NOTES AND COMMENTS

The annual show of the Alberta Kennel Club is announced to be held in Calgary on June 30th and July 1st and 2nd, 1914. One thousand dollars will be offered in cash prizes, together with a long list of specials, including cups, medals, trophies, etc. Entries close on June 20th with Mr. W. N. Gibson, Secretary of the show, Calgary, Alta.

Calgary now puts up one of the best shows of the West, and there is no question but that with the present activity in dogs all through the Prairie Provinces, the 1914 show will excel that of any previous year.

The Toronto Star draws attention to the fact, that in the estimates given to the city by the National Live Stock Show, no provision is made for the holding of a dog show. We hope that this does not mean that the show is to be abandoned, for that given last November attracted a great deal of attention and a very considerable attendance. If the city passes the estimates the National Live Stock Show will probably be held some time in December, some weeks later than the show of 1913.

Those who had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Walter Glynn, and who admired his clear-headed, capable judging, when he officiated at the Canadian National Exhibition, Toronto, some years ago, will be glad to know that he has agreed to make us a return visit, and will take on all the sporting Terriers at Toronto in September next. Mr. Walter Glynn is one of the outstanding figures of the English Kennel world, a man of high standing and acknowledged ability as a judge. For this reason and for our previous experience of Mr. Glynn's judging here, we forecast for him a record entry of sporting Terriers, a number of breeds of which have become so popular in Canada.

A number of other leading judges have been approached, but have not yet given their decisions, except Mr. James Mortimer, of New York, who will be one of the all-rounders. Exhibitors must content themselves with the old building. It is not to be moved, but some improvements may be made. The Dog Show Committee for this year will, as in the case of other committees, be confined to actual members of the Association. Mr. James W. Bain, K.C., is the Chairman, the other members being Mr. John G. Kent, Mr. R. J. Score and Mr. George H. Gooderham, M.P.P. It is perhaps needless to say that, as for many years past, Mr. Fred. W. Jacobi will have his capable hand on the clutch.

The news comes to us from Ottawa, that Mr. Charles Lyndon, whom we saw, looking plump and rosy, at the Bulldog Specialty Show, will judge all breeds at the Ottawa Kennel Club Show in September next. Mr. Lyndon knows a Terrier to the ground and is familiar with all breeds, so that we shall be glad to see him in the ring again.

A whisper also comes to us from the Capital that a large entry will go down to Montreal this month, consisting of Bull Terriers, Manchester Black and Tan Terriers, Boston Terriers and Pugs, in which breeds Ottawa is now very strong.

The annual meeting of the Mount Royal Kennel Club was held at Freemans on Thursday, April 30th, at 8 p.m., with the President, Mr. E. C. Budge, in the chair. The meeting was exceedingly well attended, about twenty-five members being present, and if smiles, coupled with suggestive help, mean anything, they forecast big things for the show to be held in the Coliseum on May 26, 27, 28 and 29. The Secretary-Treasurer's report and also that of the President were read to the meeting and gave evidence of a useful and successful year.

Several innovations will occur at the coming show. For instance, the Mount Royal Kennel Club have quickly seen the trend of the times and all Toy dogs will be judged first, the judging succeeding the Toys being carried out in catalogue order. A Ladies' Auxiliary was also added to the Bench Show Committee, and the members of this can, and we are sure will, do much to add to the pleasantness of the show. Last issue we gave a pretty good outline of what was to be expected. Premium lists are now ready; in fact they have been out for some time, and money prizes are offered in winners and reserve winners classes.

It is expected, especially as there are no other shows round this date, that a large entry will be had from Toronto, Hamilton and other distant points east and west, and that the local dog owners will turn out in their hundreds. One of the spectacular features will be a competition between hunt clubs, for Hounds, and it is hoped that not alone the local clubs but the hunt clubs of Toronto, Ottawa, and other places will send contestants.

The following are the officers elected for the ensuing year:

Honorary President, H. V. Meredith; President, E. C. Budge; First Vice-President, J. C. Hanna; Second Vice-President, Frank E. Stuart; Secretary-Treasurer, H. H. Hughes; Executive, Ralph Burnett, Frank Lamb, A. Coristine, H. A. Rutley, B. Casgraine, Stanley O. Laing, J. R. Innes; Bench Show Committee, E. C. Budge, J. C. Hanna, Frank E. Stuart, Ralph Burnett, Alwyn Coristine, B. Casgraine, Frank Lamb, H. A. Rutley, Stanley O. Laing, J. R. Innes, R. A. Ross, F. R. Phelan, F. W. Cook, Harold Hendrey, H. B. Donovan, Arthur Hersey, J. F. J. Burnett, R. C. Binning, W. Berry, E. Fortune, E. M. Collison, W. R. Aitkin, W. H. Parkinson, J. H. Sheehan, J. H. Silver, Bert Evans, Mrs. Gruenwald, Mrs. R. A. Ross, Mrs. F. E. Stuart, Mrs. J. Pitt.

Elsewhere in this issue we give in full the new Constitution, By-laws, Rules and Regulations of the Canadian Kennel Club. Also the official minutes of the specially called general meeting of the Club, held on April 30th, at which the rules, etc., were finally passed.

The minutes show some slight changes made in the draft rules, but not many of any importance.

In the list of privileges, the medals have been omitted, we have the authority of the Secretary for saying by over-sight and they will be restored; in fact there was never any intention of cutting them off. It is, however, different in the case of the official organ, which we understand, has been left to the Executive Committee.

We have not had time or opportunity to go carefully through the changes, but the printing of the whole matter in this issue of the Canadian Kennel Gazette will probably bring to the forefront any weak spots that may be found in the rules, and of course there are weak spots in any printed document and in every set of regulations.

The first radical change will be found in Article 3, under the heading of Officers. The Secretary-Treasurer will not in future be elected annually by the members, but will be appointed, we presume, by the Executive, not necessarily each year, though the manner of his election, or appointment, does not appear to be set forth in the Constitution or By-laws. We are, and always have been, entirely in favor of such a change.

Under Article 4, the Nomination Meeting is done away with and all nominations left in the hands of the Secretary-Treasurer. This procedure is open to question, and we say so without any feeling whatever as regards the present incumbent, in whom we have the utmost confidence. There should at least be a nominating committee of not less than three members, of which one might be the Secretary, the other two, members who are not running for office.

There is a slight discrepancy under the heading of Auditor (or Auditors). Sec. 3, Article 4, says that "auditors" shall be elected at the annual meeting without previous nomination, while By-law 3, Sec. 1, states that it shall be the duty of the "auditor," etc. We infer that the latter is intended, as the Secretary tells us it is probable the Club will appoint a public auditor to do the work now being done voluntarily.

Article 5, Executive Committee cuts off the privilege heretofore afforded the various associations and clubs of, under certain conditions, appointing a member to the Executive to officially represent them.

Coming to By-laws. Law 1, Sec. 3, provides that the business year of the Club shall end on July 31st, instead of August 31st, as heretofore. The object of this is to present an audited financial statement at the annual meeting, there not being time under the old by-law to have this properly done. This will mean that the first statement presented will cover eleven months only, but of course the next succeeding and future annual statements will correct this.

By-law 5 changes materially the registration of kennel names, prefixes and affixes. Under the old By-law these had to be registered individually and when registered, registration was complete for all time. This has been changed to a bulk fee of three dollars covering the registration of kennel name, prefix and affix and an annual up-keep fee of fifty cents per annum. Failure to pay this annual fee shall involve the cancellation of registration, but owners are given the privilege of paying up all arrears before the expiration of ten years from date of cancellation.

Under By-law 6, Registrations, there is a weakening of the old requirements in so far as dogs already registered in the English Kennel Club Stud Book are concerned. These dogs may be registered on two generations, but the requirements of the Kennel Club for registration are so different to what we are used to in Canada that the wisdom of this is open to very grave doubt.

Coming to the Dog Show Rules, a junior class has been added, as the minutes will show, and this is really a kind of extended puppy class. We cannot see much use for it, except perhaps in the case of some of the large breeds. However, it is there for any show committee that may wish to use it. It is not of course compulsory. There are several changes in winners' rules but none of very great importance. Championships must in future be won under at least three judges.

Coming to Regulations, Sec. 2. The date of receiving entries is reduced to two days prior to the first day of the show. We hope that this will not lead to any misunderstanding, for it does not mean that shows must accept entries up to two days before the show. As a matter of fact, seven to ten days is none too long to classify entries and prepare, and have printed, a proper catalogue. For this and other reasons we are opposed to the change.

And now we come to the most vital part of the whole business, and that is Section 3 of Regulation 2, which covers the disqualification, under certain conditions, of those who may take part in the control or working of shows in Canada, under rules other than those of the Canadian Kennel Club. We are unalterably opposed to coercion of any kind, and this is coercion to the limit. We can see where the Canadian Kennel Club is liable to at once cut off some of its most loyal members, especially in the west, possibly in the east also, and this should not be the aim of a governing body. We simply here and now briefly express our opinion, as we feel that this drastic ruling will undoubtedly meet with much adverse criticism, especially as it was put in force at a meeting other than the annual meeting.

We are exceedingly sorry to hear of the death, some weeks ago, of Mr. George P. Allan, of St. John, N.B., who passed away from a complication of pneumonia and heart failure. The late Mr. Allan was a leading spirit in canine circles in the Maritimes, of a most pleasing personality, and will be very greatly missed by those who knew him best.

TERRIERS. Mr. William Ollard, Tacoma, Wash., has a litter sister of Prince, the young Irish Terrier of his breeding that was shown at New York. Mr. Ollard considers her about the best bitch in his kennel, and expects to produce something quite out of the ordinary from her.

Rev. Bro. Wilfrid, of La Trappe, P. Q., is the happy owner of Mr. Joe Meehan's Kilbaron Statesman's first litter in Canada. Bro. Wilfrid's Mrs. Mulloy whelped, on April 20th, five dogs and three bitches, of which he has reserved four dogs and one bitch, considering this quite a big enough number for the mother to properly rear.

White Chief, the promising young Bull Terrier, the property of Mr. T. S. Bellin, was first exhibited at Albany, in November last, and although only eight months old he was awarded winners in hot company. He was next shown at Westminster Kennel Club Show in February last, winning first puppy, first novice, second American-bred, second limit, third open, also won for best brace of Bull Terriers with Burning Daylight.

His death is a great loss to Mr. Bellin, for he considered that in Chief he had a dog with a brilliant future. During the last twenty years Mr. Bellin has owned the following imported and American-breds: Surefoot, Rookery Boy, Amazement, Champion Indian Queen, Champion Hanover Daisy, Champion Woodcote Pride, Duke of Marlborough, Champion Tommy Tickle, Champion Princeton Monarch, Tavern Duke, Champion Lamplighter, etc. Our Albany friend still owns that good Bull Terrier bitch, Burning Daylight.

Mr. John S. Jerome, of Edmonton, has recently bought the prize winning Smooth Fox Terrier bitch, Winstone Dolley, from Mr. William Armstrong, of Medicine Hat, to mate with his best dog, Broker Boy. Broker Boy was a winner of the Smooth Fox

Terrier cup at Edmonton last year, and naturally from this mating the owner of the Broker's Kennels is looking for something out of the ordinary.

The knowing ones are evidently using Rockley Airedales, for amongst the visitors to Rockley Ranger are the following: Mr. Bain's Ch. Culmington Nettle, Rev. Dr. Bruce Macdonald's bitch, Mr. W. Billinger's Morning Dawn, and a bitch from Mr. Morris's Kennel. Then Rockley Dark Saint has had Mr. Luther's Nancy, Mr. Topham's Winnie, Mr. Owen's Sacka Tuna, also bitches from the kennels of Mr. Crowthers, Mr. Hudson, Mr. Black, and Mr. James' Beacon Filly.

