Old Trusty Dog Foods and Remedies

Unique in its make-up and purpose, the Old Trusty Dog Food Company is owned and managed wholly by dogmen and devotes its entire resources to the manufacture and sale of foods, remedies and accessories pertinent to the well-being of the dog. Due to specialization and the wealth of practical knowledge available, in a single decade it has grown from an individual's dream to a place of dominance in dogdom.

It is hardly necessary to describe the Old Trusty foods in detail, except to say that all of them are free from medication, and from sweetening or any other treatment to make them deceptively palatable. It is because they are natural dog foods, scientifically balanced, that the dog relishes them and does not tire of them.

Each remedy in the Old Trusty chest is compounded for its special purpose after years of study and practical research, from the famous formulas of Dr. G. G. Anderson, noted veterinarian. They are safe and dependable. Easily and effectively given at home.

Meeting of the Board of Directors of the Canadian Kennel Club, Incorporated

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Directors of the Canadian Kennel Club Inc., was held at the Club's Offices, 25 Melinda St., Toronto, on Thursday evening, August 20th, 1931.

The President, Brig. Gen. C. M. Nelles, presided. Directors present were: H. A. Wilson, Col. J. N. MacRae, Major Ward Wright, Reg. P. Sparkes, R. Tyrwhitt, F. W. Walkerdine, A. Donaldson and R. L. Wainright.

The Secretary reported that Col. G. F. McFarland was out of town on vacation.

The minutes of the last regular monthly meeting were read. The regularity of the voting on certain matters coming up at the July meeting was challenged, and a round table discussion on the matter disclosed the circumstance of the Directors being widely separated in their views on the matter. At the close of the discussion it was moved and seconded:

"That outside legal advice be secured on the question of the President's voting privileges, and particularly on the Chairman's voting in

Secretary was instructed to prepare a brief of the complaints on file, and to send a copy to each Director.

The President reported that he had written a letter to the President of the Toronto Star, and had personally interviewed Mr. Atkinson, who claimed that the article which had appeared in the Star on July 3rd, 1931, had been prepared from the Minutes which had appeared in the official organ of the Club and so refused to publish the letter which had been prepared by the President.

The Chairman of the Kennel and Bench Printing Committee referred to a letter of complaint which he had received from the Secretary, who claimed that he was asked to do certain proof-reading which he considered to be the work of the reader at the Printer's plant.

It was regularly moved, seconded and carried:

"That Kennel and Bench Printing Committee be instructed to bring in a report on the Secretary's complaint for the next meeting of the Board."

A letter from the Canadian National

"That the matter be referred to the Quebec Provincial Committee for attention and report."

A letter of complaint from Walter E. Philpott, Toronto, against F. Hipkiss, Toronto, alleged that Mr. Hipkiss had sold the complainant a dog alleged to be suffering from goitres on each side of the animal's neck, and seeking the support of the Directors in securing redress.

It was regularly moved, seconded and carried:

"That the Board had no jurisdiction over the complaint."

A letter from A. Buchanan, Toronto, advised that he had been held up on matters of registration for one year, and claimed that the Records Office was in possession of all particulars that he had been able to give, and requesting the Board to end the case.

It was regularly moved, seconded and carried:

"That no action be taken on the matter until Mr. Buchanan lives up to his understanding with the Records Office officials."

A letter of complaint was read from

CANINE WAR HERO DEAD

The noted German Shepherd dog, "Jim Whiskey Nazaire," died at Macon, Ga., on August 7th, almost 13 years after he had been wounded on the firing line in France. "Jim" had been distinguished by the French Government, three decorations being his reward. His three citations were, for rescuing a number of French soldiers, for making a record time in delivering an important dispatch, and for displaying almost human intelligence.

"Jim Whiskey" was born at St. Nazaire, France, on May 17th, 1917, and served first with the French Red Cross and later with the 17th French Field Artillery in the Argonne, where he suffered two broken legs from shrapnel.

It is said that our war hero understood commands in three different languages and has been domiciled with Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Pape, near Macon, Ga., since the cessation of the world war's hostilities.

WHAT A MATINEE!

When the recently organized Canadian Fox Terrier Association was formed, ambitious plans were evolved at the very start. Hamilton Kennel Club was given a generous foretaste of the young club's vitality when a large entry, good prize money, and an able judge was quickly furnished by the Association.

On Thursday, August 6th, a feature dog show was staged in the twilight hours with a variety of co-operation that was most refreshing to witness. Every man and woman prominent in Toronto dogdom was called upon to take some part in the evening's work and as a result the Association has added to its bank balance something in the neighborhood of $100, and an enthusiastic member was found who bewailed the circumstance of a great number of late arrivals whose dogs could not be entered, thus crippling the aforesaid credit by around $50.

The event was a great success in every way. When a Pomeranian owned by Mrs. A. R. Kittermaster won for best in the show, the spacious Sunnyside playground, where the show was held, resounded with the vociferous approval of a splendid gallery.

Chas. A. Ward, Toronto, owner of the Braemore Kennels, won a nice trophy for the best Fox Terrier, and this expensive receptacle being promptly charged with "Canada Dry" became the most sought after article on the grounds. Controller A. Ramsden, who was master of ceremonies in the absence of Toronto's popular Mayor "Bill" Stewart, was not the last to quench his thirst at "Charlie's" Silver Soda Fountain.

Just by way of allowing more steam to escape the Canadian Fox Terrier Association in conjunction with the Boston Terrier Club of Canada, held a joint picnic on Saturday, August 8th, when every mother's son, and for that matter of it, every mother's daughter as well, entered into the picnic spirit and at the close of the day it was voted to have been a red letter day for both participating clubs.

P. Bergsma, Windsor, has sold his good English Bulldog, "Don Lorenzo," to a fancier in Chicago. "Don Lorenzo" was by "Bonhomie Prince," a son of "Herbal Dispenser" (Imp.) ex a daughter of "Ch. Kippax Jock" (Imp.).

FRANK BEER INJURED

Frank Beer, Toronto, breeder of the illustrious Smooth Fox Terrier Int. "Ch. Gallant Fox," had the misfortune to have his foot badly crushed when he accidentally allowed the member to get entangled in the machinery of a motor boat. We hope this popular sportsman will soon be all healed up again, if for no other reason than that we must continue to get our roast beef and coffee when we go to see the "bang tails" do their stuff at the several tracks where Mr. Beer controls these very essential concessions.

NOTED YORKSHIRE DEAD

Int. "Ch. Bonds' Bingo," the Yorkshire Terrier owned by Mr. and Mrs. H. Riddock, Detroit, and feature dog at many shows on both sides of the boundary line, has just died, and the owners have been obliged to absorb a grievous loss as a result, however, the Riddocks are the kind of fanciers who "stick" and no doubt they have on hand some well bred specimens capable of "carrying on" in place of the redoubtable "Bonds' Bingo."

WINDSOR K. C. MEMBERS AT LEAMINGTON

On Sunday, August 16th, the members of Windsor Kennel Club left their dogs with their maids or hired men and journeyed out to Leamington and the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hacker, situated on the shores of Lake Erie, where an enjoyable day was spent picnic style. The humans had a wonderful time. The canines—well, we haven't heard their side of the story yet, but all are alive to "wag the tail."

Leaves From a Kennel Note Book

By FREEMAN LLOYD.

FOR sometime Greyhound racing has been more or less "under the weather" in the neighbourhoods of New York and Chicago. The racing tracks have been looked upon as "rackets," and run only for the purpose of filling the pockets of promoters, rather than the sport that might be in the pastime, or the benefit of bona-fide owners of greyhounds. Where there is "racing" there must be wagering; indeed, betting is a part and parcel of the successful carrying on and maintenance of all such sporting places or institutions. As open betting is against the laws of several of the States, many and artful subterfuges have been tried to evade the vigilance of the authorities—honest or otherwise. Politicians have stepped in and demanded their whacks of the gains—ill-gotten or legitimately acquired. Batches of men have been sent to track owners who have been ordered to "put these men to work at five dollar a day wages." There have been other menaces that soon froze out big moneyed men bearing great and honoured names in the social and business worlds. This is what happened in New York City, when it was sought to put greyhound racing on a really honest plane, and uplift the sport above reasonable suspicion. Undoubtedly, much money has been lost over these speculations; and, what is more, substantial men have become wary and disinclined to jeopardize their capital in such undertakings where "politics" are said to play a heavy part.

On August 11 the Florida Racing Commission, sitting at Tallahassee, announced it had granted permits to fifteen horse racing and twenty-one dog racing associations. The Commission denied five applications for horse tracks and thirteen for dog tracks. Of course, these opportunities for seeing and enjoying much horse and greyhound racing, will draw many thousands of visitors to Florida during the coming winter season which usually is one of the most enjoyable periods that may be had anywhere in the world. But, so far as dog men are concerned, the opening up of two and twenty greyhound tracks in Florida, will mean a tremendous impetus given to the breeding of racing dogs in North America, as well as in England and Ireland. And, as we must be all aware, there are so few greyhounds bred in America, that the produce is almost below consideration. So Europe will not only find a brisk market for her racing dogs, but will be able to supply it. It might be worth the while of Canadian breeders of greyhounds, to produce puppies that will, in time, be good enough for racing purposes in Florida. The point seems to be that Florida must not only have sporting amusements, but plenty of them, to draw the continued patronage of the rest of the United States. There can be no use owning a theatre—a place of entertainment—without putting a play or vaudeville show on its stage.

One of the most beautiful lots of Cocker Spaniels ever seen, was at Sharon, Connecticut, where are located the Windsweep Kennels, owned by Miss Alice A. Dodsworth, a lady who has for all her life, has possessed spaniels of one or another variety of land spaniels. At Windsweep I saw forty-five Cockers of various self and other mixed colors including whites and red or orange; tri-colors, and whites and black. The evenness of type and really exquisite condition of everyone of Miss Dodsworth's spaniels was remarkable, and that word is used with all due regard to its full meaning. Canadians will be interested to learn that much of the success of the Windsweep-bred cockers has been due to the presence of a Dominion-bred dog in the International Champion "Goldstream Guard" formerly owned by his breeder Thomas P. Murray, then of Winnipeg, now in Vancouver. "My Own Straight Sale," after being put to stud, produced three American champions; and these, let it be added, have had much to do with the signal successes of one of the most noted of the world's aggregations of Cocker Spaniels.

It is not known if the judging block or platform is in use in Canada, but there is a growing dislike expressed towards these stages in the States. A couple or more years ago, the always progressive Westminster Kennel Club declared by their action, these blocks were among those dog show furnishings described as obsolete. So they cast them aside, although the Boston Terrier judge refused to proceed with his work, until he was provided with the old fashioned platform that as often as not made monkeys out of dogs and fools of adjudicators. As a matter of fact, the block is not the place to show off a dog's qualities. On the other hand, it must have been invented for the purposes of the methods employed by the professional dog-handler to pose the exhibit in a manner calculated to fool the judge, and gain unfair advantage over the other fellow and his dog. But, apart from the milk-sop end of the dog-showing game, we all know that a dog appears his best when encouraged to stand off on a long lead while in the ring. That is where the good dog immediately attracts the attention of any onlooker—judge or otherwise. As many of my readers will remember, the long lead was the George Steadman Thomas weapon or method of handling a terrier, in that international expert's palmiest days of dog exhibiting. And, as we all know, Thomas must be a mighty good man to follow. Percy Roberts is another of the "banish the block" persuasion, although it is reasonable to suppose no one could be superior in the modes and manners of "fixing" a terrier under the very eyes and nose of the man making the awards.

