President, Canadian Kennel Club,
774½ Yonge St., Toronto.

Dear Sir—We have the honor, in the name of our committee to congratulate you most heartily and all the members of your club for the end of the war, and for its favorable result for your nation, which owing to its sacrifices and heroisms, has so much contributed to the splendid success obtained.

We express our wishes that the good friendship which has always existed between our societies will be, if possible, more intimate in the future, in behalf of the cause, which both maintain, in union with the other leading bodies.

We are, dear sir, yours very truly,

COUNT L'EVIDA,

The President.

CESAR MARTINER,

The Secretary.

JAVIER DE BERANGER,

The Vice-president.

A protest from a number of bulldog fanciers against the decision of the board of directors in the case of Gubb vs. Charbonnier was presented, and as this matter had been fully dealt with and a decision given, according to our rules and regulations, it was moved and seconded that, as this case had been thoroughly gone into at the meeting of the board of directors on January 16th, and as no new evidence had been produced to warrant opening the case, it was decided not to reopen it. Carried.

An appeal from Mr. H. T. Gubb against the decision of the directors in the case, Gubb vs. Charbonnier, it was moved and seconded that after due consideration we find that insufficient grounds for an appeal from the decision of the board of directors given at their meeting January 16th, had been put forward to warrant reopening the case, and the former decision of the board of directors be upheld. Carried.

A protest from Mrs. E. M. Graham against Mr. W. B. Levaek for non-payment of a Special was presented, and after the case had been thoroughly gone into it was moved and seconded that Mr. W. B. Levaek be given thirty (30) days to pay the special prize offered and advertised by him in the prize list of the Boston Terrier Show of January 1st, 1918, and won by Mrs. R. M. Graham at the Boston Terrier Show on January 1st, 1919. Carried.

Moved and seconded that the $25.00 deposited by the Bulldog Club of Canada be left to their credit as a deposit for their 1919 show. Carried.

Moved and seconded that this meeting adjourn.

Adjourned Meeting of the Board of Directors of the Canadian Kennel Club

The adjourned meeting of the board of directors of the Canadian Kennel Club, held Monday, February 10th, 1919, at the office of the club, 774½ Yonge Street, Toronto. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mr. Jos. Russell. Other directors present: Messrs. H. Clayton, Chas. Dickinson, P. Herd, J. H. Kenyon, Jas. D. Strachan, N. K. Swire, and R. Scott Wilson.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read by the secretary, and it was moved and seconded that they be confirmed. Carried.

The following applications for membership were presented for approval: Albert E. Lucas, London; Hartley Cooper, Hamilton; Rev. R. Kosian, Arborg, Man.; Harry Foster, Toronto, and it was moved and seconded that they be approved. Carried.

Moved and seconded that the bills of the Office Specialty Co. for $3.25 for file cards, and the bill for Mrs. Boulbee for $4.00 for stud book be paid. Carried.

Moved and seconded that the secretary be instructed to recheck the list of champions and present to the next meeting a list of those who had finished their championship after the Constitution came into effect, April 17th, 1918. Carried.

Moved and seconded that Mr. Arthur Atkinson be the club's election commissioner for the year 1919. Carried.

Moved and seconded that Mr. W. W. Laskey be appointed the director for the Maritime Provinces. Carried.

Several applications for the position of secretary-treasurer of this club were presented. Mr. J. D. Strachan being one of the applicants, retired when this matter was brought up.

Before these were considered it was moved and seconded that the salary of the secretary-treasurer be $40 a week, including the editing and managing of Kennel and Bench. Carried.

The applications for this position were then considered, and it was moved and seconded that Mr. Jas. D. Strachan be offered the position of secretary-treasurer of the Canadian Kennel Club and editor of Kennel and Bench. Carried.

Mr. Jas. D. Strachan was called, and accepted the offer of the directors, and promised to do all in his power to carry out his duties to the full of his abilities.

Moved and seconded that Mr. Strachan start his duties immediately, and Mr. Dowling be retained for two weeks. Carried.

As Mr. J. D. Strachan's appointment produced a vacancy in the board, it was moved and seconded that Mr. Fred W. Jacobi be appointed second vice-president of the Canadian Kennel Club. Carried.

The application for registration from the Collie Club of Canada was left over for the next meeting.

An application from the Canadian National Field Trial Club for recognition of their wins was left in the hands of Messrs. T. D. DeGeer, James D. Strachan, and J. E. Dowling for them to look up the rules relating to field trials and report of the next meeting.

Moved and seconded that the meeting adjourn. Carried.

The above statement is in accordance with the vouchers submitted to me, and with the statements from the National Live Stock Records Board, Ottawa, certified to by George L. Blatch, F.C.A., Auditor, Ottawa.

O. DeW. GREEN, Auditor.
Toronto, Jan. 30th, 1919.

The Secretary presented the following report:

Mr. President, Ladies and Gentlemen:

The past year has been a very strenuous one for all of us, and although this club has only had to mourn the loss of one of the many members that took active part in the great war, Captain E. P. Hinds, Niagara Falls. The depressing effects of the war were keenly felt by the dog fanciers in Canada. But now that the war has ended with victory on our side, it is up to the fanciers in general to make up for lost time. As you will see by the auditor's report, the club has had a good year. There were twenty-five (25) shows held under C. K. C. rules in 1918, against twenty-one (21) in 1917. The majority of shows had a falling off in entries which was caused by the general unsettled conditions of all business in Canada. There is a good number of new fanciers coming in every day, and it will not be long before the club will be in much better condition. The number of members has increased from 1,089 in 1917 to 1,235 in 1918. The registrations in 1916 were 2,628 against 1,661 in 1917 and 877 in 1915. The first year that the registrations were taken over by the Live Stock Records, Ottawa. Total registrations up to December 31st, 1918, 21,044. The importation of pure-bred dogs fell off during 1918 on account of the war restrictions. There is ready for shipment at the office fifty-one (51) championship cups, three have already been delivered. The 1916 and 1917 Stud Books will be off the press very soon, and will be mailed out as soon as they are ready. The 1918 Stud Book is already being compiled.

The president, Mr. Russell, said that after hearing the reports of the election commissioner, the auditor and the secretary, there was nothing left for him to report, but that he was very well satisfied with the general affairs of the club, which was improving every day.

The president called for nominations for three representatives for the National Live Stock Records Board.

Mr. Jos. Russell was nominated by Mr. H. Clayton.

Mr. T. E. Milburn was nominated by Mr. F. W. Jacobi.

Dr. R. Barnes was nominated by Mr. D. W. Wright.

It was moved by Mr. A. Atkinson, seconded by Mr. C. L. McQuillan that nominations close. Carried.

Nominations were called for two representatives to the Canadian National Exhibition.

Mr. Jos. Russell nominated by Mr. N. R. Miller.

Mr. H. Clayton nominated by Dr. Williams.

Mr. T. E. Milburn nominated by C. L. McQuillan.

Mr. T. R. DeGeer nominated by F. W. Lewis.

Mr. J. H. Kenyon nominated by A. Atkinson.

Mr. J. F. Lakin nominated by Mrs. W. C. Ingram.

Mr. J. D. Strachan nominated by Mr. A. Donaldson.

Moved and seconded that nominations close. Carried.

Messrs. J. H. Kenyon, J. F. Lakin and Jas. D. Strachan asked to be excused, and requested that their nominations be withdrawn, which was granted.

The president asked Mr. H. B. Donovan and Mr. D. W. Wright to act as scrutineers.

While the scrutineers were counting these votes the president called for nominations for the Central Canada Exhibition. The president, M. Russell, ex-officio, being one of them.

Dr. Barnes nominated Mr. T. A. Armstrong.

It was moved and seconded nominations close. Carried.

Mr. N. R. Miller moved, and seconded by Mr. Spence, that as he had heard that the secretary had been ordered south by his medical adviser on account of his health, he wished to express a hearty vote of thanks on behalf of the club for the efficient manner in which he had performed the duties of his office, and hoped that he would soon regain his health again. Carried.

Mr. Miller moved, and seconded by Mr. Spence, that a hearty vote of thanks be extended to the president for his efforts on behalf of the fancy, and of congratulations for the good work and standing of the club, whose affairs had advanced and progressed immensely since we had him to look after our interests. Carried.

The scrutineers here reported that Messrs. Russell and Mr. H. Clayton were elected as Canadian National Exhibition representatives.

