HOTWEED

Imported Wire Haired Fox Terrier

Son of

LIGHTS O' LOOMLAND

At Stud—Fee $35.00

HOTWEED was imported by our own great terrier specialist, Mr. Geo. Ward, to whose super talents and sterling qualities (a true gentleman) I doff my hat. Mr. Ward showed Hotweed at Madison Square Show under the great English Judge, Walter Glynn, February last, then a ten months' puppy and he was a winner and the subject of special mention, by that terrier authority. Hotweed is possessed of a great long chiselled head of exceptional length and strength of foreface, clean flat skull and cheek, a head of perfect balance, topped with a lovely ear, small dark eyes and perfect terrier expression, long reachy bow neck, perfectly laid shoulders, and front, excels in tremendous bone, depth of brisket and spring of rib, short level back with a wonderful set on of stern grand quarters, full harsh coat, a terrier of superb quality and style, a veritable blue blooded knight in deportment, the most handsome tan and hound marked wire ever benched in Canada. Hotweed is a striking terrier, who has abundance of everything to give away, and should prove a pillar at Stud, transmitting his beautiful color, substance, and quality to his offspring. In breeding, appended extended pedigree speaks for itself. Champion upon champion, four crosses of Barrington Bridegroom and the great winner, Lights O' Loomland, his Dam.

I only want a few quality matrons to him. He is possibly Canada's outstanding prospect to sire champions.

Breed—Wire Fox Terrier Sex—Dog

Date of Birth—April 14, 1929 Color—Hound Marked

Kennel Name—"Bob."

Meeting of the Board of Directors of the Canadian Kennel Club, Incorporated

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Directors of the Canadian Kennel Club, Inc., was held at the Club's Offices, 25 Melinda Street, Toronto, on Thursday evening, Sept. 18th, 1930, at 8 o'clock.

The President, Lt. Col. G. F. McFarland, presided.

Directors present were: Brig.-Gen. C. M. Nelles, Capt. H. Dudley-Waters, Col. J. N. MacRae, W. H. Reeves, H. Clayton, Reg. P. Sparkes and V. G. Perry.

The Secretary reported having received acknowledgments of messages of condolence sent to the families of late members, F. E. Trautman, Winnipeg, and James Marsden, Toronto. That Director Major Ward Wright was in the hospital ill. That Director John W. Bruce was in Western Canada on business. That a letter of appreciation had been received from Miss H. Cluff, Clearbrook, Caledon, Ont., for having won the Canadian Kennel Club, Inc., Trophy for best Canadian-bred at the Canadian National Exhibition Dog Show and that he had received a letter of thanks and appreciation from Wilfrid Heighington, M. P.P., for the desk set presented to him by the Board of Directors.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read, and it was regularly moved, seconded and carried; That the minutes, as read, be adopted.

A report submitted by the British Columbia Provincial Committee was considered. The report contained the following recommendation:

"That, Norman McConnell be denied the privileges of the Canadian Kennel Club for a period of one year from this date."

It was regularly moved, seconded and carried:

"That the recommendation of the British Columbia Provincial Committee be endorsed."

A letter was read from the Live Stock Records Office which concerned an application for registration of a Bulldog and it was agreed to leave the matter in the hands of the Secretary.

The Secretary advised that he had not been able to secure the co-operation of Mrs. M. Broomfield in connection with the registration of a Pekingese dog which had been sold by Mrs. Broomfield to a client in the United States and it was regularly moved, seconded and carried:

"That, Mrs. M. Broomfield be denied the privileges of the Canadian Kennel Club until she complies with the requirements of the Registrar."

The Secretary submitted a report on behalf of the sub-committee appointed to consider the matter of the advisability of adding to the editorial staff of Kennel and Bench. The following recommendation was contained in the report:

"That, in view of conditions prevailing, that no action be taken at this time" was on motion declared endorsed.

The Secretary reported the findings of Magistrate Hopewell in the Cassina-Letourneau case and it was regularly moved, seconded and carried:

"That, in view of the conviction of Jas. Cassina, Toronto, and G. E. Letourneau, Quebec," that both men be disqualified for life."

The Secretary advised that Mrs. M. Peacock, Toronto, having explained certain matters to him and that he had reported same to the Registrar, who, in turn, had suggested that the registration of individuals born February 3rd, 1924, out of "Lady Topsy" (27618) by "Bonar Boy" (32875) be refused, and that Mrs. Peacock be denied the privilege of making further registrations until such time as she furnished satisfactory proof that she was keeping an accurate private record of her breeding operations, and it was regularly moved, seconded and carried:

"That, the suggestion as outlined by the Live Stock Records Office be carried out."

The Secretary submitted the report of the business coming before a meeting of dog fanciers held in Winnipeg on August 22nd. The report contained discussion and comment on the recommendations of the Sub-Committee (as published on page 4, June issue of Kennel and Bench) and the Secretary was instructed to advise R. C. Henderson, Winnipeg, who had submitted the report, that the recommendations of the Special Committee were only suggestions that would come before the Annual General Meeting in the regular manner.

The report of the Sub-Committee appointed to deal with the protest filed by Messrs. J. C. Woodend and Donald E. McLean against the election of George Kynoch as Director for Manitoba was presented by the President in the absence of E. Ward Wright, who is seriously ill. The Sub-Committee reported that in their opinion the election of Mr. Kynoch as Director for 1930 was null and void, but that by the provisions of Article 6, Section 4, of the Constitution, Mr. Kynoch, who was regularly elected Director for Manitoba for 1929, continues automatically in office until his successor has been regularly elected.

On motion regularly moved, seconded and carried, the report of the Sub-Committee was endorsed.

"PRINCE'S OBITUARY."

One of our Collie fanciers who had read "Prince's Obituary" on page 8 of our September issue, has written us concerning "Prince" having been known as an English collie, and asking if this is the proper name of the breed.

The best way to answer our correspondent is to show him a picture of "Prince," whose heart was of gold.

PRINCE—OF THE GOLDEN HEART

Collies can hardly claim England as the land of their origin, as nothing is definitely known as to the origin of the breed, historians have recorded that the rough-coated Collie was known to exist in the Highlands of Scotland for many centuries back, and hence the oft repeated reference "The Scotch Collie." The smooth-coated variety is said to be a product of the Scottish Lowlands with Lowland coat, and Lowland ways.

Be that as it may, "Prince" to his master, Gail Borden Kelly, was an English Collie, and not a Scotch one. Since "Prince" is now dead it will matter but little to him now. We are satisfied that he was faithful to his friends, so much so that his obituary was written whilst he was still alive, and printed immediately after he had died, and no more fitting tribute can be paid to any dog by any master than the testimony of Mr. Kelly that "Prince" was a gentleman truly, endowed with intelligence and much love, and that his heart was gold.

Perhaps owners of other dogs will recall some faithful old dog who has passed onwards and will now remember that they, too, could have said as much for their old "Towser" as Mr. Kelly has said for "Prince."

The writer can easily remember quite a few of his own, perhaps Mr. Kelly's tribute fits perfectly those of our dogs who have passed on to their "happy hunting grounds."

TERRIERS AT THE CANADIAN NATIONAL.

(By the Judge, Capt. H. Dudley-Waters, M.C.)

Let me first express my pleasure in seeing a marked improvement in the quality in most of the breeds, taken as a whole, the bitches being better than the dogs, this, however, makes the prospects for the future very good, also the young stuff was very interesting, especially in the Wire-haired Fox Terriers and Scotties, the puppy classes brought a bunch of real smart puppies together with very little to separate them.

In a couple of cases I had, perhaps, to disappoint the "Ringside Judges" by placing lower, what to them may have looked like the winner, in one case on account of a marked weakness in the hindquarters and in another a very faulty mouth, this, I suppose, might easily have been overlooked by a fair St. Bernard judge, or a judge who considers the other end of the lead, but no Terrier judge could possibly overlook this glaring fault, of course, I am not blaming the ringsider, as this fault could only be discovered by a close inspection.

I would like to draw the attention of our exhibitors to the way in which the dogs are Put down by their respective owners, some were very poorly trimmed, some were quite bare in patches, this being quite common on the underside of the neck and down the shoulders. They must try and take a lesson from the more experienced handler. I would like to draw their attention to the almost perfect condition that the dogs handled by Len Brumby were put down in.

I was very much surprised to find that out of all the Bull Terriers I only found one or two that had not had their tails lowered, it would be interesting to know whether the gay tail is becoming a common fault in the Bull Terriers.

The first breed to be paraded were the Airedales, these did not impress me greatly, being all sorts and sizes, with the exception of "Rockley Brigand," the dogs were very poor, the bitches were better. "Walnut Fashion Plate" might be shown to better advantage, seems to be too playful, a little schooling should cure this, she is a very nice bitch, only being beaten by "Clementine Gem," who went to Winners, the Best of Breed went to "Rockley Brigand" by a small margin.

Bull Terriers. Nothing until we came to the open class, which was fought out by "Roscolyn Auryesis" "White Corsiar" and "Gladiators Roman Flame" placed in this order, a good battle, but good mouths count.

"Albion Patch" topped "Albion Admiration" in the bitches, but went down to "Albion Victor" for Best of Breed, "A.V." being in nice bloom and well put down whilst "A.P." carried too much fat and was quite listless. I can quite imagine the placing being reversed under other circumstances.

Smooth Fox Terriers. "Fern's Result," a nice sort of dog, but had to give way to "Gay Note," who has more quality. Nothing of importance in bitches except "Ch. Delesmere Ducie" and "Awberg Nymph of Monaghan," not much dividing them. "Gay Note" went Best of Breed on general condition.

Wire Haired Fox Terriers. A very nice lot indeed, the puppies will, no doubt, be heard from at a later date, the Canadian-bred class brought out a strong bunch with "Vanity Bantam" topping the lot. V.B., I feel sure, will improve and will do credit to his owner. "West Hill I am Blue," a good sort of Terrier but not at all pleasing in marking, this seems a pity. In the limit class "Stormy Boy" had no trouble in disposing of "Ginger Snap," with "Vanity Bantam" a very close third. In the open class "Ch. Iveshead Scamp" won after a hard struggle with "Stormy Boy" and had nothing to spare. Had "S.B." had the hard labor put on him and the splendid final grooming of "Ch. Iveshead Scamp" he might have given a better account of himself. In the bitches, "Silver Birch Bride" "Dogberry Frivolous" and "Lights O' Loomland" were outstanding and won their respective classes with ease. "Lights O'Loomland" going Best of Breed and finally to Best in Show.

Irish Terriers. A small but select lot, the winning dog, "Ch. Double Chance," losing to "Aman Gipsy Queen" for Best of Breed on quality only.

Sealyham Terriers were rather disappointing, only three bitches. "Borlick Wendy" winning.

Kerry Blues. Only one. "Glengowan," a very nice headed bitch, poor in coat and condition generally.

Cairns. "Woodthorpe Honey," a real good Cairn, none better seen in these parts to the best of my memory.

Manchesters. This breed requires the most careful consideration of its breeders, the breed being in a very bad way, something will have to be done,—enough said.

Scottish Terriers. Taken all round, a very fine lot, the only fault I had to find was the fact that there was a general tendency toward the shaggy coat and not a dense, close-fitting, harsh coat. The puppy class brought out a very nice, even lot, so little to divide them by that condition of coat, hard to decide. "Strensall Queen Bess" finally receiving the blue. "Haldon Rosebud" pressing close. Open, Dogs, "Ch. Ormsay Autocrat" Winners and Best of Breed.

Bitches brought out a few good ones such as "Walnut Baroness" "Ardmore Thistles" and "Walnut Lady Raffles" placed in this order.

Of course, with a limited space, there must be quite a few good terriers that I am obliged to leave out, but can only wish their owners the best of luck in the future, whilst judging, I happened to look into the next ring and saw a very fine bunch of Old English Sheepdogs being judged by Geo. Kynoch and was not at all surprised to find one (name not known) when I stepped in to do Best in Show. Great praise is due to the young lady owner, who, I am told, did all the preparing of this dog. I would like to express my personal appreciation.

(Editor's note: The name of the Old English Sheepdog referred to was Snowflake—see awards.)

THE CANADIAN FANCY

By WALTER H. REEVES, Belleville, Ontario.

THE month of September is well on the wane, which means that the big circuits are practically over. From the information I have gathered, I am glad to say that in spite of the somewhat serious slump in business, that all the shows were fairly well supported. Naturally some shows suffered from the business depression, entries were not as numerous, and the gates showed a little falling off, as everyone expected. The business experts, however, tell us that the worst is over, and they seem to be right. Early in September I was in the Maritimes, where the general opinion was that business had never been better. These conditions are sure to spread all over the Dominion. With so many shows judged by different judges, naturally in looking back over the shows we see a reversal of form, dogs up at one show and down at the next, but this helps to make the sport of breeding and exhibiting dogs so fascinating, we cannot all see alike, and if we did, shows would soon cease. I have had several letters referring to the reversals of form — one fancier suggesting that an all-round judge should pass an examination before being allowed to judge, and another suggesting that all the dogs should be scored. Both suggestions are worthy of notice, but I am afraid hard to follow. The all-round judge gets his examination only through experience, following shows and watching for changes. One who keeps himself in touch soon realizes that fashions change, almost as quickly as ladies' attire, and the all-round judge, and in fact the specialty judge also, has to keep himself up to date with any changes in type or size. Personally I have never been in favor of point or score judging. I have watched a number of judges trying this method, and the method has never been a success. Many years ago, when matches were much in vogue in the Old Country, George Raper and L. P. C. Astley judged a number of the matches by points and they both admitted to the writer that the results obtained were most unsatisfactory and in their opinion in the majority of matches, the wrong dog somehow got the highest number of points. To-day we often see how this point or score judging works out by watching some of the specialty judges scoring Shepherds. We must follow type and here is one of the great drawbacks of scoring dogs, one cannot compare when you place individual dogs on a platform and score them. Judging by comparison has stood the test of time, and it is the only way a judge can get his leading winners similar in type. At the last Essex and Morris Show I was able to watch the dean of the Shepherd dog fancy, Captain Max Von Stephanitz judging the wonderful entry. In practically every class the winners showed a great variance in type and another proof was given of how quickly fashions change. One of the competitors, who was the reserve grand champion of Germany the previous year, did not get in the money. The judge at one time, in fact, I believe as recently as last year, favored a big dog, but on this day he preferred a medium sized dog and size was the one consistent point that he brought out with his point or scoring judging.

At the shows during August and September it will be noted that many different breeds received the coveted honor of being placed "Best in Show," and the writer, like all admirers of the Airedale Terrier, will be pleased to see that this game and useful terrier is once more coming back into favor. Many breeds suffered during the late war, but in the opinion of the writer, none more so that the Bulldog and the Airedale Terrier. Show after show the writer attended after the war, both on the American continent and in England, looking and hoping for a "Nuthurst Doctor" or a "Kitty Royal" or a "Broadlea Squire" amongst the Bulldogs; a "Vickery Soubrette" or a "Amau Gem" in Airedales. Both breeds experienced a decided slump, the national breed came back first and at last, when many admirers of the old Waterside Terrier had almost given up hope of one of their favorites being produced good enough to go Best, several were bred and those keen fanciers, who have not swerved in their adherence, are going to reap the benefit for unmistakable signs are shown that the Airedale is going to boom.

The event of the year in Canada, "The National Kennel Club Show," which is held in conjunction with the Royal Winter Fair at Toronto is to be held on November 24th, 25th and 26th. Captain H. Dudley-Waters, the Secretary, is preparing a most tempting schedule and as this show now ranges in importance in this country to "Crufts" in England, and the New York and Madison Shows in the U.S.A., it means that the Canadian breeder and exhibitor has to be represented at this show. Personally I believe the show will receive support from all over our vast Dominion and I know that our friends avross the border are planning to be there in force. The following are the full list of judges: Stanley Halle, Airedale, Irish, Welsh and Wire-haired Fox Terriers; Robert Sedgwick, Smooth Fox Terriers and Cairns; H. T. Fleitman, Sealyham and Scottish Terriers; H. H. Stewart, Bull Terriers; J. Gans, Shepherds; Dr. Kobler, all sporting breeds; H. M. Jackson, Boston Terriers; J. Milner, Collies; Walter H. Reeves the remainder.

The whole Canadian Fancy, I know, will wish to join in extending sincere sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Dodge in the irreparable loss they have sustained in the death of their son, Marcellus Hartley Dodge, Jr., who was killed in a motor accident in France on August 28th. Hartley Dodge, Jr., was just entering on the threshold of man's estate and so much had been planned for his future by his parents. The estimable young man had much of his mother's charming personality and made friends wherever he went. It must be a very sad time just now at Giralda Farms. He was brought back on the steamship "Ile de France" and was buried on September 12th. May time, the great beater of all sorrow, deal kindly with Hartley's sorrowing parents.

F. W. Johnson, whom the writer mentioned was getting together a very select kennel of Smooth Fox Terriers at Halifax, happened to pass through St. John, N.B., and we had a most pleasant chat on Smooth Fox Terriers, past and present. The stud dog of the Kennel is "Ch. Prides Hill Resultant," a great winner across the border, and a beautifully bred terrier, being by "Sabine Redivivue," a descendant of those great terriers, Ch's "Sabine Reckoner" and "Fernie." Resultant's dam is by "Self's Reputation," who is by one of the greatest Smooths of all times, Ch. "Sabine Reformation," blood lines which should prove invaluable to the Halifax fancier in his endeavour to do his part in helping to bring the Smooths back. "Danby Mogul," who gained Winners Dogs and the special for best at Halifax and St. John, will, if all goes well, be present at the National. His sister, "Danby Mollie," who also did well at both shows, has been mated to Alf Loveridge's "Ferns Result" and as she is by Ch. "Heeley President" ex Ch. "Prides Hill Rebellion," something extra good should result. Great things are also hoped for with four extremely promising bitch puppies by "Danby Marksman" out of "Prides Hill Sapphire," a great bitch by Ch. "Prides Hill Lemome," ex Ch. "Watteau Gem."

