THE inevitable has happened. The Canadian Kennel Club has been compelled, very reluctantly, to disqualify a number of those who have officiated at shows contrary to the rules of the club, among them previous officers of the club, old friends and old members. Nothing could have been more unpleasant to the executive committee than to have to take such a step,

NOTICE TO MEMBERS

The Annual Meeting of the Canadian Kennel Club (Inc.) will be held in the Board Room of the Administration Building of the Canadian National Exhibition, on Wednesday, September 9, at 8 p.m.

The Annual Membership Fee of $3.00 is payable in advance. As the year begins September 1st, members are requested to forward their dues before that date.

indeed, its desire and efforts to avoid doing so amounted almost to weakness for they hesitated long. But they acted with firmness when the necessity arose. Every opportunity was given to each offender to explain, two registered letters having been addressed to each, one of warning before the offence and one asking for an explanation after; and, no doubt, any reasonable explanation would have been accepted, so that the only view to take of the stand of those who refused to take advantage of these opportunities was that of open and intentional defiance of this club's rules. Those who have now come under this club's discipline, therefore, have no one to blame but themselves.

There is an extraordinary and almost unbelievable impression among some of the opponents of this club, that it is acting in the aggressive and is attacking its opponents. Nothing is or can be farther from the actual facts. For many months this club stood all sorts of misrepresentation and underhanded attack without notice, and, not until these attacks became such as to injure personally those who had remained loyal to it, did this club take any steps, and then only such as to protect those who were being injured in those sections where the disaffection is active, and then only at the earnest solicitation of those who were feeling keenly the weight of the attack. And the steps taken were only such as to preserve to this club rights and liberties that it had held for over twenty years.

It is astonishing the ignorance displayed by many as to the rules of the Canadian Kennel Club, and of its recent enactments. Fanciers of some years' standing and who naturally would be expected to have some knowledge of what is being done, accuse this club of having rules that do not exist in its constitution, or demand changes that have already been made. We have been accused of tying down the Western Provinces under the dictation of our provincial vice-presidents, or, in other words, to what has been termed one-man rule. Anyone who takes the trouble to inform himself of the club's affairs knows that we were not only willing but eager to give an advisory board to Manitoba, and that such a board is in existence; that British Columbia has for years had a written agreement with the club whereby every club holding a show under C.K.C. rules was given a representative on the advisory board, and that this board now exists, consisting of a representative from the Victoria City Kennel Club, the Terminal City Kennel Club, and our provincial vice-president. We have also repeatedly urged the members in Alberta to form an advisory board. And it is on the strength of such ignorance the club is being attacked.

A favorite expression with those who wish to criticize this club is that it cannot see beyond the Great Lakes. What object would be gained by such an attitude it is hard to understand, and if any such short-sighted feeling exists it is in the minds of those so fond of using the expression. The personnel of those at the top of affairs in the Canadian Kennel Club is far too broad in mind and heart to give any excuse for such an opinion being attached to them, and they consider at all times the general good of the club. To be sure, they are not mind-readers, nor are they responsible if, in the past, complaints have been suppressed. They cannot correct grievances of which they are ignorant. But every petition or grievance has always received their careful consideration, whether trifling or important. On the other hand, those who wish to take advantage of the club, counting on its ignorance, need only look for failure. It is well informed as to conditions and individuals at home as well as to those separated from it by a distance, therefore, attempts to pull the wool over its eyes must be expected to fail. It does not need eyesight sufficient to pierce a brick wall to recognize such attempts and to know the origin of veiled attacks, even when coming from a protestingly friendly source.

It should be well understood that No. II., Section 3, of Show Rules, concerning disqualification, acts automatically, and that it is not necessary that it should be passed on by any meeting of the Executive Committee or of the club. Any explanations, however, from those who have infringed on this rule will be brought up and considered at the next executive meeting of the club.

A contemporary of ours published in the United States is very solicitous of the position of our president, Mr. Kent. It fears that he was acting in ignorance of the actual affairs of the club when he wrote the editorial in last month's "Kennel and Bench." Sufficient for us to say that no one in the Canadian Kennel Club is more closely and fully conversant with the actual affairs of the club than its president. All important documents are put before him, and he visits the office of the club very frequently. In fact, he is giving the club a great deal of time and attention, and knows what he is saying.

ADJOURNED MEETING OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE CANADIAN KENNEL CLUB.

The meeting was held at 8.15 on Tuesday, July 21st, in the club rooms, 774½ Yonge Street, the President, Mr. John G. Kent, in the chair.

There were present Messrs. Bain, McFarland, Swann, Jacobi, Farewell, Nordheimer, Lieut.-Col. C. M. Nelles.

The secretary pointed out that under Rule II., Section 3, of the regulations governing clubs holding shows under C.K.C. rules the following were disqualified: Geo. P. Sterling, J. C. Fletcher, E. W. Mermagen, Fred W. Scott, V. C. Kobold, T. Roche, F. Walsh, D. McKay, W. A. Love, J. B. Guarnera, A. P. Mutchmor, R. Cowen, R. G. Persse, R. Inkster, J. M. Aldritt, E. Dwyer, C. B. Beardsley, Walter Brown, W. Dunthorne, J. Nelson, J. H. Holman, J. J. Adams, Chas. Thompson, W. Johnston, Fred Gates, Ed. Bissette, W. C. Lee, A. Stewart, W. Wilson, C. Cowell, J. F. Young, Geo. Humphries, J. Ritchie, H. Johnson, Fred T. Miller, George Saunders, Dr. S. T. Martin, F. W. McGill, H. Short, R. J. Foley, Mrs. R. G. Persse, Geo. Kynoch, Dr. M. C. O'Brien, R. H. Elmes, G. H. Lavender.

