BREEDERS PLEASE NOTE

Numerous applications are forwarded to the Canadian Live Stock Records at Ottawa with only the name of the breeder, and no address.

Dog owners residing in cities should always give their street addresses.

In each case a short letter should be written.

The following applications have been received lately and are still being held at Ottawa on account of addresses not being given:

Mrs. George Benton, forwarded an application, but omitted to give her address.

W. Baker forwarded an application, and gave his address as Toronto.

Mr. T. Rogers forwarded an application. The only address given was Moose Jaw. The certificate was mailed to Moose Jaw, but returned, as his street address was unknown, and is still at Ottawa.

Boston Terrier Club of Canada, 11th Annual Specialty Show

The Boston Terrier Club of Canada held their 11th annual Specialty Show on New Year's Day, January 1st, 1919. This event took place in the Labor Temple, Toronto, which proved very adequate for the occasion, being centrally located, with lots of air space and light, and the hall was kept sweet and clean, a spacious judging ring in the centre and comfortable benching round the room made an ideal setting for a show. C. L. McQuillan carried out his duties as secretary in his usual capable manner, his efforts, along with those of an enterprising and energetic committee, have placed this annual event on the topmost rung of the ladder in show management. The judge on this occasion was George C. Peters of Rochester, N.Y., and his awards were watched with interest by a large crowd who showed their appreciation at the satisfactory way in which he arrived at his decisions.

Cash prizes and over 200 specials warranted a larger entry, this year only 84 dogs were entered, as compared with over 100 last year, still if the quantity wasn't there, the quality was, most of the old-timers were up for competition, and many youngsters were brought out that will be contenders at our future shows, with an average entry of six per class and the quality of the best made it no easy task for the judge. ONTARIO COLLIE CLUB

The above-mentioned club held the third of their series of evening shows in the Broadway Hall. The late secretary Mr. George Gray, officiated as judge in a very capable manner, and his placings were well received by the exhibitors and ringsiders. The entry was large, and the quality above the average. We noticed many new faces that will be amongst the winners at the larger shows in the future.

The new secretary, Mr. Alex. Donaldson, along with a willing bunch of officials, had everything well arranged, and the proceedings went off with dispatch and pleasure. Mr. George Getty brought out a promising youngster named Quarrybrae Chieftain, that accounted for puppy dogs. Mr. Storey's Campbell Stamp headed the next class, but he had to take second place to Coltness Commander in the limit. Ch. Coltness Clinker easily headed the open.

Mr. Storey's Maitland Madge captured the juvenile bitch class. Mr. J. Waggett's good tri-color, Arndale Gladolia, headed a real good class of puppy bitches, 2nd being Mrs. O'Neill's Campbell Lorraine, and 3rd Mr. Whymss' Leith Special. This was a real hot class, and the winner later carried off no less than 7 firsts. Mr. Strachan's Coltness Kim won the limit, and Leith Special the open. Mr. D. Wheeler's tri-color bitch, Edgbaston Alice, carried off several prizes. The specials were numerous and well allotted, the winners being:

Best in show—Coltness Kim.

Best of opposite sex—Ch. Coltness Clinker.

Best puppy—Leith Special.

Best opposite sex—Campbell Style.

Best owned by non-member—Maitland Lady.

Maple Leaf Kennel Club's Great Peace Show

Held in Toronto January 2nd and 3rd, 1919

As a midwinter event, this show, held by the new Maple Leaf Kennel Club, will go down in dog history as one of the most successful ever held in Canada.

The show building was ideally located in the centre of the city, steam heated, and every convenience was carefully looked after, and the old bugbear of cold, damp shows with the ever thought of distemper, was dispelled at this show.

The benching, recently purchased from the States, is the best to be seen in Canada, and the arrangement ideal, including wide, roomy aisles, large spaces around the judging rings for the spectators, special exercising rings, and special rooms for grooming were a few of the things worthy of mention. Uniformed attendants in the aisles carefully looked after the exhibits and cleanliness was a byword, and without exception this show was one of the cleanest, most orderly and best managed we have ever seen.

The enterprising secretary, J. F. Lakin, assisted by a bunch of officials, are responsible for this successful event, one and all played their part, and played it well, but premier honors should be given to the secretary for his untiring efforts.

Having attended other shows managed by him, we naturally expect to see something out of the ordinary, and this occasion was no exception.

A special room for the benching of Toys was provided, and the temperature was kept higher in this room for the protection of the more delicate breeds. And I cannot overlook such details as check rooms, a ladies' dressing room with attendant, plenty of lavatories with fresh towels, but this was a different show all through from the usual run of shows.

And another thing I noticed that the feed and water pans were clean, and fresh water in abundance, and if any thing, the dogs were too well fed. The plentiful use of clean straw, which was changed as often as necessary, added to the comfort of the dogs.

Over 600 entries, drawn by a liberal classification, and cash prizes on every class, faced the judges, and all the classes were well filled, and the "quality" was out in force. Exhibits from all over Canada, from St John's to Winnipeg, made the journey to welcome in the first show of the Maple Leaf Club.

Boston Terriers headed the list, pressed closely for premier honors by Bulldogs, and a bumper entry of Airedales and Collies graced the benches. In the Toy section Toy Poodles were the sensation, there being more benched than even at the New York Show.

The variety classes were especially patronized, the crowds that flocked round the ringside to see these classes being judged being ample proof of their popularity.

The officers in charge were; President, N. W. Renwick; 1st vice-president, Wm. McPherson; 2nd vice-president, W. B. Levack; secretary, J. F. Lakin; treasurer, A. Lowenstein.

BULLDOG BREEDERS' ASSOCIATION

The Bulldog Breeders' Association held another of their successful evening shows in Broadway Hall, on January 8th, and provided sixteen classes, and special prizes on each class.

Mr. B. J. McKillian of Hamilton, the sporting editor of the Hamilton Herald, was the judge elect. Mr. McKillian has been a fancier of the "national breed" since childhood, and many good ones have been produced from his kennel in England. To remark that he knows his "bulldog" would be superficial, for his awards met with unanimous approval.

The younger element was out in force and several smart youngsters made their debut. Outstanding among these was J. F. Lakin's Kersal Day Dream, an all-white bitch puppy by Kersal King—a veritable chip of the old block. Just a baby, but of intense quality.

Mr. Morris' Rydal Ella, nearing six months, is another quality one, and was a contender all the way through.

Mr. Gubb's Kilburn Fascinator, in better condition than we have ever seen him, carried off the honors in the dog section for best in show. Mr. Renwick's Blue Diamond, in her usual good form, easily scored for best of opposite sex. The awards being as follows:

Juppies under 6 months—1, J. F. Lakin, Kersal Day Dream; 2, Mr. Taylor, Little Man; 3, Mr. Smith, Rodney.

Special for best of opposite sex went to Blue Diamond.

We hear of a grand litter of 13 collie puppies by that promising young dog, Quarrybrae Altus. These new arrivals are out of a daughter of the great Picorder, so we may expect some top-notchers from this breeding. Mr. G. Getty, the owner of the above-mentioned dogs, is naturally rejoicing over this good litter.

TORONTO K.C. EVENING SHOW

The Toronto Kennel Club held the third of their evening shows for this season in the Broadway Hall on December 16th. The entry and attendance was not quite so large as usual, but we noticed many new faces around the ringsides, and several new exhibitors. The hall was sweet and clean, and the three judging rings were kept well filled until a late hour. Mr. R. Henderson commenced his task of judging Boston Terriers in Ring 2, and carried out his duties in a masterly manner. There were 25 entries in this section, the special for best dog going to W. B. Levaack's typical dog, Count Dee Cee. Mr. Jackson's good young bitch, Dream Girl, came to the front with a bound, capturing special for best bitch and special for best of breed.

Collies, with 45 entries, made a nice collection for Mr. "Collness" Strachan to pass upon. Jimmie knows a Collie, and can place them satisfactorily. He selected Mr. Wichello's Masterman Ready for best dog and best of breed, and Mr. J. Waggett's promising tri-color bitch, Arndale Gladiola, for best of opposite sex.

"Pomeria" McNaughton adjudicated over the Toys in his usual capable and painstaking manner, and had some big classes to decide upon, especially in his favorite breed, the Poms, of which there were 52 entries. There was some real class in this section, and after going over them carefully, Mr. McNaughton selected the good black dog, Wee Monoplane, as the best in the dog section, and the pretty sable, Arndale Mab, for best of opposite sex. Mrs. Lacey's Japanese Spaniel, Yokohama Princess, was best of breed, and Mrs. Card's Maltese, Emer de Malta, the best of her variety. Pekingese were headed by Trainor and Bowra's San Toy of Louvain. Poodlss, by Mrs. McKibbin's Buster Wikkins.

The remaining varieties and general specials were left in the capable hands of our all-rounder from Montreal, Mr. Bob Ross. Needless to say, he knows his work, and does it in a manner that is satisfactory to all, victors and vanquished alike, are satisfied that they get a square deal under him, and go away contented. Terriers were none too plentiful, Mr. Robinson trotted out a young Airedale bitch named Mistress Oorang, that easily accounted for best of breed, and at present is showing exceptional promise. Fox Terriers were a nice group, Mr. Hackett's Peerless Prince was decided the best dog, and Mr. Wilson's peerless Trixie Pthe best bitch. In Wires both the winners came from the Walnut Kennels. Mickey's Model, the best of breed, was put down in his usual good form, and his daughter, Walnut Enticement, carried off premier honors in bitches. She won handily, and when matured will be hard to fault.