The accounts to hand of the Canadian National Exhibition all seem to point one way, a most successful and well-managed show. Messrs. Duckett, R. H. Heppleston, F. Shawley, J. Hill, R. Tyrwhitt and A. E. Price were the principal winners in Cocker Spaniels. Springer Spaniels, for some quite unaccountable reason, were hardly representative. Collies made a nice showing and Miss Cluff's excellent Bobtail proved quite an attraction to the visitors. Terriers as usual were particularly good, Sid Perkins starting a nice sequence of wins with his "Rockleys." Vincent Perry found an extremely nice entry of his favourites, Bostons, to judge, eventually giving the special to Jas. Lane's beautiful little bitch, "Highball Miss Canada." In a big class of puppies, G. J. Lynch and W. J. Gerrue's "Bubbling All Over" was rightly placed ahead. The success of the progeny of Earl A. Brown's "Highball Just It" was a feature of the entry. The entry of Wire Fox Terriers brought out the winner of Best in Show, Mr. and Mrs. J. Kennedy's beautiful little bitch, "Lights O'Loomland." F. W. Coles, one of our oldest Bull Terrier fanciers, had a well deserved win in Open Dogs with "Roscolyn Auryesis." Sporting dogs were fairly representative and it is certainly pleasing to note the success gained by that popular breeder, C. A. Stone, whose team of Forests accounted for a goodly number of prizes. A breed far too seldom seen, the Retriever, came in for well-deserved attention by the wins of an excellent specimen in H. V. P. Lewis' "Gronwen," who gained the cup for Best Sporting dog in the show, and also the trophy offered for Best of Opposite Sex to "Lights O'Loomland." Owing to the unavoidable absence of Thos. P. Ritchie, his classes were judged by Chas. G. Hopton.

A most interesting letter has arrived from Mrs. A. A. Jullien, the owner of that good Shepherd, "Derich of Cosalta." By a slip of the pen I wrote in my review of the Shepherds at Madison that Derich's sire was "Hettel v Bodman" whereas the credit belongs to Int. Ch. "Iso v Bergholtz." Mrs. Jullien is most enthusiastic over the enjoyment her trip East gave, and the delightful and congenial fanciers she met, so much so that she wishes every day that the trip could be repeated. "Derich" is now in the care of Alf Loveridge in the quest of the necessary points to complete his championship and no doubt he will have finished before these notes appear in print. Atlantic and Pacific coast breeders are fortunate in having so well bred and typical a Shepherd as "Derich of Cosalta" available at stud.

The Haldon Scottish Terriers have certainly been well in the limelight during the circuit, not only in Ontario, but also in the United States. Dr. Batt, when he returns from England, will hear some glad news from Mrs. Batt, who very naturally is delighted at the success of the Haldon's especially the win of "Best in Show" at Ottawa with "Walnut Baroness" under so recognized an authority as Percy Roberts. By the way, rumour has it that Dr. Batt will be accompanied back from the Old Country by some additions to the kennel. Evidently these keen and genial fanciers mean to have a real team for New York next year.

W. C. C. Burns, whom I had the pleasure of meeting at the Edmonton show a couple of years ago and who shortly afterwards went still further west, out to Sidney, B.C., where he has been since the Fall of '28, writes that he is still as keen as ever about Springer Spaniels and is most enthusiastic about the climate of Sidney and also its fanciers. The Burnside affix has been carried to the top of many prize lists in B.C. and at the present time there are a number of beautiful puppies sired by "Wynne of Avondale," a son of my old favorite, Int. Ch. "Marvel of Avondale," who is, I understand, not only a wonderful dog in the field, but also gained Winners Dog at Nanaimo under Charles G. Hopton. Amongst the many good youngsters at Sidney, the dam of one litter is a sister of Int. Ch. "Adonis of Avondale" the sire being "Wynne of Avondale," the same sire is also responsible for a particularly good litter out of "Dawn of Burnside." Naturally, living in B.C., the Burnside Kennel has fallen for the charms of the English Setters and ere long one may confidently expect a good home-bred Setter winning with the renowned affex. W. C. Burns is most cosmopolitan in his doggy tastes, for he ends his most interesting letter with the following: "I would not mind owning the Wire bitch whose photograph appears in your pages." Of course he refers to

The second annual show of the Kingston Kennel Club proved an unqualified success, thanks to Charles Bowen, Colonel D. S. Tamlyn, Edward Charlton and W. M. Nickle, who all worked unceasingly to make the show the success it was. An entry of over one hundred and sixty dogs of excellent quality were judged by Bert Swann and the officials were naturally delighted at the success they achieved. This go-ahead club is run by a most sporting lot of fanciers who are ambitious to make the Kingston show one of the best shows in the Eastern Circuit and they have undoubtedly made an excellent start. Mr. Nickle gives much credit for the success of the show to the co-operation of the secretary of the Canadian Kennel Club, plus the pulling power of advertising in Kennel and Bench, and has not hesitated to so declare.

A Bulldog kennel that has come to the front by leaps and bounds is the Moston Kennel, owned by Mrs. F. W. McKeen, of Montreal, whose success in breeding has made her still more ambitious, so much so that next spring she intends moving to a place which could enable the kennel accommodation to be greatly extended. Mrs. McKeen's prefix of Moston is the one used by Sam Crabtree and there is no reason why the prefix should not be equally successful here, particularly as Mrs.. McKeen is a careful student of the most successful blood lines. Two good youngsters, a dog and a bitch, have been recently sold to Y. P. Biron, of Sherbrooke.

The Windsor Kennel Club, owing to conflicting dates in the Spring, have decided to hold their next show on Monday and Tuesday, November 3rd and 4th. These dates follow a number of specialty shows which are being held in Detroit on the 2nd, and it is hoped that some of the exhibits at these shows will cross the border and make the competition interesting at Windsor.

Owing mainly to the keen interest taken in shows by Miss V. Grant, the well-known Sealyham Terrier exhibitor, a dog show will be given in conjunction with the Port Hope Agricultural Society at Port Hope on Sept. 24. It is to be hoped that the show will prove a success, and that through this afternoon show (judging not starting until 2.30) Miss Grant may be able to start a Port Hope Kennel Club. It is really most pleasing to note the increased interest that is being shown all through Eastern Ontario, which leads one to anticipate the not distant date when shows will be held in all the important towns throughout Ontario. It only needs keen fanciers such as Miss Grant to help along and it will soon be accomplished, for the day when any sort of a cross-bred dog was bought for a companion is now a thing of the past. Dog shows have certainly done much to push the mongrel or cross-bred into the discard.

B. Hicks, of Coniston, Ontario, writes to tell me how he enjoys reading Kennel and Bench. He is evidently keenly interested in the Shepherds and recently has acquired two good bitches in whelp from North Dakota, one from A. Anson and the other from Thomas Daily. He also gives me the pleasing information that he is trying to found a kennel club in Sudbury. Any assistance that the writer can give can be counted upo by my correspondent, and I have no hesitation in stating that our "Jimmy" will also do his part.

Jimmy Booth writes to me from Moose Jaw, Sask., and telle me he comes from Glossop, and knew Tommy Lawson very well indeed, in fact, he is a pupil of Tommy's. He certainly could not have had a better teacher for the late Tommy Lawson was one of the most popular and respected handlers in the north of England. Jimmy Booth, being a pupil of Tommy's, naturally fancies Wire Fox Terriers and Whippets. The last five years he has kept nothing but Whippets, and although there is no racing around Moose Jaw, he gets plenty of fun racing his own dogs, and he can, for he has no less than sixteen Whippets. My correspondent goes on to say: "That in his opinion the reason that Whippets have not gained in popularity around Moose Jaw is the long, cold winters and the mistaken idea that the breed cannot stand the cold weather." Jimmy is certainly a booster for the Moose Jaw winters, for he goes on to say: "I find it much easier to raise Whippets here than in the Old Country, the Moose Jaw climate being ideal providing you keep your dogs moving smartly when out-of-doors, and when brought back take care that they go into warm quarters and have a good rub down. Whippets can stand the dry cold more easily than they can the damp cold weather which is usual in the north of England." He is certainly right, I have experienced it myself. Well, here's hoping that my correspondent may succeed in getting together some fanciers keen enough to help him in his endeavour to boost the sport he loves so well.

It was with very sincere regret that I heard, when attending the Canadian Kennel Club Directors' meeting in September that the reason of Major Ward Wright's absence was that he had been seriously ill. The popular Major's many friends will be glad to hear that he is progressing favorably and will join me in the wish for a very speedy recovery.

Central Canada Exhibition and Ottawa Kennel Club Shows. Although the entry at both shows might have been larger, what it lacked in numbers was amply made up in quality. Bob Ross judged the Ottawa Kennel Club Show and, needless to say, he made an excellent impression with his awards. The Central Canada Show judged by Percy Roberts and he has left a wide open door and a real welcome when he visits the Dominion again. The officials, one and all, are deserving of thanks for their courtesy to exhibitors and visitors. Ottawa has always been looked upon as one of our best managed shows, and a more courteous or better group of fanciers than the committee would be difficult to find. I cannot close these brief remarks without congratulating those responsible for the catalogue. I expect our Jimmy will have something to say about it in his notes about the show.

The Hamilton Kennel Club Show was another proof of the keenness of the members of the local club. J. Eccles, the Secretary-Treasurer, is a thoroughly up-to-date official and his efforts are backed up by a real live committee. The show date just happened to be when business was not at its best in Hamilton and through this, naturally, the gate and entries suffered a little, still a glance through the catalogue soon proved that the Shepherd judge, P. Steglick, and Alex Stewart, the all-rounder, had some excellent classes to judge.

My trip to the Maritime Provinces was thoroughly enjoyed and would have been even more so if the dates of St. John, N.B. and the C.N.E. had not clashed and owing to this, I did not have as a companion my genial friend, "Jimmy" Strachan, who had helped to make my former visit to the Maritimes so pleasant. When the train arrived at St. John, Charley Sullivan was on the platform to meet me and to him and Bobby Laskey I am deeply in debt for the time they so generously gave to make my stay in St. John so pleasant. Almost the first person to greet me, when I arrived at the show was my confrere, Freeman Lloyd, who a few days previously had been judging the Halifax show, and a real good show it was and a credit to all concerned, particularly to the very efficient secretary, A. V. Martin, now so well known in Collie circles, as usual, he received invaluable assistance from his committee. Dick Zwickes had a real field day at the show with his team of Russians, finishing up by winning "Best in Show" and also winning the Canadian Kennel Club trophy. It only needed a few hours in St.. John to know the reason why Freeman Lloyd had not gone back to New York. It was that he couldn't resist the kindly hospitality of the Maritime fanciers. In all, my experience I have never met a better lot of true sportsmen, some of them may not be blessed with too much of this world's wealth, but I found them one and all real sportsmen and fanciers, out to further the interests of the sport of breeding and showing dogs. Bob Orr, the leading Pointer man in the country, has spent close on two thousand dollars in buying his dogs, and to help the game along he gives his best puppies away, in the hope that their success will make fanciers of their owners, and believe me, Bob has to work hard for his money. Pity we have not more men like him in the fancy. Around the ringside, I met T. McCullough, who started the first kennel club in St. John, and was the manager of its first show held over thirty years ago, my late friend, Harry Lally, being the judge. Freeman Lloyd's pencil and paper were never idle, and I believed him when he said he had got enough copy during his stay to fill a book. The show and its exhibitors were a real tonic to us both. The superintendent, John A. Scott, is a real fancier. It was a pleasure to the writer to renew our acquaintance which started some years ago at Fredericton. The show building I found to be one of the best buildings in which I had ever judged, and before giving a brief resume of my classes, I would just like to mention to my Eastern friends that they are missing a real holiday if they don't take in both the Halifax and St. John shows next year. A real nice group of Pointers came in, amongst them a number of good puppies, but Bob Orr's "Lindy Flash" could not be denied when she came on the board for the Special. Bob's Pointers are not only good show specimens, but excellent performers in the field. C. C. Sullivan's "Thornhaven Iona" stood right away in English Setters, and when he is in coat and is a little heavier in flesh is a New York winner, and the pleasing part of this good Setter is that he is a real sire. Charley showed me a six months puppy that has only to live to qualify as an international champion. Some real typey Irish Setters were forward, but more attention needs to be paid to shoulders and hind quarters. "Mike Haliburton," the winners, is a little too racy for my liking and if G. B. Taylor's "Connemara Grand 3rd" had only shown better he could easily have reversed the placings, the latter might be a little longer in neck. With Cockers, J. G. Cavanaugh played a strong hand. His parti-colored bitch, "Roman's Western Beauty," is good enough for any company.

Russian Wolfhounds introduced the eventful winner of "Best in Show," Dick Zwicker's "Peteroff of Marlboro," a big sound typical hound, shown in beautiful condition. Collies saw A. V. Martin's entries well ahead. The special winner, "Mountaineer Mistress," is a real nice Collie, a little fat and shy of coat on the day. Shepherds were quite above the average. S. R. Sowerby's "Fritz of Berlin," being the best of the dogs and W. H. Murray's "Coltness Shepherdess" having the call in bitches and getting the special. As her prefix denotes, she was bred by our Canadian Kennel Club Secretary. In Smooth Fox Terriers, F. W. Johnson's "Halifax Danby Mogul," a real outstanding puppy, gained the special. Bobby Laskey's "Crown Dark Dorothy," Mrs. R. C. Vaughan's "Prides Hill Dryden," "Daisy Maid," and "Danby Molly" being the best of the ladies. "Daisy Maid" in spite of her age, could not be denied Winners. The Ormsby Kennels almost made a clean sweep in Wires, a real good team, admirably shown by Harry Armistead. W. C. Smith has in "Humbervale Cracker" and "Queen Road White Collar Lass" two nice Wires. Easily the best of the Scotties was R. B. Campbell's "Holden Cruahan," a distinctly promising puppy. Miss Alice O'Brien's new Sealyham, "St. Margaret's Serial," will go far when in coat, for he is a real contender. Mrs. Frost had a real nice team of Bostons. Miss Ora Doherty brought out a real good Bull puppy in "Son O'Dun", his nearest opponent being the typical and well-known "Guinea Gold." The special for Best in Show resulted in a real fight between the Sealyham, "St. Margaret's Serial," the Bulldog, "Son O'Dun," and the Russian, "Peteroff of Marlboro," the latter eventually winning. The Vice-president's trophy for Best of Opposite Sex going to the Ormsby Kennels' Wire-haired Fox Terrier, "Ormsby Winsome," one of the best yet produced from this famous kennel. When in real form she will go far.

Miss Stevens' select little kennel of Boston Terriers have been well to the fore at most of the Ontario shows, particularly the sons and daughters of Champion "Burglar Dee Cee," and Ch. "Million Dollar Beauty," which must have given much pleasure to this keen fancier.

TOP DOGS TO GET RECOGNITION.

When Dr. Curt Roesebeck selects his Best in Show and Best of Opposite Sex at the Sixteenth National Specialty Show of the Shepherd Dog Club of America, to be held at Belmont Park, Long Island, on October 11 and 12, under the auspices of the Long Island Shepherd Dog Club, he will also be awarding the 1930 American Sieger and Siegerin titles as recognized by the Verein fuer deutche Schaeferhunde.

Each year in its Stud Book, the Verein publishes the dogs so recognized in foreign countries including Holland, Austria and Czecho-Slovakia. In 1922 when Dr. Roesebeck first judged in this country, Champion Erich von Grafenwerth, P.H., and Champion Debora von Weimar were so recognized as American Sieger and Siegerin and appeared in the 1923 Stud Book.

Through some oversight, however, the top animals at the National Specialty Shows since that time did not receive recognition from the German club. When this matter was called to their attention this year, however, this situation was corrected and retroactive recognition has been granted for the shows from 1924 to 1929 inclusive.

"TORONTO LADY" DEAD.

Whilst running around the other Sunday we dropped in on Percy Alderson, Toronto, and for a time we could not imagine the cause of the depression that seemed to hold Mr. Alderson and his wife. Bad news has a way of getting out, however, and we soon discovered that a little funeral had just taken place, and that their old favorite bulldog, Toronto Lady (66042) had been laid to rest in the garden.

Toronto Lady had never been shown, but as a brood matron she was quite valuable, her sire, Hefty Defender, being a son of Hefty Monarch (Imp.) and her dam, Streetsville Pride, a daughter of Ch. Dauntless Dan, who was also a son of Hefty Monarch, a combination of blood that is considered desirable by bulldog fanciers trying to get the best.

WITH THE BEAGLERS.

THERE has been a lot of interest aroused in Detroit and vicinity through the activity of the Canadian National Beagle Club, who have been holding a series of preliminary field trials at Brighton, Michigan, about 40 miles from Detroit.

These trials were held in the nature of a picnic, and judging from the attendance and enthusiasm shown by those who did attend, they were a "howling" success.

In fact, the attendance was so much larger than we expected that the committee certainly had their hands full.

The first picnic held August 31st, attracted about 150 people and the two classes of 21 thirteen-inch and 13 fifteen-inch beagles, coming from Ontario, Michigan and Ohio, surely kept the gallery on their toes from nine A.M. till dark.

The judging was very ably taken care of by two of our members, John Kennedy, of Detroit, and Arthur Bourne, of Windsor, who certainly did their duty well. It was very hot and the running conditions were extremely bad due to the very dry weather.

The hounds were satisfactorily placed as follows, 13-inch Class:

1st, Jackie, owned by Bishop Bros., Lansing; 2nd, Dwan's Columbine, owned by H. F. Conzette, Detroit; 3rd, Turmay Sheikie, owned by Turmay Beagles, Windsor; 4th, Wolf Creek Joe, owned by Mr. Rogge, Toledo;

15-inch Class:

1st, Bohemia Jew, owned by Mr. Ryan, Jackson; 2nd, Egan's Snapper, Jack Egan, Pontiac; 3rd, Dwan's Eric, H. F. Conzette, Detroit; 4th, Muskogee Dianna, F. J. McLaughlin, Detroit.

The following Sunday, Sept. 7, brought out a still larger gallery, about 250 stayed until they got all wet, for it sure did rain in the afternoon. This day's running featured 2 couple Pack running and went over big with the crowd, the judging was again in the hands of the same gentlemen, Messrs. Kennedy and Bourne.

Nine 2 Couple Packs took up most of the day and brought out some very good hound work, as pack work requires very level headed hounds, well-trained for this class of work. Every pack gave a good account of themselves.

Name of Pack.	Handler
Turmay	J. Turton
Lemmon	Perce Lemmon
Doan-McDougal	Geo. Doan
Harris-Ogle	Mr. Harris
Canomich	H. C. Austin
Walridge	H. Conzette
Meado-Glo	A. E. Jackson
Dover	Mr. Dover
Bishop	B. Bishop

Results, only two places awarded in Park Stakes.

Canomich Pack, first; and Turmay Pack Stakes.

A special attraction was added through the generosity of L. G. Blunt, of Port Huron, Master of Wing Ridge Beagles, E. Peutral as Huntsman, both members of our club, who gave an exhibition of pack work by a ten couple pack.

