How can you expect us to make money for you if we don't LOOK and FEEL our best?

● Pedigree counts in selling pets but so does condition. A dog in top condition shows so much pep and looks so good that he makes a direct appeal to his prospective new master. And he starts off as a good, healthy pet which builds confidence in your Kennel.

Good feeding is important—and because Kennel owners must look to costs, we urge you to test out Ross-Miller Kennel Foods. They're the lowest-priced stamina-building dog foods in Canada! You get quality ingredients and a scientifically balanced ration, formulated on 50 years' experience in nutritional feeding.

The vitamins, the minerals, the bone building and conditioning food elements your dogs must have to keep fit, are generously supplied in Ross-Miller Foods. These include beef scrap, Western Whole Wheat flour, bone meal, fish meal, milk and concentrated cod liver oil.

MEETING OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

OF THE CANADIAN KENNEL CLUB, MAY 30th, 1939

A Special meeting of the Board of Directors of the Canadian Kennel Club, Inc., was held at the Club's offices, 25 Melinda Street, Toronto, on Tuesday afternoon, May 30th, 1939, at 3.30 o'clock. The President, Reg. P. Sparkes, presided. Directors attending included, Capt. H. Dudley-Waters, W. H. Pym, Mrs. E. Brown, Wm. McDerment, E. W. Essery, and Dr. H. E. Batt.

The Minutes of the Directors' meeting held on May 18th were read and after discussion it was agreed to defer the adoption of the Minutes until later on in the meeting.

A letter was read from Mr. Irving suggesting that no further action be taken in respect to the referendum vote until the matter of affiliation had been clarified. Mr. Pym suggested that the club secure an agreement in writing from the Minister of Agriculture that the Canadian Kennel Club could withdraw from the Canadian National Live Stock Records as a "going concern" at any time.

After further discussion it was regularly moved by Mr. Pym, seconded by Mr. Essery, and carried:

"That, the Secretary be instructed to write to the Federal Minister of Agriculture, and to ascertain from him whether or not, in the event of our signing the present proposed Articles of Affiliation, we have an absolute guarantee from him as Minister of Agriculture, that we can withdraw as a 'going concern', and that the reply from the Minister be published in the Official Organ for the information of the members."

It was agreed that the whole matter of affiliation would be held in abeyance pending the arrival of the Minister's reply. The Secretary was instructed to forward to the Minister of Agriculture a copy of the Official Organ for May, marked to show the proposed Articles of Affiliation.

The matter of unpaid advertising accounts was gone into, and the Secretary was instructed to request the Club's Honorary solicitor to inform those having delinquent accounts, that unless satisfactory arrangements were made for settlement within a stated time, that legal action would be taken with a view to collection.

The matter of having Officers attending the more important Shows, and particularly the action of the Directors in respect to the suggestion offered by Mr. Irving and himself in respect to such representation at the Morris and Essex Show, was discussed, and Mr. Pym declared that it was his intention to further discuss the matter with the other Provincial Directors with a view to securing an expression of their opinion for the consideration of the Board.

The following Statment of General Accounts for May were presented for payment:—

Canadian Terrier Club; Canine Breeders' & Exhibitors Association of Canada; Bedford Kennel Club; Regina Kennel Club.

It was then regularly moved by Mrs. Brown, seconded by Dr. Batt, and carried:

"That, the Minutes be adopted as read."

The meeting adjourned at 7.15 P.M.

APPLICATIONS FOR KENNEL NAMES

The following applications for Kennel Names will be considered by the Board of Directors of the Canadian Kennel Club, Inc., on Thursday, July 20th, 1939. Any person having objection thereto should communicate promptly with the Secretary, Canadian Kennel Club, Inc., 25 Melinda St., Toronto, Canada.

BROOKDELL — Miss Greta Ann Brooks, Cloverdale, B. C.

HONAN—Mrs. F. L. Croteau, Timmins, Ont.

ALBERTA DIRECTOR HONORED

Hats off to our Alberta Director, Mr. B. "Red" McColl and to his good lady, Mrs. McColl, on the occasion of their having had the good fortune of attending the banquet given in honor of their Majesties at the Macdonald Hotel, Edmonton, on Friday, June 2nd. The success of the Royal visit is everywhere conceded and it would be something of a hardship to find the proper wording necessary to adequately describe the tremendous extent of satisfaction that has been developed in Edmonton and in Western Canada generally as a result of the pilgrimage of the Empire's King and Queen. We are satisfied to share the halo of your glory "Red" without envying your preferment.

CONSTITUTIONAL IDENTIFICATION

Quite recently, and in conjunction with the amendments to the Constitution as passed by the members at the last Annual General Meeting, and since approved of by the Minister of Agriculture, copies of the amended Constitution, an explanatory circular letter, an application for identification method forms, and a sample application for registration form, was mailed out to 1,264 members of the Canadian Kennel Club, Inc., in virtue of their membership, and as members rejoin or as new members are accepted, this service will be continued.

Canadian Kennel Club members and all others interested in registering purebred dogs in Canada should keep in mind that on and after September 1st, this year, identification by chart, nose-print, or tattooing, will be a compulsory measure, and such steps should be taken promptly as will be necessary to conform to the new legislation.

All necessary requisites are now available and breeders will be well advised to arrange for their supplies without delay. If you decide to adopt the chart method, you will so advise the Records office and secure chart papers. If you decide to adopt nose-printing, you will so advise the Records office and secure a supply of nose-print ink and nose-print papers, and if you decide to tattoo, you will so advise the Records office and have tattoo letters allotted to you, if they have not already been allotted, after which you will arrange for your tattooing outfit.

We strongly urge breeders who are not members of the Canadian Kennel Club to read this article carefully and be governed in like manner to our members. There need be no disturbance in respect to registration if breeders generally will co-operate with the President and Directors of the Canadian Kennel Club at Toronto, and with the Officers of the Canadian National Live Stock Records at Ottawa.

We bespeak the co-operation of our members and subscribers in bringing the foregoing to the attention of breeders who are not members or subscribers.

CANADIAN DOGS AT THE MORRIS & ESSEX

Like Major Bowes' wheel of fortune—'around, around it goes and where it stops nobody knows'—is the Morris & Essex, from 595 dogs in 1927 to 4456 dogs in 1939, is a flying whirl, and the end may not be yet. There is always something new to mark this giant outdoor fixture, and this year there was more canvas erected on the spacious Polo grounds at Giralda Farms than had even been raised at any one fixture before; this year a Cocker Spaniel won the highest honors for the first time; this year the Second Vice President of the Canadian Kennel Club, Inc., Wm. H. Pym, of Vancouver, B.C. was privileged to find the best one of the huge entry. What a panorama! What a feast for dog lovers consumption!

Dr. R. W. Boyden, Toronto, a lover and breeder of the stately Great Dane breed, invited the President and Secretary of the C.K.C. to join him in a motor trip to the "big show" and naturally both men accepted with alacrity. Both needed a doctor's attention so the arrangement was really made to order. To go over the 'Alleghemes' and the 'Poconos' is at all times an experience to be desired and on this occasion we made the most of the opportunity. Going was a two day trip, and returning was also a couple of days.

On the outward journey we ran into Ben Stitt of London, Ont. at Wyalusing, where, looking down into the panoramic valley is the same sensation as looking down 2,000 feet from an aeroplane, the view unparalleled, reaching out for many miles. A story could be written about our travelling experience, but the work in hand at the moment is reporting the Morris & Essex Show. Kennel and Bench readers will readily agree that there is no human being alive that could get "everything" at a 4,500 dog show which starts at 10 o'clock and finishes at 6 o'clock with an hour off for a lunch that is enjoyed with the compliments of the management, a real lunch too with chicken 'n everything.

The illustrations we use, will, in some small way, suggest the magnitude of the world's largest outdoor show, or indoors either, for that matter of it. The judges like the exhibitors, come from all quarters, but some of the judges hold the record for distance travelled, like the Honourable Justice Hanna of Dublin, Ireland, and Arthur Zane from Honolulu, and our own Mr. Pym's 2,300 miles from Vancouver.

On the stroke of 10 o'clock, everything starts almost automatically, the 50,000 crowd finds its own place at the ring where the dogs of their desire are to be judged. The peculiar thing about the Morris & Essex crowd is that it never appears to exist, truly the 50,000 are there but they are so segregated that they are rarely prominent.

Canada's contribution to the 4,456 entry was around 100 dogs, and one of these, a Kerry Blue Terrier puppy, owned by Mrs. G. Peers of New Westminster, B.C., came, saw, and conquered to the extent of a second ribbon in a class of 5, and the little lady looked and acted as if she had just arrived from 'round the corner. Someone ventured the information that she was the first dog from British Columbia ever to attend the Morris & Essex Show.

Some of our Canadian dogs were well up in the prizes, and most of them were able to bring back with them souvenirs of their adventures under the "big top".

R. Ray McLaughlin, Oshawa, Ont., had his Pointer, ELMCROFT ORANGE AIDE, in a large class of 11, and in this hectic competition it was no disgrace to be unplaced.

Bethune L. Smith, Toronto, Ont., had his well known English Setter, PAL OF MARIDOR, entered, but we believe PAL was scratched. Two puppies a brother and a sister, carried the 'Larana' colors to advantage, when the male, MAX-

The 1939 edition of the Morris and Essex show was shaded from the burning sun by the world's record canvas coverage, and even if the weatherman had failed to co-operate the whole fixture would have been judged under cover. An illustration shows the Hound Group awaiting the decision of Dr. Tom Buck, of Rochester, N. Y., an old Toronto boy. The superintendents office open on four sides is plainly seen, as is the dog writers press table, and the special box reserved for Mrs. Dodge and some of her personal friends. The extent of the ring may be calculated by the size of the crowd of spectators. Notice the winners platform encased in geraniums and shrubbery. Notice the attendant calling the next Group Class to the ring. There is only one Morris and Essex show,—and this is it.

ILLIAN OF LARANA, won 2nd prize and his litter sister, ALPHA OF LARANA won 1st prize in even stronger company.

In Cockers (American type), C. C. Jeffries, Toronto, Ont., had his JEFFREY'S SKIPPER, entered in a really hot Limit Class (black) of 14, and had to be content to leave the ring, out of the money, but certainly he was in the battle.

Price and Ross, Pickering, Ont., were awarded 2nd prize in Senior Puppy Dogs (other than black) with their smart youngster, COMMUNIST.

Miss A. Elsie Mayhew, Markham, Ont., won 4th ribbon with her GLEN ROUGE DUCHESS, in a good Senior Puppy bitch Class (black) of 8.

One disappointment was Mrs. R. McColl, Toronto, Ont., leaving the ring unplaced with her good parti-color, SIR GALLANT BOY OF VICTORIA PARK, from the Open Class, and although there were a dozen dogs in the Class, this Toronto Parti was not considered good enough to be placed. As a matter of fact he went to Best of Winners the following day at Wissahicon which was some satisfaction to offset the long trip.

It was from this section of the Show that came the Best Dog in Show at the end of the day, H. E. Mellinthin's superb specimen, CH. MY OWN BRUCIE.

