Meeting of the Board of Directors of the Canadian Kennel Club, Incorporated

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Directors of the Canadian Kennel Club, Inc., was held in the Board Room of the Club's Offices, 25 Melinda Street, Toronto, on Thursday afternoon, March 18th, 1937, at 3.30 o'clock. The President, Col. J. N. MacRae, was in the chair. Directors present included: Walter H. Reeves, Dr. H. E. Batt, Mrs. E. Brown, B. W. Essery, K.C., and W. J. Risewick.

It was regularly moved, seconded and carried:

"That, the Minutes of the Directors' meeting, held on Thursday, February 4th, and the Directors' meeting held on Saturday, February 6th, be taken as read."

The Secretary advised that Director Capt. H. Dudley-Waters had been taken to Christie Street Hospital, and was instructed to send a message to Capt. Waters expressing the hope that he would soon be fully restored to his normal health and strength again.

The Secretary read a communication from the members of the staff thanking the Board for their consideration at the meeting held on February 6th.

The Secretary presented a resume of the White-Wolfe-Campbell matter. The file on this matter had been returned to this office and then forwarded to the office of the Canadian National Live Stock Records.

Letters were read by the Secretary from Mr. Peter Wright and Dr. J. A. Campbell, thanking the Board of Directors for their appointments as Honorary Solicitor and Honorary Veterinary Surgeon, respectively.

The Secretary read a letter of appreciation from the Canadian National Live Stock Records Office thanking the Board of Directors for the letter of appreciation sent to that office concerning the services rendered by their officials.

A letter was read from the Canadian National Live Stock Records Office with regard to tattooing for identification. The letter mentioned that it would be quite in order for a group of individuals to use the same tattooing unit on the Club principle—each individual being possessed of their own individual identifying letters and figures.

A letter from the Records Office was read acknowledging receipt of information as to the elected representatives to the Records Board. The letter outlined certain proposed changes to the Constitution of the Canadian National Live Stock Records, one change being a method of allocating transaction charges on a new principle, and the other change being the proposed printing of our Stud Books on the new photo plate system.

It was regularly moved, seconded and carried:

"That, the representatives of the Canadian Kennel Club, Inc., be authorized to vote for the proposed changes when the matters are before the Records Board meeting."

A letter from Mr. R. A. Ross was read, wherein he recommended the following for his Quebec Provincial Committee: Messrs. T. P. Ritchie, S. T. Doyle, E. M. Wright and H. E. Whitley, and Miss Veva H. Robson to be contributor for Kennel and Bench.

It was regularly moved, seconded and carried:

"That, the Committee and Contributor, as recommended, be approved."

The following Statement of General Accounts for February was presented for payment:

ROCKLEY AIREDALES

England's top dog and top bitch, during 1936, are now both owned by the Rockley Kennels, who offer at Stud the two greatest sires (proved by test), ever stabled by one owner.

NO. 1 ENGLISH CHAMPION COTTERIDGE BRIGAND

Winner of four English Championships. Sire of five Cruft's winning youngsters, and a score of other winners. See "Dog World," February 26th, 1937. Fee $100.00.

NO. 2 SHELTEROCK MY SUPEREX

A champion by a champion, and sire of champions. Fee $25.00.

The prevalent faults of today are: Hound ears, flat ribs, poor action, coat and colour, hare feet and gooseberry eyes. Breeders, these can be eliminated by using the Rockley studs, with the further assurance of a square deal.

Extra promising male puppies by Brigand from $125.00 to $200.00 each.

Note—These Minutes are subject to correction when presented for adoption at the next meeting of the Board of Directors.

JOINS ROSS-MILLER STAFF

R. L. Miller, Son of President, Comes Down From Winnipeg to Help Manage Sales at Napanee

The Ross-Miller Biscuit Co., Limited, of Napanee, announce an addition to the staff in the person of Mr. R. L. Miller, son of Mr. George Miller, the president of the company. Mr. Miller, junior, who is a stockholder of the company, has resided in Winnipeg for the past eleven years and filled a position with the Hudson's Bay Company as one of their managers. The rapid increase in the business of the Ross-Miller Company has occasioned the move as announced. He expects to take up residence in Napanee with his wife and three sons and assume his new duties on or about April 1st.

Mr. R. L. Miller will co-operate with Mr. J. E. Robinson, Secretary-Treasurer and Sales Manager, who has been with the company for about ten years. It is his intention to visit all the leading fur ranches and dog kennels as far as possible throughout Canada this coming summer, so that he may become personally acquainted with the trade.

EDITORIAL

● STUD FEE OR PUPPY?

THE breeding season being with us provides an opportune time to take up this question. It is a subject to which we have given some thought, and we are convinced today more than ever of our opinion formed years ago: that the stud fee paid at time of service is the best business arrangement for all parties concerned. Whilst judges' decisions and the opinions expressed by experts do much to place a dog amongst his fellows, it remains for his owner to establish and hold the dog's value as a breeding proposition. His sense of breed requirements, governed by conservative and wise usages, are the only means to this end. The dog whose services are peddled from pillar to post for first or second choice of litter, loses a prestige which the greatest show record cannot preserve, and with his owner he is soon in a rut from which they seldom, if ever, emerge. We hear the statement that the pup arrangement often brings more money than the original stud fee paid at time of service by the sale of the youngster at an advanced price. With a twenty-five dollar stud fee in hand today, to compare with a problematical price after a duration of fifteen weeks, needs more than the average optimist's outlook to make this argument hold water, and in the meantime other owners of bitches are clamouring for similar privileges. There is the other side of the question represented by the dam and her owner, and for him we have no sympathy. He cares for the bitch, and then her family for six weeks, with the prospect at the end of that time a visitor will arrive with the intention of taking away the choice pup of the litter, or more. We fail to see any merit in this from either viewpoint, for whatever breed knowledge the caller may lack, his intentions are just the same and, being governed by the above circumstances, years of standing friendship have been shattered where both parties fancied the same pup.

● CARRYING COALS, ETC.

That old saying, "Carrying Coals to Newcastle", is always appropriate when referring to the transportation of commodities to places where there is already an abundance, and it may well have applied, at one time, to the exporting of dogs to compete at British shows. But during the years that have elapsed since Mr. F. H. Farwell of Orange, Texas, sent over his famous smooth Sabine Fox Terriers, the evolution has been taking place, and today there really are some foreign bred specimens who are quite able to take the measure of the British stalwart. The last to essay the attempt to "beard the lion" is Mr. S. M. Stewart's Airedale Terrier, "Ch. Shelterock Merry Sovereign". This American bred, immediately after his Best of Breed win at Madison Square Garden, New York, left for England in charge of Bob Barlow, and after enduring six months' quarantine he will try conclusions with the best Airedale Terriers that Britain can produce. The venture from every sporting viewpoint must be commended, and Mr. Stewart, the New Jersey enthusiast, has our hearty congratulations on his initiative. Canada, too, could well follow suit in one or more breeds, and there is nothing that would give more satisfaction to everyone than for a Canadian bred to emulate or better the record made by the Bulldog, "Dominion Fortitude" (previously "Prince of Wales"), who claimed the Dominion as his birthplace.

• BOSTON TERRIERS IN BRITAIN

THE fact that the Boston Terrier has taken such a tenacious hold on the British fancy must be gratifying to the thousands of its followers on this side the Atlantic. It may not be generally known that for any breed to be granted Championship status by the English Kennel Club so shortly after their acceptance, or recognition in the list of breeds is something at which one may marvel, speaking volumes, as it does, for the optimism which reigns where the interests of the breed are concerned. They were granted Championship awards for each sex at three of the most important early fixtures this year, including Cruft's. The fact that the cropping of ears "over there" is taboo will not worry anyone. The Old Country breeder with his ready recognition of ideals and consistency of purpose will soon produce a natural ear that will fit the dog and also give him an appearance that will appeal to everyone, and when the zenith is reached the British Boston Terrier will carve his own niche in canine history.

MORRIS & ESSEX KENNEL CLUB, MADISON, N.J., MAY 29TH

The selection of Dr. Samuel Milbank, of New York, to judge best in the show at the eleventh annual exhibit of the Morris and Essex Kennel Club brings to the most important position in the dog show world a keen and enthusiastic sportsman who is well known throughout the country and who is exceedingly well versed in the art of judging dogs. The genial doctor is at home with all breeds in both their bench show and their field trial capacities; in other words, his judicial experience is so well rounded that his reelection as leading adjudicator on Madison's 1937 panel will meet with undeniable fancier approval.

So also with the group judges and the long list of specialists many of whom are coming great distances for the purpose of fulfilling their engagements on Saturday, May 29th, at Madison, N.J.; all are highly regarded as expert in their chosen fields. There are sixty judges all told, so that the majority of breeds will have opportunity for judgment beginning the first thing in the morning when the big rings swing into action on Giralda's many-acred polo field.

This gift-show of Mr. and Mrs. M.

Hartley Dodge will in all probability exceed even its former records. For years "Madison" has rated as America's No. 1 fixture in size, in scope, in appointments and in beauty. Last year the entry of 3,751 dogs constituted an advance over previous shows: this year 4,000 dogs of all breeds are none too many to expect for the sumptuous display in northern New Jersey.

The exhibition will be laid out along the same lines that have made it the sporting event of the dog-show year. Ample rings stretch out unhampered down the long, level sward, and around them range four-sided the big tents that house the thousands of feet of benching, the extensive handlers' quarters, the tremendous open-air dining-room where Mrs. Dodge entertains the fancy at luncheon. And, dotted here and there between the canvas tops stand the trophy house, the catalogue stands, the press cottage and all the other attractive little buildings that contribute so much to the color and the artistic air of the whole.

More than $20,000 will be given away. Regular class prizes throughout the breeds will be $10 for first place, $3 for second place and $2 for third, these amounts not in any way contingent upon quantity of entries. Mrs. Dodge offers a piece of sterling silver for every dog winning best of breed while the club donates a beautiful bronze medal for each best of winners. Then, every breed has its special American-bred class for dogs and bitches, the winner taking the M. Hartley Dodge, Jr., Memorial Trophy of sterling silver. A dog need not compete in the regular classes in order to qualify for the privilege of this special American-bred competition; he must, however, enter in the special class, and he may if desired compete for best of the breed. These competitions for the memorial trophies which are offered all through the entire classification are among the most interesting and important of the whole exhibition and a win is justifiable reason for pride.

The classification at this year's Morris and Essex will be substantially the same as in 1936, except that a few more breeds have been provided for and a few additional puppy classes included. The group prizes also will be the same, namely, a sterling silver trophy for first place, $10 for second, $5 for third and $3 for fourth. With best in the show goes a purple and gold rosette containing a sterling silver medal inscribed with the Morris and Essex seal, also a silver trophy to commemorate the win on the beautiful P. A. Rockefeller cup.

DOG SHOWS AND FAIRS

Referring to our editorial of last month on "Fairs Versus Dog Shows", "The Springfield Daily Republican" of Springfield, Mass., March 19th, 1937, states as follows:

"The current issue of Kennel and Bench, official organ of the Canadian Club, prints a timely editorial captioned: 'Fairs Versus Dog Shows.'"

Bert Swann, the editor, says: "The agricultural fairs lay claim to the distinction of creating our dog shows. . . . Surely we owe something to these associations who have borne the brunt of shine and shadow down through the years since dog shows were in the kindergarten stage of their existence."

Continuing, Mr. Swann emphasizes: "The agricultural fair presents a wonderful opportunity to kennel clubs and associations who in crowded districts have difficulty in obtaining suitable buildings in which to hold their shows, and those who must give deep consideration to their projects and avoid clashing dates with those of similar organizations a relief is established over night . . . a dog show held in connection with an agricultural fair is the most popular and heavily patronized attraction on the grounds."

In the United States the first successful dog show was held in connection with the Mineola fair under the auspices of the Queens County Agricultural Society at Long Island on October 7th, 1874. Next to the Westminster Kennel Club show in New York City, the oldest continuous dog show in the United States has been held in connection with the Danbury Fair for more than 60 years.

Has Exerted Great Influence

In connection with the legislative hearing held last week at the State House where certain interests would extend the parimutuel betting law on horse and dog races to the detriment of the agricultural fairs of the commonwealth, the second volume in the Columbia University studies in the history of American agriculture, "The Agricultural Fair" (Columbia University press, New York; $3.75), by Prof. Wayne Caldwell Neely, is of timely interest.

Prof. Neely traces the origin of the fair from the medieval market fair of Europe to the development of agricultural fairs in Europe.

A large part of the book is given over to the evolution of the agricultural fair in America from its beginnings with the origin of the Berkshire Agricultural Society at Pittsfield in 1807 by Elkanah Watson, the "father of the agricultural fair in the United States."

In considering the "functional" aspects of the agricultural fair Prof. Neely gives considerable weight to the educational, recreational and socialization aspects of the fair.

Dr. Rexford Guy Tugwell and Dr. Harry James Carman, editors of the series, in their foreword to Prof. Neely's work state, "No institutions, perhaps, has exerted greater influence upon American rural life than the agricultural fair."

