Sheer fitness and magnificent coat are strikingly evident in this photograph of Ch. Alfred of Tulchan, from Lady Kitty Ritson's famous kennels at Cobham, England.

LADY KITTY RITSON

Says: "Ch. Alfred of Tulchan, who is renowned for his magnificent condition and good coat, benefits greatly from Bob Martin's Condition Powders."

BOB MARTIN DOG PREPARATIONS

Bob Martin's CONDITION POW-DERS (tasteless), in boxes of 21
powders.

Bob Martin's WORM POWDERS
(for large adult dogs), in boxes of
6 powders.

Bob Martin's WORM TABLETS
(for puppies and the smaller breeds), in boxes of 12 tablets.

MARTINMILK, in airtight tins.
Two sizes and Canisters for Breeders.

Bob Martin's '92 OINTMENT, in tins.

Bob Martin's ANTISEPTIC
LIQUID SHAMPOO, in screwcap bottles.

Bob Martin's CHALK BLOCK
(Antiseptic).

Bob Martin's ANTISEPTIC DOG
SOAP.

This recommendation from Lady Kitty Ritson, traveller extraordinary, Shepherd Dog Judge and authoritative writer, is only one of many hundreds of the world's leading Fanciers who use and recommend Bob Martin's Condition Powders as the surest way to set a dog down in magnificent condition and good coat.

Be guided by the experience of these world-famous Fanciers—condition your dog regularly with Bob Martin's Condition Powders. Again and again it has been proven that this extra touch of condition makes the difference between an occasional prize winner and one who is consistently "in the money".

Bob Martin's tasteless Condition Powders purify the blood and prevent common blood disorders in dogs, such as excessive scratching, listlessness, and sulky temper, loss of appetite, loose coat, eczema and eczema-gout (swellings between the toes).

The correct way to keep your dog always fit and in lovely coat is to give him a Bob Martin's Condition Powder three times a day for two successive days in every week.

We ask you to test these famous Condition Powders at our expense. Simply enclose 10c. in an envelope to cover cost of mailing, state age and weight of your dog and one complete treatment will be mailed to you immediately.

Also, every dog owner should have a copy of the book "Bob Martin On Dogs". It's a handy reference book you will find extremely interesting. Your copy will be mailed FREE on request. Send for it today. Address, Box 15.

Meeting of the Board of Directors of the Canadian Kennel Club, Incorporated

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Directors of the Canadian Kennel Club, Inc., was held in the Board Room of the Club's Offices, 25 Melinda Street, Toronto, on Thursday evening, July 19th, 1934, at 8 o'clock.

The President, Col. J. N. MacRae, presided. Directors attending included W. H. Reeves, Capt. H. Dudley-Waters, W. H. Carter, Dr. H. E. Batt, Dr. C. R. Boulding, and A. L. Gooderham.

The Secretary advised that Director Brig.-Gen. C. M. Nelles was suffering from the heat and would be unable to attend. That one of the Club's members in the person of W. D. Bannister, Toronto, had passed on since the last Board meeting.

The Minutes of the previous Directors' Meeting were read, and it was regularly moved, seconded and carried:—

"That, the Minutes, as read, be adopted."

A letter was read from the Live Stock Records regarding the proposed acceptance of a transfer fee from one other than the seller, and it was regularly moved, seconded and carried:—

"That, the Live Stock Records Office be authorized to accept the necessary transfer fee from Mr. C. Wallace, Vancouver, for the transferring of the Springer Spaniel, "Beeding Bunnie," (imp.) (94906)."

A letter was read from Mr. H. Swinden, Vancouver, B.C., to say he was accepting the office of Chairman of the British Columbia Provincial Committee, made vacant through the resignation of Mr. W. H. Pym.

A letter was read from Mr. John Longo, Toronto, regarding an alleged ambiguity of certain Dog Show Rules governing the age of dogs, and it was agreed that the Secretary write Mr. Longo to the effect that the Pomeranian, "Melbourne Supremacy," was not one year old until midnight on July 2nd, and that in virtue of this dog having been awarded Best Dog in Show, all breeds, he automatically became Best Puppy in Show.

A letter was read from The Ladies' Kennel Club of Canada, Inc., requesting permission to use a card system of taking entries in connection with their forthcoming dog show. It was agreed to sanction the using of the card system conditional that the cards used would conform to the requirements of the Canadian Kennel Club office.

The Secretary advised that, because of the nature of the replies received from the Directors in connection with the show to be held at Winnipeg Exhibition, he had sanctioned the four days as required by the Greater Winnipeg Kennel Club under whose auspices the show was to be held.

A letter was read from the Japan Kennel Club requesting official recognition by the Canadian Kennel Club, and it was agreed to await assurance on the part of the Japan Kennel Club that the requirements of the Live Stock Records Office could be met by the club seeking such recognition.

A letter was read from Mrs. J. W. Bruce, Richmond Hill, Ont., advising that she would likely continue to breed and exhibit her dogs as heretofore.

A letter was read from James L. Stewart, Toronto, who complained that he had been unable to secure registration showing his ownership of a dog purchased from Mr. W. H. Thompson, St. Catharines, Ont. It was regularly moved, seconded and carried:—

"That, Mr. Thompson be given thirty days in which to furnish Mr. Stewart with the necessary papers, or to show cause why he should not be deprived of the privileges of the Canadian Kennel Club."

A letter was read from Mr. S. Sikorski, Winnipeg, advising that he would be pleased to fill the vacancy on the Manitoba Provincial Committee.

The Secretary advised that he had suggested to Mr. J. W. Barber, Cornwall, Ont., the advisability of attendance at the Live Stock Records office with a view of having certain proposed adjustment of his affairs given further consideration.

The Secretary advised that he had offered a similar suggestion to Mr. A. E. Campbell, Plantagenet, Ont., and that Mr. Campbell had visited the Live Stock Records office as a result. It was regularly moved, seconded and carried:—

"That, arrangements be made whereby the representative from the Canadian Kennel Club could function in the further investigation when he was in Ottawa in connection with the proposed revision of the Club's Constitution."

The Secretary advised that he had received from V. H. Harrison, Saskatoon, application for registration, transfer and fee in connection with the Pomeranian purchased by Mrs. Wm. Black, Makwa, Sask., and that the papers had been forwarded to the Live Stock Records office.

It was regularly moved, seconded and carried:—

"That, the Secretary be instructed to write the Live Stock Records Office and ascertain whether or not the papers as submitted had met with approval, and if so, the file to be returned to Ottawa."

The Secretary advised that Mr. J. W. McNulty, Toronto, had visited the office in connection with the complaint made by Mr. A. Pratt, Toronto, and that Mr. McNulty had promised that the cause for complaint would be removed within a few days. It was regularly moved, seconded and carried:—

"That, the matter be left in abeyance until the next meeting of the Board."

The matter of the alleged similarity of the Kennel names, "Aldon" and "Haldon", left over from the previous meeting, was considered, and it was understood that the complaint had been removed through an understanding which had been agreed upon by the parties most interested.

A letter was read from Mr. L. Ryan, the donor of the "Ryan Trophy", which advised that Mr. W. MacBeath would not be able to attend the Directors' meeting owing to sickness. It was regularly moved, seconded and carried:—

"That, the Secretary be instructed to write Mr. MacBeath giving him final notice that the Ryan Trophy must be returned to the Canadian Kennel Club office prior to the date of the next meeting of the Directors."

The Secretary reported that he had been advised by Mr. Pym that the "Brennan-Principe" matter had been turned over to Mr. H. Swinden for attention.

The Secretary read a letter which had been received from Mr. Gerald L. Stock relative to the acceptance of Mr. Pym's resignation, and to the election of Mr. Swinden to the vacancy on the British Columbia Provincial Committee.

A letter from Mr. Pym was presented for consideration, but owing to the importance of the letter's content and to the lateness of the hour, it was agreed to leave the matter on the table until the next Board meeting to be called for three o'clock in the afternoon. Mr. Pym to be advised accordingly.

C. A. WARD UNDER THE WEATHER

C. A. Ward, of the Braemore Kennels, is hoeing a tough row these days, in fact, Mr. Ward has not been quite himself for quite a long time now. We were pleased to notice him out at the Toronto Kennel Club Show, where it was quite apparent that he was in the grip of his arch enemy—rheumatism, but you can't keep a good "Ward" down, and so he had to come to the show, and we noticed that he rather enjoyed seeing his competitor's (Dr. C. R. Boulding) home-bred Wire Fox Terrier bitch, "Talauroa Patricia" going to Best of Winners.

We hope that Mr. Ward will soon be restored to that vigorous measure of health and strength which should be his to enjoy.

The Canadian Fancy

By WALTER H. REEVES, Belleville, Ont.

IT has always been the intention of the writer of the Canadian Fancy to offer through these pages kindly and constructive criticism. In calling attention to the progress or otherwise of any breed, the criticism is not intended for any one kennel, but a summing up of the conditions of the breeds in Canada, or may be on the American Continent. The reason for these remarks is that the writer heard recently that a certain fancier, to whom a great deal of credit is due for the sporting way in which he has always sponsored his breed, seemed to be of opinion that my criticism was intended for his kennel. The Canadian Fancy in Kennel and Bench is not intended to be the rendezvous of the Ontario fancy, but the rendezvous of the Canadian Fancy.

When the Editor of Kennel and Bench asked the writer to take these pages under his care the writer was not even a member of the Canadian Kennel Club, but, like all those who are interested in the sport of breeding and showing dogs the writer has watched with considerable interest the growth and prosperity of the club. During the years of depression the Canadian fanciers have done their part nobly, today a different spirit exists, and it seems to the writer that show-giving clubs have not correctly analyzed this complete change.

Ask any business man and he will tell you that it takes a real salesman to make a sale today, no matter how badly the article is needed. It is no use advertising the show and stating that a premium list will be sent to anyone interested, we have to go further than this, premium lists have to be sent to all "prospects," show-giving clubs have to sell their show today, and to do so they certainly must not try to save on their "canvassers"—the prize lists. I can quite understand how the one dog man can be missed in the canvass for entries, but it is hard to understand how the big exhibitor is missed. The writer is not writing these remarks on poor canvassing from hearsay, but from facts brought to his notice. It seems to be the opinion of some that any exhibitor that is sufficiently interested will apply for prize lists, but with all due deference to those holding these views, they should realize that more and more shows are being held and that an exhibitor can, and does, pick the shows he thinks he wants to support.

The writer was glad to see his remarks in the last issue on the poor book-keeping or keeping of reliable records backed up by the Editor. The sport of breeding and showing dogs is steadily but surely becoming, as it has already become in Great Britain, an industry and a very profitable one.

If we wish to go on and prosper as we have in the past, we must use business methods and one of the most essential, is, that of keeping reliable records of services and births. There are a number of books published for the purpose of keeping breeding records, but I believe the method used by the Silver Fox breeders would, if a few alterations were made, be found to be the best for the Canadian breeder.

The following letter has been sent by a breeder with constructive ideas:

"We should be glad if you would give your opinion on the following problem of vital interest to the small breeder. Is it right to buy and breed from the best bitches you can afford, using of course, good proven sires, or do you get equally good results from "any old bitch, out of any old bitch, but sired by good dogs." In short, is the male line 90 per cent of the breeding?

As you know we are the greenest novices, but my husband was a keen student of biology in England, and I am a graduate of Birmingham and Oxford universities, and may be too much inclined to pay attention to theory. It was rather a blow to hear from more than one breeder,—one who was breeding when we were born!—that the individual bitch, her dam, her sisters, etc., etc. don't matter at all, provided she carries the blood of good sires. Recently we sent our bitch puppy to be mated, with the intention of keeping the best bitch of the litter, and breeding her to the best available dog for her, and so on. We had the chance also to buy an English bitch in whelp to a champion, and we jumped at it, but apart altogether from the fact that this champion is siring lots of winners in England, including several champions and C.C. winners this season alone, it was the female line of the English bitch that attracted us. Not only is she litter sister to an Int. Ch., but her dam is also the dam of an International Champion, and the litter sister of an International Champion, and another first-class producer still going strong in the Old Country.

We have been rather reproached for bothering about "female lines and nonsense like that," and importing a brood bitch for the above reasons, as a $25 bitch by a good sire, bred back to him or to another good dog would give as good results. I wish you would give us your opinion. Is there no science in dog breeding? I can imagine a bitch with serious faults or absolute lack of class producing a good puppy, but what would the good puppy produce?

I do wish you would give your opinion, as it does carry weight, and if the "any-old-bitch" theory is right we shall have to revise our ideas in a hurry and start keeping the best dogs instead of the best bitches!"

