Meeting of the Board of Directors, May 18th, 1939

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Directors of The Canadian Kennel Club, Inc., was held in the Board Room of the Club's offices, 25 Melinda Street, Toronto, on Thursday afternoon, May 18th, 1939, at 3.30 o'clock. The President, Mr. Reg. P. Sparkes was absent on account of illness. The Vice-President, Captain H. Dudley-Waters was also absent. Director Basil W. Essery was voted to the chair.

It was regularly moved by Dr. Batt, seconded by Mrs. Brown, and carried:—"That, the minutes be taken as read".

Mr. Essery made report on the matter of Standard Club Constitutions, and mentioned that he expected to have his final report ready for submission to the next meeting of the Board.

A letter was read from the Secretary of Saskatoon Kennel Club re an alleged hardship on Western Clubs arising from the discontinuance of the $25.00 donation for show returns received at headquarters on time. It was agreed that this legislation having been endorsed by the Board of Directors as a whole no change could be made at this time.

Letters re proposed Articles of Affiliation were read from Mr. Pym, and Mr. Irving. After a general discussion the Board decided that the procedure as outlined in the minutes of the Annual Meeting was being, and would continue to be followed. The secretary suggested that it would be wise to have Mr. Pym meet the Board of Directors after keeping his judging appointment at the Morris & Essex Show, when an opportunity could be taken to review the whole matter of Articles of Affiliation, and to properly mark the distinctive compliment that had been paid to the Canadian Kennel Club through its second Vice-President having been invited to judge Best Dog in Show at the Morris & Essex Show this year.

It was regularly moved by Mr. Rise-wick, seconded by Mrs. Brown and carried:—

"That, the regular Directors meeting for June scheduled for Thursday, June 15th, be moved up to a suitable date following the Morris and Essex Show, and that Mr. Pym be requested to attend."

The Secretary was given instructions to secure a date suitable to Mr. Pym, and thereafter to make all necessary arrangements for a luncheon in honour of Mr. Pym, and that Colonel MacRae be also invited to attend so that due honour might be paid to both gentlemen. The meal cost not to exceed $1.50 and to make it possible for all persons interested in paying homage to the guests of honour to attend.

The following statement of General Accounts for April was presented for payment:—

THE DOG GAME HITHER AND YON

By WM. H. PYM, Vancouver, B.C.

At the International Kennel Club of Chicago dog show, the Canadian Kennel Club was well and capably represented by the President 'Reg' P. Sparkes, and the Secretary, J. D. Strachan. The presence of the President and Secretary here must be construed as a purely business proposition, as they were two very busy men for three whole days. This writer was not in the hotel five minutes until he was "collared" by the President and Secretary, and hustled off to a conference dealing entirely with Canadian Kennel Club matters for five solid hours; not being satisfied with that session, the two hustlers immediately corralled several professional handlers and explained to them the objects of licensing handlers in Canada. Then to top off the first session, both gentlemen made telling speeches at the International Kennel Club banquet which placed the Canadian Kennel Club in a most favorable position in the eyes of many people from different parts of the Continent. Then on the following two days, both officers could be observed answering questions and generally 'selling' the Canadian Kennel Club idea to all persons interested.

In this respect one is reminded of the ancient wall of China, and it occurs to me that the Canadian Kennel Club has quite unconsciously placed a wall around its activities as a national organization. Have we not been far too local—to parochial like—should not our Club be represented at all important canine affairs if we are to take our proper place in the scheme of things canine? This writer believes we have been far too conservative in this respect, and if we would expand properly we must send our publicity commissioners abroad regularly.

It was pleasing to see Walter H. Reeves renewing acquaintances with hundreds of friends of years standing, and then to see him top off a truly great show by a masterful performance as Judge-in-Chief.

One could not leave the subject of the Chicago International show without referring to the stirring spectacle of thousands of spectators, representing the cross-section of citizenship baring their heads and standing at attention while Show Manager C. E. Harbison recited the late Senator Vest's Tribute to a Dog. When one word of command will bring thousands of people in reverence, to their feet out of respect of a dog, surely there is more to this dog game of ours than appears on the surface.

From Chicago we journeyed through the grand old prairies to attend the Saskatoon show. Here is a City that surely sets an example for all Canada in staging an interesting dog show. The venue being the Hudson's Bay Store which was ideal. Beautiful new benching painted in two tones, large exercising ring which was as clean as a drawing room, and controlled exercising privileges. Here dogs were exhibited at their best. Not a straw in sight, and not a dog in the building that could not be handled by any lady in her finest attire. It matters not if there were a hundred dogs or a thousand benched, the Saskatoon Kennel Club have rendered a real service to show giving Clubs in general by insisting upon presenting a group of dogs to the uninitiated public as dogs should be presented—clean and wholesome—fit for any persons home.

True I have not seen all the prairie shows in recent years, and I understand great progress has been made in other parts of the prairies in demanding better and more centrally located buildings for dog shows. When our exhibitors and show officials band together as a class and refuse to stage dog shows in anything but a suitable building, our game will occupy the position in the community that it deserves, but not before.

Certain Clubs in Winnipeg, Regina, Calgary and Edmonton, have also held shows in departmental stores as independent ventures, and they have been highly successful, and it is significant to note that the poorest accommodation provided for dog shows, is when shows are held in connection with Provincial Exhibitions. And that goes double for Vancouver. What is the matter, are we afraid to demand modern accommodations, or are Exhibition managements themselves lacking in showmanship attributes? Pride alone should demand that every exhibit of whatever kind should be housed in a suitable building at our exhibitions, and dog shows are as important to the paying public as any other major exhibit.

Hard times have been blamed for many things. Yet nearly thirty years ago we had very attractive dog shows from Winnipeg to the Coast, and in those days we had as many reasons for going "broke" as prevail today. He who has not gone broke in Oil and Real Estate booms has missed a lot of fun with a little grief thrown in—but we had good shows just the same; and "travelling dog shows at that". Who does not remember the years when a carload of dogs would come west from Toronto; with at least one more carload of dogs from Winnipeg and western points. When Con Knapp of Buffalo, N.Y., would bring his string of Bostons to the west and decorate his kennels in a manner that would do credit to a jewellery store show case. When we encouraged the finest dogs on the Continent to compete at our shows. When we start breeding the type of dogs that are in demand, the old cry of "you can't sell a pup" will vanish. It is a fact that model "T" Fords are not in demand today, and it should be understood that the dog game has advanced just that much in certain parts of this Continent; and it should be remembered that "Challenge Cups" which no exhibitor ever lives long enough to win, went out of date with the Model "T".

During our brief visit to Calgary, we saw Col. Ritchie's new Scotty female, and she is just good enough for the best any place. Here we met the well known H. P. Saunders once more. Mr. Saunders has been a life long fancier and writer, how is it that he does not display his knowledge in the judging ring more often? Show giving Clubs should jot this name down on their judging slates for future reference.

From Calgary to Riverside, California, for the Junior Aid Sunday show of 350 dogs. One of those pleasant daylight to sundown events with the dogs benched in the shade of the trees surrounding the Country Club Golf Course where you help yourself to the oranges by picking them off the trees. Some of the Globe trotting dogs owned in the south were in competition, yet it makes one wonder why the merit of many of our dogs is kept such a deep secret. We have dogs on this coast of several breeds that can hold their own in any competition if they were given the opportunity.

In Vancouver there is one kennel kept as a pure hobby by its owner G. Tyson, that houses some forty odd wire-haired fox terriers. If the inmates of these kennels could be benched at any show in Canada, or at any of the "500 dog shows" in the United States, they would prove a sensation. Yet we are told that but one B.C. owned wire-haired fox terrier completed its championship last year when we had thirteen shows within an eighty mile radius. Why are so many fine fanciers staying away from our shows?—The answer is "KNOCK-KNOCK-KNOCK", three damaging words which should be discarded from our vocabularies and the three words "BOOST-BOOST-BOOST" substituted therefor giving every fancier due credit for that which he has been able to accomplish.

Through the initiative of our B.C. Director, J. A. H. Irving, a most interesting event occurred in Vancouver on April 18th., when some thirty odd fanciers gathered around the banquet table at the Hotel Georgie, to honor Mrs. Edith Bradley on the accomplishments of her grand Pomeranian American and Canadian Champion "Wembley Gold Shade", the winner of the Stone and Cox, Ltd. trophy during the Canadian Kennel Club Golden Jubilee Year Competition.

Among the speakers were Dr. G. L. Lamont, President of the B.C. Canine Protective Association. Dr. Lamont vigorously opposes all anti-dog legislation in this province, he has rendered valuable service to the fancy in general.

T. P. Elder, well known Barrister, spoke on the necessity of "selling" the dog game to the public, and dwelt upon the importance of dog shows, etc., in the community.

The well known Archie Hogg, Director of the Canada Pacific Exhibition spoke in his usual jovial manner and promised his co-operation in securing better accommodation for the dog shows held in connection with his Fair.

It was pleasing to have with us Mr. Larsen of Walkerton, Ontario. Mr. Larsen intends to become an extensive English Setter exhibitor, and it is understood he has secured his stock from W. R. Willgress.

Other speakers were R. W. Hatley, W. R. Willgress, and W. H. Pym, while Director Irving proved himself to be a fine Master of Ceremonies.

Keeping the C.K.C. Wheels Turning

Canadian dog fanciers from the rugged shores of the Atlantic to the sunny slopes of the Pacific are enjoying, and will continue to enjoy for some time, having amongst them the world's greatest dog lovers—Their Gracious Majesties King George VI, and his consort, Queen Elizabeth, who are at present making world history by visiting their loyal subjects in Canada. It has been worthy of note, that many of the pictures featuring the Royal Family, are set in a background where dogs of various breeds share in the fullness of such pictures and what appealing pictures they make. This epochal visit of their Majesties will no doubt be as pleasant for them as it is for us, but it will make us more than ever conscious of the rich heritage that is ours as dwellers under the folds of the Union Jack. When the Royal visit has spent itself we trust that their Majesties will have a safe and pleasant journey as they turn their faces towards the heart of the Empire again.

