International Champion King Nobblers Double. A great son of a great sire (Woodsworth Royalist, ex Miss Nobbler) has passed "West"

"A Terrier from tip to tip was he,
Still, a gentleman withal;
Though an International Champion,
He was a true and faithful pal."

International Champion King Nobblers Double is dead. He passed away in harness, winning 1st open winners, best pair, brace and trio at Montreal, May 24th. Swann was taking one of his long jumps to Louisville, Ky., to attend the Airedale Show there. Suspension Bridge, Buffalo, Cleveland and Cincinnati were stop-overs, where the handler saw to his charges and noted they were O.K. The last lap of the journey was the fatal one. Probably too tightly packed in the express car, and a lack of ventilation, as the post mortem examination held discloses suffocation.

This great Airedale was imported in January, 1915, and was Mr. Mackenzie's first important purchase.

His successes both sides of the line were phenomenal, and include winners and best Airedale, Canadian National Exhibition, 1915; best Airedale, 1916; winners, 1917; best pair and one of the winning team, 1918.

His owner could have sold the dog very many times. A syndicate of New York enthusiasts tried to purchase him so late as the spring of 1918, and less than two months ago Mr. Chas. Quetschke, of Caswell Kennels, Toledo, Ohio, wrote for a price on the dog. But to all enquiries he was "not for sale."

To the Airedale fancy particularly and the dog world in general the loss is almost an irreparable one. Apart from his show qualities, his success as a sire was phenomenal. Ch. Polam Maxim, Balloch Bellman, Narrowdale Nimrod being some of his progeny. In sympathizing with the owner we are reminded that the loss is not by any means a monetary one. Nobbler did not owe a cent eight months after purchase, and for more than a year his earnings paid all show expenses, etc., of himself and his kennel mates.

But out Regina way there was only one Nobbler, and that was the wonderful King Nobbler's Double. A champion in Canada, a champion in America, a champion with all but one win short in England, and one of the pillars of Canadian dogdom which will be hard to replace.

In conclusion, Kennel and Bench readers will be pleased to learn that Mr. D. W. Wright has a litter by Ch. King Nobbler's Double, whilst Messrs. G. and G. E. Ward bred Ch. Rockley Paragon and her daughter both to him, and we understand they are both in whelp. Could it be possible that the Canadian Airedale fancy might see, arising from some of those matings, a replica of the great "King Nobblers Double."

MONTREAL KENNEL ASSOCIATION

The annual spring show of the Montreal Kennel Association, which took place in the Coliseum on May 23rd and 24th, proved to be a remarkable success.

There was an entry of nearly 400 dogs, which proves that this event has become one of Canada's popular fixtures, and the attendance of visitors was the largest ever seen at a Montreal show. A few of the reasons for the growing popularity of this event are "the dates," which come at a time when the weather is neither hot or cold; "the location," which is ideal, being spacious, well lighted and lots of air space; the clean and sanitary benching, the large judging rings, the popular judges, and a president at the head of affairs who has the confidence and respect of all.

The secretary, who is comparatively new to the mysteries of the game, received valuable assistance from a few of the old stand-by's and had things runnings fairly smoothly. Judging was delayed to such an extent that it was in the early hours of Sunday morning before the last special was handed out. The delay in supplying the judges with their books, the slackness in getting dogs into the rings and the system of using numbers, instead of names, in the catalogue are items for future rectification.

Norman K. Swire judged Bulldogs, Collies, O. E. Sheepdogs and all Toys and Chas. H. Mason the remainder. Both these authorities are well known for their honesty in handing out awards without fear or favor, consequently their placing of the dogs are considered authentic.

The big breeds were none to plentiful. Fox Terriers were up to the usual high standard that this show is noted for; Airedales were plentiful and of good all-round quality; Bulldogs drew a large entry, and Boston Terriers turned out well. Pomeranians and Pekingese were extra good, both in numbers and quality.

Great interest was taken in the judging, especially when the general specials were being awarded. Hundreds of spectators crowded round the large ring to watch the judges arrive at their decisions. The handsome trophy for best dog or bitch in show was won by the Wire Fox Terrier bitch, Ch. Lady Wireboy of Paignton. Reserve for that honor went to the Airedale, Int. Ch. Polam Maxim.

Special for Best in Show—Ch. Lady Wireboy of Paignton.

Reserve—Int. Ch. Polam Maxim.

We feel that it would be nice to be able to congratulate the compilers of our show catalogues, knowing just how hard it is to get the completed book altogether correct. But in this case we have felt like getting the tomahawk and going after some one's scalp. The idea may be a new one, and it is to be hoped it will never be an old one. At first we felt inclined to let Montreal show go unreported, as far as the list of awards was concerned, but, out of compliment to our many exhibitors, we have straightened out as much as we could. Fox Terriers were not marked in the officially marked catalogue sent, so the awards are missing for that breed. However, our specially reported article will, in some way, take care of that omission. The new idea is, to put it mildly, not at all welcome at the editor's desk.

WIRE-HAIRED FOX TERRIERS AT MONTREAL.

Specially Reviewed For K. & B...

An entry of 38 dogs faced Mr. Mason, and there were only two absentees, and the average quality was well up to the best American shows. The open dog class of twelve was probably the best class of Wires that ever faced a judge in Canada. There was only one Canadian bred dog in this class, and it is worthy of note to comment on the fact that he drew a place. Mr. Mason did not please everybody with his placings, but he showed that he had his mind on a certain type and stuck to this type throughout, with but one exception, and the dogs that were placed were in most instances the real huntman's type of Terrier and looked able to follow a fox any place he could get. With the exception of the open bitch class winners, the bitches did not compare in quality with the dogs. Many of the leading home-bred bitches of 1918 have found new homes across the line, and the Montreal fanciers have not yet got as good in their places, and the classes suffered accordingly.

Mrs. Webster's well-known Ch. Lady Wireboy, of Paignton, went to the top in bitches and afterwards won for best in show, all breeds. Her owner also showed a very sweet daughter of Lady Wireboy's that gave her a close run for premier honors. This spicy lady is a little better in head than her dam, but has not yet got that wonderful body, but when she makes up in body we predict a career for her that will rival her dam's best success. Wiremaid of Malden, also well known, furnished the chief contention for premier honors. Sam Bamford's Walnut Enticement was second to Spicy Lady in the minor classes. She is a tan-headed houndmarked little one; a little more substance would improve her. Vanguard Khaki, third junior and limit, is good in middle piece, but could be better at both ends. The rest of the bitches were just useful.

In open dogs, Sam Bamford's Ch. Micky's Model, shown in grand form, won with something to spare from Ridgway Dark Boy, a heavily marked son of Ch. Wireboy of Paignton, that has done considerable winning across the line, but was in poor shape and is rather mixed in coat. Malden Major III, is a grand bodied little one with a rare coat, round front, extra good in ear and eye, and with a bit more face could trouble the best. Spicenut of Paignton, reserve open and second limit, also a rare coated one, rather plain in eye, and would not make the best of himself in the ring. Charlie Chaplin won junior dogs, and is a real good bodied dog, round front and extra good in legs and feet, a bit careless with his ears at times, good eye and expression, and a rare shower. Prides Hill Trenchman, second junior and third limit, has a rare head and neck, good eye and ears, sound jacket, but was evidently a bit over-sized for Mr. Mason, and is a little uncertain in his front. Abegweith Derby Bristles, first novice, third junior is a nice size, good ear and eye, good jacket, more than useful.

Nostrebor Zip, first puppy, a very nice little chap, and showed like a veteran; rather fine and could do with more substance throughout. Bordeaux Pat, second puppy, good coat but rather long cast in body. Malden Cadet, third puppy, extra good in head, ear and eye, best legs and feet in the class, loses in hindquarters. Vickery Persimmon and Marvel Boy outclassed in open. The former has full light eye, long back, bad quarters. Marvel Boy no coat on the day. (Multum in Parvo.)

ENGLISH BULLDOGS AT BULLDOG CLUB OF CANADA'S SPECIALTY SHOW.

Specially Reviewed by Bob Mills for Kennel and Bench.

Class 1, Juvenile Dogs—Two puppies only in this class. Readmont Lucky Strike, the winner, scoring over his opponent, Scottish Chieftain, being better in bone and more matured.

Class 2, Puppies, Dogs—Evergreen Marco, the winner, owns a splendid body, good bone and a tremendous skull. Would do with more substance and more width of underjaw. General Blake a pretty close second.

Class 4, Novice—King, the winner in this class, was a lucky dog, beating Overgreen Marco and General Blake.

Class 3, Junior Dogs—The winner, Lorne Leader, is a real nice type of dog, good bone, nice, short and low to ground, and exceptional in depth of brisket; good depth of foreface and width of underjaw; good big nose and nostrils. Might have been shown in better conditions; an easy winner over Overgreen Marco and General Blake.