I always think that a good story might be written around the career of the man Percy Roberts—a really good and true tale regarding a Britisher who, as a dog man, in the course of less than twenty years, has made not only an imperishable name, but, as they say, a good deal of money. His whole capital was a love for animals, an apprenticeship served in the kennels of the astute J. J. Holgate, at Doncaster, England; a respectful mien towards all men, and a smart, good looking appearance. Seventeen years ago Percy Roberts, a mere lad, set sail for America, in charge of a consignment of dogs, sheep, geese, pigeons and chickens—all show animals or birds consigned to the Misses Grace and Alger, whose Red Bank Kennels, on Long Island, N.Y., used to house one of the largest and best aggregations of large German poodles ever seen in any country. When Roberts had delivered his three hundred and fifty head of legs and wings, he directed his steps to an Airedale Terrier Club's show then being held in New York, and, as luck would have it, met the late Stanley Lomas, who at once gave the new arrival a job and took him as a kennel hand to near Chicago, where Lomas was manager for the famous terriers owned by Mrs. Crawford and Mr. Perrin. It was there that I first met the nice young fellow as quick as a whip with terriers, always ready to give information and ever anxious to make the most of his employers' dogs, so that the enquiring and observant reporter might see and make the most out of the surroundings and incidents. On the disposal of the C. & P. dogs, Roberts went into the employ of Otto W. Lehman whose Greyhounds, Whippets, Setters, Cockers, Airedales, Irish, Scottish, West Highlands, Wire and Smooth-haired Fox Terriers were cutting a wide swath in the prize lists at the chief shows from the Windy City to Manhattan Island. After staying at Mr. Lehman's place at Lake Villa, Illinois, for three years or so, Roberts started business on his own account at Highland Park, Chicago, which locality he found to be too far away from the Eastern dog shows, he said. It was war time, and he must move. And so he did.

Hiring a railroad freight car (which was difficult in those hectic days) Percy Roberts pulled up stakes and departed with all his belonging (including his newly made wife) and made a trek on steel wheels that brought about a more than ordinarily successful career as a dog-owner and handler; indeed, save in one instance, I have no knowledge of anyone who has been as fortunate in the kennel business. The freight car that was ticketed "To Stamford, Connecticut," was laden with house-hold effects, box kennels, two Welsh ponies, a governess car, some terrier dogs, and other odds and ends. The charge for the freight car was two hundred dollars straight, and it was cheap, as matters were to turn out. For, as everyone knows, Roberts has been splendidly successful with his own as well as other people's dogs. His bought and paid for property of seven acres with its newly built residence, and faultlessly equipped kennels and yards, is of a description that must be seen to be appreciated.

In 1926, the Roberts' charges won the Best In Show cups at the Jubilee W.K.C., New York, the Sesqui Centennial at Philadelphia, and other of the more important events. "Signal Circuit," the winning Wirehair, and "Pinegrade Perfection," the Sealyham, winners at those shows were sold to Stanley Halle and Frederic C. Brown, by the man who handled the dogs. And that reminds one that most of the Wires, Scotties, Welsh, Cairn and Airedale Terriers successfully piloted to their championships, had been previously owned by Roberts. And of that fact, this young man of forty years of age, takes his greatest pride. As men of his class are rated, Percy Robert Roberts, of the Gardiner Street property, two miles north of Stamford, Conn., may be accounted a well-to-do, and prosperous man, capable of looking after a cargo of cocks and hens, sheep and goats, ponies, terriers, and

CHAMPION Scottish Terrier

Conditioned on Karswood Dog Powders

"Eglinton Sweet Memory,"—Canadian Champion.

Read this letter from Mr. Alec McCloy, a former Chairman of the Provincial Board of Directors for the Canadian Kennel Club, and owner of Ch. Eglinton Sweet Memory, the Canadian Champion Scottish Terrier. This is what Mr. McCloy says:—

Victoria, British Columbia.
I am sending you a photograph of Champion "Eglinton Sweet Memory." This bitch was conditioned on Karswood Dog Powders previous to and during the three big provincial shows in British Columbia, as follows:—

1. At Vancouver, 24th of May, under the International judge, Mr. Jack Bradshaw, going Best of Breed, then Best Terrier in Show (all breeds), and finally to Best Bitch in Show (all breeds), only being beaten by an International Champion English Setter for Best Dog in Show.
2. At New Westminster Show, end of May, under International judge, Mr. George Crapfield, went Best of Breed, and Best Terrier (all breeds) in Show.
3. On July 2nd, under International judge, Mr. Jack Meadows, repeated the above success and won the title of Canadian Champion Scottish Terrier.

I may say that through Karswood Dog Powders I saved the lives of two pups belonging to a friend. These were very poor and in an almost dying condition, but picked up in marvellous fashion under repeated small doses of your Karswood Dog Powders.

My West Highland White Terriers and English Setters have all benefited greatly from using your powders. ALEC McCLOY.
1st September, 1928.

The reason why Karswood Dog Powders are so successful in tackling doggy ailments and producing such high condition, is because they contain specific nerve foods and organic salts which the dog's system must have if he is to enjoy the perfect health which resists disease.

all the live stock et ceteras that so adorn the country estates of the country gentlemen. But, as Percy always says and will say:

"I'm sorry I didn't take a snapshot of the freight car ship on wheels, that was labelled "To Stamford." My Noah's ark, praise be, did not find a resting place on Mount Ararat."

There are some astute and far-seeing gentlemen on certain of the bench show committees of the kennel clubs which hold their events around and about New York. Among these are F. N. Taliaferro, president of the Westbury K.C., Hicksville, L.I., N.Y., and Mr. Clarke of the Halycon Irish Wolfhound and Welsh Terrier Kennels, Goshen, N.Y., the latter a distinguished member of the Storm King K.C., which holds its annual show on the Stillman estate, Cornwall, N.Y. Both shows are highly enjoyable fixtures, where hospitalities and other attentions are much appreciated by all and sundry. Mr. Taliaferro is an exceedingly clever man with his pen; indeed, his successful methods for obtaining new members and worthwhile pecuniary helps, are most praiseworthy. The monthly bulletin sent out by the Westbury people, is not only full of interesting quips and whimsicalities, but gives sound and common sense advice and news regarding members and their dogs. But in all my wide experience, as a writer, it was not until a day or so ago, that a written offer was received, stating that if the correspondent so wished, he, while at the Cornwell show, could have at his beck and call, the services of a professional camera man who would be given instructions to take pictures of the subjects required by the magazine man. Also, I'm given to understand that like invitations or proposals have been extended to the other fellows who provide for their bread and butter in a like way—that of writing about dogs and the human personalities to be found at kennel events. Mr. Clarke's kindnesses will make for bigger and better publicity—universal advertising that leads on to greater successes—both for men and dogs.

READ WHAT FOLLOWS:—

July 27, 1931.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy,—

I don't want you to feel that the enthusiasms vented here are those of a total green horn, nor those of one who is not in a position to know value when he gets it. The puppy you sent me is the third bitch I have had shipped to me in the last two months.

The puppy arrived in perfect condition, am I pleased? Well I just find myself unable to properly express my complete satisfaction for this most wonderful puppy.

The thoroughness of your business methods, your sincerity and honest dealing with an absolute stranger is most gratifying.

Needless to say I shall always be proud to tell the world where my puppy hailed from, and I qualify this statement with a letter to the Editor of "Kennel and Bench" and one to the American "Dog World" with a request that they publish it, and pass the word along to others that they too may share and deal with people who put quality in the place of BALLYHOO, and I take the liberty to do so without your permission.

I took the puppy to several breeders, and among them, two local judges, and without exception they all agreed her to be a splendid youngster, with the longest head they had seen on a puppy, all asked, "What did she cost you?" and they all got, and will get, the same answer. I said, "Do business with these people, do what I did, write them, and they will quote you decent prices and treat you right." They took note of your kennel address and when they need stock you may hear from them.

I'm so proud of her that I want her registered as "THETS TREASURE." If you have any objections, I want you to come right back and tell me, and we'll find another name for her.

I will be shipping her back to you to be bred properly. Now I want a male puppy, a show and studd prospect. Please quote prices, etc.

Any time I can be of any use to you out here on the Coast, it will be my pleasure to serve you.

Truly yours,

G. T. GERRARD, Capitol Theatre, Vancouver, B.C.

COLLIE REACHES THE HONOR ROLL

"Denny Diana" (C.K.C.S.B. 43167), bred by David McMillan, Denny, Scotland, and Winners Bitch at Saskatoon in 1927, by "Laund Landseer," a son of "Ch. Magnet," ex "Denny Dinah," a daughter of "Ch. Popular Perfection," was chosen by the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals as the most worthy dog in Vancouver, Denny Diana (Daisy), the beautiful collie of Geoffrey Bartlett, of Vancouver, was awarded the silver cup at the Province Pet Parade in Vancouver, presented by the S.P.C.A. "Daisy" isn't young any more, but she has a great record behind her. A big winner at the Crystal Palace, London, as well as at other large English shows, she was imported to Canada by one of Canada's outstanding collie breeders. Now at the age of nine she is spending her declining years as the pet of three-year-old Geoffrey. "Daisy's" award is for her rescue of a boy when he fell into a pond and nearly drowned. The boy's mother was reading nearby when the old dog came up, pulled her skirt, barked madly and rushed off. Mrs. Bartlett followed and found "Daisy" hanging on to the clothing of her boy, who had fallen face down in deep water, and was trying to pull him on to the rocks. Bravo old Dinah!

SANDHILL GOLD PUFF FINISHES CHAMPIONSHIP

When Harold Bentley, Winnipeg, visited the "Old Home" in England recently, he had with him lots of reserve cash, and in his travels persuaded several fanciers to let go of some of their choicest morsels in Poms and Pekes. One of the former was "Sandhills Gold Puff" a son of "Flashlight Admiral" who had for sire "Ch. Goldspeck Flashaway" a son of "Ch. Flashaway of Dara." For Dam "Sandhill Gold Puff" had "Sandhills Princess" a daughter of "Ch. Gold Sun" whose sire was "Gold Sun of Sunbright," Dam of "Sandhills Princess" was "Picador Golden Flash" a daughter of "Ch. Minegold Double," and so the cat is out of the bag as to the source from which Mr. Bentley's Pom. drew his great quality.

When acclimatized and groomed a la Bentley, the little sojourner was sent forth to Moose Jaw, Calgary and Saskatoon, and so much was he favored by the judges that he is now a full fledged champion in this country.

Besides "Ch. Sandhill's Gold Puff" Mr. Bentley brought back with him two other Poms.—females, a male Peke and a female Peke completed the shipment. It says plenty for the handler of this new champion Pom, for the dog was campaigning the shows when the mercury was away up in the thermometers, and it should be remembered that the little dog has travelled about 8,000 miles since he and Mr. Bentley first became acquainted in England.

Perhaps the best win made by "Ch. Sandhill's Gold Puff" whilst attending the English shows, was made at Bootle under the renowned Chris Houliker who placed the dog up to best dog in show all breeds.

HERBERT C. STUART TO JUDGE AT TORONTO

We are advised that Herbert C. Stuart, of the Long Beach Kennels, Augusta, Mich., and Int. "Ch. Dick o' the Main" fame, has accepted an invitation to judge English Bulldogs at the specialty show of the English Bulldog Club of Canada, on Thanksgiving Day, Monday, November 9th.

Mr. Stuart has had lots of close-up experience in breeding and exhibiting the "Sour Mugs" and as a judge he is as popular as the first line of specialty judges come. Indeed, we notice that Mr. Stuart will "pass the rule" over the entry that will assemble at Boston this Fall. We hope Mr. Stuart will be given a banner entry when he comes to Toronto.

Notes from British Columbia

By Provincial Contributing Editor,
A. H. DODDS, Victoria, B.C.

VICTORIA fanciers are very pleased to welcome to their midst the newly appointed Lieutenant-Governor of British Columbia, The Hon. Fordham Johnson and Mrs. Johnson who are both apparently dog lovers, like their predecessor, The Hon. Randolph Bruce. Recently a picture in a local paper shows them accompanied by a Wire-haired Fox Terrier and an English Bulldog. The former, Ulidia Fascinator, was bred by R. H. F. Purdon of Vancouver, and is the son of his recently imported Simon of Cantilupe ex Ulidia Fascination. It is encouraging to note that the first lady and gentleman of B.C. prefer registered stock, and we sincerely hope their interest in this direction will continue.

We are also pleased to welcome Mr. Anderson who recently arrived in Victoria from Gelnboig, Scotland, accompanied by two Scotties, a bitch from R. Chapman's "Heather Kennels" and a dog by "Ornsay Cluaran" bred by John Campbell. This should be interesting news for the fanciers of this particular breed.

In a very newsy letter from Jack Cottle, of Nanaimo, he informs me of the arrival at his kennel of a nice litter of five Irish Setters sired by his stud Northfield Irish Boy ex Rosie of Glenora, also that John McMinn's Scottie bitch is mothering a litter by Ch. Eglington Lairdie, and that Jack Eastham's Cocker has presented him with a good litter, and Bill Grieves kennel is now the home of a nice litter of English Setters sired by Crosfell of Bank Bay. The adverse conditions now existing in and around Nanaimo does not appear to have damped the spirits of these good fanciers, who are living up to their reputation of being amongst the best sports in the world.

