Sullivan, St. John, N.B., and as required by Article 6, Section 4, Paragraph 12, of the Constitution, the Secretary cast a vote in favor of Mr. W. W. The Quebec Province, not having nominated in the last election, it was agreed to request the Directors already holding office to retain their positions for the present. The Directors holding office are Messrs. Wm. R. Aitken and Robt. A. Ross (Montreal).

A complaint made by Mr. Reg. P. Sparkes (Toronto) against Mr. James Cassina (Toronto) was read and considered. And it was decided by motion to notify Mr. Cassina of the complaint, requesting that he present his defence in the form of a sworn statement.

The Secretary presented quotations from several publishing houses for the printing of Kennel and Bench. And it was regularly moved, seconded and carried: "That the present contractors' quotation be accepted."

The Secretary requested that a committee be named to consider the advertising rates of the official organ with a view to their revision, and advised that the prevailing rate had continued since the circulation had reached 2,000 copies monthly, and that now the circulation was over 5,000 copies monthly. The following committee was named: Col. G. F. McFarland, Messrs. V. G. Perry, N. K. Swire and the Secretary.

The Secretary asked that a committee be named to consider the question of Provincial representation, and the following committee was named: Col. G. F. McFarland and General C. M. Nelles.

This being the business coming before the Board at this time, it was moved, "That the meeting now adjourn."

ALBERTA KENNEL CLUB WAITING FOR JULY

The Alberta Kennel Club seems to have taken on a new lease of life, not that that old club has ever been really inactive at any time, but it just seems to the writer at this distance that a new energy was visible in the correspondence concerning the club's activities. Another sign of renewed interest and vigor was the reopening of a very newsy column in the Calgary Herald edited by the Club's Secretary, Mr. Jack Miller. We hope to chronicle big things for this Western Club after they have rung the curtain down on the show, which takes place during the Stampede Week, the dog show dates being July 14, 15 and 16. If you want to be present for the "Big Doings" write to Mr. J. M. Miller, City Hall, Calgary.

MONTREAL IRISH SETTERS AT FRAMINGHAM, MASS.

Mrs. J. H. Enright, in company with her father, visited the Framingham District's Kennel Club Show on May 16th, taking along several of their Cocker Spaniels and Irish Setters and had the pleasure of winning Best of Breed in the Irish Setter section, which was one of 40 dogs benched, and a trifle larger than the New York entry. Ch. Wild Irish Rosette won 1st open winners and with Wild Irish Susan won 1st puppy, 1st novice, the two later winning for best brace. On top of this 12 specials were won to mark the day's winnings properly. Then to make the occasion really interesting and one to be remembered, 5 championship points were earned and an international championship possibility was successfully launched. There were 600 dogs in the competition at the show.

NOTES FROM THE AMERICAN SIDE

By Charles G. Hopton.

THE Dominion was much in evidence at the recent annual show of the Pittsburgh Kennel Club held in the famous "Iron City" April 23, 24 and 25, when Canadian home-breds topped several important breeds where the keenest of competition prevailed, then again the All-rounder was none other than the degnified Robert A. Ross, frae Montreal, who gave universal satisfaction especially in Collies, Bulldogs, Doberman Pinschers and Cockers, though to be frank we could not endorse his award of best of breed; taken as a whole it was a very meritorious performance as the going was decidedly heavy and the heat around the 90 mark, so one may know that the genial Robert had quite a hot time.

In Cockers, the famous Lance Farwell and Ottawa Armstrong strains were well to the fore, winning in solid colored dogs, and any other color, the noted black and white dog, Fayette Fascinator, rightly best in dogs. A very impressive pair were Deer Park Rolla, and Billy O, which impressed one as being essentially sound and on real sporting lines. A very smart black novice bitch was Dream Girl that might have done better in the subsequent classes as she excelled in all head points, with sound front and well balanced body. The ultimate winner was Brown Oaks-Cotton Babe, a very typical orange and white, but she was not in such good coat as Fascinator, neither did she have the power in quarters, so pronounced in the dog who is quite one of the best of his color out to-day. Pomeranians also found Canadian-breds well to the fore, as the noted A. R. Kittermaster kennel was out with a big string which had the pull in coat and ring manners. In dogs, the well known Society Commodore won handily, but it was a mighty close thing between Little Fellow Waynflete, and the trappy orange, Prince Pal, placed as written. Some confusion occurred when it came to the color division, thus proving that some of our judges have lots to learn. The Puppy and Novice classes were easy for Society Fire Fly and Foxey Belle, both having much the better texture of coat; then came same owner's stylish blacks, Wee Flash Away and Lady Tutt, easy winners, which made it interesting for a very trappy shaded sable, Polly Anna, who beat the dog for best of breed. Bulldogs won the highest honors for Canada when the now famous Ch. St. Roche Girl Guide, fresh from her great win at Montreal where she won for best of breed, topped a real good entry to win the very shart Non-sporting class, where several noted American champions, including the invincible Chow, Ch. Greenacre Li Ping Tow, were beaten. This was quite the best victory yet recorded to this very typical bitch, who is a decided credit to the Cana-interesting with very little difference between the awards of Robert A. Ross, who did the Specialty, and pleased the majority, and the well known Chicago expert, J. C. Casselman, as the noted Bellhaven kennel, owned by Mrs. F. Ilch, won best of breed with an exceptionally sound coated sable and white home-bred puppy, Bellhaven Bigheart, much on the same type as his noted sire, Starbat Strongheart, whose half-sister, Bellhaven Butterfly, went right through from Puppies to Winners bitches. A very useful sort was W. H. McClone's heavily coated Cyclone Cyclops, who won of best of a mixed lot of locals. A very interested spectator was the popular Rev. Roger McGinley, owner of the famous Bournbrae Kennels.

As President of the Collie Club, he addressed a huge crowd at the banquet, exhorting all sincere Collie fanciers to get together. His remarks were most pertinent and made a very favorable impression.

The Warily Kennels introduced a topping pair of home-bred puppies in Wire Fox Terriers that should make history when fully matured, especially the dog, Warily Gang Leader, one of the best youngsters seen for many a show, which went right through to Winners and made the famous Ch. Speedy Ball go some when it came to the specials. Warily Wire Girl of Wroseborough, looking very fit, was best in bitches, with same owndian fancy. In the dogs classes, Mr. Ross reversed his New York award, and rightly so, as the condition of the noted Ch. Warfleigh Sensible Fred was greatly improved, he winning after a very close race with the extra sound Dauntless Dan, who suffered from the trying heat. Best of the American-bred classes was a very sound and cloddy fawn, Auburncrest Lord Salisbury, while among those well up in the running for Winners bitches was Lady Byng Challenger, a more than useful white and brindle which, it was rumored, had won under Willoughby Mitchell at St. John and other Canadian shows. Thanks to the Specialty show of the Pittsburgh Collie Club, this sagacious breed was very er's Warily Cactus Flower, next in order, finally taking the special for best of breed, then topped the Terrier group, where a very keen contest took place for second money between the Bull Terrier Ch. Cloudland Mist, the Irish Terrier, Wonderful Perfection, and the noted international winning Kerry Blue, Victor of Leysfield, cleverly shown by the popular Tommy Grisdale. They finished as written, with many in favor of the last named, a rare bodied sort with splendid color and rare front.

Benny Lewis did very well in English Setters with his much improved Blue Belton, Ch. Lansdowne Cousin Jack, but he had to be at his best, as the pick of the regular classes, Kings-mill's Lady March was much fancied. The dog scored, however, in bone and depth of chest. Pointers found top honors awarded to a very sound lemon and white field-trial-bred dog, Dapple Joe, which had the pull in condition and maturity over Wm. T. Payne's rare-headed home-bred Midkiff Bootlegger, while in the bitches, where at least five were good enough to win, the clever handling of Sam F. Kenning greatly assisted the very sound and evenly balanced novice, Lady Frank Cash, to win.