Mr. Fisher's Scotch Terrier, Sandy McNab, topped the breed. He is a typical little Scottie, and could win in good company. Mr. Cornfield's Beauty of Mons was alone in Dalmatians.

Cockers were a small but select group. Mr. Mitchells' parti-color, Imp Trey, secured the special for best of breed. In Whippets Mrs. Lowenstein's young bitch, Tootsie Charming, was placed over Mr. McPherson's Lady Lucella, the best of breed special going to Mr. Lowenstein's Black Pearl.

Bulldogs, with 36 entries, made a good showing. Levaack and Jackson's King Moston once more carried off premier honors, his nearest rivals being Mr. Copley's Roxton Boy and Mr. Sparks' Impregnable. In the bitch classes an old favorite made her appearance in the ring after a long rest from our shows. Mr. H. Darrell's Miss Cheetham, the hero of many a show, she was placed best bitch, with Rogers and agton's new bitch WhPitney Nancy, a close second.

The Variety Classes resulted as follows:

A. V. Sporting—1, Mr. John Swann's Setter, Parkdale Red Feather; 2, C. Bowerbank's Cocker, Senator B; 3, A. Lowenstein's Whippet, Black Pearl.

COLLIE SOCIAL CLUB

This newly formed organization, who came into prominence a few months ago in the city of Toronto, took a whirl at staging an evening specialty show on January 13th in Broadway Hall. Classes were provided for all ages, and an attractive list of specials brought out a nice entry. Many promising youngsters made their debut, and created quite an impression with the ringsiders. The classes were well filled, especially the bitch classes, which showed a great improvement over previous shows. The judges' decisions could not be described as "satisfactory," there being many upsets from previous placings, and a few reversals. The attendance of visitors was large and the management deserve great credit for the excellent arrangements. Mr. Roberts brought out a young bitch named Godlie, that made a clean-up, going right through her classes. Mrs. O'Neil's Campbell Lorraine, being a close second to her. Mr. Wemyss' good young bitch Leith Special we considered very unfortunate in being placed third in a few of her classes. A useful looking tri-color named Campbell Bryn Mayr carried off quite a few ribbons. The old-timer, Ch. Campbell Sterling, was shown in good bloom, and carried off the special for best in show.

Mr. Ashbee's young dog, Campbell Style carried off premier honors in the juvenile classes, with Campbell Superior and Campbell Stamp in close attendance. Masterman Ready headed the limit class. The specials being awarded as follows:

BY THE JUDGE

Dear Mr. Editor—As promised, I am sending you a few notes on my classes at the recent Maple Leaf Show. As they are written against the doctor's orders, and from a vague memory, I pray that you will forgive any mistakes.

First let me say how very pleased I was to see such a real good entry, the quality in many classes being quite the best I have seen in years at both the American and Canadian shows. As a matter of fact I am of the opinion that the three dogs, viz., Kersal King, Kilburn Fascinator, and Jellicoe Westall, can hold their own, yes, and possibly beat anything in America. They were a wonderful trio. With three such truly typical dogs at public stud the Dominion fanciers should produce some world-beaters in the near future.

I would like to make a suggestion or two to the Canadian bulldog fanciers how to handle their dogs. The majority do not give their dogs sufficient liberty in the ring, and crowd them to such an extent, when posing them, that a judge really has no chance to get an idea as to the outline of a dog. Their main idea seems to be, make your dog stand as wide as possible at both ends, for in pulling the fore legs apart, almost to a deformity, the hind legs assume the same position, thus destroying all semblance to a light hind quarter. Then, again, the manner in which some of the exhibitors place their hand under the dog's underjaw to force the head up, is too ridiculous for words; it is almost impossible to get an idea of the formation of jaw, carriage of ears, and expression. Here is my humble advice: On entering the ring give your dog a fair amount of lead, so that he may show the rolling gait, and when asked to place your dog on the platform don't get down on your knees or haunches, but stand away for the dog so that the judge may get a view of him. To keep the head well up a piece of liver or some tid-bit will greatly assist, then your dog will have a chance to show the expression, and carriage of ears.

Many years ago I used this crouching attitude while showing, and recall very clearly my reappearance in England. It was at the Bulldog Club show, held at the Royal Aquarium, London, George W. Richards being the judge.

This was the first appearance of an American-bred bulldog in England, my dear old pal, L'Ambassadeur, the first American-bred to get his championship. It was in the novice, where I was meeting Ivel Rustie and other good ones, and being anxious to hide my dog's left ear, which at times would fall forward, I was busy crouching down, holding the head up, when the judge came over and whispered, "Stand up, Mr. Hopton; give the dog a chance, this ain't no prayer meeting." Needless to state, I stood erect, and the dog had a much better chance.

Another far-fetched idea is to give a dog a big feed just before going in the ring. In the case of which I am about to speak, I am of the opinion that the joke was on me. One of the most prominent winners in bitches came into the ring looking as though she would whelp at any moment. Being of a sympathetic nature, my heart went out to the poor dog, and on examining her remarked to the handler, "Poor old girl, she is heavy in whelp." The handler in a facetious manner replied, "Yes." I learned afterwards that somebody had given her a big feed just before the class was called, hence the rotundity which poor simple me mistook for pups. Show the dog in good form, by doing so you will accentuate the cup-up of the loin, and light hind quarters, at the same time improve the action of the dog.

There was nothing startling in dog puppies, the best being a promising fawn, with a long, flat skull, fair finish of face, and the right shoulder formation, but long in body. Juniors had a very nice youngster, Kersal White Gladiator, the sort which age should do lots for, white with brindle patch on head, the skull was long and wide, with good furrow, big nose and broad under jaw; in front he had the right formation of bone and shoulders, and used his hocks right when walking, one which impressed me as being a "comer." Canadian-breds went to a big red brindle, a sulky beggar, would not open his eyes, but a comfortable winner here, having the better shaped skull, fairly short face and broad under jaw, he could do with more stop and could be lower to ground, but had heavy bone and shoulders, and sound quarters.

Second, Buster Brown, a good-natured brindle, with a smile all over his face, quite the best headed one in class, and the better shaped front, but was high off ground, and had quite sufficient tail, still a useful sort. Third, Bill Louvain, like his namesake, somewhat unfortunate, but really the most typical in class; lack of finish in face and his wry jaw placed him third.

Best of the lightweights was Jellicoe Westall, a topping good sort, with an exceptionally short up-face, deep stop, and the right sort of turn-up, with very small ears, a bit overdone in front perhaps, being loose at elbows, but rare shaped forearms and short well-ribbed body, and about the best roach in show. He did not move as well as one might like; an easy winner, however, and a dog that should make his name at the stud. Regal Rascal, second, was a real good-headed brindle, with an exceedingly short face, lots of wrinkle, and big nose; while good in front, and has nice shoulder formation. He was shown much too thin to get any idea as to body lines. Third went to that old standby, Ch. Coster's Diamond, an old-fashioned sort, with a heap of "bulldog" character about him; great bone and shoulders, he needs more turn-up, an easy third, however over Toronto Lad, a big-headed and boned, fawn, wry faced, and long in back. Kilburn Fascinator, a very impressive brindle and white, shown in grand form, with rare shaped skull, big nose, and perfect expression, headed the limit heavyweights with quite a bit to spare from Bashful Boy of Lambare and Baron of Lambare, but was beaten in open and winners by Kersal King, an all-white dog, which surprised me. I have seen many a dog come on, but in all my experience in bulldogs, which dates back to 1886, I have never seen such a wonderful improvement in a dog. As a matter of fact I did not recognize the dog which I had placed winners at Montreal in 1917. On that occasion he weighed quite ten pounds less, and woefully weak in hind quarters. Here, however, shown in "the pink," weighing about fifty pounds, and moving quite all right, he won handily from the limit winner, who in turn beat a topping good red brindle named Jellicoe, one of the soundest dogs imaginable, one who just missed being a real champion, having the right shaped skull, big nose and broad jaw, heavy bone, short, well-roached body, and the best of quarters, with a well-placed tail. He needs more turn-up, and could be lower to ground. Winners went to Kersal King, with Fascinator a good reserve.

Sandfield Vivian, a fairish youngster, was alone in bitch puppies. Juniors introduced Lorna Doone, a real sweet one, which might have been weaned on real Devonshire cream, dark brindle in color, she impressed me as being one that should make her championship early, being good in all head points, long and flat in skull, with pronounced furrow, big, well-placed nose, and the sort of turn-up which always means "sour expression," ears of right size and placed perfectly, forearms of the right formation, with heavy shoulders, short, well-ribbed body and perfect tail and quarters; in all a topper, needing but time to let down in body. Freckles, second, was a light brindle, much the lower to ground, and shorter in body, but lacking finish of face, and somewhat heavy in ears; she beat Miss Nig Louvain in body lines and bone. Novice and limit under 40 also went to Lorna Doone, which in open was beaten by Blue Diamond," she was with the puppies," a very typical light brindle, shown somewhat too heavy in flesh, while not so good in skull or under jaw as second, had the shorter face, better cushion, and had the advantage in being lower to ground. Kinderhook Dazzling Lady, white with a fallow patch, had the shorter face and smaller ears compared with old favorite Ch. Belgrave Lady of Lambare, with rare substance, but not in the best of form. Easily best of the heavy brigade was Clevelock Mollie, a white and brindle, which reminded me very much of an old-time London winner, This Time Bully, with rare length of skull and under jaw, good stop, deep furrow, and the right sort of expression, fairly low in front, with nice shoulder formation and sound quarters, she might have more bone and could be shorter in back, just the sort that might throw a world-beater to Kersal King. Whitby Nancy second, also second in Canadian-breds, had the better finish and heavier bone compared with Rydall Molly and other useful ones. Winners was no easy class to decide. After a very careful examination I gave Blue Diamond first, the reserve going to Clevelock Mollie, while the latter moved the better and had the longer skull the winner impressed me as being the more typical. Kersal King won the special for best with ease. It is to be hoped that Kersal King will come down for the Westminster show where he can meet the best under that sterling fancier, Alex. H. Stewart. Rest assured it will take a real top-notch to beat the Montreal crack, which, I think, is able to hold its own with the very best on either side of the Atlantic.

