THEY KNOW WHAT'S GOOD FOR THEM

Try this experiment—Throw your dog a crust of bread and a Ross-Miller Dog Biscuit. To you, perhaps, the bread crust would look the more appetizing. But not so to your dog. He knows that the biscuit contains the nourishment he needs. Nature tells him. He doesn't know anything about vitamins or minerals. But he enjoys foods which contain vitamins and minerals, and something makes him more pleased and eager when such foods are placed before him. Try your dog with Ross-Miller biscuits.

● GOLDEN JUBILEE

AS the autumn leaves shed their coats of green and take on the multifarious riot of shadings that run to golden, we are reminded that, before nature is again restored to the beauty that we all so much admire, we will be celebrating the Golden Jubilee of the Canadian Kennel Club. The Canadian Kennel Club, as such, will be fifty years old on September 27th, 1938, and much water has passed under the bridge since September 27th, 1888. Having in mind the early struggles of the early officers and members and looking at the structure which has been built up in the interval, we are obliged to admit that the pioneers of Canadian dogdom built better than they knew. If the early officers could go over the Ottawa and Toronto ends of our business today methinks they would, of necessity, be thrilled at what has been accomplished since they had control of the throttle.

In fifty years only twelve Presidents have been elected, and in fifty years only six Secretaries have served the institution. Of the twelve Presidents the late Mr. John G. Kent served continuously for eighteen years. The late Joseph Russell served continuously for eight years. Mr. Justice McFarland gave thirteen years' service as President. The late Mr. H. B. Donovan served twenty-one years as Secretary, and the present incumbent of the Secretary's office has served for a trifle more than eighteen years. Surely these terms of service speak eloquently for those who have been privileged to serve. Should "Lady Luck" continue to smile on our organization for a further fifty years, then, those who are active in 1988 will continue to hold in the highest regard the officers of a century ago.

The Golden Jubilee programme must be representative of the Club's progress for fifty years and no doubt it will be.

● THE GREAT CANADIAN BREDS

WE had fondly imagined that every thrill the showing of dogs could provide had been ours at one time or another, but the awarding of Best in Show at the recent Canadian National Exhibition Show to the Old English Sheepdog, "Champion Ideal Weather", provided a new thought and forced an admission on ourselves that "top honours", with whatever satisfaction they may bring, with a home-bred had never fallen to our lot. Confining ourselves to the show under notice and looking back over the last two decades we find in 1918 Messrs. G. and E. Ward's Airedale Terrier, "Silver Birch Banker", was awarded Best in Show; he was not home-bred, however, that honour being claimed by a Mr. Wright, the then manager of the Toronto Municipal Abattoir. Ten years later, in 1928, the Springer Spaniel, "Champion Marvel of Avandale", bred and owned by Mr. E. Chevrier, of Winnipeg, was awarded Best in Show, and in 1933 the Pom, "Champion Melbourne Supremacy", bred and owned by Mrs. J. W. Bruce, of Toronto, received the top honour. Then comes the hero of last month, "Champion Ideal Weather", bred and owned by Mr. Leonard Collins, also of Toronto. Knocking at memory's door is yet another great Canadian-bred, the Bulldog, "Champion Prince of Wales II", who captured the Best in Show honour in 1925, but he at that time was not owned by his breeder. Then we hark back to what so many of us have missed, and what an incentive must be provided in the aim to breed and show the winner of Best in Show at the Canadian National Exhibition.

ONTARIO BIRD DOG ASSOCIATION

The annual meeting of the above association took place at the Hotel London, London, Ontario on September 12th. The business of the meeting was the annual election of officers and the arranging of fall trials. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President, Col. W. H. Singer, Niagara-On the Lake.

1st Vice-Pres., W. D. Elliott, Owen Sound.

2nd Vice-Pres., Judge C. M. Costello, Goderich.

3rd Vice-Pres., G. G. Vincent, Port Nelson.

4th Vice-Pres., Norman Brownley, Ottawa.

5th Vice-Pres., Dr. E. Bice, London.

Executive, Wallace Brown, Toronto; C. W. Meakins, Hamilton; A. H. Reynolds, London; Ed. McCoy, Hamilton; D. T. Barnes, Mitchell.

Sec.-Treas., G. W. Boag, Woodstock.

Rec. Secy., Mrs. Lillian Baines, London.

The meeting was a most enthusiastic one, members being present from all parts of Ontario and we are looking forward to a very big year for this association. Many new faces were in attendance and from all reports there will be no shortage of dogs or birds for our events. The trials this year will be an open derby Open All Age and an Ontario Championship Stake to be run on October 30th and 31st. The Judges will be Fred. Jeffries of London and V. E. Green of Hamilton. All sportsmen interested in Bird-Dogs are invited to attend. Valuable trophies will be presented to the winners. Further information regarding entries, accommodation, horses, etc., will be gladly supplied on writing to G. W. Boag, Secretary, 251 Light St., Woodstock, Ont.

The Irish Setter

The breeds of dogs devoted to field and sport have no more popular member than the Irish Setter. He was established in the land of his origin as early as the 18th century, and in 1796 the then Earl of Enniskillen of County

Fermanagh had a remarkable collection of the breed. Down through the years and previous to the dog show era he was recognized as an indispensable member and a valuable competitor at the Shoots and Field Trials. In the year 1860 the first class for Irish Setters was provided at Birmingham, England, and from then on the handsome, good-looking son of Erin came into his own. As in other breeds there is bound to be an ancestral wonder dog to which those of today owe more than words can tell. Such a dog was "Palmerston", and it is fitting here to include the eulogy by that eminent authority, Dr. William Jarvis of Claremont, N.H., on this great dog from Watson, Vol. I, and also a description of the breed from the same pen.

"The next dog of note was Dr. Stone's "Dash", but when "Palmerston" came out he eclipsed everything. "Palmerston" was a dog well on in years when he fell into the hands of Mr. Hilliard for show purposes. He was bred by Mr. Cecil Moore who had large shootings and kept his Red Setters for that purpose. When "Palmerston" was shown it was impossible to give his date of birth, and that is 'not known' on the records. He was out of "Kate", a bitch shown by a Mr. Cochrane at Birmingham in 1871, without a pedigree or any particulars and with which he won first. "Palmerston" was bred by Mr. Moore before Cochrane got "Kate", and he was seven years old before Mr. Hillard got him for show purposes. When he was shown at Belfast in 1875 Mr. Sandell, better known to many as "Caractacus", and who was associated with Messrs. Lort and Walker as judges, stated that the scales which had for so long been unbalanced as to Irish Setter type were no longer. So struck was he by "Palmerston" and such of his get as he then saw, that he obtained an interest in him and later on was in charge of the dog when he was being exhibited in England. His breeding is not properly stated in the English stud book and should be as follows: By Cecil Moore's "Grouse" out of "Kate", by Mr. Hazzard's "Grouse" out of his "Belle", by the Earl of Enniskillen's "Grouse". Mr. Moore's "Grouse" by Mr. Evan's "Shot" out Mr. Loyd's "Kate".

"He was a revelation to Irish Setter breeders, as were his daughters "Kate", "Kittie", "Mina", "Bella" and "Rose", and believing that this blood would be of benefit I commissioned a well-known expert to purchase for me the best "Palmerston" bitch he could, to cross with "Elcho", which I had recently purchased from the St. Louis Kennel Club. Six months later my agent wrote: 'At last I have got the thing to suit you, and am well repaid for waiting. I have purchased Cecil Moore's "Rose", an own sister of O'Brien's "Kate" and "Kittie", and to MacHaffie's "Mina" and "Bella." She is in point of quality next to O'Brien's "Kate", and has the loveliest head of the lot, without "Kate's" can equal it, but she certainly is before her other sisters. I really think you never saw such a head on a bitch as that of "Rose", while for colour she can't be excelled."

"The typical Irish Setter stands a little higher than either the English or Gordon Setter and is very thoroughbred in appearance. His head is long, lean, narrow, high over the forehead and prominent at the occiput, the muzzle of good length, the lips deep but not too pendulous. There should be a well defined and cleanly chiselled stop; the ears should be set low and lightly feathered, hanging closely to the head, and reaching, when extended, nearly to the end of the nose, which should be dark in colour; a light flesh-coloured nose, though possessed by some dogs of good breeding, is by no means desirable. The eyes should be hazel or rich brown, not a gooseberry colour; soft and gentle when at rest, but full of fire and animation when aroused. The neck long, lean, clearly defined where it joins the head and set well into a pair of sloping shoulders. Elbows well let down, forelegs straight and feet well supplied with their hair between the toes and with thick sound pads. Chest deep, rather narrow in front, but with plenty of lung room; ribs well sprung; loin arched and strong; stifles well bent and thighs broad and muscular. The hips are somewhat ragged but indicate great power. A tail of moderate length tapering to a point and carried with no twist or curl. The coat should be short and flat, but soft to the touch and like spun silk where it extends into what is technically called feathering.

"The colour of the Irish Setter is like the red of polished mahogany, with no yellowish cast, but 'In gloss and hue the chestnut, when the shell divides three-fold to show the fruit within.' This red, which may vary from a bright shade to a deep rich hue, belongs exclusively and by right of inheritance to the Irish Setter, and excepting a little white that appears occasionally on the head, chest or feet of many good specimens, is the only legitimate colour."

Description and Standard of Points
(By Courtesy of The Irish Setter Club of America)

Head.—Should be long and lean. The skull oval (from ear to ear) having plenty of brain room and with well-defined occipital protuberance. Brows raised, showing stop. The muzzle moderately deep and fairly square at end. from the stop to the point of the nose should be long, the nostrils wide and the jaws of nearly equal length, flews not to be pendulous. The colour of the nose dark mahogany or dark chocolate and that of the eyes (which ought not to be too large) rich hazel or brown. The ears to be moderate size, fine in texture, set on low, well back and hanging in a neat fold close to the head.

Neck.—Should be moderately long, very muscular but not too thick, slightly arched, free from all tendency to throatiness.

Body.—Should be proportionately long, shoulders fine at the points, deep and sloping well back. The chest deep, rather narrow in front. The ribs well sprung, leaving plenty of lung room. The loins muscular and slightly arched. The hindquarter wide and powerful.

Legs and Feet.—The hindlegs from hip to hock should be long and muscular, from hock to heel short and strong. The stifle and hock joints well bent, and not inclined either in or out.

The forelegs should be strong and sinewy, having plenty of bone, with elbows free, well let down and like the hock not inclined either out or in. The feet rather small, very firm, toes strong, close together and arched.

Tail.—Should be of moderate length, set on rather low, strong at root and tapering to a fine point; to be carried in a slight scimitar-like curve or straight, nearly level with the back.

Coat.—On the head, front of legs and tips of ears should be short and fine, but on all other parts of the body it should be of moderate length, flat and as free as possible from curl or wave.

Feathering.—The feather on the upper portion of the ears should be long and silky, on the back of fore and hindlegs long and fine, a fair amount of hair on belly, forming a nice fringe, which may extend on chest and throat. Feet to be well feathered between the toes. Tail to have a nice fringe of moderately long hair, decreasing in length as it approached the point. All feathering to be as straight and as flat as possible.

Colour and Markings.—The colour should be a rich golden chestnut or mahogany red, with no trace whatever of black; white on chest, throat or toes, or a small star on the forehead, or a narrow streak, or blaze on the nose or face not to disqualify.

The Canadian Fancy

By Contributing Editor
WALTER H. REEVES
156 Bridge Street East, Belleville, Ont.

AS the summer circuits draw to a close whenever we who are interested foregather the conversation always seems to lead up to some of the judges and their placings at recent shows. I am, of course, referring to Canadian shows. As I have often written, if there were no differences of opinion, shows would soon be like the horse and buggy, things of the past. Judges always have and always will be criticized. Mr. J. H. Walsh, "Stonehenge", the editor of The Field Newspaper, in Dogs of the British Isles published in 1882, refers to judging at dog shows as follows: "It is needless for us to return to the much vexed questions relating to the discrepancies between the decisions given on the merits of competing dogs at the various exhibitions of those animals which are now so common as to occupy largely with their reports from week to week throughout the year. That they exist is admitted by all who are in the slightest way acquainted with the facts and that they are much to be lamented is equally to be taken for granted. The subject for our present lamentable state of things is to be avoided or reduced within reasonable limits, for no one can expect absolute uniformity in any machinery composed of fallible human beings." Stonhenge continues and gives particulars of what he describes as discrepancies of judging and after a long and somewhat tedious dissertation, far too long to give in my pages, winds up his argument by suggesting point judging. Now it was my privilege as a boy to see quite a lot of point judging by two great judges, the late Geo. Raper and L. P. C. Astley, and they both admitted to me that the dog usually winning by point judging should not have won. We have also seen some point judging during recent years and I remember one very well known expert from abroad who was officiating at one of the American shows who held up the group judging owing to the fact that he could not select his Best of Breed owing to the fact that he had scored several of the competitors with an exact similar number of points.

There is an extremely able article written by Miss M. M. Moore, the Editor of Popular Dogs, from which I quote the following:—

"Of course all judges are not of the same calibre; there are those who judge well, and those who judge otherwise, according to their knowledge. But here's the rub: they meet with criticism whether their work is good or bad! Their critics are few in number but vociferous; the easy-going majority's approval is tacit—therein lies the seeming prevalence of dissatisfaction with the adjudicators. To draw a parallel, in the same way divorce upheavels, spotlighted for the public eye, serve to obscure thousands of happy marriages whose newslessness keeps them in the background.

"It is easy to listen to this criticism, to take the unreasonable with the reasonable and be influenced by it. For we are prone to forget that judges deserve far more credit than they get for their judging and their very willingness to undertake it. They work hard under any and all conditions of weather, ring location, exhibitor reaction, and with selfless disregard of their own feelings. They devote a great amount of time and energy to their examinations. They abide by the rules. They endeavour to be honest, fearless, and on the whole they are capable. They are unfailingly courteous, patient with those who keep them waiting in the ring and encouraging to novices. They do their best to keep their judging up to the schedule even though they may have had too large an entry, or too many hold-ups in getting classes assembled, to do this comfortably.

"But, above all, they do what they think is right. Be sure that no judge —be he breed specialist or all-rounder, amateur or professional—wants to turn in a poor performance. What credit is that to the game or to himself? No, in all cases he gives of his best. And many times this best meets with disfavour only because it is viewed in the wrong prespective; because, blinded by a particular decision's importance to himself or his friends, the exhibitor loses sight of the performance as a whole."

John C. Zimmerman, the well-known Doberman breeder in the same issue of Popular Dogs, writes on the problem of choosing Doberman judges. He states that:—

"There are but two classifications of judges: all-rounder and specialty. We can expand that to include "nice fellow", "newcomer breeder", "home-town", "foreign"—and on into the night designating titles. At any rate, whatever title you choose to identify a breed judge by, the whole situation comes down to this: does the judge know the Doberman Standard or does he make one up as he goes along? Whether he be all-rounder or specialty judge, it still remains: does he interpret the breed Standard in his selections? Or is he noted for "Whippety type" approval and rather inclined toward Dobermans insufficient in working dog qualifications?

"All-rounders through their constant opportunity should know soundness, substance, conformation, but more than this they should interpret the requirements of the Doberman Standard if they are to correctly judge the breed. And this several of them do not do. Perhaps in view of this the specialty judge, breeder judge, or whatever you choose to call him, is the "best bet" as a judging selection for the preservation of true working type. Dobermans with ample bone, plenty of depth of chest, rib spring, strong backs; substance throughout that expresses power, and conformation of the whole structure portraying health, ancestry and correct future propagation.

"It must be remembered, however, that all show giving clubs cannot afford to employ a specialty judge for but one breed unless the entry is of sufficient size to warrant the selection. So we are faced with the "home-town" adjudicator. Here again the question is: does he know the Standard and will he interpret it correctly?"

The last paragraph applies to our Canadian shows for very few of them are able to stand the expense of engaging specialty judges and an all-rounder.

The present day all-rounder has to know the points of far more breeds than ten or fifteen years ago with so many new breeds being exhibited, and unless he has lived and officiated in Europe one can hardly expect him to be familiar with the salient points of, we will say the Briards, Great Pyrenees, the Kuvasz or the Pulis, but it is only reasonable, but surely any all-rounder should be familiar with the Bulldog, and to say the least it is somewhat disconcerting to the exhibitor to be informed when asking for information as to the reason his exhibit was beaten to be informed by the judge that he objected the "roach". This actually occurred.

The Canadian Fancy is by no means a rich fancy and the fees asked by the leading all-rounders is at at times more than many show executives are able to pay. W. Pym, our Vice-President, makes an excellent suggestion which is worthy of attention. He writes:—

"For some time I have been en-

PRODUCT OF OLD ENGLAND

Lactol is a superior type of concentrated dog food in powder form. Mixed with hot water it is particularly useful for young dogs and rearing puppies after they are weaned. It is good also for the mothers, both before and after pups are born. Mixed with meat and vegetables it is ideal for grown dogs, too. It contains Vitamin D, which is essential to the development of bones and teeth. Exhibitors at British dog shows are great users of Lactol. It puts dogs in good coat. For sale at drug stores, department stores and dog shops. If there is no dealer near you, write to the Canadian Agents, Ralph W. Barton & Co., Limited, 137 Wellington St. West, Toronto.

deavouring to educate the show-giving clubs along the Pacific Coast to the idea of co-operating with each other to the extent of co-ordinating their dates so that it would be possible to have good men make a given circuit of shows at a profit to all concerned. As an example: Supposing you had a show in Winnipeg, Vancouver and California with harmonizing dates, you could make the circuit on one round trip ticket, and the shows would still be far enough apart to avoid it being necessary for exhibitors to always show under the same judge. One club cannot afford the cost of bringing a first-class man from the east."

We have too few shows at present in Canada to educate our all-rounders. It was suggested to me the other day that before granting judging licenses the Canadian Kennel Club should first insist on a test of the applicant's knowledge and the test should not be made in the applicant's territory where he would be familiar with the leading winners and their respective placings at recent shows. Our present system of granting first a permit and if there is no dissatisfaction afterwards, a license, is no test of the ability of the neophyte if his permit is used to judge a local show. Personally I never saw this point until it was brought to my notice. The other live stock exhibitors have an excellent way of finding out judging talent with their judging tests, and personally I believe it would help if we tried their methods in our sport.

The New Set-up of Kennel and Bench

With this issue of Kennel and Bench, the Editor is trying at my suggestion an entirely new set-up. The writer has always felt that many items of breed news were not getting the publicity they deserved. In these busy days we who are interested in Fox Terriers living in Ontario might miss an item of great interest appearing under "Manitoba Notes". How do you like the new "set-up". Let me know whether your criticism is favourable or otherwise.

OUR FRONTISPIECE

The Springer Spaniel, "Int. Ch. Dormond Rascal".

