Old Trusty Dog Foods and Remedies

Unique in its make-up and purpose, the Old Trusty Dog Food Company is owned and managed wholly by dogmen and devotes its entire resources to the manufacture and sale of foods, remedies and accessories pertinent to the well-being of the dog. Due to specialization and the wealth of practical knowledge available, in a single decade it has grown from an individual's dream to a place of dominance in dogdom.

It is hardly necessary to describe the Old Trusty foods in detail, except to say that all of them are free from medication, and from sweetening or any other treatment to make them deceptively palatable. It is because they are natural dog foods, scientifically balanced, that the dog relishes them and does not tire of them.

Each remedy in the Old Trusty chest is compounded for its special purpose after years of study and practical research, from the famous formulas of Dr. G. G. Anderson, noted veterinarian. They are safe and dependable. Easily and effectively given at home.

INTERNATIONAL CHAMPIONS

A recent visitor to Kennel and Bench office raised this debatable question of the term "International Champion" and gave it as his opinion that there was no such thing in dogdom.

Officially our visitor was perfectly correct in his contention. In the countries where we have reciprocity agreements functioning, the words "International Champion" are not recognized in record making, nevertheless organized dogdom has never sought to curb the owner of a dog that has won a championship in several countries, from describing the animal as an International Champion, and undoubtedly it would be tantamount to folly, should any attempt be made to stop the practice, for the simple reason, that if a dog has won a championship in more than one country, he just automatically becomes an International Champion in the absence of an International governing body with control over the matter.

Canadian fanciers continue to make champions in the United States. United States fanciers rather like making their dogs champions in Canada. Dogs from this side of the Atlantic have gone over to Great Britain and have become champions in the hectic competition to be found in that country of genuine dog breeders, and there can be no sound argument advanced that we know of, that could be successfully used to stop the use of the term "International Champion." And although the term is not officially recognized, it can still remain of vital importance in connection with the general affairs of dogdom.

CHAMPION GARWOOD MAJOR

whose photo appears here taken at nine months was the sensational Smooth Fox Terrier puppy shown on the "three-show" September circuit of the Maritime Provinces, where a dozen or more Smooths were benched at the shows of the Nova Scotia and New Brunswick Kennel Clubs. This sterling Terrier went through to the top of all his classes: six firsts, winners and best of breed, also seven specials and trophies. A triumphant start for a novice puppy and a credit to his owner and breeder, Ronald C. Vaughan. This youthful champion was whelped December 25th, 1930, a real Christmas box this! A credit, too, to his dam, Danbury Marjorie, and sire, Borlase Huntsman (Imp.), the latter prefix, Borlase, speaks well for the Rev. A. J. Skinner. Huntsman, other than his being oversize, is a grand Terrier, with the style of a French hackney. This imported sire is the son of Ch. Hermon Heir, who has brought such renown and honors to Miss Emery in England.

Only one or two Smooths a year in Canada reach the top for specials; going back just five years one can count them almost on your fingers—those outstanding, Ch. Johnnie Cannunchian, Ch. Walnut Distinct, Ch. Clapton St. George, Ch. Crown Ajax, Dumbarton Gift, Ch. Ferns Result, and Ch. Gallant Fox, most of whom were exported to United States, making a name for themselves, owners and the breeder.

Ch. Garwood Major, barring accident, has still a bright future before him, a good Terrier that will still improve with maturity. He owns a long, clean head, keen dark eyes, small neat carried ears, plenty of neck, right in shoulders and front, sufficient bone, excellent legs and feet. He moves nicely, is a keen right balanced Terrier that will help the breed a lot.

Having more Smooths on the way, in Garwood Kennels, Mr. Vaughan can spare this one and at a moderate price. A good buy for a real fancier who wants a Terrier to show in good company. His alert appearance and nice ring manners are most commendable.

These Kennels also have a few four months' old, well marked, very attractive Smooth puppies—priced low for immediate delivery. Sired by his own stud dog, Borlase Huntsman, ex Danby Majorie, the latter is sired by Ch. Heeley President (Imp.).

THE ALBERTA NEWS

By Provincial Contributing Editor,
R. S. TYRRELL, Bottrel, Alta.

ALBERTA has definitely decided to postpone the inauguration of a Provincial Show. This being a new departure in our Province it will necessitate a considerable amount of preliminary organization, a lot of hard work and considerable expense in order to assure its success, so it is felt that under present conditions the risk attached would be somewhat too great.

The main object of holding a combined show at this moment was to select a suitable team to represent us at the Royal Winter Fair. The writer who has been in communication and consultation with the Hon. George Hoadley, Minister of Agriculture for this Province in this regard has very fortunately the sympathy and support of this department. Mr. Hoadley besides being one of our most successful stock men is an old member of the Canadian Kennel Club and naturally takes a considerable interest in pure bred dogs, added to which he is an astute business man who frequently leads the House in the absence of Premier Brownlee. Mr. Hoadley was quick to see the great advantage to our Province if a considerable proportion of our ranchers and farmers could be induced to substitute pure bred dogs for the present mongrels which we have, this not only from a utility but from a financial viewpoint. Furthermore the justice of our claim, that breeders of pure bred dogs were entitled to the same consideration and Government support that breeders of other pure bred animals were, also appealed to him. It is only that financial conditions prohibit the Government this year from making any further expenditures that this Province is not fully represented with an official team of dogs at the Royal Show.

We are all very pleased to see the success of George Kynoch's "Normandy Airth" who went to Best of Breed in the Scotties at the Canadian National Exhibition, for "Normandy" is the Prefix of our well-known J. G. Young of Edmonton, who has done so much for this Province with his importations of Scottish Terriers. There was a somewhat misleading statement lately in the Calgary Herald regarding two of the Terriers from this Kennel, namely, "Normandy Airth" and "Normandy Andrew" in so far as it refers to the direct importation of these two dogs stating that they were formerly Calgary owned Scottish Terriers. These dogs were not imported but whelped in the Kennels in Edmonton. Mr. Young hopes to send "Ch. Heather Lulu" (Imp.), who has the distinction of having gone Best in Show on two occasions this season, and also her half brother "Normandy Ascot" who won at Regina last summer under C. G. Hopton.

Another Edmonton fancier represented at the National was "Sandy" Robertson whose beautiful little Cocker bitch "Merry Beauty" went second both in the Canadian-bred and Limit Classes. (Black). "Beauty" has recently whelped an exceptionally good litter to George Climo's "Ch. Calmas Durbar" so that her performance is greatly to her own and to her breeder's credit. Mrs. Kirkwood, also of Edmonton, has two most promising Shepherd Puppies sired by "Shar of Longworth" a son of "Cito von Bergerlust" who was out of a daughter of "Eric von Grafenwerth," from her beautiful bitch "Ch. Alice of Normandy."

A dog of more than passing interest at the moment is a Chesapeake now in charge of Constable Shaw of the Alberta A.P.P. This dog who goes under the nick-name of "Moonshine Pete" was captured on a raid on an illicit still operated by one of my fellow "Jack Pine" savages. His owner is at present carrying out a contract with the Dominion, and Pete instead of retrieving ducks has been employed in retrieving lost gold prospectors in the Gold Rush which occurred just behind my back yard on "Fallen Timber Creek." No dear reader, you won't get rich suddenly searching for gold in this vicinity, though I am creditably informed there were ladies panning with pie plates in the vain hope of obtaining fame and wealth in the "get rich quick" style.

OUR FRONTISPIECE

The Collie has often been referred to as the "Autocrat of Dogdom," and without doubt he is well deserving of this most flattering description. On our front cover for November we take pleasure in introducing to Kennel and Bench readers C. G. Higginson's recently crowned champion, "Black Prince 2nd," as a Rough Coated Collie of merit.

"Ch. Black Prince 2nd" is a tri-color, and although he has not the full white collar that is so desirable in the show Collie, he carries an imposing bib of white that gives him a most striking appearance, his abundant coat reminds us of Collies of a former day and generation. And if the new champion transmits this essential characteristic to his progeny, he will be conferring a favor on the breed, and it is not expecting too much, because a study of the dog's pedigree will show that his progenitors were noted for the quantity and quality of their jacket.

The blood combination is most desirable, too. Here is the pedigree:

Campbell Style
Sylvan Superior
Glenariff Bess
Coila Rural Dawn
Ch. Seedley Supremacy
Coila Gainly Lass
Alstead Chancy Lass
Ch. Black Prince 2nd
Alstead Altus
Teddy Brown
Miss Sable Lass
Bellevue Dolly
Coila Swatch
Iberville Lottie
Iverville Dolly

As a sire our new champion should be much in demand. The photograph from which our illustration has been made was taken only a few days ago and is positively unretouched. It shows a nice big upstanding and robust Collie, good head and expression; the camera shows rather large ears, but those familiar with photography will understand the condition, and at once realize that the ears are perfect and in absolute proportion to the animal generally. A depth of chest that well fits a working dog. Alert and active, with the free active movement peculiar to the breed. And all in all, a dog that any man might well be proud of.

WHY AND WHEREFORE AT MONTREAL

By Judge Frank T. Eskrigge.

AS I have been requested to furnish a critique of the breeds I passed on at the recent show of the Ladies' Kennel Club of Canada, at Montreal, on Saturday, Sept. 5th, I am endeavoring to do my best to satisfy that requirement. I would like to say, however, in extenuation of any shortcomings which may be, and probably will be, noted in this report, that this is largely the result of my memory after a busy day supplemented by a marked catalogue with translations of my often illegible and unintelligible notes made on my judge's book, which I had mistakenly thought I was to have after the show for my personal edification only.

It is very fitting, I think, at this point, that I express to the president and officers of the Ladies' Kennel Club of Canada my deep and sincere appreciation of the wonderfully generous and hospitable manner in which they treated the "stranger within their gates." My brief and busy trip was most enjoyable from first to last, every moment was pleasurable, and my one regret was that I was unable to stay longer and become better acquainted with such a thoroughly sportsmanlike and kindly group of ladies and gentlemen.

