Meeting of the Board of Directors of the Canadian Kennel Club, Incorporated

THE regular monthly meeting of the Board of Directors of the Canadian Kennel Club, Inc., was held in Board Room of the Club's offices, 25 Melinda Street, Toronto, on Thursday afternoon, December 19th, 1935, at 3.30 o'clock. The President, Col. J. N. MacRae, was in the Chair. Directors present included Dr. H. E. Batt, Dr. C. R. Boulding, Mr. W. H. Carter, Mr. James Eccles, Brig.-Gen. C. M. Nelles and Mr. William Stockdale.

It was regularly moved, seconded and carried:—

"That, the Minutes be taken as read."

The Secretary advised that he had received from W. H. Pym a set of proposed Field Trial rules for Pointers and Setters, Retrievers, Irish Water Spaniels, and other Spaniels.

After discussion it was regularly moved, seconded and carried:—

"That, the Field Trial rules as formulated by Mr. Pym be left over to the 1936 Board of Directors."

The Secretary advised that the Records Office had received applications for registration of dogs registered in the Austrian Kennel Club. The applications could not be accepted because the stud book of the Austrian Kennel Club has not yet been recognized by the Canadian Kennel Club, therefore it was agreed that the notice of motion which had been prepared to include the Austrian Kennel Club in the list of recognized registration associations be included in the amendments to the Constitution to come before the Annual General Meeting.

Correspondence was read regarding the results of the election of officers, and it was agreed that the Secretary would ask the Election Commission to have the results made known at the earliest possible date after the closing of the voting, so that the information would be available to the elected officers.

Correspondence regarding awards to West Highland White Terriers at the Oakville Kennel Club show held in 1934 was read by the Secretary.

The Directors agreed that Mrs. W. Neilson's "Burnwell Dinkie" was Winners Bitches, Best of Winners and Best of Breed, at that show, and that the necessary correction would appear in the January issue of Kennel and Bench.

Why I Want a Pup!

THE Toronto Daily Star, acting in conjunction with the National Kennel Club, featured the above slogan in an essay contest for children previous to the National Kennel Club Show, and it is quite likely that the feature was successful in making the people of Ontario dog conscious, and probably the increased entry can also be attributed to the same activity. At any rate the slogan was on everybody's lips, young and old alike—"Why I Want a Pup." When His Worship Mayor James Simpson, Toronto, entered the ring to distribute eight puppies to eight successful contestants, it was hard to tell whether the Mayor or the little recipients made the happiest end of the undertaking.

When it was made known that one of the winning essays had been printed in Braille lettering, by thirteen-year-old Joyce Burrows, Toronto, a pupil of the Canadian Institute for the Blind, the imagination of the people was stirred to its depths, and so a dog show, bristling with attractions, found its largest and most sympathetic audience as the really splendid puppies were handed out to the successful essayists.

Here is some of the reasons advanced in furtherance of thousands of claims for puppies. Master Bob Meadows, Toronto, a 12-year-old youngster in receipt of the Scouts Order of Merit for having stopped a runaway horse, declared that he had wanted a pup for five years. Bob was allowed to make the first choice, and his selection was a typical black Chow Chow. The writer lives in Bob's locality, and from observation we would say that the young owner has succeeded in making his little pal a family charge, as we notice the puppy out almost every morning, and it is not always Bob that holds the steering end of the lead. The other morning we were rather amused to see Master Meadows and the Chow on Queen Street. The pup was extremely interested in hunting for all scents, every pole, post or tree was carefully investigated in turn, and eventually the new responsibility arrived at the street corner where objects of research interest were rather scarce. So he sat down quite composedly, to think things over apparently, whilst Bob, in rare good humor, seemed quite content to absorb the imposition. But there is one puppy who, in bringing happiness to a boy, has most assuredly brought happiness to itself.

Arthur Donnelly, Toronto, caught the judges' eye by the straight simplicity of the following appeal: "Daddy bot me a wite rat but I don't love him like I did sandy sandy was my little pup daddy bot me after I got my leg broken wen a car hit me. one day mother let me give him some liver & bacon for dinner whn he was done theresa opened the door and a cole truk run over his stumik. He yeld once then he breethed aful fast till He dide. daddy even cryed but not as much as me If I win a dog theresa can have my rat and I'll watch him good this time."

Little eight-year-old Gordon Pollock, of Swansea, Ont.,

got right home with his reason for wanting a pup when he said: "I have always wanted a little dog, and my daddy promised me one for Christmas, but my daddy died last week and I am very lonely. I have no brothers or sisters to play with, and my mamma and I are all alone in Canada. I am going to wish awful hard for a nice little puppy."

Miss Francis Quinn, Hamilton, Ont., had fifth choice, and a pretty little Cairn Terrier from Mrs. W. C. Routley's Clairmar Kennels found a new home, and an adoring young mistress. Francis went on written record as saying that a puppy would "make her the happiest girl in the world. I would feed him, treat him as if I was his own mother. I would sleep with him if he had a thousand fleas, but I'm sure he won't have any fleas for I will try all I can to keep them away."

Miss Aileen Gilham, Guelph, Ont., was not present to make her pick, and so she had to take the only one that was left. Illness obliged Aileen to be absent, and probably that was a blessing in disguise for her, as she won a beautiful red Irish Setter, whose sire was none other than "Ch. Forest Lucky Strike," whose picture appears on page 11 of this issue.

Young Ken Gradwell, Toronto, pleaded his own cause most convincingly when he put this one up to the judges: "I like a dog because they cuddle up to you, don't they? Yes, I bet they do," and then he clinched the argument by saying: "If I only had one I would give it half my breakfast, dinner, and supper."

Miss Nancy MacColl, Campbellford, Ont., "wanted a baby" but her mother said "no," so Nancy decided that "the next best thing is a puppy, and if you will give me one I will be so good to it. I would like a small one for I can take it for a walk in my doll carriage. I am safn years old. Love from Nancy MacColl."

Again we revert back to Miss Joyce Burrows and offer the suggestion that in every heart there is a common throb, which, in some cases, can be covered as with a heavy garment. Miss Joyce, herself very much composed, accepted the Wire Fox Terrier from the Coronation Kennels, of Mr. Frank Small. Smiling happily, her hands wandered all over the puppy appraisingly, and as she chatted with Mayor Simpson concerning her pleasure at having won a puppy, and how she had planned for its general welfare, the ringside found it hard to decide that she was really blind, but when the truth of her handicap came to be realized, there were plenty of sympathetic tears fell from eyes unaccustomed to showing emotions.

We take our hats off to Mr. H. V. P. Lewis, of the National Kennel Club, whose idea it was to sponsor the contest; to Mrs. P. Sandiford, president of the Central Council of Home and School Associations, Mr. Vernon Knowles, managing editor of the Toronto Star. To Dr. J. A. Campbell, the contest judges, and to big-hearted Gregory Clark, feature writer of the Toronto Star Weekly, whose appeals for the "Star" Santa Claus fund are, at the moment, being read all over Ontario, and beyond. We heartily congratulate everybody who participated in the "Why I Want a Puppy" contest, for bringing the joy that only a puppy can bring to a child, any child, and particularly to the sweet young person minus her sight.

There were other highlights noticeable at the National Kennel Club Show besides the "Why I Want a Pup" essay contest, which suggested an increasing stimulation in Canadian dogdom, a stimulation that has been noted in England and in the United States for some considerable time past. We noticed the revived condition when the first citizen of Canada, our Governor-General, visited the show, and gave proof of his knowledge of dogs generally, and his interest in the larger entries of the larger breeds, such as the Great Pyrenees, Newfoundlands, etc., and in the entries of Scottish and Cairn Terriers. Then there were a noticeable increase in the number of professional handlers in attendance at the National Show, a circumstance that tells its own story. Show giving clubs should specially arrange for the convenience of dogs coming from long distances, and for the comfort of getting dogs into Canada easily for the purposes of competition, and out again of course.

It is not customary for show giving clubs to receive compliments from exhibitors and from judges, but this rather unique condition was experienced definitely this year at the Royal. Looking down through the show building from the Secretary's Office, and particularly from the rings, revealed the advantages of the new type Spratt's Patent Limited benching with the solid partitions separating the dogs. The growlings, "the gnashing of teeth" was noticeable because of its absence. Wall benching had been improvised hurriedly, but substantially, and when the whole has received the attention arranged for it, Toronto will be in a splendid position in respect to really high quality benching for its shows. The judging ring was 150 feet long, and allowed generous space for three good sized rings, very encouraging, too, was the "gate". It is estimated that 8,500 paid admissions were recorded at the turnstiles. All in all the show was a success from every angle, and President Bethune Smith has every right to be proud of the "King's Year" dog show.

At the judges luncheon, which was held at the Military Institute this year, the attendance of the ladies was really a welcome change, and left the impression with the writer, that there is an enormous field available for the National Kennel Club to draw from, an extension, the force of which would have to be proven before it could be appraised properly.

Capt. H. Dudley-Waters would not divulge the secret of his feelings to anyone but himself, but if he was not thoroughly enthused over the Royal Show for 1935 he is a hard man to satisfy.

One of the many features of the 1935 National Kennel Club Show is illustrated above, Mr. C. A. Stone, Toronto, with his progeny. "Lucky" comes close to standard, good clean cut head, deep chest, grand quarters fore and apt, lathy in appearance and gloriously coated.

CHARLIE STONE'S GREATEST THRILL

When a born dog fancier, whose choice of breed has always been Setters, passes his eighty-third birthday, and has cut the swath that our Honorary Vice-President has cut, it is logical to suppose that such a fancier has absorbed about all there is to enthuse over, but with Mr. Stone it is all quite different. The National Kennel Club Show furnished the background for Charlie's greatest thrill when Mr. J. Raymond Hurley was chosen to judge Irish Setters as part of his sporting dog assignment (except Beagles), for not only did Mr. Hurley leave the show with the approval of those who had entered their dogs under him, but he found his winning Irish Setter dog in "Peterwood Third," a son of "Ch. Forest Lucky Strike," and his Reserve Winners in "Ch. Forest Lucky Strike," not only that, but several sons and daughters of the good producer "Lucky" fared well in the general contention, and so raising Mr. Stone's sporting blood to the point where he commandeered the services of a photographer so that the incident could be recorded in the most approved manner.

We were able to induce our veteran friend to take the framed photograph down off the wall in his den, and to agree to spend some of his good money to have a half tone cut made in order that we might tell this story to our readers intelligently. So reading from left to right we find 83-year-old Mr. Stone looking dapper and younger than any of his assistants, and he has the appearance of being the most composed party in the whole group. Charlie has hold of his home-bred "Ch.

Forest Lucky Strike" ("Ch. Forest Larry Lloyd," ex "Forest Nan of Boyne") the sire of every Setter in the group, won 1st Open Dogs and Reserve Winners. Next is "Peggy B. Law," 1st Canadian-bred Bitches and Reserve Winners. Next is "Lucky Larry," 2nd Canadian-bred Bitches. Next is "Lady Dierdre," 1st Novice Bitches, 2nd Limit, 3rd Canadian-bred and 4th (Reserve) open. Next is "Brian Boru," 2nd Canadian-bred Dogs, 2nd Limit. Next is "La Chien D'Or," who won 2nd Canadian-bred Bitches, 1st Limit and 3rd Open. Next is "Forest Prince Admiration," who won 4th (Reserve) in Novice dogs, Limit and Open, and last, but by no means least, is "Peterwood Third," who won 1st Novice Dogs and beat his sire for Winners, a decision that Mr. Stone entirely agrees with.

In compiling this information we find that "Peterwood Third," "Peggy B. Law," "Lucky Larry," "Brian Boru" and "La Chien D'Or" all came from a litter born on January 6th, 1934, out of Mr. W. G. Camp's (Toronto) good bitch "Ch. Lillybet."

With the picture now clearly before us, and having in mind that "Ch. Forest Lucky Strike" and his good looking son, "Peterwood Third," both passed an American Champion on the way to their respective winning stations, we can afford to agree that Mr. Stone had good cause to feel that "tickling of the spine"—alias, "thrill of his life" that came to him during "The King's Year" at the Royal Winter Fair in 1935. We congratulate our old comrade and hope that when the Canadian Kennel Club Golden Jubilee arrives that he will have even greater honors to garner in.