The week-end of Saturday and Sunday, September 11th and 12th, saw the subject of this notice acquire full championship honors under the rules of the Canadian Kennel Club, Inc., and the American Kennel Club in a blaze of glory at two shows, viz., Saturday, Hamilton, Ontario, and on Sunday at the Erie County Field Dog Club Show, Buffalo, N.Y. At the former show she was accompanied by her daughter, "Canaline Comet", who won 1st Puppy bitch.

"Dormond Rascal" was purchased just a year ago by Mr. Gudgeon when she claimed seven points towards her American title. In the interim she has successfully carried out family duties to a family of five sired by "Ch. Marol Masquerader", of which the aforementioned, "Canaline Comet", was a member, attained full championship honors in Canada and completed her American title as before stated. "Rascal" is a substantial kind, excelling in head, neck, front, shoulders and character. Her family tree includes the names of such pillars of the breed as "Int. Ch. Inveresk Collyshot", "Int. Ch. Inveresk Cocksure", "Int. Ch. Marol Daphne" "Int. Ch. Inveresk Chancellor" (twice), and "Ch. Belmoss Fleur of Oxford" in three generations. Her Canadian honors were won at the show of the Capt. Frederick Bond Chapter, Guelph, Ont., Canadian National Exhibition, Toronto, and Hamilton Kennel Club Show, Hamilton, Ont. Her victories at American shows were at Niagara Falls, N.Y. (twice), Tuxedo, Detroit and the Erie County Field Dog Club Show, Buffalo.

NEWS

BON VOYAGE

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bateman, Henderson Highway, East Kildonan, Winnipeg, was the scene of a happy event on Saturday, August 28th, where a number of our Manitoba Director's (Geo. Kynoch) friends gathered together to bid him a happy voyage on his visit to the old land, and to commemorate the occasion he was presented with a beautiful wrist watch, with his initals engraved on the back. Everybody present had a most enjoyable time, and I think Denny Martin stole the show with his singing and dancing. It is thirty-four years since Mr. Kynoch left Scotland, and we all know he will find it very strange when he first gets over there. During his absence his business is in capable hands and will continue to thrive in the same fashion it has done for some time.

CALIFORNIA DOGS INVADE B.C. SHOWS

It was a pleasure to see such a good lot of quality dogs sent up here to our summer circuit, and to the owners of these fine dogs, their handlers, Mr. Vince Martin and Mr. Athis Nilson of California, congratulations are due you for your invasion. Mr. Martin brought ten dogs in his string, headed by the Doberman, "Ch. Jockel Von Burgund"; the Afghan, "Champion Garrymhor Kishtwar"; the Int. Ch. Irish Terrier, "Newtownards Daredevil"; the imported Smooth Fox Terrier, "Solus Finalist"; the Cairn, "Ch. Gallant Man of Tapscot"; the Miniature Schnauzer, "Ch. Joshua of Marienhof"; the Welsh Terrier, "Champion Winnie of Wilgor"; the Poodle, "Ch. Harpendale Monte of Blakeem"; the Scottie, "Bothkennar Fashion Plate"; and the Cocker, "Blue Donald Dean", whilst Mr. Nilsen had the Afghan, "Champion Barberry Hill Charlie"; the Dachsie, "Champion Mops of Fairacres"; the Doberman, "Simone of Maysimo"; and the Poodle Champion, "Roulette of Fairacres" . . . Only in the Toy Group, won by Mrs. E. Bradley's Pomeranian, "Ch. Tiny Hatma" and the Sporting Groups, won by Mr. Butler's Springer, "Butlers Flirt" on the first show and Mr. Jack Forbes' Irish Setter, "Strathbogie Red Mac" on the last day's show, and in the Hound Group on the first day's show Mr. William H. Pym's Beagle, "Champion River Park Hotspur", did local dogs make a show in the Group and Best in Show awards, the remainder of these Groups going to the American dogs.

Mr. "Vic." W. Williams sends the following: On perusing last month's report of the Directors' meeting of the Canadian Kennel Club it is interesting to see the growing feeling manifesting itself to such an extent that it is proposed to submit an amendment to Dog Show Rules which would have for its objective the endorsing by the Board of Directors of all judging material selected by the show-giving clubs before such material would be permitted to function in the ring at shows held under Canadian Kennel Club Rules. "Better late than never", but it's time a move was made in this direction, and the entries at our shows are the most conclusive evidence that a change from the present set-up is badly needed.

The writer is not making any reference to the Duncan or Nanaimo Shows as the Judges, Messrs. Hopton and Thomas, promised to give their own report on the shows they judged. Both shows were a success and much credit is due the workers of both clubs. We hope these two clubs have made out well from a financial point of view in order to assure future shows.

Our two exhibition shows here this year were judged by Mr. H. Osborne on the first two days and by Messrs. W. H. Pym and Norman McConnel on the second Labor Day Show; a record gate attendance was made and there appears to be an increasing interest in Man's Best Friend—MR. DOG.

Mr. and Mrs. Droppo, of Moose Jaw, Sask., paid Saskatoon a very welcome visit during the holiday. Mrs. Droppo intends leaving shortly for Idaho, where she will spend a three months' holiday with her parents. A promised fishing trip on Idaho's beautiful lakes is one of the many things she is looking forward to enjoying.

Saskatchewan dog fanciers will regret to hear that Mr. S. Saidman, owner of the Heavensgate Kennels, has shaken the Sask. dust off his heels to take up permanent residence in Winnipeg, Man.

On Sept. 9th, the Saskatoon Kennel Club held their annual meeting for the election of officers for the coming year. Mr. A. G. Goddard was unanimously re-elected as President of the club; Robert Hogg was also re-elected as Vice-President; Mrs. M. Wallace as Secretary; Dr. J. T. Cooper as Treasurer; Dr. M. D. French, Honorary President, and C. Hanselman as Honorary Vice-President. The new executive consists of: S. Webb, E. Lambert, J. Lawson, J. Block, Mrs. Bevis and P. Randall.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Laing, of Regina, initiated their new car by taking a trip to North and South Dakota, visiting on their way many kennels of Pekes and Cockers. They were very pleased over the dogs they had seen, also over the warm reception from the owners of the kennels visited.

We learn with much regret the passing of a dear old friend, J. M. "Mort" Alldritt, of Winnipeg. Mr. Alldritt passed away very suddenly recently. While of late years he had not been enjoying the best of health, he was able to attend his work every day. Possibly no man in the West was better known in the "dog" game than Mort. In the days gone by he has bred some good ones; his fancy being Fox Terriers. Of late years he has not been breeding and exhibiting on a large scale, but nevertheless he has kept his kennel of Wires intact, and right up to the end was enthusiastic as ever. We extend our deepest sympathy to his daughter and two sons. Mrs. Alldritt pre-deceased him some years ago.

The regular monthly meeting of the Scottish Terrier Club of Canada, held in the Hotel Majestic, on the 1st was fairly well attended, the President, T. Kay MacKenzie, in the chair. Special prizes were donated for competition among members at St. John, N.B. An attractive schedule was drawn up for the winter season. A lady, Mrs. Lindsay, of Regina, was enrolled as a member, and an increased membership is anticipated.

FROM MANITOBA

We were reading an article the other day written by an eminent British authority on livestock breeding and thought while it didn't apply entirely to dogs, we believed there was something of interest in it so far as their breeding was concerned. For this reason we give the article in part.

"Small litters constitute a problem which crops up every now and then in every herd of any size. Far too often the conclusion is that the inherited breeding capacity of the parents is at fault. Fecundity is looked on as solely a genetic characteristic, which it is, only in part. A small litter of only 2 or 3 is a symptom that something is wrong but the cause requires careful diagnosis and more than the breeding history should be examined. When the female is really responsible for the small numbers it is more likely that the time of service has in some way been faulty. When the eggs are shed from the ovaries they travel down a tube to the uterus or womb, where, if they have fertilized they become attached to the walls.

"Fertilization should take place, however, in the passage down the tube.

If the service takes place too soon in the heat period the eggs will not have travelled far enough down the tubes and the spermatoza will not survive long enough to travel up to them. When service is too late the opposite condition prevails and some of the eggs may no longer be capable of fertilization. On the other hand, the male may be responsible and in various ways, occasionally it happens that the semen of the male gets out of condition for a few weeks and may return to normal. The causes of this condition are not too clear; the use of drugs, however, calculated to stimulate the sexual instincts of the male, are not to be recommended. There is little satisfactory evidence that the use of such drugs really improve matters. One litter of itself obviously cannot be taken as a criterion of the breeding capacity of an animal, still less is there reason to suppose that the fecundity of an animal which comes from a litter of 2 or 3 is any less than one from a litter of 12, if the parents are the same."

We think the above article in its application to dogs is particularly applicable so far as the time of service is concerned and while many of us are not altogether in favour of large litters, it is well for us to know what breeding rules are apt to govern large or small litters.

STRANGE EPIDEMIC IN MARITIMES

There has been, and still is, considerable illness amongst the puppies and young dogs in and about this district. No proper diagnosis of this disease has yet been made which, although appearing to be a form of distemper, does not yield to distemper treatment and is characterized by severe eye trouble and fits. Post-mortems of several cases have shown intestinal decay and we learn that about ninety per cent of the local cases have been fatal.

Mr. Fred O'Connell appears to have been the greatest loser as a result of this epidemic and we are sorry to have to report another victim, the black and white Cocker Spaniel bitch referred to in our notes of last month. This beautiful youngster was sired by Mr. O'Connell's "Duke of Gorsebrook" and was out of his "Thetford Joan", and was a granddaughter of Am. and Can. Ch., "Mistover Tug O'War". Owing to the many good qualities in evidence at even such an early age and her great resemblance to her well-known grandsire, Mr. O'Connell had intended retaining this attractive little bitch for show purposes and had already refused offers for her purchase.

LIPSTICK, ETC., ETC.

It is interesting to note articles appearing in various fashion journals and weekly newspapers regarding winning dogs owned by some Canadian exhibitors, particularly so as methods of trimming and beautifying the dogs are described and illustrated. The use of lipstick, grease, paint, etc., is described in detail until some of those of us who have followed the shows for the past decade, and have read the rules regarding what not to do when showing a dog, are wondering if it is not possible that we have been lax in taking advantage of our privileges, insofar as we have been in the habit of taking our dogs into the ring in a more or less natural condition, minus the beauty aids. It appears that here might be the answer to why certain judges have regarded some of us with open suspicion when we have shown Terriers with good colored, hard, wiry coats that have not had the "benefits" of the beauty treatments referred to but have been the result of a good stiff brush applied with much "elbow grease".

DOG THIEVES ACTIVE IN MARITIMES

Dog thieves are again active in this district and I learn that the latest victims were Mr. W. G. Smith of the Maritime Kennels who lost a Wire Fox Terrier bitch that was still nursing a litter. Also a report from John Pearl who advises that his Bloodhound, "Bluenose Blacksmith", has been stolen. This dog was a Group Winner at the Bedford Kennel Club Show last July.

CANADIAN KENNEL CLUB 50TH ANNIVERSARY

Next year the Canadian Kennel Club will be celebrating its fiftieth anniversary. When I look at the walls at the Club and see the photographs of the men who have done so much to help along the sport of breeding and showing dogs, I often wonder whether the members realize how much the Canadian Kennel Club has done for the sport. Probably they may be told at some future date by the one man who knows, Jimmy Strachan. Arrangements I know are being made by the directors to commemorate the 50th anniversary, but a thought came to me whilst judging at Tuxedo show, which is held under canvas, that if only all the many Ontario Clubs would co-operate they could hold a great one-day show under canvas. How about it? Don't let's wait until 1938, but start making plans now. I am sure we can bench the largest show of dogs ever held in Canada for a one-day show. With liberal prize money and specials such a show would attract a big entry from our good friends across the border.

Several Alberta fanciers have been combining business (of showing their dogs) with pleasure by spending their vacations attending dog shows west of the Rockies both north and south of the international boundary. Among these were Lt.-Col. David Ritchie, of Calgary, and Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Clutton, of Edmonton. Not having learned complete results of these shows, we will not attempt to give any detail until a later issue.

Rumors are around to the effect that there is more than a possibility of an Edmonton fancier springing a surprise in Western doggy circles by producing a specimen of a breed which we do not think is represented at the present time in the Western provinces.

By the time this appears in print the Ladies' Kennel Club of Canada show will have passed into history. From all accounts, it looks to be a large show. Everyone has contributed so much towards its success—The Williams Thomas Ltd., the Montreal Tramways, the Radio Corp., and many others; one and all have more than done their share to make this show a great success. There will be shown a new breed of Clydesdale Terrier, possibly this is the first time such a breed has been shown in Canada—am not aware of any others. Will we next have the Percherons? From all accounts this show will bring out some breeds rarely seen except at large dog shows.

The very regrettable news of the death of Mrs. J. F. Cooke, Calgary, on Saturday, August 14th, reached us just too late for the last issue. Mrs. Cooke had been in ill health for the greater part of the year and the sympathy of all Calgary fanciers was extended to Mr. Cooke in his great loss. And now comes the sad news that Mr. Cooke passed away just ten days after his wife, his death coming as a great shock to all the members of the Alberta Kennel Club. The genuine qualities that Mr. Cooke possessed will never be forgotten by those who came in contact with him.

A correspondent from Calgary says: "Many of the local fanciers are now getting busy lining up their records with the object of presenting them to the records office for registration under the new clause which has recently been put into effect. This is a welcome action on the part of the records board and the Canadian Kennel Club directors, which has been looked for by many fanciers for a long time, and will now enable them to register their dogs, which, in turn, will be an asset to the dog fancy in general, and allow fanciers to benefit by the breeding of several dogs which are a credit to their respective breeds."

It is with deep regret I have to report the death of Mr. John Steer, of Montreal. Am quite sure our sympathy goes out to Mrs. Steer and her son and daughter.

The writer recently received a letter from Mr. W. A. Childs, of Saskatoon, in which he pays a real tribute to a fellow Smooth Fox Terrier fancier, the late Harry Price, who passed away in Calgary some time ago. Mr. Childs says it was either during the winter of 1931 or 1932 that he was in Calgary and visited Mr. Price's kennels to see "Int. Ch. Oltee Lenpal". Mr. Price was busy in his cabinet shop but on learning his visitor's name and of his interest in Smooths, he gladly left his work and brought out several Terriers for inspection, all of which were in nice condition, and last of all he brought "Ch. Oltee Lenpal". From that time until Mr. Price's death they corresponded frequently and had several deals in dogs. Mr. Childs particularly mentions a very friendly letter he received from Mr. Price shortly before his death and feels that it is men of his character that help to make the keeping of dogs a glorious hobby.

BACK IN THE OLD HOME TOWN?

By S. W. Foster

Having lived in the West for more years than we care to think, during which time many very pleasant associations have been formed through the medium of the dog game, it is only to be expected that we should follow with much interest the notes from the Western provinces. Being a former Maritimer, however, we follow with somewhat different, though none the less intense interest, the news from down by the sea, and an item which particularly caught our attention in the Sept. issue, and on which we could not refrain from commenting, even at the risk of having it considered a little irregular, was one with reference to the forming of a Pictou Co. Kennel Club and telling of a meeting held in the Vendome Hotel, New Glasgow, where it was agreed that the Pictou Co. Club would hold a dog show the latter part of September or early in October. Yes, folks, you have guessed it, Pictou is our native county, and while there is little doubt that now, after more than a quarter of a century, one would find a very great change of places and faces along New Glasgow's main stern, one feature at least rings true which is that the old "Vendome" is still the place where good fellows meet as it was in those other days. Well do we remember it as headquarters for lovers of horses and dogs, as well as for leaders in all lines of sport. Indeed, that little paragraph has turned back the pages of time, and, at the moment, can think of few things we would rather do than be in attendance at a dog show sponsored by the Pictou County Kennel Club.

GOOD FELLOWS GET TOGETHER AT WINNIPEG

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wade, the Scottish Terrier fanciers, was the venue of the after show gathering which was well attended. Refreshments were served and Jack Cook in his own inimitable style welcomed the visitors from out-of-town. Responses were made by Mrs. Pat Randall, Saskatoon, the Sask. Editor for Kennel and Bench; Mrs. Bobby Laing, Regina; and the genial Bob Dunsire, Brandon. Vocular talent was running wild, the contributors being, Mrs. Bobby Joplin, Mrs. E. Anderson, Aleck Gostick, Johnny Currie, and Bill Chatterton, with Mrs. Bater at the piano, while Danny Martin gave of his best old favourites, and relieved the pianist at times by playing some real old favourites. The dance floor was at all times crowded and a most happy evening drew to a close, with the thanks of all to our host and hostess.

Mr. Harry A. (Diamond) Wilson, of Toronto, suffered a sudden illness recently, which in its development reached such proportions that an operation became necessary. We are pleased to state that Mr. Wilson is making a satisfactory, though slow recovery. His many friends will join us in wishing him a complete return to robust health.

SHOWS

The Canadian Fox Terrier Association Annual Show, under the rules of the Canadian Kennel Club, Inc., and embracing all breeds of Terriers, will be held on Saturday, November 13th, at Toronto.

This event is always one of the most interesting early in the winter fixtures and is always valuable in providing a trial trip preceding the National Kennel Club Show which opens on November 22nd. The judge for all breeds is Miss Lena Shortt, of Lambeth, Ontario, and those responsible are to be congratulated on this choice. Miss Shortt is well and favourably known in Terrier circles on both sides the line and the entry should be a bumper one.—(See advt.).

The Regina Kennel Club have decided to give lectures on the different breeds of dogs after every monthly meeting. The first meeting will be held in September, when Boston Terriers will be the subject of discussion. Mr. Turner will bring two Bostons for the purpose of lecturing on them and to pass his judgment on the breed. The idea of these meetings will be to encourage fanciers and breeders to know more about the dogs they are raising, to improve on the breeds; also to boost the membership of the club.

Mr. J. Masterman, of Winnipeg, Man., has made the generous offer of a special prize for the Saskatoon Spring Show, which was thankfully received by the club.

The Regina Kennel Club are very grateful to Bobby Thompson, of Calgary, for his kind offer of a cup for the Spring Show.

The Victoria City Kennel Club Show, scheduled to take place on October 30th, promises to be the best yet. Judges appointed for this fixture are, Mr. Joe Dodds, All Breeds with the exception of Terriers, which will be judged by Mr. A. W. Forbes, of Tacoma, Washington. The Junior League Dog Show will be held in Vancouver on November 20th. I have not been informed officially who will judge this fixture but there is no doubt but what the Junior Leagurers will again stage a large show and as all proceeds are donated to charity a bumper entry is anticipated.

