The next regular monthly meeting of the Board of Directors of the Canadian Kennel Club will be held on Thursday evening, August 22nd, at 8 o'clock p.m.

Owing to the Holiday season, and the fact that several members of the Board of Directors were obliged to be out of town on Thursday evening, July 15th, a quorum was not on hand and no business was transacted.

Canadian Dogs Refused Permission to Attend U.S. Shows

For very many years there has been an ever growing tendency on behalf of Canadian dog fanciers to support dog shows held under the rules and regulations of the American Kennel Club, a tendency which seemed to be noticed, appreciated and reciprocated by our "Cousins" to the South of the International boundary, and no doubt really was. Any of our professional handlers on naming a show or circuit of shows (to be held in the United States) to his clients, could readily obtain their sanction to be represented at one or all of the stated fixtures. Following on the lines of precedent and custom, Bert Swann, Toronto's well known handler had a nice string of Canada's most representative dogs lined up for competition at Morrilton, Mineola and other recent American fixtures. Detail is the forte of the "Sage of Parkdale" and nothing was forgotten that should have been remembered by him in making his arrangements, even to the obtaining of the American Consuls papers, and left Toronto with perfect equanimity on Saturday, June 5th, 1920, but on his arrival at the boundary an interpretation, 100% literal had been given to paragraph 398 of the Tariff Act of October, 1913, which reads as follows:

"Animals brought into the United States temporarily for a period not exceeding six months for the purpose of breeding, exhibition or competition for prizes offered by any Agricultural, Polo, or Racing Association, but a bond shall be given in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury."

There was no other course left open onto, and to bring his charges back with him of course.

This is an obnoxious situation, and so we felt it to be, and at once got intouch with the "powers that be," in an effort to have the interpretation of the Collector of Customs at Buffalo upheld, as against the altogether too literal interpretation of the same officer at the New York Port, but all to no avail. Several letters were addressed to the Treasury Department at Washington in an endeavour to have the privilege retained of sending our dogs into the United States under a six months bond free of duty. The Canadian National Live Stock Department, Ottawa, also assisted us in our requests, but on July 5th we received the following letter which seemed to be the equivalent of an ultimatum:

July 3, 1920.

"Mr. James D. Strachan,
Secretary-Treasurer,
Canadian Kennel Club,
774½ Yonge Street,
Toronto, Canada.

"Sir:

"The Department is in receipt of your letter of the 22nd ultime, further in regard to the construction of paragraph 398 of the tariff act of 1913, in regard to the entry of dogs for exhibition. You ask that the decision of the Department be changed so as to permit Canadian dogs to enter free of duty under six months' bond "for any dog show, under any auspices holding shows governed by the rules and regulations of the American Kennel Club."

"The provision in paragraph 398 of the Tariff Act authorizing the entry

"for the purpose of breeding, exhibition or competition for prizes offered by any Agricultural, Pold, or Racing Association." As dogs imported for exhibition at dog shows held under rules and regulations of the American Kennel Club would not come within the provisions of said paragraph 398, not having been reported for exhibition or competition for prizes offered by an agricultural, polo, or racing association, the Department is without authority to grant your request. The Secretary of the Treasury has no discretionary power to permit free entry for importations unless such importations fall within some provisions of law exempting them from the payment of duty.

"The Department is constrained to refuse your request.

Respectfully,

N. KELLEY,
Assistant Secretary."

We have since written the American Kennel Club as follows:

July 5, 1920.

"Newton H. Day, Esq.,

Sec'y, American Kennel Club,

"My Dear Mr. Day:

"Probably it has already been brought to your notice that our Canadian dogs are now barred from attending shows held under the rules and regulations of your Club, unless same are held under the auspices of an agricultural, polo, or racing association.

"The Canadian Kennel Club and the Canadian National Live Stock Records have taken the matter up with the Secretary of the Treasurer at Washington, and his replies give us no ground for believing that we will be conceded any relief, and we now appeal to your Club to take the matter in hand and see what can be accomplished.

"One of our Canadian handlers, Mr. Bert Swann, Humber Bay, Ontario, left Toronto with a large string of dogs for Minneola, Morristown, and other shows under your rules. He was armed with the customary Consul's papers and anticipated no trouble, but was stopped at the boundary, and was forced to return.

"Will you refer this matter to the proper Committee, and permit me to enclose correspondence with a view to your further information? We do not anticipate it being very much trouble, your Club's being able to have it made possible for Canadian dogs to attend shows held under your rules, under any and whatever auspices.

Yours faithfully,
JAMES D. STRACHAN.

And have received their re-assuring reply to say: July 7, 1920.

"Mr. J. D. Strachan, Sec'y,

Canadian Kennel Club,

Toronto, Canada.

"Dear Sir:

"I beg to acknowledge receipt of your letter of July 5th with enclosure, addressed to our Secretary, and in his absence am replying to same.

"Will refer the matter to our Board of Directors at their next meeting and will do everything possible to have it made possible for Canadian Dogs to attend Shows held under our Rules.

Yours very truly,

American Kennel Club,

J. E. DEMUND, Second Vice-Pres."

Other notable American fanciers have been approached, and have signified their assurance of co-operation in securing for Canadian fanciers reasonable facilities for attending American Shows, as heretofore enjoyed by them.