A very enthusiastic fancier of the Wire-haired Fox Terrier arrived in Victoria recently from China, in the person of Mrs. Happer, who will be accompanied on her return by a young bitch bred by the writer. I understand it is the intention of this good lady to found a kennel of this breed in Shanghai.

After an extended stay in the Old Land, Major and Mrs. Longstaff arrived in Victoria recently, where they intend to make their home. Their home will also be the home of "Mistie" a nice Sealyham puppy purchased from Miss McCulloch of Victoria.

FELBRIGG MARK (IMP.)

All enquiries should be addressed to:
MRS. H. A. RHODES
Of Moray Kennels, Cowichan Station,
Vancouver Island, B.C.

"Bob" Eastham of Victoria reports the visit of his young Scottie bitch Jean to Stanley Dorrell's Albourne Simon, and we hope a good litter will be the result, as this is Bob's first attempt at this breed.

In the near future I will regret to report, that good fancier of the Pekingese, H. H. Holmes of Victoria, will be departing for the "Old Land," during his short stay in Victoria, he has made many friends and proved a staunch supporter of the local club, and shows; he will be greatly missed, when he arrived from Winnipeg, he was accompanied by two of his fancy, one of which did a good deal of winning before being retired to the duties of a brood matron. This bitch "Can Toi of Ki Ora" has been purchased by Mrs. C. M. Castle the proprietor of the famous Shantung Kennels, with the view that she always has in mind, and that is, the improvement of the breed, and we sincerely hope her expectations will be realized.

CH. ROLF VON THORENA

Owned by Gekko Y. Hayashie, Vancouver, B.C.

Although Miss Hickling, who is the secretary of the Nanaimo Kennel Club is in the midst of arrangements for their annual event, she has very kindly consented to come down to Victoria and judge the annual outdoor matinee show for the Victoria City Kennel Club on the 15th inst. which the club greatly appreciates.

The following has been sent to me to be published here by the secretary of the Western Canada Cocker Spaniel Club of Canada, which has to do with the Cocker Spaniel standard.

"Controversy has arisen among certain exhibitors in Vancouver, owing to the judge at a recent show there putting up the small Cocker. The Western Cocker Spaniel Club of Canada, would draw attention that they organized last year with the sole object of raising the standard, so that it would not be under 23 nor exceed 27 pounds in weight.

"While this weight may not be universally accepted, it is the aim of the Cocker Club to have judges put up dogs about this weight, so as to eliminate the Toy Cocker from the show bench.

"Wm. Chambers,
"Secretary."

Editors Note. Organizing a Cocker Club for the purpose of changing the standard by raising the weight for the breed may be quite in order, but the actual endorsement would necessarily have to be given to the change by the Canadian Kennel Club. Most judges are familiar with the weights recognized in Canada, which are as follows:

"Weight not under 23 nor exceeding 28 lbs."

WYNNE OF AVANDALE DEAD

The veteran Springer Spaniel fancier D. C. Burns, Sidney, B.C., reports the passing of his winsome Springer, "Wynne of Avandale" (C.K.C.S.B. 75779), a valued friend and companion. Mr. Burns credited this good dog with having a really human brain. Never did the dog make a wrong move although worked regularly and vigorously on the field, a great hunter too, that always brought home the goods.

"Wynne of Avandale" was Winners Dog at Victoria and Nanaimo last year, and had 6 points towards his championship, the dog was bred by the noted Eudore Chevrier, Winnipeg, and at 6 months of age became the property of Mr. Burns. Sire "Ch. Lile Messenger Boy" Imp. Dam "Ch. Marvel of Avondale," so of course there could be no better breeding possible. Mr. Burns has a young son of the late "Wynne's" that promises much in the way of filling the dead Wynne's shoes.

Notes From Manitoba

A MEETING of the Fort Garry Kennel Club was held in the Winnipeg Free Press Board Room, on July 22nd, 1931. The meeting was called to hear the secretary's report of the "Dog Show" held by the Club during the early days of June. The meeting was scheduled to commence at 8.30 in the evening, and although the thermometer still registered a high temperature, a large number of members turned out to hear the report.

The President, Mr. McLean, called the meeting to order, the usual routine business was rapidly disposed of, and then he announced the secretary would present his report.

The members leaned forward expectantly. Rumours had been going round that the Club would "just about break even" and it was with no less a surprise than genuine pleasure that we heard the secretary announce a really substantial balance in the bank. How had it been accomplished? Considering the lightness of the financial situation, it seemed an impossibility. And for some time it just seemed impossible, at least to one observer, to find out to whom the credit was due. Everyone seemed so modest. Each member of the Show Committee minimized the amount of work he or she had done. They each and every one gave the credit to the other. It was really enjoyable to listen to what was said. But eventually it came out that the success of the show was the result, not alone, of excellent team work, but also of considerable self sacrifice.

It seemed a vote of thanks should have been given to every member of the Show Committee, in fact to all who helped to make the show a success. Everybody knows, or should know, just how much work the secretary has to do. But Mr. Henderson was very insistent that Mr. Ridge had been at his office at seven o'clock in the morning and had remained to do anything that was to be done until a late hour at night. The President commented very favourably on the amount of work done by the Manitoba Director, who, he said, got out and pushed entries which contributed very largely to the success of the show. A vote of thanks was also given the President of the "All Terrier Club" because he made it possible for the Fort Garry Kennel Club to use their benching.

One item, and an item which cannot be overlooked, because it too contributed largely to the ultimate success of the show, was the suggestion by someone that each member take a number of tickets and dispose of them before the show. It was argued that numbers of the dog loving public will purchase tickets even when they cannot spare the time to attend a show. One industrious member disposed of somewhere in the neighborhood of twenty dollars worth. A blessing in disguise, too, and one which will be of material financial benefit in the financing of future shows, because of the lesson learned, came from the incident that, "the man who took the contract for the publication of catalogs, went back on them." It was learned in this connection that because they will be able to charge considerably less for advertisements they will be able to obtain much more advertising matter, and yet make a good profit.

HOW TO RUN A DOG SHOW SUCCESSFULLY

Old English Sheep Dogs.

Mr. Hatfield's (Headingley, Manitoba) female, "Bobette of Walcot," has been mated to the owner's "Pastoral Bruce" Imp.

Scottish Terriers.

Geo. Kynoch has purchased "Normandy Ascot" (C.K.C.S.B. 85491) from Arthur Wright, of Edmonton. He was imported in dam and is by "Ch. Merlewood Aristocrat" ex "Heather Essy" Imp. (C.K.C.S.B. 84322). He was bred by R. Chapman, Glenboig, Scotland, and is a typical Scottie with long head, cobby body and best of quarters and coat.

J. M. Aldritt, of Winnipeg, has bred his female "Scotty Lass" to G. Kynoch's "Normandy Ascot."

Wire Haired Fox Terriers.

Harry Baker has sold a real good male puppy, "Bakerdale Royal Boy," by "Ch. Redcliffe Arc Light" ex "Bakerdale Merry Minx" to Mr. Baker, of Duluth, Minn., U.S.A. Mr. Baker's "Silverdale Sadie" is reported in whelp to Geo. Kynoch's "Fox Hollow Starter," the wire that was in the money at the New York Wire Haired Fox Terrier Specialty Show, held in New York last February. He has made good the early promise he then showed by defeating his competitors and thereby gaining the 9 points allowed towards his Canadian Championship at the recent Calgary, Edmonton and Regina Shows, where he was winners dogs, winners dogs, and best in Terrier group respectively.

West Highland White Terriers.

Mr. Ridge's "Springburn Lass" has been bred to J. M. Hunter's "Ruddy Battison." "Springburn Lass" went to reserve winners under Judge Chris. Shuttleworth at the June, 1931, Fort Garry Kennel Club Show, although up against the more mature female, "Ardsheal Morven" Imp., whilst "Ruddy Battison" went to winners at the November, 1930, Manitoba Kennel Club Show and best of breed at the June, 1931, Fort Garry Kennel Club Show.

Mrs. Mason, Duncraggen Kennels, Kirkfield Park, Manitoba, has sold and shipped three female puppies to Mr. Chris. Shuttleworth, Hollywood, Cal. Mr. Shuttleworth judged one of these puppies, "Duncraggen White Heather," at the recent Fort Garry K. C. Show and evidently was so impressed by this typical female that, before leaving for home, he visited the Duncraggen Kennels and purchased not only "Duncraggen White Heather," but also two litter sisters. These puppies were imported in dam, the dam being imported from the Ardsheal Kennels of D. Hunter, Oban, Scotland. The puppies are by "Ardsheal Laird" ex "Ardsheal Morven" Imp.

Cairn Terriers.

Mrs. Mason's (Duncraggen Kennels) "Duncraggen Chief," whelped Sept. 1st, 1930, by "Ardsheal Gillie Mohr" Imp. (C.K.C.S.B. 77096), ex "Duncraggen Betty," "Duncraggen Jock," whelped March 19th, 1931, by "Ardsheal Gillie Mohr" Imp. (C.K.C.S.B. 77096) ex "Ardsheal Stratic" Imp. (C.K.C.S.B. 79283), and a two months' old puppy (male) of somewhat similar breeding are advertised for sale elsewhere in this issue. "Duncraggen Chief" went 1st puppy and reserve winners at the Fort Garry K. C. Show under Chris. Shuttleworth, being defeated by his imported sire who went best of breed. The foundation stock of Mrs. Mason's Kennels was imported from the Ardsheal Kennels of Mr. Hunter, Oban, Scotland.

Cocker Spaniels.

J. Adams, Mersey Kennels, Winnipeg, has mated his "Mersey Nancy" to Geo. Kynoch's "Silverdale Commissioner." Harry Joule has purchased "Wimaca Lady of Quality" (C.K.C.S.B. 84257). She is by "Ottawa Aristocrat" (C.K.C.S.B. 64364) ex "Wimaca Leading Lady" (C.K.C.S.B. 38351). "Wimaca Lady of Quality" has been bred to Geo. Kynoch's "Silverdale Rustler."

Boston Terriers.

W. M. Commer, of Winnipeg, has bred his female "Bubby" to Geo. Kynoch's "Ch. Laughing Cavalier." Mr. Bell, of Norwood, has purchased a male puppy by "Ch. Laughing Cavalier" ex "Chatrick Peggy."

S. Jackson has sold a male puppy by P. Biller's "Just the Guy" ex a "Ch. Winchester Aviator" female. Harold Bentley reports the sale of "Cromwell Linden Belle" to Mr. Jenkins. Mr. Clare, of St. James, reports the sale of a male puppy by P. Biller's "Just the Guy" ex "Winchester Flying Fairy" to Mr. MacNamara, of Winnipeg.

It would seem as though Geo. Duncan has obtained top honors in the West this season with Boston Terriers. The Trapystok Kennels has made two champions, viz "Trapystok Personality" and "Trapystok Step In." Whilst "Trapystok Askim" bred and raised at the "Trapystok Kennels," and now the property of Arthur Wright of Edmonton, Alberta, is understood to have completed the desired number of points at the recent show in Saskatoon. "Trapystok Bantam," a light weight, has won the puppy and novice classes every time shown. I made a call at the Trapystok Kennels the other day when Mr. Duncan surprised me by showing me an eight weeks old male, that appears at the present time to be a real one. Several of the local fanciers have been looking him over and all seem to be of the same opinion. He is sired by "Ch. Trapystok Personality" ex "Trapystok Susanne." Mr. Duncan reports sales fairly good, says "Ch. Trapystok Personality" is kept busy at stud and that two bitches are now showing in whelp to "Trapystok Bantam," which dog he is now offering at public stud. Mr. Duncan also reports that his female "Bonnie" by "Ch. Roselawn Dandy Boy" ex "Attabara Betty" has been bred to "Ch. Trapystok Personality," that Mr. McLean's "Kit" has been mated to "Ch. Trapystok Personality," that "Ch. Trapystok Step In" has been bred to Geo. Kynoch's "Ch. Laughing Cavalier," that a young female "Trapystok Kitty Winks" is nursing a litter of puppies by "Ch. Laughing Cavalier," and that Wm. Cook's (Winnipeg), female, a daughter of "Winchester Dazzler" is nursing a fully marked litter of five male puppies by "Ch. Trapystok Personality."

Mrs. Gerrards female "Trixie" has been bred to "Winchester Joycaster." German Shepherd Dogs.