The regular monthly meeting of the Fort Garry Kennel Club was held in the Free Press Board Room on the 3rd, President Harley in the chair. Judges were appointed for the forthcoming one-day show to be held on the 11th October in Winnipeg. Mr. H. H. Allan, all Terriers other than Boston; Mr. Percy Biller, Boston Terriers; Mr. F. A. Walsh, all other Breeds and Specials. Further actions in regard to show were discussed and approved of, then meeting adjourned.

NOTES

The 29th Annual Dog Show of the New Brunswick Kennel Club was held in Saint Andrew's Rink, Saint John, N.B., September 6, 7, 8, and judging by the remarks of exhibitors from outside points, it would appear that this year's show has been the most successful in the history of the Club. Much of the credit for this is due R. C. Vaughan, Past President, and S. E. Kominsky, Secretary, who gave unstinctingly of their time and efforts.

With over 150 dogs benched the popular and extremely competent Alfred Delmont, of Wynnwood, Pa., had a busy 3 days. Mr. Delmont, who enjoys the reputation of being a top notcher, has been associated with the dog game since 1892, when he opened his first kennel in Boston, Mass., and who since that time has become an International Judge, officiated at his first New Brunswick Show in 1915, returning twice since then. A hearty reception was tendered Mr. Delmont, who has made many friends on his trips to Saint John.

Three local fanciers added laurels to their kennels as a result of this fixture. Mrs. R. C. Vaughan's Black Cocker bitch, "Cedar Grove Dolly". S. E. Kominsky's Wire Fox Terrier, "Hallwyre Hardy Punch", and the writer's Pointer, "Mayfly's Ranger", each netted the balance of points necessary to complete their championships.

A trim little Scottie female, "Heather Charming", owned by Mrs. William Constable, of Boston, Mass., and bred by J. Chapman, walked away with top honours, being adjudged Best in Show. "Heather" was sired by "Heather Realization", out of "Heather Remembrance", and was imported from Scotland.

J. H. Sheehan's home-bred English Bulldog, "Kildare Chuck O' Luck", of Montreal, copped honours for second place. "Chuck O' Luck" made a creditable bid for top place and had many admirers at the ringside pulling for him. It was quite some time before Judge Delmont made his selection.

Other major winners were: Best Canadian-bred Pup in Show, "Cossar Clarisa", Scottish Terrier, owned by Dr. G. C. Cossar, Gagetown, N.B. Best Dog or Bitch owned by a member of the Maritime Ladies' Kennel Club, "Kendon Freckles", Cocker Spaniel, owned by Mrs. R. C. Vaughan.

Best dog, any breed, any sex, entered from and owned in Nova Scotia, "Burlington Bondman", Wire-haired Fox Terrier, owned by W. G. Smith, Halifax.

Best dog or bitch bred in Maritimes —"Mayflys Ranger", Pointer, Gerald McCarthy.

Judge Delmont highly praised the well - conditioned Afghan Hound, "Ramy", owned by Mrs. A. A. G. Corbett, Saint John, N.B. The only dog of this breed in the Maritimes.

At the conclusion of the Show, Mr. Allen C. Chisholm, Montreal, Past Director of the Canadian Kennel Club, Inc., and Past President of the Montreal Kennel Club and English Bulldog Club of Canada, made the presentation of prizes to the winners.

SHOW ABANDONED

The Annual Show of the Nova Scotia Kennel Club, which was scheduled for September 18th, has been cancelled owing to lack of suitable space. It had been intended to hold this show at the Mayflower Rink in Halifax but, as the rink is now being fitted for artificial ice, it was necessary to seek another location and lack of a suitable one has definitely ended the possibility of a N.S.K.C. show for this year. It is probable that this Club will endeavour to hold a Sanctioned Show in Halifax later in the season, and it is quite probable that an effort will be made to have the Nova Scotia Kennel Club for 1938 as a part of the Nova Scotia Provincial Exhibition, as in former years.

We welcome Mr. J. E. Priest, of Pictou, N.S., who has taken up residence in Halifax, bringing with him his Irish Terrier dog, "Donegal Pat".

The Greater Winnipeg Kennel Club Show, held on the 17th and 18th, in the auditorium drew an entry of 204 from 140 dogs, being much short of the former entries of this Club. From distant points attending the show we noted, Mrs. Bradley, Moosimin; Mr. and Mrs. Pollard, Regina; Mrs. R. Laing, Regina; Bob and Mrs. Dunsire, Brandon; Jack Goff, Medicine Hat; Jos. Gillon, Moose Jaw; Dr. and Mrs. H. J. Hassard, Portage La Prairie; Mrs. Pat Randall, Sask., contributor, and Mr. Gardener, Edmonton, Alta. Conspicuous newcomers entered here were the Shepherd, "Sheila von Ruhchen", who had many admirers for her beautiful quality and condition. The Springer, "Quantock Fencer", a new exhibit for the Silverdale outfit won in the breed classes and finished dux in the final. The judging was in hands of Messrs. H. Bently and J. H. Masterman. The Ring work was well conducted by the Secretary, T. A.

Smith, with the assistant, Mrs. Rolby Joplin ever at the post; while Jack Cook as Steward and the ladies of the Club tagging the exhibitors, all went well, the attendance at nights being good.

The Specials were handed out after completion of judging. All was finished at 10 o'clock and the exhibits were on their way home.

Best in Show—Springer Spaniel, "Quantock Fencer", George Kynoch.

Toy Group—Pekingese Spaniel, "Cactus Tsying Shih, Robert Laing, Regina.

Working Group — Old English Sheepdog, "Silverdale Snowdrift", Mrs. A. Williams.

Non-Sporting — Bulldog, "Ch. Rockerside Claymore", G. H. Spinks.

Sporting—Springer, "Quantock Fencer", George Kynoch.

Terrier—Scottish Terrier, "Ch. Haldon Roundalay", Alick Gostick.

The regular monthly meeting of the Alberta Kennel Club, Calgary, was held on Sept. 15th, with the dog show committee of the Children's Hospital Aid Society in attendance. Matters in regard to the show to be held in the Hudson Bay Company's store on Nov. 26th and 27th were fully discussed. Mr. W. G. Climo will act as superintendent of the show. Puppy classes are to be specially featured and it was decided to have classes for puppies from 6 to 9 and 9 to 12 months. Many prizes have already been donated. The fact that Mr. Wm. H. Pym of Vancouver has been engaged as judge of all breeds has greatly stimulated interest in this event. Never before has so much early enthusiasm been manifest. A definite effort is being made to put over the biggest dog show ever held in Calgary and those in charge wish to urge all fanciers and exhibitors to be getting ready for this event as all proceeds will be used as formerly, for the benefit of sick and crippled children.

THE NATIONAL KENNEL CLUB SHOW

The Annual Royal Agricultural Winter Fair to be held in Toronto will have amongst its usual attractions the 14th Annual Dog Show held under the rules of the Canadian Kennel Club, Inc., and sponsored by the National Kennel Club, Inc. The dates are November 22nd, 23rd and 24th. These three red letter days provide the Breeder and Exhibitor with an unequalled opportunity for a worth-while dip into canine lore, whilst this season of the year is responsible for the dogs being presented before the public in such bloom and condition that at any other time is next to impossible to attain. Numbering amongst its patrons, His Excellency The Right Houourable Lord Tweedsmuir, G.C.M., G.C.H., Governor-General of Canada, and many officers of state, the National Kennel Club Show vies successfully as a social event with any other gathering on this continent of a similar character.

The National Kennel Club, Inc., under the presidency of Mr. Bethune Smith of Toronto, whose penchant for English Setters is well-known, have bent their efforts to make the 1937 fixture the best ever. The prize list as usual at this show emphasizes the fact that all prizes offered by them are to be won "outright." Trophies for Canadian-bred, Best of Breeds, Group Winners, Best Canadian-bred, Best Puppy and Best in Show will also be on top and a full classification for all breeds will be among the main features offered.

The list of judges appointed are in keeping with the importance of the event. It includes: John G. Bates, Esq.; J. Macey Willetts, Esq.; Leonard J. Buck, Esq., M.D.; Lewis E. Daniels, Esq.; Walter H. Reeves, Esq.

The Show will be held in the Million Dollar Horse Palace under the management of the Foley Dog Show Organization, Incorp., 2009 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, Pa., U.S.A. Entries close November 9th. For particulars apply National Kennel Club, Royal Winter Fair, Reeford Bldg., 217 Bay Street, Toronto, Ontario. Telephone, Waverley 4045. (See Advt.).

COCKER SPANIELS AT THE C.N.E.

By Raymond Tyrwhitt

The C.N.E. was the most satisfactory show we have had for some time. It is true, Cockers were not as strong either in numbers or quality as we should like, but the spirit of friendliness and sportsmanship shown by the Cocker owners was most noticeable at this event. In our opinion this same spirit will do more good for the breed than even big entries.

Vinton Breese judged and while it would not be a dog show if everybody agreed with all the placings, yet, everybody seemed to recognize the fact that his opinion given honestly was all that counted on the day, hence the happy result.

Another feature was the winning of the Best of Breed award and later the sporting group by the English Cocker "Water Mark of Ware", owned by Col. George Carruthers, Poughkeepsie, N.Y. This black dog well deserved the win, with a much better head than we are accustomed to see on the English Cockers out here, good neck, shoulders, front, bone, short coupled, a free mover with the general appearance of a real sporting spaniel. Reserve Winners solid colour went to another black, "The Rebel of Barrie", owned by R. H. Heppleston, a typical cocker, excelling in top line and body properties generally.

Joe Hill, who has had more experience with good cockers than anyone in this country and probably America, showed a very attractive dog, "Old Mill Paymaster". This dog is full of type and quality, with a wonderful expression so lacking in many of our cockers today. Unfortunately his lack of size kept him from the top.

In Parti-dogs "Perry of Kimbourne", a red and white, owned by A. E. Hayward, was on top with our old friend, Fred. Hawley's "Blue Ben of Avalon" next. D. Mitchell showed a red roan which we thought most unlucky in not going higher, but were told the judge did not like his colour.

Mrs. Forbes Ross is the owner of a decidedly nice black puppy bitch, "Orthodon Jewel of Irolita", an American-bred of excellent type, good neck and shoulders and front short coupled and beautifully set up. Time and a litter of pups should mean a lot to this bitch.

"Shadow Song of Barrie", a black, owned by R. H. Heppleston, very much the type of her kennel mate the "Rebel of Barrie" was Winners bitches, solid colour, with W. A. Price's red bitch "Claudette of York" Reserve.

Dr. Fraser Greig showed a new one, a buff, "Sugartown Drusilla", the right type and size and altogether a nice cocker, getting 1st in Novice and Limit and 2nd Open.

The real gem of the show was the black, "Old Mill Lady Reil". If this bitch had some size she could go anywhere. She is loaded with the essentials, type and quality and beautifully balanced all over with the same lovely expression as her litter brother "Old Mill Paymaster."

G. A. Boyd got Winners in parti-bitches with the black and white "Boyd's Lucky Lady." This was a very popular win, as winning or losing, this owner is always sporting.

Res. Winners was the red and white "My Own Estelle", owned by Mr. Hill and myself.

SOME DOG!

"Rastus, that thar dog you bought is stone blind!"

"What yo mean, stone blind. Yo is crazy."

"I still think he am blind. Didn't he run smack bang into that barn. Then he pick himself up and run bang into that fence."

"Yo is nuts; that dog ain' blind, he just don't give a damn."

FIELD TRIALS

Saturday, Sept. 11th, was the date on which the Manitoba Gun Dog Club held its first trial, and it was a very successful affair in every respect. Over 80 automobiles turned out, and there must have been over four hundred spectators present, who were well re-paid for the time spent. While, of course, it was impossible to work on game, the judges gave the competitors the privilege of working on live game or dummies. Separate classes were provided for professional and amateur handlers. Glen McDonald judged the water work and A. H. Allardyce the land work. While I have not before me yet the results of the meet, I can only write of what I saw. In the water retrieving class for amateurs Sam Rennie's Irish Water Spaniel gave a wonderful exhibition, and as good an exhibition of steadiness and retrieving to hand, as any one could wish to see. Mr. Aconley's Labradors also did some splendid work, as also did a Chesapeake bitch, owned by the Silverdale Kennels. I think I am safe in saying that two young female Springer Spaniel Puppies, born Jan. 2nd, 1937 (Silverdale Carnation and Silverdale Blossom Time) stole the show. They were only worked on finding game and retrieving it alive, but it was really a great sight to see these two youngsters remain "hupped" while being shot over, and not move until ordered to do so by their trainer, Tommy Wade. The speed with which they hunt is as fast as any setter I have ever seen, and although they did not know where the game was hidden, they were not many minutes picking up the scent and retrieving it alive right into the hand of their trainer. Mr. Allardyce remarked afterwards that they were the two smartest puppies he had ever seen.

Left in capable hands the Manitoba Gun Dog Club will flourish and do a lot of good for the hunting breeds, as well as encourage people to own a good hunting and retrieving dog, thus help conserve our game, which is becoming very scarce in many districts. The announcer was Mr. Greenway, President of the Manitoba Fish and Game Association, who handled everything in a most capable manner. Congratulations are certainly due Mr. Jack Tullock for his untiring efforts and for the very successful show he put on.

The Northern Saskatchewan Gun Dog Club held a meeting in the Barry Hotel on Sept. 10th. Plans for Saskatoon's third annual field trials were discussed. It was decided the trials should be held on October the 2nd, 3rd and 4th. A committee consisting of J. M. Ayre, E. Mathews, A. McNeill, H. Olcroft, L. O'Reilly and M. Geary, was picked to look after the grounds, prizes, transportation, etc. Nothing definite could be arranged as to judges, but W. G. Ross of Moose Jaw; R. Hutchinson, Regina and Jack Ayre of Saskatoon have been approached.

QUACK! QUACK! QUACK!

As I move around picking up news and "gossip" here and there for this column, I find many of the boys anxiously awaiting daybreak on the morning of Sept. 20th, when the duck shooting season opens in Manitoba. Some of them are going here and some to some other place, so I rather think the poor ducks will be scared to death on the opening day, even though they may not be shot. However, some of "quackers" will be allowed to proceed on their journey south now that George Kynoch is away. Next month I will possibly be able to relate some exciting yarns of what happened.

The shooting season will soon be here and in British Columbia if there ever was one time in the year when "Rover" earned his board it is when he is out with the gun. Grouse and Pheasants are reported plentiful and the nimrods are already talking big bags and cleaning up the old gun and shooting gear. The field trials to be held this fall should bring out a lot of young stock we have heard about but not as yet seen in action. More news about this later.

GERMAN SHEPHERD DOG CLUB OF CANADA FIELD TRIALS

Held at Manor Farm, Clarkson, on September 5th.

Judge: Alex. L. Gooderham, Esq.

Following is the final result of the trials:

1st and Championship, C. W. Radford's Northmere Indian Chief (424 points); 2nd, H. Halderson's Rum of Northmere (372 points); 3rd, Mrs. S. W. Levack's Boots von Gettensberg (364 points); 4th, W. Underwood's Rex von Gettensberg (341 points).

SASKATCHEWAN TRIALS

The open stakes of the Saskatchewan Field Trial Association closed at Moose Jaw, Sask., on Saturday, September 4. The Open All-Age Stake started on Monday, October 30, in which sixty-eight dogs competed. "Air Pilot's Sam" won this stake outstandingly. Second was awarded to "Spunky Creek Coin" and third to "Spunky Creek Boy".

The Derby had forty-eight starters. After a second series the winners were announced as follows: First, "Wayside Lulu", Pointer bitch, owned by J. B. Daniel, handled by Howard Kirk; second, "Anthony's Betty Joyeuse", Pointer bitch, owned by Charles Forrer, handled by Earl Crangle; third, "Wayside Annie", Pointer bitch, owned by J. B. Daniel, handled by Jett Crawford.

The Open Championship had thirty-two starters. After a second series, in which "Hugh White", "Ben Temple", "Bess Blue Willing" and "Highland Bimpkins" participated, "Highland Bimpkins" was declared the winner and "Bess Blue Willing" the runner-up. The winner was handled by W. D. English and the runner-up by V. E. Humphries. The first series of the Championship produced a brilliant exhibition, but the second series was quite commonplace, due partly to a sharp east wind which prevailed all day.

The judges were Henry P. Davis, of Washington, D.C., and J. M. Miller, of Calgary, Alberta.—"The American Field."

CENTRAL CANADA EXHIBITION DOG SHOW

The 22nd Annual Dog Show was held in connection with the Golden Jubilee celebration of the above exhibition on August 25th, 26th and 27th. In full accord with the auspicious occasion there was a large and representative entry and competition was of a high order particularly when the finals were reached. The weather was trying for both exhibitors and dogs, but with the free and easy judging programme, with time to spare and the considerate management for which the superintendent, Mr. E. A. Runions, is noted, everything passed off well with no casualties being reported.

Mr. Alf. Delmont, Wynnewood, Pa., U.S.A., judged all breeds and, needless to say, his awards were well received.

The breed entries provided a surprise when 19 Pekes headed the poll, followed by 17 Cocker Spaniels, with 15 Wire Fox Terriers dropping into third place.

Groups:

Sporting—First, Cocker Spaniel, Geo. A. Carruthers' "Watermark of Ware".

Sporting (Hounds)—First, Borzoi, J. A. McLaughlin's "Vangor of Agatestone".

Working—First, Old English Sheepdog, Mr. Leonard Collins' "Ch. Ideal Weather".

Terrier—First, Wire Fox Terrier, Miss E. Moodie's "Albany Better Still".

Toy—First, Pom, Mrs. G. G. Thompson's "Billy Blackacre".

Non-Sporting—First, Bulldog, Mr. E. M. Wright's "Meg of Highstanding".

Best in Show—"Ideal Weather".

Best Puppy in Show—Doberman Pinscher, Geo. A. Taylor's "Lone Gold".

SILVER TIP "PEPYPELS" FOR DOGS

These Dog Pellets have met with instant favor. Balanced in its nourishing animal and vegetable elements, Silver Tip "Pepypels" contain all the known necessary vitamins, the bone and nerve-forming minerals, the digestion-aiding enzymes, which make for health and growth. You can feed every single ounce. There is nothing to mould, spoil, or poison your dog; no need to keep it in an ice box—it is good until used. And there is no opening of tin cans or messy feed dish washing. Each Silver Tip "Pepypel" has in it, first and foremost, splendid supplies of Vitamins A, B and D. Your dog needs these vitamins. "A" gives resistance to disease; "B" strong nerves and regular habits; "D" builds good "bone" and teeth. Then for energy and general nourishment there are the finest cereals in Silver Tip "Pepypels", milk, bone elements and specially rich "Meals". Toy Breeds should have three or four ounces daily; large breeds, fifteen to twenty ounces daily. We also manufacture a full line of Dog Biscuits. Also Vimy-Mix, Biskomeat, Nuggets and Kruskies for dogs.