We deeply regret the necessity, at this time, of recording the death of several of our best-known bench and stud dogs owned by our members and advertisers.

On the return from Quebec Show, the well-known chestnut red Pekingese dog, "Yen Li," imported only last January by Sam Bamford, and sold to Mr. and Mrs. George Eastham, Toronto, in February, who showed the dog at Toronto Kennel Club, St. Catharines, Brantford, Montreal and Quebec, taking the highest place at the first show and reserve at the Ladies' Kennel Club. These facts show the kind of Peke "Yen Li" was, and what a great loss he must be to his owners, who have struggled for years to always have something really worth while in Pomeranians or Pekingese.

Everything was done to keep the dog alive, a rival stud owner having worked for several hours in a vain endeavor to save "Yen Li," which goes to prove that in time of trouble the real dog fancier is always ready to "dig in," and to stay at the job to the last. Pekingese fanciers, we know, deplore the passing of "Yen Li" and their sympathies are all with the owners, Mr. and Mrs. Eastham.

Champion "Henderson's Jacques Fournier," the celebrated winning French bulldog, owned by Wainright & Duckworth, Brantford, was also a casualty following Quebec, where he again went to winners. At Ottawa, on the return journey, Bert Swann, agent for the Wainright Kennel, looked to his charges and everything was o.k. then, but at Toronto Jack was found dead in his crate.

It will be remembered that this good quite recently and was honorably acquitted by the Board of Directors of the Canadian Kennel Club, whose findings on the case were said to be unanimous. It is a regrettable fact that humans generally keep their roses until the objects of their love and regard are beyond appreciating them, and that is partly true in the case of "Henderson's Jacques Fournier." Here was a magnificent French bulldog, fairly teeming with quality, and a sire of excellent stock, two litters of which are, fortunately, still at the kennel, and are splendid specimens. And who can tell but that there may be one or more amongst them the replica of their famous sire.

Champion "Paramount Star," the trappy little brindle and white Boston Terrier imported from Philadelphia at the end of April this year by H. J. O'Neil, Hamilton, Ont., and shown against all comers at every opportunity, ever since, and without knowing defeat, was the victim of poisoning the other day, and Mr. and Mrs. O'Neil, who had become passionately fond of the dog, are both distracted with grief.

The services of "Star" were being eagerly sought after, and many who had reserved bookings will be badly dissatisfied to learn the sad intelligence we now chronicle at London, Brantford and Toronto (Boston Terrier Club of Toronto). "Paramount Star" outshone all the other Satellites of the Boston Terrier sky. At the Toronto fixture "Bill" Austin was judge, and had the largest entry of Bostons seen for some time at any Toronto fixture. Amongst them the best specimens in Eastern Canada, and the honors fell to Mr. O'Neil's elegant little dog "Paramount Star."

The subject of our front page illustration is the hero of the late Fort Garry Kennel Club Show, held on June 17-18-19, 1920, when he touched the highest pinnacle on the award list. Known in the East as the "Best Dog in the Show," and in the West as the "Grand Champion of the Show."

This magnificent English setter is the property of the popular Herb M. Clements, of Regina, Sask. and is "Mallwyd" bred to the back bone.

Mr. Clements is a keen lover of canines, with a propelling preferment for the beautiful English Setter, in which he specializes, and at all the shows within reasonable approach of Regina at least a team is always entered, and generally work havoc in any prize-list which may be offered. To see these setters is worth a long journey, and it is one of the pleasures anticipated by the Editor of this journal when he

FORT GARRY KENNEL CLUB AGAIN A WINNER.

The Second Annual Show of Fort Garry Kennel Club, was held at Winnipeg on June 17-18-19, when Judge J. W. Burton, Chicago, was on the "woolsack" and is credited with being careful and painstaking in his work, and succeeded in giving general satisfaction to the many exhibitors and visitors who were attending this show.

Joseph Russell ex-M.P.P., Toronto, President of the Canadian Kennel Club, made the journey, taking with him an entry of 5 dogs, which were returned big winners in their respective breed classes, also in the variety section. Mr. Russell was well received by this new Western Club, a special meeting having been convened in order that he could meet the members and discuss the problems of Manitoba dogdom, and it is to be hoped that satisfaction to all will be the ultimate outcome of the conference. The President was glad to meet the Western Sportsmen and the trip has been of great benefit to him in every way.

Herb. M. Clement's entry of English Setters was one of the Shows attractions, and it was generally conceded that it was from this elegant entry from Regina, that the "Grand Champion" would be found, and when this envied win went to the "beloved Herb," rejoicing was general. Regina exhibitors generally were credited with having a grand entry of really high class canines, and besides Mr. Clements, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Semple of "Cactus" fame, L. T. McGiverin, "Harry Selby," Miss Del Whittem, etc. cut a wide swath in the prize lists.

Calgary was represented by Jack Fletcher who had a string of real quality dogs in his charge and as usual made his mark deep in the award list. "Bob" Hinds was in from Saskatoon and watched with interest the fight put up by his noted Airedale "Vickery Vesuvius" ably handled by Jack Fletcher, and was a real contender up to the time the ribbons were distributed.

Winnipeg herself at the last show held, was able to produce her own "Grand Champion," but on this occasion was content to take the reserve station with "Billy" Villages' grand smooth Fox Terrier bitch, Ch. Madison Atalanta, also a popular win.