It was certainly marvelous the way Mr. Peutral handled twenty hounds in the field at one time, always under control, and still full of hunt, it was a revelation to the man who allows his hound to run at will regardless of his commands, and set a lot of us to thinking about more intensive training for our hounds.

The Annual meeting for the payment of yearly Dues was held by the Canadian National Beagle Club, at the Norton Palmer Hotel, Windsor, Ontario, on Friday evening, September 12th, with about thirty-five members present.

The club has always made it a policy to collect the dues about September 1st and in this way it prepares the treasury for the major expenses of the year, and just before the Fall Trials. The club is in very good financial condition this year and we are now ready to put on a bigger and better trial than ever, everything is in readiness and anxiously awaiting the starting gun, with a larger entry promised than ever before.

After the regular business was transacted and several applications for membership were voted on and added to the roll the meeting was adjourned, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bourne had extended an invitation to come to their home for refreshments, and as most of the boys know just how royally this congenial couple can entertain, no one wanted to miss it, and it was very late when the last good-nights were said, and another meeting was brought to a pleasant end.

The Canadian National has always contended that these monthly meetings are one of the best reasons for the wonderful fellowship that exists within our Club and our only regret is that there are not more beaglers living nearer to our headquarters, to participate in it.

The National Kennel Club is again featuring judges that are considered the very best obtainable, and for the first time in Canada "The Tail Waggers" will be seen competing for a trophy specially being offered for "Tailwaggers," and we believe that the contest will be as interesting as it will be novel in this country.

Lovers of outdoor sport will find things to their liking if they patronize Field Trials of the Canadian National Beagle Club, which will commence at West Lorne, Ont., on October 6th, and finish on October 11th. The slogan of the club is "Always Something Better" and our observance over a number of years is that the Canadian National lives up to its claims.

After the Canadian National trials the energetic young Hamilton Beagle Club will be sending their hounds after game at Joe Mitchell's farm at Freelton, Ont., on October 24th and 25th, instead of at Bowe Park Farm, Brantford, as previously announced.

Might we respectfully suggest to the owners of dogs, other than of the sporting varieties, that they should arrange to take in one or more days at the field trials. Not only will they enjoy the out o' doors, but they will also realize—possibly for the first time—just what sporting dogs can do to make their owners the fine sportsmen that they generally are. All that is needed to fully enjoy a trial, is an open mind, a heavy sweater, protection for the feet, and an hour or two to spare—try it.

It is with regret that we learn of the death of "Buck" Sherman's (Rodney, Ont.) sterling Beagle, Ch. Blackfork Captain, following a week's illness from hemmorhage of the bowels. Ch. Blackfoot Captain had the dual essentials so dear to the heart of a Beagler. That the dog had type cannot be disputed, as it was type only that earned for him a place on the "honor roll," but it was on the field as a rare and a consistent performer that made the dead champion so popular with Beaglers everywhere. At a great many of the trials in Canada and the United States splendid victories were won on every field. And it is well known that Ch. Blackfork Captain improved with each year's work.

Mr. Sherman is not one to slow up because one of his best beagles "goes West," although the loss is undoubtedly great to the kennel, and as "Buck's" pal. But we look to the coming trials to prove that "Buck" has something in "pickle" that he will want to bring out and show the boys.

CANADIAN NATIONAL EXHIBITION SHOW

CANADA is fast running up a record in its dog show history, and the term "Young Country" seems to suffer a discount, when 1930 marks forty-two years of dog showing in connection with what is now known as the Canadian National Exhibition. The show this year was strongly similar to the shows of yesteryear in many respects, but quite unfamiliar in others, for instance, we had the same old, whitewashed building with all that it brings to mind. And to the "Old Timers" amongst us that is plenty. Out in the exercising yard are noticed a load of sand there, and recalled an enthusiastic general meeting of Canadian Kennel Club members, and remembered the late Tom de Geer reporting that he had been instrumental in getting a load of sand for the old yard, ever so many years ago.

In imagination we recalled many of the old figureheads of yesteryear, and imagined that we could see them going up and down the old stairway. "Dick" Gibson, Tom Davey, Doc Niven, Doc Mills, Donald Munro, Jim Watson, Jim Mortimer, Joe Reid, George Douglas, John Miles, Ben Lewis, Jim and Dave Lynn, Joe Russell, Billy Fraser, Tom de Geer, John Kenyon, Midge Ingram, Norman Swire, Arthur Atkinson, there they were going and coming in our imagination, and yet how real it seemed to be. Particularly at this show so many old faces seemed to be missing, many who are still living seemed to be absent this year.

Still the show goes on, more breeds and better dogs, new faces everywhere. The show superintendent of many years, Fred Jacobi, showing signs of the wear and tear of life for the first time as far as we had noticed, even Peter Herd, his assistant, was showing grey in that mass of hair that crowns his 200 lbs. avoirdupois. Hair that hitherto has been a dense black. William Aitken, of Montreal, always as light of foot as the proverbial "Irish ragman" was noticeably "slowing up," indeed life is a tragedy at best.

The old building was resplendent in its new coat of whitewash, at that it is not so bad as dog show buildings go, but we hope the fanciers took a good look at the old shack, as they may never see the old place again, the growth of the Canadian National has at last rung the death knell of one of its most ancient landmarks. Where we will gather next year is quite problematical, but that we will gather somewhere on the grounds is a certainty.

Possibly one of our most interested visitors this year was Mrs. Phyllis Robson, the editor of The Dog World, England. Mrs. Robson has promised to send Kennel and Bench the impressions of her first visit to the "big fair" and so we will wait for the story. It will be worth waiting for, and possibily it will arrive in time for this issue, the preparation of her story will be her chief diversion on the boat as she sets her compass for the Motherland. We feel tempted to give some of her expressed views here, but refrain in fairness to our visitor. We could not help noticing that Charlie Stone was sweaty and dishevelled when he was introduced to Mrs. Robson, and we also noticed that he came back wreathed in smiles, and clothed in flannels on the day after—the old sheik.

And was it hot? Oh my goodness! with every door and window open the chief exercise was to keep mopping one's brow, and keep on drinking "Honey Dew." With the exception of the bulldogs, all the other breeds seemed to take the discomfort as a matter of little concern.

It was "All Canada Year" and the dog show committee had arranged for an all-Canada slate of judges, and by the way, the judges originally selected were all directors of the Canadian Kennel Club, the heavy end of the task going to George Kynoch, Winnipeg. Capt. H. Dudley-Waters, M.C., Toronto, had the next heaviest load. Col. J. N. MacRae, Galt, the German Shepherd entry, V. G. Perry, London, Bostons, and Thos. P. Ritchie, Montreal, the Toys. At the last moment, however, Mr. Ritchie was obliged to relinquish the honor of judging, and the Toy allotment fell to Chas. G. Hopton, New York.

That the judges as a unit gave the very best that they had to offer was obvious to everybody, and their awards were well received. We do not claim that every exhibitor was perfectly satisfied, but we do repeat, that it is impossible to satisfy every exhibitor.

The veterinarians in charge of the health of the show were Dr. J. A. Campbell and H. O. Bond, and it was possible to find one of the two at any time during the entire fixture.

It was a matter of sincere regret when Ben Lewis, Jr., found it impossible to wait for the Group and Best in Show attractions, however, Mr. Lewis had agreed to appear at the New York State Fair on September 4th by special dispensation of the management at Syracuse, and of course he was obliged to keep his appointment there.

The three-day arrangement seemed to make the show pass all too quickly, and the opportunities to saunter around and chat about dogs, and the "good old days" seemed to be altogether lost. This was the only feature to suffer by the shortening of the shows duration, and no doubt on the whole, the shorter period was very welcome to the exhibitors and the dogs alike.

A feature of the show was the handing out of 10,000 copies of "The Tail Wagger," and we look forward to this institution taking Canada by storm as a result of this wholesale handing out of informative literature telling all and sundry the whole story of "The Tail Waggers" in the official organ of this great organization, which is destined to mean so much for the welfare of "Man's Best Friend" in the Dominion of Canada.

"Spratt's Patent Limited" found the feed for the dogs, and all manner of accessories for the exhibitors, bench chains, collars and leads being much in demand.

"The Dog World" magazine was quite popular, and Mrs. Robson secured many subscriptions as a result. Copies of "The Dog World" may be had from Kennel and Bench office free by sending five cents to cover the postage and wrapping, and sample copies will be available free to all parties interested by calling at Kennel and Bench stand during the National Kennel Club Show.

Every Sunday morning for your dog's sake—do this.

Every dog has his off-day. Some have more off-days than others. The quickest way to cure a doggy ailment is to give Karswood Dog Powders. But you can—and for your dog's sake you should—do better than this. Every Sunday morning give your dog a Karswood Dog Powder—regularly without fail. This is what expert Dog Breeders are advising their customers to do to keep their dogs fit and happy all the year round.

Karswood Dog Powders are equally as efficient in preventing ailments as they are in curing them. These powders contain specific nerve foods and organic salts which are not contained in the dog's ordinary food, but which are necessary to the perfect functioning of his system. Get a packet to-day, and give your dog one next Sunday morning. Mr. J. Slater, of Blackdown Stores, Deepcut, Hants, whose Alsatian Stud dog "Willowboy" is shown above, writes: "I have tried your Karswood Dog Powders with wonderful results on my Alsatians, and I advise all breeders of dogs never to be without them."

DEATH CLAIMS MARITIME FANCIER.

(A tribute—by R. B. Laskey.)

No lover of dogs and their interest will be more missed in Saint John and at the Maritime shows than our late lamented friend, Mrs. Wm. E. Bowman, who, after a short illness, passed from this life August 30. While a lover of the arts and a keen sportswoman—she had a useful knowledge and recognized the merits of many sporting breeds and terriers.

The writer's acquaintance goes back about twenty years ago, to her first successful winner, a very stylish smooth dog named John Halifax, an evenly-marked sterling terrier, who carried himself always on the alert. He was bred by the New Glasgow fancier, "Wall" Jackson, Nova Scotia's first breeder and exhibitor of smooth fox terriers.

Fifteen years ago, when Mrs. E. Alban Sturdee and her "Glencho" Irish setters gave the breed competition here, Mrs. Bowman also owned and bred some nice red setters.

Most recently Irish terriers were "the idols in her temple," and she did worship them. Among the red "Micks" successful for her at Maritime shows, were Tara Brian Boru, Tara Bejabers and Tara Judy O'Grady, the latter entered during her illness for New Brunswick Kennel Club show under Mr. Reeves. Doolan's Red Fire was thought her best stud dog and winner. He was by Ch. Wrose Red Hot ex Rose Doolan, and bred by the late W. George Gray. Red Fire won for her owner a signal victory over a good field under Charley Davis.

Mrs. Bowman's demise, we regret to learn, will mean the dispersal of her kennel of "Irishmen," a real loss to the admirers of red coats—as the owner of "Tara" terriers was going on with the breed.

The funeral, held September 2 cast a shadow over the Dog Show, attended as it was by officials, friends and fanciers of the New Brunswick Kennel Club, of which she was an active member. Among the many lovely floral tributes included those of the club and Canadian Kennel Club directors attending the show.

The Unfinished Story

JUST before the late A. V. Barnes, of Toronto, died, he lost by death his favorite Bulldog, "Dentonia Ka Lu A" (45121). A seven-year old daughter of Kilburn Tank (Imp.) ex Princess Mary Rexenia, bred by Mrs. Barnes. The Bitch had grown up in the home, and was a part of it, and obviously was the particular pal of our late comrade. Her death was felt by him as a sincere and a severe loss, and previous to his own death, he started to write her obituary. Unfortunately, he died before he finished the self-imposed task.

When the little story came into the hands of "Ye Editor," the first impulse was to finish the work so humanly commenced by Mr. Barnes, but we have decided to print the story and allow each reader who may become impressed, to draw on his imagination and complete the story in his own way.

Here it is:—

In memory of my Dear Chum "Dentonia Ka Lu A" (Lu Lu), died July 2nd, 1930. Killed by my own kindness. My dog, now six years old, an English Bulldog (female). From the time Lu Lu was a puppy, a great love sprang up between us. Greater and stronger, that love grew each day and every night, two chums would stroll around the park, then back home again — little more fun, a good supper, then into her own good Kennel and bed—a few last loving pats, a few more wags of the friendly tail in acknowledgement. True love, loyalty and faith was shown in the many licks of her tongue. Good night, my chum—have a good sleep until morning.

At three years, sickness came to my pal. Why should such a thing have happened to such a loving and faithful dumb animal?—I cannot say. However, Lu Lu became paralyzed and for more than three months, she lay there with hardly a move — patient and helpless. Sometimes her eyes would open and follow us around as we came and went — never a whimper, but the eyes seemed to say "why can't I come too?" We nursed her for over three months. We fed her with a spoon — gave her drinks from a bottle. Day and night we attended to her.

Some nights she would whimper, but whether she did so from pain or from loneliness, I cannot tell. Anyway, I would go and put my hand under her helpless head very gently, and immediately those eyes would gaze into mine with a look of perfect contentment, as much as to say "I am all right, now that you are here — my master" and sleep would again close her eyes. Other nights she would be rather more restless and many a night I have lain on the floor with her poor head resting on the palm of my hand, afraid to move almost in case my chum's sleep should be broken, and there we would both lie all through the night.

Each night Lu Lu had a clean bed — soft, so that her pain might be eased, if there was any pain, but I always thought that there could not be much pain in so helpless a little body. We got all the best Veterinaries and Medicines that we could find, even from as far as the United States. Also that noble faithful and ever true friend of all animals, the late Norman K. Swire.

At last, we were rewarded for our long period of care. One day we noticed a movement of the limbs and very soon we noticed Lu Lu actually trying to get up on her feet. Such trials would end with her falling back again quite helpless. Many times a day, we would hold her up so that her feet would be on the ground. Soon she would move her legs as if she wanted to walk all by herself. She was getting some of her strength back now, but we could easily see that she had no idea of how to walk, so we set about to teach her to do what she had already been doing for the first three years of her life. This was a job for two. My wife would hold the dog up, whilst I would move her legs backwards and forwards. The result was that after many days, Lu Lu was able to stagger along a few paces as one of us held her close to the wall, and at the end of four months, she could stand alone, but the slightest pat and down would go poor Lu Lu.

DOGS OF THE EMPIRE

A SHORT VISIT TO THE MARITIMES By FREEMAN LLOYD.

ALTHOUGH I have been running around North America for close on twenty-eight years, previously to the last week in August of this year, I had not journeyed very far eastward in Canada—down through the provinces of Quebec, New Brunswick and Nova Scotia. So as may be well imagined I saw a good deal more of the vast Dominion. Also her splendid pastures, woods and waters which seemed to be ever asking one to stop here and there for some hunting and fishing in your thrice happy and prosperous land. Without seeing the French part of the Dominion, one is apt to run away with the idea the enormous country was always British, and that no other European peoples had ever had anything to do with the building up of this monster jewel in the Crown of Empire.

As a shooting and fishing man, one's thoughts are ever running towards the sports of the field and the stream, as he travels eastward on the Canadian National Railroad system with everything so well arranged, while your journey is made more comfortable than it would be in your own limousine. A library is at your disposal, while the Canadian, English and American pictorial publications of the latest dates are there for your purpose—an entertainment I fear that was not fully accepted, for the reason there were so many other things to see as our train rushed along through the pine forests, and ran by the banks of the salmon-holding reaches of the Restigouch, where all true Americans and Canadians fish and fish again before they pack their duffle bags for the all-good anglers' paradise beyond the big and uncharted river over there.

Somewhere in New Brunswick, east of Monckton, Robert B. Laskey, of St. John, N.B., passed through the train. It was a pleasure to again meet the Canadian Kennel Club delegate from the Maritimes, and from him was gained a great deal of information regarding the excellent duck hunting or rather shooting country we were then hurrying through. It seemed that for the flighting of ducks into those marshes there would be more shooting than "hunting." In other words, you wouldn't have to "hunt" for ducks, for the ducks would come your way. I was not surprised to learn that Chesapeake Bay dogs were very popular in those parts. But I only saw two Chesapeakes on the show benches at St. John, quite large, useful and particularly sensible appearing dogs. As show dogs of the general wildfowl retrieving dog class, the St. John Chesapeakes were not of the exhibition quality of the very good Irish water spaniels exhibited by the Idyl Wyld Kennels of that city.

In due course the Ocean Limited arrived at Halifax, and soon everything was snug and comfortable at the Queen Hotel, one of the most agreeable places, I have stayed at. And the last sentence was written in no idle undeserving praise, but as a sort of thanksgiving for all the mercies bestowed on one while staying at that hostel which overlooks the great and glorious harbor of which Nova Scotians are so justly proud. It was soon recognized it would be impolite on the visitor's part to speak of other of the world's famous harbors, including those of Sydney, Australia, Valparaiso, South America, and Milford Haven, Wales.

There is an old saying among tavelling writers or magazine fellows that it is always well to jot down in your notebook every strange thing you see on the first day of your visit to a new city in a strange country. On the second or third day the cosmopolitan journalist will become a part and parcel of the neighborhood; drinking the same wine, reading the same papers, enjoying the same surroundings. In a word, he becomes "native." So it was on the first morning at Halifax, as I wondered the city, and old envelope and a lead pencil were always kept outside of the pocket. Of course, I was on the lookout for any stray dogs that might be wandering around the place; for you will be able to find out a good deal of the "stud forces" of the domesticated canine end of the town, if you keep an eye open for the ash-can dogs of the early morning, and the lap dogs the local women affect. These dogs might be seen on the doorsteps, on the lawns and other places around about Halifax. And so it was noticed that half the city had gone Spitz; for there were all sorts and conditions of dogs that had a dash of the white German dogs' blood in them—those dogs we used to know as Pomeranians, before the in-and-in-bred Miniature Pomeranians came into the fashion of the England of the 80's and early 90's of the last century.

There are the unmistakable signs of the Old Country to be seen or observed at Halifax. Each of the following notes was recorded when an unusual sight — in the United States of America sense—was observed. Every one of these, in its turn, might suggest to the fiction writer, a short story of its own: A chimney sweep; military sergeants with walking canes; a harness maker's wooden horse; first class dray horses; old curio shops established before I was born; Currier and Ives prints of Maud S and other trotting horses; modern Staffodshire china dogs not of the sham kind; 'Evangaline' astride a pop bottle; a dog that evidently was a cross between a spitz and a spaniel; another spitz-spaniel—a white one; a cross dog between a spitz and a bull terrier; a large, white Pomeranian; lots of Charlie Chaplin moustaches; lamb chops at 25 cents a pound; extremely short ladies' frocks; a profusion of black stockings; no blue noses; newly opened Government control booze stations; ale, wine and hard stuff drink lines that reached out and along the side walks! no bread lines, and a town and neighborhood that had not heard anything about a case of distemper in dogs, for one and a half years, can you beat that?