Doberman Pinschers, a very impressive breed which is destined to make the Shepherd Dog look to its laurels as a popular working dog, found the Philadelphia awards made by Walter S. Reeves, rightly changed about. At the former event, Bruno V. D. Residence was given top honors, but here he could do no better than third, as Ch. Prince Favorite V. D. Koningstad, a remarkably sound and beautifully proportioned brown with tan markings, and Bosco V. D. Atzelberg, had the sounder feet, cleaner shoulders and deeper chest. The former was much fancied for the Working class where the now famous circuit champion Shepherd Dog, Giralda's Teuthilde V. Hagenschleiss, shown in superb form by the astute A. McHalley, put up a splendid performance, being under perfect control and extra good in gait. The special for Best in Show aroused great excitement, as the noted Greyhound, Ch. Rosemont Liskeard Fortunatas, had been specially prepared by Benny Lewis, whose friends are legion. After a very thorough test for soundness, the imposing silver trophy went to the Shepherd Dog, hence the "Sunny Jim" smile on Halley's "physiog," and applause by the huge crowd. This exceptionally dark sable bitch has beaten all records for this fashionable breed, having gone right through the circuit without a defeat, winning for best of breed at every show competing; practically invincible in the Working group and on six different occasions has been adjudged Best in Show, a record that will take a heap of beating, that is when the quality of dogs beaten by the Giralda champion is taken into consideration.

Philadelphia, while not on a par with the early shows held in the beautiful Horticultural Hall during the regime of Marcel A. Viti, Murray Bohlen, Dr. Harry Jarrett, and others of the "old school," there was keen competition in many breeds, hence the quality of winners left in for the final interesting Group classes where the following noted winners accounted for top honors and came together in the line-up for Best in Show. The Greyhound, Ch. Rosemont Liskeard Fortunatas, won the Sporting handily, as did the symmetrical Shepherd Dog, Armor von Greyerberg, shown by R. McCallum, but in the Terrier division it was no easy victory for the well-known Sealeyham, Torre Jan Stewer, as Tommy Grisdales, exceptionally sound and typical Kerry Blue, Victor of Leysfield, the consistent winning Scottish Terrier, Land o' Burns, quite one of the best home-breds seen for many a show, and the wire, Chappaqua Deity, were much fancied. Then came the Non-Sporting where the deep red Chow, Sun Sultan, won from the local Bulldog, Aulant's Double, which had made a somewhat lucky win over the recently imported English champion, Limehurst Marquis, who, had he made the most of his chances, should have been the best Bulldog, with a bit to spare. The pick of a mixed lot of Toys was the well-known Pomeranian, Bogota Sheila. This left a sorry quintette to compete for best of all breeds, finally awarded to the Greyhound, Ch. Liskeard Fortunatas, the property of John Sinnott, a prominent member of the club and one of its most staunch supporters.

CH. ALF VON TOLLENSSETAL COMES TO THE UNITED STATES

We have just learned that the great English champion, Alf. v. Tollensetal, P.H., 1921-22 Reserve Sieger, Germany, has been purchased by Mr. A. C. Gilbert, of New Haven, Conn., a sportsman of international reputation.

In the sporting world Mr. Gilbert is well known as a world's champion athlete. While at Yale University he won his "Y" in three different branches of athletics. He was amateur wrestling champion and world's champion pole vaulter. He represented the United States at the Olympic Games in London in 1908 and won the pole vault championship of the world in addition to having twice been world's record holder.

After graduating from Yale University in 1909, Mr. Gilbert went into the manufacturing of toys and established the A. C. Gilbert Company, which has grown to be the largest toy manufacturing concern in the United States, if not in the world. He is particularly known in the toy industry for having invented Erector, the steel construction toy, which is one of the most popular toys for boys.

It was in conjunction with his toy manufacturing that Mr. Gilbert became interested in Shepherd dogs. Right after the war he established a subsidiary plant in Vienna, Austria and on some of his various trips abroad brought back to America a few fine specimens.

Mr. Gilbert has been very cautious and slow about starting the breeding of Shepherd dogs. He made quite an exhaustive study in Germany and Austria on his various trips, watching the shows abroad and studying the breeds of Shepherds thoroughly. His ambition is not to go out and buy champions, but his purpose is to acquire the right blood lines and his main interest is in the American-bred dogs that he hopes to produce in the future. Mr. Gilbert's own sporting instincts would not be satisfied with merely buying a champion dog. He is anxious, however, to have the right foundation with which to develop something that is going to be worth while and make it really interesting. With these ideals in mind, he should be a great asset to the breed in America.

Mr. Gilbert's record in athletics as a good sportsman should make for him

Ch. Alf Von Tollensetal.

many friends among fanciers. The record of his business achievements was written up in an article by Owen McLean in the January, 1924, issue of the American Magazine.

Small Dogs versus Big Dogs

By Lillian C. Raymond-Mallock (England)

This much-discussed question is at the moment possibly more than ever a topic of general conversation amongst dog lovers, and the press has been busy, too, on the point. I shall quote one or two excellent paragraphs which have recently appeared in print, as well as giving my own personal opinion and reasons why the larger breeds are more or less in a minority nowadays.

In the first place social life in England is very much changed, most of the big country houses are offered for sale in Country Life at ridiculously low figures. The people who used to live in them are considerably worse off financially than they were in the pre-war days, and in consequence have had to find a very different class of house for themselves, with a much restricted acreage. These old country houses were the homes of the big breeds, where they had ample room for exercising in the surrounding park. Nowadays, however, most people have to work for their living and the "country gentleman" type who amused himself all day long with his dogs and his horses is fast disappearing, likewise his horses and his big dogs. One must have a large place to accommodate these fine old breeds. Such dogs as Danes, Mastiffs, Bloodhounds and the like are eminently suited for the stately homes of England; they seem to be part and parcel of these estates, but are more or less out of place in a small house. I do not consider that the craze for the foreign element is in any way responsible for their decline, it is simply due to general progression and the change in social life, and I am afraid that we shall never see these fine old breeds restored to their former numbers. For one thing they cost a great deal more to keep than a smaller dog. The professional dog-breeder will not breed them, and the amateurs simply have not the money, time or accommodation for them. It is a great pity, but it is so. Pointers and Setters are also declining rapidly, there is not the old need for them now that shooting over dogs has almost gone out. Again I say what a pity the old sporting instinct is dying out, and the delight of seeing a good dog at work in the field is almost unknown to the younger generation. The Irish Setter is still the most popular of his variety, though why this should be I cannot say. I have owned and shot over them all at one time or another and have never known a "red coat" to show any decided superiority over his cousin, the English Setter. Spaniels have still their use, and in consequence are fairly prosperous. Alsations continue to be all the rage, and are far too numerous, but they come under the "foreign dog craze" so I do not count them. Of the terriers, Cairns and Sealyhams hold a strong hand, and the wire-haired "fox" has, and always will be a great favorite. Toys also on the whole are booming, especially Pekingese, which are "swamping" most of the other "small fry" although the good old English breed, the King

Charles Spaniel, is making a strong bid for popularity, and I should like nothing better than to see him once more reinstated in his old place. There is no more delightful little dog in existence than a really nice King Charles Spaniel, and if breeders will only be satisfied to produce a well balanced normal dog (and discourage exaggerations) I am sure that the dog-loving public would take them up again immediately. It is the abnormal type, with their bashed in noses, ungainly bodies and poor action, which has influenced people against them, and when once we set our faces against this type, and breed for a good all round sturdy little spaniel, the popularity of the "Royal Charles" is assured. Pekingese with their superb constitutions and stamina are so easy to breed and rear that they have an immense pull over most of the other toy breeds in this respect and consequently have increased and multiplied in an astounding manner. This, however is not an unmixed blessing, because the market has been "swamped" with very poor specimens which were sold for a small sum and in time bred from, producing more poor specimens, and at the moment the number of bad Pekes one sees in the streets is amazing. Really good specimens are still, and always have been, difficult to breed, and we find a larger increase in puppies with "cleft palates" every day. However, this is but one of the "deformities" one must expect when breeding from very flat-faced parents, and I hope that the little feeding bottle with special teat for puppies with cleft palates, which I have just put on the market, may save a good many of these poor little ones, which queerly enough are always the best of the litter. Our little continental friends, the Papillons, had their first challenge certificates at the Ladies' Kennel Association show last week, and attracted a good deal of attention. They are quaint little people, built on rather slender lines, and somewhat resembling our King Charles Spaniels, in fact, it is more than probable that the dwarf spaniels which were known at the French court in the time of Henry III were the forefathers of our present-day King Charlies, and if that be so, first cousins to the Papillon. At the shows as well as at home one sees an ever increasing number of small dogs and realizes the decline of the big ones. The smaller breeds are more suitable for the smaller houses, reduced space, reduced staff, reduced incomes, and the fine big fellows are dwindling away with the old country houses, old customs and the old country life of Old England.

