THEY ALMOST GOT OUR BROTHER!

Worms, I mean! We all had them, but brother nearly died. Then the boss came in. "Sergeant's PUPPY CAPSULES for you," he said, and gave us some.

Boy, we certainly whipped those worms! And was the Boss pleased! "With PUPPY CAPSULES now and SURESHOT when you're bigger," he says, "the worms will never get you!"

He's going to raise us by that Sergeant's DOG BOOK. That told him how to worm us—and all about how to raise and treat us. The DOG BOOK is free at drug and pet stores, or you can get it with this coupon. Don't miss it!

And it was regularly moved by Capt. Waters, seconded by Mr. McDerment and carried:

"That the applicants be received as members."

The following Kennel Names were ordered granted:

Dewdney	Hedgewyn
Elgin	Of Ryde

The following Sanction Show dates were granted:

Moncton Exhibition Association—August 26th, 1939.

Sturgeon Creek Community Club—September 23rd, 1939.

The following Licensed Show dates were granted:

Oshawa Beagle Club—October 21st and 22nd, 1939.

Hamilton Beagle Club—October 14th and 15th, 1939.

Children's Hospital Aid Society of Calgary—November 3rd and 4th, 1939.

Le Club de Beagles Ta-I-O-de Montreal, Inc.—October 28th and 29th, 1939.

Judges for the following Shows and Field Trials were approved:

Pictou County Kennel Club; Children's Hospital Aid Society of Calgary; Oshawa Beagle Club.

Mr. Pym made certain suggestions for the consideration of the Board in respect to approval of judges, officials in the ring, the Canadian Kennel Club trophy, order of judging at license shows, prizes and trophies, judges books and trophies for "non members of the Canadian Kennel Club".

It was regularly moved by Mr. Pym, seconded by Mrs. Brown and carried:

"That the Assistant Secretary approve only those Breed specials which are automatically won at the conclusion of the judging of a breed."

The Assistant Secretary was instructed to secure a report from the Toronto Kennel Club of the work of their judges at their most recent show for the information of the Board.

The Assistant Secretary was instructed to take up with the Club's Solicitor the question as to whether or not the Board had the power to order the refusal of a renewal of membership fee once a person had been accepted for membership.

The President advised that Mr. F. W. Walkerdine, Chairman of the Championship Point Rating Committee was in attendance to present a report on behalf of the Committee. Mr. Walkerdine was then invited to the Board Room and commenced his report by reviewing all correspondence received from all the Provincial Directors except Director R. C. Vaughan of the Maritimes. He then presented for consideration championship point ratings for:

1. British Columbia.
2. Prairie Provinces, Quebec and the Maritimes.
3. Ontario.

at the same time presenting figures to support his recommendation that the present ratings be altered to the extent covered in his recommended ratings.

After discussing each breed, alterations were made in several instances. At the conclusion of the discussion on Mr. Walkerdine's recommendation, the following resolution was regularly moved by Mr. Pym, seconded by Dr. Batt and carried:

"That the championship point ratings recommended by Mr. F. W. Walkerdine, Chairman of the Point Rating Committee, be received and be published in the January issue of 'Kennel and Bench', thereafter to come before the members at the next Annual General Meeting for their consideration."

The following resolution was also regularly moved by Mr. Pym, seconded by Mr. McDerment and carried:

"That the thanks of this Board be extended to Mr. Walkerdine at this time."

The Board discussed the matter of the expenses incurred by Mr. Walkerdine in fulfilling his duties as Chairman of the Committee. It was regularly moved by Mr. Pym, seconded by Capt. Waters and carried:

"That an honorarium of $25.00 be paid to Mr. Walkerdine to cover his expenses as Chairman of the Championship Point Rating Committee."

The meeting adjourned at 6.45 p.m.

NOTE: These minutes are subject to correction when presented for adoption at the next meeting of the Board.

NOTES FROM THE MARITIMES

By S. E. KOMINSKY, 231 Union St., St. John, N.B.

WHEN it comes to "putting on the dog" our hats off to Moncton and their live show committee who benched 128 dogs for the Sanction Show held in connection with the Exhibition Saturday Aug. 26th. This committee was headed by that veteran Boston Terrier breeder H. S. Scott whose untiring efforts to make the show the big success it was, cannot be overlooked.

Mr. O. M. (Mack) Sweetster who breeds Dobes acted as ring steward and did a bang up good job. Mack had them waiting at the ring, and there was no time lost.

Our own Mr. George T. Kane judged this fixture and the worst I can say it was a big job well done. It is a well known fact that at a sanction show many novices make their first appearance in the ring and the posing, gaiting and proper handling of the dog is new and oft times hard on the nervous system. Mr. Kane was very patient and lent a helping hand, a word of encouragement, a pat on the back and a little help in managing the dog is never forgotten by the novice. Speaking in doggie terms Mr. Kane's ring manners are perfect.

Several fine specimens were shown among them a very nice cocker spaniel (parti-color) owned by Mrs. H. E. Williams of Rothesay, a handsome rough coated collie owned and shown by Mrs. P. E. Stonehouse, a very promising fox terrier (wire) puppy from the Garwood Kennels of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Vaughan, a quality-plus Scottie from the Cossar Farm and a very nice Boston Terrier owned by Mrs. L. P. Bourgeois of Moncton.

The writer had the pleasure of going best in show with his Kerry Blue Terrier bitch, "Leila Maid of Cheriton"; this bitch was just imported a few months ago and this was her first show in Canada.

These notes would not be complete without a few remarks regarding the manner in which the people of Moncton responded. The ring side was crowded, space being at a premium, several displays had to be removed to make room for the spectators. The dog benching is a natural, the boxes in the Arena being used. You will remember this was the home of the famous Moncton Hawks. The committees are to be congratulated on their first effort, and I am promised that in the near future we will be showing there at a C.K.C. point show.

Another Champion leaves the Maritimes to make history in the U.S.A. "Ch. Kindon Freckles" a handsome red and white cocker was sold by Mr. R. C. Vaughan to Mr. Ted Coppen, of Streator, Ill., the dog was purchased for his new owner by Edward C. Loud, professional handler of Betterton, Md. Apparently his new owner is pleased with his purchase for a wire arrived saying, "am tickled with 'Freckles' he is all you claimed him to be".

Sept. 4, 5, 6 and 7th., were big days for man's best friend in Saint John. for two all breed shows were held on these days, the first by the Saint John Exhibition Assoc. and the latter by the New Brunswick Kennel Club. After months of negotiations and arrangements, with the help of the Directors of the Exhibition Assoc. we were able to hire the Boys' club and once again hold our annual on the Exhibition grounds. Decorations were put in place, partitions moved, building painted, benching all set up and the many other matters that go to make up a show, properly looked after, when war was declared and the Military authorities advised us to vacate immediately as they required the building for housing and training soldiers. Thanks to our good friends C. C. Sullivan and Fen. McKelvey, we were able to rent spacious St. Andrews rink and after much hard work and worry the show went on.

George T. Kane handed out the ribbons in his usual satisfactory manner. The winners naturally were pleased but even those who were not so fortunate felt they were dealt with fairly.

The Cocker Spaniel "Vaughan O'Boy of Barrie", owned by R. C. Vaughan, won the beautiful trophy put up by the C.K.C. for the best Canadian bred dog in show. A most popular win that met with the approval of the ringside was Best in Show win which was carried off by that perfect specimen "Ch. Basford Whiteman" owned and shown by Edwin M. Wright of Montreal. Runner up was "Ch. Cardigan Trader".

Judging for the second show started Wednesday afternoon with Dr. W. B.S. Thomas doing the honors. This was the doctor's first assignment in Canada and from the impression he made here his services will be in great demand. Dr. Thomas has judged many shows in the U.S.A. and from all reports gave satisfaction. His articles appear in one of the larger magazines across the border and are much sought after. Dr. Thomas who has a large kennel of English and Springer Spaniels in Dover-Foxcroft, Maine, had as his ring steward his kennel manager, Mrs. Coffey who carried out her duties in a most efficient manner.

The Wire Fox Terrier "Garwood Mixer", owned by the Garwood Kennels was awarded the C.K.C. trophy at the show and the Bulldog "Ch. Basford Whiteman" repeated his Best in Show win at the first show.