Fairs Keep Pace

Prof. Neely in his preface emphasizes the constant changing form of the agricultural fair and its usefulness in society: "Like the society of which it is a part, the fair is subject to eternal change; we see it at one time or another assuming characteristic forms, now given a new direction, now fulfilling some new interest of society, now dropping some old function as it becomes obsolete or is elsewhere better performed. Something called the fair may be discerned in organized social relationships in primitive times; and from its early beginning we can trace the evolution of the institution, important now in its commercial, now in its educational, always in its social aspects."

Prof. Neely traces the evolution of "specialized" shows as a result of the agricultural fair. In a sense, a dog show is a "specialized show" which can claim its parentage from the agricultural fair. Little has been written about the "socializing" influence of dog shows, but, surely, with the ownership of 12,000,000 dogs in the United States this ownership represents extensive social implications.

Are Grand Pageants

Our modern systems of transportation has changed many aspects of the agricultural fair. Their attendance is now not confined exclusively to farm people for many of our city and suburban people have interests which the agricultural fairs represent. Many of our best pure-bred dogs are raised in the country and at least the kennels are outside of city limits and in locations where the owners have agricultural interests, thus the dog shows at agricultural fairs, serve as a happy medium in attracting persons who have an interest in both dogs and in the general subject of agriculture.

While Prof. Neely stresses the importance of community and county fairs he recognizes the importance of "the great state fairs . . . or a great regional fair, such as the Eastern States Exposition at Springfield, Mass., in which the New England and the Middle Atlantic States co-operate, which are grand pageants of state and national agricultural activity. They seek to present a complete picture of the agriculture of their respective communities as well as to present at least a partial picture of that portion of commercial and industrial activity which is rooted in agriculture."

Prof. Neely's book is an invaluable source and reference book to anyone interested in one of America's oldest and most vital educational and social institutions—the agricultural fair.

THE Wire-Haired Fox Terrier is generally admitted to be one, if not the most popular, of our many different varieties of Terriers. Fashions change in dogs very quickly, but notwithstanding the fact that new varieties and old varieties have been introduced to our shores, the smart little Wire's position has never been very seriously assailed until the last year or so; and therefore the win of "Flornell Spicypiece" of Halleston, Best in Show at New York, was particularly pleasing to Wire-Haired Fox Terrier breeders, not only on this continent, but also in England.

It is to be sincerely hoped that breeders will take every advantage of the break in their favor and do some really constructive breeding. We all know that during the last five or six years breeders generally became somewhat careless and haphazard in their matings. "What is the use of sending our bitches away to more suitable sires than we have in our own kennels, or in the immediate vicinity, and paying out stud fees and carriage when we cannot find a market for our surplus stock except at bargain prices, and which in no way recompense us for the additional outlay", many breeders have remarked to me: "No I have a stud dog and although in normal times I would not use him, he is good enough to sire puppies at the prevailing prices."

Having to sell puppies at bargain prices is not, however, the reason that Wire-Haired Fox Terriers have deteriorated the last year or so. Years before world conditions hit our sport many Wire-Haired Fox Terrier breeders and judges seemed to forget that a Wire-Haired Fox Terrier needed anything except a long head. Very little attention was paid in selecting a sire, to short backs, good bone and action, or coats; the fashion for excessive "furnishings" and leg feather has done a deal of harm to many of our Terriers, but in my opinion none more than the Wire. In judging the big entry at New York, I had plenty of time to carefully go over every exhibit, and I was astounded to find out how few of the exhibits could pass muster as regards bone and strength of foreface.

My mentor in my early days of our sport was the late L. P. C. Astley, and one of his standard remarks was that the "Head was the map of the breed".

My tutor may have been right, although I never agreed, my contention then and now being, that type applies to the whole dog and not to one particular part. The Fox Terrier Standard states that: "Head—there should be apparent little difference in length between the skull and foreface of a well balanced head". How many of the excessively long and exaggerated heads we see on many of the winning Wires today answer to this description! Excessive length of head in my experience leads to a very apparent difference in length of skull and foreface, and therefore an excessively long head is seldom or ever a well balanced head. Now let's work back to the Standard and see what is required in body. It states that the back should be short, straight (i.e. level and strong and with no appearance of slackness). It is in body or shortness of back that so many of our present-day Wires fail, an excessive long head cannot be produced without an increase in length of back.

During the last 30 years I have seen a number of ups and downs with several breeds, fads have killed some which were immensely popular at one time; we in Wires have gone through periods of "Big and Little Uns", but I am not alone in my opinion that unless breeders and judges make a firm stand and breed and judge according to the requirements laid down by the Standard, the Wire will be pushed out of the picture as far as being one of the most popular of our Terriers. The reason that "Flornell Spicypiece of Halleston" had such a popular win at New York, was that she was not exaggerated in any way, her length of head was in conformity with her length of back, and she moved, coming and going, like a piece of machinery. We still have a number of Wires that answers to the Standard, and in Canada no other breed has more constructive breeders than those who are looking after the interest of the Wire Fox Terriers, but we have lost in the last few years several good breeders, some of whom I know gave up as they refused to produce or try to produce Wires that did not tally with the Fox Terrier Standard.

Quite a budget of news has arrived from Mrs. D. Patrick, who starts off: "I have often shown Yorkshire Terriers under you in England. We are fast getting a doggy community here, Rosemere, Quebec. Mr. and Mrs. Crosham imported two good black Curly Retriever bitches from England in November last. This week they were joined by "Saronia Shot", a good Curly

Ch. Beau Brummel of Wildoaks

dog, bred by Brigadier-General Lance. "Shot" is a litter brother to the Crufts winner. The same kennel are importing from Mrs. Nairn's an excellent brace of Golden Retrievers, one of which is "Stubbings Madregal", the dam of so many good Golden Retrievers. Both the Golden Retrievers were mated to noted dogs before leaving England. Another importation by Mrs. McCrohon consisted of two Yorkshire Terrier bitches and the good little stud dog "Prince of Toys", which won two firsts in his debut at Montreal last month, and has already sired a nice litter for his new owner. Mrs. Patrick's daughter, Mrs. Detmold, is breeding dual purpose English Setters and is in negotiation for a show bitch from the other side; good bitches in these parts are few and far between. There are a number of good bitches which can be obtained in British Columbia, descendants of the very best English

Int. Ch. Prides Hill Tweak 'Em

strains. Mrs. Patrick ends her letter with the following query: Do you think English type Cocker Retrievers are likely to be catered for in Canada before long, or would one stand any chance against its Canadian brethren? There has been quite a number of English Cockers exhibited recently across the border. The open dog class at New York had ten entries and in open bitches there were also ten entries, which certainly looks as if the English Cocker is gaining in popularity on this continent, and I believe a number have been registered in Canada. Personally I am of opinion that before long regular classes for English Cockers will be given in Canada. Crossing the English and American Cocker has not been a success here, although I know that a Canadian Cocker was used with success in England by H. S. Lloyd, one of England's most successful Cocker breeders. The stud dog was selected by the writer from Mr. Fred. Shawley's kennel, and speaking from memory, I believe he was a son of "Man of War", a great number of famous English winners trace back to this Canadian dog.

Writing of Cockers reminds me of many a pleasant day watching some of the Spaniel Trials in England. Since living in Canada I have tried to start a Spaniel Field Trial Club in Ontario,

Int. Ch. Gang Warily

and therefore was intensely interested in the "Talk" given by Mr. William H. Pym on Spaniel trials, at the Canadian Cocker Spaniel Association's supper at the King Edward Hotel. I believe that steps are now being taken to start a Field Trial Club in Ontario, and am quite confident that such a club would prove successful. When out in Winnipeg I heard that George Kynoch and a few of his sporting dog friends are starting a club, so that it looks as if ere long we may have field trials held all over Canada. We in Ontario have in Herbert S. Routley an expert on the field trial question, for he ran with success many of his Springers at trials held across the border, and has also acted as judge.

Mrs. Geo. Hyslop, who did so well with her Cairn Terriers at Westminster and the Specialty Terrier Shows, has, I hear, been making an addition to her kennels at Brockville, one of the most up-to-date in Canada. The writer hopes to pay a visit to this keen breeder and exhibitor in the near future, and see the additions.

Mrs. A. Reucassel, the Royal Oak Kennels, Toronto, sends some interesting news of her Wire-Haired Fox Terrier kennels. Last year she acquired from Mrs. Bondy the Morris and Essex winners bitch, "Tantilizer of Wildoaks", which was bred to "Ch. Crackley Startler of Wildoaks". There is a young bitch in the kennel at the present time, the outcome of this mating, which looks like following along in "Mother's footsteps". "Tantilizer", after the Winter Fair, paid another visit to Wildoaks, this time being mated to "Ch. Gallant Invader", the result being that there are two young Gallants of which great things are hoped and expected by their breeder.

Mr. Fred Coles, the well known breeder and exhibitor of Bull Terriers, sends the following eulogy on the White Cavalier:

The White 'Un

True as the steel, of which he is made,
Pure, as his coat is white,
Gentle and kind, but unafraid,
Proud of his heritage—Might.
He does not bully, snap or snarl,
Where'er he walks, he is lord;
The White Cavalier is loath to quarrel,
But beware, when he draws his sword.
The red flame of courage burns high in his breast,
For unto himself he is law,
There's a heart full of love, in his big barrel chest,
There is death in his punishing jaw.
The Gladiator of his race,
To me, he stands—a king apart,
No other dog, shall e'er replace
The White 'Un in my heart.

Mrs. George A. Taylor the well known Doberman Pinscher exhibitor of Quebec, has been spending a pleasant and profitable holiday in Miami, for I notice that her "Ch. Navigator's Girl" was at the show held there last month. Mr. Alfred Delmont was so impressed with the type and quality of "Girl" that he gave her Best of Breed and afterwards placed her ahead in the Group and made her Runner-up for Best in Show. Our Canadian dogs certainly have been doing well of late. The writer hopes to see a really representative entry of our best dogs at the Morris and Essex Show. We did well at Westminster, but can do better still, and bring across the border some of those beautiful trophies so generously given by Mrs. Dodge, if we plan now to have our best dogs ready for this classic event.

The writer is leaving the write-up of the excellent show of the Greater Winnipeg Kennel Club to the clever pen of our Manitoba correspondent, except to congratulate one and all of the officials on their splendid arrangements and to say how pleased I was to notice that bad times had not killed that marvellous Western spirit, good times are here again, and breeders and exhibitors alike are going to be ready. There was certainly no mention of ten-dollar dogs there, in all my show experience I have never had so many enquiries as to where good dogs could be obtained, and the location of prepotent sires.

On the first evening of the show a banquet was held at the St. Regis Hotel, about 75 members were present to enjoy the very excellent dinner. The chair was taken by Mr. Harold Bentley, the president of the Greater Winnipeg Kennel Club, who made an excellent chairman. Mr. J. C. Cook excelled himself whilst acting as toast master. The following toasts were given: The King from the chair, the judge by Mr. T. K. McKenzie; The Canadian Kennel Club by Mr. George Duncan, ably replied to by Mr. George Kynoch; kindred associations by Mr. T. Smith, Mrs. Pateman replying on behalf of the Fort Garry Kennel Club, and Mr. J. Kerr of the Boston Terrier Club. The Ladies by Mrs. J. L. Pateman, Mrs. Simpson made a very witty reply. Mrs. V. Riensdyr thanked the club on behalf of the St. Agnes Guild for the splendid work they had done on behalf of the Children's Hospital. Mr. Masterson, in a few well chosen words, proposed the toast of the vice-president. During the evening the musical talent of Mrs. Jopling, Mrs. Anderson and Messrs. T. K. MacKenzie and C. Cowell was greatly appreciated.

On Sunday the writer's train did not leave until the evening, so George Kynoch's Buick was filled with some real good fanciers and we went around looking at Scotties, Springers and Silver Foxes. The writer takes this opportunity to thank the many who helped to make his visit so pleasant, he had one regret, and that was, that Jimmy Strachan was not amongst the party, for so strong was the Scotch that I could at times have imagined that I was judging again in Scotland, and not in Manitoba. Jimmy would certainly have enjoyed the reminiscences of Edinburgh, Glasgow and Aberdeen Shows and those good Collies and Scotties and the fanciers we used to see at those shows.