Is the large dog unpopular? Ask Mr. J. R. Tennant, Princeton, Ont. He should know, and will tell you, why.

WINDSOR KENNEL CLUB A BUSY HIVE

It will be a big show at Windsor on June 9th and 10th, when the recently formed Kennel Club makes its bid for the dog fanciers' patronage for the first time. A most regrettable halt was forced on the show preparations when Mr. Frank Walker, the Club's Secretary, was obliged to temporarily relinquish the reins of control owing to the death of Mrs. Walker. Frank is also Secretary of the Canadian National Field Trial Club, a referee in the four-cornered ring that is much in demand and whose decisions are respected. He is Kennel Editor of Rod and Gun in Canada, an ardent Beagler and an honest-to-goodness all-round sportsman. And on behalf of the fancy and in their collective names we tender our deepest sense of sympathy in his sad bereavement. We appreciate what our fellow fancier has lost, having spent some happy hours in the Walker home.

American fanciers will be out in force at the Windsor Show and an international opportunity for fanciers of the two countries will be afforded, which no doubt will prove an impetus to the business relations in dogdom on both sides of the boundary line, which is acknowledged to be more imaginary than real.

Any of the Secretaries, Mr. Roy O'Neil, 202 Richmond St., London, Ont., or Mr. Frank Walker, Windsor, Ont., will gladly take care of any enquiries from interested fanciers.

ALL ABOARD FOR PORT STANLEY

What promises to be a real holiday dog show fixture takes place at Port Stanley on July 1, 2 and 3, when all the several features of such an event will be on tap, Alsations and Whip-pets having an extra innings to play in the way of trials for the former and "miners racing" for the latter. Mr. Charles G. Hopton, New York has been retained to superintend the fixture and we believe has his plans already well advanced. The venue is a popular summer resort and many fanciers are arranging to make the show a part of their summer holiday. Mr. Roy R. O'Neil, 202 Richmond St., London, Ont., will be very glad indeed to give full particulars to fanciers interested, and particularly to American fanciers who may wish to spend a few days in Ontario at that time.

NATIONAL KENNEL CLUB INC. IN ANNUAL CONCLAVE.

The first annual meeting of the National Kennel Club, Inc., was held at the Military Institute, University Avenue, Toronto, on Thursday evening, May 29th, 1925, when a large percentage of the members joined in the activities of the meeting. The President, Mr. W. P. Fraser, who is also secretary for the Ontario Jockey Club, looked wonderfully fresh, considering he had been very busy at the Woodbine race track during the day, was in the chair. The writer overheard a remark which had for its substance the fact that a dozen of the club members were in Europe at the time of the meeting, others were on the way over there, whilst others were on the way back home. I would like to attend any meeting of the National Club when the members would be all present, it surely would be worth while. A sumptuous dinner was partaken of, after the fashion of the best served at the Military Institute, and the business was handled with alacrity.

The President, reviewing the year, traced the functioning of the club since incorporation, dwelling particularly on the all-breed dog show held in conjunction with the Royal Agricultural Winter Fair on November 19-20-21-22, 1924, which had cost the club a lot of money—well beyond the four figure mark. This money was considered very well spent. The club had been criticized for importing a show manager to Toronto, but in introducing Mr. George F. Foley to manage the show the club had acted wisely. Mr. Foley had been satisfied to undertake the work for the club, and also satisfied to lose money on the show along with the club. Another show would be held, probably at the time of the Royal Winter Fair again, when Mr. Foley would again probably have charge of its management, assisted by the officers and members of the National Kennel Club. Thanking the members for turning out in such goodly numbers and the officers for their arduous labors during the year. Announcing that the election of officers for the current year was in order, it was regularly moved, seconded and carried unanimously, "That the existing officers be elected to office." Without further ado it was evident that the officers already in harness were prepared to still "carry on," and soon the Canadian dog world will know that they are functioning perfectly, and that the result of their labors will soon be declared. A balance of well over the four figures is at their disposal and real attractive shows may be expected. The President called on the club's secretary, Major Ward Wright, to read the minutes, correspondence, and make the reports coming before the meeting. This business the Major presented in an able manner, and soon the agenda was cleaned up and a few social hours were enjoyed, and further discussions bearing on the good and welfare of the club was engendered. Many important points were reviewed, with the result that some new innovations will likely be maturing between now and November, and in actual operation at the show or shows which will be held at that time.

THE DOG ON THE POSTAGE STAMP

Then came the Illustrated London News offer, in 1914, of a prize for a dog that had displayed the greatest valor. The prize was won by Miss Mabel Hewitt's Landseer Newfoundland, Donovan Dorova, "for having saved from drowning in a river Willie Frampton and for other meritorious feats." Numerous other well authenticated instances could be mentioned where sagacity, instinct, and other traits have been displayed by Newfoundlands, but there is no need to bring to mind many instances.

One remarkable case in December, 1919, will suffice. The steamship Ethie, with ninety-two passengers and crew, one being a baby of eighteen months, was stranded on the coast of Newfoundland at Martin's Point, Bonny Bay. The sea was too rough for lifeboats, and attempts to shoot a line through the air having failed, one of the fishermen's dogs was called upon.

With a rope in his mouth, he braved the breakers and rocks, and brought the line ashore. The dog's master, with his hardy comrades, all seafaring men, contrived, with a boatswain's chair for a carrier and block and tackle for drawing in the line, to rescue, one by one, the passengers and crew. The baby had the special protection of a mail bag, into which the child was dropped.

What other dog has the brains, courage, instinct,

The Sir Arthur and Lady Hilda blood is famous wherever Newfoundlands are bred. This dog is a splendid specimen of such breeding. Compare him with Lady Rebecca, his dam, which appears on the preceding page.

vigor and water-resisting coat to enable him to perform such a heroic act?

Although the joy of the rescued and the satisfaction of those who helped in the feat must have prompted them to remember the dog, yet, beyond the record in the press, nothing more was done.

Tradition and print for many decades have abounded with records of the deeds of Newfoundlands. Their instinct for water and retrieving gives the breed an immense advantage over all other canines. It is this that makes them logically the dog for the long waterfront of sea, river and lake of North America.

When the best of the breed in England were poisoned by a crank during the world's war, when it was recognized that few of the true type exist in Newfoundland, and when it was found that the New York show of 1922 had but one entry of Newfoundlands in the miscellaneous class, a few lovers of the breed, who knew its sterling merit, decided on an effort to make the most of the remnants remaining and revivify interest in them.

These lovers of the breed formed the North American Newfoundland Club. Not that they expected the devotees of Dame Fashion would help, or that members of America's more prominent clubs would become Newfoundland enthusiasts. Yet both transpired. And from this modest start there has arisen an organization for the welfare of the breed, the like of which has never before existed in England or North America.

The new club adopted a standard of perfection and a scale of points, with cuts for defects. Also at the 1924 Westminster show, it gave the largest special prize in gold offered for any breed, besides nearly $250 in cash, and other specials, and five classes were secured.

England had some concerted action through a club, but during the late war, when most of the superior specimens were in the kennel of Miss Eleanor Goodall, in Yorkshire, a crank poisoned the lot, supposedly because he thought they were eating food needed for the soldiers. This crank, presumably, was also the cause of the death of their owner, for she died soon afterwards, and, it was said, from grief.

Miss Goodall used the "Gypsy" prefix. Ch. Gypsy Baron was one of her best. In all detail of type and conformation he was in conformity with the standard requirements. The Gypsy strain being practically wiped out by the poisoner, and as only a few large dogs were raised in England during the war, those in the British Isles are mostly inbred to the limit.

The Newfoundland dog of to-day is even a more massive and impressive animal than in former years. This dog is one of the finest animals now alive in Canada.

