A MEETING OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS of the Canadian Kennel Club will be held in the offices of the Club on July 15th, 1920, commencing at 8 p.m.

Meeting of the Board of Directors of the Canadian Kennel Club

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Directors of the Canadian Kennel Club was held on Thursday evening, June 17th, at the offices of the Club, 774½ Yonge Street, Toronto, the first vice-president, Mr. H. Clayton, presiding.

Directors in attendance: Messrs. W. R. Aitken (Quebec), N. W. Renwick, H. M. Jackson, G. O. Briggs, B. D. Wheeler (Messrs. Jos. Russell, president, was attending Fort Garry Kennel Club Show, N. K. Swire being in England, N. R. Miller having left for England and the Continent).

The secretary having read the minutes of the previous meeting, it was moved and seconded that the minutes be adopted as read. Carried.

The secretary reported that he had received no reply of any kind to the correspondence mailed to Mr. Edward T. Slattery, Ottawa, on June 1st, 1920, wherein the Board requested:

"At the meeting of the Board of Directors of the Canadian Kennel Club, held at Toronto on Thursday, May 20th, it was an instruction to the writer to write you, saying:

"That in view of the overwhelming amount of sworn evidence adduced in the case of Helman vs. yourself, that I point out to you the extreme seriousness of this affair, and to ask you to produce the correct papers for the Boston Terrier bitch, 'Boston Lady,' with transfer, at once."

And the secretary was instructed to write Mr. Edward T. Slattery, under registered cover, saying:

"That the Board allowed him a period of 15 days to comply with their wishes as expressed in their letter sent, dated June 19th, 1920." Carried.

A protest was read which had been filed by Miss J. Morrison, Montreal, protesting the wins made at the Ladies' Kennel Club Show, held on May 22nd, by the French Bulldog "Henderson's Jacques Fournier," owned by Wainwright and Duckworth, Brantford, Ont., claiming that the dog in question was both deaf and blind.

The secretary reported that the protest had been filed according to the requirements of the Dog Show Rules and Regulations, and came to him accompanied by the customary protest fee. Accompanying the protest was the examination report of the Show Veterinarian, F. W. Robinson, V.S., which read as follows:

"I hereby certify that I have this day, at the request of the officials of the Ladies' Kennel Club of Canada, examined a French Bulldog, marked in their official catalogue as (No. 94) off Wainwright and Duckworth. This animal I find to be, in my opinion, both blind and deaf, both being complete."

Further correspondence was read bearing on the grounds for protest from Miss J. Morrison and Miss A. Charlton.

Messrs. Wainwright and Duckworth, having signified their readiness to oppose the protest and having deposited the necessary fee, had been officially instructed to have the defence prepared, were represented by G. F. McFarland, barrister; B. Swann, agent, and N. Duckworth, representing the kennel proper. After hearing the several parties, the following certificates of examination were read:

"I have to-day examined the French Bulldog "Henderson's Jacques Fournier" C.K.C. 22708, and in my opinion the said dog is not totally blind.

"A. V. CUTCLIFFE, V.S."

"This is to say that I have to-day (June 7, 1920) examined a dog, namely, 'Henderson's Jacques Fournier,' C.K.C. 22708) and find that he can see and hear.

"C. N. SANDERSON, V.S."

"This is to certify that at the request of Mr. Swann, I this day, June 12th, examined the French Bulldog 'Henderson's Jacques Fournier,' at his premises in Mimico. I found the same to be not totally blind or deaf.

"J. A. Campbell, V.S., B.V.Sc."

The several parties were invited to retire, and it was moved and seconded,

"That the winnings of the French Bulldog, 'Henderson's Jacques Fournier,' made at the Ladies' Kennel Club Show, be sustained." Carried.

The secretary reported receiving a protest from G. H. Jeatt against the management of the most recent show of the Victoria City Kennel Club, which had been laid in the manner described in the rules, and accompanied by the fee, and that he had laid the protest in the hands of Dr. T. E. Sleeth, Director for the Province. A wire from Mr. Jeatt was read, and the secretary's action of having the British Columbia director handle the case was endorsed.

The following letter from the Regina Kennel Club was read:

Dear Mr. Strachan:

The Regina Kennel Club have much pleasure in extending to you an invitation to attend their coming show, commencing July 27th, in the capacity of Official Reporter. It will give them great pleasure to be permitted to pay all your expenses. Needless to say, the members of my club are most enthusiastic over your coming. The holiday will do you good, and, so far as your duties are concerned, this should be no interference, as the more it is considered will it be realized that it is very much in the interest of the game.

Here you will meet many friends who will be more than pleased to meet you. All the dog men, or, rather, all the men interested in dogs from the Middle West will be here, and the moment the suggestion was made, I can assure you it was acted on at once, and I was instructed to write you without delay.

And after favorable and pleasing comment had been indulged in, it was moved and seconded

"That the secretary be allowed a leave of absence of sufficient duration to enable him to accept the generous offer of the Regina Kennel Club. Carried.