Class 5, Open, Dogs under 45 lbs.—Two dogs only in this class. King, the winner in local novice, and the well-known Alban Darkie. I could not quite follow the judge in placing King over Alban Darkie. Darkie is better bodied, boned, lower to ground, better movement and type throughout than the winner.

Class 11, Novice Bitches—Byrnhyfryd Cinderella beating Lorne Lilly in shortness of body and lower to ground.

Class 12, Open Bitches under 40 lbs.—Newington Patricia, the winner in this class, is a nice headed little bitch. I would prefer to see more bone to her. She was closely pressed in this class by Lowestoff Roxanna, a real nice bodied bitch, and shown in perfect condition. Brynhyfryd Cinderella III. would probably have been placed better if she had shown better.

Open Bitches, over 40 lbs.—The winner in this class, Strathtay Supreme, is a nice bitch all of an heap. Stamp Low and Cloddy, the best bodied bitch in the show; great depth of foreface and substance; given a little more width of underjaw and she would go some. Zaza Penfold, second, is longer in back and higher on the leg than the winner.

Classes 1 to 14, inclusive, confined to exhibitors residing within a radius of 25 miles of Montreal.

There are several dogs I would like to mention. Rockley Silent Witness, the winner in Canadian-bred dogs, is a massive type; could be improved in foreface. The Second Marquis of Ripon can make the best of them jump for type, but had an accident as a puppy, and carries one of his hind legs bad.

Failsworth White Kaffir is another useful type of lightweight, excelling in width and turnup of underjaw. Chinook Prince Albert is a little dog and liked very much. He seemed to be suffering from a cold or I believe he would have gone up better.

Tam Hin, winners' dogs, is a dog with a big, massive head, plenty of substance and cushion eyes well placed; big nose and good depth of foreface. Might have a little more bone, a little high on his legs, and a little too long; an easy winner.

In reviewing over the different dogs and bitches, Penfold Selected took my eye. Personally I think she was in hard luck. I thought she should have topped the lot in bitches.

Kersal White Gladiator was another dog with hard luck tacked over him. This dog was in one class only, and I thought his chances looked good. I could not follow the judge's opinion in this class.

Bulldog Specialty Show at Montreal.

Mrs. W. T. Drew, the first of American lady judges to appear at a specialty show in Canada, "came, saw and conquered." If any of the mere males had any idea of an effeminate milk and water decision, they very soon "went by the board." Mrs. Drew knows her Bulldog as few men know them, and whilst some of her decisions rankled a bit in the hearts of the "always wins," she made a point of telling any exhibitor who thought their dog was "hardly done by."

Just please wait till I'm finished judging and I'll tell you just why I did it. I admit I may be wrong, but, as the Yankee said about the Lord's prayer, which his old mother told him to hang above his bed and repeat every night, but which after a while got a bit monotonous, used to point to the prayer and say, Good Lord I'm too tired to go over the whole show to-night, but believe me good Lord. "Them's my sentiments." Such was Mrs. Drew. She had the courage of her convictions and was not afraid to show them, and she left us with a happy memory and a feeling of "I wish there were more like her." The gate was unfortunately spoiled by the worst day of rain we have had this year, but even that did not damp the spirits of the "boys of the Bulldog breed" and interest was maintained till the last special was awarded. S. Almon captured winners dogs with Tam Hin, and Tuson got opposite sex with Penfold Selected, two popular decisions, which were well received by the ringsiders. A. Chisholm cut a big swathe in the prize list with his exhibits, his young dog, Lorne Leader, winning everything he asked for, including specials. A lot of new faces and exhibits were to be seen around, and everything seems rosy for the success of the club. The officials worked like trojans, and the new benches were the subject of favorable comment from the "old uns." Superintendent Silver had everything in apple pie order, as per usual, and too much praise cannot be given to Ring Steward Andrews. It was his initial effort in that capacity, but believe us Montreal will not have far to look for a show pilot while he is around. He was here, there and everywhere, and the success of the show is largely due to his efforts.

BRANTFORD.

Again a Good Dog Town.

Brantford, an old Ontario city, that used to be a well-known landmark in the affairs of Canadian dogdom, having taken unto itself a new and vigorous lease of life, heralded the fact far and near through the medium of its newly reorganized kennel club, known and registered as the Telephone City Kennel Club, by holding a show for all breeds at the garage of the president, J. Minshall, when over 100 dogs were benched under ideal conditions. Judge for the day was "Bob" Scott Wilson, of Oakville, who had a hard day's work getting the dogs placed where they belonged. Specials were arranged, so that every breed was provided for.

The executive were a well organized, enthusiastic bunch of fellows whose only interest seemed to be in the satisfaction of the "other fellow." This may be better illustrated when we record here the fact that after the judging was over the entire membership repaired to the hotel, where plates were found to be set for one and all.

"Bob" Wilson had the chair of honor, and a real good "after-dinner" chairman Bob made, and entertained his auditors to Robert Service's "The Volunteer," which was received with great enthusiasm. After an hour spent in good fellowship the trip was made back to the Dog Show building, where a great crowd awaited the "tid-bits"—the awarding of the specials.

Following are the principal winners:

Russian Wolfhounds—Open, dogs and bitches—1st, M. Patterson's Leizka Henrietta; 2nd, same owner's Bonis Romanoff; 3rd, Mrs. Webb's King. Special for best Russian Wolfhound, Leizka Henrietta.

American Foxhounds—Open, dogs and bitches—1st, Mr. Glen Bowden's Sport; 2nd, H. Nolan's Bess; 3rd, Schnier's Cora.

Beagles had a nice entry, with bitches in the majority. Open, bitches—1st, Haig's Melli; 2nd, Haig's Queen Bell; Flossie; 3rd, Daisy. Special for best 3rd, Haig's Flora. Special for best Beagle, Monarch. All the four mentioned were entered in the name of Fred Howie.

Collies were five, and all very good. J. D. Strachan "Coltness," who was present and acting as ring steward, was invited to place this breed. Open, bitches—1st, Charles Walker's Lady of Barronmore; 2nd, W. E. Duckworth's La Forge Lady Beth. Open, dogs—1st, Corona Kismet, a real collie; 2nd, Jas. Miller's Glen; 3rd, T. Prince's Laddie. Special for best Collie, Corona Kismet.

English Bulldogs—Open, bitches—1st, J. Parker's Union Queen; 2nd, W. R. Parker's Peggy Jr.; 3rd, G. Woods' Grace Darling. Special for best Bulldog, Mr. F. Verity's Phyl.

Airedale Terriers—Open, bitches—1st, C. M. Smith's Queen Betty; 2nd, C. E. Wheeland's Sandburgh Queen; 3rd, G. H. Herson's Lady Dorothy. Special for best Airedale, Queen Betty.

Boston Terriers—Puppy dogs—1st, H. B. Charlton's Little Minister—a little big one, little in size, big in quality, and a born little shower. Another real good "little 'un" came out in puppy dogs and won first, F. J. Beney's Elton Little Queen. Open, bitches, under 17 lbs.—1st, J. H. Minshall's Snookums. Open, bitches, over 17 lbs.—E. T. Lavoie's Turnstile Kiddo. Special best Boston Terrier, Snookums.

Fox Terriers, Wire—C. Plomley put down four that were good enough to be benched anywhere, and were placed. 1st, Weldon Selection; 2nd, Donningham Rake; 3rd, Bytown Clipper. Special best Fox Terrier, smooth or wire, Weldon Selection.

Toy Poodles were a nice entry, with J. W. Creeden's Snowball and Snookie in the limelight. Open, bitches—1st, J. W. Creeden's Miss Snookie; 2nd, R. Stephenson's Fluff; 3rd, C. D. Wooden's Midgie. Special for best Poodle, Snookie.

English Toy Spaniels—Open, dogs and bitches—Jas. Pollock was the only entrant, with three good specimens—1st, Holmedale Chicadee; 2nd, H. Bidby; 3rd, H. Cupie. Special for best English Toy Spaniel, Holmedale Chicadee.

Pekingese—Open, dogs and bitches—1st, B. C. Brown's Bradgate Chummie Chum; 2nd, W. D. Levermoor's Micki. Special for best Peke, Chummie Chum.