It might be of interest to our readers if we gave them Mr. Stone's secret of success in breeding, and as we unravel the story, as we ourselves got it, it must be borne in mind that the "Forest" Irish Setters are bred for the dual purposes of field and bench. Naturally his secret did not disclose itself hurriedly, all nature is slow in that respect, and so economy in stud fees was never considered at all. The results were tantalizing to a degree when only the occasional good one would come along, and the majority just Irish Setters. One day a friend mentioned that the best dog he had ever bred had come from a litter where a father and a daughter were the sire and dam. The old warhorse was prejudiced against the idea to begin with, and it was a slow process which brought the conviction that such a mating might be justified in cross breeding, and so the desire to "come closer" was born some eleven years ago, and it is problematical what might have been accomplished if there had been plenty of breeding material on hand for experimental purposes. With the coming of "Forest Larry Lloyd" (Ch.) who was out of "Glencho Sally Lloyd," who was a paternal grandson of "Judge Law," there came "Aunt Mary Law," a daughter of "Corney" (Imp.) out of "Meg," a daughter of "Judge Law." This combination produced "Forest Nanette" (Ch.). Mr. Stone concluded that "Lady Luck" was smiling on him and good fortune furnished the services of "Roland of Boyne" (Ch.) (Imp.), a litter brother to the world famous champions "Sarsfield" and "Joan," two of Ireland's greatest Setters, bred by Mr. J. S.

Carberry, who gave it as his opinion "Ronald" could never be classed with "Sarsfield". Both dogs would produce well because of their breeding, and so "Ronald of Boyne" was bred to "Nanette," and with four dogs of her litter campaigned in 1930-31 there were "Forest Sir Howard" (Ch.), "Forest Lord Toronto," "Ramano" and "Nan of Boyne," and how that lot did win at the shows! Crossing back "Forest Larry Lloyd" with his grand-daughter, "Nan of Boyne," there came "Forest Lucky Strike" (Ch.), the dog featured above with his seven of his progeny which garnered in 17 prizes from an entry of 29 dogs in competition. "Lucky" stamps his get with his own good quality as may be seen from the illustration. Mr. Stone makes no extravagant claims, he produces typical specimens that stand up wherever they are shown. At the moment there is a litter in the making that may, or may not establish the merit or otherwise of a carefully thought out breeding plan. The dogs come from the cross from "Ruadh Michael" (Int. Ch.) and "Sally Lloyd," which produced "Forest Saucy S.," who crossed with "Forest Sir Howard" (Ch.), (a litter brother to "Nan of Boyne") produced "Forest Sheila of Sharon," now in whelp to "Lucky Strike." Mr. Stone feels that he has accomplished something worth while, and could easily be wholly satisfied if he could put the hands of time back for fifty or sixty years more or less.

BUFFALO KENNEL CLUB SHOW

With every indication that this year's will be its best, plans are rushing to completion for the annual all-breed show of the Kennel Club of Buffalo, Inc., to be held in the spacious Broadway Auditorium in Buffalo, N.Y., Saturday and Sunday, Feb. 29 and March 1.

Nearly 1,000 dogs were entered last year, and there will be at least another thousand this year.

Buffalo club has a unique arrangement in connection with its show, having a chairman for each breed of dog, so that there is keen rivalry among the committees, thus increasing the number of entries.

The A.K.C. has given its sanction to the judges, 13 of whom have been chosen, and every exhibitor is assured of a competent and fair decision. Judges include: All-rounders, Alfred Delmont, of Wynnewood, Pa., and G. V. Glebe, of Bryn Athyn, Pa.; Pointers and Setters, E. E. Elder, of Cedarhurst, Long Island; Springer Spaniels, Harold Baker, of Huntington, L.I.; Beagle Hounds, Henry Seibold, of New Hampshire, Ohio; Collies, James D. Strachan, of Toronto, Canada; German Shepherds, Randall Perry, of Toronto; Doberman Pinschers, J. Hoyt Wilson, of Walled Lake, Mich.; Boston Terriers, Mrs. Margaret Firman, of Toronto; Bulldogs, George W. Hammond, of New York City; Chow Chows, Harry A. Reck, of Pontiac, Mich.; Dachshunde and Schipperkes, Bertha Bright Rainger, of New York City; Children's Classes, Tom Gately, of Hampstead, L.I.

More than $18,000 is offered in prizes, and there will be an added $5 for bred-by-exhibitor classes, as well as trophies and cash specials. Entries close Feb. 9 with either the Geo. F.

Foley Co., 2009 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, or the Kennel Club of Buffalo, Inc., Hotel Lafayette, Buffalo, N.Y.

OBITUARY

Capt. C. H. Nash, Toronto, well-known secretary of the Army and Navy Veterans of Canada and owner of the "Touro" prefix, has passed onwards to join the great majority. Capt. Nash participated in two wars, was a good churchman and a prominent Freemason. His hobby was a good English Bulldog, and if his life had not been so strenuous in a business way, he was of the type that would have been trying to produce the best.

Capt. Nash was in his 60th year at the time of his death.

From information sent to us by our British Columbia director, Mr. J. A. H. Irving, we learn of the death of one of our Canadian Kennel Club members in the person of Mr. F. J. Peers, Burnaby, who, at one time, was the manager of the Casino at English Bay, and therefore was very well known and highly respected by a large circle of friends. The interment took place in the Returned Soldiers' plot, Mountain View Cemetery, and the service was in the hands of the Rev. N. B. D. Larmouth.

The Alberta News

By Provincial Contributing Editor,
W. G. CLIMO, Calgary.

THE Children's Hospital Aid Society held a very successful show both from a financial point of view and also from the fanciers angle. Competitors from the adjoining provinces, as well as from Alberta, entered into competition for the various honours. A large number of visitors and fanciers were on hand at all times and took a keen interest in each breed as they were paraded before the judges, who did their work in a satisfactory manner. The final judging found the Pomeranian "Sundance Moonbeam"; Chow Chow, "Chia-Wan's Chunky Wink"; Smooth Fox Terrier, "Solus Ajax"; Labrador, "Ch. Grand Duchess Victor"; German Shepherd, "Cedrik of Cosalta" in competition for Best in Show, the Chow Chow, "Chia-Wan's Chunky Wink" eventually going to the top. This brought to the conclusion one of the most enjoyable shows held in Calgary for a long time, everything going smoothly and everyone enjoying themselves in a most friendly manner. It is to be desired that the same friendly spirit of rivalry should prevail at all dog shows, which will be to the good and welfare of the fancy generally.

Mrs. Norman Campbell, President of the Children's Hospital Aid Society, wishes to extend to all the appreciations of the Society for the splendid co-operation the show received, and says: "That if it had not been for the Hudson's Bay Co. providing accommodation for the show, Spratt's Patent Ltd., for their generous supply of show material and feed, the Alberta Kennel Club for benching the show, the generous response of our merchants to our appeal for prizes, the Canadian Kennel Club for the donation of a trophy, the co-operation of Secretary Mr. J. D. Strachan and the Provincial Director, it would not have been possible for us to have conducted such a show. Our success was beyond our expectations, and so it is our desire to convey to all, our sincere gratitude for the assistance given. Next year we hope to surpass our effort on this occasion as our experience has taught us much concerning dog shows, of which we had no previous knowledge."

Alberta Kennel Club is enjoying a roster showing 72 members, and each monthly meeting finds a generous percentage in attendance which shows that club enthusiasm is well maintained. Mr. John E. Hunter, the president, is highly gratified at the success of the show held on November 29th-30th, by the Children's Hospital Aid Society, and has a warm word of praise for the efficient services rendered on that occasion by the Alberta director, Mr. W. G. Climo.

SKIN troubles in dogs are much more than skin deep—they arise from within and should be treated from within. If you could ask the leading Vets. and Dog Breeders in England what is the finest internal treatment for doggy skin troubles they would say with one accord, 'Karswood Dog Powders.'

The EIGHT ingredients in Karswood include the essential nerve foods and tonic salts which banish blood toxins and so get right to the root of the trouble. Besides purifying the blood and keeping it pure, Karswood Dog Powders overhaul and tone up every vital organ in the dog's system. Given regularly, Karswood keeps a dog in tip-top condition all the time.

Karswood Dog Powders are an excellent tonic and pick-me-up for dogs of all sizes and breeds.

NEW WIRES FOR TALAURORA

Signet Soubrette

This comely Miss arrived in Canada at the end of the summer and for just cause has not been to the shows yet. A really splendid litter of five, sired by "Int. Ch. Gallant Fox of Wildoaks", has appeared at the kennel, and Dr. Boulding is paying as much attention to his "quints" as his friend Dr. Dafoe paid to his world-famed Dionne quintuplets up at Callander. "Signet Soubrette" is by "Ch. Crackley Startler", a son of "Ch. Beau Brummel of Wildoaks" and out of "Dagshai Lhu", who is a son of "Crackley Supremacy". "Dagshai Lhu" is a litter sister to "Dagshai Dhu" the dam of "Ch. Crackley Surething", who is also by "Startler".

Another really well bred bitch to find a new home at the Talaurore Kennels is "Dogberry Miss Rita", a daughter of "Ch. Beau Brummel of Wildoaks" ex "Dogberry Rita" who came to Canada on December 14th, and a week later she whelped a litter of one male and two female puppies to "Ch. Talavera Romulus". The quality of "Dogberry Miss Rita" is emphasized greatly when it is remembered that she is the dam of four champions, the latest being "Benholme Ballet Girl".

LAMORNA AIREDALES WIN IN CALIFORNIA

We notice from the Californian canine magazines to hand that the Airedale Terrier "Lamorna Prince Nobbler," who was sent to California a few weeks ago, won 1st Limit, 1st Open, and Winners (5 points), at the Ambassador Show, Los Angeles, under Judge Mr. Joseph Burrell, of Collie and Old English Sheepdog fame. It will be remembered that Mr. Burrell judged at "The Dog Show of All Nations" at California in 1915. "Lamorna Prince Nobbler" also won the two special prizes offered by the Southern California Airedale Association.

At the same show "Lamorna Lintie," who was shipped as a young puppy to Mr. J. Jack, of Hollywood, Cal., won 1st Puppy, 1st Limit Bitches. As there was an entry of 30 odd Airedales we should imagine that these wins will be rather encouraging to the Lamorna interests.

WESTMINSTER FEATURE DOG

The head of the famous Pointer, "Sensation," used for many years as the official emblem of the Westminster Kennel Club, is to be displaced at its coming show, the club's sixtieth annual fixture, by a likeness of the whole dog, standing at point. This has been made possible through the discovery of a steel engraving of "Sensation" in the collection of prints, engravings and paintings of the well-known sportsman, Harry D. Kirkover, of Camden, S.C., and New York, and his lending of the picture to the Westminster Club to permit its reproduction. Henceforth the head of the dog, which has become widely known to the present generation of dog fanciers, will be replaced by a reproduction from this engraving on the club's stationery, the show medals and trophies, the catalogues and premium lists of its shows and in advertisements.

In 1876, the members of the Westminster Club, then primarily a shooting organization, commissioned one of its early officials, George de Forest Grant, to send to England for a Pointer which the members could use for breeding purposes. He received a photograph of a dog named "Don," which had won his bench championship in England through show triumphs at Shifnal, Oswestry, Birmingham, Swansea and Llanelly in 1875 and at Newport and Carmarthen in 1876. Impressed with the pictures of the dog as much as his show record, the members arranged to import him under the name of Sensation, Volume IV of the English Kennel Club Stud Book listing him as "Sensation" (formerly "Don").

Brought to this country, "Sensation" was promptly registered in the name of the Westminster Kennel Club in Volume I of the stud book of the National American Kennel Club, which subsequently became the American Kennel Club. His entry in that book as No. 1261, shows that he gained his American championship with victories at Baltimore in 1876 and at St. Louis, Boston and Baltimore in 1878. His show career, however, was limited since the primary object in his importation was to strengthen the breeding stock of the club's members.

A handsome lemon and white dog, with a fine head and especially good body, "Sensation" did much toward heading Pointer breeders in this country along the right lines. Several artists did pictures of him and one of the head studies appeared on the catalogue in 1878, the second all-breed show the club gave. From these early head studies others were made but they were unmistakably that of the same dog, and, except for a gap between 1896 and 1903, when the Gibson Girl influence was manifest, "Sensation's" head appeared on all subsequent catalogues of the Westminster show. In 1927, a new medal was adopted and a new drawing of the head made. It is that one which has become most familiar to the public through more extensive advertising of the show which has accompanied its annual visit to the New Garden.

The club records showed that an engraving which had much impressed the members had been made in 1879 but no trace of its present whereabouts had been found. The present show chairman, Dr. Samuel Milbank, had been looking for it both in this country and England, even advertising for information in some of the kennel publications on both sides of the Atlantic. The search had been unsuccessful until this autumn, when on a shooting trip in Carolina, John G. Bates, president of the club, visited Mr. Kirkover. He was admiring the latter's extensive collections of prints and paintings of dogs and horses when he came across the picture of "Sensation." There was no mistake. The engraving was captioned "Pointer (Sensation)" and the letters "Sens" were visible on the collar.