The English Bulldog, British Standby. Breeders and owners: The British Kennels, Halifax, N.S.

It was Dr. B. Keyes, the N. S. K. C. veterinary who informed your correspondent there hadn't been a distemper case for eighteen months; and he, if anybody, would have been made acquainted with even an outside instance of the dread malady. My informant further said, he had only observed one case that appeared like distemper; and this general although unofficial clean bill of kennel health, so far as he knew, could apply to the whole of Nova Scotia. O boy! What a magnificent place that province must be for those who breed and rear high class dogs! No distemper and plenty of meat-flesh and fish whereon to feed their highly fortunate beauties.

The president of the N. S. K. C. is C. E. Power, an estimable and kindly gentleman. H. M. McLeod, vice-president, is particularly fond of gun dogs, especially red Irish setters of which he owns several beautiful dogs and bitches, including Ch. Larry Boy, a lovely New Brunswick-bred dog setter of the highest order in color, general formation and soundness. Mr. McLeods's Irish setters were staged on the stoop of a log cabin replica of the owner's shack in the forest, it was said. This layout proved to be the main attraction at the show which was splendidly attended, some thousands of persons paying fifteen cents each for admission every day. A. V. Martin was a most efficient and obliging secretary. He is owner of some highly-bred and good-looking black-white-and tan collies descended or directly from the kennels of the late Harry Hungerford of "Mountaineer" fame. F. W. Johnson, S. E. Burns, M. B. Zwicker and D. Currie made up the board of directors. Mr. Johnson, who is at the head of one of the biggest public utility concerns in the province, was born in Birmingham, England, and carries in his soul the sports of the British Midland metropolis. He owns high-class smooth foxterriers, and said he desired to support and help in every way the breed in and around Halifax or elsewhere. That's the spirit: and there's the man! Mr. Burns, who acted as ring steward, has long been an admirer and breeder of the Manchester terrier, one of the loveliest of all the older English breeds, and a variety which is blessed with enough "points" to puzzle the most experienced of even our specialty judges. Mr. Zwicker shines as a breeder of some of the most remarkable Russian Wolfhounds of our times, so far as I was able to appraise them as Russian Wolfhounds of great size, quality, formation of heads, coats, robustness of body structures, and that singularly distinctive general appearance of the breed which might be expressed in the word "quality." out winner in the chief competition, that for the Best in Show, was the Russian Wolfhound Peterhoff of Marlboro, a dog said to be 34 in. at the withers (standard measurement) and 34 in. around the body, just behind the shoulders. The length of Peterhoff's head was 13¾ in. and his neck from the back of the skull to where it sets in the shoulders, was the same, it was declared.

I do not know whether it is usual for a Russian wolfhound to be equal or otherwise in these particular measurements, but the fact remains that Peterhoff appears to be a more than ordinarily well-built dog; indeed, I am of an opinion that in make, shape, and general characteristics of this breed, Peterhoff is quite as good a dog of his variety as I have seen in a forty years' experience among the best of the breed. I have been able to observe these at the leading European, American and other dog shows.

Mr. Currie was another go-getter in the management of the Halifax show, but his task of getting the dogs into the ring must have been hard enough in all conscience. Other of the committee men were J. Donohue, M. Richardson, R. B. Campbell, W. T. Miller, R. R. Proctor, Geo. Buell, Gordon Campbell, Fred Fourgere, J. Whiteley, H. W. Gates.

A very interesting personage was James Wright, who marked the official catalogue. As a highly careful man, he had been assigned to the same task ever since 1923, the year of the formation of the preesnt club. Mr. Wright, a Yorkshireman, has a weakness for Scottish terriers, was formerly a quartermaster sergeant in Royal Artillery. My new-found friend was full of reminiscenes of soldiering and active service in several parts of the world. Just a hundred miles from where we sat he had heard or felt the detonation that followed the disastrous T.N.T. explosion in 1917 in Halifax Harbor, when 2,000 civilians were killed, and the homes, warehouses, etc., on the East side, laid flat in wholesale destruction and desolation.

As the names of the prize winners in the group classes will be published in another part of this magazine, also particulars regarding the best of each division, may be found in the prize list, it will save space and time if the almost exact copies of the judge's notes are given here; in other words, these notations point to the good or indifferent points, as seen and appraised by the adjudicator. But it seemed a pity that so many excellent competitors—practically all excepting the winner in each group—had to be dismissed without even a card of appreciation. In the United States, three prizes and sometimes a fourth card, are awarded in each of the group classes. Again I would beg of the reader to peruse the following notes alongside the printed list of the awards made at the Halifax show of this year of grace:

Sporting Dog or Bitch: The Russian Wolfhound, the Best in Show, and the next best, a beautiful Irish Setter dog, a 4½ year old, sound one, excellent in color and altogether of the champion class. Pity 'twas he had to meet the Russian Wolfhound.

Working Group: Headed by the Great Dane (No. I,) a sound, much improved dog since first day of the show when he was thin and shivered like an aspen leaf in the ring. The next best was a sable and white Collie, a very nicely made dog in capital bloom and sound; a sensible headed one with ears carried well, although a little high, but still coming over at the tips.

The Terrier Group: Had the Wirehaird Foxterrier looking well; a nice dog perfectly put down and shown. A good headed, dense and hard-coated terrier; lovely skull, small, black eye, nose, perfect front and ribs. Next a white Bullterrier, a good heavy weight dog; nice eye, a smasher about the head and jowls, good body and a three-quarter tail. A useful Sealyham was well shown in this division.

The Toy Group: A Pekingese (No. 238) of the Irish Red Setter color, was particularly noticeable. Great feather, ears, plume, coat, huge skull, flat face, big eyes. Altogether a large Peke but a good one at that. Next best, rich orange Pomeranian dog (No. 229) very pretty, a fair coat, altogether a smart and attractive little chap. The Peke won.

Non-Sporting Group: A very nice Boston Terrier (No. 202), good in size, shape and form; good tail, nice crop; dark brindle and white in color. A black Chow Chow bitch (No. 42) out of coat. A fair white Spitz (No. 220) nice in coat; nose not good in color—inclined to be pale; not black.

Best in Show: Just a match between the Russian Wolfhound and the Foxterrier (167), a lovely Wire and in perfect condition, the Russian Wolfhound in like form. A capital wire, close and dense in jacket; perfect front and good flat skull, nice before the eyes, close legs and feet hind quarters and set on of tail. The Russian Wolfhound (17), in faultless condition, a great headed and necked dog—not a neck that seems to be stuck abruptly on to the withers or shoulders; an elegant, powerful creature, evidently as fast as the wind and capable of tackling and holding a big wolf. It is merely a matter of taste as to which one should chose—the Terrier or the Wolfhound—a toss up, if you like. However, as I see it. the Wolfhound is as good as any dog of his breed I have seen in my experience, so he must receive the verdict.

The others in the ring were the Great Dane (1) and the all white, very large, sound English Bulldog (120) with a good skull and wrinkle; his face could be shorter, but he has nice bone and body formation for such a big dog. The large Pekingese dog (238) should make a wonderful stud dog.

The above are the slightly enlarged upon notes taken from my notebook. They form a running comment or description of the leading dogs at the N.S.K.C. show, as I saw them. In offering these to the public or those directly interested in the winning dog at Halifax, I hope I may be not thought presumptuous, if I suggest that all those who officiated in the judging rings at shows should at least give their reasons, in writing, for their decisions. Such a procedure ought to be considered a duty owed to those who breed and exhibit dogs. England does it! Why not North America?

OUR FRONTISPIECE.

The Canadian Kennel Club Cup, that is offered at all all-breed shows held in Canada, is more and more being considered as the real prize of such shows. Exhibitors who can bring along a Canadian-bred dog to the point where the Canadian Kennel Club Cup is awarded to it, have every right to feel equally as proud of the achievement as the exhibitor whose dog has been awarded best dog in show all breeds.

The Old English Sheepdog, Snowflake, owned by Miss Helen Cluff, Caledon, Ont., won the Canadian Kennel Club Cup at the Canadian National Exhibition, just closed, and so charmed was Miss Cluff that she sent us a letter that we appreciated receiving. It reads as follows:

Dear Mr. Strachan:

May I take this opportunity of thanking the Canadian Kennel Club, Inc., for the beautiful trophy presented to me for my Old English Sheepdog "Snowflake."

I appreciate the honor attached and feel very proud to be the possessor of such a beautiful prize.

Sincerely yours,
Helen Cluff.

We understand that Miss Cluff personally prepared "Snowflake" for presentation to the Judge, and when it appeared in the ring there was nothing lacking only that sufficiency of coat that comes with maturity, and when "Snowflake" furnishes up, as he will furnish up later, Old English Sheepdogs will be contenders for the better prizes at our dog shows.

Old English Sheepdogs have not been popular at Canadian shows in recent years, but thanks to that sterling sportsman, F. T. James, Toronto, they are on the road to popularity in Canada right now, and soon we will have the pleasure of witnessing large entries of these handsome dogs benched at our Shows.

Mr. James created something of a stir at the Borzoi Club Show when he brought out an entry that had just arrived from England. One of these was Bhurra Snow Bunting, a blue with white markings, "weather" bred, that was a stunner, and this good lady has since been producing progeny, one of which is the Snowflake that appears on our front cover this issue. Boxer of Bocoas, Maple Peggy, are the names of other "Bobtails" that made their debut at the Borzoi Club Show.

The names of Bhurra Snow Bunting's litter makes one feel like Santa Claus, they read something like this: Snowman, Snow Bunting, Snowball, Snow Lady, and of course our feature dog for the month, Snowflake.

Mr. James is more interested in knowing where the dogs bred by him are going to, than he is in the prices they may bring, and as far as possible they are placed with people who will be likely to lend their aid in making the breed a popular one. The enthusiastic breeder of "Snowflake," was as much enthused over Miss Cluff's splendid win as Miss Cluff was herself.

Snowflake not only won the Canadian Kennel Club Cup, but he won The Old English Sheepdog Club of America's Club Medal for best dog or bitch owned in Canada, the Fred W. Coles' special for best of breed, and to crown the success, he fought it out in an almost even battle with J. R. Kennedy's Wire Fox Terrier, Lights O' Loomland, for best in show all breeds, as it was, Snowflake captured Reserve Best in Show, and at the same time the Canadian Kennel Club Cup for Best Canadian-bred.

As for Miss Cluff, it is more than likely that we will see in the competition at future shows, for undoubtedly Snowflake is of honest championship calibre.

The Slogan is—Harmony

The Boston Terrier Club of Toronto has just held its eleventh annual general meeting. Reports from the officers and committees were enthusiastically received by the members.

H. M. Jackson, the Club's President for ten years, insisted upon being relieved from the highest office in the gift of the Club, and it was with many expressions of general regret that the relief was allowed. However, the club, after hearing Mr. Jackson declare his intentions of retaining his active interest as a member, insisted on his accepting a new honor, that of Honorary President and to mark further appreciation of Mr. Jackson's long continuing services on behalf of the club he was presented with a handsome club bag.

The following officers were elected: President, R. H. D. Sim; First Vice-President, F. Burridge; Second Vice-President, L. Anderson; Recording Secretary, Mrs. C. Firman; Treasurer, P. Boughs; Show Secretary, C. Firman; Trophy Secretary, Mrs. F. Burridge. Executive—Miss F. B. Massacar, Mrs. C. Stephens, Mrs. F. Cayley, Mrs. P. Boughs, Mrs. R. H. D. Sim.

Mr. Sim, on assuming the destinies of the Club for the ensuing year, spoke enthusiastically of the Club's activities in the past, their standing in the community of dogdom at the present time, and the plans for the future, immediate and otherwise. Particularly did he stress the desirability of harmony in the Club at all times, and with the originality for which he is noted, he gave his conception of the structure of the word as follows:

"H—onesty of purpose and dealings.
A—greeable with each other.
R—easonable in our demands.
M—indful of the feelings of others.
O—bedience to the by-laws and constitution.
N—ews; get it at the meetings.
Y—ourself, watch at all times."

This coming from Mr. Sim, the new President, can only mean one thing, and that is the assurance that the reins of government as laid down by the retiring President, Mr. Jackson, are still in very capable hands, and we will be looking forward to a healthy, vigorous Club, going on to even higher heights than have yet been achieved, and that will be looking for plenty.

Mr. Sim is known to be a live wire at business, and naturally he will take some of his surplus energy to his new office—we know he will.

A Few Random Impressions

Of My Visit to Canada

(Special to Kennel and Bench)
By PHYLLIS ROBSON
Editor of "The Dog World," England.

BEFORE I left Canada Mr. Strachan asked me if I'd give a few impressions of my visit to your hospitable country to Kennel and Bench, so I am writing these random notes on board ship. Mr. Strachan is like the Irishman, Father O'Flynn, he has "a way with him." I'm sure no one can ever say no to him, I know I can't—so here goes.

There are two impressions which stand out, first the extraordinary kindness I received from the Secretary of the Canadian Kennel Club, and secondly, the wonderful hospitality of the Canadian people. I know Mr. Strachan will itch to use his blue pencil on my notes about himself—but a bargain is a bargain, when I said I would give him my views he promised me a free hand, and he is a man of his word.

It is some three and a half years since I first met Mr. Strachan at Westminster show and he asked me there if I wouldn't come on to Canada and meet the Canadian fanciers and see their dogs. I couldn't manage it at that time, for a busy editor cannot leave a paper for too long —but I tucked the idea away as something to do someday. But I hadn't reckoned on the pertinacity of the Editor of Kennel and Bench. Every letter I received he hammered away at me, extolling the glories of Canada and the good sportsmanship of the fanciers and what a welcome I would receive, until in sheer self defence, I wrote and told him I would come to the Toronto show this year. Then I lived a life of peace. And how glad I am I came. I had Canadian friends before—but I feel I have many more now, and already I've made up my mind to come back and accept some of the very kind invitations extended to me. Had I been able to do half the outings my relatives had planned for me and accept the hospitality offered me all over the country, I think I should be in Canada twelve months hence — but the agencies of the Dog World Christmas number necessitate my presence in England.

In the twelve days I was in Canada I certainly crowded in a full programme. Mr. Strachan saw to it that I met all the fanciers possible and his kindness is something I shall never forget. Wherever I went I heard nothing but good feeling expressed for the Canadian Kennel Club —the Canadians are certainly loyal to their governing body and invariably the conversation ended up with "Jimmie is one of the best."

Toronto show interested me enormously. I'd heard so much about it I was full of wonderment as to how my first Canadian show would strike me, and quite candidly my premier feeling was one of disappointment. After entering through the magnificent Prince's Gate and passing all sorts of palatial buildings in the Exhibition grounds, to come upon a shabby sort of hall tucked away in a corner seemed to me totally unworthy of the finest dog show in Canada. To my mind the hall was too small and the space railed off in the centre and divided into two rings quite inadequate. I feel I am rushing in where angels fear to tread and perhaps I may be talking through my hat, but why have a dog show on three boiling days in an enclosed hall. That the dog show is an attraction was proved by the mass of perspiring humanity who paid to see it on the first day—Labor Day—why, therefore, instead of that suffocatingly hot inadequate building could not tents be erected to bench the dogs and all the judging take place outside with seats around the ring? Surely, a ring fence could be placed round the dog section so that it was not a free show. As it was, what with the heat, the barking of the dogs in such a confined space, and the lack of seats (though happily Mr. Strachan got me one which he tied to the stall of Kennel and Bench) my first impressions were none too rosy, and my opinion of the hall was not improved when, on going round the gallery where the Toys were benched, one of the heavy windows suddenly fell inwards, hurting two spectators. I saw the window falling, but was just not near enough to try to catch it. I believe it is claimed, with some pride, that this particular building was specially designed and built for the purpose of accommodating the annual dog show and that it is closed for the remaining 51 weeks of the year. If this is so, all I can say is it is obsolete, and I hope another year the Exhibition authorities will recognize the importance of Toronto dog show and grant it better accommodation. When I think what that show would have been like held out doors in that glorious weather and compared to our Richmond or Taunton picnic fixtures— I feel a good fire would solve the problem of the "specially designed" building.

And there my disappointment ends. Of course I realize that no one show in Canada can be truly representative as in England, owing to the enormous distances your exhibitors have to travel, with us no one could come such a journey as from Vancouver to Toronto, for instance, involving, I believe, five days and nights in the train— but on the whole I was very pleased with the quality of your dogs and I saw many promising Canadian-breds— such as Miss Cluff's Old English Sheepdog, Snowflake— which would hold their own in the Old Country. Your Bulldogs, I imagine, are not quite so good as they used to be and I noted some button ears, bad feet and long backs, but the dogs were put down fit and I think the exhibitors are to be congratulated on making such a brave show in weather which was very trying to the breed— you've got the blood, so no doubt it will be only a question of time before you breed another Prince of Wales II. The show of Beagles delighted me and nowhere in England—not even at our great Kennel Club fixture—could we turn out such a large and quality entry of these attractive little sporting dogs. As I looked at the fine collection of Boston Terriers I wondered if Canada would ever prohibit cropping and if so, how the popularity of the breed would be affected. I must admit I like the Boston—he is a jaunty little fellow, so smart and alert and I can well understand his enormous popularity, and I am only sorry that because of his ears he is not adopted in England. On the cropping question, my feelings are somewhat mixed. The cropped ear of the Boston is so much an integral characteristic of the breed that the idea of abolishing the custom seems little short of revolutionary. But I do not think Canadian exhibitors would have serious cause to deplore a prohibition. It is all very much a matter of habitude. The breed would lose nothing in attractiveness as companions. The shape and carriage of the ears are admittedly of enormous importance as a contributive to the valuable quality of expression. The whole outlook of an animal is dependent upon the character conveyed by the ears, and it will be difficult for Canadian admirers to reconcile themselves to all the adversities which would ensue if the Canadian Kennel Club should come into line with the English Kennel Club and make the practice of cutting dog's ears illegal. The period of transition to the natural ear in the Boston Terrier would, no doubt, involve Canadian breeders and exhibitors in precisely the same difficulties and perplexities that have troubled us in Great Britain with our Bull Terriers and Manchester Black and Tans. Fanciers of the old school still maintain that the Bull Terrier has lost that very alert appearance which was a general characteristic of the breed before cropping became illegal. A rather heavy ear, if carried erect, was the best material to work upon and from which to produce the long, fine and upright effect, and no care was taken to produce breeding stock likely to get the small, semi-erect, well-carried, thin ear required to-day. Consequently it has taken at least twenty-five years to eradicate the mischief. I suspect it would be the same with the Boston Terrier if cropping was abolished. Many of those who have spent years over the cultivation of the typical Boston might desert the fancy, but their places would be taken by the yet greater number of enthusiasts who have always wanted to own Bostons but have been deterred by the necessity of having their dogs subjected to an operation which they consider faddist if not essentially cruel. In England we are always on the lookout for canine novelties, and I believe the uncropped Boston would catch on and have a big vogue, for he certainly is a charming little companion dog.