Pomeranians—T. Grant had an entry of six, and carried off all the prizes. Open, dogs—1st, Pommie; 2nd, Dick Turpin. Open, bitches—1st, Pussy; 2nd,

French Bulldogs were a nice entry, with a lot of quality, and James Berwick had the best hand over Wainwright and Welsh. Open, bitches—1st, Jas. Berwick's Dundee Patricia; 2nd, Wainwright and Welsh's Metz; 3rd, Lady Bearwood. Special for best French Bull Terrier, Dundee Patricia. Special for best non-sporting, Jas. Berwick's French Bull Terrier Dundee Patricia. Special for best sporting, Glyn Bowden's American Foxhound Sport, and a real good 'un. Best stud dog, with two of his get—C. Plomley's Bytown Clipper. Best puppy, any breed, confined to members of the Telephone City Kennel Club and to be won three times—a shame. Should have been won outright—before becoming the property of the exhibitor, Wainwright and Walsh's French Bulldog Mitz.

Best brace, Mr. Patterson's Wolfhounds, an evenly matched pair that was worth seeing. Best kennel of four—Fred Howie's Beagles. Best brace of Bostons—Mr. F. J. Beney's brace. Mr. Beney had his Bostons well up in the craft of ring manners.

No one needed to ask who the live wires of this club were. They seemed to be all in the spotlight. It was "their" show and "they" were all "there." H. B. Charlton, the energetic secretary, has a good knowledge of his "boys" and keeps them all interested.

The club, having claimed the dates Sept. 26, 27, 1919, for their Fall Show, and under C.K.C. rules, it will give the fancy an opportunity to show their appreciation for and offer a hearty welcome to the Telephone City Kennel Club. The membership is 75 paid members, and the possibility 100 per cent. good stuff. We wish them the best of luck.

OUR MAIL BAG.

Toronto, May 1st, 1919.

James D. Strachan, Esq.,

Sec., Canadian Kennel Club, Inc.,
774½ Yonge St., City.

Dear Sir:—

On occasions where a series of prizes are offered it is usually quite a little problem as to what to select or just what the nature of the prizes should be.

The Deposit Account Dept. have devised a system that affords a solution to such a problem.

It is worked through a series of cards, first, second or third prizes, which are orders on the firm for the amount of merchandise specified on the card, good at any department in the store.

In order to get these prize cards the treasurer or the one authorized by the organization deposits the full amount of the prizes he wishes to give, at the D. A. Office, Fourth Floor, where the cards are obtained in denominations as required. These cards are then given to the winners, which are good for one month from date of issue.

This is a system which might be of great convenience to you. For further information apply at or telephone the D. A. Office, Fourth Floor.

The T. Eaton Co., Limited.

Here may be found the solution to the special prize problem, well known to most show secretaries, and now that the dog show season is in full swing all over the Dominion, and the well-known Eaton establishment being represented both East and West, it seems only natural that if the parties interested most could be got together the sequence would be business.—Editor.

THE WESTERN FAIR DOG SHOW.

The Dog Show to be held in connection with London's Exhibition this year promises to be of special interest. The reputation held by this show from past years has gone far and wide, and breeders and owners of dogs like to go to London. Everything seems to indicate a most successful show this year. A beautiful lot of silver cups and trophies are in the special list, in addition to the regular cash prizes, and a large entry is looked for. Prize lists, entry forms and all information, either for the Western Fair or Dog Show, will be given on application to the Secretary, A. M. Hunt, General Offices, London, Ont.

TERMINAL CITY KENNEL CLUB SHOW.

Reported by the Judge, Mr. G. Ward, Toronto.

The Canadian National Railway was the route of my choice, and I have no regrets to chronicle. No red-blooded sportsman could help enjoying this trip just as much as I did. The wild scenery of the Rockies can not be described faithfully by a pen. One may say that, to see the brown-covered mountains at their best, clad in a gorgeous robe of beautiful, long flowing green blades, like a mighty sea, while other spots, less fertile, and covered with great boulders and swamps, makes a wish he had his gun, camp and lots of time.

Modern travel has made long-distance travelling more of a pleasure than it used to be. Courtesy, good food at moderate charges, small wonder, then, that this magnificent route makes the splendid appeal that it does to the thousands of sporting gentlemen who go out in this direction to fish and shoot in summer and fall. Wild duck could be seen everywhere. Wild Goats and Moose aplenty. I consider my many pleasures more than justified my long trip to the coast.

Being in England as late as April 2nd, and making the big Atlantic jump, to be followed by a trip from coast to coast here, did not give me any too much time to rest up. But the grand service prevailing made it possible for me to land in Vancouver in fine trim. There—as I had been warned—I found a real bunch of sports, who, to show themselves men after my own heart, ran me off to the nearest hostelry, where the good eats were right up to a high mark of excellence. My good hosts were a varied bunch. Some spoke one tongue, some another. Several Mac's who spoke the Scottish dialect like natives. That was a real pleasant prologue to the coming show on the morrow.

There I also found everything waiting my arrival, even to the nice comfy chair for the judge, placed there no doubt by some sport who had been thinking of my long, long trip.

Permit me here to honorably mention that the officials were all on hand, were all working, and all stayed the show right through to the end, an experience not so noticeable at our Eastern shows, and which I much enjoyed.

J. J. Jackson, one of the efficient

Canadian Kennel Club representatives for the Province of British Columbia, in a few well chosen, though pointed, words, introduced me, and said that this was their 8th Annual Spring Show, and hoped the attendance might be up to the standard of past years, a wish that was more than gratified, and I was pleased to learn before leaving that the show was one of the most successful financially held in years.

Special Prizes.

To enumerate the special prize list would be to encroach on good nature. Suffice it to say that Mrs. Archie Hogg, the "better half" of the genial president of the Terminal City Kennel Club, had a very busy time disposing of a veritable stack of good serviceable specials. It was just like "Mrs. Santa Claus in summer time.

Special for best in show went to Batchelor's Rockett, an ideal type of English Setter, owned by Mr. R. Jones, Nanaimo, B.C., and I have seldom seen a finer specimen, not even in England.

Best of the opposite sex was won by our old Airedale celebrity, Ch. Killarney Tittle Tattle, owned, as may be supposed, by N. McConnell, of North Vancouver, and hereby hangs a tale. On the day of the show this fine Airedale was stolen from Mr. McConnell's auto, causing something of a sensation. The theft looked like a clean getaway, but later in the day friend McConnell spied his treasure being led along on a leash and at once gave chase, and the thieves, becoming alarmed, allowed old Tittle Battle her freedom. She was entered here for "specials only."

Best Sporting Dog in show, Batchelor's Rockett.

CORRECTION.

Toronto Kennel Club Show.

Inadvertently the winner in Scottish Terriers, bitches, as reported in our May Kennel and Bench, appeared as Drumelamph Helen. On looking over the judge's records we find this should read: Winners, bitches, Drumelamph Betty.

WESTERN AMERICA'S GREATEST DOG SHOW.

We respectfully draw the attention of our many exhibitor fanciers to the advertisement of the Michigan State Fair Dog Show, appearing in our advertising section of this issue. Here it is quite evident that our cousins across the line have begun to cater for our support, which is no doubt very helpful to the success of their shows, and it is to be hoped that they are not asking in vain. Many Canadian dogs are to be found entered at most of the important shows across the line. And we trust the day is not far distant when we will be able to notice reciprocation in this respect. Leaving out the Canadian National Exhibition Dog Show, it is safe to say that the percentage of American dogs at our shows continually hover around the zero mark.

However, let us get playing together, as we fought together, and the result will be well worth while.

PREFIX CLAIMED.

The prefix "Pinewood" has been recorded in the name of W. A. Bowell, 116 Kennelwood Avenue, Toronto, Ont.

The prefix "Harvie" has been registered in the name of E. A. Murby, 71 West Ave., Toronto.

The Kennel name "Obo" has been recorded in the name of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. McGauvran, Vancouver.

Cornwall Kennel Club, having suggested Sept. 5 and 6, 1919, as the probable dates of their Dog Show, it will be seen where a link between Toronto National and London or Ottawa may be found. Besides, the Cornwall Executive are very willing that dogs intended for either of those shows shall be provided for over the week-end. This should appeal to handlers and exhibitors alike, and a show circuit may be arranged now that never was possible before, and we trust those clubs who are starting out on their show careers may feel that their endeavors are justified, and that can only come from the size of their respective entries, so that really the whole climax, successful or otherwise, is in the hands of our exhibitors. See our show announcement for possible circuit, then get after the premium lists; then get them filled up, and last but not least, return them to the show secretaries with necessary remittance.

A CANINE CHARTER.

I have an old friend who adores me—
It's good to be frankly adored,—
Though honey-tongued boot-licking
bores me,

With Jim I could never be bored.
His charms are too long to be quoted,
His friendship and trust never fail,
And the bent of his mind may be noted
By the eloquent tilt of his tail.
He's my dog; sort of Spaniel-cum Setter;

The best in creation, bar none,
And he qualifies, surely none better.
For a share of my place in the sun.
He'll fight for my rights in a second,
Right or wrong, he'll be taking my part—

Oh! the powers were at fault if they reckoned

I would turn down my Jim, bless his heart!