Two hundred and fourteen dogs were benched which was slightly less than the former Show. Six hundred and twenty nine entries were made which was remarkably good. Three championship points were earned. Altogether a real good show.

Quebec Kennel Club Show

Never since the eventful day when Jacques Cartier, the first European to sail into the St. Lawrence River, in the year 1535, have the dog-loving people of old Quebec enjoyed themselves so well as they did on the occasion of their first annual Dog Show, held June 23-24, 1920, under Canadian Kennel Club rules, and managed by the indefatigable Dr. J. H. Villeneuve of Montreal, and it has been said there were no rough places observable to the most critical. Albert Mitchell, Chicago, was judge, and managed to satisfy the winners and to dissatisfy the losers, as have every mortal judge since Adam superintended the first show in the Ark. Some considerable time before we were interested in canines, the fact that several of Albert's friends were amongst the "kickers," would justify our belief that he placed the dogs at least honestly as he found them. Mrs. Mitchell accompanied her husband and enjoyed the show immensely.

English Bulldogs were the largest entry, 21 being entered and 1 absent. All the leading specimens were benched, one of their number, "Southport Joffre," having won the distinction of being the best Canadian-bred and best non-sporting dog in the show.

Pekingese were the "surprise packet" as far as entries went, 17 of the "Orientals" being benched, and included all the dignitaries of the breed in Eastern Canada, Mrs. Redway's "Walnut Mannikin" taking the top in dogs, while her "Yuk San of Ecclesall" won in bitches, and went over "Mannikin" for best of breed prize.

G. E. Letourneau, a member of the Executive, won for himself golden encomiums; the plaudits of the gathering were lavishly bestowed upon him. This good fancier, accompanied and assisted by his little son, actually got to the show in the early morning, exercised every dog on the lead, gave every dog a clean bed and a clean drink, swept out and disinfected the building, and when the show opened its freshness and cleanness was a pleasure to behold. It is said that friend Letourneau is the leading spirit of the Quebec Kennel Club, and we are not surprised to hear it, and wish the whirlwind Frenchman the best in the barn. Add to this splendid achievement the fact that Mr. Letourneau handled over 40 dogs without any fees, so that new beginners in the club would be encouraged to take a stronger grip in the fancy.

Bert Swann, famed far and wide for his uncanny handling abilities, treated the crowds to some splendid handling feats; particularly pleasing was his efforts when "Int. Ch. Master Butcher" was the subject in hand. Again we must mention Mr. Letourneau, his little girl, 5 years old, gave a splendid account of herself by posing and handling, in very smart style, the well-known bulldog "Glencairn Duke."

NOTES ON QUEBEC SHOW.

By "Onlooker."

To have pleasure "all its own" attaches itself to the privilege of introducing a brand new dog show to our readers, so here goes for the Quebec Kennel Club Show, held June 23 and 24. Without a doubt the fixture has come to stay. The officials to a man are workers in this connection. Comparisons are always lacking in completeness, but, oh! for a western crop of the "Letourneau" type, whether they be of the hot-house or even just common garden variety, they would be a boon to every show.

Dr. Villeneuve, V.S., of Montreal, was the man in charge of the whole works; this was responsible for the ribbons and catalogues being on hand before the opening hour. An intelligent order of judging, which "was carried out" to the letter. A welcome to the visitors of the kind only known in Quebec. A ring steward, well, we were going to give this item of news the usual line.

One line, or even two, cannot do justice to Mr. W. Ogden's services at a show. As a companion to a "dry Land-Lipton," W. Ogden is indispensable, a cough, sneeze or hesitation waltz on the part of a "Lady Henry" under his practical treatment is soon turned into a dream of travel, and again, as a ring steward, Mr. Ogden stands alone, master of his duties and a thorough student of human nature, those trying moments of expectancy followed by elation or disappointment, as the case may be, are equally met by this master of ceremonies, who strives to make the entrance and exit of exhibitors to the "charmed circle" equally pleasant for both winner and loser alike.

About 150 dogs were benched, with Montreal and Toronto sending quite a representation. The least said of some of the large breeds the better. Russian Wolfhounds were three, whilst Greyhounds saw the statuesque "Ch. Master Butcher" doing duty for John G. Kent. Irish Setters saw St. John, N.B. represented by "Barney II," in wonderful bloom. He was an easy winner. Trudeau's "Ch. Sonora Nancy," in nice coat, had been too friendly with the cook. In English Setters (4), there was one quality sort, "Drum-clamp Lady," a typey liver ticked specimen. Airedales made a nice entry in both sexes. "Walnut Bandmaster," winners; "Harvie Warlock," reserve; "Briarwood Blossom," winners and best of breed; "Parkton Arlette," reserve.

Collies (5)—"Coltness Commander's" coat and maturity placed him ahead of "Quarrybrae Sunstar."

Bulldogs (the largest entry in the show)—"Southport Joffre" won from "Nilambe Garland."

French Bulldogs — "Henderson's Jacques Fournier" 1st; "Francois Ter" 2nd; a real smasher this dog, but too fat and terribly shy.

