"LEADS TO LOVELY LITTERS"

"Lactol" for WEANING & REARING PUPPIES

EQUALLY SUITABLE FOR KITTENS & SILVER FOX CUBS

PUPPIES have small stomachs, and the milk of a bitch is therefore a concentrated food, being more than twice as strong as cow's milk. LACTOL closely resembles the puppies' natural food, which is why they do so well on it. Puppies reared on LACTOL thrive remarkably, and do not suffer from indigestion, vomiting, diarrhoea, rickets, etc., as when given cow's milk or other foods.

LACTOL is already used by many breeders in Canada and the U.S.A., whilst in the British Isles no kennel of any importance is ever without it. PUPPIES LOVE LACTOL.

Meeting of Board Directors of the Canadian Kennel Club, Inc.

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Directors of the Canadian Kennel Club was held at the Club's Offices, 25 Melinda Street, Toronto, on Thursday evening September 20th, 1928, at 8 o'clock p.m.

The President, Lt.-Col. G. F. McFarland presided. Directors attending included Brig.-Gen. C. M. Nelles, Lt.-Col. J. N. MacRae, R. Lee Wainright and N. K. Swire.

The secretary reported that Major Ward Wright was in Montreal on business. Mr. J. W. Bruce was in Atlantic City on business and that Capt. W. S. Smith was still on the sick list.

The Secretary advised that ex-director A. McCloy, Victoria, B.C., had presented the Club with two engravings by Howett, one dated 1798 and the other 1799, and that the gift had been acknowledged. After viewing the engravings the Secretary was instructed to have the pictures reframed and hung in the Club's offices.

A letter was read from the London Canine Association which advised that the Dog Show Committee of the Association had cancelled the wins of the Boston Terrier "Bubbling Over 5th", owned by Lynch and Green, Toronto, for the reason that their dog had been removed from the Show on the night of September 10th without the Superintendent's permission, and without the owners making the necessary deposit as required by the Association's rules. The dog was not returned on the second day of the Show.

Also, that the Committee had cancelled the wins of the Boston Terrier "Tillie the Toiler" and "Argo Flapper Girl", owned by Mrs. M. Firman, Toronto, for the reason that Mrs. Firman had removed her dogs without permission on the afternoon of the second day of the Show.

It was regularly moved, seconded and carried:—

"That, the Secretary advise the parties named in the letter, that a complaint had been received and ascertain whether or not they had any explanations to offer."

A charge made by Mr. Chas. S. Webber, London, Ont., against Mr. Chas. Sheehan, Toronto, alleging that Mr. Sheehan when selling the Bulldog Bitch, "Lady Agetta" (66257), to Mr. Webber on October 7th, 1927, misrepresented matters when he described her as: "A bitch due in season shortly after that date," whereas the bitch had not come in season for seven months after date of purchase. A veterinary examination was made and the veterinary's finding was that "in his opinion the bitch had been sprayed."

Mr. Sheehan advised that when he sold "Lady Agetta" to Mr. Webber he had described her clearly as an unproven bitch and that he had sold her in perfectly good faith and doubted the statement that the bitch had ever been sprayed.

It was regularly moved, seconded and carried:—

"That in view of the two contradictory statements having been received, and the statement of the Veterinary Surgeon being assumption almost, the Board of Directors feel that the charge is a matter for the Civil Courts."

The Secretary submitted the following applications for membership in the Canadian Kennel Club:—

This being the regular business coming before the Board at this time it was moved:—

"That, this meeting do now adjourn."

The President announced that he had a pleasant duty to perform, which was to present to Director R. Lee Wainright an eight-day Parlor Clock bearing the crest of the Canadian Kennel Club to mark the occasion of Mr. Wainright's marriage which had taken place since the last meeting of the Board. The making of the presentation was a real pleasure for several reasons, amongst them being the circumstance of Mr. Wainright having been an active member of the Canadian Kennel Club for 10 years, a Director for two years and that he had had a perfect attendance at all Board Meetings with splendid service at any special meetings when he had been called upon to act in that capacity, and further, because of Mr. Wainright's well known service to the Telephone City Kennel Club for many years. In handing over the time-piece the President extended the good wishes of all the officers of the club from coast to coast.

Mr. Wainright in accepting, said that he appreciated the gift of the Directors very much, and as the time-piece would be one of a number of such gifts, time would be plentiful in his home from now on. The welcome was extended to any Director visiting Brantford to visit him and meet Mrs. Wainright, and not being strong at making speeches on such an occasion, he would be content with saying I thank you all again.

Note:—These minutes are subject to correction when presented for adoption at the next meeting of the Directors.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Editor, Kennel and Bench:

Dear Mr. Strachan, I feel it might be of interest to you to know that a great deal of the success of our last Sherbrooke Show was due to the efforts of Mr. Sam Doyle who came out from Montreal and looked after the show in a perfectly efficient manner without charge.

I thought it might be a good idea, if, in the next edition of Kennel and Bench, you put in a little personal item of appreciation from the Committee of the Sherbrooke Dog Show for the service which Mr. Doyle rendered. If there is any charge for this item, please advise and we will be very glad to take care of same.

Yours truly,
H. J. Placey.

Editor, Kennel and Bench:

Dear Sir—Now that our Show is over and we are back again at our bread and butter lines of industry I feel that we should express our satisfaction through your columns, as well as our appreciation of those outside exhibitors who responded to our requests to come to Halifax and bring their best dogs with them.

We welcome out of town exhibitors and we welcome inter-provincial competition, for it is only by these means that we can make progress.

We shall look forward to the return of those who were with us in August last, and hope they will add to their strings for our next show and be warned that we intend to be ready for all "invaders" in 1929.

Interest is growing in the Kennel Clubs in the Maritimes and healthy competition is good for us all.

I cannot miss the opportunity of advising you that we were very much pleased with the work of our Judge, Mr. Charles G. Hopton of New York. Many prospective exhibitors have expressed their pleasure in watching Mr. Hopton in his work, always patient, and sincere, and courteous to exhibitors. His willingness to explain why a certain dog went over another was very much appreciated by exhibitors and gallery alike, and I feel that the Canadian Kennel Club as our parent body will like to know that Mr. Hopton gave universal satisfaction while in Nova Scotia.

Yours truly,
F. W. Johnson,
President, Nova Scotia Kennel Club.

(Editor's Note: It is always interesting to learn of service being appreciated anywhere.)

DISCUSSIONS WITH JUDGES

Certain instances which, we understand, have occurred at recent shows, have brought into question the advisability of judges discussing awards with exhibitors whose dogs they have judged. There is much to be said pro and con. Certainly we think there can be no objection to a judge reviewing his classes for publication in, say, Kennel and Bench. A judge is entitled to, and is quite capable of, sitting down calmly and commenting intelligently on the dogs which have passed in review before him, giving his reasons for the way in which he placed them. There are doubtless certain other judges and other exhibitors who could sit down quietly in the dog show building immediately after the judging and discuss the matter without rancour or bias. But, there is another type of exhibitor and another type of judge with whom this is not possible, and it might, perhaps, be better to have the judges lay down a rule for themselves that they will participate in no discussions with exhibitors after they have done their work. This might, perhaps, have the effect of eliminating some of the bad feeling which seems to be inevitable in every dog show. It could never be the subject of a C.K.C. show rule but would simply be a matter for each individual judge to decide for himself.

RING STEWARDS

One of our most prominent exhibitors has come to me with a bitter complaint about certain ring stewards at recent shows. He states that on two or three occasions, stewards assisting the judge in the ring have been heard, during the examination of the dogs by the judge, to express their opinions and preferences in a voice perfectly audible to the judge. It is inconceivable that such an expression of opinion should influence his judgment but the taste displayed is certainly execrable.

ALSATIAN SHEPHERD DOG

In the course of a long and most interesting conversation with Mr. Marples, during his recent visit to Toronto, the writer covered pretty well the whole dog field and gained a great deal of information on the subject of conditions in England and elsewhere.

Among other subjects discussed was the present status of the Alsatian Shepherd Dog in Great Britain. Mr. Marples explained that several instances have occurred of Alsatians attacking human beings—sometimes with very serious results. He said that these attacks caused the "lay" press (by which I presume he meant the press outside the dog papers) to take the matter up vigorously, with the result that, in his opinion, the popularity of the Alsatian in England is absolutely doomed. He then went on to say that he had prophesied this years ago when they first began teaching this breed to act as police dogs and to attack human beings, Mr. Marples' theory being that the Alsatian Shepherd Dog, so long as he was at his proper business of shepherding sheep, was a perfectly trustworthy dog, just as our own collie, but that with the training in attacking human beings for the purpose of assisting mankind in hunting down criminals, the result was inevitable that in a few generations they would have overcome the natural instinct of the dog not to attack his best friend, man. This is an interesting theory of Mr. Marples' and one quite well worth consideration and discussion.

STOP NEWS!

NORMAN K. SWIRE ILL.

Friends of Mr. N. K. Swire, Toronto, will regret to learn that Mr. Swire is at present in Wellesley Hospital, Toronto. An operation has been performed, and we understand it has been said that "You can't kill 'em bloomin' Britishers," and as Mr. Swire is one of that tribe—here's hoping.

NEW IRISH SETTER BLOOD FOR ONTARIO.

Mr. C. A. Stone, Toronto, whose hobby is to set at naught the bogey of the Bench Setter being no good in the field, by demonstrating in actual practice that the best bench types can be, and actually are, the equals of, and in some respects superior to, the type of Setter bred purely for field work, and he is "getting there" in his endeavors.

Mr. Stone has just advised us that Dr. J. S. Hall has imported Donald of Boyne from the world-famed kennels of Mr. S. Carberry of Ireland. Donald of Boyne is by Mike of Boyne ex Florrie of Boyne, and Mike of Boyne is a brother of Paddy of Boyne, the sire of that famous winning Irish Setter, Ch. Higgins Red Pat, the winner at the recent Canadian National Exhibition dog show. Donald of Boyne, bred as he is, should be a great acquisition to the Irish Setter fanciers of Canada.

From October 8th until October 22nd, Mr. Stone will be "out after the ducks," and correspondence intended for him during this period should be addressed to him, c/o Mrs. Thos. O'Neill, R.R. No. 2, Bobcaygeon, Ont.

BELMOSS SPRINGER SPANIELS
Are Springers of Distinction

Poor health is about the worst asset a breeder of dogs can have in his business, and that has been my experience recently. But to have a lot of good dogs around is about the best asset a breeder can have to keep up his interest in the every-day affairs of life. And to have some good Springers around fills the bill admirably—and I know it.

Take, for example, my having with me such a dog as this International Champion Inveresk Cocksure of mine, why it makes me feel that I want to live for ever, or at least for as long as such dogs continue to be bred.

At Sherbrooke show I had an opportunity for the first time in many months to partake of the thrills of the dog show ring, and how I did enjoy it all.

Belmoss Springers were in magnificent bloom, and my former successes were further added to when International Champion Inveresk Cocksure won for the best dog in show, all breeds. When entered for specials only, my Champion Belmoss Countess, a daughter of Inveresk Cocksure, won the handsome Canadian Kennel Club Trophy for Best Canadian-bred in the show. Belmoss Contender, a son of Inveresk Cocksure, went to winners dogs, and Ch. Inveresk Collyshot won the reserve winners prize. In bitches, the honors were quite as evenly divided, when Ch. Belmoss Countess went to winners, and Belmoss Jacqueline, another good daughter of Inveresk Cocksure, was given the reserve winners placing.

CANADIAN NATIONAL EXHIBITION DOG SHOW

"Golden Jubilee Year" marked the Toronto Fair this year, and the slogan was sufficiently strong to draw over 2,000,000 people inside the Fair grounds during the two weeks of the Exhibition. On the opening day of the Dog Show which was September 3rd, the general public were not admitted until the dogs had been benched, and even with that gate handicap over 10,000 people visited the Dog Show. On the Tuesday, 7,000 more had looked the canines over, and the balance of the show seemed to be equally well patronized, and at least 30,000 people must have visited the show.

It was said that certain fanciers and clubs were boycotting the show on account of it being again held in the old Dog Show Building, and be that as it may there were plenty of dogs on hand to make the maximum of championship points sure, with plenty to spare, in fact the total of 600 dogs benched was just as many as could be comfortably accomodated. The exhibiting public are liable to be quite inconsiderate in some things, and those criticizing the old Dog Show Building this year seemed to conveniently overlook the recent structural steel workers strike, whereby building came to a standstill generally in most centers in Canada, and no doubt it was because of this same paralyzing trade disturbance that the old Dog Show Building was again used this year, at that though, it would perhaps be quite interesting to know how many dog show giving clubs there are in Canada who would like to have the same old building situated in their localities. Toronto Kennel Club for instance, would enjoy owning the building if it was located on Yonge St. The greatest fault of the building is its unsightly appearance on the Exhibitio grounds where it is absolutely in discord with all its neighboring fixtures, then of course, it being a wooden structure it must always be a fire risk. So, it must and will go.

MR H. W. WATERS, GENERAL MANAGER of the Canadian National Exhibition. Mr. Waters found time to visit the dog show several times and was greatly pleased with the number and quality of the dogs benched.

The judges list was most attractive, headed as was by England's foremost judge, Mr. J. W. Marples. At Toronto as at Regina and Vancouver, Mr. Marples showed an absolute independence of action and placed the dogs exactly as he rated them for merit, to say that he satisfied everybody would be to do him an injustice, so the greatest compliment that we can pay him is to chronicle the facts that he pleased himself—and that he knew how. Mr. Marples will give his own impressions later.

Our own "Bob" Ross (Montreal), had two busy days, with the sporting breeds as his special care, and had lots of splendid specimens coming into his ring to keep him happy all the time.

Mr. W. McFadden (late of Montreal, now of Plymouth, Mich.) judged the Toy section of the show and his task was none too easy, but that is the penalty of being a Toy judge as Mr. McFadden likely very well knows.

Mr. Clarence N. Gray (Boston), judged the Bostons and French Bull dogs in an easy and independent manner, he was given an entry of 45 Bostons and found his winners, reserve winners in both sexes, also best of breed in Toronto-bred dogs. Further, it may be interesting to note that the Best of Breed Boston was the well-known Mighty Atom, son of The Sultan, ex Lady Betty Buttons. Winners dog was of course Mighty Atom. Reserve winners dog was a son of Mighty Atom, quite a coincidence in Bostons for a show of this size.

