will be held at the

OFFICES OF THE CLUB

on

Thursday Evening, March 19th, 1925

commencing at 8 o'clock.

NOTE THE NEW ADDRESS

MEETING OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE CANADIAN KENNEL CLUB.

The monthly meeting of the Board of Directors of the Canadian Kennel Club was held at the Carls-Rite Hotel, Toronto, on Thursday afternoon, Feb. 5th, 1925, the President, Mr. Joseph Russell, in the chair. Directors present included Gen. C. M. Nelles, Col. G. F. McFarland and Messrs. J. D. Bruce, W. B. Cleland and N. K. Swire.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read by the Secretary, and, on motion, were declared adopted.

The following extract of a letter was read:

Extract from a letter received by Col. G. F. McFarland, 1st Vice-President, from A. P. Westervelt, Secretary of the Royal Agricultural Winter Fair, dated January 16th, 1925:

I understand that the Canadian Kennel Club has a considerable surplus on hand from the registration fees, and it has occurred to me that the Canadian Kennel Club is in much the same position as a number of the live stock associations who belong to the National Live Stock Record system and whose principal work is the registration of pedigrees. Each of these associations makes grants each year to the larger fair organizations for the purpose of increasing the prize money at these fairs. For instance, the Shorthorn Association each year gives a money grant to be added to the prize list for Shorthorns at the "Royal," Canadian National Exhibition, Central Canada at Ottawa, Western Fair, London, Winter Fair at Guelph and the Winter Fair at Ottawa, as well as to Brandon, Regina, Calgary, Edmonton, New Westminster and Vancouver, and

OFFICIAL NOTICES

CONSTITUTION, ARTICLE 3, SEC. 7 MEMBERSHIP FEES

Any annual member who is in arrears on the 31st day of March of the year following the year for which he has paid his membership fee, shall automatically cease to be a member, and any member whose membership fee is so terminated shall not again become a member unless he pays the initial membership fee of five dollars.

REMEMBER THIS!

The great majority of our members have already paid their 1925 membership fees, and we cannot too strongly urge the member who has overlooked this important duty so far, to send his fees ($4.00) to the Accountant, Canadian National Live Stock Records, Ottawa, Ontario.

SEND THAT $4.00 TO-DAY!

to similar fairs held east of Ontario.

While these live stock organizations do not conduct fairs they all make appropriations, as it is considered of interest to the breed which they represent to increase the prize money offered for these breeds at the larger fairs. As I understand, the revenue of the Canadian Kennel Club in making up any reserve which they may have, has been through the receipts of very recent years, a policy of this nature may not be at present in effect, but unless there is something better in view for the distribution of this money it might be possible to have the profits each year from the registrations divided in a somewhat similar way and in that case some of the money might be available for increasing the prize money in the dog show classes at the "Royal." The distribution is usually made on the basis of the amount of fees received from each province, so that there is a reasonably equitable distribution of the money according to the province in which the money originates.

And it was regularly moved, seconded and carried: "That the matter be laid on the table until the next meeting of the Board of Directors."

The Secretary reported that Central Canada Exhibition had applied for the dates August 25th to 28th as their 1925 dates, and pointed out that this arrangement broke the confiction of dates which had so long existed between the Central Canada Exhibition and the Western Fair.

Western Fair (London) and Peterboro Industrial Exhibition had both applied for dates in the week September 14th to 19th, and it was left to the Secretary to make arrangements to suit both shows if possible.

The Secretary reported not having received Dr. Campbell's reply covering the resolution sent by the Vancouver Kennel Club.

The Secretary reported having had no settlements from the United Canine Association, and it was regularly moved, seconded and carried: "That each officer of the United Canine Association and each member of the Show Committee of the show held on May 9th and 10th, 1924, be notified by registered letter, that, on March 1st, 1925, he will be automatically suspended unless in the meantime a satisfactory settlement of the claims of the Canadian Kennel Club is made, and that such suspension shall remain in force until such settlement is made."

The Secretary reported the progress made in the Perkins complaint, and it was agreed to await further developments in the case.

The Secretary reported that the suspension of Mrs. J. Colley had become automatically lifted when the trouble responsible for the suspension had been removed, and all parties interested had declared themselves satisfied.

The Secretary presented the following accounts for payment:

And it was regularly moved, seconded and carried, "That the applicants be admitted to membership."

The Secretary advised the Directors that the management of the pictorial material used on the front cover of Kennel and Bench was the voluntary work of Mr. Enno Meyer, Cincinnati, Ohio, and who now gifted it to the Club. It was regularly moved, seconded and carried:

"That a vote of thanks be accorded and conveyed to Mr. Enno Meyer, for his gifted contribution to the official organ."

This being all the business coming before the Board of Directors at this time, it was moved, "That the meeting adjourn."

The Annual General Meeting of the Canadian Kennel Club Incorporated

The Annual General Meeting of the Canadian Kennel Club was held at the Carls-Rite Hotel, Toronto, on Thursday, February 5th, 1925, at 7.30 o'clock p.m., the President, Mr. Joseph Russell, presiding. There was the usual annual meeting attendance, with several out-of-town members in attendance.

The secretary read the minutes of the previous annual meeting, and it was regularly moved, seconded and carried, "That the minutes be adopted as read."

Mr. Russell, addressing the members, said he was very pleased to see so many of the members present, and that he was able to be present at the meeting and amongst them again. His health has given him much concern for quite a long time, but he was again feeling much better in that respect. Their continued confidence as shown by returning him as president again was greatly appreciated. He had been loyally supported during the year 1924 by the board of directors, but particularly did he appreciate the help given him by the First Vice-President, Col. G. F. McFarland, who had taken over the president's duties when sickness had prevented him from attending some of the meetings. The growth of the Canadian Kennel Club for the past ten years was very gratifying to him, and he hoped that the next ten years would mark even a greater development.

Mr. E. Robertson asked if the $2.00 per member, which was the subscription to Kennel and Bench, appeared to the credit of Kennel and Bench, and was advised that the paper did not collect the $2.00 provided by Article 3, Sec. B. of the Constitution, and that the magazine furnished a great deal of space for the club's business, for which it did not receive the credit that it should have received.

The secretary reported on the club's new offices at 25 Melinda street, and mentioned that possession would be taken as from March 1st.

The secretary read the auditors' certificate and balance sheets as follows:

Certificate of Audit

I have audited the books of the Canadian Kennel Club, Incorporated, for the year ending December 31, 1924, and I certify that my requirements as Auditor have been complied with.

I also certify that the annexed Balance Sheet is in accord with the books and, in my opinion, correctly states the position of the Club on that date.

Mr. Reg. P. Sparkes, speaking to the report, mentioned the necessity of asking Directors Messrs. W. B. Cleland (Hamilton) and V. G. Perry (London) if it was their intention to attend the board meetings of the club. Mr. Donald Wheeler rose to a point of order, but the president ruled the comment to be regular and in order. Mr. Sparkes, continuing, spoke of the great importance of the out of town directors' attendance. He had checked the attendance of Mr. Cleland during the year and of Mr. Perry during 1921 when he was then on the directorate, and their attendance left much to be desired. The quorum required the regular attendance of the whole board. The president advised that in Mr. Cleland the club was very fortunate in having a man on the board of Mr. Cleland's ability, associated as he was with other associations affiliated with the Canadian National Record Board, his experience was most valuable to the club. He was a keen sportsman too, and referred to Mr. Cleland having donated to the Ontario Government his international champion Clydesdale stallion for the benefit of the Clydesdale breed in Canada. The horse was worth many thousands of dollars to Mr. Cleland, yet he had been sportsman enough to give it as a gift to the province. Mr. Cleland entered the meeting at this stage and was introduced to the members by the president. Mr. Cleland thanked the members for his re-election and explained his attendance record, and was well received.

The Election Commissioner's report was declared adopted.

The president informed the meeting that the election of representatives to the various associations were now, in order, and asked Mr. R. Wilkinson and Mr. E. Robertson to act as scrutineers, with Mr. D. J. Archibald as referee.

Election of two representatives to the Canadian National Exhibition. The following were nominated: Messrs. J. W. Bruce, J. D. Strachan, H. Clayton, Gen. C. M. Nelles and Col. G. F. McFarland.

After the ballots had been counted the referee announced that the ballot gave J. W. Bruce 19 votes, J. D. Strachan 17 votes, H. Clayton 4 votes, Gen. Nelles 16 votes and Col. McFarland 30 votes. The two representatives to the Canadian National Exhibition, Col. McFarland and Mr. J. W. Bruce.

Election of three representatives to the Royal Agricultural Winter Fair, the following were nominated: Messrs. W. B. Cleland, W. J. Archibald. (Mr. Archibald upon being nominated for this office was relieved from the duties of referee and Mr. W. R. Miller was asked to act in that capacity and accepted.)

The ballot gave Mr. W. B. Cleland 29 votes, Mr. W. J. Archibald 11 votes, Reg. P. Sparkes 16 votes, Mr. J. W. Bruce 27 votes. The three representatives to the Royal Agricultural Winter Fair are Gen. C. M. Nelles, Mr. W. B. Cleland, Mr. J. W. Bruce.

The election of four representatives to the Canadian National Live Stock Record Board found Col. G. F. McFarland, Mr. W. J. Archibald, Mr. N. R. Miller and Mr. Reg. P. Sparkes elected.

The president announced that under the revised constitution an Election Commission fell to be appointed. The nominees were Messrs. Donald Wheeler, R. Wilkinson, J. Marsden, W. J. Archibald, E. Robertson, F. Upton, H. Clayton, S. Wilkins and C. Clarke. Messrs. W. J. Archibald and H. Clayton asked to be excused and their names were removed from the ballot accordingly. The result of the ballot gave a commission of three members, which included Mr. Donald Wheeler, Mr. R. Wilkinson and Mr. J. Marsden.

It was regularly moved, seconded and carried "That the commissioners be given an honorarium of $10.00 each for their work in counting the ballots."

It was moved that Mr. Wheeler be chairman of the commission and that he get $25.00; the other two members to get $10.00 each. This motion failed to find support.

The secretary advised that the club had not been asked to send representatives to the Central Canada Exhibition this year. As a precautionary measure Messrs. C. Bethune and A. Armstrong were appointed to act if necessary.

Under the heading of new business attention was drawn to the poor response given to the ballot for Canadian Kennel Club officers this year, and it was thought that if the return postage was taken care of by the club and the necessity of having a member put his name and address on the return envelope eliminated, the effect would be generally beneficial. It was regularly moved, seconded and carried, "That in future the address arrangement on the ballot envelope be eliminated, and that a stamped addressed envelope be sent out for the return of the ballot."

Attention was drawn to alleged additions having found their way into the revised constitution, and the secretary was instructed to enquire from the Live Stock Records' office how and when this had happened. The following committee were appointed to check up on the Constitution: Col. G. F. McFarland and Mr. W. J. Archibald.

It was regularly moved, seconded and carried, "That in future an ad verbatim report of the business coming before the annual meeting be arranged for publication in the official organ."

This being the business coming before the meeting, it was declared adjourned.

RE SPRING SHOW OF BULLDOG CLUB OF CANADA, INC.

The Bulldog Club of Canada, Inc., will hold their annual Spring Show, under C.K.C. rules, on April 18th next, in the Stanley Hall, 92 Stanley Street, Montreal, for English bulldogs only. The Club has been exceptionally fortunate in securing the services of Mr. A. F. Kramer, of Chicago, to act as judge. Mr. Kramer has been interested in bulldogs, as breeder, importer and exhibitor, for thirty years. He is the owner of the famous Int. Ch. "Glorious Soubriquet." Mr. Kramer's placings will be eagerly looked forward to by the bulldog lovers of Montreal. Enquiries and entries may be addressed to F. W. Andrews, Secretary, 1499 Bordeaux St., or to Geo. A. Fraser, Room 6, 82 St. Francois Xavier St., Montreal.

