Meeting of the Board of Directors of the Canadian Kennel Club, Incorporated

A meeting of the Board of Directors of the Canadian Kennel Club, Inc., was held in the Board Room of the Club's Offices, 25 Melinda Street, Toronto, on Thursday afternoon, February 4th, 1937, at 2.30 o'clock. The President, Col. J. N. MacRae, was in the chair. Directors present included: Reg. P. Sparkes, Wm. H. Pym, Wm. G. Climo, Dr. J. T. Cooper, George Kynoch, Robert A. Ross, Ronald C. Vaughan, Capt. H. Dudley-Waters, B. W. Essery, K.C., F. W. Walkerdine, Raymond Tyrwhitt, J. A. Blair, Mrs. E. Brown, W. H. Reeves and Dr. H. E. Batt.

T. E. Gunderson and Wm. McCulloch attended as representatives of the Canadian National Live Stock Records.

The President, in declaring the meeting open, advised that the meeting would be in the hands of the 1936 Directorate and that the 1937 Board would govern only after the Election Commissioners' report had been presented and endorsed at the annual general meeting.

The Secretary suggested that, before proceeding with the agenda proper, it might be indicated that a moment might be spent in remembering the passing of Past President Brig-Gen. C. M. Nelles, who had been obliged to leave the board meeting a year ago and who had died shortly afterwards, and by his death the living charter members had been reduced to two, C. A. Stone, Toronto, Ont., and Colonel Robert McEwen, Byron, Ont. The Secretary reported that Director James Eccles, Hamilton, Ont., whilst greatly improved in health, did not feel equal to attending the annual meetings; that Director W. J. Risewick had been ordered home by his medical advisor as a precautionary measure; that Mr. Peter Wright had been obliged to cancel his acceptance of the club's invitation to dinner, and that the Honourable Mr. Justice McFarland intended visiting the directors if he could find it convenient to do so.

It was regularly moved, seconded and carried:

"That, the minutes of the previous Board of Directors' meeting be adopted as read."

The President suggested that a motion would be in order, having for its virtue a request to the Live Stock Commissioner asking for the approval of our Constitution for the period of one year.

It was regularly moved, seconded and carried:

"That, we apply to the Live Stock Commissioner for renewal of acceptance of our Constitution, subject to any amendments as passed at the annual general meeting of the club on Friday, February 5th, 1937."

A letter from the Windsor Kennel Club in respect to the status of certain judges was read by the Secretary, and it was agreed to leave the matter in his hands.

The following statement of general accounts was presented for payment:

The necessity for this was pointed out by Mr. Blair. Certain of the directors objected to such an arrangement when it was pointed out that, as yet, no invitation has been made to the Canadian Kennel Club to appoint such a delegate. After further discussion, it was regularly moved, seconded and carried:

"That, Mr. Pym approach the Exhibition Board stating the case and that it was brought up at the annual meeting of the board of directors, and, if they are agreeable to accepting a delegate appointed by the Canadian Kennel Club, the incoming board shall appoint such a representative."

OUR FRONTISPIECE

The Sealyham Terrier, "Redlands Ranger of Hollybourne", recently acquired by Dr. A. R. B. Richmond, Toronto, owner of the "Windrush" Sealyham Terrier Kennels.

As a young dog, "Ranger" won many prizes in England before coming to the Hollybourne Kennels, owned by Mr. S. L. Froelich of New York.

He made a great show record in the United States, finishing his Championship title at Westminster in 1935, after which he was retired to stud.

He is a beautifully bred dog, his carriage and gait being evidence of the high quality of his forbears.

He has a large tan-marked head, with a dark eye, good horse coat and level mouth.

His quarters are very well developed and his body is deep and well sprung.

All these qualities, combined with his heavy bone, very good feet and soundness of movement, stamp him as a stud dog of unusual merit.

He is a particularly healthy dog and has proved himself an outstanding sire of exceptional puppies.

In 1936, one of his female progeny won the "Stud Dog Stake", significant of the best puppy of the year produced by any stud dog owned by a member of the American Sealyham Terrier Club.

His new owner hopes to show "Ranger" in Canada and offers him at stud to a limited number of approved bitches.

It is felt that if his services are taken advantage of he should prove a potent factor in the promotion of this breed of "big-little" dogs in the Dominion.

After a happy sojourn in an "unforeign" country we welcome "Ranger" back to British soil and extend to him and to the "Windrush" Kennels our congratulations and the best of luck.

Short of leg you'll not mistake him,

Harsh of coat, of carriage gay;
All the pickles went to make him,

Once upon a lucky day.

There was charm in't and no harm in't

When old Squire, says he, "I am Going to make a proper varmint

Here, at home, at Sealyham".

Patrick R. Chalmers,
In "Dogs of Everyday".

EDITORIAL COMMENT

● FAIRS VERSUS DOG SHOWS

THE daily papers recently had space occupied by the financial and other reports of many spring and fall fair associations, bringing forcibly to our notice that all is not well with some of these hardy annual fixtures. Many and varied are the causes blamed for this loss of public patronage, the motor age more than any other is accused of intensifying the hue of distant pastures. Be that as it may, the fact remains the agricultural fairs lay claim to the distinction of creating our dog shows, and from whom they gathered the sustenance from year to year which enabled them to leave their toddling stage behind, have in some cases fallen on evil days, and the question arises: What are we going to do about it? Surely we owe something to these associations who have borne the brunt of shine and shadow down through the years since dog shows were in the kindergarten stage of their existence. The agricultural fair presents a wonderful opportunity to kennel clubs and associations who in crowded districts have difficulty in obtaining suitable buildings in which to hold their shows, and those who must give deep consideration to their projects and avoid clashing dates with those of similar organizations a relief is established almost over night. By approaching almost any of the rural fair boards arrangements could be made to include a dog show amongst their attractions and the benefits would be mutual and far-reaching. A dog show would be held in a new centre, fresh fields would be opened, and as has been proved so often, a dog show held in connection with an agricultural fair is the most popular and heavily patronized attraction on the grounds.

● CORONATION DOG SHOWS

THIS Coronation year will witness Pageantry, Sporting Events, Exhibitions and Celebrations everywhere in the British Empire on such a grand scale as seldom, if ever, seen before, and dog shows will take their usual front line position. When Canada holds a dog show with that Coronation title, history will be repeating itself, for in 1911 the now defunct Ontario Kennel Club put on such an event in Toronto. It was a success from start to finish and the several innovations included in its make up were warmly received. Here we were introduced to the first variety classes ever provided, the titbit of the day being the Coronation Grand Challenge Puppy Class. Under this high-sounding title there were twenty-one entries, the prize money being $5 for 1st, $3 for 2nd and $2 for 3rd. The late Chas. H. Mason, who judged the show, dubbed this conglomeration the Noah's Ark class, and strongly advised the officials that variety competition would never take on in this country and to let the other fellow run the next one.

It is only known to a few that this class owed its creation to Geo. Kynoch, who boldly stated in public that he had a Cocker Spaniel puppy that would not only prove to be best puppy of its breed, but would beat all pups of any other breed at the coming Coronation show. Alf. Orman, a breeder of the Biggest and Best Terrier, had an Airedale Terrier pup that could beat all the Cocker pups and then some. The writer had a St. Bernard pup that, the eulogy bestowed by the previous mentioned two on their pups was just a soft pedal when it came to going over that Saint. With the great Mason nominated to judge, here was everyone's chance, hence the creation of variety competition. The Coronation Grand Challenge Puppy Class became an item of the day and Mr. Kynoch will still remember the placings.

● DOG LAWS

WE have before us clipping of a clause included in a new dog by-law, recently put into force by the City Fathers of Medicine Hat, Alta., as follows:

Kennel Licenses

The clause in question reads as follows:

The annual license fee for a kennel of not more than one registered dog and two registered bitches shall be $12 and the annual license fee for a kennel which includes one or more police dogs shall be $25, but the owner or keeper of such kennel may, on his obtaining a permit from the Chief of Police, be permitted to keep in his kennel one additional registered dog or bitch for a period up to three months or such longer period as may be set out in such permit.

The owner or keeper of a kennel shall be permitted to keep litters of pups until they are three months old, without paying any additional fees, after which period the license fee prescribed in Section 3 hereof shall be paid for every dog or bitch kept in such kennel over and above the three registered animals above specified and any dog or bitch kept under permit as aforesaid. The said license fee prescribed in Section 3 hereof shall also be paid for any dogs in a kennel which are not thoroughbreds.

Whilst in some details the foregoing may fit local conditions, the fact that the city's total revenues from taxable sources were topped by $1,621 from dog licenses, the only other item which reached the four figure mark being one of $1,276, makes it appear that the Medicine Hat powers that be have at one stroke legislated one of the chief sources of their income out of business. As we previously suggested, local conditions may lend themselves to the new demands of law enforcement.

But to restrict any licensed kennel to three adult inmates and compel the sale of all puppies at three months of age appears unreasonable to us to say the least. Whilst the extra fees and hardships imposed on the owners and keepers of certain Working breeds savours of discrimination being allowed to "run riot".

YOUR PETS can't thrive on table scraps. Careless feeding is the chief cause of their disorders. Feed Pard—the balanced ration of wholesome beef, grain, milk, minerals, cod liver oil. Highest hygienic standards applied to all ingredients—packed under government supervision!

TERRIER SPECIALTY SHOWS AT NEW YORK

The 20th Annual Associated Terrier Club's Specialty Show was held at Commerce Hall, Port of Authority Building, New York City, on Tuesday, February 9th. This preliminary canter for the Terrier breeds held previous to the Westminster Kennel Club Show is one of the most looked forward to fixtures of the year, and on this occasion maintained its popularity by record entries, quality of exhibits and the public attendance was far ahead of any previous show. The Canadian exhibits and the placings they reached are our chief concern, and again the breeders and owners of the Dominion are to be congratulated on the results of their efforts, for in the largest classes and sharing in the stiffest competitions Canadian-owned dogs came out with flying colors. Some of the chief awards were:

Smooth Fox Terriers—Judge J. A. Shaw McKean. Mr. Frank Beer, Toronto. Dancing Adonis, 2nd Puppy, 1st Novice; Discovery, 1st Limit; Dancing Doll, 1st Puppy, 1st Novice.

KAMEL KENNELS LTD. NEWS

The English Bull bitch, "Ch. Noways Debut", one of the tops of her breed in Great Britain, was purchased by Mr. Reg. P. Sparkes of Toronto by cable a few days ago. She has only been shown a few times and completed her championship in short order. Three years old, she is just about at her best and will doubtless follow the trail hewed out by the earlier celebrities housed in this establishment. The price paid for her, needless to say, was a stiff one, even for one of her standing. Following on the Buffalo show held last week, where Mr. Sparkes judged English and French Bulldogs and Bull Terriers, at Chicago on April 3rd and 4th he fulfils the same duties with Pekingese added, and also passes on the Non-Sporting group. April 11th will see Mr. Sparkes as first man in the ring at the Pacific Coast Bulldog Club Specialty Show held at Los Angeles, California.

The Canadian Fancy

By Contributing Editor

WALTER H. REEVES

156 Bridge Street East, Belleville, Ont.

AT the request of members of the Canadian Kennel Club the Board of Directors asked me to again contribute the "Canadian Fancy" to Kennel and Bench. I am very willing to again take up this pleasant exchange of "Thoughts and happenings", in our sport, but it is impossible to make these pages of interest unless I have the whole-hearted support of my readers; bricks cannot be made without straw, and I cannot look through space to see that Jones has sold his champion across the border, or that something of real interest has occurred in his kennel. Will you, therefore, do your part, just roughly draft anything you may have of general reader interest that has occurred in your kennel and post it to reach me whilst it is still news, and not later than the 15th of each month. If you will do your part, you will be helping your directors in their earnest endeavour to take advantage of better times to bring before, not only the members, but the general public as well, the advantages of owning a well bred dog, and also becoming a member of our club himself. We have all been going through a difficult time, but thank goodness, we have at last apparently reached the end of the dark lane, everywhere we hear of increased prosperity on this continent. If it is not good in our own kennel the fault may be ours, maybe we are trying to run a successful kennel with a high fence around it and not trying to get publicity, no business can succeed without advertising. Kennel and Bench, as my friend Reg P. Sparkes remarked at the 1935 annual general meeting of the club is the "Shop Window" of our sport. Well it is up to you to assist in dressing the "window", it has to be dressed each month, but after you have sent your contribution to the "window", don't think that you have done all that is needed, we have to bring the shop window before the general public. Why not ask your news agent to display a copy of Kennel and Bench in his store? In the past we have been trying to sell our surplus stock amongst ourselves and it simply cannot be accomplished, help the Editor to build up the circulation of Kennel and Bench. If you do this sales will increase and we will get back all the quicker to a fair price for our puppies, it is simply ridiculous to think that the prices that have been obtainable during the last few years show anything like a fair return for the capital required to start a breeding kennel.

MR. WALTER H. REEVES, writer of
The Canadian Fancy

The annual general meeting was held at the King Edward Hotel, Toronto, our president, Col. J. N. MacRae being supported by the full board of directors. Several matters of great interest were discussed, and when the tattoo question was introduced we were fortunate in having Mr. A. P. MacVannel representing the Department of Agriculture and Mr. R. G. T. Hitchman, the director of the Canadian National Live Stock Records. May I, before referring to the question of tattooing, make clear my attitude towards the regulation of the Live Stock Pedigree Act. I have the average Englishman's respect for the law, and an earnest endeavour to play "ball". Now we all must admit that before the Canadian Kennel Club became affiliated with the National Live Stock Records, the club was in very shallow waters financially, we were recognized, obtained our charter and made participants in the finest system of registration in the world. The club began to prosper, and then we did not want to play "ball" as we should have done. The stud books were kept open year after year at the request of the club after repeated promises that "This would be the last request". Through ignorance I ran my head up against a brick wall when I went to Ottawa to try to get our unregistered champions registered. I could not understand the attitude of the other representatives to the Canadian Kennel Club. The late secretary of the National Live Stock Records, Mr. J. D. Brant and myself had many a wordy argument, and I have to admit that I was trying to argue about something, when I was not familiar with the broken promises and the Canadian Kennel Club's refusal to play "ball" with the National Live Stock Records. The tenseness of the atmosphere changed before I left the board, and the National Live Stock Records began to see that after all dogs were a little different to foxes and cattle, and when the Live Stock Pedigree Act came out and insisted on some positive system of identification, Mr. Brant explained to the Minister of Agriculture that time should be allowed to the breeders of dogs to propose the system of identification most agreeable to them. Tattooing was acceptable to the breeders of cattle, sheep and foxes, and then began the series of blunders. Because the breeders of cattle, sheep and foxes were tattooing in the ear, it was only suggested that the tattooing of dogs must be in the ear, and a most murderous looking tattoo machine was sent out. Dog breeders considering how very important the ear carriage is to most of our breeds naturally viewed with considerable alarm the idea of using such an uninviting looking instrument on a dog's ear. It was never clearly defined that the Minister of Agriculture (if we decided on tattooing as our means of identification), did not care where the tattoo marks were placed, and most important of all it was never pointed out that the massive looking machine was unsuitable for tattooing dogs and that a suitable outfit for tattooing dogs could be obtained. Where we, as an association affiliated with the National Live Stock Records, have fallen down is, that although we have been given time to do so, we did not suggest to the representative of the Minister of Agriculture any system of positive identification. The matter has been left for the Board of Directors of the Canadian Kennel Club to bring forward some suggestion or suggestions for the consideration of the Minister of Agriculture at the next annual general meeting of the club with a view to approval. I anticipate that our president will appoint a committee to consider the whole matter of satisfactory identification. So don't wait until next February, if you have any suggestions, but send them now to the secretary of the Canadian Kennel Club.

I was glad to see that Mrs. R. McColl's proposed amendment to the Dog Show Rules: "That other hounds should be separated from the sporting dogs", was passed, and that soon we shall have six groups instead of five.

I am now going to break away from Canada and try and give you some ideas gathered at the 61st annual show of the Westminster Kennel Club. In the opinion of the writer, the show was without doubt the most successful of the many Westminster shows we have attended, and the successes of Canadian exhibitors with their dogs was very pleasing to the large number of Canadians present. Amongst the spectators were our secretary, Jimmy Strachan, Dr. J. T. Cooper, our Saskatoon director, who naturally followed the judging of the Collies. Reg. P. Sparkes was noticed to be carefully looking over the Bulldogs. A. A. Macdonald, who was for some years one of Canada's most successful Smooth Fox terrier breeders and exhibitors, was amongst the throng of interested spectators watching the Fox Terrier judging. Bethune L. Smith, the president of the National Kennel Club and H. V. P. Lewis, were interested on getting new ideas for their 1937 show. Our handlers, George Kynoch, Ted. Ward, Percy Brown and Alf. Loveridge, all brought big teams which gave an excellent account of themselves and showed our friends across the border that Canada is breeding and raising dogs good enough to try "conclusions" with the world's best dogs, in fact almost the first man to greet the writer when he arrived in Madison Square Gardens was Alf. Loveridge walking Leonard Collins' Bobtail, "Champion Ideal Weather", which had headed "the lot" at Baltimore show held the previous week. To win best dog in show at so important a show as Baltimore bears out the oft repeated opinion of the writer, of the quality of Canadian dogs. Mrs. R. McColl had the pleasure of piloting her home-bred Harlequin Dane bitch, "Ch. Alva Schatzie of Ridglands", to victory in Great Danes. This really beautiful bitch is now owned by Miss Ella D. Milbank, a daughter of Dr. Samuel Milbank the chairman of the Westminster Kennel Club show committee.

Now let us take a glance at the dogs: Pointers were strong alike in number and quality, the judge, W. R. Fishel, finding R. F. Maloney's typical and sound moving dog "Herewithem War Cloud" the best of one of the highest quality classes of the breed seen for years. The winner of best in English Setters was Happy Valley Kennels' "Ch. Pilot of Crombie" handled by Alf. Loveridge. A really magnificent entry of Irish Setters came before Mrs. Florence Nagle, the well known English breeder and exhibitor. Several upsets in recent form were noted, but the general opinion was that the judge pleased the majority. Miss Sally Ross' "Champion Knights-craft Patsy Boyne" was the hero of the day, meeting and defeating a grand lot of Irishmen, amongst others "Champion Milson O Boy", who had one of his off days as far as movement was concerned. Would not our dean of Irish Setters breeders, Charley Stone, have enjoyed seeing such an entry? Walter E. Stoddart had a record entry of Cocker Spaniels. W. A. Price, the well known Toronto breeder was taking the keenest interest in the placings, the special for best Cocker was awarded to Peter Garvau's "Champion Torhill Smoky", a son of "Ch. Torhill Trader". Amongst these classes we were certainly disappointed not to see more Canadian breeders represented. Mrs. W. Fitchett was placed fourth in open dogs (English) with "Boy Blue of Chalvey". Our 2nd vice-president, W. H. Pym, acquitted himself well in placing the nice entry of Springer Spaniels. George Kynoch handled the best of breed, "Thorsdale Fidelia", a son of a great favourite of mine "Ch. Adonis of Avandale" which some years ago at Chicago, the writer placed head of his breed, when he was brought out as a puppy and afterwards was purchased by G. M. Thorsby. I was somewhat surprised not to find stronger classes of Beagles. "Champion Fox Catcher Squire" a very merry little hound, gained the special. Collies were very patchy in quality, Mrs. Florence B. Ilch's "Champion Bellhaven Black Lacason" being placed ahead by the writer. The leader amongst the Shepherds was J. W. Mengels' "Ch. Nix of Glenmar" a son of "Utz" and "Hans Schutting". In Airedales S. M. Stewart's "Champion Sheltercock Merry Sovereign", a beautiful Terrier, at times inclined to be a little erratic in ear carriage, won the special. Thomas W. Hogarth made a splendid impression with his judging of Bull Terriers, "Ch. Pantigon of Enderley of Coolyn Hill" gained the special. I heard some adverse criticism on my friend, Mrs. Cecil Pacey's placements in Cairn Terriers, but she had my sympathy, for I had judged the breed at the Terrier Specialty Show the previous day. Evidently some breeders are trying to entirely change the type and are trying to produce Fox Terrier-bodied Cairns, a difficult problem, and to my way of thinking entirely wrong. The type today is patchy, and by no means uniform. It is to be sincerely hoped that before this breed is ruined breeder will get together and decide exactly what the standard calls for. My idea of a typical Cairn is represented by the illustration which appears in "Pure Bred Dogs".

Fox Terrier Smooths were judged by Dr. H. Jarrett. Robert Sedgewick's extremely nice bitch "Ch. Heathside Hourie" was placed best of winners. The Wires were judged by the writer, and he placed Halleston Kennels' "Hornell Spicepiece" best Fox Terrier, therefore starting her on the first rung of the ladder of fame. George Steadman Thomas placed her ahead in the Terrier group, and George West placed her best dog in show, a really beautiful Terrier, all white, shown and handled faultlessly by Percy Roberts. The best of the Irish Terriers was John Mulcahy's "Ch. Newtownards Aristocrat". Scottish Terriers saw Glenafton Kennels' "Fashion Romance of Glenafton", a rather "doggy" bitch placed ahead of her breed. Sealyham's saw an upset of recent form, "Nutfield Silhouette" being placed best of breed. Welsh Terriers were judged by the writer, and he placed Harold Florsheim's "Singleton Latest" ahead of the breed. What a mix up the breeders have made of this breed.

On the final evening every seat seemed to be occupied, and it was certainly pleasing to note the very sporting way the awards were received.

The awards in the groups were as follows:

Sporting—Peter Gavaus, Cocker "Ch. Torhill Smoky".

Hounds—The Greyhound "Ch. White Rose of Boweway".

Working—The Boxer "Ch. Dorien V. Marienhof of Mazelsing".

Terrier—The Wirehaired Fox Terrier, Halleston Kennels, "Flornell Spicypiece of Halleston".

Toys—The Pekingese, "Tang Hao of Caversham, Catawalia".

Non-Sporting—The Chow "Ch. Fair Land Thundergust".

American Bred—The Cocker "Ch. Torhill Smokey".

Brace—Maloney's Pointers.

Team—The Clairedale Kennels, Sealyhams.

Best in show the Fox Terrier, Halleston, "Flornell Spicypiece of Halleston". The opinion expressed by our Canadian contingent was that it was a great show, the management excellent and the courtesy extended to all by the officials was much appreciated.

THE GERMAN SHEPHERD DOG CLUB OF CANADA

The year's activities were brought to a close at the Annual General Meeting, held at the Royal York Hotel on Friday evening, January 29th last.

The President, Mr. Basil Essery, K.C., called the meeting to order with a good attendance of 26 members and about a dozen represented by proxy. This, when one considers our total membership is 74, shows a very good representation, and is significant of the interest taken by the members in their Club.

In the President's address, Mr. Essery touched upon the success with which Mr. Green has met with the use of his blind lead dog which the Club procured for him during the year. Also upon our happy relationship with the C.K.C., through our ex-President, Col. MacRae, President of the C.K.C., to say nothing of our life-long friend Mr. Strachan.

The Club's financial position is very much better than it has been for many years and a further increase along this line is looked for during 1937.

Our Matinee shows held during the year show an increase in entries and were enjoyed by all those present. Our Annual Bench Show provided the second largest number of entries at the Royal Winter Fair and the Club dinner held afterwards went off with even greater enthusiasm than heretofore.

Field Trials were attended and kept up in strength by many new friends and new dogs working.

The Review, too, has met with considerable success during the year, there being a 100 per cent increase in the number of those subscribing. Mr. Chisholm, Chairman of that branch, would appreciate it if you would make any notes of anything that might be interesting as copy for him and forward same to him at the Bank of Commerce Bldg.

Mr. McDowell reports an increase of membership over the previous year of 13, and produced 8 new applications for membership, all of whom were elected.

Four prizes were presented during the evening, they being the Hettel von Bodman Prize, awarded to Mr. and Mrs. Weller. The Canadian-bred Male Trophy to Mr. Gooderham. The Max Trophy (Companion Class Winner) to Dr. Halderson, as was also the McDowell Trophy for Reserve Field Trial Champion.

Several matters were discussed under new business. Mr. Weller was appointed Judge of our breed at the Matinee Show to be held March 3rd under the auspices of the Pekingese Association.

A new prize was arranged for the Canadian-bred Dog Class and will appear during 1937 as follows: The Club Purse to be awarded to the dog scoring most points during 1937—1 point awarded for each dog defeated—at shows where the Club Trophies are put up, winner take all, the sum being $25.00.

Mr. C. W. Radford made a number of helpful suggestions for the Field Trial. Note was made of them and they will be dealt with by this year's Field Trial Committee. It was also hoped to make arrangements for the use of a lot on the boundaries of the city so that regular instruction may be had by members not so fortunate in being able to make use of Manor Farm. This, however, will not conflict with the regular Sunday meets as held last year every other Sunday commencing on May 3rd.

You may see by this year's letter-head the results of the election, which was then held, and we hope you will like the new cut. It is of "Elline von Briarnol", Mr. Weller's big winner this year. It is the plan of the Club to have the winner of this Trophy represented each year in this fashion.

Shortly after adjournment of the Annual General Meeting, the new Board of Directors met and elected Mr. Alex. Gooderham as secretary; Messrs. Kent and Gooderham, joint chairmen of the Bench Show Committee; Mr. Gilmore, chairman of the Field Trial; Mr. McDowell, chairman of the Membership Committee; and Mr. Chisholm, chairman of the Revue Committee.

The next meeting will be held on March 5th, and from then on, the first Friday of each month, notice of which you will receive in due course.

Don't forget that this is your Club and that the President, the Secretary, and the Board of Directors would be delighted to hear your suggestions at all times; and we would appreciate especially if you would keep in touch with the various chairmen of the Committees, with the future success of the Club and the Breed always in mind.