On recommendation of the Manitoba Advisory Board it was moved by Mr. Bain, seconded by Lieut.-Col. C. M. Nelles, that W. A. Love be reinstated.—Carried.

Mr. Bain gave notice of motion to amend Article 5, Section 1, by substituting in line three, for the word "twelve" the word "fifteen," and the secretary is instructed to publish same in the official organ.

Notes and News from England

Mrs. Thomas W. Larsen, of Newburgh, New York, has brought from Mrs. Moore the well-known Chow Chows, Hildewell Blue Muff, Hildewell Snow & Hildewell Inky.

Mr. P. L. Savage, of St. Charles, U. S., has purchased from Mr. W. Grimshaw that well-known winning Collie (rough) dog Parkside Pro Patria.

Mr. Benedict, of Denver, Colorado, has bought the well-known Bull Terrier bitch, Judy in whelp to Silver Cheeky.

Knowing that Canadian dog fanciers are greatly interested in St. Bernards, I think that the following will draw their special attention. The St. Bernard Club have recently issued their report, in which Mr. H. Stocken passes in survey the position of the breed in 1913. He says that the St. Bernard is as good and typical nowadays as it has ever been since he started exhibiting, and he continues thus: "With a bitch like Ch. Destiny of Duffryn and a dog like Ch. the Pride of Sussex to lead the breed, how can people talk as I have heard them? No St. Bernard has ever done what these two have done, and if the breed has so deteriorated, well, then, all other breeds must be very bad, indeed, and I think we can safely leave these croakers to get what consolation they can get out of this. Again, there is no getting away from the fact that at the present time the dogs exhibited are, with very few exceptions, sound, and when I started breeding they were just the opposite, it being the exception to find sound dogs." Mr. Stocken is quite right in what he says about the soundness of the present-day St. Bernard. He also says that many new exhibitors have joined the ranks of the St. Bernard fanciers, and some of the old ones, who had abandoned the breed, have returned to the "flock."

In the same report one reads with interest Mr. L. C. R. Morris-Elye's reminiscences of the Club, reminiscences going back to 1882. It was then that the first show of the St. Bernard Club took place, with 252 entries. When Mr. Morris-Elye was proposed to serve on the Committee, his proposer, among other considerations, urged that he was a fast bowler! A member, while speaking once about a dog which had been exported to America, said: "I have always wondered why Blank sold Blank to America." "Perhaps to improve the breed of St. Bernards in England," was the very sarcastic reply.

In "the Daily Telegraph" there appeared quite recently a very interesting article "Collie Reminiscences," by Mr. A. Croxton Smith, which I wish to quote to your readers.

"....by happy chance Mr. Stevens came along, and we entered into a discussion upon the respective merits of these dogs to-day and their forebears of twenty years ago. Mr. Stephens is well qualified to express an opinion, considering that since the death of the Rev. Hans Hamilton he may almost be looked upon as the doyen of the variety. Possibly Mr. Tom Stretch may have been exhibiting before him, but of this I should not like to speak with any certainty. At any rate, the active association of the first-named gentleman goes back to the year 1880. He was able to recall that in the year 1884 in that very town (Tunbridge Wells) he was exhibiting with success, and from the catalogue that he has been good enough to send for my inspection I see that he won first in a large class of bitches with Norwick Moss. The entry then is very different from what it was last week, one class alone containing sixteen dogs—described, by the way, as "Collies and Sheepdogs." Among others of the old brigade represented were Dr. Edwards Ker and Mr. W. W. Thompson. This carries us back to the palmy days of the breed, when prices were beginning to bound upwards, and a man looked upon Collie farming as one of the most profitable of pursuits. It was about 1887 that Mr. Megson gave £500 for Ch. Metchley Wonder. Before this he had paid £250 for Rutland, who in 1885 had distinguished himself by lowering the colors of the previously unbeaten Charlemange. Good dogs not being as common in those days as at the present time, Charlemange (bred in 1879 by Mr. Bissell) never failed to attract the public when it was announced that he was to appear at any show. In 1890, his last time out, he won the special for the best Collie at the Collie Club Show, held in the old Central Hall, Holborn. It has been said, however, that sentiment favored the veteran on that occasion. Some of the stories told about Rutland are not altogether authentic, notably that which ascribes his sale by his breeder, the Rev. Hans Hamilton, for £5. Mr. Hamilton, always generous, gave him away, but he was afterwards purchased for the sum mentioned by Mr. Beddington. On one occasion Mr. Hamilton told the late Lord Davey that an offer of £300 had been refused for Charlemagne, to which came the prompt rejoinder, "Two fools." However, the clergyman was able to give the great lawyer some information which made him revise his opinion, although this was a year or two before breeders began to think in thousands. It is common knowledge that during the past few years Collies have been under an eclipse, and those who thought they discerned better times in view cannot derive much encouragement from the registration figures. Since 1906, when 1368 were registered at the Kennel Club, the decline has been uniform, until last year the sorry total of 795 was recorded. Various reasons, into which I need not enter now, may be suggested to account for this lamentable result. With regard to the dog, Mr. Stephens is optimistic, as he writes to me; "In my opinion the Collie has improved in make and shape. He is better in neck and shoulders, legs and feet. The head is much longer, the muzzle finer. The skull must be sufficiently wide for brains, and a fine tapering muzzle is correct, provided there is no weakness of the jaw or an over shot mouth. The ear of the present day Collie is a little more than half the size, and the correct semi-erect carriage which breeders strove hard to obtain years ago is now almost always seen. The round full eye has been superseded by a dark, more almond-shaped one, which gives the dog a keen and intelligent expression. The modern Collie is an improvement on the old-fashioned in every feature, but coat. Coats nowadays are nothing like so heavy or harsh in texture as thirty years ago, and that very essential undercoat is often lacking in some of the noted prize-winners. Not being a Collie man, any criticism of mine is not likely to carry much weight, but I cannot help feeling that the heads are a bit on the fine side, while many muzzles have the appearance of weakness. As I write, before me is a picture of a bitch, Beck Bridget, owned by Mr. Stephens many years back, and as far as looks go I prefer her style of head to the modern. Hers seemed to be long enough and fine enough for all purposes. Most will be agreed that coats have deteriorated, and I suppose the majority will also be in accord with Mr. Stephens in praising the newer ear, eye and better body properties. Deficiency in covering is a serious defect, for the beautiful, profuse, showy coats of the Collies took everyone by storm, making them general household favorites."

