Grocers—Your Dog Line SILVER TIP "KRUSKIES" FOR DOGS

This is an excellent dog food for mixing with soup, milk, ground meats and gravy left overs, etc. It is exceptionally good for young dogs and puppies. Since dogs do not readily digest soft bread, potatoes and other starchy foods, it is necessary that they are fed foods that digest easily. Silver Tip "Kruskies" are made specially for this reason. "Kruskies" can be given as a change of diet moistened with broth or gravy or mixed with chopped vegetables or meat. Silver Tip "Kruskies" contain the best of ingredients such as bone, meat, flour, fish, wheat, yeast, salt and cod oil. The bone contains the required calcium, and is a valuable aid in the formation of strong, well set bones and frame. For toy breeds, small dogs, moisten "Kruskies" in warmed milk or meat broth. Let stand a few minutes to swell. We also manufacture a full line of Dog Biscuits, Bone Shape, Oval, Square. Also meals for dogs such as Biskomeat, Vimy-mix.

Meeting of the Board of Directors

of the Canadian Kennel Club, Incorporated

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Directors of the Canadian Kennel Club, Inc., was held in the Board Room of the Club's Offices, 25 Melinda Street, Toronto, on Thursday evening, December 17th, 1936, at 7.30 o'clock. The President, Colonel J. N. MacRae, was in the Chair. Directors present included Reg. P. Sparkes, B. W. Essery, K.C., F. W. Walkerdine, Capt. H. Dudley-Waters and Raymond Tyrwhitt.

The Secretary advised that Member Mr. Wm. White, Eburne, B.C., had been removed by death and that Second Vice-President W. H. Pym and Director J. A. H. Irving had represented the Canadian Kennel Club at the burial.

The Secretary also reported that Director James Eccles was continuing to improve in health, but was still unable to attend the Directors' meeting.

It was regularly moved, seconded and carried:—

"That, the Minutes of the November meeting be taken as read."

The Vice-President, Mr. Sparkes, presented a very comprehensive report of the recent meeting in Montreal, where the difficulties between the German Shepherd Dog Club of Montreal and the Montreal Kennel Association, Inc., were discussed and dealt with in detail. The Vice-President's report to the meeting was exhaustive and concluded with the following recommendations:

1. That all Dog Clubs or organizations throughout Canada, be affiliated with the Canadian Kennel Club, Inc., and that a list of all Officers, duly sworn to, be filed with the Canadian Kennel Club, Inc., for reference.
2. That all Evening Shows come under the jurisdiction of the Canadian Kennel Club, Inc., and a permit be issued by the Canadian Kennel Club, Inc., for the holding of these shows, and that a very nominal charge be made for this.
3. That no Specialty Club be allowed to hold a C.K.C. Point Show for any other breed than that for which their club was formed, without the special permission of the Canadian Kennel Club, Inc.
4. That no Club or organization can hold more than two Evening Shows unless a C.K.C. Point Show has been held in the meantime.
5. That stricter supervision by the Canadian Kennel Club, Inc., of all Evening Show Judges be adopted.

6. That no ribbons shall be given out at Evening Shows, but Award Cards shall be given in place of ribbons. This item I cannot stress too strongly as it has been proven, without a doubt, that dogs have been sold on the strength of Evening Show awarding of ribbons, and the purchasers in some cases, who were novices, were led to believe that these ribbons were Point Show Ribbons.

In concluding this report, I fully realize that my recommendations may

Mrs. J. H. Enright, Montreal, Que.

The following proposed amendment to the Dog Show Regulations having been received by me in my capacity of Secretary will come before the members at the Annual General Meeting.

That the Regulations be amended by the addition of the following to Regulation 4:—

"Section (b)—The Committee of a show shall provide free passes as follows: One exhibitor's ticket must be issued to exhibitors entering one or two dogs; two tickets to those exhibitors entering three or four dogs; three tickets to those entering five or more, enabling such exhibitors to enter the show with their assistants during its continuance."

● The National Kennel Club Show

The Royal Agricultural Winter Fair, held at Toronto, had, on November 23, 24, 25, amongst its chief attractions a dog show, whose promoters, the National Kennel Club, are to be congratulated on its magnitude and color. The success of the event was very apparent, more dogs and a larger attendance than ever before, and no wonder that pardonable pride was evinced by those responsible. The more than six hundred dogs benched with an infusion of a representation from the United States, provided the keenest of competition. Cocker Spaniels headed the poll with 66; German Shepherd Dogs with 37; Wire Fox Terriers 29; and 27 Scottish Terriers filled the van; Smooth Dachshunds were the surprise entry with 25, being coupled with a like number of Boston Terriers. The setting of the show was excellent, decorated benches adding their quota to the scene. A large consignment of plant life was introduced in rows through the aisles and along the side walls, adding one more item of color to the panoramic view. Personally, we do not advocate this nature of obstruction between benches; it is not conducive to cleanliness as was abundantly proved, and so many unexpected conditions and circumstances arise at any show as to make a clear path a veritable god send. Amongst the innovations provided was an annex for the judging rings, entirely removed from the benching room. There were commodious rings well kept and stewarded and in comparative silence. The spectators with ring-side seats enjoyed a condition under which the judging was entirely new and doubtless much appreciated. This striking departure from the accepted and age old conditions had its detractors and drawbacks. It added miles to the busy handler's tiring steps, and many of the dogs took the strange surroundings and the absence of the voices of their fellows with varying degrees of uncertainty. But it was a wholesome benefit to the public, the bellows of attempted conversation was supplanted by easy modulated tones of voice and as the show progressed everyone and everything apparently got into step with the result that the closing hours of the proceedings provided an entertainment of unalloyed pleasure and absorbing interest.

An outstanding feature of the show, whilst not a new departure, was something that was fully appreciated. It was the "mike" with Mr. C. E. Harbison in charge. This gentleman is the manager of the kennel department of the Kennel News Bulletin, New York City, N.Y., and on this occasion he proved himself a past master at this added feature of public information and enlightenment. His introduction of the various breeds parading, and information and commentary on their origin with sidelights on their developments, delightfully racy and one hundred per cent instructive, proved to be a highlight of the show and entertaining to fanciers old and new. To the hearty vote of thanks accorded to Mr. Harbison for his efforts we are pleased to add our own.

The officials and members of the club were equally efficient and untiring in their efforts to see the show carried to a successful issue. The Secretary and Superintendent, Capt. H. Dudley Waters, M.C., deserves more than a word of praise for the success of a heavy task. The Hon. President, the Honourable Mr. Justice McFarland, who had previously passed on a smart entry of Bull Terriers, was amongst the hundreds who enjoyed the judging of the Groups, Best in Show and General Specials. The judges and some judging:

The appointed list of adjudicators all toed their mark: Mrs. Oliver C. Harriman, New York City, N.Y., All Terriers (except Boston Terriers, Cairn Terriers and Bull Terriers), and Terrier Group.

The Honourable Mr. Justice McFarland, Toronto, Bull Terriers. Mr. Oliver C. Harriman, New York City, N.Y., Cairn Terriers. Dr. J. E. Redden, Springfield, Mass., All Sporting Breeds, Boston Terriers and Sporting Group. Mr. John Gans, Staten Island, N.Y., German Shepherd Dogs. Mr. Walter J. Graham, New York City, N.Y., All other breeds, Working, Non-Sporting and Toy Groups. Messrs. Redden, Graham and Harriman, Best in Show and General Specials.

Mrs. Harriman made a great hit with exhibitors and spectators by her display of knowledge and the cool understandable way she discharged her duties. There was little if anything to cavil at in her Airedale Terrier awards; she found the plums without a doubt, when "Cotteridge Brigand" and "Warland Wondrous", both owned by Mr. Sid Perkins, of Toronto, each headed their sex. The former landed Best of Breed. He was in top form. "Warland Wondrous", whose life in Canada could be counted only by hours, showed the effects of the ocean voyage, and the echo to her day's performance was "Wait and see". Mrs. Harriman's judging of the Terrier Group was quite in line with her previous efforts and left nothing to be desired. After the duel between "Cotteridge Brigand" and a really good Welsh Terrier, "Galen Maltose of Marlo", owned by Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Pollacks, which had been decided in favour of the former. From the large field remaining the lady chose H. Giddings' Sealyham Terrier,

"Marine Brazen Marina", a grand little one, and in good form.

Fourteen Bulldogs were a light calendar for Mr. Graham to go over, and here Mr. Reg. P. Sparkes' "Kamel Morovian Mainstead" took Winners Dogs somewhat easily, his first real competition turning up when he met his spectacular kennel mate, "Champion Clarinda" (who had topped her sex) for Best of Breed. The latter in all her career never looked better and is always to be reckoned with, but Mr. Graham's choice was "Mainstead", and rightly so. Mr. H. V. Hopkins' well known home bred "Hefty Son O' Dan", in his usual good form, was Reserve Winners Dogs, a position that should have been held by Mr. J. Weatherall's "Baldwin Solarium". He is one of our best Canadian-breds, a up-faced one, well balanced and very fit. The Reserve Winners Bitch, Dr. F. Lavery's "Wally's Lady Pat", was lucky to get past Mr. W. J. Risewick's "Golden Dawn".

Sporting Group. First: The well-known black Cocker Spaniel Champion, "My Black Model". His win was a repeat of a year ago and he was in improved form. Second: Another invader from the United States, the Irish Setter, "Champion Wamsutta Fermanagh II", owned by Warren K. Read, Jr. Third: Mr. Victor Moench's "Champion Achat v Werderhavelstrand", a good smooth Dachshunde.

Working Group: The Old English Sheepdog, "Ideal Weather", owned by Mr. Leonard Collins, who had topped a smart breed entry, was in good coat and excelling in movement, first. The Great Dane, Mrs. G. W. Hyslop's "Champion Quagga von Loheland", also in top form, and who had got the nod over sixteen of her breed, was a close second. Third: The German Shepherd Dog, "Alpha von Bergholtz", owned by Mrs. A. B. Calow. This well known black dog who scores decidedly in pose made a good third.

Toy Group saw four contestants. First: Mrs. Ethel M. Knight's well known Pekingese, "Champion Tan Fuh of Alderbourne", looking and showing well. Second: S. McConaghy's Pom, "Fairbank Futurist", an improved dog and close up. Third: Mrs. Mary W. Erb's "Griffon Fay Bee Sugar Plum".

Non-Sporting Group. First: Bulldog, Reg. P. Sparkes' "Kamel Morovian Mainstead". He stood out. Second: The Chow Chow, V. G. Fielden's "Champion Muchow of Chia Wan". Third: A fair Boxer in Manor Kennels' "Hansel Huber".

Best in Show: "Cotteridge Brigand". Reserve Best in Show and Best Canadian-bred, "Ideal Weather".

Best Puppy, Mr. F. J. Justin's Bulldog, "Klaemor Maestro".

Best Brace, Mrs. G. W. Hyslop's Great Danes.

Best Team, Mr. Robert W. Grant's Springer Spaniels.