I regret that, through illness, my attendance at the Directors' meeting on Thursday, May 18th, was quite impossible, but I do trust that the members of the club have diligently studied the proposed articles of affiliation as they were presented on pages 6 and 7 of the May issue of the official organ and that they will be prepared to receive their referendum voting papers early in July as prescribed by the action taken at the last Annual General Meeting. The members should be prepared to mark their referendum paper in such a way that the voting will definitely decide one way or the other whether or not the articles of affiliation, as published, have been considered acceptable to our members. It would be exceedingly unwise on my part to say anything on the matter at this particular moment as it is my desire that the vote be taken free from influences of any kind whatsoever. Such a vote, when taken, will be considered as being representative of our entire membership and when the Election Commission has counted the "Yeas" and "Nayes", and their report has been made available, the Directors and myself will be governed accordingly and take whatever steps may be indicated.

It is exceedingly gratifying to me to take notice of the splendid compliment that has been paid to the Canadian Kennel Club by the Morris and Essex Kennel Club by selecting our Second Vice-President, Mr. Pym, to select the Best Dog in Show, at Madison, N.J., on Saturday, May 27th. Truly the Canadian Kennel Club commences the sixth decade of its existence with much distinction and brighter chapters of our club's history will yet have to be written. My congratulations, Mr. Pym.

It is with profound regret and with some alarm too, that I find my condition of health rather disturbing, but what with the aftermath of war ravages. I am pretty badly under the weather at this time. At present I am battling a seige that threatens to take the upperhand. The members having placed their confidence in me, it is my sole objective to bring the Canadian Kennel Club to the very front of canine governing bodies. The task may be harder than I had anticipated, but, given a reasonable measure of health, I am prepared to spend and to be spent in order that I may fully justify that confidence. However, I do realize that it will be understood that flesh and blood has its own well defined limitations.

SACRIFICE SALE CANALINE SPRINGERS

Circumstances over which we have no control make it necessary to sacrifice the following stock:

BROOD MATRONS

INT'L CH. DORMOND RASCAL

Rascal has produced outstanding puppies in every litter whelped at Canaline. Each litter has produced point winners, amongst which were such as the sensational Whitelight's Juno, Canaline Comet, Canaline Starlite, and Canaline Sport. May be possible to buy her bred to Int'l Ch. Whitelight, if quick action taken.

CANALINE QUEENIE (Int'l Ch. Whitelight) a producer of fine healthy puppies with great possibilities.

GREEN VALLEY ROYAL by Int'l Ch. Rufton Recorder ex Miss Dignity of Breeze, has just whelped an excellent litter by Int'l Ch. Whitelight. We had hoped to campaign this bitch at a later date.

PUPPIES

1 liver and white dog, 2 black and white bitches. Whelped March 22 by Ch. Trent Valley Silvertorch ex Canaline Starlite.

2 males, 3 females, whelped April 14, by Int'l Ch. Whitelight ex Green Valley Royal.

4 males, 1 female, whelped April 14, by Ch. Trent Valley Silvertorch ex Canaline Queenie.

IMPORTATIONS

Important additions to the ranks of our Canadian dogs are noticed from time to time, but we do not always find the necessary space to refer to them, however, here are three that we 'spotted' today, "Gnilwoe Satin Slipper" a black cocker spaniel by Ch. "Torohill Trader" ex a daughter of Ch. "Windsweep Ladysman". This is a double cross of the noted "Red Brucie", and the new dog was imported by H. P. Saunders, of Calgary, who makes no mention of the matter in his "Notes" which appear on another page in this issue.

R. Ray McLaughlin, Oshawa, Ont., has always a place for any good dog that may appeal to his fancy, and we notice where he has taken possession of the Dachshund "Chess of Albion", a young son of the well known winner Ch. "Herman Rinkton" the dog that was Best in Show at the National Kennel Club fixture last November.

Mrs. Arthur Hogg, Winnipeg, has secured the Sealyham terrier "The Gallant Major's Sno Wo" by Ch. "St. Margaret Marquis" ex "The Gallant Major's Sno Maid" a daughter of Ch. "The Gallant Major". This is a well-bred little rascal who should be a welcome addition to Winnipeg's dog colony.

PROMOTING HARMONY

We have heard much favorable comment on the consistent attendance, at all dog shows convenient to headquarters, by our President—Mr. Sparkes, and particularly on his desire to be helpful whenever and wherever opportunity presents itself. So far, this year, Mr. Sparkes has attended the licensed shows at Toronto, Guelph, Chatham and Windsor, he reluctantly missed Hamilton on April 22nd, when he was himself officiating at Wheeling, Va. At all the shows enumerated above Mr. Sparkes was invited to present the prizes to Group and Best in Show winners, which duties were performed with much dignity. His timely and able assistance was particularly appreciated at Guelph and Chatham, Ont., where the ladies of the I.O.D.E. in their respective cities were in full charge of their shows themselves. The Chatham ladies having had no previous experience in running dog shows found that the President's assistance was sufficient to off-set any of the rough spots which appeared on the surface as the show developed.

We cannot give too much credit to the many progressive, aggressive ladies associated with the I.O.D.E. who take up their share of dog show activity on behalf of their respective chapters, they are always courteous, alert and remain at their tasks every minute of their allotted hours, their only hope of reward being the satisfaction of knowing that their duties had been performed in accordance with the ethics of their organization. For promptness in making returns on time to head office, returns that are quite complete in most cases the 'gals' are well out in front of the 'lads', and we go 'off the record' to pay a particular compliment to Mrs. W. G. Wellwood the capable secretary of Windsor Kennel Club, who is a stickler for detail, a virtue that pays worth while dividends all round.

APPRECIATES C.K.C. TROPHIES

Says Oswald Balshaw, Secretary of Vancouver Kennel Club:

"When I opened the parcel just received from Kent's Ltd., Toronto, I was completely taken aback. The trophy offered by the Canadian Kennel Club is certainly one to be admired and a credit to our organization. I am pleased to acknowledge the receipt of same in perfect condition."

Thanks "O.B." we can heartily concur in your enthusiastic observations. "Ye editor" would be happy to own a dog that would be able to qualify for one of our cups. It certainly would be admired.

Dr. J. T. Cooper has this good word to say:

"I am just in receipt of the Canadian Kennel Club Trophy, sent out by Kents, Ltd., Toronto, for the Best Canadian-bred at Saskatoon Kennel Club Show. This is the best trophy I have seen coming from the Canadian Kennel Club, and it is very highly appreciated. I believe these Canadian Kennel Club Cups are the most sought after trophies being offered at our Western Shows, and the Canadian Kennel Club is to be congratulated on offering this encouragement to Canadian breeders on their membership roster".

Notes from British Columbia

An interested visitor to the Victoria City Kennel Club Show held on April 15th was C. E. Larsen, of Walkerton, Ontario. He was especially interested to see Mr. Wally Willgress' female English setter, "Joyful Beauty" placed winners, as last year he had purchased her litter sister from Mr. Willgress.

On returning to Vancouver, Mr. Larsen found a telegram advising him that the setter he had purchased from Mr. Willgress had been placed winners on the previous day at the Guelph show, under the capable handling of Alf Loveridge.

Mr. Willgress was, literally speaking, a winner from East to West on April 15th and we could bet a farish wager that both men were tickled pink at the double victories particularly as the one was so far removed from the other.

Interest in fox terrier circles center around the smooth, "Nornay Saddle Pad", a litter brother to the famous winner, Ch. "Nornay Saddler", imported to the United States by the Wissabo Kennels, Long Island, and now the property of Vic Williams, Vancouver, "Saddle Pad" won the Terrier Group at Victoria.

R. H. McCullough, Vancouver, is featuring the miniature pinscher and has brought to that city a couple of nice reds from the kennel of Dr. Shier, of Denver, Colo.

Something new for the records is Vancouver Kennel Club's mascot who has been made an honorary member of that club. Whoosit?—why we thought everybody knew. It is Mrs. Balshaw's friendly little monkey.

What a terrible loss that was that befell the Swansea Kennels of Stanley Dorrell. His Scottish terrier, "Heather Recollection" (Ch. "Heather Beau Ideal" ex a sister to Ch. "Heather Realization") got into a run with some bedlington terriers with fatal results for the Scottie. This is a very decided loss to Scottie breeders on the B.C. coast as it will be remembered that "Heather Recollection" was a winner at Crufts and at Glasgow.

News has come to hand saying that Jack Forbes, Vancouver, won the Sporting Group, at Tacoma show, with his now noted Irish setter, Ch. "Strathbogie Red Mac". This smart setter has the distinction too, of having won one of the Golden Jubilee year prizes.

Another B.C. dog to take down a Group award at Tacoma was "Vic" William's Afghan hound which had but recently arrived from Jack Oakie's Kennel at California. "Vic" picked up a nice bunch of 5 championship points for his smooth fox terrier, "Nornay Saddle Pad".

Leslie and Mrs. Cameron, Whonock, are leaving soon for an extended motor trip which will take in the World's Fair and the Morris & Essex show. Dachshunde Kennels will be visited and a new male "Dachshie" will likely accompany them on the return journey. When I win the Irish Sweepstake I will take in this Morris & Essex show myself.

Col. and Mrs. Magoffin are back home again after enjoying a seven months trip. A month was spent at their "Rockhaven" Kennels at Denver, Colo. The Westminster show was one of the holiday highlights. One of the losses was losing Ch. "Speedwell Pluto" from pneumonia during their absence.

An effort is being made to send a collection of the best dogs of various breeds from B.C., to the San Francisco Fair and if arrangements materialize as it is hoped they will, our western Canada dogs can be depended upon to give an A1 account of themselves.

It was rather hard on Mrs. C. McGee, Victoria, to lose her new German shepherd dog. This dog had chewed up some of the woodwork of its kennel, some of it reached the stomach with fatal results.

There is nothing at all in that "dog and cat life" story that we hear about so often. Our own cat lost her kitties and so decided to help mother a litter of our dachshunde. The puppies were quite neutral about it all and agreed that "food" was "food" from whatever source it came. When the puppies were 5 weeks old they were put out to the kennel to live but "kitty" had other ideas of her own and promptly brought two of them back to the house and to get there she had to negotiate a five foot wire fence with her protesting babies by adoption.

At the Annual Meeting of the Nanaimo Kennel Club, held recently a very interesting ceremony took place following the election of officers, when Mr. Galloway, the President, on behalf of the members, presented Mr. Jack Cottle with a Life Membership Certificate, and a combination cigarette case and lighter.

