OUR FRONT PAGE ILLUSTRATION.

The Imported Tri-color Pomeranian, Sir Wetan Laddie (Chum), Owned by R. A. Patrick, Yorkton, Sask. Late Sergeant in the Canadian Army Medical Corps.

The subject of our front page illustration for this month may prove to be a little stranger to most of our many readers. Still he is bred of championship stock, and if his color does not handicap him too severely may attain championship honors himself some day before long.

"Chum" is a tiny mite, not nearly as big as his picture would indicate, being 14 months old and weighing a trifle less than four pounds. Sired by the well-known Ch. Abbotsleigh Brilliant Flame, and out of the rare Pomeranian bitch, Princess Doherty. So the subject of our review may well claim the distinction of being "bred in the purple."

Sir Wetan Laddie came over the great Atlantic, full of life and fun, and never once lost a moment's sleep thinking of submarines or the other dangers of the deep. Snug in his comfy bed (the pocket of his master's army greatcoat), he arrived at Halifax in June, 1919, and at once decided that the Canada his owner had fought for would be good enough for him to live in. And so now we are advised that both man and dog in this case are, in every sense of the word, "chums."

Mr. Patrick, while in England, was always on the lookout for a good Pom. to bring to Canada, and he decided that the little Tri-color filled the bill perfectly. The dog is at stud, and the owner will cheerfully correspond with anyone interested in "Chum." We wish the both of them the very best of luck.

COMING EVENTS CAST THEIR SHADOWS BEFORE.

Three Rivers Kennel Club Show cannot be anything only a success. Dr. J. H. Villeneuve is the engineer in charge, with plenty of steam in reserve to overcome any or all obstacles. We learn that the Committee behind the Doctor has pooled five hundred dollars to be won outright at this show. If the old saying, "Money makes the mare to go," still holds good, then there should be a regular gallop here. Premium lists from Dr. J. H. Villeneuve, 264 Craig St. E., Montreal, or J. Robert Tourville, San Springs Hotel, Trois Rivieres, P.Q.

Canadian National Exhibition Dog Show.

Canadian National Exhibition Dog Show Superintendent Fred W. Jacobi has the "Crufts of Canada" stage all set, and is prepared to handle an entry up to 1000 dogs. Always having the best interests of the exhibitors at heart, Mr. Jacobi has set a classification up that will appeal to everyone. For the popular breeds everything is offered that could be desired, while the weaker breeds are carefully considered in a way calculated to coax them along.

Premium lists from the Canadian National Exhibition Office, 34 King St. E., Toronto.

Cornwall Kennel Club Show gets in between the "Big Show" and London and Ottawa, and will surely attract a good entry for themselves. Bob Ross is the Judge-elect. Premium lists from W. F. Corbett, Cornwall, Ont.

Vancouver Exhibition Association will hold forth their Show for the benefit of the fancy, particularly the Western Provinces and on to the Coast. H. S. Rolston promises a real show that will be well worth while. Premium lists from H. S. Rolston, Manager Vancouver Exhibition Association, 214 Loo Building, Vancouver, B.C.

The Western Fair Association, London, Ont., promise that their Dog Show this year will eclipse anything yet attempted in the Forest City. Secretary A. M. Hunt is determined that London Show will be just as good as the best, and will leave no stone unturned to accomplish this happy end. Premium lists from A. M. Hunt, London, Ont.

Central Canada Exhibition Association Show is being advertised in all the dog journals on the continent, and if "it pays to advertise," then Ottawa has some pay coming to her. Many improvements are promised, as we have already advised. Comfort and recompense for their many patrons is the keynote of the success of this fixture. Premium lists from Jas. K. Paisley, City Hall, Ottawa, Ont.

St. John, New Brunswick, Kennel Club always bank on an entry from Toronto, and are seldom disappointed. W. C. Mackay, the energetic Secretary for this year, is quite optimistic in speaking of the approaching Show, and has everything in shape already. For your premium list get him at the following address: Box 910, or Care of Opera House, St. John, N.B.

Nanaimo Kennel Club are busy getting in shape for their Annual Show, and have some good dogs ready to bench and meet all comers. It will be recalled that the best dog at the late Terminal City Kennel Club Show was an English Setter from Nanaimo. Premium lists from H. Hickling, Box 760, Nanaimo, B.C.

Ladies Kennel Club of Canada are going to make a bid for greater support at their coming Show, and say that if specials attract an entry, then they are in the running to stay. Those who attended the last fixture of this Club want to go back again this year. Premium lists from Vera H. Robson, 626 Sherbrooke St. W., Montreal.

Telephone City Kennel Club, Brantford, is working hard in order to make their Show a huge success, and judging from what we know of the officials of this Club, there will be a real Show held at Brantford this Fall. Premium lists from N. H. Duckworth, 113 Sydenham St., Brantford, Ont.