Fraternally yours,

CHARLES G. HOPTON.

OTTAWA K.C.

The annual meeting of the Ottawa Kennel Club was held in Clary's Hall, with the president, Dr. Barnes, in the chair. In spite of the inclement weather, there was a large number of members present. The reports for the past year were presented, and showed very gratifying results. The officers for the coming year were elected as follows: President, Dr. Barnes; vice-president, Mr. F. C. Taylor; secretary, Mr. C. O. Cornish; treasurer, Mr. J. A. Ferguson; executive committee, Mr. T. A. Armstrong, Mr. W. C. Baldwin, Mr. R. H. Elliott, Dr. Hilton, Mr. C. A Boston Terrier show, under the auspices of the Ottawa Kennel Club, was held during December in Clary's Hall, with a goodly number of dogs entered. The special prize, a kettle, was won by Mr. G. Slattery for the best dogs present. There were eight dogs competing for this prize, and there were about 33 dogs in the lists.

Collies at the Maple Leaf K.C. Show

Dear Mr. Editor:

You asked me for a few lines on the Collie judging at the Maple Leaf K. C. Show, and I hesitated to grant your small request, as really with the poor outlook for an out-of-town entry, the whole thing promised to be largely a case of "as you were."

However, I was present during the whole period, and after congratulating the officials on having a nice, clean, warm show, with too many steps provided for the victims of rheumatism, I will get down to what I noticed.

In the choice of Mr. Charles Trayford for judge the committee did themselves proud, inasmuch as this gentleman was an entire outsider, a real dog man, and one who certainly pleased himself.

I was disappointed, however, in his procedure, and as early as the first class he gave an impression of possessing an unsettled idea of his requirements, though his eventual choice of winners somewhat explodes the first conception.

There were two entries in puppy dogs and for a matter of about twenty-five minutes these aspirants for honors and their jockeys were harassed by Trayford almost to distraction.

Quarrybrae Altus, a good dog, terribly ring shy and wanting body and weight generally. Master, a forward sable and white youngster, lots of confidence and fair type and in good shape, failing in skull and eye, were placed as written.

But why this waste of Father Tim? In less than half the period which elapsed an amateur would have known which dog he preferred of a brace.

The next class of interest was Canadian-bred dogs. Masterman Ready, Coltness Commander, and Quarrybrae Chieftain.

By the placings of this class the judge was certainly judging dogs, but lost sight of many Collie essentials.

Novice Dogs—1, Masterman Ready, a big, handsome dog of some type, gay in tail carriage, on the day he showed well; 2, Coltness Commander, showed as usual, or rather "did not." Quarrybrae Chieftain, all quality and type, a shower, too, he must have lost on maturity.

Limit Dogs—A nice class of six. Masterman Ready, 1st; Leith Rob Roy, 2nd. This dog looked well, his skull could be improved, and his ears placed a little higher; still a good sort. 3rd, Coltness Commander.

Open Dogs—Ch. Coltness Clinker came, saw, and conquered. We never saw him look quite so well. Leith Rob Roy, 2nd. Coltness Commander 3rd.

Puppy Bitches—Leith Special 1st. We always liked this lady; size, bone and type, with a nice fresh-looking coat, she is backed by another strong asset: ring manners. She is a bit masculine in head. Arndale Gladiola, a great pup not yet ready, length and fineness of head, small ears and nice eye, a flashy marked tri-color, she will go far. Nellie, a Western entry, has many of the great essentials, wants a dash more quality.

Canadian-bred Bitches—Here again the judge lost all count of time, with four entries in the ring.

Quarrybrae Colleen won, the best-headed rough in the show, nice size, and promises good coat. She is a wonderful shower, her ears are large, and at times carried wildly.

Leith Kind 2nd, a good all-round bitch, looked well, and made a strong fight, her type, or rather lack of it, in head, handicaps her.

Coltness Kim 3rd, well-known, neat head, not too good in hind quarters and between coats.

The next real competition was between Quarrybrae Colleen and Leith Special for winners, and at one time it looked as if the two dogs would be necessary to finish this, but they were eventually placed as written.

The two Smooths, Canute Treasure and Canute Artful, were placed as written, the latter being extra fit.

The fight for best Collie was a three-cornered affair, with Ch. Canute Treasure, Quarrybrae Colleen and Ch. Coltness Clinker. After much consideration they were placed in that order. The smooth was a little light on the day, but such a type and marvel for ring manners.

"OLD-TIMER."

WESTMINSTER K. C.

The above mentioned club will hold their forty-third annual show in the Madison Square Gardens, New York, on February 19th to 22nd. On looking over the premium list we find the usual good classification, in all over 600 classes have been arranged, with specials galore. The management is in the same capable hands and we predict a record show.

ENGLISH BUL' DOG CLUB, MONTREAL

The annual meeting and election of officers of the English Bulldog Club, Montreal, was held on Friday, January 10th, at headquarters, 325 University Street, Montreal.

Messrs. P. R. Francis and T. Rowley were re-elected as president and secretary-treasurer respectively, and Mr. W. Salmon was elected vice-president. Mr. W. Ogden, a pillar of the club since its foundation, had great pressure brought to bear upon him to accept the presidential chair, but he refused the honor for the ensuing year.

The club is in a very strong position, finishing the year with a satisfactory bank balance, all debts paid, and a solid body of enthusiastic breeders as members.

The members proposed at the meeting brings the membership up to 96. The officials of the club have always been against the policy of hoarding up trophies, with such restrictions attached to the winning thereof, that they are very truly named Permanent, so that the club is unable to boast of having a large collection, but the members are rather proud of the fact that during the eighteen months that the club has been in existence it has supported every open show held in Montreal and district with medals and cups which are offered to be won outright. Being in a better position financially now than at the close of 1917, it is hoped that the club will extend its activities, and give more support to outside shows. One of the most encouraging aspects of the increased membership is the number of out-of-town fanciers who are applying for membership. These fanciers will be given special attention, and whenever possible, their local show will be supported.

Application has been made to the C. K. C., and granted for April 19th, to be set aside for the club's second annual show, under C. K. C. rules.

Easter Saturday, April 19th, has been selected as the date for the club's annual show under C. K. C. rules, which considering the interest in the breed at present, should be a rousing success. No judge has as yet been selected or approached, but no efforts will be spared in order to secure the services of an expert who can perform the well-nigh impossible task of pleasing everybody. Further details, when settled, will appear in the advertising columns.

NOTICE

DOG BREEDERS ARE ASKED TO BEAR IN MIND THE FOLLOWING
WHEN FORWARDING APPLICATIONS FOR REGISTRATION TO OTTAWA.

Only new members are entitled to a free registration coupon.

Membership fees are due on January 1st of each year.

Do not fill in an application for individual registration on applications for registration of litter.

If you have not got the proper forms, write to Ottawa.

When forwarding applications for individual registrations, always give the date of birth. In many cases breeders fill in "litter registered." As there may be four or five litters on record out of the one bitch it is an impossibility to tell to which litter the dog being recorded belongs, unless the date of birth is given.

If you have a street address, fill it in on the application.

THE BULL TERRIER CLUB OF AMERICA.

The Bull Terrier Club of America are holding a specialty show in Madison Square Garden on February 18th, the day before the big Westminster Show. Major Clair Foster, the well-known breeder and exhibitor, will judge. There will be cash prizes of $10, $5, and $3 in each class, together with many plate and money specials. There are several dogs whose owners expect to give Humphrey Elliott a tussle to win with his great Haymarket Faultless. Five teams of four dogs have already been entered. The Noross Kennels will show Ch. Noross aPtrician, Ch. Williston Rose, Ch. Noross Radiant, and Noross Blue Moon. Some team! Among the great dogs to be shown are Noross aPtrician (team only), Noross Blue Moon, Haymarket Faultless, Allfire Supreme, Allfire Alive, Noross Stand Pat, and three unshown youngsters owned by F. J. Casey, Floyd Waite, and Tommy Lynch.

Mr. A. Trudeau, of Longueuil, uQue., is rejoicing over the arrival of a litter of four beautiful parti-color cocker spaniel puppies and a litter of three Pekingese puppies out of Mrs. Trudeau's new importation Miss Fo-Too-Too. The puppies are doing fine, and show great promise.

VETERINARY DEPARTMENT

Questions relating to the treatment of ailing dogs MUST be addressed to the editor of "Kennel and Bench," and must reach us no later than the last mail at the 20th of each month, if answer is to appear in next issue. Advice to breeders in this column is free of charge.

ADVICE BY MAIL — Where an urgent reply is requested, a fee of $1.50 must be enclosed with letter to the editor.

