And it was moved and seconded "That the applicants be received."

The Secretary reported that an incorrect certificate of dogs benched had been returned by the Guelph Kennel Club, and the Secretary was instructed to advise the Club named of the seriousness of the nature of their offence, and to advise their vigilance against its recurrence.

A protest having been placed, according to Rule 24, and the fee received from H. G. Craig, London, Ont., protesting the showing of an English Setter, "Dell's Lady," owned by F. W. Gray, also of London, Ont.

The Secretary submitted both sides of the case, but it was felt by the Directors that there was nothing produced in the evidence that would justify their decision, and it was left to the Secretary to advise both parties of this finding.

KENNEL AND BENCH

It was agreed that in future separate recognition be given in the list of recognized breeds to Belgian Sheep-Police Dogs and to Shepherd Dogs (Alsatian), which up to the present had been recognized under the one heading of Belgian Sheep Dogs (Police Dogs), which arrangement was considered obsolete in view of their evident popularity.

The Shepherd Dog (Alsatian) and the enthusiasm in certain quarters for the Belgian Sheep-Police Dog. The Secretary was instructed to advise the Canadian Live Stock Record Office of this understanding.

This being the business before the meeting, it was moved and seconded "That the meeting adjourn." "Carried."

Canada's Youngest Champions Ch. Globe League O'Nations and Ch. Globe Sweet William

CH. GLOBE LEAGUE O' NATIONS.

A new record for Boston terriers was established at the Montreal Kennel Club show when "Globe League O'Nations," the fourteen months old youngster was returned best Boston and incidentally completed his own championship—making the coveted title in nine weeks without a defeat. The former record was held by the dog's grandsire "Ch. Ingrams's Little Man" who made the title in fifteen weeks without a defeat. It is a fitting tribute to the former holder of the record that the honor of establishing a new record reverts to one of his own descendants.

The show career of "Ch. Globe League O'Nations," to say the least, has been spectacular. At the New York show, while still a puppy, he carried off two firsts and two seconds to the winners dog, defeating in his ascent to the top 103 male Boston terriers, many of whom were reckoned on as the fastest dogs in the United States. Again at the Detroit Spring show he beat a fast field of dogs and was returned winners. In Canada he has won nothing but blue ribbons.

A beautiful dark brindle, with ideal markings that have won for him the special for best marked in the show at two Canadian specialty shows and two large American shows, "Ch. Globe League O'Nations" is one of the most handsome specimens of his popular breed.

It is doubtful which is the more famous of the two new Boston terrier champions—"Globe League O'Nations," or "Globe Sweet William"—Perhaps, for the reason that he is the sire of the League, "Globe Sweet William" can lay greatest claim to honors achieved. In "Sweet William" is found one of those rare combinations—a dog who can win and a dog who can sire winners.

Not much more than a youngster himself—just 2½ years old—"Ch. Sweet William" has placed numerous winners on the show bench. The latest of his get to make its appearance is a little fifteen months old female who went from novice class to reserve winners to "Ch. Ingram's Sweetheart" at Guelph, and was best lightweight in the show at Brantford. She weighs just 10 lbs.

With the class of stock "Sweet William" is producing, it is evident that Mr. Paddy Dowd, of Boston, was quite fair in his judgment in placing him first in the stud dog and two of his get class over four other champions at the recent show at the Boston Terrier Club of Toronto.

"Ch. Sweet William's" wins, embrace Ottawa; Cornwall; Montreal; Quebec; Brantford and Guelph. He was reserve winners at the last Canadian National Exhibition, and at one other five point show. He has taken the blue at Buffalo, Rochester, and Detroit, and was third limit and third open in fast company at the big New York show, 1921.

FROM COAST TO COAST

QUEBEC KENNEL CLUB.