This being the business before the meeting, it was now moved the meeting adjourn. Carried.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

JAMES D. STRACHAN,
Secretary-Treasurer.

Mrs. Brownlie, Toronto, reports a nice litter of Pomeranians. They are very small and by her own stud dog, "Laudervale Shell Fire." The litter consists of two orange females. Another litter sired by the same dog produced two orange females and one orange male.

Famous Bulldog Kennels Change Hands

"Alick" Stewart, Chicago, who has justly earned a world-wide reputation as a breeder, exhibitor and judge, has sold his entire interest in his famous bulldogs to the well-known sporting gentleman, B. G. Saltzgaber.

In dogs, Mr. Saltzgaber gets possession of "Strathway White Hope," one of the best heavy-weights living today, and a certain sire of phenomenal litters. "Strathway Goytside Demand," the good light-weight dog who before coming from England won ten first prizes as well as "best in show," and one who properly judged can take the measure of them all. "Strathway Pressgang," the best and soundest American-bred living—this is the dog spoken so highly of by the well-known authority, Dr. A. C. Madden, of Glen-coe, Illinois.

In bitches, there is the champion "Strathway White Light," who is without question the greatest piece of bulldog flesh living, and one who has never known defeat in the ring. "Thornwood Queen," the dam of more truly great bulldogs than any bitch living. "Storm Censor," the dam of "Silent White Duke," and now mated to "White Hope," by whom she should produce another grand litter. "Strathway Corimbla Patch," the dam of Capt. Donlan's "Strathway Duke," who will soon be a champion. Also the dam of A. C. Kramer's "Vagabond." There are several more young bitches in the lot, unshown, but who are sure to make a name for themselves and their new owner the moment they are benched.

Adding those dogs to those already housed at the Warfleigh Kennels, Mr. Saltzgaber is in a position to meet the keenest competition anywhere bulldogs are judged. We understand he has a wonderful young unshown dog by Ch. "At Last," who, with "White Hope," "Goytside Demand" and "Pressgang," should make a team in themselves troublesome to the best.

Mr. Saltzgaber is indeed plucky to go on and buy this grand lot of dogs, as he has lost some wonderful dogs through showing. He is the kind of man the fancy needs and should be given the hearty support of all, as we feel that he will do wonders for the bulldogs of America. Mr. Stewart is going to do all in his power to assist our good friend to enjoy the success that he (Mr. Stewart) has enjoyed as an exhibitor, and his experience will be at Mr. Saltzgaber's call for a long time.

Our Recent Shows

Oakville Kennel Club

Oakville, with its full share of rain and a little sunshine, has again passed the reality stage and is now a memory of a nice little summer fixture. About 200 dogs were benched and 365 entries were made, quality being very apparent.

The management was slack even for a "go as you please" event, late starts in judging being the order of the day and night sessions, the drawn-out ring operations, backed by almost continual showers, all tending to dampen the spirits of the most interested spectator.

Jack Meadows, Oakville's Dean of Dogdom, had the lion's share of the judging to care for.

F. C. Smith, of Guelph, was a new judge of sporting varieties.

C. L. McQuillan's hand on the lever assumed the safe destiny of the Boston Terriers.

Harry Hurst, with Poms, etc., was responsible for no complaints.

Mrs. W. C. Ingram, with Pekes and Toy Spaniels under her care, can be congratulated first of all for the record entry in the former breed, then again for her firmness in decision, her "sang froid" was refreshing, too.

"Joe" Kennedy, judge of Cocker, drew a nice entry. His was a drawn-out operation, and we had few grumbles.

The Dogs Themselves.

Bloodhounds saw J. R. Tennant with two new faces, first, "Appolo," a great youngster. His stature gives one the impression that the trail would be irksome to him and he needs to develop in peak. After this a great dog, second, "Agrippa," a litter brother, not quite the quality of the winner.

Borzoi's "Orloff of Tolstoi" has benefited by his change of home, a lovely type of too feminine a make-up. Lady Romanoff, a good bitch; this entry could be put down much smarter. Two promising puppies completed the entry.

Airedale Terriers were 14, with no new faces.

Harvie Warlock, Walnut Bandmaster and Parkton King Fisher were the order in dogs.

Parkton Orlette, Mona Lisa (this bitch was unlucky), Briarwood Blossom were one, two and three here, the first-named lifting the breed special.

Irish Terriers. The Kelly brace were the stars here and had no serious competition.

Scottish Terriers were a good turnout, Donald McKellar's Argyle Tulle-bardine being the hero in dogs, with his Rothesay Crack in improved form. 2nd, W. T. Marlatt's Ch. Romany Bishop; 3rd, Rothesay Crack. Bitches: 1st, Argyle Polly, pressed by Ontario Sunshine.

Fox Terriers were quite an entry in numbers, the majority being in the "rough, and not ready," stage.

