Old Trusty Dog Foods and Remedies

Unique in its make-up and purpose, the Old Trusty Dog Food Company is owned and managed wholly by dog men and devotes its entire resources to the manufacture and sale of foods, remedies and accessories pertinent to the well-being of the dog. Due to specialization and the wealth of practical knowledge available, in a single decade it has grown from an individual's dream to a place of dominance in dogdom.

It is hardly necessary to describe the Old Trusty foods in detail, except to say that all of them are free from medication, and from sweetening or any other treatment to make them deceptively palatable. It is because they are natural dog foods, scientifically balanced, that the dog relishes them and does not tire of them.

Each remedy in the Old Trusty chest is compounded for its special purpose after years of study and practical research, from the famous formulas of Dr. G. G. Anderson, noted veterinarian. They are safe and dependable. Easily and effectively given at home.

Meeting of the Board of Directors of the Canadian Kennel Club, Incorporated

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Directors of the Canadian Kennel Club Inc., was held at the Club's offices, 25 Melinda Street, Toronto, on Thursday, April 16th, at 8 o'clock.

The President, Brig.-Gen. C. M. Nelles, presided. Other Directors in attendance were Col. J. N. MacRae, Harry Wilson, Lt.-Col. G. F. McFarland, F. LaRue, F. W. Walkerdine, R. L. Wainright, Reg. P. Sparkes, A. Donaldson, R. Tyrwhitt.

The Secretary advised that Major Ward Wright was being delayed on account of business and possibly would be unable to attend.

The minutes of the previous Directors' Meeting were read. It was pointed out, that the correct reading of the Minute (see page 5, April issue, right hand column) was: "That, in future Kennel and Bench be in the mails on the first of each month." The minutes with this correction were declared adopted.

Correspondence was read from the Chairman of the British Columbia Provincial Committee. After discussion it was regularly moved, seconded and carried:

"That, the report of the British Columbia Provincial Committee be accepted, and that we conform with their recommendation by raising the suspension of Norman McConnell."

On Motion, regularly moved, seconded and carried, it was agreed, That, the action of the Directors at the last meeting with regard to the registration of unregistered champions be reconsidered, and that the Club's representatives to the Live Stock Record Board be requested to take up the matter again with the Minister of Agriculture.

A letter was read from T. P. Murray, Vancouver, B.C., requesting Canadian Kennel Club endorsement of his application to judge all sporting breeds and terriers at American Kennel Club Shows. It was agreed by motion regularly proposed, seconded and carried—

"That, the matter be referred to the British Columbia Provincial Committee by telegraph, with request for telegraphic reply, which, if found favorable would govern the endorsement by the Secretary."

A letter from the Live Stock Records Office which set forth the circumstance of E. S. Wilde, Kingston, Ont., being unable to secure registration for a Cocker Spaniel from A.

McMahon, also of Kingston, and it was agreed to leave the matter with the Secretary for the meantime.

A letter was read from C. A. Stone, Toronto, which pointed out activity of the City Pound and suggesting that the work could be more humanely handled by the Toronto Humane Society. After discussion, it was regularly moved, seconded and carried:

"That, Lt.-Col. G. F. McFarland be appointed a Committee of one to take up with Mr. Wilson of the Toronto Humane Society, the matter of the recommendation that the capturing of stray dogs be taken over by The Toronto Humane Society from the city.

It was moved, seconded and carried—

"That Major Ward Wright and Lt.-Col. G. F. McFarland be authorized to forward to the Minister of Agriculture, such amendments to the Constitution as were passed upon favorably by the members at the Annual General Meeting."

Lt.-Col. G. F. McFarland reporting for "Tenders for printing Kennel and Bench Committee" advised that over 20 tenders had been received ranging in price from $651.20 to $220.00. That the Committee had decided on four firms and had asked such to make revised tenders and from such revised tenders three were given consideration, and speaking on behalf of the other members of his Committee they favored the tender of Stone and Cox, whilst he personally favored the Garden City Press, for the reason that, that firm had given the Club good service for 10 years.

It was regularly moved, seconded and carried—

That Messrs. Stone and Cox be awarded the contract to print the Club's official organ, Kennel and Bench, for a period of 12 (twelve) months commencing with the June issue at the price of $295.75 for 3,500 copies (monthly) in accordance with their estimate submitted. It is to be understood that workmanship, material, make-up, stock, etc., must be to the same specification as per sample copy of Kennel and Bench rendered to them for the purpose of submitting estimate, otherwise contract is subject to immediate cancellation. Extra 500 copies at a price of $19.75.

THE MORRIS AND ESSEX.

The annual show of the Morris and Essex Kennel Club has won the reputation of being the greatest outdoor show in this country, if not in the world. On that account dog fanciers generally will be interested in the plans for this year's show, which will be held May 23, again on the polo field of Giralda Farms, the country home of Mrs. M. Hartley Dodge, at Madison, N.J. Last year, the Morris and Essex show was second only to the Westminster in the number of dogs shown, a remarkable thing in view of the fact that the former is only a one-day show, whereas the latter runs for three days.

This year the prize money and trophies offered at the Morris and Essex show have been doubled. There will be 100 sterling silver trophies to be won outright, the greatest array of specials ever offered at a dog show, as well as increased cash prizes in each of the regular classes ($5.00, $3.00, $2.00). Because of the popularity of this show, three speciality clubs have arranged to hold their annual fixtures in connection with it. They are the Russian Wolfhound Club, and the Bulldog Club of America and the Kerry Blue Terrier Club of America.

As in the past, the best judges obtainable have been recruited for this show. They include two experts from England and several from Canada, as well as judges from all parts of this country. No judge will handle more than one breed in the regular classes, and there will be a different judge for each of the groups and for best in the show. This brings the total of judges to thirty-nine, another record for a one-day show.

The two judges who are coming from England for the show are Lady Kitty Ritson, and Miss M. S. Kearns. Lady Kitty will judge the German shepherd, a breed she handled so satisfactorily at the 1930 Westminster. Miss Kearns, who is regarded as one of the leading judges of Irish wolfhounds in England will have those big dogs at Madison.

Walter H. Reeves, Belleville, Ont., will judge for the best dog in show, all breeds.

THE PICARDY KENNEL

Type and Temperament

ERICH VON ZUCHTGUT

(P.H., H.G.H., Such.H., Sch.H., Zpr.)

After his first and only show in England (Manchester), 270 entries.

Erich while in England shown once—bred once—the result of that show is before you—the litter out of Cillallah of Picardy is outstanding. At Crufts, under Werlik and only seven months' old, first, third and fourth in a class of seventeen (Major Baldwin says the first dog is a fast one); the bitch puppy second in a class of twenty one.

Erich is a very typical Shepherd, sound as a dollar, highly trained and very intelligent. A dog of great value to this or any kennel.

Hella — the favorite bitch of Major Baldwin — the bitch which produced the two best pups he has ever raised, Veceroy of Picardy and Wondrous of Picardy — was sent over here principally to be mated with Erich.

Major J. Y. Baldwin, with Hella Vom Mathildenhof, Sch.H., and Erich Vom Zuchtgut, P.H., H.G.H., Sch.H., Zpr.

NOTES FROM ALBERTA

By Prov. Con. Editor R. S. Tyrrell,
Bottrel, Alta.

Everything seems to indicate that Medicine Hat is going to put over the best show in its Clubs' history. Calgary fanciers are turning out in strength and as is usual Lethbridge Kennels will be strongly represented. There are also many dogs coming from outside points.

Owing to the large amount of relief that has been undertaken by the City during the past winter the Medicine Hat boys have decided not to ask for the usual donations from the City. Their President, A. O. Bean, has worked strenuously to cover this deficit and a Whist Drive, Supper and Dance with a door prize of a beautiful floor lamp will be given to the lucky ticket holder. Mr. Bean is expecting the Airedale Bitch which has been mated to "Rockley Brigand," a son of "Heene Brigand," purchased from Sid Perkins, Toronto, to arrive in time for the Show. This shows a combination of "Clee Courtier, Flornell Bentwood Lady and "Heene Brigand" blood which should produce something worth while.

We hear that George Lydiatt of Vancouver, has purchased "Kempthurst Craftsman" from Mrs. C. Twaites for a good round sum.

J. E. Hunter of Calgary, has received a couple of nice wire puppies from W. Riome of the "Mutual Kennels," Moose Jaw. He also recently purchased the high-class wire "Bestman," a son of "Barrington Bridegroom," from Mr. Holliday, of Lachine, Que. His smooth bitch, "Danby Molly," is appearing at the Saskatoon Show. That staunch fancier, L. Cunningham, of Calgary, is on the lookout for another good Shepherd to replace his dog "Gerry von Bergerlust." He is also looking for a high-class "Great Dane." We would like to advise those interested to take advantage of the Advertising columns of Kennel and Bench, many sales are being lost to Canadian breeders owing to the fact that American Kennels use publicity to better advantage.

Through the cooperation of the Alberta Kennel Club, the Alberta Fox Terrier Association are holding their Show on the Wednesday of Exhibition week. The Alberta Kennel Club having Wednesday and Thursday. "Bill" Pym, our British Columbia Director, will don the judicial robes, and needless to say the entry will be a large one, for "Bill" is as well known and popular in these parts as he is on the South side of the line, where he so frequently officiates. The Fox Terrier Association expect to have at least one hundred dogs benched. Mrs. C. Riesterer has been elected on the Committee in place of Mrs. Moore (nee Miss A. Clark).

We have had a long and interesting letter from Walter Riome, of Moose Jaw, and are pleased to hear that he is making steady progress towards recovery from a severe attack of pneumonia. Due to his illness he has not been able to attend the Saskatoon Show and was greatly disappointed in having to miss the meeting at which our Saskatchewan Director, "Archie" Semple of Regina, gave a review of his visit to the annual meetings at Toronto. A musical programme, lunch and dance completed a very pleasant evening.

The dates set for the Alberta Kennel Club Show in connection with the Calgary Exhibition are fixed for Wednesday and Thursday, July 8th and 9th. This is the annual all-breed event. It will be preceded by the Fox Terrier specialty Show on Tuesday 7th. The Judge for which will be announced later.

Mrs. S. Wize, of Edmonton, has been another unfortunate victim of pneumonia and has been in hospital for five weeks. Her very kind letter is much appreciated under the circumstances. Mr. and Mrs. Wize are applying to have the name "Kent" registered as a Kennel prefix. She draws our attention to the fact that "Monk of Burnside" the sire of "Ch. Vale," the now celebrated New York winner, was bred by our local fancier, Harry Crook of Mirror. This is not the only good one Harry has bred. It appears too that Mrs. Wize was really the breeder of "Ch. Vale," being on a visit to England at the time Mr. Burns purchased "Flirt," "Vales" mother, but this was some time after the puppies were born. On March 17th "Stripes," "Vale's" full litter sister, owned by Allan Symes, whelped ten puppies, two dogs and eight bitches. "Stylish Jock" was the sire. J. Rawlings and Mr. McCool have each purchased one of Ch. "Vale's" puppies. "High Tide Barney" owned by Dan Morgan of Washington, U.S.A., was the father. Arthur Wright is taking a string of Edmonton dogs down to Saskatoon, which will include both Ch. "Vale of Burnside" and one of her sons, "Kim of Kent."

"Rosamond of Marlborough" by Ch. "Korol" ex Ch. "Nona of Shay" Imp. whelped three male and five female puppies by Ch. Cossack "Michael" on April 2nd, at the Cossack Kennels.

KENNEL NAMES GRANTED.

The Kennel Name "Cairndania" has been registered in the name of G. W. Hyslop, Toronto, Ont.

The Kennel Name "Winna" has been registered in the name of Miss W. M. Steggall, Montreal, Que.

The Kennel Name "Gronwen" has been registered in the name of H. V. P. Lewis, Toronto, Ont.

The Kennel Name "Lammond" has been transferred from Mrs. Alex. Temple to Mr. G. Kenneth Alton, Freeman, Ont.

The Kennel Name "Sasoon" has been registered in the name of Robert Gordon, Saskatoon, Sask.

The Kennel Name "Leighton" has been registered in the names of Messrs. A. Hird and L. Scott, St. Lambert Annex P.O., Chambly County, Quebec.