Provincial Exhibition Dog Show. This Show, to be held at New Westminster Oct. 1, 2, 3, is in the capable hands of John Thompson, who has always been a hustler, and has a liking for anything that looks like work. We consider the Exhibition Board fortunate in securing his services. For premium lists apply to John Thompson, 108 7th Ave., New Westminster, B.C.

Fort Garry Kennel Club.—It has been said that "there is nothing new under the sun," but there is. Fort Garry Kennel Club, the Winnipeg organization, recently started, is really something new; and better than that, they are out to prove it. Watch out for their smoke. October 8, 9, 10 are the dates claimed, and this healthy Club, having all Winnipeg on its membership roll and all Canada to draw from, will surely put on a great Show this Fall. Send for premium lists to Alex MacKidd, 28 Smithfield Ave., Winnipeg, Man.

Lt.-Col. J. L. McAvity has sold Wm J. Hanlon a St. Bernard of good quality. This specimen of the saintly breed is said to be of great size and absolutely sound, heavily boned, with a grand head. Mr. Hanlon expects to do well with him on the show bench.

ENGLISH KENNEL CLUB DOG SHOW AT OLYMPIA

Has Been Abandoned.

The English Kennel Gazette just received makes the announcement in its editorial columns that their intended Show, fixed to take place next December, has been abandoned. The following will explain why.

It is with very great regret that the Committee of the Kennel Club have to announce the abandonment of the Kennel Club Show, fixed to take place at Olympia in December next. The management of Olympia have applications for the use of the building on the date fixed for the Club's Show, and consequently, quite justly, in view of the Muzzling Orders of the Board of Agriculture, which are not calculated to speedily stamp out rabies, require the Kennel Club to decide whether the show will take place or not. In consequence of the uncertainty that exists as to the probability of the Muzzling Order being rescinded in time to allow for the completion of the arrangements and to hold the Show, the Committee have been placed in a grave dilemma, and, after very serious consideration have most regretfully decided that they have no alternative course open to them but to abandon the Show for the present year.

NOTES FROM THE WEST.

By Kirkhope.

New Westminster will again break into the dog game, after a lapse of many years. The provincial exhibition that was held here annually until the beginning of the war, will again be held this fall, and if the enthusiasm of the directors counts for anything, their slogan, "The Best in the West," will mean something. The directors have appointed a committee of real fanciers to look after the dog end of it. Oct. 1st, 2nd and 3rd are the dates claimed from the C.K.C. W. M. Coats, a judge of international reputation, will be judge of all breeds. Mr. John Thomson is show secretary, and will be pleased to mail premium lists to intending exhibitors. Let's hope that the dog show, as well as the exhibition, will be the "Best in the West."

Dr. Sleeth, the owner of the "Futurity Bulldog Kennels," of Vancouver, has opened up a splendid range of new and up-to-date boarding kennels at Royal Oak, one of the beauty spots of the lower mainland. Royal Oak is situated halfway between Vancouver and New Westminster, and is an ideal spot for the housing of dogs. At these kennels the Doctor keeps the famous Futurity Bulldogs, and has altogether about seventy dogs under one roof. The kennels, which are being enlarged, are under the supervision of Mrs. G. O. Alsen.

The Fort Garry Kennel Club, Alex. MacKidd, Secretary, 28 Smithfield Ave., Winnipeg, Man., show, October 8-10, 1919.

J. Ackerson, of Blackfaulds (which adjoins Lacombe), is importing a very good pair of high-class Irish Wolfhounds from England for show and breeding purposes.

The above two gentlemen were visitors at Calgary Dog Show, and declare it was the star attraction of the Fair.

The fancy was pleased to welcome back to the coast the well-known fancier and prop. of the "Lamanda Park Kennels." Mr. H. M. Robertson, who has just returned from overseas, and while in England purchased no less than eight dogs. We expect to hear more of them at the coming shows, and while in Vancouver Mr. Robertson purchased the winning wire, "Vimy Ridge" from Mr. T. P. Milner.

Glenn White, of Lacombe, Alta., has cabled to England, for the best Russian wolfhound dog that may be available, it being Mr. White's intention to import something capable to win any where, and in any company.

Mrs. F. V. Kennedy, Calgary, reports that she has just bred her two females, "Celamo Mignonette" and "Kenarden Red Peggy" to her King Charles, "Celamo Foxy Lad." She has also mated a young Prince Charles, "Kenarden Lady Bobbina," daughter of "Celamo Bobolink," to her Blenheim, "Kenarden Chief." Chief was sired by "Ch. Celamo Daydream," so Mrs. Kennedy is looking forward to some good puppies.

The Kenarden exhibit was one of the most attractive at Calgary show; the white kennel with blue trimmings, curtains and pillows, showing off the dainty pets to the best advantage.