FORT GARRY.

The new President, Major Niven, is solidly behind his associates of Fort Garry Kennel Club, and under his guidance modern business methods will govern the forthcoming show. He owns a lot of whippets, one of which, "R.A.F." we here reproduce, and mention that it was this sound "long tail" that was returned as "best in show all breeds," or, as our Western members describe the win, "Grand Champion of the Show," by Mr. Chas. G. Hopton, N.Y., last May. More whippets will be brought over from England almost at once and whippet racing in Manitoba will be popular this summer.

Major H. W. Niven, D.S.O., M.C., P.P.C.L.I.

A peculiar experience was the lot of Major Niven during last fall. He took a number of his beagles and his whippets out together to go after rabbits and Jacks. Sending the beagles into cover to drive the "bunnies" out, and then to slip a brace of whippets, the arrangement furnished some excellent sport.

The first day nine beagles were used, seven of them about one year old, and two older ones, and all bred in Winnipeg; none of them had ever been trained to hunt in any way. They were taken into a large poplar covert, and very soon they raised their rabbits and the chase was on. Away they went pell mell with five or six of the enthusiastic sportsmen on their trail; but the beagles go fast, and as they kept on going soon were lost. Whistling and calling the individual beagles by well-known names failed to induce their return. Major Niven happened to have a hunting horn along, and started to call the dogs by its use, and, strange to say, within a few minutes all nine were running around his heels, and followed him back to the balance of the party. Now none of these beagles had ever heard the sound of a hunting horn in their lives before. So now it is your guess that is asked for. Would you suggest that this instinct was hereditary? Think it over and take the discussion up with the Major further when you go to Fort Garry Show in May.

EASTERN POMERANIAN FOR WESTERN SHOWS.

Champion Melbourne Lucille, the pretty little black daughter of Ch. Cheswick Marquis (Imp.) out of a Ch. Shaftesbury Supreme bitch, which is well known to Eastern fanciers, she having won at the Canadian National Exhibition, Western Fair, Peterboro Industrial, and Oakville, making the championship grade without defeat, has been sold to that astute Coast fancier, Mr. Stanley Dorrell, Vancouver, B.C., and no doubt Lucille will grace the show benches there to her further advantage, and to Mr. Dorrell's pleasure and profit.

Mrs. J. W. Bruce has an abundance of young stock of show quality in reserve and felt that she could part with her little home-bred champion, and so Western Canada receives a valuable addition to her many good Poms already kenneled there.

Mr. Bruce has left Toronto on a trip that will embrace business, health, and, we trust, will not be devoid of pleasure; he will go to Vancouver, and on the return journey will linger as long at the famous Banff resort as business requirements will permit. We trust his health will be much improved as the net result, and we wish Mr. Dorrell every success with Ch. Melbourne Lucille.

"WITTY" WARREN AGAIN IN BULLDOGS.

"Witty" Warren, Montreal, only thinks he can do without bulldogs, and he only thinks that whippets can fill the bill of his favorite breed, so, we imagine he will realize that this is the force that caused him to purchase two puppies by Hefty Rival, out of Lanark Lady Love, that are pretty nifty stuff, and given the lucky breaks there is a possibility of one "Lanark King of the Fawns" being heard from at maturity.

NOTES FROM THE AMERICAN SIDE

By Charles G. Hopton.

What with a bevy of topping good specialty shows and the great Westminster event, the last to be held in the historical Madison Square Gardens, and the Eclipse, we have had no end of excitement around New York City, with the keenest interest aroused as to how the circuit judges will place them in subsequent shows. The chances are that the awards of the English experts will be followed pretty closely, though in several instances we thought the ultimate winners might have been changed about.

This was fully evidenced at the very smart show of the American Spaniel Club, held atop the Waldorf-Astoria, in the commodious Sun Parlor, where, by the way, the first specialty show ever given for French Bulldogs was held—this was in 1898, when club shows were practically unknown.

A very good entry greeted J. Robinson Beard, who, it may be recalled, owns the famous "Lucknow Farm," where the great Lucknow Lottery, the Winnipeg-bred black Cocker, and other famous champions have done yeoman service. Taken as a whole, we thought the awards were quite in order, with the exception of Springers, where, in his sincere efforts to emphasize soundness, he got away from type and size. We have lots to learn about this most useful shooting dog, and it behooves the club to "get busy" and decide on what they want and how much of it. The present standard calls for a dog weighing about 40 pounds—here the winners in dogs must have been very near, if not over, 60, and favored the Clumber type more than the evenly-balanced "Norfolk" spaniel, as we knew them many years ago on the Broads. If it had been left to Anthony of Chancefield and Horsford Hale to have fought it out in the dogs, and just reversed the bitches, placing Admaston Belle over Clarion Gay of Harting, with the best of breed, there might have been a consistency that would have assisted in arriving at a conclusion as to what is needed. Clumbers were good with the Overcross pair, Hempstead Prince and Carnforth Jewel, rightly at the head of their classes; the former, however, was a shade lucky in beating the bitch for the special, she having the better front and shoulders.

Cockers were exceptionally good, with several exceptionally promising home-bred puppies winning. This was marked in black bitches, where Geo. Greer's very promising Brookside Brunette beat such well-known winners as Mepal's Molinda II., Ch. The Real Lady, Ringwood Volga and Fulmer Glitter. The last-named was decidedly unlucky not to have been in the money. While a shade "racy" compared with the American-breds, this noted English winner is the ideal type of a "sporting" Cocker, with splendid neck, shoulders, feet and quarters.

Mr. Greer also took the important Futurity stake with another classy home-bred, Brookside Melody, a rare-bodied black with lots of bone, but not quite so clean in skull and shoulders as the very impressive trio of black and whites, Ree's Sylvania, Cadence of Wistover and Oh, Susanna. Another very sound pair were the Sand Spring Farm debutantes, Sunlight and Cloud, by the famous Ch. Creme de la Creme, an ideal type, with the beautiful shoulders and body lines of the sire. While

"Billy" T. Payne's Remarkable Parti-color Cocker, Champion Miracle Man.

Ch. Midkiff Miracle Man, in rare form, won his classes with ease, he had a close competitor for best in show when he met the noted black, Ch. My Own Desire, handicapped by lack of flesh but a most evenly-balanced sort and exceptionally sound. They finished as written, with My Own Desire best of the solid colors. Mepal and Cassilis, as is their wont, furnished the winners in parti-color bitches and took the team classes, while in the brace Mrs. Haley Fiske won with a striking pair of blacks.

Although superhuman efforts had been made to have a "totality" that might "eclipse" all former records, the twenty-first show of the Pekingese Club of America was, not the best ever, but it was a most successful affair, with the fourth largest entry in the history of the club. Taken as a whole, the awards of Mrs. F. Y. Mathis were consistent and well received, her selection for best in show, the well-known cream bitch, Ch. Clamarlow Pamela of Frere, was quite in order, as the Low-ther favorite won its classes handily and beat the winning dog comfortably. There were quite a few really good American-breds, but one must admit that both the winning dog, Mah Jongg, and the reserve, Sam-Bo of Meridale, were not on a par with the early winners. While they were nicely balanced, with no glaring faults, they lacked the impressiveness of the well-known English winner, Ch. Boltonia Wenti T'San, easily best in open for red or sable; the striking American-bred, Lhe Lho of Marimar, an unusually good-headed sable with perfect markings and expression, one of the very best yet produced here, and Cum li Crispin, a light-red, not in the best of coat but exceptionally good in width and flatness of skull, size of eyes, bone, shape of front and general appearance; he was second to Mrs. Haley Fiske's very nice red, Ching of Overcross, which scored in coat but lacked the substance of second. The Wu-Kee Kennel had a very nice dog puppy, Sotan of Wu-kee, also a striking pair in Wee-Togs, who might have been higher in her class than third, and the biscuit dog, Chin Pao II., winner in American-breds, fawn, biscuit or gray. The well-known Glen Iris was well up in the running with a very impressive team of home-breds, winning in the under six pounds with Dai-Girl, a very promising light red. The noted Ch. Dai-Dream did well in the champion class, as did Mrs. Leeming with a real good puppy bitch, Leeming Nee Tah, which topped the senior bitches comfortably. Another impressive debutante was Mrs. Jarvis' Yang of Lamar, the junior puppy winner.

One can truthfully say that the 49th annual event of the Westminster Kennel Club, the last ever to be held in the historical Madison Square Garden, ended in a blaze of glory, for no previous show that is within the memory of the writer, who has exhibited and judged there since 1893, saw such universal applause as that which greeted the great victory of the American-bred Pointer, Ch. Governor Moscow, when awarded the much-coveted trophy for best in show.

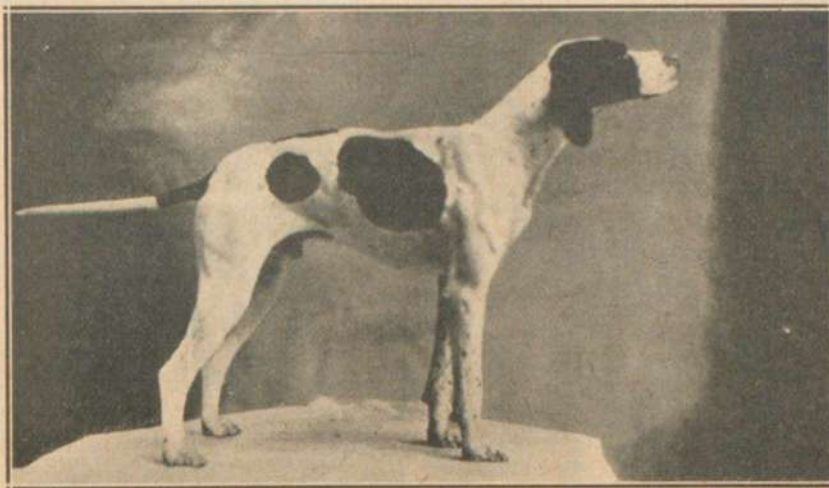

It was also gratifying to the Canadian fancy to see two well-known fanciers, Messrs. Robert Ross as all-rounder, and F. C. McLean for Manchester, officiating, and exceedingly well did Robert Ross of Montreal adjudicate. As a matter of fact, practically all his awards met with approval, especially in such important breeds as Bulldogs, Chow Chows and Springer Spaniels. The entry in the last breed surpassed all previous records and included many noted English winners with the dog championship, reserve bitch championship and best of breed going to the famous Avandale Kennels, owned by E. Chevrier of Winnipeg, whose exhibit was by far the most impressive of all in the sporting section.