MR. C. E. HARBISON'S IMPRESSIONS

It was my privilege and pleasure to attend this year the National Kennel Club Annual All-breed Dog Show, held in Toronto, Canada, in conjunction with the Royal Agricultural Winter Fair. I must say that I came away with a very pleasant and favorable impression of the Canadian people and their manner of doing things. My congratulations to all officers of the National Kennel Club and to Capt. H. Dudley Waters for their very efficient way in which they conducted the show. The generally good condition of all the dogs shown and the ease with which the average exhibitor handled the dogs in the ring are worthy of particular comment. The dog show was housed in a three and one-half million dollar fair building. The dogs were benched in commodious quarters, while the judging rings were placed in a separate but adjacent part of the building. The Royal Winter Fair, where the dog show was held, is the crowning achievement in Canadian agriculture. The Fair was housed in Fair buildings, consisting of twenty-five acres under cover, and costing nearly $3,800,000. They are equipped to do everything in a capable and workmanlike and convenient manner. The Royal Winter Fair accommodates generally 2,000 horses, 2,000 sheep, 2,000 cattle, and about 1,500 swine, besides, there was a large poultry show and an unusual exhibition of canaries. The best of the American and Canadian stables were represented to participate in the horse show, which was very well attended. One of the features of the show was the award of puppies as prizes to seven girls and three boys, the lucky winners in the S.A. Contest conducted by the Toronto Daily Star, of which Bill Shields, the popular reporter, was in charge. These awards were made on Friday afternoon at 5.30, when His Worship Mayor Robbins, of Toronto, took the microphone at the Fair and called upon the children to select their dogs. The order of selection was, the first prize was awarded first selection, the second prize-winner, second choice, etc. The prize-winners were: Audrey Fleet, age 11; Beatrice Freeman, age 12; Peggy Reed, age 11; Margaret Mary Howe, age 7; Alan Campbell, age 9; Donald Sinclair, age 13; Frances Corin, age 9; Norma Crone, age 11; Norma Doreen Shaw, age 11; Ben Jarvis, age 10. The quality of the puppies offered as prizes was exceptionally high. On Monday evening, a parade of champions was held in the Arena, where the Royal Winter Horse Show was being held and it proved so successful that it was repeated on Tuesday evening, at which time I had the privilege of officiating at the microphone to describe the various breeds of dogs. My introduction to the Horse Show crowd was made by the popular Tommy McClure, of Toronto, who was the official announcer at the Horse Show. To all of those who have never had the opportunity to attend a dog show in Canada, my suggestion is not to miss the Royal Winter Fair Dog Show in November, 1937.

COMMENT

● LOOKING FORWARD

THE possibilities of 1937 are still wrapped in uncertainty, but there never was a new year ushered in when the spirit of optimism so completely prevailed as it does today.

Mankind must have some outlet for unspent energy and his indulgence in sport supplies that great need.

There is no line of recreation that provides such opportunities of forming worthwhile connections and lasting ties as this hobby of Importing, Breeding, Exporting, Training, Coursing and Showing Dogs, and with a vast cosmopolitan support taken from all paths of life, as follows: Members of Royalty, Peers of the Realm, Dignitaries of the Church, Members of the Judiciary, Associates of the Bar, Professions, Trades and the countless numbers of the fields of labour, all of whom rub shoulders with one great mind and interest, "The Dog".

There is every indication to show that Field Trials, Coursing Meets and Dog Shows will be provided in greater volume than ever before, and their accompanying activities will be doubled, also prompted by this season's new vigour, wider views, and extended vision.

● OUR CHRISTMAS ANNUAL

WITH its striking good-luck cover, ninety-two pages of matter, a colored plate, more than one hundred illustrations, and its varied contents seemed to appeal to every one. Our Christmas Number experienced a reception from Coast to Coast, that was unparalleled in Canadian canine journalism. We received congratulations from every section of the Dominion, Great Britain and America. The hearty response received from our efforts to establish a new era in dogdom, was a subject of general comment, even those who for reasons were not included in the parade were loud in their acclaim of the December, 1936, issue of "Kennel and Bench".

● WHO WROTE IT?

THAT question has been asked times without number by phone, letter and on the street, and, of course, the questioners, one and all, were referring to that very readable contribution that appeared on page 64 of our Christmas Number entitled, "A Day In The Life of a Fancier". We have never really obtained permission from the authoress to divulge her identity. But the demand has become imperative, other publications may desire to copy, and credit must go where it is due, so we are going to take the step, and if necessary our sincere apologies will be tendered at a later date. Mrs. W. Humphries, the lady of the Lamorna Airedale Terriers, Richmond Hill, Ontario, sent in that article in September. We recognized it at once as something worth while to be read and enjoyed in the quieter periods, hence the call of the Christmas Number, when one has time and the inclination to relax, take up a magazine and browse.

As a depiction of events in a busy kennel, the diary is complete, and the leading lady is bound to be a real dog lover to be able to rise to every occasion. The expressions of joys and hopes with their attendant fears and misgivings is one of the highlights of the piece. The kennel worker will recognize every phase, whilst those whose doggy pretensions are of smaller calibre will readily agree that the authoress tells the story of a real job of work. One correspondent tells us that it is the first dog story that could provide an enjoyable second reading. But apart from its undoubted qualities every item possesses humour and almost a touch of pathos, and the insignificant incidents that only a mistress of discernment could so wonderfully describe. Our appreciation is prompted by the fact that Mrs. Humphries did this for the readers of Kennel and Bench, when she was in sole charge and the responsibilities of their competing at the coming fall shows was her's alone, for Mr. Humphries was away on that Pilgrimage to Vimy.

Manitoba Notes

By Provincial Contributing Editor,

T. K. MacKENZIE,
282 Davidson St., Winnipeg, Man.

WITH this issue of Kennel and Bench we embark on another year, full of good resolutions for the future. May they all come up to our liking and unity of purpose be in our actions. Motto—Do not be too sure that your opinions are right, only make sure that your aims are right.

The Christmas number from our provincial aspect has been of good report, by phone, mail and personal contact expressions of entire satisfaction have been received. A well known old time fancier gave his verdict thus:—Manitoba is now on the map—Keep it there. That can only be done by the united support of breeders and exhibitors whose news items of interest will be a factor to retain that position.

We regret to report that our esteemed brother fancier, Mr. George Duncan, of Trapystok fame, has been confined to his room through sickness for some time. Favourable report lately, and the hope for a speedy recovery is our earnest wish.

The banquet of the Greater Winnipeg Kennel Club, held in the Majestic Hotel, Nov. 21, was well patronized, the club president, Mr. Harold Bentley, in the chair. After dinner, chairman's remarks and following toasts: The King by chairman. Canadian Kennel Club by T. A. Smith, response by Director George Kynoch. Kindred associations by Mr. John Cook, responded to by Mrs. J. H. Kerr. Boston Terrier Club, Mr. W. J. Harley, President Fort Garry Kennel Club. T. Kay MacKenzie, Scottish Terrier Club of Canada, Mrs. Charles Jopling spoke for the ladies of the club. We noted many old timers enjoying themselves. After a short interval, dancing was the order and continued until the clock struck twelve.

The regular monthly meeting of the Scottish Terrier Club of Canada was held in the Majestic Hotel on Dec. 1st, the President in the chair. Minutes passed and application for membership from Nova Scotia was placed before the meeting and the candidate Dr. Corby was duly elected to the club. Support for the breed at the forthcoming show of the Greater Winnipeg Kennel Club, to be held in the Hudson Bay Assembly Hall, February, 1937, met with hearty response. Many valuable specials were donated and hopes are entertained that they will be increased at the next meeting, which will be the first annual meeting of the club, when office bearers will be elected for the year 1937.

Visitors to Winnipeg lately were Mrs. Sally Jackson and Mrs. Robert Laing from Regina, who were escorted to the Orchid Kennels of Mrs. A. R. Caruso by Mr. G. Kynoch and Mr. Jack Cook. Pleasure and surprise to see so many fine Pekingese in one collection were the expressions of the ladies, and Mrs. Laing made a purchase of probably the best female puppy the Kennel has produced this season. The purchaser intended importing a female, but was so enamoured with this one, that it became her property for the best price this season for a female. Other out-of-town sales, lately, included a puppy to Mrs. Ida Easton, Rainy River, one to Mrs. D. McLannon, Oakner, Manitoba, and to Sherriff Home, Portage La Prairie a nice female, while Mr. D. W. Jordon, Winnipeg, became the owner of a handsome dog puppy of great promise. All of whom are well pleased with their purchases.

I have enjoyed reading and noting the many beautiful prints in the Christmas number of Kennel and Bench, especially those of the fine specimens of Bulldogs, and the handsome production of the Airedale Terrier in color, and the Great Dane owned by Mrs. Hyslop, which appealed to me, while the general display of club advertisements, etc., I think most creditable, not forgetting the contributions from your British correspondent.

However, I wish to point out what seems to me to be an error and I trust you will accept it in the spirit in which it is written. As an old timer in the fancy I join in the regrets at the passing of Mrs. Jagger, a lady well known in the earlier days. In the last paragraph of notice on page 82, "Mrs. Jagger was the first woman in England to judge at a dog show. Belfast 1894." Now, Mr Editor, I wish to respectfully inform you that honor belongs to Miss Holdsworth, a noted breeder of Pugs, who judged in the Jubilee year 1887, at Scarborough. Mrs. Foster, of Bradford, a pioneer in the Yorkshire Terrier fancy, judged at Manchester show, 1889. Then again at the Glasgow show, 1890, when Mrs. Fergus judged St. Bernards. Mrs. Fergus with her husband, Rev. Andrew Fergus, a well known Glasgow minister, were probably the leading breeders of St. Bernards in Scotland. The years I have recorded 1887-89-90 all precede the Ladies Kennel Association, which was founded in 1894, the year stated for the first lady judge. This year is ever in my memory, for then I set up house on my own. I do not know who is the writer of this article, but compliment him—or her—all the same for the pleasant memories it recalls.

On pages 86 and 87, I was delighted to see the quartet of notable Scots, and by the looks of "Heather Realisation", he is wondering what it is all about. The perennial Scot, Sir Harry, is always turning up somewhere, and now it would look as if he had gone to the dogs. That would not be much of a surprise to me when I recall his old friend, Rab. MacBeth, who is credited with securing Harry his first pay at a concert, and was a well known Clydesdale Terrier breeder and exhibitor in the early eighties. His "Smithy Maid" was a great favourite.