Mr. Charlesbois' "Annie von Sadowaberg" by "Arko von Sadowaberg" is nursing a litter of puppies by the owners "Allan of Trudore." "Allan of Trudore" is by "Hettel von Bodmin" ex "Pia von Haus Schutting," so Mr. Charlesbois is anticipating something really good from this litter. Mr. Charlesbois has purchased a pure white bitch "Flora White" by "Drifting Snow" ex "Della von Grun Berga"

WM. M. COATS, AND HIS SMOOTHS

"Billy" Coats, late of Vancouver, B.C., but now at Seattle, U.S.A., can safely be referred to as one of the international pillars of dogdom. For years an indefatigable worker for the Canadian Kennel Club, but his occupation called him to the United States and so his valuable services to our organization were in a large measure lost to us. However, he has always retained his great and enthusiastic interest in all things pertaining to dogs in this country. Usually "Billy" Coats is found in Vancouver when the show circuit is on in that province.

Our list of Champions which appear in all our Stud Books bear testimony to the many successes made by the Smooth Fox Terriers that Mr. Coats brings over the border to the B.C. shows. Quite recently we had the pleasure of sending championship certificates for his "Ch. Coats' Cleo" and we understand that speedy bitch requires but one point to complete International honors in virtue of having won at several important American shows, and in order to further indicate her great quality we mention her select win at Spokane this year when she won for best dog in show all breeds. The only time she was ever beaten by one of her breed was at the British Columbia Fox Terrier Specialty Show last year, and then only by her own half sister, "Coats' Colleen." Both are sired by the imported Smooth "Ch. Dunsdaff," one of Mr. Coats' favorites.

"Torkent Lady Coats" was purchased in England last April, and held there until she came in use and was bred to "Ch. Dunsrex." She is by "Ch. Selecta Ideal," winner of 36 English championship certificates. Her dam is "Ch. Delsmer Dainty." "Ch. Dunsrex" himself has 9 championship certificates to his credit in the "land of roses."

"Ch. Dunstormer" is yet another Smooth that caused us to send our championship certificate to Mr. Coats at Seattle, and there are other claims to follow if Mr. Coats' plans materialize. After 14 years' sojourn in the United States, he still thinks that Vancouver calls him, and who knows, we may have this well versed veteran with us again some day soon, and when that day comes we will have one more experienced judge in the ranks of the all-rounders. Mr. Coats has filled in a most acceptable manner at shows held in Canada, Duncan, B.C., in 1909 (22 years ago), Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta. In the United States, Washington, Oregon, Idaho and California. Here's hoping Mr. Coats may be with us soon again.

Saskatchewan News and Notes

SASKATOON summer show held on July 21st-23rd is looked upon as one of the big events in the West. This ninth annual show probably exceeded all previous fixtures. In the first place, the building was all that could be desired. An abundance of room, well ventilated, clean and tidy. The Secretary, J. M. Ayre, a past-master at his job, had everything working out with clockwork precision.

Geo. Kynoch, the all-round judge was never kept waiting for his classes, Show Superintendent Charlie Crothers, backed by every member of the directorate and special committees had the dogs ready to go into the ring whenever their numbers were called.

G. C. Hanselman the genial President was on hand most of the time welcoming visitors and creating a friendly atmosphere.

A. P. Semple, Saskatchewan's Canadian Kennel Club director was unable to be present until the last day. But he crowded a whole lot into that one day. It is evident Archie is as popular with the Saskatoon fanciers as he is in the Queen City, and that's saying a lot. His camera was busy clicking groups of friends, special classes in the ring, and individual dogs. His brother director from Manitoba, Mr. Kynoch declared him to be the best gentleman handler.

The Childrens Class attracted lots of attention. It was a show in itself. The young son of President Hanselman, chose for his exhibit Frank Jackson's Bull Bitch Princess Debora. Princess and the lad both being about the same weight. The youngster had his ideas, and Princess had hers, after the wrestling match was over an abundance of perspiration lost from both parties, the Judge presented "the gallant young man who had now won the affection of his Princess," with the Red Ribbon. The applause from the ringside showed their approval of the decision.

The judging of group specials was most interesting, the seating accommodation around the ring being well filled, until the best dog in show was chosen. Here Monty Wallace, Chairman of the Prize Committee had all his specials, Cups and etc., laid out in order, and after calling the names of the fortunate winners handed the prizes to Mrs. J. M. Ayre, wife of the secretary, who graciously presented them to the successful exhibitors. Thus ended another happy event. The Saskatoon Kennel Club, no doubt, worked hard to put it over so well and were well repaid for their efforts. Let's all boost the Hub City and assure them of a four point fixture in 1932.

By Provincial Contributing Editor,

Mrs. Semple and Mrs. King of Regina, and Mrs. Riome, of Moose Jaw, motored to the Saskatoon show, taking along some Pekingese and a Schipperke. All three ladies were amply rewarded for their long journey. Mrs. Semple's Schip. "Which One of the North" finished her championship here, and was very near the top when she claimed best opposite sex, to best dog in show. Mrs. King's Peke. Kingwin Kao Shing completed his championship and her female "Kingwin Lao Mo" added points to her credit. Mrs. Riome secured the Silver Medal for Best Lady Handler.

Harold Bentley of Winnipeg was among the visitors, handling his own exhibits and enjoying every minute of the time.

Mr. and Mrs. Hughie Allen of Winnipeg, were visiting friends and Hugh got winners with his Wire bitch "Antrim Wedding Belle."

Tom Little, Moose Jaw, annexed the Red with his Irish Setter "Rose of Tralee." He also handled J. T. Booths entries of Whippets, "Portland Bay" and "Little Eva." Both received winner with "Little Eva" getting Best of Breed. These wins were duplicated a week later at Regina under Judge Otto Gross.

John Young was missed from his usual place near the Toy Poodle bench. John is unable to get around without help. He receives a lot of joy and comfort from his poodles and his cheery disposition is an object lesson to those more fortunate. Mrs. Young, John's mother took care of the dogs and was very pleased to receive the Red ribbons.

John Howe is doing his part for dogdom by keeping his Chesapeakes well to the front. We were glad to see his good dog "Howe's Pal" by "Ch. Bud Parker," benched again at Regina, and claiming Best of Breed. John turned down a good looking cheque for "Pal." His entries at Saskatoon swelled the Chesapeake section.

While on the subject of Chesapeakes, readers will remember in last month's issue, we announced the championship honors won by Geo. Lockwood's "Prince Bud," by "Ch. Bud Parker."

"Prince Bud" claimed his last points at Calgary, but a few days after the show he took sick and passed away, despite every effort to save him "Bud" was a great chum at the Lockwood home and he is greatly missed by the young boys and Mrs. Lockwood. His enthusiastic master is making the best of the big disappointment and has already purchased another young male to fill the place of his sire. His dam is exceptionally well bred, we hope Geo. has made a selection that will duplicate this sires wins next season.

W. Burrow the Springer Spaniel specialist of Medicine Hat, contributes a letter of friendship and news, the kind we like to receive. W.B. says: "While it has not been convenient to attend the shows this year, my enthusiasm has not waned in the least." Snapshots enclosed in his letter show two very typical specimens which are the sire and dam of a litter of nine promising youngsters. A glance at the Pedigrees prove them to be of the best blood lines obtainable, seven champions appearing in three generations. We hope to see a team from the Medicine Hat Kennels travelling around the circuit in 1932.

By the way, don't forget that Regina Canine Society plan to put on an open all breed show on Boxing Day, December 25, 1931. Their last matinee show, could have been a two-point show and there is every possibility that this December fixture will be a four-point affair.

While the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Semple in Regina the writer and Mrs. Riome had the opportunity of visiting several of the Queen City's leading kennels, which include Mr. Middlemass's kennel of Wires. A pair of youngsters sired by Robt. McAdams' "Ch. Stormy Boy," who heads the Burlington Kennels, Toronto. Their Dam is "Burlington Marguerite". We ventured an opinion, that if Hamish wanted to finish Marguerite at Regina, the daughter would have to stay at home. Otto Gross had the same opinion, "Burlington Marguerite" got 1st Open. The daughter "Wyrecote White Tips" got the points, "Wyrecote Tempestuous," her brother, made a great showing, he is full of life and a born showman. Regina's President is to congratulate on producing two such promising Terriers, in one litter.

We passed along to Jack Tavelle's home where some of the finest Russian Wolfhounds are to be seen. Jack was away reducing on the golf links, returning home in time to tell us about the various members of the kennel. Jack has been breeding Wolfhounds for many years and while it is hard to fault some of his dogs, he is still aiming for something better. This ardent fancier is determined to hold top place in Western Canada, with these graceful and useful hounds.

At the home of Mrs. Winnifred King we were introduced to the Kingwin Kennels where only Pekingese of outstanding quality are housed.

Kingwin Koo Shing led the parade. Did he know, that within a few days he would wear the championship crown at Saskatoon, and within a week after that, receive further distinction, by being placed Best Toy in Show? by such an authority as Otto Gross. By his pride and haughty carriage, we believe, he really thought something great was in store for him. Kingwin Loo Moo, a kennel companion also added points to her credit at Saskatoon. A sweet imported female with a young family, was described as her owners "goldmine," a topnotch specimen herself with the ability to impart to her offsprings her fine qualities.

Walter Pym has a kennel of Wires that are second to none. Two of his best females were preparing for maternal duties hence were not seen at Regina show. "Seven Towers Bridesmaid" by "Flornell Startler," was looking swell, and her hard jacket is all that could be desired. All the inmates of Walter's kennel are in tip top show form, and reflect great credit on their owner.

"Count of Atmen" the Russian Wolfhound bred by Jack Flavell and now owned by Regina's Kennel Club Secretary, J. P. Brown is a very good specimen and was placed Winners at their show. "Count" who is of immense size, attracted attention at both Moose Jaw and Regina shows when being handled by J. P.'s little daughter of less than 3 summers. Count becomes tired of the entreaties of his youthful handler and lays down, immediately the little tot climbs on the big dog's back, with an air of satisfaction, and awaits the ribbon. This act calls forth much applause from the grand stand.

Our time passed all too quickly and we were obliged to make a rush visit to other fanciers homes and say "Hello."

Before leaving Regina a word would be in order about the Cactus Kennels, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Semple. The Pekingese are naturally holding first place, and what a handsome array they are, with "Cactus Chips of China Town" the king of all! He is not only a wonderful dog himself but is a great sire, producing winners and champions in every litter. A son, "Cactus Ku Chi," went best Toy at

A. P. Semple, Regina, with a select brace of Shepherds standing, Wawota Cheftain, and taking the privileges is the sweet female Faushou von Ederkoppe.

Calgary, he is an outstanding specimen, these, together with the females, are an aggregation that is worth travelling a long way to see. Mrs. Semple has added more cups to her already overcrowded cabinets with the Schipperke "Which One of the North." This little black miss has been admired by many, and we predict larger classes in the near future. The picture in our columns, shows Archie and two of his Shepherds. The male "Wawota Cheftain," the female, "Faushou von Ederkoppe," posed on the back of "Cheftain." This pair are good winners, going best male and female and Best of Breed.

Cheftain best working dog, best owned by members of Regina Association, and Reserve Best in Show.

So well trained are these Shepherds that some of their stunts, seem to require human intelligence. Space will not permit further comments. While on the subject of pictures we would like to have one or two cuts in our Saskatchewan pages each month. The cost is small, it will be an added attraction, and the means of getting better acquainted. So please send along a clear snap of yourself and your favourite dog, together with your notes, not later than the 9th of each month to 320 Caribou St. W., Moose Jaw, Sask., and the cuts will appear in our columns in the order received. Furthermore, shall we ask the Editor of Kennel and Bench, his opinion on the following suggestion. We would like to prepare now for our Xmas number of Kennel and Bench. It has been suggested that the Saskatchewan members of the Canadian Kennel Club send a picture of themselves and a short history of their kennels for insertion in the December issue. The pictures can be taken while the bright days are here, and the copy prepared for the end of October or beginning of November. In order that the Editor might make the necessary arrangements for extra space, etc. If Toronto says its O.K. Lets go, and we will make the Xmas number one to be proud of and —DON'T FORGET THE ADVERTISING COLUMNS.

Regina's sixteenth annual show was again voted its usual success. Under the guidance of Charlie Keating how could it go wrong. We missed Tom Handrahan but his position as ring superintendent was very ably filled by J. A. Newman, who is well versed in all show matters. One man everybody likes to meet is J. Stapleton, Kennel Superintendent. A tireless worker, always on the job, and seeking the comfort and welfare of others, at all times.