After this dissertion back to the show. You have some very good Cockers and I was pleased to note a decided tendency towards the English ideal, the winning dog, Stanley Bluestone, a good blue roan, looks as if he could work. We like our Cockers to be small enough to penetrate thick undergrowth, but at the same time we expect them to be sufficiently high on the leg to carry a pheasant or a good-sized rabbit.

Amongst Fox Terriers I noticed a tendency to oversize, but in both Wires and Smooths you have many good dogs and with so much choice imported blood it is no wonder the Canadian-breds can more than hold their own. I should have thought the Sealyham would have been more popular, he is such a smart terrier and such a good companion. You've plenty of typical Scotties and very nicely they were put down. I was surprised to see but three Cairns entered—in England this breed is almost a craze and specialty shows are held which draw enormous entries. I saw many good Poms with fine coats—but there again is a tendency to oversize. The entry in Pekingese was a credit, the winning dog, Walnut Mon Chink, being put down in beautiful form, I was also very pleased with the turn out of Schipperkes.

The judging of the variety groups interested me enormously, and I think your method of selecting Best in Show is far ahead of ours. With us, all the challenge prize winners compete and the sorting out is a long job and sometimes results in Best and Second Best going to the same breed—as I saw at one of our summer shows this year. Your system is far superior, and it is one we could well adopt in England with advantage.

I hope my criticisms will be taken in the spirit in which they are offered—after such unanimous courtesy as I received the role of carping critic would ill become me—but Mr. Strachan asked for my impressions, and these I have given without any applesauce. I take back to England with me, wonderful memories of the good sportsmanship of the Canadian fanciers and of their well-managed show, and very real feelings of regard for the many new friends I made.

I am writing these lines off the coast of Newfoundland with Canada gradually fading away in the distance, but something tells me that I shall return to "The Land of The Maple Leaf" at not too distant a date. And may it be soon, is my wish.

And now — my kind Canadian friends—one and all—goodbye and the best of luck to you.

THE TWO LONDON SHOWS

THE Exhibition Board at London, in conjunction with The London Canine Association, managed to hold the dog show attraction for the greater part of the Fair this year again. Not only that, but they had their effort crowned with placing into the records two two-point shows. That the very few workers had been saddled with more work than they were able to handle was everywhere noticeable in the catalogues of the shows, several breeds had as many entries in the "Additional Entries" as appeared in the regular catalogue, and naturally the arrangement made the placings at the show rather hard to keep track of most of the time.

We do not mention this in any spirit of criticism, because we are well aware of the combination prevailing, i.e., none too many helpers, and the few that could do the job anxious to bring both fixtures up to higher point ratings than has featured the shows in London recently. So, much as we detest a poorly-prepared catalogue, just as much do we allow to offset the cause thereof and therefore we congratulate both Mr. Webber and Mr. Perry for what they were able to accomplish on the whole.

The judges were "Jimmie" Sullivan, who officiated at the London Canine Show, and "Bob" Ross, who did the judging for the Western Fair. That all judges do not see their dogs alike will be strikingly noticeable to Kennel and Bench students who relish the sport of analysing the award columns.

The dog show building was kept nice and clean, and would be just ideal if a longer and wider ring could be made possible, and since there is no need of floor dressing in the building, it is the writer's opinion that the block could be dispensed with to advantage, this little criticism is also tendered in a kindly spirit.

It was rather distressing to notice (at the London Canine Show) an exhibitor—who could not see eye to eye with the judge's placings—refuse to take the ribbon indicating the award made, the judge placed the ribbon on the dog's back, and when the dog moved off the ribbon fell to the floor and was retrieved by another exhibitor and returned to the judge's table, immediately after this happening, and as if that was not sufficient showing of disgusting sportsmanship for one day, the irate exhibitor walked passed the judging ring shouting, "You don't know them" as he went.

If judges officiating at our shows held in Canada are satisfied to operate in an atmosphere as described in the foregoing paragraph that may be their affair, but they may rest assured that it is entirely contrary to the wishes of the officials of the Canadian Kennel Club and to the dog fanciers of Canada whom our officials represent. We hope we will never see such a lamentable lack of sportsmanship on the part of any exhibitor in our day, and it may be interesting to our readers to know that in the writer's forty-odd years in dogdom, he has only noticed the London scene duplicated once.

Club, and to the exhibitors who made it convenient to be present at Kingston.

Bert Swann, Toronto, judged the show, and here again the Kingston management allocated a mead of praise for the work of the officiating adjudicator. With a few fanciers at Kingston who would be familiar with dog show procedure, and particularly in handling matters of importance that mature before the show opens, Kingston might easily be classed as one of Canada's most vigorous shows. The catalogue shows this lack of finish to which we refer, and it is well known that the men responsible for a catalogue must know all about its preparation themselves, and also be able to help the printer as well.

Perhaps Fred W. Jacobi or Capt. H. Dudley-Waters, M.C., would be willing to write an article for our CHRISTMAS NUMBER on the subject: "Running a Licensed Dog Show," and undoubtedly the secrets of handling the Canadian National Exhibition or the National Kennel Club Shows, would be a real education for any show-giving club secretary in need of guidance in respect to handling dog shows.

The British Columbia News

By Provincial Contributing Editor, A. H. DODDS, Victoria.

I WAS very pleased to note that Judge Delmont gave his critique on the Calgary Show in the September issue of Kennel and Bench, and in a previous issue there appeared Mrs. Rosemont's on the Vancouver Show. This is something we are very seldom given by our Canadian and American judges, yet even the smallest show in England is honored with this. To my mind this is the only way an exhibitor can find out just the why and wherefore of the judge's placings, unless he ask while in the ring, which some exibitors are loath to do, as they feel they are retarding the progress of the show and also placing themselves under an obligation. Yet this should not be, as exhibitors are paying for an opinion and should obtain it without asking. Personally I would like to see this a compulsory measure, and no judge should be opposed to furnishing the information as he makes the awards, and should not shirk the duty of informing the exhibitors the reason for his placing, and the first three of each and every class should be reported where championship points are concerned, and not just briefly by the short cut of groups.

While on the subject of shows and judges I would like to relate a few instances that happened during the past B.C. Show season, and which many more fanciers besides myself are of the opinion were not conducive to good sportsmanship. First we will take the Victoria City Kennel Club show, held on May 17th, which club honored one judge from Winnipeg and another from Santa Monica, Cal., thinking they were going far afield and bringing in practically strangers, in order to offset the feeling that is sometimes created by employing local judges, i.e., "that they favoured the local exhibitors through being in constant touch with them and sometimes very friendly." What happened? One judge arrived in Vancouver a week previous to the show, and probably saw, during that time, most of the exhibits from that city that were brought before him at the show, to say nothing of the entertaining that was done. I understand the judge of Nanaimo show, held on Aug. 9th, played a similar game.

Of course the fact that judges are entertained and the exhibits viewed previous to the show does not necessarily mean that the judges are already "bought", yet when such a fact comes to light it is certainly great food for the "ever-ready" who is looking for some reason to say the game is "fixed."

Mr. Judge, Mr. Sportsman, Mr. Fancier if I was to tell you that this happened in Timbuctoo you would not hesitate to label it "absolutely rotten." Yet because it happens here, well, you can call it what you like. Anyhow it is not helping the game for our judges to act in this manner, and the sooner the so-called judges and sportsmen act in a more sportsmanlike manner the sooner we will get back to the good old days, when it was real sport, and not "tin can hunting."

Some exhibitors have a great failing for holding the "bottle" under the judge's nose at every opportunity, and especially if he is an American, and they are usually very keen to also offer their auto and furnish the lunch. Two very glaring instances of this I witnessed, and in one instance it was accepted and apparently had the desired effect, but not without much comment from the ringside and exhibitors, who were not slow in their observations. It seems to me that a little forethought on the part of the show committee would go a long way to prevent a repetition of the instances related above, in fact, something must be done, in order to keep the real sportsmen in the game.

I realize we cannot kill the fellow completely, that is always ready to tell his friends how, when and where it was all "fixed" for Bill Smith's dog to win, yet we must not place the material in his mouth that makes him think as he does.

Another matter which has been called to my attention and which I have witnessed on more than one occasion, is two persons showing the same dog—the handler in the ring and his friend on the ringside, whom the dog knows, making sogns and sounds to keep the dog interested, and another trick is to bring the rival kennel mate to the ringside in order to make the one inside flare up. These practices should be absolutely forbidden, otherwise you might as well judge the dogs at home in their own kennel.

Another very glaring incident which I was a witness to and which I thought was very much out of order was an official of a certain show going out of his way to introduce the judge to an exhibitor and exhibits owned by the exhibitor previous to them being judged.

I do not wish to appear too critical regarding the conduct of show people, but merely point out these instances as being both distasteful and unsportsmanlike to many of our real sportsmen.

I had the pleasure of visiting the show staged in connection with the Annual Exhibition at Vancouver in August, and was very pleased to see better accommodation provided for the dogs, yet in view of the support given by the general public and the fanciers, they are entitled to still better accommodation. Our ever-popular director, "Bill" Pym, in a few, well-chosen words, introduced the judges and expressed the regrets of the club at the failure of two of the judges to appear. The officials of the club are to be congratulated on the nice show they put on and the very efficient manner in which it was conducted. "Nat" McConnel very ably filled the duties of Show Superintendent. Oswald Balshaw as Show Secretary had everything in apple pie order, and his good wife was also very busy helping in many ways. "Bill" Coull was a very busy man carrying out the duties as outside steward.

"It was pleasing to see so many of the old hands present including "Sam" Jones of "Gold Dust" cocker fame, who, I regret to say, was "dogless" on the day. "Pete" McLaughlin of "Lochabar" collie fame, looking as spry as ever, and our dear old friend, Miss Leigh Spencer. A show in this city would not be complete without her smiling face. Victoria's grand old sportsman, Frank Topp Turner, was on hand with a string of gun dogs and Harry MacKenzie, better known as the "Laird of Bank Bay" had one of his famed English Setters on the bench.

The conduct of Judge Frank Foster

Davies at this show came in for some very severe criticism from all directions, which was not unwarranted, as at times he did his best to ridicule certain exhibits and exhibitors, and also to pass uncomplimentary remarks to the ringside on both. Such conduct from any judge should not be passed over lightly. This gentleman apparently overlooked the fact that exhibitors were paying him a much-sought-after honor, by showing under him, but apparently he thought the shoe was on the other foot. Not only was his conduct unbearable, but also the length of time he kept the exhibits in the ring before passing judgment.

The popular secretary of the B.C. Fox Terrier Association, R. H. F. Purdon, after a very eventful trip, which was partly covered by auto, has arrived safely in England accompanied by his wife and family. The latest news from him was that he had visited the Worcester Championship Show in company with Holland Buckley, where he renewed many old acquaintances. Doubtless this good fancier of the wire-haired terrier is going the round of shows, and will return with lots of news and possibly a good representative of his favorite breed. In wishing him and his good wife and family a pleasant holiday and a safe return, I am sure I am only voicing the sentiments of the fancy at large.

A surprise visit to Victoria was made to-day by that good fancier, C. W. Shelton, of Cedro Wooley, Wash., who is looking as spry as ever, and who intends to spend a few days here and possibly add another to his famous string of English Setters.

Major Norman who has just arrived in the city from Kent, England, has brought with him an all-white Sealyham Terrier. This is good news for the fancier of this particular breed, as this dog is full of substance and quality and a wonderful stud prospect, and Victoria will be his future home.

Mrs. Sweeney, of Vancouver, B.C. sire of this bitch being Triple Int. Ch. "Inveresk Chancellor" ex Ch. "Belmoss Jacqueline." This young lady is to be congratulated on the wonderful kennel of Springers she has got together in so short a time. The stud of the kennel being a son of Ch. Inveresk Cocksure, and it would appear that line breeding is the aim of this fancier, and we wish her every success.

Shadowbrook Farm which is situated on Island Highway close to Chemainus on Vancouver Island, B.C., is the home of probably some of the best German Shepherds in Canada. As the name implies, it is a real farm, consisting of sixty acres of cleared and bush land where the inmates of the kennel can have unrestricted exercise without the danger of the auto and also be trained to trailing and sheep herding and other accomplishments which are expected of a highly-trained shepherd dog. The kennels, which are constructed first with the thought of comfort and sanitation, are well supplied with sunshine and natural light and also electric light when necessary, and running water with large outdoor runs to each pen with ample space for the inmates to romp if they so desire. Puppies raised here, lack nothing that will keep them strong and healthy, they are provided with fresh milk daily from the herd of beautiful Nubian goats kept especially for this purpose.

At the present time this kennel is headed by the recently imported dog, "Erich vom Zuchtgut of Picardy" P.H., H.G.H., Such. H., Sch. H., Zpr., a handsome black and tan with a wonderful disposition. I understand this dog has qualified for more training certificates than any other dog in the world. The following is the explanation of the training letters after his name: P.H., full police training; H. G.H., sheep herding; Such. H., trailing; Sch. H., protection work; Zpr., a qualified and approved breeding animal under the German S.V. He is also trained very efficiently to save life from water. Erich comes from a very remarkable litter of five, bred by the S.V. out of Captain von Stephanitz's own bitch, Lena von der Brache, Sch. H. His three litter sisters are now with the Berlin detective force and according to advice from Capt. von Stephanitz, are doing excellent work. In addition to his marvellous working qualities, Erich is a high class show dog and absolutely sound and of a very rare combination.

"Renown of Picardy" another inmate of this kennel, was imported from the famous Picardy Kennel, conducted by Major Baldwin in England. This dog was shown at Seattle under Mrs. N. C. Dexter of California, who said after judging him: "I must not fail here to mention the winner of the novice class, 'Renown of Picardy,' which was unfortunately ineligible for his class and therefore unable to compete for winners. Hs is a very high class animal, hard to fault, except maybe, that he lacks a little in rear angulation, but he is a splendid mover, and had he been able to compete he would have been a hot contender for top honors."

Ch. Lorraine of Glenmohr, a beautiful bitch bred by Mrs. H. A. Moore, of Victoria, another inmate, is now in whelp to "Renown of Picardy" and there is no dobt but what the result will be some "real ones."

"Hilde von der Starrenburg" another bitch which was imported from Germany through Major Baldwin, is the daughter of the great dog, Ch. Falko von Cleve, Sch. H. She is a beautiful bitch and possesses a gait that is a revelation.

"Symbol of Picardy" another recent importation from Major Baldwin, is a very promising black and silver in color and should be heard from later.

A new bitch, "Liesel von Eldernhof," is now on the way from Germany via England and is described as a "stunner." She was 1929 Youth Champion

Notes From Alberta

By Provincial Contributing Editor, R. S. TYRRELL, Bottrel, Alta.

WHAT IS WRONG WITH OUR JUDGING? In "Dogdom in the Canadian West," by George Kynoch, Winnipeg, in the Sept. issue, our friend makes some pertinent remarks on our August notes. The fact that he is wrong in his surmise does not alter the gist of his statement, which is to the effect that Messrs. Delmont Hopton and himself regard a certain dog as being about good enough to take third place at an average Western Show. Now, the ability of these three judges is without question, they have learned the game in the hard school of experience, and are probably as favourably known as any three professional dog men on this Continent. The fact is, however, that this dog has not only gone to the top under other well known "all rounders," he has even been placed "Best dog in Show all breeds," and at the great Morris & Essex Show under Captain von Stephanitz, acknowledged to be the world's greatest expert on German Shepherd dogs, he was placed very high indeed. The Captain knew all about Shepherds before most of us were born, he is, in fact, the "Father of the Breed" yet in spite of this there are some persons on this Continent who think him a "dud." This is the opinion of the Editor of the "American Kennel," written at the time of the Show, whom we may consider to be an independent and unbiased critic. "Despite the fact that he was the oldest Judge engaged for the great Morris & Essex Show, Captain Von Stephanitz worked incessantly when he entered the ring. He went about his class in a business-like way, and even after recess was quite eager to retrast to the "Judging by comparison" of our "all-rounders." Some fanciers, particularly Jack Young, of Edmonton, have advocated that this system be installed at C.K.C. Shows. In our opinion, it is barely practical in the West. Also, we very much doubt if there is a large number of "all-rounders" who are qualified to judge every breed coming before them on this system. The average Judge of to-day learns the art by experience and a natural gift, the writer, as is well known, is an artist by virtue of a natural endowment. In painting a picture we arrive at our effect either by the methods of one or another old master, or even by the practice of some modern school, without having had the benefit of their technical training, the same thing applies to the average all-round judge. When we send our children to school they are taught their lessons by certain systems, the consequence is that on the completion of their education every child will work out a problem by the same method, it does not mean to say, however, that the same answer could not be obtained by other means, but we get a standardized result. Has the time come when our Judges should be so educated? We have such a system in cattle breeding and judging and it is giving us excellent results. Under our present system, when a breeder takes a dog to a show one Judge will put him on top and the next one at the bottom. The experienced man says: "Oh heck! I'm breeding to the standard anyway," while the inexperienced novice is utterly bewildered and probably thinks the Judge crooked.

Freeman Lloyd in his review of the a short time ago he informed us that a celebrated Scottish Breeder of Setters fed his dogs very largely on potatoes. Now, the general impression is that this article is about one of the worst that can be fed to dogs. That was our impression, when we first acquired it we were probably just about able to walk. Russian Wolfhounds are accommodating dogs, they will eat anything from a dead elephant to a raw cabbage, so we decided to try out Mr. Lloyds' statement. When we read his article, the humble "murphy" was about as scarce as hens' teeth and as expensive as a dentist's set. Our potato patch having this season escaped the early summer frosts, hail storms and bugs that usually beset it, after much sweat had been wiped off the editorial brow, we felt able to commence our experiment. A quantity of whole potatoes, with an equal amount of beet tops were boiled till soft. This was then mashed up with barley meal until the substance was crumbly. This was fed with their usual biscuit and milk. Having tried it out for three weeks we can see no ill-effect and the dogs if anything have improved in health.