Mr. R. A. Ross' amendment to the Show Rules and Regulations was read, and it was decided that as some of the other changes and amendments might conflict with this, the secretary was instructed to read all the proposed changes. After these were read it was decided to take the proposed changes separately.

Moved by Dr. Barnes, seconded by Mr. D. W. Wright that Rule II. be as follows: "Every dog entered under these rules must either be registered or listed with the Canadian Kennel Club, previous to being exhibited. Penalty for non-compliance is cancellation of wins. The show secretary shall collect listing fees (25 cents) from exhibitors for every dog entered at the show, unless the dog is registered in the Canadian Kennel Club, and the registered number given on the entry form. All such fees must be forwarded to the secretary of the Canadian Kennel Club within ten days from date of closing the show. Penalty for non-compliance one dollar per day." Carried.

Moved by Dr. Barnes, seconded by Mr. Wright that Rule III, to read: The cost of listing is twenty-five cents for each show. The fee for registering a dog, which is good for life, is one dollar to non-members. The fee for transfer of ownership is twenty-five cents to members and fifty cents to non-members of the club.

All applications for registration and transfer of ownership must be made on the official forms provided for that purpose, and sent direct to the Accountant, National Live Stock Records, Ottawa, Ont., together with the necessary fees. Carried.

Mr. J. D. Strachan withdrew his amendment to Rule V.

Moved by Mr. Lakin, seconded by Mr. Finnie, that Rule XV., to add the folfollowing: Sec. 2—The appointment of judges shall rest with the club or association giving the show, but a judge must be in good standing with the Canadian Kennel Club. The judges must mark all awards made by them, also all absentees in their respective classes, and sign the judge's book themselves.

Sec. 3—Any person acting as a judge at a show shall not exhibit for competition nor act as an agent or handler at such show, and the penalty for violation be suspension for one year and cancellation of all wins made by him at said show. Carried.

Moved by Mr. Spence, seconded by Mr. Giles that Rule XVII., Sec. 2, add: Juveniles and puppies must be judged not later than the second day. Carried.

Moved by Mr. Lakin, seconded by Mr. Aitken, that the amendment of Mr. Ross that "the winners class, for which there shall be no entry fee, shall be open only to winners of first prizes in the juvenile, puppy, junior, novice, Canadian-bred, limit and open classes, recognized by the Canadian Kennel Club at that show, all of which shall constitute the regular classes. Winners class or classes must be provided for in every breed recognized by the Canadian Kennel Club, for which a proper classification has been provided. The winners class may be divided by sex, providing at least the open class is divided by sex, be adopted. Carried.

Moved by Mr. Robinson, seconded by Mr. Lakin, that the present system of rating be abolished, and a new schedule of rating points for each breed be substituted, and that the president appoint a committee with power to draw up and adopt schedules of rating points towards a championship based on the actual number of dogs benched in each breed as it may deem expedient. The schedule of rating points so adopted must be published in every premium list. Dogs benched for exhibition only to be counted. Carried.

Moved by Mr. Miller, seconded by Mr. Lewis, that the following be added to Rule XIX.: A money prize or prize of any description won in a class or special prize, is included in the definition. If a win is cancelled subsequent to the closing of the show, the exhibitor must return to the club holding the show, within thirty days after receipt of notice to that effect, all prizes won by the dog at the show in question. Penalty for non-compliance with this rule shall be suspension of the exhibitor until restitution is made, and a receipt for same filed with the Canadian Kennel Club. Carried.

Moved by Mr. Robertson, seconded by Mr. Lakin, that Rule XXII. read: No special prizes may be accepted or offered by a show committee unless same have been published in the premium list or catalogue of the show.

Any club, organization, or association giving a show under these rules shall be responsible for payment and delivery of all prizes published in the premium list or catalogue to winners thereof, within sixty days of the last day of the show. In case of default on part of donor of a special prize an appeal may be made to the Canadian Kennel Club. Carried.

Moved by Dr. Barnes, seconded by Mr. Robertson, that Rule XXIX. be: Following are the colorings and designs to be used by clubs holding dog shows under rules of the Canadian Kennel Club:

- First Prize—Blue.
- Second Prize—Red.
- Third Prize—Yellow.
- Winners—Royal Purple.
- Reserve Winners—White.
- Special Prize—Green.

All ribbons and rosettes must be marked with the seal of the Canadian Kennel Club, name of prize, name of show. It is recommended that each ribbon or rosette shall be approximately two inches wide and eight inches in length. Carried.

Moved by Mr. Miller, seconded by Mr. Lewis, that Rule XXX. be: The following list of dogs eligible for registration in the Canadian Kennel Club Stud Book, and for which separate classes may be provided:

- Airedale Terriers.
- Basset Hounds (rough).
- Basset Hounds (smooth).
- Beagles.

No new rules or regulations can be rescinded until after six months from its coming in force. Carried.

Moved and seconded that the meeting adjourn. Carried.

Mr. Lacey of Toronto informs us that his bull bitch, Coster's Queen Bessie presented him with three puppies by Mr. Gubb's Kilburn Fascinator. All are showing great promise and doing well.

A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

To the ladies and gentlemen of Canada who are co-workers with me in our great Canadian canine organization, the Canadian Kennel Club, "Greetings":

The great war is, presumably, happily at an end, and to the victors belong the spoils. It has been a time of great trial to one and all. The fortitude of this beautiful young country of ours has been tested in its entirety. Gallantly she has responded to her many trials, courageously raising her hand and voice 'mongst the nations of the world, and having been recognized and heard, now she is in the full knowledge of young nationhood.

Looking in retrospect to the dark days in the fall of 1914, and from thence traveling on and on, until the hour that finds me here chatting with you all, and taking all the sacrifices which we have been called upon to make in the name of righteousness and freedom on the one hand, and the glorious achievements that have been attained and those crowned with victory on the other hand, surely we are able to truthfully say, the balance is on the right side of the ledger. Canada has forever earned the right to speak out loud in the affairs of the world.

Nor do I forget for one moment the grand part played in the great war by our own members, those of them who were actively engaged in the tortuous work of war, they with their comrades have earned our deepest gratitude, let it be our constant privilege to make it all up to them, those who have been spared to return and to those returning.

Our organization, of which I am so proud, felt the depression of war to a marked degree in common with all similar institutions; still, I'm sure you will readily agree with me when I say we are now ready for a period of peace, and I trust prosperity. I refer you to our annual statements, which you will find in another part of this, your own paper, Kennel and Bench, where you can see for yourself just how we stand numerically and financially.

The most recent issue of Kennel and Bench, to my mind, is a credit to the dog lovers of Canada, and now that it is—all of it—you very own paper, I feel that you should make it your "own" in every sense of that term. Work for it, write for it, do your advertising in it, and if you do this you will be surprised at the result of your co-operation when this year's statement is made up.

Those of you who had competed for and won the championship cups offered under our old constitution will have received them by the time this message reaches you, and I personally, and in the name of your board of directors, take this opportunity to congratulate you most heartily. In future when the representative inmates of your several kennels shall have won the championship honors, the same shall be recorded as before, and recognized by a beautiful certificate of which, I venture to predict, you will be immensely and justly proud.

The Stud Book No. 20, containing registrations from 15982 to 17873, also giving a correct record of all your dogs' wins at all shows held under our rules, is ready to leave the press now, and will be in your hands also probably by the time you read this message of mine, whilst Stud Book No. 21 is now being compiled, and will be prepared and published in better time than you have been accustomed to.

One word more, and then I will finish. This is going to be our banner year; this is my strong conviction. Already many dates for shows have been granted for 1919, and this is only mid-February yet. What are you going to do to help the good work? Come, let us get together, in season and out of season, let our objective be "a solid canine government from coast to coast with every fancier, great and small, a co-partner and co-worker."

OUR ILLUSTRATED NUMBER.

We have received messages of congratulation from all parts of the Dominion and the States on our recent illustrated number. Those who took advantage of the issue by advertising therein speak very highly of it, and those who failed to grasp the opportunity are sorry for it, but express their appreciation at our efforts.

We call our collie fanciers' attention to Mr. R. Y. Wemyss' advertisement which appears in this issue. Anyone in search of stock that will bring laurels to their kennels should get in touch with Mr. Wemyss at once, as the specimens offered are of such quality that you cannot afford to miss them.