His ways are not stately or starchy,
Sometimes he's a terrible scamp;
He'll bark like a shell-splitting
"Archie"

At a postman, policeman, or tramp,
But for me—so his eyes have confided—
His heart's full of love to the brim:
And, whatever the odds, I've decided
To fight to a finish for Jim.

—Jessie Pope.

NEW BRUNSWICK SHOW.

The New Brunswick Kennel Club will hold its eleventh annual Dog Show in St. John, New Brunswick, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, September 16, 17 and 18. Mr. R. A. Ross, Lachine, Que., will judge all breeds.

The show committee in charge includes Messrs. J. W. Cameron, Bliss A. Smith, Bert Porter, E. J. Wallace, Charles Perkins, John Scott, Redmond Elward, Robert Magee, Le B. Wilson, A. V. McLellan, L. McC. Ritchie, with W. C. McKay secretary-treasurer.

The show will be held in St. Andrew's Rink, a large, well-equipped building, ideally suited for a dog show. Cups and prizes will be given for all the breeds, and there will be numerous special and variety classes. It is a well known fact that this club always endeavors to make their show so inviting that a great many entries are usually received from cities as far away as Toronto, and it is remarkable to notice that Toronto dogs are represented at this fixture year after year.

SILVER BIRCH SENSATION.

An Airedale of Great Merit Belonging to Mr. Joseph Russell, M.P.P., Goes "West."

Silver Birch Sensation. He by Ch. York Ryburn Swell, and out of Ch. Brickfield Mollie, died on Tuesday, June 24th. He was a splendid type of an Airedale, and was making quite a reputation for himself as a sire. Out of two litters sired by him old enough to face the starter first prize winners were found in each. From his first litter the well-known winning pair, Claycliff Sentry and Claycliff Lady Bird, were the representatives, and from the second litter to attain the showing age are a couple of real nice young dogs who will later give a good accounting for their breeding, while in every litter produced to date are to be found puppies of excellent promise.

This dog was in the best possible condition up to a few days before his death. During the past few months he had been visited by numerous matrons, amongst them being that well-known producing dam, Bothwell Peggy, owned by Harry Clayton, Toronto; York Ryburn Clover, owned by P. R. Hilborn, Preston, Ont.; Silver Birch Nancy, owned by Harry Clayton, Toronto; also two of the owners best females. We feel certain that our Airedale readers will sympathize with Mr. Russell in this, the untimely death of a good dog and a faithful pal.

SHORT BARKS.

George Gaull, the well-known Toronto Bulldog fancier, who was slated to judge Bulldogs at the Ontario Collie Club's parlor show on the 18th inst., did not turn up, and speculation was rife as to what might have kept him away, George having the reputation of being a man to keep his word, and his engagements. Sh, whisper—and don't tell anybody—the stork called and left friend Gaull a big bouncing boy. Congratulations? Sure.

In the last issue of Kennel and Bench we referred to J. W. Ingleson, of Winnipeg, having been seen in a Toronto street car with a "chunk of Boston under his arm." The following is the sequel: After a trip to Boston, Cleveland and other American cities, with a view to looking over the "available," and failing to land the "desirable" there, Toronto was taken in, and a real good, typical, well-marked puppy by H. M. Jackson's Count Dee Cee, out of H. Shaw's Lady Rebecca, secured at a price said to be in the vicinity of $100 a lb. H. Shaw is enthusiastic over the prospects of this youngster in his Western home, and it is safe to assume that J. W. Ingleson was of similar mind at the time of buying. We wish all three the best of luck.

M. W. Bates, Metigama, Ont., writes that he is donating a special prize at the forthcoming Exhibition Dog Show. The special is intended to promote interest in the breeding of high-class Airedale Terriers in Canada. Now, Airedalers here is one more incentive for you to breed to the best.

C. R. Duff's Lady Mine, a Boston Terrier with a rare show career, winning 6 first and winners across the line. Has been bred to H. M. Jackson's Paddy Dee, and our Ottawa friend should be able to spot some winners from the result of this mating.

Dr. Mathieu, Regina, has a good little female nursing a couple of fine Pomeranian puppies sired by Mrs. P. D. Howland's Hotspur.

Two puppies out of Morning Sunshine have lately come into prominence, namely, Harvie Warlock, winner of 2nd puppy dog at the Toronto Kennel Club Show last Good Friday, and 1st puppy, 1st novice, at London, April 24th, while Broomhill Lady Warlock won 3rd puppy bitch at Toronto K. C., 1919.

Lt.-Col. Reg. Pellatt, of the Casa Loma Kennels, reports the mating of his good Airedale bitch, Morning Sunshine, to Ridgewood Rocket, the property of the Lucknow Farm Kennels, Conn., U.S.A. Rocket is an imported dog by Kellagan Defiance, ex Glandon Star. He has been a consistent winner since coming to the States, having been awarded best in show—all varieties competing—on several occasions. He won 2nd in the open class at the big Westminster Show, New York, last February. If calculations and combinations count for anything, the Lieut.-Colonel should have his reward on the way right now.

I. Rowley, Montreal, reports a nice litter of English Bulldogs by Alban Darkie, ex Delamere Betty, that friend Rowley thinks are worth watching.

ANOTHER CHAMPION TAKES THE COUNT.

CH. CLIFTON PEACH

Our many readers will regret the demise of that celebrated Canadian-bred Boston Terrier, Champion Clifton Peach, C.K.C. 15699, the property of "Charlie" McQuillan, the popular Secretary of the Boston Terrier Club of Canada. Ch. Clifton Peach was a dark mahogany brindle, with beautiful white markings, and sired by Onadaga, ex Zetland Betty, and born July 13th, 1913. His bench achievements were as numerous as they were important. Many of his wins were in fast company. For instance, at the C. N. E., 1917, when the entry for Bostons alone was 72, Clifton Peach was acclaimed the winner. Same year, at Montreal and Oakville, we remember remarking on the magnificent quality of this dog. Boston Terrier fanciers will join us in our expression of sympathy to "Charlie" McQuillan.

This does not complete the tragedy by any means, as we understand that a sweet little bitch puppy by Captain Spider shared the fate of Peach. Death was caused by their partaking of decayed fish, thrown out probably by a careless neighbor. Fanciers will do well to take the circumstance to heart and see to it that during those terrific days of heat that no decomposed food is allowed near the kennels.

A GENEROUS GIFT

Lieut.-Col. Reg. Pellatt has donated a handsome trophy to the Airedale Terrier Club of Canada for competition with sufficient base accommodation for the recording of the winners names and dates. We understand the Lieut.Col. has decided to have engraved on this trophy the celebrated international winner, Int. Ch. King Nobblers Double. This is encouraging the Airedale fancy in a practical way.

The English Bulldog Club of Montreal has climbed their membership ladder to the 63 rung and steadily getting higher. This is O.K. for a specialty club.

Norman K. Swires' Criticisms of the Breeds He Judged at Montreal.

Bulldogs.—Much interest surrounded the judging of this variety, as many of the exhibits had met at the Specialty Show the day before, and quite a few imported dogs were up for competition, along with the home-breds. On referring to my book I found an entry of 65. This number, coupled with the all-round quality of the exhibits, is ample proof of the popularity of the Bulldog in Montreal.

Commencing with puppy dogs, I placed a promising youngster named General Blake at the head of a large class. He possesses a big skull, with well-placed eyes and ears, short body, good rib and nice bone; lacks a little in face finish. Second to him was Lord Darkie, an attractive, red-pied dog possessing many good qualities, but loses to winner in hindquarters and movement. Kersal White Gladiator, who headed the junior class, was the most typical of the juveniles, having a well finished head-piece, nice shoulder formation, and short, well-ribbed body, with the desired roach; could do with more bone, and should like to see him use his ears to better advantage. Chinook Prince Albert headed the open lightweights. He is a white-pied dog with a wonderful well finished head, low to ground, and good bone for his size. On the day he failed a little in spring of rib. Second to him was Failsworth White Kaffir, a compact and well balanced white-pied dog, fails to winner in face finish and lowness to ground. Next in order came Failsworth Dark Duke, a dark brindle. On the day he lost to the above-mentioned dogs in condition and movement. In Limit Heavyweights I picked out Tam Hin as being best. He is a flashy-marked pied dog, with a marvellous head, good width and depth of foreface, with underjaw to match, deep stop, excellent furrow, perfect eye and ear placement, and a big, flat skull, behind a good pair of shoulders; he has a nice spring of rib; with better hindquarters and lower to ground he would be hard to fault. Second to him was Rockley Silent Witness, a massive, sound dog with few outstanding faults, but lacking in finish. In the open class, King Moston went over Tam Hin, being better balanced all over, lower to ground, shorter and better shaped body, and moved well. Winners dogs, King Maston. Reserve, Chinook Prince Albert. The winner of the local class was Marquis of Ripon, a dog with many outstanding qualities, an injury to his hindquarters being the only thing that prevents him going to the top.