The picturesque and quaint City of Quebec went clean "to the dogs" on June 15th and 16th. The cause of this drifting towards canines was the young and enterprising kennel club of that city staging their second annual Dog Show, which took place in the clean and spacious Drill Hall, kindly lent for the occasion by the city military authorities. Lt.-Col. O. E. Talbot, the genial President, opened the show with a racy little speech which made a fitting introduction to a clean, sporty and well managed event.

Mr. G. E. Letourneau and Mr. F. W. McKeen, as Superintendents, made an ideal "Brace" for that office and were ably assisted by a staff of hard working officials. The man "behind the guns" was the popular Montreal veterinarian, Dr. J. H. Villeneuve, who saw that everything was in order for the well-being of the show, and deserves great credit for his untiring and energetic labors.

Miss C. J. LaViolette, of Longueuil, was the judge-elect for the Toys, and commenced her task on the noon of the first day. She did her work gracefully and well and no fault could be found with her placings. Her greatest task was awarding the Governor's Cup for best Toy in show, when along with other good ones, the pair of Pekingeses, Ch. Prince Cha of Alderbourne and Ch. Walnut Mannikin, met in competition. It was a trying ordeal, as very little separated the pair. On the day they were put down in perfect condition and shown well, Prince Cha's wonderful headpiece and improved coat gained for him the verdict over the compact and well balanced Mannikin. In another part of this issue will be found a review of Miss LaViolette's breed, specially written by herself for this paper.

Mr. Norman K. Swire, of Toronto, the popular all-rounder, judged the remaining varieties in his usual satisfactory and capable manner. His criticism of the dogs he judged will appear in our next issue. Following is a list of the awards:—

TELEPHONE CITY KENNEL CLUB

The Annual Show held at the Armories, Brantford, on June 9th and 10th was voted another success. 205 dogs were benched and a 2-point rating obtained. 50 per cent. of the entry was catalogued as listed. Charles M. Smith, the Club and Show Secretary, had everything in good shape, his many drawbacks considered. Owing to printers' troubles the judges' books which we supplied were of the "evening show" type, causing the Secretary considerable confusion and worry, and of course after him the judge had also a share, and we venture to say that with the experience obtained this year, added to next year's requirements, will make Charlie Smith a real Show Secretary.

All the handlers were out, and included Sam. Bamford, Matt. Gracey, and Ted. Wood. Montreal sent some of their best Wires, and Harry Armistead took away Winners Dogs, and Reserve Winners Dogs and Bitches, while Bert Swann hiked it under many handicaps from Mineola Show with Duranside Captain, Ellerslie Queen, and Int. Ch. Polam Maxim in tow. The quartette arrived, travel stained, but otherwise in A1 shape.

Joseph Russell had a string of eleven, and earned two winners in Fox Terriers (1 Wire, 1 Smooth), and a winners in Airedales. J. R. Tennant benched four Bloodhounds in splendid shape. (Some day ere long we hope to give our readers some interesting notes about Mr. Tennant, his dogs and his dog show experiences, which will be worth waiting and watching for.

The judges were Mr. Fred Wright, North Adams, Mass., and W. C. Baldwin, Ottawa. Judge Wright started first, and his task was a "warm" one for the first day and half of the second, when he invested W. C. with the "robes of ermine." W. C. got his coat off and soon had his "pep" installed into his stewards, and his exhibitors, and with a "fire and go" he soon cleaned off that part of the judging allocated to him. Here is another Canuck judge which our Yankee cousins have discovered for us. W. C. makes no claim to the "all round" field, but the breeds he claims to know are as pie to him once he starts going, and we predict many claims on his services for Sporting dogs in the future.

The executive are all very deserving of mention; collars and ties were relegated to hooks, or hampers, and many a muscular arm bared from the shoulder down were in evidence both days. The building was ideal for room, but terribly hot; was kept clean and well disinfected. Spratts' Cakes were used for feeding the 200 odd dogs benched.