A FITTING TRIBUTE

to man's most faithful friends!

Pre-historic man left a lasting tribute to his faithful friend the dog, in the crude carvings found upon the rock walls of his caves. Throughout history dogs have earned their right to a place in man's happiest memories, through life-times of loyalty and comradeship.

To those dog lovers of today who wish to pay tribute to dead friends, we suggest these simple tombstones—suitably engraved.

PITFALLS FOR NOVICES

1. The confidential man who tells you he has another offer of double the sum for which he is offering you the dog, but would sooner you had it because he likes the look of you, bless your pretty face! It is on the plain face of it unlikely that he should lose a good, solid sum simply to oblige a total stranger!

2. The "perfect lady" who tells you her husband is so particular he won't allow her to keep a stud dog, and she can let you have hers at a bargain.

3. The lady who tells you that her little girl cried so bitterly when she brought the dog to show you that she doesn't know what she shall do if you buy it.

4. Mistaking meteors for fixed stars.

5. The brood bitch which "is simply too pretty to be spoilt by having puppies".

6. The dog that is "just changing his coat", or whose ears are just coming on nicely, but appears with neither.

7. The dog that has "got a slight chill after the show".

8. The dog that is temporarily lame through being cramped in his basket.

9. The brood bitch that has "just lost a litter through the servant's neglect" This usually means that the owner, two vets., and three sons have been up all night for a week.

10. The dog who has knocked its teeth out playing with a ball. This happens, but it means unsound teeth.

11. The dog that has won under its breeder or previous owner only, and the puppy whose face "will shorten up by and by".

12. The gentleman who offers to sell you his dog just after it has won at a show.

13. The lady who tells you she is a club judge and uses this as a lever to induce you to purchase from her.

14. The lady who repeatedly tells everybody she is so devotedly fond of her dogs that she can't bear the idea of selling them.

15. The owner who will not allow anyone to be present on stud occasions.

16. The man who has another purchaser unless you decide immediately.

17. The man who wants your stud dog on approval before purchasing.

18. The lady who talks incessantly about her own honesty. Don't be afraid of people who write and say they will "county court you". Let them do it.

Don't let yourself be bullied.

Don't send on approval without deposit.

Don't be taken in by the lady who runs down your dog or puts it back in the judging ring, and who a few weeks later makes you a small offer for it, simply out of kindness.—The Hon. Mrs. Neville Lytton in "Toy Dogs".

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

35 Cannon St. East,
Hamilton, Ontario.
August 10th, 1937.

Mr. Bert Swann, Editor,
Kennel and Bench,
25 Melinda Street,
Toronto, Ontario.

Dear Mr. Swann:

Your reference to the coming Christmas Number in the August issue of Kennel and Bench came as a reminder to me that I had not advised you of the appreciation I feel towards your magazine for the benefits I received from the Canaline Kennels double spread display advertisement that appeared in your 1936 Yuletide number. To that publicity I can credit a great deal of my 1937 successes. It was the means of my introduction to many estimable people, gained ready recognition of the kennel activities, and last but not least was responsible for the greater part of the sales business that came our way during the past and present seasons.

In wishing Kennel and Bench continued success I may assure you of my support in your coming Christmas Number.

Sincerely yours,
W. P. GUDGEON.

BREEDS

AUSTRALIAN TERRIERS

Have a most interesting letter from Dr. Lamb of McGill University, relating to his Australian Terrier. The Australian Terrier is classified by the Kennel Control Council of Victoria as a "Sporting Terrier". The two other Australian breeds, the Huler and the Keepie; working cattle and sheep dogs are embraced in the "any other breed" class. The title of Australian Terrier was granted in 1909; prior to that they were exhibited as Rough Coated Terriers. The first one of such exhibited was "Stamford Rosie" in 1885.

The origin of this Terrier as of many other breeds is obscure. Authorities have suggested it orignated from haphazard matings of various breeds, such as Skye and Dandie Dinmont, or the Scottish and Yorkshire Terriers. Progeny of the early matings were small, sharp dogs of the Terrier type, which gradually revealed more or less uniformity. As time elapsed three colors were allowed, black, sandy and blue. Today there are different opinions regarding the desirability of having sandy dogs rather than blue-grey; blacks are not popular. A difficulty arises in that the lighter shade a dog favors the more marked is the loss of hardness of coat.

For twenty-five years Mr. Mippard of Reynard St., West Coburg (Victoria) who has bred Australian Terriers favours the dark colours.

In 1934 Mr. Nippard supplied the two puppies occupied by H.R.H. the Duke of Gloucester when in Australia for the Victorian Centenary. Two puppies were shipped from his kennels to the Countess of Stradbroke, who founded the Australian Kennel Club (England) in 1933.

Both the Victorian and English standards claim colour an important factor. A blue to blue-black body—with tan on the legs and muzzle. There should be a top-knot of light blue which should not be exaggerated. The second colour type must embrace a body of clear red or sandy hue. It is a disqualification to have white on any part of the body, also to have a flesh coloured nose, white toenails, curly or woolly coats, overshot or undershot mouths.

The body shall be well ribbed up, straight back and tail docked. Coat should be 2 to 2½ inches long and hard in texture. The ideal weight is 10 to 11 lbs., although they range from 8 to 14 lbs. The head should be comparatively long, with a flat skull, full between the eyes, carrying the soft hair top-knot. A long powerful jaw is desirable, with level teeth, black nose and small keen eyes, dark in colour. The neck is rather long in proportion to the body with a definite frill of hair. Forelegs should be straight, well set under the body, with slight feather to the knee, clean feet and black toenails. The hocks should be slightly bent, with small feet well padded, but without any tendency to spread.

The Australian Terrier is looked upon as a sporting Terrier capable of going to ground and hunting. A hardy full of Terrier character, intelligent and reliable watch dog.

BEAGLES

Major H. W. Francis, Calgary, has purchased from Lloyd Bros., Greenlawn, Alta., the winning Beagle, "Trevallen Skipper", a splendid addition to his fine string of dogs. The Major reports excellent conditions for the opening of the fall shooting season.

BOSTON TERRIERS

At the English Kennel Club Show held on October 6th and 7th Boston Terriers have eight classes exclusive of Brace and Team classes. Dr. A. E. Kinsley Taylor will judge.

A visit to the Trapystok Boston Kennels of Winnipeg the other day found the genial proprietor, Mr. George Duncan, at home. George himself was looking fit, and wearing a big smile; perhaps he was feeling very jubiliant, as we learned later that Mrs. Duncan had just returned home after spending the summer in Scotland and England. The Trapystok dogs all looked well, and the latest champion "Young Mister Royal Kid" is certainly an acquisition to the breed in the West, and the breeders appreciate his being here, as Mr. Duncan showed us many enquiries for prospect services from far and near.

Looks as though the druggists are ganging up on us. Mr. Williams, Regina druggist, made a trip to Assinaboia for the purpose of mating his Boston Terrier bitch, "Patsy 10th", to "Ch. Captain Moody Sensation", owned by R. B. Carters, of Assinaboia, druggist, and Boston breeder of long standing. Mr. Williams is better known in Toronto as an English Bulldog breeder. Since coming West, his fancy seems to have turned to Boston Terriers.

Mr. Leonard Horncastle, Edmonton's Number One Boston Terrier expert, reports having recently purchased from the Airway Kennels of Divernon, Ill., the Boston Terrior dog, "Captivating Some Boy". This little fellow, who is a near champion across the line, has been shown fearlessly in the eastern and mid-western States, having been awarded Best of Winners at five shows, Best of Breed at three and Reserve Non-Sporting at two. This dog should aid considerably in improving the Bostons in Alberta and, at the same time, do his share towards increasing the popularity of the breed.

BULLDOGS

Mr. Turner, of Regina, has had the misfortune of losing his good English Bull bitch, "Starland Polly", who was mated to his own dog, "Piccadilly Pride". The bitch died while whelping five females and two male puppies. One female puppy was saved out of the litter, and is being raised on the bottle. She is quite a husky youngster, and gives promise of somewhat atoning for Mr. Turner's severe loss.

BULL TERRIERS

The White Bull Terrier bitch I mentioned in last month's notes owned and imported by Mr. Teddy Richards of Greenford Avenue, Burnaby, New Westminster, is a daughter of "Ch. Coolyn Silversuit", and her line breeding contains many well known champions such as "Ch. Bailfire Brendons Boomer", "Craighall Brevity", "Surething", "Sylvia General" and "Actinic Tenacity" and others too numerous to mention. It will be good to see a few White Bull Terriers at our shows again after a long absence.

Mrs. H. R. Wilkes sends some interesting facts regarding the foundation of her famous kennel of White Cavaliers. It appears that the Trafalgar strain was started with a bitch acquired from Carleton Hinks (a name to conjure with for many years in England). This bitch was one of the famous White Imp and Neon's Peggy bitches, which produced so many really great Bull Terriers. The first purchase was registered as "Treviso" and in due time was mated to "Hades Cavalier" and the result was the "English Champion Debonair Brum" and the Canadian Champion "Silver Imp".

In England, "Debonair" was bred to "Beshelson Bayshuck" and the result was "English Ch. Ringfire of Blighty" and "English Ch. Aberdonian". "Debonair" was again bred to "Beshelson Bayshuck" and "Rubislaw" appeared on the scene, and "Rubislaw" is the sire of "Int. Faultless of Blighty" and also "Robust Laddie", who came to Mr. Kenny of Buckingham. "Queen Bess'" sire is the son of "Int. Faultless of Blighty" and "Robust Laddie": his name is "Mollfleet's Resolute", a real Bull Terrier owned by Mr. Coles. "Treviso's" other daughter, "Silver Imp", who came to Canada with Capt. and Mrs. Wilkes. "Silver Imp" was bred to "Roscolyn Aurycsis" and amongst this litter was "Trafalgar Greatheart" and "Trafalgar Silver Charm." "Trafalgar Silver Charm" was sold to Mr. James M. Creech, of Indianapolis, who bred her to "Int. Ch. Surething", who is in California, and a puppy from the litter, "Sharos Brittania", came back to me. "Sharos Brittania", the great granddaughter of "Treviso" through "Canadian Ch. Silver Imp", was bred to "Mollfleet's Resolute", the great, great grandson of "Treviso" through "English Ch. Debonair of Brum". It is a case of casting one's bread upon the water—for when I sold "Debonair of Brum" to Carleton Hinks before coming to Canada I was almost heartbroken, but here we are, drawing strength from the very source at the other end of the earth and after about seven or eight years' time. "Queen Bess" is such a perfect little model that we have again bred the same pair and have at the moment eight young imps, amongst whom we hope to have one to replace their glorious granddam, "Int. Ch. Faultless of Blighty". Here's hoping.

Mrs. Wilkes concludes her interesting letter with the news that "Queen Bess" duplicated "Trafalgar Greatheart's" splendid win at the 1936 Morris and Essex Show by winning first Open Bitches.

CAIRN TERRIERS

The disposal of the Clairmar Cairn Terriers, the announcement of which appears elsewhere in this issue, will be a shock to many of our readers and the loss to the breed will be considerable. Mrs. Routley assures us that none will be reserved and here lies the opportunity for any one to add to their stock, or go into the breed on sound and larger lines.

There was a very large entry of Cairns at the recent British Columbia shows, but the exhibits in many cases were dogs who have won so many previous honours that the competition was not as keen as in previous years, Mrs. Sweeney accounting for the major number of wins.

CHESAPEAKE BAYS

The Airline Kennels, Edmonton, have recently secured from Mr. W. G. Slocombe, three young Chesapeakes, one male and two females, all sired by dual "American Ch. Chesacroft Newt". One of the females whelped a litter on September 9th sired by Airline Dusky Duke", which also gives the litter a double cross of "Ch. Airline Sir Bud", litter brother of the outstanding "Int. Ch. Airline Theresa". According to the old slogan "blood will tell", this litter is in line to produce something really good.

COCKER SPANIELS

Mr. S. Saidman, owner of the Heavensgate Kennels, formerly of Kanora, Sask., draws our attention to the fact, that during the year 1937, the Heavensgate Cockers, and their progeny have made quite a name for

There is scarcely any better health insurance for your puppy or dog than keeping him rid of worms. Dog fanciers have been using GLOVER'S for over a half century.

GLOVER'S

themselves. At the total of ten shows held in Western Canada this year, they have accounted for no less than six times Best of Breed, nine times Best of Winners, twelve Winners, 28 first, three times Best Sporting Dog, once Best Novice, and three times Best Puppy, winning many other specials besides. Those two grand little Cockers, "Ella of Heavensgate", and "Calmas Durbar", have accounted for a great many of these wins.

The Cocker entry in British Columbia still continues to hold first place at our shows, but I think that some consideration should be given to segregating the two types as it is quite evident the American Judge does not give the same amount of going over to the English type. In fair play each exhibitor pays the same entry fee, and is entitled to the same amount of judging. I am refraining from making any further comment on the Cocker situation until a future date.

The Alcrest Kennels, Winnipeg, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Pettigrew, who specialize in English Cocker Spaniels, was visited lately on behalf of a client, and there noted a charming litter of seven males, nigh a month old—5 blacks, 1 black and white, and the beauty of the lot, a handsome, solid golden red, the parents being all from imported stock of the famous Of Ware family. Three of the puppies will find new homes when weaned. Some grand youngsters are out in the country, and will soon make their debut in the showyard.

In the Calmas Cocker Kennels of Mr. W. G. Climo, Calgary, is a very nice litter sired by "Ch. Calmas Durbar III" ex "Calmas Misty Morn". These puppies give promise of being able to uphold the enviable reputation of the Calmas Kennels. "Calmas Black Queen", who is from the famous mating of "Ch. Calmas Durbar", ex "Ch. Lucky Girl" has also been mated to "Ch. Calmas Durbar III".

Mr. Harry Saunders, Calgary, has no less than three litters of Cocker Spaniels all showing quality. One litter is by "Ch. Calmas Durbar III" ex "Alberstan Royal City Maid", another by "Calmas Guard" ex "Calmas Lady Ellen" and a third from "Calmas Sweetie" and "Calmas Jelsen". Mr. Saunders is very busy getting his dogs in shape for the shooting season.

Mr. Stan. Bear, Cocker Spaniel fancier of Edmonton, who has not reported any kennel activities for some time, seems to be specializing in "black and tans" and "black, tan and whites". He announces the arrival of a litter born September 14th, two of which are black, tan and white, their sire being "Calmas Lucky Boy" and their dam "Bluebell of Colwyn". He also reports the mating of "Millotas Miss Style Plate" (black and tan) to "Millotas Sturdy Boy" (black, tan and white), this being the dog that was awarded Winners at the last Junior Hospital League Show at Edmonton.

Dr. C. B. Baker, of Montreal, informs me his good Cocker, "Sirdar Brown Betty", has presented him with four splendid puppies—two males and two females, sired by "Sirdar Go Between" who won the Novice Stakes at the Boston Specialty. These puppies are all being tatooed by the initials allotted to Dr. Baker—strange enough being C.B.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Heppleston, of Barrie, Ontario, in sending advertising copy for this issue draws our attention to the great success which attended their effort at the recent fall shows. Lack of kennel room demands a reduction of stock and the opportunity offered to prospective buyers is one that should not be passed over lightly.

COLLIES

A revival in this breed around the Toronto district is promised by the return to the fold of two old time fanciers whose names a decade and a half and more ago were associated with the Collie cult both in Canada and America. Anyone who has followed the entries of this breed at shows will agree that a revival is long past due.

It was nice to see a representative entry of Collies at some of our recent British Columbia shows. Mr. Galloway, the popular president of the Nanaimo Kennel Club, did his share of winning at their shows under George S. Thomas and Mrs. Miller of Seattle, of the Olympic Collie Kennels, was again an exhibitor at our Exhibition shows and accounted for Best of Breed at both.

We regret to note the passing of Mrs. Gilbert Ward of Winnipeg, the beloved wife of Gib. Ward, a well-known breeder and exhibitor of Collies, and one time secretary of the local Collie Club. Mrs. Ward's demise came somewhat suddenly through a heart affection. Three children are left to mourn her loss, and the deepest sympathy is extended to Gib. and his family in their recent sad bereavement by all good fanciers and friends.

A recent visit to Mr. A. V. Martin's Oakland Kennels, Halifax, furnished the opportunity of viewing a very fine litter of Collie puppies sired by "Can. and Am. Ch. Major Lukeo" and out of "Ch. Noranda's Sensation 2nd." This litter consists of four males and one female, all beautifully marked, well boned and coated, and after having seen a large number of Collie puppies at the Oakland Kennels during the past few years, am decidedly of the opinion that these youngsters are easily the best that Mr. Martin has yet bred.

Mr. James Christie, Saint Adrian Kennels, Hanover, Mass., was a recent visitor to Halifax and was a guest of Mr. Martin. During his stay at Halifax Mr. Christie was greatly taken with the above mentioned litter and as a result he purchased three of the litter, a black and tan male, a sable and white male and a sable and white female. These have already gone forward to the Saint Adrian Kennels and it is expected that we will hear more of them in the near future. One of the litter, a sable and white dog, is being retained by Mr. Martin who is also obtaining a sable and white bitch puppy, "Eden Eureka", sired by "Eng. Ch. Laund Lieutenant", the heaviest coated Collie in England today and the winner of his title in three consecutive shows.

Mr. Edward Williams, Edmonton Collie enthusiast, is proudly showing another promising litter sired by "Elmhill Rastus" ex "Denny Eureka".

Mr. Vanier of Longueuil has had the misfortune to lose his good imported Collie, "Sunderland Silver Rust" after having gone Best of Breed in Ottawa and Toronto. Her sudden death has been quite a shock, but Mr. Vanier is already out scouring after another.

DACHSHUNDE

Mrs. H. E. Fletcher of Vancouver had a gala day with her "Lucky Bird Tina" in Dachsies at the recent show, and this fascinating breed had a very fair entry and keen competition. The "American Ch. Mops of Fair Acres" was handled to perfection by Mr. Athos Nilson of Hollywood and could not be denied top honours.

DALMATIANS

Our old friend, Charlie Worthington of the Dalworth Dalmatian Kennels, Vancouver, was a prominent figure at recent shows and carried all before him. Mr. Worthington has been a very good sport in the numbers of entries he gives local shows and I sometimes wonder if clubs recognize this fact and appreciate an exhibitor's good sportsmanship in this respect.

Mel Wilgress, of Seattle, the popular handler from the south, was again very much in the limelight with the Boxer, "Dago Von Valtenberg". This will soon complete his Canadian Championship under the careful and experienced handling of Mr. Wilgress.