My correspondent raises a breeding question that is interesting. The writer's experience has been from his own breeding, and also the methods of the most successful breeders in England, that not only is a well bred bitch needed, but one fairly free from prominent faults. Great show bitches have never been the success one would expect in the breeding kennels, of course there are exceptions, but speaking generally it is the well-bred bitch produced from a prepotent strain that just misses being a great show bitch which produces the best puppies. Breedings always has been and always will be full of surprises, but the writer has yet to see a chance bred bitch, or, as my correspondent writes, "any old bitch" a producer.

I have often wondered whether the owners of stud dogs live up to the announcement in many stud advertisements that the stud dog is only available to approved bitches. It would certainly be to the benefit of the sport if they did, but it is hard to turn away a $25.00 or $50.00 fee, as the case may be, although the owner of the stud dog knows perfectly well that the "any old bitch" sent is not worth the stud fee charged for the service.

One of the best show bitches the writer ever saw was a chance bred one, she probably came as near to perfection as any dog ever shown, but what a failure she was in the breeding kennel. I saw two of her litters, the puppies were all destroyed. We may hear different theories but only one has stood the test of time, and that is, that to succeed as a breeder one must have good bitches which are descendants of prepotent strains, so often we hear the theory quoted that "Like begets like," but this has to be taken with reservations. Heredity plays a very important part in all breeding experiments, qualities desirable and qualities undesirable are transmittable. I remember a long discussion in the smoking room of the North British Hotel, Edinburgh, which started by one of the party stating that he paid little or no attention to pedigrees, but practically all to the individuals. However, I believe, before the party broke up, he found himself so far in the minority that he changed his opinion. My advice has always been, select your brood bitch because of her type and shape, but before becoming her owner study her blood lines and her ancestors. Breeding plays strange tricks which at times are hard to understand, everyone interested in breeding has seen wonderful specimens produced from the crossing, usually through carelessness, of two different breeds and one can understand that the bitch if she is a descendant of a prepotent strain may show little or no sign of the new alliance by the puppies produced, but at times we get quite a reversal of all set ideas on breeding; probably the strangest that has ever come to the notice of the writer was the black and tan Old English Terrier that was bred from an Old English Sheepdog.

My good friend, A. P. Mutchmor, in his notes for Manitoba, in the last issue of Kennel and Bench raises the question of a now practically abolished Special, Reserve Best in Show. Under the present system of judging Best in Show, this would be a very unfair award.

We will suppose that a Fox Terrier wins the special for Best Dog in Show, probably the second best Fox Terrier which was eliminated in the judging for Best of Breed might be good enough to beat the other contestants for Best Dog in Show. Reserve, Best in Show and Best Bitch in Show are specials which should be eliminated under our present system.

Exhibitors showed in no unmistakable way that they would not support a three-day show by the very meagre support they gave to the Toronto Kennel Club Show which was held in the spacious ground floor of the Coliseum at the Exhibition Grounds during the Toronto Centennial celebrations. Despite the fact that the weather was almost tropical the building was always cool. The arrangements were perfect in every detail, except for one little incident where, through the carelessness of someone, a dog was stolen from off its bench, however, the dog was recovered in time to compete, so the incident passed without any unpleasant results. Although the entry was small, lack of numbers were amply made up by the quality. Mrs. J. W. Bruce's Pomeranian, "Melbourne Supremacy" winning the special for Best in Show, his nearest opponent being Reg.

Sparkes' Bulldog, "Juniors' Juno," whose splendid condition reflected great credit on his owner. Anyone who has kept Bulldogs realizes how very difficult it is to keep them in condition during the summer months. Evidently the heat agrees with "Juniors' Juno" for he was much improved in condition since the Windsor Show, where I judged him previously, and placed the Boston, now "Int. Champion R Wee Joy" over him in the Non-Sporting Group.

The following interesting letter was sent by Len. Hull, the owner of the Regal Terrier Kennels, at London, Ontario:—

"Having read with interest your comments on line-breeding in the Kennel and Bench, I am writing you to say my little piece.

I have only been breeding exhibition dogs for the past five or six years, but for twenty years previous to that I bred dogs for working and performing purposes, so that possibly my experience has been somewhat more varied than the average breeder.

In my estimation the breeding of exhibition dogs is on the lowest plane of any branch of live stock, and is on the same basis poultry was about 25 years ago. There are two reasons for this. The average breeder breeds a litter or two a year in his kitchen, or back yard, does a little winning and sets himself up as an authority on breeding. In other branches of live stock such as dairy cattle and poultry, a breeder's feeding and breeding experiments, which are inseparable, soon reflect themselves in the milkpail or egg basket. In exhibition dogs, there is nothing but the show ring where judges' opinions are widely varied, and if after breeding for years along a special line and the desired results are not accomplished, why of course 'the judge doesn't know them,' etc, and the breeder goes ahead in the same old way.

You can pin a strain of dairy cattle down to milk bucket figures or a strain of poultry down to egg records but you can't put dogs on that kind of basis, that is, exhibition dogs, when they are shown under all kinds of judges.

In my opinion, a dog breeder is at a serious disadvantage if he has never bred other live stock. You will find a great many of large English breeders (I don't mean handlers), are breeders of pure-bred cattle, horses, poultry, etc.,

In feeding it is the same, a breeder feeds a few pounds of So and So's highly advertised food and gives his opinion. In my own experience I find it takes at least two years to test a particular kind of food and on stock that you know the ancestors for at least four generations back. I have fed cod liver oil in all forms for years and have not yet satisfied myself that it has one-half of the merits claimed for it. Yet nearly every breeder would swear by it.

In line-breeding I don't really believe 95 per cent of the dog breeders really know what it is. Most breeders imagine that line breeding is the mating of a pair of relations, which is far from the truth, and the reason for all the faults that soon creep in when a breed becomes popular. The popular breeds of cattle and poultry are just as popular as twenty years ago and the individual specimens better and so it could be in dogs. For instance a man that understood what he was doing could breed 'Crackley Supreme' to 'Gains Great Surprise' (in Wires), and twenty or fifty years from now be breeding better Wires than either of the above and never out-cross, and fifty years from now every dog in his kennel would trace directly back to the same pair, but—and here is what dog breeders will not do—he would have to do plenty of culling.

In other words what the dog fancy needs is plenty of correct and selective line breeding.

I am enclosing a couple of pedigrees of two dogs in my kennel both bought for their breeding. I would ask you to study these very closely.

The wire is from a half sister and half brother mating and is not line-bred although most breeders would say so. The Airedale is line-bred and is one of the best pedigrees in dogs I have ever seen. A close study will reveal the reason of the Englishman's superiority in dog breeding. You will notice the tail male and tail female go back to the same ancestors and the out cross is through 'Ch. Matador Mandarin,' but the out cross is only a

TORONTO, ONT.

Champion Walnut Rattler (Imp.)

Champion Wyrecote Watalad (Imp.)

BRAEMORE KENNELS have been distinguished by the high quality of the Wire Fox Terriers and Scottish Terriers, which have come from the foremost kennels of Great Britain.

AT STUD BRAEMORE WIRE FOX TERRIERS

CHAMPION WALNUT RATTLER

A double cross of Champion Fountain Crusader, and a sure fire producer of high class typical stock, too well known to require any further comment here. STUD FEE, $20.00

CHAMPION WYRECOTE WATALAD (Imp.)

This smart son of Ch. Talavera Simon was very much in the limelight at all shows in the Ontario Winter Circuit when he was Winner at the National Kennel Club (Royal Winter Fair), Winners at Oakville, Winners and Best of Breed at Toronto Ladies' Kennel Club, Winners at Guelph. Our newly crowned Champion Walnut Waffle is out of the same dam as "Watalad," and "Waffle" was Winner Bitch at all the shows enumerated above. STUD FEE, $20.00

WALNUT LEADER (Imp.)

By Champion Weltona Pebble, a really outstanding wire, smallest of dark eyes, long, clean cut head, and a coat of pinwire texture, a consistent winner. STUD FEE, $15.00

WELBECK CRUSADER

A Wire Fox Terrier which is an ideal cross between Champion Fountain Crusader and Champion Epping Extreme. A many times winner, and the conqueror of Ch. Walnut Rattler at Montreal in 1931. He is particularly suited for bitches lacking in size and substance. STUD FEE, $10.00

DOGBERRY GOLDEN SHOWER (Imp.)

Did you notice our "Dogberry Golden Shower" at the shows this year? She is a real one. Winners at Windsor, Hamilton, Brantford and Oakville. 2nd Limit at Morris & Essex. 1st Open, and Best of Winners at Wissahicon, Pa. 2nd Open, Reserve Winners at Devon, Pa. 2nd Open at Bryn Mawr, Pa. 3rd Open at Portchester, N.Y., (Greenwich Kennel Club). Placed at Orange, N.J. This represents the high quality of this choice bitch, who now stands on the threshold of her Canadian Championship.

BRAEMORE SCOTTISH TERRIERS

offer the very choicest blood combinations obtainable in the Scottish Terrier world today.

CHAMPION WALNUT ROUGE (Imp.)

A black brindle "Scottie," who is a splendid son of the world's greatest Scottish Terrier, Champion Heather Necessity. STUD FEE, $25.00

TARVIT TORCH (Imp.)

An extremely smart "Scottie," who shows twenty-seven champions in his five generation pedigree. He is by Champion Albourne Barty ex Mannock Mikadoo, who is a full sister to Champion Albourne Arthur. STUD FEE, $20.00

KEMPTON MacADAIR

Very black brindle, short back and tail, low to ground, a real Scottish Terrier. STUD FEE, $20.00 branch of the same family. I might add that this bitch is a worthy specimen as well and am enclosing a couple of unretouched pictures of her.

The London Canine Ass'n has taken a new lease on life the past few months under the guiding hand of Capt. Frank Millar, the membership has trebled and the local newspapers are giving us nice publicity, which they haven't done in years. In addition to meeting every two weeks, there is also social gatherings, euchres, etc., to bring the breeders together. A puppy match is being held next Saturday on the estate of J. F. Morgan, of Morgan's Supply House. No doubt another year will see Canada's oldest Dog Club also one of Canada's foremost dog clubs.

Am shipping an exceptionally good 3 months Airedale bitch puppy to M. L. Pardoe, Baltimore, Md. She is by Int. 'Ch. Eclypson of Idlewood' and out of my good bitch 'Rockley Gold Plate' ('Ch. Warbeck Mixer'—'Ch. Rockley Flirt'). This pup should be heard from in the East the way she looks now."

Thanks very much for your interesting and instructive letter, there is a world of truth in what you have written. My experience in dog breeding is not confined to personal experience, but also from the methods used and observed by the British breeders, when collecting data for the write up of the kennels for the illustrated kennel news. The interviews were written from particulars gained on personal visits and not from particulars sent in by the owners. The writer has often given it as his opinion that Canadian breeders need not even play second fiddle to the British, for we have a wealth of prepotent sires and dams in Canada, but we do need more constructive mating, and Len., you have hit the nail bang on the head when you say Canadian breeders need to do some culling; far better to rear three good specimens than to try to raise six, three of which are culls. So many breeders fail to realize how much it means for a puppy to get a good start in the nest. The reason probably that so many "culls" or "runts" are reared is that we have heard that a certain champion was the runt of the litter. The story of the runt turning out the best of the litter has cost thousands of dollars in raising runts, which usually finish as they start and are sold to some unsuspecting novice who is caught by pedigree and is quickly out of the sport when he shows the runt and is given the gate. The Silver Fox breeders have shown what can be done with selective breeding and the killing off of runts. The day will come when, before registration, the puppies will have to be inspected, and the sooner the better for the pockets of Canadian breeders. When this time comes we will not see pedigree puppies advertised for five dollars. The Canadian Kennel Club and its organ, Kennel and Bench, have accomplished a great work, for they have educated the one-dog man that a well-bred dog costs no more to keep than a mongrel, but they have still to go farther and stop the registration of mediocre specimens. If this could be done the sport we love would become a national industry. The British breeder knows the value of puppy walks and can afford to pay for the rearing of his best puppies. What we need to do in Canada is to educate the fancier and show him that a couple of puppies "to walk" would pay better than keeping just a dog—Canadian breeders can find the walks if only they are willing to pay.

The Chesapeake Bays have always had a great reputation as water dogs, but the experience related to the writer about Floyd Urch's "Ch. Blondi" is really almost unbelievable, if there had not been corroborative evidence—"Blondi" was swimming in the Moira River with some boys, who all of a sudden noticed that she had gotten into the current of the falls just by the old paper plant, she was carried over the falls and disappeared. Knowing "Blondi's" abilities as a strong and fearless swimmer and diver, hopes were entertained that she might have got to land but after a long search the general opinion was that she must have got entangled with some of the old lumber under the falls. Five days afterwards, the boys were swimming in the same spot and suddenly "Blondi" came up, alive. Investigations proved that "Blondi" had found a tunnel or large hole under the falls, where she had lived for five days.