The well-known Yorkshire Terrier dog, Pellon Earlsmead Bobby, has been sold by Mr. J. Greenwood to Mr D. Mitchell, of Alberta.

It arrived in first class condition and is a beauty.

I had no trouble with the Custom-House officials as the letter received by me from you was all they required.

774½ Yonge St., Toronto.

Dear Sir,—I am in receipt of your letter of the 11th. instant relative to the championship cup won by my retriever bitch "Beechgrove Duchess" C. K. C. 12651.

I intended to write you this morning acknowledging receipt of the cup, which I may say I received only yesterday. I had no difficulty whatever in passing the cup through the Customs free of duty.

The cup is a very nice one and I think much ahead of the cups previously given by the Canadian Kennel Club. Please convey to the Club my thanks for it.

Dear Sir,—I must apologize for being so dilatory in writing you in recognition of receiving Parkview Jupiter's championship cup which I received in grand shape from England, and of which I am very proud. Only regretting that Jupiter has passed away not living to see the honors he has won for his kennels.

Dear Sir,—I have received the championship cup won by my Griffon Bruxellois "Queeny" at last without any more trouble with the Customs.

I have shown it to many of my friends, and they all say that it is a very beautiful cup.

It is really a gift to be proud of.

I thank the C. K. C. very much for it.

Dr. Alfred Boultonbee,

Sec.-Treas. C. K. C.

774½ Yonge St., Toronto.

Dear Sir,—The championship cups won by "Hawes Broom" and "Layham Pride" arrived in splendid shape, and I had no difficulty whatever with the Customs. I think the C. K. C. had had all the trouble previously. They are two grand cups and are well worth winning and no fanciers sideboard is complete without at least one of them.

Get busy fanciers and remember that unity is strength and we want one Club, one Flag, one Empire.

Thanking you for your help and courtesy.

Yours Sincerely,

JOSEPH PERKINS.

Haileybury, Ont., July 13th, 1914.

Dear Friend Boultonbee,—Yours to hand this a.m. re championship cup won by Wampagne Prince, and in reply would say that I received same in good condition and had no trouble whatever clearing it at the Customs.

Yours very truly,

KINGSTON COMING ON.

31 Chatham St., Kingston, Ont.,
August 1st, 1914.

Dr. Boulton, Secretary C.K.C.,
Toronto.

Dear Doctor,—On Monday last on the occasion of the Kingston Old Boys' Reunion we held an informal open-air dog show in this city and succeeded in getting 210 dogs on exhibition, only three of which were without classified breeding. The ribbons were given by the humane society.

The object of the informal show was to furnish a feature for the home owners, to stimulate interest and to stir up enough interest to start a kennel club in this city. I think we have succeeded in every object, and you may hope for another ally to the C.K.C. No entry fees were charged for dogs in our little enterprise, nor were any admission fees charged to grounds. No money prizes were given, no list published, no regulations enforced. We took all entries at the ringside, encouraging ladies and children to bring their pets and join in the undertaking, which they certainly did. We had fully 2,000 people around the ring from 9 a.m. until 1.30 p.m. Tuesday evening we intend organizing the Frontenac Kennel Club, which will include the entire county, and the best people in the city, together with many members of council and his Worship the Mayor are with us in our work.

Six years ago the Kingston Kennel Club was organized, but it has never met since, nor has it given the faintest evidences of life. It was evidently born, died and buried on the same night. It was more a society affair than a dog club. There were five men present the night it was organized out of over 600 dog owners in this city. We now have the names and addresses of over 150 owners of good dogs, which we shall try and get out Tuesday night.

Yours respectfully,

J. G. EVANS, M.D.

A letter dictated by my dog friend Dandy, and written by his breeder, to Danby's mistress, on the occasion of his visit to my kennels suffering from tape worm.

Gee whiz! I do wish I had been sent to school when I was a "nipper," and that I had learnt to write, as well as to "bite." I sure would have done myself proud this a.m. by writing a letter to my mistress, just to say how well I feel this morning.

Well, Danby, old sport, I can use the pencil half decent you know, and if you can trust me with your lawful secrets I will write home, if you care to dictate what you wish me to say.

"Shake," you are a right pal to have. Wouldn't you share this molassine cake with me? It's a peach, just taste it. Go ahead, don't be skeered. There isn't an ache of indigestion in a ton of it. Beats all the others right to H—alifax.

Dandy, you have too many darned preliminaries. I thought you wanted me to write a letter for you.