A large engraving, it showed the whole dog, with a light lemon patch on its side, frozen in point. The artist, J. Wellstood, had caught the magnificently bodied dog in marvellous detail. The muscles and even the veins on the legs stood out. And it was clearly the head which has become so familiar to Mr. Bates and all others connected with the club and its shows. The engraving showed it had been produced by W. Wellstood & Company in 1879.

Mr. Kirkover could not be induced to part with this engraving which, through its association, becomes one of the important gems in his collection. He was glad, however, to make it available for the Westminster Kennel Club. Accordingly, it was brought to New York and Richard A. Loederer, the well known artist, traveller and author, whose "Voodoo-Fire in Haiti" attracted much attention, was given the task of redrawing the engraving, which will be reproduced by Arthur Jaffee, Incorporated, under the celebrated Max Jaffee process. A sufficient number of reproductions will be made for the members of the club and a few friends.

A master copy of the new emblem, showing the entire dog, at point, will be made for the club's archives, and, along with such other irreplaceable matter as the only known copy of the first show catalogue kept in the vaults. From it will be made the various cuts to be used on the catalogues and other appurtenances where the emblem appears.

NEWS FROM OLD QUEBEC

WE regret to learn that Mrs. C. de P. Doniphan's services as Provincial Contributor will not be available until the early spring. Mrs. Doniphan's father has been under the weather recently, and an absence from the rigors of a Montreal winter will no doubt be to his great advantage physically.

The "Wangza" Pekes have been conveniently disposed of for the meantime, but there will be several available when Mrs. Doniphan is again in a position to give them her attention. We do hope that the immediate future has lots to offer Mr. La Violette and his devoted daughter.

To own a kennel of forty-five Pomeranians must assuredly be quite a responsibility, but that is the extent of Mrs. M. Charlebois' "Fairness" Kennels at the present time. The kennels have been strengthened recently by the addition of a chocolate colored male, bred by Mrs. M. Roberts, Manchester, England, sired by "Tiny Black Nipper", dam, "Brown Wenda". Mrs. Charlebois fell in love with the parents of her imported youngster whilst she was visiting in England, hence this new addition to the kennel.

Mrs. Charlebois purchased heavily from the estate of the late Madame Beland, and now she owns "Jonville Grand Salute" (imp.) and "Exquisite of Pomona", also two puppies sired by "Ch. Glorious Gold of Pomona". One is "Adorable of Pomona" and the other is "Admiration of Pomona". It will be remembered that Mrs. Charlebois bought "Treasure of Pomona" and his litter brother, "Majestic of Pomona", during the past summer, and in all there are no less than eight of the Pomona Pomeranians now at the Fairness establishment. With 45 Poms and a couple of Chows, Mrs. Charlebois claims to own one of the largest and most select kennels of dogs in Eastern Canada, and points out that ten of her kennel inmates are imported animals.

PURE-BRED ANIMALS

WE have deemed it wise to warn the dog fanciers of Canada of the positive danger of referring to dogs as "Pure-bred" unless such dogs are already registered or eligible for registration, with the Canadian Kennel Club. It must be remembered that the Live Stock Pedigree Act controls all Pure-bred animals in this country, and the provisions of the Act are such, that every fancier should become familiar with them for personal protection, if for no other reason.

Emphasizing this we quote Section 4 of the Live Stock Pedigree Act, Sub-sections 1 and 2.

4. (1) Not more than one association for each distinct breed or a number of breeds of the same species shall be incorporated under this Act.

(2) Save as provided by this Act when an association for a distinct breed is incorporated under this Act it shall be unlawful for any other person, in respect of such breed, to conduct a book of record or to issue a certificate of registration or any document purporting to be a certificate of breeding.

Then we must quote the Act—Offences and Penalties, from section 17 to section 22 inclusive:—

"17. Every person who

- (a) knowingly and with intent to deceive, signs or presents or causes or procures to be signed or presented to the recording officer of an association, or to the person in charge of the Canadian National Live Stock Records, any declaration or any application for registration or any transfer of ownership respecting any animal or bird containing any material false statement or representation, or
- (b) falsely holds out any certificate of registration as applying to an animal or bird other than the one in respect of which it was issued, or
- (c) wilfully commits any act in contravention of the rules promulgated by any association or Canadian National Live Stock Records, is guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars and costs and not less than one hundred dollars and costs, and in default of payment to imprisonment for any term not exceeding two months.

"18. (1) When by the constitution, by-laws or rules of an association incorporated in accordance with this Act, provision has been made for the registration of any class or breed, and export from Canada, or transport from province to province within Canada, or the sale or contract to sell of any animal or bird of such class or breed as pure-bred without furnishing the actual buyer a certificate of pedigree registration issued by such association, is prohibited, every person who

- (a) exports from Canada or transports from one province in Canada to another province in Canada any animal or bird of such class or breed as pure-bred without furnishing to the actual buyer in connection therewith a certificate of pedigree registration as issued by such association, or
- (b) as owner sells or contracts to sell any animal or bird of such class or breed as pure-bred without furnishing or agreeing as an integral part of the contract of sale to furnish the certificate of pedigree registration together with the duly recorded transfer of ownership thereof to the actual buyer, is guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars and costs and not less than one hundred dollars and costs, and in default of payment to imprisonment for any term not exceeding two months.

(2) Any animal or bird owned in Canada of a class or breed for which no record exists in Canada and duly registered in a foreign book of record recognized as authentic by the Canadian National Live Stock Records' Committee shall for the purposes of this section be deemed to be pure-bred.

"19. It is an offence to use without authority the name of Canadian National Live Stock Records, Canadian National Live Stock Record Board, Canadian National Live Stock Record Committee or of any association incorporated under this Act, or any name or colourable imitation of or so nearly resembling any of the said names as to deceive the public.

"20. Every offence against this Act or against any order or regulation of the Governor in Council shall, for the purpose of proceedings under this Act or under such order or regulation, be deemed to have been committed, and every cause of complaint thereunder shall be deemed to have arisen, either in the place in which it actually was committed or arose or in any place in which the person charged or complained against happens to be.

"21. Every penalty imposed by this Act shall be recoverable with costs before any two justices of the peace, or any magistrate having the powers of two justices of the peace under the provisions of the Criminal Code relating to summary convictions.

"22. Section eleven hundred and forty-two of the Criminal Code shall not apply to any proceedings in respect of any offence under this Act."

From the foregoing it is made perfectly clear that the Live Stock Pedigree Act prohibits the export from Canada, or transports from one province in Canada, to another province in Canada, of any pure-bred dog without furnishing the actual buyer in connection therewith, a certificate of pedigree registration as issued by the Canadian National Live Stock Records on behalf of the Canadian Kennel Club. Any other arrangement than the foregoing will surely lead to dire results. We have no desire to see any fancier fined in $500.00 and costs, or in default of payment of the fine, to imprisonment for any term not exceeding two months.

Probably as a further warning we should refer to the dogs registered in organizations other than the Canadian Kennel Club, and particularly to dogs registered with the United Kennel Club of Kalamazoo, Mich. It is a fact that certificates of registration are being furnished Canadian buyers of dogs, and in this respect we refer our readers to section 18, of the Live Stock Pedigree Act. Dogs registered with the United Kennel Club cannot be registered in the Canadian Kennel Club Stud Book, and prospective breeders of dogs are warned not to purchase as pure-bred unless they receive a written guarantee that the dog purchased will be registered in the Canadian Kennel Club Stud Book, and a certificate of registration showing their ownership, as issued by the Canadian National Live Stock Records, furnished them.

AVOID ALL POSSIBLE DANGERS.

Napierville Man Faces Nine Charges Under False Act.

St. Johns, Que., Dec. 14 (Star Special).

The Federal Department of Agriculture preferred charges under the Live Stock Pedigree Act against F. R. Brockington of Napierville, in court here yesterday. Summoned by the Lacolle detachment of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, Brockington faces nine charges of supplying unrecognized certificates of registration contrary to the Live Stock Pedigree Act.

According to A. P. MacVannel of the Department of Agriculture, the Canadian Kennel Club is part of the Canadian National Live Stock Records and is the sole authentic body governing the issuing of certificates of registration for Canadian pure-bred dogs.

It is claimed that Brockington sold

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

Before we had time to realize that the Christmas issue of Kennel and Bench was really in the mails, we began to receive compliments from our readers on the general excellence of the issue. Particularly gratifying was the President's words of praise, but we are appreciative of commendatory messages from whatever source they have come. In thanking our readers for noticing our 1935 effort, we would just like to say that and must always be the gauge of your support. Naturally, we are proud of the issue, and we are so very glad that our readers liked it, too.

dogs both in Canada and the United States as pure-bred dogs without obtaining from the Canadian National Live Stock Records certificates of registration.

Officials stated that Brockington sold dogs to the Argentine via the United States, contrary to Section 18, Sub-section 1A.

A. R. Dawson of the Canadian National Live Stock Records stated that Canadian National certificates are recognized as accurate the world over and are accepted by countries of the British Empire and foreign countries as authentic. He stated that serious complications would result if Canadian individuals and dog breeders were allowed to supply buyers with other than Canadian National Live Stock Records certificates.

It was claimed that Brockington issued certificates of a Kennel Club located in the United States.

Nine charges were laid against Brockington under the Live Stock Pedigree Act. Proceedings took place on three charges yesterday. Brockington pleaded not guilty. The case will continue on January 10th.

Obedience Tests Becoming Popular—

Thanks to the German Shepherd Dog Clubs for leadership in the field of obedience tests for dogs, the sponsors of other breeds are becoming more and more interested in this fascinating work. One has only to be near a dog that has been trained for obedience to become enthused over training generally, and to own a trained dog is a joy rather hard to explain and almost impossible to share. For years we read of winning German Shepherds on this side of the Atlantic and of winning Alsatians on 'tother side, but now we share the honors with Poodles, Great Danes, Shetland Sheepdogs, Pekingese, etc.

At Philadelphia Kennel Club Show held on November 2nd in the Convention Hall, a miniature Schnauzer with the feature name "Ch. Mussolini of Marienhof", owned by Captain and Mrs. Slattery, Edgewood, Md., won the honors for the first time for his breed. The test was for novices and the competition found the Collie, Doberman Pinscher, Wire Fox Terrier, Poodle, Standard Schnauzer, Boxer and Dalmatian all trying for the prizes. It is interesting also to note that Mrs. J. W. Slattery, the owner of the winner, had only been training her smart little champion for ten days, and in that time she had secured obedience to heeling, recalling, sitting and lying down on command, etc.

A training club, if formed, and properly officered, could easily become one of the features of dogdom in any community where the population was known to be doggie conscious.

Successful Young Specialty Club—A large attendance marked the first annual meeting of the Canadian Cocker Spaniel Association held at the King Edward Hotel, Toronto, on Thursday evening, December 5th, 1935.

This organization, which came into being with a membership of five in July, 1934, has now grown to be one of the largest and most active specialty clubs in Canada.

The reports adopted showed the present paid-up membership to be sixty-seven, comprising well-known Cocker fanciers from every province in the Dominion.

Fifteen monthly meetings were held by the association since its inauguration, at most of which a guest speaker was present who led the discussion in problems appertaining to Cockers, and such a large part of the growth and success of the association were attributed to these meetings that regular monthly meetings were adopted as a permanent policy of the association.

In spite of a purely nominal membership fee of one dollar per year the secretary-treasurer's statement disclosed the fact that the club had no liabilities and were in possession of a very gratifying cash balance.

The Canadian Cocker Spaniel Sweepstake for novice Cockers, which this association promised and which was decided at the National Kennel Club Show, was considered to have been a decided success, and with minor changes of detail dictated by the experience of the past year, was approved as an annual feature of the club's activities.

The association accepted custody of a beautiful sterling silver cup, offered by the National Sand and Materials, Ltd., for best Cocker Spaniel at show. This cup is to become the property of the first owner to win it three times with three different dogs. An endowment to provide for a suitable and similar inscription being placed on the base of the cup for each win was also provided.

Following the election of officers and directors an instructive paper on the Cocker Spaniel was given by Mr. W. A. Price with demonstration of his ideas being made upon a live Cocker present.

The board of directors entrusted with the management of the club's affairs for 1936 are as follows:

Mr. Fred Shawley, president.

Mr. C. C. Jeffery, vice-president.

Mr. Don Brown, treasurer.

Mr. C. J. Williams, secretary.

Directors—Messrs. Alex Hunter, Jas. Garden, H. Draper, A. Wier, J. Denton, W. A. Price, Alex Kelman, W. H. Barrett and Wes. Benson.

The enthusiasm and harmony which prevailed at the meeting augurs well for the continued development of the association and its increasing usefulness to the Cocker fanciers of Canada.