Apparently the Canadian-bred Scottie "Ch. Haldon Minstrel", has been making the best home bred and the imported, step some across the border, for he won 1st Limit, Wissahickon; 1st Limit and Reserve Winners, Devon; 1st Limit and Winners, Greenwich Kennel Club, and Second Limit, Orange. Congratulations Dr. and Mrs. Batt.

The writer finds it difficult to comply with the many requests for standards. This month we are giving the standard of the Irish Setter, undoubtedly one of the most popular of our sporting dogs and a breed with which Canadian breeders have had great success. The standard is published by the Irish Setter Club of America. Head, should be long and lean, the skull oval (from ear to ear), having plenty of brain room and with well defined occipital protuberance. Brows raised showing stop. The muzzle moderately deep and fairly square at end. From the stop to the point of the nose should be long. The nostrils wide and the jaws of nearly equal length, flews not to be pendulous. The color of the nose dark mahogany or dark chocolate and that of the eyes (which ought not to be too large), rich hazel or brown. The ears to be of moderate size, fine in texture, set on low, well back and hanging in a neat fold, close to the head.

Neck, should be moderately long, very muscular, but not too thick, slightly arched, free from all tendency to throatiness. Body should be proportionately long, shoulders fine at the points, deep, and sloping well back. The chest deep, rather narrow in front. The ribs well sprung, leaving plenty of lung room. The loins, muscular and slightly arched. The hindquarters wide and powerful.

Legs and feet—The hind legs from hip to hock should be long and muscular; from hock to heel, short and strong. The stifle and hock joints well bent and not inclined either in or out. The forelegs should be strong and sinewy, having plenty of bone, with elbows free, well let down and like the hock neither out nor in. The feet rather small, very firm, toes strong, close together and arched.

Tail, should be of moderate length, set on rather low, strong at root and tapering to a fine point, to be carried in a slight scimitar-like curve or straight nearly level with the back.

Coat, on the head, front of legs and tips of ears should be short and fine, but on all other parts of the body it should be of moderate length, flat and as free as possible from curl or wave.

Feathering. The feather on the upper portion of the ears should be long and silky, on the back of fore and hind legs long and fine, a fair amount of hair on belly, forming a nice fringe, which may extend on chest and throat. Feet to be well feathered between the toes. Tail to have a nice fringe of moderately long hair, decreasing in length as it approaches the point. All feathering to be as straight and flat as possible.

Color and markings. The color should be a rich golden chestnut or mahogany red, with no trace whatever of black; white on chest, throat or toes, or a small star on the forehead, or a narrow streak on the nose or face, not to disqualify.

TWO WELL-KNOWN BOSTONS DEAD

It was rather a bad week-end for our good friend, Ed. Runions, Ottawa, when he lost two valuable Boston Terrier matrons by death, "Int. Ch. Ruinarts Demure Jane" was one, and the other was the Toronto Kennel Club (Spring) Winner, "Queen Street Beauty." The former was a "Ch. Rocabey Dempsey" bitch and the latter had for sire, "Come Again Hagerty." Both had whelped litters of five, and an additional "crush" is that only one of the ten is now alive at the time of writing, the "one" is said to be the living replica of her dam and will be registered, all being well, as "Demure Jane II."

The motto of Ed's "Gold Coin Kennels" being "the best is never too good." It remains for him to fill the vacancies in the kennel in a big way, and no doubt that is just exactly what he will do, but to lose two such splendid bitches at one time is a hard blow at any time and so we extend our sympathies to Mr. Runions at this time.

OUR FRONTISPIECE

Our front cover for August features the noted Pekingese International Champion "Whitworth Michael," owned by Mrs. Richardson Strathy, New York City, N.Y., and probably there is no other American-bred Peke who can show such an imposing show record as Int. "Ch. Whitworth Michael," who is so well known in Canada.

Starting at his first show as a puppy he was a sensation, sweeping through three hard classes at the Boston Specialty Show, and before he had attained the age of eighteen months his championship in the States had been awarded. This championship followed wins at:

Baltimore, under Mr. Rost.

Boston, under Mr. Hopton.

Acqueduct, under Mrs. Quigley.

Morris and Essex, under Mrs. Van Buren.

Everyone of these shows was a four or five point show. Among his later wins were:

Best Toy at Washington, D.C., under Mr. Downing and Mr. Albright.

Best of the Breed at Rye, New York, under Miss Stovell.

Best of the Breed at the New England Specialty Show, under Mr. Albright.

His championship in Canada was obtained through wins at the Ladies Kennel Club of Canada, at Montreal, where he was Best of the Breed, gaining five points. Pekin Palace Dog Assn., at Toronto, Canada, where he was best in the show and at the Toronto Kennel Club where he was best of the breed.

Every win both in the United States and Canada was made at important shows, against the keenest sort of competition and at one time or another he defeated practically every competing American and Canadian Champion. In addition to his unquestioned high quality he has always been a dog of wonderful personality and his popularity among the ringsiders has been remarkable.

In as much as Mrs. Strathy does very little breeding, his chances at stud have been limited, but he has to his credit a winner of the Pekingese Futurity and he is also the sire of the puppy "Whitworth Beau Michael," who has gone through the spring campaign winning his classes at eight straight shows, with two Reserve Winner awards and finally winding up the season at Orange as Winners Dog and Best of Winners. All this when under nine months of age.

Champion Michael is also the grand sire of Mrs. Strathy's grand American bred "Kann Do," one of the best present-day American-breds and a sure champion in his own right.

TOURING EUROPE WITH THE KENNEDYS

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Kennedy and son of the Vivadora Kennels, Toronto, have completed the first leg of their vacation, which so far has taken them to France, Belgium, Germany, Austria, Hungary, and having retraced their pilgrimage in a roundabout way, they are now at London, England, with plans already made to visit all the best British kennels where Wire Fox Terriers and Scottish Terriers are kennelled. We do not know what their intentions are, but it is easy to imagine that there will be additional Wires and Scotties at the Vivadora Kennels when the Kennedy family gets back to Toronto.

HATS OFF TO JOHN RITCHIE!

The "Dog News" for July says: "One of the most thorough and competent Springer judges that Eastern fanciers have yet seen is Mr. John Ritchie, Ottawa, Ontario, Canada, who judged English Springer Spaniels at Morris and Essex this year."

The writer believes that Mr. Ritchie's judging was accepted by all exhibitors and spectators as being unbiased and accurate, which is indeed a tribute to any judge."

SOMETHING ENTIRELY NEW!*The Canadian National Beagle Club ANNUAL FIELD TRIALS

Under Canadian and American Kennel Club Rules

Will be held at

FOREST, ONTARIO, CANADA*From September 30th until October 6th, 1934

These trials will be run with the full licence of the Canadian and American Kennel Clubs, and therefore we anticipate that our 1934 Trials will mark red letter days in the history of the Canadian National Beagle Club.

JUDGES: ED. PONZI, ESQ., West Frankfort, Ill., U.S.A.
L. M. KEMP, ESQ., Akron, Ohio, U.S.A.

Particulars from

F. L. PETERSMARCK - 3058 Sixteenth St., Detroit, Mich.*NEVER WAS BEATEN IN COMPETITION*Ch. Princess Ima of Dundas

We take pleasure in presenting an untouched illustration showing the recently crowned Champion, "Princess Ima of Dundas," the property of Mr. Cyril D. Mutter, Verdun, P.Q. Our new champion is a black and tan daughter of "Smokie von Sparrow," out of "Dina of Dundas". Her breeding is built up from a substantial foundation, and it is not necessary to go very far back in her pedigree to discover such choice Shepherds as "Ch. Brando von Filsek" (imp.), "Asta von Pfefferland" (imp.), and "Bodwild of the Hollies" (imp.).

"Ch. Princess Ima of Dundas" (98515) is not yet four years old, having been born October 27th, 1930. She won at the Montreal Kennel Association show in 1933 (5 points), Ladies' Kennel Club (Montreal), 1933 (5 points), and again at the Montreal Kennel Association's fixture in 1934 (4 points). The picture tells the rest of the story itself.

CANADIAN KENNEL CLUB MATTERS

Paper read before an Open Meeting of the Ladies' Kennel Club of Canada, Inc., by President, Mrs. J. H. Enright, Montreal, Quebec.

LADIES and Gentlemen, on behalf of the officers and members of the Ladies' Kennel Club of Canada, Inc., who are sponsoring this meeting on your behalf, I bid you welcome, and sincerely trust that you will derive benefit sufficient to compensate you for coming out to learn something about the Canadian Kennel Club and what it means to us as members and exhibitors.

The Canadian Kennel Club, Inc., functions as an affiliated member association of the Canadian National Live Stock Records, so its Constitution and Dog Show Rules are of vital importance to all breeders, and to fanciers in general. The Dog Show Rules are of very particular interest to all show-giving clubs upon whom rests the responsibility of holding shows in conformity with these rules. It is of the greatest importance that these rules should function smoothly and efficiently.

We are all proud of our Canadian records, they have been conceded to be the cleanest and most dependable records in the world today, and it is our greatest desire to do all in our power to keep them just that way, so it becomes a personal responsibility with each one of us to co-operate to the fullest extent with the Canadian Kennel Club and with the Canadian National Live Stock Records in guarding against any possible contamination in the field of pure-bred dogs.

The Canadian Kennel Club gives us the protection afforded by constituted authority. Its personnel is composed of men selected for their ability and integrity by the members themselves. These men render us invaluable services without any remuneration whatever, therefore they are entitled to anticipate receiving our respect and our closest co-operation.

As members of the Canadian Kennel Club we enjoy many privileges. At this moment I would like to bring some of these before you, and at the same time I would like to refer to the privileges enjoyed by our affiliation with the Canadian National Live Stock Records. As members we may register and transfer our dogs at half the price charged non-members. This is a great economy for the small breeder, and a greater economy for those who breed on a larger scale, e.g., take a litter of say four puppies, to register this litter, and later to register and transfer the individual dogs of the litter would cost a non-member $11.00. For the same service a member would pay only $5.

Is that not a wonderful membership privilege? Not only that, but a member receives Kennel and Bench, the official organ of the Canadian Kennel Club, free each month in virtue of the membership. This organ keeps the several provinces of Canada in constant touch with each other in a most neighborly manner, besides it brings us news of doggy affairs in Canada generally, the United States and Europe, and a further privilege enjoyed by members is receiving the Stud Book by simply signing a card sent to us for our signature and returning it without postage to the Records Office.

The membership fee is only $5.00 for the first year and only $4.00 for each subsequent year, so you see these are most attractive privileges even if only one small litter is raised in a whole year.

Through the usual courtesy of our Canadian Kennel Club Secretary, Mr. J. Strachan, we are able to furnish every non-member present with a free copy of Kennel and Bench, and I am sure you will be pleased to take it home with you to read at your leisure, and should any of you wish to become members of our Canadian Kennel Club, I will be glad to provide you with an application for membership form to-night.

In the city of Montreal we have two all-breed clubs and two specialty clubs. The all-breed clubs are the Montreal Kennel Association, Inc.,—the men's club, and the Ladies Kennel Club of Canada, Inc.,—the ladies' club. This latter club is quite broadminded, and we are glad to have as an honorary member, our host of this evening, Dr. Etienne, our respected Hon. Vet. Surgeon, the best man and the only man holding membership in the Ladies Kennel Club of Canada, Inc. The specialty clubs are the German Shepherd Dog Club and the English Bulldog Club, and both these clubs may hold a licensed show in Montreal during 1934.

The general opinion held by exhibitors seems to be that a club decides to run a show, so it claims a suitable date from the Canadian Kennel Club, someone presses a button and presto! there is the show. This, of course, is a very erroneous opinion for anyone to entertain. To successfully stage a show under Canadian Kennel Club Rules is one of the hardest tasks any club may impose upon its membership, and involves months of really hard work. First, the date to hold the show is decided upon, then the date is requested, and if available it is held for a club by payment of $25.00 to the Canadian Kennel Club. A building for a club has to be secured, and whilst we would like to make it comfortable for you at the Forum, when they ask us to pay $1,500.00 for one day and evening, we find this handicap too great, and so try to get the very best building available instead. Prizes have to be collected, judges have to be selected, publicity has to be arranged for, the Premium List has to be compiled and mailed to probably 1,000 people, and when the entries come in the catalogue—which you are all so prone to criticize—has to be printed, and on hand for the opening, and at the last moment, when brains and limbs are tired, when nerves are strained, the benching has to be taken out of storage and installed. This benching requires some 1,000 lineal feet of frontage. Judging rings have to be arranged for, and still being anxious to please our patrons, we try to install some pleasing element of decoration, we try to make it possible for you to get a fresh sandwich and a good cup of tea or coffee. Then on the morning of the show we try to smile, to shake your hand in welcome, and trying as hard and as conscientiously as possible, we generally manage to greet you kindly and graciously, and the show is only yet starting. Have you ever looked at a dog show through the workers' spectacles? I wish you would do so. In turn you would reciprocate by being rather more indulgent than you sometimes are, or seem to be.