So I did, so I did. Well, if you're ready we'll begin, just say:

"Dear Ma, your're little fuzzy wuzzy frizzle frazzle bunch of sable and white has asked his pal, Jim, to write this letter to you, and in the first place I want to tell you that the dope I had to swallow, in order to get rid of my tape worm, was nasty dope. Oh, it was hard to get it down. I tried my best to keep it from getting down my little incline, and to get it up again after it was down, but nixey, it was there to stay, and, wow, wow, you should have seen the tape worm, as much of it as would fill your parasol right to the brim. Oh, lor', it skeered me back to my appetite right away.

"And, say, Ma, Jim says you don't appreciate me a bit, and that your loud-spoken love for me is very shallow, and I think Jim's right at that. If you had only seen Jim work at my coat with comb and brush, trying to dislodge great masses of tangled hair, and how he smiled and swore alternately as he patiently pulled those matted parts to pieces, you would have resolved right there and then to 'touch' me up a little every day.

"And, Ma, you didn't know that right down in my soft skin there were most a million little ticks. Jim calls them 'dog lice.' Oh, don't get shocked, Ma. Gee! I nearly bit Jim's hand, I was so mad at him forcing me down on the lawn, and sprinkling 'licem' all over me, and when some of it got in my eyes I most bit him on the arm, but, Ma, I'm real glad (watch me wag my tail, Ma). I didn't do it. Gee! Jim would have been real mad if I had bit him. Now, Ma, that's not all I want to say, but my pal is getting tired of this job I gave him, and so I will tell you what he wants you to do when you get me home.

"First. You must give me a brushing every day. Some exercise. Lots of drinking water. Lots of shade, and a reasonable amount of good plain food.

"Second. He wants you to see that my bed is kept clean and my bedding changed once a week. Just like a human's. Keep out the draughts, and so make me comfortable.

"Third. That brush and comb (not too much comb) must be used. He says it's not sold for ornamental purposes around a kennel.

"Fourth. I will be so spruce and jolly that all your friends and yourself will think that I am the whole cheese."

Read that over to me, partner. Good! Gee! that's some letter, boss, and from a mutt like me, too. I'm just so proud that I will bust if I dare move. I'm real glad, Jim, that the likes of a big man like you and a wee dog like me can be such real friends, and understand each other as we do, and some day I may be able to do as much for you, Jim. I know I can't write, old top, but you know I can do lots of other things to make up for that. Thank you, Jim. Thank you, old man. I'll just sign my name under yours.

J. STRACHAN.

DANBY.

Winnipeg, July 27th, 1914.

A. Boulton, Esq.,

Editor Kennel and Bench.

Round one.—The fight between the Winnipeg Kennel Club and the Dominion Kennel Club. The title being the Exhibition Dog Show belt, is now a matter of history. The referee who judged the competition had no hesitation at the sound of the gong in awarding the decision to the Winnipeg Kennel Club, who, he said, while being unable to administer the knock-out blow, had the better of the round from the start, having carried the fight to the opponent's corners right through the round, also by aggressiveness, and by the clean-cut manner in which the well-directed blows were delivered. At the sound of the gong the Dominion K. C. appeared decidedly groggy, while the Winnipeg K. C. left the ring fresher and stronger than ever. Some idea of the weak condition of the D. K. C. may be gathered from this fact; the Exhibition Board were compelled to seek assistance by canvassing from house to house in order to see the D.K.C. safely home.

No doubt many of your readers will be wondering how the Winnipeg K. C. is progressing and I am pleased to state we are doing better than our most sanguine hopes would have ever allowed us to believe, at every meeting of the executive several new members have been elected, composed of the very best fanciers any club could desire.

During the Exhibition I visited the Dog Show on three occasions and it was the general comment among both visitors and exhibitors on the poor quality of the dogs benched. In fact, had you taken the Edmonton entry out of the show, and about 100 of the local dogs, instead of being a dog show, it would have looked more like a pound-keeper's back yard. One thing that impressed me very forcibly and which was very gratifying, was the amount of support the C. K. C. is rapidly winning back and it is no exaggeration for me to say that every show held and run by the Dominion Kennel Club not only weakens them but sees them rapidly retreating farther and farther from the object they so fondly imagined was almost within their ambitious and unscrupulous grasp. One gentleman who had travelled a long distance from the West to see the Exhibition assured me it was anything but the wishes of the fanciers that the West had gone over to the D. K. C. He particularly advised the Winnipeg K. C. to stay with the clean end of the game, and had no hesitation in forecasting that this year would see the Western fanciers administer the coup de grace to the Dominion Kennel Club, an organization which has forced itself upon the West and which now realizes that, apart from making endless trouble and confusion, has absolutely no justification for its existence.

While at the Dog Show I took the trouble to count the number and found 445 dogs benched. Other fanciers who counted them will verify this number, although Dug McKay, who is the official mouthpiece of the D. K. C., claims in the Free Press 486 dogs benched. However, even at 445 the D. K. C. is to be complimented on getting such a large entry, although the methods adopted were anything but befitting the dignity of a club which pretends to uphold its rules and do nothing but elevate the "fancy" on any and every occasion it can possibly find an excuse for patting itself on the back and blowing its own trumpet through the press. Another $70 worth, please.

When the gong sounded the entry (not dogs) only totalled 640—it was then decided that a time for entry's closing was only a matter of form anyhow—and an article appeared in the local press saying entries would be accepted up to 10 a.m. on date of opening of show, in addition to which a personal house-to-house canvass was adopted. Interrogated on this house-to-house canvas, Mr. Spurgeon admitted the fact, but denied the D. K. C. were paying the expenses, and stated the Exhibition Board itself were paying the canvasser's expenses. You'll agree with me this is a fine situation for the committee to find itself in, after refusing the offer of the Winnipeg Kennel Club's guarantee insuring them the largest entry ever seen at a western show. Needless to say, the Exhibition was severely criticized through the press for its lack of quality in dog show section. Another trivial point was got over by allowing exhibitors (who could be persuaded to show) to bring their puppies with them and suckle on the bench. This was done, and was no end of amusement to the small boy and the younger generation. Another minor point which can be used to obtain entries is allowing puppies under age to be entered and benched. This was also resorted to.