The writer had the pleasure of making many new acquaintances among them being Mrs. R. F. Houlston of the Miramichi Kennels, Derby Jet., N.B. and J. R. Eldridge of 149 Beech St., Halifax, N.S. Mr. Eldridge is anxious to meet some smooth fox terrier breeders.

DACHSHUNDS

THE last month has brought forth so much world-shaking news that it is difficult to keep a calm and serene attitude toward our usual work and our usual sporting interests. However, there have been several quite successful dog shows and it seems to be a natural British trait to avoid showing a perturbed spirit to the world. Exhibitors carried on as usual and from the point of view of dachshund owners and breeders a great deal has been gained.

The already famous little American dog, "Herman Rinkton", went best in show in Ottawa and despite a few facetious remarks by newspapers in that City, came on to Toronto and went best in show at the Canadian National Exhibition. The Toronto Kennel Club had an entry of twenty-one in our breed which was highly satisfactory and the pleasing thing was to note that when one Toronto paper ventured a little ill-timed humour, the remarks were quickly and generously withdrawn. A still more pleasing thing to realize is that these little outbursts of humour were resented by so many breeders of other dogs. Never has the Dachshunde section had so many visitors from the other breeders.

Two comparatively new breeders have appeared upon the scene and have acquired some high-priced, quality stock. Another large breeder also reported adding a valuable show dog to her already flourishing group of Dachsies. At this time of the year dog sales are not usually at their highest peak but there has been a brisk demand for pups which indicates that even in the midst of the alarms and tension of war days, people still think of their pets and the warm solace of a dog's company will mean a great deal in the long, lonesome hours when knitting needles are clicking busily. Romping with the children, they give us a vision of faithful love and peace, a vision which makes us all the more resolute that the world must at all costs be made and kept a good place for innocent children and their innocent little canine play-mates.

For some years I have been keeping a scrap-book and have acquired a large number of interesting pictures and jokes about Dachsies. Most of my friends know about this and I must acknowledge that this month there has been a deluge of clippings in my mail. Almost everyone has sent me the picture of Sir Neville Henderson leaving the British Embassy in Berlin, bound for England with his aide and his pet Dachshund. Before acknowledging these individually, I want to thank all the senders here and now for their kindly interest in my scrap-book.

At the present writing it looks as if there would be no Royal Winter Fair but it is still hoped that there may be some opportunity for showing dogs under the auspices of the National Kennel Club. Our breeders are awaiting news and will certainly be glad to get together once more in the near future for a friendly exchange of personal news and dog chatter. We earnestly trust that events will shape themselves so that such a gathering may be possible.

NOTES FROM THE EDITOR'S DIARY

SUNDAY morning, August 6th, found the M. S. Ida Bakke, ready to move into the Panama Canal as soon as she had taken up her pilot. We had arrived in Panama Bay some time during the night, and had lain at anchor awaiting the start of the business day at the locks. Everything looked exceptionally rosey for the pleasures of whatever the day was to bring forth in this jungle-tropical locality. Arriving on deck at 6.30 o'clock the picture that awaited our inspection was one of wonder. The greenery of the hills and the level places was of various hues, and running all the way from a dark green to a green that was so light as to be almost transparent. Everywhere the eye wandered there was something demanding attention. Our experience of jungle country, and of the tropical lands had been derived entirely from books, and from moving pictures, but here it was in all its grandeur, spread out in profuse prodigality.

At 9.45 the pilot came on board, and immediately afterwards the Agent of the Knutsen Line also came aboard, and with him the last mail we would receive this side of the Atlantic, and there were 14 pieces for the writer, and each piece called for the courtesy of attention at once, if the agent was to take care of our mailing when we got to the last lock, so really much of the pleasure of the day was sacrificed because of that. But as we ground out the necessary replies, first one would come to our window, then another, the command always the same "bring your camera" — "bring your camera", we did our best, but did lose a lot of the glamour associated with one of the world's greatest feats in engineering — The Panama Canal.

Being naturally inquisitive we spent as much of our day as was possible interrogating the pilot on the bridge and fortunately he was friendly, well versed and communicative.

The line of the Canal goes up the valley of the Chagres River on the Atlantic Slope, passes through the Continental Divide at Gaillard Cut and descends to the Pacific Ocean down the valley of the Rio Grande. The distance through the locks, from the deep water of the Pacific to the deep water of the Caribbean is 50 miles. It takes 8 hours to steer a ship through the locks.

Entering the Canal from the Bay of Panama (Pacific) at Balboa, where a lovely tropical city of that name seemed to suggest, that since we had lost so much of our scheduled time, that a day could be spent nicely there, but a freight ship, is always a freight ship, and a ship's freight is always exactly where it can be collected profitably, and its passengers list must be always content to be satisfied as far as the time schedule is concerned, the quarters are first rate, and the dining room is its own best advertisement. The Captain and his associates make the social life of the ship all that can be desired.

From Balboa we enter the Miraflores Lock, and find ourselves being raised 75 feet, then on to Pedro Miguel, and up still higher, the little electric mules, compact but powerful make sure that there are no delaying of the ships progress through. Opening into Gatun Bay we pass into the Gatun lock, from there into Colon Bay, and on into the Caribbean.

The grandeur of the tropical greens after a sun shower baffles description further than to say they are magnificently beautiful, the palms were everywhere, and they held their own attraction. The golf course is full size, and looks like what we visualize paradise to be. As we scan the shores we notice a stir on the muddy-sandy short, and sure enough there is "old man alligator" himself. We pass a large avenue of coco-nut palms, and each one laden with fruit in the ripening stages, but we feel disappointed when we do not see the monkeys shieing the half grown nuts at each other, to the music of their own chattering according to our school books.

Cold was identified with all the early days of our travellings, even at San Francisco it was plenty cold enough at nights, in fact the night we spent at San Francisco Fair put us in mind of a Canadian night around Christmas time, however, since we left San Pedro (Los Angeles) on Saturday, July 9th, the weather kept getting warmer every day until we reached tropical Panama where we were fairly steamed and stewed, and it has been warm every day since. Our Captain declares there has never been any passage in his long career at sea, when the weather was so dependable and pleasant as it has been on this voyage.

At this time of writing we are 3,205 miles from Christobal and 1,342 miles from Glasgow. The average speed of a freight boat is 11 knots per hour, this ship is outstanding for its speed, its Deisel motors making an average of 15 knots easily possible.

The only dogs we have encountered since we attended the show at San Mateo, on July 23rd, were "Gnasher" and "Wolf", of "Wuthering Heights", and the several dogs featured by Peggy von der Goltz in her article "Does your dog want a job", where she tells of "Cop" the German Shepherd dog that manages a duck farm on Long Island. A hurricane struck the locality last fall, and all the ducks on the farm went with the storm. The human owner wrung his hands in despair over his apparently irrevocable loss, but "Cop" having no hands to wring, and he being the manager anyway, got onto the job, and in no time he had coralled more ducks than his original holdings.

"Hedda" was a Rottweiler, who had been a baker's dog before being imported to the United States as a show dog, but in her new home she showed signs of listlessness and despondency, but when she was harnessed to a wagon, and entrusted to bring home her owner's grocery requirements, she was more at home, and was ready to tackle anything that came along, she had been given the job she liked. The tid bit of the article rather tickled the writer, so he clipped it from "This Week Magazine" and now sends it along for its very human interest phase of reading:

"Three or four years ago I was in a grocery store in New York City when a medium-sized black-and-white dog, part fox terrier and part bulldog, came in, stood on his hind legs, rested his forepaws on the counter and waited until the clerk took a slip of paper from his mouth.

"After the clerk had consulted the paper and filled the order, he and I watched the dog leave the store, holding his head high so the bag of groceries wouldn't drag, and trot round the corner. 'That's the smartest dog I ever saw,' the clerk said. 'He comes every day with a list and takes the stuff home. Belongs to a crippled fellow.'

"The dog and I met often after that. We got to be friends and shook hands whenever we met. Then one day I came upon the dog, standing in the street, looking anxiously up and down; the flimsy paper bag had torn and his groceries were scattered on the sidewalk. The dog wagged his tail and we shook hands and I said, 'Shall I carry them for you?'

"He watched me pick up his groceries and led the way down the street, watching me every second. At the stoop of a sprawling tenement he barked sharply. A withered little man in a wheel chair opened the door. 'Tony!' he said, 'What you do?' Tony hung his head.