DOBERMAN PINSCHERS

The one and only famous "American Champion Jockel Von Burgund" can now add the coveted Canadian Championship prefex to his name, having made the grade in the last three British Columbia shows. This Doberman, par excellence, was indeed worth seeing and although one likes to see local dogs go to the top, the honours awarded "Jockel" would not be denied him, and all his wins up here were very popular. He is, to say the least, a grand Dobe and although he is not perfect his outstanding qualities make him the object of attraction wherever he goes. We think the greatest compliment we can pay "Jockel" is that he is in reality one dog who resembles his magazine picture and even better than photographic science can present him.

Mrs. Alsen's "Rolf Von Lackanblick" made quite an impressive showing against the great "Jockel" and was runner up at all shows to "Jockel." This dog "Rolf" improves each time out and is with his ifs a very nice Dobe and should prove a real stud force to Dobe breeders here in B.C.

We noticed Mr. Kee's Doberman at the shows in fine shape and well handled by Mr. Jasper Daniels of the Dorn Dog School, Vancouver.

Mr. Andrew Ross, owner of the winning Scottish Terrier "Glen Moir Bruce", has just returned from a much enjoyed trip across the border where he visited a number of kennels of various breeds, bringing back with him a very fine male Doberman Pinscher, purchased by him for Mr. Daniel Scouler of Halifax. Mr. Scouler's new dog is registered as "Rusty". I was unable to secure the name of the sire but am informed that he is out of "Deka v. Frederikahef" and was bred by Peter A. Disessa, Boston, Mass. "Rusty" was born May 9th, 1937, and, although very young, is a typical specimen of this attractive breed. He is beautifully marked, well boned, has a nice expression and is alert and we are hoping to see him develop well and make his presence felt at the local shows in the near future. We do not see as many Dobermans in this district as we might wish to and it is pleasing to note the interest that Mr. Scouler has taken in this attractive breed and wish him much success with his new import.

Many good dogs of various breeds, owned by tourists from the United States, visited Halifax during the past season, among those being two very attractive Doberman Pinschers, owned by Miss Mary Boutilier of Lowell, Mass., and by C. L. Boutilier of Baltimore, Md. This brace of slick, well-groomed dogs attracted considerable attention as the breed is not common in this district.

One of these dogs, "Am. Ch. Rollo von Brickley", has done considerable winning in the States of New York and Maryland, winning the first prize in the Obedience Class at a Maryland show, he being the first dog to hold the title "Companion Dog", in the State of Maryland.

FOX TERRIERS

"Champion Humbervale Dancing Master" is dead, the end came when he was just one month over ten years of age. He was owned by the Glen Gyle Kennels of Ottawa, who purchased him in June, 1929. One of the prominent Wires of his day his wins included Winners at the National Kennel Club, 1928; Winners and Best Canadian-bred in show, the Associated Kennel Club, Inc., Show, Montreal, the same year.

Vancouver competition and activities in Smooth and Wire Fox Terriers is quite alarming, and in view of the record of good Terriers produced in B.C. in the past years it is time Fox Terrier breeders sat up and took stock of themselves as we have the best breeding procurable here, and there is no excuse for the falling off of entries unless of course the breeders themselves are resigned not to show for some reason best known to themselves. Mr. Joe Dodds accounted for the major number of senior wins with his newly acquired imported "Newmaidley Knave."

The Dewdney Kennels in Regina have a fine litter of Wires out of "Dewdney Garbo", and sired by "Bron Wyn O' Storm", two males, and four females. A husky bunch, showing great promise for the future. It is now known why the Dewney Kennels are always so spick and span, as Hazel gets down on her knees every Saturday with the old scrubbing brush and soap.

"Tantalizer of Wildoaks", owned by Mrs. D. Rencassel, has presented her mistress with a litter of three males and one female after a visit to the world-renowned Wildoaks Kennel, New York, the sire being the spring show sensational puppy, "Champion Flying Fox of Wildoaks."

Flying Fox's parents are "Champion Gallant Invader" and "Champion Delightful Lady", both parents being by "Gallant Fox" out of International Champion Bitches, and "Tantalizer" is full sister to "Gallant Fox."

Mrs. Reucassel also tells us that the young bitch, "Gallant Lady", sired by the Bondy's out of "Tantalizer" by "International Champion Crackley Startler of Wildoaks", is being sent down to Wildoaks very shortly to be mated to "Champion Gallant Invader."

The successful Fox Terrier Kennels, known as the Rougemont, sends news of an interesting sale, Mrs. W. Diment having been induced by a well-known New Jersey exhibitor to sell that nice Terrier, "Maclean's Margaret". We hear that "Ryeland Racer", a most successful sire, has been well patronnized by American and Canadian breeders. Mrs. Diment concludes with the information that several promising youngsters have been sold to fanciers across the border this month.

It was with regret we learned that Mr. Caswell of Edmonton had the misfortune to lose his good little Wire Dog "Varscona Okie Dokie". He followed his master to work and it appears that they became separated and the little fellow, in springing to an open fourth story window lost his balance and fell to the pavement injuring himself so badly that he died in a few minutes.

Dr. C. R. Boulding of Aurora, Ontario, has purchased the crack English Wire dog "Champion Benholme Bayard". This son of "Champion Talavera Jupiter" has enjoyed a most distinguished career, for no less than six champions have fallen to him, and this in a country where competition in the breed is always of the "sultry" order, to say the least. His spurs have been won under such authorities as: "Her Grace" "The Duchess of Newcastle", "Captain Phipps", "Messrs. Dunford", "Ching and Churchill", and at his last outing at the great joint Terrier Show, London a few weeks ago he was again crowned by that dozen of the fraternity, Mr. Harry Clough, at Brighton Show, England, Sept. 8th; Mr. Holland Buckley, judge.

"Hilmur Havoc", a son of "Champion Benholme Bayard", came out and headed two classes of seven and eight. The Clonmel expert in his "Our Dogs" criticism rates the youngster highly. "Champion Benholme Bayard" joins our stud list this month and we wish the Aurora enthusiast every success with his plucky purchase.

GERMAN SHEPHERDS DOGS

The German Shepherds shown lately at British Columbia Show are coming back and it was nice to see local breeders fight it out for top honours. To single out any one of the local contestants would be unfair as all showed home-breds of good quality, which will improve with maturity, and so I shall merely add, continued success to you. Miss Prinsepe, Mrs. Jarvis, Mrs. Potruff and Mr. Ashton, all of Vancouver. Competition is the life of the dog game.

Mr. James Melville, chief of the detective division of the City of Winnipeg Police, has become the owner of a grand young German Shepherd female, four and a half months old, sire, "Ch. Alfa Bergholtz", dam, "Shiela", a classically bred female, owned by Dr. and Mrs. H. J. Hassard, Portage La Prairie, Man. I had the pleasure of accompanying the chief and Herb. Dargie on the 12th when the selection was made and the puppy brought into Winnipeg, when I learned she had a fine reception from Mr. Melville's family.

GREAT DANES

Mr. C. Laister, Mapledane Kennels, Todmorden, Ontario, reports the sale of four puppies which he advertised in the last issue of Kennel and Bench. We had the opportunity of looking over these Castor Hassia youngsters and the time was well spent.

Great Danes are, we believe gaining popularity in British Columbia. Lt.-Col. and Mrs. J. De B. Cowan showed a nice female puppy harlequin at our last shows against another Rungmok bred male and a nice female sent up from the Carnation Milk Farm Kennels of Seattle. Danes are noble looking animals and when sound and in good condition are always strong contenders for the working group.

GREYHOUNDS

Considerable prominence has been given to the doping of some Greyhounds at a race track in England. Mr. J. V. McAree states in The Globe and Mail: "The suspicion that dog races can be just as crooked as horse racing would mean their destruction". We all know that crooked practices have occurred in all kinds of sports, and I venture to make the assertion that the recent case will in the course of time be found to have had beneficial results on what has become a most popular sport. I make this assertion believing that those concerned will take the necessary precautions to stop a re-occurrence of the real practices which occurred at the Greenfield Stadium, Bradford, England.

It has always been the writer's ambition to try and do every thing possible to further the interests of our sport and the Canadian Kennel Club. If we can only have Greyhound racing legalized, providing the ruling body is the Canadian Kennel Club, it will bring in a large revenue in the way of registrations, etc., part of which can be used to help show-giving clubs in the future. I gave particulars of the help the breeding of Greyhounds would be to Canadians. The fact that we have to remember is that the opponents of legalized betting on the tracks are a most influential opposition, namely, the Horse Racing interests. This opposition might have been and no doubt was a few years ago, but it is very different today. The powers that be realize at Ottawa that the breeding of pedigreed dogs can, with a little help, become what it is today in England, a most profitable industry. I had the opportunity of talking to Mrs. Hayes Blake Hoyt at the Tuxedo Show the other day; she had just returned from England and was much impressed by the hundreds of Greyhounds she saw over there. America had a stiff fight on her hands before Greyhound Racing Tracks were legalized; in fact an article in the Mercury, written by a State Senator, states that the sponsors of dog racing, when they wanted to be licensed, got a bill through on the promise of $200 per vote. It is somewhat difficult to find out what steps have been taken in Canada, but the following facts are to hand. Some infiuential western sportsman brought a bill to legalize betting with Greyhounds before the House in the year 1928. The bill passed its second reading and then was shelved. On the advice of its sponsor, W. Cheverton, in 1932, ran a few races in Winnipeg without betting, and during the summer of 1936 he also personally conducted Greyhound Races in Fort William and used the option to purchase a system of betting. Resulting from his operations there came into being the Greyhound Breeders' Association of Western Canada, whose intentions were to introduce a bill before the "House" this spring, however, from the facts before me, I find that the bill was not introduced. One thing I do know and that is, that the West are willing to give their whole hearted co-operation to the East in whatever steps are taken in the future. In the "Azor" August issue there is an interesting article on Greyhound Racing by the well-known Bull Terrier Breeder, Mrs. Drury L. Sheraton. She terms it the sport of Queens. Space will not permit giving the full article, therefore as I am only able to give extracts I advise the many who would like to see the sport go in Canada to obtain a copy of Azor. Mrs. D. Sheraton states:

"In modern track racing the mechanical lure affords an incentive, especially to the younger dogs, but even without visible quarry he will strive with every nerve and muscle to outrun his fellows, and will circle the track at high speed with no other object than the sheer love of running. It is as natural for a Greyhound to run as it is for a camel to carry a burden—throughout his long, long history he was bred for this, and nothing else, and this passion for running is the reason that dogs dash around the tracks today, without ever coming reasonably close to the lure".

She continues with most minute particulars of how these races are conducted in America and finishes her most interesting story with the following:

"The next time you find yourself in a State where dog racing is legalized, and under state supervision, give yourself a treat. Go to the races. The buildings, grandstands and club houses, at these legalized tracks are usually places of great beauty. I can think of no more enjoyable way in which to spend a glorious summer evening than to be part of the great crowd—who with perhaps only a dollar in their pocket—and a part of this Sport of Queens and Queen of Sports —Dog Racing."

BILL FRITH HEADS GREYHOUND BODY

The Ontario Greyhound Association held their annual meeting and elected W. G. (Bill) Frith as President for the ensuing year, succeeding Dr. W. C. Cameron who retired due to business pressure. Bill Cable will fill the office of Vice-President; Bill Dyson continues as Secretary and W. Laughlin as Treasurer, completes the Executive Committee.

Thanksgiving Day will see a repetition of the big affair of last year, but this time it will be held at the Exhibition track where there is better possibilities for greyhound and spectator accommodation. The meet will be an open affair for dogs from any part of the country and Secretary Bill Dyson expects all the prominent owners to enter their dogs. He can be contacted at Grover 1841 or 136 Wheeler Ave. — Globe and Mail, Toronto.

IRISH TERRIERS

Mr. M. W. Thompson, of St. Paul, Minnesota, U.S.A., in renewing his subscription to Kennel and Bench writes in glowing terms of his recent purchase, "Ch. Newtownards Dan O'Mahoney" from Mr. W. T. McCord, of Clarkson, Ontario. Mr. Thompson is an ardent follower of the breed.

Irish Terriers in British Columbia were in a competitive category this year and Dr. Hoggan with his home-bred bitches took the Winners Bitch class. It remained for the International Champion, a Canadian-bred dog at that, "Newtownards Dare Devil" to top the Irish entry. This chap is a real Irish Terrier and undoubtedly one of the best we have seen up here in years, a credit to his breeder Mr. McCord of Ontario.

Mr. Joe Caswell, Edmonton, the well-known Irish and Wire Terrier breeder, has fully disposed of a very outstanding litter of "Micks", sired by "Gillingham Bobby", a son of his old favourite, "Ch. Erincrest Mister Dignity" and out of "Rose of Tralee III". Among the recent sales were males to Dr. Gourlay, of Drumheller, Alta.; Dr. Geissinger, of Daysland, Alta.; Miss Betty Cooper, of Edmonton, and Miss Wilson, of Ottawa (Miss Wilson is a sister of Dr. W. A. Wilson, Edmonton, well-known field trial enthusiast), while two females were sent to the Lurgan Kennels of Mr. B. J. Perry, of Saskatoon.

The Shamrock Kennels, St. James, Man., report a nice litter of Irish Terrier Puppies, six in number, three of each sex, sire being "Culbahn Commander", the dam "Ch. Culbahn Cukoo". This brace was imported by Mr. Dargie from Mr. J. R. Jackson, Coleraine, Ireland, and this, is their first mating, and something special is being developed in this litter.

KERRY BLUE TERRIERS

Kerry Blues were quality right through at our shows this year with the top honours going to the "American Champion Fancy Free of Delwin", ably handled by Danny Shuttleworth. This Kerry gained the Terrier Group at both shows and not a murmur of complaint was heard about the wins awarded, which is the right way to win. Mrs. Gladys Peers showed a youngster which has much promise and incidentally reports sales of importance to the Orient and Eastern Canada.

NEWFOUNDLANDS

Despite the fact that Mr. Goddard in his Saskatchewan Notes some time ago, apparently confirmed our suspicion that Mr. M. M. Wallace, of Saskatoon, would not entirely dispose of his kennels of Newfoundlands without leaving some strings attached, we learn that the genial Monty has shipped his last representative of the breed, a male, just over a year old, to his friend, Mr. W. M. Henderson, well-known railway mail clerk of Edmonton. This dog, who is sired by "Ch. Shelton Cabin Boy" ex "Thalassa of Drumnod", is at least the fifth of his litter to come to Edmonton and the second to come to Mr. Henderson. Although this gentleman has not formerly been known as a dog fancier, we cannot imagine any one having two dogs of this quality without being tempted to enter the show game. In fact, as all of this litter which have come to Edmonton are extremely typey, one would naturally look forward to real competition at future shows. We might mention that a female of the same litter "Jewel of Drumnod", and the dam, "Thalassa of Drumnod", are now in the Mill Creek kennels of Mr. John Patterson, Edmonton.

OLD ENGLISH SHEEPDOGS

Mrs. A. Williams, of Winnipeg, now well known as a breeder of Old English Sheepdogs, reports a fine litter of puppies, five dogs and one female. Sired by the recently exported "Ch. Broadlands Blue Bob" ex the well known matron, "Raindrop". The puppies are all nicely marked, with clear heads, and are on a par with the best that have been produced by this classical pair of Sheepdogs, "Bob" and "Jean".

PEKINGESE

Mrs. W. Powles, of the Yangtse Pekingese Kennels, Vancouver, has imported two females of exception breeding from the well-known Toytown Kennels of Miss Connell, New York. These new importations were bred previous to shipment and British Columbia

Pekingese ranks will in time benefit from this new blood. The females and their offspring will be able to claim heritage to such well-known Pekes as the "English Ch. Rin Tin of Hesketh", "Ch. Wee Jock of Hesketh", "Ch. Hop O of Hartlebury" and their outstanding direct descendants.

Mr. H. D. Belknap, of Vancouver, who had the misfortune to be a part to an unsatisfactory deal in his last male purchase from the other side has not become too discouraged and has imported a young female which will give him new bloodlines and a complete outcross from his present stock.

Fresh from her recent success at the Toronto Exhibition, "Shu Fuh", a topping grey brindle daughter of "Ch. Tan Fuh of Aldertowne" (Imp.), has just arrived to the order of Mrs. M. B. Leupold, bred by Miss Claire Capel and out of a daughter of "Harriston Tom Til" (Imp.) "Shu Fuh" will surely continue to make her show career interesting to her new owner and will later on be mated to Mrs. Leupold's "China Ching of Wangza".

We also hear that "Kylin Khan of Cedarcrest", a small black Peke, has just been purchased by Mrs. C. de P. Doniphan, of Montreal, from Mrs. P. A. Margeson, of Kentville, N.S. We have no details as yet but feel sure it must be a good one.

POMERANIANS

Mrs. Ena Bell, of Victoria, B.C., had the misfortune to lose a very promising Pomeranian just recently, but is consoled to some extent by the future prospects of her "Shantung Zoe" purchased from Mrs. Bruce, of Toronto, and we predict that "Zoe" will meet with a very good measure of success in the show ring and be a strong contender for the Group Class.

Mrs. E. Bradley, of the Milesleigh Pomeranian Kennels, Vancouver, has been a very consistent winner at our recent shows and has a sextette of youngsters from such well-known winners as "Int. Ch. Wembley Goldshade", "Ch. Milesleigh Tiny Hatma" and "Ch. Red Robin" out of equally renowned females which will be making their debut in the very near future, and which I prophesy will follow in the footsteps of their illustrious parents.

RETRIEVERS

Retrievers were well represented at the recent British Columbia shows, the Rockhaven Kennels carrying all before them in Goldens, and those good sports, Mr. and Mrs. Clutton from Edmonton, Alberta, journeyed all the way here with three Labradors which unfortunately did not run up against the competition they expected to meet here.

SCOTTISH TERRIERS

Scottish Terriers are showing a little spurt of renewed activities in British Columbia and at the last shows there was probably the keenest competition seen in years with three importations vieing it out for top honours, with the honours divided amongst the "American "Ch. Bothkennar Fashion Plate" and the well-known Prairie winner owned by Chief Ritchie, of Calgary, "Ch. Viceroy". A close runner-up was the third importation, "Glenisla Chevalier", owned by William McGill. This dog was not at his best, as his coat was falling out and although the best showman of the lot his coat severely handicapped him on the day. Carnation Milk Farms showed a nice bitch, "Carnation Charmer", which can hold her own in any company.

Mrs. J. C. Reid, of Prince Albert, a new-comer to the dog fancy, and breeder of Scotch Terriers, is quite pleased over a litter of puppies out of her bitch, "Shealach", she out of "Isabel of Isla" ex "Ch. Littleburry Bartly", and "Laddie 3rd", out of "Lanark Jade" ex Ch. "Cockpen". The puppies were looking fine, and give promise of putting the Waskesiu Kennels on the map. Mrs. Reid is very enthusiastic over the breeding and showing of her Scotties. Blessed with this enthusiasm, a lot of common sense, and a keen sense of humour, we are sure Mrs. Reid is made of the stuff that lasts in the game.

