A TRYING TEST

Make a test. Throw some table scraps on the ground out in the yard—bits of bread, pieces of potato, vegetable scrapings, pie leavings, cake crumbs—any of such waste stuff as you might have. Then break up a Ross-Miller Standard Dog Biscuit and throw the pieces on the ground.

Call your dog. Watch him. See what he does. See what instinct tells him. See whether he goes for potatoes and bread, and cake and pie, first or for Ross-Miller Dog Biscuits. We'll abide by the decision of your dog. What he says is good enough for us. If he prefers cake and pie to milk, beef scraps, fish meal, bone meal. alfalfa meal and whole wheat he's spoiled. He needs conditioning.

Of course any dog will eat meat scraps, but too much cooked meat is bad. Ross-Miller Dog Foods provide a nutritious dog diet scientifically balanced—a diet rich also in the vitamins and minerals requisite for vital energy.

Grocers, Department Stores, Feed Stores and Dog Shops sell Ross-Miller Dog Foods. Write us if you can't get the service you want.

THE COVER

On the cover this month is pictured a recent arrival from England, Trevillis Fear Less, purchased by Mrs. Hugh J. Ryan from Mrs. F. A. Santer, owner of the Trevillis Kennels and donor of the coveted Trevillis Trophy at Cruft's.

Fear Less was born April 4th, 1937, a son of Champion Dry Toast ex Champion Balgray Joy, and is a grandson of Champion Marmion of Marmion and of Inveresk Cameronian.

He is a liver and white and was reputed to be the best headed English springer in England. He was placed first on the only three occasions exhibited in England, and earned highly favourable critiques by authoritative judges. Included in his wins was best gun dog in show.

Fear Less was imported primarily for shooting over and also to perpetuate in Canada the blood lines of Dry Toast and International Champion Nimble of Hamsey, Mrs. Ryan having previously imported a Dry Toast bitch in whelp to Trevillis Cuthie, son of Nimble. It is now her intention to mate Fear Less with her own females.

What's Wrong with the Modern Airedale

BY GEORGE F. DOWNER

Is today's Airedale serving its intended purpose or can its usefulness be improved

WHAT is wrong with the modern Airedale? If you love "the biggest and best terrier," you will probably answer hotly: "Nothing!"

Very well. Then put the question this way: "What is the cause of their declining popularity?"

It would seem beyond dispute that the breed has declined heavily in popular favor. Where, years ago, there were a dozen, you will scarcely see one to-day. Bear in mind, this refers to the lay dog world—the fraternity of one-dog owners. I know this to be true in the western United States and the Northwest provinces and I believe it true of other sections. Twenty-five years ago, you could not pass through a town in Montana, Washington, Idaho or British Columbia without seeing several Airedales. To-day, if you were to lead a Merry Sovereign through the same streets, the youngsters would probably ask: "What kind of a dog is that, mister?"

From about 1910 to 1920, the Airedales enjoyed an almost unparalleled boom and rode to the crest of popularity on the slogan: "An Airedale can do anything any dog can do and then lick the other dog." It may never have been literally true but I believe if it were as nearly true of the average Airedale to-day as it was then, the breed would still be as popular as it ever was, and its numbers in every community greatly increased.

The most common explanation of the Airedale's loss of popular favor is that constant inbreeding to produce and fix show type has resulted in a dog from which the old utility qualities have been lost. This generalization is far too simple and less than half true. There is a measure of truth in it but I personally believe that institutionalized methods of rearing the modern show terrier are a lot more to blame than line breeding.

Training and human contacts develop the character of a dog to an unusual degree. What can be expected when a puppy's only human contact is at feeding time; when his horizon is bounded by four walls and some kennel fencing; when his training consists only in submitting to grooming and trimming and in holding a show ring pose? From the condition in which many leading winners are shown, one would almost be inclined to wonder if systematic exercise is still included in their fitting for exhibition. Certainly, the feet and hind quarters of many modern champions do not suggest it.

If only physical type and conformation count in the show ring and one is breeding only for show, there is no good reason why he should pay much attention to courage, initiative and intelligence. By the same line of reasoning, such a breeder should not be resentful when it is suggested that the modern Airedale is too often lacking in these desirable traits. Most exhibitors will, however, deny this vehemently! They quote you the old slogan, when the evidence to the contrary is there for any real dog man to see.

This is not offered as a criticism of the modern show Airedale as such. Personally, I feel that the little band of devoted breeders who stuck to their favorites through good times and bad and who are responsible for our magnificent present day champions really saved the breed from practical extinction. They have produced a dog which from the standpoint of the Airedale standard is incomparably superior to the average winner of 25 years ago. And they have by scientific line breeding, so fixed its type that one can now be sure of producing superior specimens if a fair amount of breeding intelligence enters into the matings. More power to today's airedale breeders.

But I still contend that too many of our leading winners to-day lack most of the vaunted utility qualities of the Airedale and that many of our highly rated champions are just plain "kennel fools", with about the average courage of a rabbit. Their game pose in the ring is merely a well-learned act. When they go out of the gate, their tails and heads go down and stay down.

Logically, the owners of these dogs should say: "So what?" If they are breeding only for the show ring, that is a sufficient answer. But if they still produce an occasional puppy which is not a show dog and if they further happen to be under the financial necessity of selling their surplus stock, they should consider the likes and desires of the lay dog public which furnishes their potential market. In that case,

The opinions expressed in this article are those formed by the author after years of experience with airedales. They do not dispute the fact that many modern airedales are today being used as hard, varminty working dogs in the quest for bear, coyotes, etc.

they should give some consideration to re-establisning the temperament and ruggedness which were paramount in the Airedale when he was America's choice as a guard, companion and worker.

There is nothing inconsistent in this. The ideals of show and utility are not ant.thetic. The dual objective merely makes breeding a little more difficult, a little more challenging, a little more satisfying when successful. While there are doubtless others, I know of but two prominent Airedale kennels which consistently follow this policy. Each produces a high percentage of show dogs and smart aggressive terriers. And each works its Airedales consistently.

I agree with the Airedale editor of Kennel and Bench that the old qualities of the breed are undoubtedly dormant in most of our good dogs to-day and that, given the proper training, they can again be brought out. If Airedale breeders would sternly reject as matrons any shy bitches and would select as studs only dogs of known gameness and game ancestry, the biggest obstacle to restoring the old qualities of the breed would have been cleared. This would bar a few winning dogs as sires but would leave plenty of outstanding champions available. Training would do the rest.

About twenty-five years ago, the Northwest Airedale terrier club was a vigorous organization of some fifty members. Few men of large means but they were keen sportsmen. They bred for the show ring but most of them worked their dogs. Entries of from 35 to 50 Airedales were common at leading Northwestern shows. In 1912, the club conducted a futurity in which 14 litters were nominated and 19 puppies faced the judge at the Portland, Ore., show. The winner, Kootenai Chinook, was sent east immediately after this event and quickly won his championship in the largest spring shows in the East, New York excepted. The same season, he won the title in Canada, the first American-bred Airedale. I believe, to qualify as an international champion.

The photograph of Chinook here reproduced was taken when he was about a year and a half old, after weeks of work in the mountains of Montana, when he was hard as steel and very thin, a condition accentuated in the picture by the fact that his body coat had just been stripped practically to the skin. The full broadside shot of the dog certainly is not flattering—recall how few modern winners are ever photographed that way—but I submit that this Chinook was quite an Airedale. He defeated all the leading American-breds of his day in the East, under leading terrier judges such as George Thomas, the late James Mortimer, the late James Watson, Dr. Jarrett, Jack Bradshaw and others. This dog was a wonderful worker, a veritable seal in the water and as game a dog as ever lived, yet a super-showman.

Mr. R. M. Palmer, of Seattle, the first president of the Northwest Airedale terrier club, who bred and imported some splendid show Airedales wrote a book—All About Airedales—about 1910, which still has a considerable sale, I understand. Another book by William Haynes—The Airedale—also deals at some length with the Airedale as a worker. Both should, I think, be required reading for modern breeders!

EDITOR'S NOTE

Kennel and Bench invites the comment of Airedale fanciers on the subject of this article. In his treatment of today's Airedale, Mr. Downer has covered both sides of the question and left it open for discussion. The Airedale column of this magazine is open for such discussion in future issues.

Just a word about the illustration of Airedales with a treed black bear. This pack belonged to a man in Walla Walla, Wash., who made a business of training bear dogs. The bear in the picture was a captive, used for training purposes. Mr. Bear was turned loose in the "bush" wearing a collar and a short piece of chain and after he had gotten a fair start, the Airedales were put on his trail, eventually treeing him. To a modern Airedale man these dogs must appear as veritable mutts, and they certainly were not show specimens, even then, but all were pure bred, and eligible to A.K.C. registry. The winning Airedale dog puppy at Seattle in 1911, Kootenai Commander, a fairly good specimen, even by modern standards, was trained with this pack and Mr. Russell, the trainer, pronounced him one of the best bear dogs he ever saw, declaring that if he owned him he would value him at $1,000. Unfortunately, the youngster was a bit too game, too reckless. He failed to elude a swipe by a huge grizzly in eastern Washington, suffered a broken hip and had to be destroyed.

The foregoing is not written to suggest that our New York and Morris and Essex winners should be trained on Rocky Mountain grizzlies—if any still exist—but what a wonderful thing it would be for the Airedale if someone like Mr. Stewart or Mr. Florsheim were to have some of his dogs, of breeding similar to his champions, trained on real game. I am sure the stuff is there and needs only training to bring it out. I am not acquainted with either of these gentlemen and possibly this suggestion may be regarded as presumptuous. I merely use their names because they are so outstanding in the fancy and have done so much for the breed.