Therefore, the ones kept true to type by a few devotees in North America must be relied on to revive the breed. Among these are Ch. Chieftain, imported by the president of the club, Dr. M. J. Fenton; one given by Earl Grey to Dr. Grenfell, of Newfoundland, a few years ago; another from England presented to Mr. Bowring, also of Newfoundland, about six years since, whose blood was used by H. Macpherson, the club's vice-president, for the colony; and others of Shelton Viking stock that I brought over just prior to the war, particularly Sir Arthur, A. K. C. 145,404, of Ch. Fearless Foundation, Ch. Prince of Norfolk, and Humber Snowflake stock.

The latter was transferred to J. Mathieson Rankine, and when bred to Lady Hilda, A. K. C. 188,205, with such noted dogs as Omega, Alpha, Shelton Viking, Shelton Madge and Fearless Emblem in her pedigree, produced Lady Beckey, dam of Ch. Rolfe. Another was the dam of Tip, owned by J. H. Clark, the club's treasurer, who used his imported dog, Captain.

The pair, Sir Arthur and Lady Hilda, were imported when young, not only for the blood line combination, but also because their direct ancestors were subject to desirable association with humans. Their bringing up under similar conditions on Mr. Rankine's place, especially with the care and tutelage of one of his household, Miss Rebecca Nesbitt, a lover of dogs, had the desired effect. A little girl visitor, who made companions of them, went across the fields and, getting tired, went to sleep. When missed, she was found with Lady Hilda as a pillow and Sir Arthur on guard, and not until awakened and on her feet, did Mr. Rankine dare approach.

More recently, D. C. Williams, the club's vice-president for New York, imported a bitch in whelp, that has since died, but not without leaving progeny. T. D. Dillon, one of the executives, is making good use of a daughter of Lady Beckey, mated to earlier importations. Other excellent specimens were imported during this period, but as they were not used for the benefit of the breed, and are dead, they need no reference.

It may occur to some that, to revive the type and breed, we could go back to origin. Unfortunately, when wolves became scarce in the Pyrenees and such dogs were no longer relied on to keep the flocks safe, the dogs were forgotten and neglected. No attention was given to breeding them for instincts and dispositions; and type was not valued. So to-day, on both the Spanish and French slope of the mountains, nondescripts exist, and these faithful helpers, once renowned for sense of hearing, excellent noses, and as unflinching enemies of the wolf, are but ghosts of what they were in former days.

Some years ago, a Frenchman, M. Drebzen, went through the mountains in search of good specimens. Out of thousands, he saw only a few of type he considered identical, and these he took back. Little more was heard of them or their progeny, excepting that at a Paris show, the president of the Republic was particularly attracted to the exhibit of the dogs of the Pyrenees, making some remarks relating to their dignity and expression.

Newfoundlands want to be loved by everyone, particularly by those they know. They respond to approbation, take disapproval intelligently, are quick to learn and remember, and will readily obey. They are not dour or taciturn, but coercion is not liked. While with their friends, a stranger may manifest his individual taste, but a rough word or the slightest act of aggression brings a warning growl, then a show of teeth and, on command, they will attack with a ruthless daring. It is fortunate, especially during such lawless periods as the present, that these qualities have not been blotted out.

They are comrades of their owners in the full sense, or of those they know well, and friendly to strangers when not on guard. They can distinguish between an intruder and a visitor by deportment as well as dress; also they love children.

In one respect, the Newfoundland is positively pre-eminent. He is the only dog that has his picture on a postage stamp. To-day, this stamp is exceptionally rare.

The North American Newfoundland Club has adopted a "standard of perfection," and a standard scale of points which provide an excellent description of dogs of true type, and of the relative importance of their characteristics. These are appended below:

Whippetting in Canada

Whippetting got off to a big start in Montreal in 1924 when Mr. "Witty" Warren came to Toronto, got into the fun on both feet, made his arrangements to tickle the palates of the speed loving people of the Canadian Metropolis, which he carried through most successfully, actually creating a demand for a sport with the flashlike speed to it.

The subject of Whippet Racing was first mentioned at the Ladies' Kennel Club on September 19th, 1923, when I asked my friend, Jack Steer, if he would go into the game with me, and he agreed. Jack imported Galeky Boy and Galeky Fancy, and imported Victory Epinard, a puppy, and Victory Tranquil. We then got in touch with Mr. MacGregor, who had a dog named Fly. A little event was arranged in Nomad's Football Ground for November 11th, 1923, four dogs running. First heat, Galeky Fancy beat Fly; 2nd heat, Victory Tranquil beat Galeky Boy. Final, Victory Tranquil beat Galeky Fancy.

Free-for-all: One, Victory Tranquil; two, Galeky Fancy; three, Fly; four, Galeky Boy.

Mr. R. Armistead, Montreal, with his "Long Tail," "Ima Pastime," a speedy one, too.

Owing to the ban being on the dogs our plans were very much interfered with, as I had taken an option on Tre-feynor St. Louis, a young dog; also his dam, Nina, from Miss Iven Jones. St. Louis afterwards making his Championship, and winning the great show at Crufts, also many others, I had a chance to buy. As we had then only six dogs, we could not promote many races and as Tranquil had a litter of eight puppies, born December 8th, 1923, we had still prospects for later on in the year. So instead of leaving the dogs idle, we joined up with the Excelsior Henderson Cycle Club and ran races at the same time as they held their sports, the Club giving us a purse and a silver cup to winner.

Other races were held on June 22nd, 1924 (Valleyfield Handicap), when the racers were credited with the following points: Victory Tranquil, 11; Glenlocky, 9; Victory Epinard, 7, and Fly, 3. On July 6th (The Grandby Handicap), 200 yard race was run off and Glenlocky won in 12 2-5 seconds, going away with Victory Epinard and Fly in close attendance. On July 10th the St. Hyacinthe Handicap was the feature, and again Glenlocky showed his heels to Victory Epinard, Victory Tranquil and Ima Pastime. The time was 12 1/5 seconds.

At a match race held at Delorimer Park on October 5th, Victory Epinard and Glenlocky won the heats time about and in the final Victory Epinard was declared the winner in a 12 1/5 second race, inches only separating him from Glenlocky. The Montreal Handicap was the card feature and after the two heats had found the contestants for the final, it was found that Ima Pastime was the winner; Peggy, 2nd; Fly, 3rd, and King Cotton, 4th. By this time the sport was being taken quite seriously, and the question of "fastest Whippet" was openly discussed, and of course debated. "Witty" Warren thought well of his Sarah II, and R. Holliday thought well of his Victory Epinard, and so a $50 side stake was furnished, and the excitement was on. The first race was declared a dead heat, and so a run-off was the next move. Victory Epinard gave a half yard to the fair Sarah II, and away they went again, the former winning by three-quarters of a length.

This is the history of whippetting so far in Montreal as far as the club is concerned, and is written to show the whippers who are organizing in the several provinces, the amount of sport that the "little long tails" may be counted on to furnish for their owners and followers, and in closing Whippet fanciers: At all costs keep open club and open race meetings free from blasphemy and all vulgar demonstrators on the field, otherwise the sport of Whippet racing will be very much left to those directly interested themselves. We will not add further to the caution at this time, but we will continue to expose anything contrary to clean sportsmanship that confronts us on any Whippet track that we may visit. The dogs run to the limit of their strength and endurance, where they finish marks their best effort, and what more should any owner or shipper expect?