It was on Feb. 21st, 1914, that a number of dog fanciers met together and decided to organize the Nanaimo Kennel Club and to-day Jack is the only Charter member still in active service. The members felt that such loyal support deserved recognition and so took this opportunity of showing their appreciation and expressed the hope that Jack would be spared for another twenty-five years membership in the Club.

Taken completely by surprise, Mr. Cottle thanked the President and the members, and assured them that he looked forward to as happy an association in the future as he had enjoyed in the past and was ready at all times to do his share on behalf of man's best friend.

(Editor's Note—Bravo Nanaimo, we join you in honouring the old substantial standbye.)

PLAIN SPEAKING

A preliminary report of the Publication Committee submitted to the April meeting of the Industrial Advertisers Association had some frank observations to make regarding trade papers, one read:

"Canada produces many trade and technical publications that compare favourably with any published throughout the world."

Another:

"There are others guilty of downright carelessness and lack of imagination."

Another:

"An editor should be able to discard a great deal of free publicity which comes to his desk daily."

We hope that "Kennel and Bench" readers will not class their editor as being guilty of carelessness, or lack of imagination, and that they will give us credit for being able to discard much that comes before us daily.

Probably the "Carelessness" and "lack of imagination", as referred to, brings on the use of the "blue pencil". It is almost nonsensical for correspondents to offer copy that has for its chief claim to "reader interest" such items as John Smith's "Alice Blue Gown" having whelped a litter sired by "Little Boy Blue", that has no reader interest at all, even if it is slated that "the litter will be watched with interest", or "that there are several potential champions in the litter", there is still no "reader interest" indicated for anyone only John Smith, and the owner of "Little Boy Blue", both the matters of "wonderful litters", and the "Series" of such litters belong to the legitimate advertising section of our magazine worth its salt, and we believe that "Kennel and Bench" belongs in this latter category.

Correspondents will be well advised to steer clear of "filler" in their copy, otherwise their efforts must necessarily be manhandled by that little stub of "blue pencil" that is always so anxious to do its little bit.

HAMILTON BEAGLE CLUB TRIALS

The spring derby classes of the above club were run off at Cayuga, Ont., on April 30th, when all the regulars plus a large influx of beaglers and their hounds from Buffalo and Oshawa with "Buck" Sherman of the Canadian National thrown in for full measure. The weather was ideal. The derbys were just all that could be wished for and the judging left nothing to be desired.

The 13" derby attracted 15 starters and after the scores had been made up the prize winners were 1st, E. V. Harvey's, Buffalo, "Harvey's Jubilee Lady"; 2nd, F. T. McQuillen's, Kenmore, N.J., "Hertlewood Bill"; 3rd, Geo. Sherman's, Rodney, Ont., "Swingalong Sally"; 4th, W. H. Buggard's, Buffalo, N.Y., "Arch Thimble", and Res. to R. R. Long's, Buffalo, N.Y. That shows "Buck's" good bitch in the center of the pack in the last analysis.

The 15" derby attracted 9 entries and the winners were 1st, H. Faelen's, East Aurora, N.Y., "Anora Murphy"; 2nd, Geo. Sherman's "Swingalong Captain"; 3rd, John Seilmans', East Aurora, N.Y., "Jamison Snuffy"; 4th, Westley Ricker's, Cranboro, Ont., "Doc". Res., John R. Briem's, Buffalo, N.Y., "Esseff Mickey Frontier 2nd".

NOTES FROM OLD QUEBEC

Letters to the Editor in "Our Dogs" have always been a source of interest to me and I think they have been responsible for creating a much better understanding between breeders, exhibitors and judges in every way. I am forcibly struck just now by the great interest displayed in its columns on the question of inoculating dogs against distemper. These letters, while they do not always agree, do provide food for thought and prove to Canadian fanciers that other countries are face to face with the same problems as we are. However, they have this medium for "letters to the Editor" which evidently is a well supervised section, and necessarily so. In the same paper is a nice definition of "professional" and "novice". "The novice", says the writer, "is a beginner or learner much the same as an apprentice to a trade; he has to learn by experience." An apprentice does not expect to turn out the same work as a master craftsman. Why then does the apprentice in dogs groan so loudly, and complain so bitterly of crooked judges, etc., because the man with thirty years' experience gets ahead of him? Surely all the knowledge, painfully and expensively collected should put an experienced breeder well up in his own class. The professional is defined as being "the highly talented amateur (the one-time novice) who decides to turn his talent into money and offer his services to those willing to pay for greater knowledge than their own". These are, I think, good definitions for these two classes of exhibitors and as in all other things, the longer we live, the more we learn how little we really know.

With the passing of Holland Buckley, known by some as the unofficial "Squire of Burnham", the dog world is poorer today. Reading the account of his burial, I could not help thinking that in the dog game (or as Dr. Batt called it), the "dog business", there is something more than owning and showing dogs. Looking down the names of those who attended this gentleman's funeral, I was satisfied that it means a great deal more than showing or winning. Dog lovers the world over have something in common and the ladies and gentlemen of the finest cultured classes become bound together by their common love of man's best friend. The social side of the game, or business, whichever you like best, is something that is worth considering when we notice the respect paid to such men as Holland Buckley, a man known and respected the world over. An extract from an appreciation says:—"His influence on his generation was great; more so than will be generally realized."

The ladies interested in dog affairs in England are now seeking representation on the "all male committee" of the English Kennel Club; they base their claims on the fact that women are now engaged in almost every activity and in most businesses. The fact is, that the dog business in England shows more of the fair sex entering and exhibiting dogs more than do the sterner sex. This might be accounted for by the fact that the male might be engaged in the task of earning the money that enables their wives and daughters to breed and show dogs. If the ladies succeed in breaking down the barrier at the English Kennel Club and get representation there we "shall enjoy the fight from the ring side" when they are finally deciding what it shall be. I have always said, "The women are the boys".

So we are to have "Basenjis" in Canada. Barkless dogs to me would be like a "footless stocking without a leg" but I am glad to notice that Canada will lead the other countries in bringing to her shores the latest, even in dogs. I see that two unrelated dogs will soon come to Canada, and if wrinkles are their beauty, they are well endowed in that respect. Let's hope that their bite will be no worse than their bark. I wonder who the all-rounder will be who can enlighten us on the breed, and how will he arrive at his decisions. We may have Zulus, but do they know Basenjis?

The Mount Royal Hunt Club have imported eight English Foxhounds. I will try my best to get more particulars about these from the master of the Hunt, W. W. Ogilvy.

"Dogs in Art" in Montreal is by no means in the background. In this respect a few weeks ago, I received a letter asking permission for an artist to paint my Bull Terrier "Bricktops Spitfire" and I readily gave my consent. The artist was a charming young lady of the teen age who was permitted to come to my house as often as she liked, and imagine my surprise when as I watched the painting progressing day by day, and finally when it was finished, it was truly a work of art in every detail. The unusual position of the dog made it, I should think, unique, and I believe we shall hear more about this young lady and her art in the future.

Boarding kennels are busy just now getting ready for the summer season, paint brushes are busy for miles around, outdoor pens are undergoing repairs, signs are being restored, letters to last year's clients are all ready for mailing. The National Kennel Association of England have taken into consideration boarding and other kennel problems, with a view to improving them and here again the fair sex have taken the initiative and with Lady Margaret, Countess of Suffolk as president, Lady Kitty Ritson, Mrs. Erie Madwood, Miss E. Grimm as committee, I predict better boarding conditions for dogs and greater satisfaction for the owners. I believe this is a move in the right direction.

Some dissatisfaction is being felt in Sealyham Terrier circles of the dogs that are winning at the shows, and one correspondent says, "If only Captain Edward could see what is winning today, he would not approve of so many big ones", and suggests that the judges look over their standard before it is too late (if it is not already so) and goes so far as to suggest that no dog should be awarded a certificate unless it complies fully with the standard. He also says, that no puppy should be allowed to compete for championship certificates. "How many times have we seen a puppy win his title only to become very big when matured?" he asks. Such a dog's show record brings plenty of stud fees with disastrous results to the breed and the breeder. Judges have no right to apply their own "tastes" to this or any other breed. Their job is to find the 3 or 4 dogs in the ring that comes closest to the standard. All things being equal, he must have no choice of his own, if he is to judge them right.

From the Malabar Kennels, at Point Fortune, where we find Wires, Boxers, and lately a Welsh Terrier, comes some interesting news. Mr. Scarpa's new "Welsh" who has gone Winners at two of the larger shows in the U.S.A. has now six points to his championship there and since coming to Canada she has won six Best of Breed awards. In Wires, we find "Malabar's Happy Choice" after going Winners at Windsor was sold at the same show. Mr. Scarpa has also bought a youngster from Mrs. Kennedy of the Vivadora Kennels, Toronto. The breeding goes back to "Gallant Fox" on the sire's side and the dam is the imported "Thet Tripit" by "Ch. Thet Tetrarch" ex a "Ch. Tanager Thriller" bitch. In Quebec, we see the Boxers coming along very nicely and the report is that the breed seems to be much in demand. The American Champion "Venus von Isebek" now has six points towards her Canadian title and the bitch imported from Germany, "Unze von Dom", has won three points and is nursing two nice puppies by that famous Boxer "Int. Ch. Dorion von Marienhof" who is considered to be one of the world's finest Boxers. Another good one is "Int. Ch. Lustig von Dom" who is a full brother to "Unze von Dom". And still another fine Boxer is "Int. Ch. Sigurd von Dom" who is the sire of the previously mentioned "Venus von Isebek". These dogs are owned by Mr. Eaton but are kenneled at the Pointe Fortune Kennel. Among other Boxers in Quebec there is a fine red brindle son of "Ch. Just von Dom" of "Ch. Fanga von Dom" owned by A. C. Grant of Montreal, an imposing son of "Int. Ch. Sigurd von Dom" belonging to Mrs. Long and a very toney daughter of "Int. Ch. Baster von Elbenfer" owned by Mr. Budge. With such splendid stock in Boxers in and around Montreal, it is easily seen that we will soon find some well filled classes at the coming shows.

Now members, can I expect more news from you? This is our page, yours and mine, give it your support with advertisements and general reader interest news. Let this page be a means of bringing us closer together and getting to know each other better, don't let us be trailers. Help to put Quebec in the forefront in Canadian dogdom.