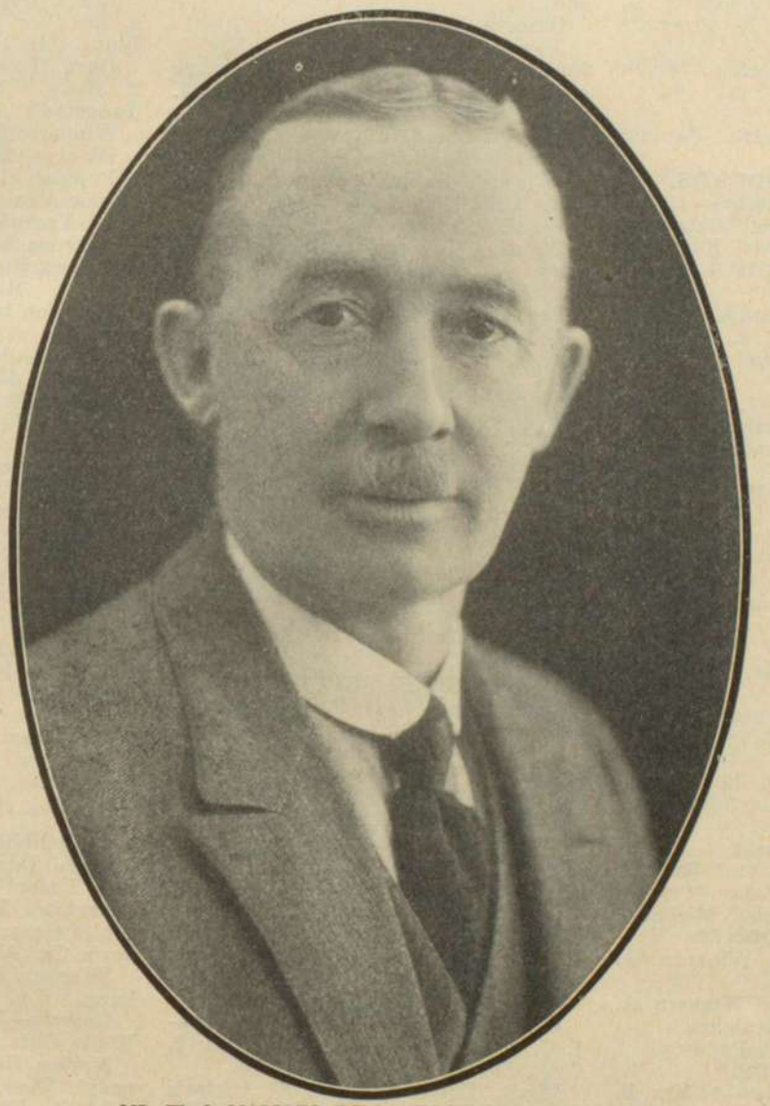

The Variety classes filled up well with the exception of Variety B. Non-Sporting which only mustered two entries, one of which was later found to be Best Small Dog in Show, all breeds, the honor of Best Specimen in Show, all breeds, going to Western Canada.

The entries of Irish Wolfhounds and of Schipperkes were most attractive, the former because of their great size and handsome appearance and the latter because of the appeal they made to visitors and fanciers alike.

When the dogs came together for the championship of the show, the enthusiasm was noticeably of a high order, and many a splendid specimen that was good enough for this high honor at most shows were excused one after the other until there remained the ever popular Int Ch. Marvel of Avandale. E. Chevriers Canadian-bred Springer Spaniel looking in the top form of her wonderful life, and of course she was piloted by her own handler, Mr. George Kynoch. Like a well oiled machine she moved and like a piece of statuary she posed. A smart Scottish Terrier, Ch. Bellsdyke Lass, owned by Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Greenwood of Merion, Pa., and handled by Mr. Abe Swartz, was as near to Scottie perfection as could be desired, and she had many supporters at the ringside. Then there was the recently imported Bulldog, Kippax Jock, owned by Mr. Reg. P. Sparkes (Toronto) and handled by Mr. Ted Ward. Kippax Jock had travelled to Ottawa and on to Halifax, returning just in time for this fixture, and if he was tired of his long travelling he did not show any signs of it in the ring. First, one of the judges then the other would handle the dogs and their task was no sinecure, to the ringsiders any placing by the judges would have received approval, as it was, however, the Springer was placed on top, with the Bulldog her nearest competitor, and with the Scottie taking the third place of honor. The show was now officially over, the cheers from many throats denoting the approval of the judge's selections.

Mr. F. W. Jacobi was again in charge, and his henchmen included Mr. Peter Herd, Master of Ceremonies, Messrs. J. McNaughton, J. W. Bance, J. Grey, and Capt. D. Waters as ring stewards. The show was just a natural Canadian National Exhibition fixture with all that that implies to an exhibitor and to the general public. Old acquaintances were renewed and new friendships were numerous. One little thing we noticed and must mention before closing these remarks was the meeting of Mr. "Billy" Hammil, of the Wheatsheaf Hotel, Toronto, and Mr. Fred McLean, of Hull, P.Q., two genuine old timers who can truthfully lay claim to 50 years in dogdom, more or less. It was an epic to listen in on their reminiscences of so many years ago.

MR. W. J. MARPLES, F.Z.S., STOCKPORT, ENGLAND
Son of the one and only Theo Marples, of "Our Dogs," and considered to be Great Britain's greatest judge of canines in every known land.

English Setters, Irish Setters, Russian Wolfhounds, Irish Wolfhounds, Cocker Spaniels, Pekingese Spaniels, Airedale Terriers, Scottish Terriers, Fox Terriers of both coats, German Shepherd Dogs, Boston Terriers, Poms, Bulldogs, Collies and Greyhounds were the breeds that made the backbone for the show. And these breeds supplied specimens that were representative of the best that may be found on this continent.

Our good friend Jim Tennant had a couple of his famous Bloodhounds on hand in Ajax of Princeton and Underfamed. Mr. Ross found the Canadian-bred Ajax better than the imported Underfamed, and there were many of the knowing fanciers who imagined that Ajax would be well up for Best in Show award, and at that Ajax can beat plenty of dogs that are considered by show followers to be "hot stuff." Much credit is due Mr. Tennant for his continued allegiance to the Bloodhound.

Mr. H. W. Waters, the general manager of the Canadian National, paid several visits to the dog show and there was very little that escaped his keen eye. Mr. Frank Johnston, the chairman of the Canadian National Dog Show Committee, was able to spend considerable time at the show, and it was noticeable that the whole committee were taking notice of things generally, and all this forebodes of better things ahead for Toronto's doggie fraternity generally.

Spratt's Patent Limited, in charge of Mr. E. H. Reid, of Langley Harris Co., Toronto, were located in a spacious tent just outside of the dog show building, and reports to hand indicate that there was a strong demand for the many well known Spratt's Specialties, and the fanciers who like to have the latest appliances on hand replenished their stocks generally.

Ben F. Lewis, of Lansdowne, Pa., had about a score of good ones along in his palatial truck, and perhaps "Benny's Bus" attracted as much attention as any other single thing around the show, and the consensus of opinion was that the truck de luxe was a knockout—and it was. At all shows held in the United States it is becoming more and more common to see the representative dogs of the best kennels coming to the shows in these comfortable modern trucks that are being specially built for this purpose, the arrangement being a direct refusal to pay the unwarrantable express charges that railway companies see fit to impose on dog fanciers to-day. The bus has brought relief to many localities in the way of transportation for the people concerned, and so the bus will bring relief to fanciers who have good reason to shirk at the prohibitive express charges which prevail at the present time.

Mr. Marples has promised to send our readers his impressions of his visit to Canada and of the shows he officiated at during his sojourn in this country, therefore we will leave any further comment to come from his able pen. The complete awards follow:—

CHAMPION KOROL

Undefeated in two years' showing

Fee $35.00

Marlboro Russian Wolfhounds just cannot help winning, no matter who the judge may be, their quality always places them in the high places. My 1928 puppy, Turgenoff of Marlboro, won for best puppy all breeds in show, and this is the fifth consecutive year that a puppy from Marlboro Kennels has made this distinguished win.—Think it over!

Turgenoff of Marlboro was sired by my own Champion Korol, and out of my own Ch. Felice of Kaywra, and at 9 months old goes from Puppy to Best of Breed. Second Any Variety Sporting, and with his sire, Ch. Korol, they won the Stud Dogs' Special easily, and was pronounced by Mr. Chas. G. Hopton, who judged the show, to be the best puppy he had ever seen for his age.

At St. John Show this smart youngster, Turgenoff of Marlboro, went to winners under Judge Chas. Davis.

WE BREED AND SELL WINNERS that have been bred from our own champions, and we have some flyers at three months old that are now ready for delivery.

OUR FRONTISPIECE.

To the exhibiting fraternity of this continent our front page picture is a well known subject the Springer world over as International Champion Inverest Cock Sure, but to his master Mr. H. J. Placey of the Belmoss Kennels, Sherbrooke, Que., he is lovingly referred to as "Old Jock". No doubt it is as "Old Jock" that Mr. Placey feels most at home with this wonderful showman who has the reputation of being the most loyal pal that any dog man ever owned. And like the good sportsman as Mr. Placey is known to be, he always credits this famous Scottish bold springer with being a wonderful comforting comrade throughout the long period of ill-health that has been his lot in recent years.

Born at Coatbridge, Scotland, on April 16th, 1924, and bred by the noted A. McNab Chassels, this blue roan son of champion Flint of Avendale, and champion Inverest Careful was imported on October 31st, 1925 by Mr. Placey, who as soon as the dog had become acclimatized was sent out to add laurels to an already splendid winning career, and without overly extending himself soon was sporting International honors, made his owner internationally famous. The spoils of the chase speak volumes for the Belmoss successes to the visitor at Belmoss Kennels. It is always interesting to hear Mr. Placey tell of the choice virtues of many of his dogs, to extol the companionship of international champion Inveresk Cocksure, but to actually see "Old Jock" slip his nose into Mr. Placey's hand is an epic to a dog lover.

DOGS OF THE EMPIRE

By FREEMAN LLOYD.

(Illustrations from the Author's Collection)

A month or so ago a correspondent wrote to the Field, London, and asked for information regarding the purchase of a retrieving Pointer dog or bitch. He wanted a dog that would not only point birds, but retrieve them. The person was told that he was asking for an almost unobtainable able kind of dog, in England; indeed, the leading and, let one add, the most entertaining publication of its class, was unable to help the would-be purchaser of a double purpose dog.

What is the reason for the Englishman not having a retrieving Pointer to his name?

It is due to his conservatism and adherence to the policy that declares that one kind of work must be sufficient for one breed of dog, excepting for the spaniel which is supposed to be a gun dog fit for any kind of service. Truth to tell, a good land spaniel can and will do anything in the way of hunting, finding and retrieving on land and from water; but the spaniel has to take a back seat when hunting alongside a pointer or setter for birds, in the open fields and stubbles; furthermore, the land spaniel is not powerful enough to compete with the larger retrieving or water dogs, such as the Irish Water Spaniels, the Labradors, the flat, wavy and curly-coated retrievers, and other noble and gallant dogs such as the Golden, Yellow, and the American Chesapeake Bay dogs—all of them noted as swimmers and retrievers.

The Englishman would no more think of taking a setter and a spaniel into the same field, than he would run a whippet against a greyhound. In the case of the gun dogs—the pointer, setter and spaniel, the spaniel would spoil the pointing dogs, and the wider ranging pointers would make any spaniel forget his good manners. So, it will be very seldom that the Englishman will take his spaniel along, unless the spaniel be a good dog that will keep strictly to heel, to be used for retrieving only.

So long as the Englishman is able to keep up a kennel

A RAT-CATCHER WITH HIS DOGS.

From a drawing alleged to have been made by a boy with his mouth, while lying on his back an invalid. The terriers are described in the letter press.

of pointers, setters, spaniels and retrievers, he is very wise as well as fortunate to be able to have a staff of dogs as well as a retinue of human servants. Primarily, our present day races of sporting dogs were evolved from this picking and choosing of the best dogs for certain services. Every man and every dog to his own calling. And there can be no disputing the fact that a man is prouder than ever, when he has a brace of pointers or setters working out in front, while a steady, no-slip retriever walks leisurely and immediately behind him. As the Irish peasant man would say: "There's the style of the gentry about that."

The retrieving pointer and setter is a common sort of dog in Canada and America. Most everybody owns one, and that is one of the reasons we see few retrievers as compared with the standing or pointing dogs. The Irish Water Spaniels and Chesapeakes are mostly used as duck dogs. North America gunners are usually one dog men; they do not maintain a large kennel, they work six days and shoot on one. The retrieving pointer or setter is a necessity, and the old dog likes his work.

Returning to the subject of the Englishman who required a retrieving pointer dog, it was later noticed that another correspondent volunteered the information that such a dog, but of some other breed, could be found in Austria. These were in the hands of some old and hidebound aristocratic families who probably would decline to sell any of their stock.

Probably the retrieving Griffons of France, Germany, Belgium, Holland and other European countries were forgotten when retrieving bird dogs were being discussed. The many thousands of Canadian and American retrieving pointers and setters were entirely overlooked as well as the useful, good-nosed and handsome German pointers, which are generally taught to retrieve.

After all is said and done, we have to thank the stay-at-homes, the live-stock loving man of Great Britain and Ireland, for the dogs we mostly use wherever we settle down within or outside of the Empire. The Old Country kept apart its breeds of dogs, and kept them pure. And in the purity of those bloods or breeds of dogs, we must now rejoice. These dogs may be accounted quite as good, and perhaps a little better in their general excellencies than those of some of the other countries.

The Britisher has not been able to improve in the hounds and gun dogs that their ancestors bred—bred for just the same purpose as our hounds and gun dogs are used to-day. When "fanciers" were led into mistakes in breeding dogs unsuitable for the kind of hunting the breed was meant for, there arose a howl of criticism from that part of the sensible dog world that steadies the other half. It was derision that killed and buried the very long bodied and very short legged black field spaniel. The crooked fore-legged dachshund is giving way to the straight legged badger dog; and the oversized terriers are being slowly but surely discarded. The pictures chosen for illustrating this contribution have been picked because they will demonstrate there are dogs for this and that purpose. There are terriers for ratting, fox hounds for fox hunting and deer hounds for cornering and pulling down the lordly stag. Here are the low and the high of our hunting diversons. The watching rat catcher has as much pride in his terriers as the huntsman on the grey and well-bred cob,

PULLNG DOWN THE STAG.

After Andsell:—Here are splendid examples or specimens of the lordly Scottish Deerhounds—magnificent creatures—speed, powerful and devilish in their attack. These Deerhounds are superior in every sense.

signal'ing to his field to "hold hard" and let the fox have a chance to get away, for the fox appears to be a fresh found one. The pride of ownership is never more greatly experienced than when a man's terrier or his hound accomplishes some worthwhile feat; not exactly a super-dog performance, but simply the worthy act that is becoming to a worthy breed.