Flornell Rapid Fire came, saw, and conquered; we like this wire, he has, of course, an if or two, the most weighty being "if he were mine."—grand head and ears, neck, shoulders, front absolute, topping coat, a born actor, not quite ready.

Wycollar Terror had the advantage in body properties, nothing much after this brace.

Bitches: The Calverly came in after W. B. Steel's Victoria Regina and Nun Nicer and helped themselves to what was left.

Fox Terrier, Smooth—Harlow Bros. were here with some young dogs of merit, Peerless Bob again annexing the honors.

Bulldogs—Southport Joffre, Diamond Red Demon and The Crook was the order. The winner scored in shortness of back, hindquarters, shortness of face and shone over 2nd, whose head finish is more to be desired. 3rd still wants time.

Bitches: La Tosh, a good, substantial, sound, typey sort, scored in bitches, her chief snag being Mickey, a puppy, but such a sort. Peggy Royalist was not in her usual body form.

Collies had the usual entry of now-a-days, 6 roughs, 2 smooths.

The two cracks, Alstead Aeroplane and Canute Treasure were about equal in the lack of show fitness.

The smooth puppy with municipal aspiration is coming along all right, he may lead the breed with luck ere long.

Pekes were 19 and a nice lot indeed.

Walnut Mannikin, the hero who eventually got best any breed in show, has got more coat than at any time of his career. Yen Li was 2nd on type alone, though best head of the lot, a shade long, which is accentuated by a too gay plume carriage.

Tangerine of Huron, quite a specimen. The judge was not satisfied with his conformation.

Yuk San of Eccesall was the heroine of the opposite sex, very nice looking in face and head, nice plum and carriage.

Nowata Fu Shi, an assertive kind of a lady, not strong in essentials.

The Variety Classes.

Jaw Lady Romanoff beat the Whippet, Glencoe Supreme, in sporting with the Cocker, Trey 3rd.

Southport Joffre did not quite act the gentleman when he passed La Tosh in non-Sporting.

Flornell Rapid Fire 1st, The Scot tie 2nd, Globe Goddess 3rd, was the outcome of the Terrier competition.

The Toy classes was responsible for the usual chaos resulting from dual judging. Lilly Hill Model, the Pom, came out top after the shake up, Walnut Mannikin 2nd, Yen Li 3rd.

Verity puppy saw Arndale Controller a very fancied candidate when he beat Mickey, the Bull bitch.

Best in Show, Walnut Mannikin, Reserve.

Special for Best Canadian-bred, Southport Joffre.

Terminal City Kennel Club

There were several features noticed in connection with this notable Coast fixture that eastern clubs could with advantage emulate; first was a free catalogue, and the idea was a success in every way, and more than enough advertising was secured to justify Secretary Haliday's belief in the possibility. Second, was a list of the paid-up members for 1920, with their addresses given, and the breeds named that the members favored. After one scans the lengthy list of members, there is an appeal to join the club that only a man with one eye blind and the other stuffed with sawdust could fail to notice. The appeal states that the club is enjoying the largest membership in its history, and also that the meetings are held every second Wednesday. Third, all the specials and prize money are tabulated at the beginning of the book, and the first look tells one at a glance just what he will have a chance to win. We all know the prize and special lists that a Philadelphia lawyer would be puzzled to straighten out and allocate. One hundred and seventy-five dogs were benched and 457 entries made, and two championship points earned. President Archie Hogg and his able staff are to be congratulated on their efforts. The judge, John McMann, like every other mortal bearer of ermine, did not please everybody—no one ever did, but the hardy Scot pleased himself, and in his opinion the best dogs won. Following are the awards.

The Rennie Grand Challenge.

This was a trophy placed by the Wm. Rennie Seed Co., the well-known Canadian firm of seed growers and distributors, to be for the best of all breeds competing at the 1919-20 series of parlor shows, held under the auspices of the Terminal City Kennel Club, and had six representative winners entered, one of which did not attend roll-call, owned by Nat McConnell, who was officiating as Show Superintendent. We noticed in compiling this list of awards that friend Nat had other dogs entered, but not competing. A procedure we draw to the attention of other show officials, for their emulation. The winner of this interesting trophy was found in W. Wilgress' Rowlands Credential.

Yankees Find Them Out

Montreal Airedale Sold for Good Price.

One of the interesting deals put through at the recent Montreal Kennel Association Show was the purchase of an Airedale bitch, bred by Cornforth and Kay, of the Northcliffe Kennels, and sold to Fred Goodfellow as a puppy. The youngster was a production of "Kinder Lou," and by Champion "Silver Birch Banker." The buyer was F. C. Hood, of Newton Centre, Mass., who cleaned up in both sexes of Airedales at the show. Mr. Goodfellow got a good price for this youngster, which had won her classes every time out, and also has the choice of a female from her first litter.

The Northcliffe Kennels did exceedingly well with Airedales of their own breeding at the show, getting first junior, second puppy, second brood bitch and third breeders, as well as three specials in the keenest of competition.