COMING EVENTS

The English Bulldog Club, whose headquarters are in Montreal, is holding a specialty show on April 19th, under C. K. C. rules. With one of America's foremost judges and a bumping list of trophies and special prizes, it should be a drawing card for the fanciers of the "sour mugs." Any particulars regarding this event can be obtained by writing to the secretary, T. Rowley, 2587 Hutchinson St., Montreal.

The Toronto Kennel Club's sixteenth annual show promises to be the best ever. Premium list will soon be in the hands of exhibitors, and will show unlimited classification, cash prizes, specials galore, and a good reliable judge. The committee are now busy getting things in order for this big event, and we expect to see a record entry. Further particulars will appear in our next issue. Anyone desirous of obtaining premium list, etc., should communicate with the secretary, A. Lowenstein, 994 Dovercourt Road, Toronto, who will gladly furnish all information.

Watch this column for details regarding the Bulldog Club of Canada's Specialty Show and the Montreal Kennel Association Show; the former will take place on May 22nd, and the latter on May 23rd and 24th. Both these events are worth watching by those who are desirous of exhibiting dogs under ideal conditions.

The Toronto Whippet Association are holding their second annual races on Victoria Day, May 24th. There will be races for all ages, and cash prizes and trophies for the successful ones. Entries close on May 17th. All those interested in this old-time sport should get ready for this event. The secretary, A. Lowenstein, will furnish you with all particulars by writing to him at his address, 994 Dovercourt Road, Toronto.

The Ladies' Kennel Club of Canada intend holding a show during the latter part of September. This enterprising club has already gathered in a large number of specials and trophies, which we hope to publish in a later issue along with other information regarding the show.

CLUB NOTES

LADIES' KENNEL CLUB OF CANADA.

At a meeting of the above club, held recently in Montreal, the following officers were elected for 1919: President, Mrs. George Sancton; first vice-president, Mrs. A. Trudeau; second vice-president, Miss Camille La Violette; treasurer, Mrs. F. Strachan; secretary, Miss Veva H. Robson, 37 Cote St. Antoine Road, Westmount; committee, Mrs. D. D. MacTaggart, Mrs. Stanley Wisdom, Mrs. F. Sonne, Mrs. W. H. Stewart, Miss C. D. McGill, Mrs. Ward.

VICTORIA KENNEL CLUB, B. C.

At the annual meeting of this club held on January 30th, the following officers were elected: President, Dr. J. A. Garesche; vice-president, J. W. Creighton; secretary, R. E. Ella; bench show committee, Mrs. Maynard, Miss Carr, Messrs. Forbes, Wigglesworth, Pritchard, T. Withers, Heather, and a committee was formed, and the most important discussion was the holding of a spring show. The secretary was instructed to write Vancouver and Seattle to arrange for a circuit of the three shows, to make it easier for those coming a long distance to show their dogs, and it is hoped to have a large list from Calgary, and all the way through from the far east, Toronto, and Montreal.

SHORT BARKS.

Quite recently some valuable dogs have been reported lost or stolen. Several of these dogs are well-known to the fanciers. Surely it should be the privilege of every dog lover to be a search party for the recovery of those valuable animals. We refer you to our advertising columns for several instances.

Bill Morgan of Calgary has secured a fine Boston with blood of the best from Dr. Kendall of the Squantum Kennels, New Boston, Mass. This kennel has supplied dogs to the late P. Morgan, Sarah Bernhardt, and many others of note. This new addition in the West is considered a typical specimen, and should prove a valuable asset to the fancy.

CH. ALSTEAD AEROPLANE COMES TO CANADA.

Collie fanciers throughout the Dominion will be interested and pleased to learn that the sensational American-bred collie, Ch. Alstead Aeroplane, is now the property of Mr. A. Donaldson of Toronto, the latter having recently purchased it from the Alstead Kennels, Rahway, N.Y. Aeroplane is a tri-color of superb quality, and has climbed to the highest pinnacle of collie fame in the land of his birth under the leading judges. The advent of such a dog in our midst should be hailed with enthusiasm by the collie fans. As an ideal of what the standard calls for and the improvement of our stock, he should be a valuable asset to the country, and we congratulate Mr. Donaldson on his pluck in purchasing this wonderful dog. We hope to have the pleasure of reviewing this dog in the columns of this paper at an early date.

TERMINAL CITY K.C.

The Terminal City Kennel Club of British Columbia held the fifth of a series of seven evening parlor shows on Friday evening, January 24th, and in point of numbers, quality of exhibits, etc., it was voted the most successful show up to the present fixture. The officiating judge was the popular Airedale Neil McConnell, and he had 60 dogs to adjudicate upon.

The best dog in show was the Boston Terrier Casino Wee Wee, owned by Miss M. Miller. The all-age sweepstakes brought out some real ones. 1, Casino Wee Wee, already noticed; 2, Patricia Obo, black cocker, as the name would suggest, owned by Mrs. McGauvern; 3, Llewellyn, collie, owned by Mrs. McLachlan. Puppy sweepstakes—1, Patricia Obo; 2, Futurity Omar Khayam, bulldog, owned by Dr. T. E. Sleeth; 3, Highbury Bouncing Boy, Airedale terrier, owned by Mr. Bamford.

The show was well managed by the officials in charge, closed in good time, and voted a success in every way.

We understand that this live club is in an exceptionally healthy condition, both as to membership and finances, and it will be quite in order for the general fancy to keep a lookout for the announcement of a two or three-day show under the auspices of the Terminal City Kennel Club at an early date.

OTTAWA KENNEL CLUB

A splendid meeting of the Ottawa Kennel Club was held on February 4th in Clarey's Hall. Scottish, Skye, White West Highland, Yorkshire and Airedale Terriers were the leading varieties.

Dr. Robert Barnes, the president of the club, was in the chair, and in addition to filling that position in his characteristically happy manner, gave a very practical and entertaining talk on the proper preparation of a dog for show. The exhibitor must, he said, first know the breed. In addition, the exhibitor must know his dog's type. He must know the dog itself as an individual dog. He must not allow his enthusiasm for the good points of his dog to cause him to overlook whatever faults the dog may have. Without this intimate knowledge of the individual dog, an exhibitor could not properly prepare his dog for show and exhibit the animal to the best possible advantage.

Mr. T. A. Armstrong gave a practical demonstration, entertainingly explained by the president, of the proper method of preparing the coat for show, using his Airedale, Marching Orders, in demonstration.

Following is a list of the awards:

Airedales.

Puppy dogs—H. E. Grayburn, Ypres; A. L. Mattice, The Italian; Cecil Bethune, Almonte Billy.

Puppy females—L. C. Moore, Baby; Dr. McPherson, Brentwood Judy; W. A. Crawley, Bayswater Mischief.

Dogs—Sgt. Major Eggins, Nelson; A. M. Mattice, Nobbler; T. L. Graham, Brandy.

Females—W. A. Crawley, Queen; C. Groves, Dolly.

Scottish Terriers.

Skye Terriers.

Females—Albert Kerr, Girlie.

Best Scottish Terrier.

Silver cup, special prize, given by Mr. A. V. Webley, won by George G. Rogers, Rosemere Kennels, with Rosemere Sensation.

Best Dog in Show.

The special prize presented by Mr. W. C. Baldwin for the best dog in show, was won by Mr. Rogers with Rosemere Sensation.

The judge of Airedales was Mr. T. A. Armstrong, and the judges for the other breeds were Messrs. W. C. Baldwin and R. Humphrey Elliott.

The next meeting of the club will be held in Clarey's Hall on Wednesday, the 12th March. The membership now is well over one hundred, and is going strong.

WESTMINSTER KENNEL CLUB, N.Y.

This annual dog show of dog show's took place in the Madison Square Gardens of Feb. 19th to 22nd. Over 1,500 dogs were benched, representing an entry of 2,589. These numbers, although good, do not equal some of the records of past events, but anything lacking in this direction was made up by the intense enthusiasm and success of home-bred stock. Never before in the history of this show has there been seen such an array of Canadian fanciers and dogs. Amongst the enormous throngs that passed to and fro along the aisles or gathered around the ringsides could be seen prominent fanciers from our fair Dominion. Some from far-off Vancouver, others from the middle west, while London, Toronto, Ottawa, and Montreal were exceedingly well represented. In glancing through the catalogue I noticed no less than 56 of them were exhibitors, bringing down 84 dogs, which represented an entroy of over 200. Couple these figures with the unique successes of our exhibits, and we can proudly add another chapter to the canine history of Canada.