Having got all the dogs, including the good dogs, the bad dogs, the small dogs, the big dogs, the puppies under age, and the puppies not yet weaned, safely benched, we kick off with the judging and listen to what Mr. McKay (the official mouthpiece) says about it in the Free Press: "The third day of the Dog Show proved as popular as the two previous days, and saw all breeds adjusted according to the opinion of the judges." I think a little explanation is in order here "Dug." Why were the judges allowed to sort out the winners? Was it because the committee had gone to lunch, or was it because they were suffering from that which overtakes everything in this world when lying on its deathbed—remorse of conscience? It would certainly be interesting to know how such an important part of a dog show as the awards came to be left to the mere opinion of the judges. He then continues: "Which has stirred things up and sent winners in different breeds to all points of the compass. Everybody was well pleased, etc., etc." It would appear to me that he is trying to explain that, owing to the judges being allowed the privilege of forming their own opinion, it had stirred things up some, but that they, the 'faithful few,' who had unfortunately been left on this occasion, could probably hope to be better in line at the next 'event' when they will not again fall into the error of allowing the judge "his opinion." It is also significant that the judges having their own opinion sent the winners to all points of the compass, which is such an unusual procedure. Mr. McKay could not help commenting on it, although I don't recollect any of the winners' ribbons going north.

A great deal of literature and correspondence has been scattered throughout the West during the past season, claiming a great injustice was being imposed on the West through lack of proper representation, etc., thus disguising the real reason for the formation of the D. K. C. As an old member of the Western Canada Kennel Club, and one of the half dozen who were successful in working up enough enthusiasm to persuade them to run their first winter show (which, by the way, was the most successful show ever held in Winnipeg) I would like to know where all this dissatisfaction originated. Certainly not among the bench show members of the W. C. K. C., who are now fast rallying to the aid of the Winnipeg Kennel Club. The seeds of dissatisfaction were sown by some ambitious fancier whose object by this time is well known. Certain it is we never heard of any discord at any of the meetings of the W. C. K. C., and it would be interesting to know on whose authority these requests were made, if they were ever made. However, we have a fine opportunity now for letting in a little daylight. In the last issue of Kennel and Bench the president, Mr. John G. Kent, gave them every opportunity to vindicate themselves by asking for the fullest information and a request to state their case. This is going to present all kinds of little tidbits. One of their strong cards is that

Ivanhoe Violet, a fawn bitch, about 40 lbs., very short in back, low to the ground, big bone, nice shoulders, good front, good underjaw, deep stop, good expression, would like to see her a lit-

Ivanhoe Violet, a fawn bitch, about 40 lbs., very short in back, low to the ground, big bone, nice shoulders, good front, good underjaw, deep stop, good expression, would like to see her a little flatter in skull, but an extra good bitch.

Mackworth Rosa, a bitch owned by Mr. Herbert Alward; this is an all brindle bitch, low to the ground, good front, nice bone, good ear carriage, nice shoulders, good in ribs, is inclined to be somewhat flat in back, but a bitch that will take a lot of beating.

Mr. Percy Gunn, of Sussex, N.B., has a beautiful Bulldog in Kingsdale Nipper, by Gotham Lord Beresford. This is a dark brindle, with grand shoulders, nice ribs, good in hindquarters, very short body, good skull, deep stop, nice underjaw, long flat head, a dog that always has to be considered when shown, and for a dog of 50 lbs. extremely active.

Mr. J. F. MacDonald has purchased the Bull bitch, Patricia of York. This is the bitch I mated to Rockcliffe the Devil's Deputy. She whelped three puppies, one dog and two bitches. These puppies are extra heavy in bone; in fact, at this age are very hard to fault, except their tails could be a little shorter. I have one of the bitch puppies, Mr. MacDonald the other, and (these are brindle) Mr. Condon, a new man at the game, purchased the fawn puppy, which should make into a good one.

Mr. E. W. L. Jarvis has a very nice puppy, which he bought from Mr. Meadows, although this was at his summer home, consequently I did not see it. It is reported as being a very nice one.

Hon. Judge McKeown has a very good dog, which he imported from England, and Mr. Tingly has one he imported from the States.

I saw a very nice brace of Irish Terriers, owned by Mr. Percy Magee. I did not get their names, as Mr. Magee was away from home when I called. These, dog and bitch, are a nice size, beautiful brick red coats, and very harsh, the dog, I believe, is by Thornecroft Dictator.

I came back with three Irish Setter puppies, bred by my brother, ex Pride of Erin, by Ch. Shamus O'Brien. Pride had a litter of seven, six dogs and one bitch, one of the most even litters I ever saw, all the puppies have exceptionally big bone, and nice heads. The three puppies came here, one for Mr.

R. T. Mack, Mr. Robt. MacCunn, and Mr. Bayard Simmons.

I have bought an all-white bitch puppy, 10 months old, weighs 43 lbs., a grand-daughter of Ch. Nuthurst and Ch. Yamamoto. She has been bred to Oak Leaf and is due to leave England on the 24th of June aboard the Carthaginian.

Bob Ross sent me his Ch. Baughell Jill to nurse for the summer. Friday she whelped four puppies, which look very good.