Can't Keep Out Of It—That is the admission made by our old friend, the successful Springer breeder, Mr. W. C. Burns, of Victoria, B.C. Mr. Burns confesses that he is old enough to have more sense, but in view of the fact that he has secured a nice bitch from his old associate, Mr. McCall, of Edmonton, and so his hand is itching to sign an application for membership again.

A joint parlor show was put on by the Victoria District Gun Club and Victoria City Kennel Club recently, when 132 dogs came together, and enriched the coffers of both clubs by $35.00 each after paying the judges fees.

Hamilton Kennel Club held its Annual General Meeting on December 25th, when Secretary, Mr. James Eccles, reported that 1935 had been one of the most successful years in the Club's history. At an early date, the President, Mr. J. E. Lane, and the following list of officers will start to function on the Club's 1936 programme of activities: Vice-President, Mr. George Lawless; Secretary-Treasurer, Mr. James Eccles, 75 Harmony Avenue, Hamilton, Ont. Directors: Messrs. W. Foster, T. Frankland, F. Patrick, S. Price, G. R. Day, F. Fairey and G. K. Alton. Auditors: Messrs. H. Cole and A. Caldwell.

A New All-Breed Club has been organized at the eastern Beach section of Toronto and named Beaches Kennel Club. The officers of the new club are temporary so far, we understand, but worse things could happen than to have them elected permanently, or for the first whole year at least. In Mr. Ed. Kent, the president, is a business man, whose training allows him to act in a manner which produces favorable results. Mr. H. Hopkins, the secretary, is not without experience, and the future of Beaches Kennel Club should be assured. As a trial of strength a parlor show was held on December 20th at the Orchard Park Hotel, when 163 dogs came out to tax the accommodation to the last inch. Mr. E. J. O'Hara was responsible for the success of the show, and he certainly put all he had into it. Probably it will be wise for the new club to give consideration to starting their shows earlier in the evening, because there is nothing calculated to fray the edges of a temper more than late hours at a dog show of any kind.

Ontario Airedale for Medicine Hat—

Mr. O. A. Bean, Medicine Hat, Alta., purchased from Mrs. W. C. Routley of the Clairmar Kennels, Reg'd, Cooksville, Ont., the Airedale Terrier bitch, "Friar's Carol", and he is well pleased with his new acquisition who is showing heavy in whelp to "Friar's Mixer". Mr. Bean has sold his "Ch. Rockley King" to the all-breed Japanese judge, Mr. Deguchi of Noyaga, Japan. Mr. Deguchi is very much interested in training Airedales for the purpose of leading blind people.

Supreme Boston Terrier Club Elects

Officers—The above club has elected the following officers to take charge of the club's affairs for 1936: President, Mr. R. H. D. Sim; vice-president, Mr. C. M. Stevens; secretary, Mr. L. C. Helmsley; treasurer, Mr. G. Rowe; show superintendent, Mrs. C. M. Stevens; trophy secretary, Mrs. P. Boughs; executive, Mrs. R. H. D. Sims, Mrs. Martha Stevens and Messrs. G. T. Pearce, F. Anderson, and G. E. Garrow; publicity agent, Mrs. M. Stevens.

Vivadora Kennels Reducing—

Owing to a period of continuing poor health the above kennels have been parting with several favorites recently. The last one to go was "Talavera Tantalus," Imp., who was bred by Capt. H. R. Phipps, England, and came to Canada in the summer of 1932. "Tantalus" is a double cross of "Talavera Simon", and as such is a valuable breeding animal. Mrs. Robert W. Williams, Medfield, Mass., is the new owner and she is loud in her praises for her new acquisition.

"COMPLIMENTS OF THE SEASON TO YOU, MR. EDITOR"

WHAT could possibly make the editor of a dog journal happier at this season of the year than to have this sweet little Miss sending along such a nice little message?

The above is one of the several hundreds of messages which kept my postman coming and going rather constantly before and after "the 25th". From far and near they came and each one brought the same encouraging message, although many of them were worded differently.

Here are a few samples:

Honorary President, C. A. Stone, "My closest friends are 'Scotch', and I am Scotch, you see, so I'm sending back good wishes, for they were sent to me".

From my old chief, The Honourable Mr. Justice McFarland, "The Season's Greetings with all kind thoughts and best wishes".

President Col. J. N. MacRae, "Health and good cheer".

Vancouver, B.C.: "Keep your tail up—Here comes 1936".—Bill Pym.

Alberta: "Remembering you at Christmas and wishing you happiness".—Jack G. Young.

Saskatchewan: "With sincere wishes for a Merry Christmas and a Prosperous New Year".—Doc Cooper.

Manitoba: "Time alters not friendship".—George Duncan.

Ontario: "A special Christmas greeting, with an extra nice 'Hello', because you are a special friend, and extra nice to know". "Brown" H. M. Jackson.

Quebec: "Everything the very best".—T. P. Ritchie.

Maritimes: "Best wishes for your happiness in the New Year".—J. E. Burns, Halifax, N.S.

Then there was a nice message from S. T. Lethbridge, managing director of Spratt's Patent, Limited, London, England: "Once again the pleasure of greeting you and repeating my sincere good wishes of former years."

Heaps of others we might mention, such as Giralda Farms, Madison, N.J.; Ted Chetwin, Syracuse, N.Y.; Len Brumby, President, Professional Handlers' Association, L.I., N.Y.; Bill Morrison, Chicago; J. N. Levine, Philadelphia; Brig.-Gen. C. M. Nelles, who may affix "U.E." to his name, alluding as it does to The Unity of the Empire. The card features the Royal Jubilee, and the following quotation from Tennyson sets out a most pleasing card: "May you rule us long and leave us rule as of your blood as noble 'till the latest day'." Alf. Loveridge, with a snappy team of the Happy Valley English Setters. J. W. Cameron sent a card which included Christmas, New Year's Valentine's Day, St. Patrick's Day, Easter, Victoria Day, Halloween, Thanksgiving Day and next Christmas and New Year's—a good investment, J.W. Enno Meyer sends "his family" along, and here we have two horses, two Shepherd Dogs, one Great Dane, one Bull Terrier, one Manchester, one Bloodhound and one "Yorkie". When Mr. Meyer sets out to make a Christmas card he finishes an article well worthy of a better than ordinary frame. "Mike" Bates, Metagami, says: "Two 'bear-faced' facts are: First, A Merry Christmas, second, 'A Happy New Year'." Charlie Querrie of the famous old Tecumseh lacrosse team says: "Come up and see us some time—anytime"—and we may take Charlie at his word pretty soon as he is a valuable man to know when hockey seats are selling at a premium. And so on into the night, but every card I received I am parceling carefully, and these I will put away in due course, and some time later on I may have time to go over them all again; meantime I thank you all for so many evidences of your having remembered your Editor.

Maritime Notes

By Provincial Contributing Editor,
J. E. BURNS, Halifax, N.S.

MR. RONALD C. VAUGHAN, St. John, N.B., becomes the next Maritime Director, by acclamation. This is as it should be. Nova Scotia has provided the Maritime Director for the past few years and it is fitting that the honor be now passed on to the sister province. Mr. Vaughan has had many years of connection with the fancy and, during that time, he has been an active and intelligent breeder and exhibitor of various breeds of terriers, many of these he piloted to their championships. We extend to Mr. Vaughan a hearty and sincere wish for a pleasant term of office as the representative from the Maritimes.

Some of our readers will probably be interested in an item which appeared in "Setter Siftings", edited by Mr. A. J. Carbery, veteran English dog judge and Setter authority. This item was contained in the November 29th issue of "Our Dogs" and is as follows:—"A couple of weeks ago I had an interesting letter from Mr. Geoffrey G. Ryder, Halifax, N.S., in which he asks a rather difficult question. His dog has won eight firsts and two 'Winners' ribbons, but he has been placed eight times second and 'Reserve Winners.' This in five shows. When the bitch was put down the judges told him that they considered his bitch too small, adding in each case that another judge would probably act differently. The bitch is 23 inches at the shoulder, and he asks should she have been put down for height? In the Standard of Points for the Irish Setter, published at the starting of the club in 1882, no mention was made of the height of the Irish Setter nor has there been since, but no judge that I know has put down a bitch of 23 inches as being too small. Of course some judges like big dogs and bitches. In the Standard of the English Setter a height is given as 22 to 24 inches. Both breeds are considered generally as the same height. He sends me two photos of his bitch, and she appears to be a high-class bitch of ordinary size, and he gives all her measurements. Judges will always differ as to size, but all other points being excellent, I should not put one of her size down as being too small."

The following letter, over the name of C. R. Johns, Sec., National Canine Defence League, London, S.W.L., appears in a local paper:—"This League treats over 75,000 poor people's sick pets every year, and, with the kind co-operation of the press, indirectly helps almost everybody's dog by the circulation, all over the Empire, of expert and timely advice on canine welfare. Despite the magnitude and importance of our work for over three million dogs, we depend entirely upon voluntary contribution, either in cash or kind. Gifts of foreign stamps (used or unused, ancient or modern) are very welcome, as with the help of our honorary philatelist, Dr. Frank Collie, they are made up into packets and sold in aid of the League's funds. Dr. Collie has just handled his millionth stamp on the League's behalf, and would cheerfully handle a million more. Gifts of stamps from dog-lovers will be gratefully received at this address."

A few days ago I had the opportunity of viewing a medal which had been won at a Nova Scotia Kennel Club dog show during the year 1882. I understand that this medal was procured from Miss A. J. G. O'Brien and that it has been forwarded to our Editor, Mr. Strachan, and it is probable that Mr. Strachan will let us know more regarding the history of this unusual and interesting trophy. This medal is about the size of a Canadian fifty cent piece and has a milled edge, is highly engraved on both sides. One side is engraved with the head of a Sporting dog, presumably an English Setter, and bears the following inscription:—"Nova Scotia Kennel Club, 1882", and was awarded to the exhibitor of the best Clumber Spaniel. This medal was awarded many years before the writer was born and the only information that I could gather regarding dog shows held in Nova Scotia in the eighties was rather vague. I have been told, however, that many of these dogs are supposed to have been brought to Nova Scotia by the military officers arriving here from England, the majority of the imports being sporting dogs of various breeds, together with a number of Dalmatians, Collies and Great Danes. Accurate data regarding shows held in Nova Scotia during that period does not appear to be readily available and we would be interested in learning more regarding this matter from those of our elders who might be in a position to supply the information.

I regret having to report the death of Mrs. W. B. Fay. Mrs. Fay was a valued member of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the S.P.C.A. and an interested spectator at the local dog shows. Her daughter, Miss Ethel Fay, was a breeder and exhibitor of Pekingese and did considerable winning with her home-bred stock. I am sure that all who enjoyed the acquaintance of the late Mrs. Fay will join me in extending sincere sympathy to Mr. Fay and his family.

Dr. Dunlop has purchased a young Scottish Terrier, male, from Mr. Arthur Smith. W. G. Smith's Irish Terrier, "Donegal Sally Ann," recently whelped a litter of six. These were sired by the imported "Brantvale Begorra."

Mr. Fred O'Connell, local Boston Terrier breeder, recently returned from a much enjoyed trip to New York and cities in the Eastern States. While on the other side of the border, Mr. O'Connell visited some of the leading kennels in the district. He also attended the Cocker Spaniel Specialty Show and the National Boston Terrier Specialty Show at Boston, Mass. This was the 44th annual show of the Club and the 167 entries were ably judged by Mr. Geo. Kane, pioneer Boston Terrier breeder of Saint John, N.B.

We are told that the first time a woman acted as all-round judge for all breeds was when Mrs. T. E. L. Kemp, Bridgewater, Mass., judged the Saint John show last September.

The names of quite a number of Maritime-owned dogs appeared in "The Charmed Circle," included in the last issue of Kennel and Bench. The following are the names of the newly crowned Champions from the East: "Binks of Balcroft," Wire Fox Terrier, formerly owned by W. G. Smith, Halifax; James Shaffelburg's Sealyham, "Borlick Nettie"; Mrs. Burns' Irish Terrier, "Donegal Red Riot"; Mrs. Winnifred Simms' Pekingese, "Dusky Chog of Mawnan"; R. B. Campbell's Scottish Terrier, "Haldon Betty Lou." The Schipperkes, "Marquis O' The North" and "Misty Morn O' The North," both owned by Miss Dorothy Cassidy, Torryburn, N.B.; A. V. Martin's Collie, "Oakland Sensation"; K. Gordon Carnell's Beagle, "Stoneywold One Spot" and the Newfoundland dog, "Westerland Monarch", owned by Mr. S. G. Lapierre, Halifax. Congratulations to all.