The Kennel Name "Fermanagh" has been registered in the name of H. M. Elliott, 47 Queen St., Kingsville, Ont.

ARCHIE SEMPLE'S NEW BREEDS.

When Mr. Semple attended the Annual General Meeting at Toronto, he had his eye open for something live in the way of souvenirs. He found a Boston puppy, which is now nearing the age where he may compete at the shows. The youngster was bred by Mrs. Neina Williams, Toronto, and was sired by Sanak King ex Smart Set Girl, a bitch that was also bred by Mrs. Williams.

(A smart baby boy has just been born to Mrs. Williams, and she says that as a son of "Princess Moo" he will be eligible for the Governor Generalship of Canada, or at least for the directorate of the Canadian Kennel Club. Congratulations—Ed. note.)

A Schipperke, Which One of the North, daughter of Int. Ch. Coltness Little Skipper ex Ch. Jean of the North, was another purchase of Mr. Semple's, and he tells us that as a watch dog it is a real find. We miss our guess if this little black devil does not make her Canadian Championship on the Western circuit this year.

Hamilton Kennel Club Show

All was activity around the corner of Jackson and Catherine Streets, at Hamilton, on Good Friday morning, April 3rd. Mr. and Mrs. Dog Fancier, from all over the Province of Ontario and points beyond, seemed to be arriving one after the other, and, with them, all the dogs it was convenient to bring along. At the receiving office, Dr. Wilfrid J. Rumney examined each dog with meticulous care, and after his examination the health and sex of the show was assured.

The morning was rather raw, and the building was rather cold, a combination that was none too inviting. The morning decided to continue being cold, but the building was soon comfortably warm as the dogs were benched, and the fanciers got moving around. The caterer found his hot coffee a welcome beverage.

Frank H. Addyman, the perpetual Mayor of Ardsley, N.Y., was the all-rounder, and commenced judging on Russian Wolfhounds, and went on to Airedales, and so was off to a good start. Cool and accurate in his work as usual, those present who had not seen Mr. Addyman in action before were satisfied to hang around his ring and watch his judging. We referred to the judge as being the perpetual Mayor of Ardsley, and we believe that he has served his community in the capacity of Mayor for four 2-year terms, dropped out in the 1929 election for good, but the people ordained otherwise, and so in the 1931 election recently held, all previous poll records went into the discard as popular Frank took up the reins of government for the fifth time.

Guy Cowper made his debut as Judge at a licensed show in Canada, and had for his share Fox Terriers of both coats. Naturally his work was closely followed, as he had come from the Motherland with enviable credentials as breeder, judge and writer. To say that his work was pleasingly performed would be to express the truth but mildly.

The English system of holding the dogs of a class that had been judged, but were entered for further classes, always to the one side of the ring was followed right through, so that at the commencement of each class the "new faces" were on one side of the ring ready to be compared with the best of the previous class. The carrying of a high lead with the consequent "tripping on tiptoes" was not encouraged, and many a "high stepper" failed to step just as high on the loose lead, however, the arrangement did allow the dogs to move naturally, which, after all, is the most fascinating style to those who know their terriers. Mr. Cowper will undoubtedly be asked to judge again—and often.

Much credit is due to President Frank Patrick and his officers for the show generally, every man was in his place, and so the wheels, when placed in motion, ran smoothly. There were the usual little worries that always creep in on the best of managements, but all in all, the show was as pleasant as it was undoubtedly welcome.

It was pleasing to notice that our Canadian Kennel Club director, R. L. Wainright, had stepped in with the Executive and helped put the show over in a vigorous manner.

FOX TERRIERS AT HAMILTON

By the Judge, Guy Cowper, Toronto.

It was indeed a great pleasure for me to accept the invitation of the Hamilton Kennel Club, through the newly-formed Canadian Fox Terrier Association, to judge both coats, at their Seventh Annual Show, held on Friday, April 3rd.

Being an entire stranger to both exhibitors and exhibits, it was with no small misgivings that I undertook the task, which was my first Judgeship in this country.

I wish to thank all for their splendid entry, which I understand is a record for the Club, and also for the sportsmanlike manner in which the exhibitors and spectators alike received my awards.

Speaking generally, I was very much impressed with the all-round quality and type of the Terriers paraded before me. The diversity in size of many of the Terriers, in both coats, was very evident, some of them being far too large.

The Smooths were very disappointing in numbers; apparently they are not so fashionable in Canada as their rough-coated brothers. But after all, what is more handsome than a typical Smooth Fox Terrier? One cannot "doctor" a Smooth Fox Terrier; you must take him as he is, not as you can make him; his coat prevents any manipulation in this direction. There are far more bad Terriers bred in the wire-haired variety than the smooth, and if some of the good wire-haired Terriers were stripped of their coats, they would reveal a great weakness in bone, feet, under-jaw and hind quarters, qualifications which a sound Terrier must possess.

To revert to the exhibits:—

Smooth Winner's Dogs—"Connecticut Yankee." This dog is right for size, bone, legs, feet and body properties, but he is wide in front, and very plain in head.

Reserve—"Barnsley Joe Blake." Has a better quality head than the winner, but is long in back, weak in hind quarters, and full up to size.

Winner's Bitches—"Awbeg Nymph of Monaghan." A most charming type of Terrier, full of quality, with real Terrier expression, but could do with a little more timber.

Wires, Winner's Dogs—"Walnut Blazer." A very assertive, nice-sized Terrier, well-shaped body, not over-long head, which handles better than it looks, excellent placement of shoulders, good bone, legs, feet and pads, well-formed hind quarters, and is covered with a coat of the right texture.

Reserve—"Superman of Blarney." Lots to like about this Terrier; a bit heavy in ears; did not move as well as the winner; has good coat and body.

Winner's Bitches—"Dogberry Frivolous." A grand stamp of Terrier; has nice placement of shoulders, good legs and feet, but not so sound in movement both fore and aft; owns the right texture coat.

"Walnut Wee Lassie." A nice type of Terrier all through, but fails in head and feet, and none too good in movement.

Best of Breed—"Walnut Blazer."

I tender my thanks to my Ring Stewards, Mr. W. Foster and Mr. A. Peacock, for the capable manner in which they performed their duties.

I must also thank the officials of the Hamilton Kennel Club for their assistance and courtesy extended to me during my visit, and which I shall record among my many pleasant experiences during several years of judging in the Old Country.

If I may be permitted a word or two to the exhibitors, it is—don't strangle your dog, and hold up his tail when he is being examined by the Judge in the ring. This procedure was very prevalent at this Show, and it is quite an unnecessary evil. Let the dog show himself in a natural manner, and you will "get there" all the quicker.

WHAT THE CLUBS ARE DOING

The Pekin Palace Dog Association of Canada met on April 7th to receive the report on the recent specialty show. The report showed the fixture to have been a success in every respect, and although the expenses were high, the exchequer has been enriched by the addition of a nice profit which accrued from the show.

The Club has agreed to send the Club's Specials to all Clubs in Ontario holding shows under Canadian Kennel Club rules, when Secretaries make application to Mrs. M. Walker, 781 Gerard St. E., Toronto, in time for such specials to appear in the premium lists.

And now it is the summer picnic that furnishes interest for the Club's committees. A programme with an appeal will be depended on to bring the Club's members and friends together for a pleasant time, the actual date will be announced later.

NOTES FROM QUEBEC

By Prov. Con. Editor,
F. La Rue, St. Martin, Que.

THE German Shepherd Dog Club of Montreal is offering two silver cups at the Canine Society of Montreal, one for Best of Breed and the other for Best of Opposite Sex. The club is looking forward to a large entry for this big show. Officers of the club will be on hand to give any information and accept new members into their fold. The club is looking forward to organizing a show in the future which will materialize with the increase of members and will be staged annually.

Shepherd breeders are sure to bring in the largest entry of any breed in the coming show, but the Boston Terrier fanciers mean to have the first place. "Kruger" Seguin, whose kennels are the hub of Boston Terrier breeding in Montreal, claims that little American Bulls will lead both the Shepherds and Fox Terriers. "Qui vivia verra."

Montreal is at present in a real turmoil of doggy activities. The Montreal Kennel Club, which has, so to speak, carried a guerilla war in the field of new fanciers with its monthly parlor shows, has made many prisoners whom they propose to convert to the dog game for ever. They are certainly a big factor in the huge success which everybody thinks will be the reward of the Montreal Canine Association go-aheadness! Even outside influences are busy trying to help this May 9th Montreal show. The Canadian Pacific Railway is willing to accommodate the fanciers from Toronto with a special combination baggage and passenger car which would carry the exhibitors with their dogs at a reduced fare. This accommodation will be supplied as long as there are ten or more exhibitors travelling together, and Toronto fanciers who aim to attend the Montreal show should get in touch with Mr. Bartrem of the C.P.R. passenger traffic department in Toronto.

And now that Mrs. J. H. Enright of the Ladies' Kennel Club of Canada has announced her selection of September 5th as the date for an all-breed dog show, there is no reason why we should not get a special train for that fixture. Let every fancier in the Dominion of Canada start the ball rolling and make this September 5th show a kind of a doggy convention from all parts of the Dominion. We from Quebec can never repay Mrs. Enright in full for the masterly way in which she has obtained a new championship rating for this Province. It will eventually prove to be the greatest tonic ever prescribed to what threatened to become an anemic fancy. The date granted immediately precedes what used to be the largest dog show in the Dominion, the Toronto Exhibition, which opens on Monday, Sept. 7, Labor Day, but which may have to become the second biggest one, as we aim this September for the Montreal show to be the biggest one ever benched in this beautiful Dominion of ours.

Mrs. G. A. Taylor, of Venosta, Que., who spent the winter in Miami, Florida, is back to the Province of the Pea Fields and will certainly exhibit her beautiful Doberman Lux Plisa, who got Best of Breed at the Ormand Beach, Fla., show on Feby. 5th. When you think of Police dogs think of Doberman Pinchers because it is the only breed which does not shun the nickname.

* * *

Harry Collins of Chaudiere Kennels, Hull, Que., has shipped to Mr. Theodore Laframboise of Dorval, Que., a beautiful lemon marked Cocker bitch in whelp.

* * *

R. G. Davis' good Boston female Imog has been bred to L. B. Seguin's Kruger Sport Model.

* * *

I have had the pleasure to see one of the best black Pom puppies at Mrs. A. Riou, of Royaume Kennels. He is by Ch. Glen Rose Fire Flame out of Royaume Rita. He is the most profusely coated and shortest black Pom I ever met.

* * *

Miss Yvonne Riou will try and duplicate at the Montreal Canine Association show the wins which she made at the M.K.A. with her beautiful 4 lbs. chocolate Royaume Bobby.

MARITIME NOTES

By Prov. Con. Editor M. B. Wicker,
Halifax, N.S.

AT a meeting held on April 6th, the Nova Scotia Kennel Club picked its Show Committee and decided to hold the Spring show in the garage of the Nova Scotian Hotel on May 20th, and are planning for a two-point feature. Local judges will officiate: Mrs. Ora Doherty, well known in Bulldog circles will have the Non-Sporting Group; Miss Alice O'Brien, owner of the Cardigan Sealyhams, the Terriers Group; W. T. Miller, who gave such excellent satisfaction at the Spring Show last year, the Sporting Group; and John Burns the Toy and Working Groups. A committee of three will do the Best in Show Specials. Some very handsome trophies have been presented for the Group Winners. Silver Spoons will be given for best in each breed.

John Fry, Jr., was selected to judge all breeds at the first of the two Fall shows to be held by this Club on Aug. 31st and Sept. 1st, under the auspices of the Nova Scotia Provincial Exhibition. For Sept. 2 and 3, under the Nova Scotia Kennel Club banner another judge will be selected.

Evangeline Kennels report a litter of five Great Danes by Int. Ch. Chieftain of Erin Dane (Imp.) ex Ch. Fleur of Evangeline, the dam of Ch. Model of Evangeline. Chief has also received visits from Ch. Griselda of Evangeline and Felda of Evangeline.

The Eastern Dane breeders are pleased to note the Dane activity in Toronto and wish "Carindaria" and its two enthusiastic owners the best of good luck.