One of the most constructive breeders of Wire-Haired Fox Terriers we have in Canada is Dr. Boulding of Aurora, whose prefix of Talauroora has become well known and valued, not only here, but also across the border where Terriers carrying this prefix have done particularly well. The writer understands that the Terriers are now under the care of William J. Adair, who sends some interesting news: "Talauroora Tester", which was sold to Jos. Viner of Chicago, is now back at Aurora. This smart Terrier was shown by Viner at the National Kennel Club Show, and I noticed the genial Dr. watching him carefully in the ring, therefore I am not surprised at the news of his repurchase. "Dogberry Miss Rita" the dam of no less than four English champions has been sold across the border, but before leaving Aurora she was mated to "Ch. Talavera Symington", mating which should produce more champions. "Talauroora Gold Finder" has gone to B.C. having been purchased by Mr. R. Cross (his blood should be of extreme value out there), he is an extremely attractive Terrier, which should carry the prefix to the head of many good classes. Mr. Farwell of Boston, Mass., has acquired "Talauroora Gallant Girl" a hound-marked daughter of "Gallant Fox" and "Signet Soubrette", she was bred to "Ch. Talavera Symington" before leaving. A number of other sales have occurred and therefore I am not surprised to hear of some important purchases. "Harecote Harmony" in whelp to "Crackley Smasher" imported late last year, has proved a valuable asset, as her son registered as "Talauroora Smasher" gives every promise of making history. Last December, just too late for the Winter Fair, one of England's most consistent winners arrived, "Ch. Benholme Ballet Girl", which before leaving England was mated to "Ch. Ravelly Radiance" and the two puppies the result, are a proof of what constructive mating will do. Adair also reports a number of other sales, and also that the stud dogs have been kept very busy with visitors.

Mr. Charlie Stone, the dean of Irish Setter breeders, apparently holds the secret of perpetual youth, he is in his 85th year and is still keen and young enough to make additions to his team and also to get a partner. The writer hears that Mr. Allister Grosart has now an interest in the Forest strain. Charlie has always been up-to-date in his ideas, and he has been looking west for some time for a dog which would "nick" with his strain. After some trouble he has induced Miss M. Dryer to part with "Winlow Donald", a son of "Ch. Ringleader" and "Masune Imp". "Donald" pedigree traces back to "O'Boyne" and "Judge Law", blood which has proved so successful in building up the Forest strain.

Apparently there is renewed interest being taken with Collies and Shelties, and from what I have seen of American and Canadian Collies, I am of opinion that our Canadian dogs can help to fill the increasing demand for one of the most attractive and useful of our working dogs. Mrs. Goulder of Hamilton sends particulars of activities going on with her Collies and Shelties.

ALVA SCHATZIE

This most successful Great Dane youngster whose show career commenced at the tender age of six months (a remarkable performance for any of the larger breeds) had the distinction of being one of the most prominent puppies of all breeds in 1936. For her breeder, Mrs. Alva McColl, of Toronto, a great deal of pleasure was derived from the piloting of this youngster from one victory to another, culminating with "Schatzie" taking top honours in adult competition, whilst still under the twelve months mark. Probably her most outstanding win was when she lifted the special prize for Best Canadian-bred at the Canadian National Exhibition. "Schatzie" was recently sold to Miss Ella D. Millbank, of New York City, and dispatches tell us she still retains her winning stride. If lightning should strike twice in the same place, Mrs. McColl may own still another "Schatzie", for the dam should present another family early this month, and "Champion Blitz Doggenburg" is the sire. Here's hoping!

We are interested in the Collie, and have been breeding them for the past ten years, and have tried consistently to improve my stock. Two years ago I bought a male and female pup from Dr. Cooper, and then bred the female to Bill Schwinger's imported dog "Ch. Laund Legros", and as my bitch was out of Eng. "Ch. Sedgemore Simplicity" I have a nice combination, and all puppies to date from these matings have been exceptionally good. I have a particularly promising male pup, one of a litter of 11, which I hope to campaign at the fall shows. We have been particularly fortunate with our puppies, finding a ready market and fairly good prices across the border. I sent a very nice blue male to Hamilton, Ohio, last fall, and see he is being shown at most of the circuit shows, and is giving a good account of himself. Now we have made a start with the little Collie, or I should say, the Shelties, and while there is a great deal of improvement necessary before we attain the ideal type, they are nevertheless making great headway. I have two very nice size and type bitches, one I imported, and her first litter of two males and one female were soon spoken for, Jimmy Strachan taking one male and Bill Schwinger the other. The bitch I kept for stock, and am now looking forward to, shortly, the arrival of two more litters. These dogs seem to find a ready market, being strong, hardy little fellows, of ideal size for the house.

Several breeders have sent in news for this issue of Kennel and Bench, but we can still do better. Help dress the "Shop Window" next month and get some needed publicity for your Kennel.

Mr. Geo. W. Bailey, who had so attractive a sale advertisement in last month's Kennel and Bench, evidently finds that Smooth Fox Terriers are booming. He writes "My sale list is selling many good Smooths to different parts of Canada and the U.S.A.. Have had many visitors, and when they saw the stock in such lovely condition, tans and blacks, and a Smooth to suit any purse. Why a pleased visitor and a sale. "Solus Spark" and "Breakeyton Tanya" have been sold to a breeder across the border.

EIGHTY FINE IRISH SETTERS

A great entry faced the judge, Mr. W. H. Pym, of Vancouver, B.C., at the Eastern Dog Club, Inc., show at Boston, Mass., U.S.A., on February 21st and 22nd. It was equalled on the day by a similar number of Cocker Spaniels.

Manitoba Notes

By Provincial Contributing Editor,

T. K. MacKENZIE,
282 Davidson St., Winnipeg, Man.

THE Greater Winnipeg Kennel Club staged their Annual Show in the Auditorium of the Hudson Bay Company on the 19th and 20th of February. The attendance throughout the event was good, at times overcrowded, especially the Saturday, when it was difficult to get near the ring side. Many old-timers were noted, including the Winnipeggers, Doug MacKay, Tom Hogg, Fred Scott and Jack McCully. From distant parts of the West we contacted Dr. French and Mrs. Pat Randall from Saskatoon; Mr. Jack Goff, Medicine Hat; S. Saidman, Canora; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Dunsire, Brandon; Mr. and Mrs. A. Fisher, Stoney Mountain (Man.), and Robert Laing, Stonewall. Secretary T. A. Smith, with his assistant, Mrs. Charlie Jopling, and the ladies of the club had all their respective duties well performed. The space allotted by the Hudson Bay Company was visibly smaller than last year, much to the regret of the club, who had been assured of more liberal floorage for their show. No doubt many turned away rather than submit to being knocked about by the crowd. The takings at the gate and pre-sale of tickets fell short of last year. The net profit of $1,012 is now allotted $759.24 to the St. Agnes Guild of the Sick Children's Hospital, the remainder to the Kennel Club.

The number of dogs benched was 204, making up an entry of 421, including the youthful handlers. The judging was in the capable hands of Mr. Walter H. Reeves and his awards were well received all around. Judging started early Friday afternoon, with an interval at 5 o'clock, then continued to 9.30 o'clock, and the show closed at 10 o'clock, the order of judging being Working and Terrier groups in the afternoon, Boy and Girl handlers Toy Group and part of the Sporting, all up to time schedule. Judging was resumed at 11 o'clock on Saturday forenoon, with intermissions. Later the groups were all completed early in the afternoon and judging was through by 9.30 o'clock, and all trophies and special prizes were handed to their winners. Every possible vantage point around the judging ring had more than its quota, many making use of the benches to see over the crowd. The Working Group was won by the Old English Sheepdog "Ch. Broadlands Blue Bob", owned by George Kynoch; the Terrier Group to the Scottish Terrier bitch, "Janet", owned by Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wade; Toy Group to the Orange Pom, "Ch. Elnor Mite", owner, Harold Bensby; Sporting Group to the Labrador, "Ch. Grand Duchess Victor", owners, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Clutton, Edmonton; Non-Sporting Group to the Chow "Chin Wans Chinky Wink", owners, Mrs. Pat Randall and Dr. M. Trench, Saskatoon.

The Best in Show award went to the Sheepdog, "Ch. Broadlands Blue Bob", making this his eleventh time awarded Best in Show; Reserve Best to the Pom, "Ch. Elnor Mite", shown in a great bloom of coat. This award is a repeat of that made at the show held in this same place a year ago. The remainder of the final group contenders were all newcomers to this part of the West and made good keen competition in the final. Winners of unclassified cups and trophies included the sable and white Collie puppy, "Imera Lady Doone", shown in nice condition, who won the C.K.C. Trophy for Best Puppy. Cup for Best Dog Outside Greater Winnipeg, "Chia-Wan Chinky Wink", from Saskatoon. Cup for Best Bitch Outside Greater Winnipeg, the Labrador "Ch. Grand Duchess Victor", from Edmonton, which also takes the St. Agnes Guild Trophy for Best Sporting. Cup of Best Novice in Show, the winner being the Pom, "Ritzzy Tinkle Bells Image", owner, Mrs. Oxenham, Winnipeg.

Conspicuous among the young bloods who made good in their first start on a show career were the Collie Puppy "Imera Lady Doone"; the Old English Sheepdogs "Snowman" and "Snow-drift"; the Irish Water Spaniel "Bridget Donachue"; "Dunoon Defender", the Springer Spaniel; "Billy of Arthurlee", the English Setter; the Boston Terriers "Jayhawk Howdy Do Son", "High Light", "Hagerty Flash", and the Pomeranian "Ritzzy Tinkle Bells Image", while the other Irish breeds, the Setters and Irish Terriers, have youngsters of much promise in "Assinawa Betty" and "Shamrock Music Master".

After the close of the Bay Show on Saturday night a goodly number of fanciers and friends were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wade at a supper party. We noted among others Mr. Walter H. Reeves, fresh after completing his two days' judging appointment; Dr. French and Mrs. Randall, Mr. and Mrs. E. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Danny Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Chatterton, Miss S. Knapp, Mrs. H. Baker, Messrs. Jack Cook, T. A. Smith, Alex. Gostick, Archie Robertson, Albert Burgess and Geo. Kynoch, master of ceremonies. Songs and stories were the titbits of the evening. The community singing and playing by the string orchestra was much enjoyed, while the contribution of Miss Mildred Wade, "McGinty", earned the well-merited applause of the company, and the Scottish contingent, Mrs. E. Anderson and the writer, travelled once more the "Road to the Isles", which seems to find favor at these functions, and responded with "The End of the Road". In his own inimitable style, Danny Martin favored the gathering with his old favorites. With many thanks and appreciations to the host and hostess the parting time approached and with the singing of "Auld Lang Syne" we were on our homeward way and all resolved to meet again some other day.

We regret to announce the passing of Mr. George F. Ridge on Tuesday, 2nd March, at his home in Winnipeg, in his 80th year. A native of Westmoreland County, England, he came to Winnipeg in 1902 and in later years attained success with English Setters, principally from those imported from his old-time friend of his youth, Tom Steadman of Wales, from whom he purchased the Blue Belton "Mallwyd Count" and the Lemon Belton "Mallwyd Lillie", who both became well known as winners and producers. The prefix of Edendale became a household word in Setter circles by the many fine specimens bred from this imported pair. Some few years ago White West Highland Terriers became his hobby and remained so until the end of his life's journey. For many years he had been associated with the Fort Garry Kennel Club, in which he was held in much esteem as an office-bearer and executive. A cattle buyer for a large Winnipeg firm, he covered most of the cattle lands of Western Canada. The service and interment was held on the 4th March, when a large company paid their last respects. We noted present Mr. L. Wilson, an old associate in club affairs, and Mr. Ted Smith, the Secretary of the New Gun Dog Club, and a wreath from Fort Garry Kennel Club, entirely of roses, the favorite flower of which the deceased was a well-known grower.

The Scottish Terrier Club of Canada held their monthly meeting in the Hotel Majestic on Tuesday, 2nd March, President McKenzie in the chair. The meeting was well attended. The minutes were read and adopted. Correspondence was read by the Secretary and left with him to treat as directed. Report of the purchase of trophy and lettering of same was highly approved of and the purchase price placed in the hands of the Secretary by the members present. Applications for membership were received from Mr. Flaxman, Winnipeg, and Mr. Robert Dunsire, Brandon, and both candidates were enrolled as members. Mr. T. A. Smith, Secretary of the G.W.K.C., conveyed the greetings and appreciation of that body for the support given their two last shows with trophies and specials by the Scottish Terrier Club of Canada. On request from the chair, Mr. G. Kynoch gave a travelogue of the dogs at the New York Show.

The annual general meeting of the Fort Garry Kennel Club was held in the board room of the Free Press, Winnipeg, on 5th March, Mr. W. J. Harley, President, in the chair. The minutes of the previous annual meeting were adopted. Mrs. I. L. Pateman, Secretary, read the financial statement of the year's work, which showed the club to be in a favorable position with a handsome balance carried forward, probably the largest this club has been able to show during its sojourn of some eighteen years or thereabouts. Compliments to the Secretary for her efficient work during the year were heartily concurred in by the members present, numbering about forty. The office-bearers elected for the year 1937 were: W. J. Harley, President; Mr. Greenwood, 1st Vice-President; Mr. J. D. Wade, 2nd Vice-President; Mrs. I. L. Pateman, Secretary-Treasurer, all of whom were elected by acclamation. A strong committee of six ladies and six gentlemen was appointed.

The appointment of the judge for the forthcoming show to be held 14th and 15th May was deferred owing to lack of response from the enquiries. Mr. Tom Eamons was appointed show manager. Negotiations are in hand for new benching for the show and it is expected that an agreement will be arrived at in the course of a few days.