For the gentlemen did their share to make my visit pleasant and to help me in the work I had to do, and while it is impossible for me to name all who helped, I feel I should particularly thank Messrs. T. P. Ritchie, S. T. Doyle, F. J. Rowe and Mr. E. "Witty" Warren, all of whom through the day did splendid work in the ring and in getting in the dogs when time pressed heavily upon us.

Scottish Deerhounds

One dog and one bitch. The dog was D. P. Wilson's "Bostric of Ross," six years old, imported from England, a very impressive animal with a beautifully masculine and well developed head, good front, chest and fore-quarters and legs, in splendid condition, but a trifle long in back. The bitch was Mrs. Katryn Wilson's "Callah Mohr," recently imported from Ireland, truly feminine in type, of somewhat smaller build, as is proper, with very good head and body, splendid balance and development, and while not so imposing as the dog, I gave her the award for best on account of her more even development all over. A very pleasing effect was obtained in the benching of these dogs by the use of a large oil painting of a Scottish mountain scene used to cover the back of the double bench and an imitation grass bed on which these dogs lay quietly watching the proceedings.

Springer Spaniels

Open dogs, two. First to Edward J. Prue's "Belmoos Jacobite II," a black and white, with very good head, good body and very good mover. Second to Herbert S. Routley's "Trent Valley Brisk," black and white, somewhat large type, not so good in movement. Winners Dogs. First to "Belmoos Jacobite II." Reserve to "Marol Cavalier." Open Bitches. One. Herbert S. Routley's "Trent Valley Beautiful," a very pleasing bitch, with good head and gait, and plenty of substance, but a little long in back. Winners Bitches to "Trent Valley Beautiful," and Reserve to "Belmoos Blue Bess." Best of Breed to the bitch, "Trent Valley Beautiful."

Doberman Pinschers

Open Dogs. First and Winners Dogs to George A. Taylor's "Navigator of Pontchartrain," a very pleasing black and tan, with very good and typical head, well proportioned and good in limbs, feet and action. Second and Reserve Winners to Alphonse Courtemanche's "Risco of Walburg," also a black and tan, but of larger build, not so good in feet, although, as he is still under two years of age, this condition may change. Best of Breed naturally to "Navigator."

German Shepherds

Open Dogs. First the most attractive so far seen, Mrs. A. Wells' "Arko Von Prinzenhof." A real Shepherd, good head, of grey and black, sable, strong neck, good shoulders and back line, well boned and muscled legs, and a real mover, well shown by his handler. Second to "Rogerum of Dundas," and third to Webster & Howling's "Array of Dell Park," a dog with black back and grey face, attractive build but somewhat shy. Winners Dogs to "Arko Von Prinzenhof," and Reserve to "Chief Tiger Tail." Open Bitches. In this class again a good one appeared, Mrs. A. B. Calow's "Alla Von Bergholz," well carried and good head, nice back and body and good legs and feet, and sweet mover. Second to "Diana of Dundas," and third to "Anny Berggeist." Winners Bitches, first to "Alla Von Bergholtz" and Reserve to "Lola of Blasienberg." Best of Breed to the winners dog, "Arko Von Prinzenhof."

Boston Terriers

There was quite a nice entry of this breed and at times the competition was keen. Open Dogs, under 15 lbs. First to Earl A. Brown's "Brown's Oh Boy," a most attractive little dog, of very good conformation, well balanced head and muzzle, good eye, nicely marked, good body, legs and feet. Second to Molson Kennels' "Salerings King," another one with a familiar appearance, a very evenly marked, nice headed dog, but not so good in eye. Third to W. O. Barnes' "Hagerty Tiny Toy," an attractive dog with a quite small body, which handicapped him in appearance. Limit Dogs, under 20 lbs. One only, J. Strother's "Tiny." Open Dogs, 15 lbs. and under 20 lbs. First to Mrs. E. Horning's "Horning's Honey Boy." A nice middle weight, with a good head. Second to Mrs. J. A. Robillard's "Billy Disturber," not quite so refined as the first prize winner. Winners Dogs to Earl A. Brown's "Brown's Oh Boy," with Reserve to "Stevens' Try Again." Open Bitches, over 15 and under 20 lbs. One only, Dr. Samuel E. Sawyer's "Mainheart Princess." A female of very good type, with a nice head, but showing the inevitable signs of age. Winners Bitches, first to Alfred E. Patchell's "Hagerty's Naughty Girl," and Reserve to "Stevens' Susan Conde 2nd." The best of breed to the winners dog, Earl A. Brown's "Brown's Oh Boy," which I have since learned repeated with a similar win at the Toronto show a few days after this event.

The Sporting Group was well filled, English and Irish Setters, Cocker and Springer Spaniels, Beagle, Greyhound and Whippet. A very pleasing class. All had full opportunity to display his or her points to the best advantage, and finally the choice lay between the two Setters and the Whippet, respectively named, S. T. Doyle's "Pajaro Diane," Mrs. A. Hird and Leighton Scott's "Squire of Kildona," and Mr. Stewart's "Ima Tavern Talk." "Pajaro Diane," the English Setter, an imported female, was shown to the best advantage by R. A. Ross, well known as a judge on both sides of the border. She is by "Ch. Racket's Grey Lad" ex "Ch. Queen of Hearts of Woodvine," and is a very sweet headed bitch in beautiful condition, but having been a great matron, her duties have had their natural effect, so, much as I liked her, I felt that the honor belonged to the Irish Setter "Squire of Kildona," well shown by the breeder, A. T. Keiller. "Squire" is by "Wild Irish Barney" ex "Aintree Dunster Lady Louise," and is a very well proportioned dog of thoroughly masculine type. Well boned and muscled, with good head and back and ample power in his quarters. I placed him first, the English Setter second, and Whippet, "Ima Tavern Talk," a very sweet bitch, third.

Best in show had five entrants. The Irish Setter, "Squire of Kildona";

Doberman Pinscher, "Navigator of Pontchartrain"; Wire Fox Terrier, J. R. Kennedy's "Vivadora Orphan Annie"; Pomeranian, George Potts' "Wembly Lascelles," and the English Bulldog, Mrs. R. Boyle's "Son O' Pugilist." Intense quiet reigned while these finalists paraded round the ring and were posed for examination in order, and then moved separately so that the spectators might have their opportunity to see their respective beauties. Three made the greater claim on my interest—three very good dogs whose identities were completely unknown to me—Doberman Pinscher, Wire Fox Terrier and Bulldog—about as entirely different in make up as it was possible to be.

The Doberman Pinscher was a good son of "Rux V. D. Blackenburg" ex "Elisia of Pontchartrain," bred by Glenn S. Stains, of Detroit, Mich. The Fox Terrier, adjudged best of the Terrier group by that expert, Mr. Leonard Brumby, was a very pleasing daughter of "Lone Eagle of Earlsmoor" ex "Prides Duchess of Earlsmoor," bred by another Terrier expert, Mr. Geo. S. Thomas. The Bulldog, placed best of the Non-Sporting group by Mr. Frank H. Addyman, was imported from England, a son of the celebrated "Ch. Pugilist" ex "Dunster Maiden" and bred by J. E. Rayner, of that country. I could have placed any one of the three with pleasure, for each had its peculiar claim on my attention, but as I studied them, the massive sturdiness, splendid head and front, good body, and all round excellence of the Bulldog appealed to me constantly without in any way reflecting on the beauties of his competitors. They, too, in their own particular characteristics were very hard to fault, but I felt that the Bulldog had a slight edge on the others, so I chose him for the best in the show—a choice which was apparently endorsed by the spectators, if their applause was any guide as to their feelings.

Mr. Doyle, a wonderfully hale and hearty gentleman over 80 years, the father of Mrs. J. H. Enright, the president of the Club, then presented the handsome cup donated by Mrs. Enright for the best in show to the handler of the winner "Son O' Pugilist" amid the hearty applause of the spectators.

I had heard much of Canadian hospitality for many years, and on this, my first visit across the border, I found it bounteous, not only in creature comforts, but in the kindly greetings on my arrival at the show and the thoroughly sportsmanlike and friendly attitude shown by everybody with whom I came in contact—losers as well as winners, and I shall often look back with pleasure to my all-too-short but pleasureable visit to Montreal to judge the Ladies' show.

EYES FOR THE BLIND

The State Council for the Blind in Pennsylvania plans to train 600 German Shepherd Dogs to "act as eyes" for as many blind persons resident in the State. At present there is only 14 dogs so trained and leading blind persons under the Council's sponsorship.

Six hundred dogs already secured for this laudatory effort have already been trained or are in training to meet the requirements of the Council's immediate programme, and perhaps this will prove the greatest impetus to training dogs to "act as eyes" for the blind that has ever been heard of. It only requires a three-week period of further training to adapt the trained dogs habits to meet the wishes of their new owners.

PROVING A CASE!

C. C. Costar, Montreal, set himself to the task of proving to Bird Dog fanciers the possibility of having a show bench type of dog that could accomplish desirable work in the field, and for his experiment he secured the English Setter "Hall's Oscar Morin" (91994), a dog by "Albert MacAllister 2nd" ex "Neva of Bleuery." The dog was of bench type and from a family showing field records. And encouragement aplenty attended Mr. Costar's experiment.

On the afternoon of September 6th the dog was working in a swamp near St. Hubert and was lost. Mr. Costar waited until dusk, and only left because of a rough wind that was quite disagreeable. The following morning the dog was heading towards St. Hubert to where he had lost his master and somehow he got in the way of an electric street car and fared rather badly as a result of his misadventure, so much so that when the dog was found the head had been severed from the body, and we heartily regret the ending to Mr. Costar's experiment, as our sympathies are certainly all with the sportsman who sponsors this very interesting experiment. Of course the bench type working dog can be a success on the field, it has been done, it will be done again, and without any question, the flair of the moment, irrespective of how well disguised the attempts may be, is to get away from the scrub type of feather or fur dog and to replace it with a dog that is not at all hard to look at.