Cockers (English type), were judged by a charming personality, Mrs. L. M. Bently, all the way from Surrey, England, and here two dogs owned by Mrs. C. Gordon MacKinnon, Montreal, P.Q., made their appearance, DANNY OF SHERRYGROOM, winning 4th ribbon in the Limit Dog Class, but his litter sister, NANCY OF SHERRYGROOM, was less fortunate. However, this Montreal brace was 'tops' in the Brace Class.

Springer Spaniel, CANALINE SPORT, from the Canaline Kennels, Hamilton, Ont., won second prize in the Senior Puppy Dog Class, and improved that position the following day at Wissahicon by going to the 1st station.

Misses Isobel and Joyce Knox, Port Credit, Ont., were 2nd in Junior Puppy bitches with their eight months old, DUNOON CINDERELLA.

Mrs. D. J. Lerch, London, Ont., had her Ch. DUNOON DONNA in Open Bitches, a class of 12, but was unplaced.

Mrs. R. Gilman Smith, Danbury, Conn., was 3rd in Limit bitches with the Hamilton-bred CANALINE DAWN-LIGHT.

Andrew Dunn's DUNOON BUTTER-SCOTCH was 2nd in Junior Puppy.

Dachshunde were the banner entry of the Morris & Essex 1939 Show with 263. The Cocker Spaniels were well up in this argument with 254. The average exhibitor can hardly be expected to visualize the real extent of such entries, and both were down a trifle from the 1938 figures. R. Ray McLaughlin's, (Oshawa, Ont.), CHESS OF ALBION, a Champion Herman Rinkton son, was just left out of the money in the Senior Puppy Class for Black & Tan (a.o.c. ex. red).

Mrs. Lilly Turner, St. Catharines, Ont., made a nice win in the Senior Puppy Class for reds, when her ANNIE von SUNNIEHOLME, won 2nd prize from a class of 8. In Limit bitches the same owner won 4th and 2nd in Open bitches (standard), with GRETCHEN von SUNNIEHOLME.

American Foxhounds found our friend, 'Doode' Baldwin, Ottawa, Ont., on hand with a useful brace in BALDWIN'S GAMBLER, who won in Dogs, and BALDWIN'S JULY, who won in bitches, and both won the Brace Class.

Norwegian Elkhounds drew a nice entry from Canada. Ed Monks, London, Ont., taking the first ribbon offered with his novice dog, PEIK av SOLSKIN. Another London dog was C. Linton Jones', HARKON av SOLSKIN, but this one became indisposed a week before the Show and as a consequence he was obliged to have his entry scratched.

From Ottawa, Ont., came a surprise package in Rosalie Sladen's, FLING OF THE HOLM, who won Winners, Best of Winners, and was second for Best of Breed, truly a nice bit of winning for Canada in Norwegian Elkhounds. MEACH OF GREY DAWN, a daughter of FLING OF THE HOLM, won 1st, in Senior Puppy bitches. There were five champions entered for Specials Only, and Champion BRODD II av ELGLIA, of the Green Meadow Kennels alone was able to take the measure of the Canadian entry, FLING OF THE HOLM.

In Collies, our old Guelph friends, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Fraser, topped the Novice Dog Class with, LORD LOVAT OF STRATHISLA. A Senior puppy dog owned by Charles G. Brown, Paris, Ont., STRATHISLA SHOWMASTER, won the 3rd prize ticket in a class of Senior Puppies. When LORD LOVAT OF STRATHISLA came to the ring for Winners, he indicated that he had got a little too much of the Jersey sunshine and refused to help himself to a possible Winners ribbon.

Dobermans just marked a 4th place for Mrs. George A. Taylor's, SCHOENNOS OF NAVIGATOR. This Ottawa, Ont., bred Doberman was admired by Judge F. F. H. Fleitmann.

Here's one for the book—Ben R. Stitt, London, Ont., brought into the Novice dog Class in German Shepherd Dogs, a grandson of his old Ch. LASSA von WALNUTWALD. This one was the attractive NIX van MUELLER and Judge Arthur Zane from Honolulu put Ben's dog at the top of a strong class of 8, and was Mr. Stitt pleased? A nice win this at this kind of a Show.

Great Danes found strong support from Canada. Mrs. G. W. Hyslop's Brockville, Ont., ASLAN von LOHELAND, was 3rd in Open dogs brindle, and deserved a higher placing on the day. However, at Wissahicon he was Winners and now lacks the tiniest point margin for his American Championship.

Dr. R. W. Boyden, host to the President and myself, a man who advises 30 miles per hour for his patients—some of them of course—and drives at 70 himself—or so Mr. Sparkes alleges—had a nice 3rd prize in Novice bitches with his Canadian-bred, SEMMER OF CAIRNDANIA.

Mrs. Hyslop won 3rd in Limit bitches with her home-bred, SENTA OF CAIRNDANIA, and 3rd in Open bitches (brindle) with JNGE HASSIA. This one was Winners at Wissahicon the next day, trimming two that had trummed her here. Same owner's VENUS HEXEGOLD entered for Specials Only failed to click, but was reserve winners at Wissahicon.

In Shetland Sheepdogs there came a sweet win to Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Simpson, Guelph, Ont., when their American-bred, BEECH TREE TWEEDLEDUM, took 2nd prize from a class of 6. Mrs. Simpson's mother, Mrs. Ross, just 76 years young, made the trip and brought luck to the far travelled caravan.

Welsh Corgis (Pembroke) gave the Winners ribbon to Dr. A. R. B. Richmond's, Toronto, Ont., ROSARIO BRENNYN, and at Wissahicon this intriguing little chap was Best of Winners.

In the Airedale Terrier ring, the Honourable Justice Hannah from Dublin, Ireland, held the judicial stage, and gave 4th ribbon to Mrs. Kenneth D. Marlatt's, Oakville, Ont., ARISTOCRAT OF ALDON. This was in Novice dogs and the win was repeated in the American-bred class.

Sid Perkins, Toronto, had a big day watching the winnings of the get of his

Ch. COTTERIDGE BRIGAND, such as Ch. ROCKLEY RIOT ACT, (the Golden Jubilee Year winner), Ch. ROCKLEY ROASTING HOT, Ch. FALL-CREST HARRY, (Best of Breed at Overbrook Dog Show), ROCKLEY SWEET MEMORY, ROCKLEY BRUNETTE, ROCKLEY HIDDEN TREASURE and etc., etc. What a thrill this was for the Squire of Rockley!

Mrs. George W. Hyslop, Brockville, Ont., gave substantial support to the Cairn Terrier entry and won 2nd in Senior Puppy dogs with her CROCK OF CAIRNDANIA, 1st Limit dogs with BLINKBONNY THRUMS, and Reserve winners. (CROCK was Best of Winners at Wissahicon). CHUNK OF CROCK-SHED was 2nd in Open dogs and is close to his A.K.C. 'Crown' at the time of writing. In Junior Puppy bitches Mrs. Hyslop's, BABY OF CAIRNDANIA, was 1st, and in Senior Puppy bitches, BELPIE OF CAIRNDANIA, was 'tops', and Best Puppy either sex, (BELPIE was Reserve Winners at Wissahicon). In Open bitches, CLIFFRIGG VARNA marred the Hyslop picture when she failed to secure a money spot for her charming little mistress. In Specials Only, Ch. PIMPERNEL OF MERCIA, was not good enough, in the opinion of the judge, to stop Ch. FIERY ROB OF CARYSFORT, but she was good enough to go to Best of Breed at Wissahicon 24 hours later.

Smooth Fox Terriers shared their spoils with dogs from Canada when Mr. and Mrs. Frank Beer's, Toronto, Ont., STAR EMBLEM, won 3rd in the American-bred class for bitches. Then Mrs. Frank Beer's own MENOW, won 2nd prize in Limit bitches.

R. Ray McLaughlin, Oshawa, Ont., took 3rd prize in Limit bitches with ELMCROFT DALE.

Roger Phillips of Chicago had charge of the Wire Fox Terrier ring and gave 3rd in Senior Puppy dog Class for dogs to Mrs. H. G. D. and C. H. Shute's, Willowdale, Ont., COLGRAIN CROWNING GLORY. Same owner won 2nd prize in Limit dogs with, COLGRAIN ROUNDWAY THE BEAU. In Limit bitches the Colgrain Kennels made a high score when COLGRAIN ROUNDWAY COULEUR de ROSE, was placed 2nd in a class of 12. T. and H. Cocker, Hamilton, Ont., won 3rd Open bitches with VIVADORA HAPPY FIND. S. W. Scarpa, Point Fortune, P.Q., won 2nd in Novice bitches with his WOODLAND WINNING WAYS, and 4th in a class of 12 Limit Bitches with MALABAR'S HAPPY EVENT.

Mrs. L. S. Wallgate, Westmount, P.Q., won 4th Limit at the Fox Terrier Club of America Show at The Brook the day preceding the Morris & Essex, but did not place at the big Show.

Kenneth D. Marlatt won 3rd in Open Dogs with his MALABAR'S HAPPY CHOICE.

A. Sandy Palmer, Toronto, Ont., had a busy day in the Irish Terrier ring, but being light of foot as the Irish ragman, he was able to cope with his problem and got all his dogs to the ring in 'jig-time'. In Novice dogs he won 1st, BELFAST BACHELOR OF BALLYCLIFF, and then took 4th in the same class with, BALLYCLIFF BRIGADIER. In Limit dogs he was 1st with BALLYCLIFF'S SUPREMACY, and 3rd with BALLYCLIFF'S JAUNTY JIM. In Open dogs, SHILVODEN BOY, was placed 4th. Limit bitches Class gave the heavy money to Sandy's smart little lady, SLEMISH SERVANT GIRL, and in the same Class, Dr. Harper of Waterloo,

REAL BOSTON FACTS VERSUS RAW BOSTON GOSSIP

—THE GREAT MORRIS & ESSEX show this year with 4,456 entries, became the largest dog show in the world.

—THE BOSTON TERRIER BREED had 3rd largest entry with 146 dogs.

—THE BOSTON ENTRIES FROM SAINTS REST KENNELS were the ONLY Boston entries made from Canada, to be judged eligible for the Winners Classes.

—OF ALL THE BOSTONS CAMPAIGNED extensively on the Ontario spring circuit of shows, the Saints Rest entries

Ont., won 3rd with, SLEMISH SWEETNESS.

In the Limit dog Class for Irish Terriers we have shown where Canadian dogs were placed 1st and 3rd, but for good measure, and to make the Class Winners all Canadian, James Martin's, Toronto, Ont., SEVEN TOWERS IRISH STORMER, was placed 2nd. The winnings in this important Class should be carefully noted. Mr. Martin had sufficient confidence in the quality of his, IRISH BATTLER, to enter him in the exclusive Specials Only section, but he and several others had to bow to that 'Mick' Ch. KELVIN GLORIOUS.