Mrs. Barclay has purchased "Kenarden Merlin," a magnificent young King Charles sired by "Celamo Foxy Lad," as a mate for her "Kenarden Vixen." The amount paid was well up in three figures, but Merlin is an exceptionally fine specimen, and Mrs. Barclay was not the only breeder who desired to own him.

SHORT BARKS.

Broomhill Kennels report a good demand for the services of their new stud dog, "Tintern Top Hope." During the past two months he has given attention to bitches owned by Messrs. H. Wallar, C. E. Loveless, Wm. Graham and Wm. Horsley, of Toronto; C. Smith, Brantford; Geo. Goodwin, Lindsay; F. J. Blake, Almonte, Ont.; H. Sullivan, South Porcupine; Harry Lauder, London.

Mr. R. Johnson, Toronto, reports a litter of six dogs and four bitches sired by "Top Hole," out of his winning bitch, "Broomhill Lady Warlock."

Mr. C. Faux is also the owner of a litter of ten pups sired by "Milton Bombardment."

H. Shaw, Toronto, is rejoicing over a litter of Bostons by his new dog,

"Count Dee Cee," and out of his good bitch "Dolly Day Dream." In this litter there are three males and one female, all beautiful dark brindles and perfectly marked.

"Colne Miss Texan" (by Ch. Rockley Oorang, ex a Ch. Caerphilly bitch), is showing in whelp to Milton Bombardment.

Mr. Howard has bred his winning Irish Terrier bitch, "Dolly Abou," to "Coast Native Hopspur."

Lt.-Col. Reg. Pellatt, of the Casa Loma Kennels, reports that his good Airedale bitch, "Morning Sunshine," has presented him with a nice litter of three males and four females, by the well-known dog across the line, "Ridge-wood Rockett." All are doing well.

Mr. C. H. K. Baillie, Winona, Ont., reports that his Scottish Terrier bitch, imported from the Bannockburn Kennels, Scotland, and known as Hector's June, has recently presented him with a very fine litter of youngsters by Rothesay Crackerjack, the promising son of Rothesay Shanty.

B. C. Finnie, Toronto, reports the loss by death of the English Bloodhound, "Uno," C. K. C. 19527. This is a severe loss to friend Finnie, and we trust that he will soon be able to secure something good to take the place of "Uno."

Donald Soper, London, Ont., reports the arrival of eleven Collie puppies—7 males and 4 females—from his Leith Lassie by Mr. Robert Weyms' stud dog, Buecleugh Specialist.

J. D. Schafer, of Saugeen Kennels, Hanover, Ont., reports the following: He has recently sold to E. G. Gordon, of Fergus, Ont., the Boston female, Miss Browne; to Mr. M. H. Schmitt, of Kitchener, he has sold Saugeen Belle, and the stud and show dog, Onadago Don. This young dog has had a big big season's stud business at Saugeen Kennels, and has proven himself a real sire. Maxine Belle is nursing a litter of six, and Rena Mack a litter of five by the above dog. All are dark seal brindle, with beautiful markings and good tails, and are doing well. Jack says business is very good.

Notes of Calgary Dog Show.

By Bert Finch.

Bill Pym's young bulldog, Coppul Randy, went best of all breeds in show. Miss Miller's Rellem Wee Wee, this good Boston terrier bitch, never looked better, going to best of opposite sex.

G. Kynoch's Airedale was the next best and had many admirers. Bill Forrest's Scotch terrier was a good contender. But for keeping tail down and lacking fire and vim would have run winner close. F. Richmond's Chesapeake Babe also looked good and showed well. A small, good type black cocker dog being a contender. All these dogs showed splendidly and were well handled.

The dog show was as strong an attraction as any of the animal exhibits, and it went to prove to the Exhibition Board that a dog show is a great asset to the Exhibition, especially when it is known that Alberta alone has 6,000 dog fanciers.

Many surprises occurred during the judging. Miss Fraser's black Pomeranian going to winners. Vickery Vesuvius had many admirers for winners Airedales, and was picked by many. In Bostons, Mrs. Wheeler won with her good dog, Victoria Fosco, going over some recent imported ones. Mr. Glenn White of Lacombe had the great fortune of going to top in Russian wolfhound class for his good bitch Kitscoty, a nice black and white marked specimen. J. Ackerson of Blackfalds showed some good foxhounds and a nice pair of Irish wolfhounds and a good Russian wolfhound. Harry Selby brought a string from Regina and won many of the best prizes. George Kynoch's string sure took the big share of the silver with his nine dogs. Mrs. Lang of High River went to the top with her Russian wolfhound dog. Mrs. D. Samson's setter, King of Alberta, showed well, winning best of his breed. This lady seems to be very popular, and her pretty little daughter, who can handle as well as most of them, are always welcomed and looked for at Calgary's show.