OSHAWA STEPS OUT

A Matinee Afternoon and Evening Dog Show sponsored by the Oshawa Humane Society was held on Saturday, February 20th, and the results were more than satisfactory. Held in the local Armouries, the gate was of such proportions that was all the more gratifying in the face of a hockey game being held the same evening. Oshawa apparently has gone dog minded, and there is already talk of a local kennel club being formed. There were some innovations at this affair that one does not meet with at similar fixtures. For instance, a premium list was issued, the dogs were benched, there was a percentage of the entry fees paid out in prize money, the ribbons were of good quality and many cups were up for competition and to be won outright. Nearly 150 dogs were present, Belleville and Peterboro being well represented, whilst Toronto sent not quite as big a showing, lack of advertising perhaps being responsible. The secretary, Mr. Eyton Warburton, a man of parts, if ever we met one, had attended to all details. Mrs. R. B. Smith, President of the local Humane Society, graciously presented the cups to the winners, whilst other workers were: Vice-President Mrs. G. Yellowly, Mr. A. L. Lobban, Secretary, Mrs. C. W. Connop and Treasurer Mr. M. W. Goldie, who confessed at the end of the proceedings to having money in every pocket, surely a happy condition for any treasurer. The slate of judges was a strong one. Messrs. Reg. P. Sparkes, non-Sporting; Jas. D. Strachan, Working; Alfred Roberts, Toys; Jack Latham, Terriers, and Bert Swann, Sporting. Best in Show was placed by Messrs. Sparkes, Roberts and Latham, and fell to Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Cooper's Borjoi "Koda Beloff O' Dolina". Reserve, W. J. Risewick's Bulldog "Wally's White Duchess. Mrs. A. R. Kittermaster's black Pom. was best Toy. Dr. C. R. Boulding's Wire bitch best Terrier, best working a black Newfoundland whose name we did not get.

DOG BY-LAW, MEDICINE HAT, ALTA.

Many questions are being asked with regard to the new dog by-law which became effective at the first of the year. Following is a brief outline of the points on which there appears to be some confusion.

Police dog means any animal that is wholly or partly of any of the following breeds: Police, Alsatian, German Shepherd, German Police, Belgian Police or huskies.

The owner of a dog is any person who harbors, possesses or allows a dog to remain in or around his premises or house.

All police dogs shall, except when led on leash, be confined by its owner in a kennel or building or in a fenced enclosure sufficient for that purpose. This regulation applies only to police dogs.

Dogs impounded will be held for 72 hours, unless sooner claimed, and a pound fee of $1 will be charged together with 25c a day for feeding, except in the case of police dogs for whom the fee is $5 and the same charge for feeding.

No dog known to be vicious shall be allowed to run at large and any such animal found loose will be impounded and its owner will be subject to prosecution.

The fee for kennel license is $12 and the by-law confines the owner of such kennel to two dogs and one female but a permit may be granted by the chief constable for keeping an additional female for a period of three months or longer.

Owners of kennel licenses shall also be permitted to keep litters of pups without extra charge until the animals are three months old when the regular license fee will be charged except where a police dog or bitch is kept in a kennel when the license fee shall be $25.

No license fee can be issued until the owner has first obtained a permit of inspection from the medical health officer.

No kennel license can be issued until certificates of registration are held from the registrars of either the Canadian Kennel Club, American Kennel Club, Field Dog Book, American Chesapeake Club or Kennel Club of England.

DOG HANDLER DIES AT WESTMINSTER SHOW

Everett Fread, one of the leading professional dog handlers, died of a heart attack during the afternoon of the second day of the Westminster Kennel Club Show. He had just left the Sealyham Terrier ring, where he was showing dogs for the Knollton Kennels of Stamford, Conn., when he suffered the attack. He was dead before he could be taken to nearby Polyclinic Hospital.

His wife was in the arena at the time, but did not learn of his death until hours later.

—New York Herald Tribune.

The funeral service was held in the Universal Mortuary, 52nd and Lexington Avenue, New York City.

The casket was banked with flowers, and it appeared that Len Brumley and McClure Hally were responsible for the arrangements, and were deeply interested in the welfare of the widow.

Among those noticed in the crowded chapel were Mr. and Mrs. Enno Meyer, Raymond L. Patterson, Joe Viner and many others, including Mr. W. H. Pym, representing the Canadian Fancy.

Everett Fread was a young man and one of the most popular members of his profession. Unassuming to a degree and a steady worker, the care of his charges and the interests of his clients were his chief concern. He visited Canada once, at the National Kennel Club Show, 1935. To his widow at this time of sorrow every sympathy will be extended.

Manitoba Notes

By Provincial Contributing Editor,

T. K. MacKENZIE,
282 Davidson St., Winnipeg, Man.

A MEETING of Manitoba members of the C. K. C. was held in the Majestic Hotel on the 29th of January, Director Mr. George Kynoch presiding, Mr. John Cook acting as clerk of the meeting. The amendments and proposals as portrayed in the January issue of Kennel and Bench were discussed at length, and the viewpoint of the members were recorded for the directors use, when he attends the Annual General Meeting of Canadian Kennel Club. Nominations were made for the Manitoba Committee and resulted in the re-appointment of last year's quartette, consisting of Messrs. Robert Simpson, George Duncan, John F. Kerr and Charles Cowell. The director made it clear that Kennel and Bench in the Manitoba area, greatly depended on the members forwarding items of interest to the contributor, whose address always appears above the Manitoba Notes. This concluded the business and the meeting adjourned.

Glad we were to see friend George Duncan around again, after his long indisposition, and on February 1st he resumes his calling, taking the old Puffing Billy on his travels on the steel to distant points. Hoping for good clear tracks and happy landings, George.

The Ornetzie Kennels, owners Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wade, Winnipeg, report the arrival of a fine litter of four dogs and three bitches, sired by "Ornetzie Simon" and having "Ornetzie Light-some" for dam. The show bitch "Janet" has been mated to "Ornetzie Simon", their imported stud dog, whose sire is "Ch. Walnut Aristocrat", by "Heather Necessity", while "Janet" is by the imported sire "Roschall Rector", by "Ch. Heather Fashion Hint".

The postponed annual meeting of the Scottish Terrier Club of Canada was held on February 2nd in the Majestic Hotel, Winnipeg, T. Kay MacKenzie in the chair. The meeting was well attended. Minutes read and adopted. Secretary Alex. Gostick submitted the financial statement, which showed a favourable balance being carried forward, and showing steady increase in membership, numbering 27 on the roll at striking of the balance. Applications for membership were received from: Miss Eliz. Baker, Quebec; Mr. Davies, Branksome Kennels, Bordeaux, Quebec; Mr. E. C.

Anderson, Winnipeg. The candidates were duly admitted to the club. The list of special prizes was increased by notice from donors, Miss Anne Donald and Mr. Tom Altham. Illustrated cards to go with special prizes, have been left with the President to provide. The office-bearers were all re-elected for 1937. Business ended, meeting adjourned.

Miss Donald of the Deeside Scottish Terrier Kennels reports a nice litter of five dogs and one female. Sired by "Haldon Buglar" ex "Braw Lass II", and a litter by "Haldon Roundalay" ex "Trizie of Green Gables", who is by "Ornetzie Tartan" ex "Girl of Green Gables", two males and two females comprise this litter, which is of much promise. Recent sales were six puppies to satisfied purchasers.

This "Trizie's" name has previously appeared in Kennel and Bench regarding her commandeering a little from a kennel mate while in the Green Gables Kennels of Mr. Gostick, but this time she proves a real matron for Miss Donald, whose "Braw Lass II", after whelping her litter, became sick and her puppies were transferred to "Trizie", who mothered them until "Braw Lass II" became fit again. So that's that, and "Trizie" remains the handy inmate of the kennel.

The Bits from Briton, are always interesting reading for me, as incidents are from time to time cropping up to remind me of days long since passed. The expressions of regret by the Scottish Dog Fanciers, on the retreat of Ex-Provost James C. Dalgleish from the chairmanship of the Scottish Kennel Club, will be added to by "Brither" Scots in distant lands when the stirring times in British dogdom are recalled, as named by the correspondent of "Our Dogs". The great crisis of 33 years ago, many may wonder what that crisis was. It was the British Kennel Club putting their new rules that govern shows into force, one of which was that all dogs shown after a certain date must be registered in the Kennel Club. The crisis arose when the City of Glasgow Club staged a show, without sanction by the Governing Body, disqualification of all exhibits and owners followed. Home Rule for Scotland in kennel matters was taboo. Thanks to the good office of Provost Dalgleish and W. J. C. Reed, owner of the well known Mearns

Kennels of Wirehaired Fox Terriers and their associates in the newly formed body, the Scottish Council, the offending club and its supporters were reinstated, and it has proved all for the betterment of the fancy, when all applications for shows of any kind must be endorsed by two Office-bearers of club seeking to run a show, and who become responsible to the Kennel Club for the proper conduct of all affairs relating to the show, the Scottish Kennel Club, the while being the delegated authority of the Kennel Club. All permits, licences or sanctions came from Headquarters in London. Previous to this time exhibitors never knew their fate, whether they would collect their full prize money or part thereof, and often the latter was the case, with a curt note saying the show was a loss, and half prize money paid. Evening shows which had become very popular were now restricted to the number of classes, not more than 25, and within a radius of 25 miles under permit. While a compound licence bound the club to run four quarterly shows in the year, all entry forms and papers after show, were mailed to headquarters, no prizes being paid until the sanction of the Kennel Club was obtained. The first recorded show under Compound Licence was credited to the West of Scotland Toy Dog and Terrier Association, held in the City of Glasgow, with the President of the club, the writer, judging all. Many variety classes were on the card, just as they are today at most of the local and club events in Britain. During my term of office with this club 32 shows were successfully carried through. Valuable prizes were always a feature of their events. The club having a large membership, their evening shows drawing big entries, always proving of great interest to fanciers and the general public, whose support we enjoyed. Many of the younger school made their debut as judges at these fixtures and became good all-round judges, whose services, I note, are often called upon for judging. Many, however, I am sorry to relate, have passed down the long trail. Many high class winners at the Open Shows made their debut at this clubs events, and sales with good prices were recorded. Many notable breeders and exhibitors from distant parts, oftentimes travelled long journeys to be with us. One evening I recall meeting at the ringside, Jack Woods, of Armley Road, Leeds, whose Yorkshire Terriers were conspicuous winners throughout England, and the renowned J. W. Rowley, the star comedian of the Music Halls, a successful breeder and exhibitor of Yorkies, and Mrs. Rowley (Ella Dean the Australian nightingale); also a famous star of the Music Halls. When I look back on this period of over 30 years and more, and realize the great good that the rules of the kennel club have created, so I accordingly hope that the various proposals recorded in Kennel and Bench will come into force, and that all club events shall be under the jurisdiction of the Governing Body, the Canadian Kennel Club, Inc., for therein lies the future success of the Evening or Matinee Show. No body other than established Kennel and Specialty Clubs whose objects are for the betterment of their respective breeds, should, to my mind, be granted permission to stage a show.

The Hazedel Kennels, owner Mrs. J. L. Pateman, Kildonan, Man., reports that a handsome litter of puppies, eight dogs and four bitches, came to the well known "Ch. Silverdale Lucky Girl", the Springer, and sired by "Ch. Lindons Laughing Stock". Four of her puppies have been transferred to the daughter "Mona Lisa", who had four of a litter, two of each sex, and they are all a happy family, including their popular owners, Mr. and Miss Pateman, who is owner of "Mona Lisa". The owner of the sire of this flock of puppies, Mr. Jack Tulloch, was a visitor to the kennels, and was delighted to see so many fine youngsters. This aggregation of Springers are at home on the field or march, excellent workers and well known winners on the Bench; as producers, well, this notice tells you so.

Crippled by a nasty fall, Mrs. Joe is confined indoors, and every effort is being put forward to enable her to be present at the Bay Show to see her entries judged, and that is the wish of Mrs. Pateman's many friends, which we join in.

Observations of a Novice

We read with some interest, recently, a discussion by some very eminent Chowists, favouring the developing through breeding, of double-jointed hocks in Chows. We wonder if this isn't a little bit more of the "faddist" idea. We would look on an exaggerated condition of the hocks, to the point of being double-jointed, as a deformity, and think for the safety of the breed that judges would be well advised to do likewise. One can readily imagine what some of our Chows would look like after a few years of experimenting along this line by some of us novices. I think we will find it much easier to go along, as we have been, correcting slight angulation when it shows up, than trying to stamp out a deformity in our Chows a few years hence.

The Shamrock Kennels, of Irish Terriers, St. James, Man., owner, Herb. L. Dargie, report that all saleable puppies on their list have found new homes and owners, including a handsome dog, sired by "Culbahn Commander" to Inspector Day, R.C.M.P., while two others have also found homes in the city and suburbs of Winnipeg, while a handsome brace of youngsters, retained to strengthen the kennel, are causing many enquiries at present, their sire being the imported "Culbahn Commander", a recent winner of Second Open Dogs, in strong company at Madison Square Gardens.

The regular monthly meeting of the Greater Winnipeg Kennel Club was held in the St. Regis Hotel on the 9th of February, President Bently in the chair, who expressed pleasure at seeing so many members present. Minutes read and adopted. Reports for sub-committees and delegates were tabled, their contents meeting with hearty approval of the members. Furtherance of show business was carried through, and delegates for club interests other than show were appointed, including the programme for the banquet the first night of the show, which was left in the hands of Messrs. Jack Masterman and T. Kay MacKenzie. This concluded the business, and the meeting was adjourned.

The Ulster Kennels, Fort Garry, Man., report having purchased from Mr. R. Cross, Victoria, B.C., and Mrs. May D. Gardener, Edmonton, Alta., the winning wire haired female "Welbeck Rosamond", by "Welbeck Brigadier" ex "Burlington Rose" in whelp to "Talauro Goldfinder" who is by "Ch. Talavera Symington" ex a daughter of "Wardine Go Bang". Also the well known Scottish Terrier bitch "Haldon Tambourine", who has seven points to her credit, and is entered, along with wire in all available classes at the Bay Show on 19th and 20th. A new puppy sired by "Orentzie Simon" ex "Rep Fade of Avondale", has been shipped to Mr. Jenkins, R.C.M.P.,

Rosburn, Man., who is pleased with his purchase. We wish the puppy buyers success with their new stock.

Removal of fish and game control from the realms of politics, seems to be a subject of wide discussion amongst the sporting fraternity, both in Canada and the United States. Several interested parties seem to be of the opinion that if our association was formed to replace the Department of Game and Fisheries in our respective provinces, that the sport of shooting wild birds would be long-lived. In Canada the Provincial Governments have control over all game laws. For some years our game laws have been continually changing, our shooting season shortens, sanctuaries have been established, and many farmers have taken advantage of the present game laws, existent in Manitoba, and have had their property established as a game reserve, so that the shooter in a few years will find it impossible to enjoy a day's shooting, unless he is prepared to travel many miles to the vast waste lands of our provinces. Then we are menaced with the individuals who shoot game out of season and disposes of it in an unlawful manner. I don't think we are troubled with this so much as they are in the United States, but, however, the business of selling game is carried on in Canada, and will increase if a stop is not made, and punishment administered to those who carry on this kind of lawless business. Your contributor is not qualified to suggest what would be the better course to pursue, but with all the propaganda and publicity that is being given to this subject in our daily papers and sporting magazines it is very evident that some action will be taken in the near future. This subject is a matter of vital importance to all breeders of Sporting dogs in Canada, and is certainly one of great importance to all manufacturers of ammunition and firing arms, and these makers see to it that they have adequate representation on all such commissions. So the breeders of Sporting dogs should have representation in some way on any organization whose object it is to control the game laws of our respective provinces. In Manitoba during the last few years the demand for hunting dogs (this covers many breeds), has dwindled to practically nothing. When our game laws were such that we had two or three weeks chicken shooting, and we had plenty of small marshes close to Winnipeg, the demand for these hunting dogs was good, but now the average sportsman thinks there is not much use of owning a good shooting dog, because of the present game laws. So why should not the breeders of Sporting dogs keep wide awake and in touch with legislation that might retard the sales of Sporting dogs. The breeders should know what is going on all the time. Saskatchewan, I understand, have formed a new Sporting Dog Club, and if every province did something similar, recommendations from such a body could be submitted to all fish and game administrations. After all a man who breeds Sporting dogs, or owns a Sporting dog is well qualified to give expert advice on the matter of game control, because he is usually a true sportsman himself, and has a knowledge of the gaming conditions as they exist in his territory. The matter of game control is certainly the business of the man who produces Sporting dogs, but does not interest himself closely enough with conditions that affect their products.

The many friends of Mr. C. H. Wright, Kirkfield Park, regret that he is leaving the district, and will probably land down East, where our good wishes go with him. An enthusiastic Cocker Spaniel fancier, he has disposed of most of his stock, but will hold the parti-colour "Lilly of Isla" to accompany them East. Mr. Hamilton of Winnipeg has bought a nice partifemale, "Silverdale", bred purely as a breeding prospect. We wish Mr. and Mrs. Wright the best of health, luck and happiness, and don't forget the number of the door, Mr. Wright.

We expect our Manitoba Director back with us on the 17th instant, when all members will expect to hear of business transacted at the annual general meeting. Mr. Kynoch was very unfortunate in not being able to take his two good Springer Spaniel puppies, "Hazedel Masterpiece" and "Hazedel Wonder" to New York, they having taken ill, just after he left for Toronto, but I am glad to say they are improving somewhat.

WESTMINSTER KENNEL CLUB SHOW

At Madison Square Garden, New York City, on February 10th, 11th and 12th, previous records and figures went by the board when 3,146 dogs, representing 92 breeds, battled for honours at the 61st Annual Show, sponsored by the Westminster Kennel Club. Forty-seven judges were engaged for the colossal task of sifting the chaff from the grain, and the general approval with which their decisions were accepted by the onlookers speaks volumes for the marked ability of the ladies and gentlemen who acted on this occasion. The judges included: Mrs. Florence Nagle Sulamstead, England, Irish Setters, Irish Wolfhounds; Mrs. Cyril Pacey, Clifton Hall, near Rugby, England, Cairn Terriers, Dandie Dinmont Terriers, Skye Terriers; Mr. J. W. Marples, Gately, Cheshire, England, Spaniels, Brittany, Clumber, English Cocker, Field, Irish Water, Sussex, Welsh Springer, Bull Mastiffs, Welsh Corgis, Cardigan and Pembroke, Staffordshire Terriers, West Highland White Terriers and Keeshonden. Canada's representation on the judicial list were: Thomas W. Hogarth, Guelph, Ontario, Bull Terriers, Lhasa Terriers; William H. Pym, Vancouver, B.C., English Springer Spaniels, Afghan Hounds, Norwegian Elkhounds, Salukis; Walter H. Reeves, Belleville, Ontario, Collies, Wire Fox Terriers; and Best of Breed, Welsh Terriers. This, the greatest indoor show in America, enjoys a popularity all its own, which may be gauged when we state that it was estimated 50,000 people went through the turnstiles. On the last day 25,000 of the public viewed the show, and the final judging was witnessed by more than 10,000. The prizes offered were in keeping with the standing of the event, and in addition to the valuable trophies and cash class premiums on tap, no less than 51 Best of Breed specials, each representing $25.00 each, were put up by sporting ladies and gentlemen associated with the club.

The breeds that stood out in numbers were 205 Cocker Spaniels, 198 Dachshunde, 134 Scottish Terriers, 124 Boston Terriers and 114 Wire Fox Terriers.

In this vortex of competition the Dominion was represented by 110 dogs and more than half that number of exhibitors. The distinction of making the largest individual entry goes to Mrs. G. W. Hyslop, Brockville, Ontario, who showed a team of Great Danes and Cairn Terriers numbering 12. Mrs. A. R. Kittermaster, of Toronto, with eight Poms, vied for second place with Mrs. W. Wylie, Vineland, Ontario, who had a similar number of the same breed. The Canadian handlers, Messrs. Percy Brown, Toronto; Geo. Kynoch, Winnipeg; Alf. Loveridge, Toronto, and Ted. Ward, Oakville, each had representative strings forward, and the list of awards lifted by the representatives of the Maple Leaf tells a story of endeavour and satisfactory results that add one more page to the annals of Dominion dogdom.

THE MOUNT ROYAL TOY DOG CLUB SHOW

The first All-Toy Dog Show of the newly-organized Mount Royal Toy Dog Club was held in the Reception Room of the Central Y.M.C.A., Montreal, on the afternoon and evening of February 6th.

The very gratifying entry of 75 dogs, headed by 39 Pekingese, greeted Mr. Robert A. Ross, who commented most favorably on the high quality of the dogs exhibited and the smooth running of the show, the latter being largely due to the expert ring stewarding of Messrs. L. B. Leguin and Alex Ross. Mr. M. G. Threlfall was the official announcer, and his explanations concerning the different breeds and classes given through a loud speaker proved very interesting to the ringsiders. The committee's hard work was amply rewarded as their first venture was a complete success and netted a $150 cheque to the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

CANADIAN COCKER SPANIEL ASSOCIATION

Thursday, February 4th, saw the above named club signalize their ability to do things different, when they held a social evening and get-together with the Board of Directors of the Canadian Kennel Club, Inc., as their guests of honor, at the King Edward Hotel, Toronto. There was a vast gathering, which proved to be a who's who of dogdom, as clubs fostering other breeds represented by officials and members and prominent fanciers of other varieties were noticed in the assembly. More than a score of speakers gave a short address. These included the President of the Canadian Kennel Club, Inc., Col. J. N. MacRae; the veteran Honorary President, Mr. C. A. Stone; Mr. A. A. Macdonald, Chairman of the Canadian National Exhibition Dog Show Committee; Mr. Bethune L. Smith, President of the National Kennel Club, and Alderman Lamport representing the city of Toronto. President Fred Shawley was in the chair and the toastmaster, Mr. W. A. Price, proved to be most proficient in his duties. The secretary, Mr. C. J. Williams, read a report, embodying the history, aims and objects of the association, whilst one of the highlights of the evening was provided by Mr. W. H. Pym of Vancouver, in his discourse on Spaniel Field Trials illustrated by chart. There was a sing song, too, with variety artistes doing a turn. The proceedings closed with a buffet lunch, the viands and other refreshments being of a varied and appetising character. All in all, it was a very enjoyable affair, bringing out to a marked degree the social side of our sport, and the cosmopolitan gathering was a delightful return to the efforts of those responsible, the officers and members of the still youthful Canadian Cocker Spaniel Association.

Alberta Notes

By Provincial Contributing Editor,

S. W. FOSTER,
9617 101st St., Edmonton, Alta.

WE received a very welcome letter from Lt.-Col. David Ritchie of Calgary which comes first on our file for this month's notes. In fact, we are extremely sorry to say that the letter was received just one day late for last month's news, and as we think it altogether probable that our editor thought we were rather late at that, we feel that it might be well to repeat once more that the fifteenth of each month is absolutely the deadline for all news to be in our hands, and several days earlier would be preferable.

Mr. Ritchie inquires about the dates for the forthcoming Edmonton Show, and says that his newly imported Scottish Terrier, "Vicroy", is getting quite used to the Alberta weather and is in the pink of condition. He says: "I am having quite a number of enquiries about him for stud purposes. My bitch, "Ellwyn Wendy", is in whelp to him and is due at the end of the month. I am hoping to have a nice litter and praying that the weather will not be too cold at that time. I have had a few sales of puppies during the winter, mostly local, but recently have had enquiries from as far away as Chicago".

Now, as we have already stated, this letter being a month delayed, we have heard from another source that the litter mentioned as expected about the end of January arrived in due course and that while the number saved was not large, Col. Ritchie believes he has some real outstanding prospects, and we expect more will be heard from them later.

Our Provincial Director, Mr. W. G. Climo, as usual travelled via Edmonton both going to and returning from the annual meeting of the directors of the Canadian Kennel Club as well as the annual general meeting held in Toronto on February 4th and 5th respectively. On his return he addressed a well-attended meeting of the Edmonton Dog Fanciers' Club and Canadian Kennel Club members, and gave a very painstaking account of the proceedings. It would appear that the vexed question of the enforced tattooing of dogs has been tabled for another year. There are few, if any, who deny the advantages of tattooing, but the issue that is retarding its enforcement is just how it is going to be done, as it is claimed by many that any device brought forward to the present will not be practical for some of the very small breeds. So for another year the word is that, while tattooing is advisable, it is not compulsory.

Other matters dealt with concerned the benching at shows of entries in the puppy classes, regulating the time that they must be brought to show and the time they may be removed, so that they may not be required to remain on the bench for the full duration of the show.

Another matter, the importance of which is obvious at a glance, is the control of dog shows other than the Canadian Kennel Club licensed shows, and while the reasons why this has become so important have yet to be experienced in Alberta, no one knows how soon we also might have the same things to contend with were it not for the action which has just been taken by the Canadian Kennel Club. It would appear that both spiteful and racketeering motives have prompted the promotion of dog shows in some places. But in future, any organization wishing to hold an unlicensed show must make application for a permit and dates and these will be known as Sanction Shows, and while the Canadian Kennel Club have no power to prevent any parties or associations from holding dog shows at any time, they will in future have the right to deprive any exhibitors who patronize such shows of their Canadian Kennel Club privileges, which would make it appear that they have the matter pretty well in hand. However, as all this and much more will appear in the regular Canadian Kennel Club report, perhaps we are taking up too much space with duplication.

We have received a list of the officers elected at the annual meeting of the Alberta Kennel Club of Calgary as follows: President, John E. Hunter; honorary vice-presidents, Rt. Hon. R. B. Bennett, Hon. J. W. Hugill, John Irwin, M.L.A., C. Leigh Spencer, E. D. Adams, N. E. Christie, F. J. White, F. E. Currey, A. P. Patrick, Lt.-Col. David Ritchie, J. B. Cross, Max Bell, W. G. Climo; vice-presidents, H. P. Saunders, H. Tomlin and Reuben Bond; executive committee, Dave Johnston, Hugh Carney, Frank Musgrove, John Burns; secretary-treasurer, A. W. Lancaster, sen.

We regret very much to learn that Mr. John E. Hunter of Calgary has been quite ill with an attack of "flu", but from latest reports he is considerably improved, and we know that his host of friends among the dog fanciers and others will be pulling for his early and complete recovery.

We were very pleased to receive a letter from a new correspondent in the person of Mr. Wm. "Bill" Carson of Priddis, Alta. Mr. Carson says: "As a novice of about three years as a breeder, I am going to venture on the sacred ground of dogdom with a little suggestion to the seasoned old warriors re parti-colored Cockers. The difficulties we meet with no doubt are common to all colored Cocker breeders. Before going further, I may first state what wares we have, and our objective in our newly-established kennel.