In this great dog family there are tinkers, tailors, soldiers, sailors, merry men and thieves. And each worthy son of his father is suposed to take after his father, and act as his father did. For the terrier has its worrying delights, the fox hound his scenting powers, the deer hound his speed and power. So we breed our dogs so that they may fill the places and do the same sort of work as their ancestors accomplished.

If we admire the old rat catcher with his dogs—all of them more or less of the Scottish kinds—what shall we say of the poor lad who made the original drawing by the aid of a pencil held in his mouth! There is an inscription on the photographic copy from which the present cut is reproduced. It reads: "From a drawing made by J. Carter, a peasant boy, with the mouth, lying on his back an invalid." The original drawing was signed by J. Carter, but who or what the poor youth was, is without my knowledge.

FOX BREAKING COVER.
It is said that the Britisher has produced dogs particularly suited for all hunting purposes. Each breed has its uses. Here may be seen the English Fox Hound of a century ago.

The rat catcher's terriers are wonderful and full of action. They were of the old fashioned types of terriers used for ratting and rabbiting. from such dogs as these came the Cairn and Scottish terriers, the Border and Lakeland terriers, and other of the hard-bitten breeds of terriers. The terrier on the right of the picture close to the man's foot, is of the stamp of the half-prick-eared Scottish terriers, which used to be seen at the shows of forty years ago. Thinking back, it seems to this writer that there was not so very much difference (save in the "foreign" colors of tan on the feet and white on the chest) between the old half-cock eared Aberdeen terriers and the killing sort of customer which is keeping well back from the rather large entrance for a rat bury. In fact all of the dogs and the man should be much farther away from the hole, for neither rats nor rabbits will readily bolt if they see a human or a dog on the outside. There is nothing more interesting than watching the cunning of a terrier as he stands well back and behind the place where he knows the rat or rabbit should emerge from the burrow, and his quick-as-lightning pounce on the unhappy rodent, the victim of the combined persistence of the blood-thirsty ferret, and the deviltry of the waiting terrier.

In Carter's picture we have terriers with full and shortened tails. All of the dogs are rough-haired, while three out of the four have cropped ears. Wherever the poor cripple managed to get his models, he was lucky, for he couldn't have picked a more representative team of ratting or rabbiting terriers. Probably some sportsman-squire living in the neighborhood where the boy was bedridden, heard or knew about the great talents of poor Jimmie or Johnnie Carter; that the lad was fond of dogs and could make a picture of dogs. The squire was proud of his terriers as ratters. So why not suggest to young Carter that it would make a fine picture—the waiting terriers, the dead rats, the ferret box, the gaitered countryman and his handy little spade, generally called a "paddle". Everything was all right with the idea of the picture, excepting the positions of the rat catcher and his dogs; they should have waited and watched farther away from the bury and allowed the rats to bolt. These ratting terriers were good terriers in make and shape. They had strong-jowled heads, rather than long and lean heads. Therefore they possessed killing heads, for the power of the jaws lies in the cheeks or jowls of any dog. We see it in the bull dog, the cat, the fox, the wolf, the otter, the badger, the ferret, the mink, and in all other animals that have to kill to eat, and to to eat to live.

Some day the dog fancier will realize that in breeding narrow skulled and flat cheeked terriers, he is making a great mistake. The chaser or pursuer of what is called "quality", is losing sight of the purposes and usefulness of a terrier, and that it is the terrier's birthright to not only worry and kill, but to be able to accomplish his job in the quickest and surest way.

Already there is a movement towards the breeding of strong jowled terriers. The Lakeland Terrier Club which has as its president, Lord Lonsdale, who is accounted the leading sportsman of our times, recently sent to your correspondent not only a description of the points of the Lakeland terrier, but a drawing of Mr. Vernon Stokes of a representative dog of the Lakeland breed. Candidly I was very grateful to receive both, and to find that the Lakeland terrier is a strong jowled "Welsh" terrier, the Lakeland being of a suitable size for going to ground and doing the work that a terrier should do. The Lakeland is black-and-tan in color, and built a little sturdier than the Welshman. Leave the ears on the terrier on the extreme left of our old friend the rat catcher, in the picture, fine down the dog's cheeks just the tiniest bit, and you would have a dog that was not far removed from the Lakeland terrier of to-day.

It would be hard to find a more heroic picture than that after Ansdell, the Liverpool artist, "Pulling Down the Stag", from the dog breeder's point of view it will be satisfactory. The fawn or light colored deer hound is a splendid creature— a large and active dog, a good headed, limbed, bodied, eared and tailed dog. He would be all deer hound, and perhaps a little more. The Ansdell deer hounds are big brutes, strong and speedy enough for good size game; moreover, they are powerful in jaws, rugged in character, dastardly in disposition and well coated. Unfortunately, the work of the deer hounds is relentless in pursuit, and terrific in onslaught. Pulling down a stag or taking hold of a wolf, is no child's play; it is a task for a swift, sure, and cruel dog. There can be no use glossing over the serious business that deerhounds have to undertake in Canada, where they are used for running down and killing the smaller wolves of the prairies, and the larger wolves of the forests.

Whenever I look upon the "Whiskers" of Ansdell's Scottish deer hounds, I always have to think of those hirsute adornments, and what they might carry and convey in the way of the unusual and abominable smells or odors that the dog doesn't seem to mind. We had had a day's coyote coursing in the surrounding Greenlawn, about thirty miles north of Islay, Alberta. Bert Lloyd wanted to show us what his "hounds" could do in the way of catching and killing everything that got up. Truth to tell the hunting and coursing desires of Lloyd's deer hounds, half-bred grey-greyhounds, were always larger for the pursuit of anything in the way of flesh and blood. In the usual manner of the ranchers' dogs, they would kill and eat jack-rabbits, bush rabbits, skunks and other small fry, almost before the riders could get up to them. The rabbit meals made no difference; but the "skunk cocktail" was another matter. The scent glands of these little black and white creatures do not give off the perfume of roses; furthermore, the skunk will stick like wax to the whiskers of the dogs.

With men, horses and dogs completely tired out, we wended our way homewards, the deer hounds taking the trail immediately in front of the horses. The wind was in our faces, and the full force of the abhorrent stench from the dogs was driven into our very nostrils; There was nothing to do, but to grin and bear it. A mile away there were men threshing wheat; and those men actually signalled that they could smell what we were smelling. Then we laughed the more. Why?

For the whiskers of Bert Lloyd's coyote hounds had radioed their usual information that the dogs they adorned were actually eaters as well as killers.

And those are qualities that all long dogs should possess. They were bred for the purpose. And a Canadian dogs long appetite apparently makes a most piquant sauce.

(Editor's Note: Mr. Lloyd is now in Western Canada in pursuit of his Annual Fall Sports Judging Field Trials, Fishing and Hunting, and the task of checking over his manuscript was turned over to the writer. There has been little or no interference on my part, but if "Dogs of the Empire" does not read as smoothly as usual this month, why just blame "J. D." and let it go at that, next month Mr. Lloyd will again be his own censor.)

SHERBROOKE EXHIBITION DOG SHOW

It takes real enthusiasm on the part of the officials responsible for the dog show at Sherbrooke to carry on from year to year with an entry that only runs around the 100 mark, but the enthusiasm is there to a large degree, which makes the dog show as welcome as any other fixture at the Exhibition. Lt.-Col. Sydney E. Francis, the enthusiastic secretary, is nothing at all if he is not a dyed-in-the-wool dog lover, and around him Col. Francis has gathered a little coterie of real fanciers in the persons of Messrs. E. Armitage, H. J. Placey, C. S. Ives, J. M. Rennie, S. Doyle (Montreal), whose combined labors make the dog show much of a pleasure year in and year out.

Mr. Bert Swann, Newcastle, Ont., was given the judicial appointment, and, of course, he is invariably welcome in any ring, because of his intimate knowledge of the breeds generally. In scanning the catalogue, we notice that Mr. Swann has caused to be written into the records, the word "withheld" no less than eight times, and when it is considered that there were only 94 dogs benched, it will be quite noticeable that cheap champions will not be stamped by his approval at least. No doubt the show was more or less an assembly of friends, which makes the judge's severity stand out quite clearly. That his acts of disapproval are to be commended, goes without saying.

The Belmoss Kennels, as might be expected, cut a wide strip through the prize list. Ch. Inveresk Cocksure winning for Best Dog in Show, All Breeds, and a son of Ch. Inveresk Cocksure, i.e., Ch. Belmoss Conutess, won for Best Canadian-bred, annexing for herself the Canadian Kennel Club Trophy. Best Sporting Dog was the Irish Setter bitch, Lady Louise, owned by A. T. Kieller (Montreal). Best Non-Sporting was found in A. C. A. Chisholm's (Montreal) Bulldog, Morovian Monogram.

The weather was a mixture of extreme heat with plenty of rain coming down at times, and these disturbances caused the officials lots of worry at times. A human touch with a fatal ending tinged the fixture with regret and sorrow, when a bulldog exhibitor, Mr. Yvan P. Biron is suddenly taken ill. Mrs. J. H. Enright of Montreal, who seems to be always in the right place at the right time, was called on to help, and her patient soon became unconscious. Dr. L. Boisvent, who had only recently arrived from France and who was exhibiting a Greyhound at the show, was fortunately quite convenient, gave generously of his skill and strength on artificial respiration. Fearing the worst, Mr. E. Armitage goes in search of a Catholic priest, whilst Mr. F. Keene rushes off to summon the sick man's relatives. By a queer coincidence, Mr. Armitage finds Father Biron, a cousin of the sick exhibitor, and when they arrive, there is just time to administer the Last Sacraments, and Mr. Biron was before his Creator. Naturally, the occasion cast a heavy gloom over the whole show. It seemed that even the dogs stopped their barking to mark their own measure of sympathy; the exhibitors exchanging remarks such as, "Mr. Biron is gone, and we lose one of the best sports that has come into the ranks of sportsmen in Sherbrooke for a long time."

At Sherbrooke there is a hospital on the grounds, and it was there that Mr. Biron died. What a boon to the public to have these conveniences on an exhibition ground, and it may be just possible that our late friend could never have received the same prompt spiritual, medical, and human attention if he had been stricken inside his own home. Hemorrhage of the brain was the cause of death. The combined sympathies of our readers and ourselves go out to the widow and the children left to mourn the loss of husband and father at this time.

With the above painful exception, 1928 show at Sherbrooke has been chalked up as the best-managed and most enjoyable fixture of all time.

NOTED SOLICITOR DEAD.

There are few dog fanciers in Ontario and less in Toronto who did not know the late Mr. Frank Slattery, Solicitor, Toronto, whose hobby apart from his practice was mingling with dog fanciers past and present, and to straighten out their entaglements when they found themselves overstepping the borders of the law. Associated as "Frank" was with dogdom in Toronto all his life, until his death he craved for a "dog chat" or to fight a "dog case" in court. Smooth of voice he never failed to make his appeal convincing, but if things did not seem to be favorable to his client that telling smoothness was thrown to the winds and the talented lawyer would be heard a block away, then, win or lose Mr. Slattery would shake hands with all concerned and advise that he had done his best—and he had.

Recently his chest had given him a lot of trouble and an operation was deemed to be the only likely relief. However, after the operation he never regained consciousness and died on Sunday morning, Sept. 9th, at the Western Hospital, Toronto, and with his passing a well-known character has been withdrawn from our ranks.

SOUTHERN ALBERTA KENNEL CLUB SHOW

One hundred and twenty-six dogs at a show in Lethbridge tells the story of President Mr. V. W. Williams, his Secretary, Mrs. R. Holberton, and his show executive having exerted themselves to the limit to make this young Club's show a success. Mr. Wm. Forrest of Calgary judged the entire show, and fanciers from his own city showed their respect for his judging ability by favoring him with a substantial entry of Calgary dogs. Our old friend Mr. E. P. Tuson, late of Lethbridge and now of Calgary, had the only bulldog at the show in Chinook Argo, a son of Ch. Kingsway Man O' War ex Pacific Vampire, and won the Canadian Kennel Club Trophy for best Canadian-bred dog in show. Other prizes won by Argo was the Northwest Brewing Co. Trophy for best dog in show, and also the P. V. Parkes Trophy for best non-sporting. Bulldog breeders east and west in Canada will remember that not so long ago Mr. Tuson played a most formidable hand in Bulldogs, and no doubt he will be back again ere long. WITH THE ANCIENTS AND MODERNS.

It was at the Spring Show at Brantford that a number of fanciers were discussing the affairs of the Canadian Kennel Club and the stupendous progress made by the Club during recent years, financially and otherwise. As one of the original promoters of the Club which we founded in London in Sept. 1888, or 40 years ago this month, and therefore an ancient—perhaps, anyway I have my own ideas concerning that—I mentioned the fact that only three of the original members now survived, and that I was pleased that all three still retained their membership, that we had all given of our time and talent to the Club, and that we were all three still in service and proud of the Association and what it stood for. The three referred to were of course Lt. Col. Robt. McEwan, Byron, Ont., Brig. Gen. C. M. Nelles, Niagar-on-the-Lake, Ont., and C. A. Stone, Toronto, Ont., who of course is myself.

Our genial Secretary, Mr. James D. Strachan was present at the discussion and at that time mentioned that it was, and had been, his intention for some time, to have the "remaining remnant" sit down with him personally to chat over the events of by-gone years, at a time and place when the conference would have absolute freedom from possible interference.

One morning during the week of the Canadian National Exhibition Dog Show, upon opening my mail, to my great surprise and pleasure I found an invitation from my good friend "Jimmie," the man who is now busy carrying on the good work started by myself 40 years ago, and he was extending an invitation to "The Rilics" to dine with him at the Hotel London, on the evening of Wednesday, Sept. 12th, half way between the shows of the London Canine and the Western Fair, the invitation hinted that refusal to attend would not be considered and so it was that I had to make the longest trip to keep a dinner engagement that I had ever made, and I'm glad I kept the appointment.

And "Jimmie", with his well-known foresight had pre-arranged everything even to a private dining room where my deafness meant nothing at all to anybody and for the first time in years I was in a company of kindred spirits where every word spoken was clearly heard by me, and what a comfort it was to hear every word.

Naturally I was the first to arrive on Sept. 12, 1928, just as I had been

MAJOR WARD WRIGHT, Secretary

on Sept. 27th, 1888, and as I had walked down from the fair grounds a matter of about three miles, in a temperature that was just sweltering, and naturally I was open to accept anything at all that was liquid and cold. Leave it "Jimmy" to make 'em cold and palatable. Shortly afterwards the rest of the party arrived, and if our present Secretary had not been present the "old timers" would have been in session by themselves, but he saved the day, and I want to say right here, that if you ever want to sit down to a sumptous feed let "Jimmy" do the ordering—and don't worry.