"I explained about the broken bag, and that Tony and I were old friends."

"'Tony,' he said, 'thanka da lady.' Tony reared up on his hind legs, teetered across the floor to me and shook hands; then he turned three somersaults."

"The man watched me sharply. 'You like a Tony, no? Tony is one time best-a dog in circus. I am one time best acrobat in circus. But I fall-a down, break the back. You want see what else-a Tony do? You come in, no?'"

"The ground-floor flat was desperately poor, but, all things considered, clean. Tony fetched a ruffled collar and a little hat, stood still while the man put them on him. Then Tony walked on his hind legs. He played dead. He danced. He turned more and fancier somersaults. Finally he jumped onto a chair and from there to a slack wire that ran from door jamb to window frame; Tony walked the wire on four feet, he walked it on two feet, he turned somersaults the length of the wire."

"The wasted little acrobat watched Tony with pure love in his eyes. 'Is-a my best friend in thees world, this-a Tony,' he said. 'Soon I get-a well and we show evabody what is one smart dog.'"

Then there was the 'Storm in a Teacup' as served up to 'Esquire' readers by Arthur Davidson Fickes article 'Dog Owners are Crazy' which was followed by a veritable blast of criticism. Mr. Fickes charged that dogs soiled the sidewalks, that they barked and kept the neighbours awake, brought wet tracks into a friends apartment, his affectionate leap soiled a friends white trousers, and that he shed hairs on a visitors clothing.

A Springfield, Mass. correspondent agreed, and mentioned the pampered dogs to be encountered at any time in Central Park (New York) all dressed up in coats, shoes and caps, and referred to the Boston Terrier who was the owner of a fur coat. This made rather amusing reading, but we couldn't help being seized with the feeling that the caption might well have been "Dog owners—and others—are crazy", but a New York reader goes to bat for the dog in a straightforward two fisted way. The blame is laid on the owner for all excessive barking, when the dog is left alone and unattended. His dog is never taken when he goes visiting his friends. The dog should be taught restraint when inclined to exuberance, the whole giving coverage to the fifth allegation. Then, this friend of the dog goes further into battle in favor of all 'Towser's' and makes the following observations:

"It all seems to boil down to the fact that ownership of a dog in a city involves certain responsibilities on the part of the owner. If he or she has neither the patience or intelligence to properly train the pup then he or she should be fined until the dog is trained or given up."

"Now, however, fairness demands that the dog's side be presented. The fact that millions of people in cities cherish dogs must indicate there are reasons."

"The frequent comment that a dog cannot be happy or well in town is just not true. If it were then all the dogs would have been dead long ago. It is once more a question of the owner's consideration for his pet."

"All dogs are a certain amount of care but they return this attention a thousand fold. Not only in faithfulness and affection but in value received. The press recently carried a disclosure made by a particularly enterprising burglar to the effect that the thing a house breaker most feared was a dog. It might very well be that a dog who is disturbing his neighbors is frightening away a thief."

"Then I recall a story in the papers not more than a week ago that had to do with a chow who awakened the family to warn them of fire. The point I am trying to make is that a dog gives its owners a grand feeling of security. A dog should pull his weight the same as a human but a great deal has to do with the way he was handled as a puppy."

Thanks a million, all agree with you Sir, we too like to feel that our dogs are exactly what we humans are responsible for making them, only some dogs are infinitely more clever than the humans to whom canine care has been entrusted.

Our time table has been shattered beyond recognition, and instead of reaching Glasgow on August 8th, we will not get there until the afternoon of August 19th,—if all goes well for the balance of the voyage, and we still have two full days to go, but anyway, our good C.P.R. ship the "Duchess of York" will be well on its way back to Canada before we reach the 'tail-of-the-bank', and so that we may have time to at least sneeze in the 'old country' we will be reluctantly delayed until we can book with the 'Empress of Australia' leaving Southampton on August 26th, and reaching Canada in time for the opening of the Canadian National Exhibition dog show, that will allow for five days in the 'auld place'. The next sailing will be the 'Duchess of Bedford' which would be September 1st from Glasgow, and so in Toronto, for the week commencing on Monday, September 11th. Here's hoping.

NOTES FROM OLD QUEBEC

By W. W. ROONEY, 2331 Coursol St., Montreal, Que.

ONE of the most interesting jobs I have had to do while Director came to me last month, when I was called upon to witness the tattooing of some 60 odd Malamutes or, as Mr. Wheeler the owner would call them, Russian Sled Dogs. I was asked to make a trip with Dr. Baker to St. Jovite in the Laurentians, to which I readily agreed. We left at 8 P.M. on Friday by car, slept at "Gray Rocks Inn", then bright and early on Saturday morning made for the Kennels. I had no idea of how many there were. Imagine my surprise when I saw 30 of these wonderful dogs staring at us like surprised beasts. There and then I set myself in for the battle of my dear life, but I said "I am here and I will do them" and do them we did, from young pups to grown dogs of 8 years old. All were done in the ear, some did not like it and protested, others were too brave and refused to show so much as a sign. These dogs are about the most deceiving of all dogs to look at on the end of a chain of 18 feet extended to its limit. One would think that they were going to eat you, but they are in reality like sheep—gentle, kind, obedient and ready to serve the every command of their master. In colour they vary from black and white, black and tan trimmings, some are cream. I saw them no doubt at their worst being coated dogs in the heat of the summer, but under their summer coat I saw all that the word dog calls for in structure, courage, stout heart and strength required to run harnessed to a sled over a 200 mille course against time. I was very happy to learn from Mr. Wheeler that he drives his teams without a whip and tells me that it is not necessary and says, "They just love to work for me, all I need to do is to give the command and they obey".

Montreal was well represented at the Ottawa exhibition when it was my privilege to attend this year for the first time and I was sorry to see so many empty benches. I believe this show should attract more attention for more than one reason. First, it is the nearest to Montreal. At the same time I believe the Show Committee could do well to pay a little more attention to the Montreal entry and I might suggest an office in town where entries might be taken. To the Committee responsible, I would like to congratulate them for their efforts and promise them more support myself, because, I came, I saw and therefore I know.

It was a genuine treat to see our own 2nd Vice President, Bill Pym, in the ring. His always clean cut manner and the very masterly way he goes about his task, all of which goes to show just how seriously Mr. Pym takes his work and as a result we see him today one of the most popular judges in the country. He knows his dogs and he knows his job.

While in Ottawa, I was privileged along with Mr. Pym (who like all busy men can make time to do that something else) to be shown around the Canadian Livestock Offices. I am sure it was a revelation to me as it would be to others, while as one of the officers said, it may be old fashioned but none of the new systems would do. I saw files by the thousand. I saw the daily entries, the bank depositing system, every branch of the Department have its own monies credited, and when it is a final record it is in its own envelope which shows everything that pertains to that record such as time it is received, who received it, amount of cash, was it by cheque or money order, was there a credit, if so how much and all other references are on this envelope. We can all feel justly proud of the Records Department. Mr. Hitchman informed us that they had a very wonderful library of dog books. We saw order and organization, one person to one job and the responsibility thereby placed and I heartily concur with Mr. Pym when he says "all very fine" and I would like here and now to congratulate Mr. Hitchman and his staff on the efficiency of his office and thank him for the privilege of being shown around.

Boston Terrier fanciers will be sorry to learn of a fire at the Kennels of Mr. and Mrs. Barnes, Verdun. I understand that a pair of good Boston Terriers were burned to death. Mr. Barnes always had a few good ones, unfortunately these were the very best he ever had, however, knowing Mr. Barnes fairly well, I am convinced he will be back with more good ones very soon.

By the time this goes to press the Annual Ladies Kennel Club of Canada Inc. Show will be a memory and I hope a pleasant one. We hope we shall have had a goodly number of out of town dogs and exhibitors at this very wonderful fixture. This club deserves all the support and credit they can get. The object for which the show is run and the way it is managed is a credit to the Canadian dogdom.

One week later that gallant band of dog lovers known as "The North End Kennel Club" will hold their first licensed dog show, October 7th. I trust they may have a record entry and that we shall again have the pleasure of your company and dogs. Let us see how much you want a dog show.