The brothers, Jimmy and Bobby, I remember as small boys when they accompanied their father when he judged Springburn Show, held in the Drill Hall, Stirling Road, Glasgow, that I think, was 1901-2. I was exhibiting an Irish Terrier puppy at this event, but did not get very far up. I visited Glenboig Kennels in March 1888, and recall seeing a great collection of gun dogs—Setters, English and Gordon, Pointers, and Spaniels, all varieties, Collies, were becoming strong here at this time. No Scotties, that I can remember, although this period, I believe, would see the coming of "Heather Prince". Around this time Davie Baillie became manager of the kennels, that being after his return from U.S.A., where he went with a number of St. Bernards. What a change in the look of the Scotties from that period and further back. Before me, as I write, is a picture of a prick eared Terrier, as the representative from Scotland was then listed in catalogue at Cruft's show, 1886. There is a big difference, all in favour of the dogs of to-day. Another old timer of my acquaintance is the Ex-Provost of Galashiels, Jimmy Dalglish, who seems to be weathering the years well by his photo. How long it is since I first met the Provost in person, is hard to say. I recall some correspondence we had when I was Show Secretary for a Glasgow club. Collies were his specialty at this time, and many noted dogs were bred and exhibited from his Ellwyn Kennels. A noted judge of long standing, and a splendid lecturer. It was on a lecture on Collies we met, this event was sponsored by the Glasgow and District Canine Association and the Provost gave a wonderful account of the breed, describing all the various types found in different parts of the country, and their working abilities, while the show dog was described, as only could be by a man knowing his breed and that man was Jimmy Dalglish. In this course of lectures the Provost was preceded by the late Dr. J. H. Slean, secretary Scottish Bulldog Club, on bulldogs. David Brand, of Greenock, noted breeder and exhibitor of Newfoundlands took his breed. The first paper to be read, that of the Clydesdale Terrier, was by the president of the Clydesdale Terrier Society, your contributor. Those lectures were monthly events during 1904-5.

The Hazeldel Kennels, Henderson Highway, Winnipeg, report the mating of the Springer Spaniels, "Mona Lisa" and "Ch. Silverdale Lucky Girl" to Mr. Tulloch's "Ch. Lindons Laughing Stock". So successful was the mating of "Lucky Girl" in her last litter, that the return visit has come about. An outstanding youngster from the previous litter is now owned by the Silverdale Kennels, who consider him the best youngster seen around here for many years and is being prepared for future events.

The home of Mr. Bentley was the meeting place of many fanciers on Dec. 5th, when a pleasant evening was spent at whist. Valuable prizes were at stake and among the winners we noted Mrs. George Henry, Mrs. J. Pateman, Messrs. George Taylor and George Henry. Refreshments were served and a happy hour was spent thereafter.

A broken left arm, the result of a fall on an ice covered sidewalk, is what our good friend Mrs. Tom Eamons has to care for. But withal, the discomfort attached to an arm in a sling, does not debar this little lady from carrying on her duties as an executive in both clubs in this city. When seen at Fort Garry Show last night her usual cheery manner was just as before the accident. A complete recovery is the wish of all brother and sister fanciers.

The Greater Winnipeg Kennel Club monthly meeting was held on Dec. 8th, in the club headquarters, Majestic Hotel, President in the chair. Minutes of previous meetings read and adopted. Reports of Contact Committee describing interviews with representatives of St. Angus Guild were favourably received—discussion on letter from the Guild was further continued and decided to have the argument officially drawn up and signed by the contracting parties. This meeting as in former years, was allotted to nominations for office bearers of the club for 1937. Mr. Bentley was re-elected by acclamation to the chair. Mr. J. H. Masterman was elected first vice-president and Mrs. J. H. Kerr second vice-president. T. A. Smith, secretary-treasurer. A full show committee was appointed. Business in connection with forthcoming show was proceeded with. It was decided to appoint an outside judge for the event, and a number of names were put before the meeting and instruction to secretary to ascertain from the gentlemen named, their terms for the event. It was moved and carried that the show be advertised in Kennel and Bench, January issue, and the appointment of show superintendent made in favour of T. Kay McKenzie. The ladies' auxiliary of the club reported favourably of the recent whist drive, held at the president's home.

Lauriston Kennels, (Reg.), Fort Garry, owner, Dr. Hogg, specializing in Sealyham Terriers and Kerry Blues, report the mating of the sisters, "Laurieston Lady", and "Hada", daughters of "Ch. Felcourt Select" to "American Ch. Shelterfield Satyr".

The Bull bitch "Souris Beauty", who is by "Dewhurst Dan", has been mated to the Silverdale Kennels' "Ch. Manitoba Monarch" and the Scottish Terrier "Lady Linx" has been on a visit to the Ornetzie Kennels stud, "Simon" (imp.). The owner, Mrs. John Currie, reports favourably of her stock at present.

Mr. Albert Burgess, for long known as a Collie enthusiast, has entered the Scotty fancy and reports a nice litter of 3 puppies sired by "Ornetzie Simon" (imp.) ex "Ornetzie Dee-Dee" and future show specimens are looked for.

Selwyn Kennels, East Kildonan, Man., report a handsome litter of five puppies, mostly parti-colors, sired by the kennels "Ch. Marquis of Isla" ex "Lady Bell of Isla".

Four Scottish Terrier puppies sired by Alex Gostick's stud force "Haldon Roundlay" ex "Ornetzie MacMary", are reported by Mrs. J. B. Wade.

Now that 1936 is history and while in many instances the old year has been an historic one, we all hope for a better and more prosperous year during 1937. Undoubtedly the last few years have been anything but what we might call happy ones, and those who have had many difficult situations to handle during these years, we must admit that they have handled these situations in an admirable way, and are to be congratulated for having kept this Dominion of ours in a very favourable position.

The directors who have held office in the Canadian Kennel Club have undoubtedly had to face many serious situations during past times, which they handled successfully, as one move without serious thought might have put the club in a bad way, but to-day the C.K.C. is in a better position than it ever was, which all goes to show that those who have handled the reins were men of ability, with a thought of always to-morrow and not the present day. It is hoped that the C.K.C. may always be blessed with directors who will always have the general welfare of the organization in mind. Every member of the club must also realize that these men who handle the affairs for them cannot possibly do the great things they want to without the heartiest co-operation of every member. Every year new members pay their dues, and if every man—or woman who owns or breeds dogs, should become members and with the co-operation of every dog breeder, the C.K.C. can and will reach higher peaks every year. The Director for Manitoba is again the popular Winnipeg fancier, George Kynoch. I think this is the eighth or ninth year Mr. Kynoch will have represented Manitoba on the Board of Directors, being appointed by acclamation to the honored position, which goes to prove the high esteem our director is thought of by all members and fanciers. Mr.

Kynoch is untiring in his efforts to help all fanciers. Hardly a day passes but what he gets numerous calls from fanciers and breeders asking his expert advice, and I have never known the "Scot" to fail to help out, and give sound advice. Some thirty years ago he left his native heather hills for Canada, and ever since the day he landed on Canadian soil he has been what we all know as being in the "dog game". He was first established in Toronto, where he handled a famous kennel of Cocker for the late Jim Clark, but in 1910 he moved to Winnipeg, where he established the now famous Silverdale Kennels, and since 1920 he has not followed any other vocation, but that of breeding, handling and judging dogs. To say he has made a huge success would be embarking from the truth. "Scotty" Kynoch has unbounded faith in Canadian Kennel Club and the future of the dog game. While I am not at liberty to say so, I rather think, judging from authentic reports, that next spring he will be in more up-to-date quarters. He has also recently acquired a country kennel adjoining a famous marsh, which we understand will be used exclusively for rearing puppies and the training of his Springer Spaniels.

I am very confident that 1937 will be the very best year Manitoba has ever known as far as pure bred dogs are concerned. I note there is a better and more harmonious feeling between all fanciers and I would strongly urge that we all do the best possible to encourage the breeding of better dogs. Let's all pull together. Don't knock the other fellow. Don't carry a chip on your shoulder. If you have anything against a brother or sister fancier, go to him or her direct and discuss the matter intelligently and I am sure we will be better off.

Many notable events are in store during 1937. Let's all put our shoulder to the wheel and make every event a bigger and better success than ever before. I understand that during the month of January a very important meeting will be held which will be of interest to all Spaniel breeders. There is plenty of room for all of us in this world, so let's make this Dominion of ours a bigger and better country to live in, let us do all we can to help the other fellow, in the end we will all be better off.

The Auditorium Concert Hall was the venue of the Fort Garry Kennel Club's Evening Show on Saturday, 12th. There is no doubt this is the best event of its kind, held for many years. The hall is a swell place, and the attendance was extra good and the number of dogs, 100 or thereby.

The secretarial duties were in the capable hands of Mr. J. L. Pateman, ably assisted by President Harley and his officials. The judging was performed by H. H. Allan, Terriers; Sam Jackson, Non-Sporting; F. Walsh, the remainder. Best in Show, the Chow, "Ch. Kin Wong", Mr. Young; Best Working Group, "Silverdale Snowman", Old English Sheep Dog; Best Sporting Group, parti-color Cocker "Blue Boy of Chalvey"; Best Non-Sporting Group, the Red Chow "Ch. Kin Wong"; Best Terrier, Sam Gibson's "Maralin Hollow Ground"; Best Toy, Mrs. Oxenham; Any Variety Puppy, "Imera Lady June", sable and white Collie; Any Variety Novice, "Silverdale Snowman"; Any Variety Open, Red Chow, "Ch. ### OUR FRONTISPIECE

The Pekingese dog, "Kingie Ponge Wah" (C.K.C. 114653), owned by Mrs. M. A. Purvess, 16 St. Albans St., Toronto, Ontario.

This handsome red and white parti-color Pekingese, being home bred, possesses a blending of celebrities in the make up of his family tree that shows the pedigree to be unique. Through his sire, "Champion Bumble of Rivercourt", he claims two crosses of the celebrated "Roddy of Hartlebury". His dam, "Champion Princess Ponge Wah", also home bred, by "Champion Pun Chu", has for her paternal grand sire "Champion Pun Chin of Chinatown", whilst through her maternal grandsire, "Champion Bumble Bee of Badminton", appears another cross of the great "Roddy of Hartlebury". "Kingie Ponge Wah" has won no less than eight first prizes in open classes at our leading shows. Toronto Kennel Club three times, York Kennel Club, Canadian National Exhibition, Hamilton Kennel Club, Canine Breeders' and Exhibitors' Association, and the Toronto Ladies' Kennel Association. Added to this formidable list is a first prize at the Westminster Kennel Club Show, Madison Square Gardens, New York, N.Y.

It is, however, the prize that was awarded to "Kingie Ponge Wah" at the recent National Kennel Club Show, Royal Winter Fair, Toronto, that gave his owner greatest joy. It consisted of a Silver Tea Service (shown with him) donated by Mrs. Kate Hughes, of Toronto, for the best red and white Pekingese in Show, handled by the owner. The prize is a masterpiece of the silversmith's art, but apart from its doubtless intrinsic value there is an attached sentiment that words fail to convey. The late Mr. Hughes, husband of the donor, and a friend for many years of Mrs. Purvess, expressed amongst his last wishes his sincere approval of the offering of this beautiful trophy.

OUR GOLDEN JUBILEE

1938 will mark the 50th year of existence of the Canadian Kennel Club, Inc., and to bring to every one's notice that half a century has passed during which the Canadian Kennel Club, Inc., has enacted legislation and introduced conditions favourable to the breeder and fancier of pure bred dogs is the question of the day. The President of the Canadian Kennel Club, Inc., Col. J. N. MacRae, at the October meeting of the Board of Directors called the attention of those present to the coming Golden Jubilee and suggested to the Directors that they give serious thought to the possible ways and means of making the occasion something that would go down as an outstanding number in the history of dogdom in Canada. With such a momentous occasion in prospect, we may be pardoned for giving voice to an obsession that we have had for years. A Dog Show under Canadian Kennel Club rules sponsored by the Canadian Kennel Club, Inc., would fit this memorable occasion.