It was a pleasure to renew acquaintance with Norman McKenzie, K.C., Chairman of the exhibition board, and have a chat about that wonderful Airedale Int. "Ch. Polam Maxim," who was owned by this Regina Airedaler and who was so ably piloted by Bert Swann, meeting with success wherever he went. The show building here was all that could be desired, and Otto Gross was true to time, everything being run off as per the Catalogue.

Many visitors were noticed, Charlie Crothers and Miss H. Poissant of Saskatoon had a number of charges and managed to put them right to the top.

Dr. M. D. French, exhibited her two Airedales, a nice brace and we hope this fanciers breeds a world beater before very long. Mrs. Corless of Moose Jaw exhibited her Shepherd "Otto von Heuenfold," at both Saskatoon and Regina. Chas. E. Halle, of Sestock found time to attend the show and took a great interest in the Chesapeake, probably looking over his competition for next year at Moose Jaw. Chas. has only to make one more win and the big cup is his.

J. C. Mitchell the wheat king of recent years was at the ringside chat-and the U.S.A. He spoke of the hidden fortunes to be unearthed and go and the business that already has been transacted, made some of us feel that we had been sleeping. George expressed his appreciation on behalf of the Manitoba members for the kindness expressed to them, also for the good time he had received as the guest. Seems to me too, that George also said that he represented "God Country," meaning of course—Winnipeg and Western Canada.

The Judge, Mr. Otto Gross, Pittsburgh, U.S.A., spoke on behalf of the Judge and was exceedingly pleased with the reception accorded him by the fanciers and friends in Regina. Many members and friends contributed words of appreciation. Solos were rendered by Don Riome and Walter Pym, and community singing added joy to the occasion. The long day (short, night closed with Auld Lar Syne, followed by "The King."

We are sorry to relate that Bo

BRAEMORE KENNELS CATCHING ON

C. A. Ward, of the Braemore Kennels, Toronto, finds it impossible to hide his Braemores under the legendary bushel. Visitors are on hand every day and, of course, a percentage of these insist on taking a Braemore Wire Fox Terrier home as a souvenir.

Mr. Ward has something hot in pickle, but at this writing we are not permitted to give any particulars. We can say, however, that the Braemore Kennels are being remodelled and extended to take care of the increasing canine population that will eventually be kennelled there.

Right now there are kennels for 24 dogs plus 7 exercising spaces, thus making comfort for each animal by day and night, the exercising rings taking care of nature's requirements in a minimum of time. Light and ventilation are both abundant, and the Fox Terriers which call this place "home" are lucky indeed.

On a higher floor the Scotties find their fresh air and sunshine provided plentifully, and so the "square meal" which is served regularly rounds out their happy existence.

Two men give all their time to the further welfare of the Braemore Kennel inmates, whilst a third takes care of their preparation for the shows.

The Kennel leaders in the Fox Terrier stud section are "Walnut Rattler," "Walnut Comedian" and "Walnut Leader." In the maternal section beside "Walnut Damsel," "Walnut Newlight" "Ethyl Is Here" and "Oak Perky." That the Braemore Kennel management mean big business, is a foregone conclusion as time will tell.

The Scotties at Braemore Kennels are the imported bitches "Walnut Bracket" and "Walnut Butle," two of a kind that made their debut on this side of the Atlantic at Westminster Kennel Club Show last February, also "Walnut Sloc," a Scottie that was born in Scotland, then comes "Airdrie Trixie," an "Airdrie" and "Hazelbrae" combination that carries the bloods of the Scotties familiar to exhibitors of the last decade, the whole making it possible to build up a successful Scottie department at the Braemore Kennels.

"WIZBANG BONNIEBELLE" DEAD OF POISONING

The Wizbang Kennels, at St. Jean, P.Q., has lost a famous English winner in the death of the Irish Setter "Wizbang Bonniebelle" (Imp.) Although this noted bitch was practically an unknown as far as the show attending fraternity were concerned, she was famous if for nothing else than that good winner "Ch. Wizbang Buntiebelle" when mated to "Wizbang Buccaneer."

W. Bonniebelle" was by "Grams-cough Barty" ex "Geraldine of Grams-cough," and as her picture shows, she was put together just right to produce quality stock. Our readers will bear in mind that the photo is just as it came from the negative and shows the dog as she emerged from the water.

Her full sister from a later litter was the American Champion "Ch. Gertrude of Grams-cough." Mr. Carberry, of the "Boyne" prefix, was a staunch admirer of "Bonniebelle" and always averred that she was the image of his "Ch. Lady of Boyne," a bitch for which the great Carberry had refused 300 pounds for from a client in Russia, and the records show that two weeks later "Lady of Boyne" died of poisoning.

Having won prizes in England for field work, naturally she was an enthusiastic retriever, and being shy on live game, she was content to retrieve almost anything, although tennis and cricket balls were her choicest finds. For the Wizbang Kennel manager, "Bonniebelle" was wont to retrieve as many golf balls as had a value equal to his salary per month, and Miss Fincham says of her, "She was as good as she was beautiful."

R. S. TYRRELL, Bottrel, Alta.

time will come when it will be almsory for Judges officiating at the Canadian Kennel Club Shows to state reasons for the placements of at the first three dogs in each class. is the custom in England and it is seriously considered south of the border. The advantages are obvious, in the first place the exhibitor knows from the Judges critique just why his dog gained or lost, the prospective owner secures independent information as to the suitability, or otherwise, of a particular sire and the general public are naturally pleased to know the reasons of the Judges placements. Judging sometimes uncalled for decisions. We do not expect exhibitors to take "the sernile roll of acceptance various and sometimes conflict- points of views of the "Wearers of the Ermine" without a murmur." (ex. Potts). What we do expect is for exhibitors to behave like sportsmen, ladies and gentlemen, while attending a show.

I have much pleasure then in stating the Judges views on both the Alberta Fox Terrier Assn. and the Alberta Kennel Club shows, particularly so as they are voluntary.

F. Purdon writes as follows:

"I must thank the members of the Alberta Fox Terrier Assn. for their invitation to judge their show on the 7th, and the exhibitors for the sporting manner in which they presented my awards. The Assn. put on an excellent show, and are fortunate in their officials. The Secretary, Mrs. Grey, a really hard worker, who thinks of the exhibitors and the judges with her sister Mrs. Carr, who is Superintendent, much of the success of the Show is due. Mr. Purdon as President, is a tower of strength. I also wish to thank my ring steward for his very able assistance. There were a large number of spectators amongst whom I was glad to meet the popular Alberta Director of the Canadian Kennel Club, R. S. Tyrrell.

"The dogs and exhibitors were so good to me. In Wires, winners dogs to 'Farleigh Whoopee' a difficult one to go over, as he doesn't like to be handled. A real game Terrier, good hard coat, and shows well, stood out from the other dogs. I had no hesitation in awarding Winners to the Best Wire. and subsequently to 'Cliff Becky.' Sir Int. 'Ch. Beckside Bonus,' Dam 'Redcliffe Frisky,' owned by H. Champ, Redcliffe. Well put down and shown by her young handler, she is a nice sized compact bitch, good bone and coat, eye and ear, could do with a longer and leaner head, moved to perfection and presented in better condition than any Wire in Show. In Smooths, a much bigger entry than we get at the Coast, I made 'Ch. Oltee Lenpal' best, stood right out, and a real showman, he had no trouble in winning, I understand that this win makes him an Int. Ch. on which I congratulate his owner, Harry Price of Calgary. Int. 'Ch. Oltee Lenpal' was Sired by 'Dandy Midas' Dam 'Dondilly of Dangerfield,' and was bred by E. H. Boutillier, of Haverford, P.A., U.S.A. A very large number of Cups and Specials went with the awards. I was sorry to see so many of the wires with coats either clipped or cut with razor-like combs and in most cases the whitening left in the coats. A little more time and care would give much better results."

Mr. Purdon is very well known in England as a Fox Terrier expert and recently returned to Vancouver from a visit there, bringing back several notable Fox Terriers amongst whom is "Watteau War Cry," with him. There were several celebrities at the Fox Terriers Assn. Show, amongst whom was Mrs. P. W. Godderidge, whose mother, Mrs. Fox, is the owner of the "Just" prefix in England. The "Just" Fox Terriers are a household word the world over, the latest being "Just Published." Another was Mrs. J. T. Slingsby whose father kept the "Clock Case Kennels" at Windsor Great Park of Clumber Spaniels for Queen Victoria, King Edward VII and George the V. The late Mr. Charles Benn lived in the Tower which gave the kennels its name. The tower which was built with four spikes, in each of which a clock was to be placed, but was never done, dates back to William the Conqueror. Chas. Benn looked after the Clumber Spaniels for fifty-six years. Mrs. Reisterer, who has been a great help to the Assn. had recently undergone a serious operation, but dropped in for a few minutes in the evening. Mrs. F. N. Allerby is another mainstay as is also Mrs. Slingsby both of whose services were much appreciated. Mr. Reisterer also gave yeoman service. Special mention must be made of the Black Board furnished by H. Price, from which the public could easily follow just what was going on in the ring.

Judge "Bill" Pym too, who is always pleased to furnish any enquirer with the reasons for his placements, has given us a nice review in respect to the Alberta Kennel Club Show.

Pekingese—Best of Breed "Cactus Ku Chi," a real good one put down in superb condition.

Pomeranians—An extra good class, particularly the open females; but in spite of this competition the winners dog "Sandhill's Golden Puff" won for Best of Breed with something to spare.

Pugs—Toy Poodles—and Toy Terriers were all light classes.

Bostons—21 entered with George Kynoch's "Laughing Cavalier," Best of Breed.

Bulldogs—A quality entry much superior to that seen at the average show. The heavyweight dog "Silverdale Leader" excelled in length and shape of skull, and shortness of back.

Chow Chows—A light entry and it would appear that there is a grand opening for a live sponsor of this breed in Alberta.

Schipperkes—"Which One of the North" was alone and deserves real strong competition.

Airedales—There are still a few good Airedales campaigning and "Midland Bob" won for Best of Breed.

Bull Terriers—Mrs. P. J. Hughes "Rab" was alone. Dr. A. M. McKay and J. W. Munro were the principle exhibitors of Cairn Terriers, and no doubt the "Wee Terriers" will make many friends on the prairies.

Fox Terriers (Smooth)—13 entered, which is an indication that this Terrier is popular in Alberta. Best smooth to the well known "Ch. Oltee Lenpal."

Fox Terriers (Wire)—42 entered. Best of Breed to a good one "Burlington Marguerite." If this female is not already a champion, it is merely a matter of competition until she wins the necessary number of points. The popularity of this breed on the prairies is evident, and with the wealth of stud dogs available to Western breeders, it behooves the wire fanciers to select the right blood lines and reap the rewards which always comes to the careful breeder.

Irish Terriers—Best of Breed to "Culbawn Molly".

Scottish Terriers—13 entered includbalanced dog with a real Border Terriers, and Belgium Shepherd Dogs had lone representatives.

Collies—One could well enthuse on the quality of this breed, particularly on the condition. To have a good Collie in good condition in mid-summer does not fall to the lot of the average fancier, but they were right at Calgary. Best of Breed to the female "Sunstar O' Scotia."

Great Danes—In years gone by Calgary was a hot-bet of Great Danes. On this occasion that fine fancier Mrs. J. DeB. Cowan, of Kaslo, B.C., had her "Rojh of Rungmook" in wonderful condition and won Best of Breed.

One lone Doberman, and 17 Shepherds, including some very attractive representatives of the latter breed. The female "Alice of Normandy" was Best of Breed. The general make-up, movement, and obedience of this splendid animal will always command respect.

Chesapeake Bay Dogs—A small entry, but as was to be expected in a community that has so long been identified with this breed of hunting dog the quality of the exhibitors was first class. Best of Breed to "Airline Golden Eye."

One can always expect to find practically every breed of hunting dog represented at Calgary. Pointers; Curly Coated Retrievers; Flat Coated Retrievers; Labrador Retrievers and the fashionable Golden Retrievers were out in force. The English Setters mustered an entry of 30 males and females, including promising youngsters. Best of Breed to "Harewood Kilmartin Grouse" a dog that later accounted for major honors.