A new year is generally accompanied by new resolutions and I believe that a few new and practical resolutions would do a world of good to the local dog game. Might I suggest that a sincere endeavor for closer co-operation between the breeders in the Maritimes be given consideration as a means to an end. This would serve as a means of creating a better feeling of fellowship and give a much needed impetus to the local fancy. The Eastern Provinces, due to their geographical position, are, to a certain degree, a remote section of the Dominion. This is particularly true of Nova Scotia and, while it is a matter over which we have no control, I believe that much could be done to improve present conditions. We of the Maritime fancy are directly responsible for the future of our hobby—I do not think that our efforts have proven to be more than a hobby, and, in most cases, an expensive one. I do not know of any breeder in this section of the Dominion who has been successful in commercializing dog breeding to the point of profit, financially, and I doubt if such an attainment is possible under present circumstances.

Maritime dog breeders experience considerable difficulty in making the progress to which they are, in many cases, entitled. A limited market in their own district, a long haul to Central Canadian and U.S. shows, the necessity of shipping bitches a distance of approximately a thousand miles in order to breed to the best studs and many other disadvantages that are only too well known to the local breeders, all tend to add to the general expense and discomfort of the Maritime dog breeder.

To my mind, the only answer to this problem points to the necessity for more organized advertising on the part of local breeders, more shows, particularly of the matinee type, and a decided effort on the part of all concerned toward a co-operative movement rather than an individual effort.

No doubt some of my readers will put their own constructions on my repeated pleas for more advertising and, in this case, I would remind them that they may send copy to me or directly to Kennel and Bench—but, by all means, send it, and keep in mind the old and true saying: "The wheel that does the squeaking is the wheel that gets the grease".

In closing my section of the Maritime News, I wish to extend to all my readers a sincere wish that they may realize their full share of the best that the new year has to offer.

The following is Mr. Britt's contribution to the Maritime News:

It is very disappointing to note the small percentage of Maritime fanciers who took advantage of the advertising space in the December issue of Kennel and Bench. No doubt there were a greater number of breeders who had young stock or grown dogs that were ready to go to new homes during the Christmas season and, as we are aware, there is no greater way of selling than by advertising in a magazine that is for dogs alone and that is read by people that are interested in dogs. Let us hope that the new year will see more advertising from Maritime kennels appearing in the pages of Kennel and Bench.

On December 4th, the New Brunswick Kennel Club held its annual meeting. The undertakings of the year just closed were considered and the treasurer reported the club to be in good financial standing. The following slate of officers was elected for the coming year: President, Mr. S. E. Kominsky; first vice-president, Mr. H. H. McLellan, Jr.; second vice-president, Mr. E. F. Nelson; secretary, Mr. T. A. Linton; treasurer, Mr. H. J. Keyes. It was decided to launch a drive to increase the membership of this old and successful club.

On visiting Garwood Kennels, one of Eastern Canada's largest and best equipped kennels, operated by R. C. Vaughan, I found things quite active with a demand for Scotties and Wires. I saw a charming litter of Scottie puppies out of "Cameronian Lass" (imp.), a quality bitch imported from Scotland by Mrs. Vaughan. This bitch was imported in whelp. "Lassie" is one of the best Scotties seen in these parts for some time, and when back in show shape will give a good account of herself on the bench. This kennel is housing two nice Wire puppies by "Station Master" ex "Lady Betty". They look very promising. Mrs. Vaughan, who operates the boarding department in the kennel, has had poor luck with her good Cocker Spaniel bitch, "Cedargrove Dolly", who visited "Silver Blaze", a son of "Ch. Limestone Laddie". She whelped one male puppy, still-born. However, Mrs. Vaughan is not easily discouraged and is hoping for better success the next time.

The Scottish Terrier kennels of Cossar Farms, Lower Gagetown, have, we believe, the largest number of litters for one breed in the Maritime Provinces. Seven litters have been registered during the year just closed. This, with the many individual registrations, probably puts them on top of the list in the Maritimes. During the past season Cossar show records, with home-breds, was a creditable one. This kennel has not shown any imported stock since September, 1934. Benching five and six Terriers at each show has given much to the support of the breed and to the shows generally. Cossar Scotties have doubled their sales over last year. "Cossar Cavalier" is a seven-months-old brindle, a November purchase by Mr. H. MacKenzie of Halifax. A litter brother is being prepared for delivery to Mr. Wm. Vanwart, Fredericton. This name was one to contend with among the Irish Terrier fancy a few years ago. His "Ch. Mickey of York" was considered, by those who knew, to be one of the two best in Canada about twenty years ago, and later, when six years old, won at Montreal. For a laster he reminds us of that sterling Smooth, "Ch. Warren Rascal", owned by Mr. Robert Laskey, who still owns a champion Smooth. "Cossar Crusader" is the Scottie tagged for Mr. Vanwart and is the third "diehard" from the Cossar Kennels to go to the Capital city.

Mrs. B. M. Frost, Glen Falls, is highly elated over the grand showing made by her superb home-bred Boston Terrier bitch, "Jean Whiz". At the National Kennel Club show "Jean" captured the awards for Winners Bitches, Best of Winners and Best of Breed. This sound young bitch is well away on her show career, having been placed Best of All Breeds at the N.S.K.C. show held in Halifax and judged by Anton A. Rost.

Mr. William Kiervan is the proud owner of a typical young Wire puppy by a son of "Ch. Rare Stormer of Earlsmoor" and out of "Stonehaven Snowflake".

Maritime fanciers* will be pleased to know that Mr. Jerry Cavanaugh has returned to work after a successful operation.

On a recent visit to Mr. Robt. Orr's "Easco" Pointer Kennels of bench and field dogs, I was greatly taken with a nice litter of seven Pointer puppies by "Easco Ridgeway Rocket" out of "Easco Ridgewood Grip". "Grip" was the winner of best Canadian-bred and best Sporting at the N.S.K.C. show held in Halifax during the fall of 1933. These victories are fresh in my mind as I had the pleasure of handling this good bitch at the above show. Later that fall she had the misfortune to injure her stifle while being trained in the field, an injury that has curtailed her show career. It is now evident that she is going to take up in the nursery where she left off on the bench, if one can judge by the condition and quality of her puppies.

Another good bitch, "Easco Ridgewood Jewel", who has just turned ten months and already has a Winners ribbon to her credit, looking very fit and ready to hold her own in any company.

During my call on Mr. Orr he allowed me to read a couple of letters from purchasers of Easco Pointers that have been used in the field during the past season, and Mr. Orr has just reason to be proud of the way these gentlemen describe the working qualities of his dogs.

Saskatchewan Notes

By Provincial Contributing Editor,

A. G. GODDARD, Saskatoon.

FIFTEEN HUNDRED persons were on hand for the Saskatchewan Sheep Dog trials that were held recently at Moose Jaw. Nine dogs competed in the event which took place on the rough, hilly field south of the Swift Canadian plant. Most of the thrills were provided by a black and white dog who answers to the name of "Scotty", owned by Mr. W. Martin, the Maple Creek rancher. This dog gave an almost perfect performance, scoring 58 out of a possible 60 points. Completing the shepherding in the fast time of ten minutes, "Ken", with 55 points and "Tyne" with 46, won second and third. These two dogs are also owned by Mr. Martin. The judges were Mr. R. Simpson of Tilley, Alberta, and Mr. Bob Allen of the Canadian Pacific Farms, Tilley, while Mr. T. Brydon, University of Saskatchewan Farms manager, acted as timekeeper.

Mr. Martin later attended the Royal Winter Fair at Toronto where, according to reports, his perfectly trained dogs gave a remarkable exhibition, working on both sheep and geese, drawing rounds of applause from the spectators.

Sheep farming appears to be on the increase in this province, which should be of benefit to such breeds of dogs as are used for herding sheep.

As a boy I spent many a day with the shepherds tending their flocks on the farms of East Anglia, while on each annual lamb sale day, from ten to fifteen thousand black-faced ewes and lambs would pass by our home on their way to market. Most of the dogs used in those days were of the Collie or Old English sheepdog type. To be able to appreciate the value of such dogs as those owned by Mr. Martin, one must not only know dogs, but must also know sheep.

Mr. W. A. Childs, Rockcroft Kennels Reg'd, Saskatoon, has just received word from Mr. Cordon Gee, Wyandotte, Michigan, that "Rockcroft Little Snip Snap", the Smooth Fox Terrier that he purchased from these kennels, went Reserve Winners at Detroit. Sales of Smooths has been good lately, which the Rockcroft owner attributes to the excellent quality of his breeding stock and consistent advertising. One was sold to Miss Herring, Lestock, Sask., one to Mr. Young, Krydor, Sask., and one each to Mr. J. Warren and Mr. Craven of Saskatoon.

"Ch. Heeley President" has passed on at the age of 12 years, leaving two of his daughters to carry on, while a nice Smooth bitch in whelp to "Kenmuir Serenader", he by "Int. Ch. Dunsrex", is a recent purchase.

A four-page letter that I thoroughly enjoyed reading has been received from a correspondent residing in Western Alberta, almost in the foothills of the Rockies. Besides sending photos and telling me all about the many dogs in his kennel, he mentions that rabbits are very numerous in his locality and that he intends to purchase a Whippet just for his own amusement. I wonder if these Whippet fanciers ever heard of the Lancashire chap who attended the races one Saturday afternoon where his little bitch was unusually successful. Returning home, proudly carrying the dog under his arm, he entered his house to find his wife peacefully reclining on the chesterfield, and, without so much as a word by way of greeting, he said: "Get oop Missus and let 't dog lay down".

And now a letter from Mr. J. Smally, Shaunavon, Sask., who has around thirty English Springers in his kennels, and who writes in part as follows. Dear Sir: Was interested in your remarks re size of English Springers, but was wondering if the Springer had got to the height of perfection that size was the only fault. Am afraid we have lots to worry about without worrying about size. Why not correct light eyes, weak muzzles, thick skulls, straight hindquarters, high carried tails, chippendale fronts and splay feet? There are plenty of dogs appearing in the show ring with the above faults, to say nothing about poor front action. Mr. Smally concludes his letter by saying that he considers a critic at our dog shows is long over due.

Before commenting on the above, I wish to thank Mr. Smally for his interest in writing me. Letters such as this will assist me to make our page more interesting.

While the writer does not wish to give the impression that he is an authority on this variety, I will endeavour to express my opinions regarding the faults outlined in this letter, basing these opinions on what my own experience in breeding this variety has taught me.

Light eyes, the first fault mentioned, is a serious defect and one of the most discouraging that the beginner especially has to contend with. I was reading quite recently where one breeder was advocating the breeding together of the heavily marked black and whites and the dark colored roans as a remedy for light eyes. With all due respect to any other breeder's opinions, my own experience has taught me that the liver and white specimens, with good hazel colored eyes, are far more likely to reproduce offspring with correct eye color than are the darker colored specimens possessing the same colored eye. It is quite natural for the liver and white specimens to have eyes of a lighter shade than those of the darker colored dogs, and that is why I contend that a good hazel-colored-eye on a liver and white is a real eye as far as color is concerned. Weak muzzles, thick skulls, straight hindquarters and poorly placed tails are faults that only our skill as breeders can overcome. And the only way we can hope to avoid such defects is to quit breeding them. Crooked fronts and splay feet are usually the result of wrong feeding, and the lack of judicious exercise during the growing period. Many of us are inclined to get our puppies too fat. To grow the frame first and put the meat on afterwards should be our aim.

The foregoing are my own opinions and I give them here for what they are worth. But I still think that type, which makes the breed, and correct size, should be the main objectives to keep in mind when planning our matings for 1936.

Another good Smooth Fox Terrier has arrived in this province. Have just received the information that Mr. Walter Pym of the Bron Wyn Kennels, Regina, has purchased "Ch. Stall Superb"—whose sire is the noted English Champion, "Chosen Don of Notts",—from Mr. A. Pichard, Winnipeg.

Saskatoon dogs did exceptionally well at the recent Calgary Show, "Starland Jock", bred and owned by Mr. Frank Jackson, went Best Bulldog, while the same owner's "Lady Diana of Marmadot" won best female. Mr. J. J. Howes' Chesapeake, "Gunthorpe Flash", went Winners Dog and Best of Breed. In Labradors, Mr. C. T. Oldcroft's "Auchen Cairn Queen" was first Open and Winners Bitches. English Setters saw Mrs. Randall's "Girlie of Arthurlie" securing Reserve Winners, while a similar award went to Mr. O. G. Williams' Springer "Aphrodite of Lynn". "Punnichy King 2nd", owned by Mr. Robert Hogg, topped the Airedale entry; this win I believe means another Championship Certificate for the Punnichy Kennels. "Congratulations, Bob".