HAMILTON KENNEL CLUB

The election of officers for 1937, held on November 25th, resulted as follows: President, Mr. J. E. Lane; Vice-President, Mr. S. Price; Secretary-Treasurer, Mr. James Eccles; Directors, Messrs. W. Foster, G. R. Day, C. H. O. Pook, F. Fairey, F. Patrick, G. Lawless, J. McMurray. The reports of the various sub-committees and Secretary-Treasurer showed the association to be in a healthy condition and plans were discussed for the campaign of 1937.

DETROIT DOG SHOW OPENS CIRCUIT

During the last half century in which dog shows have been annual affairs in Detroit the kennel club never has presented such a notable list of judges as those approved for the canine convention for March 6 and 7 in Convention Hall. Again Detroit opens the mid-western circuit and to further signalize the occasion the club has picked only judges who have not officiated in Detroit during the last ten years.

Headed by those international all-rounders, Vinton P. Breese, Robert A. Ross and Alex. Stewart, the list is made up of outstanding specialists in individual breeds.

There is somewhat of a surprise in the selection for judge of Best of Show, that honor having been conferred upon William Z. Breed, who has built the Cleveland Classic into prominence. While there is the keenest rivalry between the Detroit and Cleveland shows there is the warmest feeling as evinced by this gesture, hands across the lake.

As usual Detroit will give the largest amount of money with no strings attached of any indoor show west of New York and will stage the event on the largest single floor space used for this purpose in the country. The show will have new benching and be under the Foley management. The judges who have accepted the invitation of the Detroit Kennel Club and been approved by the A.K.C. are as follows:

SPRINGER SPANIELS IN QUEBEC

Mr. and Mrs. John S. Meagher, of Como, Quebec, have dipped into the Springer pot and acquired the liver, white and roan bitch "Grey Rocks Adventuress". She is a daughter of "Champion Belmoss Critic" that doughty son of "Int. Champion Belmoss Countess". "Adventuress" will in due course be bred to "Int. Champion Inveresk Collyshot" and the results will be looked forward to with interest. Another Meagher purchase was "Belmoss Sunny Lad" from Mr. H. J. Placey, of Sherbrooke, Quebec. He is a liver and white youngster out of "Belmoss Mabel of Marol" and his sire is "Int. Champion Inveresk Collyshot."

Alberta Notes

By Provincial Contributing Editor,

S. W. FOSTER,

9617 101st St., Edmonton, Alta.

BY the time this issue of Kennel and Bench reaches its readers, it is probable we will have passed the threshold of another year, and we beg to once again repeat our sincere wish to all dog lovers everywhere, that it may indeed be a happy and prosperous one, and may that outstanding puppy maintain its early promise, and so may you all produce a champion.

And after reading just a short time ago where such an eminent authority on doggy subjects as Albert Payson Terhune expresses the opinion that to breed one real championship contender from forty litters should be considered a fair average, we feel that our wish is a very considerable one at that.

No doubt the usual number of New Year resolutions will be made, and we are afraid that the usual number will be broken.

However, while thinking of New Year resolutions, we always think of them in connection with what has appealed to us as perhaps the greatest tribute to a dog that we have ever known.

Although in common with the great majority of dog lovers the world over, we have read that touching tribute by Senator Vest, that has been featured in sporting, and dog magazines, dog food and remedy pamphlets and all kinds of doggy literature, together with countless pages of prose and verse in tribute to man's best friend, we have always thought that about the neatest tribute of all was from the pen of our friend, "Monty" Wallace, of Saskatoon, during the times that he was writing the Saskatchewan Notes for Kennel and Bench some years ago, then in connection with his holiday season's greetings, "Monty" said, "While thinking about New Year resolutions let us just resolve to be a little more like our dogs think we are". If anyone thinks that was not combining a resolution with a tribute, then opinions surely differ.

We learned by reading in Saskatchewan Notes some time ago that Mr. Wallace had decided to give up his old love, the Newfoundland, and we have had it confirmed from several sources since then, but it seems hard to imagine the said gentleman without a Newfoundland, and we cannot help wondering if he has gone out of the breed in somewhat the same manner as we went out of Chesapeakes a couple of times, that being with several strings attached and it was no great time before we started reaching for the strings.

However, we know there are several nice puppies from the last litter produced in Mr. Wallace's kennels now in this district. One is owned by F. M. Chappell well known railway engineer of West Edmonton. Mr. Chappell was a former Chesapeake fancier and as we have yet to see anyone who has ever had a real Chesapeake that could be satisfied with another breed, we will be watching F. M. with interest. Another promising young dog from the same litter is now the property of Mr. Morgan Henderson, of Edmonton, while a female was shipped some time ago to the well known Newfoundland fancier, John Patterson, of the Mill Creek Kennels, Edmonton, and later the dam has also been shipped to Mr. Patterson. This we consider a very pleasing gesture on the part of the genial "Monty" by which he accounted for the proverbial two birds, in that he placed his dogs in a good home, and also lent a helping hand to a fine old gentleman who probably is finding the way none too smooth, but who really loves a dog, and particularly a Newfoundland.

Alberta News seems to have fallen off again this month, in fact outside of Edmonton it is a minus quantity, and at any time it would be easy to count the contributions from outside points, except from Calgary where we have received some very good notes, one party in particular being very dependable, but this month all have failed us. We do not know if it can be attributed to the aftermath of the recent Calgary show, or the rush of Xmas business, if the latter we would indeed be sorry to interfere, much as we like to hear from them. However, we had hoped to get a report of the annual meeting and election of officers of the Alberta Kennel Club which was held last month.

The regular monthly meeting of the Edmonton Dog Fanciers Club, which was held on Dec. 9th, was also the date for the annual meeting of this club. However, due partly to a rather small attendance, but particularly to the absence, through illness, of the President, Mr. Harry Nash, the business of the annual meeting was left over for another month. In the meanwhile we are glad to report Mr. Nash's condition as considerably improved, and wish him a speedy and complete recovery.

A copy of the last edition of the Western Kennel World having been handed us by a friend, we read with admiration and perhaps with something of envy, Mrs. Helen Rosemont's account of her motor trip from her home in San Francisco to Calgary, where she judged the dog show held on Nov. 6 and 7 as reported in our last month's notes. Though not quite as young as she used to be, Mrs. Rosemont still maintains a youthful and observant interest in life and people and dogs and her article fairly bubbles with enthusiasm from beginning to end.

For the ladies of the Children's Hospital Aid Society, under whose auspices the show was held, the lady judge has nothing but the highest praise. She also speaks of the consideration shown her even by the clerks in the Hudson's Bay Company's store where the show was held and by the attendants at the hotel where she stayed, and adds that "it is seldom everyone in a town is so considerate." We are not quite so sure how the good people of Calgary will like that word "town" but we know the rest of the sentence will be received with satisfaction. After commenting on the different breeds of dogs judged by her, and on the merits and demerits of certain dogs, most of which was as reported in our last month's notes, Mrs. Rosemont refers to what she terms the one regrettable incident of the show, when the handler of the dog which won Best in Show fidgeted and fidgeted and finally became abusive.

When writing our report of the show we purposely avoided mentioning this incident as we felt that the least said about such things the better. But seeing that Mrs. Rosemont has chosen to give the matter such publicity, we feel called upon to tell the other side of the story, and that there was very definitely another side to the story cannot very well be denied.

Please let it be remembered that we are not seeking to condone rudeness either in the show ring or out of it, and more especially towards a lady judge, but we think possibly Mrs. Rosemont did not know about our high altitude and consequent highly strung nerves (we simply refuse to call it bad temper). When she kept the handlers performing in the ring for a length of time, that we do not wish to put in figures, while she strove to decide between two dogs, though most of the critics, many of them former judges, felt that the matter could have been disposed of in a very much shorter time, the handler of the dog which finally lost out, came from across the line, in fact, one has only to read Mrs. Rosemont's article to know he was one of her party, and therefore, had probably seen her judge or even shown before her many times, and so would naturally feel much more at ease under the circumstances. Whether or not that is the case, we feel quite safe in saying that never before in the history of dog shows in Alberta was half that time taken in making a decision in any class, even though in many cases a decision was much harder to make. The Calgary man simply "blew up" and in doing so received the sympathy of a large majority of the spectators.

It was an unfortunate incident and one which we hope will soon be forgiven and forgotten by everyone concerned. But in all fairness and justice to the handler in question, we cannot refrain from having our little say.

Following the recent show at Calgary at least two Alberta exhibitors shipped dogs to the Pacific Coast to compete in shows held at Victoria and Vancouver, these being Mrs. M. D. Gardner and H. V. and Mrs. Clutten, of Edmonton. Mrs. Gardner is very pleased with the record of her home bred Sealyham junior puppy bitch, "Felbourne Fifi", who, following her success at Calgary, where she was awarded the Canadian Kennel Club trophy for best Canadian-bred puppy and special for best puppy in show, she proceeded to duplicate both these wins at Victoria, while at Vancouver she was awarded winners bitch in an entry of nine, but lost out in class for best puppy to a very outstanding young Doberman, which also headed the working group. Mrs. Gardner also received Reserve Winners with her Scottish Terrier bitch "Haldon Tambourine". Mr. and Mrs. Clutten are also well pleased with the wins of their Labrador Retrievers, their bitch "Ch. Grand Duchess Victor" adding to her almost monotonous list of Best of Breed awards at both shows and paired with "Don Mario of Victor", these dogs won special for best brace. The male, however, was quite sick during the trip and reached home much reduced in weight. Mr. and Mrs. Clutten report sales very good recently, they having disposed of an average of one dog every two days for the past two weeks.

Mr. Joe Caswell also reports a brisk demand for Irish Terriers, having almost completely disposed of a very nice litter sired by "Erin Tom's Pride" ex "Ch. Rose of Tralee 2nd", one of these went to Mr. Fairbairn, head engineer with the Canadian Pacific railway at Montreal, a pair was sold to Mr. J. D. Gunn, manager of the Edmonton branch of the National Trust Co., and one to Mr. Caldwell, of Edmonton.

Before concluding this month's notes we wish to once more remind all dog fanciers of the coming show to be held under the auspices of the Junior Hospital League of Edmonton, and while the ladies of this organization are still unable to name three of the most important features, date, location and judge, there is still no doubt but the show will be held as usual, and as we expect a more definite statement will be forthcoming soon, we hope all exhibitors will bear it in mind and be prepared to reward these workers in a worthy cause with a record entry.

We suppose it is only natural that the larger centers of population should lead the van in most things, however, we were quite enthused with the system followed in the catalogue of the recent Vancouver show and also in the ribbons used, and hope to introduce them to our local show giving clubs and have them used at future shows, as we believe both have outstanding features as compared with ones previously in use.

And in conclusion I would like to once more remind the Alberta fanciers to be a little more liberal with their news, because this section really cannot be maintained without your support. So, whether in our interest or that of our successor, let us try to make a new record for the Alberta-section for 1937.