Mrs. M. G. McKinnon, for years the most valuable Show Secretary of the Nova Scotia Kennel Club is back in the game and reports a litter of Bostons from her old favorite "Bell-mac" by Max King.

F. W. Johnson is keeping the flame burning in his Haligonan Kennel, where on April 12th his new bitch, Danby Model II. increased the family numbers by two males and one female sired by Danby Mogul, who has six points towards his title, he will make a bid for his final points at the Canine Society Show in Montreal on May 9th, along with him from the Maritimes, in care of the writer, will go two Russian Wolfhounds, a smooth puppy, an imported Cairn Terrier, a Great Dane, a couple of Setters, two Pointers, and a Whippet from St. John Fanciers.

To make a little more interest in Cocker Spaniels the writer has purchased from the Brampton Cocker Kennels, Brampton Belle, by the Iron Duke, a son of the great cocker, Farewell's Man O' War, mated to Brampton Danby, he by Ch. Wall's Gaylord.

We were all very sorry to learn that Fred O'Connell had lost by pneumonia his two hopefuls by Overcross Firelight. They were two beautiful red bitches upon which he hoped to found a kennel of pure Red Cockers in Halifax, as he still has the dam we hope for better luck next year.

We are pleased to be able to report the terrible scourge of distemper has spent itself in this district and enquiries for puppies are good.

Leaves from a Kennel Note Book

By FREEMAN LLOYD.

MIDST the first great burst of real spring time, there came the successful show at Cambridge, Mass., where the best dog or bitch was declared to be the white and liver colored pointer dog, Benson of Crombie, owned by Mrs. Hartley Dodge of Madison, New Jersey. Thus it was the Giralda Kennels opened the campaign with a decisive victory. Just to show that the New Jersey ownership had not grown tired of German Shepherd dogs, it also put forward Omar Khaymam of that breed, and won in the dog class. However, it was Mrs. A. D. Thayer's bitch, Giza von Koenigsbuch which won as the best of the Teutonic variety. Great things are expected from the new teams of pointers and setters purchased last Fall in Scotland and England, by the astute Mr. Mc. Hally on behalf of Mrs. Dodge. I am told that the public will be enabled to see these gun dogs at the Madison, N.J. Show, where they will be benched "all in a row." Surely this will be a sight among the many sights. It is not thought the dogs will be for competition in the various classes.

And that reminds one that a great relief has been perhaps universally felt, because the quashing of the proposed dog show regulation, or rule which had it been accepted, would have barred members or other officers from exhibiting dogs at their own shows. Here, indeed, was one of the strangest propositions that some of the oldest and most experienced may remember. So it was a good job that the idea was defeated and disposed of as it was from the precincts of our own kennel-ruling body. What would we say about the man who cut away the roots of his trees, so that the branches might bear bigger and better fruit? Dog shows are run by dog people for the reason they desire to see a dog show in their own and beloved village, town or city. They conduct a sort of mission on behalf of dogs and that is the way the doggie "gospel" has been spread among the heathen of the mostly civilized nations. Who does not remember the first dog show in his own home town or neighborhood? Such an early education was often proved to be a stepping stone towards other more enjoyable and profitable endeavors.

Often I am asked questions regarding the ages of some of the older exhibitors of dogs. Again there arrive queries having to do with the durations which some kennels have been in existence. And then one has to think and think again! This morning a missive contains an enquiry regarding Chow Chow dogs and Toy spaniels. "Who's been the longest in the game: who's been the most consistently successful breeder and exhibitor in one and the other breed?" The questions make one go back a good long time; and it now appears that ladies have been the longer if not longest stickers! Who it is wondered can beat Mrs. Raymond Mallock's record in the way of English Toy Spaniels; and who dare toe the line with Mrs. E. K. Lincoln when it comes to a show down with Chow Chows as the picture cards. Mrs. Mallock's Toy Spaniels maintain the same exalted positions in the England of today, as others of the same ownership did thirty and more years ago in the United States. Her English and Oriental Toy Spaniels have kept their prides of positions every month of each of the three decades or more during which Mrs. Mallock has exhibited dogs. As for Chow Chows, Mrs. Lincoln has owned at one time or another not less than anything from sixty to a couple of hundred and more of these Chinese dogs. This has been going on between twenty and thirty years, while, once upon a time there was a champion or two of each variety of the English and Chinese and Japanese Toy Spaniels in the Greenacre Kennels, Fairfield, Conn. At the Cambridge, Mass., show on April 21, the Greenacre Chow, Shan Shi of Kang Shi, was the best of the Non-Sporting group. So it will be granted that Mesdames Mallock and Lincoln are lasters to the 'nth degree.

I have just been glancing over Mr. Ash's mammoth work "The Practical Dog Book" and the browsing has refreshed very many memories of days long passed. The book is dedicated to Theophilus Marples whom the author says he had never met when he inscribed the front page of his volume to the founder and all-time editor of "Our Dogs," known far and wide as a fair and square journal and record of the doggie doings of the world. And what a lot of comings-in and goings-out there have been since Marples and I first met about 47 years ago, at a show held at Coleford in the Forest of Dean! The event took place in a building that had once been a non-conformist chapel; and the one time place of prayer and peace was erstwhile turned into a babel of barkings, screechings and howlings, when a liver colored Bedlington terrier caught hold of the lolling-out tongue of another dog—a blue one of its own breed. Those Bedlington dogs were owned by the late Captain S. Moreton Thomas, wealthy proprietor of one of the best all-round teams ever possessed by one man. Soon after the Coleford meeting, Marples and I became contributors to the monthly Kennel Review, owned and published by Harry Wyndham Carter, a kennel fire-brand of five and forty years ago. But the way of the traducer is often hard: and poor Carter ended his days in a madhouse.

A note from Canada acquaints one with the interesting fact that the prairie chickens are moving northwards in Manitoba. Mr. Oliver of Montreal, who favors Irish Water Spaniels, was up at Port Churchill, on Hudson Bay, last Fall, and saw much of that coming country on which thousands of adventurous as well as commercial eyes are now being trained. Mr. Oliver said to a mutual friend, in Winnipeg, that he had seen vast numbers of prairie chickens along the Hudson Bay Railway far north of Le Pas and hundreds of miles away from any grain fields. This bears out the contention that chickens are steadily moving northward. I have also heard that Manitoba sportsmen are "certain" to have an open chicken season this Fall. Mr. Oliver has promised to take "movies" of the "hordes" of chickens to be seen north of Le Pas. When these pictures are presented, the world, at large, will not only see but believe the good news. This new shooting country will mean a greater demand for shooting dogs. So keep on breeding pointers, setters and spaniels.

A pleasant letter is to hand from the veteran coursing judge, Joseph Walker of The Glebe Farm, Reading, England, who for many years judged the English Waterloo Cup, and all of the more important meetings in Britain. Some few years ago, Mr. Walker retired from the saddle, because of ill-health. But, of course, "Joe" Walker without a string of longtails to his name, would be akin to some poor devil without a country. So it is that Mr. Walker has kept on with his breeding of greyhound stock, and, today, it has been said, he owns the best lot of brood bitches in the world. It will be remembered he bred Golden Seal, a Waterloo winner of a few years ago and a host of others.

Of all other matters, it will be interesting to the general reader to learn, that greyhound racing has arrived to stay in that old sporting spot called England. The tracks are coining money; indeed, over 17,000,000 persons passed the turnstiles of the greyhound racing parks in that country, during last year. So, it is believed, sooner or later the sport will become established in the New World—where unfortunately perversity and politics have interfered with what must be considered the amusements of the peoples.

If some one could get Joe Walker to write his reminiscences, there would be much joy among those fond of perusing the narratives that have to do with sport and adventure. Joseph was one of those early and remarkable men to go into the diamond country where now stands Kimberley, South Africa. With the prospectors, individual claim owners and diggers there arrived the greyhounds. There was much game—antelopes, white and red-bellied hares. With Rhodes, Barnato, Dr. Jameson, and the rest of the afterwards multi-millionaires, there trekked Joe Walker and his coursing dogs—a surgeon-dentist by profession and a dog man at heart. Little perhaps did young Walker think while dressing with resin ointment the almost worn off pads of his greyhound's feet, that one day he would be called upon to decide on the merits of the dogs at the greatest of all coursing trials at Altcar, outside of Liverpool, England, where the Waterloo is run off. Yet fortune steered the young man's way to that place where the color of the judge's handkerchief decides the disposals of the wagers of untold sums. But, it used to be said that more money changed hands over a Kimberley Waterloo Cup than any horse race in South Africa. Money! The Kimberley of the early days, probably held the richest per capita community on earth! And what if the attractive young and older white adventuresses were agreeable to having themselves exhibited on a platform to be sold at auction, purchased and paid for by the highest bidder! If it was a somewhat novel or public way for the ladies to procure for themselves the most admiring and richest of husbands, surely that was the charmers' own affairs. But now, it seems, Kimberley has gone criminal.

Where there were scores upon scores of highly valuable coursing greyhounds, they now have a school for training police dogs. However, the march of civilization doesn't seem to tally with sentiments of the gallant diamond diggers of other days!

All of us must be pleased to observe that bigger and better stamps of Newfoundland dogs are being placed in the foremost positions at our present day shows. Dogs such as those exhibited by Miss E. B. Loring and Dr. M. K. Fenton, must have brought much satisfaction to those who have always believed that the "nobleness" of the appearance of the Newfoundland dog must ever be present. Rightly or wrongly, we like to believe that the Newfoundland dog is or was a mighty product of the oldest of the British colonies. Moreover, that he should be a large dog. Tell it not in Gath, but a smaller or almost Labrador retriever-kind of Newfoundland dog, was fostered and favored by some judges at the greater shows in the United States. The older and very likely wider knowledge regarding these dogs in the Old Country, was pooh-poohed in some of the loud-speaking circles in Uncle Sam's country. But these declamations did not ring right; the cry of "Black St. Bernards" had been heard long before. Moreover, it was a cry of "wolf" when there was no "wolf." But, thank goodness, matters are now righting themselves, and the large and dome-skulled Newfoundland, is again coming into his own. Be it borne in mind, there are still practically unknown and as yet unseen-at-shows, white and black and black Newfoundlands in the Dominion. Three years ago two of such dogs were noticed at a wayside railroad station in Northern Ontario. At a New York or Toronto show, those unknowns would probably have shone as winners.

Of course, you who can spare the time and other essentials, will pay a visit to the Madison, New Jersey, show, on Saturday, May 23. Three of the more eminent of your Canadian judges will officiate. Captain H. Dudley-Waters, one of the best after dinner speakers at Kennel banquets, will take the Bedlington terriers; Joseph Greenwood the Pomeranians; Robert A. Ross, the Scottish Terriers, and Walter H. Reeves, the best-in-show section. As everyone knows, each well and tried adjudicator is fully qualified to find the rightful winners. The retirement of Colonel Robert Guggenheim from the Bedlington "fancy" will mean no falling off in the entry for that breed, all the Firenze dogs having become the property of Charles Trayford, formerly manager of the more than extensive Guggenheim establishment. As for the Scotties, they are as numerous as first class; indeed, Scottish terriers are said to be the best "sellers" in New York and the larger cities. Needless to say, Mr. Reeves should be confronted by the creme of what America can produce.

JIM, THE AIREDALE

F. Dupuy.

The Hunter was off to his line of traps and Nell was alone in the shack
With Jim, just an Airedale, a good one to own,
A wonder to fight or to track.

Oh Jim, I'm so sick of this cabin so drear,
Let's off to the woods for a spell;
And Jim gave a bound as he raced to the door
'Twas Heaven to trail after Nell.

It was dark in the wood where the big cedars grew
And hemlock and spruce reared aloft.
The red of the mossberry set off the green
And fern shoots made carpet so soft.

Let's out from the timber, cried Nell, as they raced,
There's a mountain park not far away.
A sight of the canyon, a view of the peaks
And a torrent swift tossing the spray.

Oh Jim! Take a look at the mountains and clouds
Just see, why the glacier's alight.
There's carmine, and saffron, and streaks of pure gold
Where the sun has just dropped out of sight.

Jim, why are you tugging so hard at the rope?
I only want one good look more.
There's a ribbon of silver, it winds from the snow
And the cascades, Oh my! what a roar.