Did we enjoy that dinner? Did we? Well, I can only speak for myself but judging from the manner in which my friends got on the outside of half a broiled spring chicken—feathered variety of course—which was intermingled with an abundance of other good things, both hard and soft, leaves me without adequate words to express our gratification. A most delightful and enjoyable evening spent, it will be long remembered. Reminiscences of 40-50 years of Canadian dogdom were recalled. When the years had been lean and the grief had been great, and as Col. McEwen's head would shake away the vision "Jimmy" would tell one of his noted Scotch yarns, and clear the way for a fresh start in a happier vein. You can't beat him for congeniality and diplomacy and it is no wonder that all the boys enjoy being with him in the evenings during the shows, and I wonder just how much of the success attending our Association comes from this man's eternal happy personality, as he meets every element of the Club's life.

The unique party broke up at a late hour, but not before we had pledged ourselves, individually and collectively, to foregather each at our Secretary's call, so that the "past and the present" of the Canadian Kennel Club may always be privileged to extend their friendships as long as life itself may last.

Undoubtedly the idea that made this meeting possible was a "ten strike," and perhaps my readers will have noticed the loyalty that has made the only three living men who were the first to sign up for the Canadian Kennel Club. Members in continuity ever since, and I hope we have noticed the good will which is so finely pronounced between the older and the newer members of this day.

Honorary President,
Canadian Kennel Club

THE CANADIAN FANCY

By WALTER H. REEVES, Belleville, Ontario.

SINCERE congratulations are offered by the writer to the Canadian Fancy on the splendid success achieved by a home-bred Canadian dog, at the Fortieth International Dog Show, held in conjunction with the Canadian National Exhibition, at Toronto; where under the English authority, J. W. Marples; our Canadian judge, Bob Ross; and the American judge, W. McFadden, the really wonderful Springer spaniel bitch, International Champion, Marvel of Avondale, shown in matchless bloom and handled with great skill by Geo. Kynoch, and owned by E. Chevrier, of Winnipeg, won special for best dog in the show.

I promised J. W. Marples, at Winnipeg, that I would come to Toronto and get his impressions of our fanciers and their dogs, and decided to leave this until the last day so that I could watch the judging for the special, offered for the best dog or bitch in the show. The excitement around the ringside was intense when the competitors were brought into the ring, especially when from the ringside it looked as if J. W. Marples was standing out in the weeding out process for the Springer and the other judges, for the Irish Setter, Champion Higgins Red Pat. To clinch his argument, J. W. Marples ordered both contestants off the board and then gave instructions to Geo. Kynoch and Benny Lewis, the handlers, respectively of the Springer Spaniel and the Irish Setter to bring their dogs back to the board with a loose lead and not to pose them by hand. From the gestures of the English authority, I gathered that he was pointing out to his confreres, the superior shoulders of the Springer, anyway his argument must have been convincing, for the Setter was dismissed and Marvel was ordered to the corner. The weeding-out process proceeded and eventually four dogs were left in the ring: Mrs. M. Mitchell's pekingese, Beau Fang of Badmington, Reg. P. Sparkes' bulldog, Kippax Jock; H. Stevens' Scottish terrier, Heather Lad, and F. Chevrier's Springer spaniel, International Champion Marvel of Avondale. In all my experience, I have never seen an exhibition handled to better advantage than George Knoch handled Marvel, and he certainly had this beautiful bitch in great bloom. The applause was great when the judges eventually decided to award the cup to Marvel. Probably I may have been a little biased as I believe I have on six occasions made Marvel the best dog in the show, but I found that the consensus of opinion, was, that Marvel rightly won, and that her outstanding type, close formation and condition, to say nothing of her handling by George Kynoch, made her victory comparatively an easy one.

It is over three years ago since I gave Marvel her first best in show at St. Paul, Minn. show, and since that show Marvel has won the coveted honor, twenty-four times, which must easily be a record for a Canadian bred dog. George Kynoch, very naturally, was delighted and celebrations were soon in order, but, I had to leave directly after the judging and had to miss the cordial invitation of George to stay and drink success to Marvel's future. I believe before long, we may see a son or daughter of hers carrying on their mother's feats in the ring, for the puppies I saw out of Marvel, when I was in Winnipeg a few weeks ago, showed very unmistakably, that in my opinion the best Springer bitch ever bred, can repeat her victories of the ring, in the breeding kennel. During a break in the judging I was able to have a few minutes conversation with J. W. Marples; my enquiry: How did you find the Western Fanciers and their dogs? gained the following reply: The Western Fanciers are a fine hospitable crowd, keen and evidently ambitions to have good shows and dogs, but I must say I was somewhat disappointed in the quality of their dogs. "What do you think of the quality of the dogs at this show?" "Great, I never expected to find such quality." Evidently from Mr. and Mrs. Marples replies to my questions they were much impressed by their visit to Canada. They were leaving the same night for New York and going back to England by the Celtic, where our visitor and judge was due the following Tuesday week, to judge at Ipswich.

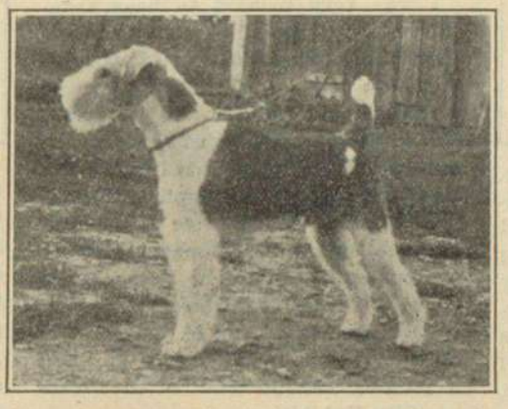

THE WONDER WINNER.

International Champion Marvel of Avandale. Best dog in show all breeds, Canadian National Exhibition. Bred and owned by E. Chevrier, Winnipeg, Man.

I must say I was agreably impressed with the endeavours of the exhibition authorities to improve the appearance of the dog show building. The walls evidently had been given a coat of whitewash and the superintendant, Fred W. Jacobi, tried and succeeded in having a clean, well managed show. Almost the first person I greeted on my arrival was our president, Col. G. F. McFarland and close by was our "Jimmy", both keenly interested in the judging and looking after the interests of our club. My impressions of the dogs, gained from the bench, were, that the bloodhound Ajax of Princetown, exhibited by J. R. Tennant, stood right away, amongst the big breeds. This hound has just claims to be there, or thereabouts, no matter how hot the company may be. On the day I considered him somewhat light in condition. He has a great head with rare wrinkle leather, and expression, stands on capital legs and feet and possesses a really good body. I thought Judge Ross was rather severe, when he placed this sterling good hound, third in the sporting-dog class. In fact from the line-up in the ring my impressions were, that I would have started using my pencil from the other end. Glenmuir Sam, Ajax of Princeton, with the American pointer and setter, Denwood, Nye and Southboss, Savanna, third and reserve. Knowing how difficult it is to judge from outside the ring, I would not have mentioned this if Judge Marples had not confirmed my opinion. Russian wolfhounds were a nice group. I happened to see Captain Rogers' Romanoff Michael in the ring on the last day and he seemed to walk very stiffly, probably this was due to having been on the bench for four days. Some big hounds were competing amongst the Irish Wolfhounds, they certainly showed type, but left much to be desired as regards soundness. Benny Lewis took the plums in greyhounds with his smart brace, Lansdowne Scotch Laddie, and Aurora. One could hardly look over these attractive long tails, without remembering the interest that used to be taken in the breed by the late John G. Kent, who was manager for the Exhibition for so many years. I was glad to note the wins achieved by Dads' Baldrom, in the American foxhounds, a very representative collection. Walter J. Langdon's entry had the edge on "Duke" in dog hounds, but the Ottawa team went to the top in the bitch classes. The winning pointer dog, Denwood Nye, was not very impressive as regards type or conformation, and I would have liked to see the winning English setter with more length of neck. Irish setter dogs were decidedly hot, Ch. Higgins Red Pat, had by no means an easy victory to get in front of C. A. Stone's Ch. Forest Larry Lloyd. F. H. Plant's Ch. King Morello Oge, was off in condition, being shown far too heavy. The Alsatians were a good gathering of our best. Judge Marples considered them one of the features of the show. I was sorry to have missed the judging, but the special winner for best Alsatian, Cosalta Kennels, Cosalta Irma. I had seen a few days previously at the Ottawa exhibition, where she gained a similar position. The judge informed me, that in his opinion, there was very little between the three leaders in open dogs. Harry Clayton deserved his win in Airedale Terriers with the impressive champion, Silver Birch Masterpiece, handled to the best advantage by Ted Ward. My old friend, the late H. B. Hungerford would have been delighted to see the nice group of Collies. I was very favorably impressed with Ch. Sifton Whirlwind, a big sound bitch, with substance and quality. Bulldogs were hardly as strong in numbers, as one would expect at this show. Reg. P. Sparkes continued his recent success with his heavy weight Kippax Jock, the novice winner in bitches. Mrs. Kellett also gained winners bitch, defeating Geo. Kynoch's well-known winner, Ch. Silverdale Snowdrop showing signs of recent maernal duties. I could hardly follow the award which placed the bull terrier puppy, Queenbury White Bird over F. W. Coles' Albion Admiration. I understand that the winner was very well handled by Abe Schwartz. O. C. Pierson had quite a field day with his sporting little pack of beagles. Boston terriers were collectively most representative although several recent winners of late were absent. S. Gale had the winners dog forward in the happy little Mighty Atom. Mrs. M. Firman's Tilly The Toiler II, heading a very nice lot of bitches. From the benches I certainly did not envy the task of Judge Ross in Cocker Spaniels, for so many different types were competing. J. W. Marples, on the whole, did not make a very good impression with his placings in Wire Haired Fox Terriers. Evidently by his plaacings, he preferred a bigger terrier than what is favored by the majority. James F. Strachan's attractive team had on the whole decidedly hard luck, one of the most disappointed men in the show being Harry Armistead. Ted Ward and other exhibitors were of opinion that the judge handled the "Wires" somewhat roughly. Abe Schwartz, who brought several terriers across the border, expected to do better with his team, particularly with Rokeby Step Lightly and Rokeby White Knight. The crowning dog was Tom Grimshaw's Benson Dark Horse, he is of course well-known, but the same owner's winners bitch is new. She has a long head, which is hardly effeminate enough for a bitch and I agree with many of her critics that she is also full up to size. Ormsby Formula, is a much better size, and certainly had a big pull in body and coat. Several of our old favorites had to take a back seat in Scottish Terriers. Leading honors in dogs and bitches going to exhibits from across the border. Heather Lad, winning in dogs and Ch. Bellsdyke Lass, in bitches. Two really beautiful bitches followed the latter; Edwards' Bassetlaw Rosiera and Dr. and Mrs. Batt's compact and sound coated terrier, Ch. Cedric Countess.

CHAMPION BENSON DARK HORSE
Best dog in show (all breeds) at Hamilton. Another good one. Bred and owned by Tom Grimshaw, Newtonbrook, Ont.

The winning whippet, Ch. Sept. in the opinion of the English judge, could hold his own easily in England and J. W. M., should know, for he has always taken a very keen interest in the breed. I am sorry to say that I did not find time to see the "Toys," but I noticed competing in the varieties, a very smart little "Bargee", our "Jimmy" having evidently been captured with the charms and character of the Schipperke. His Coltness, The Little Skipper shows a lot of characer.

Capt. Dudley Waters, the secretary of the National Kennel Club and who by the way, made his debut recently as an all round judge at the recent Hamilton show was acting as steward at the Toronto Exhibition, informs me that arrangements were well on the way for the show to be held by the Club in conjunction with the Royal Agricultural Winter Fair. The list of judges that have been appointed will be interesting in view of the criticisms which followed the award at the last show. Tyler Morse, Bulldogs; Theo. Offermann, Dobermans and Toys; J. J. Bates, Fox Terriers; R. Sedgewick, Sealyham and Scottish Terriers; Miss M. Leary, Alsatians; Dr. C. Y. Ford, Collies; Joe Hill, Cockers. It is pleasing to note that Belleville is still keeping to the front in producing high-class collies. When the late H. B. Hungerford's kennel was dispersed, one of the buyers was W. Calvert, who very naturally is delighted at the success he is experiencing in breeding. One of the puppies bred by W. Calvert. Loch Lamond Miss, was sold to A. D. Martin, the secretary of the Halifax Kennel Club. I hear that at the recent Halifax show, Loch Lomond Miss went through her classes to winners and also gained the special for best novice dog or bitch in the show, besides other specials. Congratulations are offered by the writer to the owner and also the breeder.

I had the honor of being invited to judge the first club show of the American Irish Wolfhound Club, which was held in conjunction with the Storm King Kennel Club show. The venue of the show was Kewridge Forum Race Track, Cornwall, N.Y. An excellent show resulted. Many

FEE—To Approved Matrons—$10.00

This consistent winner has been taking in the shows since he was old enough to compete, and he is siring puppies that win. No stud dog can do more than this.

Highball's Little Man produced the winning puppy at Hamilton in our own Confederation White Socks. Not only that, but this puppy went to reserve winners at Hamilton. He was second novice at the Canadian National Exhibition, and was best puppy at the London Canine, and at the Western Fair.

Better than all that, too, was Highball's Little Man, and his son, Confederation White Socks, won for the best brace at the Canadian National.

ound upstanding hounds competing. The breed is evidently having a well-eserved boom across the border and believe there is room for a big ound hound, like those exhibited by he president of the club, Mr. Nor-ood B. Smith, in Canada. It is leasing to note that the members of he club are insisting on soundness, point where, to my way of thinking ar too little attention was paid by Cnglish breeders. A big upstanding ound naturally is wanted, but what arthly use is size if the hound has no uitable quarters. So many of the rish wolfhounds bred in England vere practically cripples, cow-hocked nd with quarters useless if they had gallop. The photograph repro-uced of Mrs. Norwood Browning Smith and her winning hounds at the lub Show, Craigwood The O'Toole nd Cragwood Macha, shows off to nuch advantage, the splendid hocks nd quarters possessed by these ounds, and is a proof that sound big ounds can be used. The secretary f the club, L. O. Starbuck, did not ave Mona, of Ambleside, competing n account of the fact that she was usily engaged rearing a litter. Mona f Ambleside, Cragwood, Macha, and Cragwood The O'Toole, I consider he three best Irish Wolfhounds I ave seen.

