. C. secured the rid-ing room in the armories for a show room. C. W. D.

MY DOG.

The curate thinks you have no soul;

I know that he has none. But you, Dear friend! whose solemn self-control In our four-square, familiar pew

Was pattern to my youth—whose bark Called me in Summer dawns to rove— Have you gone down into the dark Where none is welcome, none may love?

I will not think those good brown eyes Have spent their light of truth so soon;

But in some canine Paradise Your wraith, I know, rebukes the moon

And quarters every plain and hill, Seeking its master. . . As for me This prayer at least the gods fulfil: That when I pass the flood, and see

Old Charon by the Stygia coast Take toll of all the shades who land, Your little, faithful, barking ghost May leap to lick my phantom hand. —From New Poems, by St. John Lucas

THE SABINE KENNELS.

The Sabine Kennels, Orange, Texas, offer at stud five new Terriers. The first one described is Sabine Red Gem, weighing twenty-two pounds. This is an exceptionally good Fox Terrier, and those wishing the services of a dog whose pedigree for five generations re-veals but one similarly marked, should avail themselves of this opportunity. Sabine Rigour, is a black marked dog that comes of a vigorous stock. He is transmitting his good qualities to his puppies. Sabine Ringmaster is an unshown dog that will be heard from later. Sabine Regatta is also an un-shown dog, and from present indica-tions will not prove a disappointment. Sabine Regulator, the last on the list, is one that will suit weak-faced thin-boned bitches. See ad. in this issue for full description of each.

The above association held their annual meeting on Feb. 5, 1913. The election of officers resulted as follows: Pres.—J. A. Meadows, 1st Vice-Pres.—Mr. Farquharson; 2nd Vice-Pres.—Mr. Hinds; Sec.—Treas.—H. A. Wilson, 206 Queen St. East, Toronto.

Four new members were enrolled. It was decided to ask the joint show committee to add to their lists four classes for members of the Bulldog Association for the show on Good Friday. The association will, if necessary, supply their own judge.

HAMILTON NOTES.

Mr. H. C. Davis wears "the smile that won't come off," but there's a reason. With a litter of six, four dogs, by the promising young stud dog, Dunbar Cream Puff, with the grand eyes. We think this bitch is one of the best eyed Cocker to be found, to say nothing of her other good qualities, which are many. Mr. Davis looks for something extra from the combination, the sire has the breeding and make up of the right type to be the coming stud around these parts. This is his first produce, naturally his owner is anxious to show some of the wise or otherwise.

His parti-color, Pearpoint Babe, who has failed to make good on several occasions, comes to the front with five, three dogs, their sire being Chauncey D., who needs no commenting.

Hamilton must have got some one's goat. The American Express Co. had an English Setter on their hands for several days trying to locate the party who it was shipped to, but after getting things straightened out, found it was not for Hamilton, although addressed plainly. She was returned to her owner at Dunkirk, N.Y. No blame on the express company this time.

The latest report on Pomeranians comes from Mr. Robt. Phinn, of East Hamilton, with a family of three, two dogs, all deep orange, sired by the imported dog, Wilton Sable Mite. This is his first Canadian litter and no doubt he will live up to his past record. Mr. Greenwood has decided to put him at stud, this will be good news to lovers of this breed. Mr. Greenwood is getting a pair of bitches from Scotland, and from present indications competition in Poms. is going to be very keen.

Hats off to Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Gammon as to the way they look after their kennel of Cocker Spaniels, everything around the kennels show the fruits of hard labor, room being at a premium, makes it very hard to keep things up to the mark. The stock is all in the pink of condition, fit to show at any time. The two parti-colors, Wentworth Billy, and Rhoda G., are looking particularly well. We understand they are going to New York. We hope to hear of the little bitch holding her own with the best, which she can. She had the misfortune to lose her last litter by one of Mr. Payne's stud dog. A pair of nine months' old red bitches sired by Hydro D., ex. Rhoda, look to have the material that makes champions. Their owners are divided as to the merits of this pair. They will be shown at the first opportunity. The meeting will be interesting as Mr. and Mrs. Gammon always show to win.