Post-Mortem Examinations—

Carcases for examination MUST be sent prepaid to Dr. J. A. Campbell, 8 Edward St., Toronto. A fee of $2.00 MUST accompany the carcass in all cases, or else it will be destroyed without examination.

Questions must be brief. In every case breed, sex, age, and conditions observed should be given (not for publication), also nom de plume over which he wishes questions answered.

Ford, Kingston—Q.—My hound dog, five years old, is gradually losing condition, has frequent liquid motions, consisting principally of mucus and blood, accompanied by severe straining. Could you suggest any treatment that would give him relief?

A.—The dog is suffering from dysentery. Give 1 ounce of castor oil, into which has been added 10 drops of laudanum. About four hours afterwards give 15 grains of carbonate of bismuth (every three or four hours), also give an enema of thick boiled starch twice a day. The enema should be just warm, and given very slowly, and the dog should be kept quiet for a short time afterwards to prevent his ejecting it. Feed on milk thickened with arrowroot (boiled), also give white of egg beaten up, give barley water to drink, no solid food should be given whilst there are any signs of blood in the motions.

Teeth, B. H.—A.—It does not always happen that the temporary or puppy teeth are shed before the permanent ones appear, and the latter shoot up either beside, in front, or behind the puppy teeth. Then the latter teeth should always be drawn, or the permanent ones may not come straight and regular.

Pom, Winnipeg—A.—Yes, it will be safe to mate your female, providing you use a small dog that has been bred from small stock. The recipe you ask for should be as follows:

Santonine 1 scruple
Liquor Senna Dule..... 1 ounce
Glycerine ½ ounce
Syrup Aniseed 3½ ounces

For Pom. puppies give quarter of a teaspoonful half hour before morning meal. Repeat once a week. Shake the bottle well before pouring out the dose.

Sore Throat, Kingston, Ont.—A.—Give a teaspoonful of the following mixture three or four times a day:

Chlorate of Potash..... 1 drachm
Water to make..... 6 ounces

A light diet should be given for a few days, and the enlarged glands rubbed gently night and morning with spirits of camphor.

Victory, Toronto—A.—The best food for orphan puppies is made up as follows: Milk, 1 pint; Water, 1 gill; Barley Flour, 2 tablespoonfuls; Sugar, 1 dessert spoonful; Salt, ¼ teaspoonful. First mix the flour and water, then add the remainder and cook for twenty minutes. Feed every two hours warm.

Bully, Hamilton—Q.—I had a Boston terrier puppy that died a few days ago with a peculiar disease, and should like to know if anything could have been done for it, as I have five more out of the same litter. The puppy was always eating rubbish, and became very restless, had severe spasms of pain about the abdomen, and died in three or four days. What would this be, and could anything have been done to save him?

A.—Your puppy was evidently suffering from colic, which generally affects puppies between the age of three and six months, due to eating wood, coal, and other indigestible articles. The treatment for this condition is to give a dose of castor oil, about an hour after. If this fails to operate, give an enema consisting of about one tablespoonful of glycerine mixed with five tablespoonfuls of warm water. Also give the following mixture:

Chloric Ether..... 1½ drachms
Laudanum 1½ drachms
Water to make..... 3 ounces

Give teaspoonful every three or four hours until pain is relieved.

Sooner or later you will subscribe to "Kennel and Bench"—why not now?

SHORT BARKS

The well-known bulldog fancier, Mr. C. S. Webber, of London, Ont., writes us regarding the annual meeting of the London Canine Association, which was held on January 3rd, 1919. The finances are in healthy condition, and prospects look bright for 1919. A committee was appointed, composed of Dr. E. P. Smith, Captain Walter Smith, Fred Hassel and Charles S. Webber, to look after the shows for 1919. The first, an evening show for all breeds, to be held January 1st. A fine lot of specials have been offered, and Mr. John Meadows of Oakville will judge all breeds. We look forward to a big turnout. This is to be followed by a puppy show for all breeds in February. We will hold another C. K. C. show early in the spring, dates to be decided on later.

The following were elected officers for the ensuing year: Hon. President, Col. R. McEwen; hon. vice-president, Capt. W. Smith, president, F. H. Westbury, first vice-president, C. S. Webber; second vice-president, E. Palmer Smith; secretary-treasurer, Harry Evans; veterinary surgeon, Dr. D. McDonald.

Lieut. Lou McL. Ritchie of St. John, N.B., reports that he has bred his bull terrier Roseland Baby Doll (Knock-Na-Chree Leader, ex Haymarket Bell) to Jos. G. Barbin's "Allfire Alive. She had a journey of four days going to Pittsburgh and five days returning, but stepped out of her crate in fine shape. He also bred the cocker bitch, Lasalle Beauty to Lane Farewell's block boy Admiration (Honey Boy, ex Cigo), and his parti-color Patricia of St. John, to Mrs. Paine's Idahurst President, who is by Ch. Newport President, ex Ch. Idahurst Fancy. If breeding will do anything, he should have something to show.

That good lightweight bulldog, Lord Beresford's Best Grandson, has changed owners, and is now the property of H. Holgate of Toronto, who secured him in exchange for King Jack. The latter is now comfortably kenneled amongst the other good ones in the Chinook Kennels at Lethbridge.

Mr. C. Faux, who is now residing in Toronto, reports that the bitch he imported last year from the Pike's Peak Kennels, Colorado, has whelped four dogs and five bitches sired by a grandson of Ch. Tintern Tip Top. Also that his winning Ch. Rex Persaltim bitch is in whelp to her grandsire Ch. Abbey King Nobbler, and he expects at least two champions from this mating. Breeders who want some real Ch. Abbey King Nobbler's blood should follow up this litter when it arrives.

Amongst the recent litters sired by Mr. W. B. Levack's well-known Boston terrier Count Dee Cee, are 6 out of Bunnie Bunt, owned by A. E. Armour of Ottawa; Mrs. D. F. Woodcock's Woodland Beauty, 7; Mr. Morris' Lady, 7; Mr. Gilpin's Lady Laurea, 4; T. White's Gaby Deslys, 4; Mrs. H. Shaw, Dolly Day Dream, 2; Mr. V. Hughes' Webbwood Queen, 8; Mr. Robinson's Lady Cowan, 7; A. E. Brown's Queenie, 8; Mrs. Sleeth's Tricks, 5; and A. Barber's Lady Lucla, 7. Reports show that all these new arrivals are doing well and showing great promise.

We hear that Mr. Ham of Calgary has purchased a promising Airedale pup by Ch. Midland Master G, out of Prairie Primrose. We wish him the best of luck with it.

The New York show will be well patronized this year by Canadian talent. Dr. Villeneuve and several other Montreal fanciers are contemplating taking down their dogs and as usual Bert Swann and Sam Bamford will be in charge of the Toronto celebrates.

We regret to announce the death of that promising young Pomeranian bitch Lauder Princess, owned by Mr. H. Hirst of Toronto. This youngster was one of the most promising blacks seen for some time, and will be a great loss to Mr. Hirst.

As will be seen by the stud advertisement elsewhere in this issue, the noted international winning bulldog, Mersey Pilot, has come east again. The news will be received with appreciation by eastern fanciers of the short-faced breed, as Mersey Pilot, because of his magnificent type, great bone, and general all-round excellencies, is a favorite with the bulldog breeders hereabout. Mersey Pilot is now owned by a Montreal kennel, headed by M. S. Kilby and E. W. Ferguson, the latter handling Pilot's stud arrangements. Mr. Ferguson can be addressed in care of the Montreal Herald, of which he is sporting editor, and which is highly favored by the fancy as being the only daily newspaper in eastern Canada to conduct a kennel department wherein intelligent comment and live news of dogdom is purveyed.

Pilot comes east again from Bob Thomson's Cairnside Kennels at Calgary, and leaves some splendid puppies behind him there, which will doubtless be heard from at the spring shows. Pilot is now six years old, full of vigor, and transmitting his magnificent qualities with every litter. He will be bred to only a limited number of bitches, being retired to private stud work.

Pilot's most recent win was at Calgary, where he got winners, dogs. His wins in Canada and America are too numerous to enumerate in the space at our disposal. He is of the low, cloddy, heavily-boned and big-ribbed type, and should do the breed much good in the east.

Montreal fanciers generally were greatly elated over the fact that Kersal King, the English bulldog owned by Fred Charbonnier in that city, was recently adjudged best of all breeds at the Maple Leaf Club's show. Kersal King is possibly one of the typical of the breed in America to-day, so it has been conceded by judges who know a bulldog thoroughly, but for one reason or another, he has not gone through to his championship as speedily as might have been expected. He was recently defeated in Montreal at a local show, but the judgment of Charlie Hopson at Toronto quite wiped out this stain on the grand little white dog.

Montreal fanciers feel greatly flattered over the fact that E. C. Howard, the well-known Irish setter man of the metropolis, was asked to judge on this breed at the big show in New York. Mr. Howard would rather show than judge, and we understand he declined the offer. Mr. Howard has owned two or three Irish setter champions, notably Sonora Norma, recently sold to Maine, and Tyrone Terry.

The annual elections of the big Montreal Kennel Association are drawing to a close, and indications are for another keenly-fought battle for positions. While Len Halliday declares he is absolutely through after three years in the presidential chair, friends believe they can persuade him to once more run for the office, with every probability that he will be re-elected. Walter Holmes, the hard-working secretary, is finished, and his place will be hard to fill. Rumor has it that the veteran Wm. Aitken will again be a contestant for presidential honors.