Bill Currie's good wire-haired homebred dog beat the Winnipeg dog for winners. He is a very nice-headed dog and Bill is a very proud fellow.

The crowd all sang praises of the good work of the secretary, W. N. Gibson, and E. Richardson, the manager of the Exhibition Association, with the aid of our ever-untiring E. D. Adams and Fred Johnston, both president and vice-president of the Alberta Kennel Club, had done to make the dog show the one big principal attraction at the fair.

Jack Fletcher had fully 50 dogs to handle, and as usual came out mostly on top. He worked like a Trojan and deserved the highest praise for the wonderful condition that his exhibits were put down in. To my mind Jack has no superior in this country.

These notes are just from memory. Sorry that I cannot give more detailed particulars, as I'd much like to. The judging was all done out in the open by Norman McConnell of Vancouver, who gave great satisfaction, and Bill Pym as secretary has so far had no equal. H. Kennedy, the president; Sandy McLean and Bill Forrest, and especially J. Robson and our good working fireman of No. 3 Hall, L. McLean, who never tires, is always on the spot and never has any excuses to make. He is without a doubt a great acquisition to the club, and words cannot express my gratitude for his and the others' good work.

The Calgary Clubs have received permission through myself and from Senator Loughheed, who is a popular farmer and helper of our kennel clubs, to hold a one-day show in their beautiful, spacious grounds, while the stampede is being held during the last week in August. It's bound to be a great success, for Lady and Senator Loughheed and family are going to do all that they possibly can to secure valuable prizes. It is being held for the benefit of the Soldiers' Home at Calgary and Banff. A dance will be given in the evening in their beautiful large dance hall in the basement of their mansion, and many dogs are expected to compete from the East and Pacific Coast. Jack Miller, City Clerk, I may state, is a great dog fancier, his breed being Bostons.

Bill Morgan's Bostons did a lot of winning.

Airedales, Chesapeakes and Bulldogs and Cockers being all big classes.

Mr. A. Kerr, of Ottawa, has bred his "Brentwood Oakland Lady" to "Mil-ton Bombardment."

A WIN IN THE WEST.

At the recent Calgary Show the Toronto prefix "Silver Birch" was again brought into prominence through the winning of high honors of "Silver Birch Crack," owned by R. J. Hinds of Zealandia, Sask., and handled by the peerless Jack Fletcher. The competition was very keen, such well-known dogs as the imported Pottery Invader and Tintern Boy being entered, and were contenders. N. McConnell, the Airedale ace of the Western coast, was the judge-elect, and it was generally conceded that his placings would be acceptable.

Mr. Clayton, the breeder of Silver Birch Crack, will no doubt be able to enter into the jubilation going on at the Maythorn Kennels over this win.

What may be considered somewhat of a coincidence is the fact that Geo. Kynoch's good young Airedale Silver Illuminator, who did so well at Detroit and Chicago, also won well at this fixture.

LONDON NOTES.

Vincent G. Perry of London, Ont., reports that he recently purchased the very fine young Boston Terrier, Sweet William, from Mrs. W. C. Ingram, Ingomar Kennels, Toronto. Sweet William, still a puppy, is considered the best son of the famous Ch. Ingram's Little Man. At a recent Toronto show he won his puppy class.

Mrs. Ingram had planned to keep Sweet William as a kennel and ring-mate for her Champion Sweet Clover, as they make an ideal pair, but a tempting offer from Mr. Perry resulted in the sale.

"Globe," Some Jane, the best daughter to date of Ch. Sweet Clover, sired by the noted Buffalo dog, Brennan's Mixture, and also bred by Mrs. Ingram, was added to Mr. Perry's kennels last winter. Already she has done some winning in Toronto and London.

A promising show future is looked for from this pair of fine young Bostons. Sweet William will be registered with the "Globe" prefix.

When you finish reading "Kennel and Bench," give it to someone you feel would like it. It will do you both good.

OUR LONDON LETTER.

It is our desire that every reader of "Kennel and Bench" who is interested in English and European dog affairs, will read our London letter this month.

While dog shows and, consequently, dog breeding in England . . . but, before I go on I must make mention of concessions granted to bitches visiting stud dogs in rabies-scheduled areas. When representatives of the Kennel Club of England had an interview with the President of the Board of Agriculture on the muzzling question brought about by the outbreak of rabies, they very strongly pointed out the hardships which the regulations of the above board inflicted upon the breeders of pedigree dogs in requiring that bitches from a non-scheduled area, visiting stud dogs of scheduled areas, should after the stud visit be consigned to a six months' quarantine. The Kennel Club's representatives, following the example of our very influential contemporary, "Our Dogs," pointed out the absurdity of the above quite unnecessary precaution in the case of bitches secured and consigned in dog boxes, both on the outward and return journey which, therefore, precluded all possibility of contact with the outside dogs. The Board of Agriculture has promised to consider this question.