The usual Banquet was again observed, this time at the Patricia Cafe, where, under the chairmanship of the 1st Vice-President, Mr. F. J. Beney (in the unavoidable absence of Mr. G. H. Cass, the President), about 80 sat down to a seasonable repast, which was evidently much enjoyed. After supper, the acting President called upon Mr. Joseph Russell to address the members, their friends and visitors. Upon Mr. Russell rising he was immediately hailed as a Dandy and a Daisy. While "See Him Smiling" was vociferously rendered, and on the "noise factory" abating, Mr. Russell intimated that their musical onslaught had driven every idea which he had had in mind clean out of his head; however, the Chief Executive gave out an abundance of encouragement and good advice and later in the evening, having again recovered his "disturbed" thoughts, he again addressed the meeting. Other speakers included Messrs. G. Ward, Vincent G. Perry, Lee Wainwright, Reg. Rastall, B. Swann, John David Kerr, Chas. M. Smith, both judges, J. D. Strachan. Mrs. W. C. Ingram was called upon, but was found to be suffering from severe throat strain (the effects of earlier singing contests). J. E. Keays had his quartette of "Seven" trained choristers on hand and gave a remarkable rendition of "The Johnston Boys," which goes something like this:

"O the Johnston boys, they built a mill,
They built it on the side of a hill;
They worked all night, and they worked all day,
But they couldn't make the gol darned sawmill pay."

This being the "off" season for eggs and tomatoes, undoubtedly left the choir with a great deal to be thankful for, and J. D. Strachan, the leader, was later informed that "Keays and his Kwyer" should be taken out to the rampants at day-break and shot. Mrs. A. Patterson spoke for the ladies, and prettily handed to the Misses Bowden beautiful bouquets of carnations for their acceptable entertainment submitted during the dinner and in course of the evening.

Later, at the invitation of Mrs. Charles M. Smith, the members of the "Old Guard" motored out to the Smith home, where song and story bewitched the "nighthawks" until the judge had rested himself and was calling for "Wires."

The annual Spring Show of the above club was held at Willows Park, Victoria, on May 27th and 28th, under Canadian Kennel Club Rules. 194 dogs were entered, 187 of which were actually benched, giving the show a two-point rating. This is an improvement over the last Spring Show of 20 dogs, and we believe that the "unemployment" question had a hand in keeping this year's fixture back—in numbers—quite considerably.

It is amazing to find that out of the entry of 194, actually 146 (one hundred and forty-six) paid a listing fee. Something is wrong here, radically wrong, and a remedy must be arranged for instant.

Chris. Shuttleworth, the genial Editor of the Kennel Advocate, was the judge, and Chris. has a standing at the coast which is peculiarly his own. Coming in contact with all shades of opinion as we do, we are impressed with the constantly occurring "word of praise" for the work of Chris. Shuttleworth when he dons the ermine, at the coast or elsewhere, and when they "all say the same"—there's a reason.

CORRECTION.

On page five of our June issue, and at the last paragraph, we refer to "Hay Hutchison" as being often encountered in "Our Dogs," England. Of course our readers would notice this error and wonder what "brand" we had changed over to. "Hay Hutchison" has drawn exclusively for the "Dog World" (England), for many years, and this correction is inserted to keep everybody straight.

The Annual Spring Show of the above Club as had been anticipated, was a wonderful affair, and culminated in possession of the highest possible rating under the rules and regulations of the Canadian Kennel Club Western Schedule. Three hundred and twenty dogs were certified to as having been benched, a remarkable entry indeed.

Sam Crabtree, Englands A.I. breeder and judge, adorned the woosack and his placings were based on great experience in dogdom, and were well received and those who won under Mr. Crabtree at this show will often refer to his satisfactory judging in the years to come. Sam has gone on to New Zealand, and thence to South Africa, then....Home to the Land O' Roses.

Nat McConnell was "Boss" and he had determined on at least the limit, and he came through to expectations. J. E. Davies "Snap" was at the Secretarial end, in place of Mr. Purdon, who found it impossible to continue owing to poor health, but in Mr. Davies an able substitute was found and he never let up in his publicity campaign until the curtain was rung down on the show.