I can't keep my foothold you're pulling so hard.
'Tis so narrow, the ledge where I stand.
Now what is that whirring? Are locusts about?
Oh Jim! that-flat-head-on-the-sand!

I'm falling towards it, its coiled for the strike
Pull, strain, dearest Jim, all you can.
And with forelegs braced firmly and neck straining back
Jim figured his task like a man.

He worked with all power he had, on the rope
Nell swayed, and her chances looked slim
Then a gust from the pine-scented forest lent aid
And Nell safely landed near Jim.

LADY KITTY RITSON COMING

The German Shepherd Club of Canada with its usual alertness has succeeded in inducing Lady Kitty Ritson, of London, England, to come to Toronto for the purpose of judging the breed the Club sponsors. No more welcome announcement could have been made than this one, and indeed the Club has to be complimented on its choice of judge.

Lady Kitty comes to this country to judge at the world's greatest outdoor show, the beautiful and inviting Morris and Essex on May 23rd. She has already judged America's greatest show—the Westminster Kennel Club, and those who are desirous of seeing judging at its perfect peak, should make it a point to be at the always inviting Woodbine racetrack on Saturday, June 20th.

Exhibitor's, here is one of the world's very best judges brought right to your own door. The grounds are extensive, thus giving your dogs an unusual opportunity to show everything that nature, plus your breeding plans, have endowed them with. Get every eligible dog ready to go on the stage for the greatest show ever held by the German Shepherd Dog Club of Canada.

Saskatoon's Successful Show

FROM Secretary Ayre we gather that the show at Saskatoon had only one drawback, and that was not having enough room for the crowds clamoring to see the high lights of the show in comfort. When the 207 dogs were benched and a 3-point show assured, nobody was worrying about anything.

As usual the Sporting and Terrier Groups furnished the variety at the close of the show that is always considered features at Western shows, and in the last analysis there was the English Setter, Silverdale Rocket, Mr. Kynoch's new Wire dog, "Redcliffe Arc Light," was also in the ring. The Pomeranian, Surrey Gold Dust, the Boston, Trappystok Personality, and the Collie, Elmhill Black Watch, one of Dr. J. T. Cooper's entry of 10. The pick of the handlers were jockeying the dogs for all they knew, and included the best handlers known in the West, Kynoch, Wright, Hogg and Leslie. "Doc" Cooper and his home-bred Collie, Elmhill Black Watch, by Elmhill Emerald ex Elmhill Juliet, a daughter of Ch. Elmhill Jerry, was the fifth man to try for the choicest gifts of the show.

J. C. Fletcher was judge and he had his exhibitors and his ringside right up on their toes all the time, every once in a while the Doctor and his Collie would step up to a higher station, and finally he found himself at the top, sweating but smiling, and in his hand the Best Dog in the Show according to the judge.

Doctor Cooper has written to say this about our Canadian Kennel Club Trophy:

"I believe it is the most coveted prize in our show. It was especially pleasing to me to win the C.K.C. cup with a dog I bred and reared myself, and this is not all, I also bred his sire and his dam, also his grand-sire and grand-dam."

Congratulations Doctor, you have earned your honors by the consistency and the choice of your breeding operations and plans. The picture on our front cover will let our readers see just how good your dog really is.

The Canadian Fancy

By WALTER H. REEVES, Belleville, Ontario.

THE writer hopes that the Directors of the Canadian Kennel Club will further consider the question of the registration of unregistered champions. Having had some experience with breeding—not only with dogs but with many varieties of cattle, sheep, pigs and horses—naturally I was particularly interested in the warning which was sounded so forcibly at the Canadian Live Stock Records meeting by many of the representatives present, who were practically all agreed that before long, Canadian breeders would have to have some kind of selection before registration. If proof was needed of the success of selection before registration, one has only to go to any Silver Fox farm to see what the grading of foxes has done. I am fairly confident that Canadian breeders will bear out my statement that many dogs are registered at Ottawa which are practically worthless as breeders. If in the course of time we do—and I sincerely hope we will—have some form of selection before registration, the test will never be as severe as to have to become a bench champion. The writer, since living in Canada, has not been actively engaged in breeding, and anyone can ascertain that only one litter has been registered at Ottawa by me. Therefore, I hope our Directors will understand that the stand I am taking with reference to these unregistered champions is for the good of the sport. I feel that in these unregistered animals we have a wealth of breeding sires and dams that under the present arrangements are worthless. The Directors of the Canadian Kennel Club very naturally are loth to again approach the Minister of Agriculture, for a promise was given the last time we asked that the stud books should be re-opened, that the request would never be repeated. However, I can assure our Directors that the delegates at the Live Stock Records meeting, including last year's chairman and this year's chairman, Messrs. J. W. Gardhouse and J. D. Brien, shared the opinion of the writer that these unregistered champions should be registered.

Writing of Silver Foxes, reminds me that the mysterious disease that has been causing such havoc amongst the fox farms has spread to dogs. Two or three years ago a friend in Belleville, George K. Graham, who had spent considerable money in founding a fox farm, informed me that he had distemper amongst his foxes. From his description of the symptoms I disagreed with him that it was distemper; the ones which were attacked by the disease apparently were in the best of health when they were fed the day previous to their illness and usually were found in convulsions. The many experts which were consulted all seemed at a loss to either name the disease or to give a remedy. Some called it distemper; others said it was poisoning, and presently it was ascertained that other farms were having the same experience, and at the present time it has spread all over Canada. A few days ago, C. R. Tilbrook asked me to look at a Springer Spaniel that had suddenly been taken ill. The symptoms were similar to those of the foxes which were attacked, but I hesitated to give an opinion and advised that the Spaniel should be taken to J. A. Campbell, V.S., B.V.Sc., and later wrote and asked J. A. Campbell, V.S., for his opinion, and the following is his reply:

Dear Reeves:—

Yours of the 31st to hand. I had intended writing you, ever since Tilbrook came in last week, as I knew you would be interested.

The disease that his dog was affected with is known as infectious encephalitis, and the symptoms are brain disturbances, fits and other nervous disorders characterized by a suddenness of attack. It usually has a very high mortality. Occasionally an odd dog will exhibit only slight symptoms, such as the Alsatian that Honetwell brought in—and there is not, as a rule, any signs of discharge from the nose and eyes, such as we observe in most distemper cases.

For the last three or four years there has been a similar disease amongst foxes, and this winter some ranches have had a great deal of trouble with heavy losses.

At the present time, experiments are being carried out in a similar manner to that followed by the Distemper Research Foundation in England to find out if the disease can be transmitted by the fox to the dog or visa-versa, and as soon as I have any definite news, I will advise you.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

J. A. CAMPBELL.

This is indeed serious news, for the mortality amongst foxes when attacked has been very heavy. George Graham saved a few by giving heavy doses of whiskey, but the next year, when the breeding season came round, there was a re-occurrence which was always fatal. The strange thing about infectious encephalitis amongst foxes is that the attacks always occur during the breeding season. If any of my readers have had any experience of infectious encephalitis amongst dogs, I wish they would write and give me their experiences.

Evidently the flat-coated Retriever is going to have quite a boom on this continent, thanks to such fanciers as Dr. J. J. Mitten and Horace V. P. Lewis. A very valuable recruit to the ranks is R. J. Ritchie Paterson, C.A., of Lethbridge, Alberta, who I understand is importing a dog and bitch from Scotland. The breed is so easy to train that it is somewhat difficult to understand why we do not see more of this handsome breed on the bench and in the field. As long as I can remember there has been a prejudice amongst American sportsmen against using a black dog in the field. This I am glad to say is being overcome, for there are a number of black Pointers across the border. I noticed Benny Lewis handling a really good black Pointer at the Westminster Kennel Club Show, and there were no less than eleven Labrador Retrievers shown at this show.

J. G. Young, of Edmonton, has quickly filled the vacant kennel of the Scottish Terrier, "Heather Jock," for the information is to hand that he has imported from A. G. Cowley "Albourne Adventure." This world-wide known expert sends the following description of Adventure: "This dog is by Ch. "Breastonian Venture" and is two and a half years old. His dam is "Albourne Sequence", winner of two championship certificates and own sister to Ch. "Albourne Braw Lass Brigand" and "Reveller." This dog is one of the best bred in the world, has a great head, extra black eye, short back, perfect front and very hard coat. He is a winner in the best of company, is a great stud dog and will leave a mark on the breed."

Western breeders are to be congratulated in having such a worthwhile "Diehard" available.

The members of the Edmonton Club are working very hard to make their 1931 show one of the biggest and best ever held. The judges who have been selected are both from Calgary, J. C. Fletcher will judge all breeds except sporting dogs, which will be taken by Geo. Climo, of Calma Cocker fame. The secretary will be R. G. Elliott.

* * *

Our Director for British Columbia, W. H. Pym, has been selected to judge the Calgary Show on July 8th, 9th and 10th. The selection of this sound judge should result in a bumper entry. It is indeed pleasing to note that all the Western clubs are striving to make their arrangements in ample time and they are like Babson, of the opinion that Canada has weathered the business depression and that good times are ahead.

Evidence that we have weathered the depression was shown at the Saskatoon show on April 3rd and 4th, where no less than two hundred and eleven dogs were benched, the one-dog man being much in evidence, both in entries and wins, and most pleasing was the gate receipts, which were a record for Saskatoon. All the Western cities from Winnipeg to the Rockies were represented and therefore the judge, J. C. Fletcher, had by no means an easy task, but the general consensus of opinion was that he judged impartially and well. Jack Little, of Moose Jaw, was present with his good team of Irish Setters and also brought along J. H. Booth's Whippets. Arthur Wright came from Edmonton and amongst his team was Leonard Wize's Springer Spaniel, Ch. "Vale of Burnside", fresh from her recent win of Best Springer at New York, Hugh Leslies' team were some fine Collies, Bulldogs and Shepherds, and also the smooth Fox Terrier, Ch. "Altee Lempel," which was placed Best of Winners at the 1930 New York show. George Kynoch, of course, had a big team and amongst them was the English Setter, "Silverdale Rocket," placed first in the Sporting Group. Newfoundlands had seven fine specimens entered, with "Shelton Cabin Boy" going Best of Breed, and completing his Canadian championship, congratulations, Monty Wallace. Mrs. C. L. Young, from Edmonton, exhibited a particularly promising puppy in "Alberta Prince of Drumrod", some idea of his quality will be understood when I mention for your dog's sake—do this.

Every dog has his off-days. Some have more off-days than others. The quickest way to cure a doggy ailment is to give Karswood Dog Powders. But you can—and for your dog's sake you should—do better than this. Every Sunday morning give your dog a Karswood Dog Powder—regularly, without fail. This is what the World's leading dog breeders are doing to keep their dogs fit and happy all the year round.

Karswood Dog Powders are an entirely new improved dog remedy, containing specific nerve foods and organic salts which are not contained in the dog's ordinary food, but which are necessary to the perfect functioning of his system. Get a packet to-day—and give your dog a powder next Sunday morning. Miss F. Ethel Dixon, owner of the famous Champions Karzadoc, Honeystake, etc., etc., says: "Karswood Dog Powders are now a regular part of my Kennel equipment."

Here is another enthusiastic testimonial:

"Splendid Tonic and Conditioner."

I sent to you some time ago for some of your well-known Karswood Dog Powders, and found them of great benefit. As I dare say you know, I am an exhibitor at most of the leading shows, and I have to keep the dogs in good show condition, and I find a weekly Karswood a splendid tonic and conditioner. I am enclosing a photo of a few prize-winning Cockeris, which speaks for itself.

that the judge awarded him the special for best puppy in the show. Collies were the sensation of this good show, an entry of twenty-five, and amongst them the winner of Best in Show, Dr. Cooper's "Elmhill Black Watch." Sincere congratulations are due to the genial doctor for breeding this beautiful tricolor, who also bred in Saskatoon his sire and dam, and also his grand sire and grand dam. The judge remarked that "Black Watch" was one of the best-headed Collies he had ever seen, and had no hesitation in placing him Best in Show. How about sending "Black Watch" to the Morris and Essex Kennel Club Show, Dr.?