Quebec was graced this week by the Empire's "number one" dog man, King George VI. I tried to implement our part by sending a message of welcome from all Quebec members, but given to understand that such messages were forbidden, but may I say in passing, I have never seen a more gracious lady than our Queen, nor a more dignified gentleman than our King. May God bless them both.

NOTES FROM ALBERTA

Our Frontispiece

Miss E. Rawlings, of Edmonton, writes most enthusiastically of the concensus of expressed opinion concerning the show held in that City on March 20th and 21st. The judge, exhibitors and visitors being very generous in commenting on the splendid combination of effort on the part of the ladies of the Junior Hospital League, who succeeded in furnishing a satisfactory and profitable fixture.

Mrs. Jack Goff, Medicine Hat, predicts a large entry for Medicine Hat Kennel Club Show on May 24th, with Wm. Currie the President and Wm. Armstrong the Superintendent, jointly at the helm everything will be in competent hands on Victoria Day. Mr. Armstrong has sold his Golden Jubilee Year prize winning Springer Spaniel Ch. "Dail of Travers" to W. C. Raffeto Sacramento, Cal., "Dail" was by Ch. "Blue Mist of Seaford" ex a daughter of Ch. "Professor of Moira" and won the Group Special at the "Hat" last year.

The only other Alberta Golden Jubilee prize winner, also a Medicine Hat dog, is Jack Goff's Cocker Spaniel Ch. "Punch of Dene" (Ch. "Holdfast Reserve"—"Lovely Rosa of Dene") "Punch" matures nicely as his winning of two Group classes last Fall would justify this observation. Jack has a pair of youngsters by "Holdfast Reserve" ex "Lady Joan of Sunalta", that he is rather sweet on at present.

Mrs. Gertrude Munson, Vancouver, has again mated "Rosa" to "Reserve", the former mating having produced Ch. "Punch of Dene" and near Ch. "Judy of Dene", so that the possibilities are rather promising.

Frank Gorth, of Winnipeg, has just lately imported the cocker "Perssons Beautiful Lady", in whelp to "Perssons Black Knight" (Ch. "Torchill Trader" ex "Sylvia of Ethric").

H. W. Harms, of Casper, Wyoming, has purchased a dark red male cocker "Saunders Ginger Boy" from H. P. Saunders of Calgary, this youngster will be heard from both in the show ring, and at field trials later.

George Climo, of Calgary, is judging the Medicine Hat show on May 24th, quite a contingent from Calgary intend taking their dogs there.

We were delighted to have a call from E. Chevrier, Winnipeg. He has persuaded my friend Jack Rawlings to part with his imported Springer "Aspyn Advancer" also a nice female, but the thing that tickled me most was his purchase of a parti-colored cocker from Mrs. McColl, of Edmonton. Mr. Chevrier intends placing this one in the hands of his professional trainer to top her off. Now Cocker fans they are all doing it, so get your pups trained and let's get them in the field trials where they belong.

Chas. Bowman, of Kingston, Ont. has just received his English Setter back from the trainers in the south, this lady is sired by "Saunders Sirius Electro", and her dam is "Saunders Lady Unomont".

I had a call from my old pal 'Bill' Pym a few days ago, he was looking real well, we are all pleased that he has made such a great success judging all breeds, he has had a very busy winter and spring, but this work certainly agrees with him.

Colonel Berryman called at my place last week to see my German Short Hair do some work, we took along a couple of other dogs to make the trip a little more interesting, just as soon as the dogs were released from the car to work the first field the other two dogs went right to work, but the Short Hair beat it back for the ranch.

The Calgary sportsmen are certainly fortunate in having a man of the calibre of Fred Greene in their midst, he has been the guiding hand in the purchase and releasing of another five hundred and forty Chukar partridge, this man Greene was the man who was behind the plan to import and release Hungarian Partridge in the Calgary vicinity some few years ago, I doubt very much if there was a section of land in Alberta, where the wily Hun did not inhabit, and I hope the same success will be made with the Chukars.

Them Kjaar, newly appointed provincial game inspector for the Calgary division has signified his intention of seeing that all game birds will be protected as far as is the power of his department.

BRACEBRIDGE ONTARIO

Reading the illustration which features our front cover this month, we find, from left to right, Champion Kado Nikita O'Dolina, Champion Kado Beloff O'Dolina, International Champion Kado Strelka O'Dolina, and Champion Kado Nalya O'Dolina. Probably there have been no dogs in Canada as extensively campaigned at the Shows in recent years as the four dogs we have just named. "Nikita" has been at 14 Shows and has run up a Championship point score of 21. He was Best of Winners at 4 and won the Group at Guelph and Hamilton just recently. "Beloff" has attended 16 Shows, 9 times Best of Breed and 3 times a Hound Group winner. "Strelka" has taken in 19 Shows and her Champion column, in the official record, totals 41 points and no less than six hound groups. This magnificent specimen made her presence felt in the competition which featured Canadian dogs during the Canadian Kennel Club's Golden Jubilee year celebrations, and won for her proud owner-breeder the Kent's Limited Trophy, which prize, when being presented to Mrs. Cooper, drew from her the following words, "I feel so happy about winning this beautiful piece of plate because Champion Kado Strelka O'Dolina happens to be the very first Borzoi I ever bred." Last but not least of the "Quality Quartette" is "Nalya" with 17 Show appearances and a total score of 20 Championship points, 5 times Best of Winners, 3 times Best of Breed with the Hound Group at Chatham.

Now it must be noticed that Mr. Cooper shares his wife's interest in her beloved dogs and that in her records she has found it fitting to have her good man's name appear before her own, but that is merely an observation. What does stand out like the proverbial sore thumb is that all four dogs were bred by Mr. and Mrs. Cooper. It is also worthy of note that the lovely "Strelka" was sired by Champion "Romanoff Kosloff" and out of Champion "Ziganka O'Dolina", and that "Nikita" was sired by Champion "Romanoff Kosloff 2nd" and out of the handsome "Ziganka".

It is to be regretted that Mrs. Cooper's health continues to give her some concern and we pray that she will soon be back to normal again in that respect.

FOUND DEAD IN KENNEL

Ch. "Rockley Brigadier" (Ch. "Cotteridge Brigand" (Imp)—Ch. "Warland Wondrous" (Imp), glamorous Airedale, bred and owned by Sid Perkins, Toronto, was found dead in his little bed on Wednesday, April 26th, very, very much to the regret of Mr. Perkins, who held this smart bench and Stud Kennel asset in high regard. At the time of writing there is no accounting for the sad happening, as the dog seemed to be in perfect condition. We believe that the noted "Brigadier" will add to the ever increasing array of famous dogs that are being prepared as exhibits at the Royal Ontario Museum, and here he will join the unbeaten, in his breed and sex, Ch. "Rockley Masher".

Notes from the Maritimes

The writer has received many letters congratulating the Canadian Kennel Club in returning to the old system of publishing the doggie doings in the Dominion under the different provinces. Among the several letters was one from our good friend Geoffrey G. Ryder of Halifax. Mr. Ryder is at all times ready to talk "dog" and knows what he is talking about. Another letter of interest is from Vincent A. Moar of Chatham, N.B. Mr. Moar is a breeder of that magnificent dog the St. Bernard. He feels the breed is being sadly neglected and would like to see the breeders get together and advertise in our own "Kennel and Bench". The editor feels that a proper advertising with good pictures will help put this heroic dog on top where he belongs.

Jack Huggins' "Sigourney", a quality young dog, is being groomed by Mr. Huggins for the coming shows. Cocker Spaniels are in the limelight at the present time, and the Maritime Provinces have really a large number of outstanding Cockers. One to be reckoned with at the forthcoming shows is that good solid black Ch. "Cardigan Trader" owned by Jack Sheridan. By the time this goes to press Mr. Sheridan will have shown his dog at the great Morris & Essex. A new bitch for breeding purposes and a very promising young buff pup by "Trader" will make it interesting for all Cocker breeders.

Ed. Turner has recently acquired an English Setter bitch about five months old from his father, F. Topp. Turner, of Victoria, B.C., who is probably the oldest breeder of Setters in Canada and who has bred some top-notchers.

Franklyn Park, Halifax, is the place, Walter Graham is the judge, and July 1st is the date for that all-breed show. Come on you Upper Canadians let us have a look at some of your good ones.

Fred O'Connell, Halifax, recently purchased a pair of Cocker Spaniels from the Idahurst Kennels of O. B. Gilman, of Massachusetts. The female is by "Ch. Idahurst Roderick" out of "Idahurst Bunny". The male by "Idahurst Compact" out of "Idahurst Marjory"; there is no better stock in the Cocker Spaniel field. Ch. "Wamsutta Mavis 3rd".

Please send your Nova Scotia notes to Arthur Smith, 65 Atlantic St., Halifax, N.S.

The splendid American Champion Boston Terrier "Flash Again Sonny" is now making his home in the kennels of George Kane, pioneer breeder of Bostons in the Maritimes. This eye-full of loveliness made the trip from Florida and arrived in perfect health and condition. See next month's issue of this magazine for his pedigree, as he will be advertised at stud. Some of the better known dogs owned at this kennel in the past were Ch. "Ringmount Lindy", Ch. "My Nominee", Ch. "Miss New York", Ch. "Delmars Bubbling Over" and "Sammy's Nobby King". It is only within the last year that Mr. Kane sent to the United States "Jacks Don Hagerly" and "Kid Boots Ace Mischief Maker", both becoming American champions for their new owner.

"Bob" Laskey of the Cossar Farm informs me that he recently paid a visit to the Lincoln Kennels owned and operated by Capt. and Mrs. F. Harold Hathaway and located at Lower Lincoln, ten miles from Fredericton, N.B. These kennels were recently opened to care for gun dogs during the off season. One of the outstanding dogs in the kennel is the English Setter "Jordan Farm Joe", a small cobby type of dog trained by Captain Hathaway and recognized as one of the top-flight gun dogs in the province. He has just become the property of J. Stuart Neill, a well known sportsman of Fredericton. Two other English Setters "Sir Sydney", a slashing big tri-color dog weighing 60 lbs., who is now in course of training and who is handling his birds well. The other dog "Druid", property of H. G. Chestnut, who is recognized as the Dean of Woodcockers in the Maritimes, was just recently imported from the kennels of Isaac Sharp in Scotland. He is a very well made dog with good head and chest and a very strong loin, and, as he is thoroughly trained and carries the best of English and Scotch gun dog blood, he will be of great value to breeders of English Setters for field work. The latest arrival is the Brittany Spaniel "Langoat" from the Casa Blanca Kennels of J. Pugibet, Obregon, Mexico. This young dog, now 16 months old was imported by J. H. McMurray and is being trained at the kennels for work on grouse and woodcock. So impressed is Capt. Hathaway with this dog and the possibilities of the breed as his ideal covert dog for New Brunswick coverts that he is also importing a Brittany Spaniel brood matron, in whelp. The pet of the kennel is the Cocker bitch "Elmhurst Amber Lady" an outstanding red daughter of "Gracie of Mistover". This bitch of a pure golden color has grand confirmation and sufficient quality to enable her to win in fast company. She is thoroughly trained for field work and in the duck mashes.