Fox Terriers (wire)—"Flornell Rapid Fire" came, saw and conquered. Special for best, reserve for best in show also fell to his lot. He deserved his honors, though not yet ready. "Ridgeway Dark Boy" showed the cares of travel as compared with his appearances earlier in the season. "Killindine of Chuffs" was brighter by far than when at the Ladies' show. She won well.

Bull Terriers saw Mr. Miles winning both sexes, "Joffre" scoring in all body properties over pretty "Lady Astor," a lightweight of quality.

Boston Terriers (13) saw "Yankee Speed King" easily ahead from a nice headed but immature youngster.

Irish Terriers saw "Hopton's" awards upheld when "Hotspur" beat "Ch. Mendon Mike."

Poms saw "Askern War Cloud" winners and best of breed, scoring over "Lilyhill Model," winning bitch "Pomona Lady Dara," a sweet black.

Pekes (17) were a big show, and raised some interest. "Walnut Mannikin" won in dogs, and, followed by "Len Yi." "Yuk San of Ecclesall" won in bitches, but was surely lucky in getting breed special unless plume and feather alone counted.

The variety classes were well filled, although several entries were scratched.

SCOTTISH NOTES.

(Specially contributed by David S. Anderson, Dundee.)

Dundee Kennel Club (Hon. Sec. Treas., Forbes Grant) have held annually for 20 years a two-day show for all breeds and about 200 classes, finds great difficulty in continuing, owing to no suitable building being available. The Kinnaid Hall, the venue of so many successful shows in the past, having recently been bought by a movie concern. A new city hall is being built and may be had for a championship show by the spring of 1921.

Arbroath Canine Club (Hon. Sec., Mr. Smith) are holding a 15 class members' show, on Wednesday, July 7th. Here a nice one-day open show used to be held annually and it is hoped will soon again be resuscitated.

Perth Canine Society have agreed to re-open, by holding a members' show, early in August.

City of Glasgow Kennel Club are in the same unfortunate position as Dundee, and are unable to secure a suitable hall.

Scottish Kennel Club, Edinburgh, are forging ahead, and have fixed up the Waverly Market, Princess Street, for Wednesday and Thursday, October 6 and 7, 1920, for a 2-day championship show for all breeds. This is sure the premier show of Scotland, and many promising debutantes are sure to be seen here, now that all restrictions have been removed.

VANCOUVER DAILY SUN.

We have just received, through the courtesy of J. K. Falconer, circulation manager of the above paper, a recent Sunday issue, and, of course, set out at once to see what was intended as the "Special," and this is what we found:

A page of "Kennel Notes and Comments," by "Bert Finch," late Kennel editor of the Calgary Herald, and, strange as it may seem, Bert had all the Coast fanciers lined up already—he has only been there a few weeks—and a most creditable page of kennel news was the net result.

Vancouver fanciers already have Mr. Finch in harness, and a better worker would he hard to find.

SHORT BARK

Owing to the demand for Mrs. Wylie's popular Orange Sable Stud Dog, "Cairndhu Orange Fly," it is now at Mr. T. Johnston's Kennels, 48 Fairview Ave., Toronto.

Items of Interest--Far and Near

"The Laird o' Drumclaph," i.e., "Bob" Ross, of Montreal, has just sold to Dr. N. Darrell Harvey, of Providence, R.I., a trio of rare Canadian-bred Scotties, which include Ch. "Drumclaph Laird," "Drumclaph Betty," and "Drumclaph Merlin," and Bob thinks the Scottie department of the Kennels are yet strong enough to hold its own anywhere. Sounds as if our friend Ross kept a "Scottie" factory in his yard, eh, what? There are some good "Irish Terriers" coming along, too, so in the words of the immortal "Rob" Ro(y)ss, what more could any man wish for, or heart desire? When any man kennels the above combination he should add greatly to his investment in life assurance, shouldn't he?

Tom Hicks, Toronto, reports purchasing the winning light weight Bulldog "Hefty Monarch" from Mrs. Maynard of the "Clevelock" Kennels, England, at a price said to be well in 4 figures. "Hefty Monarch" is a bronze brindle, and said to be as near to Bulldog perfection as it is possible to get, excelling in all essentials.

At Westminster show, May 27th, Dr. E. Beresford judging, Mrs. Nichols benched "Hefty Monarch" when he was second in a class of seven, and later sold to Mrs. Maynard for a price said to be £300, who in turn sells to our good friend Hicks. "Hefty Monarch" is just 16 months old. So a bright future lies ahead for him when he reaches Canada. We congratulate Mr. Hicks on his sportsmanlike interest in his favorite breed.

Miss T. Putnam, Cleveland, Ohio, has recently purchased from "Herby" Gubb, Toronto, the imported English Bulldog, "Kilburn Banker," to head her kennel, and expects to improve her stock wonderfully as a result, especially with the mating of her imported matron, "Warleigh Peaceful Hope," both sire and dam in this mating being strong in the well-known "Pleasant Bertie" blood.

M. H. Bundscho, Milverton, Ont., reports that he has bred two of his best brood bitches to "Onadgo Don," and one to Ch. "Ingram's Little Man," and has made additions to his kennel stock by purchasing from Mr. J. D. Schaefer, Hanover, "Rena Mack," and "Dundeline Queen" from Mrs. Kittermaster, Toronto.