Mrs. E. C. Whitelaw's good Shepherd puppy, "Norbert Von Borsdorf", which was placed best puppy at the National Kennel Club show, has evidently wintered well, for at Hamilton, under Frank Addyman, he was placed Best of Breed and Best in the Working Group. The writer also hears that this famous kennel has been moved to the Gidding's farm, about two miles east of Oakville.

Amongst the successful exhibitors at the Pittsburgh show, held under the auspices of the Fort Pitt Kennel Club, were Col. G. F. McFarland, who gained the special for Best Bull Terrier with "Albion Victor." The Wards, pere and son, had a really nice quality team forward, and besides winning with "Albion Victor", gained Winners Dog and Best of Breed with Sid Perkin's Airedale Terrier, "Warbeck Mixer", and had some worthwhile wins with Wire-Haired Fox Terriers. Mrs. A. R. Kittermaster was well repaid for her trip by winning both Winners Dog and Bitch in Pomeranians, her well-known black, "Wee Black Rascal", gaining the special for Best Pomeranian. Dr. Mitten's English Setter, "Blue Dan of Happy Valley", was awarded the special for Best Dog in Show. R. F. Maloney, the President of the show, whose team of Pointers and Setters have competed so successfully at many of our shows, exhibited his team, but not for competition. This good sportsman having always made it a rule to never show any of his dogs for competition in his home town.

Our Director for the Maritimes, A. V. Martin, has made another addition to his select kennel of Collies, having purchased from the Lodestone Kennels "Marion Indiana", a very beautiful bitch by Ch. "Bergamot Bandler" ex "Lodestone Lovely". I understand this bitch was the pick of an extremely good litter and my friend from Halifax promises to send me his impressions of his purchase when she arrives in Halifax.

I have received a most interesting letter from H. McArdeall, Brynmarr, B.C., a very keen Labrador Retriever breeder and a most successful one also, for amongst the many winners bred at this famous kennel are "Jerry", "Molly", "Humble", "Beauty", "Honey Bee", "Hornet" and "Sallex" of Harwood. Besides giving some most interesting facts about this worthwhile Retriever, the writer asks me if Ellis Ashton is still alive and showing Retrievers in England. I am unable to say, but I believe he was showing when I was in England ten years ago. (As we go to press we are advised that Mr. McArdeall died suddenly. Further particulars in next issue.—Ed.)

Since the last issue of Kennel and Bench I have received a number of letters asking for particulars of one of the latest additions to our classification, Miniature Poodles, and the reason why they should not be exhibited as Toy Poodles. Evidently there is a lack of knowledge of the Poodle and therefore at the request of several readers, I am giving a few particulars of the curly-corded, miniature and toys, classes for which are given at the majority of the English shows. The large Poodle is fairly well known on the American continent, Miss Alger, at one time the president of the Ladies' Kennel Association of America, and Mrs. Tyler Morse, about fifteen years ago, owning many remarkably good specimens, some of them being such excellent specimens of their breed that they were placed, by such authorities as the late James Mortimer, Best Dog in Show. The large variety, whether curly-coated or corded, are similar in type, except in coat. I do not remember ever having seen a corded Poodle at any American show. The remarkable length of coat of the corded Poodle caused a lot of favorable attention from the general public, but on account of the fact that their coats had, from time to time, to be oiled to keep the cords supple, they were practically useless as companions and therefore the corded never were as popular as the curls even in England, in spite of the efforts of Monsieur H. A. Dajois, Mrs. Graves and Mrs. W. Bowers, three of the best known exhibitors of corded Poodles in England before the war. Mrs. L. W. Crouch was, when I was actively interested in dogs in England, the most successful breeder and exhibitor of Curlies. We also had quite a few Toy Poodles, but I have always held the opinion that America, for many years, held a big advantage with Toy Poodles. Like so many Toy varieties, the Toy Poodles were inclined to be apple headed and snipy and it is in this particular point that the Miniatures are different and also that they are classified by height and not by weight. A Miniature Poodle should not exceed fifteen inches in height at the shoulders. The head of the Miniature Poodle should be long, straight and fine, the skull should be a slight peak at the back, the muzzle should be long and not snipy, teeth strong and level, the gums and lips should be black, and quite free from any suspicion of lip-piness. The eyes should be almond-shaped, dark and full of intelligence and fire. The nose, of course, should be black. The ears should be set low and should hang close to the face. The back should be short and slightly hollowed with broad and muscular loins, a small well-arched foot is needed and the forelegs should be set straight from the shoulder. The coat should be profuse, hard in texture and the curls close and thick, without knots or cords. Germany is generally given as the country where the breed originated, but the best specimens some twenty years ago were usually found in France and it is there that the small variety, or the Miniature, as it is now classified, originated. The large variety and also the Miniatures and Toys make excellent companions. They are very easily trained, and judging by the number of Poodles usually found in most performing troupes of dogs. There is ample grounds for the statement made by Poodle breeders that the breed is intensely intelligent, and many are the stories told of their sagacity. Such as the Poodle trained by a Paris shoe black to dirty the shoes of the passers-by so that his master would enjoy the profit of cleaning them.

A most valuable recruit to the ever-increasing band of recruits to the cult of the Scottish Terriers is Miss Ethel B. Stephen, of the Shadowbrook Farms, Chemamus, B.C., who has made some very important importations from my old friend, A. G. Cowley, of the famous Albourne Kennels. The first importations were a dog and bitch, "Albourne Queen of Spades", a lovely black terrier bred to Heather Essential, and her brother, "Albourne Sky Pilot." Unfortunately, "Queen of Spades" did not have any puppies but Miss Stephens was by no means discouraged, but purchased another bitch from A. G. Cowley, "Albourne Jet", a daughter of "Keloran Floria" and a winner of six firsts at the Crystal Palace. Soon after she arrived at the Shadowbrook Farms Jet presented her plucky purchaser with seven puppies, four male and three females. The sire being "Albourne Wattadog". The puppies are all blacks and look extremely promising. These notable importations should make the competition far more interesting on the Pacific Coast, and from what I hear of "Albourne Jet" she is good enough to win at New York.

OUR FRONTISPIECE.

Our frontispiece feature for May will appeal to our readers generally, but the appeal will be particular to those who swear by the Scotch Collie, Rough Coated Collie, or Show Collie, just as you will.

Dr. J. T. Cooper, one of Saskatoon's busiest physicians, has long been looking forward to the day when one of his beloved home-bred Collies would make history for his Elmhill Collie Kennels. To make champions of one's dogs is one way to make such desirable history, but to breed one good enough to be considered the best of 207 benched at a show in one's own city is making desirable kennel history of the very best kind.

Elmhill Black Watch is the progeny of Elmhill Sire and Dam, i.e., Elmhill Emerald, son of the great Eden Emerald, ex Elmhill Juliet by Ch. Elmhill Jerry; born on January 20th, 1930, the youngster is just in his first real bloom, and as Collies go at our shows he has "It" in goodly measure, and will, no doubt, complete his championship in quick order, barring sickness and accident. Judge Jack Fletcher must have experienced quite a thrill when he handled the young Collie and realized that he was a Saskatoon bred one.

OPERATE VARIETY KENNEL.

Mrs. Thomas, of Port Hope, Ont., has purchased the Old English Sheepdog, Mistress Fay of Pastoral, from a noted English Kennel. This will add interest in the "Bobtail" in Canada. She has just purchased a delightful place of four acres on the outskirts of Port Hope.

Saskatchewan News and Notes

By Contributing Editor, W. W. RIOME, Moose Jaw, Sask.

A NEWSPAPER reporter would think he were rather abused if his chief assigned him to "cover" in the course of his daily work a territory somewhat larger than the British Isles.

Yet that is the task that falls to the lot of the writer of this page. The province of Saskatchewan is indeed a big place and, although we will write only of the doings of dogs and dog owners, yet it must not be forgotten that there are in this province enough dog owners alone to form a good-sized city.

The difficulties become apparent, but they are not at all insurmountable. The seven-league boots that will enable one man to explore the news possibilities of hundreds of miles of prairies and woods and hills can be found in that single, much repeated word: "Co-operation."

We are quite aware that every provincial correspondent starts out with the illusion that he will receive 100 per cent. support. Yet it seems to us that fanciers in this province will lend a shoulder to the wheel if they do but stop to consider the benefits they may derive from a page devoted to their own activities.

For one thing, this magazine reaches a great number of persons who are interested in the same breed of dogs. By having their names appear in news items in this column, the dog fanciers will become acquainted with each other; and the acquaintance may lead to a larger number of prospective purchasers, and to a greater number of sales.

That is the financial side. But mind you, we want news and gossip in this page, not advertising. The latter, however may be an indirect result of the news. Kennel and Bench advertising pages pay.

Then, Saskatchewan is a land of many dog owners, but comparatively few are members of the Canadian Kennel Club. By having an attractive page about Saskatchewan's activities we will interest more men and women in the work of our organization, and they will place their names on the roster.

Whether this page is attractive depends partly on the material we receive. Here's a suggestion: sit down at your desk once every month—or oftener—and write us a note about matters and events in your community which would be of general interest to other fanciers.

Remember, this is not a personal page belonging to the writer. It is your page!

As this is the first appearance of the page under our pen, it is probably excusable that the news deals mostly with Moose Jaw. But as the news-gathering system expands—through your co-operation—we hope we will be able to cover the province as a whole.

And so, you will write a letter and address the envelope thus: Walter W. Riome, 320 Caribou St. W., Moose Jaw.

With the most dogs entered since the year 1926, the recent Saskatoon show proved one of the most successful in the history of the city. The judge, J. C. Fletcher, of Calgary, commended the high quality of exhibits and placed a number of local entries above champions with well-established reputations. But judge Fletcher was to be influenced by points of quality and not by reputations. His decisions confirmed the opinion held by many Saskatchewan breeders that there are in this province as good dogs as anywhere else on the continent.

The fact is that the title of best dog in the show was awarded to a Saskatoon collie, "Elmhill Black Watch," owned by Dr. J. T. Cooper. Mr. Fletcher ventured the prophecy that the dog could duplicate this win at the largest shows on the continent.

It's always interesting to call on Mr. and Mrs. C. Williams, of Moose Jaw, who own a very nice bunch of red cockers. Recently a black and white stud of choice breeding has been introduced, and some females are already on the way to maternal duties. In all, the kennel boasts of five females of rich setter red, sired by such well-known dogs as Imp. "Bing's Billie Boy," Ch. "Morris Master Key," "Ottawa Red Jacket," etc.

It may not be generally known that for the past year "Charlie" has been confined to the house because of the complete loss of eyesight. It would help over the long days if some of the cocker fanciers would write him the occasional cheery, newsy letter.

An inside view of the machinery which runs the Canadian Kennel Club was given by Provincial Director Archie Semple before a recent meeting of the Moose Jaw Club. Mr. Semple described his trip east and attendance at the annual meetings of the Dominion body, and told of a few of the matters that had received attention. About 75 persons attended the meeting, which was also featured by a musical hour. Dr. McDonald, the club's honorary veterinary surgeon, occupied the chair. Luncheon followed, and the guests danced till tired.

We were pleased to read a newsy letter from that enthusiastic Rose-town fancier, "Hughie" Leslie. His kennels have been consistent winners and he recently piloted some choice entries at Saskatoon. He also won first honors for best handler and also the award for the handler with the most dogs competing.

We ran into Tommy Little and J. McCormick on their return from Saskatoon, and they were high in praise of the good time they had enjoyed in the Hub City, the banquet in the Elite Cafe being apparently the high spot of the show. Tommy Little's Irish setter, "Armagh County Rose" went to winner, and this win completed its championship. J. McCormick's red cocker annexed the blue ribbon, and Booth's whippets, Little Eva and Portland Dan, handled by T. Little, also did very well. Both went to winners, with Little Eva getting best of breed.

The sympathy of all fanciers will be extended to Mr. H. Middlemas, president of the Regina Canine Society, who recently sustained the loss of his mother. Mr. Middlemas is getting his winning female, "Burlington Marguerite," in shape for the summer shows, and is grooming up her litter of excellent puppies. This female has proven herself to be of high show calibre and there is every reason to believe that this wire-haired terrier enthusiast will have some puppies which will follow in her footsteps.

