Selling Dogs Is My Business

For the 1932 Westminster Show, New York, I sent out seven dogs that I considered had a good chance to win.

AIREDALES

Champion Authority's Commander, didn't compete, since he has beaten the lot. Champion Briarcroft Walnut Commander won Winners and Best Airedale. Champion Walnut Barmaid won Winners Bitches. Every dog and bitch placed well in Open Classes was purchased from me. At the present time, I have the best team of young Airedales alive, and for sale.

SCOTTISH TERRIERS

Champion Willfield Necessity (formerly Walnut Necessity), Reserve Winners and considered by many to be the best Scottie out in 1932. I have several good dogs and bitches for sale.

BULL TERRIERS

Champion Comfy, Winners Dogs and Best Bull Terrier. He has beaten every Bull Terrier he has met.

WELSH TERRIERS

Champion Marrion Mwyn, Winners Bitches, Best Welsh Terrier, has beaten every Welsh Terrier she has met.

WIRE FOX TERRIERS

Newmarket Starlight, shown devoid of coat. Since has gone into the hands of a competent handler, and has beaten the best in America. I have several good ones on hand right now.

SINCE COMING BACK TO ENGLAND

in 1929, I have sent out more prize winners—including over fifty Champions—than any Kennel in the world. A bold statement to make!

MY DOGS WIN AFTER YOU GET THEM.

This is just what you buy them for.

TORONTO BULLDOG FANCIER DEAD

Just as we close the last form for March issue of Kennel and Bench, we have received the sad news of the death of Albert N. Connery, Toronto, which took place on Monday morning, February 27th, early, at the Hamilton Sanitarium. The late Mr. Connery had been in indifferent health for a long time, but he was always bright and cheerful nevertheless, a splendid conversationalist and a chat with him on any subject was invariably enjoyable. He had just turned 42 years at the time of his death, and his loss will be felt by the Bulldog fanciers of this district very much indeed. It will be remembered that he was Show Secretary for the Bulldog Breeders' Specialty Show in 1930, and Show Superintendent for the same Association's Show in 1931, and on both occasions he was far from being in good health, but he liked to be active in dogdom and that is what counted most with him.

Mr. Connery leaves a wife and two sons and to these we extend the sympathy of our readers in their bereavement at this time.

Meeting of the Board of Directors of the Canadian Kennel Club, Incorporated

The annual meeting of the Board of Directors of the Canadian Kennel Club, Inc., was held at the Club's offices, 25 Melinda Street, Toronto, on Thursday evening, February 9th, 1933. Lt.-Col. G. F. McFarland, K.C., presided. Directors in attendance were: Wm. H. Pym, Vancouver; W. G. Climo, Calgary; Dr. J. T. Cooper, Saskatoon; George Kynoch, Winnipeg; R. A. Ross, Montreal; A. V. Martin, Halifax; Col. J. N. MacRae, H. A. Wilson, Wm. Stockdale, W. H. Reeves, Capt. H. Dudley-Waters, Major E. Ward Wright.

Wm. McCulloch attended as representative of the Canadian National Live Stock Records.

The President extended a welcome to the Directors from the Provinces outside of Ontario and particularly to the newly elected officers: H. A. Wilson, Wm. Stockdale and W. G. Climo, and expressed the hope that the Club would experience a good year.

The Secretary read a letter from Wm. R. Aitken, and was instructed to advise Mr. Aitken that the Directors here regretted his indisposition and wished for him a speedy return to good health again.

The Minutes of the previous Directors' meeting were read. After a correction had been made, it was moved, seconded and carried:—

"That, the Minutes be adopted."

The Election Commission's Report was submitted, and it was moved, seconded and carried:—

"That, the Election Commission's Report be adopted."

The Secretary read the Annual Financial Report. The Secretary was instructed to have the Auditors find the difference of $30.02 showing in the statement. Whereupon it was moved and carried:—

"That, the Balance Sheet be adopted."

Kennel and Bench statement was adopted subject to securing additional information from the Club's Auditors. (Mr. Stockdale requested to be recorded as voting against the resolution).

It was agreed to have Mr. Dilworth (Auditor), present the Annual Statement to the Annual General Meeting.

H. A. Wilson, Wm. Stockdale, and Capt. H. Dudley-Waters were named a Committee, together with the Secretary, to go into the whole matter of doubtful accounts and to report their findings at a later meeting of the Directors.

The Annual Statement of the Live

Stock Records was considered and it was agreed to refer it to the Club's Auditors for reconciliation with the Club's Annual Statement as regards to receipts.

Mr. McCulloch was asked if any reduction of salaries had been made at the Live Stock Records Office, and he advised that all salaries had been reduced by 10%. It was felt that with less business being transacted, and salaries reduced, it was peculiar that the Live Stock Records statement showed higher cost of operating.

The Director for Manitoba reported on the Ferguson-Croy complaint, and it was moved and carried:—

"That, having heard Mr. Kynoch's Report, we find that it is not a matter upon which we can adjudicate, but that we ask the Live Stock Records Office to support the attitude taken on the matter by Mr. Croy."

Mr. Kynoch reported on the O'Donnell-Skidmore complaint, and it was moved and carried:—

"That, the Live Stock Records Office be requested to accept the signature of Mr. Skidmore and to proceed with the registration of the litter application on which the signature has been written."

Mr. Kynoch explained the delay in registering Miss M. Sherlock's dog and the Secretary was instructed to write Miss M. Sherlock giving a review of the cause of delay, and to explain that when she gives a name for the dog, that registration will be proceeded with at once.

It was moved, seconded and carried:—

"That, in view of the result of the election in the Province of Manitoba, that the resolution authorizing the President to go to Winnipeg, be rescinded."

The report of the Quebec Provincial Committee on the Heald-Sherbrooke Exhibition complaint was read, and it was regularly moved and carried:—

"That, the report of the Quebec Provincial Committee be accepted, and that the case be dismissed."

A report was submitted by the Quebec Provincial Committee on the Williams-Steggall matter, and it was moved and carried:—

"That, the Report be adopted."

The matter of the charges preferred by the Executive of Fort Garry Kennel Club against George Kynoch, Winnipeg, was considered by a full Board of Directors. The complete evidence was submitted and considered, and it was moved and carried:—

"That, in view of the nature and preponderance of evidence in favor of George Kynoch, that the complaint be dismissed."

It was moved and carried:—

"That, the Secretary's Security Bond be increased from $10,000 to $15,000."

It was moved and seconded:—

"That, the Secretary's salary be reduced from $90.00 per week to $80.00 per week."

An amendment was moved and seconded:—

"That, the Secretary's salary be reduced to $75.00 per week."

The amendment having been voted upon it was declared lost. The motion was voted upon and carried.

It was agreed to rescind that part of the Minutes of February 7th, 1930, reading:—

"That, for the year 1930, when it is found necessary to have a Canadian Kennel Club Director attend any Licensed Show held in his district as representative of the interests of the Canadian Kennel Club, that the railway fare and expenses of such Director be paid, the sum not to exceed $150.00 per year in any one Province."

It was regularly moved and carried:—

"That, the Secretary's membership in the Toronto Board of Trade be renewed."

It was moved and carried:—

"That, Messrs. Clarkson, Gordon, Dilworth, Guilfoyle and Nash, Chartered Accountants, Toronto, be re-engaged on behalf of the Club for the year 1933."

fitted in very smoothly at the Specialty Show at New York, and later at the Westminster Kennel Club Show—the two testing grounds on this continent for Cairn Terriers. Our Tinker of Tapscot went to winners at the Specialty, and to reserve winners at Westminster. Our Mocassin Mercy showed the way home to a nice lot of typical Cairns. Our latest importation, Trebig Ina, fared well considering her sea voyage. We anticipate great things from her in the future as a bench winner, and a stock producer.

At Buffalo Kennel Club Show Cairndania Cairns won a top prize in every breed class. Those are the wins that count.

GERMAN SHEPHERD CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS

The German Shepherd Dog Club of Canada held its annual general meeting at the Royal York Hotel Club Room on Saturday, January 28th, when a goodly attendance of the members were on hand to receive reports, consider amendments to the club's constitution and to elect officers.

The financial statement showed a slight deficit, and this was considered "just as it should be" considering the year's activities.

The proposed amendments were many and in some instances quite contentious but being for the good and welfare of the club in the future, all were finally accepted and endorsed.

The officers elected were: Hon. Pres. Willi Ebeling, Dover, N.J.; Hon. Vice Presidents, Raymond L. Patterson, Madison, N.J.; Col. J. N. MacRae, Galt, Ont.; Harry Giddings, Oakville, Ont. and W. H. In the Supreme Court of Ontario

The case of J. W. Bruce vs. Bert Swann, which has excited great interest among the membership of the Canadian Kennel Club, came on for trial before Mr. Justice Kerwin and a Jury in the Assize Court at Toronto, February 14th, 1933, and resulted in a verdict for Mr. Bruce of $2,500.00 and costs. It will be remembered that Mr. Bruce sued Mr. Swann for $50,000.00 damages for libel, the alleged libel being contained in a bulletin issued in connection with the 1931 election for Officers and Directors of the Canadian Kennel Club. The bulletin was anonymous, but during the course of the proceedings preceding the trial Mr. Swann acknowledged that he was the person who had written it and published it. Mr. Bruce had originally sued several persons, but on Mr. Swann's admission the proceedings were dropped against all but himself. The alleged libel consisted in such statements and expressions as the following:—

"J. W. Bruce is absolutely unfitted to hold any office with the Canadian Kennel Club. Bruce is a Labour Union Boss of the most pronounced Red type."

"The unsavoury notoriety he gained by his activities and prominence before and during the A.B.C. probe, when investigating, Commissioner Wadron said of Bruce—'A misguided person not having enough intelligence although very fluent in language'."

"These instances and many of his utterances in all parts of the country make him impossible as a representative of our great sport."

"A dangerous man, a pronounced Office Seeker."

The Plaintiff claimed that he had suffered damage to his reputation by reason of these statements.

Mr. A. W. Roebuck represented the plaintiff and Mr. Wilfrid Heighington, M.P.P., the defendant. The former's address to the jury was a masterpiece and Mr. Heighington conducted a difficult case with great skill. Perhaps the simplest and most accurate way of conveying to our readers the evidence which was adduced would be by publication verbatim of the judge's charge to the jury, which thoroughly reviewed the evidence presented by both sides. His charge was as follows:—

HIS LORDSHIP: Gentlemen of the Jury, the plaintiff, John W. Bruce, brings this action against the defendant Bert Swann, asking damages for libel.

A libel may be defined as: Any written or printed words which tend to lower a person in the estimation of right thinking men, or cause him to be shunned or avoided, or expose him to hatred, contempt, or ridicule. Any written or printed words which disparage a man in the way of his office, profession, or trade constitute a libel. To be actionable, the words must impute to the plaintiff some quality which would be detrimental, or the absence of some quality which is essential to the successful carrying on of his office, profession, or trade.

The plaintiff says that the document, Exhibit No. 1, is a document that libels him, in the sense of the words which I have just told you. The plaintiff is a man who, according to the evidence, has held a number of distinguished positions in the past, and he is still the General Organizer for Canada of the United Association of Journeymen Plumbers and Steamfitters of the United States and Canada. You have heard the evidence as to the positions he occupied with reference to a Canadian Kennel Club, from time to time.

The defendant is a man who is interested in dogs, but at the time Exhibit No. 1 was sent out by him he was not a member of the Canadian Kennel Club. He sent out this document in connection with an approaching vote for the office of vice-president and directors. It was for the office of vice-president that the plaintiff was running. While the defendant was not a member of the Club, I tell you as a matter of law that he had such an interest in the welfare of the sport, "fancy" as he called it, generally, as to warrant him sending the document, not necessarily this document, but sending some document to the members of the Canadian Kennel Club, dealing with the qualifications of those who were running for office. That is of importance for this reason: if I print something in connection with a matter in which I have no interest, and if those words are, according to the finding of the jury, libellous, then it makes no difference whether I have any malice, in the legal sense, against the person about whom I wrote, or not; if the words are defamatory, the law presumes malice. But, on the other hand, if I have an interest in the subject matter about which I print and distribute the matter, then it is necessary for the plaintiff, or for that man, dealing with the case I am now speaking about, to shew that I had some malice, in the legal sense, against him.

Now, malice does not mean personal spite, or ill-will. In this case you will recollect that the defendant, when in the box, said that he had no spite; I think that is the word he used, if not, some word to the same effect, against the plaintiff. But malice may exist even if there be no spite or desire for vengeance. Any indirect motive, other than a sense of duty which the defendant conceived he had to write to the members of the Kennel Club about the qualifications of the candidates for office, is what the law calls malice. To put it in another way, malice means making use of an occasion for some indirect purpose. I shall have to refer to this again later on, but I think it better to clear the way at the outset, so as to shew you that in this case, as a matter of law, if you find the words are defamatory, it is also necessary for you to find that the defendant was actuated by malice; malice meaning what I have just stated to you.

Now, in a libel suit, the first thing for the plaintiff to do is to prove that the defendant published the document which contained the words complained of. In this case the defendant admits that he sent this document, Exhibit No. 1, to some six hundred odd members of the Canadian Kennel Club.

You will perhaps think it is important to determine the manner in which this document was sent. In the first place, it had no name signed to it; the members of the Canadian Kennel Club who received this document did not know from whom it came. Perhaps you might find in that, with other things, some evidence of malice on the part of the defendant. If he was acting in the performance of that duty which he conceived to be his, you might think that he would put his name to the document so that anyone who received it would have seen from whom it came. I think it is also something that you might take into consideration, the manner in which he had it printed. He says he does not know where it was printed; he says that a transient who was in his house but a short time before, and a short time after, undertook to have this document printed. He knows not from whence that man came, and he knows not where he now is. Perhaps you may think that is something you should consider in connection with the question of malice.

You are entitled to look at the very words themselves to find if there is in the words anything that would indicate to you that this defendant was doing, in pursuance of the high purpose of which he speaks, anything more than drawing the attention of the members of the Canadian Kennel Club to the qualifications, or lack of them, of the various candidates for office, including the plaintiff in this action.

You are also entitled to look at the pleadings, and you may consider them of some importance. You will be able to take them with you to your jury-room. When you look at the statement of defence you will see that part of it is underlined with red ink; the underlining means nothing more than to indicate that that is an amended part of the statement of defence. I will refer to that later when discussing with you the question as to whether the statements made in the election bulletin, as it is called, are libellous or not.

You are also entitled to take into consideration the attitude of the defendant during, not only the course of the proceedings before the trial, but at the trial. At the trial, he brought forward several witnesses in an endeavour to show that some at least of the statements of fact that he made in this election bulletin about the plaintiff were true. If you find that they are true, of course so far as the question of malice is concerned, that is an end of the matter. But if you find that this defendant upon being sued for libel comes forward and says, Yes, I made those statements, and those statements are true, and if you find that they are not true, then, irrespective of any other question, you are entitled to take that into consideration in coming to a conclusion as to whether or not this defendant was actuated by malice in sending out this election bulletin without any name at the bottom of it.

The matters of which the plaintiff complains in this document, you will find inserted about the centre of it, but I think in order that you may understand the matter, you should read it all. I do not propose to do so at the present time. The first paragraph dealing with the plaintiff is as follows:

"J. W. Bruce, the present 2nd Vice-President is absolutely unfitted to hold any office with the Canadian Kennel Club. Bruce is a Labor Union Boss of a most pronounced Red type."

Now, as I understand the evidence which the defendant brings forward, he introduces a witness by the name of George Potts. First of all, I desire to mention the witness Cassina; you will recollect that Cassina, as well as the defendant, spoke of an incident which they say occurred outside the premises where a dog show had been held on Dundas Street in the city of Toronto. Without going over the exact words, because I have no doubt you have in your mind the words, or at least the effect of them, if you come to the conclusion that what the defendant and Cassina are telling you is the truth, then perhaps you may think that Bruce was unfitted to hold any office. I wish to say to you that any opinion I may give you has nothing to do with the matter, and you are not only at liberty, but it is your duty to exercise your own judgment. I think it goes without saying, and in fact, counsel for the plaintiff admitted that if Bruce had been guilty of saying what the defendant and Cassina relate, then, he certainly was unfitted to hold any office with the Canadian Kennel Club. But do you believe that he said it? He denies it, and Mrs. Bruce denies it; so that you have, as against the evidence of Swann and Cassina, the evidence of the plaintiff Bruce, and of his wife.

In coming to a conclusion upon this question you are entitled to take into consideration the demeanour of each of the witnesses in the witness box, and to accept none, or such part as you see fit of their evidence. If you come to the conclusion that Swann and Cassina are not telling the truth in that connection, then you will probably have no difficulty in deciding the question as to libel or no libel so far as that first sentence is concerned.

I am mentioning also at the present moment, the evidence of the witness Potts because it seems to me it has some bearing on this question, although possibly it was introduced more with reference to one of the paragraphs that arises later. Potts is the man, you will recollect, who stated that at the dog show held at the Winter Fair in 1928, at Toronto, he saw the plaintiff Bruce, who there made certain statements about not wanting a King in the country, whatever it was, you will recollect what it was. Potts is the only one who speaks of that incident, and he was produced as a witness by the defendant in order to make out his defence in respect of the statement that Bruce was unfitted to hold any office; possibly also in connection with the statement as to Bruce being a boss of the most pronounced red type.

You will recollect what Bruce said about that; he said he was out West for some time before and after that particular time. While counsel for the defendant suggested that possibly Potts had made a mistake in the date, I think you will probably agree that it is too late in the day for that suggestion to be made, with a serious matter of this kind, when Potts is produced by the defendant in an endeavour to justify some of the statements that are made in this document.

I should say that Bruce goes further and says; while it is true that I was not there at that time, I never made any such statement at any time. I think I should recall that to your attention. So that you have Potts as against Bruce. And again you are entitled to take into consideration the demeanour of each of the witnesses in the box, and come to a conclusion as to which one you believe. If you believe Bruce, and do not believe Potts, that is something else you might take into consideration on the question of malice.

Now, I come to the second sentence in the first paragraph:

"Bruce is a Labor Union Boss of a most pronounced Red type."

You are just as well able, I think, as any witness, to come to a determination as to whether those words would tend to bring the plaintiff into hatred, ridicule or contempt. And it is for you to say whether they are true; you heard the evidence.

Bruce holds the position to which I have already referred, and he has held the positions which he mentioned, and which were also mentioned at some length by Mr. Thomas Moore, President of The Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, you heard his evidence as to the part Bruce has taken in various efforts of a conciliatory nature, with reference to disputes, or an endeavour to prevent disputes between employer and employee.

As to the words "of a most pronounced Red type," you will have before you the wording of the song, The Red Flag. You heard what the plaintiff quite fairly said about that, that he had sung it, that he had heard it sung many times, that he was at Massey Hall in connection with the meeting which was referred to in the Toronto Telegram.

That brings me to the next paragraph. Let me make it clear that this extract from the Toronto Telegram proves nothing. It was not introduced for that purpose; it could not be. The defendant, through his counsel, desires to make use of it on the question of mitigation of damages, in case you find for the plaintiff against the defendant. The defendant had seen this article in the Toronto Evening Telegram of Wednesday, May 12th, 1926, and he submits that he was merely quoting what it said. But let me point out to you again that it proves nothing; it is not evidence to prove that Bruce said or did anything. You will particularly bear that in mind in looking at the headlines; headlines are merely something inserted by the newspaper in order to draw the attention of its readers to what follows. There is no evidence that that is true, and I have no doubt you will bear that in mind.

This paragraph goes on to say that they are "quoting Bruce from a speech made by him at Massey Hall, Toronto, on the British General Strike situation gives plenty of proof (if needed) of his fanatical tendencies."

You will recollect the evidence; first of all, it was not a meeting with reference to the British general strike, but with reference to the miners' strike in England. The uncontradicted evidence is that the British general strike occurred at an entirely different time, and that what this meeting was about was the miners' strike. Not only Bruce spoke about that, but also Mr. Moore.

The paragraph continues: "The unsavoury notoriety he gained by his activities and prominence before and during the A. B. C. probe when investigating Commissioner, Waldron said on October 3, 1929, of Bruce, 'A misguided person' and further, 'not having enough intelligence although very fluent in language.'"

The defendant had the opportunity to produce evidence, if the evidence was there to carry out what was intended, to shew that Commissioner Waldron did use those words. No such evidence has been produced. If it had been produced, Mr. Bruce would then have had the opportunity of shewing that those comments were used in connection with some other words, or that there was something else said which the defendant ought in fairness have referred to. If it was not a fair report of what I deem was a judicial proceeding, then any privilege that the defendant would have had would have been lost.

I do not want to confuse you about this. I am pointing this out in some detail in order to bring back to your minds the fact that the defendant has not given any evidence to prove that Commissioner Waldron said any such thing.

As to the words "The unsavoury notoriety", the defendant did say that he read in a newspaper that Commissioner Waldron said those words, but you will also recall that the defendant admitted he had never seen the report of what Commissioner Waldron is supposed to have said, in any other place except the newspaper. Of course that is not any evidence, except on the question of mitigation of damages.

The bulletin continues:

"These instances and many of his utterances in all parts of the country, either on Dog subjects or any other subject, make him impossible as a representative of our great sport."

I do not know that there is anything else I can say about the matter except to refer to the evidence of Col. McFarland, and I will refer to it more in detail a little later after I shall have taken up some of the statements in the Statement of Defence.

The bulletin continues:

"Then again, J. W. Bruce is not and never was, a Dog Fancier, his canine activities being confined to valeting the dogs owned by his wife."

Now, Bruce said he is, and has been for some years a dog fancier, that he has at the present time dogs which cost him approximately $5,000. He says it is true that the dogs are registered in his wife's name because in his official duties he is away so much from Toronto it is necessary for someone to be here to sign the transfer slips, or whatever the correct name may be. So that possibly you will have no difficulty in coming to a conclusion upon that point.

As to the word "valeting," of which the plaintiff complains, he points out that the use of the word signifies a dog handler, and he says that there is something demeaning in suggesting not merely that he is not a dog fancier, but that his canine activities have been confined to valeting the dogs owned by his wife. It is for you to say.

And finally, this election bulletin so far as the plaintiff is concerned, ends up by saying:

Now, as to the words, "a pronounced Office Seeker," it is true that Bruce has held a number of important positions,—he himself has spoken about them, as to the manner in which he has obtained them, and that was also spoken of by Mr. Moore. Bruce has held positions in the gift of the Dominion Government; he has held positions where it was necessary for him to be a candidate and be elected by certain representatives of various bodies, and that he has been chosen by other bodies, or individuals, without the necessity of any election. Do you consider, on all the evidence, that he was, in the words of the bulletin, "a pronounced Office Seeker?"

Then as to the words: "a dangerous man." You will recollect also the evidence of Mr. Moore in that connection, to which I have already referred; also the evidence of Col. McFarland.

As I have said, this document was sent out to about six hundred members of the Canadian Kennel Club. The defendant says, "I treated it as a joke, and that is the way it was treated by those who received it." The first witness called by the plaintiff, Mr. Mitchell, certainly did not treat it as a joke, neither did the President of the Club, Col. McFarland. Of course, you will understand that is put forward in order to ask you to determine that these matters are not libellous, whether you think these statements contained in this Exhibit No. 1 were sent out in a joking way or not.

Now, coming to the statement of defence. The defendant takes what is a very dangerous position to take in a libel action. This is what he says in his statement of defence, and it is the attitude I think one must gather was his during the course of the trial.

The defendant says:

"7. (c) This defendant states that in the publication of the said document as alleged, if so published (which is not admitted), the fair comment and the justification mentioned in the two preceding paragraphs consisted of the following facts":

He comes forward and says: Yes, it is true what I said here, and it is true for these reasons, and these are the facts:

"1. The Kennel Club occupies a prominent position in circles of the community devoted to sport and in the eyes of the public and the character and record of those seeking office in that organization are matters of common or public interest."

So far as the last part of that statement is concerned, I have already indicated to you that I think it was a matter of interest, that it was a matter in which the plaintiff and defendant were interested, although the defendant was not a member of the Club. Men who occupy public positions, and who are running for office in an organization such as the Canadian Kennel Club, have a right to expect fair criticism. Certainly there is no right, and they do not expect to be libelled. That is a question for you to determine.

The statement of defence goes on to say:

"2. The plaintiff is a person devoted to activities leading towards the overthrow of existing forms of government by violence and force, and by other than constitutional means."

Now, do you think the evidence warrants that statement? As a matter of law, I tell you that that charges Mr. Bruce with the commission of a criminal offence under the Criminal Code of our country. Do you think it has been proved?

"3. The plaintiff is a person engaged in the promotion of antagonism and hatred between one class of the community as against others."

Do you think the evidence discloses that, or the contrary?

"4. The plaintiff has participated in schemes of combine or contracts made in restraint of trade and calculated to promote extortionate profits for those engaged in certain trades."

I take that to mean that the defendant there says that the plaintiff engaged in some combine which would be illegal under the laws of this country, and, without going into details, it was such a combine as was spoken of in the A.B.C. probe, to which the election bulletin refers.

The statement of defence continues:

"The plaintiff has participated in or condoned enterprises illegal in effect and against the interests of this country and in particular was an aggressive supporter to the general strike in England during the year 1926."

As to the first part of that, what I have just said I think covers it. As to the latter part, you will recollect the evidence about the meeting to which no doubt it refers.

"6. The plaintiff is not a person of the type commanding confidence in the high office in the sporting community associated with the Presidency of the Kennel Club, and, in any event, has not the training or qualifications for that post."

You heard the evidence as to the number of years Bruce has been concerned with the fancy, and you will remember what Col. McFarland said about the matter. He said, "I never found Bruce arbitrary, he held strong views, he has been an asset to the club, and a good representative. I took the circular seriously, and not lightly." Col. McFarland said he only knew Bruce in connection with the Kennel Club matters, and that he had found no fanatical tendencies in Bruce, that he was not unfitted to hold high office, and he was not misguided. And he said, "I disagree with the statement that Bruce has not enough intelligence to occupy the position for which he was running at the time. The plaintiff did not exercise any undue influence in the licensing of judges of the dog shows." That is of some importance because of the evidence that was adduced in order to shew that Bruce, in connection with this episode on Dundas Street, had endeavoured to persuade Swann, one of these licensed judges, to give awards to dogs to be shewn by Bruce or his wife, other than what they might merit.

I should also point out to you in connection with that episode that Swann said that Bruce suggested that if he (Swann) would move up Mrs. Bruce's dogs in the awards at the Brantford show, he (Bruce) would shew dogs at the Montreal show. The Montreal show was held the week following the Brantford show, and it was shewn in evidence that the entries had to be made, I think, ten days, you will recall the number, prior to the show; in any event, there was not time enough to wait to see what awards the dogs owned by Bruce received at Brantford, before Mr. or Mrs. Bruce decided to send any of their dogs, for show purposes, to the Montreal show.

Now, gentlemen, it is for you to say, on the whole evidence, whether or not there is any libel. Bear in mind what I have said as to the two or three propositions of law that seem to me to arise in this case. If you come to the conclusion that the plaintiff has been libelled, then you will have to consider the amount of damages; that is something peculiarly within the province of the jury. You are not obliged, of course, I need hardly point out to you, to pay any attention to the amount of money mentioned by counsel for the plaintiff; nor are you obliged to accept the estimate put on the matter by counsel for the defendant. I think I should point out, however, in connection with that, the evidence and argument, so far as I recollect, which counsel for the defendant points to in order to show that the damages, if you award any against his client, should not be heavy.