According to "Our Dogs," always well and accurately informed, the above board have now made a concession in the matter, and will issue licenses for such movement of bitches on the following conditions.

1. The arrival of the bitch at the premises of the stud dog is at once notified to the board.

2. The bitch is detained at the premises of the stud dog, and is not there allowed to come into contact with any dog other than the stud dog which serves her, and 3. The owner of the stud dog makes and furnishes to the board a declaration to the above effect.

"Our Dogs" continues: "The concession of the Board of Agriculture, tardy though it is, will, we feel sure, be welcomed as a real one to a sorely tried kennel community. Had it come four months earlier, it would have been all the more valuable. Nothing appears to have been done in the case of bitches in a scheduled area returning from visits to dogs in a non-scheduled area, but possibly the concession cuts both ways."

But to return to the real purpose of this "Letter." While dog shows and, consequently, dog-breeding in England are suffering under the rabies, restrictions order, while our doggy communities and private doggy people are convening meetings to move the Board of Agriculture to the imposition of a general muzzling order, i.e., to the abolition of scheduled and non-scheduled areas, it appears that dog showing goes along merrily in several countries of the Continent of Europe, and last but not least in those which have been very sorely tried by the last great war.

There is no necessity for me to speak about Holland, for even during the war this country held dog shows. I believe that, during the terrible world-conflagration, they were importing good dogs from England, and therefore they must now possess some good material to "go on with." The Dutch are clever business people, and fine connoisseurs of dogs. Their dog shows, which I frequently visited before the war, were always well organized, mostly on the example of the English dog shows, and for the English breeds they usually have English judges, which, of course, is as it ought to be.

Let us begin with Belgium. Everybody knows how terribly that country suffered during the war and during the German occupation. It will, therefore, be easily conceived with what delight our Belgian doggy friends betook themselves to the first great show after the war, which took place at Brussels, on the 8th and 9th of June last. Organized by the Societe Royale St. Hubert, the Kennel Club of Belgium, it was a great success. The only pity is that it had to take place at the Palais du Midi, a very small hall in comparison with the Palais du Cinquantenaire, which was always the venue of great dog shows before the war, in Brussels. There were about 300 dogs, but on account of the smallness of the hall, many more, about 200, entries had to be refused. I think, however, that it was not so much the show itself which was the chief attraction, but especially the possibility of meeting of old friends and doggy acquaintances, after about five years of cruel separation and inactivity. I understand that several more shows and field-trials are announced to take place in Belgium this year, and we, all of us, of course, heartily wish our friends every future success.

In August next France follows suit with a big dog show at Lille, the city which has so cruelly suffered during the German occupation. This will be an inter-allied dog show, and will take place at the Palais Rameau, which is full of joyful remembrances by all those who used to visit Lille's dog shows in pre-war days. Some field-trials have already taken place in France, and some more, as well as some dog shows are announced for this year. Our French friends are now working very earnestly towards the recuperation of dog breeding, and it is to be expected that the commercial doggy relations between France and England will take great extensions in the very near future.

The doggy fancy in Spain is going ahead very strongly, under the aegis of the Spanish Kennel Club, affiliated to our own Kennel Club. They had a great show in Madrid, from the 8th till the 19th of May last, with great success. To all those who grumble, even at three days' shows, it would no doubt appear strange how exhibitors and, especially their dogs, can stand the strain of an 11 days' show. But the matter is not as terrible as it would appear on the surface. It should be known that the shows in Madrid provide for the dogs to be benched and penned from five till half-past seven every afternoon only. The shows take place in the most beautiful park of Madrid, which I know well, having visited the Spanish Kennel Club's first dog show, eight years ago. Our Spanish friends are excellent show managers, but the palm in this respect undoubtedly belongs to the chief members of the committee, Count de Lerida, Colonel Javier de Beranger, and Captain Cesar Martinez.

Italy is also forging ahead with regard to doggy matters. Quite recently they held successful field-trials and dog shows, and more of both are announced to take place this year. The best of the recent shows was the one of Genoa, on the 7th and 8th of June last, organized by the Club Sant' Uberto d'Italia, where about 300 dogs met together. Our Italian contemporary, "Il Cacciatore Italiano," does a great deal towards the development of the doggy sport in Italy.