Business is brisk at the Garwood Kennels of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald C. Vaughan. Dogs are being stripped of their winter coats and are taking on a show appearance. A real quality Scottish bitch is a new addition and will be "strutting her stuff" at the coming fixtures.

The executive of the New Brunswick Kennel Club and the building committee are busy these days arranging for the erection of a suitable building to hold their dog shows in. The Exhibition Association have been very generous in leasing the club a very central piece of ground and it is hoped that in the near future a modern building will be erected. Two two-day shows will be held this year, Sept. 4, 5, 6 and 7th, and a strong committee are leaving nothing undone to make these fixtures bigger and better than ever. In the next issue of "Kennel and Bench" these shows will be advertised and at that time the judges will be named.

RABIES CONTROL—SPECIAL

New York, May 20—The American Kennel Club's course in the fight against rabies has been charted by the special committee appointed by the Board of Directors of the governing body of pure-bred dogs. In its first meeting the committee studied the results of scientific experiments and investigations by some of its members and discussed many points relating to the better control and eventual elimination of the disease, and then appointed a sub-committee to put its conclusions in proper shape. At the second meeting of the committee, held this week, the sub-committee submitted a paper for final discussion and the framing of the report. After the expression of many thoughts, the report was drawn and unanimously adopted.

Those who have approved are: William L. Smalley, chairman; Dr. Leslie T. Webster of the Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research; Dr. Roscoe R. Hyde of the Johns Hopkins School of Hygiene; Dr. Edwin R. Blamey, official veterinarian of the A.K.C.; Dr. William H. Best, Deputy Health Commissioner, City of New York; Sydney H. Coleman, executive vice-president of the A.S.P.C.A.; Dr. Max Danziger, Health Dept., City of New York; Dr. J. E. Gordon, Harvard University Medical School; Walter Arnold, Westfield, N.J.; Dr. L. A. Merillat, American Veterinary Medical Association; Dr. Charles J. McNulty, New Jersey Veterinary Medical Association; Arnold J. Brock, attorney; and Harry I. Caesar, director of the A.K.C.

Under the recommendations approved by the special committee, and which will come before the next meeting of the Board of Directors of the A.K.C., on June 13, it will be possible to accomplish many worthwhile safeguards to canine and human life. The report is as follows:

1. The control of rabies is essentially a responsibility of government and primarily the function of the Public Health Authorities. The recommendations of this Committee are intended to assist in formulating a uniform policy based upon current scientific knowledge relating to this communicable disease.
2. Progress in the control of rabies is dependent upon an enlightened and co-operative public, particularly the dog owner.
3. The American Kennel Club can render great service to dog owners and to the public generally by continuing the dissemination of authoritative information concerning rabies.
4. Rabies can best be controlled:
  - (a) By an adequate system of licensing dogs.
  - (b) By continued efforts to eliminate stray dogs, licensed or unlicensed.
  - (c) In the event of a significantly increased prevalence of rabies, as determined by Public Health Authorities, by confinement of dogs to premises, except when leashed or muzzled.
5. Protection against rabies in dogs by vaccination is still in an experimental stage, and it is unwise to place reliance on any available vaccine. Dependence on such vaccination may lead to a false sense of security.

WITH THE GUN DOGS

The Spring Field Trials of the Ontario Bird Dog Association, were held at Niagara-on-the-lake, Ontario Sunday, April 16. This section of Ontario is known as the garden of Canada, it is famous for its peach and grape orchards. It is a place of beauty in the summer time, but with the cold north-east wind on the 16th, it was anything but a summer garden. Dogs came from far and near for the Ontario Trials, which are becoming very popular with Canadian owners of bird dogs as well as our good friends from the states of New York and Pennsylvania.

The entry was much larger than we anticipated and we had to divide our classes under two sets of judges in order to complete the trials in one day, 49 dogs were on the grounds and ready to start at eight o'clock in the morning. L. M. Brill, of Batavia, N. Y. and R. K. Palmerton, of Geneva, N.Y. was responsible for the judging of the Open Derby Stake and of the Age Stake. G. G. Vincent, of Port Nelson and W. D. Elliot, of Owen Sound took charge of the Puppy and Untrained Stake.

The weather was anything but ideal for field trials. We had rain and snow all of the previous week, leaving the fields in many places with a considerable amount of water, which made it tough going for both man and beast, in fact, it was so bad that we had to give up our originally arranged courses and ran from the main highway, however, birds were found on all courses giving the dogs an equal opportunity on game.

Palmers "Village Procter" of Snyder, N.Y. carried off the honours. He was down in eighth brace in a wide open field bordering on a peach orchard, which gave him an excellent opportunity to display his ability. He is a big slashing capable wide going dog. Well trained, finished on his birds, and would make it very interesting for any dog that we have seen down at our trials. He was handled in a very efficient manner, by Roy S. Johnson, of Buffalo. We would say that Mr. Johnson has put in considerable time this spring and feel that he will be heard of in some of the bigger trials to the south at a later date. The winner of the Derby was "Sinaland Rap the Devil", pointer dog, owned and handled by Mrs. U. Burreau, of London. This pointer is a beautiful type of animal, wide and fast, well developed, is birdy, has style and range. We feel sure, Mrs. Burreau will have an all contender of merit.

The winner of the puppy stakes was "Leamington Lou", pointer bitch, owned by George Harrington, of Leamington. This good little dog, fresh from winning the puppy stake at the International Trials at Kingsville and a real prospect.

Open All Age Stake—The winner of this stake was "Palmers Village Boy". A bold, big going pointer, covers his country very nicely, handled well. Takes in all the birdy places in a big going manner, he had two stops to flush, and three points, he stands up nicely on point and handles birds in a very intelligent manner.

Second was "Raps Timmed Pal" well known pointer dog, owned by Clayton Rugg, of Jamestown, N.Y. We have seen this dog many times before. He is still going very nicely. He had one flush point on a pheasant.

Third place dog was of "Finger Lakes Rowdy" a setter dog owned by Gal. Hamilton, of Seneca Falls. This is a very nice going setter, one of the best we have seen put down. He ran a big race in open territory while he did not get on game. He was placed on his style and range.

Open Puppy Stake—The winner "Leamington Lou", pointer bitch, owned by George Harrington. It is a very fine type of setter bitch with plenty of speed, range and style. She hunts her course in a very intelligent manner, taking in all the birdy places. She had two finds and is well advanced for her age.

Second was "Palmer Stylish Beau", pointer dog, owned by S. W. Palmer, of Snyder, N.Y. This pointer is a big fine going dog and hunts his course very nicely in a very intelligent manner.

Third was "Shot", pointer dog, owned by J. G. Crang, of Toronto, handled by George Harrington, of Leamington. He is a nice stylish going dog, a little restricted in range, but hunts the birdy places and apparently has had plenty of opportunities for one so young.

Open Derby—This stake was won by "Smalands Rap the Devil", pointer dog, owned by Mrs. Burreaus, of London. These derbies were put down in wide open field, where they had plenty of opportunity to show their wares and were judged on style and range. This dog has plenty of all it takes to make a good bird dog. He covered his course in a highly intelligent manner.

He is a beautiful dog in action, possibly a little restricted in range.

Second went to "Dr. Ferris", pointer dog, owned by Howard Purple, of Rochester, N.Y. This dog ran a very intelligent race covering his course nicely. He has not quite the style as the dog placed over him.

* Third went to "Woodbine Lady Eugene", setter bitch, owned by D. T. Barns, of Gobles. This bitch is very fast, wide going birdy setter. She covered her course very nicely. Not as stylish in action as the pointers.

Untrained Stake—First place was "Meg of Donaghmore", Irish Setter Bitch, owned by Bains and Grosarts, of Toronto. This setter covered her course very nicely. She has plenty of style and range, and we hope may develop into a real Irish contender for an all age stake.

Second was "Forest Molly", Irish Setter Bitch, owned by I. S. Smith, of Toronto. This setter is a nice going performer who with training has prospect of making a real shooting dog.

Third was "Romer Jerry of Fall-ingbrook", Irish setter dog, owned by Gordon Harkness. This setter is a beautiful animal who has recently completed his championship on the bench. He is of a rich mahogany colour, very free in action and we would like to see Gordon put this dog into the hands of a good trainer.

NEW VETERINARY DIRECTOR GENERAL

Dr. A. E. Cameron, M.C., of Ottawa, who since 1925 has been Chief Veterinary Inspector, Health of Animals Division, Dominion Department of Agriculture, has been appointed Veterinary Director General to succeed Dr. George Hilton, who retired on superannuation in July, 1938.

Dr. Cameron graduated with honours from the Ontario Veterinary College in 1904 and after a short period in private practice entered the Meat Inspection Service, Dominion Department of Agriculture. In 1910 he was transferred to the Contagious Diseases Division in Saskatchewan. Three years later he went to the Pathological Division, Veterinary Research Station, Lethbridge, Alberta. Then came the war and in May, 1915, Dr. Cameron was appointed Veterinary Officer, 6th Canadian Light Infantry Brigade, and went to France in charge of the horses of the brigade. He served with distinction during the war and was awarded the Military Cross. After demobilization he returned to the Veterinary Research Station at Lethbridge and in 1925 was appointed Chief Veterinary Inspector with headquarters in Ottawa.

Dr. Cameron has represented Canada since 1932 on the Executive Board of the American Veterinary Medical Association. He is a member of the Associate Committee on Parasitology, National Research Council, a member of the Canadian and United States Public Health Associations; United States Live Stock Sanitary Associations; American Society of Parasitologists and Vice President of the Central Canada Veterinary Association.