R. Ray McLaughlin, Oshawa, Ont., won 2nd in Open bitches with his CULBAHN CUAGH, but this one fairly stepped out at Wissahicon when she went to Best of Breed and this win was made over the M. & E. Winners bitch, so that was not very hard to take.

Kerry Blue Terriers brought a Senior Puppy bitch all the way from New Westminster, B.C. This was Mrs. Gladys Peers', LEADING LADY OF TRALEE, and this smart miss had no traces of travel weariness that one could see, but just helped herself to a 2nd prize ribbon which win was ample justification for coming the 2,300 miles to do battle for. Mrs. Peers was thoroughly thrilled with the Show and the many happy contacts and friendships she made through attending it.

The noted, ROGUE O ROM, the Crufts winner of 1938-39, was unplaced here in a class of 10 but was Best of Winners at Wissahicon. Another good one that did not place was the noted winner Ch. LISNALIA ENBUSKA, owned by Fred C. Spiker, Hamilton, Ont. This dog was Best of Breed at Wissahicon. Still another good one that failed to find favor was Ch. BUMBLE BEE OF DELWIN, the winner of the A.K.C. award for Best American-bred Terrier in 1938. This is the "uncertainty" that exhibitors declare is the very life of the game.

Two Scottish Terriers came into the Limit Class for Dogs that had 8 dogs entered, and Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Secretan's, Toronto, Ont., DESRIL ROCK, placed 1st—a smart win—and A. Ellison's, AVONDALE TRAVELLER, took 3rd ribbon. Same owner's well known winner, Ch. SUSAN OF AGRIBRIGG had a good chance to take the same Class for bitches but the heat got her rather badly and as a result her stock fell to 3rd ribbon.

Sealyham Terriers just drew one entry from Canada and that was M. Dorothy Grant's, Port Hope, Ont., MAYTIME CANDY TUFT, who took 3rd in Limit bitches.

Robert Schelling, Fort Erie, Ont., won the Senior Puppy Class in Boston Terriers with his, SAINTS REST DOUBLE ACE, and 1st American-bred bitches with, SAINTS REST TINY ACE, and whilst these Canadian-owned Bostons did not share in the Winners ribbons, they had the distinction of competing for them, as a matter of fact, SAINTS REST DOUBLE ACE occupied the 4th station in the line-up for Winners dogs.

Other Bostons from Canada which fared well were Mrs. R. E. Lipe's, Toronto, Ont., ROYAL KAYE, who won 1st Novice dogs (15, under 20 lbs.), and 2nd Limit (same weights). In Senior Puppy bitches same owner's LIPE'S KIND REGARDS, was 2nd, and in Novice bitches (under 15 lbs.) KIND REGARDS scooped in the 1st money. These were nice wins made in hectic competition, the entry being 146 dogs.

In Italian Greyhounds a spectacular win was made by F. D. Millar's, London, Ont., SIR WINDSOR OF ARMONDO, who was making his debut in any Dog Show ring anywhere, and in an entry of over 20 he romped home with 1st Open, Winners, Best of Winners and Best of Breed. This was a real win for Mr. Miller and for our Canadian dogs.

In Bulldogs, Walter Brown, Toronto, Ont., won 3rd in Novice dogs with 11 in the Class. Mr. Brown had his well favoured, KEMPSON CRUSADER, at the Show, but in this case the heat actually won and CRUSADER was happy when it was all over. The representative from this breed to the non-Sporting Group was Harold R. Mascher's, Phillipsburg, N.J. Ch. KAMEL KING OF BUNDICK, and when we noticed our President, Mr. Sparkes bring this dog in for the Group, we referred to our catalogue in a hurry and found that KING OF BUNDICK was by Ch. Bunjie ex Ch. Parkholme Primula and of course Mr. Sparkes was recorded as being the breeder. For a time it looked as if 'old man sultry weather' was going to get some of his dirty work in on this good Bulldog, but "Reg." knew all the moves, and he soon relieved his dog of a chunk of troublesome phlegm, much to the dog's comfort, the result was really magical.

Another bitch we noticed was Harry Shiel's, Toronto, Ont., SHEILA STONE. This Senior Puppy filled the judges eye pretty well and seemed to be standing in second place in a Class of 12 when the paralyzing heat put her down and she was unable to get up on her feet again, and as a result she left the ring unplaced. Just another one of those regrettable things.

R. Ray McLaughlin, Oshawa, Ont., had his Dalmatian, PRINCE PLUTO, but the Open Class was chock full of champions and PLUTO found the going too tough to place.

If perchance any Canadian dog has been overlooked from this review, we invite advice from the owners of such. We had almost 100 dogs from Canada, a small percentage of the 4,456 entry, but they brought pleasure to their owners and credit to themselves. It is a long trip to Madison, N.J., from any point in Canada, but the consensus of opinion is that the effort is its own best reward. There's only one Morris & Essex Show and this is it.

NOTES FROM THE MARITIMES

By S. E. KOMINSKY, 231 Union St., St. John, N.B.

By the time this goes to press, the annual all breed show of the Bedford Kennel Club, held in beautiful spacious Franklyn Park will be over and once again the rail birds will be discussing the whys and the wherefores. Those who were fortunate enough to have the silverware handed to them by the all-rounder Walter Graham, will start to improve the stock they have while those out of the money will no doubt add new blood to their kennels and wait for another day when another show will be held. You can do no better than buy from the advertisers in our own Kennel & Bench.

W. G. Smith, proprietor of the Maritime Kennels has two of the most promising wire puppies that he has ever bred, and when "Bill" does a little boasting, we know, that he knows what he is talking about. These dog pups are about three months old and are by his good dog CH. "Burlington Bondman" who is a direct son of "Gallant Fox." The dam of these two youngsters is "Maritime Sally Rand" out of CH. "Humbervale Cracker." If blood lines mean anything these two pups should go places. They are at the present time being taught ring manners.

When Fred O'Connell decided to send his CH. "Wamsutta Mavis 3rd." to New York to be bred to the best stud dog obtainable, he expected quality pups and is not disappointed for "Mavis" is now nursing a litter of seven exceptional puppies. Mr. O'Connell advises that this litter is all spoken for and before long will be in their new homes.

The people in the beautiful Annapolis Valley are going doggie in a big way, many requests as to showing dogs etc. have been made to the members of the Bedford Kennel Club. This live organization are offering a special trophy for the best dog from the Valley.

J. D. Whitely of Bedford, who for years has been the leading breeder of Bull terriers has only two of that noble breed in his kennels at the present time. Jack has bred many top notchers and it is hoped that he will not leave the dog game altogether.

The writer has received many complaints saying that the members of the Canadian Kennel Club in Nova Scotia are not co-operating with each other in selling their stock. The only reasonable thing to do when one is approached by a prospective purchaser and the order cannot be filled, is to recommend that party to a fellow member who breeds the kind of dog the party is interested in buying. All for one and one for all is a good policy to observe in the dog game.

Please send your Nova Scotia notes to Mr. Arthur Smith, 65 Atlantic St., Halifax, N. S.

The writer is indeed pleased to see so many new Sporting dogs coming into the Province of New Brunswick. Many fine specimens from Ontario and quite a few from across the border are now making their homes in Saint John and it is hoped that before long we will again have the large entries that were so familiar a few years back. Let us strive to improve these most useful dogs who give so much pleasure to their owners so that we may again have Champions like, "Chief," "Count May Fly," "Gamefeather," "Barney" and a good many others that have made a name for this old Loyalist city.

"Opaline of Barrie" a new arrival at the Garwood Kennels is nursing a litter of five husky, healthy all black cocker puppies. Business continues brisk at Garwood. Many changes are being made to beautify the grounds. The owners Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Vaughan are spending their spare time in adding a rock garden to the already pretty grounds.

The Alhambra Kennels of Mr. L. Mc. Ritchie are busy at the present time preparing their show stock for the fall circuits. Quality spaniels both solid and parties make their home here and are given every attention.

Good news travels fast, and this applies itself to George T. Kane's new importation, American CH. "Flash Again Sonny." Since this excellent little Boston Terrier left his home in Florida and became a member of the local dog fraternity, many fanciers have visited at Mr. Kane's kennels, at Woodstock. They thought so well, among them were Dr. and Mrs. Reed, of "Flash" that they motored back to Woodstock and returned with a very classy female. This mating should produce quality plus. Fred Halpin of Portland, Maine and Louis Rudginsky of Boston, Mass., have also arranged to use this good stud.

A large contingent from Saint John are planning to attend the Bedford Show and many new dogs of various breeds will make their first appearance in Maritime rings. Every member from the New Brunswick Kennel Club makes special effort to be on hand when the ring steward starts calling the numbers, for Halifax hospitality is known far and wide and all who make the trip are assured of a good time.

The various committees of the N.B. Kennel Club are working real hard to make their coming shows a success. The building and finance committees in particular are giving much of their time to make the new dog show building possible. This is a herculean effort for so few members to undertake, but we here in Saint John are doggie minded and are sure our efforts will be rewarded. Plan on being with us. See our advertisement in the next issue of this magazine.

This Maritime section is just exactly what you make it, please let me have your notes, they are appreciated.

DACHSHUNDE

The first of June saw my moving to the present address and, to my joy and amazement, the trek of Dachsie visitors started at once. Mrs. Lily Turner, fresh from a good trip South and some very nice wins at Morris and Essex, was actually the first. Close on her heels came Mr. Fred Wenkebach of Elmira and then the Leslie Camerons all the way from Whonnock, British Columbia. They had been down to Morris and Essex also and were enroute home, proud owners of a new puppy of the Plater Schulhaus line and gaily visiting every kennel they could reach along the way.

Mrs. Oscar Hanson has a paragraph to herself as she is not regarded as a visitor but, I am happy to say, a good and near neighbour.

Mr. Symons of Waterdown came in one morning with his little "Tina." They had been at the Canine Breeders' Show. I am a sort of "Aunt" to Tina, having been responsible for persuading Mrs. Symons to keep her when she had an opportunity to sell. Naturally, I am always glad to see how she is turning out. Mr. and Mrs. Orville Warner paid me a visit with their "Dachsie" and we sat around a camp fire till well on into the night discussing dogs.

Now, you all know who have followed this column, there is one breeder whose dogs and their achievements have never yet found an entry but for once I must break my rule.

Country life is new to our dogs and Elga, a daughter of the German Field and Show Champion, Teo Asmansheim, has been greatly intrigued by a cock pheasant who comes to roost every night within plain sight of her run. He lights about dusk and makes nasty noises which she has apparently taken amiss because two nights ago she was ready for him. In the twilight she sat staring at his tree, drew her upper lip down and her lower lip back in a most peculiar way, then proceeded to give the best imitation of a cock pheasant you could imagine. This may be a new way of hunting which her sire taught her but I rather think she is clever enough to know that there are hunting restrictions in this locality and she thought to lure Mr. Pheasant into her run. I know this sounds like the "Wolf Stories" from the "Liars Club" at Sault Ste. Marie but a neighbour can vouch for it.

NOTES FROM MANITOBA

By MRS. J. L. PATEMAN, 836 Henderson Ave., East Kildonan, Man.