President Harley paid tribute to the former President, Mr. G. F. Ridge, whose demise took place on 2nd March, also reported the progress Mr. T. A. Walsh, one of the foundation members of the club, is making in the General Hospital, Winnipeg, where he has been located for a week or two. The best wishes of the members will be conveyed to Mr. Walsh for his speedy recovery, with which we also subscribe. Two applicants for membership were received and the candidates were duly enrolled by the Secretary. The meeting adjourned at 10.30.

The news was conveyed by 'phone from Mrs. J. L. Pateman, Secretary, Fort Garry Kennel Club, that Mr. Tom Donald (Chief of Police, Kildonan, Man.) is now confined for treatment in Deer Lodge Hospital, St. James'. A veteran of the Great War, Tom, as he is known to the fanciers throughout the West, was a successful Collie breeder and exhibitor, and is now a Scottish Terrier breeder and owner of a fine kennel known by the prefix of Deeside. The best wishes of the fancy are extended for a speedy recovery, in which your writer joins and hopes to visit him soon.

Realizing that the matter of game conservation was one of vital importance to the Province of Manitoba, and which is a topic widely discussed by all sporting organizations not only in Canada but in the United States, due chiefly to the fact that there appears to be a decrease in the number of birds that are shot annually, sporting dog breeders and others interested gathered together in the Hotel Majestic on March 8th to discuss the advisability of bringing into existence a club that would be beneficial to breeders of gun dogs and the matter of preserving our game. Several owners and breeders of sporting dogs were present, as well as representatives of associations whose objects are to encourage game preservation. The consensus of opinion amongst those present was that a great many birds were shot each season and only wounded, whereas if every shooter had a well-trained dog the majority of those wounded birds would not be left to starve but would be brought back to the hunter, and the consequence of which would be that he would get his bag limit without having to lose any game. Mr. Ray Anderson, representing the Manitoba Fish and Game Association, outlined briefly the good work being carried on by them, and gave as his opinion that such a club was very necessary and that the association which he represented would be very glad to have such a body work in conjunction with their association. The meeting was presided over by Mr. John Cook, and Mr. E. M. Smith was named as Secretary. It was decided that a club be formed and be known as the Gun Dog Club of Western Canada was a suggestion. A temporary advisory board was named to carry on until the next meeting, consisting of Messrs. J. T. Tulloch, J. L. Pateman, W. F. Marsh, George Henry, Tom Eamens, Charlie Cowell and Ray Anderson. The aims and objects of the new club are as follows:

1. Game preservation.
2. To work in connection with the Manitoba Fish and Game Association.
3. To hold amateur field trials.
4. To work in harmony with the various kennel clubs.
5. To encourage the training of gun dogs.

The monthly meeting of the Greater Winnipeg Kennel Club was held in the Hotel Majestic on March 11th, President Bently in the chair. The minutes of the previous meeting were adopted. The Secretary explained his interviews re meeting place for the club, and it was moved and carried that the meetings be held in the Hotel Majestic as heretofore.

The financial statement of the late show was submitted and received hearty applause from the meeting, which was well attended. This time the club reaps some remuneration for their efforts and the sum of $253 is carried forward, while the Children's Hospital benefits to the extent of $739. Further negotiation re storing of benching was entrusted to T. Kay MacKenzie to report upon. The meeting adjourned at 10.30 p.m.

Alberta Notes

By Provincial Contributing Editor,

S. W. FOSTER,
9617 101st St., Edmonton, Alta.

AS we swing into the always welcome spring season it seems as if the blood in the veins of the dog fancier tingles with a renewed feeling of optimism, and so, regardless of what winter fixtures we may have attended on the list of dog shows, or what success we may have attained, there is always that more pleasant anticipation as we look forward to the spring and summer events.

Still more recently we have received another letter from Mr. Ayre, this time in the capacity of a very energetic officer of the North Saskatchewan Gun Dog Club. He advises us that as a breeder of gun dogs we should make a move to get all breeders together to talk over the matter of forming a club and run trials next fall. In reply to this suggestion by Mr. Ayre, we would like to say that we have for some time been considering just such a move, and only the realization during the past few years that it would be impossible for us to continue taking part in gun dog activities has kept us from putting forth a real effort in this direction. But now that we must sit and look on from the side lines, let us consider a few of the angles as we see them from there. Our experience of the past few years has taught us once again that we must at times revise our first impressions on a given subject. And while we hope our observations will not cast a shadow over the picture, we must confess that the holding of field trials in general has lost a lot of the glamour it once held for us, and we would only be in favor of them under certain conditions and restrictions which are rather difficult to control. Let us take for example the breed in which we have been interested for many years. Being impressed with the many sterling qualities of this breed at a time when there was little to recommend them in the general type, and many of them having met with disfavor through bad temperament, it became our ambition to try in our humble way to breed a dog which, while still retaining the desirable qualities of the earlier specimens, would also be much more pleasing both in appearance and disposition. And that much was accomplished in both respects by the breeders in Western Canada we think no one will deny.

However, a few years ago the control of the club for the breed passed into the hands of a number of more or less wealthy sportsmen in the eastern United States. Far be it from us to imply that these gentlemen would intentionally do anything to injure the prestige of the breed, their aim, on the contrary, undoubtedly being to further its improvement. A great boom in field trials was speedily organized and with most of the dogs quartered in large kennels and in the care of hired attendants, naturally the quality striven for was the dynamic dash that would win at trials, with the result that these breeders, all unconsciously lost sight of the desirable temperament that is so essential where—as in the great majority of cases—one dog is kept as a family companion ten months of the year, and perhaps used occasionally to hunt during the two remaining months. So it may be taken for granted that what has happened with one breed may happen with others, particularly among the large Retrievers, a condition which is certainly not to be desired in Western Canada.

Of course, someone will rise to remark that we must first get the wealthy sportsmen, which may be true enough, yet experience has proven that when any sport becomes popular there is always someone who is ready to get the jump on the others, and who, in this case, would probably bring in one of these eastern dogs which might create such a favorable impression that he would be used freely at stud, with the result that instead of really getting improvement we could lose in a few months what it has taken years to gain.

Again, without wishing to be unduly pessimistic, we have given considerable thought to the future of the gun dog from the point of game, for it is our opinion that regardless of so-called authorities who try to feel themselves and us, we are rapidly approaching the end. Just a week ago Mr. J. A. Hutchison, Provincial Game Commissioner, outlined the Alberta game situation in an address before a meeting of the Northern Alberta Fish and Game League. Deploring reduction of game birds, he claimed magpies, crows and other predators kill off many more birds than do hunters. Praising activities of school children in destruction of game pests, Mr. Hutchison said that in 1936, in competitions sponsored by the game branch, children had killed 26,000 crows and magpies, 338,000 gophers, and destroyed 20,000 predatory bird eggs. Falling short of children in this achievement, adults had accounted for over 5,700 crows and magpies, 123,000 gophers and 17,500 eggs.

Since 1924, when competitions had first been sponsored, over a half million crows and magpies, more than five million gophers and two million eggs had been destroyed.

At the time of hearing Mr. Hutchison's address we thought that the figures given looked very impressive, which indeed they were. Game wardens who have blasted as many as 50,000 crows from their roosts at a single crack, reported "their supply of bombs was nearly exhausted."

But, getting back to the subject of game birds and ducks in particular, we cannot help but feel that with all due respect to those who would have us believe that predators kill more birds than hunters, we believe they are just hiding their heads in the sand. It is true that they probably destroy more, including destruction of nests, than the number actually taken by the hunter, but we believe that the greatest factor in the ultimate loss is the terrorizing effect of the present-day barrage of the hunter. Gone are the days when only a comparatively small percentage of the water and feeding grounds were accessible to the hunter. To-day, with extension of roads and increased use of the motor and even the plane, with the exception of a few small and scattered game preserves, there is practically no place left where the birds can rest secure. And despite the predators a goodly number of birds continue in evidence each year until the opening of the hunting season, then in a very few days most of them seem to vanish, and the question is asked, where do they go?—for which we have only one answer, God only knows. Again it may be pointed out that a natural enemy may disturb one or two birds or at most those in a very small area, while a single shot will often drive every bird from a good-sized body of water. How often have we seen the novice hunter make elaborate preparations and hurry off to some place where great numbers of ducks were feeding on stubble a day or two before only to find that someone had beaten him to the place and that not a single duck could be seen for miles around.

We hope nobody will get the impression that we are making light of the predatory menace or of the need of continued and increasing warfare against them. And after listening to the class of hunters who talk throughout the season of going crow shooting "next week" and another class who openly state that they cannot afford the time or expense to go shooting crows and that they find it hard enough to go after the hunting season opens, we are inclined to think that the suggestion that a given number of feet or eggs of predators be made a necessary qualification for obtaining a game license is a very good one.

The effect of the game situation in relation to the gun dog is too well known to many for a common alibi for not paying a fair price for a well-bred dog is that "there is not shooting enough any more to make it worth while."

However, while we have pictured many dark clouds, there are still many bright spots. We read, for instance, of that great nation-wide organization of American sportsmen known as Ducks Unlimited, who propose to spend a vast amount of money for the improvement and protection of Canadian breeding grounds. Then there is the hope that before long nature will play an even greater part by a return of the wet seasons and so restore many a favorite haunt that has long been dry.

Then we believe that the forming of gun dog clubs and running of trials would create an interest that might to some extent combat the cheap dog nuisance, which is a problem not common to any one locality.

Periodically we read reports of the number of dogs that are "mercifully" destroyed at the city pound and while we have forgotten the figures, we know that the number is appalling and enough to make the heart of any dog lover miss a few beats. In conversation with an employee of the pound we were told that while there is always a percentage of old dogs whose life has become a burden, dogs which have been injured, strays, those whose owners are moving and cannot take the dog along, but he says that by far the greater number are comparatively young dogs of nondescript breeding, and represent the "cute pup" that was taken home either as a gift or at a price anywhere from fifty cents up.

While crossing the Edmonton market square a short time ago we noticed a lad sitting on a large box and holding a pup that would be between two and three months old on his knee, while there were more on a box nearby. This pup was a black and light tan and we would think he was a German Shepherd, Farm Collie cross, a really attractive fellow, lively as a cricket, and jumped and barked at everyone that passed, and we could not help realizing at the time that only hard-boiled experience and the fact of already having too many dogs kept us from being interested. But no doubt many others would be, and that all would be readily sold and very likely another lot would be on hand the next day and the next. But when one thinks how many of these cute pups grow to be nondescript mongrels, a disappointment to their owners and a laughing-stock to the neighbors, and so we have the recruits for the army the pound men will be picking up next year.

So that while we will not be taking an active part, we are all for the gun dog clubs, and if a number of amateurs can be brought together who will train their own dogs, we would advise them all to secure a book on training by some reliable authority and to pay particular attention to one thing they all emphasize, namely, to be sure not to lose their temper. If this is carried out the work will strengthen the bond between man and dog to the advantage of both. And if they can go along and keep the high pressure element out for the reasons we have tried to explain all will be well.

We have very little kennel news this month as we have pretty well covered all available news recently, and we believe that for the first time since we have been writing Alberta Notes not a single line has been sent in from outside points.

At the last regular meeting of the Edmonton Dog Fanciers' Club the long deferred election of officers was brought before the meeting and it was regularly moved, seconded and carried that the same officers and executive that had held office for the past year be re-elected in a body.

We are pleased to see the name of a former Albertan, Mr. "Vic." W. Williams, added to the list of provincial contributing editors. There must be quite a colony of former Alberta dog fanciers out that way. Perhaps next we will be hearing of them forming a club of their own.

OUR FRONTISPIECE

The Wire Fox Terrier, "American Champion Ulidia Fernando", A.K.C. 979102, C.K.C. 121110, with his mistress, Mrs. R. de R. Barondes, formerly of Canada, and now a resident in the Marina, San Francisco, California. The gentleman on the left is Judge T. P. Murray of Vancouver, B.C., and the scene is laid at the Portland Dog Show, Oregon. Mr. Murray is in the act of awarding the trophy for Best in Show, All-Breeds, to "Fernando". The fact that the newly crowned champion is a product of Canada adds spice to the picture. He was bred by Mrs. R. H. F. Purdon of the Ulidia Kennels, Vancouver, from where so many stars of the breed have emanated. His bloodlines are of the fashionable order. On his sire's side he goes back to "Ch. Fountain Crusader" through the great "Ch. Talavera Simon", whilst "Ch. Wyche Wallet" figures in his dam's lineage. His wins include Best of Breed, Golden Gate Kennel Club Show, San Francisco, California, 1936; Best of Breed, Spokane Kennel Club Dog Show, Washington, 1936; Best of Breed, Best Terrier, Best in Show, All Breeds, Portland Kennel Club Show, Oregon; Best of Breed, Victoria Kennel Club Show, British Columbia, 1936; and the Dog World's International Diploma of Honour. It is the intention of his owners to campaign "Fernando" at Canadian shows with the object of obtaining the title of champion in the Dominion. This ambitious programme has our best wishes for a successful result.