Our young stud dog, black and white, is known as "Calmas Boy". He is sired by "Cinders of Heavensgate", "Cinders" being well advertised in Kennel and Bench. The dam of "Calmas Boy" is a first litter bitch, "Calmas Misty Morn". She is by "Ch. Skyrocket of Dene", by "Old Ironside of Dene", by "Ch. Iron Duke". "Misty's" dam is "Calmas Rosy Morn", by "Ch. Calmas Durbar", by "Matlock Durbar".

We have a young red bitch sired by "Cinders of Heavensgate" and whose dam is "Twenty-One Psychic Bid" (imp.). "Psychic Bid" carries the blood of "Ch. Lapeer", "Red Brucie", "Sweet Georgia Brown", "Ch. Robinhurst Fireglow", "Ch. Obo Donatello", "Midkiff Miracle Man", "Midkiff Seductive", and many other noteworthy.

We have two other red matrons of the "Ch. Calmas Field-Marshal", "Ch. Calmas Durbar" strain, which are well known to Westerners; also a black and white bitch, "Cinderella", bred by a Toronto kennel, and two young red bitches, damed by one of the above mentioned reds, and sired by "Ch. Daybreak of Barrie". He is by "Ch. Freckles of Barrie", by "Ch. Limestone Laddie", by "Ch. Robinhurst Loneglow".

To the above we have added a very promising young Scottie bitch about six months of age. She is a brindle, and bred by Chief of Police David Ritchie, of Calgary, the dam of this young lady is the Chief's famous brood bitch "Ch. Ellwyn Wendy. We expect to see her make herself better known at a later date.

No, we have nothing to sell, having been fortunate in disposing of our young stock at fair prices shortly after weaning.

Have nothing more coming in until March, when we expect a nice litter from one of the above-mentioned red bitches. This litter will be sired by the black dog "Ch. Calmas Crusader", by "Ch. Calmas Durbar", "ex-Ch. Lucky girl". Also a litter from "Cinderella". The sire of this litter is "Ch. Daybreak of Barrie". "Cinderella" threw some very nice puppies from "Daybreak" in her last litter.

Getting back to coloured Cockers, and particularly parti-colours. I believe most breeders have found that the Western public knows little or nothing about parti-coloured Cockers. It is quite common to see a Westerner look at a parti-coloured Cocker, admire the dog, then enquire "what breed of dog is that one"?

We will all agree that the parti-coloured Cocker is a more or less new addition to the Cocker family in Western Canada. At the same time it is an addition that is not too hard to look at, and will eventually give more popularity to the breed by adding more variety in color. The solid colors are here to stay, and have their admirers, but what about the class of the public whose tastes run to the more flashy colours.

I believe that the parti-colours, roans, etc., should, to a great extent, satisfy the desires of that section, and therefore replace a portion of the so-called coloured mongrels. I have always had a dog of one breed or another for the last 40 years. Still I feel I am a little young, as a breeder, to outline a publicity campaign for the coloured Cockers, but I feel there are many old-timers with experience and ability, who could organize a campaign that would educate the public on the colored varieties, and make the Cocker family as a whole more prominent.

Before leaving the subject of Mr. Carson's letter, we may say that among the few kennels we have had the pleasure of visiting recently was the Fidalas Cocker Kennels of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Smith, where parti-colours are also well represented. The well-known little blue roan bitch, "Ch. Fidalas Cinderella" looks like the proverbial million, and should go a long way, not only among parti-colors, but all other colours as well. There are also a pair of real quality roan puppies around seven months, sired by "Buster Ware of Aberfeldy", he by "Romeo of Moray", ex "Ch. Sweetheart of Ware" (Imp.), the dam being "Merrie Etta" by "Ch. Felbrigg Mark" (Imp.), ex "Lucky Trick of Moray". There is also a young litter of three, all males, from the young bitch "Fidalas Sis Hopkins" and sired by Dr. J. A. Bleazard's winning dog "Merrie Prince", by "Ch. Merrie Durbar" ex "Merrie Bubbles".

Mr. J. H. Lanton has secured from Mr. M. A. Ainslie, a female black Cocker puppy from the litter by "Calmas Standard Bearer" ex "Doreens Cameron Girl".

Mr. M. L. Cunningham is also the proud owner of a black female from the same litter.

Mrs. M. D. Gardner has sold her Scottish Terrier bitch "Haldon Tamboirine", and also the Wire bitch "Welbeck Rosamond", which was awarded Best of Breed at Calgary in November. Both have gone to the kennels of Mr. T. Kane of Winnipeg, and word received from their new owner expresses real satisfaction with his purchases. A letter received from Mrs. A. A. Jullien, of Calgary, contains the following news: "Ch. Craig of Cosalta", owned jointly by the Cosalta Kennels, of Greenwich, Conn., and Mrs. Jullien, competed at the Obedience Test held in connection with the recent Baltimore, Md., show. He was a competitor in the Novice Class, which he won with a score of 95 points out of a possible 100. There were nine entries. It is expected he will compete at the Test held at the time of the Boston, Mass. Show. Should he be successful in winning over 85 points at this Test, he will be able to affix C.D. after his name. "Ch. Craig" is the sire of Mrs. Jullien's "Ch. Cedric of Cosalta". Mrs. Jullien is very elated over the win of her "Helma of Cosalta", which she also owns jointly with Cosalta Kennels (Miss Marie J. Leary) at the Westminster Show. She placed 2nd in Open Class, being defeated by a recent German importation. "Helma" has had a most remarkable show career. She was first shown in 1935, at the New England Specialty Show held in conjunction with the Greenwich Kennel Club Show, where she placed 4th in a very strong class of 12. Later that year she was shown at Skytop, Penn., and at Rye, N.Y., and accounted for Winners at both shows. She was not shown until June of last year, again at the German Shepherd Dog Club of New England Specialty Show, where she placed 2nd Open and Reserve Winner. Later she was shown at six shows during the fall circuit, and accounted for Winners at Westbury, N.Y. and Danburg, Conn.; Best of Winners at Brockton, Mass. and the Bronx, N.Y., and Reserve Winner at Devon, Penn. and at Newark, N.J. To date she has won eleven points, including a three-point win. All her wins have been in the strongest competition, and Mrs. Jullien is certain she will soon win the necessary points to give her her title.

Miss Leary's "Hugo of Cosalta" was Winners Dog at the recent Westminster Show. "Hugo" is "Helma's" litter brother, and has also had a very brilliant show career, and this Westminster win will give him almost enough points for his title.

We hear that Constable McCordle, of the R.C.M.P., who has been with Captain Harwich learning the Dog Handling Course, has now returned to his post in Manitoba. He was accompanied by "Sultan" the German Shepherd Police Trained dog. Captain Harwich is very well pleased with Constable McCordle's work, and both he and the dog should prove valuable assets to the Manitoba police. "Sultan" was trained by Captain Harwich, whose kennels are situated at Glenbow, Alta. "Sultan" is the third dog bought by the R.C.M.P., and it is expected more will be added to the Force as soon as trained.

The Victor Kennels of Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Clutton, of Edmonton, were also well represented at the recent Westminster show, where their Labrador Retrievers "Don Mario of Victor" and Ch. Grand Duchess Victor" placed 2nd in classes for Open Dogs and Open Bitches, respectively. Both dogs were in the care of the well known and capable handler, Geo. Kynoch, of Winnipeg. Mr. and Mrs. Clutton are to be heartily congratulated on their sportsmanship in sending their dogs such a distance, as we have first-hand information from experience as to the expense and other obstacles involved.

It would appear that it is perhaps just one day too early to learn if any of the dogs bearing our Airline prefix were in competition, or with what success. However, as they are no longer Alberta-owned, it is not so much a matter of general interest.

While on the subject of shows let us once more remind the dog fanciers of Western Canada that their presence is very earnestly requested at the Dog Show to be held under the auspices of the ladies of the Junior Hospital League, of Edmonton, on Friday and Saturday, April 2nd and 3rd. Mr. W. G. Climo, of Calgary, who needs no introduction to exhibitors and patrons at dog shows in the West, has accepted an invitation to judge all breeds. In our last month's notice we mentioned March 19th and 20th, as the probable dates of the show, but the postponement was deemed advisable for several reasons, and we trust that all the fanciers from a distance who were planning to bring or send their dogs, will not be seriously inconvenienced by the change of dates.

So come one and all and help the ladies of the Junior Hospital League to put their fourth annual Dog Show over with a bang.

CORRECTION

Mr. T. J. Dunlop of Riverside, Ontario, advises us that the win of Best of Breed at Windsor, 1936, as credited to his kennel in his advertisement in our December issue, was an error.

Saskatchewan Notes

A. G. GODDARD
1522 Ave. E. N., Saskatoon, Sask.

THE Saskatoon Kennel Club will hold its Ninth Annual Spring Show on Good Friday and Saturday, March 26th and 27th, in the Zenith ball room. Heat, light and ventilation are excellent with plenty of room to accommodate the spectators and benching. The building itself is situated right in the centre of the city.

Mr. G. Kynoch, of Winnipeg, has been engaged to judge all breeds. It is over five years since Mr. Kynoch last judged in Saskatoon, at which time he drew an entry of one hundred and sixty-eight dogs. If only this number could be equalled at the coming show its success would be assured.

It is to be hoped that many fanciers from other cities, towns and villages will make every effort to visit this show where the usual Saskatoon welcome awaits them. So come and bring your dogs and help to make this a real show.

Mr. Wilfred Hoy, P.O. Box 1063, Saskatoon, is Show Secretary, while Mr. R. Hogg has again been appointed Superintendent.

I have just been notified that the Regina Kennel Club is holding a meeting to deal with the matter of holding a spring show. Details regarding the outcome of this meeting will no doubt be available soon.

Mrs. F. R. Nichol, Saskatoon, a newcomer to the ranks of Scottish Terrier breeders, is very much interested these days in a litter of seven puppies, four males and three females, sired by "Nichol's Hector" ex "Tyrone Peggy". Mrs. Nichol, when reporting the arrival of the above litter, wished me to distinctly understand that she was not a dog breeder but just a dog lover, which is something I haven't quite been able to figure out, being as she is the owner of both the sire and the dam. Well I guess we can leave that question for the Scotties to decide.

Miss Hazel Mabson, Regina, owner of the Dewdney Kennel of Wire Fox Terriers, has sold the four male puppies sired by "Bridegroom Major Supreme" ex "Dewdney Garbo". The female from this litter is being retained by her owner who intends to exhibit her over the Western Circuit next summer. The males were sold to Mr. K. J. Fraser, Outlook, Sask.; Mr. H. H. Allen, Winnipeg; Mr. W. M. Maynard, and Master Gordon Tallman, of Regina.

Miss Mabson is keenly interested in her chosen variety and takes great delight in handling her dogs in the showing. Quality, rather than quantity, is the watchword at these kennels.

Mr. G. O. Williams, Sr., and his son, Glenn, of Saskatoon, are getting together a kennel of excellent English Springers. A new litter of puppies sired by "Lansdowne Floor Em All" ex "Aphrodite of Lynn" are just a few days old at time of writing. There are four in the litter, three of which are males.

A young male has been purchased from Mr. Andrew Dunn, Dunoon Kennels, Port Credit, Ont., and should have arrived by the time these notes appear. I haven't seen the breeding of this dog yet, but I am told he is a typical "Dunoon" product.

Glen Sr., who is a keen hunter and an excellent wing shot, is interested mainly in the working ability of their dogs, while young Glen's interest centres around their bench qualities. This is a combination that should bring really worth while results.

Mr. Wilfred Hoy, Tyrone Kennels, Saskatoon, has purchased an eight-month-old Irish Terrier male from Mr. McCord, Clarkson, Ont., sired by "Ch. Clover Patch Red Particular" (Imp.) ex "Ch. Newtownard's Enchantance"; this youngster, en route to his Western home, will stop off at Winnipeg, where he will make his show debut under Mr. Walter Reeves.

March weather is usually treacherous, with sudden changes in temperature without much warning. Care should be taken to see that bitches, nursing puppies, are not allowed out too long when the thermometer registers around twenty or more degrees below zero. Severe freezing at this time may completely ruin a brood bitch as far as raising puppies is concerned. Even a slight frost-bite may lead to complications affecting the mammary glands from which a bitch may never fully recover.

Where dogs have been wintered in unheated kennels and where proper ventilation has not been provided, the roof and walls will have become covered with frost. When such conditions prevail it will be necessary to remove all frost before the first warm days of spring arrive, otherwise the bedding will become damp and colds will be the result.

Probably more matings are made in March than in any other month of the year. Beginners, before planning their matings, would do well to seek the advice of some successful fancier if possible, as to how their dogs should be mated. That is, if they really wish to make immediate progress. Every year counts in the life of a dog breeder and expert advice should be highly valued. Probably the most common mistake made by beginners is the mating together of common looking specimens. Like begets like, a fact that we have all heard, or read many times. Yet how few there are during those early years when experience is lacking, who fully realize the true meaning of these words, which apply especially to the inferior specimens of hap-hazard breeding. The common looking specimens should be avoided at all times, for the mating together of such can lead to nothing but disappointment.

One seldom realizes when mentioning names and bygone incidents in such a publication as Kennel and Bench just where, or by whom, they may be read. Such were my thoughts as I sat reading a very interesting letter that I received from Mr. J. Haden, of Calgary, the poultry judge of whom I wrote in the January issue. Mr. Haden reminded me that it is over twenty years since he judged the poultry show to which I referred, also, that the White Orpington mentioned was exhibited by Dr. Bricker, of Rouleau, Sask. Expressing his opinion regarding the "Best in Show" award Mr. Haden writes, in part, as follows:

"Answering the question, 'Is there a Best in Show?' I say emphatically yes, be it a dog show, poultry show, or any other kind of show.

"And I can assure you, should a judge know his business it is not difficult to find best in show. All the judge has to do to find the best bird in a poultry show is to take the first prize winners and pick therefrom the nearest to the standard of perfection not allowing his judgment to be influenced by favoring any particular breed. In dogs, the best would be picked from the group winners.

"I would stress there is always an outstanding entry in any show, at least that has been my experience over a judging period of twenty-six years. When the award for best in show is abolished it takes away the something from a show that is hard to explain.

"I might mention that whenever possible I visit the dog shows and remember many noted winners, especially W. H. Pym's English Bulldog, 'Ch. Copul Randy', and E. P. Tuson's 'Ch. Courtney Coronet'. Also the Airedales 'Midland Master G' and 'Clipstone First Shot' and many others."

Mention of favoritism for a certain breed reminds us that many fanciers are of the opinion that a judge, who happens to be a breeder, is bound to favor a dog of his particular variety should one happen to be in the running for the best in show award. On the other hand, there are others who consider that the dog, under such a circumstance, would be handicapped.

This question of favoritism brings to mind a meeting of poultry fanciers that I once attended where an open discussion was held on the question, "Is there a best in show". Among those present was an all round poultry judge who had achieved considerable fame as a breeder of Black Minorcas. During the discussion one member present asked this judge if, when deciding the award for best in show and a black Minorca happened to be in the running, whether or not he would favor such a bird. The judge in answering the question replied: "On no account would I favor a Black Minorca when making such an award. Having bred and exhibited Minorcas for a great many years I feel that I am more familiar with the standard requirements of this variety than any other, so naturally a Black Minorca would have to be a mighty good specimen, before it would really appeal to me. On the other hand, a Partridge Cochins, for instance, might slip something over."

"Canadian Ducks Unlimited, the $3,000,000 foundation subscribed by United States sportsmen, aims to re-establish natural duck breeding grounds in Canada, mostly in the settled areas of the Prairies." So we read in the daily press. This should be welcome news to those breeders of dogs noted for their duck retrieving abilities, such as the Chesapeake, Labrador and Irish Water Spaniel.

The statement that we used to hear every Fall about the "big greenheads" coming down from the north, was more or less a myth, for thousands of these mallards, or greenheads as they were termed, were hatched and reared right here on the prairies. The young mallard drake does not attain this green head-dress until he reaches maturity, which is usually in late Fall just prior to their migration south. At this time they congregate in large numbers on the larger bodies of water, hence the belief among hunters that they had just arrived from the north.

Hunters who visited some of the larger lakes last fall maintained that the ducks were just as plentiful as ever, but sportsmen who have lived and hunted here for two decades or more, know that such statements are incorrect and that the duck population has decreased alarmingly these last few years.

mained full of water were the spring and summer home not only of the mallard but of many other varieties as well, and it was there that they built their nests and reared their young. Until such time as these sloughs are again filled with water no great increase in the duck population can be expected.

Of course there are some people who claim that the prairie hunter's gun is solely responsible for this decrease, yet, if such was the case, why is it the different varieties of snipe and other wading birds have become just as scarce, in comparison, as the ducks? for no hunter here in the West ever thinks of wasting a shell on snipe. In fact, during the 25 years that I have been hunting here I have never, except upon one occasion, seen anyone attempt to shoot snipe.

I was one of a party of three who set forth one day in late fall for a day's shooting. About noon we parked our car near a large lake and proceeded to enjoy lunch. The early morning had been frosty and cold, but by lunch time this late October day had turned exceedingly warm. There was scarcely a breath of wind, not a ripple on the water, and I would have been willing to wager my last box of shells that there wasn't a duck on the lake. However, one of our party, a young Englishman who was experiencing his first shoot in Canada, insisted on walking along the lake shore while "Bert" and I set out across the stubble to hunt prairie chicken. We hadn't proceeded very far when two shots rang out from the direction of the lake and, like a brace of well-trained spaniels we dropped to shot, thinking that something might fly our way. Two more shots, still no sign of any birds on the wing could be seen. Resuming our walk we returned in about an hour to find our friend seated on the running board of the car smoking a cigarette. "Well, Jim, did you have any luck?" I asked. "Rather," he replied, "I shot a couple of brace of snipe". Bert was one of those chaps who can keep a straight face under such circumstances but I had to turn hurriedly around and blow some imaginary dirt from my gun barrels to hide my amusement. We thought it a great joke at the time and have had many a laugh about it since. Yet little did we think we might possibly live to see the day when we would consider ourselves fortunate if we could go out and shoot a couple a' brace of snipe". A possibility that may yet become a reality, for Bert and I still share our sandwiches and coffee in the fall.

At the regular monthly Meeting of the Regina Kennel Club, held on the 8th instant, it was decided to hold the annual Spring Dog Show of our club on the 17th April next. The show will be held in the Regina store of the Robert Simpson Western Limited, and will be a one day show only. The judge of the show will be Mr. C. B. Payne of Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan, and plans are under way to make the show an absolute success.

AMERICA BUYS CANADIAN IRISH

Mr. E. E. Ferguson of Los Angeles, California, purchased at the recent Associated Terrier Club's specialty shows at New York, the Canadian Irish Terrier bitch, Mrs. Murphy of Ballycliff from her breeder-owner, Mr. A. Palmer of Toronto. Mrs. Murphy, who is by Newtownards Palmer's Barney ex Newtownards Fairway, was winners bitch at Canada's two largest shows in 1936, viz., Canadian National Exhibition and National Kennel Club, and whilst this performance netted her the necessary ten points she will have to be approved by a third judge before claiming the title of champion in Canada. Opportunity is all she needs, however, to prove her worth, and Mr. Ferguson, who already owns the Canadian bred Int. Champion Newtownards Daredevil, is to congratulate on his further dip into Canadian Irish Terrier stock. On the same occasion Mr. Palmer did further business, when he sold to Mr. Daniel T. Dempsey of Staten Island, N.Y., Lady Mulligan of Ballycliff. She is the litter sister to Mrs. Murphy, has already proved her value on the bench and should be a decided asset to the Staten Island kennel, whilst this demand and further sales pending is encouraging in the extreme to breeders of Irish Terriers in the Dominion.

British Columbia Notes

By Provincial Contributing Editor

"VIC" W. WILLIAMS

4844 Quebec Street, Vancouver, B.C.

WE take pleasure in conveying our congratulations to Mr. W. H. Pym on his re-election again by acclamation to the position of second vice-president of the Canadian Kennel Club. This is a compliment to British Columbia and of which we should be justly proud.

Congratulations are also in order to Mr. J. A. Blair, our new director for the ensuing year. Mr. Blair has been a resident of British Columbia for over forty years, during which time he has made the acquaintance of a large circle of friends throughout the province, and his thorough knowledge and practice of those qualities which make true sportsmanship, coupled with his zealous interest in Canadian Kennel Club affairs, give him a background which is bound to stimulate renewed activities in doggy circles and a return of larger and better patronized dog shows held under Canadian Kennel Club Rules. Previous to the departure of Messrs. Pym and Blair to attend the annual meeting in Toronto, a meeting of local C.K.C. members was called to discuss the proposed amendments to the Constitution. Mr. W. T. Oates acted as chairman for the meeting, and in view of the very inclement weather a very good attendance turned up. This meeting proved interesting and instructive, as many other angles were discussed, and we hope our new director will call other meetings from time to time when we can discuss and debate on matters pertaining to the dog fancy in general. Following the Vancouver meeting our two ambassadors of goodwill journeyed to Victoria, where a very successful meeting was held for the benefit of the Island fanciers in Victoria and close vicinity. Our spring show circuit starts off a little earlier this year with the Coast City Kennel Club All-Breed fixture to be held at Hastings Park, Vancouver, on March 13th. Mr. J. W. Marples, the eminent English dog authority, will pass on all breeds and a very good show is anticipated. It is not often that Coast fanciers have an opportunity to have their dogs adjudicated by an Old Country judge, and so we say to all you Best in Show aspirants, please take notice of this fixture and others to be mentioned following. Next comes the Vancouver Island Fanciers' Association Show to be held at Victoria on April 3rd. Mr. W. H. Pym of Vancouver will judge all breeds, and as this club is holding their second all-breed show within six months of their last show, we sincerely hope that their enthusiasm will be rewarded with a record entry. Next in line comes the Victoria City Kennel Club All-Breed Show to be held at the Willows Park, Victoria, on May 22nd. The judge for this show has not yet been decided, but further information will be given next month. Then follows the Vancouver Kennel Club Spring Show to be held at Hastings Park, Vancouver, on May 24th, the judge for this fixture also has not yet been chosen. And whilst thinking of shows we think it very opportune at this time to hand a little bouquet to the fine sportsmanship of those good fanciers from the Prairie Provinces and the United States who patronize our shows. Competition it is said is the "life of trade", and doubly true is competition the backbone of dog shows. These good sports who are always very contentious exhibitors for the highest honors of a show are always welcome, and we thank them for their entries in the past and hope to be favored with larger entries in the future. Our growing family of Canadian Kennel Club members welcome the following new members: Mrs. M. B. Magoffin of North Vancouver, whose entries of Golden Retrievers with the noted "Rockhaven" prefix, always grace our shows in large numbers; Miss H. M. Harfield of Oak Bay, Victoria, an enthusiastic Scottie fancier; Miss A. S. Westinghouse of Saanichton, Victoria Island, a fancier of Smooth Haired Dachshunds, and Mr. John Rose of Vancouver, whose consistent wins with his much-admired Yorkshire Terriers always attract attention at our shows here and on the Island.

Kennels is busy these days preparing a string of his Wire Haired Terriers for the spring shows. Mr. Stanley Dorrel of the Swansea Kennels is also as busy as a bee getting ready a string of Scotties for the shows. We understand a new Terrier fancier has joined our British Columbia ranks, Mr. Bob Cross, late of Edmonton. Mr. Cross is making his home in Victoria and has high hopes for his newly-acquired Wire Haired Terrier purchased in the East from Dr. Boulding. These kennels will also supply some competition in Sealyhams. News comes to me from Victoria that Mrs. B. Davidson of the Tulloch Kennels is eagerly awaiting the arrival from England of the well-known Black English Cocker "Brumal of Ware", purchased from Mr. Lloyd of the "Of Ware" Kennels. This dog has done a lot of winning in England and his debut over here will be interesting to say the least. Another importation of importance is the purchase of the Sealyham bitch, "Nutfield Snowberry", by Miss Margot Robertson of the Drumadon Sealyham Kennels, Victoria. "Snowberry" is to be mated to the great English stud force, "St. Margarets Serene", previous to shipment.

At this juncture I wish to impress on all C.K.C. members in British Columbia the value of the space allotted to us in Kennel and Bench. These notes are compiled from information given your correspondent, and I personally invite every members' news items. With your co-operation we can make British Columbia news a very integral part of our official magazine. It will be my earnest endeavor to make these notes interesting and instructive. To secretaries of shows and field trials I especially ask you to keep me informed of your activities. Let us all pull together for a bigger and better British Columbia News Bulletin.

British Columbia fanciers can be proud of the fact that at the eight official point shows held in the province last year the major awards, namely, Best in Show, in five of these shows were won by dogs owned in British Columbia, and further, four of these five were bred in British Columbia, a record to be proud of in view of the fact that there are many importations brought in from the Old Country and always keen competition from other provinces and our neighbors to the South.

In closing, I wish to take this opportunity of extending a hearty welcome to Eastern fanciers when visiting the Pacific Coast. The writer will be only too pleased to be of service to any visitors and shall be glad to extend every courtesy and make his or her visit pleasant.

ADDITIONS AND CHANGES

The many readers of The Canadian Fancy, a section of Kennel and Bench, formerly conducted by Mr. Walter H. Reeves of Belleville, Ontario, will be delighted to hear that at the request of the Board of Directors of the Canadian Kennel Club, Inc., Mr. Reeves has again taken up that task. His introductory contribution, which appears in this issue, is but a forerunner of what our readers may expect from Mr. Reeve's pen, and we hope that he will be accorded every support in what to him is a real pleasure.

Mr. Vic Williams, 4844 Quebec St., Vancouver, B.C., has been appointed contributing editor for that province. Mr. William's first efforts appear in this issue, and we predict that with the unstinted support from his fellow fanciers in that section, he will fill the office with credit to himself and satisfaction to the fancy at large.

The many favorable comments we received on the attractive and undoubtedly fitting color of our February number prompted the Kennel and Bench Committee to decide that it will remain as a permanent feature of the magazine.

ciation over 30 years ago, but one point Mr. Dalglish says seemed of great interest after the lecture. The chairman said the lecturer will be very pleased to answer any question.