The Airedale has in his ancestry, the ability to be a good pheasant and upland game dog, a real retriever from land or water, and ideal bear dog. Twenty years ago, he proved his mettle as a worker, all over the American continent. I believe he could do it again if given a chance. And what a boon it would be to the breed!

I have no suggestions to offer as to the modern show Airedale. I do not qualify as an expert. Most champions of twenty years ago would have a tough time if in competition to-day. The modern show Airedale has passed way beyond all but two or three of that early day. Just as a matter of personal preference, it seems to me size is being over-emphasized and that many of our winners to-day are too leggy and flat-sided, not to say houndy! There is no real reason for seeking a dog bigger than the standard, particularly if stature must be secured at the expense of symmetry, sound body qualities and powerful, well developed loins and quarters.

In conclusion, if it lay within my power to impose just one inflexible rule on all Airedale judges, it would be that they require all dogs to be shown on a loose lead, handlers being forbidden, on pain of disqualification, to lay hands upon their dogs—including tails—while in the ring! Then the real terriers would come into their own!

THE CANADIAN KENNEL CLUB, Inc.

Golden JUBILEE Year 1888-1938

By James D. Strachan

"The dark days are over now, and the old Canadian Kennel Club flies her flag to the breeze again, proudly and undaunted as ever."

(Kennel & Bench, September, 1918).

THERE was prophesy contained in the words quoted above, and probably the figurative and descriptive chart shown on pages 12 and 13 of the Golden Jubilee issue of Kennel and Bench last month will substantially uphold the suggestion, from 876 members, 1542 registrations, and an income from these sources of revenues of $3839.47 in 1916, to 1337 members, 7626 registrations, and $19,765.80 in revenues from these sources in 1936, and the club's other activities, publishing, dog shows, field trials, etc. in proportion, the whole substantially warrants the exuberant confidence of the September, 1918, contributor.

Immediately after affiliation with the Live Stock Records the Canadian Kennel Club began to feel the security which follows in the train of substantial all round business improvements, the stability of the rally was speedily sensed, but many were the very distractive liabilities looming their ugly heads in full view of badly discouraged officers, for instance the Stud Books were again falling in arrear, fifty odd championship cups, and many club medals were in arrear. The Club's official organ was the property of a private individual, nevertheless the immediate future was promising, the sky was roseate, the atmosphere was charged with an optimism which threatened to become infectious throughout the entire country.

It must always be remembered with regret, that such men as John G. Kent who was President for eighteen years, and H. B. Donovan, who was Secretary for twenty-one years, and others of a like calibre were finally obliged to feel that much of their arduous labor had been in vain, just at the time when the new day was about to dawn, but we who have followed on, aye, and those who will follow on after us as well, will always remember sympathetically their long years of sacrificial service to a cause that must have been close to their hearts at all times.

Moving the club's headquarters from 111½ Jarvis Street to 774½ Yonge Street, was an early move towards the greater independence, although the $30.00 a month rental gave lots of cause for concern, even if it did include cleaning, heating, light and telephone services. Modest as this change was, the difference was most remarkable, and for the first time the club's property was covered by insurance, in its own name on a $100.00 policy. The writer received the "right hand of fellowship" at the last meeting held at 111½ Jarvis Street on September 30th, 1913, and so now claims continuous membership for a quarter of a century. The changes made in the second half of the period marking our Golden Jubilee year, have been almost revolutionary.

JOSEPH RUSSELL
Ninth President of the Canadian Kennel Club, Inc., February 14th, 1917—December 31st, 1925

The alleged top-heavy representation enjoyed by Ontario, particularly, was in itself merely a matter of convenient circumstance, and was traceable to that time, when for a $5.00 fee, a fee considered essential from the viewpoint of very necessary finance, a club was able to send a representative to the governing body at headquarters, this evil was acknowledged, although in reality it meant nothing more than a source of irritation to the other Provinces outside of Ontario. In order to balance representation to something akin to equity, the policy of Toronto Club representation was discontinued by the vote of the members on April 20th, 1914. This balance has been retained ever since.

A revised scale of fees featured the club's constitution at the time of its being found acceptable to the Department of Agriculture, and later accepted and confirmed by the Club. All the revised charges were considered to be perfectly reasonable by the members, and the arrangement, whereby a non-member was obliged to pay double the amount chargeable to a member, immediately and effectively stimulated the matter of the membership list exactly as that policy has continued to do until this very day. Any time a new fancier has a dog to register, there is always a prospective member in the offing.

The registration of litters beyond a stated period also brought new income to the Club's coffers. The policy calling for the registration of only the progeny of registered Sire and Dam was looked upon with grave suspicion, but the intervening years have stamped that policy with approval.

One other change made necessary by affiliation with the Live Stock Records was changing the financial year from September to August and recognizing the Calendar year to be the financial year. The new arrangement conforming to the practice of all other affiliated associations.

This is the eleventh of a series of thirteen articles by James D. Strachan, Secretary of The Canadian Kennel Club, Inc. This series, when complete, will chronicle the history of The Canadian Kennel Club, Inc., from its inception fifty years ago to December, 1958, and is being written as a feature of the Golden Jubilee Celebrations being held this year. A few copies of the issues of Kennel and Bench containing the first ten articles by Mr. Strachan are available at the offices of KENNEL AND BENCH

On Tuesday, October 5th, 1915, there was received as a Club member a man by the name of Joseph Russell, who had become enamored of the Airedale terrier breed. This dapper little gentleman had the advantages of parliamentary experience in the Dominion and Ontario legislatures, so it was quite logical that dog lovers should promptly recognize in the new-comer a possible leader, at a time when leadership was at a premium. This man was later to become the Club's President, and to share the Club's burdens.

At the Annual General Meeting of the Club, held in the Administration Building at the Canadian National Exhibition Grounds, on September 8th, 1915, neither the President nor any of the Vice Presidents were present to take charge of the meeting, so Arthur Atkinson was invited to preside. And it is probably quite fair to observe here, that it was, at this very pivotal point where it was definitely noticed that discouragement had finally secured an advantage over some of the finest men who had ever given their time and talent in the service of our organization. Probably the most important legislation evolved at that meeting, was the killing of a dog show rule proposed by John Miles, calling for puppies who had won first, second or third in limit or open classes to remain in the show until its close. The rule which finally found acceptance was "Puppies may be removed from a show after they have been judged, but only after the closing of the show in any evening." In the meantime that rule has been further improved by allowing the puppies to come to the show on the day they are to be judged, and then enjoy the 1915 provision for leaving the show at the close of such day.

As 1915 came to its end, and was replaced by a new year in 1916, the officers were further discouraged when the Club's Secretary-Treasurer and Kennel and Bench editor went down with a very serious illness, at this period the Club's President, Mr. Kent, with the aid of his lifelong friend George Barron, actually carried on the whole business of the club themselves for a time, and perhaps it was just as well that the club's routine business became less exacting for a short period about that time. On April 5th, 1916, Miss M. L. Rominger was engaged as Assistant Secretary, and in that capacity gave singularly fine service under very difficult conditions. Miss Rominger served until January 19th, 1917. The disqualification resolutions which had brought the names of so many fanciers on to the club's 'blacklist' were found to be denying individuals the advantages of registration, although such persons had not been guilty of any infraction of the Live Stock Act, and so on September 22nd, 1916, the disqualification resolutions were rescinded, leaving around one hundred persons free to seek renewal of membership, or to enjoy a full right to the Stud Book whether they renewed their memberships or not.

At the Director's Meeting held on December 15th, 1916, the Great War had been a matter of cruel circumstance for over two years, showed no signs of abatement. Naturally the minds of the Directors turned in the direction of 'Flanders Field' with Christmas so near at hand, and so it was agreed to keep all members in good standing who were engaged in overseas service. At this date it may be quite in order to paint the list of soldier members who participated in the Directors arrangement:

C. H. Aldwart, Alex Anderson, Harry Armistead, A. M. Belcher, D. J. A. Campbell, R. W. G. Card, Leslie Christie, R. W. Crump, A. C. Crush, Guy M. Drummond, Dr. C. Y. Ford, A. E. Grant, E. FOX TERRIERS—Their Origin and Standards

CONTRARY to the popular belief that the two fox terriers, wire haired and smooth, have a common ancestry and achieved their physical differences by studied breeding away from one single pedigree, the wire and smooth have sprung from entirely different sources. Although we have no recorded history of the breed earlier than the middle of the nineteenth century, profound students of the breed agree that the wire traces his ancestry back to the black and tan rough-coated working terrier of Wales, Derbyshire and Durham; and that the more important ancestors of the smooth were the smooth coated black and tan, the bull terrier, greyhound and beagle.

Rather than having been bred away from each other, the two breeds have been bred together on many occasion in an effort to get the pure white pigmentation, clean-cut head and more classical outline of the smooth into the physique of the wire. It is for this reason that no extended pedigree of the wire-haired fox terrier will be found without several smooth ancestors. The practice of this interbreeding has been almost universally discontinued in recent years in those countries where it is permitted.

From the year 1800 on there was plenty of evidence of the existence of both smooth and wire fox terriers although it was not until 1862 that there was any definite standard which breeders could use as a model in their breeding efforts. As far back as 1557, Dr. Caius, in his book "Englishe Dogges", refers to a "dogge called a Terrar", used for hunting fox and badger by creeping into the ground after the fashion of ferrets. From that time on, there has been increasing mention of dogs resembling the fox terrier until in 1800 the breed was definitely named and classified in smooth and wire haired divisions. In 1876 the English Fox Terrier Club drew up the standards of the breed and so well was it done that only one small change has been made since that date—the reduction of the weight of a male in show condition from twenty pounds to eighteen.