The young bitch referred to was shown at the Airedale Terrier Club's Specialty Show at Chestnut Hill, and contested the winners prize with Ch. "Almonte Peggy," and lost to her on condition alone. It is interesting to note that the breeders had the gratification of seeing one of their dogs achieve this remarkable success at this important fixture.

Mrs. C. M. Lunt Reviews the Recent Specialty Show of the Collie Club of Canada

On May 24th, the Collie Club of Canada held its initial show under Canadian Club rules, and in point of numbers, anyway, it was a huge success, as 58 Collies were entered for my inspection and placing.

An even collection of Collies, taking them all in all, I have seldom seen. In some classes, dogs not receiving a ribbon were deserving of a first prize, there was so little difference between first prize and fourth and fifth. The quality was so uniform throughout that I should like to review each dog individually, but I have had to omit many fine specimens because of incomplete notes and lack of space.

The ring was large and ably stewarded by Mr. Jack Waggett, Toronto, while W. Ormiston Roy, Montreal, was an efficient clerk of the blackboard. There was no delay in getting the dogs into the ring. The only difficulty I experienced was in the lighting. It wasn't very bright and I could not tell the color of the eyes—they all looked dark, so if errors were made in that respect, I trust I may be forgiven.

Winners Dogs went to "Baronmore Briton, a big, rangy, dark sable son of Ch. "Knocklayde King Hector" and "Laund Luluna. He is a fine, sound dog, heavily boned, nice, long, flat head, small, beautifully carried ears and a true Collie expression. A very close Reserve to the Winners Dog was Boyd's "Longbranch Perfecto" ("Coltness Commander-Bellefield Blossom"). This dog has long, clean skull, is sound, good bone, but seemed rather short on the leg, and did not get his ears up very well in the ring. He afterward won the Special for best coated dog in the show. First Puppy was T. Milne's "Quarrybrae Sunstar" ("Eastwood Energy—Ch. "Quarrybrae Colleen"). This is as nice a puppy as I have seen in a long time. He was terribly shy in the ring, but with proper training he will be heard from later; good size for his age, heavy bone, lovely head, with clean, flat skull and perfect ears. He is the best I have seen from "Energy," and "Energy's" owner should be well pleased with him, and he is a credit to his sire and his breeder.

A thoroughly typical Collie is Strachan's "Coltness Commander" ("Tazewell Tantalizer—Coltness Cymbeline). Rather small, but good boned, sound, and in perfect coat and condition. His head is flat and a perfect wedge shape. In the ring, he was listless and absolutely refused to show his good points, and of course had to pay the penalty.

Another good one was Ashbee's "Campbell Style" ("Coltness Commander"—"Maitland Lady"). In the first two classes in which this dog competed, he stood badly in front and would not stand at attention. In the third class, he decided to alter his behavior, however, and stood perfectly, showing for all he was worth, so won over those previously placed over him. He is a big, heavy-coated dog, with a pleasing Collie outlook.

Another pleasing dog was Loutitt's "Tipperary King" ("Seedley Sultan"—"Tipperary Dahlia"). Rather small and lacking in substance, but very typical throughout, with nice head and ears.

In the Veteran Class, the Roughs and Smooths came together, when it was a close decision between the eight-year-old champion, "Canute Treasure" and that grand Rough, Champion "Coltness Clinker," six years old. Both dogs were in the pink of condition, and both showed perfectly. The Smooth finally won. The Rough lost a bit on skull and movement, although it was a very close thing between the two noted Collies.

Winners Bitches, Getty's Ch. "Quarrybrae Colleen" (Ch. "Wishaw Rival"—"Quarrybrae Mary"). I was told I missed a point in putting her at the top, because of her faulty shoulders. In the classes she stood perfectly. Afterward, when in the ring for Specials, she was shown rather carelessly and I noticed the fault mentioned, but not when she was competing. She is a big, dark sable, good bone, good coat, nicely rounded body, with a fine head topped with lovely ears. She moved well and posed beautifully. Reserve Winners Bitches, Milner's "Weston Dusky Charmer" (Eastwood Energy—Ch. "Quarrybrae Colleen.") A litter sister of the excellent "Quarrybrae Sunstar." She is a fair sized tri-color with a heavy coat. No prominent faults; lost to the winner in length of head, and it was a bit strong for its length. In Canadian-bred class, "Charmer" was followed by Milner's "Weston Attraction" (Weston Sunbeam — "Weston Refinement.") Same type as winner in this class, though a sable and white, and somewhat smaller. Sound and in beautiful condition, with good skull, though rather short. The Novice winner, Bailey's "Bellefield Queen" ("Coltness Commander"—"Bellefield Blossom.") A light sable, good coat, sound, with nice head of the proper type and sweet expression. Second in this class was Taylor's "Inverness Explicit" ("Seedley Sultan"—"Tipperary Dahlia.") Much on the type of the winner, though not so flat a skull, nor quite so much quality. A litter sister of "Inverness Implicit," "Tipperary Betty" had a most beautiful head, and was put down in lovely bloom, but her legs were very short and not straight. Another good one was Wellnitz' "Cymrose Glory." A good sized dark sable and white, but rather small in bone and large and round in eye. Put down in fine condition. I understand this good Collie went to Winners at the Western Collie Club Show and was unfortunate in meeting so many real quality bitches at this Eastern fixture. Barrell's "Courcellette Queen" ("Coltness Commander"—"Bellefield Blossom") is a fine specimen, too, but in the ring she would not show at all. She has fine, long head, with big bone, good coat. She would make an invaluable matron.