We very much regret to report the death of Col. West Jones an Hon. President of the Alberta Fox Terrier Ass'n. He was a celebrated athlete, at one time tennis champion of New Brunswick, he was Captain of the College team at Merchiston College, Edinburgh, and toured England and Scotland with the "Gentlemen of Canada Cricket Team" in 1887. He was, moreover, a keen supporter of the Fox Terrier.

H. B. W. Greenhill's beautiful smooth Fox Terrier "Onemore Nan that see her that way." Well now she has the Dallas Challenge Cup and the Hotels Welcome Cup, and we wished she might have been able to receive the Canadian Kennel Club Cup too, but she was imported from California.

Mrs. Daintry in sending me a report of the Show, regrets that the said cup was not forthcoming. In view of the uphill work necessary to organize and keep a specialty show going in Alberta, we trust that our organization will be able to stretch a point and give them a lift in this respect. The Show was somewhat marred by a very heavy hail storm that probably cut down the number of dogs benched. Mrs. Carr, in whose beautiful grounds the Show was held, had thoughtfully provided indoor benching in view of such an event. Tea and ice cream were served to the exhibitors and their friends, and you may be sure that the majority and some more will come again. Mrs. J. Carr's "Beau Brummel" took first in open class and was placed best of the winning dogs. He is a particularly nice wire, and has now completed his Championship. The reserve dog, "Fairleigh Whoopee," owned by N. S. Monroe, is a coming one, look out for him in the future.

Col. Ritchie has had some bad luck while away at Toronto. His imported female "Scottie" losing her whole litter of puppies and only by luck the mother was saved. Better luck next time.

Miss Fox, of Foxhall Kennels, has added to her list and bought from Mrs. Grant, of Coleman, a nice English Bull Dog bitch "Princess Patricia" (the 4th), bred by Mr. Cummings, of Edmonton.

John Hunter has gone in for Wires and has bought "Moosascan Groom's Double," a dog of Champion breeding. He has also one or two females, which we understand are being kept at Don, Riome's, at Moose Jaw.

A. R. Castle, Treasurer of the Southern Alberta Kennel Club, reports that George Young is now Pres.; and J. Dunlop, Sec.; all of Lethbridge. We must apologize for having referred to V. W. Williams, past Pres. of this Club, as still acting, but this is the first intimation we have had of the change.

THE MARITIME SHOWS

THE New Brunswick Kennel Club held their twenty-second annual show with Saint John Exhibition, Sept. 1, 2, 3, 4. It was a three point show fixture with over 200 dogs benched. Walter Reeves, one of our Canadian all-rounders, judged all breeds who, on the last parade of finalists chose a Canadian dog bred by exhibitors for Best Dog in Show.—M. B. Zwicker's Borzoi, Peteroff of Marlboro, while Best Bitch was awarded to the attractive Wire Fox Terrier, Ormsby Winsome, exhibited by her own breeder, James F. Strachan, Montreal. Two good innings for Canadian-bred! As expected sporting breeds at this show turned out strong, especially in Pointers and Setters. Alsatian Shepherds in New Brunswick are going ahead; thanks to Mrs. Wm. Smith, E. R. Sowery and Wm. H. Murray, who had excellent entries. Fox Terriers were the best lot seen in Saint John since George S. Thomas and Robt. A. Ross judged here some years ago. Outstanding exhibitors in this popular breed—each with new ones—Joe Donahue, Wm. H. Smith, F. W. Johnson, of Halifax; Ronald C. Vaughan and Ralph Preston, Glen Falls, N.B.; Mrs. Hugh McLean, Rothesay, N.B.; Wm. Macauley and Robert Smith, of Saint John, also Harry Armistead with "Ormsby" string. "Harry" received a glad hand, is well known and very popular at the Maritime shows.

We missed Mrs. D. Beland with Pomona Poms and Mrs. Margeson's Cedarcrest Pekes, which have always made a splendid showing at this fixture. However, out of town exhibitors were many, most of them winners—all of whom being unanimous re the splendid building and benching accommodations. From Halifax we welcomed Miss Alice O'Brien, Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Ora Doherty, Mrs. M. Skidmore, Mrs. M. Reynard, W. T. Miller, Fred Fougere, and others previously mentioned, also Mr. Wm. Ogden, the Montreal bulldog fancier, made us a return visit.

This season has seen the last of any one club having a four day show in the Maritime provinces or anywhere in Canada. Three days is long enough—four means a week away from home for out-of-town exhibitors, two days of which could be well spent among their own kennels, dogs or firesides. Kennel and Bench with Tail-Waggers Magazines, were popular numbers and well displayed at both Maritime shows.

Nova Scotia Kennel Club Show

They were hot days for the Nova Scotia Kennel Club Show, Aug. 26-29, Halifax, N.S., where the humidity and heat were unusual for the old seaport town, so much so that four bulldogs were prostrated.

Freeman Lloyd, well known to our readers, was ably supported by 251 dogs benched and checked by the judge.

If Mr. Lloyd had some disappointed exhibitors, he also made some good friends for the club. There was no gainsaying his worthy intentions—his choice—utilitv and a practical dog, were the winners in most all breeds.

Beagles, Wolfhounds and Pointers were the largest entries, the two former breeds representing Best Sporting and Best in Show. M. B. Zwicker's own bred symmetrical, well made, nicely marked Borzoi Peterhoff of Marlboro awarded Best in Show with Gordon Carnell's most useful well marked black and tan Beagle, Rockywood Charmer, Best Bitch in Show. Cocker Spaniels, Bostons and Pom breeds were down numerically, but a big improvement was shown in various Terrier breeds except Airedales and Irish which needs new recruits in the Maritime provinces to check their fall by the wayside.

Scottish and Sealyhams were much improved with Canadian-bred entries, also American and English importations.

The dog show held in connection with the Nova Scotia Provincial Pine to Palm Exhibition proved a popular attraction, being well attended at all times, noticeably too that Nova Scotia ladies are so prominent as exhibitors should mean a future Maritime Ladies' Kennel Club — they would have support from ladies we know in Saint John. To the President, Mr. C. E. Power, and his energetic Secretary-manager, A. V. Martin, with such diligent workers as Henry McLeod, J. E. Burns, W. T. Miller, J. D. Whitely, D. Currie and Ralph Proctor with J. D. Maurice Zwicker, goes the credit of their very successful show.

ON THE LAST LAP!

When the Canadian National Exhibition becomes history in any year, it indicates woolen underwear and the last lap of the dog show season for the year. Everything considered, dogdom has every reason for rejoicing, the shows have been as numerous and as well attended generally, and the enthusiasm is still maintained.

Windsor's dog fanciers are all "hopped up" over the coming two-day show, November 3 and 4. The show has been planned to immediately follow the combined Specialty Clubs' show at Detroit, November 2, and in this way give Canadian exhibitors a chance to compete against the very best American dogs in the Middle West.

The club has been particularly fortunate in getting the great all-rounder, A. Rost, of Brooklyn, New York, to "call them."

Executives of both shows are working together to insure a large Canadian entry in the Detroit show and an even bigger American entry in the Windsor show. And besides, a heavy shipment of classy Toronto dogs that showed in the recent Canadian National Exhibition Dog Show is expected to make the competition really keen in all breeds. A well-filled list of premiums and specials is assured—in fact the genial president, George Hewson, says: "I can't guarantee every dog a prize, but I certainly will all the rest"—whatever that may mean!

The winning of the "blue" will be a victory in every sense of the word—something not only to talk about, but to write home about.

THE HOME OF WINNERS

If you will look over the award columns in this issue of Kennel & Bench you will find out how we have fared on the recent circuit. We are always there when the competition is strongest, and we abhor attending any show where we do not have to match our strength for anything we get.

With such a judge, numerous high-grade American dogs and an expected entry of over 300 dogs, everyone is looking forward to two days of "real sport."

After satisfying one another everything is ready for the big International show, November 3 and 4, the Windsor Kennel Club members get together and talk excitedly about the recent promising additions to their kennels:

P. Bergsma has four great little Bulldog pups by Bonhomie Prince, sire of the notable Ch. Bonhomie Captain. Puppies are out of Sweet Cloddy, a worthy daughter of Ch. Kippax Jock. They're all trying to buy them, but the owner knows too much. He's sitting tight.

A. H. Graves, the hard-working secretary, now finds solace in his Shepherd bitch, Krafta of Jessford, who has just presented him with 13 (yes, that's right) beauties by the Int. Ch. Hettel Von Bodman. Krafta incidentally, is by Arko Sadowaberg, and last February went third in her class at Westminster. If she doesn't give the American visitors on November 3 and 4 a run for their money, a lot of good Canadian coin is going to leave the country.

Not everyone is so lucky, however, as witness the recent loss of the promising young Wire, Bendigo Charmange, owned by C. R. Tweney, through being run over by a train.

Mrs.. H. Riddock, on the other hand, has just returned from Columbus, Ohio, after crowning her great little "Yorkie," Bond's Byngo, winners, Best of Breed and International Champion—all of which goes to prove that if you win at Windsor you really have achieved something worth while.

The English Bulldog Club of Canada and The Boston Terrier Club of Toronto and the British Columbia Fox Terrier Association are specialty clubs that will hold the stage on Thanksgiving Day, November 10th. And on November 24th to 26th, the National Kennel Club will probably close the season for the year.

The National Kennel Club is content to rely on the premium list—now in process of preparation—the quality of the judges, the quality and quantity of the special prizes tagged to be won outright, the venue of the show plus the attraction of the Royal Winter Fair to make history for the club's 1930 fixture, and this reliance is to be justified apparently if the early demand for premium lists can be taken as a criterion.

HAMILTON KENNEL CLUB SHOW

HAMILTON Kennel Club held its own distinctive show at the dancing academy and were favored with a nice entry of quality dogs, although the management had anticipated further support in quantity. The show room was clean, roomy, comfortable for exhibitors, and well managed by the willing workers of the club.

Alex. H. Stewart, of Chicago, judged, and there was an absence of criticism which denoted that he was giving his usual able best.

Paul Steglich, of Niagara Falls, N. Y., judged the Shepherds and drew a lot of support from his many admirers. Following are the awards:

ENGLISH SPRINGER SPANIEL FIELD TRIALS AT FISHERS ISLAND, NEW YORK.

Accustomed as the sporting dog fraternity has become to regarding the annual Field Trial Meeting of the English Springer Spaniel Field Trial Association as the de luxe event of its kind in this country, it will without doubt find this year's trials at Fishers Island, N.Y., the greatest that the club has as yet put on. For there will be more dogs and more prizes, coupled with the usual high calibre of judges officiating.

For the past six years the English Springer Spaniel has held the centre of the stage at this all important meeting, but now other breeds are to come into the picture to try their merits at scenting out the various kinds of fur and feather abounding in the brambles and baybush patches of this hunters' paradise.

This year also will witness the offering of a special in memory of the late William Rauch, long President of the Westminster Kennel Club. The prize, which will be for the best dog in the meet, is to take the form of a Memorial Trophy of Sterling Silver donated by Mr. and Mrs. Walton Ferguson Jr., on whose estate the trials have always been held. The trophy is for outright winning, the winner's name to be suitably inscribed thereon.

It has for several years been customary to import English judges to officiate, last year being the exception when home talent was employed. This season, however, Britain is again to send her best in the person of William McCandlish, chairman of the English Kennel Club and an acknowledged authority on all things doggy. Needless to say, the committee in charge is to be congratulated on an excellent and thoroughly capable choice.

Mr. McCandlish's experience is wide. He has judged Retriever Trials in his own land at Bishops Castle, Shropshire, and has served as first man at Spaniel trials on numerous occasions. It goes without saying, then, that Mr. McCandlish is well versed in Field Trial performance. Couple with this that learned gentleman's accomplishment in the bench show rings of both England and America and we have a man thoroughly conversant with worker and show dog.

He will be assisted by William J. Hutchinson of New York, long prominent in the promotion of the field trial dog and of field trials. He served last season as the Association's secretary and treasurer and for the current year directs its destinies as president. Mr. McCandlish will judge the bench show which will be held at the close of the trials on the last day, and for the information of those who have already inquired about this latter event, it should be clearly understood that entries may be sent for either field trials, or bench show, one or both. It is not obligatory that a dog take part in both kinds of performances.

The trials which will occupy the first three days beginning at 8 o'clock on Wednesday morning will include as has been the custom, a Puppy Stake, an American-bred Stake, a Non-Winners' Stake for members, and an All-Age Stake in which owners must handle their own dogs. A water test, too, will be demanded wherein the dogs are required to retrieve from water. This is one of the most interesting features of the meet. The dog sits on the bank; the shot is fired; the bird thrown into the water and the dog, at command, swims out, fetches the bird and delivers it to the hand of the master without dropping.

Evening entertainment will consist of the auctioning off of dogs to be run in the stakes the following day and this, also, is a fascinating part of the program. Chances — oftentimes to the number of a thousand or more —are sold, put into a hat, numbered and drawn, the exhibitor drawing number one getting the first dog, the second the next, and so on. The dogs are then auctioned off, after which all of the chance money and half of the auction money is divided into the stake percentages. The other half of the auction money, of course, goes to the owner of the dog.

The officers and members of the Association are anxious that everyone be thoroughly aware of the fact that this meeting is not a restricted affair in any sense of the word. It is open to the public without admission and the public is invited to attend. Gallery facilities are of the best and the spectators may follow the dogs all through the day and observe their work at every stage. The Mansion House will be open for the four days of the trials, October 21, 22, 23 and 24, for the accommodation of guests. Fishers Island is not difficult of access. It is located about five miles—an hour's boat ride—off New London, Conn.

Notes From Old Quebec

By FRED LA RUE, Cap St. Martin, Que.

I HAVE dreamt of a miraculous poulp, whose embracing tentacles where spreading life instead of death, whose approach meant success and joy. It was monstrous in size, its head laying in Sherbrooke and its bountiful arms reaching from Pennsylvania to Ontario, from Maine to Michigan. Its name was Belmoss, and each tentacle also had a name: they were Coronation, Chessman, Cormisto, Countess Chesseline, etc. I woke up at Toronto; the porter was calling Union Station and inside of 20 minutes I was at the great Canadian National Exhibition, seemingly the only French speaking Canadian from the Province of Quebec to attend the forty second International Dog Show. In this age of wonderful discoveries, of radio and aviation, won't somebody be able to explain by what kind of telepathy the first man that spoke to me was Mr. Ducker of St. Joseph, Michigan, the owner of Belmoss Coronation, that wonderful daughter of Int. Ch. Inveresk Chancellor which got winners at Montreal and Toronto Shriners' then at Hamilton and the Canadian National, finishing her championship under four different judges without a defeat.

She is a beautifully marked liver and white and should become an international champion before she is two years old. Still more wonderful is the meteoric show career of Belmoss Chessman, owned by Mr. F. Hadley of Cleveland, Ohio. Born on December 6th, 1929, out of Belmoss Jacqueline by Int. Ch. Inveresk Chancellor, Chessman finished his championship at nine months, old after nailing best of breed at Ottawa, Toronto and London, then winners at Sherbrooke and Hamilton. Neither of these two men can stop praising the owner of the Sherbrooke Kennels for his square dealings. They claim that Belmoss is synonymous of satisfaction and Mr. Placey the acme of gentlemanhood.

The thought of my missing the Sherbrooke Exhibition will stay like a thorn in my mind for many months to come. However, I could not get dian Bred Terriers. He writes me relieved for both the Canadian and the Eastern Township shows, so I missed the witnessing of Chancellor going up to best in show. That it was a popular win is clearly shown by the numerous letters I received from those who attended the show in the big hearted city.

Most worthy of her beautiful sire was Belmoss Chasseline, who at eight months old went through from puppy class to winners. Her photo which will appear in this issue should remain as a perfect sample of what a Springer Spaniel should be at that age. The Springer Spaniels, as I hinted in my notes last October are coming ahead as one of the most popular and useful breeds in Canada. R. A. MacNab of Gravenhurst, Ont., whom I had the pleasure to meet at the C.N.E., showed me the pedigrees of his imported Springers: The dog Tisdale Tim, bred by Wm. Humphrey, England, boasts of Ch. Horsford Hetman as sire and Ch. Rex of Avendale as grand sire; his grand dams are no less than Champions Bush and Miss Prudence. The bitch Ellioyn Judy, bred by A. G. Hendley, England, is linebred from Ch. Rivington Sam. A litter of puppies from that pair, born in July, is most promising and will challenge the Belmoss Kennels next spring. Mr. MacNab writes: "I have received my first copy of Kennel & Bench and I have found it more interesting than any paper published in the U.S. A-bon-entendeur salut."

BELMOSS CHASSELINE

A beautiful Springer puppy who, no doubt, has been named as a compliment to the noted Baillie A. McNab Chassels, of Coatbridge, Scotland. Owned and bred by Belmoss Kennels at Sherbrooke, P.Q.

Another interesting letter which I just received from a new friend made at the C.N.E. is signed R. Rhodes, from Lambton Mills, Ont. Mr. Rhodes used to be a neighbour to the noted Terrier fancier, Hilderbrand H. Wilson. Being a subscriber to the Dog World he was glad to meet Mrs. Phyllis Robson, the popular Editor. He says: "It was quite like old times to meet her and have a chat with her about the fanciers in the Old Country." Mr. Rhodes' name was a pass word amongst the breeders and exhibitors of Silver Grey Rabbits in England, having been the proud owner of that noted buck "Bonnie Doon." Now that he has turned his activity to the breeding of Cockers, he has shown that experience counts by going to the very foundation of winning Cockers; his new acquisition "Thistle Grove Lady", has the blood of Champions Ottawa Romeo and Merry Marquis. His closing words are, "Hope to meet you for a chat at a great many more exhibitions."

Yes, indeed, I also hope to have many more French Canadians meet many more Englishmen at many more exhibitions because in this new country which is divided by so many different things, the dog game is a wonderful sway for the union of people of different creeds, languages and ways.

These show acquaintances soon become life acquaintances, and may I be permitted here to state that the man I missed most in the Toronto Exhibition, the man whose death was nearly as hard a blow to my heart as one of my brothers' death, was Tom Grimshaw. I met him only once in my life at a Montreal show. We spent the whole day together but that day has taken as much space in my memory as many months of my life and while I had the last December number of Kennel & Bench prominently displayed around the booth I kept on thinking that his undying soul was close to mine and to the other fanciers enjoying the fraternal meetings of so many Christians.