AGRICULTURAL FAIR DOG SHOW

The suggestions made editorially in our last issue under the heading, "Fairs Versus Dog Shows", is already bearing fruit, as borne out by the fact that there will be a Matinee Dog Show held in conjunction with Richmond Hill Agricultural Fair, Ontario, Victoria Day, May 24th. The event will be sponsored by the York Kennel Club, whose successful activities of last year are still fresh in our memories. The historic setting surrounding the ancient association, its get-at-able situation and the prospects of the usual holiday crowd makes this venture appear to be a happy prospect, and the York Kennel Club were well advised to grasp the opportunity.

A. G. GODDARD
1522 Ave. E. N., Saskatoon, Sask.

JUDGING from the number of sales made recently to Western Canada by eastern kennels, there is a good market out here awaiting those breeders who plan their advertising so as to catch the eye of Western fanciers, and I know of no better medium for this purpose than the pages of Kennel and Bench.

The latest to arrive here is "Audacity of Aldon" (137495), an Airedale bitch puppy born July 13th, 1936. Sired by "Tri. Int. Ch. Warland Protector of Shelterock" ex "Int. Ch. Warland Wishbone", she was purchased by Mr. Robert Hogg of Saskatoon from Mrs. Kenneth D. Marlatt, Oakville, Ont., being selected by Dr. J. T. Cooper during his recent visit to the East. Fanciers who have seen this pup claim that she is a real one, while her new owner is well satisfied with his purchase.

The Irish Terrier of which I wrote last month has arrived safely at the Tyrone Kennels of Mr. Wilfred Hoy, who informs me that this puppy, in addition to being a mighty good one, is also a real shower and was ready for a scrap as soon as he was removed from his crate on the station platform. This Terrier came from the kennels of Mr. McCord, Clarkson, Ont., who has evidently added another satisfied customer to his credit.

Evidently we are in for a treat when the Terriers enter the show rings this spring, not to mention the battles that will be waged to gain possession of the coveted C.K.C. Trophies.

Mr. J. R. Turner, Croydon Kennels, Regina, advises us that he has purchased from Mr. S. Saidman, Canora, Sask., a red Cocker Spaniel bitch in whelp to "Cinders of Heavensgate". To use Mr. Turner's own words, "She is sure a beautiful Cocker and I am very proud of her."

Mr. Turner has been appointed Publicity Agent for the Regina Kennel Club and intends to keep me posted on the activities of the fanciers in the southern city. This is good news indeed.

Mr. George Roast, Regina, has purchased a Cocker Spaniel bitch (particolor). This one came from Winnipeg and although I did not receive the name of the seller, I understand she is a "Silverdale" product, being sired by "Detonator of Belmont" ex "Ch. Silverdale Clarinda". Mr. Roast, however, is best known as a breeder of English Springers, which have been among the leading contenders at Western shows for many years. Heading this kennel at the present time is the excellent black and white dog, "Game o' the Woods".

Dr. M. D. French and Mrs. Pat Randall of Saskatoon, who are joint owners of "Chia Wans Chinky Wink", report having had a most enjoyable time at the recent Winnipeg show, where this well-known Chow went Best of Breed and later topped the Non-Sporting Group. In Airedales, "Springlake Squire", owned by Dr. French, won First Open and Winners.

Another prominent winner at this show, from Saskatchewan, was the Black Cocker, "Cinder of Heavensgate", owned by Mr. S. Saidman of Canora. "Cinder" was placed Best of Breed over an entry of 34 Cockers by Mr. Walter Reeves. This five-point-win gives him a total of twelve points and, of course, the title of Champion. A son of the well-known C. B.'s "Little Black Cinder", he is one of the best-bred Cockers in the West to-day, and we take this opportunity to offer our congratulations to his sporting owner.

Mr. Stan Webb of Saskatoon is the latest to succumb to the wiles of the Scottie, having purchased a good bitch in "Normandy Kerryglen" (118214) from Mr. Robert Hogg. Mr. Webb, a new member of the local Kennel Club, has already proved his worth and we welcome him to the ranks of Saskatchewan fanciers.

"Puppy days are here again", so here are a few suggestions that may prove helpful to some beginner:

Before puppies arrive have the bitch accustomed to the place in which she is expected to whelp. Place a safety rail around the inside of the whelping kennel or box, just a few inches from the floor, depending upon the size of the breed, so that puppies will not be crushed against the wall by the bitch. Tack some coarse burlap securely to the floor, so that the puppies can secure a foothold. Squirming around on a slippery surface may lead to loose shoulders and other faults later on.

Do not handle puppies during the first few days, providing they appear to be all right, as it usually worries the bitch to have them molested at this time, no matter how docile and friendly she may appear to be.

Do not be in too great a hurry to start feeding the nursing puppies, for the longer the bitch feeds and cares for them the better. Five or even six weeks is early enough to start weaning, so long as they are making a sturdy growth and the dam is not feeling the strain too great, leave well enough alone. More good will result from supplying the dam with plenty of nourishing food up to this time than from supplementing the natural food with that of an artificial nature.

MR. S. T. LETHBRIDGE PASSES

In the death of Mr. S. T. Lethbridge, Chairman of the Board of Directors of Spratts Patent, Limited, London, England, one of the canine worlds greatest supporters has been withdrawn. Fanciers who have competed for the "Spratt's Trophy" at shows held all over the civilized world, are reminded that it was our late friend who authorized the offering in the first instance. It may truly be said that his whole life had been spent in promoting the interests of "man's best friend"—the dog, and those who were engaged in sponsoring dogs in any way, shape or form.

The Royal Veterinary College had a staunch friend in Mr. Lethbridge. In 1928 he sponsored a drive for $100,000.00 to establish a Canine Department in the Royal Veterinary College, and in 1929 that splendid objective was achieved. The "Tail-waggers'" club had his encouragement from the inception of that grand organization, and the advantages which have followed in the trail of the "Tail-Waggers" will probably never be fully appraised. Directly arising from the "Tail-Waggers" activity came the "Guide Dogs for The Blind" movement, and if anything was more deserving of God's approbation surely it was this glorious undertaking. "Sight for the sightless" those of us who enjoy all our faculties might well pause for a moment to consider what it means to be without sight, and having done that, then we would be able to visualize the magnitude of "Guide Dogs for The Blind" scheme.

Then there is the matter of making the buying of dog licenses easy for poor people, and here was another department of "Tail-Waggers" that enjoyed Mr. Lethbridge's unqualified support. Oh! it is not easy to determine the extent of dogdom's loss through the removal of one of its staunchest supports.

To Mrs. Lethbridge, to her two daughters, Lady Drummond-Hay and Mrs. Poole we extend our sincere sympathy in this sad bereavement.

Dogs of British Breed

The British bulldog is not the only dog of British breed and origin. Think of the terriers, the spaniels, the hounds and other sporting and working dogs that have been developed through the years in the British Isles.

The country which produced the British bulldog and so many more thoroughbreds produced LACTOL, the world's best puppy-rearing food. Good for the mother dog, too, before and after. LACTOL is rich in nutriment and Vitamin D which has to do with bone growth and the teeth. The best English dog kennels use it. Canadian dealers have it, and the other Sherley dog foods and medicines, as well. Or write to the Canadian agents, Ralph W. Barton and Co., Limited, 137 Wellington Street West, Toronto.

Grocers—Your Dog Line SILVER TIP "Bone Shaped Dog Biscuits"

These dog biscuits are manufactured specially for dogs over a year old. They are a good hard biscuit, containing the required amount of wheat, meat and bone for producing healthy dogs. They are bone shaped so as to be easily taken by the dog. These dog biscuits appeal to the dog. Their form and appearance give zest to the appetite, the meat and other blends in them is relished by the dog. Our hard biscuits clean the dogs teeth, harden the gums, induce salivary action, reduce pyorrhoea and offensive breath. If your dog is not accustomed to eating biscuits it would be wise at first to cover the biscuit with gravy for a few times, then dog will soon acquire a taste for the biscuits, and the balance ration will soon bring about that healthy appearance of a well kept dog. Packed in 5 lb. and 25 lb. Bags.

By Provincial Contributing Editor

"VIC" W. WILLIAMS

4844 Quebec Street, Vancouver, B.C.

THE Coast City Kennel Club Ninth All-Breed Dog Show was held at Hastings Park Vancouver, on Saturday, March 13th, and was indeed an outstanding success. Mr. J. W. Marples, the eminent English dog authority, judged all breeds, and his decisions were generally speaking very favourably received by both exhibitors and the grandstand. Fair weather prevailed and the show got away to a good start, and when the Best in Show was honoured with the beautiful Rosette, which by the way was especially made by the wife of the president, Mrs. Gerald Stock, it was remarked by many that here was one show which did not run into the small hours of the morning, being concluded shortly after 10 p.m. The dog show building was heated for the occasion and very little complaint was heard of any discomforts which might have been anticipated due to the staging of this show so early in the year. It is my pleasant duty to thank all those who in any way contributed to the success of this show. Over 200 dogs were actually benched, the keenest competition being in Cockers with 26 entries, followed closely by Springers with 20 entries, Setters next with 14, in the Toy Group, Mr. Marples gave the highest honour to Mrs. E. Bradley's Pomeranian, Canadian and American Champion "Wembley Gold Shade". This dog has topped the Toy Groups so often that congratulations are rather stale; however, this same dog has made a name for himself by winning Best in Show, All Breeds, at Spokane, Washington, last year, and one of these days he will undoubtedly top all comers here. In the Non-Sporting Group, Mr. Marples chose the Chow Chow owned by Mr. Ray Preston of Portland, Oregon, which, by the way, is a repeat for this dog as Alf. Loveridge also placed "Tangs Beautiful Son" second Best Group Winner at Victoria last fall. In the Working Group, Mr. Marples fancied the Collie "Allandale Engineer", and in passing, whilst the writer is a breeder of Collies but did not exhibit any at this show it was indeed a pleasure to see Mr. Marples really go over the Collie entry, and one felt from the ringside that regardless of the judge's decision here was an authority really looking for the important desirable requirements which go to make the standard of perfection. In the Terrier Group Mr. Marples with little hesitation made up his mind that the Wire Fox Terrier puppy "Barovian Challenge", owned by George Tyson, was his choice on the day. Coming to the last Group, the Sporting entry, Mr. Marples gave this rosette to Mr. Geo. Emery's English Setter "Balmoral Jerry". In the final analysis for Best Dog in Show, Mr. Marples awarded this premier honour to the Wire Fox Terrier "Barovian Challenge", a most popular win, who lived up to his name by annexing the Canadian Kennel Club Trophy for Best Canadian Bred Puppy in Show, also the W. H. Pym Trophy for Best Novice in Show. Mrs. Lillian Miller of Seattle, whose Collie "Olympic Oblaze" won the Geo. Gough Trophy for Best from the U.S.A., and the Post entry Brace class with seven Braces competing, Mr. Marples handed the sweepstake to the Drunadoon Kennels Sealyhams, owned by Miss Margot Robinson of Victoria. Reports of the breed classes will appear under the show detailed report. Out-of-town exhibitors attended the show in large the largest contingent to invade our shows for some time, all of which confirms the writers prediction in last month's notes of renewed interest and larger entries for 1937 Coast Shows.

The Fox Terrier Association gave an informal dinner in honour of Mr. Marples and his guests, Mrs. Marples, Jr., of Balboa Island, and Mr. Brearley, the well known Old Country Wire Fox Terrier fancier, who are accompanying Mr. Marples on his American tour. The dinner was held on Friday evening, with Mr. Joe Dodds the president of the association, official host, Mr. Brearley, Mr. W. H. Pym, Mr. J. A. Blair and Mr. Gerald Stock added to the evening's enjoyment with interesting remarks, and a most welcome guest, Mr. W. M. Coats, who has spent the winter in Honolulu, renewed old acquaintances on this occasion. It was good to have our old friend "Billy" Coats back on his feet, as he has been quite ill of late, here's hoping the coast climate makes a new man of one of the best of the old guard. To return to the dinner, the guest speaker of the evening, Mr. J. W. Marples, delighted everyone present with his instructive and interesting talk on the care and preparation of Fox Terriers for exhibition; these get-togethers are to be encouraged to bring about a better esprit-de-corps amongst all fanciers. At the annual meeting of the British numbers. Entries coming from Portland, Seattle, Kent, Carnation, Tuscon, Arizona, Los Angeles, Gellingham, Edmonton, Kaslo, Abbotsford and Langley Prairie, whilst Victoria Island came en masse with 24 dogs actually benched, Columbia Fox Terrier Association the following officers were elected: President, J. Dodds; Vice-Presidents, H. Wilkinson and H. Swinden; Sec-Treas., W. J. Moffatt. Executive: R. H. F. Purdon, Mrs. J. Dodds, Mrs.

R. H. F. Purdon, Mrs. P. B. Trywhitt, W. H. Pym, T. P. Milner and Dr. R. G. Cuthbert, with such an able slot of officers it is the writer's guess that Fox Terriers are due for a return of activity which of late has been dormant.