Toronto fanciers should rejoice in the remarkable success of the noted Beach Park Kennel of Bulldogs, owned by James Cassina, whose splendid trio,—Ch. St. Roche Girl Guide, Ch. Dauntless Dan and the grand-headed Beach Park Young Locker,—proved invincible in their classes, the first-named annexing the bitch championship and best of breed. Dauntless Dan won the heavyweights and reserve championship in dogs, while Young Locker topped the important limit over 45. In view of the fact that many famous winners competed and the entry was twice that of previous years, the wins of Mr. Cassina's splendid team of Bulldogs richly deserved special mention. Ottawa also was in the limelight, as that enthusiastic Bullterrier fancier, R. H. Elliott, not only went right through to championship honors with his exceptionally good debutante, Markwood Mitzi but also annexed the trophy for best of breed, which was repeated at the important Combined Terrier Show, where a record entry greeted Mr. Smith of Toronto, whose awards pleased the majority. The genial George Kynoch of Winnipeg was a very busy person, as he had the famous Avandale kennel of Springers, a very fine Cocker, and his own well-known Airedale, Ch. Martley Squire, which made the going highly interesting for the top-notchers at both the Westminster and Combined Terrier shows. St. Bernards were exceptionally good, and, while the famous Hercuven Kennel was invincible with a truly wonderful team, winning best of breed with the superb Smooth, Ch. Hercuven Aurora Borealis, it was very pleasing to see that very sincere admirer of the saintly breed, A. Pickard, of Winnipeg, getting in the money with Alpine Patteau and Lady Sultana, the latter beating a very good limit class of Rough bitches. We believe he sold one to Col. Ruppert, who is coming back unto the breed.

As expected, Mr. McLean made a good job of the Manchesters. No one has had more experience than the Hull expert, who emphasized the importance of type and markings when he placed the two noted champions, Harvest Flyer and Keraney Rose, on top.

numerous, top honors going to the Joselle Kennels, with the famous black bitch, Ch. Freivon Humboldtpark, the Foxterriers were well up in the running. As a matter of fact they were quite the most popular breed, with the very best collection ever brought together. The noted English expert, Walter S. Glynn, adjudicated, placing the well-known Ch. Halleston Deykin Surprise, winners dogs, to be beaten for the special by Reginald M. Lewis' splendid bitch, Warily Stockmoor Sequence, which, it may be recalled, won the Grand Trophy at the last English Kennel Club Show for best of all breeds. She was the public choice for best in show, but owing to a regretted mistake in the order of judging, by which the specials were judged before the variety classes, she did not reach the final line-up. Benny Lewis, the popular handler, was quite the most overjoyed person in the show, for not only did he lead the noted R. F. Maloney Pointers to both championships and best of breed, finally winning the trophy for best in show with the wonderfully improved Governor Moscow, but also steered to both championships the remarkable good Doberman Pinschers, Prince Favoriet v. d. Koningstad and Westphalia Princessen v. d. Koningstad, a most impressive, well-matched pair of brown with tan markings, the latter adjudged best of breed, then to win the important working class, and to finish third best in show were indeed achievements that one may well feel proud of, but "Benny" is a veritable "chip of the old block," for, like his famous dad, dear old Ben, he is ravenous for work. He was not content until he had won the trophy for best in English Setters with Lady Amity; then, in Greyhounds, took both championships with the impressive pair, Rosemount Liskeard Fortunata and Lansdowne Liskeard Aurora, the latter winning for best of breed, which must have made Benny easily the most successful in show. Russian Wolfhounds were a remarkable lot, with a splendid exhibit of 22 from the famous Valley Farm Kennels, who accounted for the special with Ivor O'Valley Farm, a big, upstanding light brindle dog, quite the best in bone, feet, shoulders, body-lines and coat ever; they also finished reserve in winners bitches with an unusually fine puppy, Tima o'Valley Farm, which many preferred to Ch. Lada of Delmar, a very typical but small bitch. Among the prominent Canadians around the Russian Wolfhound ring and at the annual banquet were the Vaski enthusiasts, E. M. Burke, Mrs. Hayward and Mr. and Mrs. Aiken, the well-known London enthusiast, Mrs. Patterson, and Bert Swann, who showed a very useful bitch, Princess Orloff, that finished in the money, as did the genial John Kent in Greyhounds with his exceptionally sound and typical dog, Towyside-Tarquin. The return of the noted Toronto fancier gave universal pleasure, many expressing the hope that it might bring about another fine string of "long-tails" as we used to see wearing the John Kent colors a decade or so back, when championship honors were continually going to Toronto.

It was regretted that the noted "Cairndhu" kennel of Pomeranians were not showing, but a splendid representative in the superb orange sable, Cairndhu Gold Shade, won his class for his new owner, Mrs. H. Emick. Gold Shade attracted lots of attention, as his type and rare texture of coat were quite on a par with any shown here. Best in dogs went to a very impressive black, Dromore Sensation, shown by E. M. Sharland of Baltimore, while the pick of a very good entry in bitches was Mrs. Carlin's Eastney-Mite's Maid, a very stylish sable.

As is her wont, Mrs. Sidney Franc did very well in Pekinese, judged by Miss Janet Snow, of "Yankibourne" fame, who seemed to please the majority. For the third time the rare-headed, homebred Glen Iris Dai-Dream won for best, but he had a very close contender in the Toronto-owned gray sable, T'San Pam of Balcroft. Kerry Blues were a splendid entry, as were the Sealyhams. Mrs. Charters, the well-known English expert, gave satisfaction, and is to be commended for the most able manner in which she handled her classes. She established a type that should help this game breed very much. The well-known bulldog fancier, Tommy Grisdale, won both championships with a very sound and most typical pair, Victor of Leysfield and Blue Divil of Leysfield, the former scoring for best of breed. Seals found the recently imported Scotia Swell topping a great entry in dogs, to be finally awarded the special for best of breed over a record entry.

TOMMY GRISDALE FOR TORONTO SHOW.

The Bulldog Breeders Association are to be congratulated on their having chosen Mr. Thos. Grisdale to pass the rule over their dogs on May 25th, at their Specialty Show. The Association have from time to time introduced many leading breeder judges to Toronto fanciers, of these, perhaps, the redoubtable Tommy will prove himself the peer of them all. At any rate he will be assured of a flattering entry on the 25th. For his aides at the Show he will have as Stewards Mr. R. McKay, Superintendent; Mr. Ford and Mr. C. Sheehan, Ring Stewards; Mr. "Jimmie" Marsden, general overseer.

Twenty cups will be given in the first 20 classes, both sexes sharing alike in the silver shower. The Association always endeavors to send every one of their exhibitors home satisfied. The Show Secretary is again Mr. Chas. Clark, 22 Wood St., who will be glad to give any necessary further information to anyone interested.

LADIES' KENNEL CLUB ELECT OFFICERS.

The annual meeting of the Ladies' Kennel Club (Montreal) was held on January 14th and elected as their 1925 officers the following galaxy of noted Montreal lady fanciers:

President, Mrs. J. H. Enright; 1st Vice-President, Miss C. J. La Violette. (A little bird has just whispered to us, and advised that the lady of the prefix, will soon be changing her name and taking up residence in a distant city. We suggest that she reconsider her plans a trifle.—Ed.). 2nd Vice-President, Mrs. Jno. Fawcett; Treasurer, Mrs. Jno. T. Bennett; Secretary, Mrs. W. J. Smith, Montreal; Executive: Mrs. R. B. Gay, Mrs. G. Domus, Mrs. Ellis, Mrs. Beckingham, Mrs. N. Moffatt, Mrs. C. M. Sykes, and Mrs. Colthorpe.

The social end of the Club is an activity that is handled in such a way that the harmony resulting is made a definite asset, and what is perhaps more vital, made to produce a revenue that is quite considerable, conservatively speaking, about $20 per month; the beauty of the arrangement lies in its simplicity and any club can have the same results, i.e., pleasure and profit. We will let our Club members in on this first as an item of information.

In February, Mrs. J. H. Enright (the new President) had the members of the Ladies' Kennel Club to play cards. A table charge was made of $1.20 (4 players). The Club member taking the table furnishes the prize for her table and brings a cake, parcel of sandwiches, olives, fruit or confections. The member whose home houses the party furnishes tea and coffee. After the game, songs are contributed by members who have vocal talent. Those whose talent runs to elocution, as, for instance, Mrs. W. Moffatt, who recited "At the Bar of Justice" at the party we are describing. The result was the query, "Where and when is the next party to be?"

THE VALUE OF COAT

By Lillian C. Raymond-Mallock.

In my article of your June issue on "Breeding for Coat in Pomeranians," I mentioned that twenty-five points out of a possible hundred are allowed for coat alone. This, I think, emphasizes the great importance of this particular feature in the show Pomeranian of to-day. Yorkshire Terriers also allow twenty-five points for coat; Maltese, twenty; Japs, fifteen; King Charles Spaniels and Pekingese, ten (and the latter ten more for tail). The fact that the first two breeds allow more points for coat than the others does not mean that a beautiful coat is not essential to all. The general appearance of any animal is greatly enhanced by the quality and texture of his coat, and no matter how good he may be in other points, the coat seems to give the finishing touches.

The judge must, of course, estimate a dog by his frame, as well as by his covering, though some judges go so far as to practically "bar" a dog for lack of coat, and very few will put them right up unless fully furnished. I myself am one of the latter class, for, whilst I recognize that a good coat covers a multitude of sins—a good dog is nothing without his coat, in my eyes, so there it is. There are some breeds in particular which depend for their beauty upon the length and profusion of their coats. The condition of a dog's coat is one of the best indications as to his health. A good coat depends upon the health of the skin, and a good skin cannot be hoped for unless the dog is properly fed and exercised, and kept spick and span. Even when this is done, there are some strains in every breed of dog which are bad coat growers, and other strains which produce immense coats quite naturally, and this is something which the owner of show or breeding stock should not overlook. I don't believe that half enough attention is paid to what I call hereditary coat growing-tendencies. Then, again, there are some dog owners who take a lot of pains and yet never put their dogs down in full bloom. They seem to go about it in the wrong way. This applies especially to Yorkshire Terriers, where extreme length of coat is a chief desideratum. Personally, I think that failure or success is to a large degree dependent upon method. To begin with, the dog must be properly and regularly fed on the best of food, little in quantity, but nourishing, two or three small meals in the day being preferable to one big one. Some experts believe that darkness is the whole secret of long hair, but to my mind, it is unnatural and unhealthy, for dogs, like human beings, should thrive best where there is light and air. Too much brilliant sunshine is, of course, injurious to the coat on account of its tendency to fade. The growth of a dog's coat is always abundant in a cold climate, whilst furnace heat and stuffiness are bad for the skin. Much washing is to be avoided, and careful and regular grooming should take its place. The dog must never have cause for scratching and his nails must be trimmed if they are not kept short by exercise. Too much or too heavy brushing is not necessary. The person who can use a brush lightly, gets a far better effect than one who puts a lot of "power" into it.

When the dog is shedding his coat, the dead hair must be all removed, and for that the long bristle brush is a better instrument than a short, thick brush. The comb should seldom be used in such breeds as Poms. or Pekes., where a thick undercoat is desirable. I attach a great deal of importance to brushes and the way they are used, and I now have them made after my own design, of pure bristles set in a rubber pad. They are very light, and remove all tangles without injuring the undercoat in the slightest degree. Great length of coat does not necessarily mean a good coat. With King Charles Spaniels, for instance, the thickest and longest coats are often curly, which everyone knows is a bad fault in the Royal breed. Then, again, Pekingese should have a long coat, with thick undercoat, straight and flat, not curly or wavy, rather coarse, but with soft feather on thighs, legs and tail. A short-haired Pekingese is an abomination. Coat in the Pekingese has been sacrificed to a certain extent in recent years, for head properties, and it is a great pity that it should be so, but it is the breeders' weakness to run to extremes, and, in Pekingese as with other breeds, coat has been forgotten for the moment in the race to see who could produce the flattest face. Coat must and will, however, come into its own again, and the person who keeps his dog's coat in the pink of condition, will win out in the long run.

I have gone very thoroughly into this question in my new book, "The Up-to-date Pekingese and all Other Toy Dogs."