R. M. Smith of Buffalo, N.Y., whom I also had the pleasure to meet at the C.N.E., acquired quite a few Canathat he is very proud of a fine son and daughter of Ch. Watteau Review and Ch. Light O'Loom Land, and that they ought to mature good enough for the fastest competition. Mr. Smith greatly enjoyed the wonderful benching of Fox Terriers at Toronto. The going was terrible hot. Over 30 wires faced Capt. H. Dudley Waters for awards. The F. N. Taliaferro, of Hicksville, L.I., N.Y., benching included that super-sire Ch. Iveshead Scamp, bred by T. Berridge, England. Many were the rail birds who had picked him up for Best of Breed on account of his beautiful, clean and muscular neck gradually widening to the shoulders, also his deep chest and well sprung ribs. So typical of a flying sire, but J. R. Kennedy's wonderful imported bitch was found by the judge longer in neck and cleaner all over. She is a typical female with lots of class and Scamp is a typical male full of substance. The saying that a good male always beat a good female did not come true this time. My experience this year has been that a good female generally wins: New York, Boston, Madison, Ottawa and Toronto have seen female terriers go to the top as Best in Show.

Our director, W. R. Aitken, of Montreal, made the trip to the city of the Royal York Hotel with his most alive Scottie Greyhope Grit. We dare say he is the best shower we have ever seen in his breed. His body is remarkably short and he certainly has a well balanced head. We would really have liked him to go one notch higher. Another good entry from Montreal was the typical Fawn Pug Winna Jerry Cruncher, bred by Miss Steggal and owned by O. K. Bazata. We would like to see him in hot competition. He is really a flyer with wonderful compactness and roundness of body, square muzzle, large eyes and perfect tail. His dignified bearing and action, his visible intelligence would carry him far in New York. The pugs are fast becoming favorite with the leisured American classes.

Gladiator's Roman Flame a bull terrier, with tremendous bone, bred by E. M. Bishop, England, and sired by Gladiator General, was entered by K. M. Kenny of Buckingham, P.Q. He is the perfect outcross for Canadian bitches, especially those that lack substance.

I think that the biggest wins made by this Province were those of F. C. McLean, Hull, with his black and tan Terriers. The dog, Willowdale Attom, and the female Willowdale Virginia, taking Winners. Attom who has an exceptionally long level head and lean, flat skull with beautiful Almond shaped eyes and shows the symmetry and proportion of a perfect hackney, took the measure of the great Ch. Benham Banker. Virginia has a very fine long head, a glassy coat and a general brilliancy of appearance. She is indeed refined to the extreme. We hope that this will start a boom in this province for the Manchester Terriers. They are splendid house dogs, very sagacious and intelligent, while their smooth, sleek and lustrous coats not only appeals to the eye but has the additional advantage of greater cleanliness in a dog kept entirely in the house and they cannot be excelled by any other breed as vermin dogs.

The Wizbang Kennels had one Pointer, 2 English Setters, 2 Irish Setters, one Springer, 2 Smooth Fox and two Kerry Blue Terriers. I must refer my readers to the list of awards which appear in this same issue, for their winnings as I could not follow all the judging on account of my being kept busy at the Kennel & Bench booth. Reverend Father Keane of Uxbridge, Ont., was a great admirer of Ch. Ranker O'Rom, the celebrated Kerry Blue owned by the above named kennels. Father Keane promises to bring down his own Kerry Blue to the next show. He claims that it is just as good as Ranker O'Raw.

T. J. Rowe, of Montreal, attended the Kingston show and made a great showing with the puppy, Nores Von Strassbourg. He sold two beautiful puppies, one to G. Doyle of Kingston, and the other to J. Cormier of Verdun. He is very sorry to report that Mr. Loveridge sold his splendid Shepherd, Billhaven of Southmore, to a Japanese tea merchant in Shanghai. He is wondering why we can't have a fall show in Montreal and he comes out ahead by offering prizes for Shepherds and childrens' variety classes. Mr. Jones of Ahuntsic, has just bred his beautiful female "Queenie" to Lou Von Ludendorff. Mr. Rowe's female, Schuman Traumerie, is doing police duty at Leclerc's chicken ranch at Back River. If the chicken thieves know when they are well off they will steer clear of Charlie's! Once I hinted jokingly to Mr. Rowe that nobody who kept a Scottish Terrier had ever been visited by burglars. Quick came his witty reply: "It's because burglars know that any body who keeps that kind of a dog has nothing worth stealing!" Now, Fred you must come to the Ladies' Kennel Club of Canada card party which will be held Friday evening, on Oct. 24th, in the Morin Hall, 3414 Park Ave. I want you to meet my friend, Witty Warren. This card party is being held to obtain the necessary funds for packing individual Christmas boxes for the patients in the Grace Dart Home (about 35) and the Laurentian Sanitorium (about 200).

G. W. Bailey of Ottawa, sends me the pedigree of his new importation the Wire Fox Terrier, Blackmoor Bruiser. As a specimen of line breeding it is absolutely a world beater. It has 3 crosses of the Grat Champion, Fountain Crusader, bringing in the following champions: Bishop's Neglected, Talavera Simon, Let's Go, and Signal Circuit, both the two last named being dammed by Peri the wonderful mother of 5 champions. Not contented with the above the astute breeder that must be L. M. Bentley, has also brought in two crosses of Barrrington Bridegroom one with Ch. Indecision and the other one with Ch. Witch Witchery. Champions Brakesmere Benedict and Broskley Gamester are not forgotten either. To sum up it would be shorter to name the champions that are not in this pedigree. On account of the Peri blood, I advise all the owners of Craigellachie females around Ottawa to use this stud extensively. A quick review of Hotweed's pedigree which I reviewed in September issue also shows the great Barrington Bridegroom line bred 4 times. Those who claimed that Bridegroom did not prove as good a producer in America as he did in England can find the reason right there. Very little line breeding seems to be practised in America. The breeders always flock to the last champion instead of sticking to a given blood line. Anyway, if there are no champions bred in Ottawa during the next twelve months it won't be Mr. Bailey's fault.

I have eventually bought back the best headed Craigellachie Scottie which I ever bred, C. Symbolic. He has a tremendous long head and a well filled up foreface and what counted more still was the fact that all the puppies that I bred from him carried the same kind of heads. No matter how snipy or coarse headed the dams, every puppy has a long, clean, perfect head. Symboilc is a grandson of the imported dog Knight of St. Andrews, who had Romany Monk line bred thrice in its pedigree. His dam was Craigellachie Springtime, a daughter of Drumclamph Sir Barton which had her sire's shortness of body, ears and tail.

SENSATIONAL SALE OF A SPRINGER SPANIEL.

We understand that Bailie Angus McNab Chassels, Coatbridge, has ultimately induced Mr. R. Grierson, Dumfries, to part with that beautiful Springer Spaniel, Love Bird of Solway. Ever since Mr. Chassels awarded Love Bird of Solway her first Challenge Certificate at Ayr he has been most anxious to own her. Immediately after judging he offered the magnificent sum of £300, which was refused. Mr. Ben Lewis, U.S.A., who was over recently on the outlook for good ones, was also after her, but the courageous Bailie has ultimately procured her at a price unheard of in the history of the breed. The Bailie thinks she is the most perfect specimen ever bred, and there is no doubt she is destined for California. This charming bitch was sired by Mr. Chassels' new purchase, Boghurst Bristle, and we have to congratulate his owner on making this dog a full champion at Worcester Show last week, when he won in the open class of 13 dogs and also in the Field Trials classes. The fame of the Inveresk enthusiast is world-wide, and he must soon be like the great Alexander who wept when he found he had no other continents to conquer. Strange to say, the last record price for a Springer Spaniel was made by Bailie Chassels, when he sold Inveresk Coronation to the Maharaja of Patiala.

SPORTSMANSHIP!

We noticed a nice glimpse of sportsmanship at the Ottawa shows in connection with the Canadian Kennel Club Cup. W. E. "Billy" Newton had jockeyed his Smooth Fox Terrier Gallant Fox to the distinctive win of best Canadian-bred. And when he had been presented with the beautiful Canadian Kennel Club Cup, he at once, and with exquisite gallantry, handed the trophy over to Mrs. Frank Beer, Toronto, who had raised the puppy. The win was a nice one for a Smooth Fox Terrier, a breed that is coming into the limelight at many shows at the present time.

Notes From Manitoba

By Provincial Contributing Editor, W. B. R. Knowles, V.S., B.V.Sc.

MR. EMILE EYEKERMAN'S German Shepherd bitch, Mira von Grafenkopp (C. K. C. 83851) by Ch. Armor von Vogel (C.K.C. 71785) has whelped seven puppies, two males and five females. Six of the puppies are silver-grey and one white. The puppies are also by Ch. Armor von Vogel. This item of news was inadvertently left over from the last report, and should have appeared in the Sept. issue of Kennel and Bench. Another item which should have appeared was that Mr. Valento had two Boston Terrier bitches in whelp to Ch. Winchester Aviator.

At the last meeting of the Fort Garry Kennel Club, Mr. Henderson, the secretary, advised me that Mrs. Mason, of Greenacre, St. Rukfield Park (just west of Winnipeg on the suburban car line) has just received a West Highland White Bitch from the Kennels of Mr. Hunter, of Oban, Argyleshire, Scotland. I went out the following Sunday to see this little importation. She was imported in whelp and despite her long journey looked in splendid condition. Mr. D. Hunter (Ardsheal Kennels) is a breeder of Cairns and West Highland Whites, and Mrs. Mason, in addition to the bitch already mentioned, has imported two Cairn bitches and one dog, some time previously from him. The West Highland White is Ardsheal Morvern (E.K.C. 29140). The Cairn Terriers, Male, Ardsheal Gillie Inhor Imp (C.K.C. 77096) by Ardsheal Gillie Cor ex Ardsheal Gem. I looked up the Christmas number of "Our Dogs," and found that this dog and his sire were both advertised as at stud by Mr. Hunter. Females, Ardsheal Stratac Imp (C.K.C. 79283) by Ardsheal Alastair ex Ardsheal Ruby (Ardsheal Stratac has three puppies, two males and one Female by Ardsheal Gillie Mhor) Ardsheal Oasach Imp (C.K.C. 71227), by Ardsheal Gillie Cor ex Ardsheal Useag. Then there is a young bitch, Betty, which whelped two males and one female puppy to Ardsheal Gillie Mhor on September 4th. We wish Mr. Mason lots of luck with her Cairns and West Highland White Terriers. They certainly have lots of pep and are real Terriers. Mrs. Mason recently sold a puppy to a Winnipeg fancier, receiving quite a good price for it.

Mr. George Kynoch purchased a Newfoundland male puppy from Mr. Montague Wallace, of Saskatoon. The puppy is by Ch. Shelton Cabin Boy. The puppy has since been sold to Mr. T. B. Wells, of Winnipeg.

Mr. R. Hogg, a Saskatchewan fancier of Punnishy, Sask., has purchased the Airedale Terrier Bitch, Ch. Miss Winnitoka. She is by Ch. Martley Squire ex Ch. Leeward Maid and is reported to be in whelp to Ch. Silverdale Tornado. Mr. Hogg has also bred his Wire-Haired Fox Terrier Bitch, Grandview Trixie (C.K.C. 52147) to Mr. George Kynoch's Redcliffe Arc Light (C.K.C. 79048).

I visited Mr. G. Duncan's Kennels a few days ago. Mr. Duncan is a breeder of Boston Terriers and owns the two Stud dogs, Watson's Handsome Boy and Trapystok Personality. Watson's Handsome Boy was bred by Mrs. Fullerton, of California. He is by Little Tommy Thomas by Toya of Ke No Ka and is of the Ringmaster strain, also a double cross of the Disturber strain. Trapystok Personality (C.K.C. 86446) is by Ch. Sigourney King Tut ex Adanac Forget-me-not. There was also a bitch puppy seven weeks old by Trapystok Personality ex a daughter of Ch. Roselawn Dandy Boy. Mr. Duncan says she has a regular King Tut head.

The writer has sold three Shepherd dogs since the last issue; two to Winnipeg fanciers and one to a fancier in Wynyard, Saskatchewan.

Mr. G. Kynoch reports that his setter bitch, Sylvia of Shannagan, has a litter of three nice puppies by Vernon Major. Vernon Major is by O By Jingo ex Vitus Juno.

Mr. S. Jackson, owner of Ch. Winchester Aviator, reports the following litters of Boston Terrier puppies by Ch. Winchester Aviator:

From female owned by Mr. Salesbury, on August 16th; 3 females, one male.

From female owned by Mr. Pearly on August 25th; one male.

From female owned by Mr. Lillie, of Moose Jaw, Sept. 2nd; two males.

From female owned by Mr. Clare on Sept. 8th; three females and one male.

From female owned by Mr. Valente on Sept. 11; two males and one female.

From female owned by Mr. Walderon on Sept. 14th; three males and three females.

From female owned by Mrs. Junget, of Lethbridge; two males and two females.

From female owned by Mr. Valente on Sept. 17th; one male and one female.

The female owned by Mr. Clare was bred to Winchester Joycaster, a dog imported by Mr. Jackson some four months ago from Dr. Barnes, of Oskaloose, Iowa. Winchester Joycaster is by Ch. Captain Hagerty ex Mataska Babe.

ASCARIASIS—Infestation by Round Worms.

Two of my puppies quite recently had Hiccough. It is described by some writers as a sudden jerky expiration of breath, common in puppies. Result of indigestion caused by worms. But as I watched them, the clinical symptoms looked so typically like that of "Thumps in Swine," that my mind went back to the time some few years ago when I read the results of Dr. Ransom's researches on that disease. Dr. Ransom is Chief of the Zoological Division, U.S.A. Bureau of Animal Industry. Dr. Ransom found that the eggs of the Ascaris humbpicoides, after being swallowed, hatch in the intestine. The eggs ripen outside the animal body, at a temperature of from 60 deg. to 90 deg. Fahrenheit. The larvae worms, when they are hatched, enter the wall of the intestine, get into the portal circulation and are carried to the liver. In the liver, they leave the capillaries of the portal circulation and enter the veins of the systemic circulation. By the systemic circulation they are carried to the heart and from thence by the pulmonary artery to the lungs. I forget, just how long they remain in the lung. So far as I can remember, it is two weeks, but I would not be positive. But it is when the larvae worms are breaking through the lung capillaries to the air spaces that the trouble commences, and that serious damage is likely to occur. On post-mortem, numerous small haemoring taken to remove all odor of the antiseptic with a further washing with tepid water. This will tend to remove any ascarid eggs which may have become attached to the udder, should it have been soiled when in contact with infested feces. The Perineum (area between the rectum and vulva should receive the same attention.

All successful breeders of dogs, take the precaution too, to worm puppies as a matter of routine practice when they are six weeks old or earlier, if conditions warrant such earlier treatment. Round worms are sometimes present in puppies when they are ten days old, but when present on such young puppies they generally cause enteritis and death, (inflammation of the bowels or intestines). Symptoms on worms in puppies are as follows: Voracious appetite. And the puppy instead of being in good condition is generally unthrifty, does not grow and is sometimes thin. The abdomen is distended, sometimes to a great extent, which if such is the case generally interferes with respiration or breathing. Bowel action is more or less irregular and may be accompanied with diarrhoea.

ALL SPANIELS.

More people ask us for a book on Spaniels than for any other book printed. And along comes the dean of American dog fanciers, i.e., Freeman Lloyd, with a spic, span and elaborate little volume on all Spaniels, notice that we refer to the book as "little," and we mean that in the sense that we would use the word if referring to precious jewels.

In "All Spaniels" an authority has written under the following captions: "Spaniels of Yesterday and To-Day," "Yard-training," "Teaching him to down Charge," etc., "Spaniels Should Not be Pointers." "The pleasures of Shooting to Spaniels," etc., "The Puppy and the Water," "Rearing Spaniel Puppies," "Points of the Several Branches of the Spaniel Family," etc.

In Freeman Lloyd's book the reader will find heaps of information, plenty of actual instruction, with a prodigality of the most fascinating of the older and newer pictures of Sporting Spaniels.

Kennel & Bench appreciates receiving the authors' autographed copy of "All Spaniels," and in turn recommends the book to all who have need for such a volume. Copies may be obtained at Kennel and Bench office at the published price, $2.00.

ors with new breeds and new owners ranks of popular breeds, not omitting neration of homebreds shown by the fanciers, all speak for progress in dogs.

apparent at the most recent Maritime h occurred the last week in August for nel Club, Halifax, immediately followed ck Kennel Club show in Saint John.

ndeed new exhibitors to our ranks, sin- that some of them done so well—not just ey had the goods!

Curdy, Halifax, always keen on a good de his debut on the show bench this sea- ee useful own-bred English setters and orted liver and white Springer, Don of at both shows. Iona is a well set up, grand good head, excellent front, ample bone, e Setter—not in his best form, but t him to go up for best Setter under nly one English Setter bitch at Halifax same award at Saint John, which we sed gives her enough of the necessary nor roll. Her name, Trevallen Una, Britt, reminds us that in the ancient ps and iron men the Lloyds were Lords E. Lloyd, Alberta, was the breeder of ner. To the credit of Henry McLeod breeder of the winner's dog and bitch Herbert J. Keyes, whose variety kennel hibit, went on top with his Irish bitch ner's bitch. The same award and best ost typical Irish Water Spaniel, Larny. wner, Eric P. Flowers, and Red Dawn, y J. D. Whitely, worthy owners and tors. Mike Haliburton was winner's and best of breed under Mr. Reeves. ndeed to see our good friend James T. istrious Picton County manufacturer, ards at the two fixtures. At Halifax ter, Rector's Morning Glow, won the cker—and was winner's solid dog at ay," whose "sempre giovine" (always young) appearance belies his youth. One of the first exhibitors in Nova Scotia who has owned and shown with more or less success, Fox Terriers, Bostons, Irish Terriers and Cocker Spaniels. At present he seems our only representative fancier from the mining country and New Glasgow, quite an active doggy centre a few years ago. The most honors in Cockers, winners in both colors in bitches, went to J. C. Cavanaugh, our New Brunswick invader, winning parti bitches with his Roman's Western Beauty, a very smart black and white whom Mr. Reeves chose for his best Cocker at Saint John. The same owners of My Own Cedargrove Crescent, a quite typical, sound red by the noted American sire, M. O. Peter Manning, ex M. O. Irene, winner's solid bitches. It's a bright prospect for the future that our bitches are on the up and up—good breeding and the right stamp.