As your readers no doubt know already, our Kennel Club had to abandon their great show, which was to take place at Olympia, London, on the 7th, 8th and 9th of December next. The reason is that the management of Olympia have applications for the use of the building on the date fixed for the Club's Show, and, on account of the uncertainty as to whether the rabies restriction orders would be rescinded in time, our Kennel Club could not, of course, give the above management any definite answer. And so, for the fifth time since the outbreak of the war, if I do not mistake, this, our most important dog show, had to be abandoned. We can, therefore, easily conceive with what feelings this announcement was made in the June issue of the "Kennel Gazette," so ably conducted by the very courteous Secretary of the Kennel Club, Mr. E. W. Jaquet.

G. HOROWITZ,

51, Knighton Park Road, Sydenham,
London S.E., 26.

PREFIX'S CLAIMED.

The kennel name "Derby" has been recorded in the name of F. E. Stuart, Montreal.

The kennel name "Midland" has been registered in the name of W. H. Duggleby, 240 3rd Street W., Saskatoon, Sask.

Int. Ch. Polam Maxim, the globe-trotting Airedale belonging to Norman MacKenzie, K.C., Regina, has been making his customary attack on the premier honors at the following Shows across the line, and succeeding in getting a large share.

At the Ladies' Dog Club of Massachusetts Show, June 25th, he was awarded 1st open winners, and special for best Airedale in Show. The following day at the All Terrier Show, at Grafton, Mass., he repeated the above performance, and added to his laurels Reserve for best dog or bitch, any breed, in Show.

Then at the Airedale Terrier Club of Philadelphia Show, held at Roslyn, Pa., on July 5th, he again accounted for 1st open, Winners' Special for best Airedale dog.

DOG FANCIERS WHO CLAIM PERSONAL ACQUAINTANCE WITH THE STARS OF FILMDOM WILL BE IMMENSELY INTERESTED IN SANTA BARBARA DOG SHOW.

Two special trophies will be hung up for film folk at the forthcoming Santa Barbara Kennel Club Show.

These are in addition to the eighty prizes offered to general competitors in the various classes provided.

Handsome cups will be awarded to the man and woman respectively actively engaged in some branch of motion picture production, who enters the best dog.

All dogs must be entered in their respective classes, which will constitute the first basis of judgment. They will then come up for final consideration in the "mixed special" event.

Douglas Fairbanks, who is known to be an ardent bulldog fancier, is expected to have several entries in the Santa Barbara show. "Fatty" Arbuckle, it is known, will back his "Luke" as being without a peer in dogdom. While Mack Sennet says "Keystone Teddy," known to millions of film fans, is the finest dog in all the world. Other probable exhibitors are Charles Ray, W. S. Hart and Tom Mix.

Back east, Pauline Fredericks has a fine kennel, which is her hobby. She will send for some of the best dogs to show in Santa Barbara. Kathleen Clifford expects to enter her champion Pekinese "Mumu," and Katherine McDonald will be there with a string of prize winners. Other well-known film stars who are considering showing in the Palm Ring on the Belvedere grounds are Ruth Roland, Bessie Barriscale, Dorothy Dalton, Clara Kimball Young, Dorothy Phillips, Mary Pickford, etc.

Trophies to the amount of $3,000 will be offered at the Santa Barbara show, which is held under American Kennel Club rules. Secretary S. E. Kramer will be glad to furnish any information concerning the details. John Bradshaw, one of the best known dog men in this country or abroad, will be superintendent. Bradshaw says he has never seen a better place anywhere for a summer show than Santa Barbara's Palm Ring.

AIREDALE SAVES MISTRESS' LIFE

Here is a story of an Airedale terrier that saved his mistress' life and killed a trained German police dog rather than share his quarters with him.

Two years ago Fred C. Havens of New Brunswick, N.J., sold a pair of Airedale terrier puppies to a Lieutenant in the U. S. Navy, who was later called to Washington for the duration of the war. He took one of the terriers to the Capital with him for a companion and gave the other to a superintendent of one of the large penitentiaries.

The "super's" family fell in love with the dog and the lady of the house was particularly fond of the terrier and he of her. Later she became ill and when in a convalescent stage the doctors said: "Plenty of out-door exercise, and particularly walking, would be the only things that would save her life."

She was gradually sinking day after day, but her husband and the physicians could not get her out of doors for the prescribed exercise and walks.

One day the Airedale disappeared from home, and after he had been gone several hours his mistress, although in an extremely weakened condition, went in search of him. She roamed the streets of the neighborhood until dark, without success.

Day after day she faithfully walked the streets of the large city where she lived in search of her pet. She came home each night tired out from her long tramps, but without getting any clue to the whereabouts of the Airedale. Three weeks passed and although she searched faithfully, no trace was found of her dog, but she rapidly regained her health.

Her husband having proved to his own satisfaction that the doctors had prescribed the right treatment, could keep his secret no longer. He admitted to his wife that he had stolen the dog and taken him to the penitentiary. While an inmate of the prison, the dog was one of the most closely guarded prisoners, as a human life depended on his not being allowed to escape.