I have already mentioned the suggestion, in fact the statement made by the defendant, that this election bulletin was sent out as a joke. I have also mentioned the evidence of the other witnesses who did not take it as a joke. You will recollect that this document was sent to about six hundred people, who were members of The Canadian Kennel Club.

It is true that Mr. Bruce could not point out any pecuniary damage he had suffered as a result of that election bulletin. Now, of course, that is not necessary. You are entitled to take into consideration his feelings in connection with the matter. You are also entitled to take into consideration the position that he occupied. If he had, which I do not understand him to have done, claimed special damages, as it is called, that is, that he suffered a certain amount of monetary loss because of this election bulletin, then you would have to look for evidence of it. He claims no such special damages, but he comes forward and says this defendant has libelled me, and I ask for such an amount of damages as the gentlemen of the jury may see fit to award me. He points out that this bulletin was sent at a time when he was running for re-election as Vice-President of the Club, and he points out that he was defeated.

The defendant, on the other hand, points out that all the members who were referred to in the bulletin were defeated. As to that, it is impossible to say what reasons were used by the membership at large in deciding to vote either for or against Mr. Bruce; however, there is the time when it was sent out, and, as a matter of fact, the defendant says it was sent out at that time because of the election.

It is for you to consider just what amount of damages you think the defendant should be made to pay to the plaintiff, if you think there is a libel. I do not know that there is anything else I could usefully add about the matter. It is necessary for ten of you to agree. You may take the record and exhibits with you.

FANCIERS MAKE MERRY

The Saskatoon Kennel Club held their first annual partner whist drive, supper and dance, February 13th, Vice-President, Frank Jackson acted as M.C. of the evening; several dainty prizes were distributed during the evening.

An event of the evening was the draw for the lucky admission ticket, Geo. Walter Harrington, the Broadway Jeweller, proving to be the holder of ticket 188—thereby winning the prize of the English Springer Male Puppy, donated by Secretary Jack Ayre. During the evening supper was provided by the lady members of the club, and altogether a very enjoyable and successful time was spent by each one of the 100 odd who were present.

Report of Annual General Meeting

Proceedings at Annual General Meeting of the Club, Held in the Yellow Room, King Edward Hotel, Toronto, Friday, February 10th, 1933

2.20 p.m. Meeting called to order, the President, COL. G. F. McFARLAND, K.C., in the Chair; Mr. J. D. STRACHAN, Secretary.

PRES. McFARLAND: Mr. Secretary, do you certify that there is a quorum of paid up members here?

THE SECRETARY: I would say, easily, Mr. President.

PRES. McFARLAND: The next item on the agenda, the President's opening remarks, there will be no opening remarks, because I will be presenting my annual report in a few moments. The next order of business is the reading of a synopsis of the minutes. The reason, as you all know, that the synopsis is taken is that they are very long, and secondly they have all appeared in Kennel & Bench.

The Secretary reads a synopsis of minutes of last annual meeting.

PRES. McFARLAND: I will receive a motion for the adoption of the synopsis.

GEN. NELLES: I would move the adoption of the minutes.

Seconded by Col. MacRae.

The President put the motion, which, upon a vote having been taken, was declared carried.

Annual Report of the President

PRES. McFARLAND: Before presenting my report for the year 1932 I desire to express my great gratitude to the members for having elected me President by acclamation. As you know, it was my firm intention to retire at the end of 1932, but on account of certain reasons and certain representations made to me I decided to allow my name to stand for this year. I shall, however, under no circumstances consider being a candidate for 1934.

Once more we welcome with pleasure our out-of-town delegates. Messrs. Pym, Kynoch, Ross, Martin and Dr. Cooper are old friends and have all made a notable contribution in the years gone by to the welfare of the Canadian Kennel Club. Mr. Climo we are delighted to welcome for the first time and we feel certain that before he returns to his home he will be an old friend also.

The Financial Statement

The most important matter for your consideration is the financial statement, which shows a loss for the year of $2,301.95 as compared with a net loss for the year 1931 of $489.91.

This unfortunate state of affairs is typical of the time in which we live and has occurred in the case of practically every other similar organization. As a result our surplus has been reduced to $34,602.74. It is unnecessary for me to comment at length on the statement, because it is in the hands of the members and each of them can digest it for himself. Perhaps some comparative figures, however, might be interesting. We take for instance travelling expenses of Directors to the Annual Meeting for the last five years, as follows:—

1928	$1,270.00
1929	1,059.25
1930	1,402.28
1931	1,276.45
1932	1,335.75

This is an item which will of course be largely reduced this year on account of the smaller number of delegates who are attending the Meeting.

There has been a steady reduction in the amount spent in donations to Shows in the last five years caused, of course, by the diminution in the number of Shows held. The figures are as follows:—

1928	$905.00
1929	905.00
1930	820.00
1931	825.00
1932	750.00

There has also for the same reason been a diminution in the amount spent on Canadian Kennel Club Trophies at Shows. The figures are as follows:—

1928	$637.20
1929	599.55
1930	590.32
1931	556.50
1932	413.85

Turning to the Kennel and Bench account we find a loss of $469.29 in spite of the fact that there has been a considerable decrease in certain items. For instance, the cost of articles written for Kennel and Bench for the last five years is as follows:—

1928	$1,140.65
1929	1,024.10
1930	1,265.85
1931	678.60
1932	644.67

and for half tones the figures are as follows:—

1928	$368.00
1929	723.03
1930	539.78
1931	351.23
1932	208.26

The cost of printing Kennel and Bench has shown a steady decrease in the last five years. The figures are as follows:—

1928	$5,635.74
1929	5,672.57
1930	5,605.27

1931	4,750.95
1932	4,563.07

It must be remembered in considering this deficit that 14,568 free copies of the magazine were mailed to members during the year and that a considerable portion of the cost of publication represents the publication verbatim of the proceedings of the Annual Meeting, and the publication of the complete list of members and proposed amendments to the Constitution and Dog Show Rules.

Membership

Our total membership shows a decrease of one hundred and eleven (111), which also is not surprising considering the conditions which exist throughout the country. The total paid-up membership divided by Provinces and given in the order of their numbers is as follows:—

Ontario	638
Quebec	158
British Columbia	152
Manitoba	70
Alberta	66
Saskatchewan	59
Nova Scotia	23
New Brunswick	21
United States	14
Great Britain	1
Total	1,202

Practically the only change in the standing of the Provinces as far as the membership is concerned is that Quebec has passed British Columbia and is now in second place.

Differences between membership figures for 1931 and 1932 are as follows:—

Ontario decrease of	32
Quebec decrease of	12
British Columbia decrease of	16
Manitoba decrease of	10
Alberta decrease of	11
Saskatchewan decrease of	16
Nova Scotia decrease of	5
New Brunswick decrease of	3
United States decrease of	16

I regret to say that in the last five years there has been a steady decrease in the membership. The peak was reached in 1928 when we had 1,557 paid-up members.

It would perhaps be interesting to the members to know how many new members have joined the Club during the year. The numbers are as follows:—

Ontario	145
Quebec	36
British Columbia	26
Saskatchewan	17
Manitoba	13
Alberta	9

Nova Scotia	6
New Brunswick	4

Registrations

The registrations show an increase of 108 over last year. The figures for the last five years are as follows:—

1928	8,849
1929	8,128
1930	7,046
1931	7,144
1932	7,252

The 7,252 registrations for the year are divided by Provinces as follows:—

Ontario	3,920
Quebec	1,114
British Columbia	969
Manitoba	377
Saskatchewan	339
Alberta	310
Nova Scotia	126

Shows

During 1932 there were 38 shows held under Canadian Kennel Club rules. The figures for the last five years in this department are as follows:—

1928	45
1929	43
1930	40
1931	43
1932	38

In connection with the shows during the year 1932, 179 Championships were awarded. The figures for the last five years as to this item are as follows:—

1928	189
1929	180
1930	174
1931	250
1932	179

On the subject of Shows it is interesting to note that in the year 1903 the total number of Canadian Kennel Club Shows held in Canada was four, of which three were held in Ontario.

Directors and Staff

It again gives me great pleasure to express my appreciation of the faithful attention to their duties which the Directors and Officers have exhibited during the year. In addition to the ordinary duties of Board Meetings the Directors have at all times been most willing to undertake additional duties laid upon them by way of appointment to sub-committees or otherwise. In this connection I think special mention should be made of the Rules Committee, composed of Messrs. Walter H. Reeves, Chairman, J. D. Strachan, Secretary, Peter Herd, Capt. H. Dudley-Waters, Brig.-Gen. C. M. Nelles and Col. J. N. MacRae. This Committee held no less than seven long monthly sessions beginning in April and ending in October, and I am sure that the result of their labors will be extremely valuable to the Club and deeply appreciated by the members.

There have been no changes in the office staff during the year and I again thank them for their faithful and efficient services. The duties of the Secretary have been carried out in a most satisfactory manner and Misses Crewe, Wilson and Prosser have co-operated with him to the fullest extent.

Deaths

The Grim Reaper has been busy with the membership during 1932 and among other vacancies we note with regret the death of J. Provost of Montreal, and Mrs. R. Marchant. In the Maritimes, E. J. Wallis and Robert McGee passed out. Saskatchewan lost John Young. Ontario lost Mrs. S. R. Gammond, Tom Johnson, Mrs. S. A. Delaney, and Thos. McEwan. A special word should be said of the death of Mr. J. W. Bain, K.C., because Mr. Bain contributed of his outstanding ability lavishly to the Club in the days when its very existence hung in the balance.

Conclusion

It is futile to endeavor to forecast the future. In a time when the whole World is in probably the greatest financial and social turmoil of history it is inevitable that an organization such as ours should feel the effects. Nor can we hope that until World conditions improve we shall see any great improvement in the Club. I feel, however, that in the Board of Directors, which has just been elected, we have men who will do their very utmost, and give liberally of their time and talent to the solution of the difficulties in front of them, and if that Board can be assured of the loyal backing of the membership at large I have no doubt in my mind that we shall win through.

With regard to the financial statement I might add here, however, that Mr. Dilworth, of our auditors' firm is here to make any explanations required.

MR. DONALDSON: Excuse me, before you go any further, are we entitled to a copy of the financial statement?

PRES. McFARLAND: I thought you had that. Weren't they printed?

THE SECRETARY: No.

PRES. McFARLAND: They always have been, haven't they?

THE SECRETARY: No.

PRES. McFARLAND: Anybody may consult my copy. It will be presented presently, Mr. Donaldson, and then we will check up on the question.

MR. PYM: Mr. Chairman, I will move the adoption of the President's Report as read, and I would add this: in spite of your statement as to your retirement, the Canadian Kennel Club will be fortunate enough to have you as their president in the year 1934.

The motion was seconded by Mr. Ross.

The President put the motion, which, upon a vote being taken, was declared carried, and the President's Report adopted.

PRES. McFARLAND: The next is the Secretary's Annual Report:

THE SECRETARY: Mr. President, ladies and gentlemen, the Secretary's report is really found in the agenda of the business coming before this meeting, but as a servant of yours for the past thirteen years, I feel that I might be allowed the privilege of saying a few words to you at this moment. It would appear that there is an atmosphere prevailing in some quarters that seems to be quite unreliable, and if our organization is to continue to prosper, this atmosphere should be thoroughly investigated and just as thoroughly clarified.

Some time ago I received a request from one of our members who asked to be furnished with such information as would show the attendance of our Directors during 1932. We quickly compiled the information and sent it to our correspondent, according to the policy which governs at headquarters, but, in a circular sent out to our members, the information we gave out in a clear, concise manner, was so used, that it must have acted to the detriment of certain of your nominees in the recent election of officers.

Let me say here, that the party likely to be benefitted most by the manner in which the information was used, is just the type of member, who would not care to have the advantages of unreliable or distorted propaganda. I refer to Mr. Harry A. Wilson. In seeking to ensure the election of Mr. Wilson, this circular in advocating the election of Mr. Wilson as second Vice-President, said, "The occupant of this position for 1932 only attended two meetings." Now I have the information here that we sent out, and it clearly shows that the occupant of the second Vice-President's office attended the Directors' meetings held on February 5th, March 7th, July 21st, August 25th, and September 22nd. I leave you to judge for yourselves as to the veracity of that circular's general content, and you should remember too, that the holder of the second Vice-President's position in 1932, gave much time, and dependable attendance to a series of seven meetings held by your committee on Rules and Regulations.

This same circular, which bore no signature, also advised you that "The very existence of the Club is threatened by the lack of interest shown by the present administration." Ladies and gentlemen, you may rest assured that if the existence of our Club was in any danger at all, you would be promptly and thoroughly advised of the condition through the pages of your own magazine.

Let me give you the dependable information concerning the alleged lack of interest in your officers. Your President, Lt. Col. McFARLAND, attended five meetings, and I must ask you to remember that he was unable to attend several meetings through the Directors handling a matter in which your President felt that he should take no personal action. Your first Vice-President, Col. J. N. MacRae, attended eleven meetings, a 100 per cent attendance, and he motors well over 100 miles to serve you. This complete record of attendance was shared by Mr. Walter H. Reeves, and you know that he comes in from Belleville, Ont., to share in the proper handling of your affairs. Mr. Peter Herd attended nine meetings. Major E. Ward Wright attended eight meetings. Brig.-Gen. C. M. Nelles, came in from Niagara-on-the-Lake for eight meetings. Capt. H. Dudley-Waters attended seven meetings, and your Directors know that Capt. Waters absented himself from several meetings on what he believed to be principle. Mr. Vincent G. Perry, London, attended six meetings, and we know that it would be quite unfair to Mr. Perry to even suggest that his showing in attendance was due to lack of interest. Mr. J. W. Bruce attended five meetings, and as fanciers who have a living to make yourselves, you must be prepared to allow your officers that same privilege. It is well known that Mr. Bruce was always serving you wherever he was. Mr. Harry Clayton attended two meetings, and he makes no apologies for his record. All in all, and everything considered, I feel that you are satisfied with the measure of attention which has been given to your affairs by your officers during 1932, and that the allegation appearing in the circular did not receive your endorsement, and again I would remind you, that whenever there is anything showing in our Club, that could even be considered not to your advantage, you will be given due warning by myself.

Then concerning Kennel and Bench.

I am not unmindful of the times we have been through together as reader and editor, and I have thoroughly and whole-heartedly appreciated the support you have been able to give me in a business way. I have not allowed myself to become discouraged, and like you, and with you, I am hoping for a return of those conditions, which will make things happier and brighter for us all. I wish you all everything that is good and desirable. I thank you.

PRES. McFARLAND: A motion to adopt the report of the Secretary.

MR. DONALDSON: It seems to me that the Secretary has taken quite a bit upon himself—

PRES. McFARLAND: Mr. Donaldson, will you wait till I get a motion for the adoption?

GEN. NELLES: I move the adoption of the Secretary's report.

MR. PYM: I second that.

MR. DONALDSON: It seems to me, talking about who attended the meetings and how many, we are quite entitled to that as paid up members. He seems to have quite an axe to grind for some members; I don't know why; and we have a right to find out who were there and if they are not there, why not.

PRES. McFARLAND: I don't think your right to the information was ever disputed.

MR. DONALDSON: We are entitled to it. The Secretary need not be sore because somebody asked. I never asked him.

PRES. McFARLAND: The Secretary simply reported the information was asked for and was apparently furnished.

MR. DONALDSON: He says that there is ill feeling. That didn't show the ill feeling at all.

GEN. NELLES: False statements show the ill feeling.

MR. DONALDSON: It doesn't matter what he says about how it was used; we are entitled to have it.

PRES. McFARLAND: No doubt about that, Mr. Donaldson, in the world.

Are you ready for the question?

MEMBERS: Question.

The President put the motion, which, upon a vote having been taken, was declared carried.

PRES. McFARLAND: The next is the auditors' report. I thought it was the custom to have this report printed.

THE SECRETARY: Well, Mr. President, we have so much coming up here in the way of changes to our rules and regulations that I couldn't see my way to enlarge this to double size by adding the financial report.

PRES. McFARLAND: Will you present the report, Mr. Dilworth, please?

MR. DILWORTH: Yes. Mr. President, ladies and gentlemen, I have here the annual statement of the Canadian Kennel Club for the year 1932 together with the balance sheet as at the end of the year and I understand this will be printed in Kennel and Bench to give you the detailed information. I would just like to quote a few of the figures from this report. Firstly, the Club's magazine, Kennel and Bench, shows total revenue of $5,541.37, against which we have expenses, including half-tones, printing, postage, contributions and sundry expenses, and an additional provision for doubtful accounts of $200, which gives a total expense of $6,010.66, showing a loss of $469.29.

It should be noted further that included in the above figures there are no items for the salary of the editor, nor does it receive any credit for any portion of the members' fees, the magazine being distributed free of charge to the paid up members.

In your general revenue and expense you have general revenues of $19,330.39 which with interest and exchange of $1,671.50 gives a total revenue of $21,001.89; against which we have expenses amounting to $22,410.66, the loss on Kennel and Bench to which I have referred before of $469.29, and provision for depreciation on office furniture of $423.89, giving us an expense total of $23,303.84, showing a net loss for the year, including the loss on Kennel and Bench, of $2,301.95. This loss being brought forward to our balance sheet, our surplus account shows a net surplus at the end of the year of $34,602.74.

I will read our certificate attached to the balance sheet:

"We have audited the accounts of Canadian Kennel Club incorporated for the year ended 31st December, 1932, and report that in our opinion the above balance sheet and related statements are properly drawn up so as to pre-

"We have obtained all the information and explanations that we have required." (Sgd.). "Clarkson, Gordon, Dilworth, Guilfoyle & Nash, Chartered Accountants."

All of which is respectfully submitted.

PRES. McFARLAND: Are there any questions any members would like to ask Mr. Dilworth?

MR. WALKERDINE: Mr. President, I would like to ask Mr. Dilworth a question. It is a little unusual, this way, because these figures have been condensed in such a way that certain amounts have been added together.

Would you be good enough, Mr. Dilworth, to tell me the amount for subscriptions to Kennel and Bench? You added three of four other items.

MR. DILWORTH: Subscriptions from non-members of $569.12. I might say that the total statement of this will appear in Kennel and Bench, your president says.

MR. WALKERDINE: That is where we are at a disadvantage.

MR. DILWORTH: I realize that.

MR. WALKERDINE: I realize your point. Mr. Dilworth, this is about the biggest slash they have ever had in their balance sheet, I think you will admit that as an auditor.

MR. DILWORTH: I am not very familiar with the past history of the Club, in past years, but it is a big slash, yes.

MR. WALKERDINE: Have you been asked to make any recommendation with regard to economy that should be followed for the following year in consideration of this, what I term a heavy overhead, as far as the expense is concerned, or have you not been asked to do that?

MR. DILWORTH: I haven't been asked definitely to make any such recommendation.

MR. WALKERDINE: But in view of that balance sheet you would consider something should be done, would you not?

MR. DILWORTH: As the auditor

I don't know whether that comes within my province.

MR. WALKERDINE: I appreciate that and I appreciate your not giving it, but I certainly think myself that something should be done and if you have not been asked to make a report that is quite o.k. as far as you are concerned personally. I thank you for the information.

MR. DILWORTH: Is that all, Mr. Walkerdine?

MR. WALKERDINE: Yes. I want to ask the Secretary something.

PRES. McFARLAND: Anything further?

MR. WALKERDINE: I would like to speak to Mr. Strachan.

Mr. Strachan, in November you published an item in Kennel and Bench and you said you were going to increase the rates slightly, because there was an extra cost, and yet the printing of Kennel and Bench this year, 1932, is only $4,563. Now, last year it was up more than that, $4,750.95, and yet you increase the price of these advertising rates twenty-five per cent all the way through. I wonder if you would be good enough to explain that?

THE SECRETARY: Well, for the information of Mr. Walkerdine I would advise the members that we did not increase the rates twenty-five per cent all the way through; the members of the Canadian Kennel Club and the original advertisers in the magazine were parties that we could not raise the advertising rate on. We did raise the advertising rate for a few advertisements that were submitted to us by an advertising man on which we paid him twenty-five per cent commission, that is all; the percentage was very small; and this is the first time I have heard any comment on it, as we have it from Mr. Walkerdine today. But the raising of the rate was only for the Christmas number and covered only a very few advertisements.

MRS. McCALL: Might I ask for the annual statement?

PRES. McFARLAND: You may look at it, certainly, Mrs. McCall.

Will somebody move the adoption of report, in order to regularize this?

Dr. Cooper moved the adoption of the auditors' report, which motion was seconded by Mr. Martin.

PRES. McFARLAND: Any further discussion?

MR. WALKERDINE: I wanted to ask Mr. Strachan something else, Mr. McFarland, if I may.

PRES. McFARLAND: All right.

MR. WALKERDINE: Mr. Strachan, I think the auditor read out subscriptions to Kennel and Bench, the amount received was $569. I think you still furnish thirty-five hundred Kennel and Bench.

THE SECRETARY: Yes.

MR. WALKERDINE: And we send out twelve hundred gratis?

THE SECRETARY: Yes.

MR. WALKERDINE: Could you tell me approximately how many paid up subscriptions go out in Canada through the Imperial News and whether they are a sale or returned, on consignment?

THE SECRETARY: Mr. President, replying to Mr. Walkerdine, I would advise you a copy of Kennel and Bench goes to every member of the Canadian Kennel Club, a copy goes to every subscriber, and there are 1,000 to 1,200 copies a month go to the American News that don't appear in subscriptions or anything else.

MR. DONALDSON: Are we going to get a financial statement? We can't argue on anything here if we don't know what we are talking about. No comparisons.

PRES. McFARLAND: Well, I don't know how we are going to do it.

THE SECRETARY: Mr. President, there has never been any instruction to me since I have been Secretary of the organization to prepare a copy of the financial statement for the annual meeting; I have furnished that myself when I had space in the paper. If I

MR. DONALDSON: I would like to keep one.

PRES. McFARLAND: I am afraid I shall have to keep this one but you may take it if you like and give it back when you are through with it.

MR. STOCKDALE: May I ask if the general books and accounts balance and if this statement shows that?

MR. DILWORTH: This balance sheet shows a total assets of $38,946.96, total liabilities and surplus of the same figure, $38,946.96. Does that answer your question?

MR. STOCKDALE: No, the question I want to know is, do the books balance?

MR. DILWORTH: The general ledger is in balance, yes.

MR. STOCKDALE: Do the other accounts balance?

MR. DILWORTH: The accounts receivable are not balanced, no.

MR. STOCKDALE: My reason for asking this is, not as to the figures on a statement, but the books do not balance; there is only a slight amount, I will admit, but I think you are entitled to that information.

MR. DILWORTH: Yes. That has been reported to the directors.

MR. STOCKDALE: Yes, but I think the general meeting should know that. I am speaking for the general meeting.

MR. GUNDERSON: What have you reference to, Mr. Stockdale.

MR. STOCKDALE: Well is it correct, Mr. President, if Mr. Gunderson can answer this, we are dealing with our Auditors' report, not the inclusion of anything from the National Live Stock Registration Board: I think the accounts submitted, receivable and payable to us, have been submitted to our auditors for the report now that we are dealing with. I don't want to shut him off but I don't think he can help us.

PRES. McFARLAND: What is the nature of it? The item I think is $30.

MR. STOCKDALE: $30.02.

PRES. McFARLAND: What is the nature of that discrepancy, Mr. Dilworth?

MR. DILWORTH: The nature of that discrepancy is this, Mr. McFarland, that according to your general books it shows a balance of accounts receivable of a certain figure—I haven't the statement here—and the detailed list of accounts receivable from the various advertisers shows an amount which is greater than the former amount by $30.02; the figure used in the statement has been the smaller of the two amounts, the more conservative one.

PRES. McFARLAND: I don't suppose that has anything to do with your department.

MR. DILWORTH: No.

PRES. McFARLAND: Any further discussion?

MR. WALKERDINE: Mr. President, might I ask Mr. Dilworth. Then I take it for granted there is no trial balance made every month, in that event?

MR. DILWORTH: There is a trial balance made of the general ledger.

MR. WALKERDINE: And you haven't been able to find the discrepancy at all?

MR. DILWORTH: No. There is also being prepared from now on, at my request, a trial balance of the accounts receivable ledger each month.

MR. WALKERDINE: That is the way it should be.

MR. DILWORTH: Yes.

MR. WALKERDINE: And it should have been done long ago.

PRES. McFARLAND: And that trial balance was done by your firm?

MR. DILWORTH: Pardon me, the trial balance was done by the office but checked by us. In future we will ask for the production of that trial balance on each visit and see that it is all right.

MR. DONALDSON: On this statement I note it has depreciation on furniture $1,983. I believe last year it depreciated the same or somewhat similar.

MR. DILWORTH: Perhaps I should answer that question, sir: It is a general business practice we find, and most other accountants do, that any office furniture has only a limited life. The rate used and allowed by the Dominion of Canada income tax department is ten per cent; that is they will allow business concerns to charge off that a year for business expense and we have charged it at that rate, ten per cent.

MR. DONALDSON: Only valued at $4,238 and it is depreciated $1,983, we will soon need some furniture if this keeps up.

MR. DILWORTH: It would tend to get down to a nominal value of nothing.

MR. DONALDSON: It is there already.

PRES. McFARLAND: Are you ready for the question?

MEMBERS: Question.

PRES. McFARLAND: All in favor of the motion to receive and adopt the report? Contrary? Carried.

CAPT. WATERS: I find there are several members in the room who are not paid up. I wish to draw your attention to that fact in case of close voting on any subject.

PRES. McFARLAND: It is quite clear, according to the Constitution, that members who are not paid up are not allowed to vote.

MR. DRAPER: Doesn't a member's membership expire in September, 1933?

PRES. McFARLAND: Membership is for the calendar year.

MR. GUNDERSON: If they have got in here without paying their membership they should pay it now.

MR. ROBERTS: Is it a further fact that one of our Board of Directors members hadn't paid his membership fees last year as he sat here?

PRES. McFARLAND: I couldn't tell you.

A MEMBER: I think the Secretary can tell you.

THE SECRETARY: It is a fact after the annual meeting was over last year it was drawn rather forcibly to our attention that a member of the Canadian Kennel Club who was very prominent in the meeting, taking part in all discussions and voting, was not a paid up member.

PRES. McFARLAND: But was he a director?

THE SECRETARY: He was a director in 1931.

MR. ROBERTS: And 1932. Was he not 1932?

PRES. McFARLAND: Mr. Roberts, we have a constitution by which we are bound. Now you cannot elect—

MR. ROBERTS: If the directors get away with it why can't individual members get away with it?

PRES. McFARLAND: I haven't seen any directors getting away with it.

MR. SHAWLEY: I find out by checking up, and I will quote Kennel and Bench, that Mr. Vincent Perry was named a director, his attendance was six meetings, he drew for those six meetings $75 expenses, and checking up the membership in the regular columns I find that Mr. Vincent Perry's name was not in the October issue, only in the amended issue, and he had almost a month's time to get his 1932 dues to Ottawa to be recognized in the October issue. He sat all through that year from the election of officers right to the last without paying his dues. That is the quotation from Kennel and Bench.

And another thing, sir, I think it would be a hardship to refuse your staunch and true members who have been with us for years and years admittance to the door and to disfranchise them at this meeting on the statement last made in regard to your actions when you didn't take any action against directors last year.

THE SECRETARY: Might I say, Mr. President, every precaution is taken in the office when nominations come in in the first instance to see that the proposer and seconder are paid up members and that the persons nominated are paid up members, so that Perry must have been all right when he came in there concerning his 1932 membership. As a matter of fact I haven't the gentleman's account here but I have made a note of it and it will be investigated.