Archie Hogg, New Westminster, reporting to the Exhibition Association for that city on behalf of the Dog Show Committee, asked consideration for a new building. Last year being the first attempt to make this an annual feature, the only available space was in one of the stock barns at the lower end of the park. This was not only inadequate, but was out of the way, a position the directors, upon paying a visit, came to realize. Mr. Hogg's request was considered favorably by the members, and he was instructed to prepare plans and estimates to be submitted at the next meeting. This Archie will gladly do, and will no doubt report in such a way that a new location will be found for the Dog Show Department.

R. H. F. Purdon, Kerrisdale, B.C., has been a busy fancier this summer, and a nice range of kennels, recently erected, will provide greater comfort and convenience for friend Purdon's well-known (wire) Fox Terriers.

The three winning dog puppies benched at the recent Terminal City Kennel Club Show were all sired by "Watteau War Cry." Three litters have been born lately, from which other winners will likely be picked.

E. E. Gravell, Vancouver, English Setter King, who will judge the gun and bird dogs at Regina Show, July 27th, bought the good wire Fox Terrier bitch "Amy Dillon" at the T.C.K.C. Show.

T. P. Milner, Point Grey, has a 4-months-old red-hot wire puppy by "Watteau War Cry." Several of the wise guys have been after this youngster, but he is at the Point Grey Kennels yet awhile.

A new and enthusiastic Pekingese fancier is Mrs. D. A. Laurie of Quebec. Mrs. Laurie already owns three typical bitches. "Wendy" purchased from the Alderbourne Kennels in London, Eng. "Mi Mi of Munday," a little sister to Ch. "Tito of Mundy," and "Minosa Gipsy" an exquisite grey brindle. To head the Kennel "Sun of Wangza" a winning red black masked son of Ch. "Priorwood Pagan" has been purchased from Miss C. La Violette and we wish this new fancier all kinds of real success.

Geo. H. Eastham reports a litter of Pokes out of his "Daffy of Hartburn" by his good winning sire, "Sonni of Somme."

Mrs. A. Trudeau, Longueuil, reports the arrival of three beautiful parti-colored Peke puppies out of her winning bitch "Miss Fo Ton Ton" sired by Ch. "Priorwood Pagan." One of the males being the exact image of his daddy has been named "Sonora Pagan," and much is expected of him as a show dog.

John Miles, Toronto's "Daddy in Dogdom" reports that his good Bull Terrier bitch "Lady True Blue," is nursing 6 male and 2 female puppies by "Brockley Topper," the sire who is keeping the "Miles' quality" on the Bull Terrier map.

B. B. Finnie, Toronto's Bloodhound enthusiast, recently mated his good matron "Lady" to J. R. Tennant's well known dog "Ledburn Bayonet" and expects the result to still further raise interest in this old breed in Canada.

Reg. P. Sparks, Toronto, reports that after passing the experimental stage, he has cleaned out his kennel entirely, having sold every dog he owned. New kennels are now under construction, and will be tenanted by "Princess Victoria" and a nine months' old puppy by this good Bulldog bitch, who was being sought after by several American buyers. When Mr. Sparks closes the deal for himself, in the interest of his own kennel, other Bulldogs may be imported from England before the owner of the "Kamel" prefix will be satisfied.

S. Gaston, Toronto, reports the arrival of four handsome Boston Terrier puppies, all correctly marked and colored; there are three males in the bunch, and claim "Joyce's Prince" as sire and the owner's "Midget Queen" as dam.

Jos. A. Gouin, Three Rivers, reports flourishing business at the "Klassy" Kennels, a dozen bitches having made the acquaintance of "Yankee Speed King" since his arrival, and a strong "waiting list" is on file.

Richard D. Livingston, Chicago, while visiting Toronto recently, purchased at a good figure the imported Collie bitch "Coltness Chip O'Sandy" and two of her litter by "Coltness Commander," and was satisfied that the purchase would be a valuable asset to Chicago Collies.

NOTHING SUCCEEDS LIKE SUCCESS.

Montreal fanciers will rejoice in the knowledge that despite the eleventh hour jar the show got from the regrettable secession of several members at a critical time, the show was a genuine success, and a profit of nearly $200.00 has been earned on the fixture. This is considered very heartening to the officials who "carried on." The club has a bank balance on the credit side of almost $400.00 and a membership of 112 with the possibilities in the ascendant.

A local Summer Show for members is the next move of the executive, and care will be taken not to clash with any official dates which may have been allocated to any other club, and which might be hurt by the absence of the Montreal entry.

Three Rivers Show Unavoidably Postponed.

We regret to inform exhibitors intending entering their dogs for Three Rivers Show, that owing to circumstances arising over which the Three Rivers Kennel Club had no control, the club was obliged to extend their dates to August 25 and 26, when they hope to have an opportunity of showing the fancy just what a splendid time had been planned in their interests. Make a note of the new dates, so that this important fixture may not be overlooked.

GIVE HONOR WHERE HONOR IS DUE.

Major J. A. Campbell, Toronto's most honored veterinary surgeon, has had conferred upon him recently the degree of B. V. Sc. (Bachelor of Veterinary Science). Every Toronto fancier has more than passing pleasure in the good doctor's preferment, and hope he will be long spared to bring further glory to his profession.