THE DOG WORLD CHRISTMAS NUMBER.

The Dog World (England) has "eclipsed" their previous best effort "totally." We have noticed many contemporaries eulogizing Mrs. Robson's stupendous undertaking generally. Some refer to the 226 pages; some to the thousands of photographs; some to the wonderful articles written by such expert delineators of "Man's best friend" as Hamilton Kirk, George Cecil, Rev. A. J. Skinner, Robert Leighton, A. Croxton Smith, etc.—not forgetting for a moment, Mrs. Robson's own able contribution, "A Retrospect."

We had 100 copies of this wonderful magazine to offer our readers. They are all delivered to fanciers who asked—and paid—for them. So, this is not an advertisement, and this is where we rise to state that our own particular slant on the Dog World Christmas Number was all of the foregoing, plus the pleasure of our noticing that the thousands of photographs were in the main Dog World Photographs, the "made" pictures of some English photographers that we are all so familiar with, being noticeably conspicuous by their absence. The pictures being Dog World pictures, were natural pictures, and everything natural being beautiful, the genuine worth of the Christmas Number was greatly enhanced by its pictures. Look over your copy again, and derive some of the pleasure that we so much enjoyed and continue to still enjoy, and which possibly up to now, has escaped your notice.

EASTERN TOWNSHIPS KENNEL ASSOCIATION.

Last issue it was the Western Ontario Kennel Club that we reported "all set" and ready for business. This month it is the Eastern Townships Kennel Association that has organized and is now "ready to go." The management of the latest contribution to care for the interests of "Man's Best Friend" at Sherbrooke and district is as follows:

Hon. President, Mr. E. W. Farwell; President, Dr. D. L. Forest; Vice-Presidents, Justice C. D. White, Lt.-Col. Sydney Francis; Secretary-Treasurer, Mr. J. M. Rennie (address not given); Directors, Messrs. P. J. Donovan, H. J. Placey, K. Flaherty; Veterinary, Dr. Tracey.

A charter has been received from the city, which later will be ratified by Quebec Provincial authorities, thereby giving the new association a definite status in the community and a greater interest in Eastern canine affairs will naturally follow. A series of meetings have been scheduled, and at these various authorities on canines will talk on doggie subjects as an educational feature of the Association. Informal shows will be held, when the members will bring out their dogs for comparison one with another, and the results achieved will bring forth their fruits in time for the dog show of Sherbrooke Exhibition (Canada's great Eastern Exhibition) in September.

HAMILTON AND WENTWORTH KENNEL CLUB.

The club has held two meetings during the month, both being practically reorganization meetings, as the club has been inactive during 1924. The following officers were elected:—President, Mr. F. Robertson; Vice-President, Mr. W. Wilson; Secretary-Treasurer, Mr. Geo. Day, 544 James St. N. Hamilton. Board of Directors: Messrs. W. J. Murdock, A. G. Lammond, D. Ryan, F. Patrick, A. E. Wood, F. Sims and F. Tomlin. At the last meeting close on 40 members were present, and at the two meetings 20 new members have been enrolled. The officers elected are all enthusiasts and workers, and at the end of the year we expect to see the Kennel Club occupy the place it should do, alongside the other prominent live organizations of Hamilton. An evening show was held Friday 27th. This was attended by at least 300 people. There were 86 dogs exhibited. The judging was taken care of by Messrs. Martin, Condy and Dent. English Bulldogs were the largest exhibit, one class having as many as 11 in the ring at once. Mr. F. Woods' "Tipton Slasher" was adjudged best of the breed. Mr. G. F. Nicholson showed a nice Boston in "Beauty." Mr. George Day had some of his Yorkshires out, along with Mr. Smith's "Ch. Cave Canem"; Mr. Jackson showed his Cocker, "Sirdar"; Robertson & Wilson had a nice Collie in "Woodcot Nancy," and in Fox Terriers (smooth) Mr. Wright's "Dainty Prince" and Mr. Eccles' "Madison Marquis" met, as they did in Toronto, with the decision reversed. Mr. Murdoch showed a promising wire in "Fireman S." Watch Hamilton and Wentworth Kennel Club grow. (Finlay Robertson, President.)

THERE THEY ARE—DANCING AGAIN.

At the most recent members' meeting of the Boston Terrier Club of Toronto it was decided to hold a "Merry-makers' " night on Friday, April 24th, at the Prince George Hotel, with cards and dancing, plus the noted refreshments of the club as prepared by their lady members, which make a hit each time they are served. All past gatherings of this kind have been most enjoyable wherever held, but at the Prince George the pleasure will be supreme. The committees are all at work on the project now, and as everybody is welcome and the place is so commodious and attractive, the available tickets should be snatched up quickly.

"CH. SIR MICHAEL SASSY SUSIE" DEAD.

"Ch. Sir Michael Sassy Susie," one of the best Irish Terrier bitches in the country, has just died during treatment for the deadly tapeworm, and Mr. P. R. M. Wallis of Victoria, B.C., realizes that he is much the loser from her demise. Endowed with an extremely long head, properly constructed, with a short, punishing foreface, splendidly furnished with crisp red hair and a coat of a texture and color rarely seen nowadays. Her show career was short as it was distinctive—four times winners and four times best of breed, with a championship to balance the record. The young champion had never been bred and was just due in season, and it was with this end in view that she was being cleaned out, with the result as chronicled.

Mr. Wallis is not a man to take discouragement lying down, and he is already "taking stock" to see how the gap left in the kennel by her untimely death may be filled.

TORONTO-BRED PUPPY WINNERS AT MINNEAPOLIS.

Mr. D. C. MacLachlan, Winnipeg, owner of "Brock Comedian," bred by Mr. L. Anthony of the Brock Kennels, Toronto, and purchased by Mr. George Kynoch when he was visiting at the Canadian National last September, reports that this good little wire-haired fox-terrier has been a winner ever since he went out West. At all the Winnipeg matinee shows "Pepper" has been a strong contender for the silk and specials, but at Minneapolis he went one better and captured 1st puppy and held his "pull" right through to winners, and special for best wire-haired dog or bitch in show.

WHAT ARE YOU FEEDING?

It is not only the large kennels who seek to economize by feeding soft foods, but there are those who own two or three dogs who do so, not so much from an economical point of view as the mistaken idea that sloppy food is good for the dogs and more appreciated by them. In our humble opinion we think such ideas are very far from being correct. It is a good many years since we dropped the porridge system of feeding, and we are never likely to start it again. A little reasoning on our part when we saw the improvement in the health and skins of our dogs after they had been on biscuits chiefly for a couple of months soon led us to some of the causes for these satisfactory results. Digestion with the dog, the same as with the human being, starts in the mouth, and we all know, or at least should know, that thorough mastication of our food is a preventative of indigestion. Therefore we need only apply this reasoning to the health of a dog who never gets anything to masticate to at once see the detrimental effects of always feeding sloppy foods, which are bolted by the dog. We say nothing to a dog being given an occasional feed of soft food, especially if any spare vegetables from the table are mixed with it. It can then be done with beneficial results. Indeed, we always make it a practice to give our dogs all spare vegetables from the garden. These are boiled in a big copper, afterwards mixed with hound meal. Even so the dogs have the chance of some dry biscuits either before or after the soft food is given. The grinding of dry biscuits causes the saliva to flow, which is highly desirable, as it is one of the chief aids to digestion.

The Kennel Name "Mount Royal" has been transferred to Guy Perron, Montreal, Que.

DOING HONORS TO POPULAR HANDLER

Of all the impromptu events that we have ever been asked to take a part in, none have been so enthusiastically carried through as the complimentary dinner which was tendered to Mr. Alf. Delmont, at the Prince George Hotel, New York, on Wednesday evening, February 11th, 1925. Alf had decided to quit the handling of dogs for good, and to his brother handlers the decision sounded like a good bye. As if bidding good bye to the old Garden itself for all time, was not sufficient adieu for one year, Alf Delmont had to step in and kiss his hand to the gang. Hurriedly the Mitchell boys, Albert and Alfred, passed the word along "Handlers Lane," and would the boys like to banquet Alf Delmont? And the reply came back 100 per cent. "Aye," and the fun was on. Seldom has the writer noticed a more pretentious undertaking rushed to completion so hurriedly, and almost in an hour the following ladies and gentlemen—who are all well known in American dogdom: Dr. John De Mund, New York, President American Kennel Club, N.Y.; Ralph Stewart, Lansdowne, Pa.; Geo. Sinclair, Toledo, Ohio; J. D. Strachan, Toronto, Ont.; Sam Bamford, Toronto, Ont.; Harry Rawes, Philadelphia, Pa.; H. M. Robertson, Lamanda Park, California; Fred R. Warburton, Newton Centre, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Timms, Danvers, Mass.; Nathaniel F. Emmons, Hingham, Mass.; Kitty Carlin, London, England; Vinton Breese, Caldwell, New Jersey; Thelma Goldstein, St. Louis, Missouri; Leon J. Ireberry, Brooklyn, New York; Jeannie E. Celine, Mineola, New York; G. Borthwick,

Sea Cliff, New York; Mrs. Borthwick, Sea Cliff, New York; Leonard Brumby, Gosset, Long Island; Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham, Fort Washington; Thomas Grisdale, New York; Chas. Ribsdaile, Philadelphia, Pa.; Abe Swartz, Wynnewood, Pa.; McClure Halley, U.S.A.; Raymond L. Patterson, Madison, New Jersey; Otto H. Gross, Fair Oaks, Pennsylvania; M. M. Palmer, Stanford; Joseph Booth, Shrewsbury, Mass.; Harry Hardcastle, Egypt, Mass.; Chas. Powlesland, Prides Crossing; Chas. Clark, Long Island; Percy Roberts, Noroton, Conn.; Chas. Trayford, Huntington, Long Island; Thos. Whittingslaw, Esmond, R.I.; James Johnson, Devon, Pa.; Frank B. Brumley, Jericho, Long Island; and Mr. Alf. Delmont, of course, sat down at the festive board, with the guest of honor, Mr. Alf Delmont, at the head of the table. Opposite, Mrs. Delmont was a happy witness to an enthusiastic declaration of spontaneous friendship for her famous husband.

Dr. John De Mund, President of the American Kennel Club, voiced the concerted opinion of the entire assembly when he described Mr. Delmont as one of the best sportsmen he had ever known, and when he added, "I mean every word I say," the crowd cheered the words to the echo.

Dr. Glenn Adams, the popular owner of the more popular "Dog News," was Master of Ceremonies, which was a happy choice. His familiarity was apparent as he called out his chosen speakers by their first names, his big voice rang out clear and strong above the din of such a gathering, each lady or gentleman as they were called testified to a knowledge of, and a belief in, Mr. Delmont's great worth.

When the popular Alf got up to tell the story of his great surprise, and of his equally great appreciation of his comrades' kindness, he was evidently very much impressed, and for a time he was unable to proceed, but a popular chorus rent the air and saved the awkward situation, and in a moment "Alfred was himself again."

The meeting was over, and several of the principals adjourned to the writers' room, where "dog" was talked until eyes began to close, and day began to break.

This does not end the story yet. The enthusiastic "Complimentary Dinner" Committee had still been busy and had evidently struck a "gold mine" somewhere. The closing afternoon of the show was closing the doors of Madison Square Garden to dogdom for all time, the feeling was that of depression, relief came to interested fanciers in the excitement of the judging of the five group classes, the best of which was to produce the winner of the coveted honor, "Best of all breeds at Madison Square Garden," and the judging of the classic honor itself.