THE MOTORIST'S DOG

Most dogs enjoy a spin in the car just as much as their masters, but there are some who unfortunately are upset by road-travel. These susceptible ones should never be obliged to ride in a car if it can be avoided, but if they must travel in this way it would be as well to try the effect of a small dose of chloretone just before starting. It works wonders in many cases of car-sickness among dogs.

If there is a hotter place than a saloon car parked for an hour or two in the sun, the writer (who has sweltered in the hectic hundred-and-twentieths of Egypt, India and Iraq) has yet to experience it. And still we find people imprisoning their dogs in such furnaces while they regale themselves with long drinks and longer snoozes in some breeze-blessed spot. If they must park the dog as well as the car it should be put in the shade, and if their absence is likely to be prolonged they should assure themselves that it will remain in the shade as the sun moves round. And the windows should, of course, be left at least partly open.

The canine motorist loves to poke his head out of the window if he gets the chance, but rather serious eye trouble can often be traced to this cause.

When travelling with a dog that is alone in the back of the car with the windows open, make sure that he is quite secure. More than once a dog has been strangled because he was tethered in a car by a lead long enough to allow him to jump out of the window.

One should be wary of leaving a big and powerful dog in a parked car. Not so long ago a canine guardian of this type for some reason or another propelled his enormous bulk against a window and broke it. A flying particle of glass caused serious injury to the eye of an unfortunate passer-by, who recovered heavy damages from the car owner. It was one of those so-called million-to-one-against happenings that have an annoying habit of repeating themselves.

Saskatchewan Notes

By Provincial Contributing Editor

A. G. GODDARD

1522 Ave. E. N., Saskatoon, Sask.

AFTER going around the benches at one of the shows last spring I asked an acquaintance who had accompanied me, which dog he thought would go best in show. It rather surprised me when he answered, "There isn't a best dog in any show." He then went on to say that in his opinion it was next to impossible for any judge to select the best specimen in a show, when the different breeds varied so much in size, shape, color, etc.

Many dog fanciers will recall the days when poultry shows were such a popular feature here in the west, where the entries used to run anywhere from one thousand to two thousand birds per show.

I remember one such show held at Saskatoon several years ago when, with an entry of about two thousand birds, the judge, Mr. J. Hayden, of Calgary, awarded the special for the best bird in the show to a white Orpington Cockerel, owned, if memory serves me right, by Dr. Bricker, also of Calgary. Not only that but I also recall how the experienced poultry fanciers present had conceded the supreme honor to this bird, long before the judge made known his decision. It was about this time that the agitation started to have this award abolished.

There isn't a best bird in any show. It's impossible for a judge to accurately compare a Light Brahma with a Brown Leghorn, or a Silver Laced Wyandotte with a Black Minorca. Such were the arguments put forward by those responsible for the agitation, with the result that this award was finally eliminated from the prize lists. This, in my opinion, was the beginning of the end of shows for fancy poultry here in the west. The production specialists applied the finishing touches which often causes me to think that we dog fanciers should consider ourselves fortunate that our dogs are incapable of producing an edible commodity.

In my opinion there is a best dog, on the day, in every show and from my observations it would appear that competent judges usually "find" him or her as the case may be.

On Monday evening, Nov. 23rd, the writer attended a meeting in the Barry Hotel, Saskatoon, to find thirsty dog lovers gathered together to form a new gun dog club. Among those in attendance were breeders and trainers of sporting dogs, but the majority were men and women who own one or two shooting dogs and who appreciate the companionship of a dog in the hunting field.

John W. Hair was the unanimous choice of the meeting for the presidency of the club. M. C. Geary was elected first Vice-President and J. M. Ayres, second Vice-President. Sam Watson was the popular choice for Secretary-Treasurer. He held the same office with the Saskatoon Kennel Club several years ago.

The executive, which includes owners of Pointers, Setters, Spaniels, and the Retriever breeds, follows:—C. T. Oldcroft, Tom Smithwick, Bill Little, Joe Burkinshaw, Alex Randall, Tommy Matthews and Arthur Goddard.

His Honor Judge A. E. Bence, of Battleford, was the choice for the honorary Presidency and G. M. Black, of Winnipeg, and Dr. J. T. Cooper were elected honorary Vice-Presidents.

The main discussion, prior to the election of officers, centred on whether or not the trials should be held for professionals or amateurs. The meeting favoured the trials being held for the benefit of the members but with the club empowered to stage professional trials if it so desired.

Dr. J. T. Cooper, our Provincial Director, spoke of the enjoyment he had derived from witnessing the different field trials in the past, mentioning the fact that the dogs themselves provided the thrills without the necessity of shooting birds.

Mr. G. M. "Monty" Black, of Winnipeg, and Mr. "Bill" Little, of Rose-town, were present and took part in the discussion. Mr. Black, the owner of several Labrador Retrievers, offered to donate a cup for any trials except those for Labradors. Needless to say this offer was quickly accepted.

The general feeling of the meeting was that all trials should be run under Canadian Kennel Club rules and that trials should be run for all varieties of gun dogs.

The organization of this club should do much to stimulate interest in gun dogs in the northern part of this province. It is to be hoped that bench qualities of the competing dogs will not be lost sight of. I realize that super field trial performers like outstanding bench winners usually come in "clusters of one" and near perfection of the two qualities in the one dog is extremely difficult to produce. Still I see no reason why the average bench qualities of the dogs competing at field trials should not be greatly improved.

Mr. W. H. Pym, who judged the Springer Spaniel field trials held in British Columbia, on Oct. 4th, last, mentions in his excellent write-up of same in the November issue of Kennel and Bench, that the second and third placed dogs were both Bench Champions. This is as it should be, such dogs are a credit to their owners and to the variety they represent.

English Bulldog fanciers throughout Canada must have received quite a pleasant surprise upon opening their Christmas number of Kennel and Bench to find their favourites so liberally portrayed. We enjoyed this contribution by Mr. Voss very much.

I feel sure that similar write-ups, featuring other varieties, would be greatly appreciated by the readers of this magazine. There are many experienced fanciers who would consider it an honor to receive an invitation to write an article of some kind pertaining to their particular variety for publication in Kennel and Bench. Such invitations could come direct from headquarters, or could be issued through our provincial directors. By doing this all varieties would receive the same degree of publicity, while our magazine would be that much more interesting to our readers.

Another feature that appealed to the writer was the reproductions of photographs showing "Our Dogs of Yesterday".

Although I may not be qualified to even pass an opinion on the English Bulldog, at the same time one could not help comparing "Ch. Dunalaunt" quite favourably with the present day celebrities of the breed depicted in the same issue.

No doubt the photo of Sir Harry Lauder brought to many readers, besides myself, memories of many pleasant evenings spent at the "Tivoli", the "Oxford" and the "Met" back in those good old "I love a lassie" days.

Now that the cold wintry days are here our dogs will need extra care. A draught proof kennel should be the main consideration for their well being. A little extra food should be given on the coldest days. A liberal supply of raw beef, including a portion of fat, is excellent for keeping them in condition. Cut it up into pieces of a suitable size for one meal. Allow it to freeze solid. Feed it while it is still frozen. The longer it takes them to chew it the more they will enjoy it.

Raw bones are also good for them. Some may not agree with me but I consider them more easily digested and more beneficial when fed raw than when they have been boiled or baked.

A liberal supply of clean wheat straw makes an ideal bed in my opinion. Water for drinking should be given cold. If the chill is taken off they are liable to drink more than is good for them. Artificial heat should be avoided. Again some will not agree with me, but just remember a dog has but one coat. This has to suffice both indoors and outdoors. To turn a dog out in thirty to forty below zero weather after sleeping in a heated room all night is nothing short of cruelty. Dogs accustomed to outside temperatures do not suffer from the cold any more than a prairie wolf.

Of course, the foregoing applies to mature dogs. Very young puppies and possibly some of the small delicate breeds will need more protection from the elements. Our own dogs have been cared for in the manner outlined for several years. Sleek coats, moist noses, bright eyes and boundless energy assures us that our dogs are not only healthy, but happy.

Miss Hazel Mabson, Regina, reports the sale of a complete litter of Wire Fox Terriers, sired by "Ch. Bron Wyn O'Stormer" ex "Susan of Billmont". Mr. W. A. Coates, Iffley, Sask., Mr. Ross Campbell, Regina and Mr. W. Pym, Regina, all purchased males. The female went to Mr. J. McKenzie, Regina.

The well known winning female, "Dewdney Garbo", has an exceptionally promising litter of four males and one female, sired by Mr. Hugh Allen's "Ch. Bridegroom Major Supreme". This latter dog went right through to best of all breeds at the Saskatoon show last summer. Here's hoping there is another "Major" in this litter.

Letters I have received during the past year from Saskatchewan readers as well as from those who reside outside this province have been greatly appreciated.

Friendly rivalry in the show ring, at field trials and obedience tests, is the very life of our hobby. Many acts of real sportsmanship have been revealed by winners and losers alike during the year just closed. New friends have been made and old friendships renewed.

May this same feeling of goodwill prevail throughout the coming year.

British Columbia Notes

By Provincial Contributing Editor

T. P. MURRAY
4854 Lanark St., Vancouver, B.C.

ON behalf of all fanciers in British Columbia, may I extend to Canadian Kennel Club officials and dog lovers everywhere best wishes for your health and success during the coming year, 1937.

Our mail bag this month brings us the following news items. First of all welcome to a new fancier, Mrs. L. Wright, of Nanaimo, whose imported Irish Setter was awarded Winners at the recent Junior League Show. Her name is "Ryhope Lassie" and she was bred by Mr. W. Wright, of Ryhope, Durham, England, and her sire is "Major Bruno", he being by "Rufus of Erin" out of "Woodbine Mary", the dam being "Meadowview Molly", by "Taj Mahal" ex "Shelagh". We wish Mrs. Wright every success.

A nice letter from an energetic worker of the Vancouver Island Dog Fanciers Association, Miss H. M. Harfield, who is a real Scottie fan. She informs me of a litter of Scottish Terrier puppies sired by "Ch. Gaisgill Nicotine" and out of "Heatherbelle Bonnie Dundee", she being by "Ch. Felcourt Invader" out of "Barnhill Lady Scot". May we express the hope that there will be a real good one amongst them.

More Scottie news comes from the well known Swansea Kennels of Stanley Dorrell who informs me of a litter by "Ch. Gaisgill Nicotine" out of "Swansea Daphne", she by the "Bulls Eye of Dockee". I am very pleased to report that Mrs. Dorrell is well on the way to recovery after a serious operation. She is at present in St. Paul's Hospital and doing very nicely.

I visited one of our old fanciers last evening, Snowden Kennels, the property of Evan Gravelle, and here I had the opportunity to look over two young English Setters, one blue male and one lemon female. The male has plenty of head right now, heavy in bone and short coupled. The next few months will tell the story for him. My vote is cast for the female. At present she is all you could desire and that is saying just exactly what she is. Their sire is "Mallhawks Boy Blue 4th" he being by "Earl Mallhawks" out of "Mallhawks Greyland Lady". The dam of these youngsters is "Snowden Patch" she by "Croswell of Bank Bay" ex "Helen of Mallhawk". It will be interesting to watch the development of this pair.