MR. ECCLES: Mr. Chairman, I am not a paid up member. I have some things to speak on, and if I am not allowed to speak I just want to find out from the Chairman. I am a member of long standing and I intend to be a member but I haven't been able, through hard times, to just pay my dues up to date. I wanted to come down to this meeting but if the meeting rules that I shouldn't stay in the meeting, why o.k.

PRES. McFARLAND: Personally, I don't see any objection to you staying in the meeting, or any member, but I don't think under the constitution we can allow an unpaid member to vote.

THE SECRETARY: Mr. President, might I say at this moment that as far as Mr. James Eccles is concerned, as Secretary of Canadian Kennel Club, that Mr. McCullough has my permission now to make out his membership and charge it to me for the meantime. —Applause.

PRES. McFARLAND: We will go on with the Election Commissioners' Report. Will you read that, please, Mr. Secretary?

The Secretary reads the Election Commissioners' Report.

PRES. McFARLAND: Will somebody move the adoption of the report?

MOVED BY Mr. Pendelbury.

SECONDED BY Mr. Stockdale.

THAT the Election Commissioners' Report be adopted.

THE SECRETARY: Will you, Mr. President, make a motion or address the meeting asking the speakers to give their names?

The President put the motion, which, upon a vote having been taken, was declared carried, and the report of the Election Commissioners' adopted.

PRES. McFARLAND: The next order of business is the appointing of an Election Commission for the year and as the firm of Clarkson, Gordon & Dilworth were reappointed auditors for the year at last night's meeting of directors, under the Constitution they become the Election Commission.

MR. DRAPER: Is it proper for the directors to appoint the Election Commissioners?

PRES. McFARLAND: The auditors are appointed by the Board of Directors, yes.

The next is the report of the representatives to the Canadian National Exhibition. Mr. Bruce usually does this, but in his absence I shall do this and, frankly, ladies and gentlemen, in my estimation the Exhibition Dog Show is in a very, very serious state. Owing to a combination of circumstances, the chief one and foremost of which is of course the wretched building which we were obliged to occupy, and another one of which is the apathy on the part of the Board of Directors of the Exhibition and the fact that they consider the dog show a drain, it would not take very much to have the C.N.E. dog show dropped altogether. I think I am not overstating the fact. Your representatives on the Board have felt themselves opposed in almost all their suggestions and there is a general air of hostility. Now frankly I don't know how we are going to overcome that unless we are given the opportunity of having the show under proper circumstances and in a proper place. In my opinion, although I may be wrong, I think that we have to abandon the present building before we will ever get anywhere. There is a possibility, which I am exploring at the present time, and which I have mentioned to some of the directors, of transferring the Exhibition Dog Show to that part of the Horse Building where the Royal Winter Fair Dog Show is held and which has proved to be a very excellent place, with ample accommodation as you know for dogs, exhibitors and spectators. It is bright and airy and as far as I know is not used particularly by the Exhibition except for storage space or something of the sort; at least there are no exhibits there. Now that to my mind is about the only salvation. You cannot get a new building, because the old building of course is coming down under the scheme of some extension work they have in view and it is only being held up on account of the financial situation, so they won't have a new building and there is not any other accommodation that I can see that would possibly be available.

Now I am sorry that my report as your representative to the Exhibition must be such a lugubrious one, but that is the situation and we have to face it. The entries have been decreasing, as you know, every year, and it is impossible I think with the best will in the world to improve that show in that building. We all know from actual experience there that is the situation.

Now, turning to the Winter Fair, the picture is a good deal brighter because we have there, as you know, a very excellent place to hold the show, direct indoor connection with the Horse Show and every other department of the Royal Winter Fair, and also within the last year or two the attitude of the directors towards us, of the Royal Winter Fair, has altered quite appreciably and they are now, I think I may say, our very good friends. We were rather tolerated for the first few years but the atmosphere has improved very considerably and I think the show last November was a very good one, very well handled, and I know that the Royal Winter Fair Directors were pleased with it and we were able to get certain concessions which helped us with the show. I think the show as far as the Royal Winter Fair is concerned may be considered to have established itself on a firm basis and look forward with a great deal of confidence to the future. I don't suppose Mr. Runions is here, is he?

The next item of business, ladies and gentlemen, is the report of the Committee on Dog Show Rules and Regulations.

MR. JACKSON: Do you think, Mr. President, we have had enough discussion about this proposed new building for the Dog Show? I don't think you will ever be able to get a new building. You might have a little discussion here that the representatives would be well advised to try to get after this building, and I believe there should be a little more thought to it today and find out what the members think.

MR. STOCKDALE: Mr. President, I personally wish the members would take part in this discussion; it is a live topic with you everywhere it seems to me except at your annual meeting where you elect your representatives to these various boards. We are not at all satisfied with the conditions prevailing at the Exhibition. The building is certainly inadequate and is worn out. The picture that is painted is not a rosy one. Your president as your representative has told you that the Exhibition Association is almost willing to drop the Dog Show due to erroneous reports and the lack of any hopes of a new building being put up. I think I am right when I state that it is also a fact that the ground on which the present building stands is not the property of the Exhibition Board.

PRES. McFARLAND: I think that is so, Mr. Stockdale.

MR. STOCKDALE: It is just a piece of property which really belongs to the Hydro Radial or the Hydro Commission of the Province of Ontario and just as soon as that building goes down no building can be rebuilt on that site. Just as long as you put up with that building and they continue to house the dogs there and use that for storage that building will remain, but just as soon as you cease to use that for a Dog Show that building will be torn down and no building will take its place, at least not on that site, and I don't think we can hope for a building being built on the grounds anywhere, at any rate in the near future.

Reference has been made to space in the Equestrian Building which would lend itself admirably to the dog show, which, as you all know, is the space used in the Royal Winter Fair. Reference has been made to the changed attitude of the Winter Fair directors towards the dog show. There are others present in the room this afternoon who were with myself the representatives from this association to the first Winter Fair Board, and to say that we were tolerated just about expresses it. I see H. M. Jackson smiling. Let me tell you where we were grouped and how welcome we were, fellows: There was a Miscellaneous Group for something they didn't know where to put and that Miscellaneous Group consisted of flowers, goats and dogs. You can very readily see that we were very very welcome in a miscellaneous group of that kind, but that has since been changed and, due to the efforts put forward by the National Kennel Club a show is put on which is a credit to the Royal Winter Fair and certainly a credit to the show-giving club conducting that show.

If you have anything to suggest I wish you would voice your feelings at this time so that your representatives will know exactly your feeling towards it and that we may be able to go on and transact your business between now and next Exhibition time when the Exhibition Association appeals to the Board of Directors for their business for the dog show, if they do so.

MR. MORGAN: Mr. President, ladies and gentlemen, after hearing the talk from the Chair and Mr. Stockdale and Mr. Jackson I think we all ought to fall in line with this idea. I don't think there is a man or woman in the room who would not sooner bench their dogs in the Royal Winter Fair Building as we call it than they would at the old wooden building at the C.N.E. I have been showing my dogs only ten years but I would rather take my dogs there than that old wooden building, and I think we should get together, as Col. McFarland said, and try to do the best we can.

MR. SHAWLEY: Mr. President, in regard to the Exhibition authorities I know authoritatively and I can vouch that they don't care whether they put another dog show on or not. I think this year the only place the C.K.C. will be able to put on a show will be that annex.

PRES. McFARLAND: What do you mean by the annex, Mr. Shawley?

MR. SHAWLEY: Where the Royal Winter Fair had their show.

COL. McFARLAND: The dog show?

MR. SHAWLEY: Yes.

COL. McFARLAND: In the east end of the Equestrian Building.

MR. SHAWLEY: Yes. Where the Royal Winter Fair show was. I think that is the only place where you will be able to hold one. At the same time you have your work cut out to get a dog show at all this year. It will be almost impossible, I think, with your best endeavors of the Board of Directors to induce the Canadian National Exhibition to put a dog show on without they give us co-operation from this body, and I can't see any better place myself than the one that is used by the National Kennel Club.

MR. JACKSON: Don't you think all that is necessary, about, is to get good separate benching set in there and an electric sign and I think you will have just as good a building as you could have any place in Canada right where they are? I think they would be well advised to put that up to the Exhibition authorities.

PRES. McFARLAND: It has been done already, Mr. Jackson.

Now, gentlemen, shall we go on with the report of the Committee on Dog Show Rules?

Are you ready, Mr. Reeves?

MR. STOCKDALE: Mr. President, just before you go on with that am I in order in moving that this agenda be changed and that this report of the Committee on the Dog Show Rules lie over until our evening session? If so I would like to do that.

PRES. McFARLAND: Yes. I believe, although we have a splendid representation here, that we will have a larger representation at the evening session than we have now.

Do you so move?

MR. STOCKDALE: I so move.

Seconded by Mr. Morgan.

PRES. McFARLAND: I suppose it is inevitable that we will have an evening session, but if you make it at the end of the other business it will be better.

GEN. NELLES: Does that apply also to the changes in the Constitution?

MR. STOCKDALE: No.

GEN. NELLES: Because there is so

CHAMPION Scottish Terrier

Conditioned on Karswood Dog Powders

"Eglinton Sweet Memory,"—Canadian Champion.

Read this letter from Mr. Alec McCloy, a former Chairman of the Provincial Board of Directors for the Canadian Kennel Club, and owner of Ch. Eglinton Sweet Memory, the Canadian Champion Scottish Terrier. This is what Mr. McCloy says:—

Victoria, British Columbia.
I am sending you a photograph of Champion "Eglinton Sweet Memory." This bitch was conditioned on Karswood Dog Powders previous to and during the three big provincial shows in British Columbia, as follows:—

1. At Vancouver, 24th of May, under the International judge, Mr. Jack Bradshaw, going Best of Breed, then Best Terrier in Show (all breeds), and finally to Best Bitch in Show (all breeds), only being beaten by an International Champion English Setter for Best Dog in Show.
2. At New Westminster Show, end of May, under International judge, Mr. George Cranfield, went Best of Breed, and Best Terrier (all breeds) in Show.
3. On July 2nd, under International judge, Mr. Jack Meadows, repeated the above success and won the title of Canadian Champion Scottish Terrier.

I may say that through Karswood Dog Powders I saved the lives of two pups belonging to a friend. These were very poor and in an almost dying condition, but picked up in marvellous fashion under repeated small doses of your Karswood Dog Powders.

My West Highland White Terriers and English Setters have all benefited greatly from using your powders.

1st September, 1928.

ALEC McCLOY.
The reason why Karswood Dog Powders are so successful in tackling doggy ailments and producing such high condition, is because they contain specific nerve foods and organic salts which the dog's system must have if he is to enjoy the perfect health which resists disease.

much of it, with the changes in the Constitution, we will never get through tonight.

PRES. McFARLAND: Well, then, Mr. Stockdale is moving that the consideration of the report of the Committee on Dog Show Rules and Regulations be placed at the end of the agenda. Is that correct, Mr. Stockdale?

MR. STOCKDALE: Yes.

MR. SWEETMAN: I would second that.

The President put the motion, which, upon a vote being taken, was declared carried.

PRES. McFARLAND: Wouldn't it be well to couple with that motion the proposed amendments to the Dog Show Rules?

MR. STOCKDALE: Yes. It would.

PRES. McFARLAND: Well, then, we will just consider that.

MR. STOCKDALE: My intention was to cover that. I should have done so.

PRES. McFARLAND: The next business, ladies and gentlemen, is the Election of Representatives to the Various Boards

In that connection I am going to ask Messrs. Walkerdine and Tyrwhitt and Mrs. McCall to act as scrutineers, and Mr. Walkerdine as referee, in accordance with the Constitution.

The first is the representatives to the Canadian National Exhibition. Last year's representatives were Mr. Bruce and myself. I will accept nominations.

The following gentlemen were nominated: Mr. Stockdale, Mr. Harry Wilson, Mr. A. Roberts.

MR. ROSS: I move in view of the present situation at the Canadian National Exhibition the present Committee be left in complete handling of this situation, which I think the bulk of the members present will agree is to say the least uncertain.

PRES. McFARLAND: We have three nominations.

MR. ROSS: That is all right. I was getting up when the other was popping.

PRES. McFARLAND: Are you nominating anybody?

MR. ROSS: Yes, Col. McFarland and Mr. Bruce. Under the circumstances, I feel that they have handled this situation up till now and under the circumstances they explained as regards the building it is better than having new men. It is not any slight on the gentlemen nominating the other nominees at all, it is just simply because of the circumstances as they are at present I think it ought to be in the same hands.

MR. BANNISTER: Has the gentleman a right to give a lecture on each nomination as it comes up? If so we will all lecture.

PRES. McFARLAND: Mr. Ross has a perfect right to explain why he is nominating whom he is.

Any further nominations?

A MEMBER: I move the nominations close.

MR. MACONCHIE: I would like to nominate Major Ward Wright.

COL. MacRAE: I move the nominations close.

MR. REEVES: I second that.

PRES. McFARLAND: Is that your pleasure, gentlemen?—Carried.

The nominations are: Messrs. Wm. Stockdale, Harry Wilson, A. Roberts, G. F. McFarland, J. W. Bruce, E. Ward Wright. Two to be elected.

Ballot papers were distributed and the voting proceeded with.

During the voting Mr. Walkerdine, at the request of the president, repeated the names of the nominees, for the benefit of the members.

MR. SHAWLEY: Mr. President, is Mr. Bruce in the room?

PRES. McFARLAND: No.

MR. SHAWLEY: Do you know whether he will stand or not? It is only a fair question to ask, because you don't know whether he will be willing to stand or not.

PRES. McFARLAND: You may take it for what it is worth, but in conversation with me he indicated he would be willing to stand. As a matter of fact he was discussing with me certain matters to be taken up towards getting the new quarters.

MR. SHAWLEY: Thank you.

PRES. McFARLAND: Now, while the scrutineers are counting the ballots I will receive nominations for the three representatives to the Royal Agricultural Winter Fair. Last year's representatives were Col. MacRae, Mr. Alex. Gooderham and myself.

MR. REEVES: I would like to propose Col. MacRae.

MR. PYM: I nominate Brig.-Gen. Nelles.

MR. MORGAN: I nominate Mr. Stockdale and Harry Wilson.

MR. REEVES: Col. McFARLAND and Mr. A. Gooderham.

PRES. McFARLAND: Any further nominations?

A MEMBER: I nominate Mr. A. Roberts.

SECOND MEMBER: I nominate Mr. A. Donaldson.

PRES. McFARLAND: Any further nominations?

MR. REEVES: I move the nominations be closed.

Seconded and carried.

PRES. McFARLAND: What is your pleasure? The following are nominated and if any do not wish their names to stand now is the time to say so: Messrs. MacRae, Nelles, Stockdale, Wilson, McFarland, Gooderham, Roberts, Donaldson.

MR. DONALDSON: I decline to stand.

MR. ROBERTS: So do I.

MR. MACONCHIE: Mr. Chairman, are the members all present who are nominated?

PRES. McFARLAND: They are all here.

Ballots were distributed and the voting proceeded with.

PRES. McFARLAND: While this is going on there is also one representative to be elected to the Central Canada Exhibition at Ottawa. Our representative for I think two or three years ever since Cecil Bethune became president of the Central Canada Exhibition, has been Mr. Ed. Runions.

MR. KYNOCH: I would again nominate Mr. Ed. Runions.

MR. STOCKDALE: I second that. The President put the motion, which, upon a vote being taken was declared carried.

PRES. McFARLAND: The names for election as representatives to the Royal Winter Fair, are Messrs. MacRae, Nelles, Stockdale, Harry Wilson, McFarland and Alex. Gooderham.

COL. MacRAE: Three for this, is it not, Colonel?

COL. McFARLAND: Three, yes. (Re-reads names of the nominees). Three of them.

The referee and the scrutineers reported on the election to the Canadian National Exhibition Board the election of Messrs. Stockdale and McFarland.—Applause.

Ladies and gentlemen, the scrutineers report the following have been elected to the Board of the Royal Winter Fair: Messrs. Stockdale, MacRae, McFarland.—Applause.

Now, before we take on the rather perhaps long business of the amendments to the Constitution, I am going to ask Mr. Walter Reeves to give us a short report verbally of certain negotiations that have been carried on with the Live Stock Board in regard to the registration of unregistered champions. A committee was appointed composed of Messrs. Reeves and Ross and I think you will be satisfied that they have made a real effort to solve this problem for us. Mr. Reeves.

MR. REEVES: Mr. Chairman, ladies and gentlemen, I think you all know my feeling towards the registering of our unregistered champions. I have taken considerable time taking this matter up with the Minister of Agriculture. Mr. Ross and myself attended the Records' Board last year and we had permission there to bring this matter before the Records Board Committee which was held this week in Toronto. Our Secretary, Mr. James Strachan, and myself attended that Board. We found the Records Board a most constructive lot of breeders. They felt that the Canadian Kennel Club was doing a real thing in keeping the Canadian dogs before the public, and I can assure you, ladies and gentlemen, that we had and will have all the assistance that the Records Board can give us in getting these unregistered champions registered. We have with us today one of the Records Board, Col. Bull, now president. What we have to do now is to insist, and I believe that we can insist that what we propose as the Canadian Kennel Club we do for the good of the Canadian dogs. We all of us feel that we need these unregistered champions. There is an amendment going through either this afternoon or tonight which has to go before the Minister, and I can give you my impression, that I really believe that at last we have accomplished something towards getting these unregistered champions recognized by the Canadian National Live Stock Records.—Applause.

PRES. McFARLAND: Thank you, Mr. Reeves.

Would Col. Bull care to say anything?

Introducing Col. Bull of the Records Board, ladies and gentlemen.—Applause. We are certainly delighted to have you with us this afternoon.

COL. BULL: Mr. Chairman, ladies and gentlemen, I was going to say "unfortunately," but I don't know if that is the right word or not, I am not a breeder of dogs; we always keep a few dogs, and pure bred dogs at that. At the moment we are confined to one sheep dog, commonly called the "bob" I believe, to give the right language.

Well, I am here and I am very, very interested in this point of yours about the registering of your unregistered champions. I don't think I would have been so much interested in it only for the fact that it has been so frequently brought to my ears that the reason that this amendment to your Constitution has not gone through is the Records Committee of the National Live Stock Records Board. I have been a member of that Records Committee for quite a few years. At the moment I happen to be the Vice-Chairman of it and may step up in due course, and with the feeling that I might, at your suggestion I put myself out a great deal this afternoon to be at your meeting, not that I intended to say a word, but so that when we meet again within a month or just in a month I would be able to satisfy myself and try to satisfy the members of the Board and the Committee what the feeling of this meeting is. Mr. Reeves and your other members have come to our annual general meeting I think twice, am I not right?

MR. REEVES: Yes.

COL. BULL: All "het up," if you like, about this point of yours, and at the same time other people told me and told others of the Committee that your meeting was not unanimous on the point, that you had members very strong for it, that you had other members just as strongly against it, and that it was always a point of contention. Having spent all my life in nothing other than the breeding of pure bred livestock my own feeling is—mark you, I say I don't know a thing in the world about dogs—but my own feeling is that you are absolutely wrong in registering unregistered champions, but when I say that, and I say that with all the truth there ever was or ever may be in me, when I say that, that is none of our business; whether you register unregistered champions or unregistered dogs or unregistered anything else is no business whatsoever of the Records Committee, and I say without fear of contradiction that the Records Committee has never in any way, manner, shape or form stopped your proposed amendment being recorded, being accepted and approved by the Minister of Agriculture, and furthermore, if this meeting passes this proposed amendment to your Constitution I will do everything in my power, and I know the Minister of Agriculture, and I think he will listen to what I have to say to him, and I will do everything in my power to get the thing through. As far as the Records Committee and Records office is concerned we will not register dogs such as a couple that have come in I think in the last few months from England that are unregistered champions, we will not record them, and I think you each and every one would agree that we would be very wrong in recording them, because we would be going against your Constitution, and we won't go against it; your Constitution governs all pedigrees that will be recorded by the National Live Stock Records, and if you change your Constitution that I can gather up a dog out here on the street and apply for it to be registered it will be registered.

PRES. McFARLAND: Oh no.

MEMBERS: Oh no.

COL. BULL: I don't know whether you heard me right or whether I didn't say what I intended to say: If you change your Constitution that I can go out on the street and pick up a dog and apply to register it, it will be registered by us, if your Constitution says so. Your Constitution is not going to say so, I know that, but if it does say so, that dog will be recorded. Get that clearly, whatever you do at this meeting, provided it is approved, will be done by the Records office and the Records Committee. As I said before, if you are going to keep the pure bred stuff, I think registering short pedigrees is absolutely wrong. It would be with us in Jersey cattle, it will not be in dogs. You people know the dog business. If you don't you should, or else you shouldn't be here, and if you pass this thing the Records Committee will do its best to see that the thing is approved by the Minister. We have never done anything to stop it being approved; we will do everything we can to help you along, and if it is approved your dogs will be recorded as such. If any person thinks of anything else the Records Committee could do to help you we are willing and anxious to do it, but that is where we stand on it: Whatever this meeting does we will try to do and try to see it through.—Applause.

PRES. McFARLAND: I am sure we are all very grateful to Col. Bull for coming here and for his assurance of assistance.

MR. REEVES: Mr. President, may I just say a few words in reply to Col. Bull? I think we are all very grateful that the Colonel was good enough to come and be with us this afternoon. There is one little thing that I would like to ask about very forcibly, this short pedigree. I think that there is a little mistake in the Records Board about what we want to do on this. It is not a short pedigree, Col. Bull, that we want to register. The dogs we want to register, we can give a pedigree back twenty generations.

COL. BULL: I understand that.

MR. REEVES: But all that is called for today is a three generation pedigree, but I wish you gentlemen to understand that we are not trying to register short pedigree dogs. These unregistered champions, if we want to go back we can trace them back for twenty generations. Col. Bull, I wish to thank you very very much indeed for your kindness in coming here this afternoon and also for the kindness that you have always extended to the representatives of the Canadian Kennel Club when they have attended your meetings.—Applause.

MR. PYM: May I have one word, Mr. Chairman? I personally greatly appreciate the attendance of Col. Bull here today, and with your permission I would like to say to Col. Bull we would like him to keep in mind the fact that we are discriminating against Canadian-bred dogs with an authentic three or more generation pedigree; at the same time we extend the privileges to foreign bred dogs of which no previous record has been kept.

As an illustration, and I pointed it out five years ago and no one has been able to contradict me, the height of the ambition of a dog owner is to make his dog a champion, a Canadian Kennel Club champion of record; naturally you as a breeder want to know what is behind that dog, and I submitted five years ago the fact that we could produce five and more generations in support of those dogs. Now then, the Live Stock Records now provide that any one can import a dog from, say, Japan—and let me warn you that Japan is going to be an exporter of dogs to Canada and they are exporters at this moment—and it is not necessary to have a pedigree at all, and I am certain it is impossible to contradict me on this point, that dog will be registered as foundation stock, and I claim it is the most unCanadian thing possible to refuse registrations to Canadian-bred champions with three or more generation pedigrees, and in the next breath register a dog of no proven merit and breeding unknown because it was imported from a foreign country, of which no previous record had been kept. I thank you.

PRES. McFARLAND: Any further discussion of this question can take place when we consider the amendment to the Constitution as we will proceed to do in due course and which is the next order of business.

MR. STOCKDALE: Mr. President, it may just be of interest though to Col. Bull in going back to his Committee to know that every province in the Dominion of Canada is engaged here in this work this afternoon.

COL. McFARLAND: I think the Colonel knows that already.

COL. BULL: Col. McFarland, you will pardon me interrupting, I don't know what your order of procedure is, and as you may expect I can't be here too long and if possible I would like to see you act on that proposed change. Mark you, I don't want to interrupt or disturb your proceedings, but I would just like while I am here if that can be done so that I will have the picture to take back with me.

PRES. McFARLAND: Is that satisfactory?

MR. MACONCHIE: I move, Mr. Chairman, that we take that amendment first.

PRES. McFARLAND: Then I will ask Mr. Stockdale to introduce his amendment to Article 16 of the Constitution. Now that amendment is on the last page about halfway down the right hand column.

MR. STOCKDALE: In pursuance of article 20, amendments to the Constitution, I move that Article 16 of the Constitution (rules of entry) be amended by the addition of a subsection to be known as subsection K to section 1, to read as follows:

"Canadian-bred dogs with an authentic three generation ancestry, and which have been awarded championships under the rules of the Canadian Kennel Club governing dog shows."

MR. PYM: I second that.

PRES. McFARLAND: Is there any discussion?

MEMBERS: Question.

PRES. McFARLAND: Are you ready for the question?

MR. STOCKDALE: This has been so thoroughly threshed out that if we do discuss it it will be only for Col. Bull's interest or information.

We have had this up for the past five years, Col. Bull, and each year it has been discussed but never coming in exactly this shape as an amendment to our rules of entry. If those interested would discuss it, and I think perhaps Mr. Pym, representing the province that is suffering to perhaps the greatest extent under the present conditions, perhaps for Col. Bull's information he would take the lead in discussing this amendment.

MR. PYM: Mr. President, I cannot agree with my friend Mr. Stockdale that the province I represent today is the greatest sufferer; I have taken a Dominion-wide view of this subject and I have given it a great deal of thought and naturally if I were to occupy your time long it would be only a repetition of the opinions which I have expressed on different occasions. But I would point this out very forcibly in addition to what I pointed out, that the Orient is now sending dogs to Canada and they are going to be registered according to our laws and that, I repeat, is the most unCanadian thing I know of, not registering dogs that are our own champions with three and four generation pedigrees and grant them the privilege. In addition to that I would point out to you that the American Kennel Club has legislated most progressively to additionally protect the American bred dog and I admire them for so doing. It was possible a short time ago to whelp a female in Florida and the progeny would then be registered as an American bred dog. That is not the new law that has come into effect very recently. While other countries are protecting their own progeny we, again I say, are extending privileges to foreign breeders which we deny our own Canadian breeders and I submit that we have a better article to protect, and furthermore we have records of unregistered champions sworn to. I say on the question of any record, as far as the authenticity is concerned, in the Records office there are no hit and miss records there—They are authentic records—and I would like that to be remembered. Now, then, why should we grant foreign breeders privileges that we deny our own breeders? Why is it not possible for a Canadian breeder to have the same privilege that we grant to a Japanese breeder? But why bother to even ask that? All we ask is that you recognize and accept for registration Canadian-bred dogs which have proven their merits by competition under at least three different judges and completed their Canadian Kennel Club championship and supported by an authentic three generation pedigree.

MR. C. A. WARD: At this time I would like to move the adoption of this amendment.

PRES. McFARLAND: Well it has been moved, Mr. Ward, by Mr. Stockdale.

MR. WARD: I wasn't aware of the fact that it had been.

PRES. McFARLAND: Yes, it has been moved by Mr. Stockdale.

There are some opponents to this amendment, I know; I have heard them every time it has been considered, and I think we should make an effort to hear both sides of the story. I would like to hear what the arguments are against it. We have always had opponents here.

MR. ROSS: Mr. Chairman, I think all the arguments we ever had against it was the fact that the Records book was closed and it was the intention of the Committee, or they had issued a statement in writing to the Records Board at Ottawa, some considerable time ago, that this matter would not be opened again. That is the only objection I have ever known.

COL. BULL: Pardon me, sir, those instructions were sent to the Records Board. You people, I think you do it unconsciously, but you are so awfully hostile by remarks like you made and like Mr. Pym just made.