In the Smooths, a six months' puppy won, Waggitt's "Arndale Controller," with the old Champion, "Canute Artful," Reserve. He was beaten in skull and muzzle. With ordinary luck, the puppy will do a lot of winning when he reaches maturity. In bitches, nothing could touch Ch. "Canute Treasure."

I enjoyed my stay in Toronto, and wish to thank the Collie Club of Canada for their unfailing courtesy to me. I was exceedingly fortunate in being able to participate in their annual banquet. Such good times certainly tend to bring the fanciers together, and should strengthen the Club spirit amazingly. I was quite overwhelmed by the presentation of a beautiful gold Collie pin, which had been imported from England. Besides its beauty, it will serve to remind me for a long time of the famed hospitality of my friends, the Canadian Collieites.

Faithfully,

C. M. LUNT, Judge.

A Western contemporary says that Eastern secretary of the S.P.C.A. who thinks gassing the grasshoppers a brutal thing to do, must have been terribly cut up by the wholesale slaughter of cooties during the war.

London's Dog Show

The Dog Show held in connection with the Western Fair, at London, this year, promises to be a real live one. It will be under Canadian Kennel Club rules. The London Canine Association will render all assistance possible to make the show a success. The reputation of this show has gone far and wide as being one of the best in the country. Prize money is paid before the exhibitors leave the grounds. A special prize list will be issued and mailed to all previous exhibitors and any others who send in a request.

The dates of the Exhibition are September 11th to 18th, and the Dog Show dates September 14th to 17th.

All information from the Secretary, A. M. Hunt, Western Fair Office, London, Ontario.

Why Exhibitors Should Enter Their Dogs at Cornwall

Cornwall is the centre of the dog show circuit, on a direct line between Sherbrooke, Montreal and Toronto, and only 56 miles from Ottawa. We meet all trains and deliver the dogs direct to the grounds at our own expense. Our attendants feed and water the dogs at regular hours. We sent everybody away with a good opinion of Cornwall at our last show.

Our selection of Judge this year has been made after canvassing over three hundred exhibitors. We believe that in Mr. Delmont we have a man that knows a dog and will place him as he should be placed.

Dogs coming from Sherbrooke can arrive in plenty of time for judging, while the dogs going on to Toronto will leave Cornwall Saturday evening.

Cornwall dog men will show to the limit this year. Many prizes were captured by Cornwall dogs last year. New dogs are coming in every day and the Executive are doing everything possible to give Cornwall, at least, a 2 point show this year.

If you want to meet an enthusiastic bunch of good fellows, come to Cornwall. It is not a business with us, it is a pleasure.

Vance W. Hope, Carlyle, Sask., writes that his Russian Wolfhound bitch, "Lady Snows," has presented him with a splendid litter of puppies, sired by "Jellicoe Rex," and that, according to our recent article in Kennel and Bench on the Borgio, where "Bis-tri of Perchina" and "Bagar o' Valley Farm" are mentioned as great Russian Wolfhounds, both those dogs' names appear in the puppies' pedigree.

Toronto Airedales Win at Winnipeg

Joseph Russell's string of dogs have done well at the Fort Garry Kennel Club's second annual show just concluded.

Claycliff Tip Top and Claycliff Beauty both helped themselves to the offerings, and consequently three championship points apiece; and in order to show that all the quality of the kennels was not to be found in the Airedale section, Claycliff Corker annexed to himself winners in Wire-Haired Fox Terriers. Then, for good measure, wiped up for Best Brace and Best Team. Then in the variety classes, any variety terriers, Claycliff Airedale and wires helped themselves to the choicest "pickings."

Ottawa Kennel Club has a Gala Day

Ottawa Kennel Club were in holiday mood on May 24th, and held a rattling good dog show in Lansdowne Park, and had over 100 dogs benched, which proved a great holiday attraction on the one hand, and netted over $100 cash for the "Great War Veterans," who were featuring a "Victoria Day" celebration.

"Johnnie" Milner (late "Corona" Kennels, Winnipeg) shared the judging with "Andy" Armstrong, and again endeared themselves to Ottawa fanciers by their earnest and honest placements. Good prizes were plentiful, and a solid day's pleasure was the sum total.

W. C. Baldwin's well-known American Foxhound, "Baldwin's Heffwin," was declared to be best dog in show.

Prefix's Granted

The Kennel name "Calverley" has been recorded in the name of Mrs. E. H. Calverley, R.R. No. 2, Oakville, Ont.