Mr. Lacy, of the Kennel and Field department of the American Fancier, writes of Mr. Nordheimer's purchase of Ch. Sound End Sombrero:

"There is a whole lot of interest in this dog, and we are rather surprised that such a consummate judge of the real thing as Mr. Albright should let him go. But we presume that such a handful as a heavy weight Bull Terrier is a bit out of his way with all the Airedales and other Terriers about in the Baughfels. And then again it's a bit strange to have a real Bull Terrier go to the land of the Canucks, for it has for many years been the other way about. Sombrero is a real good Terrier—a Bull Terrier all over, and not a flat catcher, and we should say considering the dog himself and his breeding that Mr. Nordheimer has made a good move. His purchase removes a dangerous rival to the Terriers around New York. Mr. Albright bought him when he visited the Los Angeles Show. The Canadian must have parted with a bunch of money on the deal."

GLENEDYTH KENNELS', TORONTO, FAMOUS BULL

We mentioned above the advent of Mr. Joseph Meehan's Kilbaron Statesman's first litter. The second bunch has now arrived and there were nine of them, six dogs and three bitches, of which a dog and two bitches have since died. The dam is Mr. Meehan's best Irish Terrier bitch, Kilbaron Peggy. This makes a total of seventeen puppies in Statesman's first two Canadian litters, and Mr. Meehan has good reason to be proud of the ability of his dog as a stock getter.

Mr. Bob Ross has sold his good old standby, the Scottish Terrier, Beecher's Brook, and has a grand puppy of the breed, from which he is expecting great results.

Mr. Ross is getting back into Irish Terriers also and has two bitches as a starter, one of them by Fiscal Fancy.

Mr. Bob Ross, of Montreal, as we briefly noted above, is also dabbling again in the red coats. He bought two nice bitches from Mr. N. R. Miller, mother and daughter, the former by Ch. Newry Shamus ex. Ch. Fiscal Fancy. She is about two years old and a sound, hard-coated bitch. She will be shown at Montreal this month. The puppy is four months old, with rare coat and color, and is all a Terrier.

In addition to the sale of the Ch. Scottish Terrier, Beechers Brook, Mr. Bob Ross has also sold two bitches, the three going to Mr. J. Watson Yuile, of Montreal, who is getting together the nucleus of a good kennel.

Mr. Dalziel's Airedale bitch, Arcadia Pride, has been purchased by Mr. Weyman, of Lachine, P. Que., and is to be bred to Mr. Rutley's Colne Express Order.

Our Scottish correspondent, The Baillie, is evidently a strong advocate of the Fox Terrier and a firm believer in his ability to come back, despite the present vogue for the Sealyham.

By the way, a Hiberian friend of ours got off rather a good one on the Sealyham the other day, by describing him as "a sawed off Fox Terrier gone wrong in head." How far out was he?

We had a chat with Ch. Hawes Broom's new owner in Montreal recently. Mr. McCarroll has bred to the dog and has two more bitches booked for June. His late owner, Mr. Jos. Perkins, also expects to use him, as do several others who are aiming to breed good wires, and confidently expect to do so with the aid of this sterling little Terrier.

Added to the stud announcement of Ch. Hawes Broom this month will be found the Sir Henry Pellatt Silver Cup for best of any breed, open to all, at the Toronto Kennel Club monthly shows.

Mr. Sam Bamford has imported a new Wire, details of which, at this writing, have not yet reached us. He is described as a sound Terrier, excellent in head and carrying a good natural coat.

We are sorry to hear from Mr. Chas. L. Mewburn, Hamilton, that he has lost his old campaigner, Ch. Oxford Rake, a smooth Fox Terrier that has been constantly before show goers. Rake was just seven years old.

Details have now reached us of the Wire Fox Terrier got over by Mr. Sam Bamford. He is called Walnut Regalia and is the property of Messrs. Bamford and Hudson. Regalia was a good winner in England, his last appearance being at Blackburn, where, after winning in his classes, he took the reserve for best in any breed in the show.

The same owners have also purchased from Mr. Charles W. Keyes, Mass., U.S.A., that good bitch, Hillcrest Feature, a winner at Westminster Show, New York, and at Lennox and Boston, Mass.

Mr. Ernest Sharp, Toronto, has bred Warncliff Belle and Ox-spring Pansy to Walnut Regalia, the new imported Wire dog mentioned above.

Mr. Sam. Bamford's Irish Terrier bitch, Walnut Colleen, is heavy in whelp to the Chicago winner, Leeds Historic, and there certainly ought to be something worth talking about as the result of this mating.

The Bull Terrier champion, Bow Bells, A.K.C.S.B. 12899, died in her travelling crate at Revelstoke on her way to Moose Jaw Kennel Club Show, where she was expected to win for best of her breed.

Bow Bells was bred by her owner, Mr. George A. Cranfield, Vancouver, and won forty championship points in hot competition under such eminent judges as James Mortimer, of New York, George Thomas, of Boston, James Watson, of New Jersey, and many others. She was also the dam of Champion Dick Whittington and The Rogue, who was placed reserve winners to Champion Sound End Sombrero, the New York winner.

Bow Bells has defeated many of the best, including Champion Williamette-Starlight, of Portland, Oregon on five occasions, and the Vancouver bitch, Champion Dorian Grey, twice.

THE BULL TERRIER, CH. BOW BELLS.

We hear that there are at least two new Scottish bitches coming to Montreal soon, for different owners, and it would not surprise us to know that Mr. James Lindsay, that old lover of the breed, was directly or indirectly connected with their advent.

Mr. Bob Ross has shipped his Scottish Terrier, Drumclaph Jade, the dam of Mr. Ellison's winning puppy at New York, to be bred to Avondale Ascot. This should make an excellent "nick."

By the way, Mr. Mewburn is offering in this issue a number of dogs that should go quickly, including the smooth Danby Dragoon, several other Fox Terriers and a number of Airedales.

COLLIES. The annual meeting of the Collie Club of America, the oldest specialty club in America, and the possessor of many valuable trophies, was held in the offices of the American Kennel Club, 1 Liberty St., New York, at 4 p.m., April 10th.

A representative gathering answered the roll call, from various cities and towns. After the usual routine of current business the election of officers took place, which resulted in the election by acclamation: President, Dr. C. Y. Ford; Secretary, Mr. John H. Blackwood; Treasurer, Dr. Henry Jarrett. Canada came in well for honors, as Col. McEwen, Mr. Joseph Reid, Mr. Ormiston Roy and Mr. Jackson were named as officers.

Any information in regard to the Collie Club of America will be gladly given by the Secretary, by addressing him, Mr. John H. Blackwood, Ewing St., Trenton, N.J.

That rare body of fanciers, the Inter State Collie Club of Philadelphia, may be congratulated on their annual show and the excellence of the turnout of Collies that faced Mr. M. Mowbray Palmer, the judge, who has served as President of the Collie Club of America, and judged at such fixtures as New York and Chicago. He was complimented by an entry of seventy-one actual exhibits and judged them in a fearless manner, regardless of past performances or British reputation.

Of course the chief interest centred around the galaxy of international champions imported by Mr. Thomas P. Hunter, who now occupies the position formerly held in the Collie world by the late Mr. J. Pierpont Morgan. The dog that captured the coveted winners rosette was one of his castoffs, Knocklayde King Jack, a Collie of lovely type and quality and put down in perfect form. His "crab" is his lack of soundness in hind quarters. Apart from this he is a true Collie.

The runner up was the English champion, Seedley Stirling, but his unsound hind quarters, flat ribs and short soft coat will always keep him back under specialist judges. His kennel companion, Ch. Weardale Lord, is a grand, sound Collie, and though present, did not compete in the regular classes.

Mr. Hunter furnished two exquisite bitches in the famous tri-color. Seedley Sylvia, exquisite in head, eye, ears and expression, with plenty of size, and her kennel mate, Knocklayde Queen Mary, a big sable of high quality but well beaten in head and expression.

Most of the well known exhibitors were at the ringside, and many sat down to the excellent luncheon furnished by the club.

Dr. C. Y. Ford is bound to keep up the reputation of the Otterburn Collies, that have been successful for the past twenty years, for besides the purchase of the famous international winner, Parbold Picaroon, whom Mr. Hugo Ainscough considered the best young dog in England, the winning blue merle, Oak Hill Hyacinthe, by the crack, Grey Mist, three times winner at New York for the best Blue Merle, is now also his. She has been mated to Ormskirk Sensation.

The Collie Club Show winner, Otterburn Fashion Plate, has been on a visit to Ch. Parbold Picador, and the recent New York winner, Otterburn Blonde Beauty, visits Ch. Weardale Lord.

Dr. Ford disliked parting with his successful sire, Otterburn Diamond, but a change of blood was required in the kennel. He leaves a son in the kennel whom the doctor considers the best "Otterburn" ever bred.

BULLACITY. Mr. Sid. Perkins has now broken into the Bulldog game, picking up two dogs and a bitch, with at least one of which he hopes to do some winning. This is a two and a half year old, golden brindle, by Lee Bank Squire, formerly the property of the late Commander Spain, a dog that has never been shown, but who is said to be good enough to give most of them a tussle. The other is a light weight dog by the Montreal owned brindle, Royal Albert.

I would like to point out a mistake that has been made in your paper, re breeders' dogs. It should run, first, Black Diamond; second, Ashland Little Nipper; third, Ch. Argo; fourth, Ch. Cheatham Squire. Ashland Little Nipper never beat Black Diamond. Would you kindly rectify same in your next issue and oblige?
H. A. Wilson.

Toronto, April 20, 1914.

We are glad to be afforded the opportunity of making this correction.

The death is announced of Rodney Blackmask, registered with the C.K.C. as number 9744, and owned by Mrs. Anna Z. Richards, of Flatbush, N.Y. He did considerable winning in Canada, but was never shown in the States. A "Vinemount" dog. He was by Vine-mount Blackmask out of Lady Chesney Stone.

The unfortunate episode ending in the death of Champion White Marquis is one that will bring to Mr. D. P. Ritchey the sympathy of all who love a good sportsman. Apparently the dog was all right when put on board ship, but died when about a day out from Liverpool, as did also the miniature Bull bitch, Newington Bonny Girl. There is a suspicion of poison, but no proof can be secured, the dogs' bodies having been thrown overboard, in itself we should judge rather unusual.

Ch. White Marquis was generally conceded to be the best Bull-dog in England, and his untimely death makes a great gap in the breed, and one that will be hard to fill as well as causing a big financial loss to Mr. Ritchey.

CHAMPION WHITE MARQUIS.

[From the Illustrated Kennel News, England]

WITH THE SHOWS. Our old friend, The Chiel, gives us a very interesting account of most of the breeds at Victoria. In reading it over the outstanding points to us appear to be the victory of a home-bred Airedale, and the nice class of Retrievers shown, a breed that we very rarely see represented in the east.

Mr. Dudley-Waters' report of the finals of the Toronto Kennel Club series of monthly shows gives us the ultimate winners of the season, in so far as these shows are concerned. These little evening shows have aroused a good deal of interest and favorable comment, and no doubt will be continued, and possibly enlarged on, next season.

The announcement of the thirteenth annual dog show, held in connection with the Winnipeg Exhibition, will be found in our advertising columns. July 14 to 17 are the dates, and the show will be held under D.K.C. rules. The judges announced are Messrs. C. H. Babcock, Three Notch, Ala.; F. Walsh, Winnipeg, Man.; and A. Delmont, Devon, Pa. Dr. A. W. Bell, the Secretary of the big Winnipeg fair, advises us that he has been promised dogs from Hamilton, Ottawa and Montreal, in the east, and Calgary and Edmonton in the west. Toronto and the Pacific coast towns will also likely be represented with entries; this is certainly covering Canada. The management want five hundred and fifty dogs at this show, and would like to make it six hundred. $1,500 in premiums are offered, besides a large list of specials. The Winnipeg summer show has gone ahead rapidly every year, held in a good, well ventilated show room, a capable superintendent, liberal prize money and unbounded hospitality to visiting fanciers, the show is rightly a popular one with both the East and the West.