The juvenile classes in the bitch section were also well filled. Toll Bar Peggy, the winner of the big novice class, is a nice, compact and sound little bitch; her litter sister, who is very similar in type, also carried off the blue ribbon in the junior class. Second to this pair in both classes was a very useful one named St. Lambert's White Duchess. The winner of the limit lightweights was Strathtay Supreme, a low, cloddy fawn with well finished head-piece and lots of bone. The open class provided keen competition. Penfold Selected went to the top. She possesses a grand head with well-placed eyes and ears, good shoulder formation, well sprung ribs, deep brisket, lot of bone and sound. Ch. Hefty Mischievous, who occupied second place, is a typical one, shorter in body than the winner, but loses in face finish, substance and soundness. Next in order came Strathtay Supreme. Winners, bitches, Penfold Selected. Reserve, Ch. Hefty Mischievous.

French Bulldogs turned out to the tune of 17 entries, amongst the contestants being a few very promising youngsters. Winners dogs went to Tango Tipperary, a cobby-built dog with a typical head, and shown in tip-top form. Reserve winners went to L'Anglemont Bijou, a good all-round specimen, but loses to winner in head and soundness. Bitches were not so plentiful nor of the quality of the dogs. The winner, Douceli, has a good head with well carried ears, nice body, legs and feet. Reserve went to Paris Pride, a cobby-built, sound bitch, a little plain in face and faulty tail.

Collies were only a fair bunch. Sir Bruce, who headed the puppy and junior classes, is a sable and white with a long, lean head of good quality; needs time to fill out in body and improve in coat; will be heard from again when ready. The best in the dog section was Verdun Ballantyne, who ran through from novice to winners. He is a well balanced dog, nice head, good legs and feet, shapely body, and is carrying a good coat. At times he is inclined to carry his tail a little gay. Second to him in the limit was Ormskirk Squire, a typical dog but loses to winner in size, bone and condition. Prince Rupert, the second in the open class, is a nice size with good coat and fair all-round quality. Winners dogs, Verdun Ballantyne. Reserve, Prince Rupert.

Bitches were poor, the only outstanding one being Quarrybrae Colleen, who went to winners with ease, her nearest rivals being Verdun Sally and Campbell Stylish.

One lone exhibit was the only representative in the O. E. Sheepdog section, Sonora Billy by name. He is a well-built, sound dog with good bone and a coat of the right color and texture; a nice mover and could hold his own in good company.

Toys.—Japanese Spaniels came first. One lone specimen was all this variety could muster. The quality of same did not warrant me handing out a winners' ribbon.

Toy Poodles were few in numbers. Buster Wiggins was put down fit, and easily accounted for winners. The best specimen in this variety was the winning bitch, Lady Chrysanthemum, a small, typical mite, and when in better coat will be hard to fault.

English Toy Spaniels.—The only exhibit in the dog section was Vernon Castle, a King Charles with nice coat and color, but not of sufficient merit to obtain a winners' ribbon. The winners bitch, Wangza Mignetta, is a real nice Blenheim, short face, good skull, with well placed eyes and ears, cobby body and well broken in color.

One moderate Toy Terrier was the only exhibit in that section.

Belgian Griffons.—There were a few nice specimens of this variety. Ki Ki Boy, the winners' dog, is a typical little fellow with nice conformation and a good coat of the right color and texture. Queen Elizabeth headed the bitch classes. She has a fair head, nice body, legs and feet, and possesses a good harsh coat of the right color. Second to her was Mirza, who scores over the winner in head, but her coat was short and inclined to be fluffy. Norine was third. Her indifferent ring manners spoiled her chances.

Pekingese had 35 entries and brought together a real nice collection. Several of the young "hopefuls" show great promise and will be heard from again. The limit and open classes in the dog section were particularly strong. A biscuit-colored one named San Toy of Louvain, headed the limit. He is nice size and carries a good coat, possesses a good head with flat skull and well placed eyes and ears; a correct front with nice bone and shapely body. Second to him was Walnut Wei, a good-headed dog with nice face finish and nicely balanced all over. He loses to winner in coat and front. Next came Osborne Admiral, who fails to the above in head and conformation. In the open class I placed Ch. Priorwood Pagan over the above-mentioned dog. He is a parti-colored dog with exceptional quality, deep, broad muzzle, big flat skull, and ears nicely placed, a slight blemish on one eye being the only drawback to me describing him as a perfect headed dog. His body, bone and coat being all that can be desired. In the Canadian-bred class the first and second were a repeat of the open. Third fell to Heathen Chinee, a nice colored dog with a good coat, but loses to winners in body and face finish. Winners, dogs, Ch Priorwood Pagan. Reserve, San Toy of Louvain.

The classes for females were just as well filled as the males, and the all-round quality was very noticeable, San San being the choice of the youngsters, and will do some winning when matured. Limit class was an easy thing for Yum Yum. She is a beautiful balanced little thing, typical head, nice bone, shapely body, profuse coat with good feathering, and was put down in excellent condition. Next in order in the limit class came Priorwood Pansy, a wonderful headed bitch, deep square muzzle, large lustrous eyes, large flat skull and ears correctly placed. She is a shade long in body, and could be improved in coat and condition, the latter defects being due to recent maternity duties. The third in this class was plain in face and showing age. The only new face in the open class was Tito of Munday, a nice, useful one, whom I placed second and reserve winners to Yum Yum.

Yorkshire Terriers were few in numbers, but the quality was there. Ch. Haslingden Mons being easily the best in the dog section, followed by his kennel-mate, Haslingden Jack O Boy. The former is a compact little terrier, full of type and sound. At present he is a little short of coat, but what he has is of the right color and texture. Jack O Boy, the reserve winner, carries a nice coat, but loses to winner in conformation and soundness. The winners bitch, Maise, is a typical little mite with nice head, short, level back, and a good coat; the color of same, however, left much to be desired.

Pomeranians—With over 80 entries, was easily the best section amongst the Toys, and showed a marked improvement over previous shows in all-round quality and quantity. The winners dog, Cheeky Wee Victor, was put down to perfection. He is a compact little fellow nicely balanced all over, carries a perfect coat which is pleasing in color and of the right texture. The reserve winner was Jumbo, a wolf-shaped sable of nice quality, losing to winner in head and coat. Stormlight of Dara, who landed third open, is another typical shaded sable with nice coat. The classes for the opposite sex were all well filled and furnished keen competition. My choice for winners was a dainty little shaded sable named Somme Tiny. She has a fair head, fine bone and a short, compact body covered with abundance of coat. Reserve winners was a little black mite named Pomona Baby Rose, exceptionally small, with fine bone, short back and good color; with a little more coat she can do a lot of winning. There were several very promising youngsters in this section that I should like to have commented upon, but at the time of writing I cannot remember their names.

NORMAN K. SWIRE.

NOTES FROM THE COAST.

By "Kirkhope."

F. J. McGauvran, the honorary secretary of the Terminal City Kennel Club, wears "the smile that won't come off" these days. Patricia Obo, his well-known winning Cocker, gave birth to five beautiful puppies last week. The sire of the litter is Moore's Cavalier, brother to Moore's Moonshine. Cavalier is out of Moore's Rosaline, by Billy Obo, and is the sire of Moore's Master Key, the winner of the best of the breed at Montreal. We should see some future winners from this litter.

N. McConnell, of Airedale fame, has just returned from a successful trip to the Golden Gate Kennel Club Show at San Francisco. His Airedales, as usual, gave a good account of themselves and must have pleased some of the fanciers in California, for Norman disposed of two of them for almost a record price.

Vimy Ridge, the wire-haired Fox Terrier, owned by Y. P. Milner, of Kerrisdale, B.C., is busy these days with brood matrons. He has been bred to no less than seven in the last seven weeks. Vimy gave a good account of himself at the recent show in Vancouver, getting winners dogs and winning the challenge cup for best of the breed. The first, second and third puppy bitches in a class of eight were sired by Vimy, as were also the best novice bitch, second limit bitch and second open bitch. He is also the sire of Humberstone Cheer-up, the sensational wire owned by Mr. Acherman, of San Francisco.

A recent addition to the fancy in the West is Mr. and Mrs. Blackwell, late of Toronto. They have at the present time a nice kennel of Poms, but if Dame Rumor is to be believed, we shall see them interested in one of the larger breeds before long. Mr. Blackwell has just built some new up to date kennels and is well equipped to look after his canine pals. The outstanding dog in his kennels at the present is the well-known Pom., Ch. Charm of Beauty. He also received from the East last week a beautiful orange stud dog and a nice little black bitch.