The Kennel name "Cedarcrest" has been recorded in the name of Mr. P. A. Margesson, Box 372, Kentville, N.S.

The Kennel name "Wainwright" has been recorded in the name of "Wainwright & Duckworth," 240 St. Paul's Avenue, Brantford, Ont.

The Kennel name "Mountain" has been recorded in the name of George R. Day, 544 James St. W., Hamilton, Ont.

The Kennel name "Holderness" has been recorded in the name of J. J. Holmes, 11 Main St., Longue Pt., Montreal, Que.

Harry Wilson, Toronto, reports the safe arrival of two English Bulldogs, one of which is the well-known "Dundee Knight," by "Lord High Executioner," ex "Dundee Lady Belle." This is a low-to-ground, heavyboned, big-ribbed dog, with grand face properties, and has accounted for the defeat of many English dogs of note. Color, a golden brindle; weight, about 52 lbs. Mr. Wilson informs Kennel and Bench that the first six bitches sent to "Dundee Knight" will be received at the low fee of fifteen dollars.

The other, a handsome little bitch, "Dundee Lady Sorcio," by "Dundee Sorcerer" ex "Dundee Czarina," is a very low, wide fronted, big boned, grand bodies, and sound as a dollar, very short faced, and well filled in under the eyes, and it will take the best to beat her. Mr. Wilson has expressed himself as well satisfied with both these importations, and has several importations on hand on a commission basis for other Bulldog fanciers.

Bulldog fanciers and others interested in the National breed wishing to see these and Mr. Wilson's other well-known dogs are invited to call at his new kennels, at 3 Edgewood Ave (off Kingston Road, close to Woodbine). Visitors made welcome.

John H. Martin, Cawston, B.C., reports losing his good Boston tsud dog, "Bonnington Bruce," through someone putting out poisoned meat. This is most regrettable information, and we trust the poisoners are apt handlers of a big shovel, so that they may be prepared for their calling in the future life.

A. V. Webley, Ottawa, owner of Tolstoi Kennels, of Russian Wolfhounds, reports great activity in this wonderful breed, he having sold out all the grown dogs that could be spared except one, and also one litter of 6 puppies, sired by that great Wolfhound, Champion "Petrofski of Addestone," and has also sold his entire litter of 8, sired by "Ivan of Romanoff," from his good bitch, "Zahftra of Romanoff." Most of these Russian Wolfhounds, grown dogs, and puppies, have gone to good homes in the United States, and a few in Canada, and at splendid prices. He also claims Kennel and Bench is his best advertiser, he having received inquiries for stock from all over the States and Canada in answer to the ad in K. & B.

J. A. Provost, Maisonneuve, reports the "passing west" of his good little pal, "Carlton Masher," who died from a syncope.

Canine Expression

An Interesting Article on This Interesting Topic, by a Close Student of the Subject.

Harold G. Jeffrey, Westboro, Ont.

There are many less interesting studies than that of the canine language. Many people claim to know it who have not passed the first standard and are not likely to do so; others never cease trying to become more proficient. They are those who really love dogs, not just "like" them.

It is common knowledge that when pleased, and especially when anticipating pleasure, a dog wags his tail; that when angry he shows his teeth. The latter action is more easily explained than is the former. Dogs, again, are said to fawn upon those they serve, to bristle up, in order to look as large as possible when about to attack, to crouch when preparing to spring upon their prey.

Darwin's "Expressions of Emotion" has made such scraps of canine language public property. Fanciers, while agreeing that most dogs behave as stated, well know that many exceptions occur. They will recall instances of dogs which, from puppyhood, have shown their teeth when pleased, actually grinning with delight, of high spirited dogs which have not been given to "fawning," of fighters which, instead of announcing their intention by "getting their bristles up," have acquired habits of guile. When all has been said, however, such instances are but exceptions. We shall not know much about dog languages if our knowledge is confined to such elementary points as these. Ballantyne gives a better idea of it in his once popular story, "The Dog Crusoe." It is worth quoting.

If ever the language of the eyes was carried to perfection, it was exhibited in the person of Crusoe. But, indeed, it would be difficult to say which part of his expressive face expressed most. The cocked ears of expectation, the drooped ears of sorrow; the bright, full eye of joy; the half-closed eye of contentment; and the frowning eye of indignation, accompanied by a slight, a very slight, pucker of the nose and a gleam of dazzling ivory. Then, as to tail—the modulations of meaning in the varied wags of that expressible member! Mortal man cannot conceive of the delicate shades of sentiment expressible by a dog's tail unless he has studied the subject—the wag, the waggle, the cock, the droop, the slope, the wriggle.