We sympathize with Mr. Costar in his loss, and in the untimely ending of his experiment, but knowing him as we do, we feel that while he may be slowed up a little he has not been stopped by any means.

Leaves From a Kennel Note Book

By FREEMAN LLOYD.

THE world-wide depression in business matters, must have had something to do with the scarcity of entries, and, consequently, the scarcity of dogs at the American bench shows, this fall. Where there was a more or less decent list the same dogs—the swell dogs of the season—were mostly present. These gathered most of the sweets that fell from the judging pencils of the estimable gentlemen and ladies who made the awards. It is not supposed that really very many people ever aspire to the winning of the Best in Show prize at even an ordinary show. The rank and file are not only often up against the riches of the individuals who may readily acquire the best dogs to be found here or there, but the finished artifices of the practiced handlers. So it might be, that the rag, tag and bobtail of the exhibition set, have to bear too much of a handicap when they pit or match their dogs against some dog with a wonderful record, and the super-clever manager able to jockey his charge into its rightful place in the prize list. Let it be thoroughly understood that it is believed every dog has won on its own merits. During the busy season just passed there might have been a suspicion of the presence of the not very laudable passion or pastime of pot hunting. Where a large kennel possesses many other excellent specimens of the same breed, it would perhaps be better for eager eyes to observe something that is really new and fresh. Variety, as we know, is the spice of life.

A. McClure Halley who judged at the recent St. John, New Brunswick, K. C. Show was met at the Westbury, Long Island, K. C. gathering. He had much to say about his enjoyable stay in the Maritime Province. It is really believed that if this sportsman could have his way, he would live and die on the salmon-holding rivers of New Brunswick and Nova Scotia. His best game fish was a twenty-two pound salmon, while a twenty-eight pound muskalonge was taken in Lake St. Frances. So enthused was the astute superintendent of the Giralda Kennels, at Madison, N.J., that he said he purposed renting a pool, at a cost of $25.00 per day, for a week of the next season. Mr. Halley fished on the Miramichi which is reckoned among the best salmon rivers in Eastern Canada, he said. Returning to the subject of "dogs," the interviewed one favorably commented on the excellent all-round quality of the Canadian dogs exhibited at St. John. Among the entries was a Pointer bitch which he purchased. The Fox Terriers were good and he appeared to have been much impressed by the array of Irish Water Spaniels. He spoke nicely about a young Russian Wolfhound he had seen—a young borzoi from Halifax, Nova Scotia, it was understood.

Another of the recent American visitors to Montreal, Quebec and St. John, N.B., was Raymond L. Patterson, also of Madison, N.J. There he had run his practiced eye over the German Shepherd dog exhibits at the same show where his friend, Mr. Halley officiated. It is not too much to say they rejoiced over their holiday in the midst of such glorious and hospitable surroundings.

Just now the Irish Setters are very, very good in the neighborhood of New York, a fact that suggests the declaration that I do not believe I ever saw an Irish Setter in such magnificent condition as was the dog "Red Lights" at the Westbury Show. "Red Lights" is as red and brilliant as a ripe chestnut taken from the burr—the ideal shade for the coat of a dog of perhaps the handsomest of all the breeds of Irish dogs. "Red Lights" was in full coat, bloom and feather. Every hair on him appeared like a burnished and coarse silken strand. Each fibre was not only in its right place, but of exactly the same hue. In exquisite condition so far as flesh and health were concerned, Mrs. Edward Herbert Miner's red setter appeared as a glorious example of what a kindly and attentive person may do towards painting the lily in the form of a very good dog. "Red Lights" must be a near champion which would be all his dues and rights, since he is a handsonie son of "Ch. Bergneil Red Helmet" and "Ch. Raive." Mrs. Miner's dog was bred by the Kenridge Kennels (The Stillman's) at Cornwall, N.Y. So it was the puppy opened his young eyes in the midst of purple and fine linen.

Notwithstanding the coming and going of several well-known of the older breeds of dogs, the Dalmation or spotted Carriage Dog, is more than holding his own. In this connection it may be well to mention that although the automobile is now king of the road, the riding and driving horses of the countryside and show descriptions are still extremely popular. The horse shows in the East of the United States, were never more popular than they are today; indeed, all the young lads and lassies of wealth and station, appear to have adopted the pigskin and hunting crop as their chief delights. Perhaps, it is a sign of the times that one of the best known New York dog shop proprietors has embarked in the horse riding-school business. He is Eddie Silver, of Park Avenue and 59th Street, New York. Silver perhaps sells and trims more Scottish Terriers than anyone in his profession. On being interviewed he said: "Well depression or no depression there can be no use in standing still. I was offered a partnership in an established riding school on Long Island, and I went into it. I'm glad, for I'm now making more money out of riding horses than Scottish Terriers; and, as you know, I've been selling as many Scotties, as any other man or woman in the country."

To return to the Dalmatian dogs: The rejuvenations of riding and driving horses also horse shows among the fashionable of the wealthiest local colonies or countrysides of New York and New England, have brought about brisk demands for Dalmatian dogs. As you will remember it was always more or less customary to have a spotted dog around the well-maintained stable of show horses of other days. As a matter of fact the correct dog to have about an equine establishment of any size—from the travelling circus to the old time fire brigade station were the spotted dogs. They seemed to add to the delightful pageantries of those outfits. At the Westbury Show held on the Phipps' Field, where many notables, including the Prince of Wales, have played polo, there was a really splendid single entry of twelve or more Dalmatians owned by S. J. Willetts, of Syosset. They are some of the twenty to thirty full-grown Dalmatians in the Gladmore Kennels, it was said. All were in the very pink of condition.

It was a pleasure to talk to David and Mrs. Walker about their charges. It was highly interesting to converse with these good people from Bradford, Yorkshire, England—who were as much wrapped up in the interests of Mr. Willetts' spotted dogs, as that gentleman must be concerned about his Dalmatians' success and welfare. Mr. Walker said that a person takes or gives away a great chance when he sells a less than six months old Dalmatian. For there can be no telling what the puppy might develop in the way of "spots." The markings might be over-crowded or well-distributed. The most difficult 'points' to breed are the spotted ears and spotted tails. Spotted ears are more common than spotted tails. Moreover, the ear markings may be sooner discerned than the less discoverable spots on the tail. I was shown a just over twelve months old Dalmatian which was just beginning to develop the much prayed for black decorations on the white ground of his pointer-dog-like caudal appendage.

With the passing of the late and non-ogenarian, John White of Hampstead, Long Island, and the retirement of Charles H. Mason from the activities of American Kennel circles, it is believed that the oldest active exhibitor and judge now taking a live part in kennel affairs of the United States, is Mr. Townsend Scudder, a Supreme Court Justice. While admiring the Gladmore Dalmatians at Westbury, the famous jurist passed and waving his hand while indicating the dozen or so of the Willetts' dogs, exclaimed: "Aren't they beautiful?"—which remark opened the way for the questioning reporter.

"So you're also an admirer of Dalmatians?"

"Always," came the response, "and I've been showing dogs since the year 1882!"

So there and then it was revealed that Mr. Scudder had been a breeder and exhibitor of dogs for just a year less than half a century of time. As all the world knows Mr. Scudder is a Cocker Spaniel breeder and has produced very many excellent specimens. He was one of the earliest of Cocker breeders to patronize spaniel field trials in the United States. His Robinhurst "red" blood exported to England immediately made its mark. Mr. Scudder sent his "Robinhursts" to H. S. Lloyd whose cockers have been pre-eminently successful during several years of English show and field trial life. There could have been little doubt that the great beauty of the American cocker, would give added attractions to the larger English cockers which might not be altogether so "loveable" in appearance as the American and Canadian woodcock spaniels.

An old, esteemed, sporting and long-time doggie friend in Earle Woodward, has forwarded a copy of "The Coursing News" for May, 1931. It is a neat, copious, informative, a green-covered and well-conditioned book of

Doggy Ills

If anything ails your dog, give Karswood Dog Powders immediately, and the trouble will soon be put right. Karswood Dog Powders are enthusiastically accepted by the World's leading breeders as the most efficient means of relieving and preventing illness in the dog.

Miss F. Ethel Dixon, of 6, Blackheath Park, London, the well-known lady breeder and owner of Ch. Honeystake, Ch. Karzadoc, etc., etc., says: "Karswood Dog Powders are excellent for bringing on poor feeders, and for getting dogs into condition when they have been ill."

No dog need suffer from loss of appetite. Poor appetite and listlessness are two of the first symptoms of more serious trouble to follow. But Karswood Dog Powders will soon cure the trouble and ward off any further disease. Read this letter:

104, Jamaica Street, London, E.1.
I can truthfully state that after using Karswood Dog Powders on my Alsatian bitch for loss of appetite, as she was a very poor feeder, the results were like magic. Her appetite improved after giving her four Karswood Dog Powders, and her coat, which was rather backward, also improved and began to grow splendidly. I am more than satisfied with same and would not be without them, as Karswood Dog Powders are worth a good deal more than the advertised cost.
J. COWAN.

Karswood Dog Powders contain specific nerve foods and organic salts not contained in the domesticated dog's dietary, but which are necessary to perfect health. No other dog preparation contains the same ingredients—hence none is so effective for the purpose. Prove this for yourself.

one hundred pages, and many extra ones of advertising and published quarterly by Charles F. Horne, Manhattan, Kansas. It also contains the Stud Book, and will be found of great value to all American coursers and greyhound owners. The publication also embraces racing. With so much greyhound racing in the atmosphere, we may be inclined to forget the legitimate calling and usefulness of the greyhound—that of coursing the hare.