YESTERDAY'S GOOD ONE

A comparison of this picture with the sketches on the opposite page reveal the tremendous improvement in wire fox terriers during the last three decades as the result of a consistent breeding program

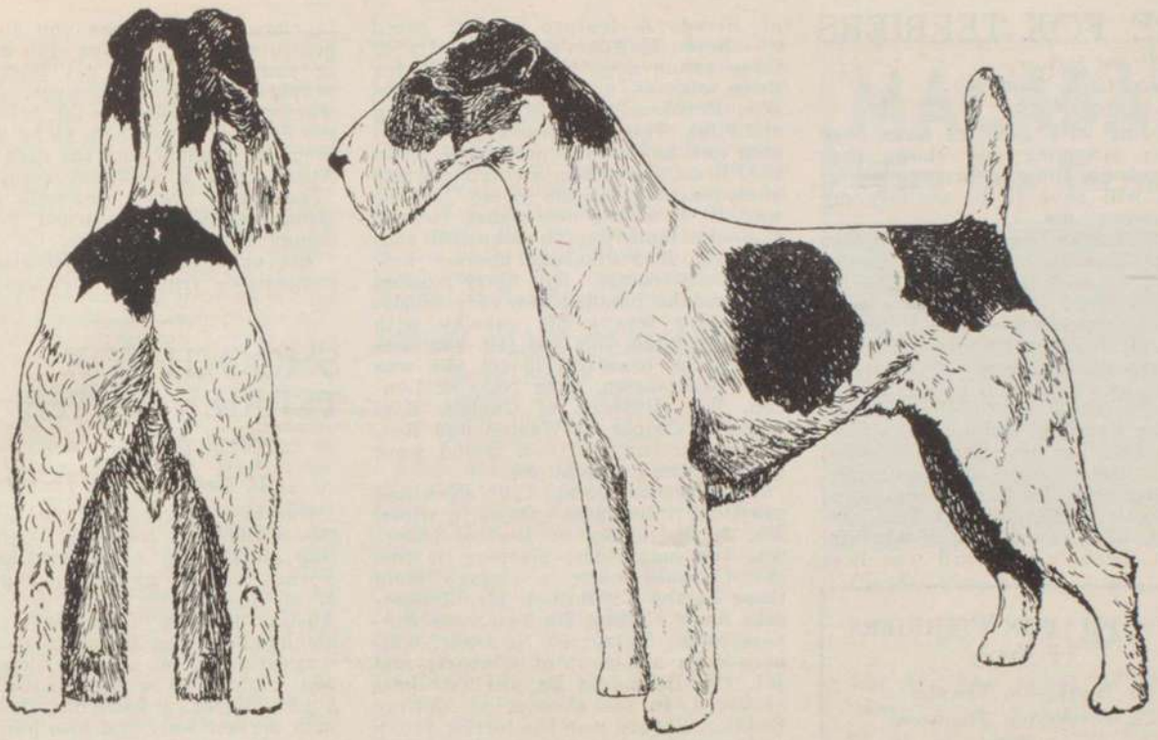

One of the finest descriptions of the perfect fox terrier is that of an English writer who, although anonymous, has created a word picture of canine perfection that could not be more accurate. We reprint it in full:

"He should be strong and gay, with a brave, wise way with him in the fields or at home. His head should be long and lean, with much strength in front of his eyes; these should be small and dark and full of the pride of life. His ears should be small, set high on his head, and in shape like a V. His neck be long with a slight arch. The bones from which the forelegs spring should slope well back and be nice and long, these forelegs must be straight and round and thick; his hindlegs strong with good reach, and his hocks should be near the ground; his feet should be small and round, and his pads thick. He should have a deep, but not at all a broad, chest; and his ribs should spring well out, so as to make a deep but not a flat side. His back should appear straight, or with but a slight curve; and his loins should be firm and strong. His tail must spring from the top and not from the back of the dog; it should be stout and stand straight up. His coat should be smooth, and straight, and hard, and dense. He should be white, but his marks, black or tan or both, may be of all shapes and on all parts of the dog, but there must be more white than black or tan; he must not have red or blue or liver marks. A dog or bitch should weigh at least a stone (14 pounds), and a dog may have up to four more pounds, and a bitch up to two more; much more than this does not help. He should move in a way that shows his limbs are sound and straight and free; but it is hard to make this clear in ink, and if a man can find no guide to help him in this, it will be well to ask a good judge of a horse to show him. In brief, when the dog comes to you or when he goes from you, his legs should seem to be straight and free and not too far each from each, nor yet too near; one's eye must learn to judge this with care."

It would be only fitting to pay tribute here to one of the greatest wires the world has ever known and who passed from this world last summer. He was Talavera Simon. It is fitting, too, that such tribute should come from Irving C. Ackerman, the greatest authority on wires of our day. We quote from C. E. Harbison's digest of Mr. Ackerman's article in the August "Popular Dogs":

"The 14 year life span of Talavera Simon is an epoch in the history of the wire haired fox terrier. . . . When he came into this world, Simon found the breed one thing; when he left, it was another. . . . Never has a single dog so dominated any breed, so molded it and impressed it with his own features. . . . Indeed, wire history may well be reckoned as "Before Simon and After Simon". . . . Simon was bred by A. J. Foster of Kettering, England. He was whelped May 1, 1924. . . . Sire, Ch. Fountain Crusader. . . . Dam, Kingsthorp Donah, a daughter of Ch. Barrington Bridegroom. . . . When he died he was owned by Capt. H. R. Phipps who picked him, at the age of five months, out of a litter they thought best break up because of their fighting tendencies. . . . Simon acted a demon in the ring the first time shown, so he was turned over to Bob Barlow who made Simon over into a great show dog. . . . He won his first championship certificate and first major award of any kind in August, 1925. . . . Most of Simon's products proved to be breeding animals of the highest degree. In his last days he was Capt. Phipps' companion. . . . Simon was one of those dogs that happen only once in a great many years."

The death of Talavera Simon brings forcibly to mind the tremendous effect one outstanding dog can have on the transition within a breed. May we add our own tribute.

Rear and side silhouettes of a well trimmed wire for the tyro trimmer to keep in mind while working on his dog

Trimming the Wire Fox Terrier

STRONG though the antipathy toward trimming may be on the part of a few die-hard, dog-in-the-natural enthusiasts, breeder and pet owner alike have conceded that trimming for a wire fox terrier is just as necessary as shaving for a man and hair trimming for a woman. It is purely a desire for comfort and best appearance. Judicious trimming of the long, half-dead hair allows the skin to "breathe" and preserves the wiriness of the coat enabling it to shed water and withstand the rigors of the elements.

To one who has never tried to trim a dog the process does not hold any apparent difficulties—simply a matter of cutting off useless hair in an effort to give the dog a silhouette similar to the standards. But, it is not quite so easy. Trimming is an art in which dexterity can be gained only after long practice. The novice would be well advised to experiment on several dogs whose appearance is not particularly important before attempting to groom a show specimen.

Necessary equipment includes a comb, a stiff brush, a stripping knife or dresser, a blanket of turkish towelling and some whiting or chalk. The chalk is sprinkled on the coat before to give the knife a better grip while the blanket serves to flatten the coat after the trimmed coat is washed.

Before starting to trim the tyro should study pictures of three views of the standard in an effort to commit the proper standard appearance to memory, since the object of the trimming is to make the dog look as close to the ideal as possible. Once this perfect silhouette is firmly fixed in the trimmer's mind he will find it a great deal easier to achieve the proper balance and proportion in his work.

The neck is trimmed closely and evenly down into the back, the back being made level and fine but not taken down as closely as the neck. The front section of the neck and the brisket are trimmed quite close, with just a trifle more hair left on down toward the spot where front legs and body join. The shoulders must be very neat and trim, so the hair at that point must be taken off closely. The forelegs must look as straight as pipe-stems—the line from the top of the shoulders down to the feet, and from the brisket down to the tip of the toes must be as straight as it can be made. Trim off the superfluous hair from the edges of the feet and between the toes, shaping the feet round.

Hair on the ribs should be shaped to follow body conformation. This means that the trimming must be adroitly done from the clean backline down over the ribs toward the underbody, where a fairly heavy coat is left on the under part of the chest, and beyond and beneath the ribs themselves. On the under part of the chest remove just enough hair to prevent shagginess, of course following the body line of the chest.

The hair in the region of the loin is taken off rather close and the underline at this point on both sides cleared to enhance the natural tuck-up, sometimes designated as waist-line. Hair on the belly is made to follow the natural body line, but is not trimmed off too closely. The flanks must be nicely smoothed off, but at the same time a fairly heavy-coated thigh is desirable. Even up the hair from the middle of the thigh down toward the hock, but avoid taking off very much here. The backline of the hock down to the toes must be trimmed straight, then the superfluous hairs taken from the feet and between the toes, and the feet rounded. Trim the insides of the hind legs down to the hock joint, so that when viewed from the rear a clean, even line is observed.

Now the stern and tail. Trim the stern very closely where it is joined by the tail, allowing it to be slightly heavier in its growth as it approaches the hind legs. Trim the tail evenly, but not too close, to a tip toward the head.

Trim the skull down closely, leaving the eyebrows fairly heavy over the inner corner of the eyes but taking

WIRE FOX TERRIERS

Breed Editor,
Dr. C. R. Boulding,
Aurora, Ont.

It seems wire fanciers have been so busy attending dog shows they have had no time to write, so our column will have to be entirely my own observations.