Mr. Dick Dewhearst, of Prince Albert, has recently purchased a male Scotch Terrier puppy from Mrs. J. G. Reid, and if all goes well we will be looking for Mr. Dewhearst with his Scotty at our next spring show in Saskatoon.

Mr. Stan Webb, of Saskatoon, is patting himself on the back these days over the arrival of a litter of three male Scotty pups, out of his bitch, "Normandy of Kerryglen", and "Toddler of Din".

Mrs. Wade, of Winnipeg, Man., has very kindly donated a female Scottie pup to Mr. Geo. Roast, of Regina, to be given to two elderly pensioners of Regina, as a gift.

Mrs. F. R. Nichol, Saskatoon, is quite proud of her litter of Scottie pups, four males and two females, out of "Tyronne Peggy" and "Nichol's Hector". Mrs. Nicol reports sales have been quite brisk.

It has come to our notice this year how many veteran stud dogs have changed hands. Care of the sires seems very apparent for we know in Scotties recently stud dogs of the breed five years and over have been bought and sold with excellent results.

At the very recent New Brunswick Kennel Club Dog Show, "Ortley Michael", a veteran of six years, Mr. Alf. Delmont awarded him Winners Dog and he looks good for many more shows. Mrs. Wm. Constable, of Boston, a keen Scotty exhibitor and owner of "Michael" also won with her "Heather Charming", Winners Bitch, Best Terrier and Best in Show, all breeds.

Another worthy award in Scotties was that of "Cossar Clarisa" a seven months' old home-bred, an attractive debonair brindle bitch awarded Best Puppy and the Canadian Kennel Club Inc. Trophy for Best Canadian-bred Puppy any Breed.

Mr. Robert Laskey who reported in these columns re the importation of "English Ch. Reefer of Rookes" and the sale of their veteran stud dog "Ch. Heather Highlander" of Cossar Farms. "Heather Spellbinder", sire of "Heather Highlander", had this summer come to America, having been imported by Dr. Fayete Ewing who is enthused with the merits of the veteran "Heather Spellbinder". "Heather Walter", one of the sons of "Ch. Ornsay Baba" and "Heather Fashion Hint", has been claimed from the Cossar Farms by Dr.

J. W. Page, Andover, Ohio. Dr. Page is to visit Cossar Farms and take another veteran sire from this New Brunswick kennel.

Bob Laskey reports several inquiries from the Western States and Winnipeg, Manitoba, for young stock by their "Reefer of Rookes", who he says has produced their best home-breds so far, the puppy "Cossar Clarisa" being a good sample.

Miss Ariel Beggs, Calgary, informs us that she has many enquiries for Scottish Terriers. The litter sired by "Brockley Kiltie" is of real quality.

Mr. Wm. Carson, Priddis, Alta., sends word that he has a promising litter of four Scottish Terriers sired by "Calgaree Soundman".

SEALYHAM TERRIERS

Mrs. Wally Bowden, Victoria, B.C., reporting on her Sealyham activities, sales from the Drumadoon Kennels have been numerous and good prices received. The two female pups imported in dam are being kept for future breeding. They are out of "Nutfield Snowberry", sired by the famous "English Ch. St. Margaret Serene".

Sealyham Terriers were remarkably small in show numbers at the recent Pacific Coast shows. The Drumadoon Kennels' newly importation, "Manobier Messenger", going to the top at each show here. This young dog, although of smaller statute than some of our home-breds, is a quality dog right through and the honours awarded were very favourably received in general. Mrs. Woodward's female importation, "Demure Damsel", referred to in my last month's notes, rightfully gained top honours in Bitch awards and again I say that this bitch is the kind which will stamp the right type in her progeny. Mr. Davies of Abarard Kennels showed a very promising young dog but evidently he did not catch the Judge's eye on the day and went Reserve Winners to "Manobier Messenger.

Mr. Robert Hogg, of Saskatoon, has sent his Sealyham bitch, "Swansea Brock Trailer" to Mr. Fred Beale, of Winnipeg, for breeding.

Sealyham Terriers seem to be very much in the spotlight in Edmonton these days and some spirited competition may be looked for at shows during the coming months. Mrs. M. D. Gardner feels that she has a real winner in her home-bred puppy, "Felbourne Followon" by "Int. Ch. Hillsome Ace" ex "Ch. Hollybourne Sally". Equally confident is Mr. J. Rawlings with his young dog recently purchased from Mrs. W. P. Bowden, the former Miss Margot Robertson of the Drumadoon Kennels, Victoria, B.C. This dog, which was mentioned in last month's notes, was sired by "Ch. Nutfield Senator" (imp). ex "Ch. Drumadoon Dawn Flight". Another competitor who will also have to be reckoned with is Mr. Thomas John who has more recently purchased "Ch. Nutfield Senator" himself, from the same kennel.

SETTERS

English Setters were small in numbers at the recent shows in British Columbia, the major award going to Dr. Magnusson's bitch, "Celias Sensation Babe". The Irish Setter entry was topped by Hack Forbes' good dog which I believe is now a champion, "Strathbogie Red Mac", and this dog had the honour of winning Best in Sporting Group on the last day.

Mr. G. G. Ryder, owner of the Irish Setter, "Lady Barbara of Meynall", winner of the C.K.C. trophy for the Best Canadian-bred Puppy at the Bedford show, is convalescing from a serious operation at Camp Hill Hospital, Halifax. This is Mr. Ryder's second operation since his recent illness, and we are pleased to report that he is progressing favourably and hope to see him back in the dog game very shortly.

Mr. Fred Radcliffe, of St. Catharines, Ontario, is a pleased man these days. His "Int. Ch. Moira" is nursing a litter, sired by the celebrated, "Ch. The Baron Gore", owned by Dr. Leeper, of Cleveland, Ohio.

SHETLAND SHEEPDOGS

There are rumours of some importations in Shetland Sheepdogs, these mighty atoms who always attract attention at our shows. Our only stalwart exhibitor at the present time is Mr. Mackenzie Matheson and his daughter, Miss Jean Matheson. The writer was rather amused at the sign displayed over Mr. Matheson's exhibits, "YES, These dogs are full grown".

SPRINGER SPANIELS

Mr. Geo. Roast, of Regina, reports that he has a beautiful Springer bitch puppy, that looks like the makings of a good show dog. This puppy is out of "Little Birdy", sired by "Game of the Woods", he owned by Mr. Roast. Many offers have been made for this puppy, but, so far, she has not been for sale.

Cramped kennel space has put a temporary check on the breeding operations of the well-known Springer fancier, John Willox, of Prince Albert. All he has room for at the present time are those two good old standbys, "Dazzler of Avandale", sired by "Int. Ch. Bogherst Rover" and "Blue Boy". These two dogs were at one time well-known in the show rings; both are looking one hundred per cent., although not as young as they used to be, but still able to give their owner the best of service in the field.

Dropped in at the "Silbervale" for a bit of news, but they seemed so busy it was hard to get them into conversation. However, I did see three nice Springers being crated for export to the U.S.A., one of them being the good young Springer pup, "Ch. Dunoon Defender", whom I noticed was being shipped to F. A. Oatman of the Brandon Kennels, Brandon, Vermont. Since that time I had the pleasure of reading a letter from Mr. Oatman, which I am privileged to quote. It reads as follows: "'Ch. Dunoon Defender' arrived safely at his destination on September 2nd, and he fulfills in every respect the description given him, and in my opinion comes the nearest to the standard of perfection set for this breed of any that it has been my pleasure to see." Mr. Oatman also states that he is shipping him right away to the noted American handler, Nate Levine, and he will be seen at many of the American fall shows.

Springers seem to run second to Cockers in numbers of entries in British Columbia, and a home-bred Springer owned by C. Butler, "Butlers Flirt", went Best of Breed at our last two shows.

Mr. E. D. Jeans' Springer, "Our Own Dan of Davie", must be very close to his championship, having won Winners Dogs at one of the recent shows, whilst W. T. Oates', "Seafield Chief", accounted for Winners Dogs at the other show. It was pleasing to see Messrs. Busby and Heath down at the shows with an entry of Springers from the Abbotsford district. The writer's Springer, "Keiths Kim", completed his championship at the Nanaimo Show under the well-known International Judge, George S. Thomas.

Mr. J. Rawlings, Edmonton, has sold his young Springer dog, "Quantock Fencer", to Mr. Geo. Kynoch of Winnipeg. "Fencer" is a very attractive black, white and tan marked dog, and is a litter mate of the now famous bitch "Quantock Supreme", Best of Winners at the last Morris and Essex Show.

WELSH TERRIERS

Mr. Van Mourik had a great display of Welsh Terriers at the recent B.C. Shows and it was tough luck to be beaten for top honours with a single entry from the other side, but to be beaten by a good one is not such a disappointment and the "American Ch. Winnie of Bangor" has done a lot of winning before invading our shores.

Welsh Corgis appear as a regular entry at British Columbia Shows and although they are not as yet shown in large numbers they command attention and I believe are here to stay. Mrs. Pottruff and Mr. Gardner of Alberta proved the only competition in the last shows.

DO YOU REALLY WANT TO BREED BETTER COCKERS?

From time to time our dogs have always done well.

WHY?

Here's the answer: "Ringwood Pluto", Fee, $15.00, sire of Cavalcade, Plutocrat, Autocrat, Fan Dance, Our Lady and grand sire of Ladysmaid and a host of other good dogs. Pluto is sold and will be leaving Canada in the spring of next year.

Use him while you have the chance. We also have for sale, brood bitches, young stud dogs, and puppies, all colors.

COMPLIMENTARY

Captain H. Dudley Waters, M.C., the perennial Show Secretary and Show Superintendent of the National Kennel Club Show will not be in office this year. His health will not permit the use of concentration and endeavour that the onerous duties of the office calls for. The calling in of the Foley Dog Show Organization to take on the responsibilities of the show is a decided compliment to the doughty Captain whose steady but slow progress to health is a delightful feature to his host of friends.

C.N.E. DOG SHOW

The forty-ninth annual Dog Show has now passed into history and we may look forward to the show of 1938, which will be the Golden Jubilee event and for which rumors are already rife as to its proposed grandeur and unusual features.

The show under notice was a very smoothly run affair, and whilst the falling off in the general attendance at the Exhibition may have been noticeable in the dog show crowd, on the whole the public response was good, and the closing events were witnessed by as representative a gathering as at any time in recent years. The large showroom was tastefully decorated and the benching and ring accommodation would be hard to improve. The judging was run off according to schedule, and whilst the ring service was a bit "spotty" in places there was no real cause for complaints. Superintendent Peter Herd, Mr. J. McNaughton and staff are worthy of praise for their great work. President of the Dog Show committee, Mr. A. A. Macdonald, and his associates put in a full time attendance, exhibitors and visitors receiving full benefit by their presence.

The judges all put in their appearance and the awards on the whole were well received.

Mrs. Marie Stone, who judged Terrier breeds, was new to Canada, and it was noticed at times that her gallery grew to great proportions. The awards were closely followed throughout.

The veteran, Mr. Vinton P. Breese, was also an unknown quantity to the majority, and this colorful adjudicator from the volumes of applause that accompanied his awards will doubtless be added to the list of regular judges in the Dominion.

Mr. George Kynoch, the only Canadian on the panel, and who heard the call of the West just 26 years ago, did his job with his usual thoroughness. His many friends will wish him a pleasant journey and a safe return from a trip to Great Britain, which he commenced directly after the show.

Mr. Alva Rosenberg, whose efforts were confined to Boston Terriers and the Toy breeds, is well known on both sides of the line and the fact that the Boston Terriers had the largest breed entry emphasizes the esteem in which he is held in Canada.

The dogs:

The total entry showed a shrinkage from that of a year ago, and whilst this is always to be regretted, the four top breeds were: Boston Terriers, 51; Cocker Spaniels, 44; Pekingese, 30; Wire Fox Terriers, 29. In strange comparison we find English Setters with only five representatives; Collies, eight, and German Shepherd Dogs, seven.

The Groups:

Sporting (7)—First, Cocker Spaniel, Col. George A. Carruthers' "Watermark of Ware". An English importation of many qualities and in great shape and a free mover, of somewhat ample proportions for our tastes. Second, Pointer, F. F. Wooton's "Tucks Gift". A big dog in good form, sound mover. Third, Springer Spaniel, W. P. Gudgeon's "Ch. Whitelight". Well known, shown too light in flesh.

Sporting Dogs (Hounds) (6)—First, Borzoi, C. W. James' "Pattina of Barnaigh". A big dog with a suspicion of coarseness, and whilst handled by that agile veteran, Peter Foubert, his movement left something to be desired. Second, Greyhound, Mrs. E. E. Bornell's "Twilight Hour". A sound blue, well put together and a beautiful mover. Third, Dachshunde (Smooth), Victor Moench's "Achat von Werderhavelstrand". A grand dog, too low down.

Working (8)—First, Old English Sheepdog, Leonard Collins' "Ch. Ideal Weather". Well known, he was in extraordinary coat and never left the award in doubt. Second, Great Dane, "Ch. Quagga von Loheland". This well-known brindle never looked so well, and her deportment was excellent. Third, Doberman Pinscher, Geo. A. Taylor's "Navigator's Girl". A good one in great shape and shown well.

Terriers (13)—This was the hottest collection of the evening and no one envied Mrs. Stone her position. The outcome of the struggle lay between Mrs. H. H. Swann's "Boarzell Brilliance", a Wire Fox Terrier bitch of outstanding merit, and Sid Perkins' Airedale Terrier, "Ch. Cotteridge Brigand". The latter never looked so well and certainly he never showed better. They were placed as written, with ringside opinions being divided. Two good dogs. Third, West Highland White Terrier, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Blochin's "Ch. Rowmore Ardsfuir". A typical little dog and also very well put down.

Toys (6)—First, Pekingese, Mrs. Jas. M. Austin's "Int. Ch. Tang Hao of Caversham Catawba". A great little dog with beautiful coat and fringes. He showed and moved well. Second, Pomeranian, Mrs. G. G. Thompson's "Billy Black Acre". In better coat than we have seen him and showed well. Third, Toy Terrier, Black and Tan, Miss Janet W. Mack's "Ch. Russell's English Girl". A fine specimen of this not too popular breed. Her place was second.

Non-Sporting (6)—First, Bulldog, Reg. P. Sparkes' "Ch. Morovian Mainstead". Looked really well but had no walkover. Second, Boston Terrier, Dr. O. M. Deems' "Elyria Easter Parade". A really fast one this and in superb form. Third, Poodle, Lewis Greenleaf Jr.'s "Blackeen Corbeaux". A good black, much improved on his Oakville form.

Best in Show, "Ch. Ideal Weather".

Reserve Best in Show, "Ch. Kamel Morovian Mainstead".

Best Canadian-bred, "Ch. Ideal Weather".

Best Puppy in Show, Boston Terrier, L. Vetter's "One O Oscar Odd".

AIREDALE TERRIERS AT THE C.N.E.

With 20 of the Biggest and Best Terriers benched, the breed had the most healthy sign of the year.

Mrs. Kenneth D. Marlatt of Oakville and Mr. W. H. Humphries of Richmond Hill benched no less than six and eight respectively. The success of the latter was most marked. To run one and two in Novice, Canadian-bred, Limit and first and third in Open and Winners dog is a fair bag indeed. They were home-bred at that. In bitches, "Lamorna Primanora" followed on with first in Novice, Canadian-bred and Limit, second in Open and Reserve Winners.

Mrs. Marlatt's "Warland Michael" ran second Open and Reserve Winners; he was on the end of the line for a time, but he would not settle down to his work and was handicapped by a lack of coat. The meeting of the giants was when Mr. Hinson Stiles' "English and American Ch. Briggus Princess", who had taken first Open, Winners Prize and Best of Winners, met Mr. Sid. Perkins' "Tri. Int. Ch. Cotteridge Brigand" for Special for Best Airedale. The former has probably cut the widest swath in the American prize lists of any of her breed this year, and her bow to Canadian competition was the highlight of the breed judging. She is a good one, well up to size, good coat and color, long head, good front and moves right and A1 ring manners. "Brigand" scored in skull, eye, ears and top decidedly. His coat, which touched well, was hardly as forward and accentuated his good outline. He won with something in hand.

HAMILTON KENNEL CLUB FALL SHOW

Bravo, Hamilton. Another good dog show has been held and the officials are due for all kinds of congratulations on its success. The Barton Street Arena was all fixed up for the occasion and the new benching in striking colors added greatly to the general appearance of the scene whilst the comfort of the exhibits was further assured. The judges were: Mrs. Violet Baird, German Shepherds; Mrs. Denyer, Toy Breeds; Mr. W. H. Cowin, Boston Terriers; Mr. Wm. H. Shanks, all other breeds and Best in Show.

The breed entries were topped by 51 German Shepherd Dogs, and here the Hamilton Kennel Club established the second record of the year for this breed. Nineteen Wire Fox Terriers came next with 15 Boston Terriers in third place. Fourteen Scottish Terriers and the same number of Cocker Spaniels had the fourth place, together, surely a new low for the latter popular breed.

Groups:

Sporting—First, English Setter, C. H. O. Pook's "Drumgannon Diamond".

Sporting (Hounds)—First, Beagle, Gaterry Kennels' "Kamor Pen Star".

Working—First, Great Dane, Mrs. T. C. Hopkins' "Ch. Nalty's Max".

Terrier—First, Wire Fox Terrier, Miss E. Moodie's "Albany Better Still".

Toy—First, Pekingese, Mrs. John Lang's "Ch. Meng of Balcroft".

Non-Sporting—First, Boston Terrier, Dr. O. M. Deems' "Ch. Elyria Easter Parade".

Best in Show—"Drumgannon Diamond".

Reserve Best in Show—"Albany Better Still".

Best Puppy in Show—Mr. J. T. Stewart's Collie, "Kingsvale Coronet o' Thrums".

IMPORTANT NOTICE!

We are pleased to announce that the conditional amendments to Article 17—Rules of Eligibility, and known as "I" and "J", have been approved for endorsation at the next Annual General Meeting of the Canadian Kennel Club, Inc., and that in the meantime the Records Office is in a position to deal with applications for registration coming within the scope of

I. "Dogs born in Canada registered in the National Coursing Association Stud Book, The Field Dog Stud Book, The International Fox Hunters Stud Book, provided the certificate of registration as issued by any organization above stated is filed with the Canadian National Live Stock Records. If official three-generation pedigree is not obtainable, evidence of authentic ancestry for three generations may be filed with the Canadian National Live Stock Records. Registration of such an animal may be made but no certificate of registration issued. This rule shall be deemed to have come into effect on August 1st, 1937".

and of

J. "A dog born in Canada for which provision for registration has not previously been made and for which is filed a complete three-generation pedigree of authenticated breeding shall be and from August 1st, 1937, shall have been eligible for registration. This rule to terminate December 31st, 1939".