Another new pointer dog of great importance and renown, may soon be expected in the United States. This dog is the famous white and lemon-marked "Nancolleth Markable" which now must be classed as an English Champion, by reason of his having won a working certificate at the Devon and Cornwall Pointer and Setter Society's field trials held near Neroquay, in September last. I have heard "Markable" described as one of the most beautiful of living creatures. A few months ago an option was taken on this pointer dog, the proviso being that he would not be accepted until he had taken his field certificate, so that he might qualify for his English championship. No English show dog of a gun dog breed, can attain the title, unless he has proved his worth on game. "Ch. Nancolleth Markable" was owned and I think bred by Mrs. A. Rowe a West of England lady who also sold "Nancolleth Beryl" to McClure Halley acting on behalf of Mrs. M. Hartley Dodge, of Giralda, Madison, N.J. "Beryl" was recently described by one who had recently judged her, as the ideal of perfection, save that she might have been a pound or so over-weight—a "good" fault, as some will declare. This opinion was that of Mr. Glebe who had judged "Beryl" at a recent show in New York State.

"Nancolleth Markable" is said to be a perfect match for "Beryl." So once again we are promised the spectacle of looking over something extraordinarily handsome as well as useful in the forms of white-and-lemon pointing dogs of Devonian or Cornish breeding. In describing the running of "Markable" at Newquay, my old friend of forty-five years duration—the redoubtable John Lee Buller of Exeter, writes: "Markable is a natural worker. But his owner (Mrs. Rowe) found him much more of a handful in the field than on the bench. He goes a great pace and possesses beautiful style. Moreover, he found birds grandly."

So what will be England's loss shall be America's gain.

Mrs. Dodge is making pointer dog history.

A SAFE AND SAN

The election of officers for the Canadian Kennel Club will take place in December.

1932 will be an all-important year in the history of the governing body of the dog fancy in Canada. It is essential that its affairs be entrusted to men who have the real interest of the Club at heart and have an unsullied record of service to the Canadian Kennel Club, men who can be trusted to approach both major and minor matters with open minds and are equipped by knowledge and experience to make fair decisions.

The 1925-30 Board of Directors of the Canadian Kennel Club saw the Club prosper and development which placed it upon the highest plane in its history. Its economical achievement is pointed to with pride today. This Board, or series of Boards, of men who had long experience in the dog game, and whose experience and vision were not confined to the walls of one city, one province, but to Canada from coast to coast. These Boards are the signatories to this advertisement.

Notes from British Columbia

AT the last monthly meeting of the Victoria City Kennel Club, the President, Major H. W. Niven, expressed his keen regret at having to relinquish the office which he has held for the past four years. In a few well chosen words he thanked all the officers and members of the club for the support they had given him, and for working so harmoniously with him during his term of office. The loss of this valuable worker and fancier is a severe blow to the club, and his resignation is very much regretted, not only by the members, but the whole of the fancy of Vancouver Island. To find another to succeed Major Niven will be no easy task for when there was work to be done, you could always depend upon him to be there with his coat off, and especially at show time. No one has ever worked harder in any respect for the club and for the good of the fancy, and he will be greatly missed. His ever cheery manner and pleasant word for all and his great knowledge of dogs and shows endeared him to all he came in contact with, with the result that he not only made many friends for himself, but also for the club, and much of the popularity which the annual Victoria Show enjoys, is in no small measure due to him. However, as the saying is, "It's an ill wind that blows no one one any good" and our loss is Winnipeg fanciers gain, for he has been transferred to duty at Fort Garry, and has been honored with the appointment of Lieutenant Colonel. In extending congratulations and best wishes to Major Niven, I am sure I am only voicing the sentiments of the whole of the fancy of Vancouver Island.

By the introduction of a Doberman Pinscher a new breed will be established in Victoria, by the Shepherdholm Kennels. Mrs. McGee has purchased a young bitch "Soni V Olga-hahi" from C. A. Roy of New Westminster. This bitch is the daughter of "Artus V. D. Olgahoe X Reeda V. Harvelberg," and will share the kennel with the German Shepherds there. With the latter Mrs. McGee has been very successful and her latest win with "Rega of Stonetown" was Best of Breed at the recent Shawnigan Lake Show. This bitch is the granddaughter of Int. "Ch. Gerri V. Oberklamm."

I am advised that the Coast City Club at Vancouver are already making preparations for their annual spring show, and that they intend to build new benching for the event. Also that the Western Cocker Spaniel Club of Canada are contemplating staging a specialty show in conjunction with the B.C. Spring Circuit.

Our B.C. Director, "Bill" Pym has made many friends for us while on his visits fulfilling judging appointments in the U.S.A. and he has advised me that many well-known handlers and fanciers which he has met have promised to support the B.C. Circuit next year. He also gives some interesting news of the Willow Run Kennel of North Hollywood, the home of a large string of Great Danes, including the sister and brother Champions "Canis Major" and "Duchess of Willow Run." These two are used extensively in motion pictures. Their sire is "Ch. Ludwigs Eric" a well known performer, and doubtless they have inherited their ability from him. "Bill" says the proprietors of this kennel are real good sports, and own some wonderful specimens.

During the past month the Scottie inmates at the O'Balgownie Kennels have increased by three litters. The imported bitch "Merelewood Portia" is nursing a litter of three, and the imported bitch "Teviotdale Daisy" is caring for a litter of four. Both these litters are by "Ch. Grouse O'Balgownie" who is a son of the English Champion "Brestonian Venture." "Hallows Sally" is busy with a litter of three sired by the "Laird O'Balgownie." I understand the latter dog has been sold to Miss D. Flickings of Richmond Beach, U.S.A. "Ch. Grouse O'Balgownie" is also the daddy of a litter of seven which have just arrived at the kennel of Mrs. C. B. Melchois, Seattle.

A. W. (Sandy) Forbes of Tacoma, is very enthusiastic over a litter of two dogs and one bitch from his recently imported "Wire" "Eden Sunshade." This little bitch was sent out from England by our old friend John McMann and was bred before shipment to that great dog "Eden Knockout" and this litter is the result. "Sandy" says they are nice hound marked puppies with lots of bone and substance, and very promising.

Another recruit to the ranks of the Scottie fanciers is George Lydiatt of Vancouver. Recently he purchased from E. Hill of the Secord Kennels, Victoria, a young bitch, "Secord Tar Baby." George has always had a weakness for Scotties and I understand this breed will now share his kennel with the well known "Redcliffe" Wires. Some time ago he purchased from the Malibu Kennels a very promising young dog, a son of Int. "Ch. Talavera Toddler" which no doubt he will be using for stud purposes. I also understand George has purchased a bitch in Eastern Canada.

We wish to congratulate Mr. Hill of the Secord Kennels on the completion of the championship of his Scottie "Bruce O'Balgownie." This dog is certainly worthy of his championship, for he is game to the core, a good showman, and possess great bone and substance, he is siring some real Scotties.

Jack Mann of Vancouver is to be congratulated on his success at the recent Everett Show, with his home-bred "Wire" bitch. He came home with the Reserve Winners ribbon which is a honour to be proud of, for I am informed the competition was amongst all "top notchers."

In the usual monthly news letter from Jack Cottle of Nanaimo he informs me that Reese Jones has just disposed of a very promising young English Setter to Mr. Davies of Vancouver. He also informs me that Reese has now over fifty sporting dogs in his well known "Harewood Kennels" and amongst them is a young blue belton English Setter of which the scribes say, is one of the most promising ever bred in B.C. This Welshman certainly knows how to breed sporting dogs. Jack Esatham the President of the Nanaimo Club is apparently in strong for Cockers, for the latest news is that he has purchased a stud from Mrs. Stewart of Chemainus. Bill Willgress (Big Bill) and Tom Barnard both obtained their limit of grouse on the opening day of the season, over Bill's pointer "Granby May," and Tom's well known English Setter. These Nanaimo boys have little use for other than dual purpose dogs. Jack Cottle has sold another of his famous Irish Setters to a client in Vernon. This one was purchased to replace one that was killed by a "Speed Artist" on the highway.

E. W. Cole of Cowichan Station, B.C. is to be congratulated on the sale of one of his Irish Setters to the King of Siam. This young dog was bred by him, and his sire was "Northfield Irish Boy" and his dam "Ruby of Avoca." For many years Mr. Cole has been a faithful fancier of the "Red Jacket" and he is certainly deserving of the honour of supplying Royalty with one from his well known "Sunnyside" Kennel, and we hope this sale will result in many more for this good fancier. I understand the purchasing agent for His Royal Highness looked over many kennels, in many parts, but it remained for Mr. Cole to be in the position of supplying the right specimen and to bring this honor to himself and to Vancouver Island.

Captain Straffe of Qualicum, B.C., a recent arrival from England and a keen fancier of the "Wire," has purchased a brother of the Irish Setter sold to the King of Siam, from Mr. Cole, doubtless he intends to make use of him with the gun. I understand this gentleman intends to found a kennel of "Wires" just as soon as he has got settled in his new abode. That good lady fancier of the Pekingese, Mrs. C. M. Castle has just added further laurels to her kennel by winning Best of Breed at the recent Everett Show with her home-bred Canadian Champion "Mousmee of Shantung." This bitch is reputed to possess just about as perfect a head as it is possible to obtain, and her recent win places her very close to international honors.

Lieutenant Commander Laurie has just arrived in Victoria, accompanied by his Wire dog "Warraw Demon" who did considerable winning at the Canadian National Exhibition at Toronto. This fancier intends to start a kennel of this breed.

Dr. W. F. Daw of Victoria reports the sale of a young lemon belton English Setter "Shot Over D" a son of "Racketts Nell" and two puppies by the imported "Mallwyd Monarch" ex "Racketts Nell" to Mr. Lloyd Reeves of Huntingdon Valley, Pa. Also that "Monte Carlo Topsy" is nursing a litter by "Mallwyd Monarch" one of which is already sold and will be shipped to a client near Buffalo when old enough to travel. Stock from this kennel appears to be in steady demand by our cousins to the South.