We are sorry to hear of the death of a good wire-haired Fox Terrier puppy owned by Mrs. McConnell, proprietrix of the Madrona Kennels of Victoria. This puppy promised to surpass in excellence Madrona Record, a wire too well known to need comment. He met his death through falling over the cliffs.

N. McConnell, of North Vancouver, has bred more good Airedales than any fancier we have heard of in Canada, and bids fair to keep up his reputation, if the litter he is keeping at home keeps on the way it is going. These puppies are out of Polly Purvis (Ch. Bilmer Bingo, ex Killarney Pandora), by Vencedor of Anoakia (Whitebirk Tyrant, ex Stockfield Nina). If there is any better breeding than this we would like to hear of it. Mac absolutely refuses to part with one of them, although some tempting offers have been thrown at him. Here's hoping he will have more than one champion in the litter.

We expect to see another wire-haired Fox Terrier in the kennels of Mrs. Thornton Sharp next week. This is Watteau War Cry, litter brother of Watteau Warrior, the dog that is siring so many winners in England. This dog comes from Mr. Reay, of the Briergate Kennels, and should make competition still keener in one of the most popular breeds we have in B. C.

Another good one gone "west." Mr. Y. P. Milner, of the Point Grey Kennels, Kerrisdale, reports the death of his wire bitch, Lyncote Hindu. She was showing heavy in whelp to Vimy Ridge, and as this was the mating that produced the famous Humberstone Cheer-up, her litter was being looked forward to eagerly in the hope of another "Cheer-up."

J. J. Jackson, of Edmonds, B.C., reports business quite brisk. He recently sold four English Bull puppies by his dog Failsworth White Count. He also sold a nice Boston Terrier puppy by Ch. Chums Model, and a lovely wolf sable Pomeranian puppy bitch. Failsworth White Count has been in great demand at stud, having been recently mated to seven bitches. F. W. Count is the sire of Croppers Hill Duke, who has done so much winning in England, also Failsworth Dark Duke, who recently won special for best of the breed at the Bulldog Specialty Show held in Montreal. He is also sire of that sensational winning bitch, Burnaby White Countess, who went from puppy to winners and won seven special at seven and a half months of age, under Judge Geo. Ward, of Toronto, at the May show held in Vancouver.

We are glad to welcome a new Airedale stud dog to the coast. This is Connaught Gassoon, owned by the Connaught Kennels, of San Francisco. We understand that this dog will make a lengthy stay in B. C. Since coming here he has been bred to several bitches, some of these showing in whelp to him being Ch. Killarney Tittle Tatle, Killarney Pandora, and Miss Nancy. "Gassoon" got winners dogs at the recent show, as well as winning trophy for best of the breed. He should do the breed a world of good in B. C. He stands at stud with N. McConnell, of North Vancouver.

Several litters of Scotties are expected in the near future at the Kirkhope Kennels of New Westminster. The bitches showing in whelp to Inverlay Dirk are Betty Smith and Dalhieth Contralto. "Dirk" has also been bred to Kirkhope Katy, a home-bred bitch.

No show in the West is complete without Mrs. Dellville Elsted, and her daughter, with their string of Pomeranians. At the last show their little dog, Strathroyal Tommy Atkins, won first open, first members special, best male Pom., special best members dog and winners. Strathroyal Radah won first members, second open and reserve winners. Strathroyal Venus won first limit and first members, while Strathroyal Blighty won best novice. Mrs. Elsted is now interested in Gordon Setters, and we hope that her new venture will be successful.

Mrs. Harry Moore, who has spent several months with relatives in Kingston, Ont., but whose home is at the coast, seems to have everything in her own hands when it comes to Cocker Spaniels. It seems to be just a matter of continued winning at all the show she cares to grace with her presence and patronage. That she will take several championships back with her in the fall seems to be quite in order, and we hope it will be a recompense for all her trouble. Mr. Moore expects to be in Toronto for the Exhibition.

C. L. McQuillan reports the sale of a good eight months' puppy, weighing about eight lbs., to Major Taylor, of Vancouver, of the Imperial Munitions Board. The youngster was by Captain Spider, ex a Jerry Raffles bitch. The price was said to have been in keeping with the high quality of the dog.

SHORT BARKS FROM OTTAWA.

Fanciers, have you sent in your name for the Ottawa Dog Show prize list? Look up advertisement in this issue and keep these dates open, Sept. 9-12, and make up your mind to pay Ottawa a visit at this time, as you will be well treated and be in good company, and it is going to be a three-point show or better. If you cannot come yourself, be sure and have your dogs entered for this leading show, where a win will count. You can rest assured of them receiving the best of care.

Just cast your weather eye over the specials in the Ottawa Dog Show prize list; the best ever, and they compare with any on the continent. Besides, the regular list is second to none. Also special inducements are offered to handlers of various sizes of strings, so no excuse to stay away from this show. Settle it now. Book your entries early for Ottawa.

The Dog Show Building at Ottawa is being renovated in preparation for the fall show. The show ring is being floored, as is the exercising grounds, and the latter is also being covered. Several other improvements are being done which will add to the general appearance and efficiency of the building.

J. A. Ferguson has sold two Bostons, the good young stud dog, "Cliffside Gent," which was of "Dallen Sensation" breeding, and a good brood bitch, "Cliffside Ring Girlie," she by Ch. Peters Captain, ex a Ringmaster bitch, to Alf Seroweroff, of East Newark, N.J. A fair size cheque was the medium. The above is on the lookout for another good dog.

Sgt.-Maj. J. A. Eggins has bred that good bitch, "Rejected Kitty," which he recently imported from England, to Int. Ch. Polam Maxim, and is expecting some top-notchers from this mating.

J. Kiley, Vancouver, reports that his good English Bull Terrier bitch, Gaiety Girl, whelped a litter of eight on June 15th, sired by W. Cook's Whitecote King Spot. All good specimens, with two outstanding in excellence.

SHORT BARKS

Albert Kerr, while on a recent visit to Toronto, had the pleasure of visiting several of the Airedale breeders and look-over their kennel occupants. A visit was made to the Broomhill Kennels, where Matt Gracey kindly showed his recent importation, that good stud dog "Tintern Top Hole." Although recently plucked close, showed all the quality of this noted line. Milton Bombardment was also in A1 condition, and that famous brood and winner, Broomhill Betty, although in full coat, showed her outstanding qualities that have placed her many times to the front. There was one other bitch that was also a good one, but whose name has slipped my memory. A trip was made to W. E. Billinger, of the "Morning" prefix, but unfortunately Mr. Billinger happened to be out, but I was shown that good old reliable stud, "Morning Admiration," who looked as fit as ever and full of pep, and sure is a great dog, and having recently bred a young bitch of his line to him, was anxious to see him again. There were also the two good brood bitches, "Fascination" and "Dawn," I think, and a number of promising puppies, but one female pup of outstanding quality caught my eye and ought to make a real flyer.

One of the best and busiest stud dogs on the Pacific coast is Moore's Cavalier, that grand Cocker owned by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Moore, of Vancouver. This is evident by the number and quality of litters sired by this dog, and we hear that several more are expected in the near future. Readers of K. & B. would notice how the kennel mates of Cavalier have been winning their classes in the East. Moore's kennels have been supplying the winning Cockers at all the leading shows from the Atlantic to the Pacific. Mrs. Moore is still in the East with a string, and a rousing welcome is being prepared for her when she returns from her victorious journeys.

Mr. George H. Galvin, owner of Kia-Ora Boston Terrier Kennels, made a clean sweep in Bostons at the Terminal City Kennel Club Show, May 23 and 24, at Vancouver, B.C. These kennels accounted for the following:—Dogs—Lynmere Flashy Boy, 1st limit dogs, 1st members, winners dogs, best dog under 17 pounds, best local dog any weight, best of the breed in show. Bitches—Henderson's Miss Chicago, 1st in limit, open, members and winners bitches, best under 17 pounds, best local bitch any weight, best opposite sex in show. Flashy and Miss Chicago made a brace that would be hard to stop anywhere.

Dan Thody, the Detroit dog specialist, has just purchased a good Boston—at a big price—from R. Henderson, Toronto. Wheatland Dazzle is the dog in question. When Dan buys, the goods must be right.

Mrs. E. Brownlie, of Toronto, has mated her good female, Brookside Sunbeam, to Mr. Fred. Simmons' imp. Lilyhill Sable Spark, and is looking forward to some winning Pomeranians from this mating.

Mr. Fred. Simmons, of London, reports the arrival of a very promising litter of Poms, two males and a female, by Mrs. Wylie's good dog, Carndhu Sunray.