The Montreal Whippet Racing Association held its annual meeting on April 13th, when the past year's work was reviewed and plans made for the 1925 season, and the following officers were elected:

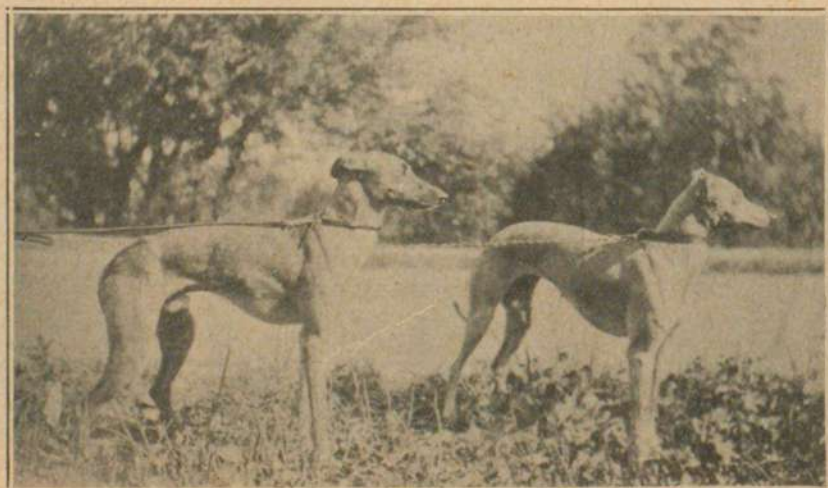

President—Mr. R. Holliday.

Vice-Pres.—Mr. D. MacGregor.

Sec-Treas.—Mr. R. Armistead, 2470 Notre Dame Street, East, Montreal.

Executive—Messrs. W. R. Aitken, J. H. Silver, J. Morrison, A. Prestwick, R. Stewart, and J. E. Armistead.

It is the intention of the association to be represented at Toronto meets, when Derbys are being run off this year, and if this intention materializes it will create an inter-provincial arrangement which may prove very advantageous to this sport.

Mr. R. Holliday's brace of "Speed Swallow," "Victory Epinard," and "Victory Tranquil," the former acknowledged to be Eastern Canada Champion.

Telephone City Kennel Club Show

Brantford fanciers were much elated over the fact that their 1925 summer show was the best for quality and for quantity to date. 235 dogs were entered, a dozen of which were absentees, and two championship points were earned. A trifle over one-third of the entry were entered as listed. Boston Terriers, Fox Terriers and Bulldogs were the strongest in numbers, with Pekingese and Pomeranians strongest for the toy section. The show was held at the Alfred Street Skating Rink, a building that was commodious enough to have benched twice the number of dogs in comfort. Clean and airy it was, but because of its enormous dimensions the dogs and the crowd looked to be scarcer than they actually were. Many of the smooth fox terriers were entered in the wire classes, which made the catalogue rather confusing, but Secretary N. H. Duckworth had everything fixed up in his judges' books.

Mr. Alf Delmont, Wynnewood, Pa., was the judge, and spent plenty of time going over his dogs. No doubt Mr. Delmont pleased himself, but there were many who failed to see eye to eye with him in many of his placings, but then, as we say, it was his job and he pleased himself, which was his privilege.

We believe a dog had to be removed from the show building suffering from distemper. This should be an utter impossibility, and we trust that members of show-giving club executives reading this report will, when their shows are being held, insist on a rigid veterinary inspection of every dog seeking admission, and not after it has been benched. It is quite bad enough to have our dogs take sick from excitement or chill, but to be brought into actual contact with a dog having distemper is nothing short of a crime, better that no show be held than that a lot of healthy dogs be exposed to this inexcusable risk.

Mrs. A. Patterson of the Romanoff Kennels, President of the Club, was hostess to many out-of-town exhibitors, and between her activities at the show and at home she was quite the busiest person we noticed in Brantford. Mr. Lee Wainwright, Chairman of the Dog Show Committee, was unavoidably absent until late in the second day of the Show, as he had been attending the funeral of an aunt at London. This popular fancier was very much missed by many of the exhibitors. Doc Briggs of Paris was the Ring Steward, of course. He seems to have a stranglehold on that job, and no one may take it away from him. Besides hustling his dogs in and being "everready" for his judge, he always finds time to "look 'em over" and no doubt does a lot of judging in his own mind and for his own satisfaction.

The writer was fortunate in being privileged to look over Mr. Glyn Bowden's Kennels on Cayuga Street, the home of "Blucher King" and many other Bostons. This kennel is all laid out in sections which gives every dog the limit of comfort asleep or awake. All the available space of the Bowden homestead is given over to the dogs.

A further pleasure was a visit to the Oak Park stock farm, at Paris, where the noted Alsatianists, Dr. J. N. MacRae and Mr. Jack Goldie, of the "Von Berns" and "Von Krones," respectively, have decided to show the world at large that doctors and manufacturers can make successful farmers. Dr. MacRae has already a hand with a leathery palm which was not developed rolling his cigarettes or pulling out corks. The farm consists of 500 odd acres and is considered one of the best in the county. The equipment is as varied as it is substantial, and the possibilities of the undertaking are unlimited, and by this time in 1926 the institution, which has been in a state of semi-neglect in recent years, will be again restored to its proper place—one of Canada's best stock farms.

The Shepherd dog (Alsatian) Club of Canada intend to spend a day at Oak Park Farms, possibly in September, and hope to make the event memorable in many ways. A bench show, field trials, a ball game between Toronto members and the other members of the Province. In fact, it is to be a combination of business and pleasure, and will perhaps mark the official "house warming" party at the farm.

Back to the show again, we made a few more notes, chief of which was the splendid benching housing the dogs. Those of our readers who have shown at Oakville Kennel Club shows will remember the benching well and will be interested to learn that it has now become the property of the Brantford Kennel Club, who used it for the first time at this show with marked success. If the Show Committee will have the woodwork dipped or hand-painted before the next show they will have the prettiest and most sanitary benching in the Province. The writer compliments Brantford Kennel Club in securing this very valuable asset.

TORONTO BOSTON AT HALIFAX

Mr. James D. Cummings, of New Glasgow, N.S., was in town a short time ago and called at this office, and when the "two Jims"—both Scotch—got together there was considerable conversation. The principal subject of Jim Cummings' conversation was "Tomkins Sparkie," the grand little Boston terrier which he recently purchased from Mr. Tomkins, of Toronto. Mr. Cummings is more than pleased with his purchase. "Sparkie" is just out of his puppyhood, but has already annexed about thirty prize ribbons, most of which are firsts. A careful comparison of the Boston terrier standard and "Sparkie" will find him running pretty close to what is required, being very compactly built, with beautiful color and marking, dandy little screw tail, short head and sound as a dollar. Mr. Cummings also reports that he is an ideal house dog and companion.

Toronto is noted for sending out good Bostons, and it is to be hoped that our good name will continue to be carried to all parts of America by such representative dogs as this one.

SIX MONTHS OLD PUPPY BEST AT DEVON SHOW

Zenoff of Zenovia, just six months and six days old, took the "blues" in puppy and novice classes and went right on up to winners in a four-point show held at Devon, Pennsylvania, on Memorial Day. He was also awarded the special for best dog.

There were eleven wolfhounds to face the judge, who was the well-known A. V. Webley, formerly of Toronto and of "Tolstoi" fame.

Zenovia Kennels also won reserve winners in dogs and reserve winners in bitches at this show, and hope to maintain a line of winners by judicious breeding and rearing.

HAMILTON KENNEL CLUB HOLDS PARLOR SHOW

The Hamilton Kennel Club which has recently been organized, held one of a series of monthly shows on May 22nd, when a goodly crowd of interested spec-tators were on hand to witness the judging of the 87 dogs which were on hand to fill the various classes. The judges were Messrs. Baxter, Robertson, Beverly, Dent and Wood who gave a good account of themselves generally.

The next show will be advertised and will be held in the Woodland Park, when $100.00 will be offered in the way of special prizes, and already a large entry has been promised with support from Toronto, Burlington, Oakville and Brantford.

Montreal Kennel Association, Ltd., Inc. Show

Montreal, ancient and honorable, came across with its annual all-breed show in the Guy Street Coliseum on May 29th, 30th and 31st, and succeeded in benching 228 dogs, and if this old club is to retain its prominence in Canadian dogdom, it must begin to seriously consider the whys and wherefores of its future success. We were frankly astounded when we entered the enormous building and found its doggy population so slender. Montreal, one of Canada's greatest dog centres, and only 228 dogs benched, in comparison the little town of Brantford benched — dogs.

Speaking to the fanciers we were able to gather their individual opinions. Each one deplored the amount of the entry. Many agreed that three days were too many for a man to lose for the show. Others thought that one judge for an all-breed show in a city of specialty clubs was a bad arrangement, but, be the cause what it may, we sincerely trust to find between 300 and 500 dogs at the old M.K.A. fixture in 1925.