A man in the audience jumped up and said: Seeing Mr. Dalglish has such a high opinion of the Collie, does he keep one as a house and companion dog? The reply was "No. My father always kept a Dandie Dinmont and I keep a Dandie because no gangster or house-breaker will enter where a Dandie is. Why? Because he takes 'a good-grip and holds on'."

Mr. Dalglish was then of opinion that great work would be accomplished by the Sheepdog and we have only to attend a Sheepdog trial and see the crowd of spectators which watch and enjoy the work of the Scottish Sheepdog; in fact, the Collie has accomplished all and more than the lecturer predicted, and that was 30 years ago.

Maritime Notes

By Provincial Contributing Editor,

GERALD G. McCARTHY,
107 St David St., Saint John, N.B.

AT the last meeting of the New Brunswick Kennel Club, held as usual in the Admiral Beatty Hotel, it was definitely decided to hold a fall show, and immediate preparations have commenced to make it the very best ever held by this club. After the business session a very enjoyable evening was had by all in attendance. A card party was held with chickens as prizes and just enough refreshments to keep everyone in good spirits.

Colonel Malcolm Macivity of Rothesay, N.B., has imported a very impressive ten-month-old male Blue Belton English Setter from Mrs. R. M. Foot, Scotland, named "Fulliallan Ranger", sired by "Beorcham Ptarmigan" ("West Down Turoy" ex "West Down Wasp"), dam "Llan Lady" ("Mac of Borrowdale" ex Tanana). "Ranger" is very much thought of by the Setter fanciers who have had the pleasure of viewing him.

The following clipping, taken from a recent issue of the "Boston Sunday Advertiser", was forwarded to me and may prove interesting to fanciers who feel some of their dogs need rejuvenating. Malachi Mirrit of the Middle Road to Yarmouth owned one of the several million dogs named Shep. This Shepherd has grown old in the service on Mirrit's farm. He is 14. All through the summer and fall he has been getting more and more decrepit. A few days ago he could just drag himself around, his old joints creaked so with rheumatism. The pain would make him howl and wake him out of a sound sleep.

Mirrit decided it would be a humane thing to have Shep put painlessly away. So he took him to Dr. J. F. Boswell at South Portland and left him, tears running down his own cheeks. Now the doctor has a very kind heart and a big tom cat, having been left about the same time for a minor operation, suggested something to him. Perhaps it would be possible to rejuvenate Shep.

He gave both animals an anesthetic. Removing glands from the tom cat he made incisions in Shep and inserted them and sewed up the cuts. They healed nicely. The cat, too, came through nicely but subdued. He won't stay out nights any more nor engage in back fence cat-fights. But what about Shep?

Hardly had his wounds healed before in a week he had more energy and "pep" than a puppy. Shep's system absorbed the glands as a blotter will absorb ink. He raced up and down stairs in the doctor's house and wagged his tail so vigorously that he knocked three rungs out of the front stairs banisters.

He tore down three kennels made of 3-16 wire and it was impossible to hold him because of his excess energy. Finally he tore the hinges off a screen door and was gone. He did not come back. Dr. Boswell telephoned Mirrit. Had Shep returned home?

"Has he!" came the answer. "Before he was here an hour he licked two other dogs, chased three cats up a tree and is now digging a skunk out from under the barn. Pep! He has it, but how long will it last?"

Dr. Boswell says, in all probability Shep's new lease of life will endure for at least a year and possibly a year and a half.

Nova Scotia Notes

At a meeting of the Bedford Kennel Club, recently held in Halifax, it was decided to hold the annual one-day, outdoor, all-breed show on July 1st next. This popular event will probably be held at Franklyn Park, the site of last year's successful show. The show committee will make a decided effort to select a well-known and capable judge to pass on all breeds at this fixture, and it is expected that this year's event will surpass even the success of last year's show. It is also probable that the Bedford Club will hold another parlor show in the near future. The last show of this nature was a great success and the exhibitors have since been agitating for further shows of this kind.

I have a marked copy of the catalogue of the specialty show held last November by the Cocker Spaniel Breeders' Club of New England and was pleased to note an entry from Mr. J. T. McCallum's Thetford Cocker Kennels. This entry, "Thetford Isabelle", a red and white puppy sired by "Idahurst Standby" and out of "Ch. Mount Pleasant Belle", placed second in the class for parti-colored puppy bitches. Truly a nice win for this attractive little bitch.

During the past few years I have had the pleasure of handling a number of dogs from the Thetford Kennels and have particularly noticed their wonderful dispositions and the excellence of the condition in which they reached me. The Thetford Cockers have led their classes when shown in the Maritimes—two having completed their championships here. These facts, together with the qualities already mentioned, speak well for the future of the Thetford Cockers.

Mr. R. J. Rankin, editor of the "Halifax Herald", has a very nice young tri-colored Cocker dog, bred by the writer. This pup is registered as "Burnleigh Boxer" and was sired by "Thetford Tiny Tim", a son of "Am. Ch. Mistover Tug o' War" and is out of Fred O'Connell's winning bitch, "Thetford Jolly Mistie". "Boxer" will be shown on the local circuit during the coming season and it is probable that the striking resemblance that he bears to his well-known grand sire will stand him in good stead.

A pack of "wild dogs" has been located in Halifax North, definitely establishing the authenticity of reports current of their existence. The pack, composed of five large "Collie" dogs, so-called, and their puppies, including more than a score, have remained secure in their lair under a shack in a lumber yard for some months and might have remained so but for an attack made by one of these dogs upon the son of a resident of the district in which the dogs have taken up their residence.

Small animals and young calves have been attacked and killed, presumably by members of this pack of dogs, and, as a result of the attack upon the boy, the residents of the district are up in arms and are demanding immediate attention from the powers that be. An employee of the lumber yard went under the building and brought out 18 of the offspring and these were given away to ready takers.

It is reliably reported that there are large packs of "wild" dogs roaming about the outskirts of the city in the vicinity of the city dumps, and these animals have been known to kill and devour sheep, swine, poultry and even cows. Authorities are wondering just what to do in regard to this matter and do not seem to be capable of curtailing the doubtful activities of these unwelcome visitors. Meanwhile the pack is guarding its lair and protecting the young until such time as they can fend for themselves and add to the menace. Outside of the activities of the already overworked agent of the S.P.C., the local authorities do not appear to be making much effort to alleviate the conditions, and in this case it would appear that quantity is more important than quality and brings to the minds of some of the local reputable breeders somewhat sour memories of a few recent incidents where owners of good dogs were reported by one or two vindictive neighbors and, as a result, certain of the authorities arose in indignation and went into action with an agility that would do credit to a "G" man at his best.

A few months ago a nice young Irish Terrier dog arrived at Halifax, addressed to Miss Outhit, Armdale. This typical young Terrier is registered as "Newtonard's Chore Boy" and was bred by Mr. W. T. McCord. "Chore Boy" was sired by "Ch. Clover Patch Red Particular" and is out of "Newtonard's Irish Rose" and his breeding bears some outstanding names in the breed, such as, "Old Particular of Harlem", "Venlo Vat", "Ch. Rambling Sandy", "Ch. Kilvara Postman", "Leaders Double", "Treble Shear", "Ch. Shella Red Rose" and others of equal note in the Irish fancy.

Evidently the standard size Manchester Terrier has not gone into the discard judging from several inquiries that the writer has recently received for young stock of either sex, enquiries coming from as far distant as the Pacific Coast. The writer disposed of his Manchesters several years ago and since then has had many requests for puppies of this breed and has been endeavoring to have some of the Canadian breeders get in touch with the enquirers but, up to now, has had no success in this effort. This would appear to be another very good argument in favor of advertising in Kennel and Bench, which is read by several of the enquirers mentioned.

Mrs. Burns reports the sale of a male Irish Terrier to Mrs. J. E. Priest, Pictou, N.S. This pup was sired by "Donegal Timothy" and is out of "Ch. Fermanagh Rusty Maid".

Mr. Roy F. McKay of Halifax recently purchased from Mr. Vincent G. Perry of London, Ont., whom we all know as a noted breeder, judge and journalist and particularly as the author of that excellent book, "The Boston Terrier", so it was with particular interest that we made inquiries regarding this new arrival from Mr. Perry's kennels and were indeed pleasantly surprised at our first sight of this fine little dog. He is registered as "Globe Glowing Tribute", was bred by Mr. Perry and born August 21st, 1935. Sired by "Ch. Globe Glowing Challenge", also the sire of "Chore Girl", and is out of "Ch. Globe Glowing Susie", a full sister to "Ch. Globe Glowing Flashette". This makes "Tribute" a half brother to "Chore Girl" and his breeding shows the famous "Ch. Flash Again" on the side of both sire and dam. Among other well-known names appearing in his pedigree we find the following: "Miss Hagerty Again", "Int. Ch. Rockaround Rosie", "Ch. Ravensroyd Yankeefer", "Int. Ch. O'Glos Midget", "Ch. Globe League o' Nations", "Ch. Bonnie Intruder" and "Come Again Hagerty".

"Tribute" is about thirteen pounds in weight and owns a really wonderful head with a nice even mouth and wide, well-placed underjaw, is clean in cheek, excellent in muzzle and skull and with good eye and expression, is good both front and rear, has good bone and plenty of character and is very active and "as hard as nails". He is a proven sire of excellent puppies and was a Best of Breed winner at a show held in London the latter part of last year. These features, together with his many other excellent qualities, make him a very valuable addition to Mr. McKay's kennels, and we look forward with interest toward the coming season when this latest threat will appear in competition with the many other good dogs of his breed now owned in the Maritimes. Aside from the possibilities of his show future he is to be particularly valued as a stud dog, and it is confidently expected that his offspring will do much toward improving the quality of future Bostons in this district.

This is the second dog that Mr. McKay has secured from Mr. Perry, the other, bred by Jack Parkinson of London, Ont., being an exceptionally promising young son of Mrs. Martha Stevens' good dog, "Ch. Jubilee Happy Day".

It is gratifying to see some of Mr. Perry's good stock appearing in the Maritimes, and we know that this speaks well for the future of the Boston Terrier locally.

We welcome a new breed of Scottish Terriers in the person of Mr. E. S. Allen of Lakeview, Halifax County. Mr. Allen, who recently became a member of the Canadian Kennel Club, has registered the kennel name "Lakeview". He has formed a modern kennel of the popular "Dichards". This kennel is located a very few miles from Halifax and houses a number of good Scotties of both sexes, and although I have been unable to get further information, I understand that most of Mr. Allen's stock are of the famous "Haldon" strain, and this alone speaks well for the future of the "Lakeview" kennels. We will look forward with interest to the first appearance of Lakeview Scotties at the summer shows.

Mr. Geoffrey G. Ryder has disposed of the entire litter of Irish Setter puppies out of his good bitch "Lady John" and sired by "Ch. Mike Haliburton". Males of this litter went to Mr. Allister Currie, Frank Doyle, Major E. P. Flowers and Miss Fader of Halifax, and females to H. M. McLeod and Sidney Hope, also of this city, and one to Mr. Bowes of Dartmouth. My, Ryder is retaining a very attractive bitch puppy from this mating and it is likely that she will appear at the local shows during the coming season and, judging from her appearance at this early age, it is probable that we will hear favorable reports of her show debut.

Mr. A. V. Martin of Halifax has just received word that a Collie puppy bitch bred by him was placed second in the puppy class at the recent Westminster show held in Madison Square Garden, N.Y. This puppy is "Oakland Miss Glory", sired by "Int. Ch. Major Lukeo" ex "Lodestone Memory", and is owned by the Noranda Kennels. We understand that Mr. Martin's winning sable and white bitch, "Ch. Noranda's Sensation 2nd", is on her way to the States and will be shown at the Boston show. This good bitch was bred at the Noranda Kennels and is a daughter of "Int. Ch. Major Lukeo" and out of "Lady Nan of Noranda". From what we hear regarding the progeny of the famous "Int. Ch. Major Lukeo" it is evident that they are making their presence felt at the larger and most important shows in no uncertain way, and it is probable that some of these will emulate the record of their famous sire and gain international titles.

Among the 4,332 dogs exhibited at Crufts annual show in Agricultural Hall, London, Eng., there appeared, for the first time in any civilized land, the breed of dogs known as "Basenjis", from the heart of Central Africa. These dogs were brought from Africa to England by Miss Olivia Burns, who is rushing more of this breed to London by airplane.

The World Famed Clapton Smooth Fox Terrier England's Great Champion Travelling

The Annual Pictorial Sales Draft for 1937 offers to the Smooth Breeders of America the most classical and attractively prices list we have yet offered. It is well known that many leading champions have been picked up as puppies; at companion prices, and that is Mr. Bailey's intention—sell the best, sell them at prices the smallest breeder can afford to pay, increasing the breeds popularity and attracting boys and girls to own the peer of all Terriers. Smooths have a tremendous advantage over the Wires, as they only require brushing and are genuine always. All the Smooths offered are England's best, although we have Clapton Puppies, whose ancestry date 32 years back to Aldon Trifle, the First Smooth Mr. Bailey purchased from Mr. A. A. MacDonald, and to whom he today pays tribute as the best he ever knew in Smooths, a rare gentleman sportsman.

Quebec Notes

By Provincial Contributing Editor,

MISS VEVA H. ROBSON,
Rear 3424 Drummond St., Montreal, Que.

THE first championship dog show of the newly organized Mount Royal Toy Dog Club is already a thing of the past, but will, I am sure remain a pleasant memory to Montreal toy dog fanciers. The reception room of the Central Y.M.C.A. presented a very attractive display of 75 toy dogs—headed by 39 Pekingese, ten Pomeranians, nine Pugs, eight Yorkshire Terriers, three English Toy Spaniels, three Black and Tan Toy Terriers and one each of Chihuahuas, Brussels, Griffons and Maltese.

Mr. R. A. (Bob) Ross, who officiated as judge commented very highly on the quality of the dogs shown. Messrs. L. B. Seguin and Alex. Ross helped the smoothness of the show by their expert ring stewarding.

The official announcing was undertaken by Mr. S. Threlfall, whose explanations concerning the different breeds and classes proved most interesting to the ringsiders. Keen competition was provided in the majority of classes, and the final line up aroused great interest. Best in show was awarded to Mrs. C. de P. Doniphan's well known Pekingese "Wun Lung of Wangza", closely followed by Mrs. Charlebois' Pomeranian "Adorable of Pomona".

The Mount Royal Toy Dog Club certainly deserves congratulations, as their show was one of the best, and a cheque for $150.00 derived from the proceeds of the show was handed out to the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

The Montreal Kennel Association all breed dog show under C.K.C. ruling is now in the limelight, and will probably take place about the 15th of May next.

The M.K.A. officials can always be relied upon for selecting competent judges and sparing no efforts to insure a successful and smooth running show, so keep a sharp lookout for further announcements.

Congratulations to Mrs. M. Charlebois, of Laval Des Rapides, whose tiny orange Pom. "Youville Grand Salute" completed his championship at the M.R.T.D. show. "Benny" as his friends call him, was imported from England by the late Mrs. Beland, and has had a most successful show career.

Mrs. Charlebois is lucky enough to have two exceptionally fine little sons of his, one of which shows every promise of following in his daddy's footsteps.

Mrs. C. de P. Doniphan's "Wun Lun of Wangza" also completed his championship. A son of Ch. "Tong King of Wangza", "Wun Lun" is of home bred stock for five generations, and we hear Mrs. Doniphan has a very good little daughter—who will soon be ready to make her debut and carry on the kennel colours—15 champions to date have been either imported or sired by Wangza stud dogs.

Quebec has done well at the Garden. Mr. Scarpa is indeed to be congratulated—a jolly good will; also the Honourable Marguerite Shaughnessy who was second in the novice with her Sealyham—likewise a nice feather to put in one's cap. This young dog is owned by Mrs. Gray, of New York, and Miss Shaughnessy, their kennel is known as Shaugray—Len Brumby was their pilot.

Certainly Montreal was well to the front with her entries at the Westminster Show and Terrier Specialty. Mr. W. W. Rooney's "Brick Tops Spitfire", was second in the limit class, fourth in the open class at the Specialty Show, and just out of the money at Westminster in the open class. However "Buxton Streamlines", a son of "Brick Tops Spitfire", proved to be somewhat of a sensation. This puppy was just seven months and two days old, and inclined to be backward, but at that he drew much attention. At the Specialty Show he was placed fourth in the puppy class and at Westminster, third in a class of 12, the judges of both shows thought this pup of phenomenal quality. Montreal's other Bull Terrier win was "Tanbark Impetus", owned by Mr. Stanley Wisdom, and bred by Mr. W. W. Rooney. Thus puppy was placed second in puppy class and first in novice class at both shows. Another boost for Mr. Rooney's kennel was that the first puppy at Westminster was sired by his dog "Brick Tops Spitfire".

Thus the final line-up in the puppy class at Westminster was as follows: First, "Conbrook Snap", sired by "Brick Tops Spitfire"; second, "Tanbark Impetus", bred by W. W. Rooney; third, "Buxton Streamlines", sired by "Brick Tops Spitfire", bred, owned and shown by W. W. Rooney. Well done, Buxton Kennels. Understand "Buxton Streamlines" found a new home on his trip at a three-figure price to his new master.

Another representative of Montreal was an Irish Terrier, "Belfast Badger", owned by Mr. John Skillender. This puppy did well for himself, and was placed fourth in a strong class of 11 puppies.

Mrs. G. E. Hird, of St. Lambert Annex, has just written in to say that she has some lovely puppies from "Wild Irish Boy" and "Ch. Lady Sheila." "Wild Irish" is Mrs. Enright's young Setter, who is producing such very fine puppies—one of this litter has crossed the border to Detroit. Mrs. Hird has every reason to be proud of this litter, for according to Messrs. Bob Ross and Doyle they are an outstanding lot.

A new club, called The North End Kennel Club, has been formed. This new club will be an all-breed club. Pro tem officials are: President, J. H. Steer, First Vice-President, Mr. Fred Rowe; Second Vice-President, Mr. Smallcomb; Secretary, J. B. Brown; Treasurer, Miss Yvonne Riou. Sixty members have already applied for membership.

Mr. Jack Steer's son has sold a four-months' male puppy to the Hon. C. B. Howard, of Sherbrooke. This puppy will be known as "Angus of Howardlin", it is sired by "Barkhill Talleyman", ex-birth of "Heather Necessity Ardent".

Our Wire enthusiast, Harry T. Armistead, has stepped over to Sealyhams and has two very good bitches—one a young one of five months, sired by Miss Alice O'Brien's, of Halifax, "Cardigan Admiral" out of "Cardigan Charm". If Mr. Armistead would only bring these dogs out, he could perhaps write another winning chapter to his former ones. Let us hope he will.

ONE HOME IN TWO HOUSES PET DOG

Almost every other home in Great Britain has a dog. The latest figures reveal that there are 4,000,000 dogs in the country, and the number is steadily increasing.

Canadian Kennel Club, Incorporated, Annual General Meeting, Friday, February 5th, 1937

The Annual General Meeting of the Canadian Kennel Club, Inc., was held in the Yellow Room, King Edward Hotel, Toronto, on Friday, February 5th, 1937, the President, Col. J. N. MacRae, in the chair.

The secretary having reported that thirty-seven paid up members were in attendance the President called for the Minutes of the previous Annual General Meeting, as they had appeared in the March, 1936, issue of Kennel and Bench. It was moved, seconded and carried "That, the Minutes of the last Annual General Meeting be taken as read, and confirmed."

President's Annual Report: In presenting my report I wish first to thank my fellow directors for their able assistance and cooperation during the year 1936, and also to express my thanks to Mr. Strachan and his staff for their untiring efforts. In August we lightened Mr. Strachan's burden by appointing Mr. Bert Swann as Editor of Kennel and Bench, and this arrangement is working out quite satisfactorily for the benefit of the Club. I was, however, sorry to see Mr. Strachan's salary cut, his salary being now one-third less than it was in 1935.

I am again delighted to have our Directors in from the other Provinces: Mr. W. H. Pym, our second Vice-President, and our new Director for British Columbia, Mr. J. A. Blair, Mr. W. G. Climo from Alberta, Dr. J. T. Cooper from Saskatchewan, Mr. G. Kynoch from Manitoba, Mr. R. A. Ross from Quebec, and Mr. R. C. Vaughan from the Maritimes. We also welcome two new Ontario Directors, Mrs. E. Brown, who has the honor of being the first woman ever to be elected to this Directorate, and Mr. W. J. Risewick, also Mr. W. H. Reeves and Dr. H. E. Batt, who were members of the Board in 1935.

You will note that our Auditors have divided the year's activities of Kennel and Bench into two parts, Mr. Swann having been in charge for the last five months, and producing four issues of Kennel and Bench. One dollar per member per year is now placed to the credit of Kennel and Bench, the proportionate amount for the last five months of last year being credited to last year. Kennel and Bench shows a net profit for the year of $54.96.

Our membership shows an increase of 27 over 1935, registrations an increase of 236, transfers an increase of 112, but litter registrations show a decrease of 276. We made 205 Bench Champions, and 5 Field Champions, an increase of 47 over 1935. All breed shows increased by 2, Specialty shows decreased by 1, and Field Trials increased by 2.

I would like to express my regret on the taking by death of so many of our good members and supporters, amongst them were our Past-President, Brig-Gen. Nelles, a charter member and Director for many years, Mr. H. B. Donovan, a past Secretary of the Club, Mr. Jno. W. Brant, Director and Accountant of the Canadian National Live Stock Records, Mr. Frank Hipkiss, Toronto, Mr. Harry Smith of Hamilton, Mrs. Essery, wife of our Director Basil W. Essery, K.C., and others.

The month of July, Mrs. MacRae and I spent visiting the various clubs in the Western Provinces, Winnipeg, Calgary, Vancouver, Nanaimo, Victoria, Edmonton, Saskatoon and Regina. When requested to make this trip, I was somewhat dubious as to whether the Club would receive adequate returns for the financial outlay, but before our trip was half over, I changed my mind, and judging from the multiplicity of Christmas remembrances received, the number of them making it impossible for me to acknowledge them personally and which I do now, real friendships and better understandings of the workings of the Canadian Kennel Club were established.

Mr. Pym: Mr. President, ladies and gentlemen, in moving the adoption of the President's report I would repeat the benefit that was derived from his recent visit to Western Canada. I believe that every delegate from Western Canada who may be here today will agree that it was one of the finest investments that this Club could possibly have made when they sent the President to Western Canada, and again I would like to pay tribute to the wife of our President, who took a very active part in promoting goodwill among the members of the Canadian Kennel Club in the cities which were visited last summer. I have much pleasure in moving the adoption of the President's report.

Dr. Cooper: I have much pleasure in seconding the motion that the President's report be received.

Col. MacRae: Now we will have the Secretary's report.

Mr. Chairman, ladies and gentlemen, as usual the Secretary's report will be brief. In my official capacity as Secretary, I would say that we have just closed a really good business year. We made a little money, although we spent a trifle more than we made, but we need have no regrets in respect to that. The visit of Col. and Mrs. MacRae to our western constituencies, was money well spent. We have already derived advantages from their visit to Western Canada and no doubt we will continue to derive further advantages from that investment. It should perhaps be noted that there is already a measure of noticeable harmony in all western provinces that we have not observed before. The Directors were all faithful in their attendance at all the monthly meetings, and all committees have functioned regularly. The staff operated quietly and efficiently and I am rather proud of them all.

During the year I was released from the responsibilities of editing the official organ, and I trust that much satisfaction will follow the change, for whilst I seldom complained about the dual position of Secretary-Editor, I very often found the combination rather irksome. As Secretary the job was to keep the wheels turning smoothly, and harmoniously; as Editor the Secretarial arrangement seemed to get into reverse sometimes in spite of everything. I have given your new Editor my blessing, and have assured him of my cooperation if and when required.

At the end of last year we lost our old friend, the late Mr. John W. Brant, and this year already we have parted with that old servant of ours, the late Mr. Harry B. Donovan, and I have clearly in mind that early in the year 1936 we were obliged to take leave of our charter member and past president, that gallant old soldier, the late Brigadier-General C. M. Nelles. I hope 1937 will go easy on our people, so that all may be ready for the celebrations of our Golden Jubilee year which will come to us in 1938. I think we should all look forward to the possibility of making our Golden Jubilee year an inspirational affair with a view to our reaching out for the higher places in the national dogdom of this country.

It was regularly moved, seconded and carried that the Secretary's report be adopted.

Financial Statements: The following financial statements were submitted by Mr. Richardson, of the firm of Messers Clarkson, Gordon, Dilworth & Nash, the Club's Auditors:

President MacRae: Are there any questions you would like to ask our auditor regarding this statement?

Mr. F. Shawley: There is one thing, Mr. President, that I have been looking for for three or four years and I am looking for it again this year, and that is that the most of the provincial directors have always attended the Annual General Meetings, and to other matters and it must have been a considerable expense to them situated as they are at such long distances from one place to another, and I have often wondered whether they were recompensed by the Canadian Kennel Club to sufficiently cover their travelling expenses in the execution of their duties to the Canadian Kennel Club. In the West Mr. W. G. Climo might have to go from Calgary to Edmonton, Mr. Pym might have to go from Vancouver to some place a long distance away, and Mr. Ross and all the other provincial directors might also have to travel, and I don't think it is right, Mr. President, that they should bear the expense, if they do have to pay it out of their own pockets, because it cuts both ways. You might have one of the best men it would be possible to find and who would be a great asset on the provincial directorate but circumstances might not allow him to be able to do these things if he had to pay all his expenses out of his own pocket. It might be a poor working man and he would not be in a position to pay the heavy expense that would be attached to the position from his own pocket. Therefore, for my own information, Mr. President, I ask you today for that information.

President MacRae: Mr. Strachan, will you answer that?

The Secretary: Mr. Shawley, I would say this, all of the several Boards of Directors of the Canadian Kennel Club have never at any time expected their directors in the provinces to attend to Canadian Kennel Club business at their own expense. It is just possible that provincial directors, such as Mr.

Pym, for instance, from Vancouver, who might take a notion to go over and discuss Club matters with the Victoria members once in a while—goes at his own expense and doesn't send any statement in to headquarters for it, but if he wanted to, he would be expected to feel perfectly free to send it, fully realizing that it would be acknowledged immediately and a cheque sent for the amount. I am sure there are not any of our provincial directors serving us in the provinces today who need to do anything at their own expense. Is that sufficient answer?