Canine Bartender Can Count Money

The following item appeared in the Saskatoon Star Phoenix, of November 12, and was forwarded to me by Mr. R. G. Goddard, the correspondent for Kennel and Bench in Saskatchewan, and our readers may take it with or without the proverbial grain of salt.

Bowser, B.C. — This Vancouver Island settlement has a canine bartender, who not only makes change up to one dollar, but serves drinks and clears away all the empty bottles and glasses. He was the mutt of the litter, say Charles Winfield, his master and proprietor of the hotel here, but now, Mike, the four-year-old Sheep Dog, performs the duties of bartender at a word from his master. You have Mr. Winfield's word for it that "Mike" has never short changed a customer yet. When not working in the refreshment parlor, "Mike" rounds up the chickens at roosting time and takes notes to the village grocery store bringing back the required commodities unassisted.

Believe it or not.

Saturday, November 27th, the Nanaimo Kennel Club held a parlor show, and owing to the severe foggy weather the number of dogs entered was very small. G. P. Murray, of Vancouver, judged the show. Miss Lillian Hickling and Bill Willgress attended to the entries, etc., as usual. Best in Show was awarded to the Irish Setter "Ryhope Lassie", owned by Mrs. L. Wright, of Nanaimo.

Saturday, November 28th, the B.C. Fox Terrier Association held their annual fall show, and I am indebted to Secretary W. J. Moffatt for the list of awards which are as follows:

Smooth Fox Terriers, Best of Breed, "Ch. Inglewood Duchess", Mr. Horace Wilkinson.

Wire Fox Terriers, Best of Breed, "Vesta Tillie", Mr. Joe Dodds.

Best Wire or Smooth Puppy, Tom Milner's "Kerrisdale Selection".

Best Novice, Mrs. R. H. Purden's "Ulidia Five and Twenty".

Saturday, November 28th, the B.C. Gun Dog Club held its annual parlor show for gun dogs only, and as the show is usually the best parlor show of the year, a great turnout was expected. However, the day turned out to be very bad with lots of snow and sleet, and the result of the entries was very disappointing to the club, there being only about a dozen dogs entered. Mr. W. H. Pym introduced the judges for the event, Mr. George Jackson for all Setters and Mr. W. J. Oates for all other gun dogs. A fair attendance of spectators were on hand and after due deliberations the Best in Show award went to the Springer Spaniel our own "Dan O' Davie" owned by Mrs. Ed. Jean, of Vancouver.

Once again the dog lovers of British Columbia have made their annual effort on behalf of needy children, and as a result of such efforts the Daily Province Santa Claus Fund is enriched to the amount of $51.65 through the parlor show. Much credit must go to the following ladies for their splendid efforts. The convener of the show was Mrs. O. Balshaw, ably assisted by Mrs. R. W. Hatley, Mrs. S. C. Sweeny, Mrs. G. G. Murray, Mrs. Edgar Smith, Mrs. Jarvis, Mrs. C. M. Butler, Mr. W. H. Pym, Mr. J. A. H. Irving, Mr. W. T. Oates, Mr. R. W. Hatley, Mr. Gerald Stock. Mr. Pym introduced Mr. Henderson, the circulation manager of the Daily Province, who stated that he had been requested by the directors of the Province to attend the show and thank the various kennel clubs and dog lovers for the splendid work they were doing. He then told the children, who were present, what a great work they were assisting in and finished his remarks by stating that any child brought up with a dog and taught to care for it properly would surely grow up to be a good and useful citizen. Mr. Henderson then introduced the judges of the Children's Classes, Miss Percy and Miss E. Dodds, after these classes were disposed of. Mr. W. H. Pym then introduced Mr. Geo. Pearson, who judged all breeds in his usual capable manner. Best in Show was awarded to Mr. Alexander's "Queen of Asa", (Wire Fox Terrier). Dr. T. R. R. Hoggan, M.R.C.U.S., examined every dog in his usual efficient manner, he being appointed to his duties by the Registrar of Veterinary Services, Dr. Gillan. And now on behalf of the various kennel clubs, may I express grateful appreciation to the following firms for their splendid donations to the worthy cause: The Hedlunds Co. Ltd.; the British Columbia Packers Ltd; the Spratts Patent Ltd. of London, England, through their agents; Scott Bathgate Co. Ltd. of Vancouver; Dr. W. G. Ballard, V.S., and to everyone who so ably assisted in making the show a financial success.

Again it is my sad duty to report the passing of one of the oldest supporters of dogdom in British Columbia.

Final tribute has been paid to our old friend Colin Jackson, of North Vancouver. He was a prominent engineer and community worker. Mr. Jackson, who died on Saturday, came to Vancouver from Liverpool in 1901. Moving to the North Shore six years later, he founded both the Vancouver Engineering Works and the firm of Colin F. Jackson & Co. Ltd. Active in church, industrial and political affairs, Mr. Jackson was a vice-president of the Vancouver Board of Trade, chairman of Vancouver Electoral Union, a vice-chairman of the Crippled Children's Aid Society and a board member of the Y.M.C.A. He was also the founder of the Vancouver Kennel Club and its president for two years and was very closely connected with the Vancouver Exhibition Association. His membership in the Vancouver Club began in 1901.

In charge of the funeral services were the Rev. H. P. Barrett, Rev. J. Thompson and Rev. H. B. Allen. May we extend the sympathy of all fanciers to the bereaved family.

May I offer the sincere sympathy of all fanciers to our old friend Dad Shepherd whose Newfoundland, "Ch. Shelton Teddy", was accidentally killed on the highway a few weeks ago.

And now to you fanciers who have contributed news items to this column I express my thanks for your co-operation and ask you to give the same to your next correspondent. To all you good fanciers who have sent your greetings I will answer personally, as soon as possible.

KENNEL CLUB OF BUFFALO, INC.

Setting out to beat last year's record entry of nearly 1,000 dogs, officials of the Kennel Club of Buffalo, Inc., already are busy with plans for the 13th annual show, Saturday and Sunday, Feb. 27 and 28. This All-breed show is getting bigger and better each year, and no amount of superlatives can describe the arrangements already made for the February show. The list of judges, published in an advertisement in this issue, should satisfy every breeder.

Something new in the way of entertainment is planned for the exhibitors' party to be held Saturday night, Feb. 27.

Raymond H. Beale again is chairman of the show, with Harry J. Brogan, secretary-treasurer. J. Winton Lemen, the new club president, has some surprises in store.

Chairmen of the different breeds for the show include Willard H. Burgard, English Setters; Fred J. Petersen, Cocker; Dr. Leo E. Reimann, Springers; Mrs. L. M. Clark, Dobermans; Mrs. W. H. Schwinger, Collies; Miss Florence Gleason, all Toys.

Fred Schlosser, Beagles; Dr. S. P. Martin, Irish Terriers; Howard J. Maguire, Wires; George E. Baltz, Point-

Show headquarters, as usual, are in the Lafayette Hotel, and the Foley organization will superintend the show.

COCKER SPANIEL SALE

Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Henderson, of Spokane, have purchased the black Cocker Spaniel bitch "Holdfast Albestine" from Mrs. M. F. Pickford, "Holdfast Kennels", Burquitlam, B.C. This female is now showing heavy in whelp to "Ch. Holdfast Reserve", but in spite of her condition she was good enough to win Reserve Winners under Mr. Rosenbaum two weeks ago in the largest Cocker entry that has been out in years.

Maritime Notes

By Provincial Contributing Editor,

GERALD G. McCARTHY,
107 St David St., Saint John, N.B.

THE Annual Meeting of the New Brunswick Kennel Club was held Dec. 2nd in the Admiral Beatty Hotel. H. H. McLellan, Jr., was re-elected president; F. Nielsen, first vice-president; F. Nielson, second vice-president; H. J. Keyes, re-elected treasurer and S. E. Kominsky, re-elected secretary. Directors named were: Mrs. A. S. Kirkland, G. G. McCarthy, R. B. Laskey, W. G. Smith, W. W. Frost and L. T. Dow.

Reports of the president, other officers and chairmen of committees were enthusiastically received. A large attendance was at the meeting.

An Entertainment Committee was appointed to arrange for an educational talk on "The Dog". A dog will be used to give those attending the lecture the various points.

The annual reports showed that the club had enjoyed another successful year and is in good financial standing.

A new owner of the ever popular Cocker Spaniel in Saint John is Miss Dorothy Cassidy, O' the South Kennels, Torryburn. Miss Cassidy has been an ardent dog fancier for some time and was the first owner of Schipperkes in the Maritimes. The "Skips" are beginning to be very popular here, and there are a good many distributed now through New Brunswick.

Her first venture in the dog game was with the German Shepherd, a very popular dog at that time in the show rings of the New Brunswick Kennel Club's shows. She still kept her best male after she ventured in the "Skips". Miss Cassidy has made several champions in this trappy little dog and has sold many puppies through the advertising columns of Kennel and Bench. Her "Ch. Marquis O' the North" was shipped to Strasean Kennels, Detroit, and his new owners think the world of him. Now to get back to the Cocker. It is a bitch, called, "Dream Girl of Glengarry", and as nice a pup for its age as you would find anywhere. Black in color, it has a lovely head and foreface and should develop to about 24 or 25 lbs. Straight as a rush in front and standing about 10 inches high, it has a very cobby body and is well bent behind. Sired by "Ch. Alhambra Chief", she has for her dam "Vince Elthric". She was bred by J. A. Ramond, Glen Garry Kennels, Williamstown, Ont. Miss Cassidy is by no means giving up her

"Skips" and in future her kennels will house both breeds of popular little dogs. Recently Miss Cassidy sold "Futurian O' the South" to Wm. H. Sharp, Hampton. This is a "Skip" male and is a little dandy.

In a recent conversation with J. G. Cavanaugh, owner of the Cedargrove Cocker Kennels, he informed me he had only four dogs in his kennel at the present time, three Cockers and a Scottie. What his plans are for the future, he would not say, but it is to be regretted if he does not continue in the game with his Cocker Spaniels. His kennels have been represented on the show benches of the Maritimes once in the last two years, and then with only one entry. That is quite a drop from the usual ten or twelve he used to have at the N.B.K.C. shows in Saint John. Most of the initial stock of the kennels have passed on but there are some nice brood bitches left and his "Thetford Dolores" is as nice a mannered Cocker as there is in Saint John. Black and white in color and standing 14 in. at the shoulder, she will in all probability be bred to one of the Thetford studs of J. T. McCallum at Thetford Mines.

A communication from the Sunstead English Springer Spaniel Kennels, Fredericton, N.B., informs their dogs are kenneled 8 miles from the city on a farm, where they have unlimited training and exercising grounds. Well ventilated kennels and new runs have been erected and present a beautiful layout for a gun dog kennel. Mr. Shute has been very careful in selecting his brood stock. Some of the new bitches he recently acquired are: "Kitchen Thorne", by "Kitchener Jumping Jack" out of "Inveresk Coy". "Thorne" is a litter sister to "Kitchener Bramble" and "Kitchener Brush", who have been doing exceptionally well on the American show circuit. "Thorne" is in whelp to "Belmoss Marquis".