SETTERS. Mr. Hanna's New York Irish Setter winners, Ch. Rhuminantly Rhu and Nora Law, have been bred to the same owner's Montrose Rheola Andy, so that with any kind of luck we may expect the Montrose Kennels to keep up their winning career.

TOYLAND. Mrs. Gruenwald, Montreal, whom we had the pleasure of meeting at the annual meeting of the Mount Royal Kennel Club, has had a most exasperating time with her recent importation of Poms, so much so that the matter may finally reach the Kennel Club. Mrs. Gruenwald's brother is at present in England in the endeavor to arrive at a proper adjustment of the unfortunate case.

Mr. J. R. Bentley has a full sister to Sir Bruce, five weeks old, that weighs about nine ounces. The little lady is a black of excellent color, and Mr. Bentley's hopes are centred on her.

Mr. Constant Van Camp is offering for sale in this issue, his complete kennel of Griffons Bruxellois, all imported from Belgium, thus giving some enterprising breeder of Toys a splendid opportunity to get into this novel little breed.

We wonder if exhibitors have noticed what a lot of very bad showers (Pekingese) there are about just now. At every show this great fault is very noticeable. We fear it is a matter of breeding more than simply shyness in the ring, and this being the case, it will take a tremendous lot of trouble and training to do away with the evil. The only cure is to begin with the lead and collar very early, and even then puppies of certain strains never make the most of themselves in the ring, though they may be as bold as lions at home.

ST. BERNARDS. While in Montreal recently we were sorry to learn from Mr. Frank Stuart, that he had lost, through pneumonia, that excellent St. Bernard, Montphosa. We have so few good bitches that we can ill afford to lose this good matron, that was second to the famous Lady Lyndon at the late New York Show. Mr. Stuart has our sympathy.

SPANIELDOM. W. J. Jackson, Hamilton, has received the Dominion Kennel Club's championship cup, which was awarded to his Ch. Black Cocker, Durbar. In speaking of the cup, Mr. Jackson tells us that it is the finest thing of the kind that has ever been put out. It stands thirteen and a half inches high and is of a most beautiful design and engraved D.K.C. Championship—also the dog's name, D.K.C. Durbar, 1913. The silver medal that accompanied it is also a work of art. The above is only in keeping with everything the western men undertake, and Mr. Jackson says, "We still have our hats off."

Rumor has it that Mr. Jackson has a young black dog that is going to be the sensation this fall.

Changes in C.K.C. Constitution, By-laws, Show Rules and Regulations

The "big stick" to be applied—New championship conditions—Club members of the Executive cut off.

Following we give the draft in full of the new C.K.C. Constitution, By-laws, Rules and Regulations. Following these is the copy of the official minutes supplied us by the Secretary. We have had little time to go through them in detail, but point out under Notes and Comments in this issue some evident and drastic changes. Exhibitors should study the new rules carefully.

They come into effect immediately, this meeting being final. That is, they are not to be again considered at the annual meeting, of course excepting the usual procedure to reconsider if any member, or members, should so wish and signify his wishes in the proper way.

GENERAL MEETING OF THE CANADIAN KENNEL CLUB

(Incorporated).

For the Purpose of Adopting a New Constitution, By-Laws and Rules.

(Official Minutes)

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mr. John G. Kent, at 8.30 p.m. in Simpson's Hall, 734 Yonge St., Toronto, on April 30th.

Mr. G. F. McFarland spoke of the necessity of having new rules on account of the change of conditions in the club, and in dog affairs in general, and outlined the work done by the Rules Committee.

The rules were then taken up separately, and all were passed without comment, with the following amendments: Article V., Sec. 1, Mr. McFarland spoke at length on the dropping of the representation by individual clubs on the executive committee, pointing out that there were eleven of such in Toronto, and that it tended to give Toronto undue representation on the executive committee. Mr. Atkinson and Mr. Jacobi also spoke.

It was moved by Mr. Atkinson, seconded by Mr. Milburn, that Article V., Sec. 1, be adopted as read. (Carried.)

Law V., Sec. 7, moved by Mr. A. Lees, seconded by Mr. F. Jacobi, that it read as follows: "Registration of prefix, affix and kennel name, $3.00. Annual renewal of same, 50 cents. (Carried.)"

Dog Show Rule XIII., moved by Mr. Atkinson, seconded by Mr. Coulter, that the old rule be restored. (Lost.)

Moved by Mr. Farquharson, seconded by Mr. Wilson, that rule be changed so that it require that the dog remain on the bench, but that the entry fee will be refunded. (Lost.)

The original Rule XIII. was then put before the meeting and carried.

Dog Show Rule XV., moved by Mr. Farquharson, seconded by Mr. John Kenyon, that the following class be introduced as Sec. 2nd.

The Junior Class shall be for dogs over six months and not exceeding eighteen months of age, and no entry can be made of one whose date of birth is unknown. (Carried.)

Part of Sec. 5th was amended to read as follows: "All winners of classes recognized by the Canadian Kennel Club must compete in the winners class. No entry fee shall be charged for competition in this class."

In Rule XXII. the word objection was corrected to protest.

Regulations governing clubs holding shows under C.K.C. Rules, No. XII., was corrected to read as follows: "Within twenty-four hours after the close of the show," instead of "within twenty-four hours."

Moved by Mr. McFarland, seconded by Mr. Jacobi, that the old Constitution, By-laws and Rules be rescinded. (Carried.)

Moved by Mr. McFarland, seconded by Mr. Atkinson, that the Constitution, By-Laws and Rules be adopted as amended and come in force at once with the exception of the Mount Royal Kennel Club Show, which will be held under the old Rules.

Moved by Mr. Kent, seconded by Mr. Barron, that a standing vote of thanks be given to the Rules Committee for the large amount of labor and careful attention given by them in drafting the new set of Rules. (Carried.)

The meeting adjourned.

C.K.C. CONSTITUTION, BY-LAWS AND RULES.

ARTICLE I.

Organization.

Sec. 1.—This Club shall be known as the Canadian Kennel Club (Incorporated).

Sec. 2.—The head office of the Club shall be in Toronto.

Sec. 3.—The object of the Club shall be to promote the breeding of thoroughbred dogs in Canada, and to protect the interests of owners and breeders, to formulate rules for the government of dog shows and competitions, and in such other ways as it may seem fit, attempt to guide and advance the welfare of dogs and their owners.

ARTICLE II.

Membership.

Sec. 1.—The Club shall consist of members and patrons.

Sec. 2.—Application for membership shall be made in writing to the secretary, accompanied by the requisite fee, who shall then submit the same to the next ensuing meeting of the executive committee to be voted upon. Voting shall be by ballot. Two-thirds of the votes of the members present must be in favor of the applicant before he can be elected.

ARTICLE III.

Officers.

Sec. 1.—The officers of the club shall be president, a first and second vice-president, and one vice-president for each province, and secretary-treasurer, all of whom, with the exception of the secretary-treasurer, shall be annually elected as herein-after set forth, and shall hold office for one year or until their successors shall be elected.

ARTICLE IV.

Nomination and Election of Officers.

All candidates for office must be nominated by a member in good standing.

Nominations shall be made in writing and sent addressed to the secretary, to be in his hands on or before August 1st.

When the nominations are closed, a ballot slip showing the nominations for officers and executive committee shall be sent by registered mail to each member, with instructions to return same to the secretary. All ballots must be mailed to members at least twenty-one days before the annual meeting.

All ballots must be sent to the secretary, and be in his hands before the first day of September.

Ballots shall be returned in a specially printed envelope, marked "Ballot," to be supplied by the club, and shall be counted at the annual meeting. All ballots must bear the initials of the secretary-treasurer.

In case of a tie vote, the tie shall be decided by a majority vote of the members present at the annual meeting.

Sec. 2.—The executive committee shall have power to fill vacancies for the unexpired terms.

Sec. 3.—An honorary solicitor, honorary veterinary surgeon and auditors shall be elected at the annual meeting without previous nomination.

ARTICLE V.

Executive Committee.

Sec. 1.—The executive committee shall consist of the officers named, except secretary-treasurer, and twelve other members elected at the same time and in the same manner. It shall convene in September during the time of the dog show held in connection with the Canadian National Exposition, and in January, April and June, and as often besides as may be deemed necessary at the call of the president, or the written request of six members of the executive.

Sec. 2.—The executive committee shall exercise a general supervision over all the activities and affairs of the club, and shall have, in addition to the powers specifically granted herein, full authority to take any action which in their opinion is advisable or necessary in order to carry out the objects set out in Article I., Sec. 3, of this constitution.

ARTICLE VI.

Amendments.

The Constitution or By-laws of this club may be amended at any general or annual meeting of the club, provided notice of the proposed change is given in the official organ of the club, or by special notice to each member, published or posted at least twenty-one days before the date of such meeting, and provided also that two-thirds of the members present at the meeting in person or by proxy vote in favor of the amendment.

BY-LAWS.

LAW I.

Duties of Officers.

Sec. 1.—The president shall order all meetings of the club and executive committee, except as hereinbefore provided in Article V., Sec. 1, and when possible preside at the same. He shall see that the affairs of the club are managed according to the terms and spirit of the Constitution and By-laws; and shall at the annual meeting report on the working of the club during the past year.

Vice-Presidents.

Sec. 2.—The first vice-president, or one of the other vice-presidents, shall perform all the duties of the president in his absence.

Secretary-Treasurer.

Sec. 3.—The secretary-treasurer shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the club, conduct the correspondence and have charge of and be responsible for all the books and papers of the club, collect all fees, and deposit same in a chartered bank to the credit of the Canadian Kennel Club (Incorporated). He shall submit a report of the general financial standing of the club at each ordinary meeting of the executive committee.

The secretary-treasurer shall submit at each annual meeting a financial report, up to the 31st of July of that year, which report shall be duly audited and certified to be correct. He shall also submit at the same time a report of the general condition of the club.

He shall keep a record of the names and addresses of all the members of the club. He shall furnish a guarantee company's bond to an amount satisfactory to the executive committee, at the expense of the club. His remuneration shall be fixed and determined upon by the executive committee.

Sec. 4.—All accounts shall be submitted to the president or his duly authorized representative by the secretary-treasurer for inspection and approval, and shall be paid by cheque signed by the secretary-treasurer and countersigned by the president or his duly authorized representative.

Sec. 5.—Each officer, on expiration of his official term, shall transfer all property whatsoever of the club in his possession to his successor.

LAW II.

Duties of Executive Committee.

Sec. 1.—The duties of the executive committee shall be to endeavor to further the objects and purposes set forth in the Constitution, and to secure and maintain an efficient organization of this club. It shall have power to provide for such committees as it may deem advisable. Five members shall constitute a quorum.

LAW III.

Auditor and Stud Book Committee.

Sec. 1.—It shall be the duty of the auditor to audit the treasurer's books and accounts and submit a report duly certified at the annual meeting.

Sec. 2.—The stud book committee shall be appointed by the executive committee at their first regular meeting. It shall be the duty of the stud book committee to scrutinize the registrations appearing each month in the official organ, investigate each and send them initialed to the secretary for a final insertion in the Annual Stud Book.

LAW IV.

Meetings.

Sec. 1.—The annual meeting shall be held at such time and place as shall be appointed by the executive committee.

Sec. 2.—At the written request of twenty members, the president shall call a special meeting of the club. Twenty shall be a quorum at a general or special meeting.

Sec. 3.—Notice of all general meetings shall be given in the official organ of the club, or by special notice to each member, published or posted at least twenty-one days before date of such meeting. At least ten full days' notice shall be given by mail to each member of the executive committee. A schedule of all the items of business to come under consideration shall be duly supplied with the notice of meeting.

LAW V.

Fees and Privileges of Membership.