Volumns could be recorded about the interest, progress, and enthusiasm displayed at this event, but space forbids, so we will briefly review the prominent breeds.

In St. Bernards there was a noticeable decrease in both quality and quantity from last year, several of the good old-timers being absent. The winners dog, Oh Boy, bred and owned by that staunch fancier, Jacob Ruppert, was not up to the standard of those that have carried off that honor at some of the previous shows. Premier place in bitches fell to Mr. Tintz' Hereuveen Machree.

Mastiffs had five entries, four of these being from the kennels of that well-known Toronto fancier, C. W. Dickinson, his brindle bitch, Boadicea of Wingfield, shown in tip-top form, was rightly placed winners, followed by her kennel mate, Conrad of Wingfield, a very useful fawn. The contestants in the novice class were a useful looking pair that will be heard from again.

Bloodhounds could only muster one, the old familiar Ch. Roar Uproar, who has figured best of breed at many of the American shows.

Great Danes, with 86 entries, showed an improvement on last year's number, 30 of these entries came from the Bushmanor Kennels, whose owner is that popular "hero of the movies," Francis X. Bushman. These beautiful specimens were comfortably benched on an elaborate and tastefully decorated row of benches, and to show the quality of them we only need mention that they carried off no less than 6 firsts, 5 seconds, 6 thirds, and several specials. The hero of the dog section was a big typical brindle, named Ch. Rufflyn Marquis, owned by W. Graham. The pride of place in the opposite sex fell to that beautiful and symmetrical built fawn, Rolling Hill Rasha II., from the Bushmanor Kennels, who had spread-eagled a class of sixteen in the limit.

In Newfoundlands Mr. J. A. Graham supplied both the winner and reserve winner in this section. New Jersey and Lady North being placed in the order named.

Russian Wolfhounds, with 18 entries, was a big disappointment, compared with 62 of last year. The winners dog, Ch. Valam of Valdeska, is one of those rare specimens that are hard to fault, and won with a margin, his nearest rival was Mr. J. T. Favell's Tippy Dondaiga, who had travelled down from Saskatchewan, and was shown to perfection by A. P. Semple. Ch. Valectia of Valdeska, a kennel mate to the winning dog, captured the rosette for the opposite sex, and possesses all the qualities that are called for in this beautiful variety.

Irish Wolfhounds and Scottish Deerhounds had 9 and one entries respectively, while their more slender brethren, the Greyhounds, showed up well with a entry of 26, and it was in this section where our well-known Canadian dog, Ch. Master Butcher, owned by J. G. Kent of Toronto, once more brought laurels back to the land of the Maple Leaf; his wonderful type, movement, condition, and exquisite ring manners not only placed him on top in the dog section, but landed him special for best of breed, a performance to be proud of when we consider the great quality of his rivals, which include such stars as Lansdowne Sunflower and Lansdowne Sunstar.

Foxhounds—This section was poor, a condition which can only be accounted for by the limited classification.

Pointers were a nice collection, over 30 dogs being benched, and all uniform in type. Cr. Rannymede Launcelet topped the dog classes, second to him was our Canadian champion, Perdreau, owned by Mr. E. Bauchamp of Montreal.

English Setters figured out at a little over 9 per class, and the quality was of such an even nature that it took the judge, Mr. E. B. Chase, a considerable time to arrive at his decisions. Brookbond Sir Marmaduke and Britannia were winners and reserve winners in the order named; Noble Pearl and Belle of Plymouth accomplished the same performance in the bitch section.

Irish Setters produced several old-time quality ones, but the interest in this section was somewhat marred by the placings, which could not be classed as "satisfactory." Brash Law, the winner of the novice dogs, ran through to winners, being placed over such dogs as Ch. Lismore Freedom, Ch. Midwood Red Jacket, and a few other quality ones. The winner and reserve winner in the bitch classes were Ch. Lismore Machree and St. Cloud's Louise. The Canadian exhibits in this section came out well, Mrs. E. A. Sturdee's Gleniecho Connemara being third novice and third open, and her kennel mate, IGenecho Morty O'Callaghan, third limit, the pair afterwards capturing first in a strong brace class. Mr. E. C. Howard's Tyrone Larry being reserve in novice and limit dogs. In the bitch section Mr. Jack Swann's Pardale Red Feather carried off second novice and third limit, Mr. A. Trudeau's Sonora Peggy being third novice and reserve limit, the latter bitch being sold at the show for a big figure.

Field Spaniels—Both the winner and reserve belong to our Canadian fancier, Mr. R. H. Morris, his good dog, Ch. Lord Bertie was put down in tip-top form, and rightly won over Wardleworth Mollie.

Cocker Spaniels, with 120 entries, were not so numerous or of such all-round quality as previous years. Midkiff Dare II. was winners in the solid color dogs, with Pleasant Hill Ecco reserve. In parti-colors Midkiff Ormyrge ran through to winners, with Cordova Curator a close reserve. In bitches, solid colors, Midkiff Demonstrator led the way, followed by Midkiff Mariana. Parti-colors, Brookside Olivia, winners, and Blooie W., reserve. As usual, there were several representatives from Canada, Mrs. J. H. Enright of Montreal showed a very useful team of five that did well. Mrs. H. Moore of Vancouver brought down a typical trio, her good bitch, Moore's Monshine, ran up to second place in limit and open bitches. Mr. C. Bowerbank of Toronto sent down his dog Senator B., who captured first in the class for open reds.

Beagles had a remarkable entry, over 50 of these merry little sporting dogs being trotted out for Lieut. R. V. N. Gambrill to adjudicate upon, 14 of them were from the well-known Somerset Kennels, while that enthusiastic fancier, Capt. C. O. Iselin, Jr., entered 11, and Miss N. L. Crimmins 6. Ch. Belray Chancellor was winners dogs, and Wheatley Leader II. reserve. Winners bitches went to Wolver Barmaid, with Belray Countess reserve.

Whippets showed a slight improvement from last year. The winner turned out in Mr. Ladew's Boxhill Beechaut, a worthy son of our late Canadian champion Granite Oak Masterpiece, reserve fell to Julip.

Collies, with 65 dogs, representing over 130 entries, were a decided improvement over the 1918 event. The judge, Mr. P. Tully, had no easy task as the all-round quality of the exhibits was very noticeable, especially in the female section, where some of the best youngsters that ever entered a show ring were up for competition. I also noticed no less than nine exhibits in the open class for Blue-Merle dogs, which proves that this color is gaining popularity. The winner in the dog section was Alstead Seedly Satisfaction, with Ch. Howgill Rival reserve. The unfortunate one in this variety was Ch. Alstead Aeroplane, who scored over the winner in many ways. Winners, bitches, fell to Ch. Burrows Queen Betty, with Alstead Seedly Simplicity reserve. The brace class, with nine entries, was won by representatives from the Alstead Kennels, whose inmates also carried off the team class.

Belgian Sheepdogs—Mr. C. Martin of Montreal carried off premier honors in this section, with his good dog Ducaux.

The Shepherd Dogs, always well represented at this show, turned out in full force, having an entry of over nine per class. Seldom, if ever, was there seen such a gathering of these most useful members of the canine race.

Chow Chows were the sensation of the show, and created a record both for quantity and quality. 145 entries, all told, is something to conjure with, the class for open dogs having no less than 18 entries, and all of nice, uniform type. The judge, Mr. J. Z. Adams, after going over them carefully, handed the winners ribbon to Ch. Yuey; third to him was Blue Goblin, who headed a nice class of Blues. Goblin was recently imported by Maj. W. Bishop of Oakville, and was much admired at the Gardens, some of the "knowing ones" declaring him to be the best Blue seen for a long time. The bitches were just as numerous as the dogs, and furnished keen competition throughout.