Our principal sources of revenues are entry fees and gate receipts and these we find in practice quite inadequate to meet expense sheets running into thousands of dollars, so this is our reason for running around soliciting donations, and asking for special prizes, but it all comes in the day's work, and friends this sport of dogs and dog shows is one of the best sports in the world. It is participated in from King George V himself right down to his most lowly subject. Our Governor-General, Lord Bessborough, and his good Lady, are both real dog lovers, in fact we are all dog lovers at heart whether we know it or not. Quite recently I was asked to supply a dog for the nephew of our Prime Minister, the Right Hon. R. B. Bennett, the young gentleman being heir of Canada's Minister to the United States, the Hon. Mr. Herridge.

The Premium List sent to you always contains a copy of the Canadian Kennel Club Dog Show Rules, and you must become conversant with them to enjoy the protection they furnish, and be careful to make an intelligent entry for your dog. Particulars as to your own name, the name of your dog, where he was born, his date of birth, the name of his sire and dam, his registration number, are all particulars that you must be prepared to furnish, other-

MAKE YOUR DOG'S LIFE A VERY HAPPY ONE . . .

Bodily health—vigor—well-being—make a dog happy, high-spirited—a credit to his owner—an investment that brings many happy returns.

Feed him Master Dog Biscuits. Give him the vigorous health, sleek coat and prime condition that result from feeding this scientifically balanced biscuit.

Master Dog Biscuits are crisp and chewy—they strengthen the dog's teeth and keep the gums healthy. With a base made up of a variety of whole grains, with animal proteins from meat and milk, Master Dog Biscuits prevent constipation, and supply every element needed to maintain doggy health.

Feed Master Dog Biscuits for best results. They are sold in economical packages of from 5 to 50 lbs. in grocery stores, pet shops and department stores. FRESH—MADE IN CANADA.

wise you are liable to be fined, or to have some wins cancelled, and whilst this is all quite proper, it is very apt to be discouraging for you. However, we have always found the officers of the Canadian Kennel Club ready to receive explanations from you, and usually they give a novice exhibitor reasonable consideration.

One of the most important rules of the Canadian Kennel Club is that you must keep your dog on his bench during the show, unless at certain well defined hours which are set apart for his exercising. When the time arrives for you to bring your dog to the judging ring, an attendant will be sent to advise you to bring him, and you should always be ready to come to the ring when called for. It is always good practice to be near your dog, or to have one in charge of him, in your absence. The show-giving club's obligation to have your dog judged ends with the attendant's visit to your bench, and if you have your dog off his bench, and walking around the building, or sitting in some remote corner chatting, you will have no grounds for complaint when the judging proceeds in your absence.

You should mark your Premium List at the special prizes which you think you may have a chance to win, and again be on hand to make your claims.

Never on any account bring your dog to a show if distemper has afflicted your kennel for at least six weeks prior to the opening of a show, to do so is quite unfair to the other owners and their dogs, and you may easily become responsible for the death of many valuable animals.

Never be in doubt about anything in connection with a dog show, as there are always willing workers who will be glad to help or advise you.

Never wait until the last moment before making your entries for a dog show—make them early always.

In conclusion, I would like to extend the thanks of the Ladies Kennel Club of Canada, Inc., to Dr. Etienne for the use of our meeting room, and for giving us so much valuable information, and to thank you all for attending the meeting tonight.

W. D. BANNISTER ANSWERS LAST CALL

Toronto fanciers generally, and the Boston Terrier group particularly, were shocked as the news spread that "Bill" Bannister had died following an operation for appendicitis. Mr. Bannister had the happy faculty of making friends, and when made, he kept them, so it was not at all surprising to find almost one hundred people gathered together at Craig & Son's funeral parlors, Toronto, on Sunday morning, July 15th, at 10 o'clock for the impressive funeral services which were led by the Rev. H. P. Charters of St. Cyprian's Church, and later taken over by W. M. John Hicks of Melita Lodge 605, A.F. and A.M., his officers and members. That the Canine Breeders' & Exhibitors' Association had a worthy member in Mr. Bannister could be taken for granted by the strength of representation from that organization. The followers of the Boston Terrier Clubs were also much in evidence. The Canadian Kennel Club was represented by Director W. H. Carter and the Secretary.

After the service the casket was placed in an auto hearse and taken to Vanessa, Ont., where the Bannister family had been raised. Upon arrival at Vanessa we found the whole of the villagers, old and young, awaiting the remains of one who had been one of themselves in the early days. Here the Rev. A. Yeoman was in charge of the service. Miss Ida Moyer sang the sacred solo, "The Lord Knows Why", in a most acceptable manner, and as her sweet voice melted away on the sunny Sunday breeze, W. M. Bruce Bonham of Scotland Lodge 193, A.F. & A.M., took charge and the soul of our late friend was wafted away to the higher realms in the hush of a silence that could almost be felt. We have attended many funerals in our time, but none so impressive as this one was. We were glad to notice at the graveside Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Firman and their son "Reg.", who had travelled the hundred odd miles from Toronto for the last sad adieu.

We have just learned that Harold and Mrs. Shaw, who had set out with us from Toronto, ran into trouble with their car and could not complete the long trip to Vanessa. However, we certainly appreciated the sincere interest and effort shown by Mr. and Mrs. Shaw, and it could only be a source of sincere disappointment with the president of the Boston Terrier Club of Toronto when he realized that he was stopped at the end of a 70-mile trial. But these things will, and do, happen.

Mr. Bannister became a member of the Canadian Kennel Club on October 1st, 1927, and was in good standing at the time of his death. He was 61 years of age. During his lifetime in dogdom he gave of his time and talent most freely. He was not hasty in jumping at conclusions, but when he felt that he was sponsoring a just cause he would face its issues squarely with sound judgment and good common sense. The late Mr. Bannister was the type of man that one likes to remember as a friend, one whose passing is sincerely regretted.

British Columbia News

By Provincial Contributing Editor,
R. H. F. Purdon, Vancouver, B.C.

NEW importations are always of interest, the latest being the Airedale Terrier, "The Aristocratic Gentleman" brought out by Thos. Chambers of Victoria, his sire is the great "Ch. Stockfield Aristocrat," and his dam, "Lady Arabella," by "Sponcroft Nonpareil." Mr. Chambers has not long been a resident of Victoria, having come here from Winnipeg, and like many others he enjoys our salubrious coast climate. We are all glad to have him with us and hope he can put some new life into the great "Waterside" Terrier fancy. Mr. Chambers considers "The Aristocratic Gentleman" one of the best young Airedales he has seen for years, while some of the experts here consider him one of the most promising on the continent.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Harper, of Agassiz, who bred such a wonderfully good litter of English Setters by "Pal of Mine," ex "Ch. Seymour Nora," have now a second litter six months old of the same breeding, and from the photo I have before me of these six puppies one might hazard a guess that a few fliers are in this group, for a better looking lot it would be hard to find. "Chepstow Flash," one of last year's pups of the same breeding, and of whom an excellent photo appeared in the last Christmas number of Kennel and Bench has been sold by Mr. Oates to a purchaser in Indiana, "Flash" made some good wins under Mr. Oates' colours who thought highly of him, so his career in the States will be watched with interest. Mr. and Mrs. Harper have recently sold "Chepstow Country Squire" to Earle Brett, a well-known Chilliwack sportsman, he is more than delighted with him.

On July 2nd under delightful weather conditions the fourth annual all-breed show of the Shawnigan Lake Kennel Club was held in the lovely grounds of Shawnigan Lake School, by kind permission of C. W. Lonsdale, and managed with the usual success associated with these fixtures. Over a hundred entries were received, these coming from Vancouver Island, the Mainland, Washington and Oregon. The judges were J. Leitch of Seattle, Sporting and Non-Sporting. Mrs. A. H. Moore, Victoria, Toys. Mrs. Zingler, Seattle, Working and Dachshunde. A. McCloy, Victoria, Terriers. Mrs. Hedley-Peck of the Widbrook Kennels, Victoria, contributed the handsome number of thirteen entries, made up of Dandie Dinmonts, Dachshunde and Dalmatians. Mr. and Mrs. Rhodes "Of Moray" Kennel of Cockers coming a good second with ten entries. The Best in Show award went to a popular Victoria fancier in A. H. Dodds, with his Wire-haired Fox Terrier, "Craven Fine Cut," to whom we offer our congratulations.

Readers of last month's Kennel and Bench must have got a decided shock on seeing a column length advertisement offering for sale the "of Moray" Cockers, the reason being that Mr. and Mrs. Rhodes are leaving to take up residence in England. Two of our most popular show supporters who invariably made a big entry, their loss will be severely felt, apart from that side which is perhaps a commercial one, is the personal loss that we feel at the departure of such a sporting couple, win or lose, their attitude was invariably the same, one of good feeling and good fellowship, while their contribution to the Cocker Spaniel cult with their many importations from the famous "of Ware" kennels will be something of far reaching importance to British Columbia breeders.

Last month in these columns I referred to Stanley Dorrell's latest purchase, the Sealyham, "Felcourt Rosette." I am now informed by her new owner that she arrived in Vancouver on July 11th in very good condition. Before leaving England she was bred to "Felcourt Startler," winner of the fifty guineas cup at the Sealyham Terrier Show. "Startler" is by "Ch. Nutfield Successor," who is by "Ch. St. Margaret's Swell Fella." "Rosette," who is by "Felcourt Selected," a Cruft's winner, has been shown three times, and won four thirds at Cruft's, with the handicap of a bad bite in the foot from an Airedale before entering the ring. Best in Show, all breeds, "Hereford," Best in Show all breeds, "Treherbert" (Wales). It is to be hoped that Mr. Dorrell will be awarded a nice litter to compensate him for the one he expected from a previous importation, "Maythorn Supreme," which failed to materialize.

Mrs. L. M. Wood, of the Conwood Cairn Kennels, Victoria, finds by the enquiries that she is receiving for bitches, even from as far as New York, that people are becoming Cairn minded, and says that when people realize what little sportsmen they are, they will become still more popular. One of her bitches in a recent rat hunt killed five and they have even been used as gun dogs. Mrs. Wood reports a wonderful litter from "Conwood Zara" by "Ferdinand of Harelands." Mated back to him, at eleven months she whelped six dogs and two bitches, real Offley Brimston type. She is nursing five and a Scottie is helping with three, it would seem that just because there is a call for bitches, the stud dogs are throwing males. A litter is being looked forward to by "Ch. Tinker o' Tapscot."

The British Columbia Fox Terrier Association held their annual matinee show, for Fox Terriers only, on July 14th. Joseph Dodds kindly lending his residence and grounds for the occasion. The judge was F. Withers who seemed to give great satisfaction, which is not what we have had so frequently of late; he drew an entry of something over thirty, which is far better than we have had at recent all-breed shows, and was a decided compliment to Mr. Withers. The Secretary, Herbert Swinden, put the show over without any hitches, and kept up the traditions of the oldest surviving Vancouver Dog Club. As usual after the judging was over refreshments and tea was provided for all, this being attended to by the ladies and the hostess, Mrs. Dodds, whose kindness was much appreciated. The following were the principal awards, Best in Show, "Inglewood Buddy" (smooth), H. Wilkinson. Best Opposite Sex in Show and Best Wire, "Weyburn Sylvia," W. J. Moffett. Best Wire Puppy, under twelve months, "Bromley's Sensation," R. O. Bromley. Best Wire or Smooth, under six months, "Keythorpe Faith," the Hon. Mrs. P. B. Tyrwhitt.

This dog is never ill.

Once a week—regularly as clockwork—his master gives him a Karswood Dog Powder. This new improved dog remedy, containing nerve foods and organic salts, provides the dog's system with increased resistance to disease. Prevention is better than cure, and as the cost of Karswood Dog Powders is very small, and the difference to the dog's well-being and happiness enormous, it is a cheap form of insurance indeed. Read this letter:—

A Splendid Tonic.

7, Gyllingwase Terrace, Falmouth.
I have used your Karswood Dog Powders consistently, with excellent results. A brood bitch about whom I was anxious had one powder weekly before whelping, and her pups, now 5 months old, are in the pink of condition, and have been maintained on regular dose of Karswood Dog Powders given ever since weaning. I used to find my dogs very difficult to keep free from skin trouble—living so near the sea—but since giving Karswood Dog Powders there has been no trouble of that kind with any of them. It is a great boon to have such a splendid tonic put up in a very convenient and evidently palatable form.
(Mrs.) L. M. TWITE.

16th October, 1927.