The Edward Street Hospital (home for both dogs and their owners for many years) will soon be closed up. A new and up-to-date building on Elm Street will take its place with complete equipment for the care and comfort of all animals. This new venture would have materialized much sooner, but with the doctor's activities in war work, particularly the Siberian Expedition, the plans were forced into abeyance for a considerable time. We hope to further report the new hospital in a later issue.

Verdun Kennels have sold their Collie Ch. "Verdun Ballantyne" to Mr. Ballantyne of New Castle, Pa., and was shipped two weeks ago. A letter received from the purchaser since the arrival says he is more than pleased with the quality of Canadian bred dogs. "Verdun Sally" has been purchased and shipped to Fred McMillan, Brockville, Ont., and she was mated to Ch. "Knocklayde Joe" a week ago.

Chas. Powesland has purchased the good wire bitch "Verdun Impie" and bred her to Mr. Whitleys "Short Cut," while "Donington Verdun" the good bitch by "Southboro Stormy" was bred a month ago to Whitley's "Prides Hill Trenchman." Without letting the cat out of the bag, keep your eye open for a novice wire dog this fall, that was raised last fall from the above mating.

The two Canadian Boston Terriers, Ch. "Ingram's Sweet Clover," owned by Mrs. W. C. Ingram, of Toronto, and "Globe Sweet William," owned by Vincent G. Perry, of London, carried off a good share of the honors at the Boston Terrier Specialty Show, of Rochester, N.Y., on June 4th and 5th. "Sweet Clover" was awarded two first prizes, while "Globe Sweet William" won three firsts, four specials and reserve winners. George Heinlein, of New York, was the judge. Both of the above named dogs were sired by Ch. "Ingram's Little Man."

THE GREAT AIREDALE CH. ABBEY KING NOBBLER "GOES WEST."

Airedalers all over the Dominion will regret the "passing hence" of the great Airedale, Champion "Abbey King Nobbler," probably the greatest Airedale of all time, both as a show specimen and a stud dog—great factors in any animal—but as a pal, "Tiger" was very near to his master's heart at all times.

Alick Stewart, chronicling the sad news to a friend, says: "I am simply ill with grief over the loss of my old pal."

It is the fancier's privilege to have born the puppies of the breed he admires, and several times in his lifetime does he make the attachment to some of them which ripens into real comradeship, then in the natural course of things they age and die, leaving him to feel the loss of the friendship. We can all recall these experiences, and our sympathies go out to those of our friends who happen to lose their "dog pals."

NOTES ON TERMINAL CITY KENNEL CLUB SHOW.

(Specially Contributed).

The Terminal City Kennel Club's annual spring show, which was held on May 24th and 25th, was voted to be the best ever. The Club was fortunate in securing the Dog Show building at Hastings Park, thanks to the courtesy of Mr. Rolston, manager of the Vancouver Exhibition, and Hon. President of the Terminal City Kennel Club. The judge of all breeds was Mr. John McMann, of Seattle. Mr. McMann knows the breeds, and places them fearlessly, his awards being received by the ringsiders with applause. It is no exaggeration to say that he is the most popular and most satisfactory judge that has ever donned the ermine in Vancouver. The show was under the able superintendent, Norman McConnell, than whom there are no better, and few equals. The secretarial work was in the hands of that peer of secretaries, Ted Halliday, to whom, more than any other, the success of the show belongs. The show was the most satisfactory from a financial standpoint ever held in Vancouver, and the Club starts away with the largest bank balance in its history and the largest number of paid-up members it has ever known. The thanks of the Club are due to the fanciers and others who donated so many beautiful and useful trophies and specials for competition. The judging started with Pomeranians, one of the largest classes in the show. The quality all through was very high, and the competition very keen. Mrs. Dorell carried off winners dogs with "Jacobean of Granby," as well as best of the breed. Winners bitches going to "Strathroyal Radah," a home-bred one owned by Mrs. D. Elsted.

Yorkshire Terriers were few in number, but good in quality, best Yorky going to Mrs. Rose.

White West Highland Terriers had some good specimens benched. Best of the breed going to "Kilmartin Pibroch," a really good one owned by Alex McCloy, of New Westminster. Scottish Terriers brought out some new ones, with not a poor one in the lot. Ch. "Betty Smith," overflowing with quality, as usual topped the lot. Best opposite sex went to a sensational puppy, "Kirkhope Scout," entered for specials only. The latter went over "Invertay Dirk," which got winners dogs.

Smooth Fox Terriers were fairly numerous, "Thelma," an extra good one belonging to W. J. Smith, going to best of breed.

Wires were a large class, and the quality was good all through. Vancouver has always been noted for its Wires. The winning dog, "Second Attempt," which also won best of the breed, can give a good account of himself in any company. This dog finished his championship at this show (hats off to Mrs. Alsen, his popular owner.) Best opposite sex went to "Lyncote Helpmate," a nice bitch owned by Mrs. Thornton Sharp.

Irish Terriers saw two importations; best of the Irish went to "Peter Gilligan," owned by Dr. Hoggan.

Airedales were a grand collection of the biggest and best Terriers, Jack Babb bringing along no less than six from his famous kennels in Washington. The competition was very keen, especially in open dogs, "El Commanche of Briarcrest," "Connaught Gassoon," and "Kingston Pat" fighting it out, and being placed in the order named. Bitches brought out some new ones with lots of quality, "Glen-side Peggy," bred by Norman McLeod, going from puppy to winners.