MR. ROSS: I can't help making any other remarks; that is the impression we got at the time and the way it was expressed to us.

COL. BULL: Yes sir, but please bear with me in this: Their undertaking that the Records book was closed, they are not in the Records office, it was to the Dominion Department of Agriculture; and as Mr. Pym just said something or other about these dogs coming in from Japan, we won't accept them, we have nothing to do with accepting them, it is up to the Canadian Kennel Club to accept them or refuse them.

MR. ROSS: Well I will apologize to Col. Bull, but it doesn't alter the fact, Colonel, that whenever we would go down to the Ottawa Records Board they had a great air of knowing of this.

COL. BULL: Well we haven't.

COL. McFARLAND: Now we know differently.

MR. ROSS: Now we are finding out something.

MR. REEVES: Mr. President, during the time I have been trying to get these unregistered champions through I want to tell you one thing, that it is only this week that I found out that it is not the Records Board that is stopping the registration of our unregistered champions.

I want to tell you something too, ladies and gentlemen, that when I went down to see Mr. Weir, I went down and had a most satisfactory interview with Mr. Weir—

PRES. McFARLAND: Mr. Weir is the Minister of Agriculture.

MR. REEVES: Mr. Weir told me that he was entirely in accord with me and that these unregistered champions should be registered and, ladies and gentlemen, I want to tell you this much, that I went across to the Records office and there I found that there was a stick—and there has been a stick—and I don't know who it is that is wielding this stick, but now, gentlemen, we have the support and we know that it is not the Records Board and I believe that with this amendment going through at last we are going to realize our ambition and see these dogs available to Canadian breeders.

PRES. McFARLAND: Any further discussion?

A MEMBER: I move that the discussion close.

MR. ALTON: What would you consider an authentic three-generation pedigree?

MR. REEVES: That we have given our word that we will not ask the Records Board to register one of these unregistered champions except we feel in our own minds that the pedigree they supply is authentic. Now we are going over these pedigrees very carefully and I can assure you, gentlemen, with my thirty-five years' experience in breeding, showing, not only dogs but all kinds of livestock, that I am going to see personally myself that the stud books, when these pedigrees go through, are clean. Ladies and gentlemen, at the present time I feel very, very strongly about these unregistered champions because there is such a temptation to it, that if you have an unregistered champion in your kennel

MR. McFARLAND: Mr. McVannel is here. Would he like to say something on the subject?

MR. McVANNEL: Mr. President, ladies and gentlemen, I do not know that there is anything much I can contribute to the meeting in connection with that subject. Our duties are to work with the Department of Agriculture, mostly with the Canadian National Livestock Records actively, to guarantee and assure that this is in accordance with your Constitution. I am not sufficiently familiar with it, not breeding dogs, I would hesitate at the present time to express an opinion.

PRES. McFARLAND: Thank you, Mr. McVannel.

Are you ready for the question?

All in favor of the amendment as proposed by Mr. Stockdale will please signify in the usual manner, and will the Secretary please count, because we have to have a two-thirds majority.

THE SECRETARY: We don't need a "contrary" this time apparently.

PRES. McFARLAND: Contrary, if any? I declare the amendment carried.

COL. MacRAE: Ladies and gentlemen, Col. McFarland is leaving for a few minutes. I think the next item here is the proposed amendments to the Constitution. Turning to the last page of the proposed amendments to the Constitution, the amendment by Gerald L. Stock:

MR. STOCKDALE: Might I just mention for those speaking to give their names? I don't know you all by name but I am endeavoring to help the stenographer so that we can get a complete record; he doesn't know you, so just mention your name before you speak.

MR. PYM: Mr. Chairman, I move the adoption of Mr. Stock's proposed amendment:

"A member wishing to resign must before the end of the then current year and pay all arrears, if any, otherwise he is considered a member in arrears until September 30th of the year following the year for which his membership has been paid, but shall be entitled to register or transfer dogs at non-members' rates."

MR. KYNOCH: I second the resolution.

MR. PYM: Speaking to Mr. Stock's motion, I submit on behalf of Mr. Stock, and I personally share his views, that we are now passing through a time when the most leniency must be granted to members. Under the present rule it is not possible for a member in arrears to register or transfer dogs even at the non-member rates. In other words, a non-member of the association has privileges which are denied a member in arrears. I also submit that a member in September of any calendar year may have the best intentions in the world of continuing his membership in the Canadian Kennel Club, but through circumstances over which he has no control he is unable to in the following January renew his membership and therefore is deprived of the privileges of registering his stock and transferring his stock at the non-member rates. In other words he cannot transact any business with the Records Office, whereas if he could transact his business at non-member rates he possibly would sell sufficient stock to put him in a very favorable financial situation so he could again take up his membership and continue as he originally intended before his membership was interrupted through circumstances over which he had no control.—Applause.

MR. GUNDERSON: Mr. Chairman, Mr. Stock's amendment gives great privileges for non-members' rates. For instance, if he hadn't paid his membership by say January 1st he is still getting Kennel and Bench for the entire year. He is considered a member to December 30th of this year. And on the other hand, if he registered dogs or transferred dogs at non-members' rates he would be paying double fees, so I don't see the advantage of it at all. For instance, if he registered two dogs he would be paying $4 instead of $2. There is no advantage at all.

COL. MACRAE: But it is a fact, Mr. Gunderson, that he cannot register dogs at all.

MR. STOCKDALE: Mr. President, Speaking to this and following what has been contended by Mr. Gunderson, it is true that the non-member pays $2 for the registration where the member would pay $1, but I don't know that the Canadian Kennel Club would benefit perhaps as much as the National Live Stock Records would if you would allow that man to spend the $2. He may have a sale pending, subject to his being able to register a puppy, perhaps at a fair price. He hasn't got $4 in his pocket to send his membership fee to Ottawa to renew his membership and he is just a little bit too proud and a little bit too British to tell the prospective buyer that "I haven't got $2, Mister, or I haven't got $4, to pay my membership and I can't register your puppy." And if he did, look at the position he would be placed in as a salesman to the prospective buyer, and you preclude the registration of that dog due to his not having paid his membership fee even up till this date, and if he sends you $2 you say "We are holding to your credit $2 or $4, when you send the balance of $2 for your membership fee plus $1 for the registration of this puppy and twenty-five cents for the transfer we will complete the transaction." Now, as has been pointed out, a man who has been, or a woman, a member of this organization for several years past perhaps, coming into times like we are all going through at the present time, is not disgraced by lacking $4, and he perhaps can get $50 if you will accept his $2.50 that he digs up to register and transfer the puppy and then you can get your $4 afterwards, membership fee, out of the purchase price paid by the purchaser. Reference has been made to Kennel and Bench. Probably he will get Kennel and Bench till September, but you get in addition $2 from him that you don't get if you don't accept the registration fee as a non-member. He is paying a penalty; he is in default; he is just like a lot of us are with our taxes and we are paying a penalty. Why don't you do the same here? You have a parallel case here, the municipality puts a penalty on the man who doesn't pay his taxes on the day appointed. They won't refuse to take a portion of it or they won't refuse to sell him water or they won't refuse to sell him light. Why don't you extend to him this privilege, and you get double the money—the Records Board will get the biggest share of it anyway.

MR. WALKERDINE: Will you be good enough, Mr. Pym, to tell me this: Mr. Stock says he wants deleted under "membership" a certain clause, but will you be good enough to tell me if that is article 3, section 6, because if you can "can" that you get over the difficulty. He makes no reference but he just simply says the heading and there are fourteen paragraphs in that heading.

MR. PYM: Mr. Chairman, if I might reply to Mr. Walkerdine through you?

COL. MACRAE: Yes.

MR. PYM: Might I ask the Secretary to read the present law in regard to memberships? Then we will have the correct version of the present law.

THE SECRETARY: Reading from the Constitution, Mr. President, Article 3, Section A, refers to honorary members. I don't suppose this meeting is interested in that.

MEMBERS: No.

THE SECRETARY: Annual members. (Reads sub-section B).

MR. PYM: That is not the item, Mr. Secretary. There is still another item to the effect if the fee is not paid the member shall not be permitted to register dogs at non member rates.

THE SECRETARY: Section 3, item 4, reads as follows: (Reads). Mr. Pym, does that answer your question?

MR. PYM: Not yet, Mr. Secretary. There is still another point.

Well, I may save some time and the Secretary's time also by asking Mr. Gunderson through you if it is not a fact that a member in arrears may not register his dog at non-member rates?

COL. MACRAE: He has answered that.

MR. PYM: That is a fact.

MR. REEVES: Mr. President, may I ask a question? If this goes through would that mean that anyone who is living in Canada can register a dog at members' rates?

MR. PYM: Non-members' rates.

MR. REEVES: Non-members' rates? Do you mean to say that today a Canadian cannot register a dog unless he is a member of the Canadian Kennel Club?

COL. MACRAE: Only if he is in arrears that is, from January 1st up until September that he is in arrears.

MR. REEVES: Well then if this goes through it would mean that a member who is in arrears, if we allowed him to do it he could go on for years and years still registering at members' rates.

MEMBERS: No.

MR. STOCKDALE: Non-members'.

MR. REEVES: All right.

MRS. MCCOLL: I think you made a slight mistake regarding Kennel and Bench. If I remember right we don't get the magazine if we don't pay our dues after February, isn't that correct?

THE SECRETARY: No, Mrs. McCall. I would say that you get Kennel and Bench until September.

COL. MacRAE: Any more discussion?

MR. PYM: Mr. Chairman, if you will permit me rising again, I might clear the atmosphere by adding to Mr. Stock's proposed amendment that the member in arrears shall not receive Kennel and Bench during the period that he is in arrears.

MEMBERS: Hear hear!

MR. MORGAN: Mr. Chairman, ladies and gentlemen, Mr. Stock's motion is just as plain as day. We know for a fact that any breeder of dogs at all, ladies and gentlemen, doesn't want to run out of the privileges of the C.K.C. and the Live Stock Records unless it is impossible to pay. A man might be out of work, he may have two or three bitches whelping, he may have puppies and he can't register them unless he pays his non-member rate. That is very unfair to members who really intend staying in the Club to hold that man up until after he has sold a few puppies. As Mr. Stockdale said, and as Mr. Pym said, they are heart and soul in the Club and they know the privilege of being in the Club, if they are breeders of any kind, of any description, they know that, and I think that this motion if you will read it in the proper manner, and you need to read it only once to understand what it means, will be a benefit to everybody who in these times of depression has had a little set back in their finances at the present time. I would like to see this motion go through.

MR. CLIMO: Before coming east I attended a meeting of the Edmonton Kennel Club and this matter was brought up. Apparently one of their members in the early part of this year found that he couldn't pay his membership and just in a casual way sent in, not thinking about the time of the year, and that his membership was due, and he had his application returned. Well we more or less resented it although it was thoroughly on the understanding that they had a perfect right to reject the registration after the 1st of January, and when it was pointed out to him that this amendment was coming up, and also to the other members of the Canadian Kennel Club in Edmonton there, they were thoroughly in support of the amendment.

MR. DUCKETT: There is one thing, Mr. Chairman, ladies and gentlemen, that we are losing sight of: The fact is that in the event of the member not having $4 he couldn't give a pedigree. I am going to ask the members here when they sell a dog do they deliver the pedigree when they deliver the dog or the dog before the pedigree?

A MEMBER: The pedigree after the dog.

MR. DUCKETT: Mr. Chairman, on that answer this motion has no meaning to the breeder, inasmuch as a person coming to buy a dog from me I sell him the dog and I say "In a couple of weeks I will be delivering the pedigree" and he gives me the money for the dog. Therefore I claim this motion is not an amendment to the Constitution.

A MEMBER: That might be all right locally.

MR. CLIMO: Very often a man doesn't feel inclined to sell a dog but he wants to register that dog for particular stud purposes and under the present condition he cannot register that dog for stud purposes and use the same and give the people a registration number until such time as he has paid his membership and then register the dog in the ordinary way that members are entitled to.

MR. WARD: Is it customary in the west or anywhere else to give stud services on time, or don't they collect the fees as they go along? Surely that argument wasn't meant that way.

MR. CLIMO: I didn't suggest that I thought stud services are given on time. Very often a man has got to do considerable advertising before he can get stud services and consequently when he can get a dog registered he can get the money, and he cannot get it before.

MRS. McCOLL: Mr. Chairman, referring to transfer tax to non-members, for the past two years I have paid a lot of fees merely because I wished to transfer one dog. If I sold a dog for $10 I had to pay twenty-five cents for the transfer registration. I can't do it until I pay my $4 to the Club. Therefore I am paying $4 in order to transfer a twenty-five cent paper. Under this ruling I can transfer a dog by paying fifty cents.

MRS. COOPER: I am a new member and the veriest greenhorn in the dog game, but this motion looks to me as though it is only fair. Before I joined the Canadian Kennel Club if I wanted to register a puppy I could do it, but after I have joined the Club and for some unforeseen reason I am not able to pay my dues next year then I can't register next year. If I don't join the Club then I could have done so. You penalize me for being a member.—Applause.

MEMBERS: Question.

The President put the motion, which, upon a vote being taken was declared carried and the amendment adopted.

PRES. McFARLAND: The next amendment, ladies and gentlemen, is one which I am introducing and which I will open. I might explain this amendment was sent in by Mr. Scott Wilson and for various reasons Mr. Scott Wilson could not be here to present it so I sponsor his motion and I am now introducing it as my own.

Now that shouldn't really be Article 6, Section 4, it is a paragraph in the middle of page 8 I think. It is not numbered, is it, Mr. Walkerdine?

MR. WALKERDINE: No, it isn't, you have just got to count them down.

PRES. McFARLAND: The amendment that I am proposing for Mr. Wilson is as follows:

"Between the 15th day of November and the 1st day of December, the Secretary shall deliver to the Election Commission an October copy of Kennel and Bench of the current year containing a complete list of the members entitled to vote, together with the voting papers bearing the seal of the club.

"Each voting paper shall be numbered and a space provided for the member's signature, upon which space it shall be stated that the member's signature is optional. The Election Commission shall retain a record of the number assigned to each member's ballot."

"This voting paper shall be made in the form described in the schedule hereto and shall be mailed to each member in good standing to his last known address together with return envelope marked "ballot," stamped and addressed to the Election Commission."

Now, would you like me to read the section that will be replaced by this?

MR. ROSS: Please.

PRES. McFARLAND: No. 6, the section as it exists at present and which if you adopt this proposal will be substituted by the one I have just read:

"Election of officers and directors shall be in the following manner—the Secretary of this Club shall, between the 15th day of October and the 1st day of November in each year, send by mail postage prepaid, to each one of the members of this Club in good standing, resident in each province respectively, addressed to his last known address as on record in the books of the Club, a complete list of the members of this Club in good standing, resident in each province. Between the 15th day of November and the 1st day of December, he shall deliver to the Election Commission a complete list of the members of this Club in good standing, together with a voting paper bearing the official seal of the Club, and made in the form described in the schedule hereto, for each of the members in good standing: envelopes stamped and addressed to the last known address of each member in good standing; also return envelope stamped and addressed to the Election Commission and marked ballot for enclosure with voting papers."

As I see it the purpose of the amendment is that the voting paper shall provide a space for the member's signature, upon which space it shall be stated that the member's signature is optional. Under the present system the ballot is not signed by the member voting. Under the proposal before the meeting there would be an opportunity given to the member to sign his ballot if he chooses.

MR. TYRWHITT: Isn't it also stated the ballot shall be numbered?

PRES. McFARLAND: Yes, they are to be numbered, Mr. Tyrwhitt, but I understand they are now.

MR. TYRWHITT: Not now, sir.

PRES. McFARLAND: Then this section is changed; the option is given to the member to sign his ballot, and the ballots shall be numbered.

MR. KYNOCH: Doesn't the Constitution of the Canadian Kennel Club call for a secret ballot?

PRES. McFARLAND: It doesn't say anything about a secret ballot. We did away with the secret ballot some years ago. This brings in the signed ballot, if the voter wishes to sign it.

MR. CLIMO: Mr. President, I understand whether this ballot is signed or not it is quite possible for the office to keep track of which ballot went to the member by keeping a record of the names or the ballot that is sent out to each member, whether it is signed or not the Commission would be able to tell who cast the ballot.

PRES. McFARLAND: I think that is true, Mr. Climo.

MR. KYNOCH: Mr. President, why is it the business of the Canadian Kennel Club to know who is who and who votes for whom?

MRS. McCOLL: Mr. President, the Canadian Kennel Club doesn't open the ballot; the Election Commission does. Are they not delivered sealed?

PRES. McFARLAND: Yes.

MRS. McCALL: And they are not opened by the Canadian Kennel Club and therefore nobody but the auditors knows who did vote.

MR. HERD: But couldn't any member make application to go through the ballots after election?

PRES. McFARLAND: Yes.

MR. MORGAN: You said it was optional whether we signed the ballot or not. You don't have to sign the ballot unless you want to under the new amendment?

PRES. McFARLAND: No.

MR. MORGAN: I think owing to the trouble we have had over election campaigns that this new amendment should go through. We had it for years and years before, didn't we, signing the ballot?

PRES. McFARLAND: We had a signed ballot for years.

MR. MORGAN: And we had no trouble about the voting at all and I think, now the Election Commission handles this thing, I don't see why this motion should not go through.

MR. HERD: I don't think anybody would raise objection to it if they were signed if they weren't numbered. If the other man didn't sign it they could tabulate it by the number of his ballot.

MR. TYRWHITT: When you can put your signature on that is much more distinct and definite than a number.

A MEMBER: This amendment calls for a number as well.

MR. BANNISTER: As regards the signature on the ballot, I don't think any man who votes, whichever way he is going to vote, is ashamed to put his name on the ballot, but with regard to the numbers on these ballots, all these ballot papers are numbered and the Election Commission keeps a record of the numbers sent to each party so there cannot be two ballots sent in to one party.

PRES. McFARLAND: Any further discussion?

MR. STOCKDALE: I consider that everything following the word "optional," reading as follows, "The Election Commission shall retain a record of the number assigned to each member's ballot," is the "joker" in this proposed amendment. It has been said that if a man wishes to sign he is not ashamed of it. A man doesn't need to be ashamed of the way he votes, that is quite true, but you make it optional and a man isn't necessarily ashamed because he doesn't sign it, he exercises his option. That is all very well, but you nullify that because you give somebody else that information by the number. I object to that myself. Look here, take the other side of it: We suffer enough from outside influences dominating the Canadian Kennel Club; we say we do anyway, and we reiterate that and feel we do, and now you are going to give to whomever you nominate or elect or appoint as your Election Commission the power to know all about how you voted, and what business is it of theirs? They are not even members, and it is known to their office how you vote and they have a permanent record of how you voted and while you say "What will he do with the information?" I don't say what he will do with this list, but he can keep this list four or five years and say "I'll bet you, Charlie Ward, you voted for Tom Jones five years ago."

MR. WARD: Don't mention me.

MR. STOCKDALE: You were the best looking man I saw right now.

PRES. McFARLAND: All in favor of the amendment please signify in the usual way? Contrary? I declare the amendment lost.

The next one is proposed by Mr. Walkerdine.

MR. WALKERDINE: Mr. President, I will read the old one, I will read the new one and then deal with the alternations. Will that be o.k.? Or I will read the new amendment and then supporting it I will read the alterations instead of reading through all the old ones, is that o.k.?

PRES. McFARLAND: Quite.

MR. WALKERDINE:

"Under Article 20—Amendments to the Constitution, I will move that Article 6—"Officers," Section 4, "Directors," paragraphs 5 and 6 be struck out and the following paragraphs be substituted.

"Paragraph 5 to read as follows:

Nominations for Officers and Directors shall be made on the form described in the schedule hereto and shall be signed by at least two members in good standing in the respective Provinces. Nomination papers shall be mailed to the Secretary of this Club, bearing Post Mark, dated not later than the 5th day of November, in each year, after which date no nomination will be received."

Do you wish me to deal with it, Mr. President, paragraph by paragraph?

PRES. McFARLAND: That will be the better way, Mr. Walkerdine.

MR. WALKERDINE—The change proposed in paragraph 5 is that Nomination papers shall bear Post Mark dated not later than November 5th, rather than the present method of being received at the office of the Canadian Kennel Club not later than the 15th of November. My reason for suggesting this change is that at a Board meeting in November, 1931, much discussion took place regarding a nomination mailed from Calgary on the 12th of November sent by special Air Mail and yet did not arrive at the C.K.C. office until morning of the 16th of November, the sender no doubt taking this precaution to ensure its arrival on the 15th in accordance with the Constitution.

I feel this change is necessary for in the past with the closing date set for November 15th, serious delays take place between the closing of nominations and the preparation of the ballots prior to handing them over to the Election Commission for mailing. During the past few years the ballots have been mailed later than December 1st, and consequently the final date for receiving the ballots by the Election Commission has been extended to as late as January 7th instead of December 31st. This should be avoided for the reason that your ballot specially states that it must be received not later than December 31st, and those members who are not aware of the clause in the Constitution which states that thirty days must elapse from date of mailing the Ballots by the Election Commission would naturally think the ballot was void if received by them after December 31st, and no doubt many fail to send their ballots in.

That is paragraph 5.

MR. STOCKDALE: Dealing with this motion of Mr. Walkerdine's I fail to see how he can place the responsibility for the failure of delivery of the letter on the Canadian Kennel Club, and in discussing it with him I have pointed out that the Secretary might go ahead and prepare the ballots and deliver them and the letter might be delayed even bearing the post mark of November 5th and not arrive at the office till after December 1st, of the following month.

Now the Secretary will bear me out when I make the statement that a letter was mailed from him to me at Charles Street post office in July and didn't reach me at my place until October. I still have the letter in my possession. Fortunately I had the information verbally and we were both at a loss to know what became of the letter. I did not doubt his veracity when he stated that the letter had been mailed, and eventually, as I say, in October the letter came to me and it bore a postmark of July, posted at Charles Street Sub-station, in the City of Toronto, here for delivery in the City of Toronto, Charles and Yonge Streets, when our office was at 774½ Yonge Street, and it had to go only to Shuter Street and it took from July to October. I am very, very sorry that I didn't bring the letter. I hope some day to convince the Postmaster General that I should be running that department.

So I fail to see how any change of date such as suggested by Mr. Walkerdine will overcome any delay which might take place, and if, as I said, the Secretary had gone on as per the Constitution and prepared the ballots and they had been sent out would a man not have a right to say another ballot must be sent out or would he not have to see himself by the Constitution that an added entry is made, put his entries inside, and here is one with the fee paid and he is eligible to run and he could beat them coming back the other way again? I have made perhaps a little bit of a farce of it but that is my argument against any change, because while I think Mr. Walkerdine is sincere, and I am just as sincere in pointing it out, I fail to see how it can offset any delay that might take place, irrespective of the date.

MR. WALKERDINE: Mr. President, that is probably an exception to the rule. I think in our line of business we correspond with the legal profession right from Halifax, Newfoundland and all through the States right up to Victoria and we receive during the year perhaps thousands upon thousands of letters and, as I say to Mr. Stockdale, it is only an exception to the rule, you will find that these letters, as far as the advertisers are concerned, probably get there well on time, and I only put this in so that a situation which did happen two years ago could be avoided. It would be naturally out of all reason to expect a Board of Directors to do anything but turn it down should it turn up on December 31st. I think the directors will govern that the same as they might on any other thing.

PRES. McFARLAND: Any other discussion?

MR. CLIMO: The only thing I can see in favor of this is to further extend the time to Mr. Strachan to prepare his ballots.

THE SECRETARY: Mr. President, the ballot is prepared at the close of every day as far as that is concerned.

PRES. McFARLAND: Well, ladies and gentlemen, the issue is quite clear. The present Constitution says that the nomination papers shall be mailed postage prepaid to the Secretary of the Club so as to be received by him on or before the 15th day of November in each year. Mr. Walkerdine's proposition is that nomination papers shall be mailed to the Secretary of this Club bearing a postmark dated not later than the 5th day of November. Are you ready for the question?

MEMBERS: Question.

The President put the motion, which, upon a vote being taken was declared lost.

PRES. McFARLAND: Now your next one, Mr. Walkerdine.

MR. WALKERDINE: (Reads):

"Paragraph 6 to read as follows: Election of Officers and Directors shall be in the following manner:—the Secretary of this Club shall, between the 1st and 10th day of October in each year, send by mail, postage prepaid to each one of the members of this Club in good standing, resident in each Province, respectively, addressed to his last known address as on record in the books of the Club, a complete list of the members in this Club in good standing, resident in each Province. Between the fifteenth day of November and the first day of December, the Secretary shall deliver to the Election Commission a complete list of the members of this Club in good standing, together with a voting paper bearing the official seal of the Club, and made in the form described in the schedule hereto, for each of the members in good standing; envelopes stamped and addressed to the last known address of each member in good standing; return envelope addressed to the Election Commission and marked ballot for enclosure with voting papers shall be left entirely in the hands of Election Commission."

There are two changes proposed in paragraph six, the first of which reads that the Secretary shall between the 1st and 10th of October (instead of the 15th day of October and the first day of November as it now stands in the Constitution), send by mail a complete list of the members in good standing, to each member of this Club. In other words it means that Kennel and Bench for October, which usually carries the list of members in good standing, must be mailed prior to October 10th.

The other change is with reference to the return envelope marked Ballot for enclosure with voting paper.

The constitution in its present wording states that the Secretary shall provide these envelopes, postage prepaid, and hand them over to the Election Commission. This should be left entirely in the hands of the Election Commission; as a matter of fact I think the Auditors are carrying out this procedure at the present time.

PRES. McFARLAND: I think this is true, Mr. Secretary.

THE SECRETARY: We prepare the envelopes supplied to us by the auditors.

PRES. McFARLAND: The envelopes are at present supplied by the auditors.

THE SECRETARY: Yes, and we prepare them and send them back.

PRES. McFARLAND: Any other discussion? Are you ready for the question?

MEMBERS: Question.

The President put the motion, which, upon a vote being taken, was declared lost.

PRES. McFARLAND: The next one is by Mr. Wainright. Who is presenting that? I will do it myself then.

MR. ECCLES: In regard to Mr. Wainright's motion, I understood he was coming here today, and Mr. Wainright's motion reads as follows:

"That Article 6, section 4, be amended to read as follows:—

Nominations for officers and directors shall be made on the form described in the Schedule hereto, and shall be signed by at least two members in good standing in the respective provinces. Any member in good standing shall be eligible to be nominated as President, Vice-President, Second Vice-President or Director except professional dog show judges, professional dog show handlers, professional dog show superintendents, professional dog show secretaries, and professional writers of Canine news and dog show reports or any person acting in any of the aforementioned capacities for a monetary consideration."

PRES. McFARLAND: Who seconds this motion?

MR. PYM: I will second it and reserve the right to oppose it later.

PRES. McFARLAND: The issue here is quite clear, ladies and gentlemen. There is nobody eligible for a place on the Board or as an officer of the Club who is a professional dog show judge, a professional dog show handler, a professional dog show superintendent, a professional dog show secretary or professional writers of Canine news and dog show reports or any person acting in any of those capacities for a monetary consideration.

Any discussion?

MR. MORGAN: Mr. Chairman, if I am in order I would like to move that this amendment be laid over till tonight when Mr. Wainright will be here, if not this afternoon. Probably on this drastic amendment he would like to be here and talk on this.

PRES. McFARLAND: Do you know, Mr. Eccles, whether he will be here tonight?