SHORT BARKS.

We call our Airedale fanciers' attention to a litter of puppies offered for sale in our business columns by John McLean of Victoria, B.C., sired by "Geelong Rush," a winning son of Ch. "Geelong Gladiator," a dog embracing all the best blood lines of the breed, and out of "Blackwood Queen," bringing the bloods of "Swiveller" (twice), "King Oorang" and "Abbey King Nobbler." The price asked is the modest one of $40.00, and they should move like "Halley's Comet," at that figure. Our western brethren are slow to take advantage of our legitimate business columns, with their undoubted advantages, and we feel the greater loss must be theirs as a result, and so we are frankly pleased to further draw our readers' attention to this offering from Victoria, B.C., in our reading columns.—Ed.

M. U. Bates, Metagama, Ont., Hunting Airedale Ace of Canada, reports a litter of "bred to be game, on game" puppies, 6 males and 4 females, sired by "Hudson Bay, The Black Eagle" out of his well known bitch "Preparedness." It is well for friend Bates that there is lots of room out there in his "neck o' the woods."

M. D. Harbord, the Secretary of the Victoria City Kennel Club, has just secured an unshown son of the well known Coast Bulldog "Lobengulo," named "Buffingstone," and as Mr. Harbord has the dog game solidly at heart, this acquisition may further entrench him in his hobby.

BRITISH COLUMBIA SPORTSMEN'S SHOW

The first show held under the auspices of the above organization, was in the hands of that old campaigner Bert Finch, well known in canine circles the world over, and we have it upon unquestionable authority that the show was ably conducted throughout, all the essentials being observed, a clean building, good ring service, All special prizes collected from all the sporting fraternity known to the energetic manager, and were said to be the best offered to dog fanciers in Vancouver, for a long time.

Jack C. Fletcher of Calgary, was the judge, a pastmaster of the dog show ring himself, his work was a source of pleasure to others, and Jack had the satisfaction of seeing his chief awards endorsed at the Terminal City Kennel Club by the English authority Sam Crabtree. And it is worthy of note that the dog placed as "best in show" at the Sportsman's Show under Fletcher, did not compete for that honor under Crabtree. While Chris Shuttleworth, working at the Victoria City Kennel Club Show, took as his "best in show" the Anokia entry, the English Bulldog "Knight Errant of Anokia," a dog that was beaten by Jack Fletcher's "reserve best," a coincidence that show "great minds think alike" or nearly so.

We must mention here that we were obliged recently to correct certain wild rumours that this show could not be held under Canadian Kennel Club rules, and incidentally to note that this management at the same time was boosting for all the other shows in their immediate vicinity, and all trust it will be a long time before such a display of poor sportsmanship shows itself in the domain of Canadian dogdom again.

LANCE FAREWELL ON THE SICK LIST.

The multitude of friends of the old Cocker Spaniel wizard, Lance Farewell, Toronto, will be grieved to learn that he has been quite seriously indisposed for several weeks, but as we go to press we are advised that the old "war horse" is slowly getting back to his normal again, which information is extremely gratifying.

Dr. Milne, while visiting Toronto for the Presbyterian "Kirk Conclave" found time to dicker for a "Deer Park" Cocker Spaniel sired by Lance Farewell's ace, "Man o' War," out of "Udora." $100.00 for a three months puppy looked pretty stiff to the "meen-ister," but as it was a matter of "pay, or dae withoot," he paid, sensible man, and the coast is the winner after all.

SHORT BARK.

Mrs. H. W. Harris, Kansas City, Mo., is having lots of fun with a bunch of husky Canadian puppies down in Kansas, the litter was one of 10 by Ch. "Dusky Bounce" ex "Devonian Beauty." Wires all the lot of them.

"Madison Christmas Chimes," a Smooth of quality and a Canuck too, is expected to whelp around July 1st, the sire being "Sir Don."

"THE JOLLY OLD ROVERS."