Beston Terriers were not so numerous as at other shows, but what they lacked in quantity, they made up in quality. Best dog was "Chum's Duplicate," best bitch being "Rellim Wee Wee."

A nice collection of Bull Terriers faced the judge. The winning dog, Ch. "Richards Jeff," is a good specimen, sound as a dollar. Best bitch went to "Anzac White Countess," a bitch with lots of quality.

Bulldogs had a large entry. The judging of this breed attracting a large crowd at the ringside. Competition was keen, and the placing of "Futurity Real Lady," owned by Dr. Sleeth, as best of the breed, drew the applause of the ringsiders. Best opposite sex went to a real good one, "Kingsway Squire," owned by J. J. Jackson.

Scotch Collies had some grand specimens entered, and it seems appropriate that best of the breed should be owned by a Scotchman. Best dog was "Lochaber Loyal," owned by P. J. McLachlan, a real top-notch, best bitch being "Lochaber Lorna," both winners being natives of New Westminster, the home of everything good in Scotch.

The real Derby of the show was the judging of Cocker Spaniels. "Princello," a grand black of correct type, owned by Frank Archer, going to winners dogs. Winners bitches and best of the breed, as well as best bitch in show all breeds went to Mr. Moore's Ch. "Moonshine."

A large class of Setters faced the judge. This class produced very keen competition. Best Setter was won by "Rowlands Credential," a real one, owned by Mr. Wilgress. This dog romped through everything, and eventually was placed best in show all breeds, the most popular best in show verdict ever rendered in Vancouver.

Terrible tale of cruelty to valuable English Setter "Snowden Lady Rowland," owned by W. R. Wilgress, Vancouver, a member of the Canadian Kennel Club.

Every reader of Kennel & Bench should make a note of this case, and the findings thereof.

TOWSER ASSURED COURT PROTECTION.

Man Who Wantonly Ill-Treated Valuable Dog Described by Judge As a "Brute."

Towser and Fido are not without friends at court, as was demonstrated recently when Chief Justice Macdonald and his colleagues of the court of appeal uttered scathing denunciations of the conduct of George Ritchie of Northfield who brutally clubbed and maimed a valuable English setter belonging to W. R. Wilgress, of Vancouver. The animal lived in great pain for two weeks, but later had to be shot. Ritchie's plea of justification to a damage action brought by the owner, was that under the sheep protection act any dog at large in the district in question may be killed.

"Nobody questions that he may have had the right to kill the dog under certain circumstances," commented the chief justice, "but he simply beat the dog in a savage manner for no object connected with the protection of sheep, but just because he was a brute. This is a case of wanton cruelty and nothing else.

"This is one of the most painful cases heard in this court for a long time. It would be a pity if it should get abroad in this so-called sheep district that men may go out and abuse wantonly and in this brutal fashion any dog without a tag. It would be unfortunate if such a man could escape punishment. It is true, the criminal code provides punishment for such acts, but fortunately also the civil law has a remedy for persons sustaining loss through such conduct. The defendant is entitled to no sympathy whatever; a man who undertakes to kill a dog should show good faith. If this had been done under a sense of duty he would have come forward and pleaded to that effect, but he does not do so."

Mr. Justice Martin held that the sheep protection act could not be invoked by one who did not act in bona fide compliance with the intent of the act and that an act for the protection of sheep could not be construed to allow an act of brutality. Mr. Justice McPhillips said that the act was not meant to encourage the destruction of dogs and expressed the hope that he would never be called upon again to hear so painful a case.

Mr. Justice Gallagher expressed his complete agreement with the other judge's comments as to the wanton cruelty that the evidence disclosed, while judgment could not be based on such principles he held that it was the duty of the court to mention its attitude towards such things.

The facts upon which the judgment was based were adduced before Judge Barker at Nanaimo. Mr. Wilgress explained that the animal in question was the famous "Snowdon Lady Rowland," heroine of many bench shows where last season she several times won the cup for the best dog in the show of all breeds. She was sent from her kennel at Vancouver to Mr. Wilgress' brother at Northfield to have a litter and at the time she was beaten had a pup a month old. A little girl was the witness of the occurrence and she saw the beautiful setter in the clutches of Ritchie as he beat it with a club. Then when the dog broke away with one leg broken and dangling the defendant hurled boulders at it. Mr. Wilgress valued the animal at $250 and was awarded damages to that amount on the appeal.

In the course of argument that untagged dogs were allowed to be killed and hence that Ritchie was within his rights, F. S. Cunliffe, counsel for the defendant was interrupted by a member of the court who remarked:

"Does that mean that a man may become an irresponsible executioner and sit on his verandah and shoot every dog that goes by?"

Chief Justice Macdonald also commented:

"Are you serious in contending that a man could go out and break the legs of every dog in the district? For that is what this man did wantonly."

Victor B. Harrison conducted the appeal for the owner of the beaten dog.—(Vancouver Sun.)

The breeder of "Prince Feramorz" is also greatly elated over the fact that another Maltese from her Kennels has won the distinction of Canadian Champion.

together they started the rounding-up process.