Mrs. Drury of Chemainus reports the arrival of a litter of Sealyhams to "Stormy Petrol" sired by the imported "Borlick Joker."

That good little Boston bitch "Lady Dazzler" has been purchased from Mrs. Gilroy by Mrs. Lalonde of Victoria. This bitch is a great producer and will doubtless in due time be mated to the kennel stud "Ch. Mushon Peter Blink." Such a mating should result in some interesting Bostons.

Mrs. Buckley and Mrs. Wood both of Victoria apparently intend going in very strongly for Cocker Spaniels, for they have each purchased a young bitch from Mrs. Roman's well known kennel in Seattle. I believe these puppies were sired by "Ch. Sands Spring Red Rust" the dog that went Best of Breed against thirty others at the last Victoria Show. Mrs. Buckley has been an ardent fancier of the Cocker for some time, but this is Mrs. Wood's first venture with this breed, at least with registered stock, and we hope their new purchases will turn out as good as they now promise.

Bert Pritchett is very pleased with his latest litter of Bostons sired by "Ch. Mushon Peter Blink" ex "Hi Born Stepout." Bert says they are very promising puppies and worthy of carrying the "Hi Born" prefix.

The Wen Lew Pekingese Kennels of Vancouver report a good season for sales, some of the best from the nursery department having been retained for the next season's campaigns. "Stolen Kisses of Wen Lew," the only Peke from the kennel appearing at this year's shows was successful in winning the honors in four times out of his five starts. At the recent Shawnigan Show he was placed reserve, to his one time kennel mate "Wen Lew Tip Pee."

Mr. and Mrs. G. Stock are retaining three puppies by "Stolen Kisses" out of "Wen Lew Wonderess" to establish his abiding confidence in line breeding. "Ch. Ockley Pippy" has presented her owners with three nice puppies by "Stolen Kisses," and as this breeding represents the old Ah Ling and Chinatown strains these youngsters are particularly prized.

When it is remembered that there are six stud dogs, and eleven brood females sporting the "Wen Lew" colors, the many splendid wins made at past shows will be easily understood.

WELL! WELL! WELL!

From the daily press we cull the following:

"Maple Spring Boddie Boy," a five-year-old English Bulldog, owned in Baltimore, has been selected by Yale University experts as the outstanding representative of its breed, and after death it will be preserved in the University Museum of Natural History. The owner, Carey W. Lindsay, once refused $10,000 for the dog."

Surely this is another feather in Canada's already well decorated Bulldog cap, for the reason that this outstanding animal was bred by A. J. Winterton, Uxbridge, Ont. Fawn, born June 12th, 1926, and was sired by "Regal-aunt" (Imp.) ("Irish Alaunt" ex "Valiant Vivacity") and out of "Maple Spring Lady Zetta," who was also bred by Mr. Winterton, so that, not only did Mr. Winterton breed the great Bulldog "Maple Spring Boddie Boy," he also bred the dog's dam, so we should readily imagine that this paragraph will give him quite a little thrill.

Ted Gunderson, Ottawa, who sent us the clipping, says: "Every time the illustrious professors of Yale University, together with their enraptured students, gaze upon and study this mummified masterpiece in the days to come, they will be reminded that it was a "Canadian-bred and that it was Canadian-born." Mr. Gunderson is right, and Canadian breeders of Bulldogs when they read this and recall the achievements of that other great Bulldog, "Prince of Wales 2nd," who first was a champion in Canada, then became a champion in the United States, and then, as if he had said, "I fear no foe in shining armor," he went over to the "Land of his Sires" and made himself a champion there.

The two instances here referred to should instil confidence and encouragement into every Canadian breeder of Bulldogs, so that Canadian-bred Bulldogs may continue to retain their place of distinction in Bulldogdom on the American continent.

WHAT SIZE COCKERS?

WELL folks, we are again back to the old question of whether our type of Cocker should be smaller or the American type larger. For the next two or three months Cocker fanciers will have the opportunity of offering criticisms for either larger or smaller Cockers as the case may be. However, this month, we propose to give you the different opinions of judges and breeders. Let us have your opinion as soon as you can so that we may have a full discussion on the only item or bone-of-contention that is heard at nearly every show north of the boundary. Upon examining the standards of both countries, we find that the Canadian Standard calls for the weight to be not under 23 pounds and not exceeding 28 pounds, whereas the standard size as recognized by the Spaniel Club of America calls for the weight to be not under 18 pounds and not exceeding 24 pounds.

The following opinions are for your perusal, and after reading these, do not be a back slider and sit back and knock—come forward with your opinions as they will be greatly appreciated.

First we offer Mrs. A. R. Moffit's opinion.

"It is not a question of whether the dog is a little large or a little small provided that he is within our weight limits of eighteen to twenty-four pounds. It is a matter of balance in my opinion. In order to arrive at more uniformity of type throughout the continent it is absolutely necessary that the East should meet West, both at shows and in suitable exchange or bloodlines, and up until now the failure to do this has resulted in the fact that the East and the West, in the matter of type, do not speak the same language. This, certainly, in my point of view, is all wrong, and I see in the establishment of specialty clubs an outlook for a change in these conditions."

Charles Hopton's opinion.

MRS. PAUL R. HANSON

"Cocker Spaniels are in the limelight just now with quite a few supporting the writer in his views for an increase in weight, so that more length of neck, cleaner shoulders and an improvement in hind quarters may be obtained if we get away from the old-fashioned stamp, around 22 pounds, with its heavy skull, short neck and weak quarters.

The weights in America are not under 18, not exceeding 24 pounds. However, it is most gratifying to see a marked improvement in type and size, with the majority of the winners well up to the limit and showing longer neck, cleaner shoulders and a bend at the hocks that enhance action."

C. S. Ireland of London, offers the following opinion.

"As for the weight question, I think 26 pounds is the ideal weight if we get the proper conformation with it. I had one that was exactly 26 pounds and to me he was ideal as a field and bench dog."

H. E. Mellenthin's opinion.

"I do not think there is anything much better than the American Standard of 18 to 24 pounds. I dare say that at your show there was at least ten to twelve Cockers that weighed under 23 pounds and at least two, that I know of, that have done considerable winning, were over 28 pounds.

I have also noticed and kept track of the dogs that have done all the winning in Field Trials, and under heavy cover. Last year I won the puppy stake with a dog that weighed 21½ pounds in Field shape and would probably weigh 24 pounds in good flesh. The Cocker that has done more winning than any other here in the Field is "Rowcliff War Dance." "War

Dance" did not weigh over twenty-two pounds at any time. Last year's winning Champion Field Trial Dog, "Rowcliffe Gallant" did not weigh an ounce over 23 pounds. "Speck," the Cocker that Judge Scudder imported from England, and who was a Champion in England, and also won the Open All Age Stake here, I had at my place for breeding and she weighed just 22 pounds; so I do not see the advantages of having the big ones. They certainly do not make better house dogs, and if they are no better in the Field, I certainly think a twenty-four pound dog looks far better than a twenty-eight or thirty pound dog. This, of course, is just my personal opinion, but I know years ago the good Cockers that came from Canada such as "Pony Obo," and "Dunbar," everyone was satisfied with them. I personally believe the Cocker Spaniel Club of Canada would be better off if they stuck to the American Spaniel Club standard."

Do you remember the two enthusiastic St. John, N.B. fanciers, Bliss Smith and Louis McC. Ritchie? No! well, you remember Ch. "Sir Namgis" (C.K.C.S.B. 21381), the Black and White Parti? I thought so, well now your on the right track. Yes, folks and "Sir Namgis," who was a Mepal Ottawa, Overcross combination was a wow at the shows in his day and won from Nova Scotia to Hamilton over 30 championship points from his debut as a puppy in 1918 to his retiral in 1924. Bred by G. W. Sigman, Springfield, L.I., sold to Bliss Smith, who sold to his friend, Louis McC. Ritchie, so now you have all the dope, but Bliss Smith has induced Louis to buy a black Cocker from H. E. Mellenthin of Poughkeepsie, N.Y., and, — come in closer—Mr. Ritchie's purchase is a litter brother to "The Great My Own," "Mepals Marching On" and the dog that "Mell" gave you an eyeful of at the Canadian National. We may have this dog in Toronto for Stud purposes, but nothing definite in that respect at this writing. Anyway we welcome Messrs. Smith and Ritchie to our Cocker section.

Dick Heppleston reports a nice litter by "Romilla" and another by "Stormcloud," the latter all reds. He wants to know how it happened, both sire and dam solid blacks. You tell him, I pass.

Dick Heppleston's letter this month was a knock-out, in fact it was a wow. He must stay awake at nights thinking them up. This is one of his — What (Billy) Price this Cocker column?

You will remember I told you last month that I had heard of the sale of Nelson Duckett's "Wayridge Miracle Lad," well, I'm glad to tell you now that it was just as I said it was a hearsay. Well I'm glad to tell you now that this fine Cocker is still in Nelson's Kennels, Mr. Duckett having resisted the temptation to sell and an attractive offer was refused, therefore, we have still the opportunity to use the dog—and we stand to profit by so doing.

GET 'EM READY FOR NEW YORK

The canine classic of the year, the annual show of the Westminster Kennel Club, will be held in Madison Square Garden on February 11, 12 and 13. Although that date is months away, the list of judges for the show had been drawn up and work of preparing a record list of cash prizes and trophies is well under way. Because of its tremendous interest to dog fanciers, the judging list is announced as far in advance as possible.

As given out at the offices of the club, the list of judges for the coming show is "All American." It does go north to Vancouver to include one of the best known Canadian all-arounders, but at this show there are to be no judges from Europe. A number of professionals and many of the leading amateur judges in this country appear on the list of those who are to make the awards.