Karswood Dog Powders contain nerve foods and organic salts which are not contained in the dog's ordinary food, but which are essential to the healthy functioning of his system. No other dog medicine contains the same ingredients as Karswood Dog Powders, hence none is so effective for the purpose.

News from Old Quebec

By Provincial Contributing Editor,
MRS. C. de P. DONIPHAN,
Montreal, Que.

DON'T forget the Ladies' Kennel Club entries close on Aug. the 11th. Support and encouragement seem to come from all quarters and any fears the officials may have experienced at the outset, have all by now "safely been laid to rest!" Mrs. Ocorr, who has for the last four years been broadcasting "Doggie Chat," and "Dog Show News" in U.S.A., will give a little talk over the Canadian wires on Aug. 24th. Don't fail to tune in as although I cannot disclose the subject I know you will find it very interesting.

We are most anxious to hear Mrs. Beland's health is improving with the warm weather and that the disbandment of the Pomona Kennels will not become a necessity. Quebec has always been proud to own those famous Pomeranians and is most unwilling to lose them.

Ever since the days of "Ch. Stormlight of Dara" (1918), a steady stream of Canadian and American Champions made the Pomona a by-word of excellence throughout the North American continent, and the actual sight of a dozen diminutive clear orange Poms flashing like little balls of gold across the emerald green lawn is not only a beautiful sight but proof that despite failing health Madame Beland has most carefully upheld her high standard of quality and "Ch. Glorious Gold of Pomona," "Jonville Grand Salute," imp., his captivating little son, "Triumph of Pomona," "Ch. Charmaine of Pomona" and other home-breds and importations certainly make a grand showing.

Madame's home is ideally situated on the shores of Lake St. Louis and apart from the dogs she is keenly interested in flowers and the conservatory adjoining the dining-room contains rare and beautiful specimens which would delight the eyes of many an expert horticulturist.

Here's sincerely hoping the next news will be good news so that the little Pomona and their popular owner will continue their winnings for many, many years to come.

Andrew Aspell of the Killarney Kennels reports the arrival of two nice litters of Cocker Spaniels, sired by "Craigellachie Cloudy," a son of "Ch. The Coming Storm." One of the youngsters is already under the able schooling of Fred Coleman of Ottawa, and will make his debut at the Westminster Kennel Club Show next February. Mr. Aspell is also very proud of four Scotty pups, sired by "Barkhill Tallyman."

Miss Jane Woods greatly misses her good Bulldog, "Nellie Tally," who died recently. "Tally" although not quite two years had already some good wins to her credit. Sired by "Great Britisher" ex "Ch. Lolly" she is a real loss to her owner.

Mrs. Olive Despatie is most enthusiastic in selecting only the very best for her newly formed Boston Terrier kennel, and has just purchased "Kruger Swift Grace," an eighteen month winning female from Kruger Seguin. "Grace" will be shown extensively this Fall, and we wish this new Boston fancier the very best of luck.

Congratulations to Dr. "Charlie" Baker whose beautiful Springer, "Belmoss Critic," completed his championship at the recent Ottawa show. "Critic" was bred by Mr. Placey and sired by "Ch. Inveresk Chancellor," ex "Ch. Belmoss Countess," so it is no wonder he proved true to his illustrious parentage. His kennel mate, "Belmoss Rio Rita," a daughter of "Int. Ch. Inveresk Colly Shot," is already giving a good account of herself, and we hope will some day return home with the coveted title.

"Ch. Cedric Chieftain," Mrs. T. P. Ritchie's good Scottie, is proving a great stud dog. Mr. Westlake reports a litter of 6 males and 1 female, sired by "Chieftain" and females owned by Messrs. Myers, Dingwall and Rimner, have recently been bred to him.

"Dogs in the Tropics" reminds me of my year's residence in Cuba, where I took my dear old "Ch. Priorwood Pagon" (who was then ten years old), and "Babette," a five months' puppy. During the weeks spent in New York, Cincinnati, Doniphan, Mis., and New Orleans, the staffs of hotels, boats and trains were always most courteous and we never had the slightest bit of trouble with the two Pekes.

We arrived in Havana in June with the thermometer hovering between 90 and 104 degrees, and it was frightfully hot. The "Patio" (a roofless square situated right in the center of the house) could always be relied upon for shade, and became the dog's favorite abode where they would roam at will amidst hundreds of potted palms, rubber plants and flowers. We had of course the usual quota of scorpions, lizards, centipedes, roaches, spiders, ants and mosquitoes, so the dogs were not allowed in the patio at night, but as the floors were tiled throughout the house we had no worries as to their sleeping accommodation. Flees never bothered them, but big fat prosperous looking ticks had to be picked off with tweezers after their morning exercise in the open garden.

A small dish of bran or corn flakes with milk constituted their breakfast and about 10 p.m. they were given a generous meal of either meat or fish combined with rice, vegetables or biscuits. They were very happy and seemed to get along well in their new home when one day little "Babette" refused her food and did not look quite right; she would hide under furniture, then with tail down and a dumb brooding look in her big dark eyes, drag herself to the water bowl; although lowering her whole face into the water she was unable to drink, and at the least word or movement on my part would slink slowly back into hiding. The vet diagnosed Rabies but in spite of warnings, etc. we made her comfortable in a separate room and decided to await morning. During the night she started to bark, a sharp, pitiful continuous little yelp the sound of which I shall never forget. Of course, this was the end and a hypo mercifully put her out of her misery.

Poor little "Babette" was my husband's favorite as she would chase goats, cats and chickens and did not dislike an occasional sip of Bacardy rum. Burying her in that vermin infested land for the buzzards enjoyment seemed hardly fair so after wrapping and weighting her down carefully in new sugar sacks we went aboard one of the tugboats and dropped her into the sea a good mile out of Cabarias and the shark infested bay.

The sequel to this "burial at sea" was that my brother-in-law developed an unusual solicitude regarding Pagan's welfare; every day he would ask how the dear old chap was. Upon inquiring one day as to the cause of this sudden interest, Rafael answered: "Well you see it cost us fourteen tons of coal to bury 'Babette,' so for lands' sakes take good care of 'Pagan'!" There was, however, no cause to worry as "Pagan" came back home with us and died in Montreal just short of celebrating his sixteenth birthday. He was probably the grandest parti-color ever exhibited in this country and held a record of twenty-five championship points aside from leaving many winning children and grand-children. My present "Ch. Tong King of Wangza" is a great grandson of his.

Notes from Manitoba

By Provincial Contributing Editor,
A. P. MUTCHMOR, Winnipeg

WHEN I agreed to take over this department for Manitoba, it was with the distinct understanding that it was up to the members of the province as to whether I would continue or not. I think I placed my cards on the table in stating that the members would be the judge as to whether they wished me to continue or not, and any time they wished me to discontinue, all they had to do was to keep back the news. We have now arrived at a point where it is necessary to make some decision. I have not received one item of news this month, and if this is to be taken as the wish of the Manitoba fanciers, let us call it a day and appoint someone else, and in whom you may have more confidence. I absolutely refuse to trot around the city or province in search of news items, and if you have not sufficient interest to send in the items, well, it is just too bad. As I have remarked on former occasions, the column is open to all, members or non-members, and it does not matter what club you belong to, or whether you belong to any club. All will get the same treatment. With the number of dogs we have in this city, and the number of breeders, there should be no difficulty in filling the space so generously placed at your disposal by the Editor of Kennel and Bench. We will wait and see what August will bring forth. It is up to you.

ALBERTA KENNEL CLUB BENCH SHOW

Report by A. P. Mutchmor, Judge.

My visit to Calgary as judge of their dog show was a most pleasant one, and one that I will look back on as a very fond remembrance. This was greatly due to the exhibitors, who, without exception, treated me with every courtesy. I do not mean by this that all exhibitors agreed with my decisions, but there was absent that continual kicking and fault-finding which one hears at the majority of shows, and I feel that I can safely hold up the Calgary show as a model of excellence in this respect and as showing that co-operative spirit without which no show can succeed. At least, those who did not agree with me, kept it to themselves. As I have remarked on former occasions, dog shows are not considered a success from a monetary standpoint only. To Chief Ritchie (president of the club) I tender my sincere thanks for the many kindnesses extended to me, and which added greatly to a most pleasant visit. A thorough sportsman, a keen student of his favorite breed, the "Scotty", and untiring in his efforts towards making the venture of the club a success, Calgary is very fortunate in having as the head of its kennel club a president of the calibre of Chief Ritchie. It was a pleasure to look over the work of Mr. Cummer, the secretary, this being an office that I am always interested in, and a very important one so far as the smooth working of the show is concerned. Nothing was left undone nor left for adjustment, but all details were up to the minute, and judging was ready to start at the appointed time. With the experience that "Bill" Forrest has had in the show game, one could only expect from him a perfect job as ring steward, and having acted as judge on many occasions, he knows the importance of keeping the ring supplied without delay. With "Jack" Fletcher as superintendent (and you cannot find a better one) you have a team that cannot be improved on for efficiency, courtesy, and the welfare of both exhibitor and exhibits.

I would like very much to make some reference to all the dogs that came before me, but space will not permit and I will have to confine myself to those who were successful in getting to the top.

Best of Breed in Pekingese went to the well-known dog, "Ch. Cactus Ku Chi" (Mrs. R. B. Dunsire, Brandon), and which I afterwards placed best Toy. This little dog is too well known to need comment. Mrs. E. Bradley of Victoria, B.C., came with a nice brace of Poms in "Cromwell Red Robin" and "Milesleigh Sweet Nell," and which I placed Winners Dogs and Winners Bitches respectively. I preferred "Cromwell Red Robin" for Best of Breed, in good bloom, down fit, and well mannered. I saw this little dog as a puppy and think he has matured into all that was predicted of him. In Bostons, "Harley's Personality Boy" (W. J. Harley, Winnipeg) went Winners Dogs and Best of Breed. This little dog is well known, having made his Canadian debut at Winnipeg and gaining the same honors. Winners bitches to "Bell Rock Little Countess" (R. B. Carter, Assiniboia). This is the little bitch that created so much talk at Winnipeg show, and I had every opportunity of examining her closely. The "wry face" attributed to her is an accidental one and not a natural, and is due to a fight with another dog. The scar can be plainly seen.

Airedales brought out a rather nice bitch in "Punnichy Queen 2nd" (Robt. Hogg, Saskatoon). She is just out of her puppyhood and a few more months will no doubt give her more size and substance. Smooth Fox Terriers (15) were a surprise, as it is some years since I have seen such a large entry. I was disappointed on the quality as a whole. Was sorry to set back a red brindle marked dog which looked to me as if he had once been a good one. Aside from his color he was showing his age, and which the catalogue tells me to be about eight years. The winning dog, "One More Orcadian" (H. Price, Calgary), was the best of the dogs on the day but might be considered lucky to have caught "Immortal Longing" on an off day, the latter refusing to show any Terrier qualities and was inclined to sulk. The bitch classes were more even in type than the dogs, and my final selection for Best of Breed was "Bonadale Mayblossom" (Mr. and Mrs. S. Sikorski, Winnipeg), shown very much on the thin side but full of action. I considered that this fault might be remedied, while thick skulls and loaded shoulders could never be.

Wires (16) were much better in quality than the Smooths. My winner and reserve winners in both sexes, were a stand out from the rest of them. "Startling Storm of Ilerwire" (J. E. Roberts, Edmonton), as winners dog, was the best of that sex, with "Calgaree Crackley Startler" (Robert G. Reid, Calgary), Reserve and close up. In bitches, "Tantalus Supreme" and "Topflight" (R. A. Cross, Edmonton), Winners and Reserve, respectively, are a nice pair. Put down nicely and well handled. I made "Tantalus Supreme" Best of Breed. Irish Terriers were a disappointment, "Erinville Casey" (C. Cowell, Winnipeg), being the best. Still in his puppyhood he will, no doubt, improve with maturity.

Scottish Terriers (21), were the largest entry and brought out some good ones. I was greatly amused with "Brockley Kiltie" (J. C. Fletcher, Calgary), in the puppy class. What he lacks in quality he more than makes up for in "pep," and if some of the older ones would acquire a little of his activity, it would help a lot. Open dogs brought out the best of that sex, and I fancied "Littlebury Barty" (Miss Thelma McGregor, Edmonton), for winners dogs. Might be better in front, but on the day looked much ahead of "Normandy Gallant" (J. G. Young, Edmonton), very ring shy and refusing to show. The bitches brought me best of breed and afterwards best Terrier in "Ellwyn Wendy" (D. Ritchie, Calgary). I saw this bitch two days after the show in the owner's back yard, and she then looked fifty per cent better than on the judging board. She improves on acquaintance. Good all over and to criticize her in any one section, one could only have the perfect dog in mind, a dog which I have not met with yet in my forty years' experience. With this breed before me, I felt that I was "on the spot," as in the ring and seated alongside, I could see Chief Ritchie, Geo. Kynoch, Jack Fletcher, Bobby Thompson, Andy McGregor, Bill Forrest and several others, anyone of whom I will always be glad to listen to, and value their opinion in discussing Scotties. When I gave this bitch the best of breed ribbon, I had that comfortable feeling of being absolutely correct, and any adverse criticism of my placing, could only be a gauge of the knowledge of the critic.