Tom Grimshaw, the owner of the Benson" wire haired fox terriers, ends me particulars of his wins with our terriers at Hamilton, Toronto Exhibition, London Canine, and the Western Fair. Benson Dark Horse, enson Blazer, Flornell Flower Pot, and Benson Rhyme. At each show they captured winners: Dogs and bitches, Flornell Flower Pot, the latest addition to the kennel and the only terrier not home bred of the team, has, I hear, been bred to Bruson Dark Horse and naturally great things are hoped and expected of the mating.

The Peterboro Kennel Association are anticipating obtaining a good all-round entry for their forthcoming show, which will be held on Oct. 4th and 5th. A splendid array of specials are to be competed for, practically every breed being well looked after in the way of specials. Among the general specials are: The Canadian Kennel Club Trophy, for best Canadian bred; the President's cup, for best in show. I hope to be able to get to the show and will give particulars of the competitors in the next issue.

I was very pleased to hear from Harry Armistead, the popular manager of the Ormsby Kennel, that J. F. Strachan was well enough to be moved from the General Hospital, Montreal and that he was recuperating very favorably at his home. The many friends of this popular sportsman, I know will join me in trusting that he will be well enough to be present at the National Kennel Club show, which is to be held in November. I hope to be able to put in a day at this show before leaving to fulfil a judging engagement at the Kansas City Exhibition.

I have just received a letter from Dr. C. Y. Ford, asking me to forward on the subscriptions received for the Harry B. Hungerford Memorial Trophy, which is to be offered each year at the National Kennel Club show. Probably there are still some friends who would like to contribute to this perpetual memorial to a man who did so much for Canadian shows and dogs, particularly collies, and there is still time, if they will send their cheque at once to James D. Strachan, Canadian Kennel Club, 25 Melinda St., Toronto. I understand that the late H. B. Hungerford's life-long friend Dr. C. Y. Ford, intends to purchase a sterling silver trophy. It was through the suggestion of Dr. Ford, that the fund was started.

I am indeed glad to hear from J. G. Young, the secretary of the Edmonton Dog Fanciers Club, that the Alsatian bitch, Bridget of Picardy, has arrived from England in first-class condition, in fact her new owner remarks that he thinks the ocean trip agreed with her as she arrived, if anything a little heavy in condition. Her new owner sends the following impression of this famous English winner. She is quite a large bitch to what we are accustomed to in Canada. Although she does not exceed the measurements of the standard of the breed, she has a great angulation, a back like iron, wonderful gait, and has an ideal temperament, nothing worries her. From this description it certainly looks as if Bridget of Picardy will not only prove extremely useful to her new owner in founding a strain. I understand that she is due to whelp some time this month to Cito of Picardy.

Other items of news from the Edmonton Fancier, is that Harry Nash is expecting a flea coated retriever from John Ritchie of Ottawa and that Dr. Hall's good Irish Setter handled and conditioned by a nephew of Freeman Lloyds, who went best of bred under me at Edmonton and Saskatoon, gained a similar award under J. W. Marples at Regina.

The following cable to the New York Times will no doubt be interesting to Alsatianists. "Munich, Germany. The results of the great annual show of shepherd dogs under the auspices of the German Club of this breed, which has 35,000 members were as follows: Grand Champion, male, Erich V. Glockenbrink, the winner in 1926; Grand Champion, female Katja V. Blastenburg. Winner in fourth class, males, Frank V. Westfalenstotz, a son of the grand champion male; winner in female class, Nancy of Fortunate Friends, bred by an American living in Switzerland, Mrs. Dorothy Eustis."

NATIONAL KENNEL CLUB SHOW.

The dog exhibiting populace of America has been anxiously awaiting the announcement of the naming of the judges for the Royal Winter Fair Dog Show, reference to our center spread in this issue can now quickly be made and the information greedily absorbed. Show giving Clubs in Canada have often times went the limit in securing judicial talent for their shows, but it has been left to the National Kennel Club to secure the most imposing array of competing judges that has ever appeared at any one show in the Dominion of Canada to date.

Kennel and Bench has not yet been advised regarding the allocation of the breeds to their respective judges, but no doubt our dicerning exhibitors will be able to satisfy themselves concerning the judge who will sort out the wheat from the chaff as far as their breed is concerned, as for instance, the expert Miss Marie Learey, of the Cosalto Kennels, Greenwich, Conn., will have charge of the sorting out in the Shepherd Dog ring. John C. Bates of the "Blarney" Prefix, Wire Fox Terriers. Robert Sedgewick, the Smooth Coated variety; Theodore Offerman, Toys; Tyler Morse, Bulldogs; C. F. Neilson, Sporting Dogs; Dr. C. Y. Ford, Collies, and V. G. Perry, Bostons. The "etcetras" being taken care of capably by one or other of the above named gentlemen who have in every instance accepted their appointments.

The cash, cups and other prizes are plentiful and in almost every case must be won outright at the show, and no trophy will be offered that does not offer some worthy token to commemorate the win.

National Kennel Club Trophies are offered to associate members only and application for associate membership will be sent out with each premium list, the fee for associate membership is $2.00.

The Royal Winter Fair offers a Trophy for Best Dog in show.

The Spillers Trophy has been allocated for the Best Breed. The Carls-Rite Trophy and the Canadian Kennel Club Trophy will mark the Best Canadian-bred with approval. Trophy for Best Puppy. Trophies for Best in the several groups, i.e. Sporting, Non-Sporting, Working, Terriers and Toys, and besides there will be Trophies for the best specimens of most breeds.

We are requested to advise any club or individual desiring to offer special prizes, that such specials must be clearly defined, and in every case (where possible) they must be offered for outright winning. To have such offerings made intelligently they must be submitted to the Show Secretary almost at once.

The Show will be held right in the Coliseum, and plenty of room has been furnished to take proper care of any entry up to 1,000 dogs. Exhibitors who have not yet taken the precaution to have their names recorded in the National Kennel Club mailing list are requested to have that matter attended to at once.

Plan to see "The Royal Fair" this year as it should be seen. In many respects it is, as Barnum used to say, "The Greatest Show on Earth."

Foxboro, Ontario, Canada

ROSS-MILLER BISCUIT COMPANY, LIMITED.

Here is a Canadian firm that was incorporated under Dominion of Canada Letters Patent in 1925, and since that time it has been quietly but steadily securing for itself a satisfied clientele that has made a steady growth for the firm. So much so that at the present time it is no extraordinary occurrence to ship Dog and Fox Foods from the plant at Napanee, Ontario, to customers at Alberta, in the West, and to Prince Edward Island in the East.

Napanee was chosen as the manufacturing and distributing centre because of its choice location, which enabled Ross-Miller to ship to all parts of Canada at a minimum cost. The factory there has been installed with machinery which turns out ten tons of biscuit every 24 hours, and by constant attention being given to the ingredients incorporated in the manufacturing of the biscuits, sales steadily grow and much gratification to the management is the natural result.

British Columbia absorbs much of the factory's output, and a number of shipments have been forwarded via Montreal and the Panama Canal. This field promises great distribution and special plans are being perfected for its future development.

The present management is composed of Mr. George Miller, Toronto, Manager, and Mr. J. E. Robinson, Sales Manager and Secretary-Treasurer, and both men having the business training that many years in business bring to them it is quite natural that anything sponsored by them must just be successful. Both are proud of their splendid modern plant, and with the success that is steadily following their efforts.

TWO SHOWS IN TWO DAYS AT LONDON

September 10 and 11 for the show of the London Canine Association, with Mr. N. K. Swire, Toronto, judging. September 12 and 13, for the show of the Western Fair, with Mr. Alex. Stewart, Chicago, judging, was the arrangement calculated to draw a large entry to London this year, and it is with regret that we chronicle the circumstance that it must have been discouraging to the managements, and to the exhibitors that attended one or both fixtures, that there were not sufficient dogs on hand to make at least two championship points possible at each show. The Western Fair has provided a perfectly good building in the heart of the Fair's attractions. The judges were both capable and popular, and we are left to wonder whereby the entry was so slender. One point for London Canine, and two points for the Western Fair.

For quality of exhibits the dog show was up to the general high mark of the Fair, and many of the best animals exhibited at the Canadian National Exhibition were shown at the Western Fair, the dog show sharing the honors in this respect. Quite a few American exhibitors were present, and their dogs shared in the prizes very noticeably at both shows.

That both judges did not see their dogs alike for appraisal, will be noticed from the award columns. Of course, if all judges placed dogs alike a lot of that uncertainty that is the spice of exhibiting would be lost, and that would be fatal to the sport.

There were no special prizes set apart for the best dog in show all breeds, and so the excitement in that respect narrowed itself down to the best Canadian-bred at both shows. At the London Canine Association fixture this distinctive win was made by Mrs. Hilda Ridder, of New York, with her Canadian-bred Boston Terrier, O'Glo's Midgie, bred by E. A. Rumons, of Ottawa, and out of his sweet bitch Ch. Bonnie Intruder, the sire being that great producer, Ch. Globe League O' Nations. We believe that O'Glo's Midgie now occupies a place at the top, where all the best Bostons gather, and that she is now entitled to the rank of International Champion.—Congratulations.

At the Western Fair show, Mr. Stewart favored Raymond G. Schligel's little Toronto bred Pomeranian Arndale Firelight, and so, to Pittsburg went the Canadian Kennel Club Trophy for Best Canadian-bred. Quite a coincidence that two Canadian Kennel Club cups should go to two different American cities, won by two Canadian-bred dogs at two Canadian shows within a period of 48 hours of each other.—Congratulations, again.

A real pleasant feature of the London show was the recollection of London being the birthplace of the Canadian Kennel Club, and the fact that as a club, we were 40 years old this month. It was the editor's privilege and pleasure to have the only three charter members now alive accept invitations to celebrate the occasion. Unfortunately, one of that number, Brig.-Gen. C. M. Nelles, was obliged to wire his absence on account of illness in his family. However, Col. Robt. McEwen, of Byron, Ontario, famous in dogdom for his record as a Collie importer and breeder, and noted all over the world as a sheep breeder; and Charles Arnold Stone, Toronto, equally famous as a Setter breeder, and as the first Secretary of the Canadian Kennel Club, did attend, and what a night of old times we held; and, looking back on that pleasant evening, the impression develops that if the Fanciers of to-day think they enjoy the same good times and good sportsmanship as prevailed four or five decades ago, then, this writer for one, fails to see where there should be much cause for complaint. Truly, it was amazing to hear old times, and old timers discussed by parties well qualified to talk such matters over.

NOTES FROM THE COAST

By Provincial Contributing Editor, ALBERT KERR, Vancouver.

THE numerous phases of the dog game at which people of different ideas as to sport, amusement and usefulness can become interested in; it is little wonder that man's best friend has such a large following; as in other walks of life new features present themselves from time to time to renew the old interest of the "dyed-in-the-wool", while to the new beginner it awakens or kindles such enthusiasm that even time does not subdue.

Such was one of these interesting periods when the writer with a Saturday afternoon to spend in Victoria, B.C., previous to boat time, and the announcement in the local papers that the Victoria and District Gun Dog Club would stage their Open Air Matinee Show and Retrieving Contest. Owing to our late arrival in Victoria from up the Island the pleasure of witnessing the bench show feature had to be unfortunately passed up but suffice to say that under the judging of Mr. W. R. (Wally) Wilgress of Vancouver, one of the pillars of the Sporting Dog Men's fraternity that each was placed in its proper place.

ALAUNT NIGEL (IMP.) (C.K.C.S.B. 54024)
Property of Mr. Neil Kelso, Vancouver, B.C.
Alaunt Nigel is by Irish Alaunt, out of Alaunteleg, a daughter of Irish Alaunt.

The preparations for the Retrieving Contests were very good and being the first that the writer has had the pleasure of attending all was of great interest, a special license as to the use of the game birds permitted this part of being more realistic and much better for the dogs to work on, the birds having been previously killed, these birds were thrown out of a throw trap into the brush to the accompanied shot from a gun in the hands of the owner of the dog, who then directed his dog.

This event was divided into two classes, one for pointers and setters, to retrieve on land only, the other for retrievers and sporting spaniels, to retrieve on land and also in water.

The breeds competing were Setters, Pointers, Labradors and Springer Spaniels and the clean cut work of a number of these dogs was a real treat to watch, and especially of those who were under command of their owner at all times.

For the retrieving from the water the dogs were worked under actual duck shooting conditions, a wonderful location had been selected for this work where the spectators could see every bit of the work done by the dog without interfering therewith. The throw-trap being placed out of sight of the dog and handler some thirty feet above the water and the dead duck thrown out into the ocean for the dog to retrieve, this contest was between the Labradors and Springers and we would add that the intelligence displayed by these dogs in retrieving their birds over certain obstacles was amazing, one Springer puppy was especially good considering its age, but were we going duck shooting, any of the contestants would fill the bill to perefection.

The Retrieving Contests were judged by Mr. E. N. Barker of Cobble Hill, B.C., formerly of Cardston, Alberta, and whose knowledge of sporting dogs extends over a number of years.

The Officers and Committee in charge of this Club and this event deserve great credit, and as these contests are only a beginning from them one can see that if properly handled, not one, but a number of very pleasant Saturday afternoons could be very pleasantly spent in many different parts of the country, furthermore, the number of and the tone of the large gallery that followed these contests augers well for its future if placed in capable hands.

We would be somewhat remiss if we did not make special mention of that old veteran sporting dog man, Mr. Frank Topp Turner, who bore his years lightly and was on the job and as interested as a schoolboy in the whole afternoon's proceedings, also Mr. Clark Denis, who handled the trap.

To round out and end a perfect dog afternoon, tea was served by Mrs. Frank Topp Turner, Mrs. Bessonette and Miss Turner to all those present, thus ending a most pleasant afternoon.

The good Irish Setter Ch. Sweet Anne (Imp.) after a successful season on the show bench is now rearing a nice litter of puppies, six dogs and one bitch were whelped on Aug. 3rd, but unfortunately the dam lay on two of the dog puppies but the balance of the litter are doing fine. Miss R. E. Duke of Victoria is the proud owner of Ch. Sweet Anne and with good luck we may look for some new entrants amongst the Irish Setters at future shows. These puppies are sired by Ch. Golden Rufus (Imp.) he by Ch. Brian of Boyne, and on the dam side the breeding is of the same high quality on the bench.