Announced by John G. Bates, chairman of the club's bench show committee, the judges for the fifty-sixth annual show of the Westminster organization are headed by Justice Townsend Scudder of Glen Head, L.I., who will make the most important dog show award of the year, "Best in the show at New York." In addition to this decision he will give the ribbons to the English Springers, Welsh Springers, Clumber, Irish Water, Sussex and Field Spaniels. The other group judges are Charles W. Barney of New Bedford, Mass., Hounds; W. T. Payne of Kingston, Pa., Gun-dogs; W. H. Pym of Vancouver, B.C., Working Dogs; R. H. Johnson, Jr., of Chestnut Hill, Pa., Terriers; Mrs. E. H. Berendsohn of Brooklyn, Toys; and Otto Gross of Fair Oaks, Pa., Non-Sporting Dogs.

Judges in the regular classes include

NOTES FROM MANITOBA

By Provincial Contributing Editor,
W. B. R. KNOWLES, Winnipeg, Man.

PAGE 27 of the October issue of Kennel and Bench contains a correction relative to my report of the purchase of a Scottish Terrier by George Kynoch. I wish to thank the author of the correction for the very courteous manner in which it was worded. But I must say, by way of explanation that the fault was mine. After the September notes had been sent to Toronto, Mr. Kynoch said to me, "Doc, you got the wrong name for my Scottie. It should have been 'Normandy Airth' not 'Normandy Ascot.'" I said in reply, "Well, I'll correct the error in my next notes." Now, if I had made a note of the dog's name instead of trusting to memory, the two corrections would have been in the Editor's office at the same time. When I was writing my notes and wished to make the correction I called up the "Silverdale Kennels" only to be told that George was out of town. And all the time I have been wondering just what induced Arthur Wright of Edmonton to dispose of "Normandy Airth" because he was awarded 1st Novice, 1st Canadian-bred, Limit Dogs, 1st Open Dogs, Winners Dogs and Best of Breed at the Canadian National Exhibition show held in Toronto. Is "Normandy Ascot" a better dog than "Normandy Airth." If so, Mr. Wright is to be congratulated on his Scotties and we would like to see the owner of "Normandy Ascot" with his dog during the next show season.

Harold Bentley reports that he has had quite a large number of enquiries relative to his advertisement which appeared on page 13 of the September issue of Kennel and Bench. The beautiful Orange Pomeranian "Ch. Sandhill's Gold Puff" (Imp) and the Red Pekinese "Shue Shan of Cromwell" are the object of the enquiries, several of which have come in from the United States.

Several parties composed of members of our Kennel Clubs have availed themselves of the short open season for Prairie Chicken this year, after several years of "closed season." Some who have returned report birds plentiful and not too wild. E. Chevrier's four recent imported Springer Spaniels were taken out with one party and are reported to be splendid dogs to shoot over. The English Springer Spaniels have recently been imported from Scotland in which country they were trained.

And at this season of the year of glorious Autumn days, the chill of early morning and evening should remind us that winter is lurking in the background. The winter quarters of our dogs should be examined and made comfortable in order that too much extra food is not required to supply body heat instead of nourishment. This extra food given in the winter, is unnecessary if the dog's quarters are warm, and furthermore such unnecessary food taxes the digestive system and such a condition is certainly undesirable.

Collies.

Mr. Stokes reports that "Cambusnethan Model" has an exceptionally good litter of four puppies sired by "Ch. Lord Clyde." The foundation of the Cambusnethan Kennels is of the best imported stock, so we expect to see something really good at the next shows, more especially so, because they are under the care of Mrs. Stokes an enthusiastic, and experienced fancier. Mr. Stokes also reports he has acquired "Elmhill Black Lulu" and that she is in whelp to "Cambusnethan Aristocrat."

English Bulldogs.

George Kynoch reports the sale of a puppy by "Ch. Markus Samson" to Jack Kerr.

Boston Terriers.

Mrs. Skue's "Ch. Roselawn Dandy Boy" female is nursing a litter of seven puppies (6 males, 1 female) by "Winchester Joycaster." Mrs. Gerard's female "Trixie" by "Ch. Winchester Aviator" is nursing a litter of puppies by "Winchester Joycaster." George Duncan reports the sale of the following: a female by "Ch. Trapystok Personality" ex "Atabara Betty" to "Bob" Kirk, a male puppy by "Ch. Trapystok Personality" ex "Trapystok Betty" to J. R. Cannon, and a male puppy to Sgt. Dawson of the air force by "Ch. Trapystok Personality" ex "Trapystok Bonny."

German Shepherd Dogs.

S. Guzniak's "Olga von Backman" has a litter of nice puppies by "Jerry von Lost." The writer has sold a female to S. Tretiak.

Manitoba notes are necessarily few in number this month, made so by my removal to another part of Winnipeg. Will fanciers who have any notes please forward the same to me at 249 Ruby St., or phone 37829.

BULL TERRIER CLUB OF NEW ENGLAND

This young club held its third monthly meeting on September 3rd at the University Club of Boston. The large attendance was sufficient to show the interest in the "White 'Uns" which prevails in New England.

Frank T. Eskrigge (whom many of our fanciers met at the Ladies' Kennel Club show held at Montreal recently), gave a most interesting address on "The Psychology of Dog Shows," which was thoroughly appreciated. And at the Clubs next meeting the veteran breeder-judge will demonstrate, —from two live dogs—how to appraise quality, and how to penalize faults in the judging ring. That there will be a capacity attendance to hear the views of Mr. Smith, the man who drew a record entry of the breed to Westminster Show in 1930, and the man whose opinions are so highly valued amongst the sponsors of the breed, there is no question.

SOUNDNESS IN DOGS

Dr. C. Y. Ford reminds us that it has been his privilege for many years to stand at the ringside at many shows as a looker-on, and to occasionally be found inside the ring judging the dogs himself, experiences which have impressed him with the growing tendencies of unsoundness, too many dogs being shown with straight hocks, stilty action, poor muscular development, and the consequent lack of freedom of action in the animal.

In the Doctor's opinion, a dog should move as freely as the hackney horse, and any deficiencies of structure lead to unsoundness. The craze for everything from the body forward is alleged to be ruining many breeds, and the custom of having dogs running around in a circle, straining and snarling and generally not themselves at all, is declared to be out-of-date, and indeed quite obsolete in the Doctor's opinion.

Any dog entered for a show in the regular manner, should, in fairness to the owner that has paid the entrance fees, etc., have his dog carefully examined and put through his paces individually, and be given every chance to show his quality, a practice which Dr. Ford would like to see become general in 1932.

Saskatchewan News and Notes

SASKATCHEWAN is doing her best to cheer and brighten the lives of so many who are suffering from unemployment and depression, by giving us such splendid weather, a wonderful harvest season, with glorious sunshine day after day. Thanksgiving day this year was all that could be desired and folks were able to enjoy the day to the fullest extent.

Temperatures change rapidly and the change can be seen on the people. The greatest change noticed on some of our people occurred when we received a communication from Mr. Brown, Regina Canine Societies, Secretary, stating that the show planned for Boxing Day had been cancelled. The enthusiasm shown by many of the Moose Jaw boys was suddenly killed. Many were looking forward to this Xmas event, coming at a time when things are usually quiet and making a break in the long winter days.

Prevailing conditions, no doubt, caused the Regina society to make the decision, and we hope the deferred show may be staged at a later date. It will be remembered, that the last Matinee Show put on by the Canine Society was a huge success and we believe that Regina will be well patronized when they stage the next licenced event.

This month we are pleased to furnish a picture taken at Sandy Beach near Sebret, Sask. The group consists of a number of Regina fanciers and friends, in the background can be seen the trees and a portion of the lake which extends for about 100 miles. The party were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Baker of Regina, who are fortunate in having a summer cottage at this beauty spot. The cottage is appropriately named—Letus Lodge—after a 60 mile trip from Regina the picnics, took every possible advantage of the day.

By Provincial Contributing Editor,
W. W. RIOME, Moose Jaw, Sask.

Some went boating and fishing, others rested in the shade of the trees, watching the water fowl of which there is every variety, enjoying life and showing little signs of fear.

When the shooting season opens, and they hear the guns, and smell the powder their attitude towards man will be entirely different. While most of the folk were having a good time, our host and hostess were concerned about our further comfort, and at noon tables were set in the open and we all enjoyed a hearty lunch. At twilight supper was served, and we had an old fashioned sing song accompanied by "Archie" Semple on the guitar. I've never heard the old folk songs sound nicer than they did in the quiet of the woodland. Mr. and Mrs. Baker were warmly thanked for their kindness and the cars headed for home. Happy memories were added to past happy memories, and a desire to return next year was warmly expressed.

In response to a warm invitation from Galwey-Foley of Qu'Appelle the writer and Mrs. Riome spent a happy week end at the Fort. It would be hard for me to describe this great country, with its miles of towering hills and wooded valleys cut through with a hundred miles of lake.

Someone will say, what has this to do with dogs, but this is just where we like to enjoy our dogs, and while we can't all live in such lovely places we appreciate the opportunity of visiting and spending the day with such men as Galwey-Foley and his circle of friends. We commented on the Galwey-Foley dogs last month but to go and actually see the dogs is a different matter. First of all we saw a bunch of five Labrador Retriever puppies about six months old, these were all steady and obedient, and retrieving like veterans. "Bang" the Labrador that is so well known both here and in the United States for his great abilities happened to be at the kennel on the day. "Bang" would lay at his masters feet and watch the puppies with a critical eye, asking that he might be allowed to show them how to do this and that quicker and better and in the case of one of them making an error "Bang" would be sent to perform the duty. "Bang" took every opportunity allowed him to demonstrate his ability. "Bang" has since left with his wealthy sporting owner to spend some of his time in the U.S.A. We sometimes wonder how it is the other fellow collects such nice big cheques, but it is the handling, and the training that counts here.