For the convenience of owners of dogs that cannot furnish an official three generation pedigree in connection with registration, declaration forms have been prepared and will be sent on request to those interested so that authentic evidence of three generations of pedigree may be filed with all such applications for registration.

All certificates of registration issued under the Regulations "I" and "J" will have printed thereon the following notation:—

"This registration is conditional upon enactment by the Canadian Kennel Club at its next Annual General Meeting in February, 1938, of appropriate retroactive legislation".

As soon as the conditional amendments shall have been passed at the next Annual General Meeting (1938) all certificates issued and bearing the conditional notation must be returned to the Records Office in order that the regular official certificate of registration may be issued to replace the certificate issued under the conditional arrangement.

NOTICE PARTICULARLY that Section "J" will automatically terminate on December 31st, 1939, and be governed accordingly.

BULLDOGS AND OLD ENGLISH SHEEPDOGS AT THE C.N.E.

By the Judge

Twenty-four Bulldogs, whilst far removed from the prodigious entries of years ago, were a smart turnout, as the breed stands today. In a retrospective mood it appears to us that whilst size and shape of heads have improved, and unsoundness remarkable in its almost total absence, there is a marked deficiency in body lines and the accompanying flat backs are far too numerous. The general condition of the whole was very good.

J. H. Millar's "Pat Solarium" led in Puppy Dogs. He is massive in head, well grown, fit and sound. He needs to tighten up all over.

Geo. T. Elgey's "Marwell Bunjie Boy" came out in Novice and topped four classes finishing up by taking Reserve Winners. He is a really good youngster, with impressive head, short face and good underjaw, too light in condition and could be improved in top line. Following him at a respectful distance was another good sort in W. Shand's "Raeburn's Lad". He also scored in balance and could go and come right, needs more finish before the eyes.

Open Dogs, heavy-weight, saw the new Kamel importation, "Kamel Morovian Mainspring." This chap, just over a year old, has a lot to recommend him. Big skull, short face, lots of depth and beautiful ears. His skull needs to flatten which maturity will surely do for him. He took Winners Dogs, his keenest competition being met for Best of Winners where his kennel mate and Winners Bitch, the English Champion, "Cefnmabley Queen", put up quite a tussle. She is a nicely balanced white with lemon ticks. A big little one teeming with quality, grand head and face qualities, heavier underpinning and finer hindquarters would enhance her chances; she will go a long way. Walter Brown's "Kempston Lovely Lady" an "October", daughter of "Champion Basford Ideal", put in a real day. A dog headed low to ground white, she behaved like a veteran. Her bag included a shoal of red ribbons and her precocity landed her the Reserve Winners tag. She needs to tighten up but a commendable puppy indeed. Best of Breed competition saw the entrance of "Champion Morovian Mainstead", a great Bulldog taken from any angle. His massive head, short face, big nostrils, grand front, shoulder, and bone to his feet appeal. His body, too, in massiveness and lines are everything to be desired. To top him off, his gait is that so closely associated with high-class specimens of the breed and so seldom seen today as to be almost forgotten. He won easily and afterwards headed the Non-Sporting Group and finished his jaunt by being placed Reserve for Best in Show all breeds.

Old English Sheepdogs were a nice show of eleven, quality was well to the fore and even coats, for the time of the year, were in good condition.

Winners Dog.—Clearbrook Kennels' "Brandywine of Clearbrook" stood out on the day. He scored in size, soundness and beautiful movement. Topped off by the Clearbrook bloom for which his fair owners are so well noted. Reserve Winners—T. J. Davidson's "Shepton Greymantle", another new face and a fitting carrier of this world known prefix. He scored in colour and was very fit but could have travelled better.

Winners Bitch—Clearbrook Kennels' "Champion Susan of Clearbrook", yet another home-bred and a really good bitch; on the day her covering was not A1, she, however, led the field in head qualities, movement and style. Following her closely was another Clearbrook entry the well-known "Champion Snowflurry". She shows the sere and yellow, and lacked in hind movement but was always, and is now, a really good sort.

Best of Breed—Leonard Collins' "Champion Ideal Weather". This well-known campaigner stood right, moved right, and looked right. What more need be said except to remark on his wonderful bloom and presentation by Loveridge and his ring manners par excellence. The Working Group also fell to his lot and to complete a perfect day, Mr. Breese awarded him Best in Show all breeds.

GEO. KYNOCH.

THE "DAY AND NIGHT" SHOW

"Once-in-a-Lifetime" Appointment

As judge of all but Australian breeds at the Melbourne Royal this year, Mr. Steadman Thomas will present an opportunity to exhibitors of securing opinions which have never yet in the past arisen from such wide experience and international repute. Mr. Thomas judged his first show at Sheffield (England) in 1889, since when his services have been utilized at every large show in England (Birmingham, Liverpool, Blackpool, Manchester, Newcastle, Bradford, Leeds, Nottingham, Leicester, Shrewsbury, Brighton, Richmond, Bristol, Taunton, Bournemouth, Windsor, Cardiff, Swansea, etc.) and in Scotland and Ireland (Dublin, Belfast, Edinburgh, etc.). Several of these shows have re-engaged him five or six times. He has judged at the Kennel Club's Crystal Palace Show on numerous occasions, and there several times has received the high honour of being one of the judges to decide best in show. Every year he receives an invitation to judge at Cruft's, but since the date clashes with a large American show he always has to decline.

He has frequently judged in Germany, France, Holland and Belgium, and every large show in America, Canada, Honolulu, and Mexico. Last year he covered over 50,000 miles judging shows in America and Canada. The Canadian National Exhibition, which is of international importance, chose Mr. Thomas to award best in show. It is in this way that his great ability is acknowledged, for he is recognized as the principal "best-in-show" adjudicator.

Gundog enthusiasts should note that he spent six years of his life working and training Pointers, Setters, Spaniels, and Retrievers on the moors of Scotland.

As the American Press, referring to Mr. Thomas, says: "It is not where you win, but the judge you win under, that counts." Three pages are devoted to him in one publication.

At one time he took a most active part in the buying and selling of dogs. He secured the record price of £2,500 for the wire-haired Fox Terrier, "Meersbrook Bristles," and £2,000 for another—"Wire Boy of Paignton." He has sold dozens for £1,000 each, and this when the pound was of high value.—K.K.C. Kennel Gazette.

Dear Mr. Swann,

It will interest you to know that from my advertisement in the Chrismas Number of Kennel and Bench last year I experienced good results, which included enquiries from Nova Scotia breeders and services were booked to both our "Gleneden Emerald" and "Lord Lovat". The demand for puppies was also extraordinary and the majority of American visitors to our kennels this summer were undoubtedly prompted by the same advertisement which you will remember I expressed my appreciation early in the year.

Yours Faithfully,
G. C. FRASER.

JUDGES REPORT OF FIELD TRIAL CHAMPIONSHIP FOR 1937

Sunday, September 5, saw the sixth annual Field Trial Championship for German Shepherds with an ideal day again, the suffocating hot spell which Toronto and district had been suffering from having desisted the previous day.

I, as judge for the first time in any capacity, was apologized to by several would-be entries. It seems that the rule prohibiting entries of bitches in season to be the chief reason for non entry. This was unfortunate but, nevertheless, a very necessary rule, and I am making the best of it as my reason for not bringing forth a much larger field.

I tried to speed up the trial by having one trail layer properly equipped with a sufficient number of articles, all exactly similar to be dropped and used him again with another group of similar articles in test 4, i.e., picking out an article from among four other articles. This pleased everyone as being very fair, as all dogs had the same scent to work from a new article placed by him on each occasion.

Personally I think it did speed things up because in two and one-half hours the first four tests were finished by all four entries, making an average of less than ten minutes per test, which is very good considering that (1) is retracking from 100 yards, (2) trailing on lead from stranger's scent at 200 yards, (3) scouting over a given ground for three lost articles, (4) picking out a designated article from among five stranger's articles, and to boot each stranger's scent was eight minutes old. So you see, the co-operation by the exhibitors was 100 per cent.

At this point I was greatly disappointed by the lack of good trailing, Mrs. Levack's "Boots" being the only one to show a 100 per cent performance. One of the other dogs negotiated two out of the three turns perfectly, and then going completely off. While the winning dog made the first turn and still doing well received an unnecessary command, went up the field later to find the article from the back trail showing that he recognized the scent and later the article.

Dr. Halderson's "Rum", who in former years showed great keenness, yes, even expertness, seemed to not what it was all about.

The other tests of these first four were also performed beneath par, and I think I was not alone in the fear that none would reach the 75 per cent of perfect figures in order to qualify for the title, "Field Trial Champion of Canada for 1937".

However, after lunch saw a complete change inasmuch as gun sureness as well as the obedience tests, eleven in number were completed on the average in beautiful style, with the exception of the water work, and here let me say that in years to come some provisions should be made that on account of inclement weather this test may be performed in quieter or less dangerous water. In this instance the Oakville River could have been used, and so we all live and learn.

My winning dog turned up in "Northmere's Indian Chief", owned by Mr. C. W. Radford, who together have been close up these last three years, incidentally above the 75 per cent and thereby qualify for his Service Dog Certificate and the Championship Title as granted and recognized by the Canadian Kennel Club.

His score of 427 out of 500 would have compared favorably with previous winners had he been more efficient in trailing and more fortunate in climatic conditions as far as the water work was concerned.

Next in line with 372 points, just three short of his certificate reqquirements, was Dr. Halderson's "Rum". I really believe that the cool weather made him feel just too good to pay his usual attention to the doctor.

Next was Mrs. Levack's "Boots von Gettensby", scoring for her first time in this senior class 364 points, followed by another junior also coming along fast in the person of Mr. William Underwood's "Rex von Gettensby", scoring 341. A year or two of competitive sport and these two will be indeed heard from.

I would like to take this opportunity of thanking the exhibitors for being on time whenever called and the large gallery for their enthusiastic support. This indeed made my job a very pleasant one.

SASKATCHEWAN CHICKEN TRIALS

On August 29th, a banquet, well attended by some two hundred and fifty sporting dog owners, trainers and members of the Saskatchewan Fish and Game League, was held in the main dining room of the Hotel Grant Hall, in Moose Jaw, Sask., to celebrate the fourth annual field trial for Pointers and Setters.

The trials were one of the largest, if not the largest, of its kind ever to be held on the continent. Some of the most outstanding dogs of Canada and the U.S.A., coming to compete for the stakes. Many of the dogs have been training in this province all summer, proving beyond any doubt that Saskatchewan, as a game country and a hunter's paradise, cannot be excelled.

The Hotel Grant Hall was again the official headquarters of the trials, the actual running taking place in the Buffalo Lake district, about thirty miles north of the city. The grounds were a great improvement over last year, although a little more cover would have been desirable on some of the courses. There was certainly no lack of birds for the dogs, particularly on the afternoon courses. Few fences and good visability enabled the judges and gallery to follow almost all the work of the dogs. Another improvement on other years was the means of transportation. The horses and rigs were of much better quality. This fact was due no doubt to the keen foresight of that sporting enthusiast, Bob Hutchinson, who offered a cash prize for the best saddle horse and turn-out.

The judging was very capably handled by Henry P. Davis, from Washington, D.C., and Mr. Miller from Calgary, Alta., both showing an untiring interest in every brace run. Mr. Miller, alighting from his gig at every opportunity, when the dogs came on point in cover.

Winners, Amateur Ch. Stake

The opening event was the Amateur Championship, starting on August 29th, won by "Spunky Creek Coin", white and orange Pointer dog, bred by Mrs. Nina Billingslea of Okla., owned and handled by E. J. Shaffer of Hutchison, Kansas. The decision was made after a second series heat, with the Setter dog, "Black Hawk's Kid", owned and handled by C. E. Duffield of Tyler, Texas. Both dogs put on an outstanding exhibition.

Prof. All Age Stakes

The All Age Stakes commenced bright and early on the morning of August 30 with sixty-eight dogs in competition. Two full days were needed for the completion of this big event, the judges announcing their decision after the running of the last brace on Tuesday evening. "Airpilot Sam", white and liver ticked Pointer dog, owned by L. D. Johnson, Ind., and handled by Ed. Farrier, was the winner, adding to his already impressive list of victories. "Spunky Creek Coin" again ran in the money by taking second place, while his kennel mate, "Spunky Creek Boy", also owned by E. J. Shaffer and handled by B. F. "Dutch" Epperson, placed third.

Prof. Derby

The Derby got away to a good start on September 1st with forty-eight dogs entered. "Wayside Lulu", white and liver Pointer bitch, owned by J. B. Danial, Texas, and handled by Howard Kirk, proved herself an outstanding winner after having run a second series heat. "Anthony's Betty Joyeuse", owned by Charles Forer, Harrisburgh, Pa., handled by G. M. Crangle, placed second, while "Wayside Annie", also owned by J. B. Danial and handled by Jett Crawford, placed third.

Our 1937 Christmas Annual

A year ago we asked for your co-operation to assist us in producing our special issue for the Yuletide season. How splendidly that request was answered from coast to coast is now a matter of history.

Two short months from today our special Christmas issue will be in the hands of our readers.

The lasting effects of Christmas advertising cannot be equalled by any other means of publicity; of this the many experiences enjoyed by our patrons of a year ago provides ample proof.

The early reservations of advertising space for the December issue almost gives us a feeling of optimism as to the final outcome of the project, but this cannot be allowed to cloud the issue as a certainty.

Write us giving your requirements and wishes now.

The Club section will again be available for Specialty and other organizations. Secretaries and other officials will no doubt take note of this.

The listing of advertisers who have reserved one-half page or more in the Christmas Number on or before October 20th will appear in the November issue of Kennel and Bench.

There are copies of the 1936 Christmas issues of Kennel and Bench which may be obtained free on request and may be found useful as a reference.

Saskatchewan Chicken Championship

"Highland Bimpkin", Pointer dog, owned by Dr. L. D. Crumpler, Danville, Va., and handled by Dewey English, Highpoint, Carolina, carried off the juiciest prize in the professional events when he gained the title of Saskatchewan Chicken Champion and $1,080 in prize money.

Amateur All Age Stakes

"Muscle Shoals of Saskatchewan", owned and handled by W. G. Ross, Moose Jaw, Sask., went to the top in two of the five amateur events, winning the All Age stake and the open shooting dog stake. Owned and handled by P. W. Graham, Moose Jaw, Sask., "Rapps Spunky Pat" placed second in the All Age, with "Hagel's Nell", owned and handled by William Little, Rosetown, Sask., placing third. The Dr. David Low cup and medals were offered in this stake.

Open Shooting Dog

"Muscle Shoals Saskatchewan", first; "Drewry's Mack", owned by Angus McNeill, Saskatoon, Sask., placed second, with "Blandford Sonorias", owned by J. Burkinshaw, Saskatoon, Sask., running third. The Melon Dew cup and medals went with the winning of these stakes.

"Algie", owned by Harry Felt, Findlater, Sask., won the R. L. Hutchinson cup by placing first in the Sask. Amateur Derby, with "Rapps Spunky Pat" in second place and "Spunky Creek Lady", owned by William Riddle, Rosetown, in third. The last named dog was handled by William Little, Rosetown.

The W. L. Joyners Memorial cup, prize in the closed shooting dog stake, was won by "Cautious Dot", owned by Morgan Rutherford, Moose Jaw, with "Lucky", owned by Harry Felt, second.

Cocker and Springer Trials

The Plaxton cup, for competition in the Cocker and Springer event, went to "Danny", owned by C. L. Theophen, Moose Jaw, with "Riddle of Levendale", owned by P. W. Graham, second. "Riddle of Levendale" was bred by J. M. Ayre of Saskatoon. Judges for the Amateur events were G. L. Gabriel, Harpster, Ohio, and Herbery Beaver, Dawson, Okla.

Our party, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd O'Rielly, "Pitt" Graham, Monty Wallace and myself, arrived at the scene of the trials on Tuesday evening, just as the last brace was being run, and stayed to hear the judge's decision on the winners of the stake. Having established our headquarters at the town of Chamberlin, about seven miles away, we returned there to retire early, in preparation for an early start in the morning.

Wednesday morning all up, after having been kept awake most of the night by an electrical storm and heavy rain. The start was called for six, but as the rain continued until almost eight, everything was late in getting started. Even after the start was called it continued to shower for a short time. To us the rain was almost welcome, after such a dry summer, but some of the trainers from the Southern States seemed to think they could look for snow at any time. However, the dampness served to lay the dust and freshen the scent of the birds.

Having started out in a buggy, it did not take some of us long to get horses to ride, which enabled us to see better and get in on every point.

The morning course was quite hilly and one had to travel at a good rate of speed to keep up with the dogs, as they were running fast and wide. The route was laid out to form a circle back to the starting place.

Time off was taken at the Buffalo Lake to water our horses. An amusing incident occurred when Bob Hutchinson's horse decided to lay down in the cool waters and have a bath, his rider (not Bob) just leaping clear in time to avoid a ducking, but getting mighty wet just the same. From the lake we proceeded to the farm, where excellent meals were served. As only one hour was allowed for meals, a hasty dinner was eaten, with a few minutes to spend in a smoke and discussion of the morning run.

Back to the horses and rigs again at one o'clock. From then on until six we travelled uphill and down dale, over culverts and coulees, across ploughed fields and stubble, hay fields and just plain prairie. Sometimes at a leisurely pace, when the dogs were working close in, or at breakneck speed, regardless of gopher holes and other hazards, when the exhilirating call of "Point" rang out.

In all but championship events the dogs were only run for half an hour. As one brace was being picked up, and the other put down, the time was spent in stretching our legs and congenial bantery between the trainers and the gallery.

The last brace finished at six, about a quarter of a mile from the farm house. Supper was not served at the tent, so we hied ourselves back to town. After a much-needed wash, we satisfied our very hearty appetites, retiring at about nine, amid squcaks and groans from the unusual exercise, mighty glad to crawl between the sheets.

Thursday, up at our usual time of four-thirty, to get dressed, washed and grab a hot breakfast, to be on deck by six. We were joined by the rest of the party from Saskatoon, consisting of Dr. J. T. Cooper, J. M. Ayre, Stan Webb and Alec Randall.

Away to a good start, we were soon all excited over the prospect of watching Joe Burkinshaw's Pointer dog run, everyone climbing to points of vantage as the dogs were put down. Joe is one of our local trainers and was running one of his own outstanding dogs. It was only natural that we should become greatly enthused over the running of this brace. Neither Joe nor his dog let us down, the dog running a good strong race. Unfortunately, having a rather poor course to run, he could not quite do his best, but he managed to find birds and give us lots to watch.