MR. ECCLES: I can't tell. He gave me a ring last night and I understood he was leaving on the nine o'clock train this morning. When it was proposed I thought he was in the room.

MR. PATCHELL: I second that motion.

PRES. McFARLAND: Mr. Morgan moves, seconded by Mr. Patchell, that this particular amendment be laid over until the evening session with the hope that Mr. Wainright will be here to present it in person. Are you ready for the question?

MR. WARD: Might I ask just how many of the directors at this particular time would be affected? Or is it a fact that that is directed at one

PRES. McFARLAND: No, I think there would be two affected, Mr. Ward.

MR. WARD: Thanks.

MR. STOCKDALE: Five.

MRS. McCOLL: It won't be carried out this year.

MR. ROSS: What is the meaning of this word "professional?"

MR. WARD: Mr. Chairman, I am going to make an amendment.

PRES. McFARLAND: Are you speaking to the motion to adjourn the discussion?

MR. WARD: No, but there was a question asked and I would like to make an amendment to that motion, that this matter be dealt with at this time.

PRES. McFARLAND: All you have to do is defeat Mr. Morgan's motion.

All in favor of the question, that the consideration of this amendment be laid over to the evening session kindly signify. This does not require a two-thirds vote. Contrary? I declare the motion carried.

The next is a motion by Mr. F. J. Rowe. Who is sponsoring Mr. Rowe's motion?

MR. STOCKDALE: To bring it before the meeting I will move. This reads as follows, I will eliminate the preamble:

"Provincial Advisory Boards, outside of Ontario, shall be elected by members of the Canadian Kennel Club in good standing, at meetings of Canadian Kennel Club members to be held in the Cities of Montreal, Winnipeg, Regina, Calgary and Vancouver."

I presume it should include the Maritimes; I have just read it as printed, but I am only sponsoring it to bring it before the meeting. This appears to me to be good democratic legislation, "Provincial Advisory Boards outside of Ontario." Perhaps as an Ontario man I should not speak in this way, we are not affected by it in this way, and I hope that some of the members in the other provinces will let us have their views on it. This would give the rank and file in membership an opportunity of expressing their desires and their approval of certain men, whom they are perhaps better acquainted with than we are, resident in that province, to act as the Advisory Board for that province. They know all these men, they know whether they are active fanciers who can legislate upon matters coming before them, and I think that the Club will be wise in handling that power to them, wise for us to place that power in the hands of these members in these provinces. However, I heard some others in the room discussing it and I hope they do now and I am just sponsoring it to bring it before the meeting.

THE SECRETARY: It should be read so as to include the Maritime Provinces.

MR. STOCKDALE: By the way, Mr. Wainright has just arrived, Mr. President.

We have Advisory Boards appointed now on recommendation of the Provincial Directors elected, who are elected by the members in their provinces, and they recommend a certain man to be appointed, or appoint him, and they work with the directors in that Province in settling various little differences that arise.

One director has put it "We don't settle trouble; we avoid trouble." And I think he is very, very wise in putting it that way and I think that is the attitude of the other directors, they don't settle trouble, they avoid trouble; they see a storm brewing and I don't know how they do with it, whether they open a still or whether they create some counter attraction or what they do, but we learn perhaps by listening to them; but I have no doubt that that was Mr. Rowe's idea, that it would allow the members of the rank and file who do not attend these annual meetings to elect their members in that province.

PRES. McFARLAND: There is nothing said about the machinery.

MR. STOCKDALE: Unfortunately there isn't, but don't blame me.

MR. PYM: Mr. President, I oppose this on the grounds that the question as here submitted is not workable.

MR. BROWN: I have very much pleasure in supporting the resolution. I think it is a good one. I know that it is democratic and I don't think the Board of Directors is going to oppose a thing like this. Surely they are reasonable enough to allow people who pay the shot and live in that district to have the privilege of electing their members and not have anyone foisted on them whether they like him or not. I support the resolution.

MR. STOCKDALE: Might I ask at this time, Mr. President, having spoken in support of it, as to just what if we adopt this will be the outcome of it? Now the Chair has drawn my attention to the fact there is no means of working this out and there is no provision in our Constitution and is it not a question if we adopt this then what will we do afterwards?

PRES. McFARLAND: I suppose the only thing is if this is adopted it will be up to the directors to devise some means of carrying it out and to provide the funds, because it will certainly cost money. It will mean a ballot I presume.

MR. ROSS: Mr. President, may I just speak to this, because as a representative of the Province of Quebec, I say that the usual procedure in appointing this so-called Advisory Board has almost invariably been followed out according to the number of members who ran for election to the directorate and were defeated, these added to your directorate, who became a member of the Board. There have been in the odd cases certain men left off for various reasons best known to ourselves and that has been the procedure down there in the past and will be in future.

PRES. McFARLAND: I might explain that the procedure hitherto in appointing these Boards has been as Mr. Ross stated; the elected representative for the Province obviously is a member of the Advisory Board and then if there are sufficient candidates, that is a sufficient number of candidates who have participated in the election who have not been elected, they are added in the order in which they stood in the balloting. If there were not enough candidates to make up the Board the elected representatives have been asked to make their nominations for the other members that are on the Board and these nominations have, I think, almost invariably been followed.

MR. CLIMO: Mr. President, I would like to say that in Alberta in appointing our four representatives, we have what we call four show giving clubs there, though I may say Lethbridge recently has not been very active; but in previous years the director has asked each club to appoint a representative, a member of the Canadian Kennel Club, to represent them on the Advisory Board for Alberta.

PRES. McFARLAND: Any further discussion, ladies and gentlemen? Are you ready for the question?

MR. STOCKDALE: Mr. President, I would like to have Mr. Pym tell me why that is not workable. I can't see that it isn't workable though I do see that it is bare, that it is naked, it is thrown up, but I want to get the idea in fairness to the man submitting it; I presume he is a member in good standing; that is my only motive in bringing it here, and I don't like it if a man says it isn't workable; there is nothing that isn't workable. It can be worked out, but can we work it out here to carry out what he aims at? That is the only thing. You have said, and truly so, that it will mean some expense, but there is just the feature that we are sitting in Toronto today, Ontario, and Ontario is not affected by this and we are in the majority. Now I don't want to be unfair to the other provinces and I hope the other members will express themselves on it, and I don't want to be answered in the way Mr. Pym has just done, that it isn't workable.

PRES. McFARLAND: I think we ought to have an expression of opinion from the others of the outside provinces as to whether it is satisfactory, the present situation.

MR. CLIMO: I think, Mr. President, with the system we are working in Alberta it is practically leaving it to the members in Alberta to appoint a directorate. Two have now been appointed and I am waiting for the other clubs.

MR. KYNOCH: Regarding Manitoba, the only thing I can say is that I consider it isn't workable in this way: That many times you and all of us have worked along with somebody who didn't like you and you didn't like them; there may be a time come when the members of the Canadian Kennel Club, all those members go to work and nominate and elect to that Provincial Committee somebody who is not friendly with the director and perhaps not friendly with the rest of the Provincial Committee and therefore I submit that in my opinion it is not workable.

MR. PYM: Mr. President, I repeat Mr. Kynoch's statement, that in my opinion it is not workable and the reason I give is that it distinctly says here, the full amendment we are considering, that the meetings shall be held in various cities and only one city in each province; in British Columbia it says the meeting shall be held in Vancouver. Why Vancouver? Vancouver represents some members and then we have 500 miles up the coast in Prince Rupert certain members, or 500 miles east, in the Okanagan Valley, certain members and most of our members are resident on Vancouver Island, eighty miles away, and does our member suggest that these men, who live outside the City of Vancouver, shall go to Vancouver and cast their vote or select a Provincial Advisory Committee? By no means. No sensible person would suggest such a thing. Nevertheless that is exactly what we are asked to vote for, that we shall hold some meeting for British Columbia which will be in Vancouver. I submit there should be equal rights to all members and you couldn't give equal rights if you endorsed this proposed amendment. If you wish the members in the various provinces to select their provincial committees I am quite in accord with that part of it provided each and every member is given the same opportunity, and I believe you would be then compelled to go to the expense of conducting an election with regular ballots issued by the head office of the Canadian Kennel Club and there would be expense attached to that.

PRES. McFARLAND: Mr. Martin, the representative from the Maritimes:

MR. MARTIN: I oppose it, for the reason I do not think it is workable in the Maritime Provinces, for the simple reason we have three different provinces, New Brunswick, Prince Edward Island and Nova Scotia. If this is put to a vote and four members there are elected from New Brunswick that means I have to travel, or they have to travel 300 miles to a meeting. Likewise, supposing a member is voted on from Sydney, he is 600 miles from St. John to where the three members are meeting, and looking at it that way it doesn't look to me as if it was workable. The way it is now I, as director for the Maritimes, coming from Nova Scotia, appoint two members from New Brunswick, two from Nova Scotia and myself as Chairman. Last year New Brunswick had representation here and they appointed two from Nova Scotia and two from New Brunswick with the director as Chairman. Things have worked out very favorably in the past, in fact we have never had any trouble and never had any complaints to bring here to you. I do not think it is workable in our case.

DR. COOPER: Mr. President, our Advisory Board in the past has been appointed of members who have been suggested by the various Kennel Clubs.

More recently they have left it to me to choose those members and I have attempted to choose them, representative members from each particular city, from the large centres in the provinces. The make up has not been of very great concern recently, or at any time, because we have never had very much to bring before the Committee, but there is no director but who would very gladly have all these members elected. It would be difficult to elect them in this particular way, although if that were made, as Mr. Pym suggests, a matter that would be handled from the Toronto office then it could be made workable. But our provincial committees have been very satisfactory and really represent the various clubs in the various centres of our province.

MR. ROSS: Mr. Chairman, in opposing this, or not liking to support it, the situation is this: If this is put into the hands of the provincial members what guarantee have we we are going to get men of experience to handle the reports sent from this head office down to us? And if the thing is left as it is now and which undoubtedly has worked satisfactorily up to now, if your provincial director is not capable of picking out the men who will work with him it is no use.

MEMBERS: Question.

The President put the motion upon the amendment, which, upon a vote being taken was declared lost.

PRES. McFARLAND: Now, Mr. Wainright.

MR. WAINRIGHT: I would like that left over.

PRES. McFARLAND: You would like the motion to stand, would you?

MR. WAINRIGHT: Stand till this evening.

PRES. McFARLAND: The next is an amendment proposed by General Nelles.

GEN. NELLES: In accordance with the notice duly given, the following changes in connection with the Constitution that I am bringing up are necessary in order that the Canadian Kennel Club may be brought in line with the other breeds in the livestock of Canada and so that the rules governing our society shall be much the same as governing other societies, associations in affiliation with the Livestock Records. Suppose that I read to you the old regulation in each case and then the changes. The first is a section of the Code and that is the one as it reads now:

"14. Every person who wilfully signs or presents, or causes or procures to be signed or presented, to the Recording Officer of an Association or to the accountant or other person in charge of the Canadian National Live Stock Records a declaration or application for registration of any animal by any association containing a false or fraudulent statement regarding the age, color, breeding or pedigree of such animal, shall be guilty of an offence against this Act, and shall upon conviction upon information laid within two years of the commission of the offence incur a penalty of not less than one hundred dollars and not exceeding five hundred dollars. (George V. Ch. 31, Sec. 17)."

Now that is the old rule governing such acts at present. The new proposed regulation reads as follows:

"Article 14—Private Breeding Records and Identification.

There shall be kept by each breeder a private record which shall contain full particulars of his breeding operations. This record shall at all times be open to the inspection of officials of this Club, officials of the Department of Agriculture for Canada and officials of the Canadian National Live Stock Records.

The Board of Directors shall have power to make regulations for a practical and effective system of identification of dogs for registration."

That is the first one, which I will beg to move.

MR. DUCKETT: Mr. Chairman, I would like to ask one question. In keeping private records, what is that?

PRES. McFARLAND: It just says, a record of the breeding operations.

MR. GUNDERSON: It means just the actual breeding operations that man carries on.

MR. PYM: I second Gen. Nelles' motion.

PRES. McFARLAND: I don't just see how you can substitute that, Gen. Nelles, for the present Article 14.

GEN. NELLES: I would like Mr. Gunderson to explain that. I pointed that out to him. And that we cannot change the Statute. The old one is the Statute.

PRES. McFARLAND: This would have to be in addition to the present section 14, Mr. Gunderson, we can't here change a Statute passed by the Dominion of Canada by the Parliament of Canada.

MR. GUNDERSON: That was authorized by the Live Stock Pedigree Act.

PRES. McFARLAND: You cannot eliminate that. You can add that.

MR. GUNDERSON: Well it is intended to add that.

MR. ROBERTS: That is to say we have to keep a record of all our breeding and the Kennel Club or anybody can come in and ask us to open up our books to show all our operations?

PRES. McFARLAND: Yes.

MR. ROBERTS: Then I am going out of the business right away.

MR. DUCKETT: Mr. Chairman, that is my point. I contend that I might be sitting here but next year I might be privileged to sit over there, as a director, and I might be tempted to use the knowledge that I had obtained from going to look at these books as an official, and perhaps use it to the prejudice of the man, sitting back here in the following year, and therefore I don't think that it is right that any official should have a right to go and inspect the private breeding records of any breeder.

MR. SHAWLEY: Mr. President, I think you are going to try to break all the traditions of the British people, because no self-respecting Englishman, I know that for a fact, would allow any official to go and look at his books. (Applause). You are going to put the Englishman with his back against the wall and I have had experience of that. An Englishman is never beaten. He is never beaten, because when he is beaten he begins to fight, and I for one will not allow anybody to go and look at my books. And another thing, I wouldn't allow anyone in the house, if I knew he was an official, to come for that purpose. I bred dogs before I came here and I will breed them again without any official coming here to tell me what I am going to do, and I haven't to satisfy the curiosity of somebody else. No sir, I never will do that. I would like someone else to express their opinion on it in the same way as Mr. Roberts and myself.

MR. WALKERDINE: Mr. President, I have a copy of the Live Stock Pedigree Act here and it distinctly says it shall not be binding unless it is contained in the Constitution of this Club. The only way to do is to "can" it right here.

Now in Gen. Nelles' amendment here, if you refer to some of the others, Gen. Nelles has followed the Act in some of his other amendments by copying "dogs" or "animals," but in regard to this particular one, in obtaining which I believe Gen. Nelles has copied from the Act, it specifically mentions not dogs but herd records, so that I believe that particular paragraph does not affect us at all. The privilege you are asking for now, they all have that privilege right now.

MR. GUNDERSON: The Live Stock Pedigree Act covers the other twenty-six breed associations affiliated as Live Stock Records. This Act is an Act of Parliament. It is not that we are going to go into any man's private business, but it is just asking him to keep a private record.

The Canadian Fancy

THE 1933 annual general meeting of the Canadian Kennel Club will always be remembered by the real builders of the Club as one of the most progressive in its history. The usual clique were present, who are always against the government, and would no doubt be satisfied if the Club were in the precarious position it was some years ago. However, be that as it may, there were enough real fanciers present and their votes enabled the meeting to be probably the most successful that has been held for many years. Of the many amendments passed probably the one which will have the most wide reaching effects is the rule against faking and dyeing. The coloring of a number of breeds has been the means of losing a number of what might have been consistent exhibitors, who gave up the sport in disgust, when they found out that it was impossible to win unless they resorted to what they considered unfair practices. The proposed scale of championship points suggested by the Rules and Regulations Committee caused considerable discussion, evidently the committee and some of the members viewed them from entirely different angles. We will now have for a year J. Eccles' scale, but in view of the fact that during the last three years one champion has been made out of every thirty-seven registrations, it is surely time that the scale should be highered and not lowered and therefore, W. Pym's suggestion that the championship points be referred back to the committee with the recommendation that all show giving clubs be asked to co-operate, was another stroke of real progress, providing the clubs do give their co-operation which they must admit they did not do last year.

The writer and J. D. Strachan were given a most interesting item of news by one of the Record Committee men, when we attended their meeting in Toronto. J. MacPherson, of St. John, Newfoundland, had a litter of thirteen Newfoundland puppies and he sold eleven of the puppies to eleven different nations and the average price paid for the litter was two hundred and forty dollars. This certainly substantiates what the writer has been claiming for some time, that dogs are the only variety of live stock that have increased in value since the war.

Particulars of a most interesting sale are sent by R. S. Tyrrell of the Cossack Kennels, Bottrel, Alta. Mrs. D. H. Christman of Louisiana, U.S.A., has persuaded my correspondent to part with the undefeated Russian Wolfhound, "Ch. Cossack Michael." The amount of the persuasion has not been divulged, but it must have been a substantial one, for R. S. Tyrrell states that considering the times it was a very satisfactory one, in fact, he writes that it would take quite a herd of fat cattle locally to bring in an equal sum. Michael started his show career under Chris. Shuttleworth at Calgary, beating his litter brother, "Leon," sold while still a puppy to Mrs. Lalonde. "Michael" is not only a great show dog, but he possesses the gift of being able to transmit his sterling character and symmetry to his progeny. "Michael" and his kennel partner, "Atamen Romanoff" developed an unique method of killing coyotes, one hound taking the head and the other the flank, they lifted the unfortunate victim high in the air, they then dashed him down on the ground with such force as to kill him immediately. "Michael" and "Romanoff" made a very useful sleigh team and in the winter of 29, when the trails were quite impassable for other modes of transport, hauled out the flour and groceries for the Ranch Commissariat. "Michael" was also a great cattle dog and the inseparable house companion of Mrs. Tyrrell. There are three outstanding young Russians at the kennel, grand children of "Michael," sired by his great son, "Dominique," who was found shot by some fool hunter in mistake for an Arctic Wolf, two of them are out of "Ch. Cossack Zanoza" and the other owns as her dam, "Rosemond of Marlboro."

By Provincial Contributing Editor,
WALTER H. REEVES, Belleville, Ont.

The West supplies another most interesting news item—this time an important importation. "Monty" Wallace sends me the information that Dr. Margaret French, M.D., who has done so much to boost the Airedale Terrier in Western Canada, has induced Holland Buckley to part with "Ch. Wycote Special Edition." The following description of "Ch. Wycote Special Edition" is taken from Holland Buckley's stud card (bred in the blue, a superb specimen, excels in Terrier fire, shape, and soundness, grand head, eye and ears; beautiful clean neck, shoulders and front, shapely body, big quarters and good set on of tail, unbeaten at his first four shows, latest success, three firsts and challenge certificate at Cruft's). Dr. Margaret French is to be sincerely congratulated and the thanks of the Western Airedale Terrier Fanciers should be extended, for "Wycote Special Edition" should prove a wonderful acquisition for he has already proved his ability as a sire in England. The writer was informed by Dr. Cooper at the annual general meeting that "Ch. Wycote Special Edition" has made a sensation in Saskatoon and that the preliminary notices were by no means overstated.

"Monty" also gave me the information that Dr. Cooper has some real Collies and tells me to get the Dr. to give me some particulars of the young ones, amongst them being some of the most outstanding youngsters that have ever been bred by the genial Dr., who is undoubtedly one of the most constructive breeders we have. Our director for the Maritime Provinces, A. V. Martin, has been particularly successful in bringing Collies back again around Halifax and from the information received from an authority upon whose judgment I can rely, there is a very outstanding young dog in the Halifax kennel—this is very pleasing news.

The Ottawa Kennel Club are to be congratulated on the progress they have and are still making. The evening show inaugurated by this go ahead club, have been the means of gaining a number of permits. At the last evening show so numerous was the entry for Judge F. C. McLean to pass judgment upon, that Secretary Allan C. McGuirl was forced to announce that the ribbons were not enough to go around and that he would mail them to the winners not receiving them. F. C. McLean had probably one of the best groups of sporting dogs that has ever been seen at the club's evening shows, and "Dude" Baldwin's placements in the working group met with general approval.

Mrs. A. A. Jullien, the successful Shepherd breeder of Calgary, sends some interesting news of her kennel activities and also some very constructive criticism on our Rules and Regulations, which will be filed for future reference. Mrs. Jullien gives it as her opinion that the old championship rating is obsolete and she is not alone in her contention that if ever the present system is changed that there should be a division of sexes.

The writer hears that the famous "Clairmar Cairn Terriers" have been moved to their new home, "Woodlands," Erindale, Ontario, the estate of their owner, Mrs. W. C. Routley. The Cairns will now have a hundred acres free range, with a covered-in exercising ring for inclement weather. "Ginger of D'Ornum," the dam of "Ch. Scottie of Clairmar," the consistent winner is busily engaged nursing a most promising litter by "Scottie Boy of Clairmar." "Ch. Woodthorpe Honey" has been bred to "Scottie" and "Susette of Clairmar," the Hamilton and Ottawa winner, is also showing unmistakable signs of being in whelp to "Ch. Scottie." The writer understands that a number of the matrons have also been bred, so with Dame Fortune smiling on the kennel's breeding activities, by early spring "Woodlands" should see a number of puppies enjoying the unlimited exercises that the estate provides.

For the benefit of the members who could not attend the annual general meeting and are interested in the registration of our unregistered champions, I will briefly mention or rather recapitulate my report. J. D. Strachan and the writer attended the Record Board Committee and from the information received were convinced that the registration or otherwise is not within their province of the National Live Stock Records. The re-opening or otherwise of the stud books must come from the Minister of Agriculture. Lt.-Col. Bartley Bull of Brampton, Ontario, the Vice-Chairman of the Record Committee, very kindly attended the annual meeting and explained that the amendment to allow the inclusion of these unregistered champions in the Stud books would not and never has met with any interference from the Record Board.

I have been asked to give my opinion as to whether a real venture into the (new) breed of Terriers, Lakeland and Norwich could be made to pay a member of our club, who is visiting England in April, and intends to stay there for a few months asks for some particulars of the new varieties. Well, first of all they are by no means new, but varieties of Terriers that have been carefully bred for many years by a few enthusiastic fanciers, located in the Lake District of the North of England, and in Norfolk. The writer left England before they were taken up by the English Kennel Club, and so far neither variety is provided with a separate classification by the American Kennel Club. Both varieties have become very popular in England. A club, I understand, was started there in the early part of the year for the Lakelands, and challenge certificates were offered. Under present conditions the writer does not believe this would be a propitious time to try and introduce new breeds in Canada, unless the importer would be content to wait some considerable time without expecting a return on his outlay. At the present time Smooth Fox Terriers and Cairns are

Says This Ontario Kennel Man

"Since using DISTEMPOUT, I have no fear of distemper, nor would I attempt isolating any case of distemper in my kennels. I have nine puppies and young stock, now under one year, positively cured of distemper, all on one tube of DISTEMPOUT. Surely the cheapest immunizing agent known."

Ontario, Nov. 26, 1932.

The name and address of this satisfied DISTEMPOUT user will be furnished on request. His original letter, and many others, are on file in our office.

DISTEMPOUT is an amazing, revolutionary, yet common sense remedy reported to have actually restored many distemper-afflicted animals to health. Easily spread on nose like a salve. No forcing, struggling, nor unpleasant after effects. Reaches all infected points without pain or disturbance.

CAIRNDANIA'S NEW KENNELS

It was the writer's privilege to visit, by arrangement, the new home of the Cairn Terriers, owned by Mrs. George W. Hyslop, now located on the east rise of Hogg's Hollow, at York Mills. The grounds are extensive and beautifully wooded, and are indeed ideally suited for a breed of dogs described very nicely in a letter written in the year 1605 by King James I, to the Earl of Mar, in Edinburgh, wherein the King requested his friend Mar to bespeak from the Earl of Monteith "some of those small dogges, whiche they call Terriers, and in Scotland earth dogges whiche are both stoute, good for killers and will stay longe in the grunde." What a royal recommendation for the Terrier with the "Highlanders'" expression of rugged face and eloquent eyes.

Dr. Glenn Adams, Editor
Pearl and Race
Cincinnati, Ohio U.S.A.

It was a pleasure to receive a "growing" welcome from "Divor of Gunthorpe," and it was easy to see the quality that won for him his championship certificates and Best Cairn in Show Awards in England, where they have to be good to enter the "charmed circle," "Divor" is just as game and as fiery as ever he was.

Champions "Deacon" and "Brownie of Tapscot" were determined to vie with each other as to who would have the "last word" in an argument they were indulging in, and as far as could be noticed the barking barrage was mere a harangue put on for our special benefit, at anyrate there was no winner declared, nevertheless Lady "Brownie" was still muttering to herself when we left, and at that perhaps she did have the last word.

The new kennel accommodation proper can easily take care of 50 Cairns and the few choice Great Danes that Mrs. Hyslop loves to have around her. One Dane, stately and stalwart, tracks every step taken by his Mistress, which shows a loyalty and devotion that only a well-bred dog is capable of showing.

We can readily imagine the Cairns having a veritable picnic at all seasons of the year right around their own kennel. Here they have their "native glens" and their "hillside Cairns," whether they get any quantity of "vicious and mischievous vermin" will be a problem for themselves alone, but the natural setting is there, and the rest should be easy. One thing that is certain, is that the Cairndania Cairn Terriers should be a happy, contented lot of dogs in their new home.

"ETRUSCAN BOY" DEAD

The Scottish Terriers entered by Capt. E. Abrams at the National Kennel Club Show had things pretty much their own way in the competition there. They had all come from England and were out looking for fresh fields to conquer. "Coxmoor Callboy," entered for Specials only, was able to do justice to his commission. "Walnut Bridget" won the honors for her sex, and the happy looking warrior who won the championship points for dogs, "Etruscan Boy," was much admired, and unquestionably he had a nice future ahead of him, but sickness intervened and now he is no more; pneumonia being the agency for robbing us of this fine young dog.

Capt. Abrams in true British spirit says: "It was very hard to lose him, but it is the fortunes of war and we must take the good luck with the bad." That is quite right; nevertheless, it is rather hard to lose this kind of dog, and we sympathize with Capt. Abrams in his loss.

Canadian Dogs at New York Shows

THE group attending New York Shows were a smiling lot generally, as became fanciers who had travelled far, and had fared well. Too late for the specialty shows this year, on account of the lateness of the annual meeting season. We were not in time to join in the rejoicings for the wins made there, but that disadvantage was offset to some extent when we heard that Mrs. H. E. Batt, of Guelph, Ont., had touched fourth place in a class of over 30 Scotties entered for the Scottish Terrier Club of America Sweepstakes. And that she had picked up 1st Puppy Bitch, and 2nd Novice Bitch, with her "Haldon Carol" in hectic competition, the "Stake winner being "Haldon Minstrel."

Another gratified Canadian fancier was Mrs. G. W. Hyslop, Toronto, who had went to winners with her Morris and Essex winning puppy, "Tinker of Tapscot," in marvellous shape this year, this Cairn has matured nicely and is now ready to fight for a share of the spoils with the very best of them, irrespective of what they are, or where they come from. Same owner's "Treblig Ina," just off the boat, after scoring highly at the English Championship Shows, and showing signs of travel weariness, found her place at the reserve winners station. These wins are outstanding, the class of competition considered.

And here is something for the old note book. Have in mind that S. M. Stewart's Airedale Terrier "Warland Protector of Shelterock" has been crowned King of American dogdom for 1933, and then remember, that Eggin's and Coleman's "Stockfield Jupiter," from Hull, P.Q., was reserve winners to "Protector," and that Sid Perkins' "Rockley Duplicate," was next in line, and then you will have a close up picture of the general excellence for Canadian Airedales.

Watch out for the come back of England's largest Terrier, like other breeds the dogs of "Ayre" had to yield ground to the invasion of the German Shepherd. Today the Airedale sits on the throne of dogdom unchallenged.