The Riverdale Kennels, Ottawa, report the arrival of six nice Boston puppies, sired by their stud dog, Slatery's Flip, ex their brood matron, Lady Toss. Also five solid black Pomeranian pups out of their winning matron, Dimples.

Mr. Bell, of London, has mated his good female Pomeranian to Mr. Fred. Simmons' imp. Lilyhill Sable Spark, and is anxiously looking forward to a flier for some of the future shows.

A. C. Danby, of Prince Albert, Sask., has bred his Miss Romulus to Int. Ch. Polam Maxim. This quality female, it will be remembered, won four 1sts and was only beaten for winners by Parkton Sweet Olive at Montreal.

E. C. Howard, Montreal, has recently purchased the parti-colored Cocker Spaniel, Ch. Drumclaph Baronet, 17118, a white and red that has done a lot of consistent winning for his many owners, Mr. Howard being the seventh, and he is so well pleased with the Baronet that a department for Cockers may be arranged for. Irish Setters and Cocker Spaniels should make an ideal kennel combination. There is an insistent demand for the former, and this fancier reports a good demand on the services of his dogs, Ch. Tyrone Terry and Tyrone Larry. He also intends benching some "real Irish" at all the fall shows.

Mark Stover, Sombra, Ont., has bred his best Airedale bitch to Morning Commander, and expects the result will be instrumental in getting him started in the game afresh. Mark has a Silver Birch Banker youngster that he has great faith in.

Mr. F. J. McGauvran, Vancouver, B.C., reports a fine litter of black Cocker Spaniel puppies, two dogs and three bitches, from that wonderful bitch, Patricia Obo, C.K.C. 21347, who needs no introduction in the West, as she stands undefeated, and went second best in the largest parlor show last winter, all breeds competing. She was bred to that grand sire, Moore's Cavalier—who is a litter brother to Moore's Moonshine and sire of Moore's Master Key—these dogs winning great fame in the East recently.

What proved to be a great attraction during the Montreal Show was the demonstration of the work of the police dogs, which was closely watched and heartily applauded. This interesting event again proved to the uninitiated what is meant by the old saying, "Man's best Friend."

Another item of intense interest was the awarding of the prize in the puppy sweepstake, seventeen aspirants facing the starter. The prize finally went to the Wire-haired Fox Terrier owned by J. Robertson and bred by "Charlie" Powlesland, of Montreal. It is quite a classy youngster, who looks promising enough to justify careful watching.

The Ladies' Kennel Club of Montreal will hold their second all breed show in September, and intend making this most interesting to all their exhibiting patrons.

STILL ANOTHER KENNEL CLUB GOES ON THE REGISTER.

Trois Rivières Kennel Club, Reg., is the latest club to come into existence, and to show that they are a wide-awake concern have already registered their club name and claimed August 20 and 21, 1919, as the dates for their first annual dog show. Dr. J. H. Villeneuve has been retained as their expert adviser, and no doubt he will show them how, and pilot their first attempt to entire success.

An important announcement, which arrived too late for insertion in our June issue, is that the stud fee of Mr. Norman Mackenzie's Airedale has been reduced. At $35.00 for Int. Ch. Polam Maxim the lot of the Airedale breeder is made easier from a financial viewpoint. And we predict a run on this Airedale celebrity quite in keeping with his great worth and unprecedented lineage.

Claycliff Tenacity's callers included Lakeview Radiance and Claycliff Bessie.

JUDGES LIST.

Judges Who Will Don the Ermine at the Canadian National Exhibition Dog Show, Sept. 1-2-3-4, 1919.

The judges list has been prepared and given to Kennel and Bench for the information of the fancy, and it is gratifying to notice that only the best men obtainable have been retained. With a view to ensuring comfort and complete satisfaction in judging, five have been selected, and the task balanced.

Several new features will be placed at the disposal of exhibitors, amongst them may be cited, the puppy, variety class for dogs and bitches of any breed; the stud dog, open to all breeds; for the best stud dog shown, with two of his get, which must be entered in their breed class, but not necessarily be the property of the owner of the stud dog. The brood bitch class, conditions similar to above.

The Canadian National Exhibition have donated a trophy for the best Canadian-bred dog or bitch. The competition for the special will no doubt prove itself one of the tid bits of the big show.

Sealyham Terriers and Chow Chows have been granted a classification in keeping with their ever-growing popularity.

It will not be surprising if it is found that 1919 goes down in history as the greatest Dog Show ever held in Canada. The following is an official list of judges and the breeds allocated to their care:—

As we go to press we learn that Sam Bamford has an Airedale bitch just arrived from "Merrie England" which is said to be able to eclipse anything yet imported to date. The female is "Parkton Arletta," by Ridgerton Rockett, ex a Ch. Rebound Oorang bitch. James W. Bain, K.C., Toronto, is the new owners and under whose colors she will run the show circuits.

A wire Fox Terrier, bred similarly to the great Ch. Wycollar Boy, has also landed here for Mr. Bamford. It is said that Mr. Bain may also acquire this good dog. As an importer, you must hand it to Sam.

Claycliff Colonel, by Silver Birch Sensation, ex Claycliff Bessie, has had the following visitors, Claycliff Pride and Claycliff Admire.

Our Veterinary Department.

Questions relating to the treatment of ailing dogs MUST be addressed to the Editor of "Kennel and Bench," and must reach us no later than the 20th of each month, if answer is to appear in next issue. Advice to breeders in this column is free of charge.

ADVICE BY MAIL—Where an urgent reply is requested a fee of $1.50 must be enclosed with letter to the Editor.

Post Mortem Examinations—

Carcases for examination MUST be sent prepaid to Dr. J. A. Campbell, 8 Edward St., Toronto. A fee of $2.00 MUST accompany the carcase in all cases, or else it will be destroyed without examination.

Questions must be brief. In every case breed, sex, age and conditions observed should be given; proper name and address must be given (not for publication), also nom de plume over which he wishes questions answered.

Lover of Dogs:

Answer—Your "Pom." evidently had a fit—due to the excessive heat and excitement. Applying cold water to the head will often relieve an attack.

Strathearn:

Q.—One of my collies, a dog just over four years, breaks out in sores on the top of the back. He has a very heavy coat and does a great deal of scratching. Last summer he was the same.

Answer.—Feed lightly; avoid meat. Brush coat every day, as he may have a lot of dead hair. Give half a teaspoon of Epsom salts in a wine glass of warm water in the morning for a week and dust boracic acid on the sore places. See that his kennel is kept cool.

Kitsalano:

Q.—I have an English Setter puppy five and a half months old which about four weeks ago injured its left hind leg. I do not know how it happened. It was in great pain and unable to use the leg. I came to the conclusion that the trouble was a bad sprain of the hip and have been rubbing it with a liniment. The leg is not so painful now, but it has wasted and he is afraid to put any weight on it. Is there any treatment, and will he be always lame.

Answer.—The injury was more serious than a sprain—it must have been a fracture or a dislocation. If it was the former, there is a good chance of the pup recovering the full use of the leg in the course of time—but a dislocation will have a certain amount of deformity and more or less lameness. No treatment is needed other than keeping the pup in good condition and allowing moderate exercise. If the lameness does not disappear in two or three months from the time the injury occurred, your pup will always have a limp.

Huntsman, Winnipeg:

Q.—My hound dog, five years old, is troubled with sore feet, the pads are constantly cracking and the feet are very tender, and causes the dog to walk lame.

A.—Rub well into the pads night and morning some borate of glycerine. The loose horn should be removed with seissors. Give the dog cooling medicine, from three to twenty grains of sulphate of magnesia, also from two to ten grains of bicarbonate of potash twice a day with the food. Exercise the dog for a time on grass.

G. D., Vancouver:

Q.—I have a Cocker Spaniel female whose skin and hair is getting very dry, and a lot of dandruff or scales seems to be mixed with the hair. Can you suggest anything to remedy this condition.

A.—As a rule a thorough wash once a week, using tar soap and putting a little borax in the rinsing water, with daily brushing of the coat, will effect a cure in mild cases; but in bad cases greasing the dog all over with some such preparation as the following is necessary:

Oil of Tar ..... 1 drachm.
Almond Oil ..... ½ pint.

Mix.

To be thoroughly worked into the skin twice a week, and after a few days washed off, using the soap mentioned. A course of arsenic is useful. Give from one to eight drops in water twice a day for two or three weeks, but it must be discontinued if it causes sickness or diarrhoea.

SHORT BARKS.