"Belmoss Mabel of Marol", by "Int. Ch. Inveresk Cocksure", dam "Marol Queen Ann", who goes back to "Inveresk Chancellor" on both sides. "Mabel" is showing heavy in whelp to triple "Ch. Inveresk Collyshot", imported, who goes back to "Ch. Flint of Avondale", "Ch. Horsford Hetmen" and many other great pillars of the breed.

"Felicity of Avondale," (Liver Roar) by "Ch. Aristocrat of Avondale", out of "Woodhurst Brunette". "Dormont Whejie" is another high-quality bitch by "Ch. Belmoss Cocksure". "Freckles of Sunstead", black and white, by "Errand Boy of Avondale".

On Thursday, November 19th, the best known dog in Halifax, "Ch. Larry Boy", passed away. "Larry" was owned by H. M. McLeod and was bred by B. M. Montgomery of Saint John. Born August 10th, 1924, he was sired by "Tyrone Brand" and out of "Auburn Arana" and at the time of his death was in his eighteenth year.

In his show days "Larry" always led the Irish Setter classes and often repeated in the Sporting Group. He was a consistent winner in Canada and at various shows in the United States and, owing to his beautiful rich color and typical Setter character, always attracted considerable attention wherever exhibited. He was also an excellent hunting dog, a tireless worker and a reliable retriever, well equipped with plenty of brain power.

"Larry" was probably the best known dog in Halifax and held this distinction for the better part of his life and upon the event of his passing the local newspapers gave him front page space and carried pictures of him when at the top of his show career. The following is taken from the Halifax Mail of November 23rd—"Larry is dead." "Round of daily trips to Halifax stores will be made no more. There is an ancient saying, the truth of which no one will question, to the effect that in life only two things are certain—death and taxes."

"For 'Larry', pure-bred Irish Setter, the first certainly has become a reality, for he died on Thursday—of old age, but while he lived he paid no taxes and he was always sure of a free meal as long as he retained the eloquent power of his pleading brown eyes. He was a favorite with all visitors to the store of H. M. McLeod, his owner, but not satisfied with these friends alone, he set out early in life to widen his circle of acquaintances.

"His search brought him to the doors of several grocery and meat shops and finding that the strength of his personality stood him in good stead, he put each of them down on his steady calling list.

"Larry had a system, too. Possessed of an almost uncanny intelligence he never made the mistake of calling twice in succession at the one store. First he would stop at a grocer's for a bit of bologna, later he would arrive at a meat market and pick up some choice scraps and every week he would make his rounds, never forgetting one of the places where he was favored with a warm reception.

"Larry's method of approach was perfect. He would sit before the door and look mournfully through the glass until it was impossible for those inside to resist the wistful appeal in his eyes. Allowed in he always behaved like a perfect gentleman, never helping himself, but always waiting until he was served and then conducting himself outside with commendable decorum.

"Larry" was a great help to his owner too. He was an excellent hunting dog. He was fifteen years old and lately had been showing signs of failing health. So "Larry" died and several Halifax store owners admit that he will be missed just as much as though he had been a cash customer."

And may I take exception to the inference that "Larry" was not a cash customer? I have often witnessed Mr. McLeod, and other of "Larry's" friends, wrap a coin in a piece of paper and send him off to purchase a bone at his favorite butcher shop. It is interesting to note that a few unthinking jokesters have attempted to substitute other articles for the coins, but "Larry" invariably dropped these articles on the sidewalk and went in search of a more reliable friend.

On Saturday evening, December 5th, many more Halifax children were assured of a Merry Christmas when the Bedford Kennel Club held a puppy and novice dog show at the Masonic Hall in aid of the Goodfellow's Club. This was an attractive little show held in an ideal location and drew a good entry of many young dogs of various breeds, sixty-one in all, ranging in size from Yorkshire Terriers to the stately Saint Bernards. The latter breed are new to Halifax and the two entries at this show attracted considerable attention. The largest dog in the show was the Saint Bernard, "Brian", an English import, owned by G. Mitchell Hope. This dog tipped the scale at 190 lbs.

John A. Huggins, local Boston Terrier breeder, acted as judge of his favorite breed, with Wm. T. Miller doing the balance of the breeds, Specials and Best in Show and the work of these two men was very pleasing and added much to the general character of a very satisfactory evening. All placings were well received and the show was voted a real success.

The award for Best in Show went to Mrs. R. B. Campbell's 10 months' old Irish Setter bitch, "Wamsutta Mavis III". The excellent young bitch was bred by Warren K. Reid, New Bedford, Mass. She is out of "Ruxton's Shomgun Colleen" and was sired by "Wamsutta Shawn Rhu". The bitch was put down in good condition, rightly handled and looking in the

WESTMINSTER KENNEL CLUB

By the time this is read more than 20,000 premium lists describing the February 10, 11 and 12 show of the Westminster Kennel Club will have reached their manifold destinations in every state in the Union, every hole and corner of America where dogs are bred and shown. These detailed advance notices which explain the numerous competitive phases of Westminster's 61st annual show in New York City carry the usual message to prospective exhibitors at the Garden of generous prize money aggregating more than $20,000 as well as uncounted cups and trophies which for many years after the big classic is past will be treasured by fanciers as concrete symbols of achievement in the breeding of high class pure bred dogs.

Every single one of America's recognized breeds is provided for with a classification of its own, and every one is accorded the same impartial prize rating—$15, $10 and $5 for the winning of first, second and third places, respectively. It does not matter to Westminster's sportsmen-officials whether a breed is popular or not so popular, numerically speaking; all are given like chance at the generous purse. Just so long as six or more dogs are entered in each class, the maximum prize allowances will obtain. If fewer dogs are booked in any class, then $10, $5 and $3 will reward the winners. There are all told more than 1,000 separate competitive classes to be judged at the three-day show, and in the event that even a fair share of them are filled to the six-dog entry mark, fanciers will leave the Garden with a truly encouraging amount of cash in their pockets.

In addition to the regular class prizes over 50 special prizes of $25 each have been offered by individual donors for the best of breed in as many varieties, and of course the usual American Kennel Club cash encouragement for the American-bred and bred-by-exhibitor victors in the groups. Westminster's own sterling silver trophy for best in the show, and another for the best brace, all breeds, will again be in competition, as will the seven additional perpetual trophies that for years have been so keenly contested. These include the James Mortimer Memorial for best American-bred, the Theodore Offerman cash prize accompanying the Mortimer silver cup; the National Terrier Club of England challenge cup for best sporting terrier, the William Rauch and the Shepherd K. deForest Memorial trophies, the Leash Club challenge cup and the Hayes Blake Hoyt trophy for best in the show if amateur owned and handled.

With the premium lists have been mailed out 40,000 entry blanks, two bound into each booklet. Many more forms than this, however, will be distributed to fanciers before the final entry closing date on account of the many who propose to exhibit a whole string of dogs. The two blanks supplied with each booklet provide spaces for entering eight dogs—four dogs may be written into each form. Wherever additional forms are required, a request to the Westminster Kennel Club, 381 Fourth Avenue, New York City, or to the Foley Dog Show Organization, 2009 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa., will be sufficient to speed promptly to their destination as many as may be needed.

There is little doubt but that last year's Westminster entry total of 2,920 dogs in 85 breeds will be exceeded this year. The sport of dogs has increased tremendously in the past 12 months, with about 84,000 individual dogs registered for the year 1936 as against 72,000 in 1935. But in all probability there will be no crowding of the bench space below stairs as there was last year. More booth displays will be arranged on the main floor arena, so that additional benching aisles may be provided in the basement for the dogs. And there are several new breeds added to the official roster in 1936 that will very likely be in competition at the Garden: The Norwich Terrier, attractive little wire-coat of 12 pounds or so, a foxy headed dog of black and tan or grizzle; the Staffordshire Terrier, on the order of the familiar Bull Terrier but smaller; the Affenpasher, "monkey-faced" toy of very intriguing appearance, and the Puli, a sort of reduced Old English Sheepdog, with characteristic long, fine coat. The English Cocker Spaniel, too, will doubtless be in competition as this type has already been winning at the late fall and early winter exhibitions.

It is advisable for breeders to send in their entries as early as possible in order to facilitate the herculean task of compiling and printing the catalogue in ample time for the early morning opening of the winter classic on February 10th. The final closing date for the receipt of entries at the club headquarters, 381 Fourth Ave., New York, is January 25th, at 6 p.m. In order to be accepted, entries must arrive before that time.

DOGS AND HORSES

Our readers with equine tastes will be interested in the following account of Mr. R. Ray McLaughlin's of Elmcroft Farm, Oshawa, Ontario, purchase of Clydesdale horses. Mr. McLaughlin's canine fancies for Pointers, Smooth Fox Terriers and Dalmatians are well known and the fact that the latter breed is so popular at English shows as to dwarf so many recognized favoured varieties provide the Oshawa fancier with greater incentive to bring the Dalmatian to more prominence in the Dominion.

Clydes Imported

R. Ray McLaughlin, Elmcroft Farm, Oshawa, Ont., has imported from Scotland three well bred Clydesdales, two fillies and a yearling colt. They arrived in Canada early in November.

One filly is the dark brown three-year-old Ena, by the good breeding horse, Douglas Castle. Her dam is Dunure Fort, a grandson of Auchenflower. Her second dam is by the famous Baron of Buchlyvie and she was the dam of Windlaw Gayman, imported by the Dominion Experimental Farms in 1934. Ena was champion at Paisley, Barrhead and Kilmacolm this year. The Scottish Farmer classes her "as good a filly as has crossed the Atlantic for some time."

The other filly is the two-year-old Fyvie Violet by Craigie Airman and he by Craigie Excellence. Her dam is by Benefactor, second dam by Baron Ideal, and third dam by Sir Everard. She is descended from a race of notable mares and bears this out in individual merit.

The colt is Broombrae Watchward, by Watchward, son of Benefactor. The colt's dam is Sunnybrae Footprint, the second dam by Ascot's Choice and the third dam by Dunure Foreman. He, too, is well bred and has individual merit to back it up.—The Western Producer.

IT IS THE BEST OF DOG SHOWS

By J. V. McAree.

We turn now to discharging an annual obligation and make a few remarks about the National Kennel Club show in connection with the Royal Winter Fair. It will, we have no doubt, maintain its usual high standard, which means that it will be the best and most important dog show of the year in Canada. With general conditions improving, interest in pure-bred dogs is certain to express itself in increased sales, and also increased importations from England and Scotland, where the best dogs in the world, with the exception of three or four breeds, continue to be bred and to provide an important source of revenue for the breeders. At this time of year dogs are generally in the best condition, and if any one wants to see representatives of all the standard varieties in full bloom he can do so at the Royal Winter Fair. Personally our dog establishment is at its lowest ebb for a long time. The only dog we own is "Sally", the Sealyham, that Ward Wright gave us a couple of years ago. Her companion, the vixenish "Smarty" the Pom, died last winter.