The Canadian National Exhibition show at Toronto brought out a nice entry of wires. Sid Perkins, of Airedale fame, made his debut as a wire fancier. He exhibited a newly imported wire bitch, Rockley Endeavour. When she becomes thoroughly "Canadianized" I predict she will be one of the leading wire ladies in these parts. She is by Eng. Ch. Holmwire Endeavour. At this, her first Canadian show, she was first in open and went winners. Dogberry Rio Grande completed his Canadian championship, I believe, by going winners and best of winners. Int. Ch. Benholme Bayard was Best of Breed. A feature of our breed was Rob't. McAdam's strong entry of three young dogs that accounted for three classes and reserve winners. Wm. Reucassel had a nice young dog and bitch. The bitch was reserve winners and looks very promising. John P. O'Brien showed an attractive white bitch that was "in the money" all the way. W. R. Fox, a new-comer, showed a stocky male pup in beautiful condition. J. B. Fuller was another welcome new-comer. His bitch looked well and he handled her very nicely. T. Cocker was a bit unlucky with his nice bitch, but we felt she was not in the beautiful bloom she was when last shown. John Ness of London, Wm. Rushton of Guelph, Miss Alice B. Cooper of Weston and Rev. W. H. Dunbar of Owen Sound were other winning exhibitors.

The Toronto Kennel Club show had practically the same entries in wires. Mr. J. W. Spring of Boston, Mass., was the judge. The placings at this show proved quite a change from those at the Exhibition. Mr. Reucassel's bitch, Gallant Duchess, was winners bitch; Talaurora Smasher, winners dogs and best of winners; and Int. Ch. Benholme Bayard was best of breed. In the absence of Nornay Saddler, Bayard won the terrier group and was placed reserve to the Doberman for best in show.

At the Hamilton show, with Miss Lena Shortt judging, T. Cockers' bitch, looking much improved, was winners bitch and best of winners. Talaurora Smasher was winners dog and Bayard was best of breed.

The London shows followed, and the entries here were not good. We would strongly suggest to the wire section of these clubs that they get busy and try to get better accommodation for showing dogs and build up a more attractive prize list.

Wm. Adair took a string of dogs to the Pictou County Kennel Club show at New Glasgow, N.S. Vivadora Happy Find, T. Cockers' bitch, was winners bitch; Talaurora Smasher, winners dogs and Int. Ch. Benholme Bayard went best of breed, best terrier and best in show.

It is rather disconcerting to notice the lack of interest being shown by some show giving clubs in certain breeds. It seems to me that wires are suffering in that regard. Wire fanciers, let me urge you to bring pressure to bear on the club or clubs in your vicinity to get busy when preparing their catalogues. An attractive prize list would bolster up the entries. Urge them to be as generous as possible with the cash prizes. Apart from a sufficient reserve for "The Rainy Day", proceeds of dog shows should be returned as prize money to the exhibitors.

Let us have your impressions and suggestions from far and near.

SMOOTH FOX TERRIER NOTES

Breed Editor,
A. H. Bassinder,
71 Coxwell Ave., Toronto.

Our breed received a real boost at the Canadian National Exhibition Dog Show when American Champion Nornay Saddler gained the high honor of Best in Show (All Breeds). J. Austin, of New York, Saddler, and his handler, Len Brumby, are to be congratulated on a truly meritorious win. Saddler is a great little dog—a nice mover, a beautiful show dog, with perfect body and nice hind quarters. The win he earned should go a long way to put smooths among the popular breeds again. Any faults a smooth has cannot be hidden under a long coat— they stand out, and consequently it has to be an exceptionally good dog to gain high honors.

I was pleased to see such a good entry of Smooths at the Exhibition Dog Show. We had nineteen, and when you compare that number with the wire-haired — also nineteen — I think you will agree with me that it is a good entry. I will not go into detail regarding the various classes, as the results are given elsewhere in this issue.

The Toronto Kennel Club Show, held the day after the close of the Exhibition show, did not draw the number expected. Exhibitors get a little tired at the end of a three-day show, and in all probability that is the main cause of the smaller entry.

I dropped in to see the Hamilton Kennel Club show on Saturday night, September 10th, just as a spectator. Here again the number of smooths entered was disappointing, but for once the show was over before 10.45 P.M. which was exceptionally early compared to other Hamilton shows. This is a step in the right direction, and should have a tendency to draw more Toronto exhibitors to future shows held in Hamilton.

The Canadian Fox Terrier Association are holding their Annual All Terrier Championship show on November 12th in the Labor Temple. It was arranged that Mr. Len Brumby should judge all breeds, but lack of permission from the American Kennel Club has caused the Show Committee to change their plans. I don't think I am premature in mentioning that one of Canada's leading terrier judges, W. McDerment, has been selected to judge the majority of the terrier breeds, Club Specials, and Best in Show. Mr. Ellison will judge Scotties; F. Smith will judge bull terriers; G. Davies will judge Kerry blues, and Mr. Harry Robinson will judge Cairn terriers. We aim to make this an outstanding affair, and promise more trophies and specials than ever before.

I am indebted to Mr. Ian Breakey of Breakeyville, Quebec, for an interesting letter in which he tells me of his smooth activities. He tells of two litters he has had this spring, one by his Ch. Breakeyton Freckles out of his Ch. Lapping Wavelet, and the other litter by a son of Freckles, Ch. Breakeyton Huntsman out of an imported bitch, Clapton Tempted. Mr. Breakey tells me he hopes to have entries in the All Terrier Show, and also hopes to be in Toronto for the Winter Fair.

I would like to congratulate Mrs. E. Lea on her dog, Barnsley No Mistake, gaining his championship. He finished at Hamilton, September 10th.

After a long, though unsuccessful, campaign in Canada, Lisnalea Enbuska, sterling Kerry from the Kenmare Kennels, Hamilton, has at last come into his own. During September he went best of breed at three shows, Canadian National Exhibition, Toronto Kennel Club and Hamilton—a just recognition of his merits although I feel he could have gone higher in the group. He is the first Kerry in Eastern Canada to gain his international championship. Another Kenmare Kerry whom the Spikers have put through to her title is Netswell Ranee, winner of nine points in Toronto and Hamilton this month.

Among the newcomers on the benches is a beautiful bitch by Ben Edar Birkie out of Ben Edar Bonnibell who has captured puppy honors at the only three shows in which she was entered. Named Dancing Daughter of Birkie and owned by Malcolm Bell, of Hamilton, she looks like a comer and should go far.

Ch. Drumhead Ballyshannon, owned by the Longview Kennels, Oakville, Ont., has been sold to the United States. Her new owners are a partnership, one of whom is the secretary of the Kerry Blue Terrier Club of America, Mr. Patterson. This good bitch, who was never defeated, created a record in Canada that will be mighty hard to beat. In one year she raised two litters of puppies and made her championship as well. Furthermore, many of today's winning puppies are out of those litters. Although lost to Canada now, she has left a string of good sons and daughters behind her, including Longview Sensation, winning pup at Westminster; Black Watch of Longview, owned by Miss E. Moody, of Hamilton; and several unshown puppies that will be making plenty of competition in the shows before very long.

One of the most encouraging features of recent shows is the number of good looking puppies making their debuts. At the Canadian National Exhibition they all showed lots of quality. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Spiker showed a couple of youngsters of their own breeding that, while still lacking ring manners, will develop into worthwhile specimens.

Ch. Kil-Barney, Mrs. Gladys Peers' splendid Kerry that is one of the most consistent winners in the west, still continues his victories. Best in show is his most recent achievement. At the Nanaimo show last month, he went over four American champions and several other potential best-in-show dogs to take top honors for the day. Mrs. Peers reports the sale of a good puppy to Dr. and Mrs. Wride, newcomers to the Kerry fancy mentioned in a recent column. Their puppy is by Ch. Kil-Barney out of Sheilan of Tralee.

AIREDALES

Breed Editor,
Mrs. W. H. Humphries,
R.R. No. 1,
Richmond Hill, Ont.

Canadian-bred Airedales made a good show at the C.N.E. and I am sure local breeders deserve a pat on the back for benching so many really delightful youngsters, typical, sound, and game. It was refreshing to see young bitches at their first show not only holding up their own tails, but occasionally showing their teeth! Ch. Boynehouse Brutus came up from Mr. Florsheim's kennels in Chicago to take best of breed at both shows.

Runner-up to him at the C.N.E. was Mr. Thompson's Glenalla Mississauga Don, possibly the biggest Airedale ever seen here, but with a head to match, grand legs and feet, and the right spirit. He was bred by J. G. Watson, of Chatham, who, with the exception of Sid Perkins, is probably the senior Airedale breeder in Ontario, by Bewdley Advocate ex Rockley Wendy, sister of the more famous Glitter. Congratulations to both owner and breeder!

Bitches were much more of a size, and as a whole, better in quality. One or two who came fourth or fifth would have been easy champions five years ago—a good sign, and a proof that we are on the right track. Limit and open were headed by our own East Thorpe Patience, for whom we can claim no credit, as she was bred by R. Whiteley and exported to us by Mrs. Everitt; but we must offer sincere congratulations to both for breeding and "spotting" a bitch that can come out again at over four years of age and defeat a grand batch of youngsters.

Reserve winners: Affection of Aldon, a sweet bitch that showed better than she used to do. Probably her spring litter helped to increase her confidence, and I hear she has a daughter better than herself.

Much the same dogs turned up for the Toronto K.C. show, and suffered far less from the four-day ordeal than their weary owners. Mr. Perkins's string of young Cotteridge Brigand bitches came into their own at this event, as Rockley Wondrous was winners, and Rockley Brunette 3rd in open with Patience between them. Still a puppy, this Brunette lady looks like taking over where her older sister, Riot Act, left off! Ch. Rockley Brigadier, too, got ahead of Ch. Mississauga Don for reserve winners.