The Golden and Irish Setters produced a nice entry, while the Cocker Spaniels had an entry of 18. Probably no breed has been so consistently under review in the Kennel Press as has the Cocker Spaniel. In Canada, as well as in the United States, the Cocker Spaniel standard has been the topic of discussion for months. In Western Canada the majority of breeders favor the 27-28 pound dog, and have compiled their standard accordingly. While judging this breed at Calgary, I dismissed from my mind by own preferences or prejudices, in regard to Cocker size, and endeavored to interpret the new standard to the best of my ability. But at the conclusion of the show I could not refrain from calling to mind the type and size of Cocker with which I personally used for hunting partridge, duck, and raba factor when I select my stock. With all due respect, the reserve winners solid colored female (in whelp) when shown at Calgary, will be the type of brood matron I shall favor. Mated to the proper dog, I should expect to produce Cockers large enough for practical hunting work, and still retain that refinement so essential to the breed, and the matter of pounds weight would take care of itself in a well proportioned animal; and it would be the type of Cocker that would be in demand in Los Angeles, Calgary, or New York.

As expected Springer Spaniels are firmly established on the prairies and many promising youngsters were in competition at Calgary. Best of Breed was awarded to "Royal Flush of Avandale." Whippets had five entries and they were a nice even lot. The winners male and female will be accepted as the correct size anywhere. The Russian Wolfhound entry produced a real aristocrat in the Best of Breed winner "Cossack Dominique." This stately hound will attract attention in any company.

The sporting group had fourteen contestants and I chose the English Setter "Harewood Kilmartin Grouse" as group winner. The non-sporting group was won by the Bulldog Silverdale Leader. The Pekingese won the Toy group from a large field after a good battle with the Pomeranian "Sandhills Golden Puff." There were eight entries in the Terrier group. The Fox Terrier female "Burlington Marguerite," and the Scottish Terrier "Albertay Twigg" were the class of the party. The former gave a wonderful demonstration of ring manners, but was penalized for absence of sufficient coat; another two weeks should put this good terrier in full bloom. The Scotty was the well balanced rugged little fellow that nature and the requirements of his work expected him to be—and he won. The working group provided plenty of quality. The Shepherd "Alice of Normandy," gave everything she possessed to win, but was unfortunate in meeting a Collie of the calibre of "Sunstar O' Scotia" put down and handled to perfection. The Pekingese, Bulldogs, Scottish Terriers, Collie and English Setter presented an attractive picture when they lined up for Best in Show. I shall always have a soft spot for a good bulldog, I like a Pekingese and a Scotty, but the spectacle of a Collie and Setter put down in real working condition, as well second best, or best opposite sex in show.

Time, and the absence of notes of any kind, prohibit my commenting on the breeds herein omitted. The many courtesies extended to me by the officers and members of the Alberta Kennel Club is fully appreciated. The assistance of the Secretary, C. B. Cummer, the capable Wm. Forrest, Bob Robson and Wm. Irons as ring stewards; R. S. Tyrell as clerk of the award board; the Superintendent, John C. Fletcher; all contributed to enable me to maintain the judging schedule even though the duration of the show was reduced to two days instead of three days as formerly, and their help is here acknowledged.

Following Calgary we spent a few days at the Ranch, and then off to Edmonton, where Jack C. Fletcher and George Climo were officiating and we very much regretted to find that the Calgary entry and the presence of Calgary fanciers was not as large as we had anticipated, especially considering the support which had been given the Southern Club by the Northern Fanciers.

One of the features of the Edmonton Show is the banquet at which all visiting patrons are welcomed. President Harry Nash was in the chair as he has been for a great many years past and made us all feel at home with his kindly speech. Arthur Wright both amused and instructed us in his inimitable style, Jack Fletcher (Old Brock), was as amusing as ever though feeling downhearted in the fact that George Kynoch was not present. George Climo, who has almost become a fixture at this event, must have felt that he was getting one of his own back in handing out the awards, instead of accepting them as usual. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd of Greenlawn, the former giving us a short review of some of his most interesting experiences and Dr. French of Sask. an enthusiastic lady fancier was also present.

Mrs. McSporran and Mr. Watson gave several vocal selections which were greatly enjoyed. It is a good many years since we heard a voice of such exceptional quality as this Edmonton lady fancier.

The Show was a model of efficiency. Rose Elliott as Secretary, Arthur Wright as Superintendent and George Kirkwood as Ring Steward, together with the assistance of Harry Nash, tying combination that it would be ry hard to beat.

We must apologize for omitting the mes of many friends we made but pe to be able to give a review of

NOTED FANCIERS PASS BEYOND

We sincerely and honestly regret to notice from the pages of our contemporaries across the boundary line, the passing of two good friends who were really outstanding fanciers, in the persons of honest John Burton of Chicago, and Mrs. May McCurdy, of the Pine-wood Collie Kennels, New Brunswick, N.J.

Mr. Burton was an accredited specialist on Boston Terriers, and was one of the founders of the old Mascon-tah Kennel Club, and a charter member of the Western Boston Terrier Club.
He had judged in Canada, East and West and had a host of friends in this country.

Mrs. McCurdy was one of the lasting kind of Collie fanciers and had been closely associated with the breed during the last two decades. At one time the owner of that great Collie "Ch. Seedley Stirling," it was quite natural for her to have intimate knowledge of the most cherished characteristics of the Collie breed as few judges do, and so her services in the judges' ring were regularly commandeered to advantage.

DEAFNESS IN WHITE DOGS

Deafness in white animals is an ailment that has occupied the attention of scientists and practical men for some generations. The relation between the two things had probably been observed for some centuries before Darwin alluded to it more specifically in the "Origin of Species." There he remarked upon the curious fact that white cats with blue eyes were generally deaf. The extraordinary thing is that white cats with eyes of another colour, or even with odd eyes, one of which is blue, are not so susceptible.

The failing has for long been common in Bull Terriers, though it is not so general as it used to be. This is simply because breeders, or at least most of them, have entered into an honourable undertaking that they will neither exhibit nor breed from deaf dogs. If this self-denying ordinance is put into practice consistently, within a few years deafness should be eradicated from the breed, for it is generally agreed that when congenital it is usually transmitted. The scientific explanation is that animals deficient in pigment frequently have degeneration or total absence of the small passage in the ear, which is called the cochlear duct. This simple statement of an ascertained fact does not, however, explain how the defect arises and why it should be associated with pure white. There is an explanation, but it is of too scientific a nature for a general article.

In human beings the penalty of albinism seems to be short sight, but I have never heard it said that Bull Terriers or white cats are defective in this respect. The reason, I suppose, that white cats with blue eyes are so frequently deaf is that the blue eyes indicates an approach to albinism, and that may be why Scottish Shepherds dislike wall-eyed dogs, declaring that they cannot see as well as others. If a Bull Terrier has black spots on his skin, although they may not be apparent in the coat, we should not expect him to be deaf, but I imagine that the ailment is not unknown in another breed that is plentifully furnished with spots, that is, the Dalmatian. The reason I say that is that I have noticed in advertisements of Dalmatians the statement that the dogs offered for sale were not deaf.

Organized Dogdom has done its best to put an end to the evil by enacting that a deaf dog shall be disqualified from winning prizes. It is a fault, however, that may easily escape the notice of a judge whose mind is intent upon external characteristics. Deafness in dogs may, of course, arise from other causes, such as old age. When it results from atrophy of the auditory nerve nothing can be done to remedy it, but sometimes an accumulation of wax in the canal of the ear will make a dog's hearing deficient, and that is easily remedied. Pour in a little warm olive oil and leave it to soak for a day so that the wax may be softened. If the ear is then syringed with tepid water the offending agent will be removed.

Neglect, too, of that familiar complaint, canker, may lead to loss of hearing. There is no excuse for allowing this condition to continue, for the dog will show unmistakably what is wrong with him by carrying his head on one side, rubbing the ear on the ground, or scratching it. On examination it will probably be found that there are signs of inflammation, and possibly there may be a discharge. The sufferer should be dressed immediately with the powder or lotion that is sold for the purpose.

"If your lips would keep from slips,
Five things observe with care;
Of whom you speak, to whom you

And how, and when, and where."

THE SCOTCH STYLE

MRS. G. KIRKWOOD'S NEW CHAMPION

Mrs. Grace Kirkwood, Edmonton, Alta., is the proud owner of this new champion of unusually fine breeding. "Ch. Alice of Normandy" was bred by Major J. Y. Baldwin, of the world famous German Shepherd Dog Kennels known as "Picardy," R. Wolf Grey. She was imported in dam and whelped the property of that enthusiastic Edmonton fancier, J. G. Young. Mrs. Kirkwood becoming owner when the new champion was still in her puppyhood.

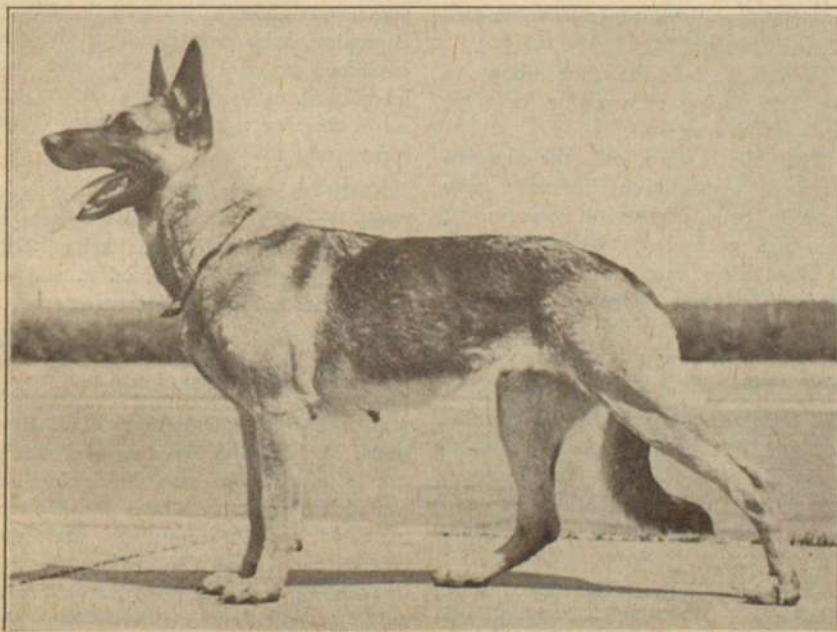

At the seven shows contested by "Ch. Alice of Normandy," and in competition which has ran from puppy to open, the records show one lone 2nd prize ribbon to mar an otherwise perfect record, and it is worth mentioning here, too, that since the time she qualified,

"TRAPYSTOK STEP IN" (89598) Boston Terrier, bred by George Duncan, Winnipeg, Man. Sire, "Ch. Roselawn's Dandy Boy," Dam, "Trapystok Sunray." Saskatoon Kennel Club, 1931, 3 points; Moose Jaw Kennel Club, 1931, 4 points; Alberta Kennel Club, 1931, 4 points.

"WHICH ONE OF THE NORTH" (unregistered), Schipperke, bred by Mrs. G. E. Brown, Toronto, Ont., now owned by Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Semple, Regina, Sask. Sire, "Int. Ch. Coltness Little Skipper," Dam, "Ch. Jean O' The North." Moose Jaw Kennel Club, 1931, 4 points; Alberta Kennel Club, 1931, 4 points; Saskatoon Kennel Club, July, 1931, 2 points.

by age, to enter the portals of our dog shows in 1929, she has held the distinction of having been winners bitch at Edmonton Dog Fanciers Club Show ever since. She has also taken the tricolor silk at Calgary and at Saskatoon.

The breeding of Mrs. Kirkwood's good bitch is something for the students to ponder over. Sire, "Cito von Soestbach of Picardy," who is by "Amor von Geiferberge," a son of the great Shepherd "Erich von Grafenwerth." Dam, "Bridget of Picardy" (Imp.), a daughter of "Ch. Allahson of It." "Dam of Bridget" is "Florina of Wye," whose sire was "Lord of Picardy," and Dam, "Ch. Lady Flora," so as get begets like, speaking generally, "Ch. Alice of Normandy" is no chance bred Shepherd.

Champion Alice of Normandy, the pride of Edmonton.

CHAMPION DOWNDERRY VENTUROUS (IMP.)

If championship points count for anything this imported old English Sheepdog, "Ch. Downderry Venturous" has lots of them to spare. Starting in at Vancouver Kennel Club Show last summer, and finishing at the same club's most recent fixture, she has earned 19 points and has never taken anything only the choicest ribbons.