Collies have always been a weakness of mine, merles particularly, and E. Vanier of Longueuil, Que., having a few, invited me to his Kennel where I spent a very "collie" evening. Those of us who know Mr. Vanier, know what a genial host he makes. I saw a nice sable and white collie 8½ months old "Troubadour Princess" who is out of "Sunderland Show Girl" and by "Pleasant Troubadour of Arken" also Mr. Vanier's pal dog "Sutherland of Splendour", imported from the famous Sutherland Kennels at Mass., U.S.A. Mr. Vanier deplors the fact that there are so few collies shown these days.

Mrs. Percy Adams recently returned from her extended trip to Europe which took her to France, Germany, Switzerland, Denmark and the United Kingdom, where all the leading Skye Kennels were visited and as Mrs. Adams says, "I was fortunate enough while in England of having the advice and help of the most famous living authority on Skye Terriers in the world in the person of Sir Claud Alexander".

Needless to say as a result, Canada's dog world is the richer by the new Skye from Mrs. Cuthbert's Kennels, "Roland of Meerend" also a silver bitch puppy, "Skyhigh Lady Fay of Talisker" from Miss Josephine Craig's famous Kennels in the South of England. "Lady Fay" is half sister to Sir Claud Alexander's Champion bitch "Southernhills Dust Storm", at the present time winning consistently in England at all the best shows. The sire of both these dogs is "Ch. Togo of Merrymount". "Togo" is by "Ch. Rortogo" while "Lady Fay's" dam is "Merrymount Ghost" by "Ch. Bill of Merrymount".

That enthusiastic Bull Dog fancier, Ed. Wright made a few nice wins at Ottawa and Saint John. His "Ch. Basford Whiteman" went Best in Show at both shows in the Maritimes, St. John Exhibition Dog Show and the New Brunswick Kennel Club. At Ottawa his young dog "Son O'Basford Elite" went Best Bull Dog and best non-sporting dog and best Canadian bred in show. It pleased me very much to see such good wins coming to Mr. Wright whose enthusiasm and cash brought to Canada some of our very best Bull Dogs.

Em. Howard's Scottie bitch handled by Mr. B. Collins took Reserve Winners at both these features.

"Wynot Fairplay" owned by B. Collins went to Winners at New Brunswick Kennel Club and Best of Win-

BULLDOGS AT THE C.N.E.

On Labor Day the Writer judged at the Canadian National Exhibition Show, and outside of one or two specimens, the whole lot were a very poor showing. Following are the awards.

Novice Dogs: Barmac White Storm—owned by W. H. MacGregor. A real well-balanced specimen.

Canadian Bred Dogs: 1st—Kempston Beau Ideal—owned by Walter Brown. A Brindle and White specimen, very loose in shoulder which throws him very much off balance. His ear carriage at times is not what we desire, but he has a nice short back with plenty of spring of rib. 2nd—Barmac White Storm. 3rd—Major of Barrington—owned by Mrs. C. G. Collinson. A Fawn, a trifle long in back and lacking in expression.

Limit and Open Dogs Under 45 Pounds: Duke of Larchmont—owned by Bill Shand was a lone entry. A real tiny one but possessing conformation and character.

Limit Dogs 45 Pounds and Over: A repeat of my Canadian Bred Class.

Open Dogs 45 Pounds and Over: This Class created some excitement with Mrs. George W. Perry's Ch. Peter Alaunt and H. R. Masker's Kamel King of Bundick fighting it out for 1st place, which also decided Winners and Reserve Winners. After going over these two dogs very carefully I awarded 1st place to Ch. Peter Alaunt, who is a trifle lower on the leg and has a little better formation of skull, thus having a little better expression. Both dogs moved very well and if anything King of Bundick has a better body. It was decided to award First to Peter Alaunt with Second going to King of Bundick, but this decision could easily have been reversed. Third place was handed to Kempston Beau Ideal. Winners and Reserve Winners—Champion

Peter Alaunt and Kamel King of Bundick in that order.

Puppy Bitches: 1st—Baby Snooks—owned by Mrs. L. Crossland. A very nice Brindle having real conformation and nice expression. 2nd—Marwell Madonna—owned by Geo. T. Elgey. This one gave the Winner a hard tussle. 3rd—Snow White—owned by C. R. Keen.

Novice Bitches: 1st—Baby Snooks. 2nd—Marwell Madonna. 3rd—Marwell Jean—owned by Mr. and Mrs. Sugden. Needed a little flesh, but will bear watching.

Canadian Bred Bitches: 1st—Caslo Three Penny Bit—owned by Mrs. J. A. Kellett. A White with Brindle markings shown in nice form. 2nd—Coronation Patricia—owned by Mrs. L. Crossland. This one was rather unruly in the ring and lack of proper handling lost her 1st place. 3rd—Marwell Jean.

Limit Bitches 40 Pounds and Over: 1st—Caslo Three Penny Bit. 2nd—Coronation Patricia. 3rd—Larchmont Bunt.

Open Bitches 40 Pounds and Over: 1st—Caslo Three Penny Bit. 2nd—Miss Draftsman's Solarium—owned by J. Longo. A massive heavyweight, rather beefy in hind quarters. 3rd—Larchmont Bunt.

Winners Bitch: This award went to my Puppy Bitch Class Winner—Baby Snooks. Reserve—Caslo Three Penny Bit. Best of Winners and Best of Breed—Champion Peter Alaunt (this was a walk away).

NOTES FROM BRITISH COLUMBIA

By MRS. H. E. FLETCHER, 6996 Dumfries St., Vancouver, B.C.

AUGUST 19th found your correspondent in Duncan at the third annual show of the Duncan Dog Show. Only four fanciers from the mainland were present owing to so many shows in the offing but you all missed a nice friendly little show and the best dinner imaginable was served at a stones throw from the building.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Aitken, Jack Mel-drum and C. W. Lonsdale had everything in good running order. Best in Show was captured by the Sealyham, "Robin Hill Night Flight" owned by Mr. and Mrs. Wally Bowden of the Drumadown Kennels. Best Toy went to Mr. and Mrs. Rowe's Pekingese, "Sen-Sai-Shun", from Seattle while Mr. Pat Brennan took the Non Sporting Group with his Boston, "Ch. Round Up Hagerty Blink", also reserve in show. Miss Agnes Westing-house took the hound group with her Smooth Dachshund, "Sigfried v Lichtenstein". The Sporting Group was taken by the English Cocker "Alberstan Silver Glow" owned by Mrs. J. F. Wood of Victoria. The German Shepherd, "Bill of Northmere" owned by C. W. Lonsdale of Shawnigan Lake took the working group. The judges were: T. P. McConnell, Victoria, and Alex. McCloy of Victoria.

While in Duncan I was invited to have lunch with John Sharp and his sister, Barbara, and Mrs. O'Conner, and at the farm that John is running and making a great success of, although he had only two years at it. It amused me to see a litter of young pigs follow at his heels along with his horses and cows but to anyone knowing this young dog and animal lover this isn't news because John can make a pet out of anything. His hobby so to speak is raising Collies and he had them all looking in tip top shape.

Mrs. J. F. Wood of Victoria has sold her German Shepherd, "Quandalla Eilsa v Setten" to Warren Miller of Victoria and "Quandalla Kata v Setten" to Mrs. Lund of Cowichan Lake, also a pair of black American Cocker have gone to Mrs. Will Spencer of Spencers Limited. They are sired by "Windridge Cinderella" out of "Windridge Gold Dust".

Mrs. Chas McGee has purchased from Mrs. Dorothy Pottruff of Vancouver a German Shepherd youngster out of "Ch. Minka von Strassburg" by the imported Californian owned "Ch. Odin v Busecker Schloss". "Odin" has several best in show wins to his credit.

Mrs. Davidson of Victoria informs me that she has sold "Ch. Dauntless Coon of Tulloch" and "Darkness of Moray" to Miss Lea Casper of the Norva Kennels, North Norfolk, Virginia, U.S.A. Both of these dogs are English Cockers.

Mrs. Davidson's white standard Poodle, "Blakeen Perfection", has gone east to Mrs. Hoyt's famous Blakeen Kennel to be handled by Mrs. Hoyt at the Interstate Poodle Club Specialty Show. Another dog to hold up its end of the game is the Cocker Spaniel (American) "Tulloch Rascal", who has been best of breed at his last three shows and he is still a youngster.