Mr. Shawley: Thank you very, very much for the information.

Mr. F. W. Walkerdine: I would like to ask the auditor a question if I may: Under the liabilities, accounts payable and accrued charges $1,418, am I correct in assuming that the amount outstanding from the Live Stock Records is included in those liabilities as at December 1st?

Mr. Richardson: That is correct, yes.

Mr. Walkerdine: There is another item I would like to point out: Under Expenses in the general statement of revenue and expenditure there is travelling expense of $2,757. I really want to point out this: Our President said he was sorry to report a loss of $321 or thereabouts but he omitted to state that there was a heavy expenditure in connection with his trip out west. You have heard Mr. Pym say how beneficial that trip has been. Had that visit not taken place we would have shown a profit of approximately $750 or nearly $800, so I don't think our President should say he is sorry. I think he didn't like to mention it, but the position of the statement I think is a very good one.

It was moved, seconded and carried "That the financial statement be received and adopted."

In the matter of Canadian Kennel Club, Inc., this is Exhibit "A" referred to in the declaration of A. H. Wait made this 6th day of January, 1937, before me.

R. Elinglin

Notary Public, Ontario.

It was moved, seconded and carried "That, the Election Commissioner's Report be received."

President MacRae: I now declare the officers as named elected for the ensuing year.

I just wish to mention now, that for the first time in the history of the Canadian Kennel Club and, I am not definitely sure, but I think the majority of the other live stock associations as well, a lady has been elected to the Board of Directors. I think it is rather an honor to the Club and I think that Mrs. Brown considers it to be an honor to herself and at this moment I am giving the floor to Mrs. C. Firman.

Mrs. C. Firman: On behalf of the Toronto Ladies' Kennel Association, Mrs. Brown, I ask you to please accept this small token of our esteem: (Presenting Mrs. Brown with a corsage bouquet of Talisman Roses).

Mrs. Brown: It has always been a pleasure to work with the ladies of Toronto and although we haven't been always able to see eye to eye in what we thought was in the best interests of the Club, we have always done our best and I trust that we may continue to work one with another. Applause.

Mr. Pym: Mr. President, there has been a telegram directed to me from Mr. Henry Oppenheimer of the Puget Sound Kennel Club, who you will remember flew from California to discuss Kennel matters with you whilst you were in Vancouver, and at this time he sends his kindest regards to you and hopes that this Association will have a very successful meeting.

President MacRae: Thank you, Mr. Pym. I will ask you to convey to Mr. Oppenheimer my sincere appreciation of his thoughtful message.

Reports of Representatives to the Canadian National Exhibition

Mr. Sparkes: I don't think, Mr. Chairman, there are very many words needed on the report of the representatives to the Canadian National Exhibition. Most of the members know that last year your delegates reported gratefully the opportunity to bring kennel matters before the Board in June; they allowed them to have a freer discussion as to the selection of the judges, also as to any matters pertaining to the show itself, and in general.

Just at this time I might say that the Board has taken up a very important matter and one that was discussed on account of several actions at the last Exhibition Show, and that is that all exhibitors will be given passes for their automobiles this year. It is something that has been badly needed. We have had three meetings so far, Mr. Chairman, and I think that if your delegates work along the right lines many essential requirements will be accorded.

Report of Representatives to the Royal Agricultural Winter Fair

Col. MacRae: As you know the situation at the Royal Agricultural Winter Fair is somewhat different than that at the Canadian National Exhibition. At the Royal Winter Fair the dog show is run by the National Kennel Club and you will note that they did make a considerable improvement this year in the arrangements that they had, whereby they had a separate ring in a separate part of the building and it gave the dogs and the exhibitors a great deal of more comfortable room.

The chief functions of your representatives to the Royal Winter Fair are to attend the annual meeting, where they each have a vote on the directorate of the Royal Winter Fair, and that is where their responsibilities come in principally, not so much on the dog show end of it. That is all I have to say on that.

Report of Representative to Central Canada Exhibition, Ottawa

The Secretary: In the absence of Mr. Ed. Runions, Mr. President, I would just like to convey to the meeting this information, that in the opinion of the manager of the Central Canada Exhibition, that association feels highly satisfied in having as representative, Mr. Runions, from this organization to the Central Canada Exhibition Board. I think they have made Mr. Runions their Show Superintendent and they feel that he is one of the best show superintendents in all Canada.

It was moved, seconded and carried "That the reports of the several representatives as recorded above, be received and adopted."

Election of Representatives

Col. MacRae: There are two representatives to be elected to the Canadian National Exhibition, but before proceeding we must have two scrutineers and a referee. Last year the counting of the ballots was capably performed by Mrs. Brown, Mr. Gunderson, with Mr. Walkerdine as referee. The same three will function again at this meeting.

Mr. W. Stockdale nominated Hon. Mr. Justice McFarland. Mr. F. Blackledge nominated Mr. Basil W. Essery, K.C. Mr. N. Duckett nominated Mr. W. I. Risewick. Mr. G. C. Fraser nominated Mr. Reg. P. Sparkes. Mrs. McColl nominated Mrs. E. Brown, whereupon Mrs. Brown withdrew from her office of scrutineer. Mr. Essery asked permission to have his name withdrawn and this having been granted he accepted the position of scrutineer replacing Mrs. Brown.

The ballots having been counted it was found that Mr. Sparkes had been elected but that the vote had resulted in a tie between Mr. Justice McFarland and Mr. Risewick. When the second ballot had been counted it was found that Messrs Sparkes and Risewick had been elected representatives to the Canadian National Exhibition for 1937.

Representatives to the Royal Agricultural Winter Fair

It was moved, that the 1936 representatives, i.e., Col. J. N. MacRae, Mr. Justice McFarland and Mr. Alex. L. Gooderham be reappointed. Messrs. W. Stockdale, W. H. Reeves and Capt. H. Dudley Waters, M.C., were also nominated. Capt. Waters requested that his name be withdrawn.

A discussion developed around the topic of appointing persons as representatives who were not in attendance at the meeting and as a result the following motion was moved, seconded and carried "That, unless a member is in attendance or has furnished a written notification that he is prepared to accept nomination his nomination be not accepted."

The Chairman announced that the ballots had elected Col. J. N. MacRae, W. Stockdale and Alex. L. Gooderham as representatives to the Royal Agricultural Winter Fair.

Representatives to the Central Canada Exhibition

Capt. Waters nominated Mr. Ed. Runions, Ottawa and there being no other nominations, Mr. Runions was declared to be the representative to Central Canada Exhibition for 1937.

Col. MacRae: Ladies and gentlemen, we have with us this afternoon the recently appointed Director of the Canadian National Live Stock Records, Mr. R. G. T. Hitchman, also his assistant Mr. A. R. Dawson, and the Chief Registration Officer, Mr. A. P. MacVannel, and I am going to ask Mr. Hitchman to tell us something about the Live Stock Records.

Mr. Hitchman: Mr. Chairman, ladies and gentlemen, the Honourable Mr. F. C. Biggs, as possibly you all know, is Chairman of the Canadian National Live Stock Records. Mr. Biggs, in the capacity of Chairman of the Ontario Cattle Breeders Ass'n, is still carrying on with that meeting at the Carls Rite Hotel from where I have just come and consequently he cannot be here to address you. Mr. Brant, as you all possibly know, resigned on the 17th day of December and lived only ten days after that date. He passed on, however, and this we all regretted very much because we had hoped that Mr. Brant would live for some years at least to enjoy life after his very strenuous activities on the Canadian National Live Stock Records, but the fates that be decreed otherwise. At the meeting held on the day that Mr. Brant resigned, the Records Committee appointed Mr. Biggs and myself as a sub committee of the Records Committee to go into the whole financial structure of the Canadian National Live Stock Records and the matter of reorganization; Mr. Biggs and I have been working on that, and we have made certain progress concerning the financial structure of the office.

One of the things I want to speak to you about today is the matter of finances. For several years now we have been levying what we call a salary levy on your association for $450 monthly. Now this levy has not met with the approval of some of the other breed associations and it has more or less caused a certain amount of resentment against the National Live Stock Records, so Mr. Biggs in conjunction with our auditors went into this question and we are now formulating, and hope to have a new plan soon whereby the first cost of all registration shall be at the time the first registration is made; in other words, the Records Office cost should be the first cost. If you send us a hundred dollars today and our cost per transaction, is say, twenty-five cents, we will take $25 of your hundred dollars and deposit it to the credit of the Canadian National Live Stock Records and deposit $75 to the credit of the Canadian Kennel Club. At the first of each month we will give your Secretary a statement showing the number of transactions put through our office during that month, the amount of money deposited to the Records Committee for that month, that is for salaries, and other expenses, and the amount of money to the credit of your breed organization; at the end of the year we will make an adjustment, whether it be on one side of the ledger or the other; if we owe you money we will pay it to you; if you owe us money we will ask you to pay it to us. We think that will do away with a great deal of the friction that exists at the present time by this monthly levy, because it is absolutely impossible to tell any breed organization how much money they owe per month; you may have a thousand dollars' worth of fees today and tomorrow you may have only $250 worth. The Canadian Sheep Breeders' Association is a very good illustration of that; I am only using them as one of the various associations that do this. Their work is practically all done in four months of the year, so for seven or eight months of the year they have practically no income; when you ask these people to pay $450 at one time they can't do it they haven't got the money. But under this proposed new system the four months when they really receive their income the amount deducted will be exactly the same as charged to you throughout the year, they will pay twenty-five cents per transaction, approximately, and they will pay practically their whole year's cost in that four months to the Records Office. Every breed organization that Mr. Biggs or I have spoken to has been very much in favour of this new principle and we hope at the time of the annual meeting of the Records Board the Canadian Kennel Club is also going to be in favour of it. That is a matter for the Records Board to decide, not the Canadian Kennel Club or the Horse, Stock or Sheep or any other such Association, because after all it must be an amendment to the constitution of the Canadian Live Stock Records and the delegates that you appoint who are to be members of that Board are the people to decide whether we shall or shall not do it, but we believe it is the proper system and I think that after discussing the matter yesterday with your directors they are very much in favour of it.

We have still another proposition: For years we have had a contract with the National Printers Limited to print your stud books at a cost plus basis. Last year we discovered that there was a printing firm at Owen Sound that was prepared to do this class of work by the photographic process for about half the money. We had a contract, with your Association, and some of the other Associations, for five years at a cost of $105 overhead plus twelve per cent profit. We discovered this firm at Owen Sound was prepared to do this work at about half the price by a photographic process. Mr. Biggs looked into this matter; went into it as soon as we found it out and we found we could save about sixty per cent of your printing cost by printing under the new system. We met several of the affiliated association executive committees, at the time of the Royal Winter Fair and our suggestion was that we notify the National Printers they were not going to print any other books under their present contract. Mr. Biggs came to Ottawa, we met the National Printers and got them to give us a contract superseding the contract of May 9th, 1935, whereby we could print our books by the photographic process with them. Then we were up against another proposition: We were to prepare all necessary copy in the Records Office, it is a sheet probably about the size of the Secretary's papers here; we type all particulars, this is photographed and reduced to the size of your stud book page. Then we have to arrive at a cost to do that work in the National Records Office. We have typed the Ayrshire copy and the Angus copy, and found the actual figures were fifty-four cents a page. That was the actual cost of doing that class of work. Since that time we have heard from all the member organizations that were affected by this contract—(we haven't discussed this with your Secretary because I was going to be here and was going to discuss it with him in person) but every member organization has decided, with the exception of one, to use this new photographic system for their stud, herd or flock books. We decided the best thing to do was put typewriting through as a general cost of the Records Office; in other words, charge it to salaries, and every breed organization will receive the same benefit, and taking it over at the proper time there will be no hardship to one or the other, billing the work out on an equitable basis. Our idea is to put this typewritten copy through our office at the same cost as any other work and charge it all to salaries. I don't know whether that will meet with the approval of the Records Board or not, but we hope it will; it will save us considerable bookkeeping and also give the member organizations a much better service, and that is just exactly what we are trying to do, trying to give you all better service than you have had in the past. We want to eliminate the feeling that seems to have grown up in this country that the Live Stock Records are a separate little organization. We are not. We feel that we are part and parcel of the Canadian Kennel Club. The Canadian Kennel Club is affiliated with the Canadian National Live Stock Records and we are there to do your business. We don't make your rules; you make them yourself. Once they are approved of by the Minister of Agriculture it is up to the Canadian Kennel Club to see that they are lived up to and properly carried out. We want you to believe that we are part and parcel of your organization, just the same as Mr. Strachan, your Secretary is, and we don't want that feeling to grow up that we are something separate and apart from this organization. We are trying to re-establish the proper feeling. During the past four or five years the best kind of feeling has not existed but we are going to try and bring it back. We want you all to know, if you have any grievances, imaginary or otherwise, you can write to the Records Office and I will guarantee, as the director of the National Live Stock Records Office, that you will get a courteous reply and we will do our best to answer your questions properly.

GREAT APPLAUSE.

Col. MacRae: We have now come under the heading of New Business, and I am now asking Mr. F. W. Walkerdine in his capacity as Chairman of the Committee on Resolutions to present his committee's report.

It was agreed to deal with the report ad seriatim as the proposed amendments had appeared in the official organ.

Mr. Walkerdine: Read the following report: To the Board of Directors of the Canadian Kennel Club, Inc., having discussed and considered the proposed amendments to the Constitution, Dog Show Rules and Dog Show Regulations submitted by various members, to come before our Annual General Meeting on February 5th, 1937, your Resolutions Committee have much pleasure in reporting as follows:

Amendment submitted by Col. J. N. MacRae, that the word "incorporated" be inserted in every instance after the words "Canadian Kennel Club" in order that the club may be referred to uniformly and correctly, i.e. "Canadian Kennel Club Incorporated".

Committee's recommendation: Concurrence. Carried.

Amendment submitted by Col. J. N. MacRae, that Article 3—Members, Section 1, Sub-section B, be amended by adding the words "and approved by the Board of Directors" immediately after the words "resident in Canada", on the second line.

Committee's recommendation: Concurrence. The first two lines of sub-section B, as amended will read:

"Annual members shall be those persons, kennel partnerships or companies incorporated under federal or provincial charter, resident in Canada and approved by the Board of Directors."

Mrs. McColl: May I ask that you read that whole rule to us so that we may understand what changes are being made?

Mr. Dawson: The clause referred to will read: "Annual members shall be those persons, kennel partnerships or companies incorporated under federal or provincial charter, resident in Canada and approved by the Board of Directors who pay an initial fee of five dollars for the first year and thereafter . . ." and so on. It refers to annual members.

Mrs. McColl: Do not the Board of Directors approve of members before they are admitted?

President MacRae: Yes, we do, but we want those words added. Carried.

Amendment submitted by Gerald L. Stock, Vancouver, "That Article 3, Members, be amended by adding thereto a class to be known as class (c) Minor Members."

"Minors may become members providing that their legal representative shall assume full responsibility for any defalcations on the part of their ward, and that full privileges be accorded said minor, excepting the right to vote at any meeting or election."

Committee recommends concurrence.

Mr. Hitchman: May I ask if the membership fee with that will be $5, the same as with any other?

Mr. Walkerdine: Yes.

President MacRae: Any discussion on this?

Mr. Stockdale: May I ask if that means if a minor member committed some breach of the Constitution would the person acting as his sponsor would be the party who would be suspended from the privileges of registration in the National Live Stock Records Board?

President MacRae: Yes, the sponsor as well as the minor.

Mr. Stockdale: That is punishing two persons for the guilt of one. The minor might commit some misdemeanor without the knowledge of his sponsor and the latter would be compelled to suffer if you pass this resolution. I think that it is a little drastic.

Capt. Waters: But the sponsor is taking the responsibility. He needn't be the sponsor.

Mr. Grosart: I think that is already covered by the law regarding a ward and legal representation. I think the whole point is covered by the law as it now stands. I am not a lawyer but I am quite certain of that.

President MacRae: This is merely Mr. Stock's motion. We are putting it up to you.

Mr. Walkerdine: The committee had to take this into consideration, a lad of five or six years of age becomes a member of this organization and of course he could not be allowed to vote; that was another point we had to take into consideration.

Mr. J. A. Blair: I was asked by Mr. Stock to speak to this matter. I think what Mr. Walkerdine has mentioned was also in Mr. Stock's mind. I think he had it in mind there was a boy six or seven years of age who was to have the privileges of the Canadian Kennel Club, he received a ballot naturally in the usual course of events, there being no reason under the present arrangements why he should not, and in discussing it with the members in Vancouver who attended our meeting, which was quite largely attended, they were unanimous on this resolution. As to the actual wording of it I haven't gone very thoroughly into it, but the intention is there.

Mrs. McColl: If I make my children minor members, as I read it, I must assume full responsibility for those children. They sign their own papers, but why not have the parents sign them too?

Mr. Hitchman: I might say, on behalf of the Canadian National Live Stock Records, we do not accept papers signed by a minor; the guardian must sign in all cases, that is the ruling of the Department of Justice.

Mrs. McColl: How do you know he is a minor now?

Mr. Hitchman: We don't know unless they are honest enough to say so, and, after all, all registrations are based on the integrity of the breeder.

Mrs. McColl: What is a minor?

Mr. Hitchman: A minor is a boy under twenty-one years of age, or a girl under eighteen. That is British law.

Mr. W. Brown: I think we are treading on very dangerous ground when we take in a lad of say sixteen. I think a good thing would be to set the minimum age and let him take his full responsibility.

Mr. Stockdale: Don't you think, Mr. President, we are opening the door to something that might occur by the adoption of just such a resolution as this? I would move non-concurrence.

Seconded by Mr. W. Brown.

Mr. Blair: Before the question is put, might I just point out that Mr. Hitchman has pointed out to you that a minor cannot be a member of the Canadian Kennel Club.

Mr. Hitchman: We would not accept the signature of a minor without his guardian signing on his behalf.

Mr. Blair: But you are doing it.

Mr. Hitchman: Yes, we have done it, in the cattle clubs they have calf clubs and in the horse clubs they have junior clubs; in the cattle and horse clubs they send out a list of the boys and girls belonging to their calf or horse clubs and such clubs are the responsible parties for those boys or girls; a little different proposition to yours altogether though.

Mr. W. Brown: The father of this lad who is a part of this organization has stood for or guaranteed for this boy, or girl, at this particular time; do you know that? Do you know that the father has signed?

Mr. Hitchman: In the calf and horse clubs I am talking about I say it is an entirely different proposition. We would have to have the proper signatures.

President MacRae: Non-concurrence has been regularly moved and seconded. Amendment lost.

Amendment submitted by Gerald L. Stock, Vancouver, "That Article 3, Members, be amended by adding thereto a class to be known as Class (f) Member Clubs.

"All show-giving clubs shall be affiliated with the Canadian Kennel Club at a nominal membership fee."

Committee's recommendation: Non-concurrence.

With regard to the Committee's recommendation of non-concurrence, the Committee feels that one might get a club affiliated with the Canadian Kennel Club and have only one member and they might advertise a show to be given under the Canadian Kennel Club rules and add that prestige to their advertising, and that is one of the reasons why we so move.

Mr. Blair: In view of certain discussions that took place at a directors' meeting yesterday dealing indirectly with this matter I would move that this resolution be laid on the table until the next annual meeting. In the meantime I think that this difficulty as far as Mr. Stock is concerned will be overcome.

Mr. Pym: I second the motion that this be laid on the table till next annual meeting. Carried.

Amendment submitted by Col. J. N. MacRae, That Article 3, Members, Section 2, be amended by striking out the word "club" when it appears for the second time on the third line, and substituting therefore the word "directors".

Committee's recommendation: Concurrence.

Section 2, as amended, will read: "Applications for annual membership shall be in writing and each applicant on becoming a member shall agree to be bound by the Constitution and amendments thereto and all rules of the club but the Directors shall have power to reject any application for membership."

Mr. Dawson: It will then read: "Applications for annual membership shall be in writing and each applicant on becoming a member shall agree to be bound by the Constitution and amendments thereto and all rules of the club but the Directors shall have power to reject any application for membership."

President MacRae: The original word is wrong; we are just trying to correct it.

Mr. Stockdale: I move concurrence in the Committee's recommendation.

Seconded by Mr. Roberts. Carried. Amendment submitted by Col. J. N. MacRae, That Article 6, Directors, Officers and Committees, be amended by including the following sentence:

"Any province including the Maritime Provinces, having less than the unit of representation, shall be entitled to one Director."

This to come immediately after the word "one-half" in paragraph four of section one, on the ninth line.

Committee's recommendation: Non-concurrence.

Mr. Hitchman: Your Secretary just tells me that request really came from Mr. Brant so that all provinces could have a representative. I might say that as far as I am personally concerned, or the Records Committee we don't wish to interfere in any way with the election of your directors or how many you elect; that is purely a matter for yourselves. I really regret that Mr. Brant, who was not well for two or three years before he died, wrote this letter, but the Live Stock Records does not in any way want to interfere with your business, you are absolutely autonomous.

Mr. W. Brown: There is a lot of merit in this case; every province should be represented. There should be a minimum where say ten or fifteen members reside. I think every province should have a Director. If we are going to build up this organization you have to have someone there to do the ground work. I think provision should be made for a certain quota to entitle representation on the Board of Directors.

Capt. Waters: There is a quota now.

Mr. W. Brown: What is the quota?

Mr. Hitchman: By membership and registration. When a province gets the required number of members and registrations they automatically get a director.

Mr. W. Brown: But what is the quota?

Mr. Hitchman: I couldn't tell you the quota. All breed organizations have different quotas. I agree with you, all provinces should be represented, but only at the time when they receive enough registrations and transfers to qualify.

President MacRae: Ladies and gentlemen I withdraw this proposed amendment.

Amendment submitted by Col. J. N. MacRae:

That Article 6—Directors, Officers and Committees, be amended at paragraph ten by striking out the words "first day of October", on the third line, and substituting therefor the words "fifteenth day of September".

Committee's recommendation concurrence.

Above section as amended will read: "A member in good standing in respect of voting is a member whose membership fee for the current year has been received at the office of the Canadian National Live Stock Records, Ottawa, before the fifteenth day of September in the then current year."

I think the idea is to protect Kennel and Bench from being held up on the 1st October because one man may be nominated and his name doesn't appear in Kennel and Bench, and the dates are just switched forward fifteen days as a protective measure.

President MacRae: The endeavor is simply to get Kennel and Bench out on the first day of the month with a full list of the members entitled to nomination or to be nominated.

Mr. Duckett: I move concurrence.

Seconded by Mr. Kynoch. Carried.

Amendment submitted by Gerald L. Stock, Vancouver:

That Article 6—Paragraph 11, Representatives, shall be amended by deleting the words "asking that such be appointed" and by making an addition, the paragraph to read:

"Representatives to organizations shall be appointed at the Annual General Meeting, but if for any reason any of these are not so appointed, the Board of Directors shall have power to appoint the same. Representatives to the Canadian National Live Stock Records shall be appointed by the Directors, and that in all communities in Canada where Canadian Kennel Club licensed shows are held in connection with Exhibitions or Industrial Fairs, a member of the Canadian Kennel Club resident in any such community shall be appointed by the Board of Directors are representative of the Canadian Kennel Club to such Exhibition or Industrial Fair and that said appointee shall be included on all committees pertaining to the Dog Show".

Committee's recommendation non-concurrence.

We feel that this matter is not within the jurisdiction of the Canadian Kennel Club.

Mr. Stockdale: I move adoption of the report of the committee.

Mr. W. Brown: I second that. Carried.

Amendment submitted by Col. J. N. MacRae:

That a new article—to be known for the purpose of discussion at the Annual General Meeting as Article 14A, be inserted immediately after Article 14—Registration of Pedigrees, and reading as follows:

"Registration of Tattoo Letters. A breeder must apply to the Canadian National Live Stock Records for and be allotted identification letters for his exclusive use with which to tattoo mark dogs born his property on and after January 1st, 1938.

"In the event of a change in the name of a partnership or company, or if a member of the same family is taken into partnership, the tattoo letters may be transferred on application to the Canadian National Live Stock Records of the registered owner or his authorized representative. Likewise, transfer may be made from a deceased owner to his heir."

"Mr. President, your committee is of the opinion that the above amendment is too contentious for them to make any recommendation, and prefer to pass same along for general discussion at this annual meeting."

Mr. Stockdale: Rising to a question of privilege, if you will permit me, Mr. Chairman, may I move at this time, subject to your accepting this suggestion from Mr. Walkerdine, that this lay on the table till the evening session? My reason for so doing is, that a number of people who find it impossible to get to this afternoon meeting were counting on being present at the evening session.

Mr. W. Brown: I move that this matter be left over to the next annual meeting.

Mr. A. Roberts: I will second that.

Mr. Hitchman: I am not going to discuss your motion, I am just going to refer you to these other people. Mr. MacVannel is here; he will tell you that the Minister of Agriculture has approved your constitution only to a certain date; after that date you do not exist under the Live Stock Pedigree Act. I am not being nasty, but I do ask you to be sensible. At the Records Office we are starting out on a new way; we are really trying to be fair to everybody and in turn we want you to be fair to us and to the Minister of Agriculture. The government of this country makes a law for you and it is recognized by the Live Stock Records. Let us all be fair here today. Don't let us lay this matter over, but let us discuss it fairly and honestly.

Mr. W. Brown: Do I understand we have to take the last speaker's remarks to mean that if we don't discuss this here, they are going to put the measure in operation whether we like it or not?

President MacRae: No, No. Two years ago, when you laid this over until the annual meeting of 1937, we had to apply for the Minister to approve of our constitution and the understanding was that it was laid over simply on account of this very point. It has been intimated that if we continue to refrain from acting in accordance with the Live Stock Pedigree Act—

Mr. MacVannel: May I interrupt you a second?

President MacRae: Yes.

Mr. MacVannel: Mr. Chairman, ladies and gentlemen. First I want to congratulate you all on your admitting ladies to your directorate.