Harry Richardson, the first Maritime Whippeter, made his debut with his racing dogs under Freeman Lloyd, a rare privilege to the public. His fawn bitch puppy Victory Little Maid, bred by R. Holliday, won the special at both events for best of breed—also Novice Variety class under Mr. Reeves. Victory Golden Lad went to winners under Mr. Lloyd—all a good start for their sporting owner, who is anxious to race as well as bench.

It is several years since Ontario invaded the Maritimes, especially with Airedales. We certainly welcomed F. J. W. Mason, of Peterboro, who attended Halifax and entered for both shows and won with his most likeable Terrier, Dallas of Dal-Aire an American-bred young dog by the well-known imported sire, Int. Ch. Floronel Walnut King. Dallas is a right sized terrier, very desirable color, neat ears, attractive head, excellent front, sound and moves right. An easy winner at both Shows.

Smooth Fox Terriers are having a better day and are bound to do well in such good hands as F. W. Johnson, Halifax, and Ronald S. Vaughan, Glen Falls, N.B., both excellent rivals. Mr. Johnson's two new youngsters, Mewburn bred, Danby Mogul and Danby Mollie, both by Ch. Headley President. Mogul, a well-marked black and white, is a neatly balanced sort, a keen shower nicely put down and handled well by friend Zwicker. He went right through his classes and for best of breed under both judges. Mollie went reserve winners, stopped only by Vaughan's veteran imported terrier, Prides Hill Dryden Dairy Maid. No denying her merit — such a laster! Winners bitch all round and best in Veteran Variety Classes. Wire Fox Terriers was the best show in these coats since when Bob Ross judged in 1921 at Fredericton, N.B. Such celebrities present then were Int. Ch. Ridgeway Dark Boy, Ch. Homeless Hector, Ormsby Lilias, Ormsby Metagama and Ormsby Snowball, the latter three became worthy champions, while Metagama and Snowball won enough points in U.S.A. to deserve the dual title. James F. Strachan had a generous Ormsby string of terriers ably-benched and shown by the genial "Harry" Armistead. Their O Johnny Alex. was supreme at both shows and best terrier under Mr. Reeves in better shape and form than his first appearance in Halifax last year under Alf Delmont. Reserve and close up, Wm. Smith's Humbervale Cracker, more matured, a finished keener terrier than his last showing. Mr. Smith also showed a winsome bitch in his newly imported Queen Road White Collar Lass sired by the very noted English winner Ch. Wycollar Wonder ex Collar Boys Pride. Mr. Lloyds choice for winners bitch with Ormsby Paradise runner up. Under Mr. Reeves these awards were reversed for winners with Ormsby Winsome N.B.K.C. winner, and best opposite sex to the best in Show, Peterhoff of Marlboro, that splendid hound and typical so well bred and shown by his capable owner Maurice B. Zwicker, Halifax. Mr. Smiths, White Collar Lass so well bred a junior bitch but a few weeks over, will, we affirm, do better. A neatly made terrier, correct size, carries a lovely ear, eye and expression, ample bone, rare feet, a sound, well bodied, shows well. Regret she arrived over short on coat. Joe Donohoe and Fred Fougere both benched new Wires and placed in awards. Donohoe's Broomhill Knockout is a hound-marked, neatly made son of Wireboy Simon, not in his best form. Fougere's puppy, a new English importation, must not grow on, but Master Peter Pan will improve.

Sealyhams from Cardigan Kennels made an attractive display at N.S.K.C. for Miss Alice J. G. O'Brien. Several new faces including two lovable puppies royally bred by Int. Ch. St. Margarets Surprise of Lucknow, ex Shelterfield Samples. The latter was winners bitch at both shows, a much improved Sealy since her last exhibition. Best of the five entries rightly awarded the very smart dog St. Margarets Serial, who is Ch. St. Margarets Serene ex Holbourne Hyacinth. A real terrier this, owns a lovely head, eye and ear, right in front, good body and quarters that will still improve. His coat is excellent, is a grand shower and he will go far. Runner up for best dog any breed in Saint John, also best in terrier group. Miss O'Brien showed a most promising puppy in Halifax named Cardigan Cardinal of which I am sure will make his mark. He has an attractive head, keen dark eyes, good ear, nice coat and style that holds one's attention.

Irish Terriers had nothing new in Nova Scotia and the entry was down in Saint John. We sorely missed the late Mrs. Wm. Bowman's entry — reference to her memory on another column — but two puppies went up in each sex. Here we have John Scott, the breeder, doing the breed a good turn, he bred the winning puppy which went best of breed. R. C. Vaughan's Irish Idol, appealing color, coat and size, handles well. Maritime Rusey, winners dog, litter brother of Idol's; owner, Miss Marietta Clark.

A. V. Martin again scored in Collies in dogs and Bitches with Loch Lomond Lindy, and L. L. Lucky, also his Mountaineer Mistress. Mr. Martin's bitches were best of breed at each Show. W. F. Morris also benched a splendid lot — of these more later.

Toy Breeds were a slim entry at Saint John with Mrs. H. Shorts, Pom outstanding, Sunbright Daisy Girl, a well-bred typical shaded orange. Winners had a new exhibitor with her bright red "Little Dare Devil of Dara" owned by Miss May Reynard, Halifax, who also had the reserve dog, a puppy, Little Lord, out of coat, but nice type and a shower. Her's also done well under Mr. Lloyd.

Pekingese had a large entry at Halifax Show, mostly Cedarcrest entries or breeding. Mrs. Margeson's Pagan Prince of Cedarcrest, a glorious red, better each time out, and sire of the winning bitch—the same owner's San Tee of Cedarcrest, a typical sable with a nice flat face and shapely body.

Best in Show at both events was the high honor awarded Peterhoff of Marlboro, one of the most typical hounds shown in Canada to-day. In make, shape and conformation—about ideal. Color, black and white, nicely marked. Peterhoff has the best front, legs and feet possible, is sound and moves well. We are safe in saying he is the only Russian Wolfhound who has a record of Best in Show and Best Canadian-bred twice this season. A fine addition to the already worthy record of Marlboro hounds. Another good award went to the enthusiastic Beagler, Gordon Carnel and his most useful Rockywold Charmer, best opposite sex under Mr. Lloyd at Halifax, where Beagles have a popular entry and well maintained by the friendly rivals—W. A. Cornwall and Mr. Carnell.

One of the most interesting happenings of the 1930 Show Circuit as far as Halifax is concerned, is woven around the "Woolworth Setter" as Mike Haliburton has been dubbed. His owner Eric Flowers, of Halifax, was holder of the lucky "ten cent ticket" when Mike was drawn for on the closing night of the Halifax Show, 1929, an awkward, rawboned, Irish Setter pup, but he had the stuff behind him that makes champions, being sired by Ch. Senora Alcho and out of the imported bitch, Ch. Nan Brown, she by Int. Ch. Terry of Boyne. Mike will be remembered, was reserve winners at the Canine Association of Montreal Show in June, reserve winners at the Shriners' Show in Toronto, and at Halifax, winners dog, and at Saint John, best of breed, twenty-two of the Red Coats at the latter show. So it goes to prove that the wise birds cannot always pick the rough diamond.

F. W. Johnson reports a litter of five smooth fox terrier puppies sired by Dandy Marksman, a grandson on his sire's side of Ch. Darella and on his dam's side of Clapton Glengarian. They own as their dam the well known winner Prides Hill Saphire. Halifax Dandy Molly has just returned from a visit to Ferns Result. Mr. Johnson is looking for something outstanding from this mating. Molly is a litter brother to Mogul.

Dr. Victor Hogan has purchased from Major Cook a red Cocker male puppy sired by Overcross Firelight, ex Fry and O'Connel's imported winner, Charmwood Trixie. We welcome Dr. Hogan to the family of Red Cocker owners which is rapidly growing in Halifax.

W. H. Dennis, managing editor of the Halifax Herald and The Evening Mail, has purchased from the Nova Kennels a litter brother to Son O' Dunn.

John Burns reports a sale of a Manchester bitch puppy to J. McA. Scammell, Port Medway. She has been named Medway Queen, a daughter of Harvester Contest and Willowdale Chloe.

Sporting dog men will be much interested in the purchase of the New Hampshire field trial winner, Smada Red King. He is the sire of the local owned Irish Setter Red Dawn who looked so imposing with her kennel mates on the bench at Halifax. This was a most unique display put on by J. D. Whitely of the Glenmore Kennel, and H. M. McLeod of the Hali-burton Kennel. It consisted of a log cabin built entirely of white birch poles, banked at the sides by spruce trees. Hanging over the camp door were the spoils of the chase and on the verandah were chained four Irish Setters. A system of colored lights were so arranged that it gave the effect of a golden sunset's last rays.

Carl Bethune has purchased from Fred Fougere, a black Cocker puppy, sired by William Powell's Ch. Blackwood. Mr. Bethune intends to enter the show game in 1931.

Mr. A. V. Martin reports the sale of a bitch puppy to V. W. Williams, of Lethbridge, Alberta, sired by Loch Lomand Lucky ex Oakland June. A dog puppy of the same litter has gone to H. Pepper, of Dartmouth. Another male puppy by Loch Lomand Lucky ex Lock Lomand Mist has been sold to Frank Nightingale of this city. Still another, by Lucky ex the winning Mountaineer Model has gone to Cliff Nickerson, a lover of good collies. He hopes this one will be able to turn the trick on the Oakland Collies at the next Show. Murray Fraser of Halifax, son of the Hon. J. Fred Fraser, has purchased a dog puppy from the same litter. L. Norman has purchased a tri-colored puppy out of Oakland Gloria by Lucky, a litter brother going to Allan Dickson, Hampton River, Nova Scotia. Who said Collies were dying out?

J. A. Zwicker of Pine Crest Gardens, Bedford, reports the sale of a male puppy to Dr. Leon Fluke, Marlborough Woods. Also a female puppy to Fred Fougere and one to James Whitely. He will retain a saddle back dog puppy and a most promising bitch with which he hopes to defeat the writer when they have reached their maturity. The above puppies are sired by Ochtorloney Pilot, imported, a Ferndale bred one, ex the winning Easter Peggy, a granddaughter of the noted His Majesty. They will be registered under the prefix of "Gorsebrook."

There was a good demand for all kinds of dogs at the Halifax Show, which augurs well for the future of the Nova Scotia Kennel Club. Henry McLeod sold his young dog, General Haliburton, to H. Warner of Elmsdale, a litter brother going to B. Miller, in New Glasgow. The above two are sons of Ch. Lady Haliburton. Still another of the "Red Coats" has gone to Mayor Madden, of Liverpool, N.S., he is a son of General Haliburton and Ch. Nan Brown.

This is the first year that any real competition has made itself felt in the "Diehards", five being benched at this Show.

Ralph Proctor is most enthusiastic in regard to the litter of four males and three female Great Dane puppies sired by the winning Toronto dog, Von Zar Baron, ex his home bred Ch. Model of Evangaline, who finished her title at the Shriners' Show. Will you not agree with me that things look bright for the Fancy in the Eastern Province. It will be interesting news to many who follow the English Setter to hear of the importation by W. T. Miller, of the English Setter dog, Tijuca Bramble, bred by J. A. McKimmel, B.C. He is a son of Ch. Tijuca Blonde ex Tijuca Rummy Smokey. A new face in English Setters this year was Emscote Benny, bred by Isaac Sharps, Scotland, sired by Scottish field trial winner Buller ex Lily. Benny was best of breed at Halifax and reserve winners dog at Saint John. He is a sound one with the best of legs and feet and built on working lines and in addition to his Show qualities is proving himself an apt pupil in the field. He will be shot over this Fall by his sporting owner, the Hon. F. B. McCurdy, Squire of Emscote, who maintains a marvellous hunting lodge, "Pinehurst", in Queens County, where woodcock and ruffled grouse abound. The owner has stocked this district with Hungarian Partridge, but the season will not open on these birds this year. They are doing particularly well, however, and will provide some interesting shooting and good bags for the future.

WELLAND AND DISTRICT KENNEL CLUB SHOW

SPECIAL REVIEW

By the Judge, Walter H. Reeves.

It is certainly pleasing to note the number of new clubs that are being formed in Ontario and also to be able to record the signal success achieved by one of the newcomers, the Welland and District Kennel Club, who held its first show in conjunction with the Welland Fair. The show was held under canvas, but so great was the interest shown in the show by the visitors to the Fair that already a promise has been given to set aside a building for the show next year. President J. Stoddard Wilson, Vice-President Thos. Wilson and Secretary-Treasurer Walter Lee and the following committee, G. Smith, J. Wright, F. Lane, G. Tilley, H. Lampson, H. H. Waldon, J. McMurray, G. Hunt and Dr. H. H. Hodgson, V.S., are deserving of very sincere congratulations for staging and carrying through so successful a show. The gate must have netted a goodly sum, in fact, the Kennel Club should show a nice balance at the bank.

The surprising feature of the show was the meagre entry of local dogs, practically all the dogs came from a distance, the committee strove for a high quality entry and they certainly succeeded. Our "Jimmy" agreed with the writer that the sporting dog group was one of the best ever brought into a judging ring. Boston Terriers saw Mrs. Geo Allen's quality little terrier, "Allen's High Hat," gain his Canadian championship. Jas. Land's great little bitch, "High Ball Miss Canada," admirably handled and shown by Alf Loveridge, gained the special and proved a strong contender for Best in Show. Pekingese were a high quality group, Mrs. Denyer Morris' heavy-coated "Ah Chow of Alderbowne" just having the call in coat and condition over the Wizbang Kennels' typical parti-color, "Wizbang Mandarine Bennie," a dog that will go far when in condition. Mrs. Richardson's "Win Sum of Rivercourt" had a film over one eye, but in spite of this, her type and general all-round quality placed her ahead. Pomeranians, another nice group. Miss J. W. Bruce brought out in "Melbourne King of Spades" one of the best black puppies seen for many a day. Uncertain yet in deportment and his feet spoilt by long nails, beautiful head, tiny, well-placed ears, a short back covered with a dense, sound, colored coat, and fine bone. Mrs. Wylie's good little sable "Cairndhu Joan," was on her best behaviour; on this account I gave her the special. Collies, fair. Alex. Donaldson's "Headingly Sweetheart" being easily the best Bulldog. "Greymonat Lachabur II," a compact, real smart puppy with extra good body and formation of shoulders, needing time yet to flatten in skull, and on this account he could not quite get in front of Walter Blakemore's "Strathearn Monarch," a very good all-round red and white. "Kaslo Robin Adair," a very attractive brindle a shade long in back and not moving well behind, scored over "Muster Prince Tony" in shoulders and layback. "Little Model of Greymonat," a sound, good little brindle pied-lightweight, easily gained the special. "Ferns Result" gained his championship title and was easily the best Smooth Fox Terrier present. In Wires, F. Hargreaves brought out a very useful puppy in "Wellington Crusader," but he lost in maturity to Robt. McAdam's "Stormy Boy," a real nice all-round Wire. The special and also Best in Show was awarded to "Albany Chestnut," a really beautiful terrier and easily the best, in the opinion of the writer, bred in Canada since "Ormsby Lightning." She owns a real jacket, moves soundly, coming and going, has a charming head, keen expression and neat little ears, with splendid legs and feet. Her breeder, W. Rushton, is to be sincerely congratulated on breeding such a real terier. Alex. Gooderham's "Hettle von Bodman" was easily the best of a rather nice group of Shepherds. In Cockers, the claims of B. H. Heppleston's sound black "Stormcloud of Barrie" could not be denied. The Wizbang Kennels had the best Irish Setter forward in "Wizbang Coral." H. V. P. Lewis' flat-coated retriever, "Gronwen Mutant," put up a great fight against the Wire for Best in Show. Dr. and Mrs. Batt had a real team of Scotties competing, their "Haldon Lainda," when she gains a little more confidence, will, no doubt, reverse the placings of the day when W. Aitken's "Greythorpe Grit," on account of his die-hard character and fire, had the pull. Springer Spaniels—somehow I missed marking the awards, the winning dog and bitch are good enough to win in any company. Sid Perkins' good Airedale, "Warbuck Mixer," came, saw and easily won in his group. Pierson and Eberhardt had a couple of real little Beagles in "River Park Jim" and "River Park Show Lady." English Setters saw three excellent specimens, "Corehill Mac" and "Ch. Esteralda" had a tussle in dogs, the former having the call in loin and feet. "Wizbang Meg," although in poor form, could not be denied the special. Lt. Col. G. F. McFarland's great Bull Terrier, "Ch. Albion Victor," was not extended in his group. "Bob Sand," a real good all-round Pointer, easily gained the special in his group.

BULLDOG ACTIVITIES.

On Tuesday night, September 9th, The English Bulldog Club of Canada held their semi-annual meeting, when all items pertaining to the forthcoming Bulldog Specialty Show were discussed.

The president, "Reg" P. Sparkes, was in the chair, and the members were advised that the Specialty Show of the English Bulldog Club of Canada would be held on November 10th; the Auditorium of the Humane Society of Toronto having been secured for this event.

Colonel Robt. Guggenheim was elected by the members to adjudicate and very kindly consented to act, and it is hoped that a record entry will be obtained, not only from the kennels throughout Canada, but from the kennels of many of the leading American fanciers.

Besides the usual prize money, various cups, medals and specials are being offered, and every effort made to make this show one of the most outstanding Specialty Shows ever held.

At the conclusion of the business J. A. Campbell, B.V.Sc., Honorary Veterinary Surgeon of the Canadian Kennel Club, gave a highly interesting talk on the feeding, breeding and rearing of the English Bulldog, and at the conclusion of same, the President thanked Dr. Campbell, and on behalf of the officers and members, he was presented with a Honorary Membership in the club.

A seventy-year-old argument . . . . .

Over seventy years ago Spratt's first pointed out the need of a specialized diet for dogs, and provided for it in a series of foods which are now famous throughout the civilized world.

For seventy years Spratt's-fed dogs have shown by their successes in the show ring, by their greater health and happiness, that Spratt's meaty biscuits and nourishing meals meet the needs of the doggy constitution as do no other foods or feeding system.

Imitations have come — and gone. The seventy-year-old argument remains. Dogs—YOUR DOG—need a specialized diet, and in Spratt's foods alone are their special requirements catered for in a way that definitely ensures increased health and condition.

Spratt's world-wide organization is at your service for the selling, shipping and insuring of dogs as well as in their care and management.