There are other men and hunting dogs at Fort Qu'Appelle that we would like to mention. We visited Mr. Hill and looked over his Chesapeake, an Irish Setter too of rare quality and remarkable field ability. We would like to have met Mr. Leader who owns a hunting lodge at the point, but time would not permit, this veteran of over "Three score years and ten" is still active and entertains notables from all over the country during the hunting season. A man who knows the Western woods, forests and lakes his judgment is eagerly sought and visitors appreciate a few days spent here. Mrs. Leader is a great cook and adds to the pleasure of the company with the duck suppers served in a way only known to herself. Mr. Leader's son, a middle aged man, has spent most of his life as a guide and hunter and he too looks to the hunting season for his harvest, we did not see his dogs but he has a few good ones.

A happy group of Regina fanciers "out for the day" at Sandy Beach.

About four o'clock in the afternoon we were surprised with a visit from Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Semple, who had taken advantage of the nice day and motored to the Fort to see our host before he left. We spent a couple of hours at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hillier, who had invited the party to supper. Too bad that Moose Jaw was 100 miles away from this particular home for we had to break away and so terminate our visit. Once more we wish Galwey-Foley renewed health and a speedy return to Canada after his holiday to his old home in Ireland.

What an addition we could make to the entries of our dog shows if we could only get, and keep in touch, with these dog owners scattered all over our province and other provinces.

The East lost to the West when Mr. and Mrs. Leonard decided to come west and make their home in Regina. We welcome Mr. and Mrs. Leonard to our province and wish them every success. We are glad to know they are fanciers and have brought a couple of Chows along to the new home. One of the puppies, we understand, is from Montreal and the other from California. Regina has not been largely represented in Chows in the past, so we hope these new fanciers will build up a kennel and boost the breed in the Queen City.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Moore will be glad to know of the arrival of more Chow enthusiasts. Charlie's old champion has often been the only entry at the shows here, and the haughty old warrior seemed to say, "Look me over, I'm the only 'celestial' here."

A. M. Defoe of Eatonville kindly sends a few snaps of his Wire "Rip Van Winkle." Rip has a promising future, by his description, and also from his picture. His owner is anxiously awaiting an opportunity to see him do his stuff in the show ring.

Mrs. Gladys Johnston of Glenavon Farm, Lone Rock, Sask., finds time during the rush of harvest season to send a most interesting letter and pictures of her Collies. We saw "Betty of Glenavon" at Moose Jaw this year, and she was a winner. A snap of "Sandy Mac of Glenavon" at 10 months, shows a very nice specimen. "Mac" is considered one of the best ever bred at this kennel and next season Mrs. Johnston hopes to find time to visit the shows and to exhibit her collies. This is the spirit we all like to see.

more news from C. B. Brownridge, a breeder of Newfoundlands. Although Mr. Brownridge has never exhibited any of his dogs in the past we trust he will do so in the future. There are several breeders now in Saskatchewan and competition should be good and help to firmly establish this noble breed. What an imposing sight to see a large entry of Newfoundlands in the ring, it would soon double our gate money and further popularize this splendid breed. One of the dogs bred by Mr. Brownridge was shown at Edmonton by his new owner and secured several first prizes and Reserve Winners. He is a grandson of "Ch. Knight of Drummond."

Thanks Mr. Brownridge for your good wishes for the success of the "Saskatchewan Page."

Changing conditions and pressure of business has caused our friend "Bob" Hogg, late of Punnichy, to give up showing at the last few shows. For years he has been a regular exhibitor and always at, or close to the top. The last we heard of Mr. Hogg was at Saskatoon last Good Friday, where his Airedale bitch "Ch. Miss Winnitoba" went to Best of Breed. "Ch. Punnichy Queen," "Ch. Punnichy Squire" and "Ch. Punnichy Pat" are other Airedales that were the product of "Bobs" kennels, two promising puppies are coming along and bid fair to bring other championship certificates to the Hogg home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Pope of Regina get a heap of pleasure out of their Springer female "Lakeview Lady" she is by "Ch. Corsletts-Son-of-a-Gun." Lady is a tireless retriever. H. C. is hoping to get a litter from Lady this fall.

Mrs. Winnifred King writes to say her Pekingese had decided that the Fall was not a good time to raise a family. We know Mrs. King will be very disappointed at the turn of events, for this litter was to be the one where the next year's champions was to come from.

We were glad to receive word of our friend Alf Ashby, late of Saskatoon, and now residing in Toronto, and this is where the West loses to the East this time.

Alf reluctantly parted with his dogs in Saskatoon. We know it will not be long before a new kennel is started in Toronto.

Mutual Kennels were favored with a visit from three very important looking little folks, but so haughty, and dignified, that the other inmates of the kennel just greeted the visitors with growls and scowls. Mrs. Ruth Corby, late of Hudson Bay Junction, who is holidaying in Moose Jaw, found time to pay us a visit. Mrs. Corby is very enthusiastic over her three Pekingese females, and she has every reason to be proud of such a classy trio. The American-bred "Lucky Lady," is a charming biscuit with black mask. She was bred by Mrs. Jordon of California. Lady is sired by "Kadio T San," and out of "Tang Hula of Idylwyld." Her two lovely daughters now about 15 months old were sired by "Hioo."

The latter two are reds with black masks, and they are hard to tell apart, the biscuit colored "Lucky Lady" is the favorite, the others are equally as good, and any one of them are likely to make history if ever they get a chance to be shown.

We understand the two reds will be left in Moose Jaw with Mrs. Stewart and in due course will be bred to the best studs obtainable.

From letters received and visits made we feel there is lots of enthusiasm among the breeders. We feel too, there are sales to be made, if folks know just where to buy? How often do we hear of purchases made from other cities when they probably would have been made in the home town if people only knew such stock was to be had. How often we meet people interested in dogs, even breeding them, and have

LADIES' KENNEL CLUB FOR TORONTO

For some considerable time past we have been hearing rumours of a club for Ladies being started in Toronto, however the matter has now got beyond the rumour stage, and a well attended meeting of lady fanciers was held at the Prince George Hotel, Toronto, on October 13th, when possibilities were discussed and plans reviewed and a temporary list of officers named to take care of matters at this stage of formation.

We understand that charter members will be restricted to fifty, and that a list of special prizes have been prepared, and will be offered to the National Kennel Club Show for competition in connection with the "Royal Show" to be held on November 23rd to 25th.

There is plenty of room in Toronto for such a club; indeed there is room for such a club in every large city in Canada, and we point with pleasure to the continued successes, and to the many desirable activities sponsored by The Ladies' Kennel Club at Montreal in justification of our belief in this respect. We hope to give further particulars regarding this Ladies' Club in our next issue.

BOSTON TERRIER CLUB OF TORONTO SPECIALTY

When a specialty club sets a mark at "100 dogs" it is a sure indication that they are aiming for the limit in every direction, and when success crowns the effort there is good cause for jubilation. It was quite interesting to notice the plans for the 1931 fixture develop. The holiday coming earlier than expected, meant that the plans had to be well in hand if success was to be assured, and in this respect there was no noticeable sign of rush—a condition that was to be expected in a club where every member is always "on scratch," when the Club's annual show is the paramount consideration.

With commendable justification a local man in the person of Earl A. Brown, of the noted "Our" and "Highball" prefixes was chosen as judge, and his work has been described by one well qualified to give an opinion, as fearless, honest and conscientious, and when a judge knows his work, and earns for himself such an approbation, then the show receiving his services can hardly fail to be anything less than a complete success. To judge over 40 classes, which have been filled from 101 dogs actually benched, is a task that might well try to the very foundation the qualities of the man attempting it, and when the classification peculiar to Boston Terriers, with its three weight divisions is considered, such a task becomes really gigantic in its proportions. The judge is to be complimented on the manner of his work, and the club is to be congratulated for its faith in the home talent, and for their courage in having the show judged by one of themselves.

About 85 per cent of the dogs entered were born in Canada, the remainder coming from the U.S.A. and the quality of the show generally was quite outstanding. The dogs from the South had their fair share of the "spoils," but it is quite encouraging to find the "balance of power" remaining in Canada—a circumstance that justifies the many flattering remarks, uttered so generously from time to time by prominent authorities from the United States.

Best of Breed was found in our Canadian-bred, Molson Kennels' (Jim Lane), Toronto, Int. "Ch. Highball Miss Canada" (Ch. Highball Just It. ex Lanes' Betty). Mr. Lane takes a lot of pride in this sweet bitch, and likes to remember that he bred her dam himself.

The Winners Dog, Myrtle M. Dellft's "Dellft's Hagerty" ("Rex Hagerty," ex "Ima Little Baby"), is a dog that has Championship honors coming his way, and Reserve Winners, Molson Kennels' "Salerings King" ("Ch. Ringmount King O' the Avenue," ex "Lady Mandora Fun"), has his Championship almost within his grasp even now.

Winners Bitch, W. A. Empsall's "Snowball Just Right" ("Ch. Highball Just It," ex "Starlight Trixie"), not long out of her puppyhood, made such a start at this show, that our best judges will be sure to notice her when she steps on the block at future shows. Reserve, Alfred Patchell's "Hagerty's Naughty Girl," ex "Sally Girl VI" is sure to be a strong contender for the best ribbons when she makes up her mind to go after them.

The annual banquet was a feature of the proceedings as usual, and it made a welcome break in the day's proceedings which was greatly appreciated. The President, Mr. Sim, in his happy style, soon had those joining the feast forgetting the strenuous day, and the speakers were very complimentary in their remarks, and many a well deserved tribute was expressed specifically naming the Club, its officers, and the Club's vigorous activities. After dinner, the judging was resumed, and when the time came for putting the dogs in their crates, the exhibitors left in high spirits after proclaiming the show to be one of the best ever held in the history of the Club.

NEWS FROM OLD QUEBEC

By Provincial Contributing Editor

FRED LA RUE

St. Martin, P.Q.