There are few subjects upon which dog-loving writers have attempted description more often than this one, and seldom with success, indeed, as one reads, the conviction is forced upon one that the dog expresses himself more lucidly than his master is able to do. In one respect only is he far behind his master, and that is in the matter of deception. Human language, we all know, may be employed for concealing, as well as revealing, the truth. Canine language is no good for the former. The dog is the clumsiest of all liars, a regular bungler, but then, he has had so very little practice. As the musical comedy ditty has it, "There seems to be something about them, it's the look in their eyes."

Hudson Bay Kennels, Metagama, Ont., are beside themselves these days, on account of recent arrivals at the kennels.

Ch. "Bothwell Peggy," the well-known Airedale, and whose influence lends prestige to many a good pedigree, whelped a litter of 6 males and 5 females, by Int. Ch. "Kootenai Chinook," while their good hunting bitch, "Preparedness," whelped a litter of 6 males and 5 females by Int. Ch. "Abbey King Nobbler."

Next year the "Kootenai's" and the "Nobblers," when crossed, are expected to produce the goods "worthy of writing home about." One of the "King Nobbler" litter is earmarked all over with quality already, and is "spotted" for careful watching, and will be heard from anon.

Mr. M. U. Bates, the proprietor, and who favors Kennel and Bench readers from time to time with his splendid articles, has been installed Editor of the "Trap Line" Dept. of our contemporary, "Rod and Gun." He takes up the mantle laid down by the late H. C. Hallon, whose memory is revered by every out o' doors sportsman in the Dominion of Canada. In M. U. Bates a worthy successor has been found and "Rod and Gun" are greatly favored in being able to retain Mr. Bates' services for their "trap line" department.

Vincent G. Perry announces the sale of "Globe Robin" to Mr. E. Zeller, of Ingersoll. This little dog was bred in Mr. Perry's kennels and had already won the blue at recent shows. He is just fourteen months old, and a record price was paid for him. It is regrettable that Mr. Zeller expects to keep "Globe Robin" as a pet, as litters by this dog show remarkable promise.

Norman K. Swire Lands in England

Norman K. Swire writes under date June 7th that after 10 days on the water he is landed "safe but sleepy," lots of business in Liverpool, then a little rest, and off to the Championship Show at Birmingham, on June 9th. After that, "Home Sweet Home" and —Oh, Boy.

Norman is both faithful and efficient, and those who know him best will be wishing him a happy holiday before he returns for his judicial engagement at Regina Exhibition on July 27, 28, 29, 30.

"Lady Cedermere Charming," a natty little whippet bred by Alf. Lowenstein, Toronto, and owned by A. Cole, same city, fell from a roof 80 feet high on Yonge Street, Toronto's busiest thoroughfare, and was mortally wounded. By a strange coincidence, the breeder was passing at the time and was an eye witness to the tragedy.

The officials of the American Whippet Club are arranging the events for their next racing card, to be run off at Boston shortly, and are offering sufficient "real" cash in prizes, that they consider will be attractive enough to enthrall a Whippet owner in Timbuctoo. Membership in the above Club costs only five dollars a year, and Alf. Lowenstein is prepared to give further information to anyone interested. Get him at 994 Dovercourt Road, Toronto.

The Cocker Spaniel Club held their regular meeting on May 27th, and decided a heap of important business, chief of which, perhaps, was their decision to continue striking their Club medals from the "Billy Obo" dies. Arrangements were made for a list of specials to appear in the premium list of the Canadian National Exhibition Show, when 3 trophies and 5 other specials will be offered for competition.

George Aitken, Fredericton, N.B., has had the misfortune to lose by death, following the trip to the Ladies' Kennel Club Show recently, his good Collie bitch, "Hannawell Lucille." At this fixture "Lucille" went to reserve winners, her place being always near the top. Seven championship points in good competition tells of her quality more eloquently than any words of ours, and we extend the regrets of the Collie fancy to Mr. Aitken on his great loss.

Brantford Notes

By FREDDIE REID.

The Telephone City Kennel Club have got over the shock of their Spring Show. All accounts and prize money has been paid and we have a surplus near the $200 mark, and the members are congratulating one another over the grand success. They are planning for a Fall Show following the London and Ottawa Exhibitions, and they will not be satisfied unless they have a three or four point show in the same attractive building they had before.

Mrs. H. B. Charlton has purchased from A. D. Stott, Dresden, Ontario, a little Boston Terrier (female), it being a grand-daughter of their former matron, Peggy Charlton. She is a puppy that will make the Fall judges smile.

The Telephone City Kennel Club are holding a strawberry social at the home of Mr. T. C. Thompson, Mount Vernon, on Wednesday evening, June 23rd. The members and their wives are looked forward to having a jolly good time.

The Kennel name "Hong Kong" has been recorded in the name of W. W. Brown, 75 Crescent St., Montreal, Que.

Regina Kennel Club Loses Valued Member

Regina is mourning over the loss of a good fancier through the death of Mr. A. Warwick, a strong lover of the Yorkshire Terrier, and late owner of "Mad-cap," a splendid specimen, well known to Western exhibitors.