Sec. 1.—The following fees shall be charged:

1. Annual membership fee, $3.00 (payable in advance).
2. Cost of registration, $1.00 each. One free each year to each member.
3. Cost of listing, 25c. for each show.
4. Fee for search of pedigree, 25c.
5. Copy of pedigree to members, 25c., to non-members, 50c.
6. Transfer of registration, 25c.
7. Registration of prefix, $3.00. Annual renewal of same, 50c.
8. Registration of kennel name, $3. Annual renewal of same, 50c.
9. Transfer of prefix, $3.
10. Transfer of kennel name, $3.
11. Duplicate of certificate, 25c.
12. A fee of $1.00 to cover average cost is charged for the investigation, of each complaint not arising out of misconduct at shows, held under C. K. C. rules. No charge is made to members. (See also By-law VII.)

Sec. 2.—Failure to renew prefix or kennel name shall involve the cancellation of the registration of same, but no prefix or kennel name so cancelled shall be re-registered until after the expiration of ten years from the date of such cancellation. At any time during the said period of ten years the person or persons in whose name or names the registration stood at the time of cancellation may re-register the said prefix or kennel name on payment of all arrears of renewal fees.

Sec. 3.—The annual Stud Book shall be supplied free to members.

LAW VI.

Registration.

Sec. 1.—A dog may be registered in the Stud Book on application and payment of the requisite fee, and the following information duly authenticated must be supplied with each such application:

1. Name of dog.
2. Breed, sex and color.
3. Date and place of birth.
4. Name and address of breeder.
5. Pedigree for three generations.

Such application must be made on the form supplied by the club.

A dog already registered in the English Kennel Club Stud Book may be registered with only two generations of pedigree, provided the application is otherwise complete and the applicant submits the registration certificate from the English Kennel Club.

Sec. 2.—No dog which is already registered in the English Kennel Club, or American Kennel Club Stud Book, shall be registered in the Canadian Kennel Club Stud Book under any other name than that under which it is already so registered, but this rule shall not prevent the addition of a prefix to the name under which it is so registered.

Sec. 3.—The registered name of any dog may be changed on payment of a fee of $5.00. Provided that if the application for change is received during the fiscal year of the C.K.C., in which the original registration was made, the fee shall be reduced to $2.00.

LAW VII.

Discipline.

Sec. 1.—The executive committee shall have full power by a vote of those present at any of its meetings to suspend, disqualify or expel any person, whether a member of the club or not, and the person so suspended, disqualified or expelled, shall have no claim against the club, or be allowed to enter into any competition held under the rules of this club. Such persons shall have the right to appeal to the club from the action of the executive committee at the annual meeting, or at any special meeting, provided notice of appeal has been given to the executive committee. Suspension, disqualification or expulsion shall be either for a definite period, or for life; and the person thus suspended, disqualified or expelled shall be reinstated only on application to the executive committee.

Sec. 2.—Anyone having personal knowledge of the facts, may prefer charges of improper conduct against any individual. The person making such charges must send them in writing to the secretary-treasurer of the club. The charges thus forwarded must be accompanied by a deposit of $5.00, as a guarantee of good faith, for each charge preferred, which shall be retained should the charges be deemed on investigation to be frivolous or malicious. In the case of non-members, a fee of $1.00 shall be charged for investigation.

Sec. 3.—Any person suspended, disqualified or expelled in accordance with the provisions of Sec. 1 of this by-law shall be debarred from all privileges of the club, including registration; and shall not be eligible as an exhibitor, agent, handler, judge or official of any show held under the sanction of the C.K.C.

LAW VIII.

Order of Business.

The order of business at all meetings of the club or executive shall be as follows:

1. Roll Call.
2. Reading of Minutes.
3. Reports and Communications.
4. Unfinished Business.
5. New Business.
6. Election of Officers.
7. Adjournment.

DOG SHOW RULES.

For the Government of Dog Shows, as Adopted by the Canadian Kennel Club (Incorporated).

I. The word "dog" whenever used in these rules includes both sexes.

II. Every dog must be either listed or registered with the Canadian Kennel Club previous to being exhibited. The cost of listing is twenty-five cents for each show. The show secretary is authorized by the Canadian Kennel Club to accept listing fees from exhibitors with their entries, provided that the entry blank contains the following statement: "This club assumes the collection and forwarding to the Canadian Kennel Club of all listing fees."

The cost of registration, which is good forever, is $1.00, and the application for registration must be made direct with the Canadian Kennel Club on its official blank, which will be supplied by the secretary. Penalty for noncompliance with this rule is cancellation of all winnings.

III. Every dog must be the bona fide property of the person making such entry on the day of closing the entries, and must be not less than six months old. The entry must clearly identify the dog to be exhibited by name. If the dog is already registered in the Canadian Kennel Club Stud Book, the Stud Book number of the dog should be given with the entry.

IV. If the name of a dog which has won a prize at any show recognized by the Canadian Kennel Club has been changed, the old name must be given in the entry blank and published in the catalogue of the first show recognized by the Canadian Kennel Club at which the dog is shown, after the change of name.

V. Exhibitors must abide by any errors made in entering their dogs.

VI. The breeder of a dog is the person owning or leasing the dam at the time of her being bred.

VII. The authorities of any show may decline any entries they see fit and may refuse to receive or may remove any dog on account of disease, vice or other cause, and no one shall have any claim or recourse against the organization holding the show or any official connected therewith.

VIII. A castrated dog or spayed bitch shall be disqualified and forfeit any prize which may be awarded to it.

IX. Total blindness, deafness or lameness shall absolutely disqualify. If the judge or veterinary surgeon is satisfied that the deafness or lameness be temporary, the dog shall be allowed to compete.

X. A judge may disqualify a dog which, in his opinion, has been improperly tampered with, subject to the decision of the veterinary surgeon. Should the judge's disqualification not be sustained by the veterinary surgeon, the class must be re-judged if necessary.

XI. The judge's decision shall be final in all cases affecting the merits of the dogs, and appeals can only be entertained where misrepresentation or breach of the rules is alleged.

XII. The judge of each class shall have power to withhold any or all prizes for want of merit.

XIII. Should an appointed judge be unable to fill his engagement, the committee shall have the right to fill the vacancy. In the event of an appointed judge not officiating it shall be optional with the exhibitor before the commencement of the judging of the breed to withdraw his dog or dogs from competition and from the show, in which event his entry fee shall be returned. All the separate classes of any breed of dogs must be adjudicated upon by the same judge, or judges, acting in conjunction.

XIV. In any class where there is a limit of weight, the person in charge of the dog entered in such class may claim of the manager, superintendent, secretary, or any member of the show committee the right at any time after the opening of the show, and before the judging, to have the dog weighed, and the weight of the dog shall be registered and held good at the time of judging.

Any competing exhibitor or handler shall have the right to demand of the manager, superintendent, secretary or any member of the show committee, the weighing or measuring of any dog during the judging of the class, other than those whose weight has been officially registered. The club must provide scales for the use of the exhibitors and judges.

XV. Bench show committees may provide such classes for dogs of established breeds as they choose, providing they do not conflict with the under-mentioned classes recognized by the Canadian Kennel Club; all such classes shall be under the supervision of the Canadian Kennel Club.

1st. The puppy class shall be for dogs over six months, and not exceeding twelve months of age, and no entry can be made of one whose date of birth is unknown.

Puppies may be removed from a show after they have been judged, but only after the closing of the show in any evening.

2nd. The novice class shall be for American-bred dogs, never having won a first prize at any show recognized by the Canadian Kennel Club or the American Kennel Club, wins in the puppy class excepted. No entry for novice class can be made that does not give the name and address of the breeder. An American-bred dog is one born on the Continent of North America.

3rd. The limit class shall be for all dogs never having won four first prizes in the limit class at any shows recognized by the Canadian Kennel Club, or the American Kennel Club, but no dog having obtained the title of champion anywhere shall be eligible for this class.

4th. The open class shall be for all dogs.

5th. The winners class at any show shall be open only to winners of first prizes in any of the above classes, recognized by the Canadian Kennel Club at that show. Winners class or classes must be provided for in every breed recognized by the Canadian Kennel Club for which a classification has been provided.

Before awarding reserve in the winners class, the dog or dogs, having been placed second to the winner in any of the classes recognized by the Canadian Kennel Club must also be brought before the judge for competition.

All class winners must compete in the winners class. No entry fee shall be charged for competition in this class.

Winners classes shall not be allowed where two or more breeds are combined.

The winners class shall be divided by sex, provided at least the open class is also divided by sex.

Only two winners classes may be offered in any one breed (except Cocker Spaniels), one for dogs, and one for bitches. In Cocker Spaniels, four winners classes may be offered, i.e., black dogs, black bitches, any other color dogs, any other color bitches.

Ten points, which must be won under at least three different judges at three different shows, shall constitute a championship, the winner of which shall be recognized as a champion by the Canadian Kennel Club and duly recorded as such. If all ten points have been won while the dog was registered in the Canadian Kennel Club Stud Book, and while owned by a member of the Canadian Kennel Club he shall be entitled to a championship cup.

The number of points allotted at any show shall depend upon the number of dogs actually benched, as follows:

Not less than 600 dogs shall count five points.

Not less than 500 dogs shall count four points.

Not less than 400 dogs shall count three points.

Not less than 250 dogs shall count two points.

Less than 250 dogs shall count one point.

The scale of points for all shows held west of Port Arthur and in the Maritime Provinces shall be as follows:

Not less than 300 dogs shall count five points.

Not less than 250 dogs shall count four points.

Not less than 200 dogs shall count three points.

Not less than 150 dogs shall count two points.

Less than 150 dogs shall count one point.

In case of shows confined to any three breeds or to any one of the following groups:

(a) Sporting Terriers.

(b) Sporting Spaniels.

(c) Sporting dogs, not included in (a) and (b).

(d) Non-sporting dogs, large, to include Collies, St. Bernards, Great Danes, Mastiffs, Newfoundlands, Old English Sheep Dogs, Dalmatians, Pinschers.

(e) Non-sporting dogs, small, to include Bulldogs, Boston Terriers, French Bulldogs, Black and Tan Terriers, Chows, Samoyedes.

(f) All Toys, including Schipperkes and all Poodles.

The scale of points shall be as follows:

Not less than 200 dogs shall count four points.

Not less than 150 dogs shall count three points.

Not less than 100 dogs shall count two points.

Less than 100 dogs shall count one point.

In case of shows conducted by specialty clubs, and confined to one breed, the scale of points shall be as follows:

Not less than 100 dogs shall count four points.

Not less than 75 dogs shall count three points.

Not less than 50 dogs shall count two points.

6th. The miscellaneous class shall be open to all dogs of established breeds for which no regular class has been provided in the premium list. Entries in this class must specify the breed of the exhibit. Failure to comply with this condition shall cancel the award, if any, and the dog shall be ineligible for entry in any other class.

XVI. In estimating the number of prizes a dog has won, the number of prizes won shall be calculated up to 12 p.m. of the day preceding the closing of the entries of the show.

XVII. If a prize winner is disqualified, the next dog of merit as placed by the judge shall be given the prize thus forfeited, and the win shall count in every respect the same as if it had been the original award. An equal first prize shall be counted as a win for each dog, dividing first and second money, the dog next in order of merit receiving third money.

XVIII. No dog eligible for special prizes can be withdrawn from competitions unless it has been stated on the entry blank, "Will not compete for special prizes."

XIX. Dogs may be entered for exhibition or for specials only, if so stated on the entry blank, but dogs competing for specials only must be entered in one of the regular classes in which they need not compete.

In judging "general specials" or specials of a similar nature, the competition shall be restricted to dogs that have won first in their respective winners' classes. In cases where a special prize has already been awarded for the best of a breed, only the winners of this special shall compete.

XX. No special prizes may be accepted or offered by a show committee after the regular judging has commenced.

Any club, organization or association giving a show shall be held responsible for the collection of special prizes and delivery to the winners thereof, within sixty days of the closing of the show. In case of default on the part of the donor of a special prize, an appeal may be made to the Canadian Kennel Club executive.

XXI. The age of a dog shall be calculated up to and inclusive of the day preceding the show; for instance, a dog whelped April 30th shall not be eligible on April 30th of the following year to compete for dogs under twelve months of age.