Mr. J. M. Aldritt of Winnipeg has purchased from Mr. W. J. Jackson a young parti-color Cocker bitch in

New York Dog Talk

By Chas. H. Mason

It is nearly thirteen years since the writer and four others fashioned the Standard for Cocker Spaniels. The committee upon whom this work devolved was composed of Mr. H. K. Bloodgood (Chairman), Mr. W. T. Payne, Mr. George Douglas, Mr. E. Warner and myself. There was no friction at any stage. We knew what we wanted and what we wanted we made plain enough for anybody to understand. Does it not seem strange that, notwithstanding the publicity given to the Standard by the several specialty clubs, through catalogues, books and elsewhere, there are those who will persist in announcing Standards to fit their own dogs? I have before me a stud card issued by an occasional judge who describes his dog as cobby and "very heavy" in muzzle. There is not now, and there never was, a line or a word in the official Standard which could by any sharp curve be construed as advocating either a "very heavy muzzle" or a "heavy muzzle." Now, the Field Spaniel is not a heavy muzzled dog and the Cocker Standard says: "Muzzle proportionately shorter and lighter than in the Field Spaniel. . . . Lips cut off square preventing any appearance of snappiness." Then in the general description there is this: "A neat headed little dog." Obviously there is nothing in this to suggest either a "heavy" or a "very heavy muzzle" and the sooner some of our judges learn the Standard and the better it may be for those who show the dogs. I may perhaps just as well remark that the Toy Spaniel has a heavy muzzle, short and blunt and that whilst there may be, and almost surely is, Toy Spaniel blood in the modern Cocker the heads of the two are wholly different. Still another breeder, and a man who has judged once or twice, distributed stud cards not long ago and therein described one of his dogs as straight at both ends! This fairly caps the climax and is proof conclusive that, if the Cocker Spaniel is not making as much headway as its friends would wish, there is a reason. There also is a reason why dog shows are unable to attract entries. All things considered, the tremendous odds against rapid improvement and the actual results attained, the dogs have improved in a measure whilst the judges have deteriorated.

The writer has gradually but surely been getting together a very strong team of Cocker Spaniels, a kennel that can hold its own with any in the country; but his dogs, like those of many other owners, were not bred to be slaughtered by the incompetent alleged judges who know neither Standards nor dogs, and when the shows come around the classes, except at a few shows, are nearly empty and will remain so until the present system is changed.

Just as I have told your readers in my reports and notes for some time the system under which our shows are held cannot continue. The latest move to wake up interest and prevent the rushing waters from filling the busted bunk heads has been the enlisting of the support of the daily papers. The dog papers have nearly all gone up and the few that remain are unable to pay for show reports or to print a list of the winning dogs. There is not a sufficient number of persons interested in show dogs to make a paper self-supporting and so, in order to make ends meet, they deal in almost anything from slate pencils up to painted scarf pins which are peddled about at the shows and greatly admired by those who are not afraid of growing round-shouldered. I told you several months ago that two kennel papers would not survive another year and so it proved. We were sorry they could not get subscribers but American beauty roses do not thrive on barren ground.

The $10,000 verdict for Miss Rosalie Stewart in her action against the A. K. C., reduces the club's surplus fund very perceptibly and, as Mr. Belmont's answers when under cross-examination were anything but satisfactory to the club's supporters, he will probably resign. He said he knew nothing whatever about the club's rules, or the club's rulings, save in a general way and that the secretary coached him at the meetings over which he presided. One of the papers rather dryly remarked that when the plaintiff's counsel got through with Mr. Belmont the latter's tan cuffs were slightly creased. No doubt the case will be appealed which probably means another $1,000 for the weary dog breeders to potter out. The chap who sued the writer some time ago for $10,000 did not fare quite so well as Miss Stewart, six cents being all that the jury thought he was entitled to. But then you see I state facts and have the evidence to support them when it is required which makes a pile of difference.