Miss C. J. Laviolette, owner of the Wangza Pekingese, Longueuil reports that the year 1918 has been unusually successful. The demand for puppies absolutely exceeded the supply, and the imported parti-color champion Priorwood Pagan certainly created a record, both as a show and stud dog. Besides completing his championship in sixteen months, Pagan was placed best Pekingese in show at eight C. K. C. fixtures under Dr. DeMund, Chas. G. Hopton, Dr. Sullivan, Geo. S. Thomas, Mrs. Wylie, Miss McGill, Norman Swire, Bob Ross and G. Ward, including Toronto, Ottawa, Montreal, Sherbrooke and Longueuil. As a sire between July 1st and December 1st, 1918, nine matrons were served by him, three are in whelp and 22 puppies are divided between the other six. Of his winning progeny we may mention Remso Wei Toy, owned by Miss Hosmer, and who at ten months old topped an entry of nine grown dogs, getting reserve to Pagan, also Wangza Chinchilla, owned by Mrs. E. I. Murphy, Wangza Chinese Idol, owned by Mrs. McKenna, W. Mr. Wing owned by Mrs. Pearson, and W. Mr. Choo retained as one of Pagan's best sons. The other two imported Stud Yuan Li of Wangza, was shown but once during the same period, so was kept less busy. Out of four bitches served by him no less than sixteen typical puppies, including a litter of six, two of his sons, Hop di of W, owned by Mrs. McTaggart, and Choo di of W, owned by Miss Lafleur, have already proven their worth at stud and in the show ring. What is the reason? Good health, good points, and good breeding.

Mrs. C. Perrins, Toronto, reports a litter of three dogs and one female, two blacks and two chocolates, by Peter Herd's Kelvinsiae Mischief, out of Mrs. Perrin's female, Dolly Varden, all very small solid colors.

Owing to business pressure, Mr. Percy F. Francis, of St. Lambert, Que., has sold most of his dogs, including the famous stud and show dog, St. Lambert Duke, also the imported bitch, Deodora Savage, and a good puppy by the Duke ex Deodora to Dr. W. J. Boultenhouse of Three Rivers. Dr. Boultenhouse has long been an admirer of the short-faced breed, and decided to start a kennel of the same. With this object in view he visited St. Lambert, and purchased the above at a good figure. We feel sure all the Canadian fanciers will welcome such a good sport as the doctor amongst them, and they will be more than pleased to see him exhibiting at our shows, for with such a foundation as this to start with and with a few more others he intends to buy, he will soon be one of our hottest competitors. The doctor has built a most up-to-date sanitary kennel where the dogs will have his personal attention, and where one may expect to go to pick up a real promising youngster.

St. Lambert Duke is one of the best all-round Canadian-bred dogs we have had for years. He is a possessor of a wonderful napper, and is one of the shortest afead heavyweights; he also possesses a real pair of shoulders and a very typy body. He is also a sire of typical short-faced, big-boned and low-to-ground puppies, and in the last two years has got nearly thirty firsts and many specials to his credit.

Mr. Francis informs us that though he has sold these dogs, it is not his intention to give up the short-faced breed, for he will still have one or two good ones left, which cannot be bought, and has arranged to import something good early in the coming spring.

Mr. Mark Stover, Sombra, Ont., reports that he is proud of a litter lately whelped by his bitch Saturn Nell, sired by Morning Admiration. These puppies are the most uniform litter that he has seen, and all doing fine.

Count Dee Cee, the Boston terrier owned by Mr. W. B. Levack, of Toronto, has been ke busy since his arrival in Canada. Amongst the many matrons to visit him during the past few weeks are Mr. Ingleson's Lady Saxon, Mr. E. Stone's Tizza, S. H. Gandier's Sister Sanoria, H. M. Jackson's Dream Girl, W. Hughes' Shongo Lady, Mrs. H. Shaw's Lady Rebecca, A. E. Brown's Lady Beth, Mr. Richardson's Quinty Coreaar, Mrs. D. F. Woodcock's Woodlands Frevo, Mr. Stone's Toodles, and several others.

We hear that the well-known handler, Jack Fletcher of the Brockley Kennels, Calgary, is taking a string of western dogs to the Westminster show at New York. This is a rare opportunity for western fanciers to get their stock shown to advantage at America's leading feature.

Pomeranian fanciers will be sorry to hear of the sudden death of Mr. McNaughton's young dog Ct. Pomeria Perfection. Without doubt this is an exceedingly hard blow both to the owner and fanciers at large, as this perfect little specimen was acknowledged to be the best Pom ever seen in Canada. His wins constituted a record for a dog of such a tender age, and it is doubtful whether we shall see his equal again. Our sympathy goes out to Mr. McNaughton in his great loss.

Mr. C. M. Smith of Brantford reports that his Airedale bitch, Queen Betty, by Cr. Rebound Oorang, out of a Tintern Desire dam, has just given birth to eleven puppies, six males and five females. She was bred to that good dog Morning Admiration. All puppies are alive and in excellent condition.

Mr. A. O. Underbakke, Hanley, Sask., reports that the good bitch Preparedness, bred to Midland Master G, gave birth to a nice litter of five dog pups and one bitch. We expect to see a few winners amongst these pups at the shows next summer.

Among the latest arrivals in Canada is the Sealyham terrier, Bridget's Snowflake, imported by Lieut.-Col. Reg. Pellatt, Casa Loma, Toronto. She is an all-white daughter of the famous English champion, Brockholt Bridget, sired by the all-white dog champion, Brockholt Bacchus; and was whelped on the 17th of September, 1917, and has been bred to that very excellent dog Wait and See, who has sired many good pups. He was a large winner in England before being imported to the United States, where he is continuing the good work. Very excellent results are being looked for from this mating.

The well-known cocker spaniel fancier, Mr. Moore of Vancouver, reports that dog business in general is certainly picking up on the coast. He has several bitches booked to Moore's Cavalier, and has bitches showing in whelp to the same dog. The breeders are just awakening to the fact that this dog is siring the goods, and will not be available after spring, as Mr. Moore intends withdrawing him from public stud.

Mr. Harry Watson, of Macrorie, Sask., reports that he has sold his bull-dog Sandfield Marquis to Mr. C. M. Callaghan, of Winnipeg, through advertising him in Kennel and Bench.

Mr. H. B. Gray, Moose Jaw, reports a beautiful litter of puppies sired by Mr. J. S. Playfair's McGlynn's Delight, dam Trixie Fi Fi. All are doing well, and showing great promise.

Mr. Miller, Toronto, offers for sale in this issue some choice Irish terriers, possessing true type and character, which is difficult to produce. This is a rare opportunity to purchase a first-class specimen of the best breeding extant.

We hear that Mr. R. H. Morris of Toronto, has sold his St. Bernard dog, The King's Own, for a big figure to Mr. Adams of Syracuse, N.Y.

Mr. Mawkinney's good Airedale bitch Lady Beautiful, who took winners at Chicago in 1918, was sent from New York to be mated to Mr. Norman MacKenzie's great dog Int. Ch. Polam Maxim. The result was a litter of ten, which their owner describes as being a "most uniform and typical lot." We wish him the best of luck with them.

Mrs. D. Beland, Pomona Kennels, Montreal, has again added to her stock of imported dogs, the most recent addition being her little Perivale Mayflower, a light orange Pomeranian, weight four pounds. Her former home was the Perivale Kennels, England, owned by Mrs. and Miss Crawford. The sire is the famous Prince Pertinax, owned by Mr. Goufon.

Mrs. Beland, Pomona Kennels, can readily dispose of her young stock since the importation of her stud dogs Stormlight of Dara and Wee Red Fly. The coats of these puppies are marvellous. In the last litter from Chocolate Fly and Wee Red Fly there are three pure chocolate males, one black, and an orange shaded female. Mrs. Stewart,

Mrs. Provost, Mr. L'Aqueain, Mrs. Bell, were the purchasers, and every one was highly pleased with their pets. Among the last mating at Pomona Kennels are Mr. Goodman's Saucy Princess to Stormlight of Dara, Natalia Imp to Stormlight of Dara, and Mrs. Provost's Montreal Sensation to Stormlight of Dara. The results of these matings are anxiously awaited by their owners.

Mrs. Stringer of Regent Avenue, Notre Dame de Grace, Montreal, is rejoicing over a little of sable Pomeranians out of her Pomona Peggy. The sire was Wee Red Fly, of the Pomona Kennels. We wish her every success in her new fancy.

Pomona Kennels came into its own at the recent evening show. Little Stormlight of Dara was really a picture, in perfect coat, a regular ball of fluff, being shown by Mr. Goodman, her owner Mrs. Beland, being ill with the grippe. This aristocrat is worth notice in his capacity as a sire. Some of his progeny will be shown at the next May show, who will create a sensation in Montreal.

Lieut.-Col. Reg. Pellatt reports that at his kennels, Casa Loma, Toronto, he has received a fine litter of Airedales out of his bitch Morning Sunshine, by Milton Bombardment. The litter consists of four males and five females. All are doing well. They were born on January 5th, 1919.

Mr. W. H. Mann of Toronto tells us that he has sold his dog Merry Master, a very handsome registered tan and white cocker spaniel, to J. R. Laxton of Regina, Sask., and also Merry Monarch, to the Rozane Kennels, Pittsburgh, Pa. Both sales in response to and advertisement in Kennel and Bench for November.