XXII. A protest may be made by any exhibitor, or any member of a club holding a show under the sanction of this association; but must be in writing, and be lodged with the secretary of the show within seven days of the last day of the show, but a protest may be made to the executive committee of the Canadian Kennel Club within one month of the close of the show, in event of which notice shall be given to the club holding the show. No objection shall be entertained, unless accompanied by a deposit of $5.00, except the same is lodged in the name of the Canadian Kennel Club, which may be made at any time. (For subsequent proceedings in protest see Rule XI. of Club Regulations.)

XXIII. A person guilty of misconduct of any kind in connection with dogs, dog shows or field trials, may be suspended, disqualified or expelled by the executive committee of the Canadian Kennel Club. The suspension, disqualification or expulsion of an owner shall apply to all dogs owned by him or connected with the perpetration of a fraudulent act.

XXIV. No person under suspension or sentence of disqualification or expulsion may enter, exhibit, judge, act as agent or handler for an exhibitor, or take a dog into the ring at any show, or be connected in any capacity with dog shows held under the Canadian Kennel Club Rules.

XXV. Entries made in the name of a kennel must be accompanied by the name or names of the actual proprietors, unless such kennel is registered with the Canadian Kennel Club. The partners in a kennel will be deemed equally culpable in the case of fraud perpetrated in the kennel name.

A kennel located in Canada and owned exclusively by Canadian citizens, whether resident in Canada or not, shall be considered a Canadian-owned kennel.

XXVI. The person presenting the identification ticket shall be recognized as the agent of the owner in the latter's absence, and his receipt for prize money shall be binding on the owner, unless notice to the contrary is endorsed on the identification ticket.

REGULATIONS GOVERNING CLUBS HOLDING SHOWS UNDER C.K.C. RULES.

Any organization, club or association may hold a dog show under Canadian Kennel Club Rules, provided it abides by the following regulations:

1. Sec. 1. Application for dates, and for sanction of the show must be made in writing and filed with the secretary of the Canadian Kennel Club for approval by the executive committee, or such sub-committees as may be empowered to grant dates, but no dates or sanction shall be granted more than four months previous to the opening of the show.

Sec. 2. The executive committee shall have power to grant or withhold dates.

Sec. 3. The same dates or any part of them shall not be granted to more than one club within two hundred miles of each other, unless such clubs are specialty clubs of entirely different breeds.

Sec. 4. Such approval, however, shall be subject to the subsequent endorsement of the premium list as being in accordance with the requirements of the Canadian Kennel Club.

II. Sec. 1. Application for dates and sanction of show must be accompanied by a deposit of $25.00, which must be forfeited in event of the show not being held, or failure to comply with the requirements of the Canadian Kennel Club, as set forth herein.

Sec. 2. Shows not exceeding 250 entries will be charged a fee of $10.00; 250 and under 350 entries, $15.00; 350 and under 450 entries, $20; and over 450 entries, $25.00. The counting of the number of entries for this purpose shall include every entry in the catalogue, whether in classes recognized by the Canadian Kennel Club or not. The difference between this amount, and that of the deposit shall be refunded when complete returns have been made to the Canadian Kennel Club.

III. Sec. 1. The show shall not extend beyond four full days.

Sec. 2. Entries shall not be received less than two days prior to the first day of the show, and a club accepting any entry after that date shall be subject to a fine of not less than $10.00 for each entry so accepted. No alteration of the date of closing entries shall be allowed.

Sec. 3. Classification shall be confined to established breeds, which may be divided by sex and otherwise, as provided for in the dog show rules. No change in classification will be allowed unless announced before the date for closing entries, unless such change is covered by the published regulations of the show.

IV. Sec. 1. Every bench show must employ a qualified veterinary surgeon.

Sec. 2. A qualified veterinary surgeon is a graduate of a recognized college entitled to confer the degree of V.S., or one who without having a diploma, has had at least five years' practical experience to fit him for the practice of his profession.

He must examine all dogs entered, and no dog shall be benched unless passed upon by him. He must also personally inspect the dogs on the benches, and in the quarters where the dogs are crated and exercised, before 6 p.m. on the opening day of the show, and also at least once in the morning of each day during the continuance of the show. He must hand in a written report to the dog show committee.

V. The premium list must contain the dog show rules and regulations of the Canadian Kennel Club, also a list of the officials under whose management the show is to be held, who, with the exception of the paid employees, are held responsible for the payment of all prizes within sixty days of the last day of the show, in default of which the said officials, or such of them as the executive committee of the Canadian Kennel Club deem culpable, shall be suspended, disqualified or expelled for such time as the executive of the Canadian Kennel Club shall determine.

VI. A certificate of the number of dogs actually present, signed by the president or chairman of the bench show committee, and the secretary or superintendent of the show, and endorsed by one or more members of the C.K.C. executive committee, shall be sent by registered mail before the close of the show to the secretary-treasurer of the C.K.C. Blank forms for this purpose will be supplied by the C.K.C.

VII. All prizes must be in accordance with their description in the premium list. Prizes must be of the purity of standard coin, except in the case of gold, which must not be of less than 12 karat. Prizes in a given class shall be awarded regardless of the number of entries, except as otherwise defined in Rule XII.

VIII. A club may act as agent for exhibitors and accept the fee for listing, but must make immediate returns thereof to the Canadian Kennel Club. A penalty of $10.00 for each day will be enforced for any delay beyond thirty days from the date of closing of the show, in making such returns to the Canadian Kennel Club.

IX. The catalogue of the show must give all particulars required of exhibitors in entering their dogs, as provided in Rules II., III., IV., XV., (Sections 1, 2 and 6), of the Dog Show Rules. It must also contain a list of officers under whose management the show is held.

X. Only Canadian Kennel Club Stud Book numbers shall be used in the catalogue.

XI. Sec. 1. In event of a protest being filed in accordance with Rule XXII. of the Dog Show Rules, the mode of procedure shall be as follows: Immediately upon lodging of a protest with the secretary of a show, it shall be his duty to request the judge to select reserve numbers, if he has not already done so, in order that any prize which would be affected by the disqualification of the protested dog may not fail of being awarded.

Sec. 2. An objection must be decided by the committee of the dog show within twenty days from its receipt. If not decided during the show, five days' notice of the date and place of meeting for that purpose must be given to all parties interested.

Sec. 3. From any such decision or decisions appeal may be taken to the executive committee of the Canadian Kennel Club, but such appeal must be forwarded to the secretary of the Canadian Kennel Club within seven days of the decision being rendered, together with the deposit of $10.00. If the decision appealed from is sustained, the $10.00 deposit shall be forfeited to the Canadian Kennel Club, but if the decision is reversed, then all deposits must be returned to the applicant.

XII. In the event of the cancellation of a win or disqualification of a dog by a show committee, notice of such shall be forwarded within twenty-four hours to the secretary of the Canadian Kennel Club, who shall at once notify the president, or in his absence, the vice-president, who shall investigate the case, and, if he see fit suspend the penalty until the next meeting of the executive committee. The executive committee must at their first meeting thereafter either cancel or sustain the decision of the show committee, and impose such penalty as they deem fit.

The disqualification of an owner shall apply to all dogs owned by him or connected with the perpetration of a fraudulent act. The executive committee of the Canadian Kennel Club is, however, empowered to use such discretion in the enforcement of this penalty as shall protect innocent parties.

No person shall, however, be disqualified without due notice, and formal charges and specifications, and an opportunity given of being heard in his own defence.

XIII. Such regulations may be adopted for the government of any show as shall be considered necessary, provided they do not conflict with any of the foregoing or of the Dog Show Rules.

ADDITIONAL CHANGES.

Constitution, By-Laws and Rules of The Canadian Kennel Club.

ARTICLE II.

Sec. 3. All partners of a kennel must be separately members of the Canadian Kennel Club in order that the kennel may be recognized and have the privileges of membership.

Regulations governing clubs holding shows under C.K.C. Rules. II., Sec. 3. Any person or persons acting in any official capacity, paid or unpaid, including that of judge, secretary, superintendent, steward, clerk of a show, or as an officer or member of a bench show committee of any club holding a show in the Dominion of Canada under any rules other than those of the Canadian Kennel Club (Incorporated) shall be disqualified and debarred from all privileges of the same.

GAZETTE REPORT.

I wish to express my appreciation of the report on Irish Terriers at New York, written by Mr. Joseph Meehan. It was a real treat, a very complete and interesting writeup, and to those of us who could not attend the show and see the dogs, it was just the sort of news item we welcome and relish. The usual run of so-called reports might often be left unsaid, consisting of stale and hackneyed wording and with so painful abbreviation as to suggest the writer was eager to get it over with.

To me the best news is the bench show writeup—the most readable and the most sought for in the kennel papers. We like to get all the reporter can give us of the chief contestants, even to repetition of the better known winners, for repeated criticism gives us opinions which either confirm or condemn. If we could have more detail—a more generous description of the dogs—it would make more intelligent reading and likewise of greater interest.

WINNIPEG DOGS MEET GREAT SUCCESS AT MINNEAPOLIS SHOW.

Minneapolis, Minn., April 11.—The Minneapolis Dog Show closed to-day and was one of the best in the history of the club. The quality of dogs shown compare favorably with any show held on the American continent. All the leading kennels in America exhibited. The Winnipeg dogs again demonstrated their ability to hold their own in the best of company, by getting away with many popular wins in some of the hottest competitions. The judge, Holland Buckley, of London, England, the noted Airedale expert, attracted entries in this breed from all over the continent, one dog coming all the way from Vancouver, B.C., and despite the strong competition the Winnipeg entry, Ch. Clipston First Shot, gave a very good account of himself under the expert, by winning second American bred, limit and open and reserve winners, being beaten by the best Airedale in America, Ch. King Nobler. In English Setters, Lanark Prince, F. W. Scott's handsome dog, landed winner in a very strong class. Irish Setters was won by Mrs. Styles' Ch. Gilmor Shan, giving both dogs eight points towards an American championship. When Pointers were called, the celebrated Yumas Tonti, now claiming the proud title of international champion, simply walked away from the American champion, Rip Tie Pointer, and annexed winners.

Adams' Dogs in Front.

Bulldogs were a strong class, but J. J. Adams' grand little dog, Ch. Mersey Pilot, proved equal to the occasion, taking winners and special for best of breed. R. Cowan's grand little bitch, Cowan's Peggy, followed with two firsts and reserve winners bitches, with Chinook Queen two firsts in the heavyweight division, and Courtney Coronet, from the same kennels, second limit and second open. American Bull Terriers found a grand specimen in Faultless Flirt, which proved herself without a doubt to be quite the best Bull Terrier of her weight living, taking winners in a very strong class. This handsome dog is owned by Mrs. C. Thompson; she also gets special for best of either sex, in a class of nine. Her handler, John C. Fletcher, was offered and refused the princely sum of eight hundred dollars for this bitch by a leading fancier. Irish Terriers found Winnipeg with only one entry, Ch. Seven Oak's Play Boy, who landed third place against the best Irishmen America can produce.

The Awards.

The awards are as follows:—

Airedales, Ch. Clipston First Shot, 2 limit, 2 American bred, 2 open, and reserve winners.

Pointers, Yumas Tonti, 1 open and winners.

English Setters, Lanark Prince, 1 limit, 1 open and winners.

Irish Setters, Gilmor Shan, 1 limit, 1 open and winners.

English Bulldogs, Ch. Mersey Pilot, 1 limit, 1 open and winners. Courtney Coronet, 2 limit, 2 open. Good Shot, 3 limit. Good Luck, 1 novice, 2 limit, being beaten by Ch. Mersey Pilot. Bitches, Cowan's Peggy, 1 limit, 1 open and reserve winners. Chinook Queen, 1 limit, 1 open.

Bull Terriers, Faultless Flirt, 1 limit, 1 open and winners.

Irish Terriers, Seven Oak's Play Boy, 3 limit, reserve open.

Best dog in the show, all breeds, Gypsey Moth, owned by the Vickery Kennels.