At the outset I owe Manitoba readers an apology for being in the ranks of the missing last month; truth to tell though, at the time my notes should have been written I was in the throes of preparing for the Fort Garry Kennel Club Show, and anyone with any secretarial experience pertaining to a dog show, will appreciate the hectic few days experienced before a show. It was utterly impossible to attend to the Manitoba page, and I know our members in this Province will realize my position.

From the Scottish Terrier Club, comes advice that it has been agreed to discontinue the regular monthly meetings throughout the summer months and during this period meetings will be called by special notice. The same letter brought the sad news that Tom and Ina Donald of "Deeside" renowned suffered the untimely passing of that great little Scottie, Ch. "HALDON BUGLER". "CHUBBY" was known to his intimates, was master of ceremonies around the "Deeside" establishment, coming to them from Dr. and Mrs. Batt's, Haldon Kennels in 1935. He gave a good account of himself in the West, acquiring his championship in short order, and sired some real nice puppies. He will be greatly missed as a stud force at "Deeside", but the loss of his companionship will be felt even more; he was above all an aggressive terrier, full of character a real pal, characteristics which are not always to the fore in our present streamlined specimens. Undoubtedly "DEESIDE" will acquire another stud, but "CHUBBY" will continue to be missed.

I am advised by Mr. and Mrs. Pettigrew of the "ALCREST" Kennels, Winnipeg, that they have received a very nice black female, from the Dungarvon Kennels, Long Island, New York. She is by that famous sire Ch. "My Own Black Brucie" out of "Dungarvan Show Girl". This importation by the Pettigrews should do much to strengthen the breed in this part of the country, and with such famous bloodlines available, breeders and exhibitors will do well to take a look at this little bitch, and her two puppies, one red female and one black male, which were whelped on June 3rd. Incidentally she did some nice winning at the recent Fort Garry Kennel Club Show. Breeders of the calibre of these folks are scarce and it is hoped that only success will mark their path along the road to their ideal of a perfect cocker. Here's hoping they are one step nearer through this recent importation.

I am deeply grateful to Alex Gostick for his "Dog Show Observations" which are herewith repeated. "The international flavor which the Fort Garry Kennel Club injected into its own on May 30th and 31st last thru the appointment of two Judges from across the border, was carried a step further than the actual planning when Mrs. VanCourt and her Int. Ch. Dachshunde walked away with the award for BEST IN SHOW. A perfectly lovely lady and truly a beautiful Dachsie. The people of Winnipeg made them both very welcome, the little dog was greatly admired and at the close of the show the fanciers showed in no uncertain manner that they were welcome to all the awards they carried away.

We liked Judge Murphy's work in the ring; he handled his placings in masterly fashion and at no time did any element of uncertainty creep in. His consideration of those handlers who lacked the professional touch, was greatly appreciated and was very encouraging to those who are trying to help the novice fancier. We make a prediction right here, that the aftermath of this show will be a revival of the novice dog fancier in Winnipeg, enquiries and enthusiasm on the last evening of the show point in that direction and dog shows handled, as this one was, both in and out of the ring, are bound to create interest.

One of the nicest things we have had the pleasure of slipping a lead over was Hughie Allan's Irish Terrier, "Doreen of Dalriada", a bitch that is as sweet as a nut, her disposition and style are perfect and she stood right up on her toes asking for the reserve best in show and we are very glad she got it.

We think we've really got a young chap in our midst who is a newcomer in the professional end of the game, if the breaks come right, he has a nice personality and style in the ring, is energetic and not afraid to ask for advice. We heard him getting some from Judge Murphy and he was digesting it all; if he keeps his hat band tight and sticks, he'll be good, his name is Bert Aconley.

Sidney Grimble exhibited a young bulldog puppy which drew a lot of attention. Not being an authority we asked questions and Judge Murphy informed us that in body, style and gait it was one of the best prospects he had seen in a long time, which we imagine takes in plenty of territory. So watch "PULLHAM PATTY 2nd". He was Best Puppy in the Show and competed strongly for the Group honors.

Judge Hartzler's cocker placings were well received; some of the wise ones muttered a bit about his slowness, and it is quite true that he was rather slow, but he was not muddling or guessing, just being sincere, and sincerity doesn't come often enough to make it irksome to spend a whole evening in its company. He went over every dog from stem to gudgeon, and his awards were based on soundness and type and when he finally picked as his best cocker that merry little rascal Harry Fitchett's "Freckles of Riverview" he showed to all and sundry that he knew his stuff. We still have vivid recollections of being placed fourth with a Champion by one of these one minute judges; a lot of things are missed by a judge being in a hurry, and as an exhibitor, we say "thanks" to any Judge who tries to give us our money's worth by taking a good look at our dogs."

It was very nice to receive, unsolicited from Mr. Gostick, such a nice pithy write-up of his observations, and to him and all of our supporters I would say that the Fort Garry Kennel Club does try and give every exhibitor a break by importing Judges whose records in the ring are unsailable. As an allrounder, our good friend Mr. J. G. MURPHY takes some beating, kindly to the novice, and giving every dog a break; a thorough gentleman in and out of the ring and I know many join with me in the hope that it will not be long before we can renew our altogether too short acquaintanceship. I cannot close these notes without saying a word also about Lloyd Hartzler who acted in the capacity of specialty judge for Cockers. Never have I seen each and every dog given such a thorough going over; there were close decisions, good dogs fighting it out, and quite a few mediocre specimens,—and goodness knows it takes longer to judge poor ones than it does good ones. The Fort Garry Kennel Club and its officers do appreciate his work and his driving here from Fort Wayne, Indiana, with his family to take part in our show, on a purely amateur basis. That's what I call real corking good sportsmanship, would that we had a few more Hartzler's in this dog game of ours. The Club sponsoring the specialty Judge are to be highly complimented, and that their effort brought forth nearly fifty cockers speaks for itself. This is the greatest number of any one breed benched for many years and it is a record the Fort Garry Kennel Club can well be proud to be associated with.

It is impossible in these notes to mention the winners; there were so many good dogs near the top that it would not be justice to mention some and not others. The entry as a whole was very satisfactory and the show itself was handled very capably by officers and hired help alike. The ring was tasty, not too gaudy, and the arrangement of the small waiting ring is just about "tops" and facilitates greatly the work of the Judge. The financial success of the show is assured and enquiries as to when the next show will be held are many, so, all in all, despite some absentees, the show went over with a bang.

We did notice though, that Mrs. Floyde from McReary was again with us, as was that energetic personality Mrs. Jack Goff from Medicine Hat; a newcomer from Virden, J. W. Evers showed some nice Chows, and we hope he will come back again. We are particularly grateful to that splendid lady Mrs. VanCourt from South Pasadena, Cal., for bringing her Int. # NOTES FROM BRITISH COLUMBIA

By MRS. H. E. FLETCHER, 6996 Dumfries St., Vancouver, B.C.

The world's greatest dog lovers, our beloved King and Queen, have now left our hospitable shores. Truly they came, saw and conquered, not only ourselves but our neighbours across the border as well. God bless them.

Mrs. Joe E. Brown (wife of the famous comedian), purchased from Mrs. G. O. Alsen recently the Yorkshire Terrier "Lum of Dorn" at a nice figure. This marks the second purchase of Vancouver bred "Yorkies" by Mrs. Brown, the first one being "Boy Blue of Dorn", from the Kennel of Jasper Daniels.

John Rose, Vancouver, has regularly contended in the Toy Group for some years and now adds material strength to his Kennel by importing "Raemon of Sahmon" from a Glasgow breeder. This tiny mite, previous to leaving Scotland topped a Toy Specialty and for good measure won a Variety Class where 34 others were vying for the distinction. One Old Country scribe commenting on "Raemon" said, "great head, good body and coat, ideal color, a stylish active terrier that will go far."

Mr. and Mrs. McGregor, New Westminster, have joined the dog fancier colony and will feature Cocker Spaniels and Pekingese, foundation stock having been secured from Miss Rogers and Miss Powles.

Our director, J. A. H. Irving, had a big day at Portland Show, when he won Best of Breed, and placed 3rd in the Terrier Group with his winsome Cairn Terrier "Bonshaw Tamworth".

At the same show Mrs. Hedley-Peck won similar honors, but was placed 5th in the group with her Dandie Dinmont "Kelpie".

Mrs. S. C. Sweeney fell and broke her hip, and will have to be content to have the impaired limb in a plaster cast for the next several months. Compensation for her inability to attend the recent show was hers when her favorite Cairn Terrier won for Best of Breed.

Chas. and Mrs. Humes had the misfortune to lose their Doberman "Innesbruck von Dorn" as a result of a fight with an Airedale Terrier. "Duke" was a familiar figure at most of the shows and he is going to be missed by many of his admirers.

Jasper Daniels has imported a black and tan Miniature Pincher from California and will breed these attractive dogs in future. The newcomer is "Maysie" and is jointly owned with Mrs. Colclough. Mr. Daniels' newest and latest acquisition is the White Poodle "Blakeen Jack Frost", a half brother to the noted "Jung Frau", who won most groups at American shows last year. "Jack Frost" is being trained and is proving to be a smart pupil, he was purchased from Mrs. Davidson, of Victoria.

Jack Meadows, well-known all-rounder has been selected to judge at Nanaimo, and it is expected that he will attract a bang up entry.

Alf Delmont will be the judge for the Canada Pacific Exhibition Show.

Clarke and Mrs. Simpkins are back to Vancouver again after a promotion at the hands of the Ford Motor Co'y, at Windsor, Ont., had taken them East. Another promotion brings our friends back to us and they are surely welcome. Clarke is a partner in the Alandale Collies and three good ones made the trip back to the Coast.

Vic Williams is jubilant these days. His Wire Fox Terrier "Barovian Wire Girl" was lost at Medicine Hat, where she was to be shown. The little madam is none the worse for her experience.

Mrs. Gladys Peers has the distinction of being the first British Columbia exhibitor to show a dog at the famous Morris & Essex Show, at Madison, N.J., her puppy "Leading Lady of Tralee" got mixed up in her trains as if her own 5,000 miles was not sufficient and she was a tired little doggie at the show. Mrs. Peers was mightily enthused about the M. & E. and she tells us that no one can have any conception of the magnitude of this fixture until they have seen it, so B.C. salutes you Mrs. Peers.

Van Mourik has brought the Welsh Terrier "Aman Mid Day Sun" from Mrs. J. R. Kennedy's "Vivadora" Kennels, Toronto, who imported little "Aman" from Wales. In due course she will be shipped to California to be bred to Bert Heath's Champion "Welshie".

It is with regret that we mention that Col. and Mrs. Davidson, of Victoria, are disposing of their Cocker Spaniels and Sealyhams. Mrs. Davidson, and her handler Sylvia, will be missed from the shows.

Patrick Brennan is grieving over the loss of his noted Boston Terrier "Mushon Miss Stepon" who died from whelping trouble. Pat claims that "Diana" (Kennel name), was the best Boston he ever owned, she won seven non-sporting groups in her day and once she was runner-up for Best in Show. One of the puppies is being raised by the 11-year old "Topsy" who has never known similar service to dogdom for many years, probably the workings of an all-wise Providence.