The Airedale slept in a cell while at the prison. One night when the place was unusually crowded one of the German police dogs (Doberman Pinschers) several of which were kept on the grounds for guards, was put in the cell with the Airedale. Next morning his master found a proud Airedale and a dead German police dog.

KNOCKING.

Put the hammer in the locker;
Hide the sounding board likewise;
Anyone can be a knocker;
Anyone can criticise.

Cultivate a manner winning
Though it hurts your face to smile
And seems awkward in beginning,
Be a booster for a while.

Let the blacksmith do the pounding;
That's the way he draws his pay;
You don't get a cent for hounding
Saint and sinner night and day.

Just for solid satisfaction
Drop a kind word in the slot,
And I'll warrant you'll get action
On your effort on the spot.

At the Airedale Terrier Club Show, held at Roslyn, Pa., July 5th, the recently imported Airedale bitch, Parkton Arlette, property of J. W. Bain, K.C., Toronto, made her debut at American Shows, and made a deep impression on the Airedales in attendance at this fixture by capturing 1st limit, 1st open and winners' special for best Airedale, and reserve for best in Show, any breed. There were 47 Airedales entered, and many a good one was asked to take a back seat to this new Canadian bitch. Mr. Joseph Perkins had the honor of piloting "Arlette" to her first American victory. Mr. Bain and family are summering at Port Carling, Ont., but will be in Toronto to see their new dog battle for further honors at the big Fair.

Comparative statement showing number of dog shows held in Canada under Canadian Kennel Club rules since 1900: 1900, 5; 1901, 9; 1902, 11; 1903, 3; 1904, 5; 1905, 7; 1906, 9; 1907, 12; 1909, 11; 1910, 21; 1911, 17; 1912, 22; 1913, 17; 1914, 17; 1915, 14; 1916, 19; 1917, 19; 1918, 21; 1919, 16.

Eighteen dates granted already would seem to indicate that 1919 will be the banner year for shows in Canada.

Cocker spaniels are a popular breed at St. John, and much interest is being centred in Jas. C. Pollock's litter out of his "Fluffy Ruffles," by Sir Namgis, the dog that went to winners at Montreal, and whose friends declare is just as good a sire as he is a show dog.

Notes from St. John.

The Fall Show at this Eastern point has always been well supported, and generally was able to earn a 3 point rating, but if all the support materializes this year which has been promised the figure will change to a 4 point instead.

E. J. Wallace, St. John, having parted with his great cocker spaniel, Ch. Drumclaph Baronet, has just replaced him with an Irish setter bitch purchased from E. C. Howard, Montreal. The new acquisition is said to be a "stormer."

Irish setters, always popular around St. John, have been reinforced by a litter of seven from Lieut. Ritchie's good bitch, "Blarney Grand," sired by Glencho Connemara; while W. J. Hanlans has a Corry Law bitch showing heavy in whelp to Glencho Morty O'Callaghan.

Alberts Betsey, an English setter bitch, recently imported by Charles Perkins, is the proud dam of a litter sired by Ch. "Alberts Mallwyn Mixture." This combination has produced a New York winner before, and friend Collins is expecting great things from the mating.

Mr. Lattimer's English setter, Britannia's Pride, a local dog, is being groomed into shape in order to make a bid for highest honors at the forthcoming show. This good bitch, owing to an error by the express company, was too late in arriving for competition at the late Montreal Show. But Lattimer vows she will be in lots of time to meet Judge Ross at St. Andrew's Rink on Sept. 16th.

Collies are getting into the limelight through the efforts of J. W. Cameron, who was well represented at Montreal Show, where his Ormskirk Squire gave a good account of himself. Squire has been busy lately, Robert Jamieson having a nice litter by this dog, and Edward McGuire has recently bred his Campbell Stylish to him.

Terriers are more than holding their own in New Brunswick, and some of the home-breds are about ready to contend for honors in any company. Mr. Le Baron has a puppy ready to bring out that is just about the "best yet."

W. C. Macay, the live secretary of S. J. K. Club, don't say much, but keeps sawing wood, and there are whisperings of a few Airedale puppies at Mac's kennel that will be heard from soon. The same owner's stud dog, Rockley Laddie, is considered one of the best producers in the Atlantic Provinces.

Several of the members of the St. John Club intend to be in Toronto for the "big show" on Sept. 1st.

ADVERTISING PAYS.

We are continuously receiving letters from satisfied advertisers all over Canada.

Mr. A. P. Semple, Cactus Kennels, Regina, who bought and paid for a two-page advertisement in our February illustrated number, writes: "My advertisement in the February number was more than justified, as I can trace many profitable transactions to that medium."

We thank our Western brother for this unsolicited testimonial to the merits of our advertising pages in Kennel and Bench.