The Doberman Pincher Club of British Columbia at its second Annual Meeting elected the following officers: President, Jasper M. Daniels; Vice-President, W. C. Moran; Secty.-Treas., B. C. Colclough. Directors: H. M. Broome and W. Maxwell. This club holds monthly meetings and as an educational feature permit a guest speaker to give a talk on doggy matters of general interest, and amateur judging of the breed by members has proved entertaining. The Doberman Club supported the Coast City Kennel Club Show, and their decorated benching came in for a lot of complimentary remarks. News comes to me from the Holdfast Cocker Kennels, owned by those genial Cocker fanciers, Mr. and Mrs. H. Pickford, of some interesting sales, which include "Holdfast Peter", "Holdfast Midnight", "Holdfast Michael", "Holdfast Patrick" and "Holdfast Peter 2nd". These kennels are headed by that well known "Ch. Holdfast Reserve", which I understand is in that charmed circle of "not for sale". We are glad to report that Mrs. Pickford, who has of late been under the weather is now fully recovered, and it will be good to see our British Columbia "Mary Pickford" back in the ring with her shining Cockers, who are put down right and the envy of all who see them. There used to be a song the "Kellys are Coming", but this time it is the Kerrys are coming. Mrs. Gladys Peers of the Tralee Kennels may well be proud of her imported Kerry Blue Terrier "Kilbarney". This dog has completed his championship undefeated and previous to shipment to this country he was a consistent winner "over there", obtaining Best in Show honours shortly before his invasion to this country. Captain A. F. Stoner of Summerland, has also of recent date imported some good Kerry Blue blood which is bound to promote further interest in this interesting breed which is gaining popularity so rapidly. The merrie little Cocker continues to hold its own in the matter of entries at our shows, and it is no small compliment to those pioneers of English importations, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Rhodes, that their efforts have been rewarded in the wins made by their own dogs and the progeny of their stock, and in this remark I refer to the recent wins made by the "Of Moray" stock gaining top honours at our last show. Mrs. A. S. Dainard made a very good win with her Blue Roan bitch, as did Mrs. Buckley with

British Columbia members of the Canadian Kennel Club will, I feel sure, endorse the appointments made in the selection of the Provincial Committee both on the Mainland and the Island. Mr. Blair has seen fit to appoint members of experience who have for many years been actively engaged in the Fancy and who through their experience will be of great assistance to him in those matters which may come up for their deliberations and recommendations to the Canadian Kennel Club.

It is to say the least worthy of special comment to notice the increasing membership to the Canadian Kennel Club, and especially in so far as it affects British Columbia. This month we welcome Mr. S. K. Matterson of Duncan, William S. McGill and Arthur Moore of Vancouver, who by the way are starting off on the right foot by importing the best Scottie bloodlines from Scotland. Miss Barbara Percy and her father, Mr. Tom Percy, Shepherd Dog fanciers, who believe in having nothing but the best, and Mr. B. H. Woolston of Victoria, an English Setter fancier. The writer happens to know that these new members are going to be very active in doggy circles in British Columbia, and after all in numbers there is strength, so this is an open invitation to all those readers of these notes may not at the present time be members, but are contemplating joining the Canadian Kennel Club.

I feel I am voicing the expression of all British Columbia members in congratulating both the Editor of Kennel and Bench and Mr. Walter H. Reeves in the arrangement to have Mr. Reeves continue with his "Canadian Fancy" section of Kennel and Bench, which has been authorized by the Board of Directors.

I would indeed be remiss in my remarks were I not to mention and thank all those kind people who have written to me on my appointment to the position of correspondent for British Columbia notes. I consider it an honour and with your help I shall do my best and not discredit the confidence you have placed in me. Now on to Victoria Island Dog Fanciers Show on April 3rd, with Mr. W. H. Pym donning the ermine. The show secretary is Mrs. C. Bloomfield, 134, Menzies Street, Victoria. In appreciation of the support extended to our last show here, lets all go over to the Island and give Bill Pym a bumper entry.

THE OLD GUARD OF THE KENNEL WORLD

The annual meeting and reunion of the Old Guard of the Kennel World took place at the regular rendezvous of that association, the Hotel Victoria, New York City, on February 12th last, with a good attendance and customary enthusiasm of its members and guests.

This year, in place of the usual formal dinner in the evening on the second day of the W.K.C. Dog Show, the committee decided it would prove a pleasant change to hold a mid-day luncheon, which was done and carried out successfully. Informal addresses and exchanges of views by several members and guests were absorbing in interest and instructive, and the President's general outline of the year's doings, and the election of officers, was well received, as were the Secretary's and the Treasurer's reports, the latter showing the club's finances to be in good condition.

Several new names were added to the roster.

President—A. Clinton Wilmerding.

Honorary President—Dr. Samuel Milbank.

Vice-President — Dr. Howard W. Church.

Treasurer—Herman Fensterer.

Secretary—Edward H. Goodwin.

Canadian Representative — J. D. Strachan.

Maritime Notes

By Provincial Contributing Editor,

GERALD G. McCARTHY,
107 St David St., Saint John, N.B.

IF there is anyone who doubts the reasoning power of a dog, I recommend that they get acquainted with a German Shepherd owned in Saint John by L. T. Dow, a director of the N.B. Kennel Club, Inc.

This dog is registered in the C.K.C. under the name of "Fritzy Pal", No. 98784. Since his puppy days he has been a consistent winner at dog shows, and is considered by those in the know to be one of the finest specimens of his breed on exhibition. Last September "Fritzy Pal" won his championship against keen competition, under the very capable judging of Mr. William H. Pym of Vancouver, B.C.

"Fritzy Pal" has a very keen intelligence, and undoubtedly understands about everything said to him. The common tricks that most dogs have to be trained to do this dog did on being told or shown once—such stunts as getting the mail from the postman, bringing slippers, retrieving articles, shaking hands, begging, playing "dead dog", guarding, etc.

The first time he was asked to guard was when he was told to "mind" a neighbor's baby. He immediately lay down beside the infant and until relieved of duty would permit no one outside the family circle to come near his charge. A low, ominous growl was sufficient warning to others.

The first time "Fritzy Pal" saw his master dive in the water for a swim he evidently feared a drowning accident, for he jumped in too, and, catching hold of the back of his master's bathing suit, started dragging him ashore.

The great love "Fritzy Pal" has for his master nearly caused him to die of a broken heart. It happened during the judging of a dog show. Mr. Dow had two dogs to show in the ring at the same time. "Fritzy Pal" was one of them and being easy to handle and a good showman, was given to a stranger to handle. When "Fritzy Pal" saw his master with the other dog he started to act strangely. He struggled once or twice to get to his master, then he seemed to wilt. His eyes took on a glassy stare; he began to stagger, and, looking longingly at his master, he suddenly collapsed to the floor. It all happened quickly. Mr. Dow sprang to the dog as he hit the floor, put his arms around him and called him by name. "Fritzy Pal" responded with a slight wag of the tail, staggered to his feet, trembling and dazed. The judge kindly allowed time for the dog to recover himself, and a short time later with his own master holding his head, "Fritzy Pal" went through his paces and won Best of Breed.

These are just a few of the happenings in the life of "Fritzy Pal" that tend to convince one that some dogs, at least, have the power to think.

Mrs. Ronald C. Vaughan, Bench Show Committee Chairman of the Maritime Ladies' Kennel Club of New Brunswick, informs us that arrangements are well under way for their dog show to be held at Saint John, N.B., May 12th. A record spring show is anticipated.

Mr. A. H. Campbell, Saint John, N.B., reports a litter of ten Scottish Terrier puppies, five of each sex, out of his "Marks Dusky" and sired by Mr. J. H. Hamilton's "Marks Haggis Dhu". Both sire and dam are from the Marks Scottish Terrier Kennels of Mrs. A. S. Kirkland, Saint John, N.B. This litter is probably a world's record for this breed and is the result of first mating in both cases. I have heard of several litters of nine and had the pleasure of viewing one litter of that number, but this is the largest litter of Scotties to ever come to my attention.

The New Brunswick Kennel Club, at its regular monthly meeting, March 3rd, in the Admiral Beatty Hotel, decided on and are applying for the dates of September 6th, 7th and 8th for their annual bench show. Mr. R. C. Vaughan was named Show Committee Chairman and the writer Show Superintendent. The Secretary, Mr. Samuel E. Kominsky, is making arrangements for a judge of international fame.

Mrs. Lewin L. Blizzard, Saint John, N.B., has purchased a very impressive, full-marked Boston Terrier bitch puppy, sired by "Kid Boots Sensation", from Mr. Robert Short, Moss Glen, N.B.

Breeding activities are very brisk in the Maritimes. Some of the reported stud visits are as follows: Pointers, Robert Orr's "Easco Ridgewood Mayfair" to Mrs. Muriel Wigen's "Ch. Easco Starlight"; "Easco Ridgewood Jewel" to "Easco Ridgewood Rockett" and "Easco Ridgewood Trail" to the writer's "Mayfly's Ranger." Mr. A. R. Brown of East Saint John has also mated his "Ridgewood Flirt" to "Mayfly's Ranger". Mr. Alex. Thorburn, Sussex, N.B., has shipped his Bull Terrier "Limestone Lady's Man" to one of the J. D. Whitely stud dogs at Bedford, N.S. Frthj Neilson, Saint John, N.B., sent one of his Scottish Terrier bitches to Cossar Farm Kennels, at Gagetown, N.B., to be mated to "Ch. Roofer of Rookes", who by the way has been kept very busy at stud since his arrival in Canada the latter part of December. Several bitches are now nursing litters sired by him.

Miss Dorothy M. Cassidy, Torryburn, N.B., has mated her Cocker Spaniel bitch "Dream Girl of Gleggarry" to Mrs. R. C. Vaughan's "Kindon Freckles".

Mr. J. G. Cavanaugh is looking forward to a litter out of his black Cocker Spaniel "Cedargrove Wonderful Lady", sired by same owner's beautiful red stud dog "Cedargrove Brucie".

At the annual meeting of the Scottish Terrier Club of Canada, Mrs. C. S. Kirkland was named Eastern contributor and would appreciate hearing from Scottie fanciers in this section of the Dominion. Address 226 Douglas Avenue, Saint John, N.B.

Mr. Bert Taylor is very much elated over a litter of Irish Setter puppies out of his "Wexford Lass", and sired by "Ch. Irish Pat".

In opening the Nova Scotia notes I wish to take this opportunity of welcoming the return of Mr. Walter H. Reeves as a regular contributor to Kennel and Bench. The absence of "The Canadian Fancy" has been generally commented upon, and it is with much satisfaction that we note the return of this popular feature.

A letter from Mr. John Denton of Toronto advises me that he is the owner of that good little Cocker Spaniel "Thetford Tiny Tim". This is interesting news to me owing to the fact that "Tiny Tim" is the sire of my nice litter out of "Thetford Jolly Mistie". "Tim" is a son of the well-known American Champion "Mistover Tug o' War", and is out of that beautiful little bitch "Thetford Peg o' My Heart", she being a daughter of "Int. Ch. Romilla of Barrie". Mr. Denton gives me some interesting particulars concerning "Tiny Tim" and I hope to hear some good reports of this little dog's show career during the coming season.

Another very fine letter recently arrived from Janet W. Mack 8 Perry Street, New York City. Miss Mack is known for her interest in the Manchester Terrier, and has done, and is still doing, much to further the interests of this attractive breed of Terriers both in the United States and elsewhere. Miss Mack, who is a native of Hamilton, Ont., reports as follows: "At present I own a Dachshund, smooth, a Ruhaar (Wire-Haired Dachshund, a very fine one); a Dandie Dinmont, daughter of Best of Breed, Madison Square Garden, 1934; a Greyhound, sired by 'Ch. Gamecock Duke of Wales'; a Toy Manchester; a Scottish Terrier bitch, by 'Can. Ch. Haldon Bugle', and a 'baker's dozen' Manchester Terriers." She reports the Manchesters as possessing "style, poise, intelligence, affection, utility as guards, easy to groom, quick and alert mentally", and states further that "no breed of dogs is comparable to a correctly bred Manchester Terrier of true type."

This lady is the owner of the Best of Breed winner (Manchester) at the 1936 Morris and Essex Show. This outstanding Terrier is "Grenadier Brass Hat". We understand that this dog is being used at stud and is siring some typical puppies that will probably be favorably heard from in the near future. Miss Mack reports the sales of Manchester puppies to Colonel Rogers, Winnipeg, and I understand that several more have been imported into Canada, with every promise of more to come. Judging from the number of inquiries that I have recently received for Manchester puppies it would appear that this attractive breed is now on the way to a well deserved return to popularity. Let's hope so.

Collie news from the Boston show informs us that "Oakland Laurie", owned by the St. Adrian Kennels, was placed second in the Puppy class and at New York a litter sister of "Laurie", owned by Noranda Kennels, also placed second in the Puppy class, in a class of eight entries. These puppies were both sired by "Int. Ch. Major Lukeo", and are out of "Ch. Lodestone Memory". The good young bitch, "Noranda's Sensation 2nd", a daughter of "Int. Ch. Major Lukeo" and "Lady Nan of Noranda", bred by Noranda Kennels, placed second in the Open class at Boston. This smart young sable and white bitch topped the Working Dogs at the N.S.K.C. show at Halifax last year and duplicated this win at the Bedford Kennel Club Show of the same year.