In the show-ring we have certainly kept our end up this year. With Ch. Rockley Riot Act best in show at Toronto, Hamilton, London, Windsor, and Toronto Ladies, and Ch. Lamorna Proconsul best in group at three consecutive shows in the West, I believe we have a breed record, especially as both were born and reared in Ontario. Imported dogs have won several groups in the past, but it must be a very long time since two young Cana-

It was with regret that we heard of the death of Ch. Rockley Masher, at around ten years of age. Bred by Mr. S. Perkins, and imported in dam, by Ch. Ileene Brigand ex Ch. Rockley Reminder, he was one of a litter that contained four champions and a bitch who produced at least two champions. Masher's name appears in the pedigree of most of the Ontario winners from 1930 onwards, and he was the sire of Mrs. Marlatt's Ch. Good Mixer. A real terrier, with a beautiful eye and ear, and a hard black and tan coat that needed no "tinting", he passed on these good points, together with his stylish movement, to most of his progeny.

Toronto.

Two best in show all breeds, each time with a different handler was the record chalked up by Aslan Von Loheland, at the Central Canada Exhibition, Ottawa, and the Hamilton Kennel Club show last month. Good work Aslan, this makes the fourth great dane from the Cairndania kennels to capture best in show honours, the incomparable Pax Von Birkenhof, then Quagga Von Loheland, Senta Hexengold and now Aslan von Loheland, we hope when it comes to quintuplets that a homebred dane will make the fifth tops. The time might not be as far distant as one thinks, for Drachan of Cairndania made a good showing in the group classes at Toronto Kennel Club and the Western Fair show, and little Senta of Cairndania measures twenty nine inches at the shoulder at the age of seven months.

Without a doubt, and this is from a harlequin dane breeder, the brace of harlequins shown by Mrs. Matchett at the C.N.E. were a beautiful pair. Perfect in markings, stately in bearing, clean necks and skull they are a credit to the breed, I still wonder why they did not compete as a brace. The danes did not let us down however as Aslan von Loheland coupled with Ingle Hassia captured the award

Once more we find ourselves in a round of shows. At the Canadian National Exhibition Dr. Deems proved himself a very competent judge of our breed (a few ringside commentators to the contrary), and handed winners, best of winners and best of breed to an outstanding little American dog who has made his championship in nine days in Canada. He was Hagerty's Wee Tony, owned by Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Middleton, Cleveland, Ohio, and excellently handled by Paddy Boughs. He repeated these wins at the two London shows and went best non-sporting under Walter Reeves. Out of five recent Canadian shows, this dog has had one five point show, one four and one three.

Winners female at the C.N.E. was Maid of the Mist XIV, owned by Mrs. Edward Winters, Niagara Falls, N.Y., and handled over the entire circuit by Alf Loveridge. This splendid bitch was never defeated in her sex on the circuit and kept her winners female position in all six shows, completing her Canadian title.

Reserve winners dogs was Imperator Ace, owned by Mrs. C. Straubmueller, Pelham Manor, N.Y. Reserve winners female was Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Lynch's Bubbling Wee Deanna, sired by Paddy's Wee Sam.

Here's a date to be circled in red on the calendar of every Boston fancier in Canada—Oct. 10—the date of the specialty show of the Boston Terrier Club of Toronto, to be held in the Prince George Hotel, Toronto. An outstanding judge, Evan Ramsay, is scheduled to pass on the dogs and it looks now as though this show will be one of the outstanding events of the year.

From the Fayro Kennels comes news that Mrs. Frecker's Miss Fidget is in whelp to Hazelwood Kid with a blessed event scheduled for shortly after the specialty show. The Fayro stud, Gallant Lad, has also proved himself with a litter of three males and two females out of Tomkin's Beauty, owned by Mrs. Joe Tomkins, Toronto.

In looking over this column, one fact is rather startling. It looks as though the Canadian Boston news is all centred in and around Toronto. This cannot be so, because there are plenty of good Bostons in the East and in the West; but we are prohibited from telling of them because their owners seem reluctant to send us the news of their kennels. Let's make this column national in its scope. Once that is done it will become international in its influence, to the ultimate benefit of the entire Canadian fancy.

BULL TERRIERS

Breed Editor,
W. W. Rooney,
2331 Coursol St.,
Montreal, Que.

In the first stud book ever published by the Canadian Kennel Club, in 1889, the name F. F. Dole is prominent as a breeder of bull terriers. Fifty years later, at the Canadian National Exhibition this year, that same Frank Dole assumed a new importance among Canadian bull terriers when he judged our breed at the Bull Terrier Club of Canada specialty show. In the intervening years Frank Dole has led an interesting and colorful life sufficient to justify his statement at the C.N.E.—"I have lived a long time and a full life. I have not missed anything". As a boxer, a track athlete, a university athletic coach, a breeder, judge and latterly a newspaperman, he has numbered among his friends the high and low of American citizens; and throughout his entire life he has maintained an active interest in bull terriers. As a judge of the breed he has no peer. As a sportsman in dogdom, he has a record none can equal.

Asked to comment on his placing at the Canadian National Exhibition, Mr. Dole was most enthusiastic about Mrs. H. R. Wilks' puppy, War Admiral. Bred by Fred Coles, this young dog went right through the classes and we reproduce Mr. Dole's statement verbatum: "The puppy I put up so consistently is one of the finest youngsters I have ever seen. Nice eye, clean head, good muzzle, good hind quarters, firm of flesh, and uncropped, he was shown as a bull terrier should be shown. His greatest asset was that he was always showing himself. He seemed to know that he was in there to attract the judge's attention and was forever placing himself in front of me and looking at me as though he knew that I, alone of all the people in the ring, was the one he was supposed to impress. In this way he reminds me of my old champion, Woodcote Wonder."

The bull terrier is always in evidence at Canadian shows, but never before have the benches seen thirty-one exhibits in our breed, as there were at the C.N.E. With a sign over the benching "The Bull Terrier Club of Canada Welcomes You", I believe we have just cause for pride in the success of our third specialty show. We have achieved a measure of success and I would like to thank our supporters on behalf of my son and myself; and we would solicit your continued co-operation for the new president, Mr. Lewis.

GERMAN SHEPHERD DOG TRIALS

The German Shepherd Dog Club of Canada staged a very select Service Dog Championship Trial, at the commodious Manor Farm grounds, Clarkson, Ont., on Sunday, September 18th, when Col. J. N. MacRae, Galt Ont., applied the standard rule to five contestants. The recent stiffening of the tests was noticeable in the entry, but as the younger dogs qualify for the Companion Class, the Service Class will later have that advantage.

The Excellence of the performance may be gathered from the fact that four out of the five dogs entered scored sufficient points to qualify for the title. Nevertheless, the well-seasoned campaigner, "Gai Cherie of Northmere" actually did collect 480 points out of the possible 500, a truly miraculous performance indeed. She lost the lowest percentage of points in tests 3, 13, 14, and 18., Scouting, Giving Voice, Following order of direction, and General Demeanour. No doubt the clever "Gai" was taking things in her stride as usual, and probably a trifle easily. She is owned by the Club's Secretary, Alex L. Gooderham. "Gai" got her closest challenges from Dr. H. Halderson's "Rum of Northmere" and C. W. Radford's "Northmere Indian Chief", the former with a score of 454 points, and the later with a score of 453. The next dog to qualify was Mrs. S. W. Levack's "Boots von Gettensby", who scored 405 points. Thus "Gai Cherie of Northmere" adds further brilliance to a Field Trial Championship already glowingly brilliant.

COCKER SPANIELS

Breed Editor,
A. E. McCandlish,
277 Greenwood Ave.,
Toronto.

A radio broadcaster from Hollywood the other evening mentioned a moving picture actress out there who has owned and loved the same dog for fifteen years, but during that time she has had four husbands. Just another instance of proof for the old saying—"your dog is your best friend".

On behalf of the exhibitors, I want to hand this month's orchids to H. E. Mellenthin for his judging at the Canadian National Exhibition. Not only did he do an outstanding job of judging but he was prepared to back up his placings with a comparative application of the standards for every dog he judged and an explanation to its owner of why and where it lost out. His impression of Canadian cockers is that they are gradually becoming more uniform in size and better in quality. Best of breed was Ch. Jeffreys Skipper, owned and bred by C. C. Jeffrey, Toronto. Since November, 1936, this splendid dog has hung up an enviable show record. He is by Robinhurst Prudhomme out of Jeffreys Waybridge Pearl.

Several C.N.E. exhibitors did not remain over for the Toronto Kennel Club show the following day and thereby robbed themselves of a real treat. Judge C. A. Bachus placed his cockers in a manner pleasing to all of us and selected for his top dog Binscarth Trouper, a superb specimen owned by Dr. Fraser Greig, Bracebridge, Ont., and sired by Ch. Much Ado About Nothing, the Binscarth stud. His dam is Sugartown Drusilla. Trouper, whose picture we reproduce on this page, is a credit to his sire who is rated among the best on the continent today.

At Hamilton, Miss Elsie Mayhew achieved top honors with an exceptional newcomer out for the first time ——Glenrouge Black Beauty by The Count of Huntington out of Glenrouge Val.

And here is some real news for you cocker fans. A cocker went best in show at the New Brunswick Kennel Club show in St. John. That cocker —two and a half years old—is Carnidan Trader owned by Jack Sheridan and shown by Gerald Cavanaugh. Sired by Ch. Torohill Trader out of High Hat Sweetheart, he was mentioned by judge Alva Rosenburg as "the best cocker I have judged in years". Next month, I hope to have a picture of him for this page.

WESTERN NOTES

Breed Editor,
H. P. A. Saunders,
1010—4th Ave.,
Calgary, Alta.

Calmas Standard Bearer, newly crowned champion of J. H. Tanton, Edmonton, topped the cockers at the Medicine Hat show recently in what I am told was an excellent entry. This red fellow was advertised in the last issue of Kennel and Bench. I would like to hear of any other reds who have obtained their championship or gone best of breed. Standard Bearer's team-mate and daughter, Doreen Dixie Bell, came through with flying colors at the same show.