Over a period of the last two or three years we have had one or two conferences with the directors of the Canadian Kennel Club and they were rather pointed conferences. Under the Act by which you have authority to carry on business in this country the responsibility rests with the Department of Agriculture, and particularly with the Live Stock Commissioner, and two or three years ago the Commissioner, you will remember, spoke very pointedly to your organization. I want to say, however, that the Department of Agriculture, and your directors, and the Canadian National Live Stock Records have been understanding each other pretty well; each have an important function to perform in this country. Mr. Hitchman has said some things to you today which I think will help your Association a great deal (hear, hear) and with other things which are happening in all Live Stock Breed Associations we are endeavoring today to do things just a little bit better, and to do a little bit more. Mr. Hitchman has also said that the government of this country gives your organization a substantial grant, and you enjoy a good many other privileges. Then there is the section of the Act which says that your constitution shall provide for certain things.

Mr. W. Brown: Isn't that possible to be amended?

Mr. MacVannel: The Act is in existence at the present time. Now, we in the Department of Agriculture try to let your Association handle its own business, as Mr. Hitchman has pointed out, but the Act must be adhered to. I think that the Department has been very fair and we have passed over the matter of identification for two years. I am not in a position to promise you anything more, but believing that everything is now a little better, and believing, too, that there are other breed associations that have successfully faced those problems, that your organization can face them just as well. That explains why I do not say anything more today and I am not going to say anything more at the present time, but I do believe that your directors and you breeders are anxious to co-operate and keep standards up with all other associations, and I hope that you will treat this motion and those regulations in a fair way and in a manner which will mean progress in not only the breeding of dogs but the breeding of all other classes of stock in this country. I thank you for your very courteous hearing.

Mr. W. Brown: In view of the fact that I moved a motion which is not debatable and it is irregular to have all this discussion, and to avoid any complications for the chairman, I withdraw the motion and I think we had better fight it right out, because it is all very well the gentleman saying we should do the same as the other organizations, but these other organizations are for cattle, cows, bulls, sheep and horses. It is all right to tattoo such animals as those, but when it comes down to small dogs I think we ought to have something more to say about it.

Mr. Sparkes: Two years ago at this meeting I believe Mr. MacVannel was good enough to come here, Mr. MacVannel being an officer of the Department of Agriculture. Mr. Hitchman came down and spoke to us very kindly on this subject of tattooing; at that time, Mr. Chairman, ladies and gentlemen, I was one who was very much against the tattooing of dogs because we had been advised to tattoo in the ears. There are certain breeds that cannot be tattooed in the ears, that has been agreed upon. And now they don't press for that. The Live Stock Records are good enough to say "We don't tell you where the dogs are to be tattooed as long as they are tattooed." We have had two years to think about this, some of us have experimented; experimentations have been taking place by some of our own members on their dogs. Now allow me to say, it doesn't matter how small the animal is, tattooing can be carried out successfully, and it is ways and means that you will be able to create (it is a creation after all, tattooing), a means of identification of dogs without any fear of contradiction as to a pedigree.

Mr. Duckett: Mr. Chairman, there is a motion before the house, is there not?

President MacRae: No, a recommendation.

Mr. Stockdale: I was asking that it be laid on the table till the evening session.

President MacRae: I don't think we have anything else contentious and there may not be any evening meeting.

Mr. Stockdale: This meeting can be adjourned till 7.30 and take care of it in that way. I am not doing this to oppose the motion by any means.

President MacRae: No, only I don't know that Mr. Hitchman and Mr. MacVannel can be with us tonight.

Mr. Hitchman: I am very sorry, gentlemen, I can't be here this evening; I have six or eight meetings to attend, and I have been trying to cover all the ground.

Mr. Duckett: I was going to move that it be left to the end of our agenda; that is, discuss everything else and then if we find we have time before adjourning we will debate this, but this is going to take up at least an hour and a half of your time or else I am missing my guess.

Mr. Pym: I feel myself that this matter should not be decided at this time, for the reason that there are many interested members of the Canadian Kennel Club who, by virtue of the nature of their employment, are prohibited from attending this afternoon discussion, and I think they are vitally interested, whether for the proposition or against it. At the same time I appreciate that our new Records director, Mr. Hitchman, has many meetings to attend, and personally I should like to see him here when this discussion is taking place. Two years ago I had some very pertinent remarks to make and it was on my motion that the proposition was laid on the table. During that period I have made investigations and gone into this question very thoroughly; that is, to the best of my ability, and I expect to have considerable to say when this motion is under discussion. I am going to approach the subject with an open mind and I really hope each and every one of us will approach it with an equally open mind, and I am going to be fair to the Records Office and I am going to be fair to the breeder who opposes it, but first of all I am going to be fair to myself, because if this is a good thing for me I want it; if it is not a good thing for me I shall oppose it. I wish that we could come to some arrangement and get set a specific time that would work in with Mr. Hitchman's other appointments. Mr. Hitchman, as we all know, has been just recently appointed Director and I for one feel that that appointment is a great step forward for the relationships of the Canadian Kennel Club with the Canadian National Live Stock Records and I for one am going to give him one hundred per cent co-operation; that does not mean that I will always agree with him, nor do I expect him to agree with me, but I believe Mr. Hitchman is the type of man, who, if we can point out to him that a proposition brought before us is wrong and not beneficial to this organization he is going to be big enough to see that that proposition is withdrawn, and I think we do owe it to Mr. Hitchman to give him every possible co-operation, particularly at this annual meeting, it being his first annual meeting as a Director of the Records Office. I have not declared myself how I will vote tonight; I will do that at the proper time; and if it could be possibly arranged so that Mr. Hitchman could be with us then, if we could give a bit, and Mr. Hitchman could give a little, but I would like to see as many members present and also Mr. Hitchman when it is finally discussed. I don't know the local conditions in Toronto, but I feel if we could get together in a co-operative spirit and approach it that way no matter how we stood or voted it would be to our mutual advantage.

Mr. Hitchman: I want to do everything I can for the Club and I thank Mr. Pym for what he has said. If you would give me a little time I could make my arrangements and come back again.

Applause.

Mr. Stockdale: If it would be agreeable to him I would suggest eight-fifteen.

Mr. Hitchman: I think I can arrange whatever time you say.

Mr. Stockdale: I would suggest that the time be embodied in my suggestion to lay on the table till eight-fifteen.

President MacRae: Does that meet with the concurrence of the meeting? Applause.

At eight-fifteen, we will again take this matter up.

Mr. Hitchman: I overlooked one thing: Mr. MacVannel ought to be here too, because that is very important. I am sorry, Mr. Pym, I forgot about him.

Mr. MacVannel: It is the Department that is forcing this thing. The Act says "Provide identification." This matter of tattooing, the situation is we have been working together pretty well. Your directors met us and we discussed things. Mr. Rothwell and the Deputy Minister were good enough to agree to a suggestion that we made to approve that constitution for one year more. You asked us to do that again a year ago, and we did it. Now you have authority to carry on business until some day in May. We hope that you will treat that in such a way that we are not placed in the position where we will have to say that you must stop. I think I have put it as clearly as I can. We want to co-operate with these other directors, but identification is something which has to be faced.

Mr. W. Brown: If that is the situation the only thing we can do is, and I move that, this organization appeal to the government to amend that clause in the Act before May.

Mr. Sparkes: There is a motion that everything be left till eight-fifteen.

President MacRae: Can you be here at eight-fifteen, Mr. MacVannel?

Mr. MacVannel: I can, Mr. Chairman, if I can be of any use to you all, I will be here.

President MacRae: All right then, this matter of identification is deferred till eight-fifteen.

Mr. Walkerdine, go ahead.

Mr. Walkerdine: Amendment submitted by Reg. P. Sparkes, That Article 15, Section 3, of the Constitution be entirely eliminated, and the following paragraph substituted:

"That once a Kennel Name has been registered, such Kennel Name shall remain the property of such individual or partnership, for all time."

I move the adoption of the Committee's recommendation of concurrence.

Mr. Shawley: Mr. Chairman, I will move concurrence in that recommendation.

Seconded by Mr. Stockdale. Carried.

Mr. Walkerdine: Amendment submitted by Reg. P. Sparkes, That Article 15, Section 4, be amended by cancellation of the last paragraph which reads:

"After the expiration of five years from the date of registration, registration will lapse, unless a name is re-registered."

The Committee's recommendation is concurrence, and we would also recommend cancellation of the previous sentence, which reads:

"Names so registered shall not be transferable."

The amended Section 4 would read thus:

"A resident of Canada or a foreign country may register a kennel name without becoming a member of this club, provided the name has not already been registered. A fee of $10 for each name so registered will be charged."

That is just a suggestion on the part of the Committee in eliminating names and the deletion of those words, "Names so registered shall not be transferable."

Mr. Stockdale: Was it intended there would be a fee for re-registration?

Mr. Sparkes: The point there is this, that at the present time the way your registration of a kennel name is in your constitution, if a breeder through illness, through departure from the country or something of that nature cannot register a dog for five years, he automatically loses his kennel name. That was the purpose of my proposition and I think it covers it. Therefore, there is no need for the latter paragraph. In your Article 15, Section 3, I maintain that "After the expiration of five years from the date of registration, registration will lapse . . .", as we are already given the kennel name for life that part of the paragraph is needless and should be stricken out.

Mr. Hitchman: May I suggest you include the recommendation of Mr. Walkerdine and delete those other words you put in your motion? I think it is a very good motion.

Mr. Stockdale: Would you repeat your substitution, Mr. Walkerdine?

Mr. Walkerdine: The new amended Section 4 will read thus:

"A resident of Canada or a foreign country may register a kennel name without becoming a member of this club, provided the name has not already been registered. A fee of $10 for each name so registered will be charged."

President MacRae: Do you so move, Mr. Sparkes?

Mr. Sparkes: I so move.

Mr. Stockdale: Well then may I ask if that embodies both of the former?

Capt. Waters: No. The previous one is for members. This is for others in another country.

Seconded by Dr. Batt. Carried.

Mr. Walkerdine: Amendment submitted by Col. J. N. MacRae, That Article 15, Registration of Kennel Names, be amended by striking out the word "Club" at section five on the first line, and substituting therefor the word "directors".

Committee's recommendation: Concurrence.

Amended Section 5 would read thus:

"The directors reserve the right to refuse any kennel name which may be misleading, or any name which may be misleading as to the origin or relationship of a dog."

President MacRae: We have had cases, ladies and gentlemen, where an endeavour has been made to register a name almost identically like that used by an old time breeder, and we wish to avoid, if possible, trading on the other fellow's kennel name.

Mr. Kynoch: I move the adoption.

Mr. Ross seconded the motion. Carried.

Mr. Walkerdine: Amendment submitted by Col. J. N. MacRae, That Article 17, Rules of Eligibility, be amended by striking out the words, "the Record Committee may on the recommendation of the Board of Directors, add additional breeds for registration, provided same are approved by the Minister of Agriculture for Canada," and substitute therefor the words,

"Any other breeds recognized by registration may be automatically added to the list of recognized breeds."

Committee's recommendation: Non-concurrence in its present wording.

Note: Your Committee will heartily concur with the above amendment provided the words recognized by registration be deleted from same.

New amendment will then read:

Article 17, Rules of Eligibility, Section 3, last paragraph to read:

"In addition to breeds of dogs now recognized as eligible for registration, any other breeds may be automatically added to the list of recognized breeds."

The reason for that is this, on registration here it is said that they must be recognized. That is the point the Committee would like to have deleted. The Committee took into consideration this, that there has been a big outcry at the recommendation of the Board to put Huskies on. That has been a contention for the last fifteen years, to get some Huskies registered, but that breed is not registered yet, they have not got their definite pedigrees in because we haven't recognized them, but if we put this thing through we are cancelling something the Board of Directors have already passed.

Mr. Climo: In other words you want to register foundation stock.

Mr. Walkerdine: Yes. With these words in you can't.

Mr. Hitchman: Everybody realizes we cannot do anything unless the Department approves of it; no matter what we do the Department must approve of it. I have asked Mr. Dawson to rewrite this and if you would permit us I think we will just put it a little differently and if you will pass it we may not have any difficulty.

Mr. Dawson: As I have reworded the proposed amendment it would read:

"In addition to breeds of dogs now recognized as eligible for registration, any other breeds may, with the approval of the Board of Directors, be added to the list of recognized breeds."

President MacRae: That is better still.

Moved by Mrs. Brown, seconded by Dr. Cooper, that, the rule as now drafted be accepted. Carried.

Mr. Walkerdine: Amendment by Col. J. N. MacRae, That Article 18, Application for Registration, Section 3, be amended by striking out the word "may" in the third line and substituting therefor the word "shall".

Your Committee recommends concurrence in that. Section 3 will then read:

"Application for registration of the birth of a litter must be made to the Canadian National Live Stock Records on a form supplied by them, by the owner at the time of birth, otherwise, individual dogs of the litter shall not be eligible for registration. All blank spaces must be filled in . . ." etc., etc.

Moved by Mr. Climo, seconded by Capt. Waters, that, this recommendation be adopted. Carried.

Mr. Walkerdine: Amendment submitted by Col. J. N. MacRae, That Article 18, Application for Registration, Section 4, be amended by striking out entirely the words, "in the name of the person owning the dam at the date of the birth of the litter". Also strike out the words, "If change of ownership has taken place after birth, the usual transfer must be filed for which the usual fee will be charged,"—and substitute therefor the words, "If a change of ownership has to be recorded, the application for registration shall furnish full particulars of transfer."

The Committee understands there is a possibility of the above amendment being withdrawn.

Note: If the above amendment is not withdrawn, then your Committee will recommend non-concurrence."

President MacRae: I am withdrawing that, and I am withdrawing the next one as well.

That Article 19, Transfers and Duplicate Certificates, Section 1, be amended by striking out the words, "A certificate of" and substituting therefor the words, "an application for registration".

Mr. Walkerdine: Amendment submitted by Gerald L. Stock, Vancouver, "That Rule of Entry, No. 7, Changing Name of Dog, be revised to permit the owner of a dog the right to change the name of a dog within thirty (30) days after having received the registration papers of said dog and further that a fee shall be stipulated for same."

Your Committee reports that rule of entry No. 7 does not appear in the Club's Constitution as amended February, 1936. Also your Committee is of the opinion that the stipulation of thirty days after having received the registration papers, leaves too much latitude, inasmuch as it would be difficult to draw the line as to when the registration papers were actually received.

However, your Committee is desirous of assisting Mr. Stock in obtaining some relief, and recommends that Article 15, Registration of Kennel Names, Section 1, be amended by altering the last two words of this section from thirty days to sixty days.

The last sentence of this section as amended would read:

"It shall not be permissible to change the name of a dog after it has been registered sixty days."

Mr. Blair: That will be quite satisfactory to Mr. Stock.

Mrs. Brown: I think we might substitute the word "breeder" for "owner".

Mr. Dawson: If you use the word "breeder" there might be a possible confusion because of the term "breeder" and the words "the property of", therefore I suggest, for your approval, that that sentence be changed to read that it shall not be permissible for the owner at birth to change the name of a dog after it has been registered sixty days. That makes it definite.

President MacRae: That covers all your questions.

Mr. Blair: If I buy a dog from Capt. Waters, is it possible within thirty days to change the name of that dog without Capt. Waters' permission?

Mr. Hitchman: No. For all the names we have to change it isn't worth while discussing. Make it sixty days and I think it will be perfectly all right.

President MacRae: It now reads:

"It shall not be permissible for the owner at the date of birth to change the name of a dog after it has been registered sixty days."

Mr. Shawley: I move concurrence.

Mr. Vaughan seconded the motion. Carried.

Capt. Waters: Would a motion to adjourn be in order? I move we adjourn.

Mr. Pym: Just before adjournment, there is another amendment that has apparently been overlooked, or something happened to it, as it is not on the agenda. Have I permission to move it? This is Mr. Irving's amendment and in his absence I will move the following:

Section 14 to be amended by including under Section 7: Letters shall not be used as a prefix to a name. "Names shall not contain more than thirty letter spaces or characters, including numeral figures. It shall not be permissible to change the name of a dog after it has been registered sixty days."

Section 15, paragraph 1, to be amended by deleting the first sentence and substituting the following, 3: "A member may register the name of his kennel for his exclusive use. A Registered Kennel name may be used as a prefix, affix or in combination in naming dogs born his property. Application for registration of kennel names must be announced in Kennel and Bench for thirty clear days before being granted." The last three sentences under Section 1, shall be omitted and the information contained in these sentences shall be included as Section 7 of Article 14.

In order to place it before the meeting I move the adoption on behalf of Mr. Irving, who is absent.

Mr. Hitchman: Was this included in the notice calling the meeting?

Mr. Pym: No.

Mr. Hitchman: Anything not in the notice calling the meeting cannot be passed on today.

Mr. Kynoch: I move that this amendment be laid on the table.

Mr. Stockdale seconded the motion. Carried.

Capt. Waters: I move we adjourn until seven-thirty o'clock.

Seconded by Dr. Batt, and the meeting adjourned accordingly, at 5.35 p.m.

7.30 p.m., meeting called to order, the President, Col. J. N. MacRae, M.C., in the Chair.

President MacRae: All right, ladies and gentlemen, come to order, and we will get started again.

The next thing is the proposed amendment to the dog show rules. Mr. Walkerdine, are you ready to proceed?

Mr. Walkerdine: Yes, that Dog Show Rule 8 be amended by adding the following:

"No person shall be allowed to judge at any dog show held under Canadian Kennel Club Rules, who owns, publishes or edits any magazine devoted to dogs or who sells advertising space in such magazines. Also that no person be allowed to judge at any dog show held under Canadian Kennel Club Rules who is engaged in the manufacture or selling of dog foods and medicines."

President MacRae: The Committee's recommendation on this is non-concurrence. It feels that this matter should be left to the License Board entirely.

Mr. Stockdale: I second the Resolution.

President MacRae: Moved and seconded that the non-concurrence of this amendment be accepted. All in favour; contrary. (Carried.)

Mr. Walkerdine: The next is that Rule 10, Section (c) be amended to read as follows:

"Puppies, irrespective of the classes in which they are entered, need not be brought to a show until the opening of the show on the day on which they are to be judged. They may be permanently removed from a show after the closing hour on the day their classes have been judged. No dog under six months of age will be allowed within the precincts of the show building.

Penalty for infraction of this Rule, cancellation of all wins made by exhibitor."

President MacRae: The Committee's recommendation is non-concurrence.

Mr. Stockdale: I move the adoption of the Committee's recommendation.

Mr. Walkerdine: Would it not be fair to have Mrs. McColl present?

Mr. Essery: The announcement was made early in the afternoon that some specific matters would be adjourned until 8.15. There were several persons in attendance this afternoon who left this room before the announcement was made that the meeting would open at 7.30, and it is quite possible that is the explanation for their absence.

President MacRae: Ladies and gentlemen, with your permission we will go on to the amendments made by H. P. Saunders of Calgary. Is that agreeable to you?

Mr. Walkerdine: This is an amendment submitted by Mr. H. P. Saunders of Calgary:

"That the Senior Puppy Class shall be for dogs nine months of age on the first day of the show, and under twelve months of age on the first day of the show, and that no entry can be made of one whose date of birth, sire, dam and breeder is unknown, and that an additional clause shall be added to read as follows: It shall be optional with show giving clubs whether or not the Puppy Classes be divided. In case of no division the Puppy Class to be for dogs six months of age on the first day of the show and under twelve months of age on the first day of the show, and no entry can be made of one whose date of birth, sire, dam and breeder is unknown."

Your Committee's recommendation on this is non-concurrence, and in order to remove the situation we recommend the following, that Rule 10, section (b) be deleted in its entirety. We also recommend that Rule 10 (c) that the word "senior" be eliminated from the first line. The Section will then read:

"That the Puppy Class shall be for dogs nine months of age on the first day of the show, and under twelve months of age on the first day of the show, and that no entry can be made of anyone whose date of birth, sire, dam and breeder is unknown, and that an additional clause shall be added to read as follows: It shall be optional with show giving Clubs whether or not the Puppy Classes be divided. In case of no division the Puppy Class to be for dogs six months of age on the first day of the show and under twelve months of age on the first day of the show, and no entry can be made of one whose date of birth, sire, dam and breeder is unknown."

All the difference there is cutting out one section entirely and eliminating the word "senior".

Mr. Climo: Speaking to this motion; at the present time, if you will look in your dog show rules it says the senior puppy is six to twelve, and what we are asking is nine to twelve. That is the only alteration. If you will look in your rules it says six to twelve and it should read nine to twelve.

Mr. Kynoch: The idea of Mr. Saunders' amendment is that the rules of the Canadian Kennel Club are wrong and he wants them rectified because the rules say from six to twelve months for a senior puppy, and Mr. Saunders' motion is they want them from nine to twelve months. The rules are wrong. He is only asking for something that is legitimate, inasmuch as a junior is from six to twelve months old, and that is what he wants correcting.

Mr. Sparkes: The whole thing boils down to this; it has always been understood that a junior puppy is six to nine and a senior puppy nine to twelve, therefore, under your rules it could not compete as a senior puppy. It is a misunderstanding. Six to nine is a junior and nine to twelve a senior.

Mr. Reeves: I think it would be unfair if we were to confine the puppy class to one class. I think it is a good idea to have junior and senior puppy classes, because there are some breeds when a month or two means an awful difference to the puppy.

Mr. Climo: I move that Mr. Pym's amendment be accepted. Seconded by Mr. Blair. Carried.

Mr. Walkerdine: That Dog Show Rule 11—Champions, be added to, the addition to read:

"That no dog can complete its championship without having won at a three (3) point rating show."

Your Committee recommends non-concurrence; for the reason that it would be a hardship for small shows. I don't know whether Mr. Blair will speak to this or not. He may have some information.

Mr. Blair: Our Vancouver and Victoria members were not unanimously behind this by any means. We may be a little premature in this, but sooner or later you have to come to it, for myself, I am inclined to endorse the action of the Committee. I just want to express to you and to Mr. Stock that this may be a little premature.

Mr. Walkerdine: I move the adoption; seconded by Mr. Blair. Carried.

President MacRae: We will go back to Mrs. McColl's amendment, Rule 10, section (c).

Mr. Walkerdine: "Puppies, irrespective of the classes in which they are entered, need not be brought to a show until the opening of the show on the day on which they are to be judged. They may be permanently removed from the show after the closing hour on the day their classes have been judged. No dog under six months of age will be allowed within the precincts of the show building. Penalty for infraction of this rule, cancellation of all wins made by exhibitor."

The Committee's recommendation here is non-concurrence. We feel it would be a hardship on small shows.

Mrs. McColl: I would like to ask how many small shows have more than a one-day show.

Mr. Walkerdine: I believe there are a number in and around Toronto.

Mrs. McColl: I had hoped to have Captain Waters help me with this. The Royal Winter Fair at my request arranged that puppies should only be at the show on the day of judging. At the Canadian National Exhibition last year there were a number of us got together on the second day of the show, and we asked for the dogs to be judged, but we could not get it done, and they had to stay in there for three days. If you breed dogs, you understand what it means, with the flies and the heat. It is not good for the dogs. It does not work any hardship on the show-giving club to let us bring the puppy there on the morning it is to be shown. If we wish to keep it there, we may do so. We know best whether it can stand it or not.

Mr. Kynoch: Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen, I fail to see why any puppy that is over six months of age cannot stay in the show for the duration of the show. I have shown many times at shows away from home and the puppies are just in as good condition at the end of the show as if they had been at home, and furthermore, if this resolution is passed, what are you going to do with a puppy that goes to the best of breed? The rules of the Canadian Kennel Club says that such a dog must appear in the group class, and if the puppy wins, well, no one is going to squawk then, but if it does not win then they want to take it home, and I claim the puppies can stand a show just as well as the older dogs.

Mrs. McColl: Mr. Chairman: Mr. Kynoch and I have argued about this before. If your puppy goes to best of breed no one objects to you keeping it there for three days. If the puppies are judged on the first day of the show then the owner may leave it at home, but, if he wants to bring it back on the second or third day no one will object. You can bring it as often as you like, but your Canadian Kennel Club, rule 60 reads: "All puppies must be judged on the second day of the show."

Mr. Kynoch: For instance, take the Canadian National Exhibition, if this rule goes through, it is going to be a hardship on the management of the Canadian National Exhibition to have a puppy class for every breed judged the first day.

Mr. Stockdale: What I object to, is the wording. Now, you have a puppy and the breed is going to be judged the third day. If you enter the puppy in the novice class, you do not have to bring it in the first day, and all other dogs of that class have to be entered the first day of the show. You are giving the puppy a chance to jockey for position.

Captain Waters: No, sir, I do not agree with that. He is not a puppy when he is entered in the novice class. He is a puppy when he is entered in the puppy class. Now, mark the difference, will you? There may be a breed judged on the third day of the show, and a puppy may be entered in the open class. He is not entered as a puppy; he is entered as a dog, and if he is entered in the open class, he must be there for the duration of the show.

Mr. Stockdale: May I point out that I agree with Captain Waters thoroughly and he agrees with me. It may sound paradoxical, but it is not, because the object of the mover of this resolution is to eliminate that. She is frank about it.

Captain Waters: I stand corrected, "irrespective of classes" would put a different complexion on it. Ladies and gentlemen, I don't know, but perhaps I have been the cause of a lot of this trouble. I decided a few years ago that puppies need only be brought to the Royal Winter Fair to be judged on the day that they were to be judged as puppies. Now, mind you, don't lose sight of that. If the puppies were judged in the first day, then they could come the first day. If they were judged on the second day, then they could come the second day, and if the breed was judged on the third day, then that puppy could come on the third day, but I want you to remember this, that a puppy entered in the other classes is not really entered as a puppy. If a puppy is entered in other than the puppy class he may be entered in the open class, and at ten or eleven months, he is no puppy, and, therefore, he is entered in the open class. I don't just know what Mrs. McColl is driving at, but if she wants puppies to be brought to the show on the day that they are judged, I will agree to that, certainly, but such puppies must be entered in the puppy class only.

Mr. Walkerdine: Well then, make it the puppy class.

Mr. Climo: Mr. Chairman: I would like to move an amendment to Mrs. McColl's motion, that puppies may be brought to the show on the day that they are to be judged, and may be moved from the show at the close of the show on that day, provided they are entered in puppy class only.