In West Highland White Terriers the 1st Puppy, and 1st Novice tickets were won by Mr. and Mrs. V. Blochins' "Bencruachan Wendy," and this smart young miss travelled from Aurora, Ont., for the occasion.

Manchester Terriers gave Winners Dog, Winners Bitch and Best of Breed to F. C. McLean's, Hull, P.Q., "Harvest Molly," and Winners Dog to his "Willowdale Veracity."

Here's another one for your book, Scottie breeders. An American-bred puppy, Miss E. Millons, Morristown, N.J., romped home over the talent, domestic and imported, in the class competition to take the winners prize. It was only a matter of time from the very first, that the American-bred canine would take his place amongst the very consistent best.

It is Monday and the sun is shining brightly, although the snow is piled man high in places, which reminds us of the snowfall of 1926, when the late Mr. Joseph Russell declared he had never seen so much snow in his lifetime. Then the fall was 11.6 inches, this year was a good second with 8.6 inches, according to Manhattan's weatherman. It was said that 18,000 men were taken from the ranks of New York's unemployed to help remove the "beautiful."

The weather conditions were just ideal for Harry Wheeler and his Siberian Huskies, as they invaded Central Park for exercise. These Huskies give the lie to all the stories we have ever heard of this breed, even of type character and temperament, they were a source of pleasure wherever they went. At Westminster they retained an audience every day, and from morning to night particularly admired was the now aging mattie, the only living survivor of the team that Leonard Sepalla drove with the diphtheria serum to Nome 8 years ago.

We said it was Monday, and of course Monday was the "13th." At breakfast we were scanning the "highlights" of the "New York Herald Tribune," and here we noticed Arthur E. Patterson's famous "thirteen" story of the Bulldog, "Ch. The Crovanspring," and it so "tickled our funnybone," that we reproduce it here, and acknowledge Mr. Patterson as author.

"Bulldog Born Friday 13th Picks that Date for Triumphs"

"Beware of No. 13." This superstition may mean something to baseball players, track and field performers, and various human athletes, but to "Ch. The Crovanspring," the No. 13 is his charm. "Ch. The Crovanspring" is a bulldog, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Hugh J. McCroden, of Ridgewood, N.J., and named by many as the outstanding specimen of his breed in America today.

The mating of "Ch. The Crovanspring's" sire, "Ch. Maple Spring Boddie Boy," and dam, "Lady Betty Bumps," took place April 13, 1930. "Ch. The Crovanspring" was born on June 13, and it was a Friday. Right there any superstitious person would have marked "finis" to the career of Mr. McCroden's first breeding exploit, but "Ch. The Crovanspring" fooled them.

On Friday, February 13, this fifty-pound fawn-colored specimen earned the first two points toward his championship. That was at Newark in 1931. He was eight months old at the time and was adjudged best of winners. During 1932, "Ch. The Crovanspring" won thirteen times as best of his breed and the last of these was accomplished at the 13th Regiment Armory in Paterson. The judge who picked him for the thirteenth best of breed award of his career at Tuxedo, N.Y., was T. J. Hayden. Mr. Hayden celebrates his birthday on September 13. Recently one of "Ch. The Crovanspring's" sisters, born, of course, on June 13, celebrated last February 13 by whelping a litter of puppies.

Every February 13 has meant something to the champion. On February 13, 1931, he won his first points. On February 13, 1932, his sister gave birth to a litter of winning puppies. Tomorrow, which will be February 13, "Ch. The Crovanspring" will be judged in the fifty-seventh annual Westminster Kennel Club Show at Madison Square Garden.

In Bulldog circles those "in the know" have changed the slogan "Beware of No. 13" to "Beware of 'Ch. The Crovanspring on February 13."

At Westminster "Ch. The Crovanspring" could not be denied by Judge Wm. "Ted Chetwin" and so the dog is still on the rampage after more, and higher honors.

Other features which were being discussed were the Children's Classes, and the circumstance of having a lady to judge the highest awards of the show, but it is now history that the Children's Class held the interest of one of New York's largest audiences spellbound for well over two hours. It is also now history that at no show since Westminster Kennel Club held its first show in Gilmore's Garden, in 1877, 56 years ago, that the interest of the closing hours was so splendidly sustained as it unquestionably was sustained this year. Enclosed is a ring of gigantic proportions, and in a society setting which was picturesque Mrs. M. Hartley Dodge went over the cream of the show in a painstaking manner, which showed that she was in complete control of the stupendous situation, and it was not until the braces, teams and individual animals had been thoroughly considered, and carefully examined, that a prize was handed out, and when they were finally awarded the huge audience shook the building with their vociferous approval. floral tribute presented to Mrs. Dodge was a signal for further cheering.

The usual prophecies filled the air, and several famous dogs were tabbed for best; at first it was the Wire "Crackley Startler of Wildoaks," the sensational English winner, and it was only when he was beaten by "Littleway Happy Man" that the "talent" grudgingly dropped the Bondy color bearer.

As in the case of the "Scottie," judging here we have the picture of an American-bred Wire, beating what was considered to be England's best specimen. Surely these matters are worthy of careful notice. We have the stock right here in this country, and we should have very little difficulty in producing specimens worthy of any competition in any part of the world. Anyway, the Scottish Terrier "Black Douglas" and the Wire Fox Terrier "Littleway Happy Man" are going to be greatly discussed dogs for years to come, on account of their winnings at New York shows this year.

Then it was the Greyhound "Boveyway Beau Brummel," from the Windholme Kennels, a beautiful dog, too, but in the final analysis he showed a very noticeable lameness, and again a "favorite" failed in the home-stretch. To be considered, too, were the three Group winners of 1932, F. T. James',

Toronto, Old English Sheepdog, "Snowman"; S. S. Van Dines', New York, Scottish Terrier, "Heather Reveller of Sporrin"; George West's, Newton Center, Mass., Greyhound, "Duke of Wales," and the question now was, "which one?" The question was wide open. "Which one would Mrs. Dodge select for her very best?" The question was one of great moment, and brows were knitted into knots as the solution for this problem was being sought. At this moment, a brace of exquisite Beagles, brothers, too, by the way, decided that the venue was ideal for a scrap, and at once they were making passes at each other, and judging from the smiling face of Mrs. Dodge she was rather enjoying the unusual spectacle of the "Beagle Brothers" in combat. In the end there came to the ring the six representatives of the several groups, i.e., Sporting, Blue Leader Kennels, Santa Barbara, California, Springer Spaniel, "Ch. Norman of Hamey." Sporting (Hounds), Windholme Kennels, Long Island, N.Y., Greyhound, "Boveyway Beau Brummel." Working, Harkness Edwards, Donerail, Kentucky, Great Dane, "Ch. Gunar o' Hollergarten." Terriers, S. M. Stewart's, Montclair, N.J., Airedale, "Warland Protector of Shelterock." Toys, Mrs. Richard S. Quigley's, Lock Haven, Pa., Pekingese, "Pierrot of Hartlebury." Non-Sporting, Carillon Kennels, Bedford Hills, N.Y., Poodle, "Ch. Whippendell Poli of Carillon." Here we have the chosen six out of an entry of 2,832, or 2,240 actual dogs. Called upon to go through their paces, each dog responded with his or her best, excuse us, there were no "hers" in the final line-up, the whole six were of the "sterner" sex.

Not a moment was lost, although the tenseness made the judging time appear to be very long indeed, as a matter of fact, the writer's watch showed the final great scene to have been handled well within 20 minutes. And when "Bob" Barlow put the Airedale through its paces, the winner stood out like a sore thumb in "Warland Protector of Shelterock," who was in magnificent condition, and readily responded to his handler's every wish, and when Mrs. Dodge approached the victor with the silver bowl and platter, the endorsement of the great audience was in keeping with the selection made. And by the way, Mr. Barlow brought this great Airedale across the Atlantic with him for the dog's new owner.

It may be of interest to add here that the last Airedale to win the Special for best in show at Westminster was Frederick C. Hood's "Ch. Boxwood Barkentine," in 1922. Other Airedales to win this special were Wm. P. Wolcott's "Ch. Kenmore Sorceress," in 1912, and G. L. L. Davies' "Ch. Briergate Bright Beauty," in 1919; and by the way, it was Mr. G. L. L. Davies who judged Airedales at the Garden this year. Of further interest is the circumstance that only one Best in Show Special ever came to Canada since "Best in Show" was featured at Westminster in 1907, and that was when Humphrey Elliott, of Ottawa, won the greatest of all cherished specials in 1918 with "Ch. Haymarket Faultless," and no other Blue Terrier ever won the prize.

The children's classes should be encouraged, do not make any mistakes about this. Properly handled and given the necessary dignity, this department can be made a real feature of any fixture. When "Ted" Chetwin's little daughter, Byrle, placed "Ch. The Crovanspring" in place, she handled him perfectly. Nor did the plaudits of approval take her head; like a veteran she paraded and "set up" her dog to the King's taste. The "little gaffer" who won the class for boys was Master George McTavey, and what he brought out of his charge was a first rate exhibition of handling the Cocker Spaniel "Kises Jewel." Let us add here that the quality of the dogs count for nothing, the prize being strictly for handling and handling only. Popular "Len" Brumby judged these classes in a most gentlemanly fashion, and every boy or girl taking part was encouraged to the highest degree by the "master handler" himself.

But let us see how the "Canucks" fared in their respective contests. Retrievers (Flat), 1st and Winners to H. V. P. Lewis', Toronto, "Gronwen Mutant." Cocker Spaniels, 1st Limit (Black), to Alhambra Kennels', St. John, N.B., "Alhambra Chief." 1st Open (Black), to F. L. Coleman's, Hull, P.Q., "The Coming Storm." (We heard that Paul Hamer was sweet on this dog, and it may be down in Atlanta, Georgia, by this time.) 1st Limit (Parti-color), 1st Open and Winners to "Dick" Hepplestone's, Barrie, Ont., "Romilla of Barrie." ("Romilla" was late in arriving, and the lunch hour saved the day for him. Congratulations, Dick, your dog beat a good one in "Ch. Wilmarland Trumpeter"). Springer Spaniels, none from Canada directly as far as we noticed, but we did make a note of the fact that breeders such as E. Chevier, Winnipeg; H. J. Placey, Sherbrooke, and H. S. Routley, Peterboro, had plenty to do with some of the prize winners. Whippets, 3rd Novice (dogs and bitches) to Holliday & Burton's, Lachine, P.Q.,

"Victory Miss Springtime." 1st Limit (dogs and bitches), same owner's "Victory Lady Mildred." 3rd open dogs, same owner's "Victory Flying Cloud." 2nd open bitches, same owner's "Victory Lucky Piece." 1st Team, Holliday & Burton's team. Russian Wolfhounds, 1st Novice Dogs and Reserve Winners to John F. Taylor's, Birchcliff, Ont., "Nicholas II." Collies. It was no disgrace for Mrs. C. M. Jones', Toronto, "Dandy Lukeo," to be placed 4th in the Novice and Limit classes; this dog looked good in splendid company. German Shepherd Dogs, 3rd to W. K. Jennes', late of Toronto, now of Overbrook, Pa., "Arry of Delpark," well known in Canada. 3rd American-bred. "Arry" was in rather poor condition on this day. Here we found our old Toronto friend, "Ch. Iso v Bergholtz" still battling on for the top-most places; he was in nice shape, but the old age indicating grey was showing round his lips, which reminded us that "Iso" was of the 1925 crop, and now approaching his 8th birthday. How the time flies. It looks just like yesterday when "Iso" was making his way to the "charmed circle." Good old "Iso." Old English Sheepdogs, 1st Novice (dogs and bitches), 1st Limit Dogs, and Reserve Winners to Marjorie and Helen Cluff's, Caledon, Ont., "Smokey of Clearbrook." 2nd American-bred bitches, and 3rd Open bitches to Miss Helen Cluff's "Snow Flurry." Shetland Sheepdogs, none from Canada, but Wm. Gallagher, Needham, Mass., showed a sweet bitch in the Aberdeen (Scotland) winner, "Helens-dale Sapphire," who went to best "Sheltie" at this show. The winners dog was an American-bred, "Piccolo o' Page's Hill," a tri-color that was literally drowned in coat. Mr. Gallagher, the breeder, is quite proud of this smart dog. With the compliments of Mr. Gallagher the writer brought back a nice little "Sheltie" bitch to Canada. Airedales, 3rd Novice dogs to Mrs. F. L. Coleman's, Hull, P.Q., "Kaye Don of Aire Valley." 1st Limit dogs, 2nd open and Reserve Winners to "Sid" Perkins', Toronto, "Rockley Duplicate." 4th to Eggin's & Coleman's Hull, P.Q., "Stockfield Jupiter." These wins were made in company with the Airedale that was crowned "King of the Show" and in this respect were absolutely outstanding. In Limit bitches, "Sid" Perkins' smart bitch, "Quality Peggy," won 1st, and went on to annex 3rd prize in the Open class, and beating some nice stock in this class.

Bull Terriers, 1st Puppy Dogs, 2nd Novice, and 1st in Limit, and 4th Open classes (over 35 lbs.) were the prizes awarded to Humphrey Elliott's, Ottawa, Ont., "Hay Market Hopeful." Same owner's "Hay Market Rose" won 2nd Novice, and his "Hay Market Mist" won 3rd Limit Bitches. 3rd Open (not exceeding 35 lbs.). Cairn Terriers, 2nd American-bred. 1st Open Dogs and Reserve Winners were the choice pickings awarded to Mrs. Geo. W. Hyslop's "Tinker of Tapscoot" (already referred to in connection with the Cairn Terrier Club Specialty, and here we must mention that this very enthusiastic exhibitor and breeder has been elected to the Board of Governors of the Cairn Terrier Club of America, an honor that comes to Canada for the first time). Same owner won 1st Limit Bitches with her "Moccasin Mercy," and 4th Open Bitches with her recently imported bitch, "Treblig Ina." In this class the becoming "Ina" was placed fourth to Cairns that were all already Champions. Possibly the little Miss was asked to do too much, so soon after her arrival in America. Wire Fox Terriers. The dogs to be placed here knew that they were in a battle where only quality would, or could, count, and that some of our Canadian Wires were placed well, should encourage our Canadian breeders to reach out for still higher placings. In Novice Dogs, Miss Lena Shortt, Lambeth, Ont., won 4th with her father's "Vanity Gamecock," and in Puppy Bitches she won 2nd with "Vanity Sweetheart." Manchester Terriers. 2nd, Novice Dogs and Bitches. 2nd to F. C. McLean's, Hull, P.Q., "Willowdale Veracity." 1st Limit Dogs, and 1st Open Dogs, and Winners to the same dog. Same owner won 2nd Limit Bitches, 2nd Open and Reserve Winners with his "Harvest Mollie." Scottish Terriers, the largest entry in the show, and really red hot, and here again American breeders should take a fresh hold. The Winners dog was the American-bred "Black Douglas," who won the specialty points under Geo. S. Thomas, and here again under Judge Caswell Barrie. We have just heard that Mr. Thomas will judge All Breeds at Toronto Kennel Club Show Good Friday and Saturday at the Arena Gardens, Toronto. In Puppy Bitches, Mrs. H. E. Batt, Guelph, Ont., won 2nd prize with "Haldon Carol," and went on to win 2nd Novice. Look out for this pretty Miss. She's good. Sealyham Terriers. 2nd Puppy to Major E. Ward Wright's, Toronto, "Edgewater Careless," a most inappropriate name for so typical a Sealyham. On the day she looked the embodiment of carefulness in every respect. She repeated the win in Novice and Limit Bitches, then called it a day, and did not come to the post for the last race. She has plenty of time to go on to plenty of places yet, and she is well worth watching. West Highland White Terriers. 3rd Puppy, Dogs and Bitches. 3rd to Mrs. and Mrs. V. Blochin's, Aurora, Ont., "Bencruachan Wendy." This win was repeated in the Novice class. Japanese Spaniels. Mrs. W. G. Ross, Montreal, P.Q., won 1st Open and Winners, and went on to win 3rd place in the Toy Group with her beautiful specimen, "Chiya," a great performance by a truly wonderful dog. Plenty of Champions were beaten by little "Chiya," and whilst we make no complaint about the handling of this exquisite mite we are of the opinion that in other, and more aggressive hands, this dog would have gone much higher, and we have the quality of the Pekingese and the Pomeranian in mind as we write. We trust our remarks will not offend here. Pomeranians. 3rd Puppy Dogs to Mrs. W. Wylie's, Vineland, Ont., "Goldcrest Gold Seal. 1st Limit Dogs (Black) to Wylie & Copeland's, Vineland, Ont., "Kelvin Sambo." This win plus Reserve Winners was awarded to the same dog. 1st Open Dogs (any other color) to Mrs. W. Wylie's "Cairndhu Debonair." In bitches, Mrs. Wylie's "Cairndhu Preference" was 3rd Novice, and 2nd Limit (any other color), her "Cairndhu Lilybet" won 2nd Limit (Red, Orange or Cream), and her "Cairndhu Diadem" won 2nd Open Bitches (any other color). Mrs. Wylie won for best Team. Mrs. A. R. Kittermaster, Toronto, won 3rd Novice Dogs with her "Daffodil Gold Fly," and 4th Limit Dogs (Red, Orange or Cream), with "Scohty's Sun Tan." With her "Merry O'Toole" she won 1st Limit

Bitches. 1st Brace and 2nd Team were won by Mrs. Kittermaster. Geo. Potts, Toronto, won 1st Limit in Sable dogs, and in the opinion of many the dog should have gone higher here. Pugs. 1st Novice, Dogs and Bitches, to Miss Victoria Bouchard, Montreal, P.Q., with "Winna Treasure." 2nd Limit and 3rd Open were other awards for "Winna Treasure." Boston Terriers. In this conceded American breed, something sensational was secured for Canada when Earl A. Brown's, Toronto, "Brown's Oh Boy" came out of the Limit Class (15 and under 20 lbs.) with the choicest prize, then repeated the trick in the Open class, and actually took the Winners ribbons for Canada, whilst the natives looked on in consternation. Lads and lasses, you have to hand it to this chap Brown for picking up the makings of real ones here and there. 3rd Limit Bitches (15 and under 20 lbs.) was won by T. M. Girourard's, Ottawa, Ont., "June Rose III." 1st Open (same weight) was won by the same bitch. Bulldogs. The first Canadian to take a ribbon here was Mrs. C. N. Gibson, Lansing, Ont., who won 2nd Puppy Dogs with "Maecliff Galleon Master." Dr. McK. Gordon, Brampton, Ont., won 2nd Novice Dogs with his "Prince Charming IV," the National Kennel Club Show's best puppy. This dog also won 1st Limit Dogs (45 lbs. and over). Percy Alderson, Birchcliff, Ont., won 3rd Limit (heavyweight) with "Dewhurst Master Fred," and with his "Dewhurst Durham" he won 2nd Open, and in Limit Bitches (under 40 lbs.) he won 2nd with his "Dewhurst Sister o' Dan," this win was repeated in Open class. Mr. Alderson's team also won 1st prize.

We sincerely trust that we have not overlooked any dog from Canada in this condensed review; if we have it has not been intentional, and we regret such omission or omissions.

That we were proud of what our Canadian fanciers accomplished at New York shows is to put the matter mildly.

We take this opportunity to publicly thank the "Old Guard of the Kennel World" for the splendid thought which made the birthday cake feature possible. We hope to be spared to share in other such honors, when some other "worthy old-timer" falls in line for such distinguished notice.

We also wish to thank Mr. J. Young, of Spratts (American) Patent Ltd., Newark, N.J., for the opportunity of visiting the National Broadcasting Company's Fifth Avenue Station, the A. & P. Gypsies offerings in front of the "Mike" were indeed thrilling.

To all others who helped make our 1933 visit to New York City memorable we tender sincere thanks.

THE ENGLISH SPRINGER SPANIEL

One of the latest books to come off the press, is "The English Springer Spaniel" by Frank Wentworth Alden, and to the author we tender our congratulations on his effort. The history of the Spaniel and the Springer. The standard simplified to clarity, the list of champions, both bench and field, which has been brought up to November, 1932, and showing their Sires and Dams makes a book of more than ordinary interest.

Chapters on the "Early Education of the Puppy," and on "The Show Game" have been specially prepared for the novice breeder and exhibitor, make reading of educative value which has been written in a most fascinating manner, that carries its own appeal, and such chapters will do much to make matters clearly understood by the experienced breeder and the novice alike.

The book is most creditable to the publishers, the typography could hardly be improved upon, the rich black ink on the white calendered paper stock make reading a pleasure, and brings the half-tone illustrations up as clearly as the original photographs. Many of the champions are well known to Canadian fanciers, several owned by Canadians, and several bred in Canada.

The book sells at $1.50 in the United States; as usual Kennel and Bench will secure copies for our readers promptly as the orders are sent in. Price in Canada, $1.75.

British Columbia News

By Provincial Contributing Editor,
R. H. F. PURDON, Vancouver, B.C.

BRITISH COLUMBIA fanciers were grieved to hear of the very sudden death of Charles Cary on the 25th of January at his home in West Vancouver, the funeral was held on Jan. 27th. The following dog fanciers paying their last respects were: Mr. and Mrs. E. Cargill, Mrs. E. E. Gravell, Mrs. R. H. F. Purdon, Mrs. Arnold, Mr. and Mrs. Tyson, Messrs. W. H. Pym, G. L. Stock, C. B. Payne, F. Withers, G. Gough, W. T. Oates, W. Coull and H. Swinden. Mr. Cary was one of our most enthusiastic fanciers. Some years ago he held a strong hand in White Wyandottes, with which he made many wins, later he appeared with his "Wyndham" Wire Fox Terriers and was very successful, he seemed to drift out of dogs for a few years, until about a year ago he again entered the game with the purchase of two imported bitches, "Thet Tansy" and "Thet Rose" from Miss Dickson of Thetford, Norfolk, England, the former proving in whelp to "Ch. Morlais Tetrarch and having puppies of which Mr. Cary had great hopes. His passing deprives the dog game of one of our keenest breeders, and a popular fancier, he was showing recently at the Junior League Show in Vancouver last November, and about a week before his death judged a parlour show with much success. To Mrs. Cary all the dog fanciers extend their deep sympathy in her great loss.

Mrs. C. A. McGee of Esquimalt, Victoria, reports the arrival of a litter of Shepherds, out of her imported "Arko von Schaferhof" ex "Perle von Botzow," consisting of three bitches and three dogs born on Jan. 12th, two of the litter are already sold, one goes to California, and one to a P.O. on H.M. C.S. Skeena, the next litter is out of the imported "Rio of Stonetown" ex "Arko Schaferhof," this bitch is a daughter of "Int. Ch. Diethelm v.d. Fuerstonburg Ph. Sch.", owned in Germany, the sire is a son of "Caesar von Trappenberg," a trained dog doing criminal work in Sacramento, California. Mrs. McGee hopes that the puppies will inherit his working ability and faultness temperament. Two litters of Doberman Pinchers are expected in the near future, to add to the trio in the kennels, one of which is an imported dog. Mrs. McGee reports several calls for puppies of this breed, and says they are showing signs of becoming very popular in this Province.

The Swansea Kennels of Stanley Dorrell are off to a flying start this year, his recently imported Scottish Terrier, "Gaisgill Daphne," by "Ch. Silverheys Silvertip," who is reviewed in the Christmas number of "Our Dogs" on page 143 is nursing a beautiful litter by "Gaisgill Nicholas" by "Ch. Rookery Adair," another importation, "Gaisgill Heather," by "Gaisgill Simon," is also busy with a grand litter by his own "Ch. Gaisgill Great Scott," one of the many champions owning the Great "Ch. Heather Necessity" as sire. Mr. Dorrell reports that his champions' progeny are more than fulfilling expectations, some of which will "throw their hats in the ring" during the spring shows to try conclusions with all comers. The latest shipment from these kennels is a nice young bitch by "Great Scott," to Carl Hill of Halsey, Oregon, who is delighted with his purchase.

The Coast City Kennel Club have elected the following to look after the affairs of the club for 1933: President, Harry Lester; Hon. Past President, G. L. Stock; First Vice-President, R. W. Hatley; Second Vice-President, J. R. Fleming; Secretary-Treasurer, J. A. H. Irving; Executive: G. Tyson, S. Dorrel, W. H. Pym, E. Cargill, Mrs. R. W. Hatley, J. Davies, R. Montgomery.

Take a note of Good Friday, the 14th day of April, for on that date will be held the all-breed annual show of the Coast City Kennel Club in the Drill Hall, Vancouver, with the following making the awards: G. L. Stock, Toys, J. McMann, Tacoma, Wash., who for many years was a resident of Vancouver, and recently returned from the Old Country, where he had the opportunity of seeing some of the best, will judge Terriers and Working Dogs; E. E. Gravell, Sporting, Non-Sporting, Best in Show and additional specials, a slate of judges experienced in the breeds allotted them. R. W. Hatley will be show superintendent and J. A. H. Irving, Show Secretary, from whom any particulars can be obtained.

The Victoria City Kennel Club held a very successful parlour show in aid of the Sunshine Inn, a local charity, on January 28th, the show was divided into two sections, a children's novelty part, in the afternoon, and a Parlour Show in the evening, the latter event had an entry of 131 dogs, which made the largest show of this class ever held in Victoria. There were four judges, Mrs. C. M. Castle, Toys; Mrs. C. A. McGee, Working Dogs; W. C. Burns, Sporting; J. W. Creighton, Terriers and Non-Sporting; the net proceeds of the show handed to the Sunshine Inn was the very useful sum of $146.50 altogether a most successful event. I noticed in a daily paper entries of the following, a Shassa Terrier, two Australian Sheep Collies, one Alaskan Spitz, one Italian Greyhound, these varieties would set some of our licensed all-breed judges furiously to think.

The Nanaimo Kennel Club also held a successful Parlour Show, with J. R. Fleming of Vancouver making the awards. The store with heat and light in which the show was held being kindly lent by Messrs. Loukes and Berry of the Queen's Hotel, the Kennel Club were also indebted to the Vancouver Milling Co. for generously donating thirty samples of Spillers Dog Biscuits for distribution, together with four bags of Spiller's Dog Biscuits for prizes, and to many others who donated specials.

The B.C. Fox Terrier Association held their first series of four matches for puppies the property of members, after the usual monthly meeting on February 6th, with T. P. Milner making the awards. No guesser at the job here, the pity was that not more availed themselves of a real experts opinion, the next match will be held in March with another real Terrier judge in Joseph Dodds placing the winners. The owner of the puppy winning the highest number of points at the four matches will receive a cup kindly donated by W. H. Pym—the first match was a neck and neck race between Mrs. Purdon's puppy and one belonging to the popular and efficient Secretary, Herbert Swinden, the next class was won by a new member of the club, S. Downham, he is to be congratulated on the good start he has made.

My valuable correspondent, Jack Cottle, of Nanaimo, again sends news of his district, the Nanaimo Parlour Show was evidently held on a night of snow, rain and wind, however, it takes more than that to knock out the Nanaimo fanciers, and the show was a great success. The chief attraction of the show was evidently a window display of a beautiful litter of Pointer puppies, the property of the popular Jack Spencer, of Northfield, these puppies helped to attract many visitors to the show. As was to be expected in Nanaimo the English Setters were very good.