After this excitement spent itself, a notice was placed in the main judging ring by Mr. Wilbur Purcell, which called for "All handlers to report there at 8.30 o'clock." At this hour 'Delly' was again brought to the ring, where, surrounded by virtually every handler attending the show, and they were all there, Mr. Wilbur Purcell, on behalf of Mr. Delmont's friends, presented our hero with a handsome travelling bag with full dressing equipment, even to the handy hip flask. A handsome Masonic ring, suitably jewelled in diamonds, was further presented, and we were informed that the recipient was "travelling still," and "nearing the end of the Masonic road where only the most progressive of the brethren are wont to meet at the end of the day."

You will pardon us for failing to chronicle Mr. Delmont's reply; he seemed to be suffering from a loss of voice. Anyway, we didn't catch what he said, but for the benefit of anyone who has read this article, and who would have been interested in learning what Mr. Delmont did say, we advise that he has been chosen to judge the Telephone City Kennel Club Show at Brantford on May —, and he has accepted, so when he is here you can ask him what he did say when you get him by yourself. This will be Mr. Delmont's first appearance in Canada as a breeder judge. He has given up handling with all its known uncertainties, and many vexations, a strenuous life, happy but hard. In future his life will be devoted to breed some "real ones," and to judge the "real ones" the "other fellow" breeds. Alf knows them—no one knows them better—and a square deal is coming to the best dog every time that "Delmont dons the ermine."

DOGS AND THE RADIO FROM STATION KDKA

On Monday evening, Feb. 2nd, 1925, after doing an honest day's work and finishing off an enjoyable supper, we got into the old easy chair in the den, lit a cigarette and "tuned in," and immediately went after our favorite station, KDKA, at East Pittsburgh, Pa., a station that provides the kind of entertainment that "gets you" and "holds you." The announcer "tipped us off" that the evening's programme would be chiefly Canadian, and that the musical composition "Somebody Dreams of You," of M. U. Bates, Metagama, Ontario, Canada, would be sung by Mrs. Winnefred Perry, contralto vocalist, accompanied by KDKA'S Little Symphony Orchestra.

We knew M. U. Bates as "Mike" Bates, who had written so splendidly for Kennel and Bench many a time, and here we might mention that his "Hermit of Sharktooth Shoal," which appeared in our Christmas number, was printed in lots of 100 copies each for readers of Kennel and Bench in widely separated parts of Canada, a tribute to Mr. Bates' poem. We knew of Metagama and the famous Hudson Bay Kennels, where Airedales were bred for the bench, that could also get into harness and do the work of the horse in the snows of Northern Ontario, but, M. U. Bates, as a composer of music of a standard qualifying for the attention of Pittsburgh's ablest vocalist, and KDKA'S high quality broadcasting, we were frankly excited, so we scraped out our ears so that not a sound would be lost, the cigarette had gone out (which was all right, the writer's nationality considered), the strains of the KDKA Little (but good) Symphony Orchestra, sent out a heart-reaching melody, which sounded like winds in the trees of Metagama. The reception was splendid and we were altogether, like one happy family—KDKA, the announcer, the orchestra, the singer, and, somewhere—"Mike." The feeling was that we could have clasped hands and joined in the refrain "Somebody Dreams of You."

The spell then eased off a little, and the announcer said that a collection of "Old English Melodies" would next be played, and after that Mr. Bates' favorite composition, "The Rosary." As these were played we were again entranced. Never was such a broadcast sent forth from KDKA as this was, but to crown everything the announcer told us that Dr. I. H. Alexander would talk to the radio audience on "Mike's Paradise, Metagama, Ontario, Canada."

Our inadequate vocabulary failing to do justice to our subject further, we decided to call on Dr. Alexander to tell the remainder of the story himself, and we acknowledge here the courtesy of KDKA, East Pittsburgh, Pa., in making "connections" possible. We realize that every reader will enjoy this, to us, wonderful feature.

Introducing KDKA, who introduces Dr. I. H. Alexander, who tells more about our good friend and fellow-fancier, M. U. Bates, than many of us ever knew—or suspected, KDKA.

February 20th, 1925.

Mr. J. D. Strachan, Sec'y-Treas. Canadian Kennel Club, 774½ Yonge St., Toronto, Canada.

Dear Sir,—Please pardon us for not replying to your letter sooner, but this has been due to congestion of mail in our office. We are very glad to enclose your letter to Dr. Alexander, and we trust he will send you the story you ask for. We had a number of comments on the concert, in which we included Mr. Bates' song and the talk of Dr. Alexander. Yours truly,

G. DARE FLECK,

Program Director, Sta. KDKA.

February 23, 1925.

Mr. J. D. Strachan, Sec'y Canadian Kennel Club, 774½ Yonge Street, Toronto, Canada.

Dear Mr. Strachan,—Your letter addressed to me, c/o Station KDKA, East Pittsburgh, Pa., was received today, and I hasten to comply with your request by sending a copy of my brief radio address of Feb. 2, 1925.

I had many letters and telegrams following the broadcasting of Bates' composition, "Somebody Dreams of You," which was sung by Mrs. Winnefred Perry, one of Pittsburgh's best-known contraltos. My part in the program was unexpected, as I did not know that I was to speak until the Saturday before the program was presented. I was very glad of the opportunity, as it gave me a chance of saying some very nice things about my good friend "Mike" Bates. I have been going to Canada each summer for the past fourteen years (with the exception of the two years I was in the army), but I enjoyed the time spent with Bates more than any other vacation I have ever had in the Canadian woods. You will recall the program that night was very much a Canadian program, as the first selection was your National Anthem, followed by a collection of "Old English Melodies"; then Bates' favorite composition by Nevin—"The Rosary"; my introductory speech; then Bates' own composition, "Somebody Dreams of You." Mike's song made a hit in Pittsburgh, and in talking with Mrs. Perry just a few days ago, she told me that she has had many requests since to sing this song. Trusting that I may have the pleasure of meeting you some time in the near future, I am, sincerely yours,

I. H. ALEXANDER,

February 20th, 1925.

Dr. I. H. Alexander, Jenkins Arcade, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Dear Sir,—Please pardon our delay in forwarding you the attached letter, which we overlooked when it came in. We have had so many letters lately that it is almost impossible for us to reply, and we did not notice the attached one, which was intended to be sent to you. I am quite sure that you will be glad to comply with Mr. Strachan's request. Yours truly,

G. DARE FLECK,

Program Director, Sta. KDKA.

"Good evening, Ladies and Gentlemen of my radio audience."

To me has been given the very great honor of making a few brief remarks preliminary to the musical selection, "Somebody Dreams of You," which was composed by and will be presented in honor of Mr. M. U. Bates of Metagama, Northern Ontario, Canada, who is listening in on this program.

Mr. Bates is a true sportsman and a great lover of nature; a linguist; an author and a composer of good music; a trapper and great game hunter; a dog fancier, and altogether one of the most interesting men it has ever been my pleasure to meet.

During the past summer, it was my good fortune, together with an old college chum, Mr. C. Stanley McElwaine, of Sewickley, Pennsylvania, and his son John, who was our "Bull Cook" while in camp, to be the guest of Mr. Bates in one of his log cabin camps on beautiful Trout Lake. We were the second party of tourists from the States to fish in this lake, and time will not permit me to tell of the wonderful grey trout fishing we had in the lakes in and about Metagama. Mr. Bates proved to be a most delightful host. I have never known a man who could do so many things and do them all so well: a man who not only has a profound knowledge of nature, but who is able to impart the knowledge to others in such a pleasing way. He is a radio fan, and for years has been a constant listener-in and admirer of KDKA. It was while discussing the radio with him that he told me how he enjoyed the music of the Little Symphony Orchestra and of his great admiration of Ethelbert Nevin, who was not only Pittsburgh's greatest composer, but one of the greatest composers America has ever produced. Mr. Bates asked me on my return to Pittsburgh that I convey to the director of the Little Symphony Orchestra, Mr. Victor Saudek, his appreciation, and to request that at some convenient time he broadcast for him the two beautiful selections by Nevin, "Mighty Lak a Rose" and "The Rosary." The program to-night is given in answer to that request. It was first planned to give Mr. Bates' own composition, "Somebody Dreams of You," as a surprise number, but he had to be let in on the secret.

I wish my radio listeners would try to picture Mr. Bates to-night in his home in the North Woods, seated in his study, surrounded by the entire population of Metagama (who number ten persons when they are all at home) in a section of the country where travel in winter is entirely by dog team or on snowshoes, as there is neither automobile nor horse, and not even a road to be found for at least fifty miles in any direction. Narrow trails are cut through the virgin forests to permit the dog teams to carry supplies to the cabins of the hunters and trappers. The snow to-night is four to six feet on the level and temperature ranging from 40 to 50 degrees below zero. There are no quarrels among neighbors in this country, as the nearest neighbors are twenty-four miles away—a dismal prison to many of my listeners, but not to Mr. Bates.

Metagama is located on the main line of the Canadian Pacific R. R., 90 miles west of Sudbury, where the largest nickel mines in the world are located, and a 12-hour ride from Toronto, Ont., Canada. The forests in this section contain very little hardwood. The Spanish River Lumber Co. cuts most of the timber for pulpwood. The country is not especially hilly and the lowlands contain many natural lakes, some of them being several hundred feet in depth. These lakes are the natural habitat of the beautiful grey trout, which are to be found in great numbers. Very few fishermen have ever visited these parts. There are also hundreds of small shallow lakes made by the countless busy beavers, which help to make good feeding meadows for the moose. The absence of forest fires in this section bears witness to the fact that as yet this is not a tourist country. The moose and red deer hunting is without a doubt

LONDON SPRING SHOW

May 6th-7th
Wed. and Thurs.

This will be one of the best shows held in Ontario during 1925.

There's more pep in this old club this year than ever before. We have a good sound working organization, and are prepared to give you the best show you have ever had in this historic old city.

Come along, you fellows with the good dogs. We want all the New York winners here—and the other dogs, too. Maybe you couldn't make the New York show, but you can make the London show and show under a judge who has judged at New York and the other big noises.

Now, you Boston men, you've been crying out loud for a Boston Specialty judge and we've given you a good one—so back up what you've always said and show under this specialty man. Prove to us and other clubs that a Boston Specialty judge pulls in the entry.

Judges:

Mr. Walter H. Reeves, Belleville, Ont., Canada — All other breeds.

the best to be had in any of the accessible parts of Canada. As many as fifty moose have been counted in a single day within a radius of ten miles of Metagama (by the Government engineers), and, fortunately for big game, the sportsmen from the States have not yet discovered this true hunter's paradise.

Hunting with a camera in the summer season is a most exciting sport. Paddling silently at evening, one can often get a photograph of deer, bear or moose, feeding quietly in any of the many natural "meadows" or feeding grounds along the water's edge. Timber wolves range the river in winter, but are not often seen at other seasons. Partridges, ducks and rabbits are plentiful, while muskrat, mink, beaver, otter, fox, fisher, lynx and other fur-bearers are trapped by Indian and other trappers. The fish in this section are the Great Northern Pike in hundreds in the Spanish River and adjoining waters, and fine grey trout in the lakes.

Mr. Bates edits the "Trap Line" section in the journal "Rod and Gun in Canada," contributes regularly to Kennel and Bench, and to other sporting magazines. He is at the present time carrying on a very active campaign in his attempt to have modified the present game laws in Canada. His pedigreed Airedale Terriers have taken prizes at many dog shows held in the Dominion of Canada.