Very sincerely yours,
W. W. LASKEY.

KENNEL NOTES.

By Fancier.

The newly-formed Winnipeg Kennel Club is piling up its membership in a most satisfactory manner. All in connection with it are working, each one striving to beat the other in the race for new members, and by the time they pull off their first show, in October, it can safely be forecasted that it will be one of the best established clubs in Canada. Being run in conjunction with the Canadian Kennel Club, every one who intends entering dogs at the forthcoming show is assured of a square deal irrespective of who is holding the leash. The judging is likely to be in the capable hands of Mr. J. Mortimer, of New York fame. All the Eastern and Western owners have promised to come in force and with over three hundred dogs from the city alone, it promises to be one of the best shows ever held in Western Canada.

I am afraid a large number of the dogs seen at the Exhibition show will want remodelling badly before they can be expected to get honors among a good class. This was especially noticeable in the Collie class, where the Weston and Corona Kennels were sadly missed.

Mr. H. St. Lawrence, I hear, is ready to back his Bull bitch in opposition to statement made that "there was not a Bull bitch in the city fit to take a third place that was not there."

Mr. G. Binnie, of the Morley Avenue Kennels, is likely to have a good say in the tri-color Collie class at the forthcoming show with his two black, tan and white puppies, and his Blue Merle.

He will be also heard from in the Sable class.

Mr. R. Simpson, of East Kildonan, has a smart, well-knit young Boston Bull bitch out of Miss Jackson. She looks like a winner, and both she and her dam will be heard from in October.

Mr. J. Simpson, from the same quarter, should give owners of Collies in the puppy, novice, limit and provincial classes (if not further) a hard run for their money with a handsome young dog, by Mr. Tom Milner's Weston Emperor.

It is expected Winnipeg will be well represented at Toronto in September, with a lot of dogs who through the present Kennel Club mix-up in the city have not been shown since the February show here.

NOTES FROM BRITISH COLUMBIA.

A photo of the Boston Terrier, Lady Halstead, appeared in one of the Vancouver dailies, stating that this dog would be shown at the Vancouver Exhibition on Sept. 7, 8 and 9.

This dog was owned by Mrs. A. G. Halstead, one of the best known lady fanciers on the coast, and one of the vice-presidents of the Terminal City Kennel Club.

I have permission to state that Mrs. Halstead is not showing at the Vancouver Exhibition, or at any other show held under D. K. C. rules. Furthermore, this dog has been dead for 18 months.

Acts like these are very misleading and deplorable. About two weeks ago appeared an article in the daily papers here that all clubs of "repute" from Winnipeg to the coast were being held under Dominion Kennel Club rules.

The Dominion Kennel Club's representative here certainly tried to line them all up, and we can give the fanciers the true facts.

The only clubs that have been holding regular meetings, during the year, are the Terminal City, Nanaimo and Victoria Kennel Clubs, and all these clubs were unanimously in favor of holding their shows under C. K. C. rules.

The Vancouver Exhibition here is being held under D. K. C. rules, but, gentlemen, what could you expect from the people that held their show under American Kennel Club rules two years ago?

I have been on the coast now for three years, and have studied local conditions very carefully, and have no hesitation in saying that the "few" fanciers (?) here that are working in the interest of the Dominion Kennel Club are the men that are absolutely responsible for the unsatisfactory conditions that have existed during that time.

At a recent meeting of the Terminal City Kennel Club (the only club in Vancouver holding regular monthly meetings during the past twelve months) it was moved that the members of the Terminal City Kennel Club support no show, except held under the rules of the Canadian Kennel Club. It carried unanimously.

The best circuit of dog shows ever arranged in British Columbia will be held in September, and all under Canadian Kennel Club rules.

Nanaimo starts the ball rolling with a two-day show, held in conjunction with the Nanaimo Fall Fair on Sept. 16th and 17th. The judge is the well-known Victoria fancier, Mr. J. S. Hickford.

The fanciers then have a day to get over to Vancouver, where the Terminal City Kennel Club are putting on a one-day only show, which will probably be held in the open. Mr. J. J. Jackson, of Collie fame, will judge all large breeds. Mr. A. Greenwood, of Jubilee, will judge all Terriers (except Bostons and Toys). Mrs. A. G. Halstead of Eburne, will judge English Bulldogs, French Bulldogs and Boston Terriers.

Then the fanciers have till the 23rd to go over to Victoria, where the live club over there are holding a four-day show, in conjunction with the Dominion Exhibition. Mr. E. N. Barker, of Cardstone, Alta., will judge all breeds.

This circuit of shows should appeal to the prairie fanciers, and these clubs would esteem it a favor if the C. K. C. members there will advertise these shows amongst their friends as far as possible.

In conclusion I wish to inform the loyal C. K. C. members that the D. K. C. has not got the hold on British Columbia that they say they have. It is just plain "bluff." Also that C. K. C. members don't have to resort to non de plumes, like the supporters of the D. K. C. do.

ALBERT GREENWOOD.

Mr. Sam Bamford has been responsible for the importation of more good Terriers in recent years than any other fancier in Toronto.

The subject of our illustration is no exception. We saw him brought out at the Mount Royal Show and formed an extremely favorable opinion of this sterling dog, and our opinion was backed up by the judge, Ben Lewis, and the famous old fancier, Mr. Thomas Moore, who was particularly struck with what he described as his honest qualities, by which he meant that his bone and confirmation were genuine, and not formed by coat hair and trimming, as is so often the case in wires. Our illustration is a really good reproduction of the dog, showing well his wicked expression and rugged qualities, but also bringing out what so strongly impressed us, his splendid top line. His front and bone are of the best, and his coat the proper strong, harsh, wiry texture, lying straight, close and compact. At Mount Royal Show he was still a puppy, but fully developed and full-grown, weighing about 17½ pounds, and likely to stop at that. He has been very freely used to bitches, both around Toronto and at a distance, and we predict a great improvement in the quality of our Wires by the use of this sure stud.