In breeding to our new champion excels, and his picture only enhances this statement. Sired by "Shepton Guardsman" ex a daughter of "Ch. Elkington Squire," who is a son of "Ch. Old Bill." "Downderry Pandora," who is the dam of "Downderry Alecto" the dam of "Ch. Downderry Venturous" is a daughter of "Ch. Bully The Tramp."

Bred by Mrs. A. W. Beard, Surrey, England, this beautiful "Bobtail" was imported to Canada by Mrs. A. E. Walker, Brampton, Ont., and is now the valued property of Mrs. L. C. Vulliamy, Vancouver, B.C., under whose colors the championship honors were acquired.

AUTOBIOGRAPHY

of the late

THEO. MARPLES, F.Z.S.

A COMPANY was formed, with Sir Humphrey F. de Trafford, Bart., as the first chairman, and the following directors, or who joined the Board shortly after: Colonel R. Claude Cane, J.P., F.Z.S. (who followed Sir Humphrey in the chair), Mr. Charles A. Phillips, J.P. (who followed Colonel Cane and is still chairman of the Company), Mr. T. W. Markland (joint founder and ex-solicitor of the Company, who is vice-chairman), Sir Everett Millais, Bart. (since deceased), Colonel C. S. Dean, and Mr. John Proctor (since deceased). My son, Arthur Frederick Marples, was taken on the staff when he was 12 or 13 years of age. He has grown up with the paper, and is now 48 years old, and has long since been appointed Assistant Editor and Joint Manager, and Mr. Harold E. Stracy, Manager, who have both since been made Directors of the Company. The first number of the paper was issued in the first week of January, 1895, since which the paper has progressed from the first issue. Indeed, so generally popular is "Our Dogs" that it has become familiar to dog owners in every country in the world, and it circulates all over the world, and here it wields considerable influence among all classes of dog owners. This is the result of always giving good value for money, of supplying the latest, most authentic, and most reliable news available, contributed by the most experienced, most competent, and most reliable writers in the Kingdom. The great and sustained success of "Our Dogs" has produced many would-be rivals, all of which, with one solitary exception, have been financial and literary failures, and have consolidated "Our Dogs" in the sound and unassailable position it has attained, rather than adversely affecting it.

My eldest son, "J. W.," who was brought up in the atmosphere of the kennel and often engineered his father's dogs at shows, early in life relinquished the vicissitudes of a varying career and went in wholly for dogs. Singularly enough, he was born in November, 1873, the year in which I judged my first show and the year the Kennel Club was founded. So that with the father, eldest son, third son (the Assistant Editor of "Our Dogs"), and the latter's son, Dennis (who is also on the staff of "Our Dogs"), all steeped in dogdom, it would seem that a love of dogs, like wooden legs, "runs in the family!"

In the founding of "Our Dogs" I ought to mention that my friend, Mr. T. W. Markland, solicitor, of Manchester, went with me to see Sir Humphrey de Trafford, Bart., at Trafford Hall, which, and the Park, were then in their pomp. This was before any of the estate had been sold and cut up for the erection of great engineering works, with which it has since been over-run. I remember, too, that when Sir Humphrey lived at Market Harborough, whence he removed after he had sold Trafford Park, and its glories had been swallowed up by engineering enterprises, he was once late in starting for a meeting of the Directors of "Our Dogs," and chartered a special train from Rugby in order to be in time!

About the time of the foundation and publication of "Our Dogs" the Ladies' Kennel Association was founded by Mrs. Stennard Robinson, in 1895, and her lady associates. Our contemporary of that time—viz., "The Stock-keeper" (formerly "The Fanciers' Chronicle") rather belittled the incident of ladies joining the ranks of breeders and exhibitors of dogs in such large numbers, and threw cold water on their enterprise and efforts, but "Our Dogs" took the opposite course and stoutly defended the ladies and gave them all the assistance in its power. I wrote of this new and promising feminine organization in the first issue of "Our Dogs" of January 5, 1895, as follows:—

The Ladies' Kennel Association, which, phoenix-like, rose up amongst us with such bewildering proportions and influence no sooner established itself as the first feminine organization devoted solely to the interests of dogs and dog owners, than, emulating its male prototype, it must needs possess an official monthly with which to champion its cause, in "The Ladies' Kennel Journal."

The L.K.A. held its first show in June, 1895, being referred to in "Our Dogs" as follows:—

The first show of the Ladies' Kennel Association, which was brought to a successful issue in the beautiful grounds of Ranelagh Club, at Barn Elms, marks an epoch in the annals of dog showing and dog breeding. The show recalled the jubilee fixture of the Kennel Club, held on the same site.

The second show was held under the patronage of H.R.H. the Princess of Wales in Holland Park. The Princess was a patron, and later, both before and after H.R.H. became Queen, President of the L.K.A.

I frequently judged at the L.K.A. Shows, and was invited one year by the Countess of Aberdeen, the chairman, to escort the Queen round the show. The Committee thought I should be able to explain anything to Her Majesty quickly, without any reference to catalogue. The Queen, as she then was, showed Borzois, and at one show the 500-guinea cup, given by an Indian princess, was allotted by the Society to Borzois, in which Queen Alexandra was an exhibitor. Three judges had been appointed specially to award this valuable prize—the judge who judged the Borzois class, Mr. George Raper, and myself. All the dogs came into this ring before the trio of judges, who, after careful inspection, reduced them to three specimens, one of which was Queen Alexandra's "Ch. Alex." I should say here that the large ring that was made by the committee for this competition was crowded five or six deep with excited spectators. We judges went over the three dogs again, the Borzoi judge choosing one and sending it away, left the remaining two in the ring, which resolved the competition to a duel for the trophy.

The Borzoi judge now ran the rule over the two dogs, and plumped for the one to which he had given first; Mr. Raper now overhauled the two dogs and decided in favour of the Queen's dog, which resolved itself into my being the referee. The tension of the spectators, who were keenly watching the contest, was enormous. I stepped into the ring and examined the two dogs very carefully, at length giving my fiat in favour of the Queen's dog, which made Alex the winner of the 500-guinea trophy. Applause was not in it; ladies' handkerchiefs, bags, and umbrellas were thrown up in the air, everybody seeming to be rapturously delighted. At that moment the Queen came to the ring, wondering what the excitement and applause was about. Her kennel manager, Brunsdon, who was handling the dog, explained to Her Majesty, who was introduced to the Princess donor, who sat in the ring watching the great trophy being judged for.

About the time of the founding of "Our Dogs," I founded the Pomeranian Club, which materially helped the "Perky Pom," house-trained it, and developed its colours and contour.

At this time prize and pedigree dogs were increasing at a rapid rate, and specialist clubs, which were formerly unknown, were springing up in all directions. Indeed, the breeding and exhibition of show dogs was developing into a national industry. Dog shows were increasing in both numbers and size, that of the Kennel Club taking the lead in point of standing and the quality of exhibits, but Cruft's Show has ultimately become the largest dog show in the world, with its close upon 10,000 entries and upwards of 50 judges! The Birmingham Show, the oldest in the world, which followed the first show held in 1859, starting in 1860, is still a great and important fixture. Then the show of the Ladies, first held at the Ranelagh grounds in 1895, is a very important show. As showing the growth and development of dog shows in England, I may point out that in 1900 392 shows were held and in 1929 1,763 or no fewer than 48,784 dogs registered!

The dogs I have interested myself in, bred and exhibited, in a more or less successful degree are, besides Fox-terriers, Pugs, Sporting Spaniels, Pomeranians, Pekingese, Collies (Rough and Smooth), Whippets, Japanese Spaniels, and Yorkshire Terriers. I have not engaged much in sport, hunting, shooting, etc., but have won many prizes and cups with dogs.

I have had the honour to review in "Our Dogs" and illustrate all the Royal kennels—viz., those of King Edward and Queen Alexandra, those of His Majesty King George, and those of H.R.H. the Prince of Wales.

Having judged my first show in 1873, I have since officiated as a judge of all breeds at every important show in the United Kingdom, including the Kennel Club and Cruft's, many times, and at several shows in the United States, in Canada, Russia, South Africa, and in nearly every city in Europe. I had a rather unfortunate experience when I judged the great National Show in St. Petersburg (now called Leningrad). The then Czar of Russia entertained the judges at the show to a Russian wolf hunt of confined wolves at his park at Gatchina, and I was one of those invited; but on the morning of the hunt I was so indisposed that I could not attend. I called in a Russian doctor, who gave me some medicine with the label written in Russian, which I could not read, and did not know whether it was to be taken or applied, so to prevent disaster I did neither!

When judging at the Paris Show, which I did for nine or ten years in succession, I was, with other judges, presented to Presidents Loubet and Fallieres, and when I judged in Holland one year, to the Queen of Holland. When I judged at Port Elizabeth, and called at Cape Town on my way home, the South African Kennel Club entertained me to a banquet. When I judged at the Austrian International Sporting Exhibition in 1910 in Vienna, with the late Dr. Hosker, who judged Fox-terriers, and Mr. C. C. Eversfield, Sporting Spaniels, the manager of the show came to me while judging and said Prince Hohenlohe wished to be introduced to me. What he wanted to see me about was to ascertain if I could get him from either England or Scotland a pure white Scotch Collie, which he wanted as a present for a Princess friend of his. When I got home I set to work trying to find one and succeeded, and sent it on to Germany by Spratt's Patent to the address he gave me. I also sent a book telling him how to feed and treat the dog, and got a telegram of acknowledgment, of which the following is a copy:—

Theo: Marples, Canine, Manchester.—Beauty safely arrived at Berlin; many thanks, interesting book; payment direct; compliments.—Prince Hohenlohe.

Prince Hohenlohe, it will be remembered, is one of the Kaiser's greatest friends. Just before the war the Kaiser sent him on a mission, first to the King of Bulgaria to induce the latter to go in with Germany in the war, in which he succeeded, and then on to the King of Roumania, with whom he failed, as Roumania decided to join the Allies.

When in Vienna we three English judges were shown round the city, and patronized the water chute in the company of the Emperor's Private Secretary, when unfortunately something went wrong with the works and we all got a dip in the current. Our guide, the Emperor's Secretary, was very wroth. We judges were all presented to the Emperor Franz Josef.

I have written several books on dogs, including Show Dogs, dedicated to my late friend, Dr. Sidney Turner, chairman of the Kennel Club, and "Prize Dogs", which, by permission, I dedicated to the Countess of Aberdeen, who was chairman of the Ladies' Kennel Association at the time, and others. I have also had the honour of the latest and greatest work on dogs, entitled "The Practical Dog Book," being dedicated to me and his friend by the author, Mr. Edward C. Ash. It is a very comprehensive work and published at one guinea. Another honour which I have had bestowed upon me by the Kennel Club, and which I very much appreciate, is that of having been made an honorary member of the Club. This was in 1927.

Still more honours have been showered upon me, all of which, it is needless to say, I greatly appreciate. In 1926 the dog owners of the United Kingdom and abroad conceived the idea of getting up a subscription on my behalf in recognition of my very long and active connection with "dogs of high degree" and their advancement.

A committee was formed of the following gentlemen for the purpose of organizing the subscription, closing the fund, and making the presentation, which was done on the evening of March 24 at the Midland Hotel, Manchester, under the presidency of Her Grace the Duchess of Newcastle, the presence and support of leading officials of the Kennel Club, and a great galaxy of dog owners of every shade of opinion, including the following gentlemen, who formed the working committee:—Roger Phillips (secretary), Walter S. Glynn, J.P. (treasurer), Arthur F. Marples (Assistant Editor of "Our Dogs"), Major J. H. Wright, M.R.C.V.S., O.B.E., H. Greenhough, and T. A. Lever. There were also present: The Rt. Hon. the Lord Mayor of Manchester (Alderman Miles Mitchell), the Hon. Mr. Justice Hanna, K.C., Charles Cruft, Esq., F.Z.S., W. L. McCandlish, Esq. (chairman of the Kennel Club), George Howlett, Esq. (vice-chairman of the Kennel Club), Will T. Rylance, Esq. (chairman of the Manchester Dog Show Society), C. A. Phillips, Esq., J.P. (chairman of "Our Dogs" Publishing Co., Ltd.), Dr. Hosker, J.P., Holland Buckley, Esq., Wing-Commander Butt, Lady Hehir, W. T. Lethbridge, Esq. (managing director of Messrs. Spratt's Patent, Ltd.), Professor Ramsbottom, Dr. Turton Price, Dr. and Mrs. Aubrey Ireland, Mrs. Robson, W. S. Green, Esq., O. T. Walters, Esq., and Miss Walters, and others.