It is interesting to note the editorial comment upon the new by-law recently put into effect in Medicine Hat, Alta. This new law is similar, in part, to the present law now in effect in Halifax. A few years ago the City Board of Health made an effort to draw up a number of new and strict regulations regarding the kenneling of dogs within the city limits. So drastic were these proposed regulations that the local dog owners and breeders formed a strong body of opposition and attended the committee meetings with the result that the proposed rules were greatly modified and are now of a much less serious nature than intended.

At the time referred to the "Police Dog" appeared to be the "bone of contention", but, as a result of the Committee's failure to arrive at a sane definition of the term, "Police Dog", this "breed" was deleted from the by-laws completely. This term appears to cover the entire band of lop-eared, long tailed mongrels now running wild in this district and, as a result of their slight resemblance to the Shepherd Dog, the latter has been unjustly maligned and has had much mud thrown in his face.

This is regrettable as the breed has much to commend it and the discrimination that has arisen has done much toward giving the breed a "black eye" insofar as the general public is concerned. I believe that there are not more than a possible dozen German Shepherd Dogs in Halifax and those that I have seen are fair specimens of the breed, attractive, intelligent and reliable animals. It is to be hoped that owners of this once popular breed will make an earnest effort to acquaint the general public of the many good qualities of the breed as a whole.

During the winter quite a number of dogs have passed through Halifax en route to the United States. Most of these have been English dogs and the latest shipment contained a number of English Cocker Spaniels and a pair of Greyhounds. All bound for New York.

With the approach of the show season there should be considerable kennel activity in the Maritimes and this is to remind the local breeders that both Mr. McCarthy and yours truly are anxiously awaiting news of interest from your kennels. It is impossible for us to see you all personally and a letter or a 'phone call would be greatly appreciated by your correspondents, both of whom have become somewhat discouraged as a result of the apparent lack of interest on the part of the Maritime breeders. We are endeavouring to keep up with the improvement of "Kennel and Bench" and ask for your support in this effort.

Mr. John MacDougall, owner of the Star Kennels, West Gore, Hants County, N.S., has a nice kennel of Boston Terriers, Wire-Haired Fox Terriers and Scotties, all well-bred and registered. Mr. MacDougall has a modern kennel, heated and well ventilated and provided with plenty of space for outdoor runs. Making an ideal home for the three breeds housed there.

The start of this kennel was made when Mr. MacDougall obtained a Boston Terrier bitch, "Tina", bred by Hudson T. Wallace and sired by "Tiny Punch" ex "Chatsworth Queen". At present a very nice dog puppy from a mating of "Tina", and Roy F. McKay's good dog, "Laddie Champson", is being retained at the Star Kennels and will be used at stud.

At the same kennels we find a nice Scottish Terrier bitch, "Campbellcroft Lassie", by "Haldon Brestonian" and out of "Campbell's Barn Dance". "Lassie" was bred to Mr. L. A. Ryan's "Campbellcroft Laddie", and a nice dog puppy from this mating is now owned by Mr. P. D. Duff, of Bridgewater, N.S. A bitch from the same litter is being retained at the kennels as a matron.

I was unable to obtain much information regarding the Wire-Haired Fox Terriers housed at the Star Kennels, but know that Mr. MacDougall obtained his parent stock from Fred Fougere, of Halifax. Representatives from the Star Kennels will be exhibited at the Bedford Kennel Club Dog Show, to be held in Halifax, on July 1st.

The latest local news item informs us that the annual license fee for dogs owned in the County of Halifax has been set at one dollar for males and three dollars for females. This rate is for dogs owned in the County and does not apply to the City of Halifax, where the tax rate is two dollars per year for each dog, either sex.

The Nova Scotia Society for the Prevention of Cruelty is seeking legislation at the present session of the local Legislature to prohibit "Roadside Zoos" at service stations, etc., along the highways of Nova Scotia. This is designed to abolish the degrading spectacle of bears, wild cats, eagles, raccoons and other animals being exhibited in cramped and unfit quarters, usually cages, with the idea of attracting customers. Many of the states of the American Union have enacted such legislation and several of the Canadian provinces are following the example of Nova Scotia in this commendable effort.

The Chester branch of the N.S. Society for the Prevention of Cruelty is a live and active organization, of which Dr. L. H. Croft is the President, and Miss Mabel Mitchell is the Secretary. The town of Chester is about fifty miles from Halifax and is a well-known and extremely popular summer resort with a large summer colony of visiting Americans, several of whom are displaying great interest in the S.P.C., and are co-operating with the Society in efforts to stage a Pet Parade and Dog Show during the coming season. A great number of the visitors bring their dogs to Chester with them, and many fine specimens of the various breeds are seen there during the tourist season.

I am assured that this proposed show is considered to be practically a certainty and it is confidently expected that a large entry of good dogs will appear. The prizes, which will be generously donated, will consist of trophies and substantial cash awards. It is quite assured that the local kennel clubs will lend their whole hearted co-operation and support and we look forward to a big day at the Chester Dog Show.

THE MANCHESTER TERRIER

He's smartly clad in black and tan,
A gentleman by birth,
Who, by his loyalty to man,
Has proven well his worth.

His Star, though in descendency,
Is like unto the sun,—
'Twill rise again and still retain
The glory he has won.

Though other breeds may meet the needs
Of fancy for a while,
He yet shall grace a mighty place
Above the rank and file.

The qualities that brought him
So rightly to renown
Shall still invade the place he made
And win him back his crown.

The choice of those who toil in mines—
The pet of hirelings,
And yet he finds the tie that binds
Has made him pal to kings.

May his future prove much brighter,
And his worth the world extol.
May his way be ever lighter
As he travels to his goal.

NEW POODLE FOR CAIRNDANIA

The unprecedented successes achieved by the inmates of the Cairndania Kennels of Brockville, Ontario, at the New York shows no doubt prompted the owner, Mrs. G. W. Hyslop, to further indulge her tastes for dogs of high degree. A visit to the Blackeen Kennels, presided over by Mrs. Sherman R. Hoyt at Katonah, N.Y., resulted in the purchase of a standard adult white Poodle who is considered one of the finest youngsters of the breed. He is a son of "Nunsoe Duc de la Terrace," not yet two years old, bang up to size, and outstanding in breed characteristics. He has not yet been shown and it is likely the American fixtures will provide his first hunting grounds, where his debut will be awaited with interest.

GERMAN JUDGE FOR MORRIS & ESSEX

The 1937 specialty show of the Dachshund Club of America, to be held in conjunction with the Morris & Essex show the last week-end of May will present a number of unusual advantages which are expected to attract the greatest assembly of Dachshunde ever brought together in this country.

First, the president of the Dachshund Club of Germany is making a special trans-Atlantic trip to serve as judge, and to bring the authentic German eye to bear upon the Dachshunde of America, as he has several times served as judge of some of the largest entries of Dachshunde in their native country, including the "World Show" at Frankfurt-am-Main in 1935 where more than 200 German Dachshunde assembled. Forstmeister Marquardt was president of the Deutscher Teckelklub for several years before it became the Fachschaft Dachshunde für Zucht und Jagdgebrauch im Reichsverband für das Deutsche Hundewesen, and continues to head that organization which will celebrate its fiftieth anniversary next year.

Next, in order that full advantage may be taken of Herr Marquardt's appearance at this show, and so that he may have ample time to go over the dogs without having to rush or slight any classes, arrangements have been made to extend the judging over two days, judging all the males of the three coats on Friday, May 28, and judging all the females on Saturday, May 29, the "all-breed" day of the Morris & Essex fixture. In keeping with the policy of Morris & Essex to release dogs as soon as they have been judged, the males can be taken out of the show as soon as judged on Friday, and need not be returned on Saturday, except those needed for further competition, unless the exhibitors so choose. And females need not be benched on Friday, unless exhibitors prefer to have them on the benches both days. Bench space will be provided for all entries for both days, and may be occupied one or both days at the exhibitor's option.

Also arrangements are being made to enable the judge to record his rating of each Dachshund as "V," "S. G.," "G.," etc., in addition to the ribbon placings, and to sign individual specially engraved certificates of merit showing each dog's rating.

Following the precedent of the past two years, when the Dachshund entry has headed all breeds at Morris & Essex, the Dachshund Club of America will add to the regular class prize money of $10, $3 and $2, a sum sufficient to increase these prizes to $15, $5 and $3 in each class regardless of number entered, with $5 for each winner and best of winners, and $3 for each reserve. The regular classes will follow the same divisions as last year, Smooth puppies being divided by color and by age, American-bred and open, by color. There will be additional "field trial" and "exhibited by breeder" classes whose details are explained in the premium list, copies of which may be secured from the Foley organization, from Morris & Essex, or from the Dachshund Club of America. Besides sterling trophies and medals, cash prizes will amount to $1000.00—with no restrictions.

DOG CLUB DONATION

We take this opportunity of extending hearty congratulations to the members of the Greater Winnipeg Kennel Club and everyone who was associated with their recent show, who enriched the St. Agnes Guild of the Children's Hospital to the amount of $759.00.

Quebec Notes

By Provincial Contributing Editor,

MISS VEVA H. ROBSON,
Rear 3424 Drummond St., Montreal, Que.

IN last month's issue of "Kennel and Bench", Mr. Walter Reeves refers to this magazine as the Shop Window of this sport and it is quite true—it is the one evidence by which our Province can show and tell of its wares to the public—especially the professional end of the game—also there are quite a number of amateurs who, while they never show, like to know what about their favorite breed in this province to see who has what.

I will be very pleased indeed to place your news, little or much, in the Shop Window. Now for news—Miss Steggall of the Winna Kennels, Reg'd, reports a most successful year with her pugs, both as regards sales and shows. Several puppies have found new homes, but unfortunately, they will not be shown as their owners can't just be bothered with dog shows—a most lamentable attitude of a great many Montrealers, who possess really worthy specimens of different breeds, not only pugs. However, let us hope that now that all Dog Shows must be under the direct control of the C.K.C., Inc., that we shall see a decided improvement and our shows will be better patronized by the novice.

Mrs. C. S. Bami's "Wiema Copperfield" gave an excellent account of himself by winning best Pug, and finally third Best in Show, at the recent Mount Royal Toy Dog fixture.

"Wiema Lady Clubbu", who annexed three points towards her title at the same show, and finally ended up best puppy in the show, has gone to Detroit to become the foundation of a kennel there. Shortly after her arrival she took Reserve Winner under Mr. Downing over several of her sex, and when she becomes acclimatized she will be shown at all the large shows in both countries. Her litter sister, "Wiema Prima Donna", we understand, will make her debut at the Good Friday Show in Toronto, and we wish her every success.

Miss Steggall reports a most even and promising litter by "Ch. Air Pilot of Dixie", out of "Victorian Little Dorrit", and no doubt will be heard from later.

Several youngsters are being schooled for the coming circuit, and these kennels look forward to bigger and better dog shows in the future. Mrs. Cork of Verdun informs me her Wire bitch "Aristocrat Adorable" (by "Int. Ch. Eden Aristocrat and Tetromore"), has just returned from a visit to Wildoaks Kennels, where she was mated to "Ch. Gallant Invader, her dam (Imp.) "Tetramore was mated to a local dog, grandson of "Ch. Stockmoor Storm"—both bitches are due to whelp in April, so it will be very interesting to watch these two litters come along. Mrs. Cork is hoping for something extra good from the "Aristocrat" bitch. "Gallant Invader" is considered one of the greatest sires in America, and he is himself, one of four champions all of one litter.

The Montreal Kennel Association held their annual meeting the other evening and the following officers were elected:

President, T. P. Ritchie, Esq.; Vice-President, L. H. Meyer; Treasurer, S. T. Doyle; Secretary, U. Klebnikoff. Directors: J. A. Thoin, K.C., T. P. Ritchie, Dr. A. A. Etienne, R. A. Ross, L. H. Meyer and Henry Whittey.

This club will most surely miss the very able assistance of Miss McMahon, retiring secretary, who for many years has been a strong standby for the club, and her ever good nature in dealing with professional and amateur. The judges for the forthcoming show to be held May 15th, at the Royal Duke of York's Hussars Armory on Cote des Neiges Rd., will be Matt Korshin, New York, all Terriers, Boston, French and English Bulldogs, Terrier Group and Best in Show. E. C. Westcott, Detroit, Mich., all Sporting and Sporting Group. Mrs. Threfall, St. Lambert, all Toys and Toy Group. Frank C. Stuart, Montreal, all other breeds, Working Group and Non-Sporting.