When "Uncle Billy Hassell of the air" induced the weather man to favor the Vancouver Province Pet Parade on June 10th, that was a ten strike. "Uncle Billy" and our Director, J. A. H. Irving, had the whole arrangement well oiled up and running smoothly. Local fanciers took care of the judging and our Second Vice-President, W. H. Pym, selected the best conditioned dog at the fixture. Some of the kiddies lost their love birds, but they were saved a heartache when Vic Williams announced over the air that all such would be given a brand new pair by calling at his place—good boy, Vic.

MRS. L. M. WOOD

R.R., No. 3, Victoria, B.C., Canada.

The B.C. Gun Dog Club have selected their officers for the season, Hon. Pres., Major Austin Taylor; Pres. W. M. Egerton; 1st Vice-Pres. (Chairman of Trials), C. Lumb; 2nd Vice-Pres. (Chairman Show Section), Ernie Scott. Three Trials will be run during September and October.

Jack Penrice has imported a Pointer that will be heard from at the forthcoming Trials. This one comes from Virginia and the breeding behind it includes Ch. "Village Boy", Ch. "Itch-away", "Jake's Bad Girl" and Ch. "Muscles Shoals".

The Alberstan Kennels shipped two Cockers (English type), to Memphis, Tenn., "Alberstan Argeul" to Dr. J. S. Speed, and "Alberstan Memphis Blues" to Dr. W. C. Campbell.

My own Dachshund Ch. "Betty" gave me 7 male and 3 female puppies via the Caesarian route. They had to come on the 54th day, but they are all fine and dandy. "Betty's" last contribution to the kennel was 11 and that makes 21 head in two litters, the sire is "Wrinkles Wonder Schraith" a Californian dog.

I have purposely kept the tid-bit for the last. The event of the year in Vancouver was a surprise party for—guess who! Why none other than our own Bill Pym in honor of his having judged Best Dog in Show at the Morris & Essex shown on Saturday May 27th.

Give your imagination some leeway and imagine, if you can, 80 dog fanciers plus a full fledged orchestra waiting for Bill to walk in on "Hail, Hail the Gang's All Here". Bill was certainly surprised as the gay and happy crowd closed in on him. Oldsters and youngsters alike were bent on raising the roof and making the welkin ring.

Norman McConnell, old time Airedale Terrier breeder, proposed a health to the guest of honor, and presented Mr. Pym with a pen and pencil set. "Bob" Hatley in a neat and complimentary speech presented a bouquet of roses and lavender sweet peas to Mr. Pym's mother and Mrs. G. O. Alsen presented a lovely bouquet of spring flowers to his daughter Miss Maud Pym.

"Billy" Oates got himself back into playing condition after a long lay off and his efforts on the piano convinced his hearers that he was no stranger to the ivory keys.

Mrs. Gladys Peers, who had just returned from the Morris & Essex, was in rare voice and her rendition of Irish songs was well received. Mrs. Peers was her own accompanist on the piano. Mrs. Stan Dainard also contributed several songs to her own accompaniments. Mr. Pett contributed several vocal solos. Evan and Mrs. Gravel sang one of their well-known duets and Evan gave a Scotch song in his own inimitable manner. Oswald Balshaw and "Billy" Oates played a duet in fine style as the gang centered around community singing with swing, rhythm and what have you. A buffet lunch was served by the ladies, a feature that was very much enjoyed by all present.

In due course the evening spent itself just as all good things come to an end eventually, and as the social hour ended we found eighty odd pairs of hands joined in unison with Mr. Pym in the center while we sang most lustily Auld Lang Syne and God Save the King. This was an unprecedented happening and an evening of fellowship that none present will ever forget.

The highlight in Victoria and the Southern Districts of Vancouver Island was the Vancouver Island Dog Fanciers' Associations' recent Show which brought together exhibitors from up Island, points Seattle, Portland, Keyport, Tacoma, San Francisco and etc. The chosen judge, "Bob" Cross, turned in a competent job of judging and his work was well received generally. We enjoyed seeing Stanley Dorrell, of Vancouver, showing in Victoria again. Mrs. L. M. Wood was a prominent winner and bagged such choice bits as Best Terrier, and Best Canadian-bred.

An addition to the Canine Colony of Victoria is a couple of black Pugs, brought over from England by Miss E. M. Horath. We welcome all three most heartily.

Another addition is Mr. Sharp, of Duncan, who is taking up Collies in a very enthusiastic manner.

Mrs. O'Connor, well known fancier, is leaving for Duncan with her Cairns and Collies.

A new and promising Cocker Kennel has Mr. and Mrs. Hansard of Cadboro Bay, Victoria, behind it and high class breeding and show dogs are to be featured here.

I am grateful to Miss E. M. Horath for the following interesting observations on Pugs.

"The Pug Dog seems to have become a rarity, which is unfortunate, in as far as this type of Dog has so many outstanding points over other small Breeds.

"The writer is the proud owner of two jet black Pugs and at least once a day I hear the remark—"I have not seen a Pug for 25 years"—or—"I used to have a Pug when a child"—and similar comments.

"One wonders why the breed is not more popular. However, fashion changes in dogs, as in dress. At the same time in acquiring a dog as a pet one always takes into consideration the various advantages and disadvantages, and as aforesaid the Pug has many over his fellows:

"Firstly his coat is smooth and short, consequently there is not the constant annoyance of loose hairs around the house.

"He has a wonderful disposition, will not snarl or snap under the most trying circumstances, therefore is ideal for children.

"He is very affectionate.

"He does not require the outdoor exercise that most other dogs need.

"His digestion is excellent, and has a strong constitution. (My two Pugs in their travels have withstood intense heat and cold without any ill-effects.)

"Perhaps his popularity has waned a little owing to his bulldog type of face, but this is contradicted by the many remarks which have been passed to me—"they are so ugly they are beautiful".

"A great authority and a very eminent Breeder of Pug Dogs in England—Mrs. Wilhelmina Swainston-Goodger has written a very interesting book on the Pug Dog, and I cannot do better than quote extracts from the same, which are very enlightening.

"The pug-dog is one of the earliest breeds of dog—in fact, so far as I can trace, it carries its history back for a longer period than any other breed except the greyhound. So far as England is concerned there are few breeds having so long an historical connection with this country, being almost continually under Royal patronage.

"The pug-dog was a well known and well authenticated Chinese breed of dog. It is said to have had its origin in a place in China called Lo-Chiang in the district of Ssuchuan, and the name given to it by the Chinese was—Lo-chiang-se, or, more simply—Lo-se.

"It is difficult to state with any accuracy when the breed first came into prominence in China, but it was probably during the Chou dynasty, and, possibly, during the reign of Yu-wang, who succeeded the warlike Suan-wang (827-782 B.C.).

According to the Zoological Society of London:

'the Pug-Dog is known to be one of the oldest of breeds and originated in China some 700 years B.C.'

"The history of the breed in England dated from the importation in 1860 of five dogs taken from the Summer Palace, Pekin, where they had, no doubt, been forgotten on the flight of the Court to the interior. Admiral Lord John Hay, who was present on active service, gives a graphic account of the finding of these little dogs in a part of the garden fre-mented by an aunt of the Emperor who had committed suicide on the approach of the Allied Forces. Lord John and another naval officer, a cousin of the late Duchess of Richmond's, each secured two dogs; the fifth was taken by General Dunne, who presented it to Queen Victoria. Lord John took pains to ascertain that none had found their way into the French camp. It is therefore reasonable to suppose that these five were the only Palace dogs, or Sacred Temple dogs of Pekin, which reached England, and it is from the pair which lived to a respectable old age at Goodwood that so many of the breed now in England trace their descent."

"Mrs. Swainston Goodger has quoted many interesting anecdotes of Pugs, one of particular interest is connected with the Empress Josephine:

"The pug was a personage well acquainted with etiquette, and never failed, when the dresser retired after the Empress was in bed, to follow her, whomsoever she might be, into her room, where he turned himself round on a chair, and there remained until morning. Then he would go down in a leisurely manner to the 'Salon d'Announce' and wait patiently until the door of his mistress's room was opened, when he would rush in with an air of wild delight and the liveliest demonstrations of affection."

"Mrs. Swainston Goodger says—"There were two people who have been great pug-dog lovers during this century and both of whom have passed away. Both bred and kept pug-dogs, and both did the breed the greatest possible good in their different stations of life. The first is the late Queen Alexandra and the second is my old friend, the late Mr. Courtney Thorpe. I can only find one trace of the breed being kept by the present Royal family. This was in an article appearing in 'The Ludgate' for October, 1897. In this article it is stated that the then Duchess of York (now Queen Mary), had a burial-ground for her pet dogs at Oaklands Park in Surrey. The article is illustrated by a photograph of various canine tombstones, on one of which I can decipher the following words:

"Topsy a pug and Dinah her . . . . mother".

"The popularity of the Pug-dog in England about 1880 was echoed slightly in the U.S.A. by a large increase in its Pug-Dog population.

"Before the European discovery of America, three breeds of dog are said to have been known in South America. The largest of these was an animal of medium size, with slender head and legs . . . The second was a short-legged dog, somewhat resembling a dachshund, which, to judge from a vase-painting, was also used in the class. The third was a kind of pug, probably kept as a lap-dog. But apart from these natives it seems difficult to trace the arrival of the first Christopher Columbus Pug Dog. Specimens, no doubt, crossed over with the settlers in the early eighteenth century during the time of the popularity of the breed in England. They were clearly known at the time of Washington Irving (1783-1859).

"When Dog Shows began in the U.S.A. the breed was taken up by Dr. Cryer, and the history of American pugdom may be said to have really started with this gentleman."

NOTES FROM OLD QUEBEC

By W. W. ROONEY, 2331 Coursol St., Montreal, Que.

Selling a man his own dog. A friend of mine had a call from a fellow who had come into possession of a dog for which my friend was well known to have been a breeder. He was asked if he could sell the dog for him, and of course my friend said he would first have to see the dog. Then and there he made an appointment for this purpose, which he kept, and looked the dog over. My friend then set about the task of selling the man his own dog, by first giving him an outline of the dog's origin, his habits, his character and what was to be expected of him, and how to treat his dog to get the maximum service and pleasure out of him; how to bring the dog to robust health through feeding, worming, exercising and grooming. He told him how the dog would look after these precautions had been taken. However, he said, "I will sell him for you, I am sure". Imagine my friend's surprise when he got a telephone call in a few days saying, "Well, my dog's not for sale. I have decided to keep him now". The thought struck me that aside from good salesmanship, we could all learn a lesson from my friend's attitude toward his own breed, because it is not unusual for a new owner to be discouraged with his first puppy but if he was told what to expect, and how to treat his puppy as it grew from a ball of wool to the half-grown stage, and on to a full-grown dog, we would often make a new fancier. Such salesmanship suggests that we could follow up our sales with advantage if we kept in mind, that a sale is never made until a customer is satisfied with his purchase.