Bulldogs had 96 entries, 37 of them being from Canada, and it reflects great credit on our stock when we can come away from a show of this magnitude with one winners, 6 firsts, 6 seconds, 7 thirds, and 3 reserves. Messrs. Levack and Jackson's King Moston captured 1st novice and 3rd limit in heavyweights. In limit lightweights Mr. H. Wilson's Jellicoe Westall was second, and H. T. Gubb's Regal Rascal third. Open lightweights saw our Canadian dogs make a clean-up, Mr. F. Charbonnier's Kersal King being first, Jellicoe Westall second, and Regal Rascal third. Amongst the heavyweights Mr. H. T. Gubb's Kilburn Fascinator carried off second limit and first open, defeating the well-known Mike O'Flannighan and a few others of note. Mr. F. Charbonnier's young dog, Kersal White Gladiator, easily accounted for first in the junior class, and his newly imported dog, Failsworth Dark Duke, landed third in the debutante class. In the bitch section Mr. J. E. Dowling's Ch. Judy of Lambare landed second limit, reserve open, and second breeders. Mr. N. W. Renwick's Blue Diamond being third in limit lightweights. The representative from the Chinook Kennels, Penfold Selected, being second limit and third open heavyweights. Rodgers and Paydon's Whitby Nancy captured third limit, and last, but by no means least, was R. Scott Wilson's Clevelock Molly, who, after winning the limit and open classes, was awarded winners. Never before have our bulldogs made such a good showing, and they came away leaving our "cousins" across the line much impressed with the quality of our stock.

Airedale Terriers turned out to the tune of 130 entries, but furnished nothing sensational. Here and there we noticed specimens of quality, but they lacked that uniformity of type that is usually seen at this event. Amongst the successful Canadian fanciers who competed in this section we noticed Mr. J. W. Bain, who won first in the novice class, with Birchcliffe Selected. In the open class Mr. N. MacKenzie's good dog Polam Maxim went bang to the top and afterwards landed winners. Geelong Gladiator, the most promising youngster shown, easily accounted for first in American-bred and limit, and was placed reserve winners to Maxim. Mr. E. W. Billinger's Morning Commander being fourth in the open. In the bitch classes M. Gracey of Toronto did well with Broomhill Betty, capturing fourth maiden, third debutante, second novice. Mr. N. MacKenzie's newly imported bitch, Parkton Sweet Olive, was second in limit. Ch. Briergate Bright Beauty easily accounted for winners and special for best of breed.

Bull Terriers, with over 50 dogs benched, made a nice collection. In this variety our home-bred stock made a great showing, capturing both winners dogs and bitches. R. H. Elliott's exquisite dog, Ch. Haymarket Faultless, never looked better, and won with ease over a field of the best. Reserve to him was Noreroce Blue Moon. Haymarket Dandy, a promising son of the great Faultless, landed second place in a strong puppy class. In the bitch classes our Canadian "goods" made a splendid showing, Haymarket Biddy going to third puppy and third limit. Mr. F. W. Cole's Toronto winner, Belle Mahone, was third novice, third American bred, first limit and third open. R. H. Elliott's Haymarket Patricia second in limit lightweights, and J. McLaughlin's Lincoln Polly first novice and winners.

Owing to lack of space in this issue we have to hold the balance of this review until next month.

SHORT BARKS

R. H. Falconer of Toronto has been busy in cockers recently, and has sent puppies out west that have more than satisfied his clients. This enterprising fancier always advises his customers to join the Canadian Kennel Club, and we can bear testimony to the fact that his labors are well repaid in this respect.

ITEMS OF NEWS FROM ST. JOHN, N.B.

Mr. George Gray of St. John, the President of the New Brunswick Kennel Club, is being congratulated on his recent purchase of that grand Irish Terrier, Champion Aroostook Brendan Belle, from L. H. Powers, Houlton, Me., a successful breeder of the 'red' terriers. This imported bitch is sired by Ch. Thorneroft Sportsman, ex Ch. Irish Rose. Such breeding accounts materially for her record of producing several champions in as many litters.

We have it on good authority that this bitch cost Mr. Powers over $1,500 when a youngster. Not an exorbitant price when one considers her success as a matron and a bench winner. Ch. Aroostook Brendan Belle is well known on the American circuit (also benched here) as a typical Irish Terrier, excelling especially in head, body and coat, the latter of good color and naturally hard, a sound dog in legs and feet, having plenty of substance. "George" should do well with such a proved matron, and the fancy can look forward to something doing in the red ones soon.

Robert Smith, well known among the Setter men, has taken up with the most popular of the small breeds. I refer to the Wires. His first showing of Fox Terriers was a bitch at a winter evening show last year, when he came off second best, which only made him spurt the harder for a better one. Out for the top-hole, he located a very promising Canadian-bred from the home of Alf Lepine, a Wire shown on the Canadian circuit with success as a puppy, doing credit to the Malden Kennels.

"Malden Private" by name, is marked like his sire, Ch. Dusky Bounce, an all-white puppy with slight tan markings on head; nice type of dog, noticeably in head, legs and feet, carrying an honest coat and a rare good shower. When I saw him last month he was improved in body and showed more fire than when previously shown in the ring. At his last show in St. John, in October, he got winners dog, special for best Wire, and for best local Terrier in the show, being runner-up to that good Boston, Little Miss Mac, of W. B. Levack's. I wish Mr. Smith the same success in his new "loves" as he had with his English Setters. Anyway you have made a good start, "Bob"; keep at it.

Mr. Le Baron Wilson, always connected with the welfare of the dog in St. John, especially Wires, is out to the fore with the goods in "Chris Corporal," a very recent importation from U. S. A., a most creditable buy. He is a dog of nice size, color all white, with black patch on side and tan and black head-piece, the latter of good length and strength of foreface; he has the best of legs, feet and coat, correct front and splendid quarters, a dog that should be a good sire, and as such can do the breed a lot of good here.

One of the most active Kennel Club members in pre-war days, now with us again, is Capt. E. Alban Sturdee, whose absence of over three years in active service has not lessened his interest in dogdom, and will, I am sure, carry on for the fancy again as in the past. Mrs. Sturdee, who, by the fortunes or rather misfortunes of war, having no fixed abode, still retained through much inconvenience several good Irish Setters, of which Morty O'Callaghan holds the premier place now in their home. He is a dog I like, not of the heavy, cloddy sort, but more of the clean, refined, yet racy of the early Palmerston type. Morty has a lean head, clean of neck and shoulder, good body and feet, has a lovely coat of desirable color, a dog that will do well on the bench and in other fields of service. This dog has already proved his sire-ship and produced some likely stock. Glenco Connemore, a home-bred son of his, is a big, upstanding dog of pleasing appearance, having good bone and substance, deep-ribbed body, with a good length of head, nice coat and color, is only a very young dog and has a future before him. There was a good bitch at their home which I did not see that is due to whelp soon. But these mentioned will renew the interest in this showy breed, as the Irish Setter is entitled to more publicity, which I feel sure is due.

Wm. J. Hanlon, one of the best supporters of our local shows, has made quite an addition to his home on Ready St., Fairville, N.B. (our city suburb) by the making of an up-to-date kennel quarters for his variety of dogs. I was much pleased with the layout of the doggies' home and boarding kennel, something that is needed here for accommodating your dog at vacation time. Among the breeds that greeted me were some familiar faces, Roselands Baby Doll, a most likeable Bull Terrier bitch, owned by Lieut. Lewis Ritchie; also "Crowgill Shiela," an Irish Terrier, bred by Jowett, now owned by Mr. Hanlon; also Black and White (no! friends, not a whiskey), a good smooth Fox Terrier puppy, much improved from when I last saw her. She has a typical head and body, good front legs, an even balanced terrier, for a home-made one. Among the others were two English Setters, two Irish Setters, two Fox Terriers, a Scotty, four Cockers, and a big one, a St. Bernard. A few were boarders, but mostly all owned by the proprietor, W. J. Hanlon.

I regret to report the loss of some good Cockers of E. J. Wallace, out of his new bitch, Walls Shoo Fly. Mr. Wallace had great hopes for these, as they were the first litter by this bitch. We wish him better luck next time. Reports are current that the winter evening show soon to be realized will see more new dogs on hand than the few already mentioned.

I hear that more Terriers are soon to make their appearance in Bostons, Airedales and the Fox, also some of the bigger breeds. Now that the war is over I expect to see a revival in the fancy, as there has never yet been a winter in St. John when the interest was so keen and the welfare of the dog so good as the prospects for this year denote. It is hoped the out-of-town fanciers in New Brunswick can echo the same feeling and progress in dogdom as that of this city. The friendly rivalry of York County always invites our interest and makes the going good.