The quality of the dogs themselves was quite up to the mark, with many real good ones benched. Irish Setters were a dozen, four of them sired by Sonora Elcho and out of Ch. Tyrone Lady Erin, and all were good. Russian Wolfhounds (8) few but good, and winners dogs going to Brantford, winners bitches to Toronto. Boston Terriers (19), a real attractive entry, with winners to Frank W. Lamb's very sweet importation Kirkpatrick's Sunny Jim, a wide-awake Boston that can speak for himself. Reserve to Blucher King, the recent Brantford winner under Mr. A. Delmont, who also judged this show. Mr. Lamb went to reserve winners with his from the same kennel that furnished Sunny Jim. Bulldogs were 20. We wonder what the trouble is that made this showing possible. Two specialty clubs cater to this breed in Montreal, and only 30 came out at this show. Mr. A. C. Chisholm was responsible for 7 of these. Mrs. P. Malovitz sent four. Mrs. Ora Doherty sent her Piccadilly Privation from Halifax, N.S., and this accounts for 12 of the 20 entered, a decidedly bad showing for the bulldog fanciers of the Canadian metropolis. It was quite natural to expect a great entry of bulldogs at this show, and just as natural to be disappointed to find only a few. The awards will show that Mrs. Paul Malovitz and Mrs. Ira Doherty gathered in much of the favored silk between them. Collies were 9. Shades of Joe Reid and Allick Smith call on W. O. Roy and Harry Hungerford (who was present at this show) to take up the mantle for the Collie and "carry on." Wires were 30, and a nice even lot they were. Mr. Jas. F. Strachan had a dozen benched that would have made the competition interesting had they been allowed to compete, but this good sportsman decided to leave it to the "other fellow's dogs" this year. The absence of Mr. Homer Gage, Jr.'s trio also detracted from the competition. Then, to further subtract from the competition in Wires, Mr. Harry Whitley's ace card, Kold Kash, was under the veterinarian's care, and so, what should have been the tid-bit of the show seemed to be quite an ordinary continuation of weak classes. It was from the 10 Airedales entered that the best dog in the show eventually was selected. It was Mr. Omer Lemieux's Wrightville Ring, a son of Colne Master Oorang, and quite like his noted daddy in many ways. In the hands of a Percy Roberts or a Bert Swann this Airedale would give the railbirds a thrill. Pekes were a dozen and Poms were twelve, one of which won for best of opposite sex to best in show all breeds. Julio Red Light was the little General's name, and he succeeded in giving the Toy breeds distinction equal to the distinction given to the Terrier family by Wrightville Ring.

We will leave it to the award columns to tell the remainder of the story, but before turning in these, we would like to mention some of the "main spokes" of the M.K.A. "steering wheel." First, to Mr. Jas. F. Strachan, the club's sporting president, who was on hand at all times during the show, and it was quite plain to the least observant that he was losing a lot of fun when the Wires were being judged and there were no "Ormsbys" going in or coming out of the ring. A tilt between the "Ormsbys" of Mr. Strachan, the "Delwires" of Mr. Homer Gage, Jr., and of the [Mr. Harry Whitley entry would have made a show in itself that would have been worth paying real money to see. Mr. P. E. Aird, the show secretary, is without competition in this part of the country as a show manager, and when the last dog left the ring the show was over as far as he was concerned, and, talk about supporting a show, the same show secretary actually owned 10 of the 15 good Scottish Terriers that were benched, but that's Mr. Aird all over. Mr. R. A. Ross, who is a popular judge across the international border at the present time, was one of the few real workers at this show. Mr. C. C. Costar is a self-contained show superintendent, that is to say, C. C. has no representatives, he is show superintendent and everybody knows it. The building is always clean, he cleans it; always thoroughly disinfected, he disinfects it. The show family has no squabbles, he is the peacemaker; he arranges for your "Five" to be collected at night, and he is there to see that you get it back in the morning. Mr. T. P. Ritchie, who gets the dogs into the ring and out again in a most pleasant manner, looks after the judges' book and sees that the silk marks of merit are always at the proper page, and who finally looks after all the silver that is being offered. Mr. C. H. Snow, the club's energetic show secretary, who, because of a good position in a nearby city which he recently fell heir to, is deprived of the pleasure of finishing the work he had so well begun. Messrs. J. T. Bennett, J. A. Camer, Fred. H. Goodfellow (Montreal representative of Spillers, Ltd.), and S. Doyle, busy bees in a busy hive, whose labors were not at all appreciated as they should have been.

Mr. Alf. Delmont judged the entire show, and most of his work was favorably received by the majority of the exhibitors. The closing hours were similar to those of previous Montreal shows, and as the variety classes and general specials were receiving Mr. Delmont's closest attention the feeling became tense, and the awards made amidst much cheering from the largest ringside of the show.

Ontario and United States readers will be glad to know that the difference between "4.4" and the "real goods" leaves the former in the position of being the "nut" in a class of good stuff.

OUR FRONTISPIECE

Champion Prince of Wales.

The feature of our frontispiece for June was the choice of the 700 odd dogs benched at the Bulldog Breeders' Association Show, held in Toronto during May, when the "grand old man" of bulldogdom, Mr. Thomas Grisdale, of New York, was the adjudicator. "The Dean of Gotham" found in "The Prince" a much better bulldog than he had expected to find, and comments upon this circumstance in his notes, to be found in another part of this issue. In the ring Prince of Wales was one of the very many that was not allowed to pose, and we believe that he showed to much better advantage when he took the bumps naturally. He certainly looked a real bulldog as he "rolled along" at the end of the lead, with his judge holding the other end.

Ch. Prince of Wales has enjoyed a nice innings since he came out at the Canadian National Exhibition last September, under the noted bulldog authority, Mr. Alex. Stewart, of Chicago, where, starting as a novice, he ended with half a championship, and it is now history that that championship was finished under an equally noted bulldog judge, Mr. Thomas Grisdale, of New York City. And so Ch. Prince of Wales comes to be recorded as one of the best bulldogs on the bench today.

Mr. C. S. Webber has said several times that he would not part with this good bulldog, but we all know how hard it is to keep a dog in a kennel for long without getting a preponderance of his blood, and no doubt we will hear of the young champion seeking further and newer fields to conquer in the near future.

As a stud dog he has had his full share of favor from the fancy, as the stud registry of kennel and bench has from time to time set forth, and this will continue right along, as he is just two years old this month and at the moment looks like three meals a day and enjoying them all.

COLLIES — Our Collies will bring the appreciation of owning a pure-bred dog, as well as happiness to yourself and children. We specialize in All White, and the Sable and White Collies. Buy the best pedigreed stock at reasonable prices.

Victoria City Kennel Club Show

This good old club held its twentieth annual spring show on May 15th and 16th at Victoria, B.C., and gave the judicial appointment over to Mr. John McMann, a good old Scot who served his doggie apprenticeship under many of the old masters of the fancy. John is located at Seattle, Washington, and had 221 dogs actually benched to receive the awards from his ripe experience, and the fanciers were satisfied that what they had handed to them were honest expressions of his rating of their several exhibits.

The president, Mr. F. Smith, and his able secretary, Mr. Bert Pritchett (one of our respected directors for British Columbia), aided and abetted with bench show committees of both sexes, had everything in order and ready to go when the appointed hour to commence judging arrived, and the following awards will show how the exhibitors fared:

LAUGHING CAVALIER (C.K.C.S.B.)

(WHELPED OCT. 19, 1923) (WEIGHT 16 LBS.)

FEE - AT STUD - $10.00

One of the best young stud forces in Canada, and son of the noted Champion Count Dee Cee, ex a daughter of Champion Jackson's Paddy Dee. Here is a desirable blood combination that must of necessity prove itself a boon to the Boston Terrier fancy.

He is consistently siring large litters of small, healthy puppies, beautifully and evenly marked, and the best kennels are using him for their choicest bitches.

He has been to all the principal shows this spring and he has never failed to bring home his share of the ribbons.

Visiting bitches have special quarters and my personal attention.