Collies (5), Winners Dogs, "Cambusnethan Victor" (A. Burgess, Winnipeg), well known, with "Cambusnethan Sensation" (J. Stokes, Winnipeg), winners bitches and best of breed. A nice bitch and able to hold her own in much better company.

Old English Sheepdogs, "Broadlands Blue Bob" (Geo. Kynoch, Winnipeg), all alone but a good one, and when he comes into coat will always be a candidate for highest honors.

German Shepherds—"Baron von Vogelwehr" (W. H. Bryans, Winnipeg). The only one entered and deserving of strong competition. I heard a rumor that Calgary proposed increasing the license fee on this breed, following the example of so many other places. This may have acted against the entry.

In Pointers, I found a real classy one in "Prince of Airy Hill" (D. B. Young, Shaughnessy), and which I easily placed best of breed, the others being too much of the field trial type. With three or four pounds off him, he could go places and be heard from.

"Lancashire Nigger" and "Lancashire Patricia" (H. P. Ellis, Red Deer), were by far the best of the Labradors and which I placed winners dogs and bitches, respectively. The latter going to best of breed.

Again, I had the pleasure of looking over that exceptionally good English Setter, "Blue Dan's Pal" (Dr. T. I. Robb, Regina). An ideal head, good front, the best of legs and feet, a perfect mover. The best Setter I have seen for many a year.

As would be expected, Geo. Climo put down two good ones in Cockers showing "Calmas Golden Dawn" and "Lucky Girl." I made the latter best of breed and she does not need the prefix "lucky" as she rightly earns all she gets.

I noted a rather good Springer dog in "Lammond Successor" (H. P. Saunders, Calgary), and although I am not partial to the color (strawberry roan), he had enough to go best of breed. The Sporting Dog Group is worthy of some mention. With Geo. Kynoch handling the English Setter dog, Jack Fletcher, the Pointer dog, and Geo. Climo, the Cocker bitch, one had a picture that would be hard to beat. The dogs, exceptionally good specimens of their respective breeds, and the three handlers past masters in the art of posing them, one felt that here was a class that required three red ribbons.

The final group, for Best in Show brought in the English Setter dog, Old English Sheepdog, Scottie bitch, Pekinese dog, and Boston Terrier dog and which I placed in that order. I have never considered this class a fair one or one that should be encouraged. Visitors of the evening or those who are not fully acquainted with dog show rules, would naturally assume that these were the five best dogs in the show, while I would not consider it complete without the Pointer and the Cocker. This may be competition, but is it fair competition. In discussing this class with Chief Ritchie after the show, he made what I consider a very material remark in the form of a question. "Is it fair to expect a dog of one of the smaller breeds, to be placed in competition with one of a larger breed. To be precise or more explicit, a Scottie is more compact and any faults are confined to a much smaller space and look more pronounced than in the case of a Setter, which covers so much more territory." The remark was not made as detracting in any way from the win of the Setter, but merely as a criticism of the fairness of the class, and to which I agreed.

—A. P. MUTCHMOR.

HONOR FOR TORONTO VETERINARIAN

A distinct honor has been conferred upon Doctor J. A. Campbell, Honorary Veterinary Surgeon for the Canadian Kennel Club, Inc. The American Veterinary Medical Association have recognized his ability as an authority on diseases of dogs, and he has been appointed chairman of the small animal section for the meeting which is being held in connection with the Twelfth International Veterinary Conference in New York during August. Doctor Campbell is to be one of the headliners on the programme, and has been invited to demonstrate his methods of treating breeding troubles in bitches, he will perform a Caesarean operation, for which he has gained such a wide reputation.

Doctor Campbell is in great demand at Veterinary Conventions in the United States; last year he gave an address at Cornell University, and later in Chicago, and this summer he will demonstrate before veterinarians from all parts of the world at the International Conference.

It is doubtful if there is any member of the profession that has had greater experience than our Honorary Veterinarian has had in diseases from a dog breeder's standpoint. His deep interest and close associations with all the prominent fanciers of the many different varieties of dogs in the Toronto area has given him an insight into the many difficulties fanciers have to contend with (an experience that comes to few men in his profession), and Doctor Campbell has certainly made the most of the opportunity during the long time he has been in the dog game.

Before graduating, nearly thirty-five years ago, he set out to study the difficulties of whelping, and soon after qualifying as a Veterinarian, demonstrated to the breeders his skill as a Canine Obstetrician. Many hundreds of valuable bitches lives have been saved, and countless numbers of puppies were brought safely into the world through his ability and thorough understanding of how the different breeds act when whelping.

An instance of how Doctor Campbell keeps up to the minute in his professional work and his desire to give satisfactory service to dog owners was shown in 1929 when the Field Distemper Research Workers had completed their investigations, Doctor Campbell went to the Laboratories in Mill Hill, England, so that he could obtain first-hand information as to the methods of innoculating dogs against Distemper, and the treatment of that dreaded disease.

Saskatchewan News

By Provincial Contributing Editor,
W. W. RIOME, Moose Jaw, Sask.

AT the present time, there appears to be more interest in Field Trials and Sporting Dogs than there is in the Terrier and Toy dog circles.

Owing to the decision not to hold a bench show at Moose Jaw and also at Regina, interest seems to drop in all directions. Many express disappointment. Judging by the number who think a show should be staged, it would appear they think that it is an easy matter to put over a successful show, yet we find very few of these people joining a Kennel Club or helping the dog game along.

The question arises: How can we educate our fanciers to realize that there is work to be done the year round with the peak load coming at show time? Our club meetings should be the place to create and hold the interest, but there again usually the meetings are left to the "other fellow", too. One way to help would be to get Kennel and Bench into the hands of all dog owners. I have never yet handed a copy of Kennel and Bench to a dog owner who has not expressed the greatest pleasure, usually followed up with the remark: "I must certainly subscribe to this interesting magazine"—but try and collect the two dollars.

Recently another case of the mongrel terrier came to my notice. This gentleman brought his dog for me to "look over" and to get my opinion of his new purchase. He got it in a kindly way. I checked up in time to prevent him suffering from a broken heart. To describe the terrier would be beyond me, suffice to say it was a "perfect mongrel". But alas, he is in that home to stay, maybe for ten years or so. No dog could exhibit more intelligence. He is really marvellous in that respect, quick to learn any and every trick, and is dearly loved in this childless home. Here is my point: This man now realizes his great mistake in not purchasing a pure-bred dog in the first place. He realizes what he is missing in the joy of owning a real show specimen, of showing his dog, and the fact that a good dog would do all that his "mutt" will do, and then he realizes he would be relieved of answering for the next decade that very persistent and embarrassing question: "What breed of dog is that?" which usually ends after about an hour's explaining, that the would-be enquirer gives you his opinion of the breeding because his grandfather had one just like it.

We surely have need of an educational programme. We have that in our Kennel and Bench, but how can we get our magazine into the hands of would-be purchasers before it is too late? Even then the advertisements of various breeders must appear or it does not serve its purpose.

Here's a thrill to a dog man: Dr. and Mrs. T. Douglas Kendrick of Regina called at the writer's "Mutual Kennel" to look the terriers over. Wires and Irish were on parade, and the decision fell on a male Irish Terrier puppy, "Mutual Protector". Much time was happily spent during the supper-time over the merits of the various dogs. Kennel and Bench was freely displayed, with the result that the doctor took a bunch of back numbers home to read, and in the future he will have the "Red and White Magazine" mailed to his home each month.

Two weeks later Dr. Kendrick came back for a terrier for Dr. Gordon Dowsley of Swift Current, and here's hoping for another Kennel and Bench subscriber or Canadian Kennel Club member.

We are very pleased to report that W. H. Smallwood, President of Moose Jaw Kennel Club, is feeling much better. Fanciers from coast to coast join in wishing our genial president a complete recovery.

Mrs. Semple of Regina reports the sale of a Pekingese male puppy eight months old to Mrs. F. Hodges. This puppy is a descendant of the Cactus champions and is registered "Cactus Pally Wough".

The Schipperke "Ch. Which One o' the North," piloted to her championship by the Cactus Kennels, Regina, will accompany Mrs. Little on her return to Toronto.

Recently we had the pleasure of looking over the Pekingese Kennel owned by Miss Freda Henderson, Moose Jaw. There were some very attractive puppies only a few weeks old who displayed themselves on silk cushions in lordly fashion, others at six months, and the adults formed a great display. Miss Henderson has travelled long distances in Canada and U.S.A. to procure the best in the Pekingese world. The stock now produced proves that this young lady used good judgment.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Gillan, Moose Jaw, were pleased at the arrival of seven puppies from "Tayside Sheila," their winning Scottie. "Sheila" is a daughter of "Bill" Forest's "Ch. MacWilliam of Tayside" (Imp), and the sire of the puppies is "Dougal Craitur," a son of "Ch. Ruglen Rabbie" (Imp.).

Walter and Mrs. Pym, Mrs. Semple and Mrs. Little, of Regina, were visitors recently. We spent a pleasant time visiting Moose Jaw Kennels. Mrs. Nancy Driver was a busy lady on her new ranch, the dogs all looked well, also her flock of poultry and ring-necked pheasants.

"Jimmy" Booth, the untiring Whippet enthusiast, told of having spent a busy day with the little long-tails. Jim is busy getting his dogs in steel spring condition for a race exhibition at Kerrobert, and they have got to be good to satisfy this exacting breeder from "Glossop" where I understand you cannot become a resident unless you own a Whippet or Greyhound that is worthy of its breed.

Hamish Middlemas is holidaying at Katepwa Beach. To add pleasure to his trip he took along that sterling Wire bitch, "Ch. Burlington Marguerite," and the newly crowned Scottie, Ch. Gala Mayflower.

Ed. Mabson reports the arrival of four puppies out of his Scottie, "Fionnghal of Gryffside," a daughter of "Ch. Normandy Airth."

Mrs. G. D. Wyre was a recent visitor in Moose Jaw, and as usual spent a few minutes with the Mill City fanciers. We understand a daughter of her renowned Pomeranian, "Crest Mite" (imp.), will find a new owner in Moose Jaw. Fanciers may be pleased to know that Mrs. Wyre's daughter and her husband, Bert Peachall, may be heard on the air weekly over the C.R.C.

Dr. Robb, of Regina, is sparing no effort to let the public see his English Setters, they are on their way to Calgary and Saskatoon, and are bound to make a name for themselves and further it is interesting to note that his good female, "Macintosh Orange Lily" has again been bred to "Ch. Blue Dan of Happy Valley," this breeding producing a worthy litter at the last mating.

Dr. Cooper, of Saskatoon, must have felt a hard knock when he lost that wonderful Collie, "Ch. Elmhill Monarch." He was the outcome of years of careful breeding and study, heralded as one of the best Collies ever seen. We did not hear the cause of death. Fortunately, the doctor has more of "Monarch" calibre and will likely be on deck starting out another at the next show.

George Kynoch just arrived in Moose Jaw from the Calgary show. In a hurried call over the phone we secured the following:—George reports a nice trip and expects to be back for the Saskatchewan Summer Show.

That sensational Boston, "Reigh Counts Sensation," owned by "Bob" Carter, of Bell Rock Kennels, Assiniboia, was found dead in his crate at Moose Jaw Depot. This smart Boston was one of the best. He headed for the top and got there every time out. He fortunately has sired some splendid puppies, but it must be a heartbreaker for "Bob" to lose such an outstanding dog, one that would have continued to make history in the Boston world hereabouts.

The fanciers greatest thrill has come to Dr. Robb, of Regina. The English Setter, "Blue Dans Pal" came into his own when he got Best in Show at Calgary. As a 6 months old puppy we felt this dog would rapidly climb to the top. Then, too, we gather the Pekingese recently sold by Mrs. Semple of Regina, to Mrs. Dunsire of Brandon, went to Best Toy in the Cowntown. "Ch. Cactus Ku Chi" is a good one and Mrs. Dunsire is to be commended for her recent purchase.

Perhaps a little news about the Bird Dog men may be of interest, Moose Jaw is sure going strong in the Field Trial work. We hope the dogs purchased by new enthusiasts will be of show quality and thereby help our shows as well as win field trials. A fellow said recently he didn't want anything to do with a show type dog, he wanted a worker, here again our educational programme should reach out. It's pitiful to listen to the ignorance that prevails in connection with pure-bred dogs.