Reading from left to right, the Jolly Old Rovers are: Messrs. Wm. R. Aitken (Canadian Kennel Club, Director for Quebec Province); Allan C. Chisholm (First Vice-President, Montreal Kennel Association); Bob Mills (Daddy of 'em all); Sam Crabtree, England (the distinguished guest and visitor on his "over the world" trip); Sam Almon, and J. McCorquodale. A close study of the picture will explain the caption of The Jolly Old Rovers.

When Sam Crabtree set his feet first on Canadian soil on his present trip, it was fitting that he should be received by his friends. "The Old Timers," and we have it on indisputable authority that "Sam's Impressions" of his Montreal "stopover" were of a very happy kind, but we need not tell our readers that. His beaming smile speaks a volume for us, and we have it on the same high authority that he left "The Gang" with a pleasant though severe headache, and as there is only the one way to acquire a pleasant headache, and that the ancient method, tried and trusty, we will pass on without further comment, then advise you to look at the picture again, closely this time.

We cannot resist the temptation; here goes for the whole story: The first day Mr. Sam Crabtree was advertised to reach Montreal early in May, "on the seventh day"—that reads like the Bible—he arrived, and to start the welcome easily and comfortably, Mr. and Mrs. Smith, of "Sally of Montreal" fame, placed their high-powered 7-passenger car entirely at his disposal. The old-timers registered their visitor with Joe Meehan, at the Queen's Hotel, and then Bob Mills and other old friends began the pleasant task of introducing Sam to Montreal and to the fanciers thereof, and wherever he went everybody seemed prepared to offer him the hospitality which made the "Pelican" famous. This was kept up until well after midnight. Next morning at 10 o'clock everything was found to be primed and ready to start. Harry Silver's Kennels was the first on the cards. Harry was glad to see the party for several reasons, chiefly, because, in some mysterious way, Harry and Sam had got their hats mixed up a little "the night before." Next move was to see Mac McCorquodale (see him in the picture), and Mac had the drinks ready with their kilts on, and it was immediately after this that "Boston" Painter snapped the picture that adorns our article. The camera has our sympathy, so many beaming faces "lookin' in" at one time was enough to make it burst its sides laughing.

Here, again, our family had outgrown out 7-passenger and another car had to be commandeered, and away the party sailed to see the great "Irish Challenger" from Malovitz's castle to Bob Mills' place, and then—supper and then—Harry Lauder's greatest living impersonator, Allan Chisholm. How the house did rock put one in mind of the night the "Tay Brig" fell in. From here to Mrs. Smith's, with 13 in one car, and so you can guess what was in the other one. Smith had a donkey on pasture and Mac told Almon that that was his brother from Jerusalem, but Almon declared that it was his opinion that the donkey was Scotch, and related to McCorquodale, and as Mac waxed hot the Moke gave him one in the rear, ending the dispute ingloriously. The end of one perfect day; everyone home and a programme prepared for the morrow.

Another day, and away we went to M. S. Kilby's to look over the "Irish regiment," but the "begorras, bedads and hurros" were blood raising, so we went off to see Jimmie Strachan—no, not the Editor—and it was on the programme to visit the Ormsby Kennels, at Lachine, but Sam Crabtree got going at 8 p.m. to point judge a pair of Bulldogs, and we have the veteran Mills' word for it that he considers this method unsatisfactory, but that Sam's demonstration was an instructive, educative revelation, and that he wished that every fancier from the Atlantic to the Pacific could have been present to have seen this expert work from the great master of the Falls-worths, each and every one of the 100 points being described, explained and illustrated; every fancier on the edge of excitement as the Secretary scored up the totals, to find the winner.

Votes of thanks were passed to one and all who had made the great Crabtree's visit a pleasant and memorable one, and away we went to the depot, where, to time-honored "Auld Lang Syne," a ditty that the station multitude knew, and heartily joined in, our distinguished friend Sam pulled out on the second leg of his long journey. In our hearts we sang, "God be with him, till we meet again."

OUR COMING SHOWS.