Captain Teach, owned by M. L. Cunningham, of Edmonton, was entered in the same show and I believe we will have the pleasure of reporting his championship in the very near future. He has already gained the requisite points, but under only two judges. Now all he needs is one more point under another judge.

A very typey cocker at the show was Blue Belle of Colwyn, owned by Stan Bear, another Edmontonian.

Jack Goff, of Medicine Hat, who has been campaigning his dogs over the entire circuit, accounted for winners black male. I have been anxious to hear his other wins, but we can excuse Jack for not writing because his wife has been away and he has had all the work to do.

The mistress of Tulloch Kennels, Mrs. Davidson, writes a very cheery letter to announce her return to good health after her illness and to tell us of a lovely litter from Curts Boogeyman. Mrs. Davidson shows her stock fearlessly and I have little doubt that we will hear more of this litter. Tulloch Kennels also has an excellent specimen in a black and tan female by Brumal of Ware out of Darkness

POINTERS AND SETTERS

Breed Editor,
Bethune L. Smith,
371 Bay St., Toronto.

Many thanks indeed to Allister Grosart who kindly and so ably pinch hit for me during my absence on vacation.

News of great interest to setter and pointer fanciers has just broken in the States. Dwight W. Ellis, owner of the famous Maridor Kennel of setters and pointers, has decided to retire from the show game. Mr. Ellis recently purchased a large plantation in Georgia where he now keeps a string of shooting dogs and where he spends most of his time. As a result of this decision some of the most famous dogs in America are finding new homes and the Kennel itself, which is located at Springfield, Mass., has been leased by Charles Palmer, Mr. Ellis' former handler.

It will be remembered that Mr. Ellis went Best in Show at Morris & Essex in 1937 with Ch. Sturdy Max. He went Best in Show with one of Max' sons at the Garden last February, Daro of Maridor. He went Best of Breed and won the Sporting Group with Daro's brother, Maro, at Morris and Essex this year and in fact it appeared to some onlookers as if Maro might take the major award.

Among the sales which are included in the disposal of this famous Kennel are Maro of Maridor and his litter sister, Mora, to Mrs. A. Biddle Duke, Dora of Maridor to Samuel Johnston, and a young litter of three bitches and one dog of the same breeding, namely, Ch. Sturdy Max, Ex Ch. Lakeland Dawn, to the writer. Charles Palmer has purchased Ch. Lakeland Yuba with whom he won the English Setter Specialty Show the other day.

Mr. Ellis has decided not to dispose of Ch. Sturdy Max, Ch. Lakeland Dawn, and the famous Daro, but I understand that he intends to dispose of the rest of his kennel of show dogs and to retain only the ones he uses for shooting.

It is unfortunate that Mr. Ellis' decision to live in the South has made it imperative for him to cancel his assignment to judge all setters and pointers at this year's Royal Winter Fair Show. As a result of Mr. Ellis' absence these breeds have been assigned to that well known sporting dog judge, Dr. J. E. Redden.

In closing I reiterate the appeal made by Mr. Grosart and by myself that you send news of these breeds to this column.—B. L. S.

CH. SUSAN OF AGBRIGG
Ten times best of breed in eleven championship shows. Winner of terrier group and reserve best in show at the Hamilton Kennel Club Show

Our breed was very well done by W. H. Pym, of Vancouver, who knew what he was looking for and took great pains to find it. With a very positive and pleasing personality, he showed no hesitation in judgment.

Although the number of dogs entered was slightly smaller than last year, the quality was definitely better and both winners classes provided a treat worth experiencing. Much to our personal delight, our Susan of Agbrigg (Aberdeen Kennels) won the open, winners, best of winners and best of breed and drew a compliment from Judge Pym on her quality and true Scottie temperament.

The Haldon entry was, as usual, very well put down by Percy Brown who has handled these dogs at a great

WEST HIGHLAND WHITE TERRIERS

Breed Editor,
Anne Elizabeth Blochin,
Aurora, Ont.

This has been a busy month, just past, and we have lots of news. The big shows here, two of which ran concurrently at the C.N.E., the regular Exhibition Dog Show and the Toronto Kennel Club one-day show which followed, were graced by four and six Westies, respectively. As always, it was delightful to meet people who knew the dogs—and, nicer still, this department. Mr. and Mrs. Maund, of St. Catharines, lovers of Wires and Sealyhams, and owners of a small private kennel, confessed to a predilection for the Westy department and its news, which so touched us that we presented them with one of our beautiful Sealyhams—a half-sister of last Royal Winter Fair's "Best-in-Show". We can't promise always to reward interest quite so royally or so promptly, but give us a trial. You see Mr. and Mrs. Maund just love Sealyhams, wanted one, and as we are going out of them, it seemed a happy encounter.

At the Toronto Kennel Club show we had another experience which much warmed our hearts, too. Our "Ch. Rowmore Ardifuir" became a Grand Champion—which is in itself something rather unusual. I believe there is only one other Grand Champ of any breed in Canada, and, so far as we know, "Ardifuir" is the only Grand Champion West Highlander in the world at present. It was exciting, and quite a moment. But what made it a real occasion for us, was the fact that the Toronto Kennel Club had taken the trouble to ascertain that Ardy would reach the height of his Canadian career at their show, and had provided a most beautiful and distinctive rosette for the occasion. It was so kind, so thoughtful and such a real surprise, that we were quite speechless. In addition to the dignified and richly mounted shield which he also received for Best of Breed, it made one of the handsomest trophies as well as one of the loveliest remembrances of our show history. We also recalled that Ardy began working for his prize at the Toronto Kennel Club show in the early summer, and so it was a complete cycle of endeavour under this club's sponsorship.

GRAND CHAMPION ROWMORE ARDIFUIR

The Toronto Kennel Club Show at the Exhibition was the occasion for the awarding of the highest of Canadian honors to this now famous West Highland white terrier

At this show, we were delighted to meet Mrs. Horwood of the Blinkbonny Kennels of Ottawa, whose "Bobby Burns" received the trophy for Best Canadian Bred, defeating our little "Bambina", who went Winners Bitches over Mrs. Lefroy's entry.

Then at the end of the week came the Hamilton show, and here Mrs. Lefroy's lovely little bitch, shown by Bill Adair, defeated our "Bambina" under Miss Short. So this little lady now has started toward her championship. Unfortunately she had no competition at the Exhibition, but we shall try to meet her whenever we can. She is typical of a very nice trend in Major Thompson's breeding. She is the get of two of his dogs.

Then I have news from British Columbia. Little "Crystal", that went to Dr. and Mrs. Barclay earlier in the year, went B.B. at Nanaimo and Duncan, defeating Miss Billett's imported dog, and now lacks but two points to her championship. It was on the very day of his accession to the Grand Championship that her father received from her a smart hand-made lead with a card bearing the touching inscription: "To my dear Daddy with love and best wishes, Crystal". The only thing Ardy didn't have that day was a telegram! Mrs. Barclay is getting busy with the weaving of the Westy Wool, and she ought to receive a large consignment of strippings from us within a week or so. We hope to show a scarf of Westy Wool at the Royal Winter Fair.

IRISH TERRIERS

Breed Editor,
A. Palmer,
1 Birchmount Rd.,
Toronto.

Having been asked by the editor of Kennel and Bench to act as Breed Editor for Irish terriers (until he procures someone who can do them justice), we might as well understand each other from the start. The knowledge unknown to the writer about Irish terriers is much more interesting than any knowledge now known. So from now on send all interesting information or facts on the Irish Mick to the writer which in turn will be passed on to those interested in improving their knowledge. In this way we will be very helpful to each other, and shortly the worthy Mick will be in the spotlight which is truly his just desert.

Every month we will endeavour to write something that will prove helpful to breeder or fancier. For instance, the following features will appear in order:

(1) Coats and how to improve them.
(2) Standards in weights and sizes.
(3) Bloodlines and successful breeding.
(4) Show conditioning and helpful hints.

Effort will be put forth to secure articles from those who have been successful in breeding or selecting top-notch Irish. Will you help by sending interesting facts on the above features in advance; or your helpful constructive criticism after publication will be much appreciated.

There is no better opportunity ahead of us for giving the Irish terrier a boost than the coming Winter Fair show. So get busy on that coming young champion. There is no better time for experience or training.

of any you may send, grooming, exercising and showing to the best of our ability.

Simply send your entries direct to the Fair and notify us. We will meet them and accept the responsibility of giving proper care during the show and returning direct to you.

So get them ready and help set up an all-time record for the worthy Mick. We will do our best here in securing points or honours.

Mr. Ruddell's Martin's Irish Brian has just completed his Canadian championship. Congratulations, Sam. Consistent effort and real sportsmanship pays. I know some one who would like to have made stiffer competition but just didn't have the goods.

Again congratulations are in order for Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Martin. Their Champion Martin's Irish Battler added to his Laurels by going best of breed at the Canadian National Exhibition. More luck to you, Battler. It's a great pity this dog is not brought out more often.

Stewartstown Lass, bred and owned by Mr. Burrows, has just completed her Canadian championship and is worthy of the title. Her passage was not an easy one, but she came steadily through with flying colours. Her size is right and can she show! She is now bred to Ch. Shilvoden Boy, so watch the results at next Exhibition.

Sir Patrick of Boyne, owned by Mrs. T. M. Girouard, of Ottawa, captured best of winners at the Montreal show. It is some time since I have seen an Irish put down in such nice condition. We hope to see this young dog at the Winter Fair.

Canadian Champion Newtownards Irish Kid is now an American Champion with lots to spare. We always believed he was a top-notcher, and he is now proving it to us against the best of them.