Dr. Margaret D. French, one of the most consistent supporters of Western shows, won first in Open and Winners Bitches, with her "Springlake Beauty", while "Springlake Peter 2nd" was placed second in Open Dogs.

With President M. D. French, at the helm, members of the Saskatoon Kennel Club are already making arrangements for a Spring Show to be held on Good Friday and Saturday, April 10 and 11. And everything points to a banner year in 1936 for this club.

Renewed interest in dogs on the part of the general public has been very noticeable during the past year. Several breeders have been heard to remark that visitors to their kennels showed a decided increase during 1935 over the previous year.

If only breeders will co-operate with the show-giving clubs and enter as many dogs at as many shows as possible, I feel sure that the coming year will show a great improvement over 1935 as far as dog shows in this province are concerned. After all, it is the breeder that reaps the benefit of our shows, and if we wish to see these shows regain the popularity that they once enjoyed, it is up to us to back the show-giving clubs to the limit.

One fancier has already written to say he intends sending three of his Labradors to the Saskatoon show, while another breeder has promised to send four of his Springers, and, in addition, has offered to bet me a bottle of Scotch that he will name one of them to trim anything I've got. That's the spirit!

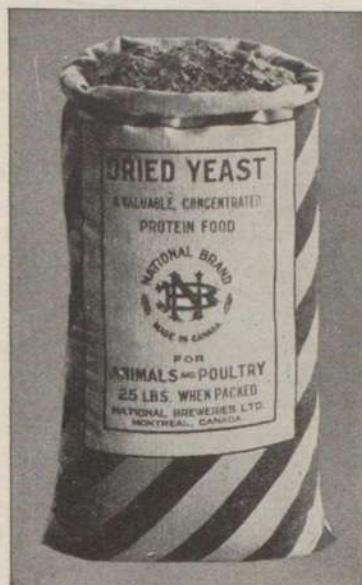

It was suggested at one of our gatherings last summer that members of the different kennel clubs in Alberta and Saskatchewan get together and make arrangements to support each others shows by an exchange of entries. For instance, if the Edmonton Club would send, say twenty dogs to the Saskatoon show, the latter club would guarantee to send a like number to the Edmonton show. Similar arrangements to be made with such other clubs as Regina, Moose Jaw, Medicine Hat, Lethbridge, Swift Current and Calgary. If this suggestion could be discussed at club meetings in the near future, something worth while might be the result.

On page twelve of the 1932 English Dog World Christmas Annual, appears a photograph of the late Mr. "Tommy" Dobson, who, as Master of the Eskdale and Ennerdale Foxhounds for the record period of fifty-three seasons, became almost as celebrated as the noted John Peel. The nature of the Cumberland country over which these hounds are hunted is such that it is almost impossible to follow the pack in any way except on foot.

Just a few days ago I was talking to a friend who knew the late Mr. Dobson quite well. In fact he had actually accompanied him on many a fox hunt. He told many interesting incidents of the chase in which these famous Hounds and Terriers participated, one of which I thought was worth re-telling here.

For GOOD COAT and GOOD PHYSICAL CONDITION

National Breweries Yeast has been proved by comparative tests in animal feeding, conducted at a noted scientific research station, to be a conditioner of outstanding value—10 times richer than other yeasts in the essential B Vitamins (75 units to each teaspoonful).

It is all pure brewers' yeast, with the moisture removed at a low temperature, so that Vitamin and Mineral contents remain unharmed, but the activity of the yeast cells is killed to prevent undesirable bloating after eating. Never ferments in the stomach.

Promotes rapid development in young animals, and good physical condition at all ages; improves both fur and skin conditions.

ranged at one of the neighboring castles. Arriving at the appointed meeting place, a young gentleman, dressed all ready for the hunt, came out of the castle and remarked that he was sure he had seen a fox early that very morning down by the woods, at the same time suggesting that the "throw off" be made in that direction. "Tommy", always willing to oblige, "threw off" in the direction indicated. The Hounds commenced to "give tongue" almost immediately. "There you are," shouted the young gent, "I was sure it was a fox I saw, they have picked up his scent already". But "Tommy", who knew the meaning of every note in the cry of his hounds, retorted: "Ach rabbits". "Oh, no, it must be the fox", continued the young man. Hurrying along they soon arrived at the spot where the hounds had been when they had first given tongue, the young man still persisting that it was the fox they had winded. This was too much for "Tommy", who immediately went down on his hands and knees, crawled around on all fours, sniffed among the fallen leaves, then, rising to his feet, he pointed to the earth, looked the young gent straight in the eye and said in a tone of voice that could not be misunderstood: "Its rabbits, I tell tha, and if tha don't believe me, smell it tha sen".

MR. J. NELSON McKIM DIES

From "Marketing" for November 30th we learn that our Westmount, P.Q., member, Mr. J. Nelson McKim, an ex-President of the A. McKim & Company, Advertising Agency, Montreal, had passed away at the age of seventy-four years. Since his retirement from business some twelve years ago the late Mr. McKim found a lot of pleasure in some rather choice Cocker Spaniels, Scottish, Cairn, and West Highland White Terriers. We can recall his enthusiasm at the National Kennel Club Show of 1934, when his black and white Cocker Spaniel, "Dan Patch of Roslyn" ("Wayridge Miracle Lad" ex "Brampton Nora") won his first four championship points, but for health reasons we fear that the enthusiasm was but short lived. We do feel, however, that Mr. McKim would have been a very decided asset to Canadian dogdom had he been spared a trifle longer. A modest, unassuming gentleman, he had an eye for a good dog that would have done credit to a more pretentious fancier. Our sympathy goes out to Mr. McKim's family and to the firm bearing his late brother's name. Mr. J. Nelson McKim joined the Canadian Kennel Club on January 4th, 1932.

Here and There in British Columbia

With Provincial Correspondent,
T. P. MURRAY.

NOVEMBER 16th—Here we are at the Junior League Kennel Club Show—a cold and raw November day but nevertheless a very fine turn-out to again put the Show over the top. From any fancier's viewpoint the highlight of the Show was undoubtedly the Terrier judging in the afternoon, owing to the recent Terrier importations. Another added attraction at this event was the appearance for the first time in Western Canada, I believe, of the Afgan Hound Breed, there being three benched and exhibited by Mr. S. A. Peters of Port Blakely, Wash., U.S.A. I am sure it was a very interesting time for Mr. Peters answering all the questions asked about this breed, concerning their origin, history, habits, etc.

To all our British Columbia fanciers and more particularly to all Clubs, may I make this suggestion for your consideration. Next year, 1936, is Golden Jubilee Year for the City of Vancouver and your correspondent has been approached with the suggestion that the occasion would furnish a wonderful opportunity to put on an All-Breed Show—preferably a Charity Show for some worthy cause,—and there are many. All assistance and publicity would be given to an event such as this, and particularly in such a year as Jubilee Year. So to all Club Officials I leave the suggestion for their serious consideration, and it may be that the parent body (Canadian Kennel Club) would be willing to co-operate in this Jubilee event.

A few notes from the Of Wynn Kennels informs me of some particularly interesting breeding operations now undertaken by these Kennels. I understand that the Sealyham Terrier, "Black Eyed Susan of Wynn", has been mated to the noted producer, "Ch. Westburn Wog", owned by Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Cameron of the Erriacht Kennels in California. There will be some interesting news from the Of Wynn Kennels in the near future.

A visit today to the Tynedale Kennels was worth-while for there I saw a young Wire Fox Terrier male, 7 months old, sired by "Briarbank Brickbat" out of "Tynedale Gardenia"—he is a very promising youngster in every respect, and the shortest coupled youngster I have seen for a long time—it will be very interesting to see how he develops. I believe he is to be named "Tynedale Town Talk". Another Wire Fox Terrier of much promise is a young female, now 10 months old—"Tynedale Bridget" is her name and she will be asking for her place in the sun at the Spring Shows. In Scottish Terriers I saw "Glendall Jeanette" with a litter now 4 weeks old, sired by "Glendall Rob-Roy", whose sire is "Haldon Baronet"—his dam being "Haldon Mary Anne". "Rob-Roy" is a very sound dog and moves well—he should make his presence felt around here when ready. I was very much interested to see the Irish Setter, "Link Top o' the Morn"—looking very fit and well—this young dog has improved considerably since I last saw him and he will have no trouble in making the title of Champion in my opinion.

Mr. Horace Wilkinson informs me that the Inglewood Kennels are keenly interested in a recent litter of Smooth Fox Terriers, one or two of them are already showing much promise. There are quite a few noted Smooths in these Kennels amongst whom are "Ch. Inglewood Don", "Ch. Oxford Reckoner", "Ch. Inglewood Duches", etc., and also that the following female has been sold to Dr. Frank Porter Miller, of Los Angeles, California—"Inglewood Dainty". I understand that Dr. Miller is very pleased with his recent purchase.

My next news item comes from the well-known "Of Dene" Kennels of Cocker Spaniels—they inform me that they have mated their good black bitch "Farina of Dene", to "Holdfast Reserve", the outstanding stud of Holdfast Kennels—also that the female "Windridge Antonia" has been mated to "Old Ironsides of Dene". A previous mating of these two Cockers produced "Ch. Skyrocket of Dene" and good results are anticipated once again. Recent sales at these Kennels are as follows: A parti-color female to Mr. C. F. Hatch, of Vallejo, California; a black puppy to Mrs. D. G. Balsillie, of Kelowna, B.C., who also owns "Challenge of Dene"; "Little Chocolate Soldier" sold to Mr. J. D. Galloway, of Vancouver; "Little Chocolate Lady" to Miss Nanette Rowlands, of Mercer Island, Lake Washington.

British Columbia was very well represented and also very much in the spotlight at the Puget Sound Kennel Club Show held at the Auditorium in Seattle on November 23rd and 24th. Amongst the fortunate exhibitors from Vancouver were the following: Mrs. S. C. Sweeny of Haileybury Kennels, Winners Bitch and Best of Breed in Cairn Terriers; the Bonshaw Kennels, Winners Dogs, Cairn Terriers; Mrs. M. Pickford, Holdfast Kennels, Winners Dogs, Cocker Spaniel (solid color); Mrs. O. Balshaw, Winners female (parti-color); Mr. C. M. Butler of Huntswell Kennels, Winners Dog, Springer Spaniels;

Mrs. E. Bradley, Pomeranians, Winners, Best of Breed and Best in Toy Group; Mr. Stanley Dorell, Winners Dogs and Best of Breed, Scottish Terriers; Mr. W. R. Willgress, English Setter, was Winners Dog, Best of Breed, best Sporting Group, and finally awarded Best of All Breeds in the final Group. For Best in Show were three American entries and three Canadian entries, with Canada finally being awarded the coveted trophy. I almost forgot to mention Mr. W. H. Pym, who was awarded Winners Dog, Winners Bitch, Best of Winners, Best of Breed, and finally winning Best of the Sporting Hound Group with his Beagle entry.

The Sporting event of the year is over. I refer to the annual yearly show of the B.C. Gun Dog Club. And what a show! Strictly confined to Sporting breeds it once again went over the top and proves conclusively to the Field Trial enthusiast that the dual type Sporting Dog is what is required now. A very pleasing event at this show was the presentation by the B.C. Gun Dog Club to the old timer, Mr. Syd Conway, of a lovely electric waffle iron, suitably engraved, for his splendid services to the club when judging their first Pointer and Setter Trials held September 19, 1935. President Mr. Geo. Jackson in a few words expressed the thanks of the club to Mr. Conway, who, in turn, stated that he was ready at all times to be, if possible, at the service of any or all sportsmen. Well, anyway, I hope the waffles turn out okay.

An interesting letter received from the Cumloden Kennels in Duncan, Vancouver Island, informs me of the arrival of two litters of Cairn Terriers, one being out of "Lady Susan", sired by "Tom Thumb", and the other dam is "Silver Belle". All are doing well and may we hope eventually they will reach tops in Cairns. Two are already sold, one to go to San Francisco and one to Calgary, Alberta. "Haileybury Jennifer" has been mated to "Ch. Silver Stirrup" and due on December 19th. Well, who knows what we may meet as far as competition goes in future shows. May they be better at each succeeding show, which reminds me of a promising young bitch at the Cumloden's out of "Golden Jean" by "Tom Thumbs". She needs but one more point to annex the coveted title of champion.

At the recent Junior League Show I was given the full report of Victoria and District Gun Dog Club trials held on the Matson Farms in North Saanich, Vancouver Island, where it seems the Gordon Setters had a field day. The All-Age Stake was won by our mutual friend Mr. Norman Lord with "Cowichan Boy", who was in great form and condition.