The Duchess of Newcastle, in making the presentation of the trophies and watch, said: "It is with the greatest pleasure that, on behalf of Dogdom, I hand you, Mr. Marples, this watch and cups as small token of the appreciation in which we hold you. I feel my fellow fanciers have done me a great honour in asking me to make this presentation, and in doing so I am able to voice our good wishes and to say how fully we all realize what you have done in the past for the fancy. Your wonderful knowledge and tact have been fully in evidence as Editor of "Our Dogs." We have seen other papers come and go, but from its inception, now thirty years ago, "Our Dogs" has gone on with continuing success. "Our Dogs" will remain the premier dog paper the world over. I can only now wish you long life, coupled with good health to enjoy it, and tender these tokens of good will with every good wish from us all."

While appreciating very highly this public mark of world-wide esteem, so eloquently expressed by several speakers, to which I responded, as I stated, the fact of the presentation and the kind words which were expressed by the ducal chairman, and those who followed Her Grace, were ample reward for what little I had done for the cause we all have at heart, which could not be expressed in mere money value. In this way, out of the close upon £500, which total it reached, I purchased three 100-guinea trophies, two of which I gave to the Kennel Club (which were duly acknowledged by Mr. McCandlish, chairman of the Kennel Club), to be offered at the Kennel Club Show each year, one for the best Sporting dog and the other for the best non-sporting dog. The other 100-guinea cup I presented to the Manchester Dog Show Society, to be offered each year for the best dog in the show, which Mr. Will T. Ryland, the chairman, accepted on behalf of the Society. The Duchess now rose, and, addressing me, said: "The subscribers would like you, Mr. Marples, to have some sort of memento of this interesting meeting and presentation for yourself," and Her Grace put in my hands a 100-guinea gold repeater watch, containing the following inscription:—

This watch was subscribed for by Dog Owners in the United Kingdom and abroad, along with three perpetual challenge trophies, and presented by Her Grace the Duchess of Newcastle to Theo: Marples, Esq., F.Z.S. (Editor of Our Dogs), at a dinner organized in his honour at the Midland Hotel, Manchester, on March 24, 1926, as a tribute to the great service he has rendered to Dogdom during a period exceeding over half a century.

This expenditure left something short of £100, for which I was not long in finding a purpose. At the subsequent dinner which I have been accustomed to give at the Midland Hotel, on the eve of the Manchester Show, for many years now, and which continues, to some 20 to 30 of my closest doggy friends, I suggested that this surplus of my presentation fund should be applied to found a "Theo: Marples' Benevolent Fund," from which sums of money should be paid out and donated to dog owners of both sexes who had been overtaken by misfortune or been the victims of sickness or other distress. The idea was applauded, and most of my friends promised to subscribe further to it, and many did so subscribe, also a few dog clubs and societies. Mr. Walter S. Glynn, J.P., who is well known, kindly undertook to act as hon. treasurer, and he and I have since administered the fund, doing a great service to the kennel community without any show or publicity.

[This story has been written by me, with all its detail, entirely from memory, without the slightest reference to any published data, except the copying of two little extracts from the review of the formation of the Ladies' Kennel Association in the Christmas Number of "Our Dogs" of 1926, and the Duchess of Newcastle's speech.—Ed.]

Au revoir, old friend, dog lovers the world over mourn your passing. Truly it has been said:

'Tis a wink of an eye,

'Tis a draught of a breath

From the blossom of health

To the paleness of death.

GOOD LITTER BY CH. HETTEL

M. "Jim" Morgan, Niagara Falls, Ont., is all "het up" over a litter of German Shepherd Dogs sired by the famous "Ch. Hettel von Bodman" out of one of Jim's "Utz von Hans Shutting" bitches. This lot of youngsters are now nine weeks old, and no doubt several of their number will be ready for the show benches next year, Mr. Morgan has the necessary enthusiasm to justify his sharing in the spoils of competition which are the attractions that makes the dog show game so appealing to its devotees.

DANE WINS TAIL-WAGGERS GOLD MEDAL

H.R.H. Prince George been fortunate in having one of the Tail-Waggers Gold Medallions awarded to his dignified Great Dane "Midas of Send," for securing 100 recruits to the now world-famous Tail-Waggers Club. "Midas of Send" is the twenty-sixth dog to achieve the remarkable distinction, and is the first dog owned by Royalty to make the grade, although H.R.H. the Prince of Wales, H.R.H. Princess Mary, Countess of Harewood, H.R.H. the Duke of Gloucester, H.H. Princess Marie Louise, and distinguished members of other Royal Households are owners of well-known Tail-Waggers.

It is remarkable to remember that the Tail-Waggers Club now numbers in the half million mark, and it is to be regretted that the organization that has for its appeal the promotion of the general welfare, health and happiness of "Man's Best Friend," has so signally failed to catch the public fancy in the United States or in Canada, however, the fact cannot be ignored, that the Tail-waggers Club has come to stay, and it will only be a matter of time until we have a healthy Tail-Waggers Club in this country.

OH THEM MICKS!

The Fermanagh Kennels, at Kingsville, Ont., where Irish Terriers are raised exclusively are rejoicing over two litters which arrived recently. Both litters, are sired by that smart Irish Terrier "Ch. Kilvara Postman."

Two good brood matrons have found new homes from the Fermanagh establishment, "Fermanagh Nell" going to Mrs. D. Luscombe of London, Ont., and "Fermanagh Rusty Maid" has gone "way down east" to Mrs. A. E. Burns, at Halifax, N.S.

GERMAN SHEPHERD DOG CLUB BUSY

The German Shepherd Dog Club of Canada certainly "done themselves proud" when they raised no less than $353.50 for the purpose of bringing much needed assistance to a few of Toronto's blind population. A cheque for the above amount has been sent to the Canadian National Institute for the Blind, and we heartily congratulate the Club on this activity. It is anticipated that a class of possibly seven blind persons will undergo instruction in the use of blind beading guide dogs this fall.

The Club's Field Trials fall due on September 6th at the presidents country home, Manor Farms near Clarkson, when Col. J. N. MacRae will "pass the rule" over the contestants

The Mentality of a Dog

By Andrew Sinclair.

"I wonder what he is thinking about; what would he say if he could speak?"

... If you have a dog, how often have you made either or both these comments. It's a wonderful thing—a dog's expression and the way he has of expressing himself. It isn't only the wagging tail, although a dog's tail can tell more tales than one! A dog's eyes... have you ever taken the trouble to study them, his physiognomy too. Without a doubt, dogs think. If every dog owner were to appreciate this self evident fact, how much easier would many a dog's lot be. Sheer thoughtlessness is at the root of most doggy troubles. The owner gets into the habit of thinking "what a fool" his dog is... other people's dogs are much better behaved, more sensible! In these circumstances, it would indeed be interesting to know what the dog thinks of his master; there are usually two sides to every question.

Generally speaking, dogs are "lumped" into one classification. They are dogs and there it ends. It is not an exaggeration to claim that no two dogs are of similar temperament. Each breed certainly has its own peculiar characteristics, but even so, the development of the individual character depends almost entirely on early training. Dogs are very near akin to human beings in that respect! When training a dog, the first thing to do is to "know" your dog. In other words, to find out its natural inclinations and act accordingly. This calls for thought and a realization that dogs have a "thinking" brain and not merely a mass of grey matter. It is the easiest thing in the world to "cow" a dog and enforce obedience by harsh treatment. That is not training—it is rank foolishness.

No animal responds so generously to sound, commonsense treatment as a dog. It is not sufficient to give him a dry roomy box or kennel to rest in, daily exercise, daily grooming, plenty of clean fresh water to drink, and the right food. Those are fundamental necessities. Remember the kindly word and the friendly pat on the back. It's not so much what you say and do but how you say and do it... and a dog knows! Watch his tail wagging thirteen to the dozen! See his eyes sparkle and glisten.

And his food. A dog with "a liver," for which his master is often responsible, cannot possibly do himself or his master justice. Feed him properly, therefore. Two regular feeds a day—no more—and let them consist either wholly or in part, of Dog Biscuits in one form or another. Fed "dry," Dog Biscuit foods provide a highly nourishing food and at the same time act as a toothbrush. A mash, composed of hound or terrier meal thoroughly soaked in hot gravy, soup or stock—crumbly moist consistency, not sloppy—can be the second feed.

Clog a dog's stomach with sloppy stodgy foods and you dull his brain and thinking powers. You deprive yourself also of one of Nature's greatest gifts, the real and complete palship of a dog. He has a brain. Make it think of and for you!

BOSTON TERRIER CLUB'S NEW OFFICERS

The Boston Terrier Club of Toronto, was held on August 20th, and despite the street corner gossip of wholesale changes to be made, we are happy to find that no material changes have taken place. We feel that the Club was well manned in its officials, and that further services could and would be beneficial all round.

The reports were all encouraging, and well received, particularly the report of the Treasurer "Paddy" Boughs, for the genial "Paddy" was able to report more real money in the bank to the credit of the club than had ever been recorded before.

The officers elected are Hon. Pres., H. M. Jackson; Pres., R. H. D. Sim; First Vice-Pres., F. Burridge; Second Vice-Pres., Mrs. J. W. Ward; Secretary, Mrs. C. B. Firman, 587 Markham St., Toronto, Ont.; Treasurer, P. Boughs; Show Secretary, C. B. Firman, Executive, Miss F. Massacar, Miss A. Dory, Mrs. F. Caley, Mrs. P. Boughs, and Mrs. M. Stevens.

HEAT BRINGS TRAGEDY TO WIZBANG

The terrific heat which reached its peak on Dominion Day at St. Jean brought plenty of grief to the Wizbang Kennels, the death toll collected by the heat wave included the Pekinese "Wizbang Mandarin Bennie," the Collie "Wizbang Sunlight" and several other of the Kennel's most cherished inmates. Miss Sparrow feels these losses very much as the Pcke and several Cockers were her inseparable companions.

Fortunately the Kerry Blue "Ch. Glendowan Blue Charm," then in whelp, was saved by constant care.

Sales at the Kennels have been satisfactory. Several "Wires," all sons or daughters of "Wizbang Playboy," have found new homes in the United States. Other dogs of different varieties have also crossed the international boundary recently.

KENNEL NAME GRANTED

The Kennel Name "Independent" has been registered in the name of Mrs. M. A. Purvess, Toronto, Ont.

"YOU MAY AS WELL HAVE THE BEST"

Beautiful High Park is "home sweet home" to many happy Toronto folks every summer, but no happier group than those depicted above in our illustration, the officers and members of the Boston Terrier Club, of Toronto, ever partook of the pleasure. "The Mysterious Mister Boston Terrier" is one of the happy group. We wonder how many will recognize him here.

TWO THRIVING R-M BABIES

The pair of young wolfhounds pictured above have been fed on Ross-Miller Kibblos from an early age. They are a credit to their owner, Mrs. T. Wrigley of Montreal. "They are very sturdy and healthy, and carry wonderful coats," she writes.

Ross-Miller Foods are adapted to dogs of every age and breed. Start young puppies on R-M Puppy Meal just as soon as they are weaned. Follow up a little later with R-M Puppy Midgets, which contain a high percentage of bone-building material. R-M Kibblos are suitable for feeding with milk. Being small, they soak quickly, and are not so likely to be dropped in the dirt, as larger biscuits are.

As the young animals come into their growth they may be fed Ross-Miller Standard Biscuits, which contain plenty of protein derived from beef and pork crackling, as well as a balanced proportion of other selected ingredients, including cod liver oil.

Many of the leading kennels of Canada are using Ross-Miller Dog Foods. R-M Foods are fresh when you get them and keep in a dry place without danger of moulding. Ask your grocer to supply you regularly.

The reason is not far to seek. Veterinary surgeons, breeders, exhibitors, handlers and dog owners generally, have learned from direct experience that Spratt's crisp, meaty biscuits and wholesome, vitamin meals are the purest and most nourishing foods that science, coupled with the makers' unrivalled specialized knowledge of the subject, can provide for the daily diet of dogs, whether of the sporting or non-sporting variety, of large, medium or toy breeds.

In the kennel, on the bench and in the ring itself, the splendid condition and stamina of the "Spratt's-fed" dog invariably "tell" in the "hottest" company. Elsewhere than in show circles, the ordinary pal-dog, reared on a "Spratt's" diet, is everywhere a credit to his owner.