Not a bit disheartened or discouraged by the recent loss of a litter of three lovely puppies, sired by "Robin Chu of Badminton", Miss B. Cousineau is looking forward to a good future for her Pekingese, "Chu Ku Ta of Wangza", who has already been successfully shown as a puppy, is maturing into an A1 specimen, and great hopes are placed in her career. "Chin Ley of Wang", a sweet little red bitch, combining "Ch. Tong King of Wangza" and "Ch. Wee La Dee", already has been added to the kennel strength and mated to "Robin", should produce something excellent in puppies. Miss Cousineau has been most careful in the selection of her breeding stock—surely she deserves the best.

Mr. Lionel Gaudry, owner of the Pee Kee Kennels, is moving to Laval des Rapids, where the Pekes will have the best in kennel quarters and plenty of ground to exercise in. His good little winner "Pee Kee" has recently served three of his home-bred females. Spring-time will be a busy time at the Pee Kee establishment.

Mrs. A. H. Brander is very pleased with the arrival of two tiny Yorkshire Terriers, sired by "Buckingham's Wedgewood Mist 2nd" out of her "Tootsie Traddles".

"Bicky of Rosedale" was recently sold to Mr. Watson, whilst "Russles of Rosedale" will be kept for future showing.

From Mr. Ralph Preston I am obliged for the following South Shore news: He informs me that Mr. Barclay of St. Lambert, has a truly beautiful litter of Irish Terriers; also that Mrs. Heeley of St. Lambert, has a litter of Wires by "Baaronuer Peter" out of "West Dab Miss Dimples" a fine little bitch, which she purchased from Vivadora Kennels, Toronto. Of this litter one four-months' old puppy was sold to Mr. Raymond of the Drummond Court Apts., who claims it a beautiful show specimen. Mr. Whittey has also purchased "Dunsraven Teddy 2nd" from Mr. Preston an eight-months' old, and contains bloodlines of "Ch. Crackley Startler", "Ch. Crackley Surething", "Ch. Beau Brummel of Wildoaks". Mr. Preston also hopes to make a trip to the Old Country this fall. Mr. Preston concluded with the statement that across the river are to be found many very beautiful dogs. I do believe it, for I have seen many myself.

We will all feel very sorry for Miss Lydia Rafter, who, recently lost her beautiful English Bulldog "Ch. Safety First", apart from his value as a magnificent specimen, he was her own especial pet, which makes his passing so hard.

KENNEL AND BENCH SELLS COCKER SPANIEL

"The distribution of Kennel and Bench is rather surprising. A couple of months ago I ran an ad. concerning parti-color Cocker Spaniels for sale and had a reply from a party in Miami, Fla., who had seen the ad. in Kennel and Bench, and after some correspondence, I yesterday shipped her a red and white male pup, ten months old, by "Ch. Rees the Judge", out of a daughter of "International Ch. Rommilla of Barrie", and am now in the happy position of having my kennel down to minimum and nothing for sale."—Bruce A. E. SETTERS AND POINTER CLUB OF CANADA

New officers were elected and a formal constitution was adopted at the first annual meeting of the Setter and Pointer Club of Canada. C. A. Stone was re-elected Honorary Vice-President; L. C. (Bert) Powell, President; R. R. McLaughlin, of Oshawa, Vice-President; A. Grosart, Secretary, and the following Directors, Jos. Maskie, Mrs. W. G. Camp, Stewart Brownlee, the latter to represent specifically the non-breeder members of the club. A unique feature of the club's constitution, and one which has already been discussed by other specialty clubs, is the appointment of a Commission of Standards. It is the duty of this Commission to observe and report to the club on type and standard developments and to arrange for the instructions of the members of the club in the principles of breeding and judging to standards. The Committee shall be charged with the duty of persuading dog show managements to use only judges approved by the club.

Chas. Clark, Jos. Maskie and L. C. Powell have been appointed the first Commission on Standards. In the discussions of this feature it was pointed out that the club had adopted the American Kennel Club's Standards, and that while it was not the intention to harass judges, there was nevertheless a definite necessity at the present time for the Commission of this sort to work with judges in order to bring about a uniform interpretation of the Standards.

The Directors will meet in the next few weeks to fill vacancies in the list of vice-presidents. These are reserved for non-Toronto Setter and Pointer enthusiasts specifically and the Directors will be glad to accept nominations for these offices. The club will meet again in April, and anyone interested who has not been receiving notices should communicate with the Secretary, Allister Grosart, 21 Dundas Square, Toronto.

DOGGIE FOLKS GATHER

The Boston Terrier Club of Canada held a very successful euchre, March 6th, at the home of the secretary, Mrs. Geo. Brining, 55 Wrenson Road, Toronto, and an enjoyable evening was spent by all who were present.

At the conclusion of the game and after the prizes were distributed to the lucky winners, refreshments were served by the officers, after which all who were present joined in a sing-song, and incidentally some wonderful talent was unearthed, the piano player being a real find.

The party broke up after singing "Old Lang Syne" and "God Save the King", and everybody voted it as being a real good night of fun.

It is the intention of this reliable old club to sponsor an Evening All-Breed Show in the near future, and the fancy will be well advised to watch for announcement of date.

PEKIN PALACESPECIALTY SHOW

Saturday, March 6th, saw The Pekin Palace Dog Association put on their 12th Annual Specialty Show at the Spadina Concert Hall, Toronto. Mrs. J. B. Flynn of Detroit, Mich., U.S.A., was the judge. The layout was very appropriate, the decorated pens adding to the general colour scheme, whilst the trophy table seemed to almost groan with the weight of silverware and other specials on tap. The entry showed a shrinkage from that of previous shows but with twenty-four exhibitors (including four men) represented by fifty-one dogs the standing of the breed appears to be healthy enough. The largest classes of the day were Novice dogs 8, Canadian-bred bitches and Novice bitches 7 each. The well known Champion Tan Fuh of Alderbourne was once more Best of Breed for Mrs. Ethel M. Knight. He was catalogued at quite an attractive price. Winners dog G. L. De Witt's Honey Quin. Winners bitch Mrs. Denyer Morris, Ahkwa of Rivercourt; her approaching family care detracted from her body lines. Best Junior Mrs. M. F. Burrows' Wei Jerhi Miah. Best Puppy Mrs. H. Stroh's Peggy of River Valley.

BY THE JUDGE

The Twelfth Annual Pekingese Specialty Show was held in Spadina Concert Hall, Toronto, Canada, Saturday, March 6th. Fifty-one dogs were entered in 41 classes, and the quality of the dogs was not fast, only a few in coat. Mrs. Strohs exhibited a senior puppy and a junior puppy that were positively the best coated I have seen for some time. Flat faces were stressed, but good bodies were scarce. The dogs seemed in better condition than the bitches. Although some of the dogs were good looking, their mouths were out.

Winners dogs and Best of Winners went to Mrs. G. De Witt, "Honey Mo Quin", a nice biscuit, flat skull, not domed, and a good body, perfect ring manners. Reserve Winners, E. M. Pendlebury's "Shanghai Shang Foo", a nice fawn but not at his best on the day. Winners, female, Mrs. Morris's "Ah-Kena of Rivercourt", lovely texture of coat and nice flat skull, good mouth, very sound in body, although she was in whelp and noticeably calm in her manner, showing well. Reserve Winners, female, Miss Claire Capel's "Khii Chii", a nice female, good coat, nicely put down, good sound mouth.

Best of Breed, a very outstanding Black and Tan in lovely condition—"Ch. Tan Tuh of Alderbourne", owner, Ethel M. Knight.

CORONATION DOG SHOW, TORONTO

The Toronto Ladies' Kennel Association are planning to hold their fourth annual All-Breed Dog Show under C.K.C. rules on May 1st next, in the York Badminton Club, Cawthra Square, off Jarvis Street, Toronto. This is an ideal building, centrally located, with parking space for over 300 cars. The careful selections of judges will, we feel sure, meet the approval of all exhibitors. Our judges are: Mrs. Mary C. Clarke, Niagara Falls, N.Y., Toys and Toy Groups; Mrs. Geo. Allen, Niagara Falls, N.Y., Boston Terriers; Mr. Harry Osborne, Chicago, Ill., all other breeds and Best in Show. Valuable trophies, prizes and prize money will be offered. The club have been untiring in their efforts to offer all breeders every inducement to support this, their Coronation All-Breed Dog Show. All dogs must enter the club by the Monteith Street entrance, off Church Street. Please take note of the above information. Entries will positively close April 26th. Write Mrs. E. Brown, Show Secretary, 10 Birchmount Road, Toronto. Phone Ho. 5462 for premium list. Probable order of judging: 10 a.m., all Toys and Group; 10 a.m. all working dogs, followed by Sporting, Terriers and Non-Sporting Dogs; 7 p.m., Boston Terriers.

C.K.C. DIRECTOR ILL

The many friends of Captain H. Dudley Waters will join in wishing him a speedy recovery from a rather serious illness, which resulted in a hospital operation being performed a few days ago. Attacked suddenly, Captain Waters expressed regrets that his record of seven years' unbroken attendance as a member at the meetings of the Board of Directors of the Canadian Kennel Club, Inc., would suffer by his enforced absence. Latest reports on his condition are very favorable.

PROMINENT AMERICAN PASSES

Mr. Theodore Offerman, of New York City, N.Y., passed away recently, and the American dog fancy lost one of its front line figures. Essentially a Terrier man, and a keen follower of the Airedale Terrier, he had, in addition to judging his favourites at every American show of importance, passed on the breed at the show of the English Kennel Club at the Crystal Palace, London, England. Mr. Offerman was well and favorably known in the Dominion. He judged the first show of the Airedale Terrier Club of Canada in 1917 and later the Canadian National Exhibition saw him again on the woolsack. Mr. Offerman was the judge-elect at the coming Morris and Essex Show. Airedale and Cairn Terriers were his breeds. A fine American gentleman, with a warm spot in his heart for the Canadian fancy, we notice his passing with regret.

BRAVO, CANADA!

Says the Dog World, England

An interesting editorial appears in the above named journal on February 26th, 1937, and states as follows:

"The progressive Canadian Kennel Club, unshackled by any antiquated and out-of-date ideas on the status of women in dogdom, has just made a bold move by—in the 49th year of its existence—appointing to its ranks of legislators a woman. Such a step will be a shock to many, especially the pundits here who are quite agreeable to a woman occupying the Throne and reigning over the British Empire, as well as acting as Cabinet Minister, M.P.'s, etc., but must not take any part in the all-important business of legislating for dogs. And here is what the masculine Editor of "Kennel and Bench," the Canadian doggy paper, has to say on the subject."—See

FANCIER FAMILY BEREAVED

Tragedy struck the home of Mr.
James Eccles, the well-known Secretary of the Hamilton Kennel Club, when Roy, a 15-year old son of the family, died suddenly as the result of severe hemorrhages. To Mr. Eccles (whose health has given his family and friends some concern) and family every sympathy is extended at this time of sorrow. The funeral was held from the home, 75 Harmony Avenue, Hamilton, March 23rd. Juvenile friends of the deceased acted as pallbearers and amongst those present we noticed from Montreal Mr. and Mrs.
W. Diment; Toronto, Mrs. C. B. Fir-man, Mrs. R. McColl, Mr. and Mrs. F.

Blackledge, Mr. W. Blum, Mr. Jas. D.
Strachan and many others.

MRS. E. F. BANBURY OF TORONTO

A member of the Canadian Kennel Club Inc. for more than eighteen years and a consistent breeder of English Bulldogs for even a longer period, the recent death of Mrs. E. F. Banbury removed one of the strongest adherents of the national breed. A real dog lover, the sour mug held the strongest place in her affections. Her friends were legion and Bulldog fans were always assured of a welcome. To her family all sympathy is extended.

WESTERN SCOTTIE COMES EAST

Mr. L. C. Lindsay, of Thornhill, Ontario, has purchased from his breeder, Mr. Thomas Altham of Norwood, Manitoba, "Rosewood Rector", the black brindle son of "Rosehill Rector", by "Ch. Heather Fashion Hint". "Rector's" last outing was at the Greater Winnipeg Kennel Club Show, where

Mr. Walter Reeves awarded him first open, and the Winner's prize. It is Mr. Lindsay's intention to introduce his new purchase at the spring shows.

"Something to Grow On, Please!"

This eager young quartette is hungry. It wants something to grow on. Growth means more than mere size and weight. It means health and vitality as well.

Build up the constitution of your young dog by feeding him the foods which contain the vitamins and minerals necessary for sound development.

To do this use Ross-Miller Dog Foods which contain all the nutritive elements a dog requires, in balanced proportion, prepared under scientific principles with sanitary care. You may vary the diet with a little fresh meat occasionally, but R-M Dog Foods—with plenty of fresh water—contain all the actual nourishment a growing dog needs.

Grocery stores, Department stores and Feed and Seed stores have Ross-Miller Dog Foods. If you experience any difficulty write us direct.

58 MARK LANE
LONDON, E.C. 3

THIS is the sort of dog you'd like. Bright of eye, vigorous wag in tail, happy as the day is long. Fed on Spratt's, of course. A daily meal of Ovals is the secret, giving him the special nourishment that builds bounding health. Most of the big champions have Ovals—the most popular dog biscuits in the world—they'll make a wonderful change in your dog, too.