A. O. Underbakke, Hanley, Sask., has bred his Airedale bitch, "Viking Blossom," to R. J. Hinds' Imp. Vickery Vesuvius, and by the time this appears in print he will likely be picking out the "show prospects." Same owner's prize-winning bitch, "Preparedness" (dam of "Ch. Beau Bel Scrapper," will shortly be sent on a visit to Lt.-Col. Pellat's "Morning Commander," and calculations are expecting something exceptional to materialize from this mating. Mr. Underbakke is importing a bitch from Lower California. She comes from real hunting stock of the large type, some of her progenitors weighing from 70 to 100 lbs., and of the Elange Monarch strain. Business is good, having more orders than can be filled.

Albert Kerr, Ottawa, says:

Taking advantage of being in Toronto, a call was made on that genial Scotchman, the secretary of the C.K.C., Jas. D. Strachan, who was good enough to get me in touch with the President, Mr. Jos. Russell, M.P.P., and of course, I went down to the Claycliff Kennels at Birchcliff, and believe me, a whole dog show in itself could be staged right there, for I have never seen such a large number of Airedales together before, and quality stamped throughout, not to mention the Fox Terriers, wire and smooth. Mr. Russell was on the job himself, and although the day was extremely hot, was good enough to show me the whole works, including his recent winners and such good ones as Ch. Swell Lady, Lady Bird, Shamrock, Tenacity Sensation, Duke, and a host of others that memory fails to recall them by name, but suffice it to say that there were Airedales of all degrees of development, and amongst them embryo champions and several bitch puppies of exceptional merit that I would have liked to own, but my purse was too small. Being also a poultry fancier, Mr. Russell's Rhode Island Reds were of great interest, and in these, as in the dogs, were the choicest of specimens, as their show record gives them a place at the top of the ladder, having many of the best wins at the leading shows. Mr. Russell is situated in a most ideal spot to make history in these, his hobbies.

WINNING COLLIE COMES TO CANADA.

"Bradnor Chief," a winning son of the great Ch. Magnet, ex Bradnor Lillie. Collieites are so thoroughly conversant with the excellencies of this wonderful sire that comment is considered superfluous, while the dam Bradnor Lillie is by Preston Picador, he by the redoubtable Int Ch. Parbold Picador.

"Bradnor Chief," having set out to make history, has been handicapped by the ban on British Dog Shows during the war period. The January issue of our English contemporary, "Our Dogs," reporting Rutherglen (Scotland) Show, Dec. 12, 1918, gives "Bradnor Chief" First and Special with following criticism:—A good, big, upstanding golden sable and white, long clean head, small neat ears, profuse coat; good front and sound mover."

This dog coming amongst us can be of great service to the Collie fancy, if our breeders will only do some hard studying, after that some quick shipping. We wish W. R. Wardle, Winnipeg, the best of luck in this, his latest importation.

SOME SMALL SWIVILLERS.

Airedale fanciers, whether or not they have ever seen Champion Soudan Swiviller and Kenwyn Virginia in the show ring, will be interested to know that Fred. C. Havens, owner of the Kenwyn Kennels of New Brunswick, New Jersey, has a litter of puppies from this pair. As Mr. Havens puts it, "There are three little Swivillers and five tiny Virginias."

According to Mr. Havens, who took Virginia to Mr. Bray's kennel in Westfield, N.J., at the time these two topers were mated: "Swiviller is some dog yet. It was worth the train ride," he says, "to have another look at old 'Tiger's' (Swiviller's kennel name) small terrier eyes, so beautifully placed in his long lean head, which has not gone the least bit thick with age. 'Tiger' still acts like a pup when playing about the yard, and is ready at any time for a 'go' with any of his kennel mates that show the least signs of being quarrelsome."

Beside the fact that Messrs. Havens and Bray have mated two good show specimens in the hopes of producing a winner, this particular combination grand-daughter of Swiviller, she being by Atherstone Aristocrat, one of his sons. Aristocrat's dam was the famous Kenmare Sorceress, Mr. Walcott's favorite, who had the distinction of being placed best of all breeds at Madison Square Garden several years ago.

Albert Kerr made a flying visit to Donald McKellar, at Oakville, Ont., and as he was interested in W. West Highlands, one of which came from the Argyle Kennels, was anxious to get in personal acquaintance with this leading light of the Scotties and W. W. H.'s. Here located, as you all know, were some real Scotties, including Ro many Bishop, Argyle Polly with a litter of five puppies; two other bitches of Argyle fame whose names I fail to recall. Argyle Commander looked fit and a comer. The three puppies from the bitch imported in whelp looked the makings of great dogs, and Mr. McKellar was full of optimism as regards their future. Two White West Highlands also possessed the quality that these kennels are noted for. I would have liked to visit other kennels of note in Toronto, but time would not permit, so the future holds some anticipations.

The good puppy winner, Claycliff Clinker, has been honored by visits from Ch. Claycliff Swell Lady, Rhosddu Victory and Lady Bird. Great results are looked for from these matings.

Mrs. A. P. Semple, partner in the Cactus Kennels, registered, is at present in Toronto, and we believe that her husband, Mr. A. P. Semple, will join her here at the Exhibition in September. Our Toronto readers will see to it that Mrs. Semple is made welcome in this city.

The imported Pekingese female, Cactus Breakwater Goo, has just presented her owners with a litter of six lovely puppies, four males and two females, sired by the marvelous coated Cactus Chips of Chinatown, also imported. This is the second litter of six sired by this dog, which is considered extraordinary for Pekes.

Mr. G. Getty, Quarrybrae Collie Kennels, Toronto, has sent his good bitch, Champion Quarrybrae Colleen, on a visit to Eastwood Energy, and hopes to have something good from this mating.

OUR FRONT PAGE ILLUSTRATION.

The subject of our front page illustration this month needs little or no introduction to our readers, as his successful career in the show ring, coupled with his wonderful abilities as a sire, have placed him on the topmost pinnacle of canine fame.

His successful winnings at our leading shows and the many excellent press reports about him are ample proof of his sterling qualities.

A glance at his photo will show our readers that exquisite type, markings and smartness that are desired in the make-up of a perfect Boston Terrier.

We have had the pleasure of seeing several of his progeny, and have no hesitation in predicting that the near future will see them cutting a wide swath in the prize lists at our shows.

We feel that a review of this well known dog would be incomplete without some reference to his kennel mate, Paddy Dee, whose stud ad appears for the first time in our business columns this month.

Paddy, like his illustrious kennel mate, is destined to make history, both as a show and stud dog, for in his short show career he has done some good winning, and will do more.

A glance at his pedigree will show that he is bred in the purple, which accounts for his wonderful type and conformation.

He has proved himself a producer of no mean order, and ere long we shall see his stock carrying off the blue ribbons.

We congratulate Mr. Jackson on owning such a wonderful brace of dogs.

Vancouver Exhibition Association, Vancouver, Sept. 11, 12, 13. H. L. Rolston, Secretary and Manager.

We refer our readers to the advertisement of the Canadian National Institute for the Blind, and trust that anyone having knowledge of any circumstance where the afflicted could be helped in any way through the ramifications of this laudable organization, that they will not hesitate writing the General Secretary, giving full details of the cases and where located.

"HASTY HOMAGE"

PROPERTY OF WM. R. AITKEN, 617 UNION AVENUE.

He is grandly bred, a Terrier every inch, for expression, head, neck, cobby body, with best of legs, feet, and coat of extreme wire texture, hard to beat. His breeding lines are of the best, being:

Homage	{	Ch. Collarbone of Notts	Ch. Collar of Notts.
		Haste . . . . .	Crystal of Notts.
Haste	{	Catchem of Notts . . . . .	Catchem of Notts.
		Premier . . . . .	Premier
		Morden Blusterer	Juanita
		Powder Plot	Appelby Jane

"Hasty Homage—This new and brilliant star of the Fox Terrier firmament is proof of the virtue of inbreeding (albeit judiciously applied), as he is by 'Homage,' out of 'Haste,' (who is the dam of Homage), hence very aptly named. Eight firsts at the dog's first essay on the Show Bench is a big beginning. That he may keep it up is the deliberate and unhasty homage we have pleasure in paying the dog."—Editor, Our Dogs, 8th Sept., 1916.

The first litter of puppies sired by him in Canada included the bitch, "Hasty Lady," the sensation of Montreal, May 1918, Show, going through all her classes to winners, capturing nine first prizes and four specials. Property of Alf. Lepine

AT STUD—"CHAMPION" DUSKY BOUNCE, whelped Sept., 1914; weight 17 lbs. As a sire that "gets" them from most any kind of bitch, "Bounce" stands out. Show, N.Y.; W.K.C. Show, N.Y., and Fox Terrier Spec. Show, Hamilton, Mass. Other good winners by "Bounce" are "Warrior Delma," big winner Montreal and Longueuil (sold to G. S. Thomas, also litter sister); "Wire Betty," last outing in Canada won best bitch in show, all breeds; also sold to G. S. Thomas.