We hear that Mrs. Winnifred King of Regina has a brace of Pekes that will take some stopping later.

Walter Male, Moose Jaw, called in the other day to acquaint us of the loss of his good female shepherd, "Kaethe Von der Norden." Walter feels this loss keenly as he was quite fond of this animal.

Archie Semple seems to have solved the sex problem, for his good shepherd female recently whelped a litter of nine, eight of which were males.

Chas. Moore, Regina, of Chow fame accompanied Jess Hawes, Saskatoon, to Chicago where the latter's Chesapeake took winners. Both report a most enjoyable trip.

Mrs. Ellen Hart, of Victoria, B.C., reports two litters of wires, sired by "Moosaskan Speedy Trial." "Speedy Trial," we understand, will tour the show circuits this summer.

F. T. McNiece of Ruddell, Sask., has purchased "Mutual Security" to head his small but selected kennel of wires.

Many of the bostons from the kennels of "Bob" Carter, Assiniboia, have found new homes recently. As Bob likes to follow up his sales we may expect to see many of these dogs at the coming shows. We wonder what Bob is grooming for himself.

It is interesting to note that Mrs. B. Smith, Moose Jaw is carrying on with her small kennel of Chihuahuas. These little fellows are increasing in popularity and the demand, says Mrs. Smith, is greater than the supply.

Phil Lillie, Moose Jaw, informs us of his recent purchase of a model Boston female, "Misty." Dam, "Winchester Perfect Lady;" sire, Ch. "Rose-lawn's Dandy Boy."

Of much enjoyment was a visit to the Springer Kennels of A. W. Knight, Moose Jaw. Among the 14 inmates, there were many prominent winners, either imported or from imported stock. All the dogs were in wonderful shape.

A. W. is a keen sportsman and believes in having all his dogs thoroughly trained for field work.

Mrs. Smallwood is enthused over new arrivals in her Peke. Kennels. It is, however, almost impossible to speak of Mrs. Smallwood without including the name of Miss Henderson, these ladies are almost inseparable where Pekinese are concerned. Neither money nor time has been spared in obtaining the best and we hope that these keen fanciers will be rewarded for trouble they are taking and for their valuable help to the M.J.K.C.

Little Chief 2nd leads the Boston Kennels of Bob Butchart. Bob has several females, either nursing families or expecting them. Here's hoping Bob draws a winner for 1932!

business these days with his Chesapeake stud, Prince Bud, son of Ch. Bud Parker.

We wonder why Jack Droppo is so quiet these days. No doubt he has a dark horse under cover somewhere; one with which he expects to duplicate his wins of last year. Jack has a snappy little stud, and, knowing the quality of females at the Droppo establishment, something good is bound to show up.

Mrs. Gilbert Driver has recently added to her Irish Setter kennel Ch. Moose Jaw King, who was formerly owned by Phil Lillie. This dog was bred by Mr. and Mrs. M. Di Fatta, of Haverhill, Mass., U.S.A., sired by Londonderry Legion 2nd, dam, Queen of Rockingham. Besides being a good show dog, Ch. Moose Jaw King has proven himself as a stud dog, Mrs. Driver's "Humes Biddy Quinn" having eight male and three female puppies by him.

Dr. WEBSTER BUYS A GORDON.

Many old-time fanciers and particularly the Collie fraternity, will remember the combination which consisted of Dr. C. T. Ford, Dr. John Webster and the late Jack McCormack, that could always be depended upon to bring a few Collies to the Canadian National Exhibition that would make the talent bench their dogs right smartly, buy their catalogue and look the entry over; here Otterburn Dial, there Otterburn Overture and over here Otterburn Fashion Plate, Parbold Picaroon, then the Great War came and the combination broke up, never to be restored.

Dr. John Webster furnished the Collie that was the mascot for the Hamilton Highlanders and that was his last activity in dogs that we know of, until the other day when he purchased a Gordon Setter from Miss Sybil Fincham, of the Wizbang Kennels, and who can tell, perhaps we will see the genial Doctor back in the game with us again.

Speaking of the Wizbangs reminds us that the English Setter, Wizbang Meg, and the Samoyed, Wizbang Laskeybelle, have just finished their championships, both made many friends on the circuit because of their appealing attractiveness.

Every day is dog show day at the Wizbang Kennels, and the average number of dogs housed there is around 125. Small reason that Miss Fincham was not at Hamilton in person, but who was delighted at the services rendered to her in her absence by the Hamilton Kennel Club officers.

Miss Fincham, who by the way, is a nurse of some renown, picked up an unknown terrier from the roadside the other day, the poor little tyke had been injured and was suffering from concussion of the brain. The claims of a large kennel did not stop Miss Fincham and her aide, Miss Sparrow, from nursing the little sick Towser back to normal health and strength, the reward, well, just a shake of the tail, nevertheless gratitude at the peak of eloquent expression.

The British Columbia News

By Provincial Contributing Editor, A. H. DODDS, Victoria.

IF interest to the breeders of the Cocker Spaniel, in fact all breeders of dogs, is the announcement of the newly formed Western Cocker Spaniel Club of Canada, at Vancouver, B.C. The officers of the club are as follows: Pres. E. Cargill, First Vice-Pres. Harry Arnold, Second Vice-Pres. Mrs. E. B. Munson, Secy-Treas. W. Chambers, Executive: E. B. Munson, G. H. Garrett, Mrs. H. Arnold, Hon. Vet. Dr. W. G. Ballard.

Those responsible for the formation of this club are to be heartily congratulated, as without a doubt it will mean much to the "Merry Little Cocker," which is one of the most popular breeds of the day. Already the club boasts of twenty members which is a good start and we hope the numbers will continue to grow.

Further laurels have been added to Dr. W. F. Daw's kennel by the win of "Sandy D" of Best of Breed at the recent Durham show, where he was placed over the great imported Ch. "Fred of Crombie" the Reserve Winner at Madison Square Garden, and also "Gores Blue Pal" the sire of the Best Sporting at Madison Square Garden, "Blue Dan of Happy Valley." This good fancier also bred "Gores Blue Pal."

"Sandy D" was bred by Dr. Daw, and is the son of his imported stud "Mallwyd Monarch" ex "Racketts Nell" ex Int. Ch. "Racketts Rummy," and was sold to Dr. Tyler of North Carolina along with "Heather Gaie" who is son of "Mallwyd Monarch" ex "Heather Dawn" and was bred by the Dean of English Setter Breeders, Frank Topp Turner of Victoria, B.C.

It is understood that Dr. Tyler has purchased these dogs with a view of founding a kennel of high class English Setters, and it is pleasing to see that he got away to a good start, which will doubtless mean more business for these two good Victoria fanciers.

The good old setter breeder, Harry Patterson of Nanaimo, B.C., has mated "Patsy of Bank Bay" and "Isobel of Bank Bay" to "Crossfell of Bank Bay" a son of the imported "Groeswen Rock" and great things are expected of this line breeding.

Tommy Cornall of Victoria reports the arrival of a litter of whippets, three dogs and one bitch, the result of the mating of Int. Ch. "Taffys Pride" and "Treffenon Plack." Unfortunately the dam was unable to nurse the puppies for the first few days, so Tommy and his good wife set to and hand fed then on "Eagle Brand Milk" on which they did remarkably well. This litter is very interesting to the fanciers, and more particularly to Bill Coull, who imported the dam.

We are pleased to welcome home, Major H. W. Niven, the esteemed President of the Victoria City Kennel Club, who has been on an extended visit to the old land, where he visited all the shows of importance and brought back a wealth of news on dogs and dog shows in general. His presence and valuable assistance has been greatly missed by the club in the arranging of their annual show, as he is a most indefatigable worker.

His first thoughts were of the club and the forthcoming show and his first duty resulted in securing the armories for the event, which is considered the finest building in Western Canada to stage a show in.

A new fancier to the Scottie ranks in John McMinn of Nanaimo, B.C., who has purchased a daughter of Ch. "Grouse O'Balgownie" ex a daughter of Ch. "Ellwyn Chiel" for the foundation of his kennel. With such blood lines and judicious mating he should produce something of great value to the breed. Many will remember John, who not so many years ago, had a great kennel of Airedales, with which he was most successful, and we hope he will have the same success with the Scotties.

Mrs. Leiper, of Victoria, B.C., another Scottie fancier reports the arrival of a litter of seven sired by Ch. "Eglinton Lairdie." We also note that this good lady is now a member of the good old C.K.C.

I am indebted to David Halcrow of Cranbrook, B.C. for a very newsy letter concerning his kennel of English Springer Spaniels with which he appears to be having good success in the ring. "Kootenay Belle," one of his kennel, captured first and special at Spokane in 1930 and in 1929 she was awarded the Lethbridge Brewery Cup at Lethbridge. This bitch has recently been bred to Int. Ch. "L'le Messenger Boy." "Kootenay Florence" and "Maria 2nd of Avandale" two other inmates of this kennel both produced wonderful litters last fall, and were all disposed locally and throughout Alberta.

This good fancier is somewhat situated off the beaten track of the show centres, and is unable, owing to time and distance, to visit as many shows as he would like, but he believes in keeping in touch with Kennel and Bench via the postman route.

I am advised by Jack Preston, who for many years was the Secy of the Seattle Show, that he intends exhibiting some of his Irish Terriers at the Victoria Show, but owing to pressure of business he will not be able to accompany them, but will make a flying visit by plane to see his terriers judged.

I regret to have to report that good lady fancier of the Pekingese, Mrs. C. M. Castle, is at present not enjoying the best of health. However she is under the care of the best physician in Victoria and we hope the result will be a complete and speedy recovery. Being one of the oldest breeders of the Peke, her kennel has been the home of many good specimens, for she spared neither expense nor time in her efforts to better the breed, with the result that many of the good ones that grace the show benches of today are the result of her efforts. Ch. "Mousmee of Shantung" which was bred in this kennel is considered one of the greatest headed Pekes on the bench today, and at present is the chief brood matron. Her daughter, "Shantung Fifi" inherits the gorgeous head and unbroken wrinkle. Cr. "Wen Lew Smudge" the stud of the kennel, will later be replaced by "Wen Lew Tippee" who is of the same Chinatown strain as "Smudge."

Of late, owing to her indifferent health, Mrs. Castle has been compelled to reduce her kennel, which was a duty she very much disliked.

Mrs. S. C. Sweeney, of Vancouver, B.C., advises me of the arrival of a litter of Airedales consisting of five dogs and five bitches sired by Ch. "Master Simon" her imported stud ex her imported bitch "Penelope of Hondforth." We hope this litter will be the means of placing the "king of all terriers" to the fore once again in B.C.

This good fancier is to be congratulated on her effort to establish this breed in B.C. for without a doubt the Airedale is a handsome dog and a useful one, and is deserving of a good deal more popularity than he now enjoys.

Mrs. Sweeney is also a keen fancier of the Cairn Terrier and imported two very nice ones some two years ago from England including "Snelston Riot" which she since piloted to his Canadian Championship. This little dog was placed second best terrier at Tacoma in 1930.

The B.C. Clubs appear to be making their shows very interesting for the handlers, for they are offering a cash prize of $100.00 to the handler bringing the largest string from East of the Rocky Mountains or the state of California, and a cash prize of $35.00 for the largest string from the states of Washington or Oregon for competition over the Spring Circuit. These clubs doubtless realize that the handler must be looked after, and rightly so, for they are the means of keeping many shows on the map.

California judges will again be greatly in evidence over the circuit. Victoria has selected one, Coast City one and Vancouver Kennel Club one. "Billy" Moffitt of Burnaby has been selected to judge all breeds at New Westminster, and "Billy" Oates of Vancouver will judge part of the Coast City along with Mrs. Greenberg of California and Jack Wolfenden of Seattle. Anton Korbel will judge all breeds for the Vancouver Kennel Club. Christ Shuttleworth will judge all breeds at Victoria.

The success of the circuit depends entirely on the fanciers who can, if they will, make a record for each show. The clubs have certainly worked hard and done everything possible to put over record shows, it is now left for you to decide whether you will or not crown their efforts with a bumper entry for each show.

This is the Notes From British Columbia page folks, send your notes, advertisements or subscriptions to A. H. Dodds, Victoria.