On a sunshiny day recently, I took the car out and thought the time opportune for some missionary work along constructive lines, so I started visiting the various kennels in an effort to bring our fanciers together and get their different viewpoints, and if possible to bring together the broken ends of dogdom in Montreal. At the Dunroamen Kennels, I found Mrs. Healy, smiling and apparently well pleased with business, not a care in the world as far as we could notice until we spoke of shows and clubs. Mrs. Healy was at a loss to suggest a solution, but regretted that we do not have more shows. She mentioned the cost of making a Championship in Montreal, and the effect that present conditions were having on the value of dogs and sales, in fact on the dog business generally.

Mrs. Healy's establishment is on the banks of the St. Lawrence River near the Lachine Rapids and the new Caughnawaga bridge. She says that when she lived in England she was always near the sea and she feels more at home when she can look out on the water. A fine Kennel was built here a year ago, and it is a credit to Mrs. Healy and to her manager, Ralph Preston, Jr. I saw some 41 dogs, all in good condition, and the Kennels had that clean, healthy appearance which goes with the good old fashioned white lime-wash. The Fox terriers were full of vim, vigor and terrier snap. If I might offer a suggestion it would be for larger signs inviting visitors because I am satisfied that with 10 cars passing per minute every Sunday, on this beautiful highway of our Montreal suburb, Ville LaSalle, no harm could come by having more visitors. The word "Kennel" is not just enough.

I would like to thank those members who were considerate enough to write me in response to my request for news and while I agree with some in their attitude toward our Official Organ "Kennel and Bench", I can only suggest to the others, that we only get what we give in this old world of ours and might I suggest that Quebec could give much more, if she took time to analyse the situation. Just let us check up the amount of advertisement we give for anything, be it shows, dogs at stud, or for sale, foods, dog supplies, medicines, or what have you, and see just how much we are getting for what we give. Only a few have faith in Kennel and Bench, but let me say in fairness to all, that its success or failure is at your own door. We have some 35 or 36 boarding establishments in Montreal and if a stranger wanted to board or buy a dog he would have to depend on Hotel Porters for the information. The same applies to Supply and Pet Shops, because if a visitor was to apply at a News stand for a Canadian Dog Journal, he would no doubt, find that the vendor did not keep them and even if he did, the stranger would still be "out of luck" because nobody advertises their place of business there. If it is a reliable Kennel he wishes to deal with he must send out of town. No, Quebec members must get behind Kennel and Bench for Quebec's own sake. Do more boosting and indulge in less knocking. Help rebuild the dog game that you are interested in. Start at the foundation like all other good businesses and support a good trades paper, feeling that you are all part owners in the venture.

Mrs. R. Adam, Montreal West, sailed for an extended tour to Europe and will visit all the Skye Terrier Kennels in England and Scotland and as a result we can look forward to some new importation in this fine old breed. I believe Mrs. Adam is the only breeder of Skyes in Canada. She will visit Denmark, Sweden, Holland, France and Germany.

It was in 1904 that Mrs. Adam purchased from Duncan McDougall, a baker in Scotland, her first Skye Terrier. I knew Mr. McDougall for many years and it was only the matter of price that kept me from owning one of his Skyes. In 1909 Mrs. Adam imported a pair from James Munroe of Glasgow "Talisker Belle" and "Talisker Prince" both beautiful specimens. They were shown by that old timer, W. Ormiston Roy. "Talisker Belle" won best of breed and "Prince" was second. Again in 1932, another importation was made, this time from "St. Coland" famous kennel of Lady Marcia Miles, "Ch. George of Merrymount", who was Reserve Winners at the Morris and Essex, 1938, when 29 Skyes were benched. Another importation was "Ch. Marilou of Merrymount" from the same Kennel and by the way way a full sister of "Marilou". I know for a fact that orders are waiting to be filled for puppies, one for Los Angeles, California, one for Florida and one for New York.

I wonder how many read W. Pym's article in the June issue of Kennel and Bench. The "Boost, Boost, Boost" instead of the "Knock, Knock, Knock" was good. How well we could take that lesson home to ourselves in Quebec. Won't you try to be a "booster" and help to put our show banner up to three licensed shows in 1940. Don't forget we are the Metropolis of Canada and that we only held one show last year. Consider what a championship costs and the length of time it takes to make one. We have all to travel so far afield, when we could do so much at home.

I had a complaint about some methods of selling dogs, and from it I learned this: Don't talk your client out of buying, tell him what you have to sell, the price you are asking, then answer his questions and no more. Remember one word might spoil a sale and he is the one that is buying and that is why he is contacting you.

The Bull Terrier Club of Canada were paid a very high compliment by the Knickerbocker Club of New York when they wrote endorsing our attitude on the white and colored dogs and asking for a copy of the resolution, which led to this legislation. Don't let us call a black a white any more than we would call a spade a shovel.

More importations, J. A. Robitaille, when attending a meet in Albany, New York, acquired the Cocker Spaniel, "Roundabout Sonny" who is by "Trueboy" ex "Red Brucie". This means more new breeding blood in our midst.

My son and I had the pleasure of tattooing three Cocker puppies, 3 months old. I say a pleasure because of the grand sales which followed. They went into homes that would do any breed a lot of good.

While on the subject of Tattooing or Nose Prints or Charts, I will be very glad to explain to any member any one of the three systems, anytime, anywhere.

BRACEBRIDGE ONTARIO

NOTES FROM ALBERTA

By H. P. SAUNDERS, 1010-4th Ave. N.W., Calgary, Alta.

Edmonton Dog Fanciers Association had their recent dog show opened by the Lieutenant Governor, and his speech was broadcast. Afterward the Judge Hugh Leslie made a very nice appropriate speech, and this was followed by the announcer going up and down the aisles commenting on the different exhibits. Medicine Hat Kennel Club (The Club With The Welcome) not to be outdone had Mayor Lang open their show, and he certainly gave a very impressive talk, made a grand speech and took particular pains to welcome all visitors. His worship the Mayor promised to support the Kennel Club in all things during the tenure of his office. W. G. Climo "donned the ermine" for the occasion, and performed his duties in a very satisfactory manner. Mr. Climo chose the Great Dane "Rungmook Rozana", a very attractive blue female, for his best dog in the show. This dane is owned and was bred by Mrs. J. deB. Cowan, of Kaslo, B.C., one of the pillars of the Great Dane fancy. Mrs. Cowan bred, owned and exhibited the first blue dane bitch to make her championship in England, and now she is well on her way to making a Canadian champion out of "Rungmook Rozana", and I think I am safe in stating when this is accomplished it will be the first blue dane female in Canada to make her championship, but let me inform you of just what effort it takes to handle Danes. Col. and Mrs. Cowan, and daughter left Kaslo, B.C., driving their truck, on which they had loaded seven husky Great Danes, they drove through a drenching rain to Calgary, and as the roads were impassable from that point to Medicine Hat, Mrs. Cowan went by train with the dogs, and then had to slick them up for the ring, but winning best in show with "Rozana", must certainly have helped to drive away all the hardships encountered on the way.

Reserve best in show was awarded to the Scottie Ch. "Tayside Rob-Roy" owned by Bert Forrest of Calgary, a son of my old friend Bill Forrest. Ch. "Tayside Rob-Roy" is a real showman always.

The officials at the "Hat" show are to be congratulated on the manner in which they conduct their shows.

Fred Shawley, Toronto, Ont., is judging all breeds at Calgary, and he should draw a large entry, especially in the sporting classes, the committee are expecting dogs from Victoria, Vancouver, and from all points east and also from Edmonton.

I am pleased to report the Chukar partridge are getting settled, already some are nesting in the vicinity of Bragg Creek, weather conditions are ideal, so we hope for large hatches, and that the youngsters thrive. Already the authorities have notified the public through the press that no dogs are to be run in areas where the birds are nesting.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Collier, of Carstairs, have purchased from Mrs. Munson, of Vancouver, parti-color female, under one year old, sired by "Windridge Trumpeter" a son of Ch. "Knebworth Buddie 2nd", ex Am. and Can. Ch. "Windridge Miss Glory"

I have mated a black female to Ch. "Holdfast Reserve" owned by Jack Goff, of Medicine Hat, this female is sired by Ch. "Curtis Boogeyman", whose dam was sired by Ch. "My Own Red Darcie". I want my readers to know that I have a daughter of "Petit Lady", and "Binscarth Nugget", that will make others of their kind sit up and take notice.

I am very sorry to report the serious sickness of Bill Carsons wife, she is now in the Calgary Hospital, and we all hope for a speedy recovery.

MONTREAL'S SECOND SEEING EYE DOG

After seventeen years of darkness and dependency, W. D. Perrett, of Montreal, who lost his sight as the result of a fall, is now able to get about quite easily on foot or by street car with the aid of his new Seeing Eye Dog "Duchess".

Out of the proceeds of their last Show, the Ladies' Kennel Club of Canada, Inc., were pleased to be able to send Mr. Perrett to Morristown for training. He was chosen, by the Canadian National Institute for the Blind, out of 1400 blind Montrealers as being the most worthy candidate. He lived up to the trust put in him by being one of the two pupils of a class of eight to finish the course in the short space of one month. On his return to Montreal, on June 5th, he was just like a man granted a new lease on life and says a million dollars would not buy his "Duchess".

Mr. Perrett was formerly an accountant with the Bank of Montreal, is married and has two young sons attending school. At present he is earning his living in charge of a canteen at St. Mary's Hospital. These canteens are provided by the Canadian National Institute for the Blind out of funds subscribed by the blind vendors themselves. They are all arranged in a like manner so that once a blind person is trained to operate one they can be sent out on their own.

The first Seeing Eye Dog provided by the Ladies' Kennel Club of Canada, Inc., is owned by Miss Lucy Senkevitz and she is also in charge of a canteen and is quite self supporting. With the aid of her dog "Vic" she is able to journey daily from her home in Rosemount to the Homeopathic Hospital in Notre Dame de Grace with ease and safety. The Montreal Tramways Company were very considerate and at a meeting of the Board Miss Senkevitz was granted special permission to take her dog on the trams.

It is the hope of the Ladies' Kennel Club of Canada, Inc., that out of the proceeds of their next show on September 30th they will be able to provide another Seeing Eye Dog for some deserving Montrealer and thus help to lighten their burden and to make them feel some measure of usefulness and independence. This is a worthy cause coupled with a wonderful one day all breed show and deserving of every fanciers' fullest support.

As Provincial Correspondent to Kennel and Bench, I feel that a hearty word of praise is due the lady who first gave us this wonderful idea, which is so substantially based on Christian Charity, Mrs. J. E. Enright, late President of the Ladies' Kennel Club of Canada, Inc. Surely her associates and herself will long enjoy the blessing which will be their as they watch the results of their labours. Persons like Miss Senkevitz and Mr. Perrett will always bless the instruments in the Almighty's hands which brought them such substantial relief.

W. W. ROONEY.

Mr. W. D. Perrett and his Seeing Eye Dog "Duchess".