Mrs. Brennan and Pat enjoyed a visit recently from Mrs. George Duncan of Winnipeg, (wife of the well known Boston Terrier breeder), who stopped off in Vancouver between trains as she was going South on a visit.

Bob Cross of Victoria has joined up with the army and was sporting his new uniform at Victoria show, September, 9th. Good luck, Bob.

August 26th, 1939, found the usual fanciers at the Nanaimo Kennel Club show with the mainland well represented for judge, Jack Meadows of Vancouver, to go over our dogs. It was really one of the nicest shows so far, as everyone in Nanaimo is so friendly and we were allowed to go over on the early morning boat instead of leaving on the midnight as we generally do when showing on Vancouver Island. Best in show went to a Doberman Pinscher owned by Sgt. F. C. Fuqua of Seattle, "Bosko v Oxbo", who is by the well known producer and showman "Ch. Hans v Tannehaus".

The Toy group was won by Mr. John Rose's little Yorkshire Terrier, "Ch. Little Jetsom", who just about stole the show, was also reserve best in show. Pat Brennan's new Boston female, "Flashy Miss Royal Kid", took the non sporting group. "Flashy" is well named and so far undefeated in her breed and has several groups to her credit. Sporting group winner was the one and only, "Ch. Holdfast Sonojo", who needs no introduction. Mrs. Bowden's "Robin Hill Night Flight" took the Terrier group. This little Sealyham is making history here in B.C. Our Dachshund, "Belinda of Balmaha" won the hound group.

Several fanciers had their eye on the beautiful Canadian Kennel Club cup to be won by the best Canadian-bred dog or bitch in show and none other than Dr. Rawlings of Vancouver took it with his Kerry Blue Terrier, "Danny Boy of Tralee". The Doctor sure felt tickled at his win and we were all glad to see him win it. An out-of-town visitor and exhibitor was Mrs. W. Constable of Boston, Mass., who showed a nice string of Scotties. After the Nanaimo show Mrs. Constable was heading her car towards Toronto to exhibit her dogs there.

Stanley Dorrell of the Swansea Kennels is home from the hospital after a nervous breakdown and as his doctor told him he must dispose of most of his dogs, he has sold quite a number of them. A Bedlington Terrier, "Swansea Blue-Bird" has been shipped to Mrs. Harrington's "Hiway" Kennels, San Diego, Cal. "Swansea Firefly" has gone to Chas. von Boecop of Seattle, Wash., and another one to go to Seattle is "Swansea Waltz Blue" who has been sold to Mrs. Goetch of Seattle. Mrs. W. C. Woodward of Vancouver has purchased "Swansea Springtime". Mr. Dorrell hated to part with these youngsters as he has visualized popularizing the Bedlington here and going to breed from them. However in such cases one must be a "thoroughbred" and take it "chin up". Two Scottish Terriers who have also departed to new owners are "Gaisgill Gold Flake" to Mrs. McGill of Vancouver. "Swansea Achievement" has gone to Mr. Sinclair of Vancouver. Mr. Dorrell tells me his Bedlington has the distinction of being the first C.K.C. champion of his breed in B.C. — "Swansea Non Stop" by name.

Dogdom was well represented in the Vancouver Exhibition parade August 28th when Mr. and Mrs. Stan Dainard entered a float "Alberstan Cocker Kennels". Mr. Dainard and a nice lot of English Cockers rode on the float that was beautifully made of evergreens.

Mr. and Mrs. Eckersley of Wood-fibre, B.C., were exhibitors at our Exhibition shows showing their imported Wire Haired Terrier, "Hallwyre Head-say", who is by "Ch. Westbourne Tee-totaler" and "Hallwyre Hereafter" and bred by the Hallwyre Kennels in Dallas, Texas.

Col. Sam Magoffin of Rockhaven Kennels has been invited to judge the Golden Retrievers at the Crufts show in England by the Golden Retriever Club of England. Congratulations sir! Rockhaven Kennels of Col. Magoffin report the sale of the well known bench winner, "Ch. Rockhaven Maika", to Miami, Florida. "Rockhaven Tex" has been sold to Anusher Busch Jr., of St. Louis.

September 1st and 2nd found us all at the Canada Pacific Exhibition, where judge Alf. Delmont handed out the ribbons. Best in show to the famous Dalmatian, "Four-in-Hand-Mischief" had to top a very nice non-sporting group previously in the day. Best Toy to John Rose's Yorkshire Terrier, "Ch. Little Jetsom". Best Terrier went to Mrs. G. Peers, "Leading Lady of Tralee". Best Sporting, Miss Lea Casper's English Cocker, "Ch. Dauntless Coon of Tulloch". Best hound, Leslie and Mrs. Cameron's Smooth Dachshund, "Benno von Plater Schulhaus". "Benno" is a really good one. Best of the working group was the well known St. Bernard, "Am. Ch. Mountain Scout" owned by Harold Jarvis of California. Billy Oates had a nice string of sporting dogs benched. He has held this same position for about fifteen years.

September 4th, the Labour Day show was held at Hastings Park amid the Exhibition. Mervin Rosenbaum judged the show. He found his best in show in "Four-in-Hand-Mischief" owned by Leo Meeker and handled by Harry Sangster of California. Best Toy went to Mr. John Rose's little Yorkshire Terrier, "Raemon of Soham". With all the trophies Mr. Rose is winning lately, he must be pretty proud of his little Yorkies. Best sporting went to an Irish Setter female, "Derry's Mair of Glenone" owned by Chas. McCaughey. Sporting Hound group went to Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Cameron of Whonnock, B.C. with their Dachshund, "Benno v Plater Schulhaus". The working group went to Sgt. F. C. Fuqua's Doberman Pinscher, "Bosko v Oxbo". Mrs. W. Bowden's Sealyham "Robin Hill Night Flight" took best Terrier. The C.K.C. cup for best Canadian-bred and owned went to Gladys Peers, "Leading Lady of Tralee", a Kerry Blue. The previous day this award was won by "Lucia v Dorn", a Doberman Pinscher owned by Mrs. Alsen.

A well known visitor and exhibitor to the B.C. circuit was Bill Forrest of Calgary, one of the oldest Scotty breeders and a pillar of dogdom in Calgary. He hails from Bonnie Dundee, Scotland and has been a breeder and exhibitor for fifty years, owning such well known Scotties as "Ch. McWilliam of Tayside", "Ch. Tayside Rob Roy" and many others. It will be remembered that Mr. Forrest judged one of the Victoria shows last year. Another out of town to visit our shows was Joe Caswell of Edmonton one of the old Scotch firm of Quilley and Caswell, professional handlers. Mr. Caswell who has been a member of the C.K.C. for twenty-eight years is one of the old guard also one of the original members of the Edmonton Dog Fanciers. He breeds and exhibits Wire and Irish Terriers.

Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Douglas of Regina and their Scotty, "Bruce McAnish" were on their annual trip to B.C. and took in our shows.

September 9th found us at the Vancouver Island Dog Fanciers Association Dog Show held at the Crystal Gardens, Victoria, where Charlie Butler of Vancouver and Dr. Rae Smith of Oregon judged the show. Best in show went to the Irish Setter, "Ch. Strathbogie Red Mac", bred and owned by Jack Forbes of Vancouver. "Mac" also won the C.K.C. cup for best Canadian-bred. Best Toy once more to "Ch. Little Jetsom" the Yorkshire Terrier owned by John Rose of Vancouver. He also went 2nd best in show. Best Terrier went to the Kerry Blue Terrier, Dr. H. A. Rawling's "Danny Boy of Tralee". I do believe the Doctor was the happiest man in the building and certainly there is no one more proud of his dog than Dr. Rawlings. "Danny" is by Mrs. Peers famous champion, "Kil Barney", who has several groups to his credit also best in show wins. Mrs. W. A. Mounfield's Collie, "Bannockburn Perfection" took the working group. The Hound group was captured by the little imported Wire Haired Dachshund, "Rima of Dunkerque", owned by Mrs. Tyrwhitt Drake.

Pat Brennan's Boston, "Flashy Miss Royal Kid" once again took the non-sporting group making this her 2nd group since arriving in B.C. Going back to Vancouver on the midnight boat Saturday night we had a bit of excitement as a rumour was aboard about a supposed submarine, so we had the company of two "Destroyers" for protection and the life boats were all made ready for use and the lights were all out (blackout) making the boat in total darkness.