In closing, I wish to say to you, Mr. Bates, that many relatives of Ethelbert Nevin are listening in to-night, and I trust that they and you may enjoy this evening's program as much as I enjoyed the time spent with you last summer.

"BRIDEGROOM OF PAIGNTON" ARRIVES IN TORONTO.

W. G. Higbee and Robt. Johnston have just received from Miss M. E. Lewis, of the "Paignton Kennels of Wire-haired Fox Terriers," England, the young dog "Bridegroom of Paignton." He is sired by "Ch. Barrington Bridegroom's" litter brother, "Ch. Barrington Bendigo," and out of a winning "Ch. Wyche Workman" bitch. He is being groomed for the spring circuit and, as he is of a strain that is producing some of the very best Fox Terriers, he should be of great interest to the fancy.

"Bridegroom of Paignton," with his kennel mate, "Bridesman Selected," are advertised at Stud elsewhere in this issue at fees in keeping with their quality.

History of the Boston Terrier Club of Canada

By C. L. McQuillan

New Year's Day, 1921. This was the thirteenth annual show given by the old reliable Boston Terrier Club of Canada. Although the newly-formed Boston Terrier Club of Toronto refused to show at our show, the entry was the largest we had had for several years. No doubt owing to the splendid reputation borne by the Judge, Mr. V. E. Haywood, of Grand Rapids, Mich., both as a judge of Bostons and a high-class gentleman. Mr. Haywood's Boston Terrier fame dated from the day of "Champion Fasco," he being the first person to bring out this famous dog. Mr. Haywood also bred the famous Ch. Peter Pan and a number of other dogs of note.

This show as many since brought out a number of youngsters which were slated to win the coveted title of champion. Messrs. J. C. Lunan and V. G. Perry showed their two good puppies, "Globe League O. Nations" and "Globe Tiny Tim," both of which are now champions. Mrs. W. C. Ingram also showed a pair which afterwards became champions, namely, Ingram's Lady Bird and Ingram's Sweet Marie.

Other dogs of note shown for the first time were R. A. W. Rostall's S. D. Gus, W. L. McGill's Little Colonel, S. Gaston's Master Pirate, etc.

Puppy and Novice, Limit and Open, in lightweights, was won by Globe League O. Nations, followed closely by Master Pirate and John Schaefer's "Periscope." The middleweight classes were won by Little Colonel with A. E. Carter's Lloyd George second and F. J. Beney's Wagner's Little Tony Boy third. The heavyweight dogs were headed by Mr. W. A. Currie's good headed Dodge's Pride, with J. J. Dillon's Oxonean's Sysonby second and Schaefer & Schmidt's Onadaga Don third. Winner's dogs went to Dodge's Pride and reserve to Globe League O. Nations.

The best in puppy bitches was Mr. H. B. Charlton's Gipsy Queen, Albert Smith's Polythea.

Lightweight bitches found the best to be J. C. Lunan and V. G. Perry's Globe Goddess in first place, Ingram's Lady Bird second and A. T. Calhoun's Speed Queen third.

Middleweight bitches were headed by R. A. W. Rastall's S. D. Flossie, Ingram's Sweetheart second, and J. C. Lunan and V. G. Perry's Reville Mazie third. Heavyweight bitches found the winner's bitch in Ingram's "Sweet Marie." Mrs. M. Potter's Lady Etna was second in these classes and R. A. W. Rastall's S. D. Judy third. Winners' bitches was Ingram's Sweet Marie with S. D. Flossie reserve.

The year 1921 was the thirteenth year of the club's existence and was by no means an unlucky one on that account. Although the membership of Kennel Clubs is a floating one as a rule, the club roster still contained the names of a number of the original members, and found them just as much interested in the great little Boston Terrier, as eager as ever to own a good one, to bring him out at the first opportunity, to make the fancy gape, and to a true fancier the reward is ample, the sensation a real good one creates, the talk pro and con, brings the successful owner into the white glow of the limelight more quickly than all the printers' ink ever manufactured. The great trouble is that too often the successful one attributes his or her success entirely to his or her good judgment, giving no credit at all to good fortune; then when the attention of the fancier is turned to some new-comer they become discouraged and quit the game.

However, there are always enough good fans who realize that it is a game of chance, and stick sometimes for years, living in the assurance that if they have patience and continue to try sooner or later they will stage a comeback, and again find themselves basking in the sunshine of success. A number of our members had quit, but the dyed-in-the-wool ones were still with us. New members were joining up all the time; the interest never flagged; the one idea during the year 1921 was to stage a better than ever show on New Year's Day, 1922.

At the annual meeting in October the same officers were re-elected, namely: T. E. Milburn, President; R. A. Rastall, Vice-President, and myself Secretary. During November and December a big effort was made to promote the fourteenth annual show, and, as usual, the efforts were crowned with success. Mr. John Deitschler of Buffalo, N.Y., who had been selected as judge, proved to be still a good drawing card, for although the entry was not a record, it was still a very gratifying one. So Saturday, December 31st, 1921, found everything in readiness for the big show Monday, January 2nd, 1922.

OUR FRONTISPIECE.

"Chantry Cuddy" is the latest importation of an excellent wire-haired fox terrier just delivered to Mr. Sam Bamford at his Walnut Kennels, at West Hill, Ontario. When Sam buys he generally wants to know what they have done, where they have done it and what they can still do, and perhaps what is still greater than all of these virtues, what they can produce, and so we are not surprised to find the new dog, "Chantry Cuddy," measuring up to all Sam's requirements.

CHANTRY CLINKER

A typical Fox Terrier and son of Mr. S. Bamford's latest importation, Chantry Cuddy.

"Chantry Cuddy" is a litter brother to "Chantry Comrade," championship winner at Antwerp and Paris. Of course he is bred right, as his pedigree shows:—

CHANTRY CUDDY.

Olclife Captain	Comedian of Notts
	Northfield Fireaway
	Olclife Jess
	Barrington, Fearnought
Gay Girl	Barrington Brilliant
	Stoke Sue
	Ch. Common Scamp of Notts
	Common Cocoa of Notts
	Ch. Coccatina of Notts
	Wyche Warrant
	Flaxhead Fox Trot
Gay Girl	Wyche Way

Owners of wire-haired females will at once see something to interest them in this new dog, and fanciers who may be interested are invited to write to Mr. Sam Bamford, at West Hill, Ont., Canada, for stud fee, shipping instructions and all other information.

The new arrival, by winning at the leading championship shows of Great Britain, including Edinburgh, Bradford, People's Palace, Coventry, Glasgow, Salford, Chesterfield, Barnard Castle, Barnsley, Ossett, Penistone, Biddulph, Greenock, Falkirk, Crystal Palace, etc., has proven what he could do and where it was done. What he still can do will be Mr. Bamford's problem from now on. What he can produce is evidenced in no uncertain way by the picture shown underneath of "Chantry Clinker," a good son of "Chantry Cuddy" and a litter brother to "Chantry Casino," and a winner at Wakefield and Edinburgh, where he won six first prizes the only times shown.

FATHER'S ADVICE.

By Edgar A. Guest.

My dad and I, long years ago, were walking down the street
When suddenly a little dog came yelping round our feet,
He snapped and snarled so viciously—that angry little pup
Appeared to me as though he thought that he could eat us up;
I turned and threw some stones at him which always missed the mark,
But when I tried to drive him off the louder he would bark.

"Now, son," my father said to me, "just plod along your way,
Don't turn your head for yelping dogs. Remember what I say!
You'll notice if you pay no heed to him and hold your peace,
That little dog will soon grow tired and all his noise will cease;
But every time you stamp your foot and shout to him, 'Begone,'
You show him that he's annoying you and keep him following on.

"It takes a dog to fight a dog! Post that above your shelf!
When canines come and snarl at you, don't be a dog yourself.
And later, when you're older grown, and petty men attack,
Don't stoop to pick up stones to throw, don't try to answer back;
Just walk right on and pay no heed to anything they say,
And very soon they'll give it up and turn and run away.

"It is a very ancient dodge these petty minds employ,
They say the gods first angry make the man they would destroy,
And little dogs and little men who snarl behind your back
Will only snarl the louder if you answer their attack;
And they'll have done the very thing they started out to do,
If, being yellow dogs themselves, they make one out of you!"

EARL ROGERS BUILDING UP A STRONG KENNEL.

Mr. Earl Rogers, Uniontown, Pa., is forging ahead to the front as a breeder on a large scale, and hopes soon to be ranked as one of America's leading fanciers. With 22 years of breeding and exhibiting experience behind him, and with the best and most successful breeders of the continent on his mailing list, a kennel of 64 dogs to work on, the advantages are all in his favor. Up to the present time the "Merry Cocker" has held undisputed sway at the Fayette Kennels.

Mr. C. E. Living, Westboro, Ont., who is perhaps Canada's oldest Cocker disciple, recently sent to Unionville his good black stud, "Carleton Oban" (Sir Obo—Ch. Jennie June) and a particolor son of Ottawa Red Jacket. Size, style and utility are the characteristics aimed at, and one day a Cocker who can win on the Field will also make his mark on the Bench, if Mr. Rogers' predictions mature according to his plans.

Pomeranians have been added to the kennel as an experiment that will be given a fair trial, and on that depends their stay at the kennels. Two stud prospects have been purchased from the Melbourne Kennels (Toronto). One, an orange son of "Tweedledum of Vertikop" (Imp.), the other a black dog of Mrs. Bruce's own breeding. Four females—all from Melbourne Kennels—have also been added, and represent different high-grade strains, and time will tell whether or not this branching out to the "Perky Pom" has been justified.

Taking in the Shows at New York

There is always a fascination for a dog lover in New York during the early days of February, and this year was no exception. Whether one's taste turns to dogs or to dog fanciers, he may satiate his hunger for these things fully—and he does. On Sunday morning, February 8th, the writer hied his way to the Butterfly Room of the Hotel Pennsylvania for the annual specialty show of the American Fox Terrier Club. The morning was quite inviting, the sun shining as if it was mid-summer, and we marked it down conservatively as the first day of spring. The official weather man would no doubt challenge this statement if he seen it, but that wouldn't change our opinion of that morning one iota.

Captain J. H. Wright of Manchester, England, was to be judge of the breed and of both coats. His work was to be watched closely. Other experts from the Mother Land had judged many of the entrants before, and again, other English and American experts would again judge them within a few hours, or at most a few days. He had 185 dogs entered, the classes were all well filled. His was to be a Herculean task, his light was to be chiefly artificial, this circumstance in itself quite a handicap for any judge. Anyway, there we were and all was ready to start. Smooths were first; we looked them over, and whether it was because of what the Canadian-bred Ch. (Am.) Dumbarton Visitor accomplished last year, or because we liked the dog pretty well, we don't know, but we were pulling for the Canuck. Capt. Smith did not agree and he found his winning dog in Mr. Geo. G. Sinclair's Rustic Royalist (Cromwell's Ochres Legacy ex Myrtia of Ovington) and reserve winners in the same owner's Ch. (Can.) Dumbarton Visitor (Southboro Salestra, ex Duenna of Dangerfield). Many favored Visitor, but he appeared light in his middle-piece, and possibly this is what beat him. In bitches, the very striking Pride's Hill Lady Crossfield (Levenside Lancer, ex Alltakes Donah) took the winners ribbon with Mrs. Homer Gage's Mumtaz (Cr. Drose Indelible, ex Actine Lassie) reserve.