Every man and woman in the dog fancy knows that present conditions cannot continue. We have been for many years, and are now, making for that condition where it will be either reform or revolution and he who stands for the latter is a pretty poor sort of a dog fancier.

Many new dogs have been imported for the big show on the 19th inst. and not a few of the owners are boasting them in the daily papers which they hope will be read and inwardly digested by the judges. One man has, by all accounts, spent a small fortune in bringing up all of the best Bulldogs in England whilst others have imported toy dogs of the several breeds, Fox Terriers, and, in some cases, Setters and Pointers and Spaniels. One of these papers announces the arrival of a Cocker Spaniel that has won high honors in England and this dog we are told is expected to make things interesting for the home bred. As the Standards are entirely different in the two countries—England and America—I do not see how the very best ever produced in England, on the lines of their standard, can have a chance with the best of our dogs. The right type in England is the wrong type here. Several dogs were imported some years ago, Braeside Bob and Braeside Betty, for instance, and the bitch especially had done much winning. Both Mr. Bloodgood and Mr. Payne, who owned these dogs, have had far better ones of their own breeding, but when crossed on the American bitches the sons and daughters of these importations produced very high-class dogs according to our Standard, and Shot-over, especially, has been a tower of strength in improving the parti-colors. A glance at the scale of points will show that a good dog under one Standard would need the peculiarities of the chameleon to win under the other. I don't believe there are any Cockers in the world as beautiful as our own, but I do not think they would win in England any more than I believe the English dogs can win here. A glance at the partial scale of points is especially interesting so I will ask you to publish this:

American.
Skull and muzzle	18
Eyes	7
Ears	4
Neck, shoulders and body	33
Legs and feet	18
Stern	5
English.
Head and jaw	10
Eyes	5
Ears	5
Neck and body (shoulders not mentioned)	20
Legs and feet	30
Stern	10

Very clearly a dog that conforms to one of these is hopelessly defeated under the other, and nobody will say that in framing the American Standard we copied from the English.

Whilst I hate criticising anything that the ladies write I am sure the editor of the ladies' page will forgive me for dissenting from a statement in your last issue: It is this: "The bigger a dog is, in any breed, the more pronounced any defect. A defect which would be almost unnoticed in a little one becomes prominent in a big one. It is largely a matter of proportion."

I am sure that upon reflection the entertaining writer of this will fail to recognize the soundness of the opinion. It really is not as the editor states a "matter of proportion" but of having an eye for proportion. A good judge of horses, a man who has an eye for proportion, can surely see a defect proportionately the same in a pony, or a race horse, as in the biggest of draught horses. It is as easy for a judge of poultry to detect a fault in a Bantam as in the largest bird in the show and the same may be said of a real judge of pigeons or song birds.

Every experienced breeder knows that it is harder to breed good little ones in Terriers than good big ones—harder to get good shoulders, harder to get good legs, harder to get good heads, and this is why many judges place the smaller dog, that is equally good in points, over the larger one.

SPARKLING JEWEL'S GREAT VICTORY.