July evidently is considered unsuitable for the purpose of benching dogs for exhibition purposes, and so the dogs are at home, and under the shade of their "own apple tree."

August will see our brothers "way out west," working "full time." Starting at Regina on the 2nd, with Charles G. Hopton on the "woolsack" and "never again" Johnnie Newman full charge of the show there in his capacity of Superintendent, might as well try to keep a duck from the water Jack, as try to make yourself a "looker-on" at a dog show, now admit your guilt, and all will be forgiven. I have premium lists—send for one. On the 18th, Manager H. S. Rolston—himself an "old timer," will ring up the curtain for the Vancouver Exhibition Dog Show. We have not heard who the judge is, that has been selected, so cannot tell our readers this month, and we all lose as a result. On the 23rd, Nanaimo bids for support, and last year that Club "stepped up to one point" and at that time "bigger things to come" were expected. "Real Sports" abound in Nanaimo and all roads lead to their show on the 23rd. On the 31st we are due back to support Secretary Francis at Sherbrooke Fair. A show that will command greater attention this year than ever before and fanciers will be well advised to send for a premium list in good time. September 5-6-8, The Canadian National will "hold the stage" and here the cream of Canadian and American judges will pass on the capacity entry which is anticipated by the Superintendent, Mr. Fred Jacobi, "The Master Mariner." September 13 to 16, Ottawa and London will again angle for their entry. At the former—The Central Canada Exhibition, more money has again been added and an English judge is expected, and of course, an additional point to their rating. The Western Fair have not as yet advised us of their officiating judges, nor of their other intentions, but we believe they are going to make a strong bid for the fanciers favor. September 14-16, The Provincial Exhibition at New Westminster, will open their dog show building with the same officiating experts who so ably managed the fixture last year. Archie Hogg, (Chairman); John J. Jackson; W. McCloy; E. Dundas Todd and J. Thompson, (Secretary). On the 21-23 Fredrickton Kennel Club, (the baby club of Canada), will show that even at their first start at the Dog Show business, will equal the product of older organizations from start to finish. Bob Ross—always in favor down in the lower provinces—will act in the capacity of judge. Then—another new—old one on September 23-24, Hamilton and Wentworth Kennel Club, after 9 years on the sofa, and so tremendously refreshed, will cater to the exhibitors at Hamilton, Ont. J. J. Dillon cannot be coerced into committing himself, he is busy "preparing the path" and when he gets things smoothed away, he will have something attractive to offer.

MONTREAL FANCIER HONORED.

Mr. George Domus, proprietor of the "Belgian Police Kennels," Montreal, has been elected official delegate for Canada and America by the members of the Club "Belge Du Dogue," at Antwerp, Belgium.

SHORT BARK.

Mr. Chas. Keleher reports another litter of six Bostons, sired by "Wee Jock" ex a Ch. "Prince Rexworthy Matron."

"BY-TOWN SELECTED" BOUGHT BY Q. A. SHAW MCKEAN.

We learn that the sterling little Wire Haired Fox Terrier, "By-Town Selected," has joined that strong aggregation of Wires, the Pride's Hill Crossing establishment, and that is no surprise, for we noticed Charlie Powlesland worshipping at that shrine not so long ago.

Alf. Lepine, believing that the dog was too good to leave Canada, had wired Mrs. Webster to ship "Selected" to his kennels, but was too late, the dog being then headed for Pride's Hill Crossing.

Here is yet another one gone over to Uncle Sammie's country whose career will be closely followed by the devotees of the breed in Canada.

GIVING HONOR WHERE IT IS DUE.

Reporting Montreal Show in our last issue, several little errors crept in which in part we here correct.

In (Wire) Fox Terriers we reported as follows (see page 16, June issue):—

Open Dogs—1, Q. A. Shaw McKean's Prides Hill Spicenut of Paignton; 2, Warrior Kennels' Bredbury Wire Boy.