As the English bulldog grows in popularity the competition grows in proportion, and as this breed is now making a strong claim for the premier position in the dog world of Montreal, the competition on is very keen between the several owners to possess the top dog, also to breed a topper. This friendly rivalry has been provocative of the necessary stimulus that will, if continued, eventually make him the most popular of all breeds, if it has not already been done). To give an outline of how fast the game is moving S.

Almond of the Drummond Kennels has recently disposed of the following: Impregnable, a lightweight, shipped to Toronto; Joe Blake and Overgreen Marquis, both imported from England, and winners every time shown in this country, proven stud dogs of quality, and should do well for the breed in the west, where they have gone. He also shipped to the east that well-known stud dog, Goswell Major, and has recently purchased Lowestoff Roxana, a Ch. Strathay Prince Albert bred bitch, an extra good specimen, with just the right blood lines; also received Failsworth White Kaffir, who is by Norworth King, ex Blackrod Victoria, one of the best lightweights in the country, a typical little dog all round, with a tremendous skull and wide exceptional, well turned-up under jaw, low to the ground, good bone, with a natural front, well ribbed body, light hind quarters, and low-set tail. This dog was sent to this country by that well-known exponent of the breed, Mr. Sam Crabtree.

Mr. Almond also informs us that he has some others on the way from England, and anticipates to have some news of interest to the bulldog breeders at an early date.

The sad news reaches us of the death of Mrs. Davies' good black Pom. dog Soldier Boy. This youngster was a litter brother to the late Ch. Pomeria Perfection, and possessed many of his brother's sterling qualities, being a winner every time shown.

A wonderfully coated King Charles named Celame Tylo has just been added to the collection of beautiful English Toy Spaniels owned by Alf. Smith of Ottawa. This little fellow is full of quality and will undoubtedly secure his championship without much effort.

We have received a letter from Mrs. J. W. Weldon, formerly of Galt, Ont., who is now on a visit to England, and whose address is care Rev. E. Rusling, Holgan, Hawney Rd., Romford, England. She is prepared to take orders to bring back with her any breed of dogs. Any person wishing to take advantage of the above offer can do so by writing to the above address.

We are pleased to report that the C. K. C. championship cups have arrived, and are being dispatched to the winners thereof at an early date.

A. V. WEBLEY

60 Craig Street

OTTAWA, ONT.

In the selection of the subject for the front page of our Illustrated Number we think the subject under notice is a most worthy one, for is there in the canine world a dog of more grace, dignity, and command of presence than the Russian Wolfhound, who could easily be termed the "Gladstone of dogdom."

Turning back to a period dating shortly after the start of the great war, we recall a young Russian Wolfhound being brought out in England, who was one of the season's sensations, and who, starting from the puppy classes, was knocking at the door for championship honors. The name of this grand youngster was Petrofski of Addlestone, and as we remember him he was shown through the leading fixtures in England, including Crufts, Richmond, Ranleigh, Bexhill, Eastbourne, Manchester, etc., where he won his championship certificate.

Imported to Canada in 1916 by Mr. Nickle of Kingston, and later going to that active and sincere fancier from Ottawa, Mr. A. V. Webley, he has been shown throughout Canada and the United States. To say the least, we find it a most interesting record. Yes, we may even say irreproachable. For starting at the Canadian National Exhibition in 1916, and going down through all of the leading events and ending at Ottawa Exhibition, 1918, we find marked after each one, "Winners." In itself this is a remarkable record for the dog, but it is more of a compliment to the owner for having him always fit and ready to meet all comers, and carry him through a three-year campaign without a defeat.

We hardly think it necessary to give a detailed description of this well-known winner, and could summarize it by saying, "he is just about what we are looking for in a wolfhound," but a more minute description would add: built on racy, graceful lines, with a grand head, great neck and shoulders, wonderful legs and feet, with a nicely turned arch, and hind quarters that could not be improved upon, carrying a heavy thick coat and excellent feathering.

While Mr. Webley's preference in the canine world falls to the Russian Wolfhound, he has other breeds at his kennel, and very often brings out a good Boston Terrier. We understand he is going in for the wolfhound on a more extensive scale in 1919, and contemplates the importation of several brood matrons to mate to Petrofski, in which event we will no doubt have the pleasure of seeing some grand youngsters from this kennel at our future shows, as Petrofski is a proven sire, and is sponsor for a number of winners in England.

CLAYCLIFFE KENNELS

(THE HOME OF THE QUALITY AIREDALES)

Owner, Joseph Russell, Toronto, Ontario

When the history of Airedales in Canada is written it will be found that Joseph Russell has done his full share in its distinction and popularity.

It is just now, when we find the breed nearing the apex of its popularity, that we look to the sources from which the quality dogs come, and find that more pure-bred Airedales come forth from the Claycliffe Kennels than any kennel of the breed in Canada. The unique achievements of the Claycliffe Airedales open a new epoch, and mark another stage in the progress of the breed.

A visit to these kennels is a revelation to anyone with Terrier leanings, being deficient of no single item to ensure the comfort of their inmates and as a breeding establishment leaves nothing to be desired.

Mr. Russell's activities in Canadian dogdom are known far and wide, having taken up his hobby with a zest and enthusiasm that can only mean success. He has an excellent knowledge of the breed he adopted, and keeps a watchful eye on the inmates of his kennels, which has been a great factor towards the victories he has attained in the show ring.

His career as a breeder and exhibitor covers a period of only three years, but I venture to say that during that time he has won more prizes than any other Airedale fanciers in Canada. I recently had the pleasure of looking over Mr. Russell's stock, and to pretend that in the limits of this article I can describe them all would be ridiculous, but I saw many of the best, which must suffice.

To commence with, the youngsters, which were numerous and of good quality, I saw a typical pair of five months' old bitches, nice size, bone, and coat, and well finished head pieces; they are by the great Canadian champion, Silver Birch Banker, out of the winning bitch, but space forbids me to elaborate on them. We next visited the large kennel where the matrons are housed, and, without doubt, I saw the best class of bitches it is possible to find. The first to be paraded was that classy and well-named bitch, Ch. Claycliffe Swell Lady, a home-bred one that has won her title in the hottest of competition. She is as good natured as she is good looking and would have been trotted out at the New York shows if it had not been for her present maternal duties. Next came Claycliffe Beauty, full of the real terrier characteristics, looking as fit as ever, and can hold her own in any company. Claycliffe Pilgrim was then introduced and displayed her many fine qualities to advantage. Type, substance, bone, harsh coat, and beautiful color are a few of her outstanding assets. Like her kennel mates, she has done some good winning, and will do more.

This was by no means all the dogs we saw. Many bitches of superb quality and stud dogs of the best possible breeding and type will have to be kept over for want of space. Claycliffe Corker, the young wire-haired Fox Terrier, trotted jauntily amongst the Airedales, displaying all the qualities that are only seen in dogs of high degree. His successful career on the show bench being proof of his merits.

Some of the good ones we have to pass over for lack of space, but we have mentioned enough to show that it is one of, if not, the largest and best kennel of Airedales in Canada, and we left, much impressed with our visit and with great confidence in the future of this kennel.

JOSEPH RUSSELL, M.P.P.

PRESIDENT
CANADIAN KENNEL CLUB

Claycliffe Cricket, hence the quality thereof. Another trio of young females that came in for inspection and which impressed me as being far above the average, were the results of a mating between Claycliffe Swell and the imported bitch, Rhodhu Victory; the former is a son of the renowned Ryburn Swell and is proving his worth as a sire, there being several youngsters by him that are showing exceptional promise. Amongst the many young hopefuls that Kennelman Cooke trotted out, there was none I liked better than a young bitch by Silver Birch Sensation, clean level head, small dark eye with the correct expression, short level back, nice bone, and a coat of the right color and texture. Her sire impressed me as being an ideal stud dog, and on asserting his pedigree, I found he was by Int. Ch. York Ryburn Swell, out of Int. Ch. Brickfield Molly. With such breeding behind him there is no cause to wonder why he is such a producer. There were many other promising youngsters trotted out that will do credit to these kennels when ready,

GLORYMACDEE KENNELS

W. B. LEVACK, Owner,

24 Edna Ave., Toronto

COUNT DEE CEE

One of the pleasures I have looked forward to for the past twelve months was that of spending an afternoon at the Glory-Mac-Dee Kennels, and carefully going over its inmates. I had often seen them at the leading shows, where they were always the centre of attraction, but the only way you can really know your dog is to sit on an empty box in the kennel and watch them at play. With this in mind, I called at Mr. Levack's office, and in a few minutes we were on our way in a high-powered motor to the kennel of fame.

Few fanciers have sprung into prominence in such a short time as Mr. W. B. Levack, which is due to his intense desire to own "good ones," and to help the other fellow breed good ones. Generous to a fault, it has often been said Mr. Levack seldom has a youngster for sale as long before their weaning age, he has promised to give them to some of his intimate acquaintances. I do not know of anyone who has done more to promote the welfare of their particular breed than Mr. Levack has the Boston Terrier of Canada.

The Glory-Mac-Dee Kennel name is a composite one, gathered from the three principal celebrities which it houses, viz, Ch. Dowd's Glory, Ch. Little Miss Mac, and Count Dee Cee. And now to the dogs.