Mr. Warwick was an old countryman and was doing well in Regina, his Canadian home, but had the misfortune to have an accident to his leg, which developed blood poisoning, and later became so serious that amputation was resorted to and our friend never rallied enough to again get about. His demise has left a gloom in Canine circles in Regina, where the cheery word and jolly smile is badly missed.

"Kennel and Bench" surely voices the feeling of our members and readers when we say it is with the deepest sense of regret that we learn of the "passing hence" of our brother member, and we extend ungrudgingly a full measure of deep sympathy to Mrs. Warwick in her sad bereavement.

Old F

Old as far as pals go, but not very old in years, we find Master George Urban of Buffalo, with his best pal, one of the famous "Claycliff" strain of Airedales. George is as bright as a summer morning, as his picture would indicate, and finds life very pleasant indeed, as every boy should do, and a great Airedale enthusiast, and he picked this fellow out for himself—in fact, he chooses all his own pets—rabbits as well as dogs. And George knows how to drive a bargain, too. Just ask anyone who has done business with him. He never pays more than he thinks an animal worth; he tries to save a dollar when saving is at all possible.

As for the other half of the picture, Mr. Airedale is a fitting representative of the Claycliffe Kennels, owned by Mr. Joseph Russell, president of the Canadian Kennel Club, for it can be readily seen that he is a splendid specimen under that winter overcoat of his. His particular love, next to his young master, of course, is tending a calf—for he is the guardian of every calf born on the farm. He is just as much at home in the harness drawing the cart as he is inside being drawn, it being mutually understood that the fun is to be equally shared and the work, if any, fairly divided.

Rose and Pauline Moore

There were many things to make us glad, we went to the Oakville show. But one of the best things of all was meeting two enthusiastic young dog lovers, Miss Pauline and Master Ross Moore, whose daddy, Mr. J. H. Moore, made the Oakville show such a big success. And what made us like them so much is because they liked Bostons, and they even knew the writer's Bostons by name and could pick them from the others.

Ross wanted very much to win the prize for the best dog handled by a boy, but at the last minute sent Pauline into the ring with his Boston, and Pauline worked hard to win the ribbon the judge handed out to her. But later on, Ross showed himself equal to the occasion, and claimed a pair of pigeons through his ability in handling another little dog that was in his charge.

Next month we will tell you how Jack Swann, Toronto, though only ten years old, played the part of a man at the disastrous fire that demolished a large part of the midway and other buildings at Regina Exhibition Summer Show, 1917. To read this story will do you good, look out for it.—Ed.

Warfleigh Kennels

ANNOUNCE THE PURCHASE OF

Strathway Kennels

Having purchased the entire collection of WINNING BULLDOGS owned by Alex. H. Stewart, of Chicago, Ill., and combining these with the already famous collection owned by us, it affords us extreme pleasure to announce THE LARGEST AND GRANDEST COLLECTION OF BULLDOGS, NOT ONLY IN THE UNITED STATES, BUT IN THE WORLD. We question if any kennel on earth can show a team of such quality, or twenty such Bulldogs as are housed in our kennels at the present time. We have, at all times, quality dogs and bitches that can win—brood matrons of the best blood lines and puppies of all ages—if you are in the market for anything good in the Bulldog line it will pay you to inspect the Warfleigh stock.

We Offer at Stud

(Each Dog is Limited as to Service)

White Hope

The grandest bulldog living—a brindle pied heavyweight of 56 pounds. Awarded winners at the Westminster Show, New York City, and the Chicago Specialty Show, also "Best in Show" at the latter. Produces the best—watch for his "gets" at the coming shows—$4,000.00 recently refused for three youngsters in the same litter. Fee, $30.00.

Dum-Dum

Sired by that wonderful Bulldog, Ch. At Last, to whom he bears a close resemblance. A heavy lightweight of 44 pounds, dark fawn with a black mask. Has the same beautiful headpiece as his sire—skull is well wrinkled, ears are perfect, stop in deep and his underjaw is wide and well turned up. His enormous shoulders are well placed and his front extremely wide, while his body is the true pearshaped, with a beautiful tuckup of loin and a short tail. Fee, $30.00.

Goytside Demand

Next to Ch. Strathway Prince Albert, the best lightweight imported to the States. At his last show in England he won ten firsts and special for Best In Show and left behind some pups that money cannot buy—he has repeated in this country. He weighs 42 pounds and is possibly the best balanced Bulldog in America. Is a dark brindle pied dog—has a grand head and ears, is extremely short in back and has a genuine roach. We claim he is the biggest-boned lightweight living and is bred to produce the best. Fee, $25.00.

Pressgang

The dog whose head is a study—extremely short in foreface, great sweep of underjaw, has a broad flat skull, topped with the neatest of rose ears. He is considered one of the grandest headed dogs to-day. Fee, $25.00.

It Costs Nothing to Breed

We know our dogs are producers—we guarantee each service—we simply hold the fee until the bitch proves in whelp—if not the fee is returned—stud card tells the conditions.