Mr. Sparkes: I rise to a point of order. I have been on this floor twice. Captain Waters has just arrived in the room and he has been told this matter has been settled. Here are Mr. Hitchman, Mr. Dawson and Mr. MacVannel, we told them these matters would be taken up at 8.15.

President MacRae: Mr. Climo's motion amending the amendment being moved and seconded, are you ready for the question? All in favour; contrary. Carried. Will the gentlemen I have mentioned, come forward?

Mr. Stockdale: If it is in order, I would move that the resolution on identification as tabled two years ago be now lifted from the table.

President MacRae: Moved by Mr. Stockdale, and seconded by Mr. Climo, that the resolution as mentioned be lifted. All in favour? Carried.

Mr. Walkerdine: "That a new article—to be known for the purposes of discussion at the Annual General Meeting—as Article 14a, be inserted immediately after Article 14—Registration of pedigrees, and reading as follows:

"Registration of tattoo marks; a breeder must apply to the Canadian National Live Stock Records for and be allotted identification letters for his exclusive use with which to tattoo mark dogs born his property on and after January 1st, 1938.

"In the event of a change in the name of a partnership or company or if a member of the same family is taken into partnership, the tattoo letters may be transferred on application to the Canadian National Live Stock Record of the registered owner or his authorized representative. Likewise transfer may be made from a deceased owner to his heir."

Mr. Stockdale: I would point out to you that the resolution of two years ago must be disposed of. We have a record of it and it was definitely tabled to this date.

Mr. Hitchman: You have been allowed to carry on for two years without private means of identification. Let us forget about the technicalities.

President MacRae: Will you move that the amendment of two years ago be rescinded, and that the amendment now proposed be taken up?

Mr. Stockdale: I move that.

Mrs. Brown: I second it.

President MacRae: All in favour. Carried.

President MacRae: I have read it to you. It is now open for discussion.

Mr. Reeves: Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen: I think with Mr. Hitchman being here that I had better tell you a little experience I had with him. About three years ago there was a certain member breeding Scottish Terriers, and at a time when I had occasion to go to the Records office. I was trying to straighten this man's difficulties out. It was Saturday morning and the business had not been completed, and someone said to me, "The only thing you can do is to wait until Monday morning," and I said, "That is very awkward for me, I want to get back to Belleville," and they said, "We are very sorry, but our staff leaves early on Saturday." Mr. Hitchman got up at once and said, "Your staff does not leave on Saturday when there is business to do." He said, "If Mr. Reeves wants to go out there with me, I am willing to take him out, and let us see if we can settle this business." That is typical of Mr. Hitchman. This man I went out to see had fifty or sixty Scottish terrier puppies; and they had all been tattooed. Before leaving I said to this man: "I suppose you have had a lot of trouble tattooing those puppies," and he turned to me and said, "Mr. Reeves, I only wish this had been brought up ten years ago; it would have saved me endless trouble. It is no trouble to tattoo them. I have fifty puppies in this run and I can go and pick out any particular puppy out of the run. There is the certainty I have the right pedigree." Now, I have always thought I would like to thank Mr. Hitchman for his kindness to me on the occasion I have referred to. Mr. Hitchman being here tonight can bear out what I say as to what that breeder told me, that it was the best thing that had ever happened to him, that the tattooing of his dogs had saved him endless trouble. I think you all know that there are no breeds, or very few breeds, that are more difficult to tattoo than Scottish Terriers. I examined all those puppies down there very carefully, and out of fifty puppies there was not one puppy with bad ears, and every puppy in the bunch had been tattooed.

A Member: How long does tattoo marks last in the case of cattle?

Mr. Reeves: For ever.

President MacRae: There are three places where you could tattoo a dog, and all that would be necessary on the registration form would be to show that the animal had been tattooed. Doctor Batt has been doing a lot of experimenting for some time. He has tattooed his dogs on the ear, in the abdomen, and on the inner side of the thigh, and I will thank him to give us some of his experiences.

Doctor Batt: You people can please yourselves whether you tattoo for identification or not. You cannot do a dog any harm by tattooing. You cannot do the abdomen any harm by tattooing on inside the thigh. I find that tattooing in the ears in certain breeds of dogs is not quite suitable. Whenever you can do it in the ear, do it in the ear. It will be easier to find the marks, but sometimes in the small breeds you have not enough ear to tattoo on, and that is the only difficulty I have had with tattooing in the ear. It is not hard on the puppy.

I know I have never seen anything go wrong when the tattooing was done on the ear. There are thousands of foxes tattooed in this country, and I cannot find any instance where there has been any trouble. Of course, if a man is careless and does not clean the ear, there is liable to be some infection, but I maintain any man who is intelligent enough to raise a pure-bred dog has certainly enough intelligence to tattoo it. There is really nothing to do. I have tattooed between 80 and 100 puppies of all ages. I can tattoo a dog and the marks will stay there for as long as he lives. You cannot very well tattoo a two months' old pup because the ears are too small, and then you have other breeds with small ears, with a two months' old puppy you cannot do it very well because the ear has not developed. If you people breed big dogs, tattoo them in the ear. It will not hurt the ear. Now, as to the inside of the thigh I have not had enough experience tattooing them yet. I have only done a few, but this fall I will be able to give you a full report. Now, the time to tattoo a puppy on the belly is at one month old. He does not seem to notice it. You just lay him on his back. The skin on his belly is not much thicker than a cigarette paper. You do not need to go in deep. It is no use expressing an opinion on having belly tattooed one or two animals, I want to do fifty or sixty, but as far as my experience goes tattooing in the ear is of the greater advantage.

Mr. Williams: Do you know, if from tattooing in the ear, there is any pain to the animal?

Doctor Batt: It is all over in no time.

Mr. Hitchman: Our Association met at the Royal York yesterday afternoon, and that is why I was too late to attend your banquet. I want to say this, that as cattle breeders, we of the Association appreciate very much Dr. Batt's efforts on our behalf, together with those of his colleagues at Guelph.

Mr. Pym: I think this is the first time that this subject has been discussed under such favourable conditions, but we have to look at both sides of this important question. I am ready to admit that I might be wrong. The virtues of tattooing are well known to me. I have used various systems of tattooing. In our Northern Ontario fastnesses, it is not uncommon for a dog to become lost, and he would come across some man who would start that dog after deer with the possibility that he would get back to his own territory, but if that did not occur, then he would turn up at some lumber camp, and when the weekly paper came out with the advertisement the foreman of the lumber camp would see it, but in all probability we would never have got him back if we had not adopted some crude system of identification. Another form of identification that I have used for my own dogs is to slit ear and then let it heal over. It was pretty crude but nevertheless it served its purpose. I also see in the Poultry Journal that there have been extensive thefts of poultry, and poultry dealers have adopted tattooing for their individual identification, with the result, I am informed, that these thefts have been greatly reduced by virtue of the fact that the birds have been tattooed.

In other words, stolen poultry could not find their way to any public market, so that poultry breeders are in a much happier frame of mind than they were before. Now, we have been told of a dog that was lost in Chicago, and then twenty-four hours later the Chicago City Police had definite information from the Record Office in Ottawa as to the lawful owner of that dog. Now, there is pretty nearly virtue enough in the cases I have mentioned to uphold the question of tattooing, but I am afraid I cannot see any virtue in it beyond the scope of the individual, for the protection of the individual's property. Now, that is one side of this question, as I see it. The other side of the question is, I have been given to understand, rightly or wrongly, that the reason we are attempting to tattoo our dogs is to abide by the ruling of the Department of Agriculture. We are told by the Chairman of the Live Stock Records that in the United States there are 48 States who have these regulations, but then again what might be suitable for Michigan may not apply to the State of New York, and so on. I think this is a matter that should be studied very carefully before coming to any definite conclusion.

Mr. Hitchman: I want to make it clear to Mr. Pym that we are part and parcel of your organization. I want to thank you, Mr. Pym, for what you have said. There is no one in the Department who doubts the integrity of any breeder. If we did, we would not issue a certificate. As I said this afternoon, I only want to play cricket with the Minister of Agriculture. That is all he is asking us to do, to find some means of identification, and if we can find some means of identification, we are all going to get somewhere. I am not saying how they should be tattooed. The Minister has decreed certain things and we want to help you and him. We want to help and assist you in providing some means of identification. You can do what you like in that respect, but the only system we know of is tattooing.

Mr. Pyper: Is this a business or a hobby?

Mr. Hitchman: As far as we are concerned, it is a business; it is not a hobby.

Captain Waters: Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen: I suppose it is almost impossible to give an intelligent summary because we have only heard one side. Now, before we can reply, I would like to hear the opposition. One or two speakers tonight have asked how long this tattooing would last, twelve months, or two years, or something like that. The life of a dog, I suppose, is about ten years. I can show you some tattooing that took place fifty years ago in Japan. It is still there and it is as good as the day when it was put on. Now, I think that disposes of the question as to the length of time the tattooing will last? Another gentleman said something about the ears not being a good place to tattoo. The ear is not a fleshy part. The best place to tattoo is in a fleshy part. Some breeds have very thin ears; some have pretty thick ears, and would make pretty good subjects for tattooing in the ears. Now, I would like you to consider the various breeds. You take the Old English Sheepdog. He has a very thin ear. I would not attempt to tattoo an Old English Sheepdog in the ear, I would tattoo an Old English Sheepdog in the thigh. That is a fleshy part and it lends itself to tattooing. That, I think, should dispose of the gentleman who brought up that point. He can tattoo somewhere else. I do not know of any breed that cannot be tattooed in the thigh.

Mr. Pym: In order to test the feeling of this meeting: The gentlemen from the Records Branch said that if we do not like tattooing that we should suggest something else. Now, we have not done that, but in order to test the feeling of this meeting, I am going to suggest that we should go on record as not being favourable to the principle of tattooing by altering our applications to include a chart, and that chart will give the colour and other descriptions, which in my opinion, will be all the identification that is required.

Mr. Kynoch: I second that.

Mr. Climo: We have heard a lot of talk here tonight about the integrity of dog fanciers. I think a dog fancier is just as straightforward as any of the other live stock breeders, but the very minute any of us start in any way faking our records, well, we can never tell where it will end. It is up to us to see that we have something or other that will eliminate that. I have taken out tattoo letters, the letters "CC", but unfortunately I got the wrong kind of instrument, but I understand there is one on the market now of a very simple nature, and I am hoping to get one of them when I go back, and I shall certainly use it. It is so simple. When I go in my kennels I can immediately tell any animal I want. I can also tell my wife when I am away to take such and such a dog out of the kennel. She does not know one dog from another, but when they are tattooed she can go into the kennel and pick them out quite easily, and I know she is not going to get the wrong Cocker.

Doctor Boulding: There are one or two observations that I would like to make, and which, I think, have not been brought forward. The representative of the Live Stock Records Committee has well summed up the situation as to the markings of animals. In other countries where thousands of dogs are bred and raised to every one in Canada they have no records as far as I know, and I think all the old lands tattoo their dogs in order to distinguish them. That is one argument for that. Legislation is the expression of public opinion; it is not a bunch of men making laws for the country. It is public opinion. A group of ladies and gentlemen cannot force upon anyone something the public is not ready for, and I think as yet that the Canadian Kennel Club is not ready for tattooing. With time, and a good deal of education we may come to that stage all right. I am merely judging that on the representative gathering here tonight and the representations put forward here tonight. I feel we are not ready to adopt the principle of tattooing just yet. Public opinion must dictate the law, and the Kennel Club must say in the long run what the law is to be, and whether we must have some definite means of identification. Laws can be amended, and if the Kennel Club feels they are not ready for this, then it is up to the Kennel Club and its membership to say they will fight until such law can be amended. Dogs stand amongst themselves as a more intimate live stock development than anything else, and as I interpret this thing, I feel you are not ready for it now.

Mr. Hitchman: I want to say this, gentlemen. The National Live Stock Records are not trying to force this on you. Please get that clearly. I am not saying that tattooing is your proper procedure. I may as well say right now I do not agree in tattoo markings for sheep because you cannot do it successfully; the ear is too thick. We are here to protect you. The regulations are made to protect you, for the protection of your dogs, for the protection of the breeders and all other live stock breeders. The Department of Agriculture is spending a lot of money for the protection of the live stock industry in Canada, and you are one of the branches of that industry. They are asking you to do certain things. They are not imposing any penalty upon you. They say, "Will you do this in order to share in this benefit?" Ladies and gentlemen, I don't know the exact amount, but I would say the Department of Agriculture has always contributed $60,000 or $70,000 a year to the live stock industry, and naturally we at Ottawa are asking for your co-operation. They are not asking you to tattoo in the ear. If it is wrong, let us forget about it, but if it is right, then let us do it. They are asking you to identify your dogs for your own protection. They do not think your registrations are incorrect. There is an Act that can take care of anything that is incorrect. The Minister of Agriculture is working all the time with his associates for your protection. All I have to say is to ask you to give him some help. If you want to you can shelve it for a year and during that time think about it, and then come back and be ready to help the Minister of Agriculture. Politics, Tory or Liberal, does not make any difference. The Minister is doing all this for you, so do not get me wrong. The Minister of Agriculture is the official head of the Department. The Deputy Minister, the Live Stock Commissioner, and all these other men are working for you. They are not forcing anything on you. They are doing this because they believe it will be to your advantage. The Canadian National Records are there to carry out your wishes, but the Government of Canada makes a grant to all breeding organizations, and you are a breeding organization. You may breed dogs but your dogs are considered in the same light the same as cattle, swine or anything else. You are breeders, and you are considered to be live stock breeders, the same as other stock breeders are. I want you to remember this, that we are all working for your protection.

Mr. Sparkes: I am going to move an amendment to the amendment, that this matter be shelved for two years.

Mrs. McColl: We have a Board of Directors which we voted into office, therefore, we give them our votes. Might I suggest that this Board of Directors this year find ways and means of meeting this situation and present it next year at the annual meeting.

Mr. Rowe: If Mr. Sparkes will alter that to one instead of two years, I will be pleased to second it.

Mr. Sparkes: I still make an amendment to the amendment that this matter be shelved for two years.

Mr. Cooper: I gladly second that.

Mr. Price: If we do that, have the Records Office at Ottawa any recourse against us?

Mr. Hitchman: Yes.

Mr. Price: If they have recourse against us, what is our position with regard to our Ottawa office or our Toronto office? I think we should consider that.

Mr. Sparkes: I don't think we are getting anywhere.

Mr. Hitchman: Mr. MacVannel can answer that better than I can. We are your servants, but whatever you do you must remember that the Minister of Agriculture is all powerful. Now, Mr. MacVannel will answer your question, but as far as I am concerned, whatever you do will be passed on to the Minister. You are putting Mr. MacVannel in a very bad spot. He is the representative of the Live Stock Commissioner, but after all, the Minister has the final decision. I think if Mr. Sparkes would make his motion for one year instead of two, I think you will stand a much better chance with the Minister of Agriculture.

President MacRae: It is only good until May of this year.

Mr. Hitchman: Pardon me, I only said I expressed the opinion. You should ask the representative of the Federal Government what he has to say on this, because I have no special authority from the Minister, and I would like to have an expression of opinion from Mr. MacVannel.

Mr. MacVannel: Ladies and gentlemen: I feel I have made a little mistake in attending your meeting this afternoon as well as this evening. I came without direct invitation in order that we might discuss this question, and it is embarrassing coming without a special invitation from your Board, and, also, I have come without any directions from the Department, and I am not going to commit the Department to any action at the present moment, but remember that I discussed this matter with your Directors for two or three years. This Act came into force in 1932, and there is no need to discuss the amendments to the Act because that would take a lot of time, but we must deal with the Act as it is constituted. We are not advocating any special system; we are not advocates of tattooing, although we believe that tattooing is one of the most efficient methods for identification of all classes of live stock. There are, of course, some objections to it. It has been my duty for a good many years to present some suggestions to various live stock meetings, and to these suggestions we have found ourselves in the position of possibly keener opposition than is apparent tonight. May I say that there are no hard feelings between you and ourselves. Mr. Hitchman was good enough to say that the Department of Agriculture helps all the breeding associations, and there is a lot of money spent for that. They are very anxious to see that your trade in live stock is represented in the matter of identification, and it has given an immense lot of time and thought to all breeds. The Department of Agriculture treats every one in the same way. In fact, we believe that a breeder who cannot keep everything in good order has no place in a live stock breeding association in this country. We gave you not only an extension of one year, but two years, and I think you should at least adopt some definite system of identification.

and not put us in the position of creating a controversy. We must be consistent. If it comes to a legal point, we take our advice from the law officers of the Crown of this country. We act on that in case of controversy. Your Club has authority to carry on until some day in May, I think it is May 9th, and then what position are you in? Suppose our good nature did not prevail, we would like to be in the position to renew that, and I am going to be very plain with you for one moment. There are 39 members of the Canadian Kennel Club who have already voluntarily started to tattoo their dogs. That is one method; there are other methods, but several methods would make a deal of confusion, but I am afraid I will have to go back and say there is a portion of your membership who are not altogether considering this matter fairly.

Mr. Blair: I have a question, and I would like to put it in such a way that you will all understand. I do not tattoo, but I do not say I am not in favour of it, but we would like to know what the Government's reaction is and what they do, and what our position is if they make a definite move. You have a motion before you dealing with this matter. There is a suggestion—I am not sure whether it is satisfactory to these gentlemen or not—that you cannot force something down people's throats that they do not want. The Minister of Agriculture is just as human as you or I. He acts on the advice of the Department. They make the recommendations, and they know the feeling of this meeting, that it is unfavourable to tattooing, and we have a motion introduced which is an alternative, and I am going to support that motion.

President MacRae: We have the motion and we have an amendment to the motion, and we have an amendment to the amendment. Your motion was that we use a form on which we could mark the colour and give a description.

Mr. Stockdale: Yes.

President MacRae: And your amendment Mr. Sparkes?

Mr. Sparkes: That the matter be shelved for one year.

President MacRae: Mrs. McColl, your amendment was?

Mrs. McColl: That the Directors find some satisfactory means of identification.

Mr. Hitchman: Ladies and Gentlemen: The Minister of Agriculture is not going to do you any harm. As I said before, we are your servants. Mr. MacVannel is rather in a bad spot tonight. The Live Stock Commissioner is not here. How would it be to table this thing for one year? Put all your motions together and let your Board of Directors consider this thing and study it and then bring forward something worth while. The National Records are not telling you to do this; the Department is not telling you, but cannot we put all these things together and let your Board consider them for one year, and then let us come back here and see what we can do about it.

Mr. Grosart: Everyone of us has been here quite a while, and yet I have only heard what I may describe as a verbal brawl, not because we have had people on the floor this evening saying that there is no question as to what the feeling of this meeting is. I don't think anyone should say that until the vote is taken. I am not in favour for or against it, but I do know from what I have heard here that there is a great deal of controversy on this subject. It seems to me the only intelligent way for us to go about this matter is to pass some sort of resolution, first of all registering ourselves as being in favour of some form of adequate identification. I have just become interested in dogs. I don't know if everyone here realizes that there are 27 unregistered dogs in Canada to every one registered. That is a very important factor in this discussion for this reason, that anything that can be done to make registered dogs more desirable should be done. I think that is something that the Canadian Kennel Club should be vitally interested in. Now, there are two sides to this question, and I suggest that all these motions be got together; everyone is out of order, including myself, in the discussion so far, and I suggest we make a motion saying we are in favour of identification, saying that the Directors should look into this matter scientifically and advise every member of the Kennel Club in some way, say, through "Kennel and Bench", asking whether they are in favour or against. I think that will save a great deal of time; I think everyone here is fair minded enough to agree that a Committee could be appointed to go into this matter, and that Committee could bring in an impartial report within a month after being named. I think that could be threshed out in a scientific manner, rather than on a basis of what I like and what the other fellows like.

Captain Waters: I definitely stated that I was unbiassed. If I have to tattoo, I will tattoo, but I did not say I was in favour of tattooing. Please understand that.

Doctor Batt: There is not a man in this room that has anything to do with it. It is the law of this country and the Minister of Agriculture is put there to see that this law is lived up to. He cannot help himself and we cannot. Will you conform or will you not? If you will, all right; if not, I don't know what will happen. I don't care whether your dog is tattooed or not, but I do not want the Department to say that we will not register any more of our dogs.

Mrs. McColl: Question?

President MacRae: The amendment to the amendment is that it be left to the Directors to formulate some system of identification and present it at the next annual meeting. Are you ready?

Mr. Rowe: Will you kindly read it?

President MacRae: That the matter be left to the Board of Directors. I am now reading Mrs. McColl's amendment, which is to the effect that it be left to the Board of Directors to formulate a plan of identification to present to you at the annual meeting in February, 1938. Are you ready for the question?

President MacRae: All in favour?

President MacRae: I declare the amendment carried.

Mr. Walkerdine: That Rule 22, Section (a) be amended to read as follows: "The following list comprises all breeds of dogs which are eligible for registration in the Canadian Kennel Club Stud Book and for which separate classes may be provided:

Group 1—Sporting dogs: Griffons (Wire haired pointing), Pointers, Pointers (German Short Hair), Retrievers, Chesapeake Bays, Retrievers

(Curly Coated), Retrievers (Flat Coated), Retrievers (Golden), Retrievers (Labrador), Setters (English), Setters (Irish), Spaniels (Brittany), Spaniels (Clumber), Spaniels (Cocker), Spaniels (English Springer), Spaniels (Field), Spaniels (Irish Water), Spaniels (Sussex), Spaniels (Welsh Springer).

Group 2—Sporting dogs: Afghan Hounds, Basset Hounds, Beagles, Bloodhounds, Borzoi, Dachshunde, Deerhounds (Scottish), Foxhounds (American), Foxhounds (English), Greyhounds, Harriers, Norwegian Elkhounds, Otter Hounds, Salukis, Whippets, Wolfhounds (Irish).

Group 3—Working dogs.

Group 4—Terriers.

Group 5—Toys.

Group 6—Non-Sporting.

Mr. Climo: Mr. President, I believe it would be in order to move a vote of thanks to the Director and the other gentlemen for coming here this afternoon and assisting us so ably in this very important matter.

Carried unanimously.

President MacRae: Mr. Hitchman, Mr. MacVannel, Mr. Dawson, and the other Ottawa representatives we thank you very much for your presence here today and for the valuable assistance you have rendered us during our deliberations.

Mr. Hitchman: We are very glad that we have been able to come here today and give you any assistance that we could. If we can be of any further service to you you have only to call on us. I am going to leave the meeting now, but if any other matter crops up, I will ask Mr. Dawson to explain it to me.

President MacRae: The Committee's recommendation on the last one read is non-concurrence.

Mrs. McColl: I did not hear that. Who is the Committee?

President MacRae: The Committee appointed to consider the proposed amendments were: Mr. Walkerdine, Chairman, Captain Waters, and Mr. Essery. They went carefully through all these amendments.

Mrs. McColl: Why on earth any one who has conducted dog shows as long as Captain Waters has done, would vote non-concurrence in further separating the groups, I cannot say. You have exactly ten breeds in the hound group, which is invariably represented by about 4. You have 18 in the sporting group. The only reason for dividing those two groups is to give a fair advantage to the hounds. Going over your Canadian shows, how many times do the hounds top the group, perhaps one in twenty shows. What chance has a small hound dog against an English Setter? This section has the right to be judged as hounds. They are hounds and, therefore, we have a right to their separate group.

Mr. Duckett: I would like to ask what the reason was for recommending against this proposed separation?

Mr. Walkerdine: I take objection to Mrs. McColl saying that the Committee were against her. I think it creates a bad impression. We try to carry everything out to the best of our ability, and it is up to the members to turn our recommendations down, if they so desire.

Mr. Essery: I think there are some members of the Canadian Kennel Club who would question the integrity of any single individual who serves in any voluntary capacity in this Association. I want to say that any Committee I may sit on is going to have my hearty support, and I am going to consider from my point of view what I believe to be best. Now, when all is said and done, what was that Committee appointed for? Every one of the 1,400 men and women who belong to this organization have the right to express their opinion by way of amendment or anything else, and this having been submitted to your organization through its proper channels it has to find out whether or not there was anything in the constitution of the Association which did not permit that amendment to come before this Association. We have sat at times from 2 o'clock in the afternoon until 4 o'clock in the morning, and for what purpose; simply to assist this Association to get down to something that might save a great deal of this meeting's time. When you are on a Committee of that kind every single section of the constitution has to be looked over. Never once did this Committee or any member of it ever express an opinion as being absolutely the one that was to be taken as a final declaration on any point. It was merely submitted to this Committee. The discussion was not a question of constitutional amendment. We may be misunderstood, but we are going to express what we believe to be our opinion.

Mr. Pym: I am very glad to hear what Mr. Essery has had to say, but still I do not personally agree with the recommendation of the Resolutions Committee on this question. I personally appreciate the efforts and the time they have put on this thing in bringing the matter before the meeting, and in order to save time, which is now getting late, I will support Mrs. McColl's proposition.

Mr. Reeves: There is one point that has not been taken up at all; I have gone through the report that has been submitted and I want to congratulate the men who sat on that Committee. I think it is the best report I have ever seen, but I cannot agree with them for the simple reason that the groups are one of the greatest attractions in the show, and I think instead of having one group for the sporting section it would be better if we had two groups.

President MacRae: If you agree with Mrs. McColl's motion, all you have to do is vote against that motion, and then someone will move that that amendment be carried and that will be specified. The motion is that we divide the sporting dogs into two groups. If you agree with Mrs. McColl's amendment, then you will vote against this motion. All in favour?

President MacRae: The motion is lost.

By Mr. Stockdale: Moved by Mr. Climo and seconded by Mr. Blackledge that the amendment be carried. All in favour? Carried.

Mr. Walkerdine: The next is that Rule 22 (a), Group 2—Working Dogs, be amended by changing "Shepherd Dogs" to read "German Shepherd Dogs."

President MacRae: Moved by Mr. Reeves and seconded by Mrs. Weller. All in favour? Carried.

Mr. Walkerdine: That Rule 22 (a), List of recognized breeds be amended by striking out the words "Wolfhounds, Russian", from Group 1—Sporting Dogs and substituting therefor the word "Borzoï".

In respect of the foregoing I would suggest that the Canadian Kennel Club, Inc., is possibly the only recognized canine organization in the world that does not use the word "Borzoï" in respect to the breed hitherto referred to as the "Russian Wolfhound" on the American Continent.