GOOD DOGS DEAD

CHAMPION LIMESTONE LADDIE

Cocker Spaniel breeders generally will regret to learn of the passing of this great Cocker Spaniel, who never knew a prize ribbon to be less than the coveted purple winners on any of his four show appearances which gave him sixteen championship points. He was good for five points at the Canadian National Exhibition in 1926, and for four more at the National Kennel Club Show in 1929—he was a laster. He died on Friday, May 5th.

As a Stud force his greatness is attested by the very many registration records which embrace his influence in that respect. Of course he was bred to be a great show dog, and a powerful Stud force in the first instance, being a son of "Robinhurst Foreglow" out of "Midkiff Seductive".

Almost fourteen years old, the one time star 'slipped his collar' in his sleep, left what was mortal of him, whilst his spirit made for the 'happy hunting grounds' where the woodcock is still plentiful, and the bramble and thicket are none too dense for old-timers such as "Limestone Laddie".

When J. B. Forsyth, Toronto, called Kennel and Bench office to report the passing of his pal, it did not tax the imagination to detect tears in a voice that told of tears in his eyes, but with dogs as with men, the years take their toll, and the laws of life are unrelenting, as they always have been.

CH. PADDY'S WEE DAM

There are very few Boston terriers as well known at the shows as "Wee Sam", a dog that was campaigned fearlessly at all the shows as they came along. At his first show in 1935, The Canadian National Exhibition, he won 1st Limit and 1st Open and at his last one, Toronto Kennel Club, he was Best of Breed. In all his 15 starts "Paddy's Wee Sam" had always to be contended with. The "Disturber" Kennels of Paddy Boughs, Toronto, have two youngsters of promise coming along to fill the vacancy left by "Wee Sam". Hemorrhage following a minor operation was the cause of death.

Another promising dog that has been taken out of circulation by death following the Cleveland show is W. B. Lewis', Toronto, comely bull terrier, "Charlwood Damon's Memory". This young dog came out at the Canadian National Exhibition last September where he won the novice and limit classes. He wintered well and brought much promise for the shows as they came along on both sides of the boundary, all of which was satisfactory to Mr. Lewis, who is now left to mourn the loss of a cherished hope.

That smart smooth fox terrier, "Desert Director", who was said to be a superior specimen than his illustrious sire, Ch. "Nornay Saddler", has just died from pneumonia. Irving C. Ackerman, San Francisco, bred this youngster who was out of Ch. "Braw Lass" and brought him to Westminster last February and turned him over to the great "Saddler's" owner, James M. Austin, of Westbury, Long Island.

The noted Scottish terrier, Ch. "Heather Select", owned by Mr. and Mrs. C. Stalter, Hohokus, N.J., was found dead in his kennel recently. "Heather Select" had just turned three years old and his name would suggest he was born at Robert Chapman's kennels at Glenborg, Scotland. "Heather Glory".

BOOKS RECEIVED

**The Pekingese*. Judy Publishing Co., Chicago. Here is the latest of the Blue Ribbon Series and it comes fresh off the line from the House of Judy. The author is none other than Miss Anna Katherine Nicholas and she treats her readers to 140 pages of valuable material that has the ear-marks of experience and much research. Every experienced Peke breeder and every new comer to the Peke cult will want a copy in order to enlarge their knowledge of this oriental dog whose origin goes back to the Tang Dynasty of the eighth century.

Miss Nicholas breaks her book up into 44 chapters and is quite generous in her use and arrangement of illustrations. She tells a complete story that is as interesting as it is informative making all breeders of Pekes her debtor.

**The Pekingese* may be secured from Judy Publishing Co., Judy Bldg., Chicago, Ill., at $2.00, or it may be ordered through Kennel & Bench, 25 Melinda St., Toronto.

**"The Memoirs of a Boarding Kennel"*, by Janet Joy Holyoake, with sketches by Angelar Malden. The author has the experience accruing from the actual contacts made through the management of a successful boarding kennel, and from the first page of her book, she takes her readers with her as she receives new boarders, as she plans for their comfort whilst they are in her custody, and introduces them to a complete understanding of the many intricacies accompanied with the caring for other people's dogs. The chapters on trimming, Puppies and Sales, and Helpers are all well rounded out and instructive.

*This book should be a desirable addition to one's canine library, and it sells at $2.50, and may be secured from the publishers, The Greystone Press, New York City, New York or from Kennel and Bench office.

**"Canine Hysteria"*, a new book by F. J. Murray, published by E. and F. N. Spon, Ltd., 57 Haymarket, S. W. 1. We do not care to offer opinions on matters technical more or less, but the author claims to have discovered the cause, and also the cure for this rare canine curse, and further, it is claimed, that where the treatment has been applied, a cure has been effected immediately, indeed Capt. E. A. V. Stanley, writing in the "Greyhound Express and Coursing News" says:

"There is no doubt from the actual proofs that have been given me that Mr. Murray's treatment has cured, and will cure, the disease, for when we had carried out his instructions carefully, the disease promptly ceased, all Greyhounds quickly recovered and there has been no recurrence. In every case a complete proof was given me that cures of a non-recurrent nature had been effected".

**"Canine Hysteria"* is now on sale and the price is $2.00 and copies may be ordered through Kennel and Bench office.

GERMAN SHEPHERD DOGS

Ch. "Odin von Busecker Schloss"—but what's in a name anyway? made history for the German Shepherd Dog breed at Cleveland, on March 26th, when he was chosen as best dog in Show, all breeds by Mrs. Hartley M. Dodge. Cleveland being one of the really front rank Shows of the United States "Odin's" achievement is the most pronounced. Raymond L. Patterson judged the breed classes and selected the son of "Dachs von Bern"—"Gerda v Busecker Schloss" as his best, then George Thomas placed the handsome dog first in the Working Group, and the "Lady of Giralda" completed the circle. Commenting on placement after the show Mrs. Dodge went on record as having said "This is the first time I have placed a German Shepherd best in show. Possibly I am too critical in the evaluation of my favorite breed against others, but I simply could not refuse this grand dog, "Odin".

Miss A. S. Colgate of the Hobby House Kennels, Tuxedo, N.Y., has been showing a pair of German Shepherds at some of our Spring Shows in Ontario, that have taken their share of the higher prizes, her Ch. "Frigga von Karmenbackerland" may have completed international honors during the short invasion into Canada. Miss Colgate enjoyed her visit, made many friends and has left a word of praise for our Canadian hospitality. Canada has always a welcome for our Cousins from 'tother side o' border; but an especial welcome awaits visitors to our dog shows, and if the visitors bring their dogs along and put them into competition with ours, then the welcome goes all the way 'round.

GREYHOUNDS

Greyhound breeders will be interested to learn, that in the opinion of the racing expert Major J. Y. Baldwin, Cheltenham, England. "Ballyjoker" is the fastest Greyhound living to-day. It was Major Baldwin who prophesied that "Beef Cutlet" would become the greatest sire in England, now it is conceded that "Beef Cutlet" is the greatest sire the breed has ever known and his sire "Mutton Cutlet", was the greatest sire before him.

"Ballyjoker" is the ruling favorite for the Derby, but another son of "Beef Cutlet" called "Windsor of Waterhall", the 33 to 1 chance is acknowledged to be a real threat.

"Mick The Miller", the chief pillar in the English greyhound structure in recent years, has left his worldly pursuits and has gone over to that canine valhalla from which good greyhounds ne'er return. The famous "Mick" was the same to greyhounds as the lion with the turned up tail is to sterling silver. "Mick The Miller" was 13 years old at the time of his death on May 5th and it is said that his cash earnings amounted to approximately $100 000.00, this amount being shown in the ledger as prize money, stud fees and moving pictures.

It has been often said that greyhound racing would never amount to anything until betting on the races was legalized but it is very true that the sport is developing most satisfactorily in Ontario and probably this stimulation is directly due to the great amount of promotional leadership that has been so steadfastly sponsored by the Ontario Greyhound Association, who formally opened the 1939 racing season at their plant situated on O'Connor Drive, Toronto, on Monday, May 8th. This training track will operate on Monday and Wednesday nights and on Saturday afternoons. All the better known hounds and a crop of youngsters will furnish plenty of good racing sport this season.

The Ulster Stadium, Toronto, is almost ready for feature racing on a large scale and this venue will soon be ready to operate. The members of the Ontario Greyhound Association have contributed their time and labor most generously and this, plus the spending of $2,000.00 makes available a really desirable plant that is up-to-the-minute in every respect.

The registration of greyhounds born in Canada is an important matter that will have to be tackled in earnest sooner or later. In the United States, England, Ireland and Australia there are separate stud books kept for greyhounds and such books enjoy the confidence and support of all persons interested in breeding racing greyhounds but only one stud book is permissible by law in Canada and steps should be taken aggressively by all interested parties to have the Canadian Kennel Club Stud Book officially recognized as the Greyhound Stud Book in this country and in this respect there should be no unnecessary delay allowed.

DOBERMANS

What a show record is that of the Doberman Pinscher Tri-Int. Ch. "Troll v.d. Engelsburg" and apparently the end is not yet, as, so far in 1939 three more Best in Show Awards have been tacked on. With these additional triumphs, no less than eleven more trophies have been added to an already extensive and elaborate collection. The show record is now Best of Breed 37 times, Best in Working Group 29 times and Best dog in Show, 19 times. Of course "Troll's" record as a Stud force is even more scintillating, and his owner, E. Bornstein, Peoria, Ill., has every right to be proud of his dog. Alf Loveridge has managed "Troll" at all his appearances at the Shows in Canada, and when the dog left Windsor for his Peoria, Ill. home, with Mr. and Mrs. Bornstein, Mr. Loveridge felt he was parting with a good old friend.

GREAT DANES

Some people say "Here's one for the book," but we say "here's two for the book," and so we come right up-to-the-minute. At the 3rd Annual Puppy Sweepstakes contest of the Great Dane Club of America, held at Portchester, New York, on May 6th, there were three divisions for males and a like arrangement for females—3 to 6 months, 6 to 9 months and 9 to 12 months, with males and females judged separately. The winners of the 3 to 6 months classes were a brother and a sister out of the same litter, "Pierrot of Chaburn" and "Pierette of Chaburn", both sired by the well known Canadian-born harlequin, "Alva Schatzie", by Ch. "Blitz v.d. Doggenburg" ex "Gretta", bred by Mrs. R. McColl, Toronto, who will now have a renewed interest in her "Schatzie" who enjoyed a rather brilliant career at the shows in 1936.