Commenting on a picture of a Smooth Fox Terrier in a recent Kennel and Bench, Mr. Cottle remarks on their qualities as pals and hunters, and tells the following story of a Cougar hunt with a smooth Fox Terrier and two Black Cocker Spaniel dogs, the property of Jake Reinhard, a young fancier of Northfield, Nanaimo. Recently in the Black Jack mountain country, Jake Reinhard and his brother had been out hunting for a couple of hours when the dogs picked up the fresh trail of a Cougar, led by the Smooth Fox Terrier, the dogs went off at a rush all giving tongue for a distance of a few hundred yards, when the hunters arrived on the scene they found the dogs were still barking round a tree, where crouching on the first limb was a big Cougar looking down at them. So anxious was the Terrier to get at the Cougar her owner says she jumped nearly ten feet to reach the quarry, quickly slipping leads on the dogs and tying them up to a nearby tree, attention was centred on the big cat which was quickly despatched with a bullet, making a dead centre in the eyes, when it fell to the ground lifeless the dogs were then let loose. Mr. Reinhard says many valuable dogs are lost through rushing in after the Cougar falls, play safe, is his motto, the dogs are a part of his life and words cannot express how much he likes them. Mr. Reinhard hopes to bag a few more Cougars this winter, he is a great hunter and realizes how many Deer are destroyed yearly by these animals.

A letter received from Irving C. Ackerman of San Francisco, contained news of the recently held show of the Golden Gate Kennel Club, judged by the world known expert, Geo. S. Thomas, who received an entry of almost 600 dogs, which included a unique and interesting exhibit of about one hundred racing Greyhounds. The Wire-Haired Fox Terrier, "Ch. Keythorpe Pansy" by "Ch. Becksides Bonus" ex "Ch. Keythorpe Bidy" went White of San Francisco, won first limit dogs with "Weyburn Eldorado" by "Simon of Cantilupe" ex "Ulidia Frip," bred by Wm. J. Moffett, of Burnaby, B.C.; second going to the imported "Kemphurst Craftsman" by "Ch. Barry Benedict" ex "Kemphurst Cadeau," now the property of Leo. Goldenberg, of San Francisco, this dog was until fairly recently an inmate of our kennels when he was the joint property of Mrs. Thornton Sharp and my wife. In the bitch classes, Al. White held a strong hand with three entries also bred by the Burnaby expert, Wm. J. Moffett, "Weyburn Frisette" getting 1st senior puppies and Reserve Winners, "Weyburn Signet" 2nd in senior puppies, both of these being by "Beau Geste of Wildoaks" ex "Wiregirl of Willopi" and another "Weyburn Tris" winning 1st junior puppy bitches and special for best junior puppy. "Tris" is by "Bridegroom of Willopi" ex "Weyburn Pixie," a sister of the dog, "Weyburn Eldorado." Not many of our breeders, of any variety you can think of, could send out four home bred to compete with such conspicuous success at a show of this class, about forty wires were exhibited.

tions from England, in the Cocker line, a black bitch and a black dog, both of these came from H. S. Lloyd, the "Of Ware" wizard, they arrived in excellent condition considering Atlantic storms and sub zero temperatures on the Prairies. The bitch, "Sweetheart of Ware," is due to whelp on March 15th to Mr. Lloyd's good black dog, "Fascination of Ware," puppies from this litter are already being bespoken. This bitch is by the world renowned "Ch. of Chs. Lucky Star of Ware," out of Mrs. Berdow-Wilkinson's well-known bitch, "Mrs. Wiggs of Silverlands," this breeding gives "Ch. Joyful Joe" on both sides, and through him "Southernwood Critic," a merry Cocker and hard to fault.

Mrs. Berdow-Wilkinson is famous for the remarkable success she has gained with her "Silverlands" Cockers in Field Trials.

The dog is a sturdy little fellow of 7½ months with great bone, remarkable body and action, has particularly low ear placement and a "fine" domed skull, he is by "Regent of Ware" by "Collinette Pete," out of "Fulmer Nanette," his male grand parents being "Ch. Emerald of Ware," and Ch. Bladown Bunt.

The selection of these dogs was left entirely to Mr. Lloyd and both Mr. and Mrs. Rhodes are more than pleased with his choice.

Not everyone has the courage to import high-class stock during the present financial crisis, by doing so Mr. and Mrs. Rhodes show their great faith in the Cocker, as well as supreme confidence in the exporter, H. S. Lloyd, who has without a doubt the greatest establishment of Cocker Spaniels in the world today. We offer our best wishes to these good fanciers in the great work they are doing for their favourite breed.

A young dog and bitch by "Ch. Felbrigg Mark" ex "Cinderella of Ware" have recently been sent to Stuart Donaldson of Windthorst, Sask., that "Prince of Handlers" for training to Field Trial work, both are giving satisfaction. Mr. Donaldson, who is strong in Cockers, Springers, Curly Retrievers and Chesapeakes, is thinking of bringing a string to our spring shows on the coast this year, he will be sure to receive a hearty welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Rhodes are delighted with the progeny of "Lucky Streak of Ware," and it is predicted he will prove an outstanding sire.

We are glad to again hear news from the Saffron Kennels of Kaleden, B.C. Mrs. Linton Vernon is still another courageous importer, this time it is a Scottish Terrier bitch, "Kate of Kaleden," the little lady has just arrived from England after a stormy voyage. She is by "Longham Inky Wizard" ex "Movayance." Mrs. Vernon has also bought from Mr. Bickford, of Vancouver, a very nice Airedale puppy bitch, whose sire is "Ch. Master Simon," later on she is to be mated to Mrs. Vernon's "Champion Clonmel Linton."

Mr. Vernon's Golden Retriever bitch has been bred to "Ch. Saffron Peter," and a promising litter of Golden's will be looked for later on.

The kennel news sent to us this month is cheering and augurs well for a good year, let us all pull together and do our best to make it so.

The Alberta News

By Provincial Contributing Editor,
C. H. PARK, Medicine Hat, Alta.

IN accepting the appointment of Alberta correspondent for Kennel and Bench, we would like to point out to the Canadian Kennel Club members, that owing to the short space of time between our appointment, and the time for mailing to Toronto which for the benefit of all concerned is the tenth of each month, there has not been sufficient time to notify all, and so receive their contributions, therefore we are in the position of not having enough straw to make bricks wherewith to build anything satisfactory, but notices have been mailed to all Alberta members of the C.K.C. and we shall see what we shall see. The main idea of the writer in accepting this appointment, is to endeavor to have these pages represent Alberta as a whole, and to avoid anything sectional, therefore we ask not to be judged by this, our first effort. With the approach of Spring, though at the moment of writing it is, and has been for the past week, anything but spring-like, as the thermometer has been down to 35 deg. below with a strong north wind blowing, one's thoughts naturally turn to shows, and what the year will bring forth in this respect. The first news to hand is that the Medicine Hat Kennel Club have held their yearly meeting and election of officers, returning last years officers en bloc, the following being elected to guide the destinies of the Club for the ensuing year. President Wm. Armstrong; 1st Vice-Pres., Len. Terry; 2nd Vice-Pres., H. Champ (Redcliff); Secretary, C. H. Park, for the sixth consecutive year; Treasurer, H. C. Gibson; Veterinary Surgeon, Dr. Barlow (Basano); Show Supt., Frank Bell; Ass't. Show Supt., Len. Terry; Executive, W. M. Currie, C. Westwood, C. H. Park, D. McDonald, M. Diehl, W. Burrow, F. Bell, A. O. Bean, H. H. Bateman, W. Fillingham, J. Terry, N. T. Pollitt, H. Champ and G. H. Worts (Redcliff), V. W. Williams (Lethbridge). It was unanimously decided to hold the Annual Show on May 24th, subject to the necessary sanction of the C.K.C., despite the fact that the Medicine Hat boys suffered the loss of all their new benching for the second time in two years. When the Community Arena was destroyed by fire last September the Club emerged financially sound at the close of the year, with a slightly increased bank balance over last year. Word has been received from President Hans Rorhordt, of the re-organized Swift Current Kennel Club, to say, that it is the intention of that Club to hold a two-day show on May 26th and 27th. It is greatly hoped that Lethbridge will be able to swing into line and hold a show on the Monday previous, May 22nd, a meeting having been called for Feb. 15th for that purpose, and for re-organization. If this is successful, a very nice preliminary circuit will materialize, each show helping the other, as all are within easy motoring distance of one another, and the dates would allow fanciers to travel comfortably from one show to another. I hope it is a favorable omen for the success of the writer in penning these pages that the first contribution from an outside point was from the pen of a lady in the person of Mrs. M. E. Render of Calgary, who, after congratulating us on our appointment, goes on to say that after intending to keep her "Thet Timberson" litter of Wires until six months old, she received such a good offer at Xmas for one of the males that he is now the property of Mr. Landstrud of Great Falls, Montana, the last puppy for sale in her kennels going to Regina early in the New Year. "Wymund Priscilla," a little bitch that has done some good winning in the past, is at present nursing a litter of four males by "Black Magic." Four more bitches are due to whelp to him, and she hopes he keeps up his record as this is the third bitch to have all males by him. John E. Hunter of "Calgaree" prefix fame sends word that he is anxiously looking for litters of wire-haired fox terriers sired by "Medalta Simple Simon" ex "Victory Gingersnap" and by "Mutual Trust" ex "Calgaree Chick". From our loyal member, R. S. Tyrrell of the Cossack Kennels, comes the news that his Russian Wolfhounds and Whippets are in great shape; also that he has surplus stock of both breeds to dispose of. Rumour hath it that Calgary sports are contemplating whippet and greyhound racing during 1933. Maybe our fellow members, John E. Hunter or Frank Moore, will give us some interesting news in this connection for the April issue. D. B. Young of Shaughnessy is preparing a nice Springer bitch which he purchased from Mr. Husband of Edmonton. She was a very promising puppy and looks like fulfilling that promise. C. M. "Duke" Wellington's Springer, sired by "L'He Messenger Boy," has improved a lot during the past few months and will again be seen on the circuit. Mr. Wellington also has a nice female pup coming along. E. F. Brierly of Lethbridge, that dyed-in-the-wool Collie fancier, reports that he is retaining a few of his best Collies despite the hard times, and has one or two good young ones coming along which he pins a lot of faith on, which will be shown this spring. Our old supporter, "Vic" Williams of the Winsome Kennels, Lethbridge, reports sales as being on the upgrade, having sold a very promising Peke to Dr. F. S. Eaton of Trail, B.C., two Wire puppies sired by "Vivadora Masterpiece" by "Watteau Review" ex a "Ch. Becksie Bonus" bitch, one puppy going to an old dog fancier, J. Blackburn, and the second to Miss E. Hostelton. Two very promising Bostons, sired by a trappy little dog bred by that good, old and well-known Boston breeder, H. M. Jackson of Toronto, have also been disposed of, one of these going to a well-known Boston fancier, Miss Gwladys Warner of Medicine Hat, and the second pup, a male, going to Mrs. E. Anderson. Another recent sale from the Winsome Kennels is a smart young "Scotty," going to Ted. Ashburner, Medicine Hat City Engineer. "Vic's" policy of only breeding from the best available certainly brings the results. His latest acquisition of a Vancouver-bred "Scotty" is being kept busy at stud these days, and we hope to see this good young dog at our shows this year. A nice litter of Irish Terrier pups will be ready for Easter and the dam, purchased by "Vic" in Seattle, will give our Saskatchewan scribe some interesting competition this year. Genial "Bill" Burrow of the Altawana Kennels, Medicine Hat, reports that he has just returned from Winnipeg, where he took his winning Boston bitch, "Winsome Bunty," and her sister, "Winsome Peggy," to be bred, and reports that "Bunty" was bred to George Duncan's "Ch. Trapystock Personality" and "Peggy" to that good winning dog, "Trapystock Headlight" of Mr. Duncan's that was so successful at the shows last year. Bill says to "watch his smoke" next year. His joy on his return was tempered with sadness, as during his absence from the city his winning liver and white Springer bitch that did so well at Regina last year, "Countess of Altawana," was run over and killed by a passing car. What made the loss worse was that this was the first bitch in the kennel to be in whelp to his good blue roan dog, "Toddler of Beechdale" by "Trent Valley Strongbow" ex "Ch. Damneugh," and great things were expected from this mating. However, Bill still has the sire and dam of "Countess" and hopes for better luck in the future.

Saskatchewan News

By Provincial Contributing Editor,
W. W. RIOME, Moose Jaw, Sask.

OUR notes for this month will be confined to small space. We will all be looking forward to the report of the Annual Meeting of the Canadian Kennel Club, for there are many subjects to be discussed and passed on that are of vital importance to Western breeders. The report of this meeting being published in full makes the annual meeting proceedings interesting to us all.

The Rev. J. McKnight was a recent visitor. His "Scottie" bitch is developing nicely, and after visiting the shows will be bred and form the foundation of the "Scottie" kennel. Owing to his decision to breed Scotch Terriers, Mr. McKnight has decided to part with his Shepherd, "Ch. Wawota Chieftain." This splendidly trained dog was piloted to his championship by Archie Semple, of Regina, his previous owner. "Chieftain" proved very successful as a stud,—his winnings are well-known, and his best years lie ahead.

The Moose Jaw Kennel Club recently held their Annual Meeting at which the Election of Officers took place and future programmes discussed. The newly elected officers are as follows: President, W. H. Smallwood; 1st Vice-President, J. Gillon; 2nd Vice-President, C. Hume; Secretary, A. F. Corless; Directors: Mesdames, Droppo, Williams, Corless, Miles, Gillon, Smallwood, Miss Henderson; Messrs. J. Droppo, P. Lillie.

With the aforementioned slate of officers and directorate, Moose Jaw may be expected to successfully keep dogdom to the front in the "Friendly" city.

Hans Rothgordt, the President of Swift Current Association, together with the members of the Club, are working hard with the object of staging a Show on May 26-27. The townspeople have been very generous in their donations of Cups and Specials, and outside exhibitions have promised their support. The date set for the Show will give exhibitors from both East and West an opportunity of making a "double header" by attending Medicine Hat and Swift Current Shows, both in the same week, with practically one express expense.

Mr. Rothgordt's newly-imported male St. Bernard, still in his puppyhood will be on the bench, and his owner expresses a hope that all St. Bernard breeders will bench their dogs in order that competition may be keen.

Mr. McKay, the Scottie breeder has some good ones, but he is not yet satisfied and we understand he is negotiating in other countries with the object of purchasing a real outstanding specimen, a prominent winner at Madison Square Gardens is Mac's objective.

Ben Wood, of the same city, has a great Irish Terrier that will challenge any to "step on his tail." Mr. James used to own some classy Bostons, and we presume he still holds a strong hand. Swift Current can be depended on to bench a nice array of local owned dogs, so we advise breeders to send or take their best and have them in top notch condition if they wish to carry any trophies away from the "Baby" City.

Dr. J. T. Cooper, our Director for Saskatchewan, wishes to thank all his supporters through the Sask. Page, for the splendid support which they gave him during the recent election. The Doctor wishes to assure them that he will not only be at the annual meetings looking after their interests, but that he is at the service of all, at any time throughout the entire year, with an earnest endeavour to do all in his power for the betterment of the Canadian Kennel Club and its members.

The latest sales from Dr. Cooper's Elmhill Kennels, are a high-class bitch to the Edmonton District, and a couple of young puppies to points in Saskatchewan.

D. C. Macleod, of Glendhall Kennels, Yorkton, sure knows how to put sales over. His recent sales include no less than eight Shepherds, including "Smoky of Willowgate 2nd" Imp.—and "Montclair Maid" Imp. The bulk of this shipment went to Miss Marie Kleiver, of Vancouver, who is a great lover of this breed and was much taken up with the quality of the Shepherds at these kennels.

An Irish Terrier, "Glendhall Mona" was also shipped to a purchaser in B.C. This good colored female is expected to do well on the bench and her breeding is second to none.

Mr. Macleod is securing another high class Scottie from the kennels of Dr. and Mrs. Batt, Haldon Kennels, Guelph, Ont. This bitch will arrive in time for the early shows and is expected to be in show shape ready to meet Western competition.

Mr. Ward, we understand, has her in his charge at present. "Haldon Mary Anne," another member of the Glendhall Kennels, is nursing a nice litter.

Archie and Mrs. Semple are doing good work in the Regina district, and their Cactus Kennels are now housing several prospects that will make further history and no doubt add additional champions to the long list that have already been bred and raised by the Cactus Kennel owners.

Walter Pym, Regina, was a visitor to Mutual Kennels recently. His Smooth Fox Terrier, "Your Choice" was bred to the writer's "Ch. Chosen Don," a son of "Ch. Prides Hill Resultant." "Your Choice" is a very fine bitch of the correct size, and both "Walt's" are hoping to see a nice litter from this mating.

We were glad to hear from our good friend, Jas. Bell, of Limerick. James reports good progress with his Labradors, the breeding in these kennels are of the best, the foundation brood, "Ch. Beauty of Harwood" being a granddaughter of "Dual Ch. Banchory Bolo," claimed by many to be the greatest dog of any breed in England. He was owned by the Countess Howe, whose Labradors are so prominent in the old land at the present time. Recently, Mr. Bell's kennels were visited by G. A. Bertack of Glasgow, Montana, U.S.A., this gentleman is one of the oldest breeders of Labradors in the United States. His object of travelling to Limerick was to breed one of his choice females to "Ch. Banchory Jake."

Mr. Bell has several nice young females of show calibre, and will be pleased to correspond with Labrador fanciers at any time, to discuss any problems connected with the breed.

We were very pleased to receive a letter from John A. James, of Texas, U.S., who recently purchased from Mutual Kennels, the Irish Terrier, "Ch. Sporting Sheila." Mr. James says "Sheila" presented him with a family of six. These puppies were sired by "Newtownards Mickey," owned by Mr. Macleod of Yorkton.

"Ch. Ardbahn Moira" is now on her way to her new owner in Illinois, U.S.A. While Mutual Kennels will miss these two celebrities, others are coming along to take their places.

Pat Macormick, of Moose Jaw, has a real litter of Cockers, six in number, five reds, one black. The parents of these youngsters have been prominent at the shows, and we expect Pat will reserve a brace of these youngsters to carry on the good work in the future.

Having recently received an enquiry from Japan for a brace of Wires, we pass the word along as this enquiry was the direct result of a Mutual Kennel Advertisement in Kennel and Bench. Our magazine has a nice circulation in all foreign countries, and no better way of connecting with these possible purchasers can be obtained than through the medium of our own advertising columns in the "Red and White Representative of the Canadian Kennel Club."

Maritime News

By Provincial Contributing Editor
G. D. ANDERSON, Halifax, N.S.

THE notes in this column are very brief for two reasons. The first and most important is due to the fact that news is very limited because very few notes from out of town fanciers have reached me during the past few weeks. I feel quite sure that there is plenty of real interesting news that should appear in this column but it certainly will not get in print if you Maritime fanciers do not let me know of it. The second reason is due to the fact that a great deal of space will be needed in this issue of Kennel and Bench to record the proceedings of the Annual Meeting.

It has, indeed, been gratifying to note the activity that some of the local members are showing in their endeavor to get new members. And unless I am wrongly informed there are several applications for membership already in the mail. Let's keep up the good work.

The urge to make laws took hold of the Public Health Board of the city of Halifax, and the keeping of dogs and kennels within the city offered some virgin soil. The code that this board produced was a very drastic and ridiculous one. However, after the whole matter had been discussed on two occasions with a committee from the N.S. Kennel Club, a new code was drawn up which is indeed more equitable to all concerned. Rather than waste space discussing the changes that were made, I will list the regulations as they now appear. I might add that each individual in the kennel must be separately licensed to cover other laws.

REGULATION NO. 14

Of the Halifax City Health Board of Dog Kennels

Be it enacted by the Halifax City Health Board as follows:

1—In this Regulation the expression: "Board" means the Halifax City Health Board.

"Secretary" means the Secretary of that Board.

"Inspector" means any Sanitary Inspector appointed by the Board.

"Dog" includes "bitch."

"Adult Dog" means a dog more than six months of age.

"Kennel" means any premises where five or more adult dogs are kept for sale, purchase or exchange.

2—No person shall maintain a kennel without first having obtained a permit from the Board. There shall be a fee payable therefor on application of fifty cents. Any such permit shall be in date thereof when a fresh application shall be required, but no fee shall be required on a renewal thereof. The Board may cancel any permit at any time.

3—No kennel, without the approval of the Board, shall be maintained in any building.

4—Every kennel shall at all times be subject to inspection by an inspector and shall be maintained in a clean and sanitary condition to his satisfaction.

5—Every application for a permit shall specify the premises on which it is proposed to maintain the kennel and the number of dogs proposed to be kept therein, and that number, or such number as the Board sees fit, shall be specified in the permit, and no greater number of dogs shall at any time be maintained in that kennel. In computing the number of dogs puppies less than six months old shall not be included.

6—Every person who maintains a kennel without having obtained a permit or a renewal permit therefor shall for each day during which a kennel is maintained be liable to a penalty not exceeding five dollars and in default of payment to imprisonment for a period not exceeding one week.

At a later date the Nova Scotia Kennel Club hope to be able to have these regulations changed somewhat so that the pure-bred registered dog will be given some concessions. The stray dog nuisance is very acute in Halifax and the kennels get blamed for many things that they do not deserve; but I believe the day is not far away when a real drive will be made to eliminate the street dog. The sooner the better for all concerned, particularly the pure-bred dogs.

From W. G. Smith's kennel comes the news that a litter of five has arrived to "Queen Road White Collar-lash," by "Broomhill Knockout." This litter, made up of two dogs and three bitches, contains a particularly nice hound-marked pair.

A visit to J. D. Whiteley's Kennels at Bedford several days ago, rewarded me with not only his application for membership in the Canadian Kennel Club, but also gave me an opportunity of seeing his stock in their remodelled winter quarters. All of the stock was in excellent condition, but his Irish Water Spaniel bitch, "Glen Moir Surprise," claimed most of my attention. This eleven-month-old youngster has developed wonderfully. She is equipped with faultless quarters and feet and is an excellent mover. Her body and head are also good and I would say that she is a real good typical specimen and will make things hot for her competitors at this year's coming shows. "Surprise" is by "Ch. Idlwyld Irish Prince" ex "Idlwyld Irish Rose."

H. S. Scott, of Moncton, writes that he has recently imported from the U.S. a real good Boston Stud dog from W. Frank Baker's "Kwality Kennels" in Bloomington, Ill. This is a very trappy little eleven-pound dog, with a gorgeous head, short screw tail, wonderful lines, and perfect markings. His ability as sire of small, well-marked pups has been amply proven and he should do a lot to improve the breed in the Maritimes. This little dog was sired by "Hickmans Little Tago," who also sired "Ch. Painted Lady" which sold for $2,000. At the moment I am not sure of the dog's dam, but know that she was sired by "Ch. Glenway Checkers."

Some additional Boston news will appear in this column next month and will, I am sure, be of interest to the fancy, and will convince them that this part of Canada has its share of good specimens of that always popular breed.

In conclusion I again want to make the request that you send your news to me so that our column will be of more widespread interest.

LADIES' KENNEL CLUB (MONTREAL)

The Ladies' Kennel Club of Canada, Inc., may not have held their usual C.K.C. dog show during 1932, but they did fulfil their annual obligations to the unfortunate inmates of the Grace Dart Home Hospital. Prior to Christmas each inmate received one of the surprise boxes from the Ladies' Kennel Club as usual. These boxes brought sunny happiness to the recipients who were loud in their praises for everything they got.

A radio has been installed in one of the women's wards, and this also brings lots of joy to those who otherwise would find the weary hours hard to get past. We can hardly think of any club activity that has as much to recommend it as just this thoughtful service that brings to those interested in the giving, so much added zest to the joys of living.

The Ladies' Kennel Club has intimated the possibility of renewed activity in the dog show business this year, and everybody knows how well the ladies do such things once they get started. 1933 promises to be a year of increased enthusiasm in dog shows generally. One fixture that will be new to the all-breed fixtures of British Columbia has claimed dates. Toronto Kennel Club is back in the game again and promises the fanciers a real show this spring. Windsor is getting ready for a fresh start, all of which is indicative of much renewed interest in the sport of showing the dogs that have been bred or bought during the past period of depression.

Notes from Manitoba

By Provincial Contributing Editor,
W. B. R. KNOWLES, Winnipeg, Man.

IT is interesting and cheering, too, to note the Manitoba members of the Canadian Kennel Club take a very deep interest in their club's activities. Unable to attend the Annual General Meeting, they nevertheless attended a meeting in Winnipeg on January 25th, to discuss the amendments, which in turn will be the subject of discussion in Toronto on February 10th. Some thirty-one members accepted the invitation of the Provincial Director, Geo. Kynoch, to attend the meeting, and when we consider residential, weather and other conditions, one must frankly admit this was an exceptionally good attendance. Mr. Kynoch took the chair, and at the commencement, as he outlined the object for which the meeting was called, he made it quite clear that no matter what conclusion the members arrived at, he had only one vote. That means, he further explained, "no matter how you desire I should represent the opinion of this meeting on the amendments, I have only one vote amongst all the members who may be present at the Annual General Meeting." And he added, "such always will be the case at the Annual General Meetings, until some method of voting by proxy is adopted." This statement by the Provincial Director had little effect on the spirit of the meeting. One by one the amendments were read and thoroughly discussed, and the opinions of the meeting expressed on each, until at a somewhat late hour the meeting adjourned.

Boston Terriers

Mr. Burrows, of Medicine Hat, was a visitor in Winnipeg quite recently. Whilst in our city he bred "Winsome Bunty" to "Ch. Trapystok Personality" and "Winsome Peggy" to "Trapystok Headlight." He also visited the writer's home to see a litter by "Trapystok Headlight," ex a young bitch that is by "Kewaydew All Hagerty," ex "Trapystok Bonnie." Mr. Burrows is however an enthusiastic breeder of English Springer Spaniels, so we suggested he should not leave Winnipeg without seeing "Masterpiece of Avondale," and we understand he said, "I take off my hat to this dog, he is one of the finest Springers I have ever seen."

A litter sister of the above mentioned Boston Terrier bitch, and which I should have said is being registered as "Trapystok Firefly," has been bred to "Trapystok Headlight."

C. Waldron's "Oxonian Lady 4th" has whelped a litter of four puppies to "Ch.

Valente's Aviator," he by "Ch. Winchester Aviator." Mr. Valente advises me "Oxonian Lady 4th" has been bred by Mr. Waldron to four different dogs, but that this is the first time she has whelped a well-marked, good headed puppy. Three of the litter have been sold and Mr. Waldron is keeping the remaining one. "Valente's Baby Doll" has been bred to "Winchester Joy Caster," and a good litter is expected about the end of February. Mr. Valente further reports he has bred "Valente's Bright Eyes," "Mick 15th," a "Winchester Joy Caster" female recently purchased and "Valente's Gipsy" to "Valente's Aviator," and also "Valente's Patricia" to her half brother, an eleven pound ten ounce dog, and is expecting some high class puppies from the mating. He also reports he has three more bitches to be bred before the end of February, that business has been good because there are lots of people looking for good puppies and that all the dogs raised by "Valente's Patsy" have been shown and won prizes. Mr. Valente advises me he comes from the South of Italy, and is the first Italian to take an interest on the Boston Terrier in Winnipeg, and that he enjoys showing his dogs to the public. And we might add that if Joe progresses as he has commenced, he is going to make all the Boston Terrier breeders "step some."

Chihuahuas

We omitted to mention in Manitoba Notes for February that Mrs. Henderson's "Romona" was awarded Best of Breed at the Greater Winnipeg Kennel Club Matinee Show. With the exception of Geo. Henry, we believe Mrs. Henderson is the only fancier in Winnipeg to import this interesting species.