London Canine Association Spring Show

The Forest City has always furnished two shows a year, and both fixtures usually were well attended. This year the spring show was just a great deal better than its predecessors, and if a city building could have been secured suitable for the show its success would have been even more striking. As it was, there were 217 dogs benched out of the 238 entered. Mr. Earl A. Brown, Toronto, judged the fifty Bostons entered and Mr. Walter R. Reeves, Belleville, all others. The show was in the Dog Show Building at the Western Fair. Due to the activity of the president, Mr. V. G. Perry, and his executive, an efficient system was noticeable all through the workings of the show. Particularly noticeable were the ribbons handed out. In past years London shows have been noted for the size of their ribbons, but this year real ribbons were handed out, and the innovation, we trust, will be maintained.

The officers, under Mr. Perry's guidance, were "hitting on all eight," particularly Mr. F. F. Fitzsimmons, the club and show secretary, who, as usual, was a big part of the hustling himself.

Following are the awards:

MONEY BACK

IN CASE OF A MISS

As a special convenience to out-of-town breeders, we are adopting a new policy of returning the entire stud fee to the owner of a female that fails to prove in whelp to one of our dogs. This applies to all females owned outside of London and bred at our kennels after May 1st, 1925. London owned females are entitled to the usual return privilege.

Upon notification of a female not proving in whelp, which must be made not earlier than a week after and not later than three weeks after she is due, we will promptly mail our cheque. If he does not care to do so, the owner of a female is under no obligation to send the female back to us her next time in season.

THE MONTREAL FOX TERRIER CLUB.

Readers may note that we are introducing one of Canada's most recently recruited club, formed in the interest of the popular fox terrier—
the Montreal Fox Terrier Club.

On May 9th, a spring show was held in the Auditorium at Montreal.
The show was without sanction, but it served to show that the new club was alive, was strong and healthy, and in the capable hands of its President,
Mr. Wm. R. Aitken, and Secretary,
Mr. P. E. Cassidy, was well managed.

Mrs. J. Webster, of By Town fame, having kindly consented to show her personal interest in the new venture, was on hand to present the special prizes to the fortunate fanciers who had found favor in the eyes of the judge, who was none other than genial Harry Robinson, of Colne Master O'Orang fame. Mr. Robinson was at his best, and the 125 entries made helped to build up some real snappy classes, some of which called 10 dogs into the ring at the one time. We regret that it is found impossible to report the awards of unlicensed shows, as the awards made at this fixture are very interesting, however, as the very attractive New York specialty, Combined Terrier, and Madison Garden winning puppy, Kold Kash, and his kennel mate, the Toronto Kennel Club winner, Olcliffe, came out under Mr. Robinson, we here report his criticism of these two dogs, which Harry found to be his two best of the large entry. Of Kold Kash he says, "First to Kold Kash,
the New York winner's puppy (owned by Mr. W. E. Whitley, Montreal). Every ringsider seemed to be waiting for this chap to come into the ring, when he arrived they saw a real quality, stylish terrier, full of fire and go. I made him my dog for best in show honors."

About Olcliffe Sapful, he said:
"Henry Whitley's Olcliffe Sapful, a really high quality, sound bitch; a trifle short of coat to-day, but one that must go high in any company when clad in her best clothes."

WITH THE TORONTO "LONG TAILS" ON THE "25th."

It was a big day for Toronto Whip-peters at Sunnyside (Toronto) on the morning of the 25th of May, when about 4,000 spectators turned out to see the whippets do their stuff on one of the best tracks in the Dominion. The races were under the auspices of the Toronto Whippet Association, with Col. Mitchell and Walter Gourd in charge of the programme of events. We understand that the Montreal Whippet Club had been advised that the Canadian Derby had to be run off at this meet, and they had the wires burning in their attempt to get their entries in. Now, they only wait being advised of the "big events" to be on hand to show the Toronto Whippers that Montreal is really and truly on the whippeting map of Canada and to prove that Montreal whippets are real contenders. This inter-provincial interest should be developed and encouraged, as no doubt it will be, and future meetings will likely become more interesting. Montreal has a live club, and a club that has been schooled to take their medicine—no matter how bitter it is to swallow—like men, and to await proper adjustment of their grievances, imaginary or real, until their executives give their rulings. Caustic criticism of officials or competitors is condemned, and the members, realizing that fact, cooperate with the club officers to make the sport clean and enjoyable.

Toronto Whippers can easily take a lesson from their Montreal friends in this respect with great advantage.

Races for senior dogs and for puppies, with a match race between two fleet whippets, Brown Gold and Monkey, made the programme, and some beautiful racing resulted, as will be shown by the following results:

Senior dogs, 200 yards—First heat
—1, Brown Gold (scratch); 2, Polly-with the Club Secretary, Mr. W.

Gourd, 39 Salem Ave., Toronto.

The Bulldog Breeders' Association Show

The Bulldog Breeders' Association marked their tenth annual specialty in red letters when they induced the "Dean of Gotham" to accept the judging appointment for the occasion. Seldom—if, indeed, ever—has a judge taken so many awkward acting dogs from so many awkward handlers and himself search for all the merit and demerit so often lost to our dogs in the judging ring. Without appearing in any way offensive at any time, Mr. Grisdale took dog after dog from his owner or handler and in the true fashion of the English showing had the dog himself show his virtues and his faults alike, and as these came to the surface they were quickly and expertly appraised as to the value of the standard. His work was new to most of the exhibitors, but all took to his methods quickly and appreciatively.

Mr. Grisdale will report the show for Kennel and Bench readers, by special arrangement, so we will refrain from further comment on his work.

The show was much the same as all previous shows held by the association—the old faces of Mr. Charles Clark, president and show secretary, and everything in perfect order for the show; Mr. James Marsden, "the bulldog of the association's treasury," who believes in "what we have we hold," unless he can be shown differently, and at that he says: "I like to see the money coming in but I don't like to see it going out—no, sir." Mr. R. McKay was show superintendent, and his assistant was Mr. W. Stroud of "Ch. Roxton Mickey" fame. Mr. F. W. Ford was chief ring steward, with Mr. C. Sheehan as his assistant, and the result was "everything on hand and on time."

The dogs seemed to be of better type than the bitches, but that opinion may be open to question. Anyway, the seventy-eight dogs benched looked a mighty fine aggregation and many of them were really outstanding specimens of the breed. In the open dog class all the notables of bulldogdom in Ontario, with the exception of Ch. Dauntless Dan were in the ring, and speculation was rife as to what was going to happen. The ringside was agog with the excitement of uncertainty. The coolly calculating Grisdale gave every dog a sporting chance to show his worth. No posing of fronts or pulling of lips was allowed, and every dog had to do his own showing as required by the school in which Mr. Grisdale qualified and received his tuition of ring arrangement. Prince of Wales—cocky as his name implies—carried a high head, which the judge seemed to think was helped by the portly owner, Mr. C. S. Webber (London), at the far end of the lead, but even in Mr. Grisdale's own handling the Prince insisted on seeing the ceiling, and so the sorting out was made and the arrangement represented a master's opinion on the material lying to his hand. First, Prince of Wales (now Champion Prince of Wales). Second, Hefty Argo, Mr. Reg. P. Sparke's (Toronto). Third, Piccadilly Victorious, Mr. W. E. Cooper (London). Fourth, Hazlewood Sampson, Mr. Robert Snook (Montreal). Fifth, Bankers Buddy, Mr. Art. W. Tailby (St. Thomas). As the ribbons were handed out the cheering was deafening, and as Mr. Sparke congratulated Mr. Webber on the win the cheering was renewed. It is worthy of note that Glenarden Lady Isobel, the proud mother of Ch. Prince of Wales, was present at the show, and was only squeezed out of the Royal Purple Silk herself by Mr. H. P. Morrow's very attractive bitch Dainty Lady, a daughter of Hefty's Best, Lady Isobel taking reserve winners.

Montreal again showed a spirit of camaraderie by sending down several dogs and several fanciers. The "old reliable" "Bob Mills" was early on the job, and in the unavoidable absence of Mr. W. B. Cleland (Hamilton) (who was suffering from a chill contracted at the races on the previous Saturday), who was to have opened the show, substituted for Mr. Cleland and in a few complimentary words declared the show open.