The dogs in the clearing were checked off. Then John remembered he had given one to a boy at the pump. The boy was located and the dog returned to the string. Then there were the two bull terriers. Mr. Swann spied the man with them.

"Thanks very much," he said, as he started to take them from the man.

"Thanks nuthin'," grunted the man. "These aren't your dogs. I got these from a boy and they are going to be returned to him." Mr. Swann pointed out John and the bull terriers were returned to his custody.

"Where's the other one, mister?"

"What other one? You only gave me two."

"No, there's another," and, doing some quick thinking, John recalled where he had last seen it, and it was soon found.

And that's how it happened it with the whole string. They were returned to a dog, none the worse for their hurried separation.

Just a word about young John, in concluding. He's a bright little fellow, three years older now, and growing fast, and you'll find him at most of the shows acting as his dad's first lieutenant; but John isn't going to be a dog-man. We have his father's word for that. He doesn't like dogs—that is, any other kind of dog's but "wire-haired fox terriers." John had decided not to go near the Oakville show the other day, and we would have missed the pleasure of meeting him, had not someone hinted to him that Sam Bamford's new "wire" would be there. That brought John quickly, and he hung around that "wire" the whole last day of the show. John is a nice, smart boy.

IMPORTANT RULING BY THE AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB.

Foreign Judges have Licenses Revoked

At the meeting of the licence committee, held May 18, 1920, it was decided that all permanent licenses held by foreign judges are hereby revoked, and, in future, should any club wish to engage the services of a foreign judge, they shall submit the name to the License Committee, and a temporary license may be granted for that one show.

"Melita Prince Feramorz," the beautiful little Maltese Terrier, belonging to Fred Simmons, London, Ont., has attained championship honors and defeated, a fact that makes our London friend extremely proud. victim of the poisoner. On Sunday morning, June 20th, "Tintern Boy" was let out for his usual run and soon returned in a sick condition, and before veterinary aid could be administered he died. Len's dog was a general favorite and a great pal, and will be badly missed from the home where he was so well loved by all.

ANNOUNCE THE PURCHASE OF

Strathway Kennels

Having purchased the entire collection of WINNING BULLDOGS owned by Alex. H. Stewart, of Chicago, Ill., and combining these with the already famous collection owned by us, it affords us extreme pleasure to announce THE LARGEST AND GRANDEST COLLECTION OF BULLDOGS, NOT ONLY IN THE UNITED STATES, BUT IN THE WORLD. We question if any kennel on earth can show a team of such quality, or twenty such Bulldogs as are housed in our kennels at the present time. We have, at all times, quality dogs and bitches that can win—brood matrons of the best blood lines and puppies of all ages—if you are in the market for anything good in the Bulldog line it will pay you to inspect the Warfleigh stock.

We Offer at Stud

(Each Dog is Limited as to Service)

White Hope

The grandest bulldog living—a brindle pied heavyweight of 56 pounds. Awarded winners at the Westminster Show, New York City, and the Chicago Specialty Show, also "Best in Show" at the latter. Produces the best—watch for his "gets" at the coming shows—$4,000.00 recently refused for three youngsters in the same litter. Fee, $30.00.

Dum-Dum

Sired by that wonderful Bulldog, Ch. At Last, to whom he bears a close resemblance. A heavy lightweight of 44 pounds, dark fawn with a black mask. Has the same beautiful headpiece as his sire—skull is well wrinkled, ears are perfect, stop in deep and his underjaw is wide and well turned up. His enormous shoulders are well placed and his front extremely wide, while his body is the true pearshaped, with a beautiful tuckup of loin and a short tail. Fee, $30.00.

Goytside Demand

Next to Ch. Strathway Prince Albert, the best lightweight imported to the States. At his last show in England he won ten firsts and special for Best In Show and left behind some pups that money cannot buy—he has repeated in this country. He weighs 42 pounds and is possibly the best balanced Bulldog in America. Is a dark brindle pied dog—has a grand head and ears, is extremely short in back and has a genuine roach. We claim he is the biggest-boned lightweight living and is bred to produce the best. Fee, $25.00.

Pressgang

The dog whose head is a study—extremely short in foreface, great sweep of underjaw, has a broad flat skull, topped with the neatest of rose ears. He is considered one of the grandest headed dogs to-day. Fee, $25.00.

It Costs Nothing to Breed

We know our dogs are producers—we guarantee each service—we simply hold the fee until the bitch proves in whelp—if not the fee is returned—stud card tells the conditions.

AT PUBLIC STUD IN TORONTO---Canada's Best Irish Terrier CHAMPION MENDON MIKE

(By "REPRIEVE," Ex "BALLYHAISE JUDY")

The Property of M. S. Kilby, Montreal, P.Q.

The powers of Mendon Mike as a stud dog have been amply demonstrated, and his value to the Irish Terrier fancy lies chiefly in his breeding. For a foundation on which to build a kennel of winning Irish Terriers, the blood of Mendon Mike cannot be surpassed. In a recent litter by him out of "Mendon Patricia" ("Endcliffe Red Cloud" ex Ch. "Leonora") are a dog and a bitch puppy that will make Irish Terrier history in Canada and the States. These puppies are in the care of Bert Swann at the Parkdale Kennels, and may be seen by arrangement. They are living testimonies of Mike's ability to sire good Irish Terriers.