Wire-Haired Fox Terriers

Harry Baker's "Bakerdale Sylvia" has whelped six puppies to "Yorak Fireball." H. Bentley's "Sandhill's Delight" imp., is nursing a litter of puppies that show "lots of promise" by "Patria Revival" imp. Mrs. Henderson's "Moosas Ringleader," bred by E. Hunter, Calgary, Alta., by "Moosakan Double." "Rockcroft Wiregirl," bred by W. A. Childs, Saskatoon, Sask.; "Mutual Bonus," bred by W. W. Riome, Moose Jaw, Sask., have been bred to Geo. Kynoch's "Ch. Fox Hollow Startler."

West Highland White Terriers

J. D. Wade has purchased "Ardsheal Snowman" imp. and "Ardsheal Morven" imp. from Mrs. A. Mason. Those two typical West Highland Whites which have each captured the award for Best of Breed, were imported from the Ardsheal Kennels of Mr. Hunter, of Oban, Scotland.

Scottish Terriers

Geo. Kynoch's "Grizelda" is nursing a nice litter of puppies by "Ch. Normandy Airth." Mrs. J. D. Carruthers, Winnipeg, has purchased from Mr. J. D. Wade "Roughish Jock" ex "Ornetsie Wee One." Dr. Scott of Minneapolis, Minn., U.S.A., also purchased "Aberdeen Sandy" from Mr. Wade. There are two exceptionally typical seven months puppies at the Ornetsie Kennels, "Ornetsie Lightsome" and "Ornetsie Luman" by "Ornsay Druid" imp., ex "Laudon Lightstep" imp. Mrs. Henderson's "Elgin Heather Bell," bred by Geo. Henry, Winnipeg, has been mated to "Haldon Blizzard," "Haldon Blizzard" is the property of Geo. Henry.

Pomeranians

"Cromwell Red Robin," by "Ch. Elnor Mite" imp., ex "Ch. Sandhill's Cherry" imp., a winner at the New Year's Day matinee show, now nine months of age is showing now all the characteristics of his sire. With a typical, pleasing expression, he is carrying correctly placed ears on the best of heads, and an exactly carried plume over the best of red, stand off coats. His legs have just the bone that appeals to the discriminating Pomeranian fancier, and this in part accounts for his remarkable movement. "Sandhill's Cherry" is nursing another litter by "Ch. Elnor Mite."

Pekingese

Mrs. Henderson's Highland Kennels reports that her "Yen Wong" by "Lee Wong," he by "Prince Tai Yan" imp., has three puppies by "Ming Foy Wong" and that her "Tai Tai," bred by R. C. J. Were, Victoria, B.C., has been mated to "Lee Wong."

Mrs. W. J. McIntosh has purchased "San Chang of Cromwell" by "Sankow Chanticleer," imp., ex "Nanki Panzee" from Mr. Bentley. At the Cromwell Kennels too, there are two really good puppies which I should judge are around six months of age, the dog puppy, "Chan-Cleer of Cromwell," a red, and the female, "Beau-Tee of Cromwell," a black, both by "Sankow Chanticleer" imp. ex "Sandhills Flo" imp., are absolutely noseless, have beautifully placed expressive eyes in the ideal Peke head. They have gorgeous coats, the shortest of backs and splendid bone, "Kuan-Yin of Cromwell" is another red bitch, out of the same litter that should make an ideal brood female.

I have received a letter from the Secretary of the Canadian Kennel Club under date of February 9th, which acknowledges one received from me under date of February 7th, which letter was relative to an error in Manitoba Notes for February, 1933 issue of Kennel and Bench, and that was drawn to my attention by the Secretary of the Fort Garry Kennel Club and Mr. S. Jackson, who moved the motion over which the alleged error occurred.

TORONTO KENNEL CLUB ANNUAL MEETING

The Annual General Meeting of Toronto Kennel Club, under the chairmanship of President Jack McNaughton, was successful in every respect. Particularly encouraging was the large turnout of members.

The several committees reported and the Financial Committee's report showed the Club to be in a very robust condition indeed and this, in spite of the Club's inactivity caused chiefly through inability to secure suitable show accommodation. However, it was believed that this drawback had its advantages in some ways.

The following officers were elected: President, John McNaughton; 1st Vice-President, P. Herd; 2nd Vice-President, Mrs. J. W. Bruce; Executive: Mrs. D. Morris, Mrs. J. Tompkins, Mrs. M. Stevens, Mrs. C. Firman and Mrs. E. Whitelaw.

Len Morris, the Secretary, could not be induced to remain in office through pressure of business, a circumstance which was sincerely regretted, as he had been of great assistance to the Club through its many activities during his years in office, his efforts been greatly appreciated, and he was so advised at the meeting.

Percy Brown, the Club's elected Secretary, is a man who is not a novice at the game by any means, and the Club considers itself quite fortunate in securing the services of this seasoned fancier.

The Committee acting on behalf of the Good Friday Week-end Show reported enthusiastically that the prospects were most encouraging. George Steadman Thomas, the world's most colorful adjudicator having accepted an invitation to grace the "woolsack," and that W. H. Reeves, of Belleville, Ont. had accepted the invitation to share in the judging end of the show. Not only that, but that the spacious and comfortable Arena Gardens had been secured to house the Spring fixture. It will be recalled that Toronto Kennel Club was the first and only Club ever to use the Arena Gardens for the purpose of holding a point show, the differences on this forthcoming occasion will be the securing of the entire building, which will be fitted up with freshly re-constructed benching and the securing of the Arena Gardens every comfort for the exhibitors. The reports were warmly endorsed.

Conveniently located in downtown Toronto, the Arena Gardens has housed many capacity houses in the past, and it is now up to the dog lovers of Canada to show what they can do, when their every requirement has been considered and arrangements made for the comfort of themselves and their dogs.

THE SLAYING OF "BOB" MILLS

What a shock it was, upon returning from Westminster Kennel Club Show, to read in the Montreal papers, that "Owd Bob" Mills had been shot to death, in what appears to have been a domestic quarrel, by his own brother-in-law, Irwin Woodhead, who claimed that Bob had insulted Woodhead's wife.

From what we have been able to gather, it would appear that the two men had been quarrelling when Mr. Woodhead suddenly disappeared into a nearby bedroom, only to reappear a moment later, armed with a .45 calibre gun, which he fired, the bullet passing through the victim's abdomen, piercing the right lung and burying itself later in a radio.

Naturally, we are unable to give an opinion at the moment, but we must say, that we have never met a cleaner, whiter, or more generally happy fancier than the man who has been shot, our good friend, Bob Mills, and with that expression of our finding, we will await the outcome of the hearing of the voluntary statement which has been set for February 24th. Meantime, we sympathize with those who are mourning the death of "Owd Bob."

OUR FRONTISPIECE

The front cover feature dog for March is "Champion Brown's Oh Boy" (C.K.C.S.B. 96945), a beautifully moulded Boston Terrier of outstanding type and quality. Seal brindle with elegant markings "Ch. Brown's Oh Boy" was born on November 20th, 1930, sired by a son of "Ch. Highball Just It," and out of a daughter of "Highball's Little Man," it was natural that the astute Earl A. Brown, Toronto, would have more than a passing interest in the possibilities of the litter from which our feature dog came, therefore, it was not surprising to find Mr. Brown taking up the ownership of "Oh Boy" when the puppy was six months old.

Sent on the circuit he soon annexed the prefix of champion, as he won at the Canadian National Exhibition Ladies' Kennel Club of Canada, Inc. (Montreal) and at Hamilton, and for good measure invaded the Cleveland Boston Terrier Specialty Show, under "Marty" Donlin to start the ball a'rolling in quest of his American Championship, so that with the Cleveland win under his belt and his sensational invasion of Westminster Kennel Club Show just closed his American Championship must now be only a matter of his owner's pleasure and the dogs continued good health.

To go to Winners at Westminster Kennel Club Show where the competition was of a high order was an accomplishment without a parallel as far as we have been able to find out; that the win was a popular one was evidenced by the generous applause which greeted the award, on the part of the dyed-in-the-wool rabid Boston Terrier fans which packed the ringside space to capacity. This splendid Boston is rather a hard dog proposition to handle, as he has a will that is all his own and his handler Alf. Loveridge, Toronto, had to concentrate on his own patience to do justice to his charge on the day at New York.

Canada is proud of the great achievement made by this particular Boston Terrier at Westminster Show, proud of B. W. Hamilton, Toronto, who bred the dog and particularly proud of Earl A. Brown, who certainly knows when, where and how to pick up the very choicest specimens, under the most unusual circumstances, and at the most unexpected times. Surely, Earl Brown knows his Boston Terrier.

Grand Coulee, Sask.

CONGRATULATIONS!

Congratulations are in order today. Yesterday, Wednesday, February 22nd, our president, Lt.-Col. G. F. McFarland, K.C., was elected a director of the Canadian National Exhibition for section C (Agriculture), and so brings further distinction to our organization which he so splendidly represents and to himself as a citizen of Canada.

We notice in this morning's "The Globe" (Toronto) under the caption: "Toronto Personalities" that Jack Moranz has featured our president on the front page of the City Section, and in an illustrated thumb-nail sketch, he shows Col. McFarland cutting wood at a circular saw. Then in a kennel of Bull Terriers. Then leading the boys off to the "Great War," and then "pleading" his case before the jury," and in the center we find a good pen and ink sketch of the gallant colonel himself.

Mr. Moranz tells the story of our President's life in a "couple of nutshells" as Andy is prone to tell Amos, and here is the story.

First job, working in saw mill, aged 10. Came to Toronto in 1897. Educated at Owen Sound Collegiate Institute, Upper Canada College, University of Toronto (B.A. and LL.B.) Osgoode Hall.

Favorite hobbies, breeding Bull Terriers. Witnessing lacrosse and hockey games. Enjoys music, Treasurer, Hart House Theatre, and Hart House String Quartette. Member, University Club, 1st Vice-President, Toronto Symphony Orchestra. Governor, Conservatory of Music, Toronto. President, Canadian Kennel Club, Inc.

Lieut. Company F 31st Regiment, 1898-1904. Captain, 1904-1913. Major, 1913, Headquarters Staff M.D., No. 2, May, 1915, Dec. 1915, O.C. 147 Batt'n C.E.F., Dec., 1915-Dec., 1916, O.C. Canadian Reserve Batt'n, Dec., 1916-June, 1917, Second in Command Fourth C.M.R., June, 1917 to Aug., 1918—Deputy Judge Advocate, General Headquarters, Ottawa, Nov., 1918 to July, 1919, Lt.-Col. reserve Grey Regiment. Resumed practice of law in 1919. Resigned as Chief Examiner at Law School to enter the service.

His boyhood ambition to be a Barrister, was realized. Member, Canadian Bar Association, Canadian Club (N.Y.), University Club (Montreal), Eastbourne Golf Club, Masons, Alpha Delta Phi-Can. Military Institute. Gov. Upper Canada College; Chairman, Mothers' Allowance Board of Toronto. President, 4th Canadian Mounted Rifles Association, and Member, Toronto Golf Club.

So now the Canadian Kennel Club sends its President, Lt.-Col. G. F. Mc-Farland, K.C., to the directorate of the Canadian National Exhibition as its representative, and it should never be forgotten that it was the Canadian Kennel Club that sent the late Mr. John G. Kent to the Canadian National Exhibition Board in the first place, nor that Mr. Kent afterwards became the honored General Manager of the Canadian National Exhibition. It is a matter of record now that the late Mr. Kent was the greatest Exhibition Manager that the American continent has ever known. He was president of the Canadian Kennel Club from 1898 until 1916 a period of 18 years.

Will Col. McFarland one day be manager of the Canadian National Exhibition, will he one day be its president—we wonder, anyway, the Canadian Kennel Club has good reason to be very proud of its distinctive presidents, past and present.

THE MORRIS AND ESSEX SHOW

This Morris and Essex fixture has actually become a classic on the American Continent, acknowledged authorities have declared this colorful outdoor show to be the most spectacular event on the world's dog show calendar. This year the event will be held at Madison, New Jersey, on Saturday, May 27th. The following Specialty Clubs will acknowledge the 1933 Morris and Essex Show Classification as being their Specialty Show for the year.

American Chesapeake, Pomeranian, Shetland Sheepdog, Bedlington Terrier, Boxer, Brussels Griffon, Chihuahua, Chow, Collie, French Bulldog, German Shepherd, Great Dane, Irish Setter, Irish Wolfhound, Japanese Spaniel, Kerry Blue, Miniature Pincher, Newfoundland, Pekingese (Summer Show) Pug, Russian Wolfhound, Samoyede, Schipperke, Schnauzer. Just imagine what it means to have the sponsoring clubs of the foregoing formidable list bring out the limit of support to the Morris and Essex Show. A record entry can reasonably be anticipated.

With the exception of Lady Kitty Ritson, who will come from England to judge Shepherds and Norwegian Elkhounds, the list judging list is purely American, from Boston to Virginia they will gather at Madison on the eve of May 26th. The officiating judges best known to Canadian fanciers include George Steadman Thomas, Alf. Delmont, Col. M. Robert Guggenheim, Clarence N. Gray, Harry Osborne, Anton A. Rost, Gerald C. Buck, G. V. Glebe, Charles G. Hopton, Frank H. Addyman, W. Edgar Baker, Enno Meyer, Theodore Offerman, Dr. Thomas D. Buck, Russell H. Johnson, Jr., Otto H. Gross. And there are twenty-three others, who are not so well known on this side of the border, although are considered to be the cream of the judges on the American side.

Many are already laying their plans to make Madison the center of their summer vacation. "Billy" Unthank, Toronto, who is an annual visitor to the Morris and Essex has already coined the slogan, "Meet you at Madison." Another thing, hospitality is always on tap down New Jersey way.

EARLY BIRD CATCHES EARLY WORM

"Billy" Unthank, Toronto, seems to have the early circuits in mind. In a recent communication this versatile fancier says: "As January comes to its close, one begins to think that 'it won't be long now' until Madison Square Garden Show, then Buffalo, then Toronto, then the 'show of shows'—the Morris & Essex. To those who are interested in these classics, 'nuf sed'; but to any fancier who may be contemplating a visit to the latter fixture, by car, this year I believe that I have one of the shortest and best routes carefully mapped out, and having been over the ground several times, I can vouch for the comfort that will follow on this route. One can make the trip either a 'non-stop' or a 'stop-over.' I have tried both and strongly urge the 'stop-over' style of travel. It is really too much to do in one day.

"At Mill City, Pa., one can enjoy a hot bath, comfortable sleeping cabins, a chicken dinner that 'touches the spot' nicely, and the cost only tends to whet one's appetite further. Mill City is about 14 miles from Scranton and leaves one with two-thirds of the road miles behind him. Unlimited space for your dogs to romp and for one's own legs to get all the stretching necessary, and given favorable weather conditions the trip is one that cannot easily be forgotten; in fact, it is a treat all in itself.

"If fanciers intending to visit the Morris & Essex Show this summer will write me at 1034 Ossington Avenue, Toronto, or call me by telephone, LOmbard 4401, I will be happy indeed to give all information necessary to make the trip to Madison, N.J., a real pleasure instead of 'a long grind' which one might easily be excused for believing it would be.

BREEDING SETTERS FOR THIRTY YEARS

That is the record of Jack Cottle, Nanaimo, B.C., and Jack has three Diplomas for three different Irish Setters he was showing in 1903, which circumstance, Mr. Cottle claims to be indisputable. In our Stud Book, No. 1, we find that the earlier breeders at the Coast were Johann Wuffsohn, Vancouver, who apparently purchased his stock from E. E. Caine, Seattle, and S. Creech, Victoria. At this time, Irish Setters were popular in Canada, particularly in Toronto, Montreal and through to Halifax. Such men as Wuffsohn, Dr. Garesche, T. Sigamony, and C. E. Robson, were the big winners at the Coast. John Maroney, J. F. Scholes, were prominent around Toronto, and Pat Doyle, A. Trudeau, were touching the high spots for Montreal. Canada at this time was just in the making. What stupendous progress has been made in the meantime. We would like to hear from Mr. Cottle giving the particulars of his getting interested in the first instance, and some of the high spots which he has touched in the interval.

Mr. Cottle, when attending a football match between the crack team of St. Andrews, Vancouver, played the Nanaimo boys to a draw, found time to tell a friend of the many advantages of Canadian Kennel Club membership, and sold the "C.K.C." idea right on the spot. So much so, that the Board of Directors will consummate—we hope—the transaction on January 19th. A little boasting is worth a whole lot of bickering at any time, and we hope to have plenty of boosters in 1933.

THE "BROWN DERBY" PICTURE

Dr. John Webster, of the Ontario Hospital at Whitby, when renewing his subscription to Kennel and Bench for 1933 paid a nice tribute to the excellence of our Christmas Number, the tribute coming from such a ripe old timer as Dr. Webster, was greatly appreciated, and in turn we desire to share it with Stone & Cox, who printed the issue, and with Mr. Beck, the Superintendent, who was very much interested in this issue.

Dr. Webster advises us, that the man in the "Brown Derby" picture, which appeared on page 48 of our December issue, and which we had named as Jim Lindsay, is none other than the late Harry Bates, of Kingston, Ont., and that the first figure in the lower row is Col. Robert McEwen, of Byron, Ont.

Fine, who will name some of the others for us?

Unable to secure a Gordon Setter handily, Dr. Webster has purchased an Irish Setter from G. K. Alton, Burling-put on a dance and euchre occupying the large Alexandrian room for dancing and the yellow room for euchre.

Appropriate prizes were given in the euchre and were won by Mrs. Turner, Mrs. H. A. Wilson and Mrs. Davis.

Quite a novelty was introduced in the "Lucky Dog" dance, with all-breeds competing, Mrs. Turner and Mr. Luke representing Maltese Terriers, were the fortunate winners of this all-breed special.

In the "Mystery" dance the mystery man turned out to be Walter Brown.

Much of the success of the evening was due to the untiring efforts of the committee, composed of Mrs. Cooper the hostess, Mrs. Stevens, Mrs. Roberts, Mrs. Luke, Mrs. Patchell, Wm. Stockdale (the host), H. H. Carter, Mr. Luke, Mr. Patchell, Mr. Bannister, K. Roberts, Walter Brown and R. Scott Wilson the Chairman. Everyone present expressed their appreciation of the real pleasant evening spent, and if this, their first effort, is a criterion of future events, the Canine Breeders and Exhibitors can rest assured they will have ample support from the dog fanciers around these parts.

THE DOG DENTIST

Taking care of a dog's teeth is a matter that has been given considerable attention in recent years, and a great deal of experimental work has been undertaken by the International Dental Federation with a view to bringing to dogdom a similar service to that which is already available to the human race.

The experiments as practiced on the canines has been alleged to be cruel however, and apparently the practice of keeping dogs for eighteen months under observation is considered to be too long, and that of infecting their teeth with pus from decayed human teeth has its revolting drawbacks, anyway, these practices have been rather bitterly assailed by British dentists, the opposition offered seems to have been more or less without tangible results, as the British dentists have no control over the laboratories where the experiments are likely to be made, therefore, a Bill is to be introduced in the British Parliament by Sir Robert Gower, M.P., on behalf of the National Canine Defence League with a view to making these and kindred experiments on dogs illegal.

OLD GUARD OF THE KENNEL WORLD

One of the many pleasant memories following a visit to Westminster Kennel Club Show, must always be the happy hours spent with the members of the "Old Guard of the Kennel World." The roster of this organization shows its members to be veteran fanciers of America, North and South, and other countries besides.

There was a splendid turnout of interested "oldsters" in attendance for the thirteenth annual dinner which was held at the Hotel Victoria, New York, on Tuesday evening, February 14th, under the chairmanship of A. Clinton Wilmerding, who is much older than organized dogdom itself, in fact he owns up to 81 years at least.

Addresses were made by John G. Bates, Chairman of Westminster Kennel Club, Tyler Morse, Henry T. Fleitman, William T. Payne, Will Judy, Freeman Lloyd, James D. Strachan and other well-known men in kennel affairs.

The last named is the Canadian representative of the "Old Guard," and during the dinner he was made the recipient of an elaborate birthday cake, which was made to show that he had passed the "sixtieth mile stone" of his life. The inscription on the cake read:—"The Old Guard, to 'Jimmie' Strachan, 1873-1933, our steadfast friend from across the border."

The usual photograph was taken, a copy of which illustrates this report and serves to show a part of the assembly, amongst whom will be found many men and women prominent in dogdom past and present.

The "silent toast" was pledged to those of the "Old Guard" who had attended the call of the "Last Post" during the year, Mr. Charles M. Chapin, President of Westminster Kennel Club;

Mowbray Palmer, Vice-President, "Old Guard"; Mr. Clements, Jas. F. Manning, and the only Honorary lady officer, Mrs. James Watson, wife of the famous author, Judge James Watson, well-known to the older fanciers of this country.

Wilbur Purcell, Secretary of the "Old Guard" had a splendid programme prepared, and possibly the outstanding artist contributing to the evening's enjoyment was Miss Dorothy Ramsay, daughter of Evan Ramsay, famous Boston Terrier breeder, author and judge. Miss Ramsay is an aspirant to Metropolitan Opera House, her songs were Kashmir and Ich Lieben Dich, which were splendidly rendered and vociferously received.

The following officers were elected: President, A. Clinton Wilmerding; Honorary President, Tyler Morse; Vice-President, John N. Champion; Treasurer, Herman Fensterer; Secretary, Wilbur H. Purcell, Canadian representative, James D. Strachan.

Charles G. Hopton was the perfect toastmaster, who kept the well-oiled machinery moving evenly and constantly from beginning to end of the evening's festivities, "Twenty Years in the Service."

DO YOU BREED TOYS?

Toy Dogs, Their History, Care and Management

The tireless Josephine Z. Rine has again obliged dog lovers with another of her educative text books, and this time the Toy dog breeders of the world have been signalled out to receive Miss Rine's latest favor. That the book is exhaustive in covering its field cannot be denied, and that it has been written by one well conversant with her subject, must be conceded, and those of us who have had the pleasure of knowing the author personally, realize just how important it must be to have a copy of her book placed in the hands of every Toy dog breeder on this continent.

Nothing has been overlooked by Miss Rine, therefore the new book is complete in every detail, and to the student who reads carefully, the breeding, raising, marketing and exhibiting of the Toy dog family must become a real joy founded on scientific lines.

The content of the new text book is written in such a manner, that there can be no misunderstanding its teachings, and as it gives the history and genealogy of Chihuahuas, Toy Spaniels, Griffons, Italian Greyhounds, Japanese Spaniels, Maltese, Mexican Hairless Papillons, Pekingese, Miniature Pinchers, Pomeranians, Pugs, Toy Black and Tans, Toy Poodles and Yorkshires. Those who seek to sponsor any, or all of these breeds, or those who may seek to become proficient in judging them can only benefit in reading "Toy Dogs," as written by Miss Rine.

The book is published by Orange Judd Publishing Coy., New York, and is profusely illustrated throughout its 224 pages. It sells for $2.00 in the United States, and for $2.50 in Canada, postage paid. Copies may be ordered through Kennel and Bench, 25 Melinda Street, Toronto.

THE IRISH WASHERWOMEN—NO SIR

Last month we referred to the many good qualities of Walter W. Riome's good Irish Terrier bitch, "Ch. Culbahn Molly," who was all dolled up in her winter coat in the illustration we used in presenting her, and although the expression "a chip of the old block" is usually used when referring to the sterner sex, we use it this month in connection with "Ch. Sporting Sheila," daughter of "Ch. Culbahn Molly," and certainly a "chip of the old block" her famous Irish Mamma.

Our illustration this month shows on the left, "Ch. Culbahn Molly," and on the right her daughter, "Ch. Sporting Sheila" as head studies, frank and honest as the sunshine, both look like the proverbial "peas in a pod."

"Ch. Sporting Sheila" is no longer at Mr. Riome's Mutual Kennels at Saskatoon, the lure of American dollars has transferred her to San Antonio, Texas, and she is now in the kennels of her new owner, John A. James, who is perfectly delighted with her, in fact, Mr. James believes that his "Ch. Sporting Sheila" is the best Irish Terrier bitch in Texas.

Since her arrival in Texas, "Ch. Sporting Sheila" has made herself solid with her new owner by whelping 4 females and 2 males, sired by Mc-

Leod's typical "Mick" "Newtonards Mickey," the whole family are doing well and by the time you read this review, the puppies will around four weeks old.

That the "Irish" are booming is demonstrated by Mr. Riome having telegraphic orders for her purchase from two widely separated zones in the United States. The first wire opened took her, and now she will go to Russell H. Hughes, of Chicago, Ill. She has been bred to "Newtonards Micky," owned by MacLeod, Yorkton, Sask. She will meet plenty of "Culbahn bred terriers in the United States, and her new owner will send her out to win an American championship in due course, and we hope she "brings home the bacon" for him right smartly from the start.

The sender of telegram number two was advised of "Moir's" selling to Chicago, and was sent the details of "Sheila," and as a result the latter champion is now in the kennel of John A. James, San Antonio, Texas. "Ch. Sporting Sheila" has left some fine young stock behind her, sired by Mr. W. Riome's dog, "Pat Healy," a son of "Ch. Frontier Leader."

These sales are sure signs that the depression is really over, "believe it or not."

BARRACK HILL KENNELS BUSY

Miss G. M. Strickland, Providence, R.I., has purchased from the Barrack Hill Kennels, Ottawa, the imported wire hair bitch "Kleopatra Kloffus," daughter of "Thet Tetrach," Imp. Before shipment, "Kleopatra" was mated to "Ch. Talavera Jupiter," and was showing in whelp.

"Handstone Honey Bee," a recent arrival at Barrack Hill Kennels from England, is now showing in whelp to "Ch. Talavera Jupiter." "Honey Bee" owns a head of exceptional length, and is one of the best that Mr. Bailey has ever seen on a Wire or Smooth Fox Terrier in Canada.

R-M's Prevent

“Unconscious Cruelty”

The starving of dogs may be done quite unconsciously, but it is just as hard on the dogs as deliberate maltreatment. It is cruelty to dogs to feed them improperly. Over-cooked scraps and mush may lack just those food elements which dogs require. Health, comfort and good-temper depend on the diet being balanced and complete.

Ross-Miller Dog Foods provide everything dogs need to make them strong, active and healthy, to bring out the best in their breeding and nurture. The constituents of the biscuits are scientifically blended to attain this result. The elements—proteins, carbohydrates, minerals, and vitamins—are all there.

You can rely on R-M.'s to give your dogs square meals and a square deal.

"There wasn't a dog biscuit my dog would look at till I tried BONIO: now he's so eager you'd think he'd had dog biscuits since he was a pup."

LITERALLY thousands of experiences similar to this account for the amazing success of BONIO: after only a few months on the market, it commanded a world-wide sale. Yet this was before this remarkable new biscuit had ever been advertised in the press. Travelers introduced it to enterprising traders, traders recommended it especially for "biscuit-shy" dogs, dog owners discovered that here really was a biscuit that had only to be seen and smelt and tasted to break down a dog's oldest, stubbornest prejudices. Spratt's BONIO has been carried to a huge success on a wave of personal recommendation.

Shaped just like the bones that dogs like most, BONIO is made of whole-wheat meals and Meat-Fibrine, and impregnated with cod-liver oil. But there's an additional something about BONIO which makes it as unique and irresistible as it is health-giving. It is recommended to breeders and exhibitors as the biggest advance in the production of dog foods for the past fifty years. If your dealer is enterprising, he already stocks it in handy cartons.