The big headline in Saskatchewan newspapers reads thus: "Saskatchewan Field Dog Trials will be held August 27 at Buffalo Lake over about four Townships." This most interesting sporting event ever to be run off in our province will be held under the auspices of Saskatchewan Fish and Game League, together with members of the Moose Jaw Kennel Club, who are also members of the League. This event will be open to dogs from all over the continent. It is anticipated that the trials will attract the professional handlers and trainers of bird dogs from all over Canada and the United States, handsome prize money is offered to make the trip worth while. The trials will be divided into three classes, the Derby Stakes, open to all dogs; the All-Age Stakes and the Championship Stakes; two classes for Amateur Stakes, one for all-age dogs, one for dogs under two years.

The committee together with judges and other officials recently visited the areas around Buffalo Lake and all were unanimous that the areas selected were very suitable for the trials, and were very well stocked with game birds. The use of the properly trained Bird dog is a big factor in the conservation of bird life. The sportsman with a good dog loses very few of his wounded birds, and with the bag limit as set forth in the game laws of the province, good protection is given the birds.

Making these trials possible has entailed a lot of work. We believe the trials will be a decided success, and we do trust it will do much to sponsor large entries of sporting dogs at our bench shows.

GIRALDA KENNELS IN THE SPOTLIGHT

"Ch. Giralda's Susan," a magnificent black German Shepherd, bred and owned by Mrs. M. Hartley Dodge of Morris and Essex fame, was the chosen animal of Herr Sickinger, who came from Pforzheim, Germany, to judge the breed at the show held by Greenwich Kennel Club at Port Chester, N.Y., on Saturday, June 2nd. The entry was 119 with 64 dogs and 55 bitches, Herr Sickinger was painfully exacting in his work (as the exhibitors who toiled through a long hot day discovered before he got through), but his placings were well received by everybody, which, to him, was ample compensation for the long journey he made to fulfil his appointment.

From the great entry, Herr Sickinger selected Giralda Farms' "Ch. Giralda's Susan" for Best of Breed, and later Judge Anton A. Rost found the "Sweet Susan" for his Best Working Dog.

Splendid and gratifying as the win described above could only be, the best was yet to come, it certainly was the "Giralda" day. The elegant Pointer, Giralda Farms' "Ch. Benson of Crombie," won the Greenwich Kennel Club Gold Cup—a handsome trophy indeed, and in virtue of "Benson of Crombie" having won this prize before, the gold cup became the permanent property of Mrs. Dodge.

We heard that there was a litter sister of "Ch. Giralda's Susan" that is just as good as "Susan," indeed, both are so very much alike in every particular that it is hard to tell them apart.

Maritime News

By Provincial Contributing Editor,
G. D. ANDERSON, Halifax, N.S.

WELL folks, there certainly is a lot of activity in the doggy circles of these Atlantic provinces. There isn't very much individual news, but there certainly is a lot of real interest being focused on, and directed toward the coming shows. And the Maritimes are to be favored with the biggest show season that they have enjoyed for many years.

To start the ball rolling, the newly-formed Bedford Kennel Club are to hold a one-day, outdoor, all breed show on August 4th at Bedford, N.S. Due to the Club's youth, and to the late date at which it was decided to hold the show, it was found impossible to complete arrangements for a regular point show; and in order to stage a show event an unofficial show was arranged for. The location chosen is ideal, and every detail is being carefully taken care of in order to provide for every desirable feature. A very attractive premium list will soon be made public and will disclose one of the most attractive list of prizes and cups ever to be offered in Eastern Canada. Many of the trophies are to be of the challenge variety and will be keenly contested for in future years.

In general, the Canadian Kennel Club rules will be followed, and the show will offer, in addition to the regular classes, a large number of specials that will be particularly attractive to the novice, and a number of novel features that will appeal to all. Mr. J. E. Burns will judge all breeds as well as the specials. Sounds attractive doesn't it? It will be!

The next show event will be the regular annual Canadian Kennel Club show to be held by the Nova Scotia Kennel Club, in conjunction with the Nova Scotia Provincial Exhibition on August 28, 29 and 30. Friend Hogarth from Guelph, of Bull Terrier and Morris and Essex fame, will judge all breeds and specials, with the exception of Boston Terriers and American Foxhounds. For these breeds we will see our old friend, Charles C. Sullivan, of Saint John, in the ring. The two men should certainly place the awards to everyone's satisfaction, and a real good show is, as usual, assured at this, the only point show to be held in Nova Scotia this year.

New Brunswick is next in line with two two-day shows, beginning on September 3, Labor Day, and running for four days. As stated in my column last month, Mr. C. C. Sullivan will place the awards in the first show, and for the second show my New Brunswick friends have obtained the very efficient services of Mr. Charles Hopton, who will judge all breeds and special classes.

I am a poor prophet and seldom pick the winners in advance. And judging by a lot of controversy that is today very rampant, I know that some other folks are also going to be wrong because all can't win. But even though I won't try to pick "the big shots" I will most truthfully say that there are going to be some mighty keenly contested classes and groups and interest is going to be at fever pitch till all the shows are over.

I won't attempt to give you any breed notes, just because there is little to narrate and because the shows are the talk of the hour.

I must mention some Irish Terrier news, very kindly mailed to me by Mrs. J. E. Burns. She writes that her litter of Irish Terriers whelped on March 20, ex "Donegal Red Riot," and by "Steady Larry O'Gaff," are nearly all gone to new owners. Females went to Mr. G. W. Betts and Mr. Arthur Smith, both of Halifax. Another female, and a particular nice one at that, went to Mr. A. G. Demont of Imperial Oil, Ltd., in Toronto. One of the males went to Senator W. H. Dennis, who gave it, as a birthday gift, to his daughter. This puppy is a real pet of the household and another fancier has been added to the roll.

To quote Mrs. Burns "We expect a litter by our new stud, out of 'Ch. Fermanagh Rusty Maid,' the latter part of July, and I am quite excited about it because 'Rusty' is by far the best Irish Terrier we have ever had in the East, and the dog, while unshown as yet, is also a good one and will speak for himself when he makes his appearance at the shows this fall."

These notes are short, I know, but just watch this column for the next two months for the news of the Maritimes shows.

BULL TERRIER BLOODLINES

By MRS. DORIS WILKS,

Bronte, Ont.

THIS continent is blessed very well at the present time with representatives of the strongest bloodlines of the Bull Terrier breed. The wins of the great "Int. Ch. Faultless of Blighty" should do much to bring this breed into the prominence to which it is entitled by its many sterling qualities. Mr. and Mrs. Mollison, who imported Faultless, are to be congratulated upon their wisdom in securing such a peerless specimen, as is also Mr. Kenny of Buckingham, for importing her half brother, "Robust Laddie." These Bull Terriers carry the bloodlines of the most famous winning strains. Both are sired by the latest successful stud force, "Rubislaw," he the full brother of both "Ch. Aberdonian" and "Ch. Ringfire of Blighty"—the latter being the winner of the Regent Trophy for the Best Bull Terrier of the year 1931. The English paper, "Our Dogs," allocated considerable space for the Bull Terrier enthusiasts to air their opinion regarding the predominance of influence in the evolution of the aforesaid big winners. I will endeavour to give you the most interesting excerpts from the letters published.

Some of the fanciers, of whom Colonel Baldrey ranks foremost, favoured the theory that the production of this succession of winners is due to the predominance of "Int. Ch. Shure Thing," which dog traces back to "Lord Gladiator." On the other hand, we have that keen Bull Terrier fancier, Captain Hardinge of Calcutta, writing as follows:—

"I have very carefully gone into the pedigree of my own 'Ch. Aberdonian' and find that there are three crosses of 'White Imp—Man's Peggy,' two on the side of the sire—'Ch. Besbels Bayshuck,' and one on the side of the dam.

Int. Ch. Shure Thing
Sire, Ch. Besbels Bayshuck
Ch. Hades Cavalier
Ch. White Wonder
White Imp
Ch. White Surprise
Man's Peggy
Fair Charmer of Exford
White Imp
Netherleigh Dilly
Man's Peggy
Ch. Aberdonian
Ch. Hades Cavalier
Dam, Ch. Debonair of Brum
White Imp
Treviso
Man's Peggy

"It is also observed that the matings of the females of the 'White Imp—Man's Peggy' litters to 'Ch. Hades Cavalier' have always produced either Champions or big winners. I think I am correct in stating that when 'Hades Cavalier' was put to these bitches, there was a Champion whelped, viz., 'White Surprise,' produced in three successive litters, 'Ch. White Wonder,' 'Ch. Wonder's Double' and 'Ch. Lattiford Premier'; 'Netherleigh Dilly' got 'Ch. Bright prospect,' and 'Ch. Debonair of Brum' was whelped by 'Treviso,' and there is not a semblance of doubt that the nick in the bloodlines of 'Hades Cavalier' and the 'White Imp—Man's Peggy' bitches was ideal."

Mr. Carleton Hinks, the grandson of the founder of the breed, writes:—

"The mating of 'Bayshuck' to 'Ch. Debonair of Brum' produced 'Ch. Aberdonian,' 'Ch. Ringfire of Blighty' and the latest stud force, 'Rubislaw,' all bred by Mr. Sharpe of Worcester, to whom I sold 'Debonair.' There is no doubt that the 'Hades Cavalier,' 'White Imp—Man's Peggy' bloodlines have proved the most successful. . . . 'Peggy' produced to 'Imp. Ch. White Surprise,' 'Ch. Nymphida,' 'Netherleigh Dilly,' 'Treviso' and 'White Marchioness,' and all of these, with the exception of 'Nymphida,' who never bred, produced one or more champions to 'Cavalier.'"

In support of these statements it is interesting to record that we bought our "Treviso" from Mr. Carleton Hinks, and she upheld the glorious tradition of her family by producing in her first litter by "Ch. Hades Cavalier," "Ch. Debonair of Brum" and "Ch. Silver Imp." In her next litter by the same sire there appeared "White Delight" the dam of "Ch. Trafalgar White Ensign." We sold "Debonair of Brum" at the age of fourteen months to Carleton Hinks, and he with his unerring "Master Touch," piloted her to full Championship honours within two months.

BEWARE of DISTEMPER

Don't take chances with distemper. If your dog is suffering from this dread affliction, or shows any of its symptoms—if he coughs and sneezes, has watery eyes, snuffles, worms, poor appetite, lack of vitality—ADMINISTER DISTEMPPOUT QUICK!

Just smear on the animal's nose, like a salve. Without struggling or nerve-racking forcing, Distempout reaches every point of internal infection. This amazing new method of treatment has already worked near-miracles in saving thousands of dogs doomed by "incurable" diseases.

Buy Distempout from your grocery, drug store, kennel, pet shop or veterinarian. Or, send $1.00 for a full-size tube, postpaid.

In reply to Mr. Carleton Hink's letter, Colonel Baldrey writes:—

"I was dealing mainly with the male line which shows the power of 'Shure Thing' in passing his characteristics along. It is generally acknowledged that not all males have the predominate power and hence my remarks in calling attention to 'Shure Thing.' 'Shure Thing' is descended from 'Ch. Dervish of Dare,' 'Ch. Devil of Dare' and 'Ch. Crookes Great Boy.' 'Ch. Besbels Bayshuck' is the fifth consecutive champion in the tail male and the union with the line 'White Imp' to 'Ch. White Surprise' and 'Ch. White Wonder' has been shown as an ideal nick for the perpetuation of Champions."

Mr. Jarvis of Birmingham follows with:—"It must in fairness be pointed out that Colonel Baldrey is quite right in mentioning the predominance of 'Ch. Shure Thing.' The same applies to 'Ch. Hades Cavalier' and 'White Imp.' 'White Imp' sired long faced, black eyed, narrow skulled puppies which could be picked out by the amateur Bull Terrier fancier every time. 'Ch. Hades Cavalier,' with his wonderful fill up, eye placement and no signs of going 'cheeky' until his death, also improved the quality of the heads. 'Ch. Shure Thing,' with his short coupled body, deep brisket, and strength of underjaw greatly improved the breed."

Again Captain Hardinge writes, regarding the key to the whole thing, "I think it is 'Hampstead Heather' and further back 'Ch. Charlwood Victor Wild'."

And now in conclusion it is interesting to note the number of importations bearing these bloodlines:

"Int. Ch. Shure Thing," Dr. Lewin, Santa Monica. "Charm of Blighty" ("Ch. Besbels Bayshuck," ex "Ch. Debonair of Brum"), also with Dr. Lewin. "Int. Ch. Faultless of Blighty" ("Rubislaw," ex "Broncraft Bridget"), Mr. and Mrs. Mollison, Wellesley Hills, Mass. "Robust Laddie" ("Rubislaw," ex "Dauntless Charmer"), Mr. Kenny, Buckingham, Que. "Ch. Silver Imp" and "White Delight" ("Ch. Hades Cavalier," ex "Treviso"), Trafalgar Kennels, Bronte, Ont.