Winnipeg Free Press, Apr. 13, 1914.

Dog Show at Victoria, B.C.

Under C.K.C. Rules

Victoria City Kennel Club.

A well managed show was held in the enlarged building of the Victoria Exhibition Association on April 13th and 14th.

The judges were Mr. J. Fletcher, who took Bulldogs, Bull Terriers, French Bulls, Collies and Toys. Mr. F. Butler, who handed out the ribbons in all the Terrier classes, except Bull Terriers and Bostons, and Mr. George Tinto, of Seattle, took the remainder.

The two first named are comparatively recent arrivals from the Old Country and had not judged on the coast before.

The new judging ring, with tiers of seats on three sides overlooking the ring, is a decided step in advance, and greatly enhanced the enjoyment of the function.

The following notes on some of the prize winners may prove of interest.

Great Danes, a goodly number, but as usual here nothing typical. Sharkey, very common in head, took winners in dogs. Selma, coarse in head, sway backed and very light in bone, won in bitches. Aulger, placed 3rd in novice bitches, has more Dane character than any of her competitors.

Wolfhounds, a magnificent specimen is Ch. Genest of Rosseau, who travelled from Edmonton to show the coast fanciers what a Wolfhound can be at his best. His kennel companion, Ch. Caerhysddu Elka, accounted for the honors in bitches.

Greyhounds were moderate. Roy, a black, was better in his pins and moved freely. He has the best proportioned body but inferior to the 2nd in muzzle and spring of ribs. Bonnie, long in loin and not the best of movers, came second.

English Setters were good classes as usual here. Novice dogs, Victoria Prince, first, is a big dog, rather strong in head. Arbutus Duke, with well shaped outline and good legs and feet, but plain in head, came second. Limit dogs, first as above, second, Dr. Medd's Jack, has a fair head but good expression. He lacks bone. Third, Arbutus Jack, has a good head, but symmetry spoiled by length of stern. Open dogs, first Arbutus Spot, has grand body and legs, skull somewhat wide. Novice bitches, first, Handsome Belle, very good head, eye, down on pasterns and not quite satisfactory in shoulder. Limit bitches, first as above; second, Arbutus Viola, a big bitch, with plenty of foreface, skull plain, and rather loose in shoulder; third, Jesmond Venus, a bitch of lovely quality, but wide in front.

Irish Setters came out better than they have done for some years. Novice dogs, first Killarney Tick, is built on the right lines and has nice feather; second, Oaks Shamrock, ran him very close, has well placed ear and good muzzle, rather plain in skull; 3rd, Mike, is beaten in head properties. Limit dogs, 1st Killarney Kim, has good body with plenty of depth in chest, sound legs, good head and expression; 2nd as in novice; 3rd, Pete, is good in color, but not so good in head. Open dogs, 1st as in limit; 2nd, Wentworth Boy, a very attractive dog, sound in body, legs and feet, but built more on the English Setter lines than the winner; 3rd, Oaks Shamrock. Novice bitches, 1st, Bridget, has best color, a very typical bitch; 2nd, Madgey, not quite so rich in color, has characteristic head and is better in legs and feet than Bridget; 3rd, Oaks Myrtle, is a rangy bitch, somewhat down on her pasterns. Limit and open, were headed by the same brace; 3rd went to Peggy, a big bitch with well formed body, but not so good in head as those above her.

Pointers, novice dogs, 1st, Grouse, won well being best in back muscle and bone; 2nd, Victoria Jack, wants time to make up; 3rd, Roy, is a nice mover. Limit and open, 1st, Victoria Grouse, is a grand dog and a long way ahead of the rest; 2nd and 3rd, Cruso and Victoria Tren, are both well worth their positions, but not in the same class with the winner. Bitches, it was difficult to follow the judging owing to the fact that the competitors in these and many other classes were allowed to enter the ring without their number cards. In the open class, Victoria Belle, placed second, might well have won. She is a lovely, typical bitch full of character and hard to fault.

Irish Water Spaniels, were all shown in very loose coat. Ballyualer Mike, from Edmonton, won rightly. He has the best ears and legs, has plenty of character and good expression. Champion Paddy, 2nd, was shown in very full coat.

Field Spaniels, King, who took winners, is a fairly good specimen, but the judging was spoiled by the admission of several Springers, who had been wrongly entered and who were placed in the prize list over true Field Spaniels.

Collies, the judging here was erratic, puppy dogs, Mr. Heaton's Dick, who was alone is fit for good company. He has a nice fine head, ears too large and a good coat for a pup. Novice dogs, 2nd, Prince, is a dog of good quality, a big one with grand depth of chest, coat of good quality and long head, well shaped except that he is not flat enough in skull. He has a good eye, but does not move very freely owing to an old injury to one of his hind legs; 3rd, Dick, mentioned above; 1st was awarded to Clip, a common dog, with bad skull, eye and low ear carriage. He is well set up and has a profuse coat. This placing did not commend itself to the ringside. Limit dogs brought out a new one in the second place, Squire of Langford. He is a dog of good quality, but high in skull over the brow; Dick, placed 3rd, might have beaten him without injustice. Open dogs, 1st, Clip; 2nd and 3rd as in limit. Ch. Southport Safety and Ch. Hollywood Professor were entered for specials only, but did not complete. In tri-colors a very fine headed pup, Lark, won right through. He also took winners. He is large in ear and head is bitely. Prince is a much stronger headed dog than this one is ever likely to be, and might have won the points without evoking criticism. In the limit and open classes, Northport Blackstone was placed second. He has an abnormally long head, is light in bone and a poor mover. In bitches, Mr. J. J. Jackson's Lady Louise, not quite satisfactory in front, but otherwise an exceptionally good pup with a lovely head, eye and ear and well formed body and profuse coat, won well. In limit bitches, Southport Success was alone, a really good one with very long, well shaped head but loose in shoulder. Lady Louise took winners.

Fox Terriers, smooths were few and not up to standard. Whinstone Fox, the Edmonton dog who won his championship here, is hardly a first flighter. He is a short, cobby dog with well placed small ear and too much cheek. Madrona Handicap, 1st in puppies and novice, and 2nd in the limit and open, is long cast and down in pasterns. Rougham Chub, third, has a long, lean head, somewhat pinched in foreface. Tiley Flittergirl, the winning bitch, is a big one.

Wire haired were a good turnout showing good average quality as a whole. Puppy dogs, 1st Gadstone Pioneer, who also went through to winners, is a very smart little Terrier, a magnificent shower, good head and ear, short backed with sound legs and feet, but likely to thicken in shoulder; 2nd, Oaks Abdullah, has good head qualities and fair front, but somewhat long in the back; 3rd, Rougham Cobnut, a short backed one, somewhat bow-legged. Novice were repeats. Limit dogs, first and second as above; third, Oaks Craven, only moderate, long in couplings and coat a shade soft. Open dogs, 3rd, Strangeways Pink, a good coated small dog, but outclassed. Receipt of Paignton, unnoticed, might have gone higher. He has an excellent skull, the best neck and shoulders in the class and a dense coat. He is a trifle leggy and did not show himself in the ring. Puppy bitches, 1st, Madrona Match, has a good head and coat and deep chest, rather light in bone; 2nd, Strangeways Squib, shown well, just got ahead of Oaks Lucana, a nice, short coupled one. Novice bitches, Madrona Match held her lead all the way through to winners; 2nd and 3rd repeats. Limit bitches, 2nd, Wetaskiwin, dam of the winning dog, is a short backed, nice headed bitch, wire front and moderate coat; 3rd, Strangeways Squib, already noted.

Irish Terriers, Hardwood Finnegan, the winning dog, is a pup well above the average. He has a fair length of head, nicely placed, small ears, well formed skull and plenty of foreface. Mink, second novice, is very good in coat. Ch. Neta won in bitches, carrying her age well. Suffragette has nice expression, otherwise lacks the quality of the winner.

Airedale Terriers were as usual a very strong turnout. The feature of the judging here was the triumph of Mr. Arthur E. Harris' Captain Kettle, a home bred one, over several dogs imported from the Old Country at high prices. It is needless to say that there was some criticism heard as to this decision, but seeing that the judge was practically a newcomer in B.C. and an entire stranger to the dogs, there can be no suspicion of any prejudice in favor of the domestic product. Puppy dogs, 1st, Catskill Rector, is a taking pup, nice short back, good eye, ear and front. He was alone in his class, but would have stood well in the senior classes. Novice dogs, 1st, Captain Kettle, a two-year-old, shown for the first time, went through all his classes to winners. This dog is a splendid shower, and Mr. Harris undoubtedly made the most of him. This, coupled with the fact that he was put down in grand condition, hard as nails, probably turned the scale in his favor. He was bred by Mr. T. W. Wyndham, out of a well bred bitch who never had any pretensions as a show specimen, by that good little sire, Clonmel Flockmaster, an imported dog by Elruge Monarch, out of a Master Royal bitch. Captain Kettle has good bone for his size, and is well let down in chest, short back with very taking outline. He stands well on his feet and has a good front. He has an exceptionally good eye and well placed ear, with plenty of muzzle. His weak points are too much stop, skull rounded over the brows, and he might be better sprung in rib. In coat he might be more characteristic; 2nd, Batchelor's Masterpiece, an Elruge Monarch pup, 10 months old, who does credit to Mr. Nat. McConnell, his breeder and owner. This is a very strong pup, too heavy for his age and not pleasing in body lines, but he has a good head, ear and eye, and was put down in tip top condition; 3rd, Capilano Chinook, another big dog, full of character, but heavy in ear and inclined to be coarse. Some of the knowing ones were strong in the opinion that he should have won. Limit dogs, 1st as above; 2nd, the newly imported dog Bachelor's Boy. For his breeding alone this dog is a valuable acquisition to the fancy on the coast, and will doubtless be extensively used by breeders. On the day of the show he was not in his best form, so that an exhaustive criticism can hardly do him justice. He has a well shaped skull with well placed ear and is compactly built. He could do with more length in head and, while well sprung in ribs, he is not proportionately deep in chest, which takes away from the symmetry of his outline. He stands on good legs and feet; 3rd, Royal, a youngster with a remarkably good head and eye, and short back, but at present undersized. His ears are heavy, wants time. Other good dogs in this class were Cupilano Chinook, V.H.C., Kimberley Wonder, the winner of 1912, and Creme So Royalist, reserve, who was held back by poor condition. Ellwyn Oorang is a big, strong dog, rather plain in head. Open dogs, 1st and 2nd, repeats; 3rd, Capilano Chinook. A very attractive, short backed dog of nice quality, but on the small side, is Rougham Critic, who just failed to get into the prize list.

Puppy bitches, 1st, Killarney Marion, a 10 months old bitch, phenomenally big and well developed for her age. She has a good head and eye, but is not square cut in quarters; 2nd, Killarney Imperious, a well shaped cobby bitch with a good coat, fails in expression and might be better in coat; 3rd, Gipsy Queen, a nice type, but handicapped by youth, being barely six months old. Novice bitches, 1st and 2nd repeats; 3rd, Catskill Random, a fair bitch, but light color and stands wide in front. Limit bitches, 1st, Midland Peggy, a well shaped bitch with short, strong loin, excellent quarters, legs and feet, and a perfect coat. Her eye is rather light and she stands wide. She also falls away behind the brow slightly. A great bitch to breed from; 2nd, Ellwyn Lady, a good cobby body, poor coat; 3rd, Ellwell Psyche, only fair. Open bitches, in the absence of Ch. Killarney Queen, Ellwyn Lady and Nellie, a very moderate one, were left in.

Dachshunde, Schubart II., sounder and better in ear, beat the longer bodied dog, Teckel III.

Old English Sheepdogs, General Wainwright, on sound legs with good front and shoulder and well shaped neck, had his work cut out to get in front of Ch. Sir Alex, another top notcher. The bitch, Shepton Pleasure, has a good coat and would stand well anywhere. This breed has improved greatly during the last few years on the coast.