Ch. Shilvoden Boy, recently imported by the writer, captured best of breed in the last five successive shows, including Montreal.

In the near future we hope some one will breed a judge with sufficient knowledge of a good mick to put one best in show. Mr. John Greer. who imported Ch. Culbahn Collette, is the only one in years who has been awarded this honour.

DACHSHUNDE

Breed Editor,
Mary McNulty Fix,
(Mrs. Albert Fix)
30 Lakeshore Rd., Humber Bay, Ontario.

The 100% dog we have been considering in recent columns will shortly have a chance to show himself. The Dachshund Club of Canada is planing to appear in force at the Royal Winter Fair. The National Kennel Club, under whose auspices the Fair is held, has provided a SPECIALTY JUDGE for the dachshunde. This is the first time our breed has been so honoured and it is hoped that every dachshund owner will take advantage of this wonderful opportunity to have his dog rated by such a judge. James W. Trullinger is the man. He has bred the dogs for many years and is editor of the dachshund section of the American Dog News. He is highly regarded by American breeders and by the American Kennel Club as a fair and thorough judge. His comments should be regarded as most helpful to the breed, in fact, more valuable than mere prizes.

However, speaking of prizes, members of the Dachshund Club will have their first opportunity to compete for the Club gold pins which will be offered for dogs, bitches and puppies in all three coats. There will be many other prizes, many of them open to non-members in addition to the usual handsome offerings of the National Kennel Club.

BREEDERS' NEWS

Writing this column has some of the charm of hunting. When some interested person is suddenly roused to the point of corresponding with me, I am sure I get some of the same thrill a dog gets when a rabbit bounces out of the underbrush.

SILVAVIX
Silver dapple dachshund recently imported by Mrs. Hedley-Peek, Widbrook Kennels, Victoria, B.C.

This month I have a letter from Mrs. Hedley-Peek. Her Widbrook Kennels are well-known to most of us. She has about seventy-five dogs usually. In addition to smooths, she has wire-haired dachsies and Dandie Dinmont terriers. She has an imported silver dapple dachshund, Silvavix, who is the sire of Mrs. H. E. Flether's miniature dapple. From what Mrs. Hedley-Peek tells me of her dapples and her chocolates, her wires and her Dandie Dinmonts, I suspect that Mrs. Hedley-Peek will one day have a vast fund of scientific information to impart to us on the subjects of colour and of coat. It would not surprise me to hear some day that she has bred a white dachshund. Suffice it to say for the present, she has bred and is breeding some fine dogs and her stock has graced many of our outstanding kennels.

The Fall shows have brought our friend, Charlie Schaefer, back into the ring with considerable success as usual. All dachshund owners wish him and Miss Enza Gibson much happiness and look forward to seeing Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schaefer at the Winter Fair . . . yes, the wedding bells will have been rung ere you read these lines.

The Canadian Kennel Club, Inc.

Meeting of the Board of Directors, Sept. 16, 1938

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Directors of the Canadian Kennel Club, Inc., was held in the Board Room of the Club's offices, 25 Melinda St., Toronto, on Friday, Setpember 16th, 1938, at 4.00 o'clock. The President, Col. J. N. MacRae, presided. Directors in attendance were: W. H. Reeves, Wm. H. Pym, Mrs. E. Brown, Mrs. R. McColl, Dr. H. E. Batt, W. J. Risewick, and Capt. H. Dudley-Waters.

Mr. Pym said that he would like to make reference to the resolution which had been carried by the British Columbia members at the Special General Meeting, held in Vancouver on August 12th, 1938, which resolution called for the Board of Directors to be a Committee of the whole, to investigate every known means of identification, which resolution, in his opinion, superceded the motion carried at the last meeting of the Board of Directors, when the President, Col. MacRae, Mrs. McColl, and Mr. Walkerdine had been named as the Committee to look into the matter. In view of the fact that the report of the Vancouver meeting appeared on the agenda for attention later on in the meeting, it was agreed to leave Mr. Pym's wishes in abeyance for the time being.

It was moved by Mrs. McColl, seconded by Mr. Reeves and carried:

"That, the Minutes be taken as read."

Colonel MacRae was requested to report on the conference held with the Deputy Minister of Agriculture, Dr. Barton, on Wednesday morning, September 7th. In compliance, the President explained that Dr. Barton had kindly arranged to meet the Committee in Toronto, an arrangement which the Committee appreciated. Attending the conference were Dr. Barton, Mr. MacVannel, Mr. Pym, Mrs. McColl, Mr. Walkerdine, Mr. Peter Wright, the Secretary and himself. The various methods of proposed identification believed to be practical and effective were placed before Dr. Barton. Bertillons, charts and nose prints were all carefully examined at great length. The first was said to have its shortcomings, when solid colored dogs were taken into consideration. The second also had its drawbacks from the viewpoint of hardship on the part of the inexperienced when properly placing and describing markings. The third seemed to have especial appeal because of its possibilities and then, of course, tattooing had already been conceded to be a practical and effective means of identification.

Dr. Barton appeared to come to the conclusion finally, they were endeavouring to comply with the provisions of the Live Stock Pedigree Act and subject to the directors agreeing to formulate, at this day's meeting, a proposed amendment to the Club's Constitution, the same to be in the hands of the Secretary before the first of November, Dr. Barton would be prepared to extend the continuance of the Constitution until one week after the Annual General Meeting.

The Secretary advised, that he had since received from the Department, the official extension of approval of the Club's Constitution up to and including February 11th, 1939.

The President further explained that the systems given most consideration were nose printing and the chart, and tattooing, and that both systems were likely to have the approval of the Live Stock Records Committee, and no doubt, would be acceptable as practical and effective systems of identification.

Mr. Pym gave it as his unalterable opinion, that the Club had been operating since the 1915 incorporation under the 1915 Act and that we had been functioning under a constitution approved of prior to the 1932 Act, and said that it was his desire and wish that we arrange to bring the Club up-to-date by arranging to come under the 1932 Act. Mr. Pym said that he agreed with the necessity of a system, or systems of practical and effective identification.

The President advised, that the whole matter of complying with the 1932 Act was at present engaging the attention of the legal adviser to the Live Stock Records and that the only thing that need concern the Club, at the moment, was the reaction of the Directors to the Committee's report.

Mr. Pym, as we should be, and no doubt are anxiously trying to restore harmony and to prevent sectionalism in our ranks, I would now move:

"That, the Board of Directors, as a Committee of the whole investigate every possible means of practical and effective identification, and as a suggestion, the President, as Chairman, be instructed to write each individual Director and suggest to them the approval of:—

1. Nose Prints,
2. Tatooing,

as practical and effective systems of identification, and that a complete report of this Committee's findings be published in Kennel and Bench at least sixty days prior to the next Annual General Meeting, and that a copy of such findings be sent to Dr. Barton, on or before the First day of November, 1938."

This resolution was seconded by Mr. Risewick, voted upon and carried unanimously.

It was agreed that only the members at the next Annual General Meeting could adopt the spirit contained in the foregoing resolution, but it was agreed that the President would convey its intent to Dr. Barton as assurance that the Matter had been properly handled by the Board of Directors.

The Editor was asked to attend the Board Room and upon his entering, the Secretary advised him, that it was an instruction from the Directors that he be advised of their appreciation of his splendid effort in publishing the September issue featuring the Golden Jubilee Year.

Mr. Jones thanked the Directors for having noticed his efforts and advised of his promotional plans in respect to increasing the circulation of the official organ, which plans called for his retaining the services of his assistant for the present. Mr. Jones then withdrew.

The Secretary Advised, that he had received a copy of the Minutes of the Special General Meeting held at Vancouver, on August 12th, 1938, and after Mr. Pym had referred to the sentiment of the members in his province and their desire to co-operate and to avoid possible sectionalism, it was unanimously agreed:—

"That, the copy of the Minutes of the Special General Meeting held at Vancouver on August 12th, 1938, be received."

The matter of the proceedings of the Special General Meeting held at Montreal on September 3rd was submitted by the Secretary, together with a statement of costs and it was agreed, that the matter of the meeting and its costs be referred to the Honorary Solicitor for his attention.

The Secretary read a letter from the American Kennel Club, anent Specialty Clubs recognizing their Specialty shows in conjunction with all-breed fixtures. The Secretary was requested to refer the matter of the point rating of such shows as additional information.

It was agreed to allow the American Kennel Club to register a Canadian born Husky belonging to an American citizen, since there was nothing in the Canadian Kennel Club's constitution to warrant registering the dog in Canada at the present time.

MONTHLY BOARD MEETING

The Board of Directors of The Canadian Kennel Club, Inc., will meet in the Club's Board Room, 25 Melinda Street, Toronto, on Thursday, October 20, 1938, at four o'clock.

The Secretary read a letter from Mr. Peter Wright, the Club's Honorary legal adviser with regards to his position by submitting his resignation as Honorary Solicitor to the Board of Directors. After discussion, it was moved by Mrs. McColl, seconded by Mrs. Brown and unanimously carried:—

"That, we have the utmost confidence in our Honorary Solicitor, Mr. Peter Wright, and it is our sincere desire that he continue to serve the Board of Directors in that capacity. We sincerely regret any reason he may have had for considering tendering his resignation."

The matter of expense incurred by members calling special general meetings was considered, and it was regularly moved by Mr. Pym, seconded by Captain Waters and carried:—

"That, the Club's Honorary Solicitor be requested to review our Constitution in this respect, particularly to that part referring to thirty member meetings, with a view to bringing in a proper proposed amendment for the safeguarding of the financial interests of the Club."