By her victory at the Philadelphia Boston Terrier Club Show, January 10-11, Sparkling Jewel, bred by Mr. W. G. Parker of Petrolia, Ont., scored another for the Canadian bred hall of fame. Our readers will remember that this beautiful little bitch won in the puppy and novice classes at the London, Ont., Show last September, where she was sold to Mr. B. F. Lewis, a very prominent bench show handler, at quite a stiff price for a puppy. Mr. Chas. H. Mason, who officiated as judge of all classes except Bostons, was so much impressed with her that he openly stated that in his opinion she was worth all the Bostons in the show, seemingly a bold statement at the time. Mr. Mason backed his opinion by purchasing a half interest in Jewel and, in the report which appeared in our November number, he said: "They (Bostons) introduced a nailing good one—about the best youngster I have ever seen—in Sparkling Jewel, a daughter of Revilo Oxonian and Cuhanna Dazzle. She was easily the best Boston in the show." Unfortunately Sparkling Jewel got the distemper at London and for three weeks she hung 'twixt life and death. It took all of Mr. Mason's skill to pull her through and then to fit her for her first show in the States. She went right through her classes—novice to winners—apparently winning quite easily in each, after which she beat Major Raffles for the President's Cup for the best specimen in the show. This last award was made so promptly that there can be no doubt as to the judge's opinion of Jewel's merits and we are advised on authority that one of the best judges in America, who was at the ring side, made no secret of his belief that Sparkling Jewel is the best Boston seen in ten years. Their victory is especially noteworthy and brilliant when we realize that she is but thirteen months old, that she has so recently been at death's door and that the judge was Mr. George Thomas, than whom no greater authority lives. The catalogue shows that in Jewel's classes there were thirteen entries in the novice, twelve in the limit and ten in the open. The total number of dogs exhibited was one hundred and nineteen and there were two hundred entries.

WOULD SHOW FOR A POINT.

I acknowledge receipt of yours of the 16th instant and thank you for the information so kindly passed on to me re Boston show. I had intended taking my Irish Setter puppy to the show in February but as championship points won there do not count this side of the line, a Canadian exhibitor must go there without any ambitions. I was very anxious to know just what my pup would do down there and would not have begrudged the money spent if there had been a possibility of his winning a point toward his championship, but as there is no hope of that I must let it pass and wait patiently till there is another show east of Toronto.

Mr. McCullough and I are working hard, together, to secure as many new subscriptions for the Gazette as possible.

Yours truly,

E. Alban Sturdee.

St. John, N.B., January 14, 1913.

A POINTER TO COCKER BREEDERS

I note with considerable pleasure that the February issue of Gazette will feature Cocker Spaniels. I am interested only in this breed and have always regarded Canada as the home of Cockers. I am surprised, however, to see that so excellent a paper as you get out does not contain numerous advertisements of Cocker breeders. As indicated by my little "want ad." in the January issue I am in the market for a certain type of stud dog but know the addresses of but a few of the more prominent breeders. Do not your Canadian Cocker breeders believe in using printers' ink? Apparently not.

Yours very truly,

H. S. Kimmell.

New York, Jan. 18, 1913.

MR. FLETCHER MAKES A BIG BUY AND THE GAZETTE DID IT.

In asking you to withdraw my advertisement and not to publish the one I sent you of recent date I have to pay the Canadian Kennel Gazette a compliment.

The Christmas issue brought five applications for First Shot at his advertised price, two from the United States, two from Winnipeg, one from Calgary. Mr. J. C. Fletcher, of Winnipeg, claimed the dog by wire thus getting probably the best Airedale I have ever bred and one that will be hard to beat, put down fit, in any company, in any part of the world. The dog owns the wonderful head of Ch. York the Haymaker and the body, front, legs and feet of Ch. Clipstone Sunbeam, a very hard combination to beat. He is a pleasing color. I understand the astute Winnipeg fancier has purchased him for a gentleman of that city.

Mr. Fletcher negotiated for my whole kennel, also that of Mrs. Thorp's, so that a world famous kennel of Airedales, of over twenty years' standing, passes into a Winnipeg fancier's hands. It means much to start at the place where an old breeder like myself leaves off. Mrs. Thorp's select kennel of White Poms goes to Winnipeg, including the little White Hope, who did so well at the Waldorf Astoria, New York, last Pom Club Show. Mr. Fletcher also gets three Yorkshire Terriers as well as my Scottish Terrier bitch, Heather Lass, a big winner in the States. She has five points for Canadian championships. It was a pretty good sized check that paid for the bunch.

Please mail your bill against me and much oblige

Yours very cordially,

E. Wrightson Thorp.

Okotoks, Alta., Jan. 8, 1913.