Mr. E. Clayard's "Cowichan Flash" placed second in both the junior and All-Age Stake. Mr. Norman H. Lord's "Cowichan Mac", handled by A. Jordon, placed third in both events—a wonderful testimony to the bird-finding ability of the Gordon Setter. The Junior Stake was judged by Mr. Tom Dick, a well-known local fancier. In this event the two Gordons, "Cowichan Flash" and "Cowichan Mac", worked very well and located a covey of pheasants in a patch of dense cover, the judge being particularly impressed with the work of "Cowichan Flash".

H. Humber's "Rex", paired with "Gipsy D", ran a good searching heat, "Gipsy" making a spectacular point at the end of the heat. Norman Lord's red Setter, "Shaun of Sunnyside", ran as a bye and located several pheasants. "Cowichan Flash" was awarded first, "Gipsy D" second and "Cowichan Mac", third.

In the All-Age Stake many of the dogs worked very well indeed but were handicapped by the absence of birds, and among these may be mentioned Mr. Jack Rithet's veteran Pointer "Sport". Mr. J. R. Clark's "Geoffrey D" and "Thorp Cloud's Ann", owned by Mr. Frank Topp Turner and handled by Mr. B. Turner.

The weather was splendid and a wonderful outing was enjoyed by all attending the Trials. Birds were fairly plentiful, but owing to dry weather were inclined to stay with the dense cover, and the result being that many of the dogs had no opportunity of handling birds.

Mr. L. O. Hillier of Vancouver officiated as judge and his awards were well received. In a few well-chosen words he expressed great satisfaction in regard to the all round qualities of the dogs competing at the trials. At the close of the events a hearty vote of appreciation was tendered to the two judges, Messrs. Hillier and Dick, for their services. This brought to a close another fine example of Sporting Dog life in British Columbia. I see the report of the "Daily Colonist" of Victoria that Judge Hillier stated that the bird-finding qualities of the Island dogs were superior to those appearing in trials on the Mainland—so now the battle is on!

At the Abarard Kennels today I saw what I consider to be the best Sealyham puppy I have seen in this province so far. May I call her "Abarard Sensation", age six months, sire "Ch. Felcourt Startler", dam "Abarard Tinker Belle". No more need be said. Just watch for her at the Spring shows. If she is put down in shape she will be on a non-stop run. Maybe I'll get the horse laugh—well, maybe! Let's just wait and see!

Another nice newsy letter from Vancouver Island is from Mr. E. W. Cole, Sunnyside, Cowichan, and from the tone of his letter I imagine that he is an old-timer in the sporting dog breeding. He informs me that he has been raising and exhibiting Irish Setters for the past 25 years and I have no doubt that in this space of time he has raised some good ones. I am informed that Mr. Cole sold a very good one to His Majesty the King of Siam when he was visiting the Island some years ago. Mr. Cole also informs me that he has at present a very nice litter of Irish Setters, sired by "Rover of Calumet", who is by the well-known "Harksbourne Hector" out of "Norna of Elmford". The dam of the litter is "Sweet Ruby of Avoca", a very fine specimen, who, I am informed, cannot be shown on account of having a foot broken as a youngster. However, as a gun dog I understand that she is all anyone could ask for. These kennels also house a nice litter of Labrador Retrievers, sired by the splendid specimen recently imported by the well-known sportsman and owner of the A. C. T. Stock Farm, Major Austin Taylor. I refer to the Labrador "Shot of Upper Lodge", whose breeder, Countess Howe, needs no introduction to sportsmen in any part of the Empire. The dam of these Labrador puppies is "Sunnyside Flirt", also bred by Mr. Cole, to whom I express my thanks for his newsy letter.

Once again to all dog lovers and fanciers it is my pleasure to extend to you the sincere thanks of the community for your generosity in coming to the assistance of the needy through the Daily Province Fund and at this time I would like to call your attention to the wonderful work accomplished by the ladies, Mrs. O. Balshaw, Mrs. G. O. Olsen, through whose efforts medals, etc., were presented to the dogs responsible for saving little

Bobby Dean's life and to the following ladies who so ably assisted in making the day so much of a success, Mrs. S. C. Sweeny, Mrs. R. W. Hatley, Mrs. T. P. Murray and Miss Ena Dodds.

Quite recently the country was startled to read that young Bobbie Dean, age 5, was believed to have either been drowned or kidnapped; however, he was missing for exactly 47 hours—with him when last seen were his two dogs, "Bruno" and "Peggy", and no trace could be found of either the boy or the dogs and so search parties were organized by the local and provincial police, also by farmers and local residents, but no trace could be found of Bobbie or his dogs. Another day dawned after a night of anxiety and the search went on with little hope being entertained of finding the little fellow alive. However, someone mentioned the name of a local fancier and trainer of Shepherd dogs and he was asked to try his Shepherd dog "Taache"—so our mutual friend, Mr. Louis Abfalter, decided, "Why, this is just what I have been waiting for, namely, a chance to show the intelligence of the Shepherd dog—and so the dog "Taache" was hurried to the place at which Bobbie and his two dogs were last seen. He immediately picked up the trail and strained on the lead until the going got too heavy to hang on to him, over deadfalls of timber and through the thick underbrush for about a half mile, then suddenly an angry growl warned the followers that something was about to happen—"Taache" went on and around an old deadfall was found the little fellow, Bobbie Dean, — exhausted — with "Bruno" and "Peggy", who refused to leave him—a warning shot notified the other searchers that he had been found and he was rushed to the Royal Columbia Hospital in New Westminster for care and attention, where he is now rapidly recovering. And here I wish to pay tribute to that splendid sportswoman, Mrs. G. O. Olsen, of the Edmonds Canine Hospital, through whose efforts these faithful dogs were suitably rewarded. On Saturday night at the Santa Claus Show each dog was presented with a lovely collar and a silver medal, which was engraved, stating what the medal was awarded for and so to Mr. Louis Abfalter, Dog Trainer and Humanitarian, we say, "Orchids to you" and "to your dog "Taache"."

Now, then, fellow fanciers, time will not permit of more news this month and my sincere wish to you all is "Good Health and the Greatest Success attend all your efforts in the New Year of 1936".

With my sincere thanks for your co-operation during my period as your correspondent.

FIELD TRIAL RULES

These rules have been prepared by Mr. Wm. H. Pym, Vancouver, B.C., for the purpose of governing Field Trials for Pointers and Setters, Retrievers and Irish Water Spaniels, and Spaniels of whatever kind.

GENERAL RULES

1. (a) Every dog entered under these rules must be either registered or listed with the Canadian Kennel Club prior to competing in any Trial. Penalty for non-compliance shall be cancellation of wins. The Secretary of the Club holding the Trial shall collect listing fees of twenty-five cents (25c) from owners of every dog entered in the Trial, unless the dog is entered in the Canadian Kennel Club Stud Book, and the registered number given on the entry form. All such fees must be forwarded to the Secretary of the Canadian Kennel Club within ten days (mailing date) from the closing of the Trial. Penalty for non-compliance shall be a fine of five dollars.

(b) The cost of listing a dog is twenty-five cents (25c) for each Trial. A dog eligible for registration in the Canadian Kennel Club Stud Book may only be listed for three Trials, after which the dog (if eligible) must be registered in the Canadian Kennel Club Stud Book. The fee for registering a dog, which is good for life, is one dollar to members of the Canadian Kennel Club, and two dollars to non-members. The fee for transfer of ownership is twenty-five cents (25c) to members of the Club, and seventy-five cents (75c) to non-members.

(c) All applications for registration and transfer of ownership must be made on the official forms provided for that purpose and sent direct to the Accountant, Canadian National Live Stock Records, Department of Agriculture, Ottawa, Ontario, together with the necessary fee or fees.

Ownership

2. Every dog must be the bona-fide property of the person making such entry on day of closing of entries, and must not be less than six months old. The entry must clearly identify the dog by name. If the dog is already registered in the Canadian Kennel Club Stud Book, number of the dog must be given with the entry.

Change of Name of Dog

3. If the name of a dog which has won a prize at any Trial recognized by the Canadian Kennel Club has been changed, the old name must be given on the entry form and published in the schedule of the first Trial recognized by the Canadian Kennel Club at which the dog is entered after the change of name.

Breeder

4. The breeder of a dog is the person owning or leasing the dam at the time of her being bred.

Refusal of Entries

5. The authorities of any Trial held under these rules may decline to accept entries for just cause, and no one shall have any claim or recourse against the organization holding the Trial or any official connected therewith, but said authorities must file their reasons for doing so with the Canadian Kennel Club. Should the members of the Committee present, after consultation with the judges, consider a dog is unfit to compete by reason of sexual causes, or of any contagious disease, or from an attack of hysteria occurring on the grounds, or any other cause that interferes with the safety or chance of winning of his opponents, such dog must be removed immediately from the ground and Trials.

Schedule

6. A Club holding a Trial must issue a schedule. The schedule must contain the date and place of the Trial. The latest date for applying for nomination if such is required. The latest date for receiving entries. The amounts of nominations and/or entry fees and prize money. The conditions and time for the draw. A definition of any stake not defined in these rules. The name of the judge or judges. The order in which the stake or stakes will be run.

Definitions

7. The word "dog" wherever used in these rules includes both sexes. The word "Trial" or "Trials" wherever used in these rules shall refer to Field Trials.

A puppy is a dog whelped not earlier than the first of January preceding the date of the Trials, but in any stake run in January (other than an all-age stake) a dog which was a puppy in the previous month shall be deemed to be a puppy.

A puppy competing in an all-age stake runs as an all-age dog.

An Amateur stake is a stake for dogs owned, trained, and handled by amateurs.

A novice stake shall be confined to dogs which have not won a first prize other than in a puppy or brace stake prior to the closing of entries.

A professional stake is a stake for dogs owned, trained, or handled by professionals.

An all-age stake is a stake open to all entrants of all ages of pure-bred dogs.

A Brace stake is a stake for two dogs of the same breed or variety entered as a brace by the same owner.

A Team stake is a stake for three or more dogs of the same breed or variety entered as a team by the same owner.

A castrated dog or a spayed female is eligible to compete at Field Trials. Attention is particularly called to the fact that so mutilated dogs are NOT eligible to compete at dog shows held under Canadian Kennel Club Rules.

Protest

8. A protest may be made by any exhibitor or member of a Club holding Field Trials under the sanction of the Canadian Kennel Club, but must be in writing and lodged with the Superintendent or Secretary of the Trial within seven days of the last day of the Trial. Every such protest shall be accompanied by a deposit of $5.00 which shall be returned to the protesting party if the protest is sustained. An appeal from the decision of the Trial-giving Club may be made to the Directors of the Canadian Kennel Club within one month of the close of the Trial, in which event the Club holding the Trial shall be notified. Every such appeal shall be accompanied by a deposit of $10.00, which shall be returned to the appealing party if the appeal is sustained. If the appeal is not sustained, the Directors of the Canadian Kennel Club shall have the power to award the whole or any part of such fee to the party defending the appeal as compensation for any legitimate expense to which he may have been put by reason of the appeal.

Penalties

9. No dog entered for competition and once under the judge at the Trial cannot be withdrawn from competition without the consent of the Club. Any one taking part in a Trial openly impugning the decision of the judge or judges shall render himself liable to a penalty.

A dog which is not present when required by a judge may be disqualified by the judge or Club, or dealt with in any manner which the judge or Club may decide.

The judge shall have full power to penalize any competing handler for any action unbecoming in a shooting field, such as continual whistling or talking to his dog to the detriment of his opponent's dog. The judge shall also penalize any dog that insists upon chasing, fighting, or otherwise interferes with his brace mate.

Order of Running

10. The draw shall take place at such time and under such conditions as are stated in the schedule, and at the said draw each dog must be given a number which accords with its place in the draw, and every dog must be tried in a consecutive numerical order. No dog shall be called up for trial a second time until every dog in the stake has been tried once.

Byes

11. A natural bye shall be given to the lowest available dog in each round. No dog shall have a second such bye in the stake, unless it is unavoidable. The judge or judges shall decide whether a bye shall be run or not, and, if it be run, with what dog the competitor shall run it off.

Contingencies

12. Stakes not defined in these rules may be added to the schedule of events by the Club holding the Trial.

Certificates of merit may be given by Field Trial Clubs, but they must be distinctive and must not be confused with the official Canadian Kennel Club Championship Certificate.

The Club giving the Trial may add additional Club rules for the purpose of facilitating proper management of the Trial.

Any event not provided for in these rules shall be decided by the members of the Field Trial Committee of the Club holding the Trial, assisted by the judges, and their decision shall be final. Provided, however, that such additional stakes, Club Rules, or Club Committee decisions shall not be inconsistent with these rules.