One of the best additions to the sporting variety in our city is the purchase of an American bred English Setter bitch, Britannia's Pride. James Latimer, the owner, always a lover of good gun-dogs, has something to show in this very likeable bitch. A dog nicely marked, black ticked, with a little tan on the head and long black ears. She is a most desirable type, good feet and legs and nice body, with a pleasing coat.

Rumor has it also that a number of new faces will be seen soon among the English Bulldogs.

ROBERT B. LASKEY.

Mrs. Davey recently mated her Pekinese, Mi Ree, to San Toy of Louvain. Good results are expected from this combination.

The subject which adorns our front page in this issue is, we feel confident, quite capable of introducing himself to our readers from coast to coast, for didn't he make his debut to the show ring with a "blare of trumpets," the sound of which permeated the world to the extent of the furthest Airedale's ear? And after accomplishing this enviable feat he steps clean on to our canine ladder of fame, and unhesitatingly goes uninterruptedly to the top-most rung. It cannot be denied that the great "Silver Birch Banker" met with strenuous criticism on his onward march to triumph. Many there were who under-rated his tremendous merit, resulting in several changes of ownership, and it was left to "Dad" Ward to spot the sparkle of the diamond which eventually was destined to sparkle so brilliantly in the crown of canine fame.

Let us follow his career as we noticed it until the end of 1918. At the Airedale Terrier Club of Canada Specialty Show, November 27th, 1917, we find Banker—still a puppy, remember—first puppy, first novice, first limit, second open, reserve winners to our great International Champion, Polam Maxim, then in the heyday of his success. Theodore Oeffman, the noted American Airedale specialist, judging. At Montreal, Kennel Association, May 24th and 25th, 1918, George Stedman Thomas officiating, our canine hero again graces the ring of competition and here the tables are turned; Silver Birch Banker is returned at the head of the poll, best Airedale and best dog in show. Now it is the Ladies' Kennel Club of Canada Show, and Thomas Moore judge-elect. Silver Birch Banker again best dog in show. That takes us right on to the Canadian National Exhibition Show, "the crufts of Canada." Here Alf. Delmont, a terrier judge of international reputation, dons the official ermine, and those who were fortunate enough to be near the ringside when the class of special for best in show was called will remember the remarkable quietness which prevailed throughout the building, even those dogs, who were in their stalls, seemed to be hushed for the moment.

And what a relief it seemed to bring when the coveted honor was again conferred on this remarkable Airedale, now known the world over.

Following on the heels of Toronto Fair came Ottawa Dog Show. Here George S. Thomas is on the job again. Banker again scores in his classes, and those who were the railbirds when the premier special was called, the Duke of Connaught Cup for best specimen in show, open to all, knew no bounds, for their enthusiasm when the award was again given dog No. 97 in the official catalogue. That dog is now Champion Silver Birch Banker, No. 19925 on the register of the Canadian Kennel Club.

FUTURITY KENNELS

In the supplement of our illustrated number we omitted to publish the details regarding the proprietor of the above-mentioned kennel and his dogs.

Dr. Sleeth is too well-known for description, having practiced as a canine specialist for several years, and is a dyed-in-the-wool fancier, ready at any and all times to give a helping hand to help the game along, is a breeder and importer of "good uns," knows the game from A to Z, and is a prince of good fellows. The dogs depicted in our last issue are just a few of the inmates of his well-known kennels, and we draw the attention of those interested in high-class stock to them. His two stud dogs, Lee Axworthy and Omar Khayyam, are both available to those breeders who are in need of improving their stock. Their pedigrees are of the best, and success is assured. The two ladies, Futurity Anna Bradford and Miss Harris M, both depicted in the review, are well-known winners, bred in the purple, and can hold their own in the hottest of competition.

Mr. J. Barlow of Ottawa has purchased from Mrs. Turner the Pomeranian bitch, Riverside Topsy, and has mated her to Mr. Cobb's Little Tick. Both these dogs are very typical, and have done some good winning, so we may expect good results from the mating.

SHORT BARKS

A completed list of the rules and regulations, revised at the annual meeting of the Canadian Kennel Club, will appear in our columns shortly. Exhibitors should get familiar with them as soon as possible, and thus avoid any errors when exhibiting.

We hear that Messrs. Slattery of Ottawa's good little Boston Terrier, Wizard Toss, has been kept very busy of late, having since January, been visited by twelve females. If this rush of business continues we may expect to see these ardent fanciers purchasing more stud dogs.

Mr. C. Packman of Ottawa has recently purchased that good bulldog, Warleigh Brilliant, from Mr. Webber of London. Brilliant stud ad. will be found in our advertising columns, and should command attention from those in search of a good reliable stud dog at a reasonable fee. Mr. Packman informs us that he sold his Penfold-bred bitch through his advertisement in Kennel and Bench.

Mrs. Kimpton, Strathmore, Alta., recently bought a noseless King Charles female from Mrs. Kennedy. This pup, Kenarden Topsy, is by Celamo Leo, out of Kenarden Red Midget, and is a promising specimen.

Mrs. H. G. Kennedy, Kenarden Kennels, Calgary, Alberta, who has been ill the greater part of the winter, has suffered a further misfortune in the loss of her fine little Blenheim bitch, Lady Madge, who died whelping last month. She was a lovely brood matron, and her loss is a severe one. Celamo Mignnette and Kenarden Red Peggy, both owned by Mrs. Kennedy, have been mated to her young King Charles stud dog, Celamo Foxy Lad.

We hear that Donald MacKellar of Oakville has sold his good Scotch terrier dog, Argyle Impression, to a fancier across the line. It must have taken a big cheque to remove this youngster from our friend Donald, as beside being a specimen of the very best order he was a pal second to none. We wish his new owner the best of luck

Bulldog News From Montreal

We have received the following interesting items of news from one of our many good friends in Montreal:

The national breed is sure forging ahead for fair in Montreal. What with two good healthy specialty clubs looking after their interests, social events past, and shows to come, and interest in the breed tuned to the highest pitch, we sure are in for some hot stuff from Montreal the Mighty. The old Bulldog Club of Canada, Incorporated, has taken on a new lease of life. Amongst the new officers appointed at the annual meeting, an appointment was made which made all and sundry sit up and take notice, namely, our old tried and trusted friend Walter Holmes, late honorary secretary of the Montreal Kennel Association to the same office for the Bulldog Club. Such an appointment can spell nothing but success for the Bulldog Club, and every fancier who watched his initiative and genius and infinite capacity for taking pains besides being a regular glutton for hard work while piloting the M. K. A. to the pinnacle of perfection which it has attained will readily testify. With he at the clerical and the popular old warrior Bob Mills at the practical end of the club, success is assured. They are assisted by a good strong working executive, which spares neither time or trouble to make their club the best ever. A few weeks ago they held their annual dinner at the Queen's Hotel, which was a regular humdinger from the ring of the bell to the fall of the curtain. On March 14th they are holding their first annual euchre and dance, the whole of the prizes being given by the members and their friends, and all the profits to go to the club. Then they are going to have a little friendly match with their friends of the English Bulldog Club, particulars of which are not fully arranged as yet. Anyway, it's to be a sporty little event, with the best of good feeling on both sides, and whichever side wins some local charity is to be the gainer. Then their coming show on the 22nd of May. Oh, boy! oh, boy! the old club is nothing if not original, and they sure have blazed the trail for others to follow this time in the matter of judges, being honored by the acceptances to don the ermine of no less a lady than Mrs. Drew of the famous Drewstone Kennels, Mount Vernon, N.Y., owner amongst other famous ones of the great winning bulldog King of the Roost, who took the measure of all bulldogs at the recent Westminster Show. In addition to this, their new benching is to have its first airing, so exhibitors will be assured that there are no distemper germs, etc., lurking in the corners thereof. They are also taking time by the forelock, leaving nothing to chance, and Secretary Holmes has already got his premium list, etc., well under way. Believe me, this is to be some specialty show. They have solid silver specials on tap that would make Mappin and Webb green with envy, and they are not tied down, so that you need to live to be as old as Methuselah before you win them for your very own. Boys, girls, fanciers, friends, a word to the wise, miss your meals, miss your train, miss anything, but don't, don't miss the Bulldog Club of Canada, Incorporated, May show.