Dr. Cooper, while having the time of his life trying to watch both dogs running at the same time, was badly bounced back off his seat a couple of times when his buggy started up with a jerk, or sunk down a gopher hole. Imagine the doctor's surprise at finding himself flat on his back in the middle of the buggy floor, pawing the air with his hands and feet in great style.

In for dinner and back for the first of the afternoon braces, to be set down by around one-thirty, the newcomers to the party feeling pretty badly shaken up, while the others, having by this time acquired their horse and buggy legs, were riding easy and able to enjoy themselves with only the occasional "ouch".

At six, over the ploughed field to the farm and eventually back to town. While waiting for supper, Mrs. O'Rielly entertained us on the piano. A gallant effort was made to back her up with our voices, but dust and too much yelling of "point" seemed to give our vocal cords a gritty twang; harmony was out of the question. A grateful silence ensued when the call of "Soups on" was heard.

We bid good-bye to Cooper, Webb and Randall, who were returning to Saskatoon that night, Mr. Ayre having left earlier on in the evening. Three more tired and weary gentlemen would have been hard to find as the three gently eased themselves into the car for their homeward journey, followed by jeers from the rest as to their ability to "take it".

Up on time Friday, out to the farm to get our conveyance, and join the gallery. The morning was cold and damp; some there were who called it invigorating and bracing; we found it plain cold. The dogs were running good and there was soon excitement aplenty.

The last part of the Derby was finished and the championship stakes got under way. We were able to witness the cream of the crop in chicken dogs do their stuff. One hour was given the dogs to run in these stakes. It was a treat to watch them, travelling at a swift, steady pace, swinging to the course at their trainer's whistle, taking in all likely-looking cover, wasting no time on cold scents or bare ploughing, coming to point while travelling at full speed, often to be honored on their point by their running mates, holding the birds until the trainers, judges, and gallery got there. After the handler had dismounted, flushed the birds and released the dogs, they were off again eager for fresh game; sometimes running right off the course and out of bounds. Then the trainers gave an exhibition of skilled horsemanship, riding and manoeuvring to bring the dogs back on the course.

The sun came out to warm things up a little in the afternoon, but a cold wind made us feel very grateful for heavy sweaters. As the last brace was finished we hurried into the car and back to town.

It was the finish of the trials for us, as we all had to be home by Saturday. Our meal at the hotel was rather a gloomy affair. Everyone hated to leave; there was this dog and that dog we wanted to see run. Trailing over the prairies, watching the dogs, seemed to have gotten into our system; we longed to follow on to Pearson, Man., but if wishes were horses, beggars would ride. So, after quietening the inner man, our luggage was collected and the start was made for home. Occasionally, during the long night drive, the stillness would be shattered by the piercing cry of "Point" or "Ho Gal", our weak imitation of the handler's call, and a reminder of the thrills of the past few days.

Arriving home Saturday morning in the wee small hours, utterly tired and weary, but ready to talk the whole thing over, if anyone wanted to listen to us. No one did at that hour of the morning.

Some things that stick in our minds about the people at the trials are: Monty Wallace, sporting a two-days' stubble growth on his chin, all keyed up over a point; forgetting what he did with his teeth, looking all over the buggy floor, in his pockets or anyone else's for them.

Dr. Cooper, badly sunburnt, busy rivalling the candid camera man with his brand new camera. (We fondly hope some of the pictures he took will not turn out.)

Harold Graham (Pitt to everyone but his mother) with his long running gear draped gracefully around a small pony, carrying a pained expression under his freckles.

Stan Webb, badly bent in the knees, sliding off a horse to painfully crawl into a buggy.

Jack Ayre, with a determined look in his eyes, holding one end of the wagon seat down much lower than the other end, and taking the bumps like a gentleman.

Lloyd O'Rielly, wearing a hat that old Noah threw out of the ark, driving a frisky team for the first time in a good many years and not feeling so good about it.

Pat Randall, face black as the ace of spades, trying to look dignified while riding a horse, with stirrups three inches too long, and failing utterly.

Dr. Robb, riding quite cool and collected in a buggy, until a brace was put down with a Setter in it, his coolness deserting him then for something that looked mighty like excitement.

Bob Hutchinson, wearing a large Stetson and cutting a fine figure on a high stepping horse.

Polly O'Rielly entertaining the gallery on a high-stepping plough horse.

Alec Randall, displaying the latest in windblown haircuts, astride a strawberry roan, using both eyes on the dogs and two hands on the saddle.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Riome, starting the morning trek all spick, span and shiny; coming home in the evening after following the dogs all day, bubbling over with excitement and pleasure, and covered with grime and dirt.

Mr. W. G. Ross, gaining admiration and respect from the gallery and trainers alike for the very efficient way in which he handled the trials, and the long hours he was forced to spend in the saddle as field marshal.

Bill Little, looking prosperous as ever, with the usual cherubic grin and big cigar.

THE VALUE AND IMPORTANCE OF VITAMIN D IN THE FEEDING OF DOGS

By T. G. Joyce, B.Sc., F.I.C.

Within recent years a great deal has been heard about vitamins as essential constituents of food, but as yet their importance is not always fully appreciated. For a long time it has been recognized that certain foodstuffs are particularly valuable for the maintenance of health, but the reason was not always known. Several vitamins have been discovered in various foods, and they have been named vitamins A, B, C, D, and E. Of these, probably the one of greatest importance to dogs is vitamin D.

As regards the other vitamins, with ordinary care dogs usually get enough in their food, but this is not always the case with vitamin D. It is absolutely necessary for dogs to have sufficient of this vitamin, as a shortage spells disease. The first signs of a deficiency in puppies are the deformities characteristic of rickets. One should not wait for these to appear, as damage done cannot always be repaired, but rather take the necessary precautions to prevent their appearance. Osteoporosis and osteomalacia are also vitamin D deficiency diseases.

Vitamin D is fat-soluble and is present in most animal fats, such as beef-suet, butter, cream, egg-yolk fat, and cod-liver oil. On account of its property of preventing and curing rickets it is called the anti-rachitic vitamin. It is necessary for growth and for the production of sound bones and teeth. Naturally, bones and teeth cannot be formed without the necessary mineral substances, chiefly calcium and phosphorus. But even if these are present in abundance in the food, they cannot combine to form bone without the help of vitamin D. A sufficiency of this vitamin also helps in preventing destruction and decay of both bones and teeth when formed.

Rickets in puppies is responsible for the crooked legs so often seen, even though slight. These deformities are the result of a shortage of calcified bone in the limbs. What solid bone there is, is of the right composition, but there is so little of it. The shafts of the bones are easily bent, and the joints swollen with uncalcified tissue.

Osteoporosis is a disease in which bone already formed has been absorbed and replaced by new but badly formed bone. This may happen both with puppies and with older dogs.

Osteomalacia is a painful disease that occurs in older dogs. It is brought about by a withdrawal of the mineral matter from the bones. Those dogs most likely to be afflicted are bitches bearing and rearing young on a diet deficient in these substances or in vitamin D.

A sufficiency of this vitamin is of the utmost importance to growing pups, and those that are growing the fastest are those that require the most; also to pregnant and lactating bitches, both for their own good and that of their whelps. It does not appear to be quite as necessary for other dogs, though all should have sufficient.

When properly fed and cared for, bitches seem to be able to keep up their own strength and to produce and rear strong and healthy puppies. Also they seem to be able to supply their offspring with enough vitamin D shortly before birth to last them for some time afterwards. Rickets in puppies is often looked upon as of natural occurrence or even passed unnoticed. If this were not so, one could hardly imagine that there would be so many puppies with legs not quite as strong and straight as they should be.

From the above it will be readily understood that a deficiency of vitamin D may prove a very serious matter for any dog. Fortunately, it is easy to ensure that there is enough. Vitamin D containing foods should be fed liberally to dogs. All meat contains a certain amount of fat, and dogs should always have plenty of meat. Another method of providing this vitamin is by allowing the dogs to spend a sufficient part of the day in the sunshine. It is easy to understand how it can be fed to them in their food, but it may not be so easy to see how it can be supplied by sunlight.

In certain fats there is a very small quantity of a substance called ergosterol. When such fat is consumed by an animal, some of this substance finds its way into the fat under its skin. By the action of the ultra-violet rays in sunlight, ergosterol becomes activated. In fact, it is converted into vitamin D. So dogs can obtain supplies of the vitamin either by consuming activated ergosterol in their food or by eating food that contains ergosterol and then exposing their bodies to sunlight.

Thus sunlight is of the greatest benefit to dogs. One should not go to the other extreme and condemn dogs to spend their days in the heat of the sun, yet they should have every opportunity of basking in the sunshine whenever they like. Airy and sunny kennels are essential for the well-being of dogs.

The question of the position of the kennel is not always given the consideration it should have. It should always face the sunny quarter, and the rays of the sun should have free access to the kennel and its surroundings, without having to penetrate glass. The ultra-violet rays cannot go through glass, and so are cut off by it.

Too large a proportion of cereal food is known to be detrimental to the production and maintenance of sound teeth and bone. This, however, can be overcome by a sufficiency of vitamin D. So that, when much cereal is fed, access to sunshine becomes of special importance. A dog can eat only a certain amount of food, consequently too large a proportion of cereal products should be avoided, as otherwise it would be to the exclusion of animal fat and other vitamin D containing foods.

Certain fish-liver oils are rich in this vitamin, notably cod-liver oil. Pregnant and lactating bitches should have a small quantity, from half to one teaspoonful every day, given either direct from a spoon or mixed with their food.

Puppies, after they are weaned, should also have an amount daily according to their size. Except during the hot, sunny weather of summer, the dose should be continued practically until maturity—that is, as long as their bones are developing and teeth erupting.

Like other vitamins, vitamin D has its origin in vegetable growth. Sunlight produces it in the ergosterol in the oil of growing green vegetation. This is eaten by herbivorous animals, or it is produced in the fat under the skin. The fat of these animals containing it forms the food of the dog, among others.

It is in a similar manner that this vitamin finds its way into cod-liver oil. The codfish consumes smaller fish, who have fed on still smaller fish. These, in turn, have lived on small forms of animal life that have eaten the fresh green growing plants that float on the surface of the sea.

While ergosterol is activated or converted into vitamin D by certain of the ultra-violet rays of sunshine, it is destroyed by other rays, consequently green food must be absolutely fresh to contain any of the vitamin. In addition, since for the conversion of ergosterol to this vitamin, sunshine is required, the amount produced both in vegetables and in animals cannot be as much in winter as in summer. Hence the necessity to the growing dog of cod-liver oil in winter as well as of taking advantage of any sunshine there is.—"Our Dogs".

HOW NOT TO BUY A DOG

By a Sadder and a Wiser Woman

You can get almost anything if you know the right way to go about it—even the truth. But that is the end of my story. It had been a long dream of mine, this very best of dogs that was to be, and at last I set out to find him—by the light of nature. A lone voyager on an unchartered sea.

"Read books, and thou shalt know," as a small acquaintance of mine, who has seen some nine summers, is fond of saying. Of the making of books on dogs there seems no end, and these I most carefully read. I pored over lurid pictures of all the ills that even a puppy is heir to, and it was some time before I plucked up courage to take any further step towards the possession of a small creature which seemed born to trouble as the sparks fly upward.

Then I sought the advice of all my friends and acquaintances who had ever seen a dog, and diligently, straw by straw, garnered the following store of wisdom:

"Buy a mongrel for about half a crown; they are the most intelligent."

"Do not buy a mongrel; you never know what is in them."

"Do not buy a pedigree dog; they are nervous, inbred, and delicate."

"Buy a female; they are more charming and more docile."

"Do not buy a female; the male is less of a responsibility."

"It is best and cheapest to go direct to the breeders."

"Your best plan is to put yourself in the hands of a reliable dealer."

"Buy a Sealyham; they do not need much exercise."

"A Sealyham is no use at all—far too boisterous; buy a Scottie."

"Buy a dog a year or two old; it will then be quiet and settled."

Private Record Book

Our private record book has become very popular with our breeders, and it will become more popular still as its value becomes better understood. Some fanciers have purchased several copies which leads us to believe that they are writing up back records for their own pleasure and information. One of our real old time fanciers, who has bred and imported Fox Terriers on a large scale for many years, has this to say:

"SPLENDID—JUST THE THING.

I wish we could have had these record books thirty years ago when I started in first, what a history I would have written up by now."

Well, it's better late than never they say, and now is a good time to start writing private records, because, when particulars are recorded there is nothing left to chance.

"Do not buy a dog older than six months, or it will not be really your own."

"Buy a puppy; then your ways will be his ways, and your thoughts his thoughts."

"Whatever you do, do not buy a puppy; they run from one mischief to another, and destroy all that is in the house. We called our two Moth and Rust."

"From their colors?" I asked.

"No," she replied; "where Moth and Rust doth consume."

Thus equipped I started out on my search for the best dog in the world, and found myself trying conscientiously to follow out each of these golden rules in turn. In high hopes I went to see a Sealyham about two years old. He was a bulky, benevolent-looking dog, who bounced vigorously about the room and was ready on sight to welcome me (or anyone else) as "own god." But somehow this conveniently polytheistic animal was not the dog of my dreams.

Next I tried a dealer. He eyed me long and searchingly, and told me that he was ready to take me then and there in his car to buy a Scottie puppy, but that his choice must be my choice. I am afraid I indefinitely postponed our trip.

"When in doubt, don't," or, in other words, never make a decision in a hurry or when depressed. I did both. It was at a pet shop, but a stormy interview over the telephone almost immediately afterwards gave me my freedom once more, and I plodded on.

My next visit was to a famous canine club, from which I obtained a list of seven breeders of Scotties. I wrote industriously to them all, and had exactly one reply.

It was from an ex-officer to say that he had just sent off two puppies to Australia for £100. When I recovered from the shock of this piece of news I perceived a postscript, in which he swooped from the heavens, and made a neat landing at my side, kindly offering to obtain me one for five guineas.

"Why," I ask myself, "did I not go to see this gentleman? Might he not have been of an open and ingenuous cast of countenance, one who would perchance have led the ignorant and unwary by the hand?" But no; I passed on, unheeding. At last there came a day when I paid nearly double what I had intended to pay for a Scottish Terrier six months old, recommended mainly on grounds of temperament. Somehow I felt it was the will of Allah. Or was it the will of someone else?

I shall not write the sequel to my story. It is enough to say that my quest has ended in disappointment, and to point the moral—never buy a valuable dog without expert advice.

HOW TO KILL FLEAS FROM DOGS AND CATS

Owners of dogs and cats are often alarmed and annoyed during summer and autumn by the appearance of actively biting fleas in their homes, sometimes in considerable numbers. These fleas, scientifically known as Ctenocephalus canis and C. felis, or the dog and the cat flea, respectively, may be especially troublesome after the home has been closed up for several weeks, while the occupants are away enjoying a summer vacation. The reason for this is that in temporarily vacant houses the cleaning activities of the housewife are suspended, and the fleas are able to develop and multiply undisturbed. In such cases, the fleas become famished, in the absence of the cats and dogs, and when the occupants of the house return they are likely to be attacked by large numbers of these voracious insects. Fleas may be recognized as small, hard-bodied, active insects, wingless, but possessing powerful legs well-fitted for jumping. Their mouthparts form a lance-like piercing organ with which they penetrate the skin of their victims and suck blood. Their laterally compressed bodies and backward-projecting spines are admirably adapted for allowing them to move rapidly among the hairs of their hosts.

Their life-history is briefly as follows: The small, white, oval eggs are deposited loosely among the hairs of cats and dogs or in their sleeping places. The eggs drop or are shaken from the animals and hatch into tiny, cylindrical, legless maggots, which feed on various organic substances in floor cracks and similar places. On reaching maturity, the larvae spin small silken cocoons and transform into the pupal or resting stage, emerging later as adult fleas. The period occupied by the complete life cycle of the flea, from egg to adult, and the length of life of the adult, are variable, depending on the food supply and atmospheric conditions. The former may be as short as two or three weeks, or much longer, and the latter may be from a few days to several weeks.

Investigations by an officer of the Entomological Branch, Department of Agriculture, Ottawa, has shown that infestations of fleas in dwellings may readily be eliminated, usually without recourse to fumigation. Control consists of three phases: (1) destruction of adult fleas in the house; (2) on the dog or cat, and (3) destruction of the immature stages (eggs, larvae and pupae) in floor cracks and similar places. The destruction of adult fleas in the house may be accomplished by spraying the infested rooms liberally with a good pyrethrum fly spray; those on the dog or cat may be destroyed by dusting the animals thoroughly, over newspapers, with fresh pyrethrum insect powder, which kills or stuns the fleas and causes them to fall on the paper, after which they may be destroyed by burning; or, the animals may be washed in a solution of cresol or creolin, 2 per cent for cats and 3 per cent for dogs, followed shortly after by soap and warm water. The sleeping places of the cats and dogs should be scrupuously cleaned. To destroy the immature stages of fleas, a thorough house-cleaning is necessary, using a vacuum cleaner, if available, and scrubbing the floors with hot soapy water. Particular attention must be given to the basement of the house, as this is most commonly the chief source of trouble.

THE LAW

There is a law in Massachusetts, U.S.A., which makes a person liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, who holds or harbours a stray dog for more than forty-eight hours without reporting it to the police.

KENNELS ABOARD!

Early in May it was my good fortune to have the privilege of boarding the "Queen Mary", that palatial ocean greyhound which not only provides majestic conveniences for her guests but in addition is equipped with what is recognized as the finest floating kennel in the world, located on the top deck with inside and outside runs, and under the supervision of a kennel man who is responsible to the butcher who has charge of the general care and feeding of the dogs, and believe it or not, the dozen dogs aboard looked as though they had enjoyed the trip immensely, all of them prominent winners from 'tother side of the big pond.—Dog Craft.

CHAPPEL AWARD NOMINATIONS

Announcement is made by the Chappel Kennel foundation that nominations for the fourth Chappel award for distinguished service to American dogdom may be made during the coming months. All nominations must be filed on or before November 15. The final selection will be made by a board of five judges whose names will be announced later.

Anyone may make a nomination, and any person who has broadly distinguished himself by contributing to the welfare of American dogdom may be nominated. All nominations should be addressed to the Chappel Foundation, Rockford, Ill. Previous winners of the award are Philadelphia's George Francis Foley, president of the Foley Dog Show organization; Boston's James Wheelock Spring, one time general counsel of the American Kennel Club; and New Jersey's Mrs. Marcellus Hartley Dodge, chief sponsor of the Morris & Essex Kennel Club Show, world's greatest outdoor exhibition.