The first one brought out was Ch. Dowd's Glory, a Cracksmen bred, rich mahogany brindle, and at the age of eight years he stands, a strong, vigorous dog, right in his prime. He is of compact build, short cobby body, beautiful arched neck, legs and feet par excellence, and a napper that you only find on a champion, a large dark eye, and finished off with a short screw tail. He is particularly active, and moves like a two-year-old, and with the natural result his get are large healthy litters. He has won more ribbons than any Boston living, and his competition has been of the hottest, doing considerable winning at such shows as New York and Boston. And next in order came

Ch. Little Miss Mac, a lightweight, by Lord Rufus, ex Sparkling Gem, and my, what a beauty she was as she moved about the kennel! There is no wonder that she has been so frequently and rightly placed best of breed, and I can easily say without danger of contradiction that she is one of the best lightweights living. A beautifully marked dark seal brindle, short back, good square, deep muzzle, and the best of legs and feet; it is indeed difficult to fault her. She is of such calibre that she completed her championship in something less than a year, winning at such fixtures as the Canadian National Exhibition, St. John's, Sherbrooke, New York, and Boston, at the latter show bringing away no less than fifteen specials, and several times best of breed under our best specialist judges.

Count Dee Cee. This masterpiece of Boston Terrier art is looked upon by most fanciers as one of the three great est of the breed living. I made him out a rich dark seal brindle, short shapely body, beautiful legs and feet, strong deep muzzle, large dark eye and wonderful expression. At the age of ten months he started his winning career at Philadelphia Specialty Show, capturing 1st novice, 1st limit, 1st open, and reserve winners. Following closely on this his winnings extended to the New York and Boston Shows, where he did remarkably well. His Canadian career of less than a year includes winners and best of breed at Montreal, Sherbrooke and London, winners Canadian National Exhibition, reserve winners at Toronto Boston Terrier Show and Maple Leaf Kennel Club Show.

His services as a stud dog are much in demand, and there is seldom a week goes by that does not have three visiting matrons, but he is a strong, vigorous youngster, and can stand plenty of work, and from reports I hear he is delivering the goods as a quality sire.

Miss Paddy Dee, a home-bred one by Ch. Dowd's Glory, ex Ch. Little Miss Mac, is a six-months' youngster of exceptional promise. On her first out she won 2nd puppy at Maple Leaf Show in a large class.

Fashion Plate, who but a short time ago graced our bench shows, and did no small amount of winning, is of the type and class to be found in this kennel. On account of the loss of an eye through an unfortunate accident, she has been retired from active participation in the show ring, but this little lady will endow to her offspring the character, quality, and gracefulness which she possesses, and I will be surprised if some of her whelp does not attain the coveted title of champion.

Mr. Levack remarked, "I have been saving something particularly good for the last, and I have a five-months' youngster that I think will help keep this kennel to the front for some time to come." He then brought out Paddy's Disturber, and I want to say right here that as soon as he comes out he will not only be a disturber but a bombshell in the camp. It is impossible to conceive a more perfectly marked dog. In fact his markings would do justice to the vivid imagination of our present day canine artists. He is an all-quality one, and he has Champion written all over him. Let us wait and see.

The guardian and protector of the kennel is that good bulldog

King Moston, a dark brindle heavyweight, with excellent napper, good flat skull, a nice wide, and well-turned under jaw, well sprung ribs, and perfect shoulder placement, with good bone. This fellow has done and will do considerable winning, and you can always figure he will be there or thereabouts.

And thus ended a pleasant day.

SWASHBUCKLER.

DIAMOND BULLDOG KENNELS

H. A. WILSON, Owner
204 Beech Ave., Toronto

JELlicoe WESTALL

CH. COSTER'S DIAMOND

Last year I had the satisfaction of reviewing this famous kennel, and for the past few weeks I had been looking forward with pleasure to the opportunity of renewing acquaintances with some of the dogs that I had examined and praised a year ago, and with expectancy to learn what new ones might be coming up. Nor was I disappointed, for on my arrival, although I missed some of the old faces, their places were amply filled by several new ones, and a team of youngsters that will make their mark in dogdom when they come out.

As I remember it, I commented last year on the excellent range of kennels carrying the Diamond name. A kennel house 10x25, with fourteen separate sleeping compartments, electric lighted, and hot water heated, with seven spacious runs for exercising the dogs; a separate feed room with running water, and under the entire kennel a concrete basement that can be used as a dog hospital, with ample room for crate storage and heating plant. The heating arrangement is unique. The main part of the building is kept at a uniform temperature by a series of coil pipes, and underneath the sleeping quarters of each dog is an auxiliary set of pipes, and the heat can be turned into them in severe weather, insuring perfect comfort for the dogs when the thermometer is below zero.

The stud dog quarters are separated from the bitches and young stock, and special accommodations are provided for visiting matrons, where they are secluded from the balance of the stock.

The kennel is spotlessly clean, sanitary, and thoroughly disinfected, and it is evident the Gold Dust Twins help do the work. The feed tins, watering pans, and all of the utensils show evidence of scrupulous care.

I have often remarked at the perfect condition of the Diamond Bulldogs, as I have seen them in the rings at various shows, and too much credit cannot be given Mr. Wilson. Good food and plenty of it, good exercise and plenty of it, good grooming, and plenty of it—is the answer.

The first to be brought out was Ch. Coster's Diamond, who, with all his age, carries himself with the style of a puppy. He is probably the most used stud dog in Canada, and his get is of uniformly good quality. A low, cloddy earhorse dog of the old-fashioned type, he is to-day in his prime, and his presence is felt at all of our dog shows, where his sons and daughters are climbing to the hall of fame.

Peaceful Diamond, a heavyweight fawn by Peaceful Duke, ex Peaceful Hope, of nice quality, with good head, short face, and wide underjaw and any quantity of substance, surmounting a shapely body, and standing on four sound legs and feet, in addition to being a winner of some note, is a brood matron of many virtues. I have seen some of her progeny.

Duchess Diamond, an all-white lightweight, by Crumpsall Eli, ex Worsley Peggy, has the making of an ideal brood matron, being exceptionally well bred. She has a nice flat skull, short face, good ears and eyes, properly placed, a wonderful spring of rib and a nice turned shoulder. She will whelp a good pup.

The next to be brought out was a four-months' old brindle pied dog puppy of more than ordinary quality, by Coster, ex Peaceful Diamond, who has the earmarks of making something nice. Large massive skull, wide, well-turned underjaw, shortest of faces, with lots of substance, a beautiful shoulder for a puppy, very short back, and tremendous rib. The inclemency of the weather has prevented him getting proper exercise of late, which will improve his hind quarters and pasterns and very little improvement will make this fellow a fast one.

Jellicoe Westall—the latest addition to the kennel, is one of the best specimens of the breed in America. True to type from the tip of his nose to the end of his tail, it is not to be wondered at that he is an international winner. His record in England, where he took into camp over a dozen champions of note, will not compare with his future work in his adopted home.

It is not difficult to describe a dog of mediocre quality, but if I were to detail this fellow I fear I would do him an injustice, and will content myself by saying he is the Bulldog Standard in most essentials. He is a sire of quality stock, and during his sojourn in Toronto of eleven weeks, he has had eleven brood matrons, every one of which has proven in whelp. I expect, if I review the Diamond Kennels next year, to be able to write much about his get.

In passing from the Bulldogs to the Pekingese I noticed one of superb quality, a three-months' son of Noswal Neto, which I want to record here is, at its age, the best I have ever seen in Canada. Wonderful head, almost noseless, tremendous bone, and the shortest of backs, and my prognostication is that all it has to do is live to be a champion.

Noswal Neto, an old acquaintance of mine, is looking in better form than I have ever seen him, being in beautiful coat and feather. In the past twelve months this quality Pekingese has served no less than twenty-four matrons, of which only two missed—some record! I understand Neto has been sold, and will be in a new home shortly.

The Pekingese at the Diamond Kennels are the property of Mrs. Wilson, who is as ardent a fancier as her husband, and who, no doubt, is largely responsible for the success of the Diamond dogs.

Mr. Wilson informs me that in May he is starting to England on a twelve-months' vacation, and is offering all of the stock of the Diamond Kennels at sale without reservation. This affords an opportunity of a lifetime to those who wish dogs of the first quality to improve their stock.

Beau-Bel Kennels and J. A. Newman

OF REGINA, SASK.

There are occasional incidents in the dog showing sport that either tend to make a novice into a real fancier or, as it sometimes occurs, is the cause of some real fancier withdrawing from the game.

To illustrate this point brings to mind an event which occurred in one of our western provinces, and which fortunately had the result of making one of the staunchest supporters in the dog game.

A novice in Regina, who apparently had a strong undeveloped liking for the canine, decided to become possessed of a thoroughbred dog, and purchased an Airedale with a long pedigree, but of very questionable quality. And as is the usual case with the novice, thought that nothing but a flyer could carry the blue blood of such champions as were shown by the pedigree.

After daily study and scrupulous examination of the pedigree he became so infatuated with the dog he arrived at the conclusion that the dog must be a world-beater, and the seller evidently didn't appreciate what a remarkable dog he was letting go of. Imagination is a wonderful thing if you don't let it get away with you. 1916—our scene changes to the Brandon Show. Mr. Tom Milner of Winnipeg officiating, and Airedales the breed being judged. Three classy dogs on the platform, two at the edge showing their dogs in the best style, trying to get into the inner circle. In one corner stood our friend the novice, with his Sensation. We will have to admit, in fairness to all, that the dog was strong, sound, and, oh my, how fat! Showing every evidence of tender care and large portions of Hamburger steak and other nicknacks that tend to make a large pouch where a trim loin should be. Some ringside joker made a remark about a teddy bear, but while criticising undue levity at such times, I must admit that the dog carried a full season's coat and had yet not made the acquaintance of a stripping comb or the bristle brush and the other accessories usual to a blueblood's toilet. Yes, the dog had his mouth open and his tongue hanging out, but the novice didn't notice it. As a matter of fact his mouth was as far open as the dog's, but in sheer amazement, that five grown men, apparently of ordinary intelligence, should stand in front of the dogs, making funny noises, screwing up their faces, dancing, waving their arms, and trying on all kinds of gymnastics for the amusement of their pets. No siree—He didn't own that kind of a dog, and the judge knew it. When he first came into the ring didn't the judge come to his dog and say, "Nice old fellow," and tell the novice to take him into the corner? You can't fool the judge. And those other fellows, so busy jumping around that the judge had to walk over the ring several times to see what kind of dogs they had. Anyhow, something was wrong with their dogs, for they looked half-naked, not near the hair on them as on the novice's dog.