SHORT BARKS

Since writing the review of Ch. Silver Birch Banker, to be found on another page, we are sorry to learn that this grand Canadian-bred Airedale has left our fair Dominion, and has become the property of Mr. Meyer, through the agency of Mr. Alf. Delmont. The figure that proved the temptation was $1,800, which is, we believe, a record price for a Canadian-bred Airedale.

Ch. Silver Birch Banker was entered for the Airedale Specialty Show and Madison Square Garden Show, but did not compete at either. The new owner exercised his privilege here, but we know it was a disappointment to Mr. G. E. Ward. However it will not be for long. There are other American shows coming along that will likely see Ch. Silver Birch Banker again a contender.

In several kennels we could name are to be found youngsters by him of outstanding merit who will surely be seen at our coming shows.

Mr. G. E. Ward is now en route for Merrie England. The trip has been taken in the interests of health and business having been commissioned to secure several dogs of various breeds for customers in Canada and America.

Percy J. Cornforth, Outremont, Que., says he has a "hair-raiser" of an Airedale puppy by Ch. Silver Birch Banker, out of Kinder Lu Lu.

A. F. Booman, Montreal, writes that a litter of puppies (six dogs and one female) have arrived at his place, sired by S. Almond's Tam Hin, and out of Mr. Booman's Nonsuch Lady. The litter is now one month old, and doing fine.

Mrs. G. Willis of Halifax is leaving for California where she will remain on account of failing health. Her Pekingese bitch Lorli created quite a record as a matron, having presented her owner with eleven red puppies (nine with black masks) during the year. Nine of the pups have been disposed of, and two very good little females, together with Lorli, are taking the trip to California, where Mrs. Willis intends forming a small but select kennel of the breed. Both litters were sired by Miss Laviolette's imported dog, Yuan of Wangza.

We hear that the classy bitch, Strathtay Supreme, that captured winners at Sherbrooke, has improved beyond bounds, going right through her classes from junior to winners at the M. K. A. late show, under that soundest and straightest of judges, Bob Mills, winning five firsts and six specials, is very heavy in whelp to that great little, much-discussed dog, Champion Kersal King. Whatever his detractors have to say against him or his admirers for him, there is no doubt that the above mating should produce the best that can be. Supreme is by Ch. Strathtay Knowle Marquis, out of Peaceful Hops, pups by Ch. Kersal King. Nuff said. Interest in this event is looked forward to already by fanciers far and near. Another good bitch, Drummond Red Rose, has just been mated to S. Almond's good new little dog, Fallsworth White Kaffir, and another good young winner, Lorne Lily, by Joe Blake, is ready to be mated to a little brother, Strathtay Supreme. So that with the best of blood, healthy bitches, judicious mating with the best that can be had, good surroundings, care and attention and a modicum of luck, the Lorne Kennels should at least occupy some little spot in the bulldog firmament this season.

ALBERTA K.C.

Mr. E. D. Adams, the retiring president of the Alberta Kennel Club, Calgary, was the recipient of a pair of handsome chairs as a tangible token of the esteem in which he is held by the members of the club, of which he has been president for the past seven years. Captain H. G. Kennedy, the new president, voicing the unanimous opinion of the members, regretted that pressure of other duties forced Mr. Adams to resign his office. He filled the position with the greatest judgment and tact, carrying the club through some very difficult times, and the members were all aware of the honor and prestige the club derived through having Mr. Adams as its chief officer. This presentation was the means whereby the members wished to convey in a tangible way their appreciation, not only of his interest and good work in the club, but also of his personal interest in each member. In conclusion, Captain Kennedy said the club was to be congratulated on the fact that Mr. Adams had consented to remain on the executive board as vice-president, thereby giving them hope that at some future date he might again smile on them from the executive chair. Mr. Adams replied, thanking the members for their appreciation of whatever efforts he had made during his years in office to help make the club a success, and wished to assure them he would continue to do all he possibly could to advance its interests. He wished also to say that this presentation came as a great surprise, as the club had on a previous occasion honored him in a similar manner. He felt it was enough to make a man proud to feel that he had been able to retain the esteem of his fellow members for so many years, and he hoped they might continue to work together in the same spirit for many more. After singing "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow" very enthusiastically, the members retired.

That grand bull bitch Coronet Queen, owned by the well-known Coronet Kennels at Edmonton, has just whelped 8 grand puppies by Failsworth White Count. Western fanciers are watching the results with interest, as it is believed this mating will produce the "goods."

Another inmate of the above kennels, Coronet Cleopatra, also gave birth to four males and one female by Ch. Courtenay Coronet, all doing well and showing great promise.

Mr. D. A. Lathain of Edmonton, also mated his imported bitch to Coronet Joffre, and Mr. A. Wright, a returned soldier, mated another imported bitch, to Coronet King.

We hear that doggie matters are improving in the Edmonton district, and feel sure that now the war is over we shall see more activity in this section.

That well-known fancier, Mr. George Ward of Toronto, informed us at the New York show that he was sailing for England on February 25th. His intentions are to combine business with pleasure and we expect to see him return with some more good dogs, as he is an adept at picking 'em. We wish him good luck and a safe return.

We hear that Trainor & Bowra's Pekinese, San Toy of Louvain, has recently sired two nice litters, one out of Jess To Lung, which comprised two males and two females, and two males and one female out of their new bitch, Chu Ki of Zabeth. All are good color and typical.

Mr. A. Levaek's Scotch Terrier bitch, Avondale Aston, recently presented him with a nice litter of eight, by his winning dog, Gallant Stewart. There are seven males and one female; all are healthy and showing great promise.

NOTICE.

We wish to call the attention of the fanciers that all registrations, transfers, duplicate certificates, copies of pedigrees, registration of litters; prefix, affix and kennel names, annual renewal of the last three named, and membership fees, should be sent direct to Ottawa, thus saving delay, as they have to be forwarded by Toronto office. Remember that when writing to Live Stock Record Department, no postage is needed, not even for registered matter.

A TRIBUTE TO THE IRISH TERRIER

The Irish terrier is one of the oldest breed of terrier in existence, the origin of which, according to eminent writers and authorities, is lost in antiquity.

By heredity he is a sportsman and a gentleman, very intelligent, courageous, and obedient, and easily trained when properly handled. He is very game, without being quarrelsome, has a lovely disposition, with a keen, sharp, expression, and is free from the houndy and pugilistic appearance so noticeable in some breeds. He is a nice, useful size, symmetrically built, with a grand outline, and for smart workmanship, general appearance, keenness, hardiness and cuteness is unsurpassed. He develops and extraordinary devotion to and has been known to trace his owner for almost incredible distances.

Vero Shaw, Esq., author of the "Book of the Dog," and late editor of the (English) "Field," writes:

"Very few, if any, more excellent varieties of terrier exist than the plucky, red-coated, hard-haired breed which has been sent over to us by the sportsmen on the other side of the St. George's Channel. The Irish terrier is dead game, a good water dog, a first-rate companion, and a very hardy constituted animal, and no higher praise can by any possibility be bestowed upon a breed. The excellent qualities of the Irishman has enabled him to work his way into the front rank of popular favorites, and there can be no denying the fact that his success has been thoroughly well deserved."

Mr. C. B. Hummel of Cedar Rapids, informs us that he has sold a cracking good Boston terrier puppy to a fancier in New York. Other stock from this well-known kennel were advertised in our January issue, and should appeal to buyers who are on the lookout for quality stock.

Mrs. E. Brownlie, of Toronto, reports a fine litter of omeranians. They are Pextra small, and by Mr. W. H. Robinson's Rotherville Goldbeater, ex a daughter of Haughty Goldbeater. The litter consists of 1 orange dog and 2 orange shaded females. All are doing fine.

OUR LONDON LETTER

The dogs of Alaska are put to the sleigh by means of a trace, to which they are attached one after the other, on account of the narrowness of the routes, and with as little space as possible between the animals in order to increase the drawing power. In very cold weather the breath of each dog became congealed in thick icicles in the long hair of the tail of the animal which was before him, with the result that the latter had a useless weight to carry. To remedy this, the sleigh dogs had their tails cut, but in doing this the poor beasts were deprived of an efficacious means of protection, when, obliged to lie down on the snow, which is the case generally, the dogs hid their muzzles and their feet under their bushy tails. Since the more frequented roads had been widened, dogs have been put to the sleighs two by two, but this barbarous practice begins to be discontinued.