Retrievers, puppy dogs, Rover, alone has a nice head and dense coat. Novice dogs, Royal, alone, is a golden, rather light in color and open in coat. Limit dogs, Mallard, who beat Royal for first place, has good head and eye, but is very leggy. Open dogs, 1st, Mallard; 2nd, Friar Tuck, a useful field type, but his head is not typical; 3rd, Royal. Novice bitches, Jess, alone, is weak in foreface. Open bitches, Kite, rather coarse in head and coat too open.

Springer Spaniels, unfortunately several of these were entered and judged among the Field Spaniels, leaving only three in their proper classes. Teal, the first in dogs, has the better head, and Rag, 2nd, best body and quarters. The bitch Nell is only moderate. Other breeds I had not time to go through in detail, but hope that the above notes may prove to be of interest to your readers.

Frae Bonnie Scotland

The Caledonian Kennel Club have fixed the 10th June for their summer meeting at Edinburgh. This is a new venture, but should meet with the success it demands because no finer place for a dog show can be found than the Waverley Market, situated at the railway terminus, a well ventilated, lightsome, sanitary building, popular with the people, and at a time when the holiday makers are moving about in the Old Country, American and colonial visitors are expected.

The Ladies' Kennel Association have decided to hold their summer show at Chelsea on May 28th and we know what the fair sex have accomplished in the past, so again we look forward to a great gathering this year. The Queen Alexandra cup will be offered for the best sporting Terrier (Fox Terriers excepted). Lady Pilkington presided at the last meeting of the executive when it was arranged that Mr. Jas. Farrow would judge all sporting Spaniels, and that old authority, Mr. Handley Spicer, will judge Bloodhounds.

The Flatcoated Retriever is still keeping his place amongst sporting dogs. At Glasgow Show last month the allrounder, Jack Holgate, got his eye on a good young one bred by Mr. John Girdwood, Ayr. The dog was catalogued at £30, and after winning a few firsts was claimed by the allrounder and soon afterwards travelled across the border to Doncaster.

Mr. H. E. Gray, of Peterstone Court, Brecon has purchased a good Retriever at a long price in the bitch, Link of Shipton, from Mr. Ernest Turner. This bitch is not yet two years old, but had the honor of winning her first championship at last Kennel Club Show under that great authority on the breed, Mr. H. Reginald Cooke, of Cheshire.

The good Irish Setter dog, Rockview, of Cullinamore, belonging to Mr. T. Nuttall, is dead. He was the winner of forty-three prizes, and came out at Enniskillen in 1898. He was a winner at the Crystal Palace, Manchester and Crufts. In 1906 he won the championship at Belfast.

Mr. John Cains or Keys, a Medical Doctor in the University of Cambridge, and the founder of Cains' College, was the first writer in English of a treatise on dogs. It was not published until after his death, but was written in answer to a request from Gesner the Great Swiss Naturalist for information on the dogs of England, which he wished to incorporate in one of his treatises on natural history.

It is over 300 years since Gesner died, but many naturalists have lived since that time, and how often do we observe the tributes they invariably pay to "Man's best friend, the dog." Every dog lover in the land will be pleased to see that the British Government are trying to pass a bill protecting the dog from torture by the vivisectionist. The Bill has passed the second reading, and while much can be said on both sides of the question, the dog to many of us is almost human; is like one of the family. Even the pitman in the little country village looks on his dog as part of himself. The many incidents we could tell of his love for his dogs only go to show the truth of the saying, "Love me, love my dog." We do not want them to be subjected to the torture of the vivisectionist so long as he can procure other tribes of the lower animals from which he can get the same results.

Think of the faithfulness of the dog to his master, how he will guard the body for days, as we have known, say of the lonely shepherd on the moorland and his dog, when overtaken by the blinding snowstorm in which he meets his death.

A group of dogs at Crufts Show, which are always interesting, are what is known as the "Hero's." The prizes in this section are given by Spratts, Ltd. Here we find life savers. Surely they are worthy of old age pensions.

Amongst the group are to be found dogs which have rescued children from drowning, prevented highway robbery, defended their master against the attack of an enemy, raised the alarm in the case of fire, and saved life in various ways. But certainly one of the most sagacious acts has taken place in the home of M. Roboff, a wealthy merchant residing at Lbovo, on the Moscow Windau Rybinsk Railway, where a novel dodge was tried by burglars. It appears a new assistant, a girl named Yaklovleva, took up her duties and brought with her an extra large travelling trunk, which as she said contained all her belongings. One of the dogs attacked the box with suspicion, and when called away persisted in returning, and showed his displeasure by growling and barking, and would not be quieted. M. Roboff was informed and ordered his male servants to open the box, and to their surprise what was found but two armed burglars, who, along with Yaklovleva were immediately arrested and handed over to the police.

This is the latest method of gaining access to a mansion-house, but, thanks to canine sagacity, it has been discovered and exploited.

Carlisle, one of England's cathedral cities, is a grand centre for a show, but unfortunately the dog show was not the success we expected it to be. Sporting dogs were not so many in numbers, but the quality was good. It is always a pleasure to meet such old breeders as Geo. Potter, T. and W. Steadman, Eggleston Reay, etc. They are the real stuff. What we would call the Dalesmen, big, jolly fellows and the best sports in the world.

As will be seen from recent show records, Sealyham Terriers, are still going strong. Some good breeders are behind them, but we must remember that the smooth and wire-haired Fox Terriers take some beating, and will, in our opinion, hold their own against all comers.

The above clubs are not only backed by strong finances, one of them having the nice sum of £720 to its credit, but think of the old fanciers, able breeders, smart, long sighted business men, whose hobby is to improve and keep alive the breed they fancy; and from what we know of the men who have the Fox Terrier at heart we are certain he will win right out in the end.

Dandie Diamond Terriers were the chief attraction at Carlisle Show on the 23rd.

Sheepdog trials continue to grow in popularity in Scotland, and we don't wonder, because the work is most interesting and certainly shows the usefulness of the national sheepdog.

ANNUAL SHOW

Alberta Kennel Club, Calgary

JUNE 30, and JULY 1 and 2, 1914

$1,000.00 cash prizes and a long list of specials. 187 classes. For prize list and entry forms write to Secretary.

A. de. B. Winter, Pres.

Entries close June 20th at Calgary.

W. N. Gibson, Secretary.

One man, Alex. Miller, of Darvel, Ayrshire, won over £100 in cash with his Collies last season.

Field trials contain still more interest to the sportsman, but as a matter of fact all efforts to bring out the usefulness of the dog by way of exhibitions are on the increase, and the old sport of "Hound Trails" is becoming popular at race meetings; so much so that in the north of England, last year at Hexham Steeplechase meeting, they ventured one trail. This year they are having two. We will give our readers an idea of what a Hound Trail is in next issue.

Toronto Kennel Club Finals

The Toronto Kennel Club brought their series of evening shows for the season 1913-14 to a close on April 28th, when all previous winners came up for competition for the various cups and other specials. No less than eight silver cups were competed for, and we must say that someone deserves great credit for the getting together of such an array.

Mr. J. E. Mumford, the Hon. Sec., had everything in working order and richly deserved a vote of thanks. Mr. Arthur Atkinson, the worthy President, in a very bright and happy speech complimented the various officers on the work they had done during the season.

The committee made a very happy choice in getting Mrs. L. Carruthers to present the prizes, for her charming personality captivated all parties.

Mr. C. Lyndon judged, and we have no hesitation in saying that we entirely agree with his placings notwithstanding the fact we heard several kickers, for our memory carries us back to the evening when another judge was somewhat indifferently prompted in his placings. We hold no brief for Mr. Lyndon, but thank goodness we were spared that spectacle. The blue ribbon of the whole season—and judging by the applause the most popular win—was carried off by Mr. Joseph Perkins who beamed with good humor as he walked up for the cup donated by Sir Henry Pellatt, open to all and anybody. Next came Mr. Dickinson, who won the cup donated by J. G. Kent, Esq., for the best dog; December show, with his Mastiff, Nancy, followed by Mr. Dowling who carried off the January cup donated by J.

W. Bain, Esq., with the Bulldog, Belgrave Lady.

The February cup, donated by G. F. McFarland, Esq., was won by Mr. Sid. Perkins, with the Airedale, Persister.

March was what we might call the Toy night, with a lovely cup donated by B. F. Lewis, Esq., and six silver spoons donated by Mrs. L. Carruthers, for best of opposite sex, Mr. Marr taking the spoons with his Peke, Wee Chinee, and Mrs. Herd the cup with the Pom, Kelvinside Perfection.

The cup known as the 2 P.'s cup was donated by the Brothers Perkins for the best dog of the series, and was won by Mrs. Herd with Kelvinside Perfection, whilst the cup for best of opposite sex donated by James Mortimer, Esq., was won by Mr. Dowling, with Belgrave Lady.

The silver medal donated by Messrs. Ryrie Bros. for the best puppy, any breed, was won by Mrs. Herd, with Kelvinside Model.

A. S. Kirkland, Esq., kindly donated a couple of dog collars, whilst a fancier promptly put up two dollars for competition, in fact whilst some appeared to have a field day as regards cups, everybody with a dog seemed to win something.

We have carefully avoided any criticism of the dogs as there were practically no placings for second and third, and the winners in each case could not be denied. We wish everybody "Bon Voyage" and a safe return to the ring next season, but don't forget that there will still be dog news in the meantime, so continue to get and read your paper, the Canadian Kennel Gazette.

H. Dudley-Waters.

AWARDS.

The Sir Henry Pellatt cup, open to all, any breed, Mr. J. Perkins' Hawes Broom, Wire-haired Fox Terrier.

J. G. Kent cup for December, Mr. Dickinson's Nancy, Mastiff.

J. W. Bain cup for January, Mr. Dowling's Bulldog, Belgrave Lady.

G. F. McFarland cup for February, S. Perkins' Airedale, Persister.

B. F. Lewis cup, March, Mrs. Herd's Pom, Kelvinside Perfection. Best of opposite sex, Mr. Marr's Peke, Wee Chinee.

The 2 P.'s cup for best of series, Kelvinside Perfection. Best of opposite sex, Belgrave Lady.

Best puppy of series, Kelvinside Model.

Consolation prize, Mrs. Delaney's Gay Boy, Toy Black and Tan.

RALLY TO THE SUPPORT OF BOSTON.

Canadian Kennel Gazette,
184 Adelaide St., West,
Toronto, Canada.

Gentlemen:—As you doubtless know, the Eastern Dog Club plans to hold the next big Boston Dog Show at Mechanics' Building, November 24, 25, 26 and 27, 1914, instead of coming in February, as has been its custom. The reasons for this change are as follows:

First: It was felt too much of a strain on both the dogs and the exhibitors to have the two largest shows in the country—Boston and New York—coming within two weeks.

Second: The weather in February has been so bad that it is almost impossible to obtain a good gate.

Third: It seemed necessary to include a holiday in order to get a large enough attendance to break even.

The first of these three reasons we think explains itself. We all know what a strain it is to attend both shows. It means that the dogs come home in bad condition and for the amateur exhibitor, at least two weeks off from business. Therefore, the only thing to do is to come at least three months either before or after the New York Show. We tried two years ago coming in April, but found that it was impossible to draw any gate because baseball claims at that time everybody's attention.

The second reason is simply a matter of statistics. This year we had three bad days out of the four, and a year ago two bad days out of four.

The third reason explains itself. The entries just about pay for the prize money and, therefore, all the other incidental expenses in connection with the show have to be paid from the attendance, and it is practically impossible to make this amount unless the dates include some holiday. Thanksgiving Day was the only one which came sufficiently far away from February twenty-second, so that the dogs which are shown here can be put in condition again for New York.

The club went into the matter very deeply and it was not until after long deliberation that it finally settled upon the dates November 24, 25, 26, 27. We fully understand the risk of changing from one month to another, especially where the Boston Show and February have come to be associated together. We feel, however, that this change is for the ultimate good of the dog show game, and hope that all the exhibitors will back us up and make our venture of this autumn a successful one. It seems that Boston should have a five pointer as well as New York, so let's all pull together and see if we can't make one.