The Annual Dog Show held in connection with the Provincial Exhibition, New Westminster, was the usual well run affair, while the commitee deserved more support with a larger entry. Yet everything in the hands of P. J. McLachlan and Sandy McLean on the Superintendents end was run along like a well oiled machine, the Dog Show Committee, with Mr. W. J. Squelch as Chairman and composed of Mrs. J. J. Jackson as Secretary, Mrs. G. O. Alsen, Mrs. P. J. McLachlan, Mrs. Lalonde, Messrs. P. J. McLachlan, Neil Kelso, Archie Hogg, M. McCraith, H. Wilkinson, J. Spence, J. K. Murdock, O. Balshaw and H. Lester worked to put the show over big. The building was well kept and clean and was always crowded with spectators and a large crowd followed the judging which was in the hands of Mr. A. H. Dodds of Victoria, B.C.

We think that here is the making eventually of a large show, with a larger and better building, more space and more convenient of access for the spectators will result in a worth while fixture.

The best in show went to Miss M. Stewart's Alsatian Yongo Du Mahon, its getting a habit for this dog to be around the top, Best Opposite Sex and Best Canadian-bred, winning the Canadian Kennel Club Cup again went to that good little Pom of Mr. W. White, Fraserview Ophelia 2nd, who repeated its performance of the Canadian Pacific Show. Best Terrier was Ch. Nottingham Edmonds, owned by Mrs. Alsen. Best Sporting was Mrs. Edna Roman's Roman's Flame, which also won Best Dog or Bitch from the U.S.A. Best Non-Sporting was Mrs. J. S. Playfair's Boston, Playfair's Lorely. Best Toy was won by Jas. A. Renton's Pekingese Jim-Me of Remenham, in explanation we would state that the Pom was not eligible to compete for this special, as certain conditions were set out in the Premium List whereby a dog winning one of the major specials was eliminated from further competition for some of the unclassified specials.

All through this was a very well handled show and we are looking forward to the continued improvement and bigger things next year.

We are presenting to the fancy Mr. Neil Kelso's imported English Bulldog Alaunt Nigel, who has been shown at all the shows and in the height of competition has been up amongst the winners and has several points towards his championship, possessing lots of quality, heavy boned with nice body qualities and good head and front, being of a high strung disposition "Billy" does not always make the best of himself in the show ring, but as Mr. and Mrs. Kelso brought him out from Mrs. Dinsley Cooper's Kennels to improve their breeding he has shown the results in his progeny, a glance through his pedigree discloses a fine line of ancestry that most of the Bulldog fanciers would admire, the Thistle Bulldog Kennels are to be congratulated on possessing one of this calibre.

While on Bulldogs we might state that Dr. T. E. Sleeth was unfortunate to lose by death a good one in Kingsway Barrister, who was by Kingsway Man O' War and a brother to Ch. Sandy McNabb. Barrister was proving to be an exceptionally good stud dog and several good one's are of his get.

We are also informed that the Dr. has a young puppy to be known as Kingsway Man O' War the Second, that at its present age is away ahead of its namesake at the same age and will develop into a better dog is the prediction, so here is hoping that the luck is with it, for it will be going some to beat old Sammy.

The British Columbia Fox Terrier Club have under way preparations for their Annual Canadian Kennel Club Show on Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 12, further details are not at hand.

Notes From Manitoba

By Provincial Contributing Editor, J. C. WOODEND, Winnipeg, Man.

The Manitoba Field Trials.

THE forty-second annual trials of the Manitoba Field Trial Club were held at Gainsborough, Sask., during the week of September 3, and witnessed by a large and enthusiastic crowd of bird-dog breeders, owners and handlers from all parts of Western Canada and the United States. During the running of the trials, which occupied four days, weather conditions were favorable, the grounds good, and coveys of prairie chicken fairly plentiful.

The Manitoba Club is made up of a few select but most capable members, four of whom carry out the active management of affairs, and held the various offices in relation. This year ex-Alderman W. R. Milton is president; Frank A. Walsh, first vice-president; V. C. Kobold, second vice-president, and Ed. Smith, secretary.

Among the spectators who were witnessing the chicken trials for the first time were H. C. Cory and friends from Calgary, Alta., several Winnipeg sportsmen, and a number from other Western cities. As the Manitoba meeting is one of the most popular on the American circuit, many American visitors viewed the sport at Gainsborough, some for the first time, but the majority as expert judges and handlers of long standing on all matters pertaining to bird-dogs and field trials.

The judges for this year's trials were W. R. Milton, president of the club, and C. W. Campbell, of Tulsa, Okla. Both know bird dogs well, and thoroughly understand their work as judges, and as Mr. Milton is a Scottish Borderer and Mr. Campbell of Scottish descent, it can be readily understood, that once their verdict is given, it remains as unalterable as the "laws of the Medes and the Persians"—although owners and handlers of unsuccessful competitors may not always see "eye to eye" with the judges.

The All-Age Stake.

The trials commenced on the morning of Monday, September 3, with the club's annual All-Age Stake for Setters and Pointers of any age, irrespective of previous winnings. For this event there were 43 starters, ten English Setters and 33 Pointers, the majority of the dogs being well known on the field trial circuit.

The running of the first sixteen braces entered for this stake filled Monday's programme, and the Pointer, Contractor, the ultimate winner of the Stake, distinguished himself by winning his first heat from Halsworthy's Kate, by his qualities of finding birds and steadiness at point and to wing.

In the second series of the All-Age Stake, run off on Tuesday morning, Contractor contended against the white and lemon Pointer, Swiftsure Prairie Jim, and was awarded the verdict over the latter on account of more consistent work, although Prairie Jim found a covey of chicken, feeding, while his opponent in this heat did not find game.

Two dogs were selected by the judges to rank as equal thirds in this stake, to wit, the Setter, Laurel Mohawk Jake and the Pointer, Miss Mayfair. Jake is owned by C. T. Jones, of Tulsa, Okla., and is said to be equally good on either prairie chicken or quail. Miss Mayfair, owned by F. T. Groves, Jr., of Riverton, N.J., is reported a good chicken dog which has learned the ways of the prairies.

Very little behind the winners in merit and performance were the white, liver and ticked Pointer dog, Newsboy, owned by W. C. Teagle and handled by C. H. Harris; Weil and Ray's white and orange Pointer dog, So Big, handled by J. M. Avent; Dr. George Blue's white and liver Pointer, Mary Blue, handled by C. H. Harris, and Charles Burden's promising young Setter dog, Burden's Sport Ghost, handled by Lon Kirkpatrick.

A Winnipeg entry deserving notice was Miss Nan Walsh's white liver and ticked Pointer, Cushbawn Billy, who contested a good heat with So Big. Billy pointed in good form, found coveys of birds on three or four occasions and finished up by making a stylish point on a single chicken that was well handled. Miss Walsh's dog is a son of the well known Great Island Mephistophiles, who also sired Contractor, the winner of the stake under notice. Contractor is owned by M. L. Huges, of Bristow, Okla., and this year is the Pointer's first season. He was trained and handled by Ed. Tarrior and found his birds in the first series of the trials when he gained the approval of the judges by the beautiful style in which he handled two coveys of chickens.

The second series of the All-Age Stake was fought out between Contractor and Swiftsure Prairie Jim; Miss Mayfair with News Boy, and Laurel Mohawk Jake with So Big, resulting as follows:

First, Contractor; 2nd, Swiftsure Prairie Jim; equal 3rds, Miss Mayfair and Laurel Mohawk Jake.

The Derby.

The Manitoba Field Trial Club's Annual Derby for Setters and Pointers whelped on or after January 1, 1927, brought out 33 starters, consisting of twelve English Setters and 21 Pointers.

Six braces of the Derby were run as part of Tuesday's programme, the remaining heats, second series and final results forming Wednesday's programme.

After the first series of 16 heats and a bye had been decided, five braces were left in to compete in the second series, from which the winner, second and third dogs were selected according to merit. The following started in the second series: Mack's Rolvaag with Air Pilot; Ragene with Jim Momoney; Laurel Mohawk King with Triplett's Lindy; Evergreen Happy Rap with Clipper Kate, and Rumson Farm Rags with Bad News. Of those mentioned above, the first brace are Pointers, the second Setters, the third both Setters; Evergreen Happy Rap, a Pointer, and Clipper Kate, a Setter, and the fifth brace both Pointers.

The Derby resulted in a victory for the Setter dog, Jim Momoney; Air Pilot, a stylish Pointer was the runner-up, and Mack's Rolvaag, another smart young Pointer, was awarded the third share of the stake.

Jim Momoney, the winner, is a white, orange and ticked Setter dog by Indian Momoney, out of Count Moring's Bessie. He is owned by J. W. Fierce and handled by J. M. Avent. In both his heats in the first and second series, Jim hunted with good judgment, showed to advantage in action, found coveys and proved very steady, for a puppy.

Air Pilot, the second in the Derby, is a white and lemon Pointer dog by Muscle Shoal's Jake, ex Ferris' Blanche Cash. Pilot was adjudged better than his rivals of the first and second series in the matters ot pointing, finding birds and proving steady to wing, although the Pointer, Mack's Rolvaag, which was placed third by the judges, ran him pretty close for second honors. Air Pilot is owned by H. D. Whitaker and handled by Ed. Tarrior.

Mack's Rolvaag is a fine big liver and white Pointer dog by Comanche Zig Field—Ruth Virginia Proctor. C. A. Beck owns him, and C. H. Harris is his handler. This Pointer possesses pace, is a good hunter, and steady to wing. He also made some very stylish points while competing against W. M. Eberhart's Setter, The Phantom Rider and H. D. Whitaker's Air Pilot.

In the All-Age Stake and the Derby each brace engaged hunts for half an hour, but in the Chicken Championship, of which a brief account is given below, each heat lasts for an hour.

The Chicken Championship.

On Thursday, Sept. 6, the programme consisted of eight braces of the Manitoba Field Trials Club's annual Chicken Championship for Setters and Pointers that have won a place in recognized trials. There were 26 starters for this event, four English Setters and 22 Pointers. The weather was warmer on Thursday than at any previous time in the week; birds were better distributed over the various courses, enabling the judges to obtain a closer estimate of the real merits of the dogs competing in the hour heats that are required in the Championship stake. By starting very early on Friday morning the remaining heats were run off by 12.20 p.m., and the last half-day's running proved to be quite as interesting as that of any day preceding it.

The Judges Surprise the Experts.

Something in the way of a surprise (on Friday, after luncheon) was experienced by many of the owners, trainers and visiting experts when the judges, Messrs. Milton and Campbell, named the Pointer dog, Mack Pritchette, the winner of the Championship for 1928. "The decision," says Al. Hochwalt, the leading authority and writer on bird dogs and field trials in America to-day, "was met with amazement by some, consternation by others and calm indifference by a few."

Mack Pritchette, a white liver and ticked Pointer dog, by Comanche Zig Field—Sister Ferris, belongs to C. F. Aldrick, and is handled by John Campbell. This dog won the Manitoba Champion Stake two years ago, in capital style, but this year was very sick ,and his showing on this occasion was not to be compared with his brilliant runing in the 1926 championship. His heat with Dr. T. F. Berberovich's Pointer, Outcast, was, perhaps fortunately, the last event to be contested for the Chicken Championship, and this may have influenced his trainer in his decision to let the dog take his chance, although he was in anything but good condition for the contest. Sick as he was, Mack hunted bravely and courageously, his efforts in the face of difficulties earning him the applause and sympathy of the crowd of onlookers that viewed the trial. He managed to last out the full hour's run, and located five coveys before he was taken up at 12.20, and afterwards awarded the Championship.

Some interesting races took place between the various braces entered for the Chicken Championship. One of the best heats contested was that between Contractor and Swiftsure Prairie Jim; the two dogs which earlier in the week had been placed first and second, respectively, in the All-Age Stake. Both showed good pace, range and staunchness, finding several coveys and hunting in good style. At the finish of the heat, both were going strong, with little or no reduction of the speed and range shown at the beginning of the hour's run.

Other outstanding races were the heats between Miss Mayfair and The Coming Storm; Jake Moran and Lobo's Mr. Gibson; Highland May and Hunter's De Soto Girl; Judge Wilson and Hawk's Spectre, and Joe Hic and Ireland's Greymist.

The Field Trials, on the whole, were voted a success, well-managed, carefully judged and expeditiously handled. It is estimated that the meeting was thoroughly representative of the sport, and the catering and hotel accommodation at Gainsborough were quite first-class.

Many Winnipeg business men, with the leisure and funds, make a habit at this season of the year of enjoying a respite from business cares and depart to the lakes and marshes on a shooting expedition after ducks, mallards and various wild fowl which flourish on the streams, sloughs and inland waters of Manitoba.

Among the leading local sportsmen who are devoted to hunting both "fur and feather" is B. M. Armstrong, the fortunate owner of a well-appointed hunting lodge, situated about fourteen miles north of Poplar Point, on the way to Clandeboye Bay, Lake Manitoba.

For many years past, the vexed question has been asked among sportsmen: "Which is the most suitable dog for finding and retrieving feathered game on land or water, in Manitoba and the prairie provinces?"

Nearly every breed of Spaniel or Retriever has its supporters, Irish Water Spaniels, Retrievers, Curly and Wavy-coated; English Springer Spaniels, Labrador Retrievers, Chesapeake Bay dogs and others have all been tried with more or less success. Commenting on this matter to Mr. Armstrong, he remarked that he had at different times tried out nearly every breed, and finally come to the conclusion that the Golden Retriever was the best of them all, was gifted with the greatest intelligence, and capable of responding to the highest and most intensive training.

Mr. Armstrong some time ago imported the famous field trial and show winning Golden Retriever, Ch. Noranby Eventide, which has been extensively shot over in Yorkshire and other parts of England, also Scotland, and has four times been placed in major field trials in England. Ch. Noranby Eventide was bred by Mrs. W. M. Charlesworth and trained by Col. Alastair Malcolm.

Mr. Armstrong however, by no means confines his love of a good gun dog to Golden Retrievers. He recently purchased from V. C. Kebold, of the Pearlstone Kennels, two very fine pointer puppies by Griffith's Happy Rap, out of Sharper's Queen, which he has named Gilnockie Kate and Gilnockie Peggy. In addition to these there is a fine pointer by a Ch. Doughboy dog, out of a Ch. Touchstone bitch, which has been named Gilnockie Alec. The pointers and other bird dogs to be trained on prairie chicken are in another kennel at Cayley, Alta., and are handled for Mr. Armstrong by W. J. Gilchrist, an Old Country trainer who knows what is essential in the training of gun dogs.

Prove Vitakalk to Yourself

By Feeding it to your weakest pups!

Judge for yourself, as others have done, the effectiveness of VITAKALK as a preventative of diseases, cure of rickets and a builder of health. Pick out the weakest pups you have and feed them VITAKALK. If you want to make the test still harder, feed VITAKALK in competition with any other product—and watch the results.