It must also be remembered that another grandson of "Ch. Hades Cavalier" is "Ch. Franklin Galloper," owned by Mr. Justice G. F. McFarland, Toronto, Ont.

Added to these, Canada has the strains that have long since proved their power to produce dogs of the first quality, viz., the famous Haymarket dogs owned by Mr. Humphrey Elliott of Ottawa, the imported Roscolyn dogs owned by Mr. F. W. Coles of Toronto, and the Limestone dogs owned by Mr. Brunett of Kingston.

DOGS ARE TAILOR MADE

By PAUL W. KEARNEY

Condensed by "Readers Digest" from "Esquire"

IN a district of England where fox, otter and badger were abundant, the necessity for keeping three kinds of dogs for these three kinds of hunting pained a certain sporting man. So, being practical, he got some of the best dogs available, chopped their legs shorter and spread them wider apart, hammered their skulls flatter, and named the quaint-looking result after his home town, Sealyham. Of course, instead of resorting to the cleaver and mallet, he achieved his desired end by cross-breeding. But the story demonstrates that dogs are really tailor made—cut from a pre-determined pattern to fill a specific requirement.

Take the Airedale, for instance. When bull baiting was banned in Great Britain, dog fighting in a ring under rules came into popularity. Existing dogs didn't satisfy the quarrymen and mill hands of the Aire valley so they set about manufacturing an animal that would give them bigger and better fights. They started with a rough Terrier common in that section, crossed him with the Bull Terrier and again crossed the offspring with the Otter Hound. The result was exactly what the breeders wanted: fighting dogs with a vicious temper and a vile disposition. Tailored by amateurs, there was considerable variety in the Airedale's "cut" originally. He had Hound ears; he came in all colors, some light, some all black; some had silky coats, some smooth. Later the professionals refined the breed; the impossible temper was eliminated, the coat standardized, the ears shortened, and the Airedale as we know him today was evolved.

There are other dogs whose height, build and skull shape have been dictated similarly. The Bulldog was bred for the sole purpose of bull baiting. Likewise the Bull Terrier, an offshoot of the Bulldog, was bred strictly for fighting. When that pastime was barred, the Englishmen took to dog racing. The Greyhound (a breed practically unchanged for 4,000 years), was first used. But breeding children and Greyhounds in the small cottage of a working man was something of a hardship. The problem was solved by cultivating a miniature Greyhound, known as the "snap" before attaining its current name, Whippet. This speedy little devil quickly won his place: sports promoters introduced handicaps with substantial prizes; and the "lower element," with an eye on this money, went in for Whippet breeding in a big way.

Man's efforts to gain a livelihood has put a definite stamp on many dogs. The universal duty of tending the flocks has given us varieties ranging from the handsome Collie and the German Shepherd to the unbelievable Old English Sheepdog. The work dog in many other fields also reflects selective breeding for a specific purpose. The Samoyede is the draught dog of the European Arctic; the Great Dane is the ideal property guard; the Newfoundland, the world's champion life saver. The St. Bernard stands supreme in "breaking trail" through fresh snow in a mountain section far too treacherous for even the trained senses of the monks who have spent their lives there. The Poodle, by virtue of his uncanny intelligence, is the historic circus dog. Indeed, we can go beyond the pale of the law and find the Poodle used to smuggle lace into Belgium, the stuff being wrapped around the dog's body. So clever were they that you couldn't get a smuggler's Poodle within a hundred feet of any man in uniform.

But sport, rather than work, has given us our greatest number of breed variations, the requirements of a certain type of hunting leaving their mark on the particular animals. Substitute fox for deer and you see the deerhound lose much of his leg length and coat and become a Foxhound—substitute rabbits for fox, pursued on foot instead of on horse, and you find the Foxhound coming still closer to the ground and gaited to a man's pace, in the form of the Beagle. Rats, badgers and such varmints, defending themselves with ferocity rather than the wiles of the fox, call for the Terrier, bred with a courage that carries him right into the quarry's hole. The Irish Wolfhound was bred for the same sport as the Russian Wolfhound but with a different idea in mind. The Irish Hound is quite able to take care of any wolf "personally"—the Russian Hound, in contrast, is almost slender enough to be bitten in two by a wolf and was never intended to engage in combat with its quarry.

Of the five leading breeds today—Scotty, Wire-Hair, Setter, Cocker Spaniel, and the Boston Terrier—four are strictly hunting dogs. The Scotty was bred years ago because badgers used to raise Cain with his lordship's game birds. The Cocker came about because English huntsmen craved a small, short-legged dog that could go into a thick covert and flush woodcock in the days when birds were netted or trapped. The Setter was originally a Spaniel who can probably credit his existence to the invention of firearms. Like the Spaniel, the Setter scents the game; but then, instead of scaring the bird up, he "sets" it, freezing in rigid silence as a signal to the gunner. When the latter comes up and gives the command, the Setter goes in and raises the bird.

Of all the breeds there is only one manufactured from a blueprint to fit the domestic pattern. His foster-parents set out, some 40 years ago, to produce a good pet. That meant a small dog for the house; a smooth coat requiring no care; a lively, animated demeanor; intelligence; watchdog qualities. The result is the Boston Terrier, a strictly American-made product.

AN INVITATION TO GO FISHIN'

The man I referred to was "Charlie",
Who suffers from reum, ringbone an'
gout;

He keeps all those nasty wee terriers,
The kind with their shoulders all out.
With fine silky coats an' slab sided,
Whiskered like old nanny goats,
Coon pawed, tails far too long,
Wall-eyed, an' ears that are wrong.

The ones with the "arch" in their backs,
Cow hocked, an' skulls that are thick;
He's prouder than "Punch" of his dogs,
So darn it, no wonder he's sick.
There's only one cure for his ailment,
So, sure it is certain I'm wishin'—
That you will be able to coax him
To hustle along and come fishin'.

With all of his faults—an' they're many,
"Old Charlie" is not a bad scout,
So we can forgive him his ringbone,
His snifters, his spavin' an' gout.
An' if you can show him this picture
Of the sweet little dog we all love,
Just to look at the picture will cheer him,
So hurry an' give him a shove.

I've asked him to come for the shootin',
He always said "Sure I'll be there".
So when the guns "popped" I'd be lookin',

But he never was 'round anywhere.
You go an' get him for the fishin',
He should be tickled to come too—by heck,

If you want to drop him right into the lake,
Let me tie the stone round his neck.

No foolin' we're goin' next Sunday,
Get there by the break o' the day;
Choke "Charlie" as dead as a herrin'
If ever he tries to say nay;
Imagine the fun we'll be gettin'
Draggin' bass in by the ton,
If you can bring "Charlie" out with you,
"Leather medal an' wooden string"—is yours, my son.

—Oscar C. Pierson.

"WHO'S GOING TO JUDGE AT THE GARDEN?"

(Exclusive to Kennel and Bench)

The forehandedness of the Westminster Kennel Club in announcement of its judges six months in advance of show time is indicative of the long and exceedingly careful preparation that goes into the making of the great American dog show classic. The sportsmen who comprise Westminster do nothing by halves; they are serious and experienced fanciers who over a long period of time have learned how to put on an all-breed show of the very highest type. And they've learned among other things the value of looking far ahead. The tremendous volume of work and the vast amount of detail involved in a show like Westminster cannot be slipped over in a few months; it requires a year of hard and unremitting labor.

Thus it is that the Westminster Kennel Club maintains year-round offices which are now located at 381 Fourth Avenue, New York city. These are more conveniently situated and equipped than the former offices at 450 which were the home of the club for several years. A reception room is given over to visiting fanciers who may make their entries there if they choose; opening of this room is the larger committee room where the dog show committee meets several times each month from now until show time next February. Dr. Samuel Milbank—everyone who has ever attended a Westminster show knows the genial doctor—heads the committee, and assisting him are Harry I. Caesar, E. Coe Kerr, Joseph C. Hoagland and Winthrop Rutherford; Walter Ferguson, Jr., who is president of the club, is of course a member of the committee also.

What every fancier wants to know right now is "Who's going to judge at the Garden?" The appended list which has just been released is the answer:

William H. Pym, Vancouver, B.C.—Wire-haired Pointing Griffons, Pointers, English and Gordon Setters, German Shorthairs.

W. L. McCandlish, Redditch, England—Retrievers, English Springer Spaniels, Irish Wolfhounds, Welsh Terriers, Lakeland Terriers.

John E. Hurst of W., Baltimore, Md.—Chesapeake Bays.

Vinton P. Breese, Caldwell, N.J.—Irish Setters, Afghan Hounds, Norwegian Elkhounds, Salukis, Great Pyrenees, Rottweilers, Welsh Corgis, Keeshonden, American Foxhounds.

J. Macy Willets, New York City—Cumber, Cocker, Field, Irish Water, Sussex and Welsh Springer Spaniels.

Charles W. Barney, New Bedford, Mass.—Basset hounds, Beagles, English Foxhounds, Harriers, Otterhounds.

F. W. Simmons, Windham, Conn.—Bloodhounds, Mastiffs, Siberian Huskies, English Toy Spaniels, Italian Greyhounds, Toy Manchester Terriers, Toy Poodles, Yorkshire Terriers, Poodles.

Dr. Herbert Sanborn, Nashville, Tenn.—Dachshunde.

Joseph Z. Batten, New York City—Scottish Deerhounds, Greyhounds, Whippets.

Alfred Delmont, Wynnewood, Pa.—Russian Wolfhounds, Bedlington Terriers, Bull Terriers, Standard Schnauzers, Skye Terriers, Chihuahuas.

Anton A. Rost, New York City—Belgian Sheepdogs, Bouviers de Flandre, Briards, Eskimos, Newfoundlands, Giant Schnauzers, Bull Mastiffs, Manchester Terriers, Miscellaneous, French Bulldogs.

Dr. Henry Jarrett, Philadelphia, Pa.—Collies, Shetland Sheepdogs, St. Bernards, Chow Chows.

Mrs. Anne Tracy Eristoff, Highland Falls, N.Y.—German Shepherd Dogs.

Mrs. M. B. Hostetter, Jr., Pasadena, Calif.—Great Danes.

Fred R. Kingman, Rydal, Pa.—Doberman Pinschers.

Louis Smirnow, Brooklyn, N.Y.—Samoyedes.

W. P. Wolcott, Readville, Mass.—Airedale Terriers.

George S. Thomas, South Hamilton, Mass.—Border Terriers, Fox Terriers, Kerry Blue Terriers.

Theodore Offerman, New York City—Cairn Terriers, Irish Terriers.

O. C. Harriman, New York City—Dandie Dinmont Terriers.

Alva Rosenberg, Brooklyn, N.Y.—Miniature Schnauzers, Brussels Griffons, Japanese Spaniels, Maltese, Mexican Hairless, Papillons, Miniature Pinschers, Pomeranians, Boxers, Old English Sheepdogs.

Mrs. T. W. Durant, New York City—Scottish Terriers.

H. T. Fleitmann, New York City—Sealyham Terriers.

H. D. Bixby, Halesite, L.I., N.Y.—West Highland White Terriers.

Mrs. Bertha Hanson, Little Falls, N.J.—Pekingese.

W. Fred Ford, Media, Pa.—Pugs.

A. F. Kramer, Chicago, Ill.—Bulldogs.

Theodore Crane, New York City—Dalmatians.

C. S. Howell, Riverside, Conn.—Schipperkes.

Percy Roberts, Noroton, Conn.—Children's classes.

Variety Groups: No. 1, Sporting, Mr. Thomas; No. 2, Sporting (Hounds), Dr. Jarrett; No. 3, Working, Mr. Pym; No. 4, Terriers, Geo. N. Owen, Great Neck, L.I., N.Y.; No. 5, Toys, Mr. Offerman; No. 6, Non-Sporting, Mr. McCandlish. Best in Show: Alfred B. Maclay, New York City.

With this valuable advance information Canadian exhibitors can now go ahead with their early 1935 showing plans and be ready for America's greatest indoor dog show.

We appreciate very highly the splendid compliment paid by Westminster Kennel Club to Mr. W. H. Pym, of Vancouver, British Columbia.

No dog ever achieved strong muscles, firm, rounded flesh and sound bones on just any old food. Food that builds dogs up is the kind of food that a Ross-Miller diet provides--a balanced diet rich in proteins, carbohydrates, minerals and vitamins.

Ross-Miller made-in-Canada dog foods contain high-grade beef and pork cracklings, bone meal, fish meal, alfalfa meal, milk and other ingredients including a carefully controlled percentage of pure cod-liver oil. These ingredients, scientifically proportioned, provide a food foundation that builds dogs up.

That is why expert dog breeders everywhere in Canada use Ross-Miller foods. Their experience has proved that Ross-Miller Dog Foods make better dogs.