The state of the roads very often puts the dogs to a heavy trial. When the snow is too soft they sink in it up to their bellies, so that it becomes impossible for them to draw the sleigh. The snow accumulates also between their toes and under their feet, forming icicles, which they must be rid of. If the dogs are allowed to tear out these icicles themselves, they hurt themselves in drawing out the hair, and it is no small matter to attend to all the dogs of a large number of sleighs. If the ice of the rivers is too smooth, the dogs cannot stand on their legs; they drop on their bellies, and move their feel like the oars of a boat is their endeavor to get up. It happens often that the ice is so rough that the dogs bleed from their nails to their shoulders, so that it becomes necessary to provide them with real boots made of reindeer skin, held in position by a kind of braces passing over the back. When the snow is soft the travellers are continually obliged to sweep the road in front of the sleigh in passing and repassing several times with their heavy snow boots. The feeding of a set of sleigh dogs represents a serious expense. When the service of the mails of the Yukon was made by dogs the concessionary company estimated that each dog cost them about $15 per year. The traveller in the far-away regions is obliged to buy by small quantities the food of his dogs, and the sum spent amounts often to $100 per dog. The food used most is dried fish, but for a dog who works, it is necessary to add rice and fat or any flour mixed with fat. This kind of food occupies less space than fish, and is more nourishing for the dog, however troublesome it may be to cook these ingredients. In summer, during the interruption of sleigh work, the dogs are sent to board to a centre of fisheries, where they cost about one pound sterling per dog per month.

Since foreigners had invaded Alaska many dogs had been introduced. They easily acclimatize and possess certain qualities for speed, but their legs and feet cannot endure the fatigue. It is said that the Scotch collie would make a good "leader," but the drawback is that he is too ardent, and would like to do the drawing all by himself. The fact, however, is that the "leader" should not draw; he must simply run quick enough in order to maintain the tension of the principal trace, and if he does more than that he exhausts himself uselessly.

The value of draught dogs depends upon the demand. When a fresh mining field is discovered which attracts a stream of fortune seekers, the price of such a dog can rise from 20 to 30 pounds and those who at this price possess dogs for sale can realize a nice profit. In ordinary times it is difficult to obtain more than 4 pounds per dog. Prince Demidoff brought with him from Kamtchatka a large white dog, perfectly formed, resembling a large Pomeranian, of which he gives a photo in his book, and which did not cost him more than 3 pounds. He bought this magnificent animal from the "starosta" of Khetor, whose kennel was composed of about sixty Kamshadales which at the moment of the prince's visit, were all installed in the burrows which they dug themselves to protect themselves from the mosquitoes. (E. Demidoff, "A Shooting Trip to Kamtchatka," London, 1904).

The sets of sleigh dogs of Alaska are generally desperate enough. There are few owners who can boast of possessing well-chosen dogs, and these sets are always much admired. In the photographs which illustrate the works quoted, one notices many dogs which resemble a Newfoundland or a St. Bernard than the real dogs of the Esquimaux of the Arctic Ocean. Such is, for instance, the set of dogs of the Nome post, which Mr. Niedeck had photographed, and of which tow of every ten possess straight ears and Esquimaux type. The others all look like St. Bernards. The kennel of the Rev. Hudson Stuck contains also animals of different breeds, according to the photograph, where he shows us his faithful auxiliaries waiting to be fed, round their trough.

Judging by appearances, the life of the sleigh dogs would be one of the most miserable ones. Having scarcely anything to eat, exposed to prolonged fastings, forced to do very hard work till the drop from fatigue, being obliged to stand a pitiless climat, quasi-devoured in summer by mosquitoes, they nevertheless accept with "bonne grace" their hard fate, and attach themselves to the man who exploits their strength until complete exhaustion. "However," says the Rev. Hudson Stuck, "the life of a sleigh dog who possesses a good master is not unhappy. Not only does he furnish proof of the "joie de vivre" in playing and gambolling, as soon as he is "unyoked," but he seems also to love his occupation, he fulfils his duties gaily, he hates inaction, and himself comes in the morning to be put to the sleigh, impatient to be off. If for any reason such as a wound on the leg, ulceration of the neck or of the toes, he is temporarily dispensed from service and allowed to run by himself, he accompanies the sleigh, always trying to replace himself in the "ranks," and he quarrels with the dog which he thinks has replaced him. If he is attached to the encampment, he begins to howl in a frightful manner, and tries his best to break the chain to rejoin his "pals" and to retake his collar."

Peary said: "I could never stop eulogizing these admirable dogs, thanks to whom the Polar Circle could be explored. Auxiliary companions, devoted servants, they would not hesitate to give their life to defend their master against furious attacks of a Polar bear or any other wild animal."

The imported Wirehair Fox Terrier

"HASTY HOMAGE"

PROPERTY OF WM. R. AITKEN, 617 UNION AVENUE.

He is grandly bred, a Terrier every inch, for expression, head, neck, cobby body, with best of legs, feet, and coat of extreme wire texture, hard to beat. His breeding lines are of the best, being:

Homage	Ch. Collarbone of Notts	Ch. Collar of Notts.
	Haste	Crystal of Notts.
Haste	Catchem of Notts	Catchem of Notts.
	Premier	Premier
	Premier	Morden Blusterer
	Premier	Juanita
		Powder Plot
		Appelby Jane

"Hasty Homage—This new and brilliant star of the Fox Terrier armament is proof of the virtue of inbreeding (albeit judiciously applied), as he is by 'Homage,' out of 'Haste,' (who is the dam of Homage), hence very aptly named. Eight firsts at the dog's first essay on the Show Bench is a big beginning. That he may keep it up is the deliberate and unhasty homage we have pleasure in paying the dog."—Editor, Our Dogs, 8th Sept., 1916.

The first litter of puppies sired by him in Canada included the bitch, "Hasty Lady," the sensation of Montreal, May 1918, Show, going through all her classes to winners, capturing nine first prizes and four specials. Avonhurst Major, by Alstead Seedley Satisfaction, winner at New York 1917, and out of Alstead Apple Blossom, also a prominent winner, and litter sister to Alstead Aeroplane, winner at New York, 1918. Major is a slashing big sable and white, eleven months old, and fit to win in good company; his breeding ought to make him a very desirable sire, and we believe he will be.

We offer a litter of puppies by Imp. Beechwood Dark Star, ex Beechwood Blessed Damozel, she by Ch. Parbold Picaroon, ex Ch. Ardshiel Wendy.

Also a litter by Dark Star, ex Lady May, she by Ch. Parbold Picador, ex Avonhurst Josephine.

JELlicoe WESTALL (Imported)

Probably the best lightweight ever imported. Now in his prime. In England he defeated about all worth beating, including such famous specimens as Champion Mike O'Flannighan, Ch. At Last, Ch. Challenger, Ch. Letchford Mason, Ch. Cintra Sam, Ch. Aldridge Aquitania, Alban Darkie, Euston Prince, Fitz Jack, Drummer, and others.

Only the stoppage of championship shows prevented him from winning his English championship, and is continuing his successes in Canada.

SOY BEAN MEAL

(46% Protein)

Those who have not given this food a trial should not hesitate any longer, if you wish to solve your feeding propositions. The following letters is just a sample of the unsolicited testimonials we are receiving daily:

Dear Sirs.—I have been breeding Hounds for 18 years, during which time have tried almost every kind of food that a dog will eat, and after feeding Soy Bean Meal, Oatmeal and Bran, as recommended by you, I can safely say there is no other dog food to equal it. Have already advised other dog breeders in this district to try it, and I am going to order 500 lbs. more next week at the special offer you gave me.

Yours truly,

J. DOHERTY,

R. F. D., Belleville, Ont.

Owing to the increase in prices of all foodstuffs, along with difficulty in procuring Soy Bean Meal, we have been compelled to raise our prices as follows:

Less than 100 lbs. c. per lb.
100 lbs. to 500 lbs. $5.25 per cwt.
500 lbs. and over $4.75 per cwt.

(F.O.B. Shelburne, Ont.)

Mixture.—Two measures of rolled oats, two of bran, and one of Soy Bean Meal. Add salt, mix together dry, and add cold water or milk.

It is wise to add sulphur and powdered charcoal about every ten days, also beef scrap.

Read what Palmer says in "All About Airdales."

All orders filled promptly.