PAYING THE FINES

Canadian exhibitors who have attended shows held under American Kennel Club Rules have been fined for giving their Canadian Kennel Club registration number, or for using the word "Champion" in connection with the correct name of the animal being shown. Do not pay fines but heed this Warning!

The only registration number recognized by the American Kennel Club in connection with entering a dog for a show held under American Kennel Club Dog Show Rules is, naturally, the dog's number, when registered with the American Kennel Club. If the dog is not registered with the American Kennel Club, then he must be listed.

The only champions recognized by the American Kennel Club, are the dogs that have won championship honors at shows held under American Kennel Club Dog Show Rules.

To give a Canadian Kennel Club registration number, is wrong, when given on an entry intended for a show to be held in the United States. If you do give the number designate it properly, and allow for the listing fee in the regular way.

To show "Champion" before the name of any dog entered for a show to be held in the United States, is also wrong, unless such championship has been made at shows held in the United States under American Kennel Club Dog Show Rules. You may say the sire or dam is a champion only when you precede the word "Champion" by the word "Canadian".

Take This Advice.

Pay the fines imposed, and take precaution to prevent further impositions by only giving the proper information as required by the entry form. Your dog has either an American Kennel Club registration number, or he has not such a number; your dog, sire or dam are either A.K.C. Champions, or they are not such champions, so give the correct information and steer clear of the penalties named in American Kennel Club Dog Show Rule XI., Sec. 9.—which reads: "If clerical errors or omissions be made in entering a dog, such as incorrect name, incorrect registration number, incorrect breeder, etc., a fine of $1.00 shall be imposed." Also, of Rule XI., Sec. 13.—which reads: "Exhibitors are responsible for their own errors and their agent's errors in making out entry forms."

FAILURE TO PAY!

means denial of the privileges of the American Kennel Club, and such denial automatically denies similar privileges in Canada. Therefore, this warning to our people at this time.

Prevention is Better Than Cure!

and in this instance, it is easy to prevent possible unpleasantness, by giving only the necessary and correct information on entry forms when making out entries for shows to be held in the United States.

Take No Chances!

Remember a dog is only a champion when he has been so declared by the governing club in the country where the championship was won. It should be kept in mind too that a Canadian champion may be entered in the Limit Class at shows held in the United States.

Supposing

your dog was a Canadian champion, and his sire and dam were both Canadian champions, the proper way to make your entry would be Johnny Canuck. Sire, Canadian Ch. Jack Canuck, Dam, Canadian Ch. Janie Canuck. The dog to be entered cannot be called a champion unless it is an American Kennel Club Champion.

THE PERFECT BROOD MATRON.

Allan C. McGuire, Ottawa, owns a Cocker bitch that is a hog for punishment in the nursery. Three puppies were born to her, and all were there to stay. The nest did not seem quite filled for the little Cocker mother, so she stole a puppy from another nest and added it to the three she was actually mother of. The old family cat was seen to be moping around uttering dismal wails, and investigation found her nest empty and her three kittens amissing. If she had ever owned a brain in her feline head she might have had an idea where to look for the "wanderers." Anyway, it's a fact that the Cocker bitch is mothering the mixed family of seven, and everybody is satisfied and contented.

DOG SHOW TO BE HOUSED AT SASKATOON.

The dog shows held in connection with the Saskatoon Exhibition have enjoyed ample space, if not altogether ample protection from the Weatherman in bygone years, but information to hand seems to indicate that the dogs will be housed in a regularly fitted building this year, where they will not need to give a wag of their tails whether it rains or shines. We feel sure our friends in Saskatchewan will appreciate this gesture of interest and good feeling on the part of the Exhibition Association, and that they will show their appreciation in the additional entries that will roll up for this Summer's Show.

CANINE SOCIETY OF MONTREAL

The judges have been selected for the second show to be held by Montreal's Youngest Canine Society, and we notice that Dr. C. Y. Ford has as his portion of the classification, All Terriers. Harry Silver takes on the larger breeds and Toys and the non-sporting varieties will be judged by Hector Hourd, Jr., the well-known secretary of Burlington Kennel Club, therefore the show is in the hands of efficient adjudicators, and this, plus the offered prizes, plus the new championship rating, which will be in effect in time to function at this fixture—should ensure a large representative entry on Saturday, May 9th—a one-day show.

Secretary R. H. Waddell has everything running smoothly, and is ready to send premium lists to all and sundry who make application to receive same.

Notes From Manitoba

By Provincial Contributing Editor, W. B. R. KNOWLES, V.S., B.V.Sc.

BEFORE I commence writing "Manitoba Notes" for May issue of Kennel and Bench, I would just like to appeal to the Manitoba members to whole-heartedly rally to the support of the new Board of Directors of the Canadian Kennel Club. It doesn't need me to tell you they have taken hold, at the very darkest period of the world-wide financial depression, at the time when all business interests are cutting down expenses almost beyond the limit. But let us hope and work with the hope too, that it is the "darkest hour which precedes the dawn" of the new day which will be the beginning of better and brighter times.

The new Directorate is full of optimism for the future and they desire at the outset to place your publication on a sound financial footing. Kennel and Bench is a splendidly-printed magazine, but, like all other publications, it depends more on paid advertisements than on subscriptions to make the balance sheet come out on the right side. Advertising rates commence at a minimum of $2.00 per inch, column wide, per insertion, with a corresponding better rate as the size increases to a full page ad at $30.00. The sworn circulation of three thousand five hundred copies monthly reaches the best of the "Fancy" in all quarters of the globe. Page 28 of the April issue of Kennel and Bench contains a letter of appreciation from W. A. Unthank, re results obtained from his advertisement in February issue of Kennel and Bench. He had several inquiries from Canadian readers, but the two German Shepherd dogs advertised were finally sold to a reader of Kennel and Bench in Japan. The purchaser mentioned he had seen his ad in Kennel and Bench. I have a number of contract blanks which will be forwarded to any who desire to use the columns of Kennel and Bench to advertise any dog which they may wish to dispose of. These may be forwarded either through me or direct as the advertiser desires. "It pays to advertise."

A few Sundays ago I had an opportunity to go to Stoney Mountain—please don't get the idea that the trip was obligatory—because the fact that these notes are in Kennel and Bench shows that I got back to Winnipeg. On account of the condition of the roads it was considered advisable to keep to the main highway as far as Stonewall, and then try to find a well-travelled road to Stoney Mountain. But when we arrived at Stonewall we were advised to retrace our steps about four miles and then travel due east to our destination. That east road was one continuous thrill, through about ten inches of ice and snow over which only a lumber wagon had preceded us. But the car was a good one and we got through, to be compensated at the end by meeting Mr. and Mrs. Fisher and their beautiful Irish Setters. They had all wintered well, in fact "Ch. Assinawa Rory" (C.K.C. 61482) had wintered too well and was perhaps a trifle fat, but "Assinawa Rufus" was in excellent show condition, so much so that his chances at the Saskatoon show were discussed. These were considered so good that he was entered. He carried the Fisher colors to victory, capturing First Open, Winners Dogs and Best of Breed. Later he was awarded the special for Best of the Irish Breeds. "Ch. Assinawa Rory" and "Assinawa Rufus" are by "Rex's Mike" (35680) ex "Fisher's Red Girl" (55782). "Rex's Mike" was bred by J. W. Tucker, Mineral Point, Wis. "Fisher's Red Girl" is a beautiful, well-conditioned bitch with a glorious coat. "Assinawa Lady" (C.K.C. 65538) another of Mr. and Mrs. Fisher's females, was in Winnipeg at the kennels of Mr. and Mrs. Eamon, being bred, we understood, to "Twizel Patrick."

In Manitoba notes for March I stated that Mr. and Mrs. Rogers, of Winnipeg, had recently acquired a young female, "Beverley Treaty", and also that "Adanac Prince", a male puppy, had been sold to Mrs. Murison, of Winnipeg. The correction will read "Wryeland Treaty" and "Wryeland Adanac Prince". These two Pomeranians came from the Pomeranian kennels, Wryeland Kennels, of Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Wrye, Brandon, Manitoba, and are by "Chiswick Xanthe" ex "Lillian Honeydew". Mr. and Mrs. Wrye joined the ranks of the Fancy a short time ago and were captivated by those delightful little creatures. They are to be congratulated because they began in a business-like manner with registered animals. "Chiswick Xanthe" (C.K.C. 86017) is by "Ch. Chiswick Gold Star" Imp., and was purchased from Mr. G. W. Bruce, Melbourne Kennels, Richmond Hill, Ontario. "Lillian Honeydew" (C.K.C. 76646), an orange sable female, is by "Spider Man of War" (C.K.C. 47606), and is a real brood female. She always has four puppies to each litter. Mrs. Wrye advises me she has another red orange sable female by "Melbourne Red Mite" (C.K.C. 89266) ex "Lillian Honeydew" (76646), which had a litter of four puppies on January 12th and of which sales are pending for three puppies. We wish Mr. and Mrs. Wrye the very best of luck on their entry into the Manitoba Fancy.

I am advised the Fort Garry Kennel Club contemplate holding a show and this will be discussed at a meeting to be held in Winnipeg April 21st. Mr. Henderson, Winnipeg, is the secretary. Should they finally decide to hold a show, send along your entries and help them to make it a big success.

Carl Tangstad advises me he has sold his German Shepherd dog, "Black Marquis", to Mr. Disko, of Winnipeg, at a figure he could not very well refuse. He had previously contemplated keeping him for the show bench.

The Wire-haired Fox Terrier, "Silverdale Snowflake", the property of Geo. Kynoch, has been bred to Harry Baker's "Ch. Silverdale Fox Trot" and is now nursing a fine litter of puppies to this new champion. "Silverdale Snowflake" is by "Ch. Flornell Rapid Fire" ex "Ormsby Rose of Paris."

"Mac's Queen of Hearts", the Boston Terrier female of Mr. and Mrs. Kerr, of the Kerr Kennels, has been bred to George Duncan's "Trappy-stock Personality". These two high class Boston Terriers, I believe, just need one point each to complete their championships and Mr. and Mrs. Kerr are looking for something really good from this mating.

Winnipeg dogs certainly put Winnipeg on the map in big bold type at the Saskatoon show and the Winnipeg Free Press told the world about it to the extent of half a column. See the award columns in this issue for particulars.

Sam Jackson recently purchased "Atta Girl Hagerty" from Mr. Donlan, of Philadelphia. She is by "Hagerty's King Jr's. Son" ex a "Woodsworth's Captain" female. She had been bred to his "Winchester Joycaster", and it was intended showing her at the western shows, but he had such a tempting offer from Mr. J. Scudder Lewis, of Sacramento, Calif., that "Atta Girl Hagerty" was shipped last week to California. "Winchester Dream Baby" by "Winchester Joycaster" ex "Winchester Sweet Marie", a four months old puppy, is a perfectly marked, dark seal, brindle. She is a very nice female with ears just about erect and has been sold to H. J. Harris, of Camden, N.J. Readers of "Manitoba Notes" will recall that Mr. Harris is the Boston Terrier enthusiast who purchased "Ch. Winchester Aviator". We anticipate that Mr. Harris will be as equally well pleased with "Winchester Dream Baby" as he was with "Teddy", which was Aviator's pet name. And we expect that at a later date something good will result if he should mate her with Teddy. Females bred to "Winchester Joycaster" during the month of March were from the kennels of Mrs. McBean, Winnipeg, Mr. Brooks, Transcona, Mr. Clare, St. James, Mr. J. Valente, Winnipeg and Mrs. Lalonde, St. Vital.

SHIPPING DOGS BY RAIL

By A. de Neuville

I HAVE compiled below the rules and rates governing the transportation of dogs by rail adding a few remarks in comparing the rates granted to other animals and live stock. I believe that the transportation companies would actually benefit by lowering their rates since it would induce many handlers and exhibitors to travel by rail instead of motoring.

Express Rates on Dogs C.R.C. No. ET 986

Page 18, item 13—Dogs: Must be accepted for shipment only upon the execution of the Company's live stock contract, without regard to the value placed upon them by the shipper.

In crates or kennels—1½ time 1st class—May be taken without being boxed or crated if securely chained and estimated at 100 lbs. each unless actual weight is more. Rate 2 times 1st class.