SHORT BARKS.

This is our holiday number—the editor's holiday.

Mr. Ernest Bailey, of Kingsville, when renewing his advertisement of Sabine Radical at stud states that he is bringing out some grand stuff by him.

The annual meeting of the Canadian Kennel Club will be held in the Board Room of the Canadian National Exhibition, in the Administration Building, on Wednesday, September 9th, at 8 p.m.

Mr. J. E. Dowling's Bull bitch, Shiela of Lambare, is nursing puppies by Worsley Dreadnought.

Mr. Ward Stanworth, of Chatham, reports nine puppies by Moston Marshall, six of which are doing well.

While in London on a trip of inspection to the cadet camp on Carling's Heights, Col. the Hon. Sam Hughes, Minister of Militia, purchased two West Highland White Terrier puppies from Mr. John D. Egan, of 209 Talbot Street. Both puppies are remarkably fine specimens of their breed. The fame of London dog fanciers is spreading and numbers of people from other cities now send to that city when they want to secure something really classy in canines.

Mr. E. Bailey, of Kingsville, waxes enthusiastic over a Fox Terrier bitch he has in his possession by Ch. Sabine Reckoner, out of a bitch by Ch. Sabine Rifle, out of Ch. Sabine Fernie, who will make her appearance at Toronto Show. He also reports a white bitch by Sabine Racer that he thinks will be a winner. Besides these, he has three litters, all by Sabine Radical, out of Sabine Fontana, Sabine Fashionist and Wise Girl. This looks like a good summer's work, and we ought to hear from Mr. Bailey at our coming shows.

We wish to correct an error in our report of the winnings at Mount Royal show, in Pomeranians. Open dogs, brown or chocolate, should have been: 1st, Windsor Masher; 2nd, Dainty, instead of the reverse as we reported it.

Mr. R. Almond, of Montreal, reports a lovely litter of Pom. puppies from Black Pride, by Little Snitch, consisting of one black dog, one chocolate dog, and three black bitches, all doing well and extra small, and, as Mr. Almond put it, "real britties."

Another mistake in our report of Mt. Royal show in the novice and limit bitches, 17 to 22 lbs., Boston Terriers, the award should be: 1st, Dolly Spanker, John F. Campbell; 2nd, Hope, Mrs. G. H. Rioux.

The imported Bull bitch, Bella of Vancouver (14321), owned by J. S. Reid, of North Vancouver, whelped a fine litter of five dogs and one bitch, sired by Sutherland Roy (14216). Both of these dogs were imported from J. Penfold Field, of London, Eng., by Mr. Reid.

Mr. E. B. Perry, of Vancouver, reports the arrival of a fine litter of seven puppies, out of his Bull bitch, Merry Belle, sired by J. S. Reid's imported stud dog, Sutherland Roy (14216).

Mr. R. A. Ross has sold for future delivery two Scotties. One goes to A. W. Forbes, D.D.S., Toronto, the other to Mrs. I. U. Jones, of Montreal, who bought a Ch. Beechers Brook pup from him last spring, and who, by the way, is turning out into a real nice dog.

Drumclaph Jade is nursing four dogs and two bitches, by Mr. Ellison's Ch. Avondale Ascot. This lot are full-brothers and sisters (only younger) to the New York winner, Avondale Altcar, and our own youngsters, D. Laird and D. Jean. Think we can repeat with some out of this litter.

In Irish Terriers, Ch. Peggy O'Neil is nursing two of each sex, by Red Mick, and Copper Queen has four dogs and one bitch, by Mr. Vanwart's Mickey of York, that won winners at Montreal recently. Mr. Ross has sold one of this litter to Mr. G. A. Pratt, of Montreal, for future delivery.

Ch. Baughfell Jill is nursing two of each sex, by Drumclaph Laird, all even ones and doing nicely.

In Irish Setters Mr. Hanna is offering some good puppies. He has also four dogs and one bitch, by Montrose Rheola Andy, ex. Montrose Lallah Rookh.

Mr. John F. Campbell, of Montreal, has acquired a very nice Irish Terrier bitch from Dr. Mooney, of Carnlough fame. Micks seem to be coming into favor again around Montreal.

Mr. E. W. Bellenger reports a grand litter of four dogs and five bitches, by Ch. King Oorang, out of Morning Sunbeam.

The Whippet
GRANITE OAK MASTERPIECE
C. K. C. 14777
Property of G. D. White, Toronto.

Mrs. A. G. Halstead, of Eburne, B.C., is nothing if not persistent. She has purchased Arbest Midgette, a 14-pound Toy, from Ermon Montgomery, of Stanton, Mich. She was bred before leaving in Chicago to the famous French Bulldog, Ch. Gamin de Luxe. Unfortunately, she arrived in very poor condition, but a week's nursing has worked wonders. In addition to this, Mrs. Halstead purchased Fanto, a prize winning matron, from Reyburn P. Crawley, of Peoria, Ill.

Mr. H. Chadwick's Titterstone is nursing a litter by Worsley Dreadnought.

Crewe So Twilight, the Airedale bitch imported by Mr. Harry Lawder, has presented him with a litter of four dogs and six bitches, by Authorities Double. As Twilight is by Ch. Flor-nell Oorang, the result ought to be good.