Several attempts were made to change all the harmony thus far recorded, but, as they failed entirely, we will not dwell on the matter further, but proceed to give the awards.

AS "THE DEAN OF GOTHAM" SAW 'EM AT TORONTO

Toronto, May 25th, 1925

The Editor,
KENNEL AND BENCH
Sir:

I highly appreciate the honor extended me by the Bulldog Breeder's Association of Canada, to judge their tenth annual specialty show. I ventured on my task with a certain type of Bulldog fixed in my mind and the nearest approach to my ideal. I found in Mr. Chas. C. Webber's "Prince of Wales," which was put down and handled in a condition of health and cleanliness that reflects great credit on his owner and presents a lesson worthy of copy. In bitches I favored H. P. Morrow's "Dainty Lady" and "Prince of Wales," as best in show. It was extremely gratifying to be favored by an entry of eighty-three dogs, and a large percentage of these highly creditable specimens. The attendance was large and appeared keenly interested, which bids well for the healthy development of this popular breed. I avail myself of this opportunity of expressing my sincere gratitude to the officers and members of the Show Committee, for their very able and thorough manner in conducting this Show, which aided me so materially in my task. I also wish to express my appreciation for the support and the sporting spirit in which my awards were received by the exhibitors. Especially am I desirous of expressing my admiration of Dr. Campbell's veterinary establishment, which for equipment and efficiency is an institution built upon broad lines and is a national asset, welding together from all branches, all who are interested in animal culture and the sport afforded thereby. All interested in the above, visiting Toronto, would find their stay in this wholesome city incomplete, failing to visit the genial Doctor's establishment, where I have always found a hearty welcome.

The Canadian Kennel Club's new offices situated at 25 Melinda Street, is the acme of completeness, where efficiency and courtesy is extended to all, presided over by the Secretary-Treasurer, genial Jas. D. Strachan.

PAGE SPRATTS' PATENT, LTD.

The teacher (brilliantly bilingual) in a country school in the Cape Province was taking a lesson in which the word "sprat" occurred. She asked the meaning of the word, and a little girl suggested that it was some kind of fish. All the class roared, including the teacher, who, as soon as she could control her merriment, explained that "spratt" was a kind of dog biscuit!

MOOSE JAW COMES BACK ON TO THE MAP

The Canadian dog show map is rapidly adding old circles to certain cities which in future will be recognized as dog show centers. Some of these cities have had dog shows in the past, but discontinued for different reasons, chief of which was the late war; others are entirely new, but just as aggressive and enthusiastic as most of the regular clubs. The latest to "break in again" is the Moose Jaw Kennel Club, which, from reports to hand, is a healthy, rejuvenated club that has started out to do things in earnest.

Organizing on March 1, 1925, already the membership is 78 members. A local show was held at the Exhibition Building, with the approval and hearty support of the city fathers, and, although the fixture only lasted five hours, the proceeds enabled the treasurer to add $100 to the club's balance in the bank.

One hundred and eight dogs were benched for Regina's terrier expert, Mr. Harry Selby, to pass the rule over, and satisfaction was most noticeable as he handed out the awards. Harry must have put "fleas in several ears," as already there is a stir at Moose Jaw for real dogs that can "bring home the bacon" no matter where or what the competition is likely to be.

A drive for Canadian Kennel Club membership will be undertaken, and, later, a full-fledged championship rated show will be attempted and the club moved up to the front line of similar clubs in Canada. The officers in charge of the new kennel club at Moose Jaw are as follows:

President—Mr. Tom Masson.

Vice-President—Mr. J. Johnson.

Secretary-Treasurer—Mr. C. H. Barendick.

Honorary veterinary surgeon—Dr. R. Casewell.

Executive—Messrs. J. T. Booth, B. Davidson, P. Lilly, C. Holman, A. Chalmers, William Hunt, J. Brade and W. Stewart.

Anyone desirous of communicating with the Moose Jaw Kennel Club should write to Mr. Tom Masson, 847 Grey Avenue, Moose Jaw, Sask. We wish the new club every success.

EVERYTHING For The DOG!

The dog gives all to his master and asks for little in return. See to it that what you do give him is the very best that money can buy. Give him plenty of exercise, good accommodation, and Spratts' Dog Foods and Remedies.

We carry a complete stock of all Spratts' Dog Foods. There is a Spratts' Food for any breed from the Toy to the St. Bernard, from puppyhood to maturity, in sickness and in health. Every one is backed by years of study of the dog and his needs, and of unique and unequalled experience in dog food manufacture.

Spratts' Meat-Fibrine Dog Cakes or Puppy Biscuits, deservedly called the "backbone of the Canine Race," should be your dog's staple food. The fine biscuits are large, crisp and wholesome. They clean the dog's teeth, harden his gums, make his breath pure and sweet, and himself in fine, fit condition.

For an occasional change give him Spratts' Rodnim or Pet Rodnim Meal either dry or soaked in broth or gravy. Either way it is a tasty dish that appeals to doggy palates and provides the change essential to a properly balanced diet.

Insist on Spratts'—from Harry Wilson's—it is your guarantee of unsurpassed quality.

MR. C. L. McQUILLAN, TORON- TO, JUDGES BOSTONS AT ROCHESTER

Our own Charlie McQuillan was over to Rochester on May 15th, passing the rule on the Bostons at the all-breed show given by the Dog Protective Association of that city. Charlie reports a very fine show, with 53 actual Bostons benched. The Rochester dogs were of a high quality, but premier honors went to the two Detroit fanciers, Mrs. Daley and Mrs. Greaves, the former getting winners dog and winners bitches with Jab's King Tut and Brenda Wood II., and Mrs.

Greaves reserve winners dog and bitch with Bar Gold and Cricket IV.

Mr. McQuillan reports that he had the pleasure of seeing a future champion at the home of George C. Peters.
This little dog has never been shown,
but when he is he will take a whole lot of beating. No doubt Mr. Mc-Quillan will "wear the ermine" at other American shows from time to time in future.

EDMONTON DOG FANCIERS GETTING READY

When the dogs leave the Alberta
Kennel Club Show all roads will lead to Edmonton for the show of the Edmonton Dog Fanciers' Club on July 14, 15 and 16. The Club officers are serious about their forthcoming show and are much concerned in the raising of the prestige of "Man's Best Friend"
at Edmonton. Mr. J. A. Renton, 9624 95th Ave., Edmonton, will be glad to hear from any interested fancier.

Dr. J. A. CH. LORD BYNG.

Virol Importers, 6201 Park Avenue, Montreal.

Gentlemen,—I find Virol an excellent food- tonic for my Yorkshire Terriers. It is especially good for the puppies when they go off their feed, then I have always found that a few feedings of Virol brings them back to perfect condition in a very short time.

Everyone who owns Yorkshires and is interested in the preservation and improvement of the breed should always have Virol in the kennel, in fact I cannot recommend Virol too strongly to all breeders of toy dogs.

MANCHESTER FOR MITCHELL, ONTARIO

Mr. W. H. Holfish, of Mitchell, Ont., reports that he has just received the English winning Manchester terrier bitch, "Livesey Sally" (A. 17110), from the Livesay Kennels of Blackburn, Lancashire. Before leaving British shores the little emigrant was bred to "Livesey Tony," the Birmingham championship show winner, who had won at Manchester championship show also. The litter is due on June 9th, and when our readers are reading of Mr. Holfish's importation, Bill will be waiting to see what the "gods of fortune" are bringing him. She arrived on the Montcalm with the other consignment, said to be the greatest to leave England since before the days of the great war. And Mr. Holfish says that if they all arrived in the same good shape that "Livesey Sally" arrived in then it is a credit to the men in charge of the dogs on that vessel.

SASKATOON KENNEL CLUB SHOWS

Saskatoon Club will be ready to receive the tired exhibitors from Calgary and Edmonton. Secretary Mr. L. W. Berry, 602 Standard Trust Building, Saskatoon, has his arrangements all made for receiving and caring for the dogs coming to Saskatoon to end the circuit. Saskatoon will be the logical place for the winners and losers to review the happenings of the shows attended, the former to sympathize with the latter, and wish them better luck next time out, and the latter to congratulate the former, and wish more power to their successes.