Much to everyone's disapproval our world is in war and its effect has certainly been felt at our shows, entries have been smaller than ordinary and so many of the men have reported for duty. I do hope we can go on with showing our dogs because in such times of unrest one had to have a hobby to keep one's mind at peace. One thing that I thought was really nice was a gentleman talking from London, England, and he called attention to all animal but especially dog lovers the world over not to take hate out on the little Dachshund, because he said the Dachshund really originated in Holland and was a Dutch dog. Now I thought his little talk was really touching and I wish I could thank him. Why should anyone take it out on a little Dachshund? There are several breeds that are as much German origin as the Dachsie and it is not the dogs' idea—this war.

Tuesday morning a number of us embarked for Victoria to attend the Victoria Kennel Club's two day show with Chris. Shuttleworth doing the honors. Best in show went to the Sealyham Terrier, "Robin Hill Night Flight". John Rose of Vancouver had the pleasure of seeing his little Yorkshire Terrier once again win the Toy group. This makes six groups for "Ch. Little Jetsom". Mrs. Don Bradley of Keyport, Wash., won the non-sporting group with her 'sour mug', "Commodore Rowdy" (Bulldog). Mrs. Bradley has been a serious contender at the B.C. shows and we were indeed pleased to see her win. Working group also best Canadian-bred went to Mrs. G. O. Alsen's "Lucia von Dorn", a Doberman Pinscher. Vic. Williams' new Springer Spaniel, "Keith's Brownie", took best sporting dog. "Brownie" is by that famous Springer, "Int. Ch. Clipfort Press Agent" out of "Ch. Keith's Patsy" (who is the only dual champion Springer, I'm told, in Canada) "Brownie" is only nine months old and has several points to his title.

Hound group winner was "Rima of Dunkerque", a little Wire-Haired Dachshund female owned by Mrs. Tyrwhitt Drake and ably handled by Mrs. Gladys McGee. The Yorkshire "Ch. Little Jetsom" was reserve Best in Show making this his fifth reserve best in show. One of these days Mr. Rose is going to go Best in show and will have a party to celebrate!

Another new importation to Vancouver is Vic. Williams' new Wire-Haired Terrier, "Alert of Connaught". "Alert" is sired by "Ch. Boulevard Brick" out of "Connaught Sherry Cordial". "Alert" was reserve winners at the San Francisco show in July where competition was good.

News from the Drumadon Kennels in Victoria is plentiful this month in both the Terrier breeds. This kennel has been known throughout Canada for many years as the breeders of Sealyham Terriers and has added this year Wire-Haired Fox Terriers. The first two to find their new home in this kennel are the two bitches, "Catch Crop of Tynedale" and the bitch "Ch. Jane Frylls of Tynedale", both bred by Mr. J. Dodds of Vancouver, B.C. "Jane Frylls" completed her championship this summer and headed a strong class of wires at the Vancouver Exhibition shows in September going Best of Breed over sixteen in both sexes. In Sealyhams this kennel has topped the breed consistently with "Robin Hill Night Flight" bred by Mrs. R. Choate of Danver, Mass. and is by "Int. Ch. Hillsome Solo Flight" ex "Shelterfield Stepalong". As a puppy he did a lot of winning in the Eastern American shows and was shown for the first time in this country last spring, when he went 2nd in the Terrier group under Mr. Rosenbaum. Mrs. Bowden had a bad stroke of luck this spring when she lost her latest importation from England, the bitch "Sheriden Paint Box" by "Ch. St. Margaret Snowman" who died whelping. Three of the puppies were saved, one dog and two bitches by "Night Flight".

The Junior League Dog Show will be held this year, November 25th. The judges I understand have been invited and have accepted. Dr. Rae Smith of Oregon will pass on the Sporting dogs and Dr. Frank Porter Miller of California all other breeds. All that is needed now is the building. The proceeds of the Junior League show go to charity so why not try and make our last B.C. show for the year the largest ever and at the same time feel that your entry fee is going for some good cause. Anyone wishing a dog from out of town shown can rely on the Club to have it handled and cared for.

I am sorry to have to tell you that Mrs. S. C. Sweeny is back in the hospital again. Her leg didn't "knit" properly and it had to be redone, however, her condition is better than it was a few weeks ago.

OUR FRONTISPIECE

WE ARE indeed privileged to present on our front cover this month an illustration of America's foremost Dalmatian, Canadian and American Ch. "Four-In-Hand Mischief", owned by Mr. Leo M. Meeker, Four-In-Hand Kennels, of El Monte, California. "Mischief" is shown with his handler, Mr. Harry Sangster.

This great dog, considered the greatest of his breed ever seen in the Canadian or American show ring, has greatly increased the popularity of the Dalmatian. He has been fearlessly shown and during the past year has been judged Best Dog in Show twelve times; three of these wins being made at Canadian shows. He has also won over twenty-five Non-Sporting Groups. At the Westchester Kennel Club show held recently, where 1,744 dogs were entered, "Mischief" was best in the Non-Sporting Group. From reports of the show appearing in the New York Times we quote:

"As usual, there was no second award, although the final was between the ultimate winner and the Dalmatian, which travelled 3,000 miles from the Pacific Coast to show at this third largest canine exhibition in the United States. This was the dog, "Ch. Four-In-Hand Mischief", owned by the Four-In-Hand Kennels of Leo Meeker of El Monte, Calif. Mr. West gave the winner of the Non-Sporting Group a thorough going-over."—"The Dalmatian easily topped his breed under the judgment of W. B. Lynch and then went on to higher honors by placing in the Non-Sporting Group under Carey B. Lindsay, of Townson, Md."

Ch. "Four-In-Hand Mischief" is yet a young dog, being only three years of age; having been born in England and sent to Mr. Meeker, while a puppy, by Mr. W. Leighton Yeomans of Redditch, England. He is siring exceptionally fine puppies, and his first litter produced two champions, namely: "Ch. Meeker's Tarberry" and "Ch. Meeker's Black Lace". "Tarberry" completed her championship at eight months of age and has won several groups, a notable win being that of Best in the Non-Sporting Group at the Long Beach show. "Black Lace" has also headed the Non-Sporting Group. "Mischief" has been obedience trained and is a most companionable, affectionate and intelligent dog, loved by those who have the privilege of his confidence.

While a breeder of Dalmatians for many years, Mr. Meeker accepted no invitations to judge the breed until invited to do so by the Morris and Essex Kennel Club for their show held last May at which fixture 49 Dalmatians appeared before him for placement, a compliment indeed.

The feature float of the Vancouver Exhibition parade was Stan and Mrs. Dainard's exhibit of beautiful Cocker Spaniels.

Notes From Alberta

By H. P. SAUNDERS,
1010-4th Ave. N.W., Calgary, Alta.

Canadians as a whole, and Albertans in particular will be interested to know that the Labrador female, "Grand Duchess 2nd", bred by Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Clutton of Edmonton and now owned by Dr. Roy S. Cram of Burell, Nebraska, has now entered the charmed circle, and from now on will be known as a champion; she is a royal bred one as she was a great-granddaughter of the well known "Ch. Wolferton Sapper", bred by the Late King George. Again congratulations to the Cluttons and the genial doctor.

Mr. J. F. Harvie is very proud of his English Setter "Pard", a grandson of that far-famed "Penine Patron", "Pard" is one of the best field dogs I have seen work, he is fast, staunch and stylish, and retrieves both from land and water. He should be a tower of strength to the western fanciers.

John E. Hunter has added a beautiful Pom to his string of dogs. This male "Wembly Gold Flame", is sired by the imported "Sable Memento", and was bred by George Potts, Fairbanks, Ont. Frank Ashmead and wife are always to the front in toys, they take in all the shows, and take great delight in their stock.

Calgarians were indeed delighted to have a visit from Mr. W. H. Pym, a Vice President of the C.K.C. He was looking very fit after his many major engagements. We were particularly pleased to read the many favorable press comments on his work.

Now that there is a tang of fall in the air, our thoughts are carried away to the fields where many westerners are engaged topping off their setters and pointers. T. Thomas is working his young dogs hard, and they are in great shape for the fall trials. Tommy is fortunate in that he can take his dogs less than a mile from his house, and find enough 'huns' to keep the dogs busy.