Wires—Over twenty puppy dogs took the ring, and all were lively at once, little fiery rascals, just boiling over for a scrap. The ringside was now crowded, and much interest was shown in Capt. Wright's work by a large and ever-increasing gallery. The judge had some hair-splitting decisions to make, but he made them very definitely when his mind was made up. We are watching the fortunes of the Ormsby dogs, and they are up against the best dogs in the world. In the open class, for instance, there were no less than eight champions, three of which were ticked off "For Specials Only," or "Not for competition in this class." In fact, the hero of a year ago was placed 5th at this show, and that he was in turn put on top in a following show only goes to prove that the competition was very keen. At this show the noted "Ch. Barrington Bridegroom," who was one of the three marked "Not for competition" was returned best terrier in show, and naturally Mr. Homer Gage came in for many congratulations. The first dog in the open class was Croydon Olcliffe Collar (Olcliffe Crack, ex Olcliffe Rose). The handler of the dog was Mr. W. H. Oldershaw, late of the Warrior Kennels of Montreal, certainly deserved great credit for the beautiful condition of this dog. Mr. Jack Steer, Montreal, was present and took much interest in this class. Second was Ch. Dainty Speed Ball (Ch. Deykin Wire-boy, ex Kirkholme Spot); 3rd, Mr. Homer Gage's (Jr.) bull wire Street Singer; 4th, Chappaqua Kennels' Chappaqua Gold Flake (Ch. Chappaqua Boatsman Selected, ex Chappaqua Milo); 5th, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley J. Hall's Champion Halleston Deykin Surprise (Barrington Knockout, ex Warrior Wire Queen). Bitches were even stronger in numbers than the dogs, 27 being entered in the puppy class. In the limit class we were gratified to see Mr. James F. Strachan's Ormsby Marie Rose (Ch. Short Cut, ex Ormsby Martin) get the second ribbon. This prize was a well deserved and hard-earned win. Open bitches: 1st, Reginald M. Lewis's Warily Stockmoor Sequence (Ch. Gang Warily, ex Scout Mistress). This bitch is a trifle on the large side, but her great general excellence placed her on the top; 2nd, Chappaqua Ch. Wranglers Peggy (Ch. Wyche Wrangler, ex Miss Croeswen); 3rd, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley J. Halle's Ch. Halleston Wyche Wondrous (Ch. Wyche Workman, ex Love in a Mist); 4th, Croydon Kennels' Croydon Oakdene Elegance (Ch. Barrington Bridegroom, ex Oakdene Girl); 5th, Chappaqua Kennels' Ch. Chappaqua Diety (Ch. King's Point Magic Artist, ex The Wild Woman).

It was a great show, and, being a "Foley" affair, was splendidly managed. Capt. Wright was "all business" from start to finish, with his mind on his job at all times, and it was one of the pleasures of the show to talk to him, and to find that he was deeply impressed with the wonderful general high quality of everything that had come before him on the day.

COMBINED TERRIER CLUBS' SPECIALTY SHOWS.

This was the 9th annual event to be held under this heading in New York, and we might mention that the following clubs held their shows under the enormous canopy of the Squadron A Armories, Park Ave. and 94th Street: Airedale Terrier Club of America, Bull Terrier Club of America (first time to come under this group), Cairn Terrier Club of America, Wire-Haired Fox Terrier Club, Irish Terrier Club of America, Scottish Terrier Club of America, American Sealyham Terrier Club, Welsh Terrier Club of America.

Airedales had 70 dogs entered, Bull Terriers (Mr. Fred R. Smith, Toronto, Judge) 55 dogs entered, Cairns 36 dogs entered, Wire-Hair Toy Terriers 132 dogs entered, Irish Terriers 41 dogs entered, Scottish Terriers 61 dogs, Sealyhams 61 dogs entered, Welsh Terriers 27 dogs entered, so you see there were about 409 members of the different terrier families benched at this great show. Under the George F. Foley Dog Show Organization there was no hitch anywhere. We spent a lot of time watching Mr. Fred Smith (who was appearing at his first licensed American Kennel Club Show) picking out his "good ones." Cairn Terriers were cared for by Mr. Walter G. Glynn, England; Sealyham Terriers by Mrs. Cora Charters, England, and Welsh Terriers by Capt. J. H. Wright, England. With such a galaxy of talented judges working one just wanted to stay in the dog show building all day. The Airedales were ably judged by Mr. Thos. Cadwalader, Jr. We got to his ring just as limit dogs were called, and found a little surprise in the fact that of eight dogs entered, four were Canadian-bred; one of the four was absent, and the three remaining were awarded, as their share of the spoils, 1st and 2nd prizes. The absent dog was Theodore Offerman's "Albany Supreme," the first prize dog was Dr. F. P. Miller's "Colne Granby Orang" and the second prize winner was "Nepean Point Waterboy," owned by Mrs. F. Firth. In open dogs, "Ch. Masterly Squire" (George Kynoch's) was placed third. Bull Terriers are forcing their way to the limelight in the United States, and it is acknowledged frankly that much of their popularity is due to the untiring work of our good Ottawa friend, R. "Humphrey" Elliott, and it is only a matter of time until this breed becomes one of the most popular in America. In the Rev. F. J. Heamy the Bull Terrier Club of America has, as its President, a live fancier who will do a man's share for the "White Cavalier."

The Cairns were down in numbers this year, owing to a prevalence of distemper in the larger kennels, but Mr. Glynn, judging what there was of the "wee Scottish dog," will do much to correct any misunderstanding regarding the essential characteristics of the Cairn.

Irish Terriers are improving, too, and there were several really handsome "Micks" at this show. "Irish Rival," a dog belonging to Mr. J. Clancy of New York, was a dog that any fancier would desire to call his own.

Wire-Haired Fox Terriers were the feature breed of the show. Mr. Reg. M. Lewis' "Ch. Gang Warily" was Mr. Homer Gage's (Jr's) choice for best dog, Chappaqua Kennels' "Chappaqua Gold Flake" reserve. In bitches, Croydon Kennels' "Croydon Oakdene Elegance" won, with Reg. M. Lewis' "Warily Stockwood Sequence" reserve. There was quite a difference in these awards from those handed out on the day previous.

Scottish Terriers were a splendid aggregation, with quality predominating. Still the historian will record the circumstance of a 7-months-old puppy, owned by Mrs. M. Newton, and aptly named "Land O'Burns," a home-bred Scottie, actually went from puppy to winners, taking the measure of the champions and imported Scotties on the way.

THE LAST SHOW AT MADISON SQUARE GARDENS.

After a period of almost a couple of decades, that had given and taken many outstanding dogs, and dog fanciers, to the American Continent under the roof of the "Old Garden" (as the Madison Square Sporting venue is lovingly referred to by all sportsmen), the doors have closed to dogs and dog shows for the last time. Surely it is only a circumstance in the rush of men's affairs, and ordinarily would have passed unnoticed, but, frankly, there seemed to be a depression that was quite noticeable as one after the other in rapid succession would refer to the show as being "the last to be held at the Garden."

All the familiar faces were to be found around the aisles and the rings. If one wanted to find an Airedale fancier, it was an easy matter to find that fancier, and so it was true of every breed and its follower. Up beside the Whippets we found Mrs. M. Damon, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Lowenstein (late of Toronto). Beside the Springers Mr. Herb Routley, Mr. E. Chevrier and Mr. Geo. Kynoch could be found; beside the Bulldogs Mr. James Cassina could always be found; beside the Russian Wolfhounds it was easy to find Mr. E. M. Burke and party, Mr. Blake Johnston, Mrs. A. Paterson and her daughter Violet. Labradors had that staunch Ottawa fancier, Mr. J. Ritchie. Pekes had Mr. Jack Treleavan in constant attendance, Manchester Terriers were never out of the sight of Mr. F. McLean, and so on and so forth all down the line.

Mr. Chas. G. Hopton has his story to tell, and he can always be depended on to tell it interestingly—he takes up some of our space this month. The "Handlers" tribute to Mr. Alf. Delmont takes a page, and so this must be necessarily cut as short as possible.

We give most of the winners and reserve winners in most of the breeds, and we will be glad to send fuller particulars to any of our readers who may require same.

The winners and reserve winners of the various breeds are as follows:

Airedale Terriers: Winners Dogs: S. M. Stewart's "Ch. Geelong Defiance." Reserve: John C. Sheehan's "Ch. Sunny King Rocket." Winners Bitches: Davishill Kennels' "War Bride of Davisville." Reserve: Louis F. Bades' "Ch. Lady Gleeful." Canadian Airedales were conspicuous by their absence at this show, but the Winnipeg champion, "Masterly Squire," owned by George Kynoch, was awarded 4th place in open dogs, having for competition "Ch. Geelong Defiance," "Ch. Sunny King Rocket" and "Briarcroft Sensation," in the order named. "Elderslie Sensation" was tacked 7th in a class of eight.

Bedlington Terriers: Winners Dogs: Firenze Kennels' "Firenze Rose and Crown Little Sergeant." Winners Bitches: Firenze Kennels' Ch. Firenze Deckham Merry." Reserve, "Firenze Highland Queen."

Belgian Sheepdogs: Winners Dogs: Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Augustin's "Ch. Marco." Reserve: Mrs. A. Ludlow's "Kramer's Timo." Bitches: Mrs. A. Ludlow's "Wanda." Reserve: same owners "Margot." "Ch. Marco" is the son of "Galopin," owned by George Domus of Montreal, and was placed best of breed by the noted judge, Otta H. Gross.

Boston Terriers: Winners Dogs: Emma G. Fox's "Million Dollar King." Reserve: E. M. Ramsey's "Nose Dive." Winners Bitches: Profile Kennels' "Real Select." Reserve: P. J. Kane's "Miss Betty." This breed was one of the show's many features.

English Bulldogs: Winners Dogs: Chas. C. Richards' "Hefty Discovery." Reserve: Jim Cassina's "Ch. Dauntless Dan." Bitches: Jim Cassina's "Ch. St. Roch Girl Guide." Reserve: Alex.

H. Stewart's "Strathroy Ashford Minerva." Best of breed: "Ch. St. Roch Girls' Guide." There were many close up prize-winners tagged "from Canada" in this breed, and the "wiseacres" shook their heads solemnly and whispered Canadian dogs, Canadian judge—terrible; but they always talk that way anyway, so why disturb them; the truth is that Canada was well represented in this breed, and every ribbon was won. It was in a large measure Mr. Cassina's day, and his string of seven dogs had a host of genuine admirers. Another one who left Canada recently, and who won nicely at this show, was Mrs. John R. Reynold's "Trusty Patsy O'Dare," who won 2nd limit and 2nd open in the under 40 lbs. division.

Chesapeake Bays: Winners Bitches: J. G. Munn's "Penhales Belle."

Fox Terriers (Smooth): Winners Dogs: W. E. Barlow's "Sabine Rodeo." Reserve Winners: G. G. Sinclair's "Rustic Royalist." Winners Bitches: Q. A. Shaw McKean's "Lady Crossfield of Pride's Hill." Reserve Winners: Mrs. Homer Gage's "Elpatria."

Pekingese: Winning Dogs: Mrs. S. Franc's "Ch. Glen Iris Dai Dream." Reserve Winners: Mrs. H. M. Robertson's "Ch. Ashton More Kwai Jen." Winners Bitches: Mrs. Franc's "Ch. Glen Iris Dai Due." Reserve Winners: Mrs. V. G. Meyer's "Flappers of Leboz."

KOLD KASH FOR CANADA.