Page 19, item 1.—Animals which have been exhibited at Fairs or Exhibitions will be returned to the original point of shipment by the same route at one-half the above rate, but not less than single firstclass rate. This reduced rating will apply to dogs returned from field trials, but not to racing dogs nor to animals for side shows, theatres, menageries or other concessions at fairs.

When forwarded from one exhibition to another will be charged full classification rates and when returned from the final exhibition to the original place of shipment will be charged half the classification rates but not less than single first-class rate.

Shipper must present original contract or receipt before the reduced rate named above will be applied on the returned shipment. The contract or receipt issued for such returned shipment must bear notation: "Returned shipment" and show the reduced rate applicable.

It is interesting to add here that calves, goats, hogs, sheep and cattle crated are only rated first-class which is 2/3 of the rate on dogs.

And in the Freight Department, it is also most interesting to note that pedigreed horses, cattle, sheep and swine (less carloads) when for breeding purposes only, and so to be declared by shippers on shipping bills, and when shippers produce Certificate of Registration by an association recognized by the Dominion Department of Agriculture will be waybilled at one-half standard mileage tariff rates.

Pedigreed dogs are recognized by the Dominion Department of Agriculture and it seems only fair that they should get at least as low a rate as unregistered hogs, calves, goats or cattle which may be shipped by express at first-class rates while the dogs are rated fifty per cent. or even 100 per cent. higher. Moreover, an exhibitor cannot check his pedigreed dog as baggage. The rules that are printed below state plainly: "Exhibition, bench shows or field trial dogs will not be transported in baggage service."

It seems that the fact of being pedigreed makes a dog "taboo" by the transportation companies! Mongrels, huskies, sleigh dogs are transported as 100 lbs. excess baggage and theatrical dogs are enjoying the 150 lbs. free baggage allowance granted to every adult passenger.

The baggage rules follow:

Baggage Car Traffic C.R.C. 1307

Rule 4, page 7.—(a) Dogs not exceeding twenty-five dollars in value when not intended for commercial purpose, exhibition bench shows or field trials and provided with securely fitting collar or harness and chain or leash, if properly muzzled all of sufficient strength, provided with handles, and if accompanied by owner or caretaker will be checked or transported in baggage cars at regular excess baggage rate for gross weight with a minimum charge the same as for one hundred (100 lbs.) excess weight baggage, between same points for each dog on chain or leash or crate containing one or more dogs.

(g) Any dog or crate of dogs exceeding twenty-five dollars ($25.00) in value or intended for commercial purpose, exhibition, bench shows or field trials will not be transported in baggage service.

Rule 4.—(b) Dogs used in producing a theatrical performance or other public entertainments indoors or out of doors will be considered as public paraphernalia provided they are carried in strong crates fitted with handles.

Public Entertainment Paraphernalia

Rule 13.—(a) Trained animals used in producing a theatrical performance, lecture or other public entertainment will be transported in regular baggage service subject to the weight allowance shown in paragraph (a) rule (6) viz.: (150 pounds of baggage will be checked without charge for each adult passenger).

Many an exhibitor who nowadays motors to the dog shows over tiresome dusty roads or stays home and sends his dog in care of a handler would gladly railroad down and handle his own dog personally if he was allowed to take it as baggage at actual weight excess rate and the railroad would sell a return ticket which it never sells under present rules.

HAMILTON BEAGLE CLUB TRIALS

The Springfield trials of the Hamilton Beagle Club were held at Freelon, Ontario, on April 18th and 19th.

The first day was for Derbies only, and the weather was all that could be desired. The number of entries was rather disappointing, but each dog that was put down was a high-class field animal. Albert Seiling, making his first visit to our trials, brought along two smart performers in Haig's Flash and Grandview Toiler, the former being his own, and the latter belonging to Ross Robertson of Wilmington, Delaware. The tracking conditions were fair but game was very scarce; however, there was sufficient running done to give the three judges—Walter Langdon, "Bill" (Pistol) Hancock, and "Bill" Ballantyne, plenty of action in placing the hounds.

On the following day at nine o'clock, the 13-inch All Age was put down and some very fine runs were made. This class was run for the duration of two hours. On this part of the grounds, there was a considerable amount of water lying around and it kept everybody, including dogs, rabbits and gallery, stepping high in spots. The running was of a high order and every hound put down gave a good account of himself.

After dinner the general routine of measuring up and taking entries was proceeded with, and the 15-inch All Age was put down. This was the largest class and consisted of thirteen entries and was run in two series of an hour and a half each. The hounds this time were moved to a different section of the grounds where the game was much more plentiful. As a result the driving and running was just a case of one start after another. Needless to say that the gallery enjoyed the day very much.

HARRY WHITSITT'S NEW WIRE.

That keen fancier of a good Fox Terrier, Harry Whitsitt, London, Ont., has purchased from the Barrack Hill Kennels, Ottawa, Ont., the imported Wire dog, Blackmore Bruiser, imported by Geo. W. Bailey last summer. Bruiser is a wonderfully well-bred one, some fifteen champions appearing in the first four generations of pedigree, he is by Ch. Bishop Neglected by Talvera Simon and should prove a valuable addition to the Wire stud in London.

DOG SHOW ETHICS

IT may not be untimely to say something on "The Ethics of the Show Ring" and possibly to digress sufficiently to include the whole show generally.

As a foundation ethic, nothing could be more substantial than this one—"Let the best dog win, no matter to whom he belongs." Worthy building material might easily be "rectitude and common honesty," material to be rejected might be "selfishness, jealousy and bickering."

Everyone ought to be content to start the race from scratch and to be satisfied with their placing when they reach the finishing tape. The duty of each exhibitor is to secure the best specimen of the breed of his choice that it is possible for him to obtain, and having secured his animal, his constant care should be for its general welfare regular and sufficient exercise, well-balanced food, comfortable kennel quarters, clean drinking water, lots of grooming and preparation, and then you may have every right to expect your dog to be ready for the judge to look at in the ring.

The dog that is, or has been wormy, the dog that is, or has been constipated; the dog that is, or has been neglected more or less, may be in the ring with you, but he will very often be beaten at the very start, but very often the joy of the show is lost at this point. The loser may easily becloud the atmosphere by semi-secretly inferring, that he "knew all the time that he was going to lose"; that he "had been tipped off," that the winner had to win. Nothing is so detrimental to dog showing than the methods of this unethical and insinuating loser.

After many years of association with judges, I am convinced that 99 per cent of our judges are honest. It is quite true that I would not say, could not say, in fact, that 99 per cent. of our judges were competent, but honesty and competency are two widely separated virtues, but the judge who is 99 per cent. honest, is entitled to our utmost respect, as the 100 per cent. mark represents perfection, and perfection calls for wings, harp and transportation to the realms above. If it is human to err, remember that judges and exhibitors alike, are human. Most of us are more or less selfish in many things and selfishness amongst civilized people, is simply a throw-back to savagery.

A lot of ink has been spilled on the matter of faking recently, and our representatives to the Record Board

Annual Meeting, have advised that we are really novices in the art of faking yet. Exhibitors are no doubt justified in doing everything in their power to win in a legitimate way, but by the same token, they are not justified in trying to win by illicit means, such as trying to influence a judge, making a dog look what he is not, etc. Novice fanciers are liable to consider all their geese to be swans. He hears so much talk about "favoritism" that he is apt to get harmful impressions which he will never be able to properly unload and this in itself should induce experienced breeders to play the game fair. To fool the novice, is a practice, that no self-respecting fancier should tolerate or indulge in. To have a novice exhibit his dog on unreliable advice, and when he loses, to suggest that favoritism beat him and not quality, is a crime against the sport of exhibiting to say the least. To raise hope in the mind of the novice, and to see that hope dashed to the ground, is a terrible thing, but to place the failure to favoritism or to lack of knowledge on the part of the judge, is to drive the novice right out of the game, and is quite contrary to the ethics of the show ring.

It is true that there is a wide range of diversity of opinion as to the merits and demerits of dogs, and perhaps this is caused by the study and education of the modern dog, this difference of opinion, when legitimate, although it may hurt plenty when it clashes with the opinion of one's self or with other opinions, is really a blessing in disguise, since it furnishes that great uncertainty in showing dogs, which gives a piquancy to the sport that is relished by all true sportsmen and sportswomen everywhere.

Then there is the exhibitor that must win at any price—so they say—whether their dog is good enough or not. Such fanciers are unethical and sportsmanship is an unknown quality with them. Then there is the exhibitor who is willing to pay the price to get certain dogs out of a show before the judging starts, because certain other dogs have been entered, or are present. Can anyone say that such a type of sport is any advantage to dog showing? To set against this type, we happily have fanciers who could never appreciate any win that was not fully deserved. These are always the best losers, as they are always the best and most gracious winners.

An exhibitor knows when he makes out his entry, everything about a show, the show-giving Club, the place, the prizes, the judges, and so he has the privilege of writing out his cheque and signing the entry form on the dotted line. He also has the privilege of placing the premium list in the waste-paper basket, but once he agrees to the terms of the contract by signing the entry, then he should be satisfied to win or to lose as the judge may decide on the day.

A good judge is born, not made, and such a judge is capable of quickly comparing degrees of merit. He has studied the anatomy of the dog, and the sense of feeling tells him of structural faults when they are present. His eye quickly appraises proportion of quality. His method of handling and placing his dogs all bring forth his knowledge and ability, and as he finally arranges the placings, and hands out his degrees of favor he is justly entitled to your approval of his work. The chances are all in favor of his being honest, that he knows more about the dogs than you do—therefore, show him that you entered your dog to get his opinion and now that you have it, first one in ten, or last one in ten, show him that you appreciate his judgment.

It is good to be a good winner.

It is much better to be a good loser.

Anyway, it is unethical to be "in the game" and not to "play it."

IMPORTANT

If the Clubs in Canada contemplating holding dog shows under Canadian Kennel Club Rules during 1931, will furnish the Secretary of the Canadian Kennel Club with the name and address of their Club Secretaries, a list will be prepared and published in Kennel and Bench for information purposes.

Such a published list will be invaluable to the exhibitors generally, and also, will enable Secretaries of other Clubs to volunteer their Club Specials in time.

THE WINNERS RIBBON.

Someone with the notion that winners ribbons would look well in the family quilt got away with 25 of these coveted strips whilst the National Kennel Club show was in progress last November and as a result some of the Toy exhibitors were obliged to take the Superintendent's promise in lieu of the genuine article.

However the promise was made good and any person still having a claim to make for their winners ribbon is asked to communicate with the Secretary, National Kennel Club, Inc., 38 King St. W., Toronto, at once.

TWO LITTERS OF ELEVEN.

A litter of eleven Airedale Terriers arrived at the Kenwyn Kennels, New Brunswick, New Jersey, recently. The puppies are by the Int. Ch. Walnut Challenger out of the well-known American-bred bitch, Kenwyn Brunswick Bess. According to Mr. Havens, the owner, there are four little "Challengers" and seven little "Bessies."

Mr. Havens is already thinking about their possibilities as show prospects, and says he never saw a more promising looking lot of little fellows.

The other litter of eleven has just been born at the Alton Kennels of Alex. Donaldson, Toronto. The sire is his very engaging Collie, Mossview Superior. Mr. Donaldson has been looking for these youngsters rather anxiously, but his vigil has been rewarded in goodly measure. Other bitches whelping to Mossview Superior are also strong in numbers, with the sexes about equally divided, and the quality is as pleasing as the quantity.

The reason is not far to seek. Veterinary surgeons, breeders, exhibitors, handlers and dog owners generally, have learned from direct experience that Spratt's crisp, meaty biscuits and wholesome, vitamin meals are the purest and most nourishing foods that science, coupled with the makers' unrivalled specialized knowledge of the subject, can provide for the daily diet of dogs, whether of the sporting or non-sporting variety, of large, medium or toy breeds.

In the kennel, on the bench and in the ring itself, the splendid condition and stamina of the "Spratt's-fed" dog invariably "tell" in the "hottest" company. Elsewhere than in show circles, the ordinary pal-dog, reared on a "Spratt's" diet, is everywhere a credit to his owner.