TALKING about depression and people out of work, why don't Canadian Kennel Club members who are out of work try their hand at taking subscriptions for Kennel and Bench. Two dollars a year, or two years for three dollars, this is the lowest subscription price of any dog magazine in America. Write to "ye editor" for commission terms and you "may be surprised." Needless to say you must take as a sample number, one that is full of doggie pictures. I succeeded in having six pictures of dogs from this Province inserted in the October issue.

Every member should send the picture of at least one winning dog (not necessarily his own) to this magazine, and also to take at least, one new subscriber every year. Each little drop counts in "the big sea of good-will" which bears the name of Canadian Kennel Club.

I received some news from Sherbrooke last month which were mailed from that most hospitable city on the 21st. As my own notes have to reach Toronto not later than the 20th, such notes were too late for the October number. However, it will still interest the admirers of the Springer Spaniel to hear that "Belmoss Jacqueline", owned by Raymond Beale of Buffalo, N.Y., finished her American Championships at Syracuse, N.Y., and is consequently now an International Champion. Moreover, she is bound to produce international champions in quick time, as she has been bred to Mr. Placey's Triple International Champion, "Inveresk Collyshot." Mr. Beale is also the owner of a very promising blue Roan male, "Belmoss Cocksure," sired by "Inveresk Chancellor."

Recently at Hamburg, N.Y. this dog, under that most popular Springer Judge, Enno Meyer, went to best of breed, best sporting and pretty nearly got best in show.

Colonel and Mrs. Paul Hanson of Westmount, Que., are bound to take a prominent place in our sport when they start and show the most promising puppies which "Belmoss Aberline" rewarded them with, after she had been bred to the Triple Champion, "Inveresk Collyshot."

Montreal is making a bid to beat Sherbrooke in the Springer Spaniel Field and Bench Shows in 1932, as Dr. Chas. B. Baker's "Belmoss Critic" has

Speaking of Sherbrooke, one is bound to think of Springers, but Mrs. J. P. Donovan has boldly stepped into the Terrier breeding game with such success that the Eastern Township will soon be a nest of terrier winners.

C. S. Ives has purchased from the above named lady, the Wire-Hair Fox Terrier, "Donovan's Contender," which Carl says will give the good ones a hard run for top honors.

Besides being a good show specimen, Mr. Ives' pup has been trained to do all kinds of tricks and is bound to put Mr. Placey's Springer to shame as a trained dog. And that is saying quite a lot as Mr. Placey talks to his dogs just as he does to humans, and they all seem to know what it is all about when Placey has the floor.

CANADIAN FOX TERRIER ASSOCIATION SPECIALTY SHOW

For the first time in history this energetic young club will try its strength at holding a licensed show on Saturday, December 12th, 1931, when the stage will be turned over to Fox Terriers of both coats. To Bert Roberts has been given the responsibilities of show secretary, and already he is hustling towards the goal of making the fixture the success the Club will want it to be. In this he will be supported by a committee of five.

The location of the show has not yet been declared, nor has the judge been named at the time of writing, but these items will be easy for Mr. Roberts and his co-workers. And Fox Terrier fanciers will be well advised to get their dogs in shape for the raising of the curtain, because no stone will be left unturned to make the Club's first specialty show a real advertisement for future activities, and it is anticipated that some of the real "live wires" and live Smooths too, from the United States and Canada will meet and compete for "the honors" on December 12th.

THE "OLD JOHN PEEL" TERRIER

One of the latest additions to the list of breeds recognized by the Canadian Kennel Club is the Lakeland Terrier, a breed that has been recognized by the Kennel Club, England, a breed that has been allocated Championship certificates for the first time in the "Old Land," and these will have been competed for at the most recent kennel club show which was held at the Crystal Palace, London, on October 7th and 8th, where an entry of over 40 was recently declared.

Mrs. Graham Spence of Allswater, Penrith has been a definite force in sponsoring the breed, and it is hopefully anticipated that popularity awaits the breed immediately after the closing of the Kennel Club Show.

Given the name that has been officially recognized, the breed will henceforth be known as the Lakeland Terrier, and already we have adopted a male and female of the breed in Canada, this was made possible when W. B. Cleland of Troy, Ont., visited Scotland recently became enamoured with the breed, and before leaving for Canada, he had a pair shipped home. The male is "Egton Paddy" (C.K.C. S.B. 96947) a blue and tan, bred by Mrs. Graham Spence, and the female "Chloe," a black and tan bred by W. Watson, and the writer having seen these smart, comely little terriers can find no fault with Mr. Cleland's canine tastes. Their noses must be phenomenally keen, as a crab apple picked up at random in the orchard, and thrown as far as possible, landing amongst hundreds of others "Paddy" or "Chloe" make no mistakes, the thrown apple is invariably retrieved and brought back by one or the other of the dogs, and the animal failing to get the apple first will return as proud as punch, apparently satisfied to know that the job has been completed satisfactorily between them, if two apples are thrown both are promptly retrieved.

It is known that "Chloe" has been bred since her arrival in Canada, and this may interfere with Mr. Cleland's plans at the present time, he had planned to exhibit both dogs at the Royal Winter Fair.

The Lakeland Terrier is closely related to the Border Terrier, and came originally from the Black and Tan Terrier and the Terrier which has always been associated with the Lake District Packs from the hills of Basethwaite to the Jaws of Borrowdale, and every pack in this mountainous district has several couples of Lakeland Terriers, and use them for bolting foxes when they go on ground among the rocks, and for this reason they are not bred too short in the legs, as they have to travel long distances, and have to be able to get up and down ledges that are often found in the lairs and dens when they are put in after the fox, and we are not surprised to learn that the huntsmen in the Lakeland claim that he is the gamest bit of dog flesh that ever was whelped. Mr. Cleland not only subscribes to that sentiment, he swears by it, and in truth we confess, that he has every visible justification for his confidence, the breed seems to be a happy go lucky, hard bitten type of Terrier.

A Lakeland Terrier Association was formed in 1921, and the following stand was drawn up for the guidance of breeders:

STANDARD

Colour—Blue, blue and tan, black and tan, red mustard, wheaten, grizzle and black; white predominant to disqualify. Weight—Dog not to exceed 17 lb.; bitch not to exceed 16 lb. Height—Not to exceed fifteen inches. Head—Moderately broad in skull, with broad strong muzzle, not excessively long; black nose preferred, but liver or flesh color not to disqualify. Mouth—Level. Ears—Small and dropped, round or V-shaped. Eyes—Dark or hazel; medium size, not too prominent. Neck—In proportion to the body. Front—Narrow. Forelegs—Straight. Feet—Sound and not flat. Back—Moderately short and well-coupled with long-sloping hind-quarters. Coat—Hard, dense and wiry; grooming allowed to improve general appearance and judge in all cases to give preference to a good hard coat. Tail—Carried gaily, not docked too short. General appearance—Smart and workmanlike.

Our illustration shows Mrs. Alice Spence and a team of Lakeland Terriers, "Egton Chance," "Egton Lady of the Lake," and "Sting of Cathra" are the three nearest to the camera. The photo is from the "British Photo Press."

Congratulations, Mr. Cleland; let us know when the "family" arrives.

Mrs. A. Spence and some of her choicest specimens, notice the punishing jaws on the dog at the extreme right of the illustration.

ENGLISH BULLDOG CLUB OF CANADA

Specialty clubs with dates taken for this year's "Thanksgiving" were left in quite a quandary, when the changes were made for the split holiday arrangements, some were ready for the first holiday and held their show on October 12th (Armistice Day) whilst others waited for (Thanksgiving Day) November 9th, but the Bulldog Club of Canada has decided to further extend the date of their specialty fixture until (New Years Day) Friday, January 1st, 1932.

It is with sincere regret that we learn of the illness of Reg. P. Sparkes the Club's energetic President. When he attended the last Directors' meeting of the Canadian Kennel Club he was practically crippled with pain, we trust that his return to health will be speedy and permanent, and that his Club's show will not lose a particle of its success through deferring its dates until the first of the year.

HUNTING DOGS

Thrive On Them

Hunting dogs are working dogs. They need strong food—food that keeps them healthy, active and strong. That is why the Qu'Appelle Kennels out in Saskatchewan feed their hunting dogs Ross-Miller Dog Foods almost exclusively, and thus keep them in perfect condition. That is why Mrs. T. Wrigley, of Montreal, and Mr. F. Ubelacher, of Stratford, feed their Wolfhounds on Ross-Miller Biscuits. That is why Miss S. Fincham, proprietor of the Wizbang Kennels, St. John's, Quebec, feeds her prize Irish Setters on Ross-Miller Dog Foods.

ROSS-MILLER DOG FOODS contain the scientifically proportioned amounts of the different nutrients required both for building bone and muscle and maintaining heat and energy.

Hunting dogs are working dogs. They need Ross-Miller Dog Foods—not only in the hunting season, but all the year 'round.

"The dogs which I raise and train are subject to the most grueling tests for stamina and hardihood, and I have found that with your foods, supplemented with an occasional fish diet, there is no trouble in keeping them in perfect condition.

"P. N. B. GALWEY-FOLEY,
"Qu'Appelle Kennels."

"My Russian Wolfhound pups have been fed on R-M Kimblos from an early age. They are very sturdy and healthy and carry wonderful coats.

The reason is not far to seek. Veterinary surgeons, breeders, exhibitors, handlers and dog owners generally, have learned from direct experience that Spratt's crisp, meaty biscuits and wholesome, vitamin meals are the purest and most nourishing foods that science, coupled with the makers' unrivalled specialized knowledge of the subject, can provide for the daily diet of dogs, whether of the sporting or non-sporting variety, of large, medium or toy breeds.

In the kennel, on the bench and in the ring itself, the splendid condition and stamina of the "Spratt's-fed" dog invariably "tell" in the "hottest" company. Elsewhere than in show circles, the ordinary pal-dog, reared on a "Spratt's" diet, is everywhere a credit to his owner.