Judges

13. Judges shall be appointed by the Field Trial Club holding the Trial, but such judge must be approved by the Directors of the Canadian Kennel Club.

If an advertised judge shall be prevented from fulfilling his engagement, for either the whole or part of the meetings, the Committee shall appoint any other person to judge, or shall make any other arrangements that to them seem desirable.

Judges are instructed to withhold any prize or award if dogs competing do not show sufficient merit.

No Retriever or Spaniel should be discarded for hard mouth unless all the judges have examined the injured game.

Weather Conditions

14. If the Club holding the Trial consider the weather unfit for holding the Trial, the meeting may be postponed from day to day until the end of the week, when the stakes that are not decided may be abandoned and the entry fees returned; or a fresh draw may be made and a fresh date fixed for the abandoned stakes.

Fees

15. The amount of Canadian Kennel Club license fees shall be set from time to time by the Directors of the Canadian Kennel Club.

Application For Dates

16. Application for dates must be made to the Canadian Kennel Club thirty or more days prior to the holding of the Trials, and such application must be accompanied by the necessary fees.

Change of Championship Rating

17. The Directors of the Canadian Kennel Club may alter the Championship Rating for Field Trials at their discretion.

Championship Certificates

18. Dogs completing their Field Trial Championship under these rules and duly recorded as such, shall be granted a Championship Certificate. A dog becomes a Champion only when it is officially recorded by the Canadian Kennel Club.

Sub-Amendment "A".POINTERS AND SETTERS

Clubs formed for the purpose of improving pure-bred Pointers and Setters of whatever kind, may hold Field Trials, classes, or stakes, in which one of the above breeds only may compete, or in which more than one breed may compete together.

Standard of Performance For Pointers or Setters

1. The idea of a Field Trial is to demonstrate the performance of a perfectly trained Pointer or Setter in the Field. The performance of a Pointer or Setter at a Field Trial should not differ from that in an ordinary day's shooting.

2. The function of a Field Trial Pointer or Setter is to be at all times under the control of his handler. Walk at heel or on a leash until bidden to seek game. When so ordered he should seek game in a crisp, quiet manner, thoroughly quartering the designated ground within a reasonable distance and in line of quest without unnecessarily covering the ground twice. When game is found dogs should hold staunchly to point until the game is flushed, and the dog ordered on.

3. If the dog following the line of a bird is getting too far out he should be called off the line and later he should be cast back on it. A dog that causes his handler to run after him, while line running, is out of control. Handlers may control their dogs by hand, voice or whistle, but only in the manner that would be used in the hunting field.

4. It is the duty of his handler to facilitate the working of his dog so that he will perform and show to the best possible advantage, but only within the meaning of good sportsmanship.

5. A dog should work to his handler at all times. The dog which marks the fall of a bird, uses the wind, follows a strong runner which has been wounded, and will take direction from his handler is of great value.

6. The dogs must be worked in pairs, and their handlers must walk within a reasonable distance of one another as though shooting together. After a caution the judge or judges may have the power to disqualify the dog whose handler persists in neglecting this rule.

7. When the judge gives a line to a handler and a dog to follow, this must be followed and the dog not allowed to interfere with the other contestant running parallel to him.

8. Competing dogs must be shot over before they can gain a prize or certificate of merit, and satisfy the judge that it is not gun-shy.

9. Heats in all-age stakes must not be less than thirty minutes' duration.

Canadian Kennel Club Championship Requirements

To acquire a Field Trial Championship a Pointer or Setter must win two all-age stakes under at least two different judges with at least ten starters in each stake.

Sub-Amendment "B".RETRIEVERS AND IRISH WATER SPANIELS

Clubs formed for the purpose of improving registered pure-bred Retrievers or Irish Water Spaniels, may hold Field Trials, classes, or stakes, in which one of the above breeds only may compete, or in which more than one breed may compete together.

Standard of Performance For Retrievers and Irish Water Spaniels

1. The idea of a Retriever or Irish Water Spaniel Field Trial is to demonstrate the performance of a perfectly trained Retriever or Irish Water Spaniel in the field.

2. The performance of a Retriever or Irish Water Spaniel at a Field Trial should not differ from that in an ordinary day's shooting.

3. The principal points to be considered by the judges are: Sagacity, steadiness, nose, dash, perseverance, obedience, and tenderness in retrieving. The last should be done quickly and right up to hand.

4. Where circumstances permit all dogs should be tried in water. Where there is no chance of a satisfactory water test, an artificial one will be favored. Where no water test is provided this fact shall be stated on the award cards.

5. When working their dogs, handlers may at their option carry an unloaded gun, but nothing else.

6. The game will be shot by guns appointed for the purpose.

7. When a separate water test is provided, apart from the Trials on the land, dogs will be tried in the order in which their names appear on the card. Those not called for will, if possible, be kept out of sight of those being tried. It will be optional for a handler to ask for a shot to be fired as an inducement to his dog to enter the water.

8. A dog which will not enter the water and swim when directed by his handler so to do, must not be placed in the prize list, nor receive a certificate of merit, provided that every dog that has carried an award on land has been tried in water. Where no water test is provided the same shall be stated on the award card.

In all-age stakes the guns, other than the two with the judges under whom the dog is working, will be expected to shoot any game that rises.

Canadian Kennel Club Championship Requirements

To acquire a Field Trial Championship a Retriever or Irish Water Spaniel must win two all-age stakes under at least two different judges with at least six starters in each stake. No dog shall be allowed to run in any licensed Canadian Kennel Club Retriever or Irish Water Spaniel Trial unless said dog is registered with the Canadian Kennel Club prior to the actual running of such Trial.

Sub-Amendment "C".SPANIELS (other than Irish Water Spaniels)

Clubs formed for the purpose of improving pure-bred Spaniels, may hold Field Trials, classes or stakes, in which one of the several breeds of Spaniels only (except Irish Water Spaniels) may compete, or in which more than one breed of Spaniel (except Irish Water Spaniels) may compete together.

1. The idea of a Spaniel Field Trial is to demonstrate the performance of a perfectly trained Spaniel in the field. The performance of a Spaniel in Field Trials should not differ from that in an ordinary day's shooting.

2. The principal points to be considered by the judges are: The willingness of the Spaniel to walk at heel until bidden to seek game. When so ordered he should seek game in a brisk, quiet manner, thoroughly quartering

the designated cover within gunshot and in the line of quest without unnecessarily covering the ground twice.

3. When game is flushed, dogs should drop to flush or command and, if game is shot, should retrieve at command only, but not until the judge has instructed the handler. Dogs should retrieve quickly and briskly when ordered to do so, and deliver tenderly to hand.
They should then drop until given further orders. Spaniels which bark and give tongue while questing are objectionable and should be severely penalized.

4. If a dog following the line of a bird or rabbit is getting too far out he should be called off the line and later he should again be cast back on it. A dog which causes his handler and gun to run after him, while line running, is out of control. Handlers may control their dogs by hand, voice or whistle, but only in the quiet manner that would be used in the field.

5. A dog should work to his handler and gun at all times. The dog which marks the fall of a bird, uses the wind, follows a strong runner which has been wounded, and will take directions from his handler is of great value.

6. When a judge gives a line to a handler and dog to follow, this must be followed and the dog not allowed to interfere with the other contestant running parallel to him.

7. The judges must judge their dogs for game finding ability, steadiness, and retrieving.

To acquire a Field Trial Championship a Spaniel (Irish Water Spaniels excepted) must win two all-age stakes under at least two different judges with at least six starters in each stake.

SHEPHERD DOG CLUB DINNER

The members of the German Shepherd Dog Club of Canada came together at the Royal York Hotel, Toronto, on Monday evening, November 25th, to entertain Mrs. M. Hartley
Dodge, of the Giralda Farms, Madison, N.J., at dinner. The Club had considered the National Kennel Club Show to be their annual specialty fixture, and had recognized Mrs. Dodge to be their specialty judge. The arrangement had materialized perfectly, and a splendid entry had been splendidly and satisfactorily judged, and the members came to the Royal York ready to celebrate in true German Shepherd dog club style. With Mrs. Dodge came a party which included Mr. M. Hartley Dodge, Dr. Bruette, and Mr. Raymond

L. Patterson, an Honorary President of the Club.

President Mr. Z. J. Joyce was sup-
inent sponsors of the Shepherd breed.
We noticed amongst others Mrs.
Dodge (guest of honor), Mr. Dodge, Col. J. N. MacRae (President, Canadian Kennel Club), and Mrs. MacRae,
Mr. and Mrs. Alex. L. Gooderham,
Mr. and Mrs. Cameron Chisholm, etc.

Popular W. C. Radford had charge of the "noise" and as usual he made the most of his job, literally and profitably.

President Joyce was in splendid form himself, and soon had everybody happily joined together telling the many interesting bits of breed history which had become the common property of those swearing allegiance to the Shepherd dog. Mrs. Dodge quite easily stole the honors of the evening as a speech maker, her long association with the breed, plus the many breed celebrities which had been kennelled at Giralda Farms from time to time, gave her a wealth of material for her talk, every word of which was carefully listened to by fanciers interested in everything this Club stood for.

Dr. Bruette gave a synopsis of a subject which was close to his heart, but we refrain from mentioning further here at this time, but we have asked Dr. Bruette to let us have the story for Kennel and Bench readers, and we hope to present it at an early date.

OUR FRONTISPIECE

Happy New Year to "Champion Coolyn Quicksilver", one of the famous litter which produced the three other champions, "Coolyn Silverspot", "Coolyn Silversuit" and "Coolyn Silverheels". The greatest of these is "Coolyn Quicksilver", however, and we give her the place of honor on account of her marvellous wins at the Bull Terrier Specialty, Westminster, Newark and Boston. Any dog of any breed, capable of such a winning streak at the larger shows earns its own right to the higher places in the hall of fame in any country, but let us tell the story as it should be told.

Mr. and Mrs. Z. Platt Bennett of the Coolyn Kennels, Dallas, Penna., have been striving for years to breed perfection of type, and we all know what a hard row that is for anyone to hoe, and how very discouraging the experiments can be—sometimes.

During 1932 the Coolyn Kennel proprietors were visiting England, and when they returned to America they brought with them "Brendon Boomerang", and his daughter, "Brendon Bluestocking", and followers of the "White 'uns" know that both dogs made the Championship grade almost as soon as the shows offered the opportunities required. Then "Cylva Becky Sharpe" was imported to the United States, and she came over in whelp to "Ch. Howsden's Bailfire". Mrs. Bennett went to Gloversville, N.Y., to get one of "Becky Sharpe's" puppies, for wasn't the comely "Becky Sharpe", a sister to "Brendon Boomerang?" and so "Cylva Becky Sharpe" and one of her sons by "Ch. Howsden's Bailfire" came to the Coolyn Kennels, and it is a matter of official record that "Ch. Cylva Becky Sharpe" completed her whirl at the shows in a blaze of glory, when she won for Best of Breed at Westminster last year at the age of four and one-half years.

Nineteen hundred and thirty-five has now been written into the records, and it shows that it was a banner year for the Coolyn Hill Kennels. The Coolyn Hill Bull Terriers competed at thirty-three shows during the year and garnered in on less than thirty Best of Breed honors and completed no less than six Championships. Condensing the foregoing somewhat, we find that "Ch. Coolyn Becky Sharpe" was out-crossed to "Ch. Howsden's Bailfire", that "Ch. Brendon Boomerang" was out-crossed to the famous "Ch. Rhoma", and that the progeny of both combinations when bred back to each other, the first litter produced the four champions already referred to. Luck? Well, of course, we all know that "Lady Luck" sometimes takes a hand in the breeding plans of dogs, but our "Lady Luck" in this review is none other than the sincere fanciers, Mr. and Mrs. Z. Platt Bennett, and the carefully planned mating of "Ch. Coolyn Bailfire" and "Ch. Brendon Bluestocking".

BONSHAW CAIRN TERRIERS

The illustration which appeared in the quarter page advertisement of the Bonshaw Kennels of Mr. J. A. H. These young wire-haired terriers have to face 1936 with no mother to guide them. They have been weaned, but they are not yet, and by no means, "on their own". They would eat almost anything in this world if you gave it to them—as long as it was small enough to swallow and tasted and smelt like food. Simply because they are not old enough to know better.

But their owner should be.

The Three R-M Foods for Pups.
These are the foods their owner should supply.

1. Ross-Miller Puppy Meal ground fine to be mixed with milk.
2. Ross-Miller Standard "Kibblo" is the greatest vitamin food in dogdom. It helps puppies develop their teeth.
3. Ross-Miller Standard "Midgets"—small biscuits such as pups can handle without waste. They have a high percentage of bone-building material.

R-M Foods are scientifically formulated to give dogs of all ages the food their nature demands.