Fred Curry, Jack Miller, Joe Rudolph, Mack Christie, Charlie Crist, Ken Morgan, Vic Granger, Hux Johnson and all the clan never lose an opportunity to get their dogs out, and all report lots of birds, some extra good finds, and snappy work all around, so things should be interesting when the trials come off.

Mrs. J. M. Bannerman, convener of the Junior Hospital Aid, announces their organization has been granted the 3rd. and 4th. days of November for their fall show, which will be as usual under the auspices of the Canadian Kennel Club. Mr. Norman McConnell of Vancouver will judge all breeds, he is not a stranger to Calgarians, and we know he will put up a good job. Mr. Jarvis of San Francisco has announced his intention of donating a trophy for best in show.

Notes From Saskatchewan

By MRS. W. M. KING,
2170 Hamilton St., Regina, Sask.

I EXPECTED to be able to give a report of the field trials held near Moose Jaw recently, but so far have had no word of them, and was unable to get to see them myself. Judging from the newspaper reports it was as usual a very successful affair. Unfortunately the Regina public does not seem to take very much interest in this branch of the dog game and it is something of a proposition to work up the necessary enthusiasm. At the last meeting of the Regina Kennel Club, held on September 1st, we were all on edge awaiting further news from Europe, and the members were all agreed that in view of the grave situation overseas we could not go ahead with our plans for field trials.

Received a letter from Mr. Louis Olson of Mair, Sask. recently telling me that he hoped to be living closer to the city in the near future, and would then be able to give me some news of his kennels. We shall be very glad to hear from him after he has moved. Early this week I paid a visit to the kennels of Mr. and Mrs. James Hartley to look over the poodles, chihuahuas and their recently acquired Dachshunde bitch, "Wanda von Lindenbuhl. This bitch was sired by "Baron Max Biddle", ex "Gretchen Von Der Kensal" and was purchased from C. M. Tangstad of Winnipeg. Last year at the three Winnipeg shows where she was shown she was Best of Breed once and Best in Group twice. It is to be hoped that the present war will not reflect adversely on this breed when it is becoming so deservedly popular. I have always been a lover of the Dach. and if ever I have the variety kennels I have always yearned for—they will surely have a place in them. At the present time our quarters are limited, but I am hoping that we shall have a larger place next year, and if we do, come out and see me sometimes, and also see the dogs. Mrs. Hartley advised me that the Chihuahua does not appeal greatly to the majority of the people in this part of the country, and yet we understand that in Toronto they are rated highly. It is a different story with the Poodles as they find a very steady market—in fact the supply does not equal the demand.

I do wish that the members in Saskatchewan would make greater use of their privilege, and let me know what they are doing. I hold this back just as long as I dare to see if any more news will drift this way, but our fanciers seem to be too backward. However, this is my latest news, and it is certainly far from good. That loathsome creature, the dog poisoner, is at work again, and with a vengeance this time. No less than 22 dogs have been picked up since Tuesday, the result of his beastly work. One of the victims was taken to the veterinary for an autopsy, and the vet reported strychnine was the poison used. The police are looking into the situation now, and I hope the local press will also give it some prominence so that owners may be warned.

NOTES FROM MANITOBA

By MRS. J. L. PATEMAN, 836 Henderson Ave., East Kildonan, Man.

DOGGIE affairs are pepping up in this part of the Dominion, on August 31st a meeting was held of Canadian Kennel Club members which was very well attended. Mr. Harold Bentley was in the chair and presided in his usual capable manner. The chief topic of discussion was the championship point rating and members were given every opportunity to express their views as to how their favorite breed should be rated in the future. The Director was instructed to place the findings of the meeting before Mr. Walkerdine who is in charge of this important phase of C.K.C. activities. Members of the Canadian Kennel Club in this vicinity will again hold a further meeting as soon as practicable in October when it is anticipated something definite will be forthcoming.

The writer had the pleasure of visiting Toronto during the Canadian National Exhibition and of renewing acquaintances with many friends, officers and members of our Club, including our worthy president Mr. R. Sparkes, Mr. and Mrs. Gudgeon, Mr. Ritchie, Mrs. Baker of Cairn Terrier fame, Mrs. Brown and many others.

The Fort Garry Kennel Club have commenced their regular monthly meetings and are planning to hold a show in the very near future, either a one day point show or a matinee affair.

FIELD TRIAL RESULTS

Field Trial enthusiasts in Winnipeg were treated to two trials for Spaniels (other than water spaniels) on September 9th and 16th. The former event was sponsored by the pioneer club the Gun Dog Club of Manitoba at Fort Whyte. Nineteen cockers and springers were entered and the crowd were treated to some nice exhibitions of trained gun dog work. The Judges were Messrs A. Blackie and A. B. Adamson who did a nice job. Official guns Messrs J. Baldner and W. J. Sturges and the gallery were treated to a superb exhibition of gunning. Not a bird escaped and the majority killed cleanly with light skeet loads of seven and a half shot.

Live Pheasants bred locally were used. In the Open All Age Stake and Open Puppy Stake the dogs were allowed two birds each with the purpose of testing each dog thoroughly and doing away with that element of chance in a lucky fall of a bird. The birds were caught the night previous with gloved hands and placed in specially constructed crates and from there, when required at the trial, were transferred without being touched by hand into a cleverly constructed trap from which they could be released by the simple pulling of a cord by an operator well hidden about thirty yards away. The traps are so constructed that when placed on the ground loaded with the pheasant the floor can be removed leaving the bird on the ground and all that is required is the gentle pulling of the entire trap from over the pheasant. It is a cleverly constructed machine, and not a bird flushed of its own volition, but all flew strongly when located by the bustling spaniel. A considerable improvement in the work of the dogs was noticed over the preceding year and the Club is doing a splendid work in the encouragement of the use of trained dogs in field and marsh. Quite noticeable were the merry little cockers, who were conspicuous by their absence at previous events.

"Fascinating Beau of Ware", owned by Mr. G. A. Carruthers, was top dog of the day winning the Open All Age stake. Second in the All Age was the Springer "David Dick of Avondale", owned and handled by H. S. Scarth. Third place was taken by the writer's Springer, "Hazel del Myrtle", handled by W. Corson.

On Saturday, Sept. 16th the Sporting Dog Club of Western Canada held their Annual Trial at Charleswood and had an excellent entry of thirty-one springers and cockers. The day was ideal and a large crowd was on hand. The Judge was Mr. Windsor T. White of Cleveland, Ohio. Official Guns Messrs A. E. Brodie and W. Green. Live pheasants were also used and were, I understand, imported for the purpose. This club does not believe in the trap method of release according to their announcement over the radio, and used instead the method of catching the birds from their crate by a lad with rubber gloved hands, taking them to the place designated, swung around until dizzied and then released. It was quite fortunate that quite a number of the birds were entirely able to fly but in some instances made a poor job of running; thus several dogs were treated to the almost undeniable opportunity of breaking by having to chase a running pheasant over entirely clear terrain. Not many spaniels that I have seen will drop at the sight of a running bird; rather they will endeavour to retrieve it. However, apart from this trait of the pheasants, which are well known to be as foxy a game bird as is to be found anywhere and a very pleasing day was enjoyed by all. The crowd was handled in a very efficient manner, and personally I enjoyed every minute.

The results of the Open All Age Stake were as follows:

1st "Ch. Roslyn Lucky Strike" (Springer) — Owner Geo. Kynoch, handler Ray O'Connor.

2nd "Silverdale Kimberley (Cocker) — Owner Geo. Kynoch, handler Ray O'Connor.

3rd "Silverdale Dark Lady" (Springer) — Owner G. Kynoch, handler T. W. Wade.

4th "Brackenbrae Donnie" (Cocker) — Owner, handler J. W. Jones.

The largest entry was won handily by the Silverdale Kennels with an entry of fourteen spaniels, and there is no doubt but that the Club appreciated such valuable support.