GIVING HONOR WHERE HONOR IS DUE

On Tuesday evening, May 30th, the Board of Directors of The Canadian Kennel Club, Inc., at the close of a special board meeting, repaired to the Yellow Room of the King Edward Hotel, Toronto, to pay homage to the club's Second Vice-President, Wm. H. Pym, Vancouver, B.C. The occasion was unique in many respects as, for the first time in history, as far as this writer is aware, the Board of Directors were giving a dinner in honor of one of their own number, one who had brought much favor to Canada, to the Canadian Kennel Club and to himself, through his having been chosen as the one man on the American Continent to find the best dog of the 4,500 odd dogs benched, at the world's largest dog show held by the Morris & Essex Kennel Club, on the spacious grounds of the Giralda Farms, at Madison, N.J., on Saturday, May 27th. Sharing, with the Directors, the honor being paid to Mr. Pym were a few friends who wished to be near him on this memorable occasion. There were 25 persons in the select group, and the President, Mr. Sparkes, must have enjoyed the pleasant experience of presiding over such a happy gathering.

The toast list included "The King", by Mr. Sparkes; "The Canadian Kennel Club", by Capt. Waters, with response by the Secretary; "The Dog Game", by the President with reply from Mr. Essery; "The Ladies", by Mr. Sparkes, reply from Mrs. Brown. Mr. McDerment gave a descriptive recital of his observations at the Morris & Essex show and Dr. Batt spoke on present and possible future doggie conditions. Each speaker received a careful hearing and each one had something worthwhile to say. At a later stage the Chairman, Mr. Sparkes, gave each person present an opportunity to express themselves and as a result much that was new, to many, was learnt concerning the versatility of Mr. Pym. As for instance the many hours practicing on the drums, which was later to mark him as one of America's greatest musicians.

The President, in presenting Mr. Pym with a beautiful Sheffield reproduction, suitably engraved, made mention of Mr. Pym's great contribution to American dogdom, a service which had endeared him to so many people and particularly to the members of the Canadian Kennel Club, a service which had been indelibly written into the Club's records. A member since 1924, a Director from 1930 until 1934, and Second Vice-President since 1934, distinguished as an all-breed judge of dogs Mr. Pym had judged at almost every show of importance, but possibly the greatest honor of his judicial experience had come to him at Madison, New Jersey, on Saturday, May 27th, and it was to mark this distinguished happening that the dinner had been arranged.

Mr. Sparkes asked the guest of honor to accept a silver tray as a token of the esteem and appreciation of his fellow Directors upon his preferment at the hands of the Morris & Essex Club. He expressed the hope that Mr. Pym would long be spared to participate prominently in the life of dogdom on the American Continent, of the whole world as well, but particularly to continue in the life of the Canadian Kennel Club.

The Guest of the Evening

Mr. Pym was obviously affected as he took possession of the Directors' gift, but he admitted that he had a mother, a daughter and a sister and that all three were his "bosses," however, he would take the beautiful piece of plate back home with him and present it to the family, not as a peace offering, but to mark his appreciation of their tolerance with him, just as it was the tolerance of the women folks of dogdom that made all the progress in the game possible. At the Morris & Essex show he had met dog judges from Dublin, Ireland, to Honolulu, and all possible points between and found them all actuated by the same governing desire to function in the judicial role in the best interests of "man's best friend"—the dog.

The Canadian Kennel Club was looked up to and respected far beyond the borders of its immediate influences, as for instance, enquiries coming from far off Australia for Canadian Kennel Club constitutions and dog show rules, etc., so that the activities of dogdom in the Antipodes might be patterned after a fashion believed to be progressive and satisfying.

As a judge of dogs he felt that he had to be fair to himself and tolerant of others. It was absolutely essential, that men, or women either, aspiring to the responsibilities of the dog show ring should have a full knowledge of the standard of the breeds they would judge and of the anatomy of all such breeds. The value of book learning had been questioned by some. Nevertheless it was from the schools, colleges and universities that came and lawyers, doctors, bankers, etc., and the root of their learning was unquestionably found in their books. A knowledge of the breeds, plus a knowledge of the standards and the ability and honesty to apply the standard to the breed intelligently made the desirable judge. No one would ever be able to fully visualize the nature or the extent of the thrill that was his when he received the telegraphic invitation to judge the six group winners at the Morris & Essex show, nor the thrill that was his as he actually went into the ring to find the best one of the six. Each one of the Group winners represented the cream of the breeds constituting their respective groups, and each one was an outstanding animal, each one a picture now engraved indelibly on his memory, but the rhythm brought to the ring by the cocker spaniel, if measured by a metronome, would have been found perfect. A beautiful dog and handled faultlessly. That the Directors had seen fit to so splendidly mark the occasion of the memorable experience just filled out completely, an experience which he had already considered full and complete and he took acceptance of the gift with the deepest gratitude.

As Mr. Pym resumed his seat, his listeners gave evidence of their appreciation of the forceful observations he had made and insisted that he continue with his engrossing story.

Resuming, Mr. Pym suggested that any judge worthy of his calling and receiving an invitation by telegram to judge best dog in show from Mrs. Geraldine M. Dodge, such a judge would break his neck in order to get there, in fact he would walk all the way to keep such an appointment. At least that is how he felt when his invitation had arrived from such a gracious patron. It had also been a thrill to get the Secretary's letter advising him of the special meeting of the Board and giving notice of this splendid dinner in his honor. I can now claim to have judged at the world's largest show, he said, and he claimed to have judged the world's smallest show as well, a show of only 7 dogs. At the Morris & Essex show he had been proud to find an exhibitor who had come all the way from New Westminster, B. C., to show a Kerry Blue Terrier in the puppy class. This was a distance of 3200 miles and the exhibitor was a member of the Canadian Kennel Club who had left her best ones at home and had brought a puppy bitch to the show, a home-bred one, the imported stock had been left at New Westminster. The puppy had won the 2nd prize ribbon but Mrs. G. S. Peers, the proud owner, was as thrilled as if she had won for best in show in her own home town. Such was the appeal of such shows as the Morris & Essex.

A group of prominent judges had been discussing the question of judges recently and the question was asked "Who is going to take the place of the old timers as they pass out of life's picture?" These men had in mind such judges as Harry Lacy, Jim Mortimer, Miss Arnolt and the recently departed Frank F. Dole and Wm. Z. Breed. These men were never known to make derogatory remarks about any dog, but rather had a kind word for every good dog coming before them for judgment. It is quite obvious that it behooves every judge to endeavour to fit himself for his task in such a way that when his time comes to pass on, some one will be likely to say "who will take his place?"

The President then called upon Col. J. N. MacRae to accept a beautiful piece of plate in the name of the Directors and to mark the years of service he had given to the Canadian Kennel Club. It had been conceded that Col. MacRae's contribution to the service of the club had been substantial and probably it was to be regretted that such matters as identification and affiliation had so beclouded the life of the club that the members had been unable to visualize where such matters were likely to end. He appreciated receiving the Directors' gift and he felt that he had got more out of his efforts on the club's behalf than the members really knew.

The President, in bringing the meeting to a close, bade the Secretary bon voyage, gave it as his opinion, that the members should come together more frequently in a social capacity. A suggestion was made that a chair should be secured for the use of the President whilst functioning in that office, the chair to go with him when his successor had been elected and Mr. Stockdale expressed the feeling of those present, when he made the observation that he hoped the suggestion would become actual procedure.

SCOTTISH TERRIERS

The female classes at the Morris and Essex were very hot competition but the dogs were more or less disappointing. Best of Breed went to a beautiful little bitch "Barberry Knowe Larkspur" owned by Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Stalter. There were 37 males, 51 bitches and 10 in for Specials Only making a total entry of 98 all told.

Mr. Wm. L. Roberts, the owner of Ch. Boldmere Binder, wrote me to the effect that he has recently bought "Heather Realize", a three year old by "Realization" out of "Lady Waller". He is described as a brindle of the cart horse type with very heavy bone. At the Grand Rapids all breed puppy match he exhibited a five months old bitch puppy, going Best of Breed and fourth in the Group.

We met the majority of Scottish Terrier notables at Morris and Essex including Dr. Rogers, Ted Bennett, who judged the specialty at Rye, N. Y., Mr. Maloney, the last owner of the late "Goldfinder" who was Best in Show at the Canadian National Exhibition two years ago; Mrs. Wm. Constable of Boston who recently bought out Dr. Flora Pedicord's entire kennel; Miss Elizabeth Hull who owns the Glenafton Kennels at Madison, N.J. All in all we had a "gala day".

Mr. Napier of Walkerville visited the Canadian Terrier Club show and exhibited "Jeannie", a real one who should be heard from later. Mr. Napier is a born Scotchman and enthusiast of the breed.

I strongly advise the faithful to read "Scottish Exaggeration" on page 73 of July's "Dog World". It's the truth.

NOTES FROM SASKATCHEWAN

By MRS. W. M. KING, 2170 Hamilton St., Regina, Sask.

The Regina Kennel Club will be holding their Annual Summer Show in conjunction with the Provincial Exhibition. They were endeavoring to get a new building, but the building the Exhibition Board had in mind is under lease at the present time, so the old building will be given a thorough housecleaning and called into service once more. We understand that the benching will be re-arranged at one end of the building, and a smaller show ring at the further end. Hitherto the show ring has been quite a lot larger than necessary, and surrounded with penches was quite a noisy place. It may not be quite so noisy around the ring with the dogs at the other end of the building. Plans are being made to hold a junior judging competition. I cannot say much about this at the present time, it is a new venture for this club and should be an added attraction. A small fee will be charged the entrants in this event.

I was rather interested in Wm. H. Pym's "Hither and Yon", particularly with reference to dog show buildings. Regina has held four spring shows in a departmental store, but this accommodation was not available this spring. Had the exhibitors and show officials banded together, as suggested in the article, and refused to stage a show in anything but a suitable building, it is more than likely the show would not have been held. For next spring, the Regina Kennel Club is hoping to hold the dog show in conjunction with the Winter Fair which is held during the latter part of March. This will ensure a heated building, but it is doubtful if the Fair Board will allow an admission charge, and that brings up the subject of finances again.

We had a visit from W. Semple yesterday, and he brought with him a sweet little Pekingese which he is planning to show at Saskatoon. Willie has always been on hand with "wires", and we wish him the best with his new love.

We regret to report that Mrs. Eleanor Laing has disposed of all the inmates of her kennel with the exception of her "Chum"—her entries will be missed at the forthcoming shows.

We hear that W. J. Pym has purchased a couple of wire bitches lately. The first from Dr. C. R. Boulding, Aurora, Ont.: "Talauroa Miss Rita" whose sire is Int. Ch. "Benholme Baynard" and dam out of a bitch imported in dam by the English Champion "Talauroa Romulus". "Miss Rita" was bred to Ch. "Talauroa Symington" before being shipped. The second purchase is from Miss Lena Shortt, Lambeth, Ont.: "Vanity Star Bright" by Ch. "Vanity Bantam". This bitch is being groomed for the forthcoming shows. In respect to the Regina show, a banquet will be held on the evening of August 2nd at which the guests of honor will be the judge, out-of-town exhibitors and any C.K.C. Directors who may be in the city. We hope to meet all our old friends with a host of new ones, and a good time is guaranteed.