In a few moments the judge handed out three ribbons and two cards, and the exhibitors passed out of the ring, some smiling, others with set faces. But the novice wasn't looking for a little plain ribbon. He had seen cups on the judge's table and saw a horse get a wreath of flowers that morning at the fair, so he knew the judge wanted the rest of them to get out so he could make a presentation speech to him in the centre of the ring and give him a loving cup or something. He wasn't leaving the ring until everything was fixed up. The ring steward walked over and asked him what he was waiting for, but ring stewards are not expected to know much, so Mr. Novice answered, "My prize." The steward held a hurried consultation with the judge and the judge picked up his book and smilingly asked the novice, "What is your number?" and then made some marks in his book and bowing, handed him a card on which was printed H.C.

Not quite understanding what H. C. meant, and not intending to show his ignorance, smiled back at the judge, and walked out of the ring with his head high. Maybe they wanted to keep his cup and to present it from the City Hall steps on the following day. Anyhow, H. C. was some secret dog code for cups or something.

A few classes later the attendant told him his dog was wanted in the ring, and there being only four dogs in, the judge didn't take so long, but this time the judge handed him a card marked V. H. C.—certainly that must be the wreath of flowers.

Gentlemen, permit me to introduce the Novice—Mr. J. A. Newman of Regina.

We will again change the scene to January, 1919, and bring on an old character in new garb—Mr. J. A. Newman—owner of the Beau Bel Kennels, Airedale King of Western Canada, the breeder and maker of champions.

And to cover the lapse of these two years let me quote Mr. Newman: "I hung around the show ring until closing time, when one of the attendants asked me what I was waiting for, and in answer to my plea for prizes he said, 'Say, boss, you ain't got nothin' coming, you're lucky you didn't get the gate.' I explained I didn't need any gates at home, so he quietly led me behind some dog crates and explained the mystic symbols H. C. and V. H. C. That put the hair up my back, as the saying goes, and I started learning dogology fast. In two weeks Midland Master G, considered the best thereabouts, was in my kennel, and I brought a smacking good bitch, Preparedness from the coast, mated them, and produced Beau Bel Serapper. In the meantime Midland Master G made all the shows with me, and I brought him home a champion. I then took Serapper on the circuit and in four shows and at the tender age of fifteen months Beau Bel Serapper was a champion—the youngest champion in Canada.

The temptation of large cheques was too much for me, and I parted with both Preparedness and Ch. Midland Master G, and to replace them I imported Tintern Boy, and bought Almonte Peggy, the latter I made into a champion in less than a year. My kennel also houses those good ones, Almonte Highland Prince, Tintern Kilty, an imported daughter of Ch. Tintern Tip Top, Boughfell Blossom, a New York winner, Rugged Josephine, a daughter of Ch. King Nobbler, and two more bitches of lesser light.

Moral—If you want to be on top you must have the stock.

Author's Note—Mr. Newman is one of the leading lights in doggy affairs in Regina, knows a good Airedale from kiver to kiver, and owns and breeds good ones; is a contributor to Kennel and Bench, and values those two first cards, H. C. and V. H. C. more than all of his winners ribbons. Three champions in one year—that's going some! My hat's off to you, Mr. Newman.

Arndale Kennels

In the limited space allotted me I cannot possibly do justice to the merits of the individual whose "head study" graces the top of this review. At the early age of eleven he exhibited his first dog; since then he has successfully bred and exhibited almost every breed known to man, and having a natural love for the dog, has familiarized himself with the various varieties, consequently there is little wonder that his services are so eagerly sought after to adjudicate upon them. To enumerate the winners that emerged from his kennel in Yorkshire, England, would necessitate several pages of this issue, so we will confine ourselves to his activities on this side of the ocean. During the few years he has been amongst us he has imported many good dogs. The past eighteen months has seen no less than ten Pomeranians arrive from England to the order of this plucky fancier. One of these, Lillyhill Sable Spark, a Pom of superb quality, is depicted in this review. His wins in England and Canada being only equalled by his successes as a sire. Much could be recorded about the quality and successes of the Arndale Pomeranians, but space forbids.

The other picture in this review is a head study of the young Collie, Arndale Gladolia, recently purchased by Mr. Waggett. Her winnings being proof positive that he knows a dog, for she has accounted for firsts and specials galore, and is acknowledged to be (by those whose say so is all sufficient) the best youngster seen for many a long day. She is a tri-color of sterling quality, and possesses most of the essentials that are found in the make-up of a perfect Collie. Mr. Waggett takes an active part in clubdom, being Vice-President of the Collie Club of Canada, and Treasurer of the Pomeranian Club of Canada, and his knowledge and love of dogs, combined with sound judgment will place him amongst the foremost of Canadian fanciers.

A Study in Irish Terrier

The above illustration depicts not only one of the best specimens of the past, but also one of the greatest pillars of this breed. He won over 2,000 prizes, cups, medals and championships, and sired more prize-winning stock than possibly any other individual dog of this, or any other breed. It is said that the sum of (£500) five hundred pounds, was offered and refused for this dog.

ARGYLE IMPRESSION

The Argyle Kennels enjoy a reputation second to none in Canada for the varieties they house and the production of more and better specimens than any other kennel of "Die Hards" in the Dominion. The two illustrations in the top corners of this review depict the latest sensation, Argyle Impression, a worthy son of the renowned champion Argyle Lad. Impression is acknowledged to be the best youngster seen for a long time, being a short, low-to-ground dog, with heavy bone, wonderful headpiece, with correct ear placement and expression. Although only shown a few times, this youngster of promise has already accounted for seven firsts under such judges as Delmont, Livesey and Swire. His owner says of him:

ARGYLE IMPRESSION

"He has twa faults, aye maybe three,
Yet what remede?
An honest, faithful chum is he;
His father's dead."—Burns.

The picture at the foot of this review shows a trio of the inmates. Argyle Scottie, on the right, is a most typical bitch, possessing a wonderful coat, and has accounted for many prizes and promising offsprings. In the centre is the W. W. Highland bitch Argyle White Heather, a matron par excellence. On the left is Argyle Bracken, a litter sister to Impression. She possesses many of her brother's fine qualities and is at present nursing a grand litter by Romany Bishop that will uphold the reputation of the kennel.

"HASTY HOMAGE"

PROPERTY OF WM. R. AITKEN, 617 UNION AVENUE.

He is grandly bred, a Terrier every inch, for expression, head, neck, cobby body, with best of legs, feet, and coat of extreme wire texture, hard to beat. His breeding lines are of the best, being:

Homage	Ch. Collarbone of Notts	Ch. Collar of Notts.
	Haste	Crystal of Notts.
Haste	Catchem of Notts	Catchem of Notts.
	Premier	Premier
	Morden Blusterer	Juanita
	Powder Plot	Appelby Jane

"Hasty Homage—This new and brilliant star of the Fox Terrier firmament is proof of the virtue of inbreeding (albeit judiciously applied), as he is by 'Homage,' out of 'Haste,' (who is the dam of Homage), hence very aptly named. Eight firsts at the dog's first essay on the Show Bench is a big beginning. That he may keep it up is the desire of all who have pleasure in paying the dog."—Editor, Our Dogs, 8th Sept., 1916.

The first litter of puppies sired by him in Canada included the bitch, "Hasty Lady," the sensation of Montreal, May 1918, Show, going through all her classes to winners, capturing nine first prizes and four specials. Kim 1st Maiden dogs, "Hasty Wireboy," also "Jack of Spades" 2nd Breeders in large classes and keen competition. Full particulars from

SOY BEAN MEAL

(46% Protein)

Those who have not given this food a trial should not hesitate any longer, if you wish to solve your feeding propositions. The following letters is just a sample of the unsolicited testimonials we are receiving daily:

Dear Sirs,—I have been breeding Hounds for 18 years, during which time have tried almost every kind of food that a dog will eat, and after feeding Soy Bean Meal, Oatmeal and Bran, as recommended by you, I can safely say there is no other dog food to equal it. Have already advised other dog breeders in this district to try it, and I am going to order 500 lbs. more next week at the special offer you gave me.

Yours truly,

J. DOHERTY,

R. F. D., Belleville, Ont.

Owing to the increase in prices of all foodstuffs, along with difficulty in procuring Soy Bean Meal, we have been compelled to raise our prices as follows:

Less than 100 lbs.	c. per lb.
100 lbs. to 500 lbs.	$5.25 per cwt.
500 lbs. and over.	$4.75 per cwt.

(F.O.B. Shelburne, Ont.)

Mixture.—Two measures of rolled oats, two of bran, and one of Soy Bean Meal. Add salt, mix together dry, and add cold water or milk.

It is wise to add sulphur and powdered charcoal about every ten days, also beef scrap.