This should read:—

Open Dogs—1, Alf. Lepine's Ch. Dusky Bounce; 2, Q. A. Shaw McKean's Prides Hill Spicenut of Paignton; 3, as reported.

Winners as reported are correct.

Novice Bitches (reported as under):—

1, Wm. Penman's Stamford Wire Girl; 2, Malden Kennels' Malden Dusky Dot; 3, Q. A. Shaw McKean's Prides Hill Modelette.

This should read:—

1, Warrior Kennels' Warrior Miss Spit Fire; 2, as reported; 3, as reported.

We trust that the exhibitors affected will realize that these transpositions are often unavoidable. Much as we regret their happening. Jack Steer and Alf. Lepine, who were mostly interested, are both blue-blooded sports, and will no doubt accept our explanation as given.—Ed.

CORRECTION.

Referring to "Hefty Monarch" in our last issue, we spoke of him as having come from Goring, this of course is an error, the dog having come from Oxford, where he had been for some time prior to shipment.

It is always a source of pleasure to us to know that we have fanciers in our midst who have the betterment of their favorite breed at heart.

One such individual is Mr. Tom Hicks, of Toronto, who, in a quiet, unobtrusive way, has done much for the Bulldogs.

His latest importation from England is "Hefty Monarch," whose photo graces our front cover this month. This brindle son of "Kilburn Banker" was purchased from the well-known English fancier, Mrs. A. Maynard, and comes to us with the best possible credentials as a show and stud dog.

Unfortunately, he was born in a restricted area which prevented him from being shown only on rare occasions. His chief win, however, proves that he is of no mean order, for at the championship show which took place at Barking on March 28th, he won Reserve Championship to "Hefty Son o' Mike," defeating many well-known winners. In criticizing the dogs at this show the "Dog World" says of him: "A cobby little brindle with any amount of substance, capatial ribs, big bone and front, short back, nice skull and useful under-jaw; a very attractive dog put down in perfection of condition and sound as a bell."

His abilities as a producer are phenomenal, for before leaving England he sired no less than 45 litters, amongst them being many winners, which proves that he has the faculty of transmitting his good qualities to his progeny. Many tempting offers from U.S.A. and Canada were refused for him and we can consider ourselves fortunate that Mr. Hicks was lucky and plucky enough to become possessor of a dog of this calibre that will do the breed no end of good in this country. We understand his stud fee at present is $25.00, which should appeal to those desirous of improving their stock.

EKKEHARDT v. FURSTENHAGEN

S.Z. 67132 H.G.H.

FEE: $50.

Our most recent importation. A trained sheep dog, wolf sable in color. Born March 15th, 1918. Ekkehardt is a dog of wonderful substance and conformation and has a long, powerful forehead with typical expression.

He was Excellent and 1st Prize in Open Class at Hanau, Mayence and Worms in 1920.

He is by Nores v Kriminalpolizei out of Ruth v Hermaringen.

This is the most fashionable breed of to-day. At the recent Crystal Palace show in England this breed had the largest entry except one, and once you own one of this noble breeding you will never be without one. From a breeder's point of view they are more profitable than any other breed. Large litters and easily raised. We now offer you several well-bred bitches, every one had litters and raised their puppies. We will give a free stud service to the purchaser of any of these bitches to any of our stud dogs.

We also have several litters ranging from two to four months; all well bred, and we will register every dog we sell.

has kindly consented to come to the United States to judge this event. It is hoped that an international aspect will be given this fixture by a representative exhibit from Canada. Specials for Canadian exhibitors will be included in the list. Prize money in the regular classes will be $20, $15, $10 and $5.

The catalogue of this show will be a unique feature, containing the Fox Terrier Standard, etc. All breeders of Fox Terriers will be urged to take space in the catalogue, providing photographs of their stud dogs and extended pedigrees. In this way, the catalogues will be a permanent advertisement and reference book. Space may be obtained by writing to MR. FOLEY, the Show Supt., at 1309 Sansom Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Mr. A. H. Clarke will positively judge this show.