Very truly yours,
Eastern Dog Club,

NOTES FOR NOVICES.

(By "Medicus.")

The greatest of all canine troubles are worms and distemper. I have frequently written on both these topics in this column, but these notes are intended for novices; and as there are so many beginners constantly joining the fancy, it needs no apology for referring to them again. Most novices start their experience by keeping a puppy, and as puppies very rarely escape the two plagues in question, the methods of dealing with them constitute the two first lessons novices have to learn. As regards worms, up to the age of eight or nine months (if not more) puppies suffer, not from tape worm, but from the nematodes or round worms—which, by the way, must not be confused with the maw or stomach worms, a third type of parasite, but by far the least harmful of the three. The maw worm comes away singly in the faeces, and it is said that salt is the best cure for it, meat allowed to remain in salt pickle for three or four hours and then given raw being excellent. Round worms are so called because they are evacuated in a round mass, all clinging together, not because they are round in shape. They are particularly dangerous to puppies, and it is by no means an easy matter to get rid of them, because the giving of medicine to puppies is often disastrous, since the movements of the worms when they begin to feel the effects of the vermifuge are liable to cause a fit. Many valuable puppies have died in this way.

The great thing to do in order to prevent loss of puppies from worms is to give medicine soon enough to check any accumulation. A mild aperient dose given frequently is far better than waiting until the unfortunate animal is badly infested, and then giving a dose of vermifuge, which may end in disaster. As soon, therefore, as there is any reason to suppose that a puppy has worms, give him a good dose of castor oil and olive oil (in the proportion of two parts of the latter to one of the former). This will assuredly bring away some of the worms if there be any; and if their presence is revealed in this manner, then once a week give a similar dose or a dose of some other laxative—such as a capsule of cascara sagrada or any similar suitable aperient—until it is certain that the puppy is no longer badly infested, and then give a good dose of arca not on an empty stomach, followed by a drench of the castor and olive oil. That will then effect a complete clearance of whatever worms there are. In regard to the tape worms which affect older dogs, the most effective cure for these is extracts of male fern. This is a troublesome remedy to give by itself, even in the form of emulsion, but it may be given with ease and success in gelatine capsules, which are supplied of the proper sizes for all varieties of dogs by veterinary chemists. A male fern dose should be given first thing in the morning, followed in half an hour by a brisk dose of castor oil, and shortly afterwards by a breakfast of hot soup, which the dog will relish, and which will assist the action of the castor oil.

Now as to distemper—the second curse of puppyhood. It is a mistake to suppose, as so many people do, that a puppy "must" have distemper. There is no more reason for this than there is for saying that a child "must" have measles or scarlet fever. True, most children do get those complaints; so also it is true that the vast majority of puppies have to pass through distemper. It does not follow, however, that that is a necessary experience. Distemper is a contagious or infectious disorder—it is contracted by one animal from another; and to prevent a puppy from getting it, the only course is not to let him go near other puppies which are or have been suffering from it. This is a very difficult thing to do, of course, and that is why the disease is so common. Now, what are its symptoms?—running at the nose, feverish thirst, loss of flesh, diarrhoea, often skin disease; and when any of these are observed, it will be safe to suspect distemper, and treat accordingly. In my experience there is no medicine really more effective for its treatment than salicylate of quinine (obtainable of the proper strength in gelatine capsules). This is safe and beneficial whatever form the malady takes—and it takes several forms. Keep the bowels well opened, give occasional doses of acetate of ammonia solution (which any chemist will prepare of suitable strength), and let the animal have all the gentle exercise possible, and be fed with a milk-and-oatmeal diet, varied by raw meat. These are general lines of treatment, but each case must be dealt with on its merits.

Skin disease very frequently accompanies distemper, and care should be exercised in dealing with this, because it is really an attempt on the part of Nature to throw off the ill-humors of the system, and any attempt to check it too soon may result in driving the disease back, so to speak, whereas it wants to be encouraged to come out. Be particular, therefore, never to use any of the hair-stimulating remedies advertised when the trouble is connected with distemper. These stimulating preparations may be, and indeed are, very useful for making hair grow after an attack of skin complaint has been cured, but bare patches are left. But for the purpose of curing the skin trouble, without interfering with its relieving tendency in a distemper case, use some simple antiseptic wash or ointment, or both. Excellent results may be obtained by sponging the irritated parts with a lotion made by adding a few drops of liquor carbonia detergens and a few drops of glycerine to a teacupful of warm water. After using this, dry with a soft towel, and then anoint the parts with spermaceti ointment or with oleate of zinc ointment, or anything of that sort, which will keep the skin soft and supple, and free from dryness or hardness. Whilst this treatment is being carried on, give some internal medicine. Two sorts really are wanted—a blood tonic made of some preparation of iron to nourish the blood, and an aperient like compound rhubarb pills or cascara sagrada capsules, to keep the bowels open. As to feeding, raw meat is, in my view, the best.

Speaking of skin complaints reminds me that dogs are very subject to skin vermin of various kinds. These must be kept in check systematically—especially fleas, because these parasites travel from one dog to another; and it has been conclusively demonstrated that they act as a vehicle for conveying tape worm from host to host. The tape worm eggs get amongst the hair of a dog, and are swallowed by fleas, which then travel to other animals. A flea having moved off in this way is caught and swallowed by its new host, whereupon the egg it has carried is turned into what is known as a "cryptocyst," and this in turn becomes a tape worm. "Not a flea in the kennel!" was the saying attributed to a famous old huntsman; and that was the secret of his kennel being always free from tape worm. To keep dogs free from skin vermin, the most effective way is to wash frequently with a good sulphur dog soap. I am not much of an advocate for carbolic dog soaps; carbolic acid has a very injurious effect upon dogs sometimes, and is better avoided. Another excellent preparation for ridding them of fleas and other parasites is a strong solution of quassia wood. This can be purchased in chips from any chemist, and it only needs to be steeped for a few hours in cold water (cold will do quite as well as hot), and is then ready for use. Sponge the dog well with it, and then rub his coat dry with a soft towel. The bitterness will be left behind—and that is what drives out the vermin.—Our Dogs.

GREYHOUNDS WON AT BIG ENGLISH SHOW.

Greyhound is adjudged king of all breeds in the big London Exhibition. The Greyhound, St. Blaise, had the distinction of winning the trophy for the best champion of champions at the recent Crufts' Show in London. In addition, St. Blaise won the cup for the best sporting dog of all breeds. He was among the competitors at Birmingham, where G. W. Quintard's Wire Haired Fox Terrier, Matford Vic, won the cup for the best of all breeds.

THE WATERLOO CUP.

This year's Waterloo cup has been one of the most successful in its long history, and offered several features of more than ordinary interest. The presence in the stake of sixty-four dogs, of two from Australia and one from Russia, says the London Sportsman, gave it a practically international complexion, and since they represented some of the best form of their respective countries of origin their defeat in the great event accentuates the triumph and the quality of the home-bred Greyhound to which the coveted coursing prize ultimately went. As is usually the case, several pronounced favorites went down, and the vicissitudes of the sport were made apparent in more than one direction, but there is little doubt that the best dog won, and the success of the Messrs. Dennis with Dilwyn was highly popular, though many speculators pinned their faith to her kennel companion, Distingue.

Once again the Duke of Leeds had to be content with the runner-up, and Leucoryz followed in the footsteps of Lang Syne, Lapal and Lavishly Cloth-ed, which were beaten in the cup finals in 1898, 1899 and 1900, respectively. The winners in 1912 and 1913, Tide Time and Hung Well, both went down, but Once Australia somewhat redeemed the reputation of Australia by taking the Plate in meritorious fashion. The weather during the three stages of the meeting was all that could be wished for coursing, and it is very probable that as regards the attendance a record was reached.

MAN AND HIS DOG.

Closeness of Bond Between the Two Exemplified.

The story comes from Paris that after the recent death of Mistral, the famous poet of Provence, his dog, an old black Spaniel that had been his close companion for years, so mourned for his vanished master that he refused to be comforted. He ate nothing and passed the days in moaning softly to himself in corners of the darkened house, going occasionally to Mistral's chair and bed in the hope that he might have returned. Finally he could endure the separation no longer and died.

It is related that the dogs belonging to James Gordon Bennett, that have been with him in his travels, pathetically refuse to be shut away from him during his illness at Cairo. Another current story is that of a dog in Boston whose owner, passing out of life first, provided by will a liberal sum for the pet animal's care. The will, whose probate was contested by the heirs because of this item, has been upheld by the court.

In these three cases are illustrated both the love of dogs for man and man's love for dogs. It is a close bond, closer than most men, even when fond of animals, are willing to acknowledge. Yet many a man knows that his heart has ached when his dog has died, and that the memory of the friendly, affectionate eyes has lingered long with him and he has missed his four-footed companion as he has not always missed his human friends.

The unselfishness of the dog, his loyalty, his faithfulness, his sincere joy in his master's presence go to make strong the tie between him and man. Ill fortune does not drive him away; he goes hungry that he may be near the human creature he loves, though that creature be a tramp and a beggar. Brutal treatment does not alienate him; Bill Sikes' dog was his friend to the last. He gives comfort even to lovers left disconsolate. Cries one of these:

I loved a woman; it came to an end,
Get a good dog, sir; you have a friend.

Among those who love dogs best and who believe that the human soul fares on in another world are not a few who cherish a hope that in that happy land they may find again their old companions, made more articulate perhaps and with dumb souls released from prison. It is a harmless hope, and who knows how sound may be its basis?

DEATH OF CH. WESTON QUEEN 'O QUALITY.

Collie breeders and owners will no doubt regret to hear that Mr. Tom Milner, of "Weston" fame, has lost, through abortion, that well known prize-winner and brood bitch, Champion Weston Queen O' Quality. Queen was well known around Toronto, as well as Winnipeg, and fresh in the memory is her appearance at the O. K. C. Show, when as a puppy Donald Munroe sent her right from puppy to winners. On that occasion she remained in Toronto nine months, owing to the rabies scare. Under Dr. Jarrett, at C.N.E., she again left nothing behind, and at London two years in succession she was a bit too good for any of them, walking away with the Dr. Niven cup for best Collie in show. Frank Dole at Winnipeg soon found she was the leading lady and again she cleaned up. She always won on her merits, and the following reports will show that she was no "handler made" champion.

Canadian Kennel Gazette of November, 1911, says on her win at the C.N.E., Toronto:—The winning bitch, Weston Queen O' Quality, is of exceptional merit, sound and of good substance, beautifully fashioned, long head, excellent expression and symmetrical. Mr. James Watson, in his report of London show, says: Weston Queen O' Quality took winners in a walk. As a brood bitch, Queen produced Ch. Weston All Quality and many other winners, including Weston Primrose, who has piled up a host of prizes since her debut at Winnipeg last February, and has also won at Brandon and Moose Jaw the only times shown.

Queen was the first Canadian-bred Collie to win championship honors in Western Canada, and her loss is greatly felt by her breeder, Tom Milner.

WHAT OUR BUSINESS PAGES SAY.

Chas. L. Mewburn, Hamilton, offers in his two ads this month, Airedale and S. H. Fox Terriers. The Airedales include one brood bitch, one dog puppy and four bitch puppies. The Fox Terriers offered are Danby Dragoon, Danby Rakeoff and Danby Blue Blood. At the prices asked these should not last long.

Rockley Dark Saint, that good Airedale, is offered at stud by Mr. Sid. Perkins, Toronto. His ad gives you a good description of Saint, whose breeding is a direct outcross of the present day bitches. The services of Rockley Ranger are also offered.

English Setters, three months old, are offered by Dr. G. H. Bowen, Minden, Ont. They are bred right.

Pure bred St. Bernards from the choicest English and American stock are offered by G. R. Wincott, Glen Ewen, Sask. Young and old stock always on hand for sale.