Our Saskatchewan director has asked me to take over this page, and I have agreed to do my best, but in order to do so I must get the news first. Will the clubs and fanciers in this province remember that this is their paper and their page and send me all the general reader interest news they can gather so that it reaches me by the 10th of each month. I'll do my bit if you will do yours, and if we fail the fault will not be mine, that much I can promise you.

Obituary

Frank F. Dole Dead

Canadian fanciers who attended the National Kennel Club Show, at Toronto, last November, will remember the genial gentleman who judged a strong entry of Bull Terriers, but few could have guessed that he was of the 1859 vintage of men, and therefore on the border of his 79th birthday, that man was this writer's good friend. Frank Fessenden Dole, for many years canine writer of the New York Herald-Tribune, and it is needless to say that Frank's pages always contained the whole story.

In the Press Room at Westminster, there was always the glad hand, and the kindly word, and many a budding journalist owed much to the co-operation of the very human personality who was in charge there—Mr. Dole.

We feel that the "Royal" would be the last show the "grand old man" would judge at, but in that respect we guessed wrong, as Mr. Dole was honored as recently as April 15th this year, when he was chosen by the First Company Governor's Foot Guard Athletic Associations of Hartford, Conn., to select the Best in Show, at their 14th annual fixture, and here Mr. Dole found the noted English Setter "Maro of Maridor" as his top dog.

At the recent Morris and Essex Show Mrs. Dodge had arranged for Mr. Dole to make the presentations which go with the Best in Show award, but, as in the case of Bill Breed he was not allowed to finish his last chore. Prior to calling the dogs to the ring for the Group Classes at Morris and Essex that old master of the dog show ring, Charles G. Hopton, came to the center of the huge ring, and with the aid of a megaphone he called on the doggie fraternity to be upstanding and uncovered for one minute reverential silence in memory of the old patriarch whom death had so recently removed. The response was electric as the great throng instantly without any trace of ostentation and for the prescribed period stood in a silence which could almost be felt. It was a timely and kindly thought, and who could have undertaken this last tribute as ably as Mr. Hopton.

It will be rather difficult to enjoy Westminster in 1940, when there will be no Frank Dole around to extend the old familiar greeting "Hello Canada." Our sincere sympathy goes out to all those our old friend may have left in sorrow.

WILLIAM Z. BREED PASSES

American dogdom is poorer to-day because of the passing on Wednesday, June 1st, of one of its outstanding personalities, the late Wm. Z. Breed, brilliant writer, and competent adjudicator. His "Little Black Bag" column in "Popular Dogs" was always an epic, and thousands of dogdoms celebrities came within his discriminating scope. Cheerful "Bill Breed", in the ordinary course of affairs would have succeeded the writer as President of the Dog Writers Association, but in future his writings, in the spirit world, will be more brilliant than ever before. Big hearted, kindly Bill Breed, Gentleman and Scholar, we mourn with those who are left to mourn your passing hence. May we all foregather, again beyond the Styx, this prayer to include all those who had entered under our old friend for the Troy Show on June 17th, the always memorable fixture so closely associated with that other old friend of ours the late "Benny" Lewis, Jr.

PASSING OF A COCKER PIONEER

Many breeders and lovers of Cocker Spaniels, in Canada and the United States, will learn with sincere regret of the passing, at Toronto on May 24th, of Mrs. Thomas Worthy at the age of 76 years. Very few, if any, breeders have contributed as much to the history of the Cocker Spaniel in this Dominion as the late Mrs. Worthy, who as early as 1902 in partnership with Mr. Dick McGaw, of the then premier Toronto hostelry, the Queen's Hotel, founded the Crescent Kennels on Summerhill Avenue in that city. These kennels produced many famous Cockers, including champions "Crescent Bonita", "Liberator", "Jennie June", and "June Night", the last named being sold to H. A. Mellen-thin of My Own Kennels, Poughkeepsie, N.Y., its name appearing in the pedigree of champion "Torohill Trader". Among other well known dogs owned by this pioneer was champion "Brookdale Toby" purchased from Harry Dymont. In the course of her long career Mrs. Worthy sent many Cockers across the border and made numerous friends among prominent United States breeders.

IRISH TERRIERS

Lightning may not strike twice in the same spot but High Allan's Irish Terrier female "Doreen of Dalriada" has landed in the same position twice in succession by winning the Terrier Group and second Best in Show at the recent Winnipeg show. We hope to see "Doreen" down here for our next big event. This is grand news for Irish breeders and fanciers. For years the best "Irish" in the world have been brought to the United States and Canada, and the most gratifying part of the whole thing is that the observant judges are realizing that the "Mick" to-day is equal in character, action, style and class to any other breed. Just watch the headway these Terriers are making with such fanciers as Dr. Grant Harper of Waterloo, Everett Bristol, K.C., A. A. Scully, Toronto, and R. Ray McLaughlin of Oshawa, all new supporters. Nothing less than Best in Show will do, at least that is the objective and with such quality stock and support the top honors are easily within reach.

We often think that the judging of Irish Terriers is the most enjoyable part of a judge's task, as all Irish Terrier exhibitors seem to be blessed with the same spirit that these Terriers possess, that of taking whatever comes with a smile, and then coming right back again. It is this brand of sportsmanship that will put the Irish Terrier on top, and any other brand will only act as a drawback to any breed of dog. If any fancier of "Micks" has any cause for complaint I am sure that action will be taken through the proper channels and his dissatisfaction, whether later proven justified or not, will certainly not develop into anything distasteful to sport lovers.

A short time ago a Toronto sportsman received a letter from a friend, part of which read as follows:

"My long experiences with you in and out of the ring have firmly convinced me that you are just about the best winner and the best loser I have ever seen, and that, of course, means the best kind of sportsman. After all is said and done, good sportsmanship is simply good citizenship, and if it could be brought about that people as a whole would introduce the spirit of sportsmanship into their business, social and political activities, we would then be close to becoming the ideal state."

As the awards to Canadian "Micks" at the Morris & Essex Show appear elsewhere in this issue we will not dwell on them here, however the wonderful win of Mr. Ray McLaughlin's "Culbahn Cuagh", at the Wissahickon show should not be overlooked. Here "Cuagh" went Best of Breed, and the day following Wissahickon she was again Winners Bitches. If this record is continued "Cuagh" will soon be wearing her Triple International Championship crown.

FLASH AGAIN SONNY

The Sensational American Champion FLASH AGAIN SONNY

Sonny possesses undisputed type, finishing his Championship in a blaze of glory over the big circuit, going best of breed and best non-sporting many times on his way to the top.

His breeding is unexcelled, his sire is Flash Again III, a son of International Champion Flash Again, his dam Hagerty's Rag Doll is a daughter of Champion Hagerty Again and the dam of International Champion Flash Again. Line breeding and bred to produce. Judging from the quality of his pups it is predicted that in a short time he will be classed among the few noted sires.

He is already the sire of one Champion, namely, Maythorne's Flash Again. (Winners dog at Westminster, 1938).

Sonny's weight is 11 lbs. His colour is dark seal brindle, with pure white markings. Breed to him while he is young. Service limited to three females a month.

Introductory fee $15.00. Stud Cards on request.

FROM DOG SHOW RING TO PULPIT

On Saturday, May 27th, "the editor" attended the ringside where old English Sheepdogs were being judged, with a view to passing the time of day, with the judge, Rev. W. B. Buchanan, a fellow Scot, all the way from Kilmarnock, Scotland, and the home of the world-famous "Johnnie Walker", but always he was a busy man, and so we didn't meet on that day, but on Saturday, June 10th, when scanning the Church notices in the Toronto Star, I noticed with extreme pleasure that my Madison disappointment was to be short-lived, as Mr. Buchanan was to occupy the pulpit of St. Andrews Church, Toronto, on the following day.

We had planned a busy day for the Sabbath, and actually we did visit with the Frasers and the Batts at Guelph, and to get back to Toronto in time for church, and what a church is St. Andrews, the home of the newly elected Moderator of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, the Right Rev. Stuart C. Parker, D.D. Sharp on the opening hour in came Mr. Buchanan the lover of men, and the lover of man's best friend. The theme of his sermon was "The Spirit of Community Interest", and as soon as he commenced, his subject became transparent at once, and one could not help but feel that a travelled educationist was speaking on a vital subject, vital to nations, and to individuals. After the service had concluded we visited the visitor from home in the vestry, and made some arrangements for the following day.

To-day we visited the home of Len Collins, the owner of that noted old English Sheepdog Ch. "Ideal Weather", the winner of Best dog in Show at the Morris and Essex last year, and the winner of Best in Show at the Canine Breeders' and Exhibitors' Association Show last Saturday. The dog was in grand bloom, and had the advantage of Mr. Loveridge to handle him, and a very happy half hour was spent in an atmosphere which was friendly all round. The "gentleman of the cloth" gave much evidence that he was well conversant with everything pertaining to "bob-tails". Unfortunately Mr. Collins was under the weather, as he has been for quite considerable time now, and we were reluctantly robbed of his genial presence. Later we visited the hospitable Oak Room of the King Edward Hotel, where we continued talking dog until we became conscious that the other guests would be feeling that we owned the place, and in due course we had to perforce a breakaway from a congenial little session.

Mr. Buchanan leaves the United States and Canada thoroughly satisfied that his visit to this side of the Atlantic has been most enjoyable.

GREAT DANE NOTES

Capt. F. R. McCall, of Calgary, Alta., has purchased an all black Great Dane from Mrs. J. De B. Cowan, Kaslo, B.C.

"Rungmook Rozana", Mrs. Cowan's Medicine Hat Best Dog in Show winner, is by Ch. "Rungmook Ramnian" ex. "Springmere Sedrica" who previous to leaving England whelped a blue dog which has been described in Mrs. Lee Bookers' recent book on British Great Danes as being "the outstanding dog of his color in England," and in Mrs. Cowan's opinion "Rozana" is the best blue bred in the Kennel since her noted ancestor Ch. "Ranghild", which dog had the honor of being noticed by King George V during his inspection of the F.A.N.Y. Convoy (of which her owner was a member), at St. Omer during the war. His Majesty was greatly interested to learn that she was a British champion—the first blue to achieve that honor.

SPRATT'S

Directly the litter was born, his mother was wisely fed on Spratt's Puppilac (full-cream milk in powder form) thus helping her to stand the strain of the suckling period. As weaning time approached Puppilac was given to him direct and he found it quite as tasty and nourishing as his mother's own milk.

SPRATT'S

When the time arrived to make that big step over to solid food SPRATT'S WEETMEET No. 1 was introduced into his diet. This kibbled biscuit meal "builds up" bone and muscle and, at the same time, educates the pup to the benefits and enjoyment of a "hard tack" diet, so important later in life.