BULLDOGS

Ben B. Matthews in his "Bulldog Notes" to "Dogdom" for May has this to say concerning a "Canadian-born bulldog".

"I also visited Mr. and Mrs. Paul Maddux, of Frankfort, Ind., owners of "Kamel Kloddy Kloy". I was anxious to see this dog as he is a son of my all-time favorite, Ch. "Basford Ideal" and he has quite a few of the qualities of "Ideal", but is not quite as compact, however, if he can carry on some of that dog's characteristics, he will be doing a great deal".

"Kamel Kloddy Kloy" was bred by "Reg" P. Sparkes, Toronto, and being by Ch. "Basford Ideal", a son of Ch. "Basford Revival", who in turn is a son of Ch. "Son O' Gill". With good breeding on his dam's side, he should be a good one to all intents and purposes.

AFTER-EFFECTS OF DISTEMPER

The convalescence of a dog after an attack of distemper is often a slow process, and it is essential not to attempt to hasten the resumption of his normal routine. Exercise, for example, should be given in small daily doses, as otherwise a great strain is placed on the lungs and heart and may cause irreparable damage to these organs. A light but nourishing diet, too, is essential—milk and milky foods, tripe and minced lean beef are items which help to build up the dog and place the minimum of strain upon his digestive organs. Chills, too, with the risk of pneumonia in the dog's enfeebled state should be guarded against. But plenty of fresh air and sunlight should be given when the weather is genial.

One of the commonest of after-effects of distemper is chorea, which in the opinion of eminent veterinarians is often caused by failure to regard the dog as an invalid for a fortnight at least after apparent recovery from distemper. The chief symptom of chorea is a muscular twitching in various parts of the body. Recovery from chorea is usually a very prolonged process. Here again recovery is expedited by feeding with light and nourishing foods. Some owners are inclined to be over-alarmed regarding these twitchings, but so long as a gradual improvement, however slight, is observable there is good ground for hoping that the twitching will eventually cease altogether. Medicinal tonics in chorea cases should only be given under veterinary advice.

Another common aftermath of distemper is discoloration, or damage to the structure of the teeth. When distemper occurs before a puppy has cut his permanent teeth, these teeth when they appear are sometimes found to be structurally faulty. In either case there is nothing that can be done to remedy the defect, but apart from its being a disadvantage if the dog happens to be a show specimen, there is no reason why this discoloration or damage should affect the dog's general health.

MAN'S BEST FRIEND—THE DOG

By GERTRUDE W. DREW

The devotion of dog to man, that unquestioned, unswerving and unparalleled loyalty, antedates all written history, though appearing it is true, in the folk lore of every country. The very inexplicable nature of this love for we humans is indeed one of the glories of this world. To me that devotion is something so fine and beautiful, that we all could profit by the unstinted manner in which it is lavished, asking so little in return.

It is perhaps not unnatural that we take a dog's affection for granted. Do not our earliest recollections include a pet which played no inconsiderable part in our childhood? Were we not taught at school that a dog was a quadruped of great intelligence and attachment for man? Through subsequent years have we not continued to accept that love, blindly given without thought of recompense,—given perhaps in too many instances without return, or even decent treatment?

But how many realize the hundreds of centuries this incomparable devotion has endured? Incredible as it may appear, dogs' love for man dates back 10,000 years B.C.—perhaps for an even greater space.

It was in the kitchen middens along the coast of Denmark of at least 10,000 B.C. that the bones of the first domesticated dogs are found, according to Geoffrey Parsons, "The Stream of History". These are long piles of skulls and bones, the refuse of prehistoric Norsemen who dwelt in wattle huts, and pushed off shore in rude boats.

"It is possible", says the author, "that dogs were tamed by paleolithic hunters". One cannot feel sure of negative evidence here. But it is fairly clear that the dog was the first wild animal to become the friend of man and that this important event had happened before this time. This first dog of the Danish skull-heap was of the jackal type, like the eskimo dog but smaller—later a larger dog more like the wolf was tamed to guard sheep. He may have been the ancestor of the modern collie.

We are also informed in Smith's "Human History" that while the date of easterly migration of the most primitive representatives is unknown, fossilized remains, discovered at Talgai, Queensland, reveal that the earliest known Australian, when the great marsupials were still living, were located in strata, in which were found fossilized dogs teeth. This suggests that those early emigrants from Asia were accompanied by their dogs around 4000 B.C.

"Earliest Egyptians had already domesticated the dog and had come to regard it as a friend, as they buried dogs in human cemeteries", says that author. A far greater respect for man's best friend than is shown in these ultra modern times.

Legendary history contains many entertaining stories of famous dogs such as "Argus", the dog of Ulysses. During biblical days man's friendship with dogs is well attested, for no fewer than forty-five references to dogs are to be found in the Bible.

Early English history informs us that dogs were of the utmost value in the protection of both the humble hut and lordly castle. They accompanied their masters to war and uncomplainingly did their share of sentry duty. They were even taken to the crusades and to various foreign wars. Small wonder is there that the bull dog became the symbol of British tenacity. All too are familiar with the part that the dog played in the early life of Canada as instanced in the story of "Pilotte" at Ville Marie.

From the earliest days man sought his game aided by his dogs. To-day man indulges in this sport in precisely the same way as did his forefathers of long ago. It is, therefore, not surprising that in every clime dogs play some special part in the life of that country. In many lands they are almost a necessity. For example, in Belgium, they are the milk carriers, in Switzerland their noble work is to carry food and medicine across the Alps to succor travellers. In many parts of the frozen north they provide the only means of transportation and, as in the days of yore, they are indispensable in the safeguarding of flocks.

While dogs intense love for man remains a mystery, it is not difficult to understand man's love for his best friend. Who could withstand that appealing glance and friendly tail wagging which speaks his joy at our approach? Even a child soon recognizes him as a friend, and he makes no error even in the case of a dog an adult would be wary of, for that mutual feeling of confidence is reciprocated. He is ever our friend unless we justly incur his enmity.

Almost daily we read of a great deed of heroism some dog has performed. Yet how ingloriously such deeds pass from our minds. How little does it dawn on people's consciousness that a dog is really worthwhile, not only as a companion and pal but as a protector who gives his best in our service at all times, asking only that he be allowed the association of his master or mistress.

Man's sagacious friend as the "seeing eye" for the blind has been much to the fore of late and it is impossible to give too much credit both to dog and teacher. The idea is, however, by no means new as over two hundred years ago, dogs cheerfully and with unerring intelligence are recorded as having devoted their lives to the care of their blind masters.

Medical science also recognizes the benefit to be derived by the companionship of a dog as part of the treatment of certain nervous disorders. The idea may have been copied from long years of knowledge that the presence of a dog had a soothing effect on highly nervous thoroughbred horses.

If we humans could penetrate the minds of our canine friends or if we were able to understand their language, then we would know why dogs want to be our friends, why with such reckless abandon they sacrifice everything else and choose to be with us; why they give so much and ask so little. This is something we will probably never know, for as far back as history takes us, no human being has ever been able to offer any solution to this question.

Let us then presume that for the same reason that we are transcendent in our realm, so God in His great eternal plan, has seen fit to put in the world, an animal whose virtues outnumber those of any other living thing. And, while He has endowed them with a goodly portion of man's intelligence He has given them none of man's falseness. I like to believe that the dog is the born protector and friend of man, and that he was definitely created for that purpose.

And so our faithful companion is with us to-day as in the countless ages past, and despite our position in life, he is above all our devoted servant. His love for mankind knows neither discouragement nor corruption and we might well be envious of his noble qualities.

Today much is being done to improve the various breeds of dogs, from the proverbial lap dog to the aristocratic setter, the regal dane, and the lordly mastiff. Not only has their intelligence been raised but their general morale has been greatly improved upon. The education of a dog need no longer be a hardship to his owner, but a pastime in which the master reaps an abundance of pleasure, for the dog of today has a keen understanding and adapts himself easily and quickly to our ways and humours. He is almost pitiful in his anxiety to please. He is exceedingly responsive to good treatment, and, his obedience bespeaks his high mentality. In short he places himself completely and utterly at our mercy, and if he develops into a nuisance for lack of proper care and training, the reflection is not upon him, but directly upon his owner.

It would be interesting to learn just why so many people treat a dog with such utter contempt, and why they refuse absolutely to understand them. For a dog can teach man many things. With a little patience and tolerance he can be educated into ways of inoffensiveness and he will pay you back with long years of devotion and loyalty, such as nothing on earth can buy.

IRISH TERRIERS

Every dog has his day we have been told, and what a day is about to dawn for the Irish Terrier as a breed. We noticed where Federal Premier, The Right Honourable W. L. McKenzie King's Irish terrier came in for a royal reception from Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth, on her first visit to Canada, and to Canada's Capital, Ottawa. The honest "Mick" was all dressed up with a large ribbon around his neck for the occasion and like a good modest "Mick", he accepted the queenly patronage most graciously; but what dog wouldn't?—lucky dog!

John Greer, Toronto, has his face all wreathed in smiles these days. As a matter of fact he has been rejoicing ever since he learned that Hugh Allan's Irish terrier bitch "Doreen of Dalriader" won the Terrier Group at Regina, and had made the half way mark towards her championship. Mr. Greer bred "Doreen", and imported her mother "Culbahn Colette" from J. R. Jackson, Ireland in the summer of 1934, and "Colette" finished her own championship at Fort Garry Kennel Club Show, October, 1937. So it is apparently like mother, like daughter and both good.

Now let me get down to more serious business—the business of putting Irish Terriers over the top on the American Continent almost at once, but our Irish Terriers like our "Kennel and Bench" will only be just as good as we make them ourselves. We all know and fully realize that we cannot continue to take everything out without being prepared to put something back in, that is only logical, fair and reasonable and our desire, as Irish Terrier breeders is to have, at least, a full page in every issue and here is my own suggestion, offered for whatever it may be worth. Every breeder of Irish Terriers, who favors being fair to the breed, and to "Kennel and Bench", will take out regularly a small advertisement, and for this purpose the Managing Editor, Mr. Strachan, will accept our business cards at $.100 per one half inch, single column, this is real co-operation, and leaves the matter of helping ourselves an individual and collective responsibility. The arrangement will tell the purchasing public interested in buying Irish Terriers when good specimens can be purchased with the maximum of safety and satisfaction.