President MacRae: Moved by Mr. Climo and seconded by Mr. Price. All in favour? Carried.

Mr. Walkerdine: That Rule 23—Provision for groups be amended to read as follows:

"Each all-breed club shall provide for six groups, such groups to be arranged in the same order, and to comprise the same breeds as appear in Rule 22 (a)."

Mrs. Cooper: My motion said in group 1, sporting dogs. I think it is now automatically group 2.

President MacRae: Moved by Mr. Stockdale and seconded by Mr. Pym. All in favour? Carried.

Mr. Walkerdine: That Rule 24—The best in show conditions, be amended to read as follows:

"The six dogs winning in the above six groups must compete in a final group for the title of 'Best Dog in Show', for which no entry fee shall be charged. Not more than one judge shall officiate in the judging of this group."

The Committee's recommendation is non-concurrence.

Mrs. McColl: I knew some one would get that. I will tell you why I moved for the one judge arrangement. I don't know anything about how things are done out West, but you must be doing very nicely. Hereabouts we have sent three judges parading around for a long time, whilst one judge was quite capable of selecting the best of these dogs.

Mr. Pym: I am heartily in accord with this amendment. We have all seen the time when one judge would go in and do the work in ten minutes and decide what dog was the best in the show and all the dogs would leave the show. We have also seen three judges go in the ring and each of them would take their time. I have actually seen one of three judges struggle with a dog and eventually both would land on the floor, and you know what chance that dog would have of making a sufficient recovery to give a fair performance after that. I have seen judges potter around while dog owners were down on their knees holding their dogs up. Now, is that fair competition. . . .

Mr. Reeves: If you put one man in the ring, that one man is responsible. If you put three men in the ring, what do they say when they get outside. This is what they individually say some times, "You know, Brown, I wanted to vote for your dog, but so and so would not; he voted against it". Ladies and gentlemen, my experience is that you cannot do better than leave the final selecting to one man; if you put three men in the ring, well, you never can tell what will happen.

President MacRae: Are you ready for the question? All in favour of the motion? Contrary? Carried.

Mr. Walkerdine: That the dog show rules be amended by adding thereto the following:

"All dog shows held in Canada (other than licensed shows) must be sanctioned by the Canadian Kennel Club, for which no fee shall be charged. Application for dates of Sanction Shows must state the names of the presiding officers of the club, location and date of such sanction show. Applications must be in the hands of the Secretary of the Canadian Kennel Club thirty (30) days prior to such show."

That the following addition be made under the caption of Sanction Shows:

"A sanction show shall be any dog show held in Canada (other than Canadian Kennel Club Licensed Shows) at which pure-bred dogs may compete but not for Championship Points held by a recognized Club or Association, and at which the color of the prize ribbons shall be other than the colors in use at Canadian Kennel Club licensed dog shows.

"Clubs or Associations intending to hold a sanction show shall make written application to the Secretary of the Canadian Kennel Club, Inc., at least thirty days prior to the holding of such sanction show. The application shall set forth the names and addresses of the officers, and the name and address of the judge or the judges, the time and place at which the show shall be held.

"The Directors of the Canadian Kennel Club, Inc., are empowered to withhold sanction for any such show if they deem fit. Officers and exhibitors shall be subject to such disciplinary measures as are provided for in dog show rule (18a). There shall be no charge for permission to hold a sanction dog show."

Mr. Essery: I rise to a point of order. These various amendments now being read are those that are contained in the report submitted by Mr. Sparkes as a special commissioner sent to Montreal for the purposes of investigation. Would it not be better to hear that report from the Commissioner himself?

President MacRae: I think that would be very desirable.

Mr. Essery: In other words, our special Commissioner will be permitted to take the floor on this matter.

President MacRae: Yes. I think the easiest way to handle this matter would be to vote on Mr. Stock's and Mrs. Enright's proposals first and later deal with the Commissioners' recommendations. These matters have been very carefully considered and the Committee's recommendations are not as drastic. Shall we vote on Mr. Stock's proposal?

Mr. Blair: If I might be prepared to withdraw Mr. Stock's proposed amendment. I know it will be entirely satisfactory to him.

President MacRae: Mr. Blair on Mr. Stock's behalf withdraws that amendment. Moved by Mr. Stockdale and seconded by Mr. Climo non-concurrence with Mrs. Enright's amendment. All in favour; contrary, if any. Carried.

Now, we come to the recommendations which really becomes the original amendment. You have heard it read, and in order to get it before you, will some person move that 1, 2 and 3 of the resolutions, be considered as being amendments to the dog show rules.

Mr. Duckett: Where are all these resolutions? We have not got them here.

President MacRae: I will read it to you:

1. That all Dog Clubs or Dog Organizations throughout Canada, must obtain the sanction of the Canadian Kennel Club, Inc. to hold evening or matinee shows.

Any Canadian Kennel Club member exhibiting at any non-sanction show is liable to suspension.

2. That no specialty club be allowed to hold a C.K.C. point show for any other breed than that for which their club was formed without the special permission of the Directors of the Canadian Kennel Club, Inc.

3. That no Club or Organization can hold more than three Evening or Sanction Shows, unless a C.K.C. Point Show has been held in the meantime.

4. That no prize ribbons be given out at Sanction Shows, but award cards may be given.

President MacRae: Moved by Mrs. McColl and seconded by Mr. Climo that the recommendations of the Resolution Committee be adopted. Now the whole question is open to discussion.

Mr. Essery: I am not speaking about the contents of the recommendation or of that report, but I speak in courtesy to the Commissioner appointed by you, and I think he should be given an opportunity to explain that report before this meeting.

Dr. Boulding: And may I ask in giving that report to the meeting that he tell why that was introduced.

Mr. Sparkes: When I get through explaining to you, you will see that the recommendations as set forth in my report are not so drastic as you think. I have been asked by one member to explain how this report came about. A request was sent from the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, asking that an officer of the club be sent to that city to investigate conditions as they existed. It was known that a few clubs were holding evening or sanction shows or parlor shows, and that they acknowledge no manner of control. Upon instructions from your Board I proceeded to Montreal. A general meeting of the members in Quebec was called and 71 members attended. It was a very representative meeting where everyone was allowed to have his or her say. It was purely a membership meeting. After going into the matter fully, I made up my report, which was very lengthy, and it dealt with each individual matter of contention, and at the end of my report I made certain recommendations. Now, ladies and gentlemen, those recommendations have been placed before you, and now that they are there, probably they have no interest for you; however, we will take them one after the other and we will soon find out. I will read them: "No. 1: 'That all dog clubs or dog organizations throughout Canada must obtain the sanction of the Canadian Kennel Club, Inc., to hold evening or matinee shows.'"

As you are constituted now, there is nothing prohibiting, we will say, any club from holding a sanction show on the same day as another club would be holding a point show; nothing whatsoever. In a city like Toronto you have competition amongst your clubs all down the line. Now, one of these clubs can hold a point show and the other can hold a non-point show. I know you are going to say how can you stop this. You may say that you could stop an outsider from coming in. You cannot do so. You have no control on an outsider, so, therefore, the only way you can do anything is by following what I am recommending. We have heard lots about this matter pro and con, and at one time and another. The Canadian Kennel Club has no wish to work any hardship on its people. All you will have to do is to ask for a certain date, and if it is granted, headquarters will not let another club hold a sanction show in that vicinity on or near that date. We will presume you are a member of a Boston terrier club; your club advertises a show for a Monday. We all know that some other club can come in and receive the benefit of all the advertising that your club may do. The new arrangement will eliminate all that and you will have bona fide protection.

Mr. Duckett: What dogs will be eligible to compete at these shows?

Mr. Sparkes: Just the same dogs as compete at such shows now.

Now, ladies and gentlemen, we come to No. 2: "That no specialty club be allowed to hold a C.K.C. point show for any other breed than that for which their club was formed, without the special permission of the directors of the Canadian Kennel Club, Inc."

Now, that comes down to the point where you may have formed a club. Now, there have been instances come to the fore where a specialty club has been formed, and under the present rules there was nothing to prohibit them holding an all-breed point show. Something should be done in that respect. In Hamilton, we will presume, there is no specialty club, but there is an all-breed club, and that a Pomeranian Club is formed. Now, under your present rules there is nothing to prevent them applying for dates. The Hamilton Kennel Club puts on two good shows each year for the breeders and they are workers from the word go and they also have every breeder's interest at heart.

Mr. Sims: Under present conditions, if a Specialty Club makes application for an all-breed show to the C.K.C. has not the Board of Directors power to refuse that date. Under present conditions it must be approved by the Canadian Kennel Club.

Mr. Sparkes: That is your protection. We are not telling you that you cannot do anything, Mr. Sims. All we are doing is trying to help the fancy.

Mr. Sims: If the matter is already controlled now by the Canadian Kennel Club and it is entirely in their hands and they can veto the date, what further precautions are necessary?

Mr. Sparkes: My wife, my daughter and my Secretary at the office can form a club and go into Hamilton and apply for a dog show date.

Mr. Grosart: Is it not the intention of this Resolution Committee to ask the directors to make it part of the policy of the Kennel Club that shows of this kind should not be held? I think Mr. Sims' point is that the directors can refuse permission for a show of this kind to be held. Mr. Sims says as his point that the directors have power to refuse that permission.

Mr. Sims: That is the point I raised.

President MacRae: As at present constituted, if a specialty show applies to the directors for a license to hold an all-breed show, and there is no other show being held in that locality, we would have no reason for refusing that date under our present regulations. We have the authority to refuse, but we could not conscientiously do so.

Mr. Grosart: Could you say offhand how many specialty shows have held an all-breed show in the last year?

Mr. Sparkes: Not in the last year, but bear in mind, we are not worrying about the past, but we are desirous of providing for, and protecting the future.

Doctor Boulding: I am opposed to that. If a group of any specialty show people wish to hold an all-breed show, why should they not hold such a show.

Mr. Sims: I agree with Doctor Boulding. I submit the holding of all-breed shows should not be confined to all-breed clubs. If the other clubs are in a position to finance an all-breed show, why should they not do so? It seems to me that things are very satisfactory as they are. You have to get sanction to run a point show, you have to state what kind of a show you are running, you have to state who your judges are, and then they grant you the date. If that date you are asking for conflicts with any other show which is being held on the same date, you will not get the date. Well then, why penalize the Specialty Show? If they want to run an all-breed point show and have the money to finance it, why put a restriction on them? If that recommendation is adopted the Board of Directors have the authority to say, "No, you cannot run an all-breed show, you can only run a specialty show."

Mr. Sparkes: One gentleman here was responsible for my going to Montreal. When I got to Montreal and investigated I found things were very, very bad, and I think Mr. Rowe will agree with me. Am I right, Mr. Rowe?

Mr. Rowe: You are correct.

Mr. Sparkes: At Montreal they had two shows running on the same night, and the two clubs were sending literature out against each other, one club was knocking the other, and vice versa. I am not saying who was right or wrong. Gentlemen, we may have the same thing cropping up here. Why not be prepared to protect your own clubs and your own interests in protecting your own breeds.

Mr. Essery: Reference has been made to the shows in Montreal. Are you not prepared to say that that is not an isolated position, and that we have it here. It is a position that has developed more or less throughout Canada.

Mr. McConaghy: Mrs. Enright came here from Montreal last year and explained conditions there, and our Board of Directors found it advisable to send Mr. Sparkes down to investigate, and he has brought back a report of his investigation. This lady came up last year and she received very little support, but here tonight we have a further recital of the circumstances in Montreal, and as we are only looking for the protection of the dog show clubs in that city, and I would move that Mr. Sparkes' report be accepted.

Mr. Sparkes: "That no club or organization can hold more than three evening or sanction shows, unless a C.K.C. Point Show has been held in the meantime."

Mr. Price: I have the pleasure of moving that report.

A Member: I second the motion.

Mrs. McColl: Might I ask, that in order to avoid any misunderstanding that we vote on the investigation Commissioners report clause by clause?

President MacRae: Do you propose that?

Mrs. McColl: Yes.
Seconded by Mrs. M. Firman. Carried.

President MacRae: No. 1 clause.
Mr. Walkerdine: "That all dog clubs or dog organizations throughout Canada, must obtain the sanction of the Canadian Kennel Club, Inc., to hold evening or matinee shows."

Mr. Essery: I move the adoption of that.

Seconded. Carried. The next recommendation reads.

Mr. Sparkes: "That no club be allowed to hold a C.K.C. show for any other breed than that for which their club was formed without the special permission of the Directors of the Canadian Kennel Club, Inc."

Mr. Essery: I am in agreement with that if you delete the word "special".

Mr. Sparkes: We can do that.

President MacRae: All in favour? (53 for, 5 against.) Carried.

Mr. Sparkes: Recommendation 3, reads as follows: "That no club can hold more than three evening or sanction shows, unless a C.K.C. Point Show has been held in the meantime without special permission of the directors of the Canadian Kennel Club."

President MacRae: Question? All in favour. (For 53, contrary 3.) Carried.

Mr. Sparkes: I am just going to ask you to bear with me on one point more. I have pleasure in reading No. 4: "That no prize ribbons be given out at sanction shows, but award cards may be given." I have much pleasure in changing that to read that ribbons or cards given out at sanction shows must have the words "sanction show" on them, and that the colours will be as follows: Rose, brown and grey.

President MacRae: Are you ready for the question? All in favour, contrary. (51 for, 3 against.) Carried.

Mr. Walkerdine: The next is that the Regulations be amended by the addition of the following to Regulation 4:

"Section (b): The Committee of the show shall provide three passes as follows: One exhibitor's ticket must be issued to exhibitors entering one or two dogs; two tickets to those exhibitors entering three or four dogs; three tickets to those entering five or more, enabling such exhibitors to enter to the show with their assistants during its continuance."

President MacRae: All in favour. Carried. That is the end of the resolutions.

Mr. Blair: I take great pleasure in moving a vote of thanks to the Resolution Committee. They are always on the receiving end of a great deal of criticism, and I take great pleasure in moving them a vote of thanks.

President MacRae: A vote of thanks has been moved and seconded. All in favor. Carried.

Mr. Stockdale: I move the adoption of the Constitution as amended. Seconded and carried.

Mr. Blair: Just on a point of information; I notice in the Minutes of last year there were two motions passed, one was that this annual meeting of the Canadian Kennel Club members assembled instruct the directors to cause to be issued and distributed to each and every member a pamphlet containing the Constitution and By-laws of the club, reciprocity agreements and all other rules to which our memberships are required. There was another resolution in Kennel and Bench of the various standards. I would like to know what has become of those.

President MacRae: They fell by the wayside for the simple reason it was going to cost too much money.

Mr. Reeves: I think it would be a good plan if the report on all our proceedings were edited. It gives an awful bad impression when the Annual Meeting report goes out. I have heard it said many times that we do nothing but wrangle, and so there are people who do not want to join us. You know perfectly well that a lot of things that are said in this room are said in the heat of the argument. Why cannot the report of this meeting be edited? We can save a tremendous sum of money. Let us cut out a lot of our cross firing. We are in our game for the good of the game. I have much pleasure in moving that this report be edited before it is published in Kennel and Bench.

Mrs. McColl: I quite agree with Mr. Reeves on several points, but it is the only method by which members may know what has transpired here, and it is read with a great deal of interest.

Mr. Blair: Your Constitution provides that these Minutes must be published in Kennel and Bench. I think it is a mistake. I think they should be printed and sent to each member.

Mr. Grosart: The Editor of Kennel and Bench has a certain duty to perform, regardless of what the Constitution says. He has no right to publish statements that are, possibly, libellous, without knowing any of the circumstances of any of the cases discussed.

There has been a great many statements made here today that I as an editor would not take the responsibility of publishing, and I move that the Editor of Kennel and Bench be instructed to edit.

President MacRae: There is a motion moved by Mr. Reeves, and seconded, that the Minutes be edited.

Mr. Reeves: The only person in my opinion who should edit the report of this meeting would be someone that is familiar with the affairs of the club, probably Mr. Strachan, the secretary.

Mr. Grosart: May I ask that you accept this situation, that the Minutes be edited by the Editor of Kennel and Bench, on the advice of Mr. Strachan and the solicitor.

Mr. Climo: Is it not customary for our solicitor to go over the Minutes and of meetings and see that nothing libellous appears in Kennel and Bench?

Mr. Grosart: There was a time when the Minutes were just taken at the directors meeting and published verbatim. I think I was the one that moved that the Minutes should be submitted to our honorary solicitor, and that has been done ever since. Now, he is supposed, and I think he has made a good job of it, if he sees anything libellous to put his pencil through it and it does not go in. I think we should leave it to the solicitor instead of putting it into the hands that it was years ago.

Mr. Blair: Mr. Strachan has acted for 18 years, and I think it is well left in his hands.

President MacRae: Question. All in favour? Carried.

Moved and seconded that the meeting adjourn. Carried.

12.45 a.m. meeting adjourned.

THE MORRIS AND ESSEX KENNEL CLUB, MADISON, N.J.

Dr. Samuel Milbank of New York, heads the list of 60 experts who will judge the eleventh annual show of the Morris and Essex Kennel Club on the polo field at Giralda Farms in Madison, N.J., on May 29th. Dr. Milbank will pick best in show at what is this country's largest dog show and the greatest open-air bench fixture in the world. Naming the dogs on which he will pass are six of the best known all-rounders in this country and they, in turn, will be making their choices from the best of breed champions selected by a great corps of specialists, two of whom are coming from overseas and others from all parts of this country and Canada.

The group judges, each of whom will officiate in some of the breeds outside of the groups on which they will pass, are George Thomas, of South Hamilton, Mass., for the gun-dogs; Enno Meyer of Milford, Ohio, the hounds; Vinton Breese, of Caldwell, N.J., the working dogs; Alfred Delmont, of Wynnewood, Pa., the terriers; Mrs. Delmont, the toys, and Colonel M. Robert Guggenheim, of Babylon, L.I., the non-sporting group. Mr. Thomas will also have the Irish and Kerry Blue Terriers. Mr. Meyer will do the Boxers and St. Bernards. Mr. Delmont is doing the French Bulldogs and Col. Guggenheim has the Bedlington Terriers.

Forstmeister Marquardt, president of the German Dachshund Club, is coming from Germany to pass on that breed. The other overseas judge has an even longer trip. She is Miss Joyce Esdaile, who is coming all the way from Kenya, East Africa, to pass upon the Norwegian Elkhounds, of which she is an authority.

From the Pacific Coast the Morris and Essex Club is bringing F. J. Wolfenden of San Francisco, for the English setters; Mervin Rosenbaum, of San Francisco, for Briards, Kuvasz and Giant Schnauzers; Ernest E. Ferguson, of Hollywood, for Great Danes, and Philip R. Brand, of Pasadena, for Wire-haired Fox Terriers. With the exception of Mr. Rosenbaum, these judges have not officiated in the east, but they are veteran fanciers of the breeds assigned them and have been in tremendous demand as judges on the Pacific Coast.

Canada has been drawn upon for four able experts. Herbert S. Routley, of Peterboro, Ontario, is to judge Springers, a breed with which he has won prominence both in the field and on the bench. W. C. Baldwin, of Ottawa, is to do the Beagles and American Foxhounds. Robert A. Ross of Montreal, and Walter Reeves, of Belleville, two of the best known Canadian all-arounders are on the list again, the former for Bulldogs and the latter for Keeshonden, Poodles and the miscellaneous class.

The Smooth Fox Terriers and the specials for that breed will be judged by F. H. Farwell, of Orange, Texas, a veteran who has been missed from judging rings in this section in recent years. Another expert seldom seen in this section is Fred L. Clark, of Racine, Wis., who is coming to do the always so popular Cocker Spaniels.

Other judges with their breeds are: Dr. D. H. Nissley, of Lancaster, Pa., Wire-haired Pointing Griffons, German Short-haired Pointers and Golden Retrievers; Philip Schwartz, of Suffield, Ct., Pointers; Walter Roesler, of Great Neck, L.I., Chesapeake Bays; Mrs. Morgan Belmont, of New York, Curly-coated and Labrador Retrievers; William Cary Duncan, of North Brookfield, Mass., Gordon Setters; William W. Henry, of Tulsa, Okla., Irish Setters; Grover C. Rauch, of New York, Brittany, Clumber and Irish Water Spaniels; and E. S. Willing, of Bryn Mawr, Pa., English Cocker Spaniels.

Others are G. V. Glebe, of Byrn Athyn, Pa., Afghan Hounds, Bloodhounds and Salukis; Walter Graham, of Wayside, N.J., Bassethounds, Scottish Deerhounds and Harriers; Joseph Z. Battem, of Caldwell, N.J., Greyhounds and Whippets; Fredson T. Bowers, of Princeton, N.J., Irish Wolfhounds; Dr. H. B. Kobler, of Philadelphia, Borzois; J. Harry Rushton, of Ashbury Park, Alaskan Malamutes, Bull-Mastiffs, Eskimos, Mastiffs and Siberian Huskies; Harry Davis, of Bethlehem, Pa., Colies; Mrs. Charles W. G. Baiter, of Madison, N.J., German Shepherds; Joseph C. Quirk, of Greenwich, Ct., Great Pyrenees; Lewis T. Worden, of New York, Newfoundlands, and M. R. Korshin, of Media, Pa., Old English Sheepdogs.

Still others are: John C. Zimmerman, of Birmingham, Mich., Doberman Pinschers; Paul C. Blass, of Philadelphia, Rottweilers and Corgis; Louis Smirnow, of Brooklyn, Samoyedes; Miss Catherine Coleman, of Newport, N.H., Shetland Sheepdogs; Theodore Offerman, of New York, Airedales and Cairns; Alva Rosenberg, of Brooklyn, Dandie Dinmonts and Skye Terriers; Dr. Thomas D. Buck, of Rochester, Lakeland, Lhasa, Manchester and Staffordshire Terriers; William Prescott Wolcott, of Milton, Mass., all Schnauzers and West Highland Whites; Carley Harriman, of New York, Scottish Terriers; Dr. Henry Jarrett, of Philadelphia, Sealyhams; Henry T. Fleitmann, of New York, Welsh Terriers; Mrs. Enno Meyer, of Milford, Ohio, Chihuahuas, Toy Manchesters, Toy Poodles and Yorkshire Terriers; Mrs. O. L. Billings, of Norwich, N.Y., English Toy Spaniels; Charles G. Hopton, of Brooklyn, Brussels, Griffons and Pekingese; James Walker Trullinger, of Harrisburg, Pa., Japanese Spaniels and Pugs; Mrs. John D. Prince, Jr., of Paterson, N.J., Papillons and Miniature Pinschers; Mrs. J. B. Flynn, of Detroit, Pomeranians; Monte E. Greenfield, of New York, Boston Terriers; Mrs. L. W. Bonney, of Flushing, L.I., Chows; Mrs. M. Rawson Aloe, of Washingtonville, N.Y., Dalmatians, and Mrs. H. P. Donnell Reilly, of Larchmont, N.Y., Schipperkes.

The show will be staged in the same surroundings which have made it the most spectacular dog show in the world. Huge tents will circle the polo field at Giralda Farms, county home of Mrs. M. Hartley Dodge, president of the club, and the judging rings will be laid out on the turf of the field. The superintending is again in the hands of the Foley organization and requests for premium lists and entry blanks should be addressed to its offices, 2009 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia.

HAMILTON KENNEL CLUB SHOW

By the time this is in the hands of our readers, April 3rd will be just around the corner, and that is the date of the Spring Show put on by the Hamilton Kennel Club. BULLDOG BALL
FAN DEAD

The English Bulldog "Rose Marie", C.K.C. 66210, whelped October, 1926, bred and owned by Mrs. C. G. Collinson, of Toronto, Ontario, died on Christmas Day. Her sire was "Herbal Dispenser", and "Birchview Moonshine", a daughter of "Hefty Monarch", was her dam. Before she was four years old she produced thirty-four puppies, one of which was the well known prize winner, "Glenarden Dusky Ruth". During the last few summers of her life she developed into a ball game fan and was known on every local field. Her attitude and interest from start to finish of the game provided a side show that was enjoyed by hundreds of spectators.

THE LADY OF GIRALDA
HONOURED

Mrs. M. Hartley Dodge was significantly honoured at the recent New York Show, when she was presented with the Chappel Foundation Award. The ceremony took place at the judge's dinner, and was a worthy tribute and recognition of the truly great service Mrs. Dodge contributes to dogdom from year to year. Her thousands of friends and admirers will join us in congratulating Mrs. Dodge upon this notable distinction.

THE CANADIAN FOX TERRIER
ASSOCIATION

The above named society held an "At Home" at the residence of the President, Mr. R. McAdam, on February 12th. The successful contenders in the euchre classics were Mrs. P.

O'Brien and Mr. Tom Cocker. Speeches were indulged in after the supper, the outstanding feature being a presentation to the show secretary, Mr. R. Milligan, which was made by the President on behalf of the officers and members, in appreciation of the great work carried out by him. The presentation took the form of a very handsome rose bowl. Dancing was indulged into the "wee sma' hours" and one more happy party then disbanded.

NEW SCOTTISH
TERRIER CLUB

Early in April a meeting of Scottish Terrier enthusiasts will be held in Toronto, with a view to forming a Scottish Terrier Club. Already nearly 30 breeders and exhibitors have promised their support to the project. The secretary pro tem is Mr. Arthur Ellison, 33 Burgess Ave., Toronto.

A DAY IN JUNE

The preliminary announcement by the Oakville Kennel Club of their Coronation Dog Show, to be held under the rules of the Canadian Kennel Club Inc., on Saturday, June 5th, appears in this issue. We know of no better place than this popular lake shore town to spend a day in June, and with the added attraction of a dog show it will be unbeatable. (See Advert.)

TORONTO PEKINGESE BREEDERS' SOCIETY

Held their monthly meeting, February 3rd, 1937, at the home of their President, 73 Coxwell Avenue, to put finishing touches on the evening show arrangements on March 3rd, in Spadina Concert Hall, 450 Spadina Avenue, Toronto. The gathering was a good one, nearly twenty members being present.

We have now about one hundred cups and specials and think this is very satisfactory considering we only organized our Club recently.

We tried hard to select judges who were very competent, hoping to please everyone, and wishing to thank all who helped and donated to make our show a success.