SPECIAL GENERAL MEETING

In my capacity as Secretary-Treasurer of the Canadian Kennel Club, Inc., and in conformity with Article 7, Section 7 of the Constitution which reads as follows:

"At the written request of thirty members the Secretary shall call a Special General Meeting of the Club and etc.", and having received such written request properly signed by members in good standing, I thereby call a Special General Meeting, to be held in the Mount Royal Hotel, Montreal, P.Q., on Friday, November 4th,

1938. The object of the meeting is the consideration of the following matters:

WHEREAS:—The revenue of the C.K.C. is derived from each Province, each Province be given credit with that revenue and all expenditure in said Province be debited or charged to that Province and only that money be spent in and on the business of the said Province and that a Provincial yearly statement be published for each Province showing credits and debits, profits and losses.

WHEREAS:—In the Province of Quebec, the language being French, the French speaking members desire to discuss the question of courtesy of their language in correspondence, in the same way as all the Government Departments also that all notices, amendments, notice of motion be published in the Official Organ, known as a monthly magazine, "Kennel and Bench" and that the Directors monthly minutes be reported in the form of a resume article in their language, cost of this to be charged to the Province.

WHEREAS:—At a meeting held in Vancouver in accordance with Article 7, Section 7, regularly and duly called some suggestion was made that the present constitution be re-constructed and put in order. We propose to discuss with the members present at this meeting and recommend such additions and deductions as suit and apply to the local provincial conditions and to recommend same, also that among those appointed to reconstruct, appoint one member from Quebec so that these rights shall be there considered and respected.

WHEREAS:—In another Province a meeting was held in accordance with Article 7, Section 7, and at the said meeting moneys voted which are in a proportion fabulous and extraordinary. We wish to discuss and find a solution to be later embodied in the constitution which will limit such expenditure and place in a category of expenses ordinary and extraordinary, thereby causing some control in the Clubs' funds, for such meetings.

WHEREAS:—At a meeting held in another City a questionnaire was proposed and accepted, sent out to all members at an expense to the Club of extraordinary dimension. We also desire to discuss and set bound to the spending freedom now exercised by the Officials and Board resident in Toronto and here make limitation and division between expenses ordinary and expenses extraordinary and to make provision for proper authority to spend the Club's funds, extraordinary via a financial committee of Directors other than those resident in Toronto and have their joint authority for all extraordinary expenses such as was spent on the said questionnaire.

WHEREAS:—A Committee was appointed to investigate identification of all dogs as provided in No. 22-23 of His Majesty's Act, cited as (The Live Stock Pedigree Act) we feel that the present Committee does not represent all views, there being two members known to be opposed to identification via tattooing, while there are many who desire that form of identification and therefore ask that a (one) delegate shall represent those members in favour of tattooing as a form of identification as acceptable to and by His Majesty the King, George VI's Act.

NOW THEREFORE:—We ask that we are supplied with an account of the amount of money derived from the Province of Quebec since Quebec has been attached to the Canadian Kennel Club and how much was paid out in the same time on management of the business of the Province in a statement of affair covering that period of time so that we may be guided in our findings. We would ask that these particulars be in the hands of the Provincial Director before the date set for this meeting, namely November 4th, 1938.

Admission by 1938 membership card only.

J. D. STRACHAN,
Secretary-treasurer.

* Deceased

C.K.C. JUBILEE

John F. Webster, W. J. White, and undoubtedly many other good members and fanciers whose names were never recorded, but to these men we acknowledge our eternal gratitude.

With the close of 1916 came the end of Mr. Kent's eighteen years reign as President, and here it must be recorded that no President could ever hope to give better leadership than Mr. Kent gave, and it may be a matter for regret that his long years of unselfish service did not furnish a more tangible token of reward. His passing out of the presidential picture seemed to be almost unoticed.

We have already referred to Mr. Russell being accepted as a member on October 5th, 1915, but we pause here to mention that he was elected to the Directorate at the Annual Meeting of the club held on February 3rd, 1916, and at the Annual Meeting held on February 9th, 1917 he was elected to the Presidency. In spite of all the turmoil of the 1912-1915 period, and in the full knowledge of Mr. Kent's discouraging, heart-breaking experiences, Mr. Russell seemed to sense the fact that the club's sun was already high in the sky. Mr. Barron had resigned as Honorary Secretary-Treasurer, so Mr. Russell was at once confronted with the necessity of securing secretarial assistance in order to get the club's machinery tuned up, and the wheels kept turning, so he named Arthur Atkinson and F. Jacobi, to function with himself to see applicants for the position left vacant through the death of Dr. Boultbee. Mr. Russell named as a Committee W. E. Baldwin, Harry Clayton, Juan Dowling, and Fred Jacobi to go into the matter of securing Kennel and Bench in the interests of the organization. He named Norman K. Swire to be responsible for the editing of the March 1917 issue, and any of the old fanciers who have preserved their Kennel and Bench files may go back to Volume 4 and look at Mr. Swire's first attempt as a kindly gesture to that admirable person's memory. Further distinction came to Kennel and Bench when His Grace the Duke of Devonshire, Governor-General of Canada, consented to his becoming the Club's patron.

Mr. Russell's Committees lost no time in furnishing their respective quotas of service, and on February 27th, 1917, Juan E. Dowling was appointed Secretary-Treasurer temporarily until a permanent officer could be obtained, and at a General Meeting held on May 2nd, 1917, it was reported that Kennel and Bench Committee had agreed to purchase Kennel and Bench interests outright for $750.00, with book accounts receivable said to be worth $457.77. Most of this was said to be collectable, but the records show that only about 50% of that amount was ever actually collected. To J. W. Bain, was given the credit of making all legal arrangements for the purchasing of the magazine in the interests of the Club. With the June 1917 issue of Kennel and Bench the Club had, for the first time since it was organized in 1888 its very own official organ.

As the memorable year of 1917 came to its close with its unprecedented progress, it was found that 21 dog shows had been held, 1235 names appeared on the membership roster, 1661 dogs had been registered, arrears in medals had been taken care of, 54 championship cups were in the office being made ready for shipment, the Stud Book for 1914 was being made ready for mailing, and the Stud Books for the years 1915, 1916 and 1917 were all well in hand, and would be sent out as they came off the press.

TRIMMING THE WIRE

off all but a little of the eyebrows at the outer corners. Trim off the cheeks quite close from the outer corner of the eyes down to the corner of the mouth, trimming slightly from each eye's inner corner down toward the mouth. Now, trim to a straight line the top of the muzzle from between the eyebrows to the nose. Chin whiskers should be left on and brushed forward, but clean off that portion of the underjaw from the corners of the mouth back to the neck. The ears are taken down closely, inside and out, and their edges straightened.

many championship shows. A promising youngster, Haldon Tallyho, took the puppy class and went second novice dogs and second limit to Kiltie Boy of Doone.

Kiltie Boy is an extremely typey sort of dog with an interesting pedigree going back three times to Heather Necessity. He is owned by Miss Katherine L. Orr, of Ottawa, and was handled exceedingly well by Bill Adair. Although still lacking a little weight after his trip all the way from California, Kiltie has one of the longest heads I have seen.

We were greatly taken with Betty Lou, owned by Miss Ida M. Turner, also of Ottawa. This bitch is really a good one with marvelous hindquarters, long lean skull and small ears correctly placed.

Albert J. Milne, of Brantford, had Ch. Ardmore Argyle put down with all the finesse that has become associated with the exhibiting of this grand little dog; but he was unlucky to the winner. I always get a thrill out of seeing Mr. Milne handle his dog. They work so well together.

A compact little bitch owned by Mrs. Paton unfortunately lacked the essential furnishings to compete successfully. However these will come. What she lacked in furnishings she made up in gameness.

Alf Loveridge had Boldmere Binder much improved in appearance but his ear seemed to be bothering him, which made it difficult for the judge to get a good look at him.

At the Toronto Kennel Club show at the Exhibition, Judge Spring again placed Susan of Agbrigg first open, winners, best of winners and best of breed. His placing throughout our breed were very similar to those of Mr. Pym with one or two exceptions. Lindburn Braw Wee Laddie, although feeling and looking poorly after a week of fasting, placed reserve winners to Kiltie Boy of Doone. The show reports in this issue will give the placing on which scarcity of space forbids us to comment here.

for best brace in show all breeds at the C.N.E.

Perhaps we expected too much; but the grand fawn puppy Lady Liphaine of Leemor, bred and owned by Mr. E. W. Lockyer of Toronto, should have been in the running for best puppy in show. Perhaps the uncropped ears had much to do with it, but give a pat on the back to Mr. Lockyer, who insists that he will make uncropped danes popular in Canada.

pion Melbourne Supremacy, a dog that is too well known for description. The Winners Dog, an orange puppy of ten months, owned by the writer, romped home through his classes which culminated in his award of Best of Winners and his first four points toward his Canadian Championship. The Winners Female, Mrs. McConaghy's Fairbank Sweetheart the second, while shown partially out of coat, won by reason of her splendid type, and perfect ring manners. The writer was very favourably impressed with a very nice black in Wee Black Rascal Jr., owned by Mrs. Kittermaster, good color, very short, cobby with plenty of coat. He is a worthy contender for premier honors. Mrs. Proctor of Harlow fame, had a nice puppy in Harlow Mento. He was greatly admired and will be heard from when fully matured.

THESE THREE . .

A dog looks well only when he feels well—his outside is a mirror to his inside. Take a look at these three—sparkling eyes, gleaming teeth, cold, black noses—have you ever seen three dogs look better?

SPRATT'S DOG FOOD is the reason for their tip-top condition, for SPRATT'S is prepared after a careful study of every canine feeding need—a study extended to sizes, breeds and even temperament.

How about YOUR dog? Do you feel he lacks that indefinable something which separates champions from also-rans. If so, it's certain sure it's SPRATT'S he's missing.

Try him on SPRATT'S delicious hard-tack diet. He'll enjoy it and do himself the world of good at the same time.