The Ridgeview Shepherd Kennels had a litter that died off one by one. One pup had rickets and scurvy so badly he could not take a step ahead without crying for mercy. Then they tried VITAKALK and "In less than a week he was running about without pain and after a month's time his bones straightened . . ." Another story comes from a well-known St. Bernard breeder of the case of a helpless pup "About to be done away with which developed into the finest specimen."

A few days ago in reply to a long standing invitation we journeyed out to North Kildonan to look over the Airedale and Wire-haired Fox Terriers in the Kennels of "Pat" MacIntosh, the popular and well-known comedian and vaudeville artist who for some years has been before the public as an actor of considerable ability. We were met by our genial host at the door of his house, and proceeded to look over the Kennels.

Probably the best dog in Mr. MacIntosh's possession is the veteran Airedale Double Surprise, which at the age of seven years shows no decrease in quality, coat and terrier type from what he was some years ago when he was awarded winners and a number of specials at the Fort Garry Kennel Club Show. Double Surprise (C.K.C. 36235) is by Ch. Silver Cadet—Dolly Maxim, she by Whinbush Maxim (Imp.) ex Beverley Busybody. Surprise's sire, Ch. Silver Cadet, was by Ch. Silver Illuminator, out of Silver Imperious. As far as we knew, no Airedale in Western Canada has retained his type, conformation, correct skull properties, straight forelegs and well placed shoulders, as Double Surprise has. A former Old Country judge looking at the dog recently said "he was the best seven year old Airedale to be found on either side of the Atlantic."

Next to come under notice were two young Wire-haired Fox Terriers, one of either sex, by Brock Benedict (Silverbirch Speedyball—Brock Garnestress); their dam, Whitehall News Girl, by Ch. Woodall Jack ex Goldilocks of Wirewood. The pedigree of these puppies reveals the science of line-breeding. On their sire's side there is a double cross of Intl. Ch. Barrington Bridegroom blood, and others figuring in the pedigree are Int. Ch. Chantry Cassey, Ch. Wycollar Barrister, Int. Ch. Gang Warily and Int. Ch. Deykin Wireboy. On their dam's side appear such names as Ch. Dusky Bounce, Ch. Flornell Rapid Fire (Imp.) and Selected of Paignton (Imp). Of the brace above mentioned only the dog has been shown, when he was about 7 months old, but he managed to get third to two crack Wire-hairs from the East which were older dogs and put down in the pink of condition.

Two wonderful seven weeks old Wire-haired puppies next claimed our attention. These are very hard to fault, with grand fronts, perfect heads, eyes and ear carriage, stand on very good feet and legs, are full of pep, and fear nothing. The sire of these puppies is Silverdale Foxtrot, by International Ch. Aman Foxtrot, their dam, Whitehall.

Mr. and Mrs. MacIntosh do not confine their love of animals to the breeding of terriers. They are the lucky owners of three or four Persian cats, 20 to 30 splendid Chinchilla rabbits, and last, but not least, about 200 White Leghorn hens and pullets of the famous World's champion egg-laying strain from Vancouver. Several of these hens, Mrs. MacIntosh informed us had each been laying as many as 27 or 28 eggs a month.

We might mention that as we inspected the rabbitry and chicken houses and runs, we were accompanied by the younger puppies, tails up!—the cats, and also some of the chickens, who have been brought up together, and it was a curious sight to see these all playing about in the same shed or enclosure, without attempting to interfere with or harm one another in any way.

As we said good-bye to our host and hostess, before returning to the city, we secretly wondered at the energy of the former, who could find time to attend to his dogs, etc., while his theatrical engagements amount to six performances daily—three each at two Winnipeg theatres, about one mile apart. But, of course, Mrs. Mac-

Interest was awakened at Winnipeg when the Fort Garry Kennel Club held a meeting and decided to stage an All Breed Show on Nov. 12, 1928, under Canadian Kennel Club Rules. The club have been very fortunate in securing the most ideal building, the Winnipeg Rink, which has a wooden floor and heated. The Judges had not been selected at the time of writing, but very capable men will be chosen. From the enthusiasm displayed they will have a real show. Enquiries have been received from many outside fanciers as to when the Fort Garry Club would put on a show, so this is the result. A good list of specials is assured, also many handsome trophies will be offered. Full particulars can be had from Secretary R. C. Henderson, 202 Paris Bldg., Winnipeg.

Sunday, September 16th, I paid a visit to the Goldstream Kennels, and was very much surprised to hear of the intended departure from Winnipeg in the very near future of those well known Cocker Fanciers, Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Murray.

Mrs. Murray has been in very poor health for some considerable time and doctors have recommended a complete change and rest, therefore breeding operations at these kennels will close for some considerable time. On my arrival at the kennels I was greeted by the well known black cocker bitch, Ch. Lady Betty, who, though showing her age, still keeps on wonderful bloom. This female holds rather a unique record as far as cockers are concerned, she being the dam of the following champions of record carrying the Goldstream prefix, Ch. Goldstream Robin Hood, By Dandy of Major Oak; Ch. Goldstream Slipper, by Farewells Man O' War; Ch. Goldstream Pollyanna, by Farewells Contender; Ch. Goldstream Diplomat, by Ch. Roman's Foxy Box; Ch. Goldstream Ambassador, by Ch. Matlock Durbar.

Ch. Goldstream Ambassador has proved himself to be one of the outstanding cockers in the Dominion, he was one of the three dogs tied in points for the cup presented by His Excellency Lord Willingdon, the governor general of Canada, for the best Canadian dog or bitch, and during 1927 he completed his championship undefeated. Placed best dog in show, all breeds, on four different shows, truly an achievement for cocker breeders to strive for.

I had the pleasure of looking him over, and as with other breeds I consider it a pleasure at any time to look over a real good specimen of any breed. I understand Ambassador will be leaving soon to try and capture an American championship. My good luck goes with him.

Other well known dogs at these kennels are the schnauzer's of Mr. A. W. McLimont, the president and general manager of the Winnipeg Electric Railway, and includes the following: Ch. Harold Von Egelsee (Imp.); Ch. Gretchen Von Kingsway (Imp.). Harold lacks only three points of his Int. Championship.

I understand that most of the dogs from these kennels will be disposed of and the kennels closed for the time being, and I sincerely hope that the change and rest will have the desired effect of restoring Mrs. Murray to real good health and strength again in the very near future.

Bellhaven Wishaw Collie Kennels of Winnipeg, owned by Mr. and Mrs. J. Stokes, whose dogs have been very much in the limelight in recent years. A recent visit found the genial owner enthusing over six lovely puppies, two male and four females, three tri-colors and three sable and whites. A very promising family who claim for their sire Int. Ch. Wishaw Reliable (Imp.), one of the finest collies alive and owned by Mrs. Dreer of the Anahassitt Collie Kennels, Rosemount, Pa.

The dam, a home-bred Bellhaven Wishaw Sweet Memory—Sire Ch. Denny Darzle ex. Wishaw Rose, has done quite a lot of winning during her short career: Reserve winners, Chicago; Winners, Minneapolis, and many reserve winners at Canadian shows.

Amongst others looked over was Wishaw Rose (Imp.), beginning to age but a very typical collie, which for blood lines alone cannot be beat. Included in her pedigree are such famous Old Country champions as Ch. Wishaw Victor, Ch. Wishaw Nora, Ch. Wishaw Lu Lu.

Bellhaven Wishaw Defender (65206) a litter brother to Sweet Memory, is a nice stamp of collie and when in full bloom will trouble the best of them.

Amongst the recent sales from the kennels was a puppy by Ch. Wishaw Reliable, and from all accounts it is going to make a name for itself.

Ch. Lord Clyde, a very special favorite at the Bellhaven Kennels, was looking very fresh, carrying a wonderful coat, although now getting into the veterans stage managed the last time out to annex the Canadian Kennel Club Trophy for best Canadian-bred under Judge Jimmie Sullivan.

The dogs were all looking well and in the best of condition, the credit for which must be given to Mrs. Stokes who just loves to work for her dogs.

NOVA SCOTIA KENNEL CLUB SHOW

For the sixth time in as many years Halifax Kennel Club held its dog show. The venue was the Armouries again, although it had been mentioned that there was a possibility of this year's show being held in conjunction with the Halifax Exhibition, and that is just a little something that may yet come to pass.

The judging time-table arrangement left the visitors free to take in the sights and do their shopping daily as no judging was done before 3 o'clock p.m. during the four days of the show. Mr. Chas. G. Hopton, New York, occupied the "Woolsack," and had lots of time to sort out the entry of 253 dogs that came before him, and found the far-travelled Kippax Jock, Mr. Reg. P. Sparkes' (Toronto) Bulldog as his choice for best dog in show any breed, and it will be recalled that this good bulldog had won similar honors under Judge Mr. Walter H. Reeves, immediately before setting out for Halifax, and it is history now that Kippax Jock came within easy reaching distance of repeating at the Canadian National Exhibition, making it appear that "great minds think alike" in a judging ring. Best opposite sex went to Mr. Ed. Ward's (Clarkson, Ont.) nifty little Scottie bitch Bassetlaw Roseria, recently brought over from England, and a most typical specimen of the "Die Hard" breed.

Something unusual happened when Mrs. Hilda M. Ridder's (New York City) Boston Terrier Ch. O' Glo's Midgie won the Canadian Kennel Club Trophy for best Canadian-bred. No doubt Mrs. Ridder is the only fancier in New York holding such a distinguished prize, and as we noticed Mrs. Ridder sporting a similar cup after the London Canine Association Show she will soon have a collection of them.

Further particulars of the Halifax fixture will in all probability feature our Maritime Provinces contributor's next article; we will content ourselves with what we have already written. Following are the awards.

NEW BRUNSWICK KENNEL CLUB SHOW

This was the twentieth annual fixture of the above club, and was held in conjunction with Saint John Exhibition on September 3 to 6 on the Fair Grounds. Mr. Chas. H. Davis, of Bakerstown, Pa., judged the 257 dogs that were benched, and from reports to hand the well versed "Charlie" will be welcome back again when the proper time arrives for the club to extend their invitation. As at Halifax, the judging schedule allowed the exhibitors to take in the Fair in the forenoons of each day.

Mr. Davis found Mr. Walter Bartletts Ridgeway Jenny Lind, a Pointer bitch bred by that noted breeder Mr. Keltie Wilson, St. John, as his best specimen in the show, the win earning the handsome trophy set apart for that distinguished honor, and with the trophy for best in show. She also won the Canadian Kennel Club Trophy for best Canadian-bred. Best of opposite sex was won by the Montreal Pomeranian Stormlight of Pomona (from marked catalogue) owned by Madame D. Beland, Pointe Clare, P.Q. We are advised by Madame that this is incorrect, and that the Pom winning reserve best in show was her Storm King of Dara instead. No doubt Madame is correct, and we will have the matter verified directly. It would be "the perfect show" where there would be 100% correct returns made.

We have noticed that Mrs. H. M. Ridder's (New York City) Canadian-bred Boston Terrier Ch. Oglo's Midgie won for Best of Breed here, which leads us to believe that with the wins made at Halifax, St. John and the two London shows Ch. Oglo's Midgie has now entered the ranks of International Champions.

NOVA SCOTIA NOTES

By Provincial Contributing Editor, MRS. HELEN DOHERTY, Nova Scotia.

The only two shows to be held in the Maritime Provinces this year, are now things of the past. The Halifax annual event was this year held on August 28th, 29th, 30th, and 31st, several weeks earlier than usual, so that it might run simultaneously with the Provincial Exhibition, although as usual it was staged in the Armouries and not on the fair grounds. The weather man, for the most part, was not kind, and both dogs and exhibitors found the heat trying.

In addition to the customary faces noted around the ring side were some new ones in out of town exhibitors. Mrs. Hilda Ridder came all the way from Lake St. George with her exceptionally good Boston terrier bitch, the American Champion "O Glo's Midgie," which justified the faith of her owner by taking best of breed, and eventually the Canadian Kennel Club cup for the best Canadian bred dog or bitch in the show. Madame Beland from Pointe Claire, P. Q., showed a good black Pomeranian "Stormlight of Pomona," and an orange bitch, "Ofleda Goldacre," going respectively winning dog and bitch, the dog getting the special for best of breed. Mrs. Margeson, of Kentville, was on hand with a beautiful team of Pekingese. A home bred, eight-months-old, from the Cedarcrest Kennels, was the winning bitch, but it was difficult to follow the placing of the dogs, when Mrs. A. T. Heineman's "Puff Ball of Kyratown" was given winners, and best of breed over the more typical red "Pagan Prince of Cedarcrest." "Bobby" Lasky, of Saint John, was conspicuous by his absence, and his familiar figure was much missed. M. B. Zwicker, of Marlboro Kennels, brought out several promising youngsters, and great was the surprise around the ringside when "Tuenoff of Marlboro," making his debut, was placed over the English winning bitch "Nona of Shay." "Nona" completed her championship on the day, however, although handicapped by lack of condition, owing to recent maternal duties. Marlboro Kennels has captured the cup for best stud dog and one of get with "Champion Korol" and "Turgenoff of Marlboro." Mrs. Margeson, with her Pekes, although not so evenly matched as the wolfhounds, won the team class. Many though these two awards might have been reversed.

Miss O'Brien carried the day in Seelyhams with "Champion May Queen," shown in splendid form, and others thought she should have placed higher in the Specials.

The bulldogs turned out in force as there were nineteen benched, and the best breed class saw four real ones on the block. "Kippax Jock" got the award, with Reginald Rupert's "Nova Rockalaunt" taking reserve winners dog, and the recently imported "Nova Morovian Miss Moffitt" being winning bitch.

In the final line up for best show five dogs were left in the ring, forming an exceptionally strong and interesting class, and there was much speculation around the ringside as to the eventual placing, which turned out to be as follows: the English bulldog "Kippax Jock" first in show —the Scottie bitch best of opposite sex, the Boston terrier bitch "Champion O Glo's Midgie" being put in third place, the Irish wolfhound "Nova Felixstowe Kilmena" fourth, and the Springer Spaniel "Trent Valley Firelight" finishing fifth. So ended the sixth annual show of the Nova Scotia Kennel Club.

With only a few days between, many of the exhibitors went on to the New Brunswick Kennel Club Show, held in Saint John, September 3rd, 4th, 5th, and 6th, with Charles H. Davis, of Bakerstown, Pa., officiating. This turned out to be, we believe, the largest show ever held by this club, and it was run along the usual lines of efficiency which are now taken as a matter of course.