Mr. J. Hurley, of Vancouver, B.C., reports a litter of seven puppies, from Hurley's Queenie.

Dr. C. Y. Ford's blue merle bitch, Oak Hill Hyacinth, died suddenly of acute enteritis while nursing puppies by Ormskirk Sensation. Fortunately, Dr. Webster has been able to save all the puppies.

Blonde Beauty was bred the latter part of June to Ch. Weardale Lord. She was first in American bred, second in junior and third in puppy and novice classes at last New York show.

Otterburn Delight has been bred to Picaroon.

Dr. Ford has a string consisting of two ten-months-old bitches by Southport Sceptre, out of Otterburn Fashion Plate, and a few others with which he hopes to do some winning at our fall shows.

Dr. Ford is at present in England, but expects to return before September.

Mrs. Thos. Wyndham recently purchased Rodney Brenda from the Never Never Land Kennels, and has bred her to Mrs. Halstead's Ch. Charlemange. Mr. Dennis also has bred his French Bull bitch, Pudge, to Ch. Charlemange.

Mr. George Hamann is rejoicing in a litter of Pugs from his well-known little bitch, Dine. They consist of four dogs and one bitch, one of the dogs being black.

Glad Eye and Cedric II., two of Otto Knapp's Bostons, have both been sold in the West. Dolly Rex has arrived home from a visit to Ch. Dahlen's Spider, from which something good should result. Mr. Knapp has also bought a five months old bitch puppy from Dr. Brennan, of Buffalo.

Mr. M. F. Dolan, of Rockfield, Que., expects a litter of St. Bernards by Mr. Stuart's Beethoven, ex. his Winsome Lass.

Mr. Jackson has arrived home from Winnipeg pleased with the show and with the success of Durbar.

Mr. Arthur Ellison, of the Avondale Kennels, has a fine lot of young Scotties, that will give a good account of themselves shortly.

Mrs. Gammon has had a remarkable month for sales. In May alone she sold 22 Cockers, and has call for more, but must wait until the puppies are old enough.

Mr. Garrick has a fine black bitch with which he expects to make a clearing at the coming dog shows, and Mr. Lucas has some promising puppies.

There is talk of a dog show to be held in Hamilton in the early fall, which, we hope, will be a reality, and not only talk. With so many good dog fanciers, and some of them with some fine dogs, there ought to be a grand show with a little help from outsiders.

Mr. and Mrs. Weldon, of Galt, spent Saturday with Mrs. Gammon, and also visited the Avondale Kennels, looking for Yorkshires. They, however, purchased a pair of French Poodles from Mrs. Gammon.

Mr. Steverton has a fine litter of Black Cockers by Durbar Jr., three dogs and one bitch.

Mr. John Miles, of Inferno fame, reports two grand litters of Bull Terriers, one by Inferno Buster, out of Inferno Lass, seven males and three females; the other by Inferno Douglas, out of Inferno Firefly, six males and four females. All are doing well.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lewis, of Calmo Kennels, Toronto, are summering in Muskoka and have taken lots of fishing tackle. We suppose we will hear some fish stories at the Exhibition, as well as see some good Cockers from these well-known kennels.

ESCORT DIRECTOR, C.K.C. 14560
Age 9 months when photo was taken. Full brother to England's noted dog Ch. Rebound Oorang. Sire Primrose Rebound dam Preference, J. A. Thurston, Vancouver, B.C. Breeder and Owner.

The Madrona Kennels, Gordon Head, Victoria, report a litter by Madrona Driver, from Madrona Spoons, four dogs and two bitches, whelped July 13.

Ch. Birchcliffe Oorang has been very busy with visiting bitches of late, no less than seven bitches having been bred in about as many weeks. The result so far as known: Mr. J. H. Young, Toronto, reports two litters, one from Miss Briar, the other from White Toes. Capt. Reg. Pellatt, one of our latest crop of Airedale enthusiasts, who owns Rolloess, has booked her to Birchcliffe Oorang and has already bred a youngster to the same sire.

Mr. I. H. Rice, of Ottawa, reports a nice litter of Scotties, three bitches and one dog, by Ch. Beechers Brook, out of Drumclaph Jane.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lewis called on Mr. and Mrs. Gammon and were delighted with the kennels and the fine lot of dogs; also Mr. Sweetman and Mr. and Mrs. Herd were callers during July.

Mr. Ross shipped to Mr. Geo. Aiken, of Fredericton, N.B., a very nice young sable and white Collie bitch recently. She was bred by Mr. Dugan and is by his Coila Swatch.

Mr. Walter M. Berwick, Shelburne, reports a litter of Airedales, six dogs and five bitches, out of Betty Marvel, by Dalmahoy King.

Mr. F. W. Cook, of Rockfield, Que., has a litter of parti-colored Cockers, by Braeclough Pacaud, the dog Mr. Ben Lewis picked up at Montreal show.

It looks like very little rest for the dog men, starting Sept. 7th, with the following C.K.C. shows; Canadian National Exhibition, London, Ottawa, St. John, Nanaimo, Terminal City (Vancouver), Victoria City Exhibition, Shelburne and Winnipeg, all in six weeks.

Trophies Worth While

While true sportsmanship insists that the prize be an entirely secondary consideration, in fairness to the prospective winner it should be really worth while.

Our Medals, Cups, Shields, etc., are of a quality that will bring pride to the winner and reflect credit on the donor. Yet, they are most reasonably priced. As we supply the medals for the Canadian Kennel Club, you may feel safe in entrusting your orders to us.

We will be very glad to give special quotations, or submit original designs for anything of this kind that you may have in mind.