HOW ABOUT IT?

This is YOUR Kennel and Bench. Tell your friends about it. Subscription $1.00 per year. Free to members of the Canadian Kennel Club.

Of course you have an idea that would be in the interest of your "Kennel and Bench." Tell us about it.

SPECIAL FOR AMERICAN EXHIBITORS.

Exhibitors from the United States will experience no difficulty with the Canadian Customs, if the following instructions are rigidly adhered to:

Make out three invoices. Have them sworn to, and mail to the official brokers; or the exhibitor may bring them along with him to the Show. Full instructions and invoice forms will be mailed on receipt of your entries.

NOTES FROM OTTAWA.

W. A. Crawley, Bayswater Kennels, has mated his good brood Bayswater Alice to Ch. Prince Rexworthy, and is expecting something exceptionally good from this mating.

Sergt.-Major J. Eggins reports the arrival of a very promising litter of 3 males and 5 females out of that famous brood and producer of English winners, "Rejected Kitty," the sire being the renowned Int. Ch. Polam Maxim. Here's wishing him luck.

Brentwood Kennels report the arrival of two litters of Airedales, one out of "Brentwood Betty," by Morning Admiration, and the other out of "Brentwood Oakland Lady," by Milton Bombardment.

Andy Armstrong will be at the Toronto Dog Show building to take entries and give information about Ottawa Dog Show.

Rosemere Kennels had the misfortune to lose all but one puppy from a very promising litter of six Scotties out of Argyle Jenny, by Hazelbrae Kiltie.

TERRIER NOTES FROM MONTREAL.

Mr. A. C. Hardy, of Brockville, Ont., is now the owner of Malden Cadet. This puppy is by Ch. Dusky Bounce, and won a first and two thirds at Montreal in May, and should be a decided acquisition to the Wire fanciers in that district.

Mr. A. B. Strachan, of Montreal, reports a litter of three males and one female by Ch. Dusky Bounce, out of a daughter of "Bounce." Mr. Strachan is in hopes of getting another "Bounce" by this mating, and we wish him success.

Mr. F. E. Stuart, of Montreal, has disposed of his kennel of Wires. Messrs. Moore and Strachan, of Montreal, are the new owners. However, Frank has since then closed a deal for Marvel Boy and Marvel Queen, and intends doing a little breeding to keep his hand in.

SHORT BARKS.

Trainer and Bowra, Toronto, report that Jess So Lung has been mated to her good Pekingese stud, San Toy of Louvain; also that Oriental Lucky Soi has been mated to I Sung.

Mrs. Davey, Toronto, has had a nice brindle-colored Pekingese matron—recently imported—visiting her dog, I Sung.

G. Henderson, Toronto, reports a litter of six White West Highland Terriers by Knockmore's Little Brother, out of G. F. Ormsby's Lady Mack. Mr. Henderson believes there is some good pups in this litter.

Harry Holgate, Toronto, reports a litter of six by Lord Beresford's Best Grandson out of Belfast Ruby; also a litter of 2 by the same good sire out of Dot Rexmore. Harry says there is some real stuff here.

Are you making your entries for the Fall Shows?

Mrs. C. Perrins reports the arrival of two litters of Poms, one a litter of whites by Dandy Diamond, ex Trixie Snowball; the other litter is out of her chocolate female, Dolly Varden, by Mrs. Jacques' Dandy Sargeant, and in this latter litter are 2 chocolates and 3 blues, 4 males and 1 female, and doing well.

The imported Wirehair Fox Terrier

"HASTY HOMAGE"

PROPERTY OF WM. R. AITKEN, 617 UNION AVENUE.

He is grandly bred, a Terrier every inch, for expression, head, neck, cobby body, with best of legs, feet, and coat of extreme wire texture, hard to beat. His breeding lines are of the best, being:

Homage	Ch. Collarbone of Notts	Ch. Collar of Notts.
	Haste . . . . .	Crystal of Notts.
Haste	Catchem of Notts . . . . .	Catchem of Notts.
	Premier . . . . .	Premier
	Premier . . . . .	Morden Blusterer
	Premier . . . . .	Juanita
		Powder Plot
		Appelby Jane

"Hasty Homage—This new and brilliant star of the Fox Terrier firmament is proof of the virtue of inbreeding (albeit judiciously applied), as he is by 'Homage,' out of 'Haste,' (who is the dam of Homage), hence very aptly named. Eight firsts at the dog's first essay on the Show Bench is a big beginning. That he may keep it up is the deliberate and unhasty homage we have pleasure in paying the dog."—Editor, Our Dogs, 8th Sept., 1916.

The first litter of puppies sired by him in Canada included the bitch, "Hasty Lady," the sensation of Montreal, May 1918, Show, going through all her classes to winners, capturing nine first prizes and four specials.