On entering the show building one noticed the number of decorated benches, each and every one worthy of praise. The prize offered by the club for the most attractive exhibit was won by Mrs. B. M. Frost, whose entry of seven Boston Terriers was most effectively benched on red blankets and shown against a background of red and white. This entry was remarkable for its uniform quality, and it is doubtful if any other one kennel in America houses seven such good specimens. Mrs. Ridder's "Champion O Flo's Midgie" again went best of breed, but it was no easy win over the reserve winners bitch, Mrs. Frost's eight-months'-old "Lady Wynnewood," and with a bit more time on her this little lady is going to step right up to the front of Boston Terriers.

This year was the first to see any number of Shepherd dogs benched in Saint John. E. R. Souery's "Fritz of Berlin" going right through his classes to best of breed.

The winner of the sporting group was the Pointer bitch "Ridgeway Jenny Lind," which eventually went best in show, taking on the way the Canadian Kennel Club's Cup for best Canadian bred dog or bitch, the special for best limit dog or bitch, and the Sweepstakes. An interesting fact is that this is the third generation of this particular Pointer family to be awarded the topmost honor, the grand-dam "Jenny Lind," and the dam, Keltie Wilson's well known "Ridgeway Gamefeather," all having been placed best in show all breeds. It is, further, an illustration of my own theory that if you want to breed good dogs you must look for quality in your brood matrons even more than in your stud dog.

The Terrier Variety went to Ralph Preston's wire "Champion Epping Edict," and Mrs. Harry Short's Peke. "Rothsay Pee Chee" headed the Toy division. The Boston Terrier "Champion O Glo's Midgie" was placed best in the non-sporting group, and we have since learned that she headed her breed at London show, placing over the Canadian National winners of the week before, again being awarded the Canadian Kennel Club Cup for best Canadian bred, and was first in the non-sporting group, thus completing her Canadian championship at these three shows, without a defeat. The special for best entry from Nova Scotia went to the English bull bitch, "Nova Morovian Miss Muffit." Best of opposite sex to the Pointer was found in Madam Beland's Pom. "Stormlight of Pomona."

Mr. Davie gave general satisfaction and his awards were well received. After the presentation of cups on Thursday night the largest and best ever of the N.B.K.C. shows was brought to a close, and exhibitors and exhibited dispersed until another year shall have rolled around to bring with it the next reunion of all those who hold close to their hearts dogs and dog interests.

HAMILTON KENNEL CLUB SHOW

Many splendid shows have been held in Hamilton in the past, and the 1928 fixture falls to be added to the list. For a well managed show held in a very comfortable and attractive building, judged by breeder judges the show was voted a success generally. 212 dogs were benched and a much larger entry had been arranged for, and if it had been on hand could have been cared for handily. The management is now wondering if it will be better to arrange for their 1929 show after the Canadian National Exhibition instead of before. And any show held at Hamlton offering a premium list carrying an appeal as to prizes and judges should always be successful.

Here as at the Canadian National Exhibition a Canadian-bred dog Benson Dark Horse, a wire haired Fox Terrier, bred and owned by Tom Grimshaw (Newtonbrook, Ont.) won the Trophy for Best Dog in show, all breeds, and also the Canadian Kennel Club Trophy for best Canadian-bred. Best Toy in show was Mrs. B. Foster's (Mimico Beach, Ont.) Wong Ti of Walmsley, recently out from England and on the day in splendid coat and condition. With this win went the Ward Trophy donated by Mr. Ted Ward.

Mr. Charles E. Davey, the Club's hustling president retains the unfailing support of a band of willing workers who were in evidence throughout the show, every one with an allocated task, and every one responsible for his share of the work. The premium list and catalogue were particularly flattering to the Secretary, Mr. Arthur Fairbanks, and were amongst the first to be published for any Club in Canada this year. Advertising locally was undoubtedly overlooked, possibly the cost prohibiting such publicity, but fanciers visiting the show found it hard to locate the building, which building by the way was in the heart of the city and easily reached from anywhere. The Hamilton Kennel Club will be well advised to arrange for the Alexandra Academy for next years show.

AT STUD

Int. Gr. Champion Klodo von Boxberg,

SCH. H.

Acknowledged by discriminating fanciers to be the greatest sire of the breed offered at public stud.

Following in the footsteps of his famous sire, Erich von Grafenwerth, the following comments justify these claims:

At the Specialty Show in Septemper, 1928, the eminent authority, Dr. Roesbeck, said: "Klodo, a dog of model proportions of height to length, and in fact, so good in proportion as to rarely find an equal."

Dr. Werner Funk of Hannover writes, "The children of Klodo have made a remarkable record on the show bench. He is acknowledged to be the best sire today."

Sickinger, in his comment on the last Sieger Show, writes that "Int. Sieger Klodo von Boxberg was represented with seven entries. All seven received the "S-G" awards, which would prove that Klodo transmits his qualities at a very pleasing average. The so-called average dogs are the most desirable and valuable."

His get are all dogs of fine disposition. He has the happy faculty of transmitting his own beautiful proportions. He is therefore offered at stud, to approved bitches only, at a fee of $100, to be booked in advance, and fee paid at time of service. One return service to the same bitch will be allowed if matings are non-productive. Animals are received at owner's risk, but will be handled and housed with every care and attention.

"As far as I am concerned, R-M DOG FOODS ARE giving good results in my kennels. I have 18 Eskimo dogs at present. R-M Dog Foods agree with them all, grown dogs and puppies alike. I have had no cow-hocked youngsters in the kennel since using R-M products. What a row they make at feeding time. Every morsel of food is eagerly eaten up." EUGENE F. KERNAN, Nominingue, P.Q.

"Some time ago a friend suggested the use of R-M Dog Biscuits, and I have been feeding them ever since. I am delighted with the results, and cannot speak too highly of their use as a food, in fact prefer them to any other biscuit. The dogs will eat them any time, and will actually leave meat or bones for their R-M." CHARLES ARNOLD STONE, Forest Kennels, Toronto.

Notes From Alberta

By Provincial Contributing Editor, R. S. TYRRELL, Bottrel, Alta.

APPROPRIATELY enough, these notes are being written on a case of Spratt's Dog Biscuits in the office at the Dog Show Building, Victoria Park, Calgary, where the writer has been installed with a large number of Russian Wolfhounds, Greyhounds and Whippets, since the Lethbridge point show. The management of the Calgary Exhibition have very kindly lent their support to the Dog Racing Game in Canada by allowing the training of the hounds on the regular track and permitting the first Mechanical Rabbit Dog Racing Meets in Canada to be held on their famous course.

The hounds most of whom have regularly hunted live jack rabbits and coyotes have adapted themselves to the mechanical device very rapidly, the machine, an original invention of the writer, has proven itself most successful, allowing for its limitation. In some ways it has advantages over the electrical device. Its original cost is comparatively small and it is very easily transported from one point to another. Its chief disadvantage is that the operator has not as complete control of the rabbit as the electrically driven one, but this may be overcome in time by experience. Dogs have been entered from Lethbridge, Brooks, Bottrell and Calgary and eight races with two finals will be run. It is with great pleasure that I am able to state that some of the dog's chief supporters are race horse owners. Lethbridge, where the Southern Alberta Kennel Club stage their show proved itself to be a town that the whole of Western Canada can well take pride in. It is not so very many years ago since the site of this town was bald prairie. Now its spacious streets are lined with beautiful shade trees, there is a stretch of grass lawn between the road and the sidewalks, a lovely little park occupies the centre, while outside is an artificial lake where boating and swimming are indulged in. Further out still, in fact so far out are the Exhibition Grounds that Bill Lions and myself, riding on a dray with a number of Calgary dogs wondered if the driver was transporting us back to the city, but we are getting ahead of the tale. When the writer started out from Bottrel by motor truck with Cossack Michael and Tanoza, the roads, owing to an incessant rain the night before, were in a most terrible and dangerous condition. Even with the greatest precaution and only travelling at about five miles per hour the car nearly went off the road on several occasions. Once within a foot of going over a five hundred foot drop into the Dog Pound river. I was glad the dogs were loose and not crated. On arrival at the station at Calgary there was some bother with the officials because the dogs were on chains and not crated and they would not at this point allow me the reduced rates for their return from the show. Considering that it was costing about four times as much to take the two dogs to the show as it was for myself this seemed quite unreasonable and vigorous action should be taken by the Canadian Kennel Club to get this matter of express rates on dogs adjusted. Why is it that a person can take a mongrel by baggage for thirty cents, while it costs a man with a really good dog $10.00 for the same transportation. There was quite a gathering at the station, Mrs. Daintey, Miss A. R. Clarke, Mr. F. H. Greenhill, Bill Lions and the writer. With us were Collies, Smooth and Wire Fox Terriers, Curly Coated Retrievers, Whippets, Alsatian, Russian Wolfhounds, etc. We arrived at the coal town in the "wee sma" hours. There was not the slightest doubt that we were in a real dog town. The express officials took a keen and almost proffessional interest in our charges and were kindness itself to our charges and selves.

After a cup of coffee Bill and I started forth to find Mr. Williams, President of the Southern Club.

In view of the early hour we are not ashamed to state that we aroused him from his bed and he most pleasantly talked dog in his night attire, till it was about time to prepare for the show.

We must take off our hats to Mrs. Holberton for the very efficient way in which she executed her duties of Secretary. She was very ably assisted by Judge Twaites as ring steward, in fact, Mr. Twaites was indispensable.

There was a very pleasant outdoor judging ring and but for an unfortunate shower which forced a very large class of Alsatians to be judged in the end of a cattle barn greatly handicapping the judges whose awards seemed generally to give almost complete satisfaction. Almost all the Lethbridge fanciers are real sportsmen and though most of the Calgary dogs made things rather warm, no complaints were heard from the local men. It was impossible for Bill and I to find a room in any hotel and my old friend Tommy Owens of the Victoria Kennels very kindly extended us his hospitality.

This was greatly enjoyed, especially as I was able to see his young Irish Wolfhounds, and also some really outstanding Greyhounds.

Hop a Long and Queen have since been entered in the Calgary races and there was not the slightest doubt that "Hop" was the fastest Greyhound on the track. On the second days practice he had the great misfortune to run on a broken glass bottle in the sawdust or the track, and though horribly cut finished second most gamely. A Vet was immediately on the spot and it is with great pleasure that I am able to state the hound has every chance of a complete recovery.

The Alberta Kennel Club, or rather we understand the ladies connected, are thinking of staging a winter point show.

There is a possibility that in the cooler weather a very large entry will be secured, a general meeting will be held shortly and full particulars will then be in order.

THEY'RE OFF.
DOG RACING IN CANADA.

Well, the dog races referred to in Mr. Tyrrell's Alberta notes recently, have actually materialized. On September 22nd, a card of eight races were run off at Victoria Park, Calgary, under the auspices of the Alberta Dog Racing Association. The races were considered strictly amateur, nevertheless an enthusiastic crowd was drawn to the venue in search of excitement and sport, and from the interest shown, dog racing is in for a flying start in Alberta.

The invention of Mr. Tyrell, a wire flashed the rabbit length of the course from a series of pulleys and wheels fastened to a jacked-up automobile, which furnished the power, and everything worked towards a smooth afternoon's sport.

The distance was 240 yards, and amazingly fast times were registered by all the breeds participating in the several races. As, for instance, the Russian Wolfhound "Cassey," owned by Mr. Tyrell, who covered the 240 yards in 13 seconds flat. Surely, if anyone likes speed from anything animate, this rate should be satisfying.

Mr. Tyrell and his associates are enthused over the sport, because of its wonderful success in Great Britain, and points out the circumstance of 5,000,000 people attending the dog racing meetings held in England during 1927.

LARGE FAMILIES.

Peggy MacDonald (C.K.C.S.B. 69784) is a Boston Terrier Matron that has no respect for birth control, and as her name would imply just keeps "pegging along" in an attempt to flood the Boston Terrier market. Peggy is a daughter of Tompkins Government Control and on that side of the house is strong in the "Ingram" blood made famous by the late Mrs. W. C. Ingram, Toronto.

When mated to that consistent little winner Mike Murphy of Hanford (C.K.C.S.B. 37334) owned by Mr. H. W. Jackson, Toronto, a particularly well bred Boston, Peggy MacDonald just whelped a litter of NINE, 5 dogs and 4 females, and if you can imagine nine of 'em looking to Peggy for their daily bread you will readily forgive her for overlooking a couple of them, however, 4 dogs and 3 females are alive, well and hearty, and barring accidents they will be raised successfully. Peggy's last litter was a litter of 7 and they are all alive and very much so. If there is any shortage of Boston Terrier puppies we trust that no one will seek to place the blame at Peggy MacDonald's door. The little mother is owned by Wm. D. MacDonald of New Toronto.

ve believe that we could have prize ioney guaranteed for each breed, by omeone interested in that breed. There would probably be about wenty breeds that could be expected o give a good entry. We surely ould find twenty men in this Province that would guarantee the prize money. The prizes could be arranged according to the amount guaranteed. Thus if the Cocker fanciers guaranteed $100.00 and the Alsatianists guaranteed $200.00, the prizes would be in accordance with these amounts, and stated over each class. Guaranteeing the prize money does not necessarily mean having to pay it, but in case of deficit, making up this amount. If there were half a dozen Cocker fanciers guaranteeing the prizes, and there was a deficit of say $18.00, it would cost each but $3.00. Each Cocker man could see that there were enough entries in each class of this breed to cover the prize money. The prizes could be, say, about $5.00 for 1st, $3.00 for 2nd, a donated prize for 3rd, and a ribbon for 4th. At least four entries to be made or the second prize would become first prize, and third would become second, and so on, and first would be declared void. The parties guaranteeing the prize money would see that the classes were filled up. Now Saskatchewan this is all merely a suggestion. What do you say about it? Let us hear from you either directly or through this page. We should have a five pointer without difficulty early next spring, but we must get busy without delay. Now all together!

Saskatoon Dogdom was highly pleased to welcome Mr. "Jack" Meadows of Vancouver during the past month. He had an opportunity to see many of the dogs in this city, and we only hope that he saw some that were not hard to look upon. It might be a good move to ask "Jack" to get on the soap box and tell the world what he saw on his trip through the Prairies.

Robt. Hogg of Punnichy reports the arrival of a classy bunch of Airedale puppies. If they are of Bob's usual quality you may count on meeting them again.

Dr. A. P. Salter of Saskatoon arrived home from the north with a suspicious bundle under his arm. when it was unwrapped it turned out to be one of the nicest little Springers you could wish to look at. He came from the Kennel of Mr. Willox of Prince Albert, and is a credit to that Kennel.

(Editor's Note: What about it, Mr. Meadows? We will find a couple of pages to take care of your offering.)