As we go to press we learn that Mr. Henry E. Whitley, of Montreal, has purchased the wire haired fox terrier Kold Kash, who won so wonderfully as a puppy at the recent New York shows under the noted judges Walter Glynn and Capt. J. H. Wright, both of England, and Homer Gage, Jr., of Shrewsbury, Mass. Kold Kash is a classy youngster and has for his sire Ch. Speedy Ball, and for his dam Sally Scout. He has just turned a year old, and has his whole life before him. We always had an idea that Harry Whitley would one day lead a wire into the ring, as good, or better, than Short Cut, and now we know we had the right idea, and hope to see Mr. Whitley and his new dog out for the "glory of it all" at our forthcoming summer shows.

WINNIPEG FANCIERS IMPROVING COCKERS.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. P. Murray, Winnipeg, are out to make the "Merrie Cocker" a popular dog in their locality, and, following out their present breeding and exhibiting policies, they are bound to succeed. Not a wealthy man at all, but Mr. Murray uses the best stud forces in his breeding operations, regardless of the cost of the sires chosen for that purpose.

Here is a picture of his "Goldstream Slipper," that travelled the route between puppy and winners under Mr. Enno Meyer of Cincinnati, at the Minneapolis show, and furnishing a desirable Christmas box for the Murray family. The little Madam is a trifle long cast by the picture, but maiden Cocker Spaniel females often show the same thing, and after raising a family they look altogether different. She is wonderful quality at that.

"Goldstream Slipper" is a daughter of Farewell's "Man o'War," the dog that Mr. Lance Farewell refused to exchange for ten 100 bills in the writer's presence, and out of "Ch. Lady Betty," who was by "Ch. Billy Obo, Jr." She has just been returned to Winnipeg, after a visit to "Contender," one of "Man o'War's" best producing sons. This mating is along the lines which has made the Dean of Cockerdom famous on this Continent and in Great Britain, and includes all the family of noted Obos, "Sir Obo," "Virginia Obo," "Honey Obo," "Olga Obo," "Pony Obo," "Judy Obo," "Dusty Obo," "Ch. Patricia Obo," and a double cross of the great "Billy Obo," and we hope that Mr. Murray will have the good fortune to add to this list of notables as a result of this unique mating.

We had the pleasure of seeing "Miss Goldstream Slipper," and liked her immensely.

Mr. W. C. Franz, President of the Algoma Steel Corporation, has an idea that by mating the working Cocker to the bench specimen that the result will be a better working dog, and he is endeavoring to prove his theory in a practical way, and has bred "Beauty," a large specimen that never tires of the gun and the field, to Farewell's "Man O'War," and will be content to wait for results.

COAST NOTES.

By Albert Kerr, Vancouver, B.C.

If the amount of interest as displayed at the New Year by the doggie folks in general was the indication of any of their New Year's resolutions, then by the happenings and doings since they certainly have intended keeping these resolutions with a vim.

The New Year was ushered in with a matinee parlor show in the afternoon under the auspices of the Vancouver Kennel Club, at which there was a good attendance of spectators and exhibitors. At this show Wally Willgress went to the top with a beautiful young English Setter bitch, that will climb to greater heights as it matures.

On New Year's morning the Vancouver Whippet Club held a handicap race, at which there was a good following. This young club in the canine world, which started from a membership of twelve last August, now has a paid membership of over fifty, many of whom are owners of these fleet-footed representatives of the dog race. This up-to-the-minute club plans to put on a handicap race every month, and it is always well represented at the regular evening parlor shows.

To keep up with the best of them W. A. Coull recently imported two Whippets from the famous Old Country Kennels, namely, "Treffynnon Smut" and "Treffynnon Plack," but misfortune seemed to have been stalking in their wake for, on the way out "Smut" had the ill luck to fall down the hold and was in such a crippled condition on arrival at this port that it had to be destroyed. Dave Mitchell has also imported "Starsheen" from England and two from the States to keep his kennel to the fore, and several more are now on the way over for the members.

The B. C. Fox Terrier Club, like the dogs they keep, are on their toes. The year closed with a good balance on the right side, their meetings are lively and full of interest and debate, and the best of goodfellowship prevails; discussions centre around the betterment of their breed at all times.

At the annual meeting the following officers were elected for the coming year:—Hon. President, Mr. Thornton Sharp; Hon. Vice-Presidents, Mr. S. Lockeyer, Mr. W. M. Coates, Mr. O. B. Allan; President, Mr. A. Grant; Vice-President, Mr. T. P. Milner; Secretary, Wm. J. Smith. Executive Committee—Messrs. H. Swinden, F. Nott, C. Carey, C. A. Hoffman, G. Pearson, Albert Kerr, R. Bromley, H. Lester, R. Aggett. Hon. Veterinary—Dr. T. E. Sleeth.

A Specialty Parlor Show is arranged for Feb. 28th, when the Fox Terriers will hold forth again for their second show of the year.

The Toy Dog fanciers are at it with the rest. Not to be outdone and to keep their end they have their regular meetings and their own Parlor Shows, besides showing their dogs at the fixtures of the All-Breed Clubs.

The Terminal City Kennel Club are also still to the forefront, having had a successful season and are away again to a good start with a new slate of officers: Hon. President, Mr. H. W. Long; President, Mr. Charles Carey; Vice-President, Mr. R. Moore; Secretary-Treasurer, Mr. Albert Kerr; Hon. Solicitor, Mr. Hamilton Read; Hon. Veterinary, Dr. T. E. Sleeth. Board of Directors—Messrs. Fred Wilds, Neil Kelso, Dave Mitchell, W. A. Coull, Dr. W. J. Downie, W. Reeth and Sam Jones.

Preparations are under way for our annual spring show, to be held May 25th and 26th, and full particulars will be given in Kennel and Bench, and, if expectations are fulfilled, this will be the best show yet attempted.

Victoria kennel clubs are away to a good start, and are putting on their spring show in May, and expect a good entry and pleasant times. Nanaimo is also coming back into the limelight. Just to show that they were only resting on their oars, they are to stage a spring show some time in April and are looking forward to support from all B.C. fanciers.

The T.C.K.C. directors were the committee in charge of the Parlor Show of February 18th, and put across the largest and best show of this kind yet in these parts.

FORT GARRY KENNEL CLUB HAS GOOD YEAR.

The annual general meeting of the Fort Garry Kennel Club was held at Winnipeg on January 20th, starting 1924 with a slender bank balance, as previously reported. A truly wonderful year was experienced, and 1925 will have easy travelling in comparison.

Secretary-Treasurer Mr. F. W. Walkerdene submitted his statement, which had the expert care of Mr. Thos. Rathjen, C.A. At the beginning of 1924 the bank balance was $6.61; liabilities amounted to $349—a crippling situation for any club, but when it was found that a judge for their summer C.K.C. show, and a suitable building was to cost (and did cost) $525 things looked mighty dark indeed. However, the members and friends of the club contributed $205, which was a most acceptable help at a most acceptable time. The feature show was followed by a series of three matinee events, which were also successes financially and placed the club in the happy position of discharging their liabilities entirely, and $124 is the credit balance for the 1925 activities.

Naturally, such a report appealed to Fort Garry members, and that staunch supporter of things canine at the 'Peg,

Mr. Alex. MacKidd, expressed the feeling of the members when he proposed a vote of thanks to the officers of the club, and especially to the Secretary-Treasurer.

When the election of officers came up the President, Mr. C. A. Robson, and the Secretary-Treasurer were asked to retain their positions for this year—both desired to be relieved. The following list of elected officers will show how their wishes were entertained by the members:—Honorary patrons, the Mayor, Lieut.-Col. R. H. Webb, D.S.O., Messrs. J. H. Holman, H. M. Tucker, A. W. McLimont, I. M. Winslow and S. Wilson; honorary president (our old friend), Mr. F. E. Trautman; president, Major Hugh Niven (son of Dr. J. S. Niven, London, Ont., a member of the first Executive of the Canadian Kennel Club); 1st vice-president, Mr. C. A. Robson; 2nd vice-president, Mr. George Kynoch; secretary-treasurer, Mr. F. W. Walkerdene, 500 Banning Street, Winnipeg, Man.

Executive—Messrs. Alex. MacKidd, Sam Jackson, Geo. Humphries, F. W. Gates, Jack C. Woodend, W. H. Chaderton, T. Smith, H. Bentley, J. F. Kerr, F. G. Dunstan, A. Milward.

Honorary Veterinarian—Dr. Snider.

FITZPATRICK'S TINY KING

I am placing this beautiful mahogany brindle dog at stud only and after he has proven his worth as a high-class stud in the Eastern States as well as a fast show dog. He has the combination that is bound to get results. You do not have to select the blood-lines in your female to mate with him.

He comes fresh from the "Turnstile Kennels," South Lawrence, Mass., U.S.A., where he helped place Mr. Bulger on the highest pinacles of Boston Terrierdom. Mr. Bulger selected him out of a large number of the very best for a partner to "Intruder." Now that he is in Hamilton, it will pay you to look him over before breeding that good female of yours.

He has made a wonderful reputation in the U.S.A. as the great "Three and One Dog," namely, the Famous Intruder, Ringmaster, and Champion Peter's King strain.

His progeny shows the Intruder head, the Ringmaster eye and the perfect markings of the Peter's King strain.

He is an ideal cross for all the leading blood-lines. You have tried the rest, now breed to the best and raise a fast one for the coming shows.

DELCREO DOG REMEDIES

kills more dogs every year than all other diseases combined. Yet there is no good reason for this. Today there is no excuse for losing a dog from Distemper. If you will always keep a supply of DELCREO in your home or kennel you need never fear Distemper. DELCREO never fails when administered in time according to directions. As a Conditioner, DELCREO is in a class by itself.

An ounce of prevention is worth a ton of cure.

Write to us for directions how to prevent Distemper.

DELCREO: For Distemper, Black Tongue, Pneumonia, Auto-intoxication and other diseases of germ origin. Unequalled as a Tonic and Conditioner.

SOLUBLE SULPHUR COMPOUND: For Canker of the Ear, Eczema, Rheumatism and all blood disorders. Also put up in capsules.

SOLUBLE BATH SULPHUR: For Fleas, Mange, Eczema and all skin diseases.

SOLUBLE SULPHUR OINTMENT: For Mange, Cuts, Wounds, Sores, etc.

SULFMINOL: A tonic laxative of pure, white mineral oil and Soluble Sulphur Compound. For general and chronic constipation.

DELCREO DOG SOAP: For cleansing and stimulating the skin and coat. Kills fleas.

MANGE, ECZEMA and SKIN DISEASES

In the past certain skin diseases have been looked upon as incurable, but since the discovery of DELCREO DOG REMEDIES that old superstition has been exploded. There is no case of Mange, or any other skin disease, no matter how deep-seated or obstinate, that will not respond to treatment with DELCREO SOLUBLE SULPHUR preparations. DELCREO DOG SOAP will kill fleas and stimulate the animal's skin and coat.

SPRATT'S FOOD FOR DOGS

"THE BACKBONE OF THE CANINE RACE"

The dog constitution needs a dog diet. Table scraps—toothsome and tasty though they may be—are not only totally unsuitable for the physical requirements of the dog, but are more often than not a direct cause of unfitness. For sixty years SPRATT'S have made dogs and their requirements the subject of continual observation and research; and to-day for every dog, old or young, healthy or sick, there is a Spratt's Food guaranteed to suit exactly his requirements.

Spratt's Food for Dogs.

The wolf and the Dog

WOLF—the enemy of man. A creature of the wilds—carnivorous, cruel; fighting a hard battle in the struggle for existence, where life depends solely on cunning and endurance.

DOG—man's friend. A loyal, trusting, "one-man" pal, setting an example in true comradeship that humanity would do well to follow. This is what civilization has done for the wolf.