In conclusion the two events were highlights of doggie affairs around Winnipeg. All dogs showed a marked improvement over previous years, although they can still do with a bit of polish in being steady to flush and shot. All of them hunted fairly good, one or two were outstanding, but the fastest at the Sporting Dog Club of Western Canada's event was "Ch. Roslyn Lucky Strike". Away like a flash, and flushed her bird almost at once. Was not in a position to see the retrieve or whether she broke at flush, but the fact that Mr. Wright placed her on top of sixteen others speaks well for her performance as a whole. The clubs are to be congratulated on the work they are performing and I am sure all sporting dog lovers will join with me in wishing their future efforts all success. The Gun Dog Club of Manitoba will have movie pictures in technicolor of their trials as well as other movies of previous trials and hunting pictures at their Annual meeting to be held shortly when the trophies won will be presented to the owners of the winning dogs.

GEORGE LYDIATT LEAVES THE RANKS

CANADA lost one of her most loved and respected dog fanciers when George Lydiatt passed away September 14. A pioneer of the glass industry in Canada Mr. Lydiatt was a director of the Dominion Glass Co. with which he had been associated since its inception twenty-seven years ago.

A native of St. Helena, Lancashire, England, he came to Canada in 1872 with his parents. As a youth he went to Ontario's North Bay district where he pioneered a farm, his only aid being a team of oxen.

After learning rudiments of the glass industry with his father at Cobourg, Ont. he joined the Sydenham Glass Co. and became the western representative when that Company merged with the Diamond Glass Co. to become the Dominion Glass Co. He was manager of the Redcliff, Alta. plant from 1913 until he came to Vancouver in 1925.

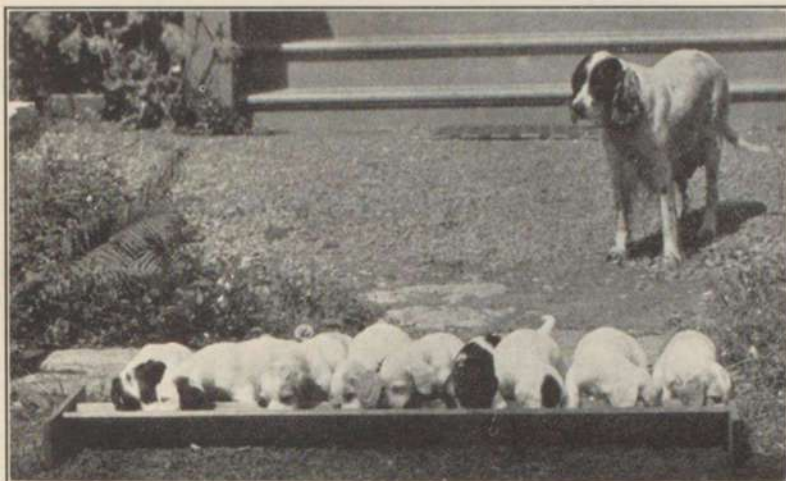

About 1905 Mr. Lydiatt was showing English Bulldogs in Ontario in fact showing them all over Canada and U.S.A. Two of his best friends at that time that are present day fanciers were Mr. Irving and Mr. Meadows. One of his best known dogs then was "Peggy Stone" an English Bulldog who not only went to the top in Canada but in U.S.A. also.

Later on Mr. Lydiatt became interested in Wire-Haired Fox Terriers and some of the best Wires shown in Canada and U.S.A. came from his kennel and many of the present day winners carry his bloodlines. Mr. Lydiatt had many famous Wires, "Ch. Ocliff Lapful", "Ch. Ocliff Ginger Back", "Ch. Redcliff Crackem Lad" and others too numerous to mention.

Mr. Lydiatt had a very lovely home and kennel situated in beautiful grounds part of which was left in its natural state with huge evergreens and flowers growing everywhere. His special joy was to entertain his doggie friends in the "log cabin" that anyone would have been proud to own. It is beautifully furnished and had many pictures and certificates of his dogs and cups galore that completely filled the huge mantle over the fireplace. Many out of town fanciers were entertained here.

A great many of Mr. Lydiatt's doggie friends were present at the funeral to pay their last respects to one we all loved and respected as a gentleman. To Mrs. Lydiatt and his Mrs. Graeme (his daughter) and Walter Lydiatt who lives in Toronto we extend deepest sympathy.

NOTES FROM VANCOUVER ISLAND

By MISS H. M. HARFIELD
2340 Oak Bay Ave., Victoria, B.C.

Some very interesting news is to hand from the Conwood Kennels, Duncan, who report that Miss Mary Kemp of Vancouver, who is a new and enthusiastic admirer of Collies, has recently purchased a young golden sable and white male of Tazewell and Arken strains. Also the most enjoyable visit to Conwood and Silverglen Kennels of Miss Ethel Drake of the well known Bendoliera Kennels, Seattle. Miss Drake spent the Labour Day week end in Duncan and took home a blue merle collie puppy, and a Shetland Sheepdog female puppy, sired by "Ch. Yankey O' Conwood" out of "Conwood Tessa". She is also purchasing a white—"Colea White Graceful".

Cowichan breeders, who are consistent supporters of the Vancouver Island shows, report a highly successful season.

We have some good news from Mrs. E. M. Macdonald of the Darella Kennels, Langford, in the completion of the Ch. of "Darella Lady" at the Nanaimo Show, Aug. 26th. She is the great grand-daughter of "Ch. Darrell", well known in England and is related to "Ch. Sir Barton". "Darella Lady" has a daughter "Lady Diana Darella" sired by "Ch. Somerhill Beau", who is following in her mothers footsteps and they are now both the proud mothers of families.

Nanaimo Show was honoured by having a visit from Mrs. W. Constable of Boston, Mass., U.S.A. with 5 of her choicest Scotties, quite a number having been owned by Dr. Flora Pedicord. Amongst the dogs she brought were:—Eng. and Amer. "Ch. Walsing Waterlily", (Imp.), Am. "Ch. Heather Linda", (Imp.), "Ch. Gaisgill Nicotime" (Imp.) who was originally owned by Stanley Dorrell, Vancouver.

Again we hear some more good news from the "Melita Kennels". "Mars of Melita" finished his Ch. at Nanaimo, winning at four straight shows, at the age of fifteen months. His mother "Rantaich of the Sheiling of Melita" celebrated the event by having a caesarian and losing the litter. "Melody of Melita" has left for Miss Clank of San Francisco, and mother and sister "Merryglass" and "Merryduke" are being retained as stock.

From Mrs. W. A. Johnson, Victoria, who is the owner of "Bo Leen of Shadowlawn", grand-daughter of "Ch. Glenmhor Sheik", we have some very interesting Peke notes. It is probably not generally known that the late Dowager Izu Hsi of China, as the "Old Buddha" as she loved to be called, did more for the Pekingese than anyone else since the origin of the Breed.

As early as 1870 she used her own Imperial Brush to help record the exact type of Peke most desired, and emphasized the need for breeders to put type above all else. So much depends on correct facial features and expression, which is, aloofness, dignity and charm. Since 1894 the breed has grown and gained popularity and to-day the Pekingese has proved himself even to the sceptical, as a fellow of character and substance. The average value of Pekingese is such that it has helped the breeders to keep the celestial toy dog true to the type, a breed of good sound nerves and sturdy bodies.

Unfortunately, it seems to me a great many of our North West breeders, in the effort to produce the small type of dog, have lost that which means so much to the breed, and have produced the straight legs and apple domed head instead. To quote the "Old Buddha":—"Let the fore legs of the Lion Dog be bent so that it shall not desire to wander far, or leave the Imperial precincts". Let its fore head be broad and low".

We are all very sorry to hear that Mrs. McLaughlin of Duncan has been very sick, but are now glad to hear she is progressing favourably.

A great number of dog fanciers will be sorry to hear Mrs. C. Bloomfield, Sec.-Treas. of the Vancouver Island Dog Fancier, has met with a nasty accident in the form of a broken ankle which will disable her for several weeks, so let us wish her a speedy recovery.

Editor's Note—Miss Harfield will be delighted to receive news from fanciers on the Island. All such notes should be sent to her at the address given above.

SPRATT'S-FED DOG.

No special conditioning

for him, he looks a winner every day of the year.

SPRATT'S is crisp,
crunchy, hard-tack diet prepared after a careful study of present day feeding needs —

SPRATT'S provides all the vitamins necessary for promoting and maintaining tip-top doggy condition.

SPRATT'S DOES NOT MAKE EVERY DOG A CHAMPION — BUT IT DOES MAKE A GOOD DOG LOOK HIS BEST.