It makes my interest in this section of "Kennel and Bench" a pleasure to be told that there were so many readers sufficiently interested in Bobbie Grant's article last month, to write me to say that they did appreciate it.

Now let us get together lads? The future for Irish Terriers is both bright and promising.

DACHSHUNDE

By the time these words reach Kennel and Bench readers it is hoped that some peace will have descended upon the Fix family and their dogs. We hope to be safely established in a trailer camp at the back of our new home while building goes on apace. The mail bag this last month has produced some very bright spots and, it has been gratifying to receive many interesting letters.

Miss Florena Cramp of Lake Shore Mines, Kirkland Lake, Ont., wrote a very interesting account of her English imporation. She says: "Adolph of Ontario", was brought to me from England last June. He is a red weighing about 21 lbs., and is from the Von der Howitt Kennels in London, England. The children in Kirkland Lake get a great thrill out of seeing "Adolph" and call him "Schnappsie" after Dinglehooper's dog.

Mrs. Claude Flanders, of Brockville, Ont. wrote a newsy letter reporting the breeding of her "Donna" to Dr. Marquhart's fine Lindenbuhl dog in the United States. Mrs. Flanders had a call from Mrs. Svenningson of Montreal recently when the latter told her that she had imported a tiny dog from England. It is to be hoped that Mrs. Svenningson will give our Ontario breeders a chance to see some of her miniatures at some of our forthcoming shows.

The long cold Spring has made it impossible for Mr. Dickinson to arrange a Field Trial this June but he hopes to do so at some later date when conditions will be more suitable.

"Ray" McLaughlin is a new correspondent to this column and it was a pleasure to hear from him. He has just purchased a black and tan son of "Herman Rinkton". This dog has a great deal of the splendid Ch. "Held von Erbachthal" blood in his veins on his dam's side and most of our breeder's are, of course, familiar with "Herman's" antecedents. It is very pleasing to see that Mr. McLaughlin is becoming more and more enthused regarding dachshunds and he now has some very good bloodlines in his kennel.

HOT WEATHER HINTS

Dogs are more susceptible to extreme heat than they are to extreme cold, and if your dog is one of those that develop a luxuriant covering in spring it is a wise and kindly move to have him trimmed, or "stripped" as it is usually called. This does not mean that the dog should be denuded of hair—although some "strippers" leave little enough—but a judicious trimming and tidying that makes the dog feel cool and look well-turned-out. Stripping is a job that is best left to the expert: the few shillings it costs is negligible when it is borne in mind that it keeps the dog comfortable and smart for months. The novice is liable to make a hash of the operation and have a sore and sorry-looking dog for a week or two.

The dog's food as well as his raiment calls for adjustment in the hot months. Plenty of cool fresh, clean water always is a necessity; the average dog drinks little and often. Stodginess in food should be avoided; the meat ration can be reduced and boiled fish—carefully boned—given instead on one or two days a week. Wholemeal rusks—or lightly-baked stale brown bread—are the best form of cereal food for dogs. Kennels should be in the shade for at least the hours when the sun is high; a wooden kennel gets like an oven when the summer sun beats down upon it at mid-day. Summer exercise is best given in the cool of the morning and evening. Most dogs enjoy a swim in hot weather, but it is best to give them a brisk rub down with a rough towel after they have shaken themselves. Care should be taken to dry the skin between the toes as this can be a very sore point if left to dry itself.

C. E. HARBISON RETURNS TO NEW YORK

Frank F. Soule, Advertising Director of the Condé Nast Publications, New York City, announces the return of C. E. Harbison, as manager of the Kennel Dept. of "Vogue" and "House and Garden", effective Monday, May 15th.

It will be remembered that Mr. Harbison, who by the way is a well known personality in Ontario dogdom, left Condé Nast Publications after Westminster Kennel Club Show in 1938 to take over the management of the International Kennel Club at Chicago. In his new sphere he brought the Chicago Club right to the forefront of show giving clubs in the United States. The return of Mr. Harbison just means that the clientele of Condé Nast Publications will again be able to avail themselves of the counsel and advice of America's outstanding man in this field.

BOSTON TERRIER CLUB OFFICERS

On May 18th, The Boston Terrier Club of Toronto, elected its officers and the following will hold the reins of government until their successors have been elected: Hon. Pres. H. M. Jackson, Pres. J. J. Kelly, 1st Vice Pres. R. E. Lipe, 2nd Vice Pres. Mrs. C. B. Firman, Secretary Wm. Blum, Treasurer Mrs. M. Beard, Publicity, Mrs. R. E. Lipe, Executive, Messrs. Taylor, Smith and Rowe, Mrs. Caley and Miss Beresford.

The balance sheet was considered healthy and robust, a substantial increase of income having marked the past financial year.

Plans in connection with the Club's Specialty Show at Thanksgiving were advanced satisfactorily.

WILL MISS HOLLAND BUCKLEY

The Great Joint Terrier Show was for a long time the apple of the late Holland Buckley's eye, and the fixture held on April 24th, could hardly help being a more or less depressing affair, the moving spirit have been withdrawn.

SALUTE TO CANADA

Capt. Will Judy in his "Dog World" for June will have the following trite observation to make:—

"Our northern neighbor, the Dominion of Canada, is keeping up with the tempo of the times in dogs particularly under the leadership of the new pres. of the Canadian KC, Reginald Sparkes and the sec. for many years, James D. Strachan."

TOO BAD FOR SCOTLAND

Kelvin Hall, Glasgow, will not be available for the Scottish Kennel Club Show next February and this may mean a discontinuance of this important fixture for 1940.

DOG LOVERS

VISITING THE SICK

Returning from the Windsor Show, the President Mr. Sparkes, Director, Mr. McDerment and the Editor dropped off at 310 Huron Street, London, Ont., to pay their respects to a member of the Canadian Kennel Club, who has been confined to bed for a period now marked by years, but having a good wife, a nice home and a lot of Cocker Spaniels by Ch. "Blackstone Reflector" out of a Ch. "Torohill Smoky" female, O. C. Hughes, is as happy as the proverbial "bug in the rug". Puppy after puppy was brought to the sick room, and each one had a real publicity agent, as Mr. Hughes pointed out its individual merits, and how he watches the growth that every day brings to his young dogs. To a dyed-in-the-wool audience, such as Mr. Sparkes, Mr. McDerment and myself, it was really refreshing to hear our good friend tell what his dogs had meant to him in recent years. Whilst we were there Mr. Hughes' doctor called, and brought a nice big trout along with him, and as "O.C." ran his fingers along the beauty's back, it was not hard on the imagination, to realize the sport that he could have taken himself, in playing a trout so worthy of his rod, line and reel.

RABIES?

A meeting of dog fanciers was held in Vancouver, to consider an outbreak of Rabies in the State of Washington. Dr. G. D. Pinder, prominent Vancouver Veterinarian, who had made several visits to Seattle, submitted a report on his observations, and strongly advocated the petitioning of the Dominion Government to place an embargo on dogs entering Canada from the State of Washington. During the course of the meeting, those attending who already had experience of a Rabies outbreak, gave it as their considered opinion that the general public were easily worked up to a hysterical condition, which was always detrimental and regrettable to dogs generally. The meeting passed a resolution to the effect, that no action be taken in the matter.

Mr. W. H. Pym, reported that Director J. A. H. Irving, and himself had attended a conference with the Executive Committee of the S.P.C.A. which Committee realized that they had been over-stepping their boundaries in respect to Kennel owners, and steps were taken to remove misunderstanding in future.

APPLICATIONS FOR KENNEL NAMES

The following applications for Kennel Names will be considered by the Board of Directors of the Canadian Kennel Club, Inc., on Thursday, June 15th, 1939. Any person having objection thereto should communicate promptly with the Secretary, Canadian Kennel Club, Inc., 25 Melinda St., Toronto, Canada.

MAKING GAINES FOOD Their Text Book

Anyone can raise orphans if they feed Gaines Formula 107-A. Formula 107-A helps breeders raise better puppies. Formula 107-A is the food every kennel should use.

Gaines Meat and Milk Meal for strong healthy puppies.

AUTHORITIES ON NUTRITION
tell us puppies need

Carotene (Vitamin A)

Cod Liver Oil (Vitamin D)

Lactoflavin (Vitamin G)

Only in Gaines Food are all three found in combination with Enzymes to help puppy digestions. Gaines Krunchon—Same ingredients as the Meal in pellet form that dogs love to "crunch-on." It's got plenty of taste appeal.

A FEW "COLD" FACTS ABOUT SOME RATHER "HOT" BOSTONS

SAINTS REST Bostons won 20 out of 21 classes at point shows in Canada and U.S. in the past 3 months.

In the past year they have won over 90% of all classes entered in Canada and U.S. including "Best Bred by Exhibitor" class.

SAINTS REST 9 producing broods are quality, show-type females, continuously being proven in the show ring.

Their selected bloodlines and pedigrees are open to the closest scrutiny—(6 of the 9 are sired by outstanding International Champions).

SAINTS REST breeds to the finest studs obtainable commensurate with type, bloodlines and proven "nick's".

SAINTS REST endeavors to produce a limited number of ALL GOOD pups; (rather than quantity production of mediocre quality with an occasional "flyer").

Spring litters due right now from 5 of our finest broods include:—

- 3 litters by Steppers Gallant Son.
- 1 litter by Emperor Ace.
- 1 litter by Easter Parade.

all proven, internationally known sires of the highest type.

SAINTS REST Bostons are raised in modern kennels under ideal conditions of country air and country sunlight.

Breeding, show and pet stock usually available.

Friend of Kings

TRULY the dog is the friend of Kings. For centuries, the Monarchs of England have esteemed the devoted companionship that the dog alone gives.

This is perhaps an opportune occasion for the House of Spratt's to mention, in all modesty, its 75 years' Service spent in close co-operation with those breeders and rearers who make the companionship of dogs available both to Kings and to their subjects.

To the Fancier, the value of the Services that Spratt's render needs no emphasis. Sufficient to say that in the future, as in the past, Spratt's will gladly continue to contribute in every way possible the substantial encouragement that so admirably supplements the skill and experience of the breeder. That this service will bring reciprocal support is the confident conviction of the House of Spratt's.