"Sally" Is Uncertain

We had expected by this time that "Sally" would have given some of the contestants in the Millar stork derby occasion to blush, but it seems that Sealyhams are rather coy and uncertain in such matters. They seem to be governed less by tides than by winds and fits and starts. They are also prone to what are called technically false heats, which is to say, for the benefit mainly of old Globe readers, they give signs of wanting to build a love nest, which, however, turns out to be a mare's nest. This adds one more excitement to the life of the dog breeder. We hope, however, that this is merely a temporary derangement and that "Sally" will yet justify the strong hopes that Ward Wright and we entertain for her. Even now she is the best watch dog we ever had, and if none of the family hears the door bell or the telephone bell "Sally" hears it and gives vent to an unearthly clamor in favor of bill collectors being admitted or argued with. At present we do not know if there are any good Sealyham stud dogs near Toronto, although we hear that one is about to arrive from England. Oddly enough a friend of ours fell into conversation with a stranger in Montreal a few months ago, and naturally our name came up, and our plight with regard to "Sally" was mentioned. The Montrealer happened to have a winning Sealyham and he said he would have great pleasure in giving "Sally" a free service. He even offered to bring the dog up to Toronto for that purpose, which adds up to one of the most genuine compliments we have ever received.

Book Borrower Denounced

We now turn to more general matters, but before doing so would like to call the attention of Mr. James D. Strachan to the fact that he has failed ignominiously to return the copy of "The Kennel Murder Case" which we lent him last summer. We merely note in passing that there has been one kennel murder case, as he ought by this time to be aware, and that it establishes a precedent. We regret bringing his name up publicly like this, but no doubt Jimmie thinks it better to be insulted than ignored and we are under obligation to him for providing us with most of the data which were incorporated in the article we wrote about the club show last November. Mention of the Secretary of the Canadian Kennel Club also reminds us that we believe the club might do something useful along the lines suggested in a recent article about mongrel dogs and pet shops. It seems to us that it might make a move in the direction not of abolishing the shops but of getting pure-bred dogs into the hands of people who would appreciate dogs but now have mongrels.

That Date Declined

The National Kennel Club in its few years of existence has contributed to raising not only the standard of dogs but the standard of people who breed them. Or perhaps it would be more correct to say that it has attracted as members the very best people in the community who are interested in breeding and showing dogs not as a business but as a hobby. Its first President was an old friend of ours, the late W. P. Fraser, a great sportsman, and as good a judge of a terrier as was to be found anywhere. His death was a loss not only to the Ontario Jockey Club, but to the dog fancy which the years have not yet fully repaired. His successors have been men of similar calibre, spending their money and their time just because they love dogs, and looking for no other recompense than the thought that they are doing something lasting for the fancy. As we have said before they are a fine body of troops and we are proud to associate with them even if in the capacity as honorary member. Nevertheless, we feel constrained to decline the invitation Mr. Bethune L. Smith has sent us to attend a supper at the Toronto Club at 11 o'clock this evening. We have many quaint habits, no doubt, but to get up in the middle of the night to eat a supper is not one of them.—Globe and Mail, Toronto.

OUR NEW COVER

Commencing with the first issue of the new year we introduce a new front cover design, which we feel sure will add further journalistic prominence to "Kennel and Bench", and the description (Canadian Dog Fanciers' Journal) added to the title, is self explanatory and will arrest the hastening steps that are governed by an enquiring mind.

CHRISTMAS CHEER FOR INCURABLES

On Tuesday, December 22nd, members of The Ladies' Kennel Club of Canada, Inc., gathered as in previous years at the home of their President to pack a Christmas box of dainties for the hundred and twenty patients in the Grace Dark Home (a home for destitute incurables), the boxes were made to order, free of charge, by The Major Box and Wire Works Co. Ltd., each box contained two oranges, two apples, two pears, two bananas, a pounds of grapes, a cake, a bottle of jam, and a pound of chocolates, besides which the ninety-one men received a tube of shaving cream (donated by Mr. Minty) and a package of Sweet Caporal Cigarettes, while the twenty-nine women patients were the recipients of a tube of tooth paste (also donated by Mr. Minty), and a jar of powder; the paper bags, wax paper, cartons, Christmas seals and gummed labels were the gift of J. C. Wilson Co. Ltd. The funds used to fill the boxes were obtained from the refreshment booth at the dog show last September, and private contributions, the hundred and twenty boxes in cartons were transported to the Grace Dark Home by the kindness of Walter G. Hunt Co. Ltd.

SCOTLAND SCOTTISH FOR NEW BRUNSWICK

The Cossar Farm Kennels, Lower Galetown, N.B., a few days ago received from the kennels of Robert Chapman, Glenboig, Scotland, a brace of outstanding dichards that should make their mark in the Dominion. One is the brindle dog, "Champion Reefer of Rookes", whose title was gained in the stiffest of English competition. He is by "Champion Heather Fashion Hint", who has to date, no less than thirteen Champions, who claim him as their sire. The dam is "Lakeside Gipsy". "Reefer" is a brindle and described by Mr. R. B. Laskey, the Cossar manager, as excelling in coat, shortness of back, balance and sterling quality. "Heather Pierrette", a brindle daughter of the great "Champion Heather Necessity" ex "Aluourn Suggestion" accompanied him and is described as a grand coated and bodied one.

● Bits From Britain

The Scottish Collie Club has a roster of fifty-seven members, as compared with twenty-one in 1935.

Dalmatians are favoured with twenty championship shows in 1937. Birmingham benched 44 representing 30 kennels.

Collie Triumph—Miss N. K. George, Secretary of the Collie Association, with two puppies, "Golden Favour" and "Golden Feather", won every first prize for roughs and the Championship for each sex at the Birmingham Championship Show.

Included in the reduction of the Royal kennel inmates fifteen Clumber Spaniels bred by King George V at Sandringham were sold for a high price to a Sussex breeder. The famous trio, "Sandringham Scion", "Sparkle" and "Scurry", all well known prize winners and the particular pride of their Royal breeder, were included in the draft.

Birmingham Championship Show. On November 19th, the second day, the Lord Mayor and Lady Mayoress, Alderman H. Roberts and Mrs. Roberts, presented the prizes. Best in Show was awarded to Mrs. Mannocks' famous Chow Chow, "Champion Choonam Hung Kwong". Best of opposite sex, Mrs. Whitehead's Wire Fox Terrier, "Rest of Rowenshall". Best Sporting dog and Best Terrier in Show, Mr. R. Chapman's Scottish Terrier "Champion Heather Realisation".

Mrs. Phyllis Robson of the Dog World writes on the passing of the great Glass House as follows. And so the old Palace, the draughty old ice house has gone for ever. Those draughty gratings down the aisles and the floor boards with the knots sticking up over which I had to tramp many miles at every show, left me foot sore and weary. (We had a touching acquaintance with those same knots, they provided one of our youthful trials.—Ed.) The fire which destroyed the Crystal Palace removed one of the country's landmarks. It was opened at Sydenham, near London, by Queen Victoria, in 1854. It was the home of the English Kennel Club's Show for many years. Sir Henry Buckland was the manager. Since the war three hundred thousand pounds had been spent on it, but its revenue was represented by the vast sum of one million five hundred thousand pounds. It covered 28 acres.

"SCOTTIE"

Although it was originally intended that this series of articles on outstanding animals would be restricted to cattle, horses, sheep and pigs, there seems no just reason why a dog who, as a breeder and worker, has made a significant and indeed colorful contribution, should not have a place. The dog selected for this outline is known and registered in the International Sheep Dog Society Stud Book as Scottie 1108 and belongs to that breed of black and white Scottish Sheepdogs known as Border Collies. The breed is the result of constant selection for those qualities most desired in a shepherd's dog, and representatives of the breed are noted for their great understanding, speed and endurance.

Belongs to W. H. Martin

"Scottie" is the property of Wm. H. Martin, who, with his brother Watt, is one of the big ranch operators in southwestern Saskatchewan. The Martins came from Hawick, in Roxburghshire, Scotland; William came in 1902, herded for a time in Saskatchewan and Montana, and ultimately began operating for himself north of Maple Creek. The Martins have always been dog lovers, and there could be no finer treat for an admirer of sheep dogs than a visit to the Martin ranch, where from 15 to 25 dogs of all ages may be found. The visitor will be impressed by the instinctive keenness of all, including the pups, to be working, and when no more appropriate material is available, the hens and turkeys are likely to become victims to the "herding," "lifting," "shedding" and "penning" activities. Just prior to the writer's visit at the Martin ranch, one of the dogs, "Tyne," winner of the 1936 Moose Jaw competition, restless to be working, had cut out one of the red roosters from the poultry flock and patiently herded it down into a fence corner nearly a quarter of a mile distant, where the rooster was left. When the rooster was discovered, "Tyne" was required to go down to the fence and bring the rooster back, which was accomplished with the same degree of expedition. A visit at the Martin establishment must dispel the old idea that working sheep dogs should not be petted or encouraged to be affectionate. Although strictness is insisted upon, all dogs are treated as pals and a number even frequent the house. Mr. Martin recognizes great divergence in temperament and the need of studying each individual, if the best results are to be obtained in training.

Scotland, to select a promising dog for work and breeding on his Saskatchewan ranch. With outstanding performance of his parents the basis, "Scottie" was the selection. He was brought out by Robert Nichol, who came to Canada to herd for the Martins, and was only four months old when imported in the summer of 1929. From the beginning he was recognized as a dog of unusual intelligence, and under the patient and expert guidance of Bill Martin, developed according to the fondest expectations.—The Western Producer.

IN THE NAME OF CHARITY

The Lakeland Terrier presented by Mr. W. B. Cleland to the Junior League of Hamilton, Ontario, to be disposed of by the sale of tickets, the proceeds to be devoted to charity, made the grand total of $800 a boost for the breed and the cause for which it was donated.

Doctors and dieticians preach that our modern diet is lacking in minerals and vitamins—that our foods are over cooked, over refined and so mushy that our teeth do not get sufficient exercise to keep them in good condition.

If that is so for humans how much more so must it be for dogs if fed on what humans leave on their plates?

At a cost of about one cent a day you can feed your dog what his system needs and must have if he is to grow up a lively, full grown intelligent dog.

Ross-Miller Dog Foods are DOG foods—not human foods. They are scientifically formulated for dogs, and processed at low temperatures, so as to preserve the vitamin content. Your dog will appreciate them. Try him.

For sale at Department Stores, Grocery Stores, Feed and Seed Stores. If you have any difficulty write us direct.

HIS way of saying "PLEASE!"

Just look at those pleading paws . . . and those eyes sparkling with anticipation,—anticipation of OVALS, his favourites. Artful fellow . . . he knows what's in that bag . . . knows from past experience the irresistible flavour and crisp crunchiness of SPRATT'S OVALS.

These little biscuits contain just those ingredients necessary to keep a dog fit and happy. The meat in them builds muscle; the wheatmeal promotes strength; while the crisp baking ensures thorough mastication, thus aiding digestion by the proper stimulation of the gastric juices.
